2016 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

GAME 7—ARIZONA STATE

COLORADO LOOKS TO REBOUND FROM USC LOSS

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2016 ● 6:07 p.m. MDT ● Folsom Field (50,183) ● Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 7 (October 11, 2016)

PAC-12 NETWORK (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

The Colorado Buffaloes (4-2, 2-1 Pac-12) return home to play the No. 24 (USA Today Coaches) Arizona State Sun Devils (5-1, 2-1 Pac-12) in a 6:07 p.m. MDT kickoff this Saturday, Oct. 15 at Folsom Field ... It will be CU's 102nd Homecoming game in the school's history (the Buffs are 61-35-5 in previous Homecoming contests) ... The game between two of the three Pac-12 South Division leaders will be televised nationally on the Pac-12 Network, which is spending the week in Boulder as it is CU's turn to be featured on the network's "The Drive" ... Saturday's attendance is expected to be in the 45-46,000 range (over 43K were sold at the start of the week) ... Colorado was ranked for the first time in nearly 11 years (since November 6, 2005) after opening 4-1, but dropped out after last week's 21-17 loss at USC (the Buffs are receiving votes in both polls, and Arizona State also received ballots in the Associated Press ranking in addition to being No. 24 in the coaches) ... The winner of this game is guaranteed at least a share of first place in the Pac-12 South (or lead outright if Utah loses at Oregon State) ... Arizona State leads the series by a 7-0 count (first game between the two was in 2006); only USC has defeated the Buffs more times (11) to open a series in CU history ... Colorado is looking for its first-ever win against ASU, as the Sun Devils own a

7-0 lead; despite being less than 600 mile apart, the two didn't play for the first time until 2006 ... In this wacky topsy-turvy season to date, as the halfway point comes up this week, there are just 11 undefeated and 21 one-loss teams remaining in FBS play ... Colorado is coming off a 21-17 loss at Southern California; the Buffs battled back to tie the game at 14 after spotting the Trojans a 14-0 lead, but USC went ahead 21-14 midway through the fourth quarter, CU countered with a field goal but was unable to keep Troy from running out the clock ... Arizona State held off UCLA in Tempe, 23-20, last Saturday, stifling the Bruins with three quarterback sacks and an interception down the stretch ... Two players celebrate birthdays on game day (Oct. 15): P Cameron Silzer turns 23 and CB Anthony Julmisse 19 ... At this Saturday's game, the Buffs and the National Football Foundation will honor Herb Orvis ('71), who will become the seventh player and eighth associated with CU to be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame this December (more on page 42) ... CU's game at Stanford on Oct. 22 will be its third league road game with a daytime start ... STAT OF THE WEEK

In Colorado's last two games it has forced at total of eight fumbles, recovering three of them (all three recoveries came last week vs. USC). The four forced fumbles are one off the season high any team has produced nationally (Texas A & M vs. Tennessee, Pitt vs. Penn State and Navy vs. UConn all forced five). The Buffaloes are the only team in the country to force four or more fumbles in two different games this year.

OBSCURE NOTE(S) OF THE WEEK

QB Sefo Liufau may or may not play (ankle sprain) against Arizona State this week, the team he made his first collegiate appearance against as a freshman in 2013. One of his records is against the Sun Devils – the most passing yards against one opponent – 836 (169 in 2013, 278 in 2014, 389 in 2015).

Give Me That Flag: Mike MacIntyre started a tradition where players carry out the United States and Colorado flags when they take the field for the start of the game. There might be a battle this week for the U.S. one, as the last two times those who had the honor had career games: Shay Fields caught seven passes for 169 yards and three touchdowns against Oregon State, while Bryce Bobo had 10 receptions for 83 yards and a TD along with throwing for one at USC.

ATTENDANCE UP

It's just two games, but CU is averaging 43,172 on the season, but with at least 46,000 expected for Homecoming this Saturday, that number will rise. CU last averaged over 40,000 in 2012 (45,373).

HOME COOKING

After spending three of the last four weeks on the road, CU returns to the friendly confines of Folsom Field this weekend for its annual Homecoming affair. So far this year the Buffaloes have played lights out in front of its home crowd, outscoring opponents 103-13 in its two wins. CU's defense has allowed just one touchdown at Folsom and is holding opponents to only 161 total yards of offense while the Buffalo offense has gone for an average of 580 yards at home. A couple of specialty stats that stand out for the Buffs at home this year are third downs and team sacks. CU is converting 57 percent of its third-down tries (20-of-35) while holding opponents to just 7-of-30 (23 percent). The Buffs have five sacks on defense and have not allowed a single sack on offense. In two road games this year the Sun Devils have averaged 386 yards and 26 points in games against UT-San Antonio (W, 32-28) and USC (L, 41-20). ASU on the road has held its opponents to a conversion percentage of .300 (9-of-30) on third down tries and has four sacks in its two games away from home (all of which came at Texas-San Antonio).

HOW LOUD? CU is expecting its largest home attendance (over 47,000) since the end of the 2011 season, and it remains to be seen how much louder Folsom Field will be since the completion of the Champions Center on the northeast side of the stadium. Noise will now be held in from that direction, leaving only the northwest side where it can escape the field. Folsom has traditionally been one of the louder stadiums in the nation when at or near capacity.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND THE ROSTER

So far through six games, and thanks largely to opening with three of four wins combined by 127 points, 15 different players have caught passes for the Buffaloes (five have thrown them), and 12 players have at least one rushing attempt. Sixteen players have scored points this season (all with six or more), and 18 have earned first downs.

CAPTAINS

On July 5, the team met to elect their 2016 captains; after a discussion of who they thought would be the best leaders on several fronts, the five who emerged as CU's captains are seniors QB Sefo Liufau and ILB Kenneth Olugbode and juniors FB/TE George Frazier, OT Jeromy Irwin and TB Phillip Lindsay. An interesting note on Liufau: having been named a captain as a sophomore in 2014 and again last year, he is now just the second CU player to serve as a team captain for three seasons, the first since Pat Carney did so over 120 years ago (1891-92-93).

► Liufau is one of six players in the nation currently serving in his third year as a team captain; he's joined by Dakota Cox (New Mexico), Taysom Hill (BYU), Ryan Janvion (Wake Forest), Mitch Leidner (Minnesota), Pat O'Connor (Eastern Michigan) and Justin Thomas (Georgia Tech). North Carolina's Mack Hollins is a three-time captain, but UNC elects captains after the season.

COLORADO & HOMECOMING

Colorado is 61-35-5 in 101 previous homecoming games, but is 4-12 with seven straight losses since reeling off 16 straight wins in homecoming tilts from 1984 through 1999. The Buffs dropped last year's affair, 38-31, to Arizona, and that was on heels of a 2014 loss to UCLA in double overtime (40-37). Though Family Weekend has really supplanted Homecoming as the bigger draw, there have been some memorable Homecoming highlights through the years. Here's a quick look:

MEMORABLE HOMECOMING GAMES — A few homecoming games that have stood out over the years: 1953—The Buffs win a wild one over Iowa State, 41-34, as Carroll Hardy's 17-yard run with 1:22 left rallies the Buffs from a 28-13 deficit, CU's largest rally ever on homecoming and the fifth biggest comeback in school history; 1981—Perhaps the greatest comeback in school history, as the Buffs rally for an 11-10 win over Oklahoma State—after facing a second-and-14 from its own 4 with just over a minute left in the game. CU drives for the score to pull to within 10-9, and then Steve Vogel connects with Derek Singleton for the 2-point play and the win; it would be the last time Singleton touches the ball for the Buffs, as he falls ill to spiral meningitis the following Friday and passed away on New Year's Day, 1982; 1991—CU wins for just the second time wearing all-black uniforms, trouncing Missouri 55-7 as the Buffs have had enough of the "Fifth Down" talk from the previous year's game in Columbia; 1995—The Buffs top Missouri 21-0, in the only game in the last 50 years really affected by Boulder's notorious winds, which whipped up to 70 miles per hour that day; 1998—CU rallied to beat Baylor, 18-16, as the No. 15 Buffaloes led most of the game until the Bears took a 16-15 lead with 6:31 remaining; a 31-yard Jeremy Aldrich field goal at the 2:00 mark would win it; 2001—CU topped Texas A&M 31-21, and the Buffs may have had a little help from above in that one, as Joey Johnson returned a fumble 52 yards for a touchdown with 58 seconds left to thwart A&M's attempt to tie or win the game. Occurring one day after long-time athletic department staffer Fred Casotti had passed away at the age of 77, the coaches made reference to maybe Fred having something to do with the timely fumble from the heavens. 2002—CU surprises No. 13 Kansas State, 35-31, going up big early and then staving off a furious Wildcat rally. The game featured the school's longest pass play ever, a 94-yard bomb from Robert Hodge to Jeremy Bloom. 2007—Trailing 24-7 against No. 3 Oklahoma midway through the fourth quarter, Colorado tied the school's fourth largest comeback in its history by scoring the final 20 points of the game, the last three coming on Kevin Eberhart's 45-yard field goal as time expired. 2014—The Buffs trailed UCLA, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter but mounted a furious rally to send the game into overtime. CU and the Bruins traded field goals in the first extra session, but the Buffs couldn't get it into the end zone in the second OT, whereas UCLA did to escape Boulder with the win.

TURNING BACK THE CLOCK: A SPECIAL HOMECOMING IN 1946

In 1946, the homecoming game against New Mexico (a 14-13 CU win before 17,000) featured a halftime ceremony where CU President Robert Stearns announced the official naming of the stadium in honor of the late Frederick Folsom, CU's all-time winningest coach at the time who helped develop the program at its infancy. The structure, now known as Folsom Field, had been known as Colorado Stadium since it debuted in October 1924. Mrs. Folsom accepted the honor on her husband's behalf, as he passed away two years earlier in 1944. A side note: Mrs. Folsom was also crowned the Homecoming Queen due to a scandal of ballot-box stuffing by the two Homecoming Queen candidates! The Folsom family papers are in the Special Collection section in Norlin Library. HOMECOMING EVENTS SET FOR THIS WEEKEND / CU TWINS TO SERVE AS GRAND MARSHAL

A stampede, parade and pep rally are in store for the Boulder community beginning at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 14 -- part of the University of Colorado Boulder Homecoming celebrations that will enliven the city throughout the weekend. Once again this year, which marks CU-Boulder's 102nd Homecoming, the parade is being combined with the Pearl Street Stampede.

The Homecoming Concert, presented by Program Council and the CU Student Government, will feature the groups Gallant and RKCB. The event will be held at the Glenn Miller Ballroom Wednesday, Oct. 12, with doors opening at 8 p.m. Tickets, available at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/radical-something-tickets-18868681735>, are $5 for students and $10 for all others.

The 87th annual Alumni Awards Ceremony, honoring 12 outstanding alumni, faculty, staff members and students, will be held in the Glenn Miller Ballroom at the University Memorial Center Thursday, Oct. 13, at 5:45 p.m. Details and registration, which is free for students and $25 for campus and community members, are at <http://www.colorado.edu/alumni/events/annual-alumni-awards>. This year's recipients include Ed Reinhardt, one of the Alumni Recognition Award winners; Ed was on his way to an All-American kind of season in 1984 when he was injured on Sept. 15, 1984 in a game at Oregon. He suffered a blood clot on the brain and a team of doctors worked to save his life.

With CU's famous 91-year twins, Peggy Coppom and Betty Hoover, serving as the grand marshal, the parade will start at 7 p.m. at the 1100 block of Pearl Street and head east. The twins attended CU in the 1940s during the World War II years and married their late husbands upon their return from fighting in World War II. They are a fixture at almost every home CU sporting event. The parade will culminate in a pep rally featuring CU athletes and coaches on the courthouse lawn located between 13th and 14th streets on Pearl Street.

The Homecoming Student Tailgate will be held on Farrand Field and is open to all CU students; it begins at 3 p.m. and there will be free food, beverages, music and prizes. More info can be found at <http://www.cuherd.org/event/homecoming-student-tailgate-2/>.

The Alumni Association's pregame event, Ralphie's Corral, starts at 3 p.m. The event will be located at Benson Field, which is south of Folsom Field, and will include performances by the CU Marching Band and Spirit Squad, a family fun zone, concession and merchandise sales and an extended appearance by Ralphie the buffalo.

This year's Homecoming football game, at Folsom Field, features the Colorado Buffaloes taking on the Arizona State Sun Devils with kickoff set for 6:07 p.m.

Homecoming week events culminate with CU's Amazing Race on Sunday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Info: <http://www.cuherd.org/event/cus-amazing-race/>. For links to all Homecoming activities and events as well as event registration, visit <http://www.colorado.edu/homecoming>.

IN THE POLLS

Colorado re-entered the national polls this past October 2 for the first time since 2005, as the Buffaloes came in at No. 21 in the Associated Press (media) poll and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches ballot; while it lasted for just the one week, it had been 11 years since CU had been nationally ranked, last appearing on November 6, 2005, when the Buffs were No. 21 in the coaches' ballot and No. 22 in the AP survey. The Buffs still own the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has now been ranked 294 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 300), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 11, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

- CU received one vote in each of the AP and Coaches polls of Sept. 6, the first time since Sept. 21, 2008 that the Buffs received at least one vote in each.
- What was going on the last time CU was ranked?
 - The Earth's population was estimated at 6.5 billion; it is now over 7.4 billion (growing almost 14 percent).
 - Mr. & Mrs. Smith was the most popular movie; The Office debuted on NBC; Mariah Carey's We Belong Together was Billboard's No. 1 song of the year.
 - Pro Sport Champions: New England (NFL), San Antonio (NBA), Chicago White Sox (MLB); no NHL Stanley Cup Champion as the players were locked out.
 - Top news events: George W. Bush begins second term; Hurricane Katrina devastates the South; disgraced journalist Dan Rather forced to resign from CBS.
 - Famous people who died included Pope John Paul II, Johnny Carson, Richard Pryor, Rosa Parks, Pat Morita, Anne Bancroft and Bob Denver.

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 19TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season (when the AP expanded to a top 25) are the 19th most in the nation in this time frame (27-plus seasons). Through games of Oct. 8, Florida State has the most (80), followed by Alabama (77), Ohio State (76), Florida (72), Michigan (67), LSU (65), Southern Cal (63), Oklahoma (61), Miami, Fla. (57), Tennessee (57), Auburn (52), Georgia (52), Oregon (52), Texas (52), UCLA (51), Notre Dame (50), Nebraska (47), Penn State (47), Washington (45), Colorado (43) and Clemson (42). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the sixth most ranked teams in the nation (126, with a record of 43-81-2), trailing only Florida (140; 72-67-1), LSU (135; 65-70), Alabama 133 (77-55-1), Michigan 129 (67-60-2) and Ohio State 127 (76-48-3); the leader in wins, Florida State, has played 123; 80-43. (AP polls used for these figures; coaches' poll omits teams on probation but the AP does not.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost 23 straight against ranked teams, 0-1 this season (loss at Michigan), 0-3 in 2015 and 0-5 in 2014; the Buffs have lost 27 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

LINDSAY NEARING 3,000 MILESTONE, 500/500 CLUB

TB Phillip Lindsay cracked the top 20 in career all-purpose yards after he had 118 against Oregon State on Oct. 1, but then jumped up another five spots with 162 at Southern California on Oct 8. Lindsay has rushed for 1,439 yards, has 497 receiving and 1,028 in kickoff return yardage for a total of 2,965. He can join two distinct “clubs” in the foreseeable future, if not this Saturday: He can become the 13th player to gain 3,000 all-purpose yards with just 35 more, and he needs all of three receiving yards to become the 14th member of the 500/500 Club (rushing and receiving yards):

OLUGBODE JUST MISSES FOUR STRAIGHT

Senior ILB Kenneth Olugbode became the first Buffalo to record double-digit tackles in three-straight games since ILB Derrick Webb did so in the final three contests of the 2013 season, and just missed four in a row by one (he had nine stops at USC); four straight had not occurred since 2011. Olugbode had a great all-around game against the Trojans, and might have been a serious contender for the league’s defensive player of the week honors had CU rallied for the win. He had the nine tackles (six solo), an interception he returned 14 yards, a forced fumble that saved a touchdown on the opening drive of the game, a third down stop and a tackle for zero. He had nine career games with 10 or more tackles.

GILBERT ATOP THE NATIONAL CHARTS ... AT FORCING FUMBLES

OLB Jimmie Gilbert is tied for the national lead with four forced fumbles this season, three of which CU has recovered. Two of those forced fumbles came on sacks – first in the season opener against Colorado State (which CU recovered) and again two weeks ago versus Oregon State (ball popped free and went out of bounds for a 20-yard loss). That was one of two forced fumbles Gilbert was credited with in the Oregon State win and then last week he forced another at USC that CU recovered. The senior from College Station, Texas has four sacks on the season – making him one of only six Pac-12 defenders with four or more sacks on the year (ASU linebacker Koron Crump is tied for the Pac-12 lead with 5.0 sacks on the season).

► MOST FORCED FUMBLES/SEASON (CU): Jashon Sykes 7 (1999), Barry Remington 6 (1985), Mickey Pruitt 5 (1986), Chidera Uzo-Diribe 5 (2013), Seven with 4.

PRICE MAKES HIS MARK (notice this tag starts with a “P” and ends with a “K,” or PK)

PK Davis Price joined the team as a recruited walk-on in June, but little did he know he’d see much if any action as a true freshman. But with the season-ending injury in the Michigan game to Diego Gonzalez, he was pressed into service as the kickoff specialist for the Oregon game. Chris Graham then struggled with a couple of low PAT kicks, so Price was ushered into the first-team role for the second kick of the Oregon State game, and how did he respond? He made all five of his extra point tries and both of his field goals, including a 54-yard boot on his first try, the CU record for both the longest made by a freshman and the longest first-career make. His high school best at Evergreen (in the foothills west of Denver) was 47 yards. He was recognized for his performance as the Pac-12’s Special Teams Player of the Week.

Longest Field Goals In The NCAA / 2016

- 55 Rigoberto Sanchez, Hawaii (Sept. 3 at Michigan)
- 55 Elliott Fry, South Carolina (Sept. 1 vs. Vanderbilt)
- 54 Davis Price, Colorado (Oct. 1 vs. Oregon State)
- 54 Eddy Pineiro, Florida (Sept. 10 vs. Kentucky)
- 54 Zane Gonzalez, Arizona State (Sept. 16 at Texas-San Antonio)
- 54 Nick Weiler, North Carolina (Oct. 1 vs. Florida State)
- 54 Jonathan Barnes, Louisiana Tech (Oct. 6 vs. Western Kentucky)

Longest Field Goals / Colorado Freshmen

- 51 Tom Field, vs. Oregon in Boulder, Sept. 8, 1979
- 50 Tom Field, vs. Oklahoma State in Boulder, Nov. 10, 1979

► A FIRST? It was for sure for CU: the Buffs charter with United Airlines for their travel, and for the flights to and from Los Angeles, the pilot was Doug Price – Davis’ father. A CU graduate himself, he is an Air Force Veteran who has been flying for United for 20 years; he normally flies military charters bringing troops back home from overseas.

KELLEY MAKES HISTORY

When C Alex Kelley recovered a fumble that opened the scoring in CU’s season opening 44-7 win over Colorado State on Sept. 2, he became the first offensive lineman in school history to score Colorado’s first points of any season – 127 of them. In the process, he also became the first O-lineman to score a touchdown since OG Heath Irwin recovered a fumble in a 44-21 loss to Nebraska in Boulder on Oct. 28, 2005.

OPENING DEPTH CHART NOTES

The Buffs released their season-opening depth chart on August 27, and it showed that the Buffaloes finally had more upperclassmen filling out the depth chart than at any other time in coach Mike MacIntyre’s previous three seasons in Boulder. In the two-deep, including all players expected to see game action in the opener against Colorado State (22 scrimmage positions plus four special teams—P, PK, SN, H), there are 17 seniors – as compared to just nine a year ago. In the first game, CU started 19 upperclassmen (9 seniors, 10 juniors), along with two sophomores and one redshirt freshman.

► Last year, CU did not start a freshman, true or redshirt, in the season opener for the first time since 2005; the Buffs had started at least one true freshman in each of the last four seasons prior to his year as well. Redshirt Tim Lynott, Jr., is slated to open at left guard for the Buffaloes this year.

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. ARIZONA STATE

Arizona State owns a 7-0 lead in the series after the two finally hooked up for the first time in 2006 in Boulder, despite the fact that the two Rocky Mountain regional powers are located only 589 miles apart. ASU won that game, 21-3, and then the second half of the home-and-home series the following year, 33-14, in Tempe. This meeting will again be at night, the norm for this series, as six of the previous seven has been evening affairs. The Sun Devils won the first Pac-12 league encounter between the two in 2011, 48-14; the Buffaloes were able to move the ball and gain 420 yards, but five turnovers did CU in. In the first league game between the now-division rivals in Boulder, the Buffs scored 10 points in the last 24 seconds of the first half to pull to within 20-17, but Rashad Ross' 100-yard kickoff return to open the second half returned the momentum to the Arizona State side and the Sun Devils pulled away for a 51-17 victory. In 2013 in Tempe, ASU got off to a quick start, scoring 25 points in just under a 9-minute span in the first quarter en route to a 54-13 win, and in 2014 in Boulder, the Buffs couldn't come back from spotting ASU a 17-0 lead though basically dominated the game the last two-and-a-half quarters. Last year in Tempe, ASU again sprinted out to a 24-7 lead early in the second quarter and the Buffs couldn't catch up.

The schools have seen the most of each other in men's golf, as Colorado had always traditionally played a western schedule before joining the Pac-12. In basketball, the CU men own a 7-6 edge, while the CU women own an 11-7 margin. Arizona State leads the other head-to-head encounters 14-5-1: 6-4 in volleyball, 3-1-1 in soccer and 5-0 in women's tennis).

Mike MacIntyre is 0-3 against Arizona State; Todd Graham is 4-0 against Colorado.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?— The 2007 game in Tempe on September 8, despite a 7:15 p.m. local start time, set the record for the warmest game in Colorado football history at the time: the temperature at kickoff was 102 degrees. It was matched in 2012 at Fresno State.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME— 10th. PK Mason Crosby's 29-yard field goal gave CU an early 3-0 lead, but turned out to be only scoring for the Buffs as Arizona State slowly pulled away to a 21-3 win in the first-ever meeting between the two schools; Crosby is now doing his thing for the NFL Green Bay Packers for a 10th season. The Sun Devils led 14-3 at halftime and after three quarters, sealing the game early in the fourth on a 5-yard touchdown pass from Rudy Carpenter to Zach Miller. TB Hugh Charles rushed for 109 yards, CU's top offensive highlight in the game.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: OCTOBER 15

The Buffaloes own a 10-5-2 record in games played on October 15, with a 6-3-2 mark on the road (being the mid-October weekend, CU usually was assigned a road game in the Big 7/8/12, not playing at home on the date between 1949 and 1988, or seven straight road games. Some highlights on this date: 1927—Colorado tops Northern Colorado, then known as Colorado Teacher's College, in Boulder, 43-0. All the Coloradoan Yearbook had to say about the game was "defeated decisively in Boulder." 1955—Colorado breaks open a 7-7 halftime game with three straight second half scores on its way to a 34-13 win over Kansas State in Manhattan. The Buff defense holds K-State to just 186 total yards in forcing five turnovers. Five different CU players score touchdowns with 15 different players either with a rush or reception. 1960—Iowa State was favored but was lucky to get on the scoreboard, as the Buffs throttled the Cyclones in Ames, 21-6. ISU had developed a potent single-wing attack, but managed just 186 yard on offense with its lone score on a late fumble return; meanwhile, CU rolled up 317, with 289 on the ground, 97 by halfback Jerry Steffen. 1966—On a cold day in Ames (40 degrees), the Buffaloes were hot on offense, rolling past Iowa State, 41-21. QB Dan Kelly rushed for 156 yards and scored three touchdowns in leading a CU offense that amassed 455 yards and 27 first downs. 1983—Iowa State wins in Ames, 22-10, as neither team can accomplish much on a classic Midwestern nasty fall day: 53 degrees at kickoff with steady rain and 15-20 mile per hour winds. Despite the weather, the teams combined for just three turnovers. 1988—Eric Bieniemy rushed 34 times for 195 yards and two touchdowns as CU methodically wore down host Kansas in a 21-9 victory. The Buffs had just 310 yards on offense, all rushing, as they tried just four passes the entire game, all falling incomplete. That's the last time Colorado did not have at least one pass completion in a game. 1994—Rashaan Salaam ran for 161 yards and four touchdowns, Kordell Stewart completed 10-of-13 passes for 97 yards and only a cosmetic touchdown with 23 seconds left prevented a CU whitewash of No. 22 Oklahoma, as the Buffs won 45-7 in Boulder. Shannon Clavelle led the CU defense with 12 tackles and two sacks. 2005—Vince Young accounted for 394 yards of total offense and five touchdowns to lead Texas to a 42-17 win over the Buffs in Austin. Joel Klatt threw for 189 yards and two touchdowns, to Evan Judge and Joe Klopfenstein, but UT outgained CU, 482-237. 2011—Colorado dropped its third-ever conference game as a member of the Pac-12, falling at Washington, 52-28.

OCTOBER 15 COLORADO MVP: TB Rashaan Salaam, 1994. In a 45-7 shellacking of No. 22 Oklahoma in Boulder, the eventual Heisman Trophy winner needed to play just two series in the third quarter before calling it a night. He rushed for 161 yards on 25 carries and scored four touchdowns, the first three all on 7-yard jaunts, with his ninth covering nine yards. That led CU to a 28-0 halftime lead and the Sooners were never in it.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL NOTE / 1991

Colorado often has worn its all black uniform look when on a mission or when it was plain angered. This week in 1991 (25 years ago, on Oct. 12), after opening with a 2-2 record and also listening to Missouri fans (and some in the media) whine about CU's fifth down the previous year, the Buffs donned the all-black wardrobe and flat-out smoked the Tigers in Boulder, 55-7. And the Buffs literally called off the dogs one minute into the fourth quarter in amassing 656 yards (502 rushing) and 37 first downs. Six different CU players scored touchdowns, with Michael Westbrook making two TD receptions. The Buffs were the consensus national champions in 1990, and extended their winning streak to 11 games with a 30-13 win over Wyoming in the season opener (nationally televised by ESPN). But the winning streak came to an end the following week when Baylor's Santana Dotson blocked a CU 24-yard field goal attempt late in the fourth quarter and it set up a winning kick for the Bears, which left Boulder with a 16-14 win. The Buffs then waxed Minnesota the next Saturday at home, 58-0, before losing their first road game of the year at Stanford, 28-21. Then came an open week and the game against Missouri. That year, incidentally, was also the last time CU opened a season with three straight games in Boulder, which it won't do again until 2021 (Massachusetts, Texas A&M and Minnesota).

THE LAST TIME ARIZONA STATE 48, COLORADO 23 OCTOBER 10, 2015 SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE

TEMPE, Ariz. — The Colorado Buffaloes came close to matching Arizona State in offensive yardage but couldn't keep up on the scoreboard, as the Sun Devils took a 48-23 victory at Sun Devil Stadium.

The loss dropped CU to 3-3 on the season (0-2 Pac-12), and marked the Buffs' 13th consecutive conference loss. ASU improved to 4-2 (2-1).

Colorado finished with 450 yards total offense, including 389 yards passing from quarterback Sefo Liufau. Arizona State finished with 491 yards offense, with quarterback Mike Bercovici throwing for 260 yards and five touchdowns.

While both teams moved the ball successfully, the Buffs were also victimized by a pair of bad bounces, both of which led to ASU touchdowns.

The first came early in the first quarter, when ASU's Demario Richard fumbled — and the ball bounced directly to teammate Kody Kohl, who took it 28 yards to the end zone for the first score of the game.

The second bad break for the Buffs came early in the third quarter, with the Sun Devils facing a fourth-and-2 from the CU 45-yard-line. CU cornerback Ahkello Witherspoon tipped a Bercovici pass into the air, only to see the ball land squarely in the hands of ASU's Tim White, who gathered it in and ran 45 yards to the end zone for a 31-10 ASU lead.

The Buffs also hurt themselves with turnovers, losing a fumble and an interception. An interception thrown by Liufau led to ASU's second touchdown of the night and a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, but Liufau then engineered a 75-yard scoring drive for the Buffs. Liufau threw a 42-yard pass to tight end Sean Irwin and Phillip Lindsay ran three times for 33 yards on the march, including a 16-yard scoring run that cut the Sun Devils lead to 14-7.

CU then appeared to grab even more momentum when Witherspoon intercepted Bercovici, but the Buffs couldn't move the ball and the ensuing punt was blocked. CU's defense stiffened and held ASU to a field goal and 17-7 lead, but the Buffs never managed to cut the deficit to single digits again.

Witherspoon's interception gave the Buffs at least one interception in all six games and nine for the season. The Buffs managed just three interceptions in all of 2014.

ASU extended its lead to 24-7 on a 38-yard Bercovici pass to Tim White, but Colorado did manage to get a field goal just before the half to go into the locker room trailing 24-10 at intermission.

After the tipped pass touchdown in the third period, ASU scored again on a 10-yard Bercovici pass to Devin Lucien. Colorado cut the deficit to 38-17 when Liufau threw a 68-yard touchdown to Devin Ross — CU's longest play of the year — but ASU answered with a field goal early in the fourth period for a 41-17 lead.

Both teams scored once more in the fourth, with Lindsay tallying his second touchdown of the night on a 2-yard run.

Liufau finished with 389 yards passing on 25 completions in 40 attempts — the second-best total of his career — and one touchdown and one interception, but he was also sacked eight times. Shay Fields had his first 100-yard game as a Buff, reeling in five catches for 103 yards, and Lindsay led CU with 48 yards on 10 rushes.

Colorado also fell short in the turnover battle, forcing just one ASU turnover.

GAME NOTES

Arizona State now leads the series by a 7-0 count (4-0 in Tempe), with only USC reeling off more wins at the start of a series against Colorado ... CU's 24-10 halftime deficit was much different than its last two trips to Tempe, when CU trailed by a combined 76-13 (31-7 in 2011, 45-6 in 2013) ... Colorado made at least one field goal in its first six games this season, the longest streak since ending 2010 with six games and starting 2011 with two for eight overall ... CB Ahkello Witherspoon's second career interception (second this season) gave CU an interception for all six games this season; the last time the Buffs picked off a pass in six straight games were the final six games of the 2004 season ... CU's first down defense in the first half limited ASU to 52 yards on 14 plays ... the longest two plays being 9 yards; that was 3.7 per play. For the game, ASU ran 27 plays for 107 yards (3.96 per), earning a first down just once (an 11-yard run by Bercovici) ... Colorado improved to 10-of-10 on 3rd-&-1 this season ... Arizona State had the most sacks (eight) since Missouri and Texas A&M both had eight against the in back-to-back games against Buffs during the 2009 season ... WR Shay Fields (5-103, 0 TD) had his first career 100-yard game ... TE Sean Irwin's 42-yard reception in the first quarter almost doubled his previous long (22); he had 11 career receptions for 100 yards prior to the play) ... Spruce-to-Liufau connected in reverse for the fourth time in their careers: Liufau's four career receptions from Spruce have covered 68 yards with one TD. Spruce is 5-of-6 for 83 yards as a passer in his CU career.

TURNOVER STREAK LONGEST IN THE NATION

Colorado was one of only six schools in the nation to force at least one turnover in every game in 2015 (and the only Power 5 school to do so); Boise State, Northern Illinois, Marshall, Georgia State and Toledo joined the Buffaloes. CU forced 22 turnovers last year (14 interceptions, eight fumble recoveries); that was the most by the Buffaloes in a season since forcing 25 in 2009. Three schools on that list did not force an opponent miscue in the season opener, and CU had been tied with North Carolina who did not force one in week three and the list is now down to three. Prior to this run, in which CU has forced 35 turnovers that have led to 102 points (13 this year into 44), the Buffs had just 11 turnovers in their previous 12 games and turned those into just 20 points.

Consecutive Games Forcing A Turnover Through Games of October 8 (W-L record): Colorado 19 (8-11), Alabama 18 (18-0).

WITHERSPOON KEPT TURNOVER STREAK ALIVE IN A BIG WAY It took 59 minutes and 12 seconds to get it, but Colorado was able to extend its streak of consecutive games forcing a turnover to 17 on Sept. 24 thanks to Ahkello Witherspoon's interception in the final minute at Oregon; he preserved the win in the process as the Ducks had just lined up for a first-and-goal at the CU 7. For Witherspoon, it was his first interception of the season and third of his career (he had two picks in 2015, one of those coming against Oregon as well).

FIRST QUARTER SUCCESS

Though USC was the first to stifle, as in shutout, Colorado in the first quarter, the Buffaloes have generally been rolling out of the gate, leading after the first quarter in the first five games (by 68 points, or 13.6 per), and is on a record pace for scoring:

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

There are two players on the current CU roster that scored a touchdown on their first career touch (both on offense). Jay MacIntyre did it a redshirt frosh against Nicholls State a year ago, and last week, Kabion Ento became the 14th known player to do in CU history. Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see page 24), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

This year across the nation, 18 players have scored a TD on their first career reception; Arizona State TE Jay Jay Wilson (30 yards versus Cal) is the only other Pac-12er to do it.

LINDSAY MAKES SOME HISTORY

Junior TB Phillip Lindsay had career-highs of six receptions for 105 yards in the 21-17 loss at USC on October 8, but in the process made some history. He became just the fifth running back to have 100-plus receiving yards in Colorado history, and the first to do it since 2001, when TB Cortlen Johnson had identical numbers in a 40-27 Colorado win at Iowa State. A look at this rare quintet:

GILLAM GETTING BACK INTO THE FOLD

Injuries have hampered the career of ILB Addison Gillam dating back to early in his sophomore season. As a freshman in 2013, he earned unanimous first-team Freshman All-American honors and was the first freshman to ever lead CU in tackles since they were first tracked in 1964 (he had 119 stops that year). His sophomore season he recorded 79 tackles in 11 games, but last year as a junior his season was cut short due to a knee injury. Now as a redshirt junior in 2016, he has been slowly working his way back from the injury. Last week at USC, he had his biggest impact on a game this year, recording five tackles and his first sack and forced fumble of the season; a play that was the second of three consecutive drives in which CU forced USC in to turning the ball over. Gillam played 30 snaps two weekends ago against Oregon State and then had another 30 plays at Southern California, despite being out for two series when he had to go in to receive an IV towards the end of the third quarter, but he did return early in the fourth.

DRIVIN'

Colorado has 28 touchdown drives this season, totaling 1,894 yards (average length of 67.6 yards, including penalty yardage), 23 of which have consumed less than three minutes, and 15 of those under two minutes. CU has gained 1,858 yards on 188 plays on those drives, or 9.9 yards per play. Colorado has started 25 drives either inside (15) or at its own 20 (10) this season ... but the Buffaloes haven't been daunted by the task at hand, scoring eight times when starting with that poor field position (52 points overall, 7 TDs). The opponent? Just one TD for 7 points in 18 such drives.

AHEAD IN A BIG WAY

For the last 10 seasons, the opponent has almost always had a distinct advantage in TSL (time spent in the lead), but CU has reversed that and then some thus far this season. Through five games, the Buffs have led for 238 minutes and 37 seconds, or 66.2 percent of the time; opponents for just 23.8 percent and the score tied the other 10 percent. CU has already led for more minutes this season than it has in six of the previous 10 years. Colorado has held the edge over an entire season just twice in those last 10 years (2005, 2010). A closer look:

FINALLY AN EXPERIENCED UNIT

The returning players on the '16 CU roster played in 1,072 games in their combined careers heading into the season—the most since the 2005 team (1,080); they also started 412 games, the most-ever in school history, besting the 333 by the '79 team (the 2015 Buffs were next with 327, followed by 326 in '01). Sixty-one players on the roster had appeared in at least one game (24 in 20 or more), with nine making at least 20 starts and 17 making 10. And for the first time in recent memory, almost half of the CU roster are upperclassmen: there are 116 players on the overall roster, 56 of which are juniors (33) and seniors (23); and of those 116, there are 109 that coach Mike MacIntyre and his staff have brought in (four recruiting classes, transfers and walk-ons).

A FIRST WE ARE SURE OF ... BY JULMISSE

CB Anthony Julmisse became the first Buffalo since CB Greg Henderson's junior season in 2013 to record a take-away in each of the first two games of the year. Julmisse, a true freshman from Plantation, Fla., (pronounced joel-meese) recovered a fumble in the opener against CSU and then had his first career interception last week against Idaho State. Henderson's open to the 2013 season was quite impressive, as he returned a fumble 53 yards for a touchdown in the opener against Colorado State and came back the next week with a 46-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown in a win over Central Arkansas. Henderson would then go on to have a pick in the third game of the 2013 season against Oregon State and two more interceptions in week four against Oregon. That was a total of five takeaways that Henderson was responsible for in the first four weeks of the 2013 season.

HEY, I'M BACK HERE TOO

When it comes to the Buff secondary, CB Chidobe Awuzie gets the lion's share of attention. But right next to him is a force in his own right, SS Tedric Thompson. He has two interceptions this year and eight for his career (several of which have been of the acrobatic variety). He is the 22nd Buffalo to record eight or more interceptions in a career, the most recent of those being CB Terrence Wheatley who had 14 interceptions in his career that spanned from 2003-07.

200 CLUB: Thompson became the 71st player to record 200 tackles in a CU career; he now has 208 (65th all-time) and is now the fourth current Buff to have 200-plus, as he joined Chidobe Awuzie (238, 42nd), Kenneth Olugbode (227, 51st) and Addison Gillam (226, 52nd).

2016 GAME RECOGNITIONS

Here is the list of those players who carried Colorado's symbolic artifacts when they took the field prior to each game; the sledgehammer is awarded for the toughest legal hit in the previous game (or in camp):

INSIDE-THE-20

(FACT: CU invented charting the red zone in 1981; as in the NFL, the 20 is not in the red zone in its stats)

Under MacIntyre, Colorado is 129-of-157 in the red zone (82.2 percent, 86 touchdowns), and in 2013-14, had the best two-year scoring percentage since 1994-95 (86.7, 91-of-105, 73 TDs). The Buffs struggled a bit in 2015, going 38-of-53 (and scored TDs in 17-of-25 goal-to-go situations), but have opened 2016 in impressive fashion, going 25-of-27 (19 TDs, 6 FGs) to date, including 8-of-8 versus Colorado State and 5-of-5 at Oregon. In 2014, Colorado had 40 scores in 45 trips when penetrating the opponent 20-yard line (including 29 touchdowns), numbers well up from his first season in 2013 (26-of-32, with 14 TDs, so CU doubled its red zone TD production from 2013). The 29 TDs were the second most in the last 19 seasons in the red zone (30 in 2007, otherwise you go back to 33 in 1995); the overall scoring percentage of 88.9 was the best since 1997 (89.7, 35-of-39).

THIRD DOWN DEFENSE

Colorado's defense continues to excel in getting off the field. The Buffs rank 32nd nationally and No. 2 in the Pac-12 in third down defense, holding opponents to a conversion percentage of just 33.0 (the national average is close to 40 percent; Michigan leads at 12.2). Opponents have converted over 40 percent against the Buffs in five of the last six seasons, the lone exception in Mike MacIntyre's first season as head coach (38.8 in 2013).

- ▶ The Buff defense has been phenomenal in the first half of games on third down, as opponents have converted only 11-of-48 tries, or just 22.9 percent (Colorado State 2-for-10, Idaho State 1-of-9, Michigan 1-of-8, Oregon 1-of-7, Oregon State 3-of-9, USC 3-of-5).
- ▶ Colorado has forced the opponents into 24 "three-and-outs" in 84 possessions (28.6 percent of the time); that ranks 24th in the country.

21ST CENTURY OFFENSE

Colorado ranks 17th in the country in offense, averaging 504.5 yards per game, now having gained over 500 yards in four of its first six games this season. It marks the first time since 1994 that Colorado has gone for over 500 yards of offense in four of its first six games to start a season and just the third time ever going all the way back to 1946 when records are first available (but highly unlikely it occurred prior). The 504.5 yards of offense in the first six games this year are the best by the Buffs since 1993-95, when CU averaged 510.2 ('93), 507.5 ('94) and 497.0 ('95), respectively. Here is a look at how drastic of a change CU's offense has seen in the first month of this season compared to the first 16 seasons of this century (500+ games in the first six):

CU Total Offense – First Six Games to Start a Season (this Millennium)

500-500-500-500

Colorado has gained over 500 yards in four of its first six games, and thus is on a record pace, averaging 504.5 yards per game, ahead of the school's best mark of 495.3 set in 1994 (with an offense that featured the likes of TB Rashaan Salaam, QB Kordell Stewart and WR Michael Westbrook, among others). In gross numbers, that's 3,027 yards, with six games left in the regular season; it's the third-most yards by a CU team through six games, as the 1989 Buffs had 3,107, the '93 team had 3,061, the 1994 team had 3,045 (with the '95 team fourth with 2,982).

PASSING AVERAGE ON THE RISE

CU's 9.01 yards per passing attempt is 15th best in the nation; the Buffs haven't averaged over eight yards per attempt for 20 years (8.56 in 1996 when the quarterback was Koy Detmer), and have averaged over seven per throw just once since 2003 (7.27 in 2013). The Buffs are averaging 13.61 per completion this season, 34 nationally, also way up from previous years: Colorado's high in recent times came in 2002 – averaging 12.4 yards per completion (the school record is 23.8 set in 1988, but the Buffs were transitioning from the wishbone to the I-Bone then and threw 125 passes all year, completing 54). And in addition, only 20 schools have thrown fewer interceptions than CU's three.

HARASSING THE QUARTERBACK

Colorado had season-highs of four quarterback sacks and seven hurries in the 47-6 win over Oregon State, but were stifled a bit at USC; still, the season totals are to 14 and 28, respectively. CU's sack attack has been led by OLB Jimmie Gilbert (4) and DL's Jordan Carrell and Samson Kafovalu (2½ each); Gilbert for his career has 13½ sacks and now ranks 18th all-time on the CU charts.

TYING A STRANGE LOW

OLB Jimmie Gilbert led the Buffs with five tackles (three solo) in the 56-7 win over Idaho State ... that matched the lowest number of tackles that has ever led the Buffaloes in a game (CB Lorenzo Sims had five, all solo, in a 44-10 win at Iowa State on Nov. 15, 2003). Thirty different players played anywhere from six to 30 snaps on defense in the game, easily the most in recent history.

HOPE THIS ISN'T A JINX ... OOPS

Colorado placekickers made 156 straight extra-point kicks dating back to late in the 2011 season... until Oregon blocked CU's second try in the Buffs' 41-38 win on Sept. 24. Will Oliver made the last 102 of his career (2011-14); Diego Gonzalez made all 51 of his career PAT boots until being lost for the season with a torn Achilles) and Chris Graham made good on his first three tries before suffering the block.

SEASON OPENER REVIEW

Statistically speaking, Colorado had one of its best season-opening games in school history on Sept. 2 against Colorado State. CU's 578 yards of total offense in the contest were the most in a season opener since 1994, when that Buff team (which went 11-1 and finished the year ranked No. 4 in the coaches poll) put up 649 yards of offense in a 48-13 win over Northeast Louisiana. That 1994 season-opening total is the highest yardage gained for any game to begin a season in Buffalo history, but the 578 yards vs. CSU last Friday comes in at No. 2. It was also just the eighth time since 1946 that Colorado has gained more than 500 yards of offense in the season opener.

What was equally impressive was the Buff defense allowing just 225 yards of total offense. CU outgained CSU by 353 yards on the night, which is the second most it has out-gained an opponent in a season-opener in program history (trailing the 1994 opener when CU outgained Northeast Louisiana by 394 yards). Here are the largest margins of victory in a CU season opener in history (not including contests against local high schools at the turn of last century):

LARGEST MARGINS OF VICTORY IN SEASON OPENER

Year	Opponent	Score	Margin	Year	Opponent	Score	Margin
1954	DRAKE	61- 0	61	1943	FT. WARREN	38- 0	38
1942	COLORADO MINES	54- 0	54	2016	Colorado State (Denver)	44- 7	37
1988	FRESNO STATE	45- 3	42	1995	at Wisconsin	43- 7	36

ASSAULT ON LIUFAU

Senior QB Sefo Liufau has been criticized by some because he has a 10-21 record as a starter and like most quarterbacks, has had a few untimely interceptions. The three-year starter (30 starts, school record is 35) has had to endure a lot of hits and pressure while never having the luxury of playing behind an experienced offensive line (or one that has been healthy for most of a season). In his career, he has dropped back to pass 1,227 times; he has been sacked 55 times (the sixth-most in school history, see below); otherwise he is 744-of-1,172 for 8,176 yards with 55 touchdowns and 30 interceptions. His 63.5 completion percentage stands to be the best in school history (Joel Klatt has the record of 60.8). But that doesn't tell the whole story: Liufau has had 162 of his throws hurried, which is tallied when the quarterback is rushed and throws an incompleton or interception. Thus a whopping 39 percent of his non-completions have been when he is on the run (162 of 428); to put that in perspective, it's the second most throws by a Colorado QB that have been hurried—Cody Hawkins had 172 of such in his career. And of his 30 interceptions, six came on tips or break-ups. Despite the above, he has set or tied 78 school records, which are listed on the previous page.

CU'S MOST SACKED QUARTERBACKS (No./Yards Lost): Tyler Hansen 82/617 (2008-11); Mike Moschetti 64/481 (1998-99); Bill Solomon 63/447 (1977-80); Joel Klatt 62/416 (2003-05); Kordell Stewart 55/451 (1991-94); Sefo Liufau 55/355 (2013-16); Cody Hawkins 49/384 (2007-10).

LIUFAU TOPS THE CHARTS IN PLAYS

QB Sefo Liufau had easily been a part of the most plays (858) by the end of a sophomore year in CU history. He now ranks first all-time on the CU charts, the fifth to participate in 1,000 plays, and he took over the all-time mark with his 47 plays in the '16 season opener against Colorado State. A look at who's been a part of the most plays in Colorado annals (700-plus):

LIUFAU SIXTH TO CRACK 100, FIRST TO DO IT TWICE

QB Sefo Liufau became the sixth player in CU history to throw at least 100 passes without an interception, reaching the plateau in CU's win over Nicholls State. The streak reached 107 before Oregon picked him off on his third throw of the game; he then went his next 46 without a pick until early in the Arizona State game, and then had another run of 118 before his one to become the first Buff with two streaks of 100+. He is flirting with the first to have three streaks of such, as his current streak stands at 92 through games of October 8; here are the longest streaks in CU history:

139	Joel Klatt	(five games, Oct. 15 to Nov. 12, 2005)	99	Darian Hagan	(six games: Sept. 21 to Nov. 2, 1991)
131	Tyler Hansen	(four games, Sept. 3 to Oct. 1, 2011)	98	Kordell Stewart	(1994)

LIUFAU RETURNS FROM INJURY AND SNARES PAC-12 OFFENSIVE HONOR

Senior QB Sefo Liufau earned the Pac-12's initial Offensive Player of the Week honor for his efforts in CU's 44-7 win over Colorado State. He completed 23-of-33 passes for 318 yards and a touchdown (no interceptions), while rushing 14 times for 66 yards. His passer rating was 160.6 and he earned 17 first downs (5 rush/12 pass). It was especially significant since it was his first game back after a Lisfranc (foot) injury sidelined him for the last 2¾ games in 2015. During the game, he became CU's all-time leader in passing yards (7,715) and also took over the record for the most offensive plays for a career (1,356). CU's Pac-12 Conference POW honors since joining the conference in 2011 (nine total, three this year; *—denotes game in Boulder):

MONTEZ-MANIA

Redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez had quite the starting debut in CU's 41-38 at Oregon, easily one of the best in school history and arguably the best. He completed 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards (3 TD/2 INT), for a passer rating of 177.7 and also had 21 rushes for 135 yards (6.4 per), with a touchdown and a long run of 32 yards. It all added up to 468 yards of total offense and 23 first downs earned (8 rush/15 passing).

- He enjoyed the fifth-best game in a quarterback's first start at Colorado in terms of passing yards, but the best in total offense (see charts below).
- His 135 yards rushing were the most in a debut by a starting Buff QB (topping the 116 by Darian Hagan vs. Texas in 1989) and is the 10th most in any game all-time at Colorado by a quarterback (and the first 100-yard game by a quarterback since Nov. 4, 2006 when Bernard Jackson had 105 against Kansas State).
- His 468 yards of total offense were the fourth-most in a single-game in Colorado history.
- It was the first-ever 300 passing/100 rushing game in CU history and just the second 200/100 game (Stewart had 205/143 vs. Notre Dame in the '95 Fiesta Bowl).
- His 14 straight completions in the first half tied for the second-most in school history (trailing 15 by Mike Moschetti over two games in 1999); it matched the most in one game (Koy Detmer, 14 at Colorado State in 1996).

A FIRST BY MONTEZ SINCE 1959 ... WE'RE PRETTY SURE

Colorado redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez became the first know player in CU history to throw a touchdown on his first career passing attempt since Joe Dowler did so back in 1959. Montez hit Kabion Ento on a 69-yard scoring strike in the second quarter last week against Idaho State. Dowler did so on Oct. 3, 1959 at Oklahoma, a 15-yard TD pass to Kirk Campbell in a 42-12 loss to the Sooners.

MONTEZ THE 12TH FRESHMAN AT COLORADO TO START A GAME AT QUARTERBACK

Redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez became just the 12th freshman in school history to start a game at quarterback at Colorado (the sixth redshirt frosh to do so) when he took the first snap at Oregon on September 24. He had the second-most passing yards by a freshman in a starting debut at CU quarterback. A closer look at every freshman's first career start at CU (*—denotes redshirt freshman):

THE "RUSHING/PASSING" QB

QB Sefo Liufau is 11th at CU in all-time rushing by a quarterback (eighth-best average per attempt); he didn't score a rushing touchdown in his career until his junior season, when he scored five before suffering a season-ending foot injury (Lisfranc) against USC (the most scored in a season by CU quarterback since Bernard Jackson scored seven in 2006). He had a touchdown receiving (against Arizona as a sophomore in 2014, coming on his 785th career touch), but didn't carry one over the goal line until his 22nd game, which was against Massachusetts in Boulder (and his 931st play). The list of CU's all-time rushing yards by quarterbacks adjusted to allow for sacks (*—Anderson switched to tailback in the third game of the 1969 season):

QB TANDEM HONORED: Colorado's Sefo Liufau (Sept. 2 vs. Colorado State) and Steven Montez (Sept. 24 at Oregon) have earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors this season, becoming just the fifth time two different quarterbacks from the same team have won the honor in the same season. The others were in 2014: UCLA's Jerry Neuheisel (Sept. 15) and Brett Hundley (Sept. 29) and Washington State's Connor Halliday (Oct. 6) and Luke Falk (Nov. 10); in 1998: Arizona's Oretege Jenkins and Keith Smith (shared honors on Oct. 3); and in 1992: UCLA's Rob Walker (Sept. 19) and John Barnes (Nov. 21).

AWUZIE CLIMBING D-BACK SACK CHART

CB Chidobe Awuzie is in position to become CU's all-time quarterback sack leader – among defensive backs. He has one this season after having four a year ago and now has six in his career. He was also the first CU defensive back to record a quarterback sack in three straight games. Awuzie also has cracked CU's top 100 in tackles, as he is 42nd with 238.

Here's a look at the list of CU defensive backs with the most career sacks:

DÉJÀ VU: STARTING TWINS

In 2015, the Buffs were the only team in the country (FBS) who had twins that are both in the starting lineup, until Jeromy Irwin was lost for the season with a knee injury in the UMass game. He was starting at left tackle and Sean Irwin at tight end. The duo started three games in 2014 (the first two against CSU and Massachusetts and the finale against Utah). Several other teams have twins, and in a few cases, more than one set, but the Irwins were the only starting pair to start the season; they're technically not twins—they're two-thirds of a set of triplets (the other brother doesn't play football).

- Colorado also has another pair of twins, Drew and Troy Lewis, both sophomore junior college transfers from Coffeyville, Kan.

FIRST TO BREAK OUT IN 2016: DEVIN ROSS

WR Devin Ross has burst on to the scene starting in the opener, when he caught eight passes against Colorado State, six of which earned first downs; he is coming off a seven-catch, 153-yard and one touchdown performance last week in the win at Oregon. It was his second career 100-yard receiving game, the first of the season by any Buff, and it gave him a touchdown reception in each of the first four games of the season. The last Buff to open a season with a TD catch in each of the first four games was Nelson Spruce in 2014, who actually had a TD catch in each of the first five games that year (and owns the record of seven straight dating to the last two games of 2013). Ross' streak of four straight games catching a touchdown tied for the third longest in school history but came to an end against Oregon State. Back to his game at Oregon – Ross' 153 yards receiving was a career-high and marked the 28th game in school history where a Buff receiver went for over 150 yards receiving. He has also earned 18 first downs this season; he had all of 10 coming into the year.

MR. DEEP THREAT

He's only barely halfway through his CU career, but junior WR Shay Fields already has nine plays from scrimmage that are 50 yards or longer, including four this season; the school record is 13, set by WR Paul Richardson (2010-13). He is tied for the national lead in most receptions of over 50 yards. For his career, he now has nine receptions of over 50 yards (school record is the 13 recorded by Paul Richardson). Fields this season is averaging 21.9 yards per catch (ranks No. 15 nationally) and has five touchdown catches (tied for the second most in the Pac-12, 12th most in the FBS). It is not just this season however that Fields has been producing; he is currently 10 in Colorado history in career receptions (117), receiving yardage (1,576) and touchdowns (13). Fields had a steth hree straight games. If he can get another TD reception against the Trojans, he'll become the second Buffalo this year to have a streak of four consecutive games with a TD catch, joining Devin Ross who did so in weeks 1-4 (four is the third-longest in school history). Fields' long-gainers:

MR. SPORTSCENTER TOP 10

While we're on receivers, junior Bryce Bobo appeared in SportsCenter's Top 10 two times now in the first month of the season. His first highlight came in the season-opener with his 46-yard one-handed catch inside the five-yard line. That play was No. 3 on SportsCenter's daily top 10 highlight package. He had the No. 1 play of the day last Saturday (Sept. 24) with his one-handed, body-twisting catch on a 31-yard touchdown grab that was the game-winner for the Buffaloes. Bobo this year has caught 13 passes for 228 yards and the one touchdown.

► SWEET HOME CALIFORNIA. Bobo, playing in Los Angeles in front of his family and friends (hometown is Covina, Calif.) had one of the best games of his career against USC on Oct. 8. The only thing missing from his stat line was the win, but he did more than his part in CU's narrow 21-17 loss. Bobo caught a career-high 10 passes (old: 6 vs. Arizona last year) for 83 yards, with seven of the receptions earning first downs. He also threw a 67-yard touchdown pass (left-handed) to Phillip Lindsay, which was his first career pass attempt (his passer rating is 992.8). He was responsible for both of Colorado's touchdowns in the game, also catching a 10-yard pass in the end zone early in the fourth quarter that tied the contest at 14. . For the season, Bobo ranks second on the team with 27 receptions that has gone for 331 yards and two touchdowns.

TRIFECTA ACCOMPLISHED; GOING FOR THE RARE QUADFECTA

There's a real rarity on this year's Colorado defense – the last three players to lead the team in tackles are all still playing. In 2013, ILB Addison Gillam led the team as a true freshman with 119 (easily the frosh record); in 2015, sophomore ILB Kenneth Olugbode finished atop the list with 83; and last year, redshirt freshman ILB Rick Gamboa had the honors with 96. It's possible any of the three could lead the team again this season, but watch out for CB Chidobe Awuzie; the senior is already 13th at Colorado in solo tackles with 200 and has been flirting with the team lead like a popular song sneaking its way up the top 10: he was sixth as a freshman (59), third as a sophomore (64) and second last year (90).

CAREER CHART WATCH

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last 15 years, Colorado has had 261 of its 286 seniors graduate, or translating to 91.3 percent in this time frame (including 17 of the 20 seniors in 2015); these are the 2001-2015 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last eight years, 146 of the last 156 have graduated (93.6%), with three of those 10 playing in the NFL and haven't been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.65 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2015 semester is its third highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has nine straight semester GPA's over 2.50.

BALL SECURITY UNDER MAC

The Buffaloes had 20 fumbles in 2015, a high in the MacIntyre Era, but still a relatively low number for 13 games, especially considering seven were by quarterbacks while being sacked and three others came on bad center snaps (and two others came on the Arizona game's final play when CU tried lateralling the ball several times). In 43 games under Mike MacIntyre, CU has not lost a fumble in 19 of those and just one in 17 other games (meaning more than one only seven times); CU still has just 52 total fumbles in his time as head coach. In the three-plus seasons, the tailbacks have been exceptionally good: they total just 11 fumbles in 1,268 attempts, or one every 115.3 carries (they didn't have a fumble among them in Mac's first year until the ninth game of the year—254 attempts). Career counts: Michael Adkins II has just two in 262 touches (235 rushes); Phillip Lindsay five in 392 (300 rushes; but two of those were on kickoff returns as a freshman); and Kyle Evans one in 77 (71 rushes).

- In three-plus seasons under MacIntyre, the Buffs have just the 52 fumbles in 3,897 touches, or one for every 74.9 plays (this year: six in 588 touches: 485 offensive plays (includes one 2-pt play), 70 special team snaps, 33 returns).
- CU established a team record in 2014 for the fewest fumbles in a season — 12 — breaking the mark the '13 team set (14). The six lost fumbles in 2014 were the second fewest ever to five recovered by the opponent in 1956 (out of 23 total). And of the 52 fumbles, the Buffs have lost just 27.

ADKINS, LINDSAY MAKES IT 52 & 53 FOR CU IN 1,000-YARD CAREER RUNNERS

In 2015, Michael Adkins became the 52nd player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career and later in the year, Phillip Lindsay joined him and became No. 53 to hit the grand mark. CU is seventh all-time in 1,000-yard runners; Oklahoma tops the list with 71 (and the Buffs are tied for ninth with the most 2,000-yard career runners). The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 1K and 2K plateaus:

In 1989, Colorado had four players on the roster at the same time with at least 1,000 career yards: TB Eric Bieniemy, TB J.J. Flannigan, QB Darian Hagan and FB Erich Kissick. Only two other times did the Buffs have three players that had hit that plateau on the same team, in 1993: FB James Hill, TB Rashaan Salaam and TB Lamont Warren and in 2015: Christian Powell, Michael Adkins and Phillip Lindsay.

Mike MacIntyre is entering his third season as the head coach of the University of Colorado football program, and his sixth season as a collegiate head coach; he has a 14-29 record at Colorado and is 30-50 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. A veteran coach of 23 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his late father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 51, has coached in a total of 336 football games in his career (80 as a head coach): 177 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ◆ He became just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins. Rick Neuheisel was the last to do both (in 1995).
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received my Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:
Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;
Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;
Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;
Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game (in both 2013 and 2014). MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On players having to be ready at a moment's notice to go into the game: "It's the only game in the world where you have 100 guys on the side watching just eleven in the game at any one time. So you're like the dog sitting on the porch. When that rabbit runs by, you've got to be ready to go."
- ◆ On playing music at practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ Unhappy that he had gained weight since college, slowly adding one a few pounds here and there over the years (and of course recruiting season never helps when the coaches often eat two or even three dinners at various recruits' homes), he decided to do something about it. After the 2013 season, he read the book, Why Diets Fail Us; he started to eat much healthier, consumer either one or two nutrition-rich shakes a day (as replacement meals) and increased his workout regimen. The end result was that after six months, he dropped 63 pounds (he now weighs what he did as a junior in high school; he played at 175 in college).
- ◆ MacIntyre is a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll for third straight year and fourth time overall; coaches are selected by a random draw (he is one of six Pac-12 voters). CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 27 of the last 30 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million. In February 2014, CU's Board of Regents approved a one-year extension to the contract that takes him through the 2018 season.

- ◆ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ◆ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MacINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

THE CLASS OF '13

Ahead of the 2013 season, 31 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 14 of whom (denoted by an *) were first-time head coaches on the collegiate level. Here's a look at what coaches make up the "class of 2013" and their records through games of October 8:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are defensive coordinator Jim Leavitt, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat, safeties coach Joe Tumpkin, co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach Darrin Chiaverini, offensive line coach Klayton Adams and running backs coach Darian Hagan. In the coaches booth are co-offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, tight ends/H-backs coach Gary Bernardi and cornerbacks coach Charles Clark. All four graduate assistants are also in the press box: John Hughes and Peter Tuitupou (offense) and Corey Edsall and Chidera Uzo-Diribe (defense), as is Nate Taye (quality control/defense). On the sideline are the other quality control personnel, Daniel DaPrato (offense) and Matt Thompson (special teams). Colorado signals in plays when not brought in by substituting players on offense (signal on defense).

2016 COACHING CHANGES

There were two offseason staff personnel moves. Darrin Chiaverini was hired as co-offensive coordinator, receivers coach and recruiting coordinator (replacing Troy Walters, who moved on to an OC position with Central Florida). Darian Hagan was named running backs coach, essentially replacing the position on staff held by Toby Neinas, who was the special teams coordinator (those duties will be shared among the staff). Klayton Adams moved from coaching the running backs and tight ends to the offensive line, and Gary Bernardi switched over from the OL to the tight ends/H-backs. In addition, Drew Wilson was named CU's director of strength and conditioning in January. MacIntyre's first two staffs (2013, 2014) were the same.

➔ The CU staff has remained intact twice since Bill McCartney's 1988 and 1989 teams, in 2011-12 and 2013-14.

FOURTH YEAR OFTEN A CHARM

MacIntyre is the 11th coach in CU history (out of 25 full-time) who is coaching the school for a fourth consecutive season. Seven of the previous 10 led CU to a winning season in their fourth year, one had a .500 mark and two others had losing records. The most dramatic fourth-year by a coach in the program came in 1985, when Bill McCartney's team went 7-5, equaling his win total for the first three years (7-25-1). He made the bold move in the offseason for the Buffaloes to switch to the wishbone on offense, which also helped the defense to improve dramatically. A look at Colorado's 11 coaches who coached the Buffs at least four straight years:

Head Coach	Inaugural Season	1st Yr Record	2nd Yr Record	3rd Yr Record	4th Yr Record	Notes
Fred Folsom	1895	5-1	5-0	7-1	4-4	Folsom would have a second run of four-plus straight years (1908-15)
Myron Witham	1920	4-1-2	4-1-1	4-4	9-0	School record for the most wins in a season at the time
Bunny Oakes	1935	5-4	4-3	8-1	3-4-1	Fourth team in '38 had to recover from the graduation of several key players, including Byron White
Dal Ward	1948	3-6	3-7	5-4-1	6-2-2	A 35-27 win over #20 Kansas in week three is Colorado's first-ever over a ranked opponent (AP poll)
Eddie Crowder	1963	2-8	2-8	6-2-2	7-3	Though team was denied a bowl invite, it was CU's most wins since a 9-2 mark in '61
Bill Mallory	1974	5-6	9-3	8-4	7-3-1	Buff's ascend to No. 3 ranking nationally with 5-0 start but couldn't maintain second half of the year
Bill McCartney	1982	2-8-1	4-7	1-10	7-5	CU earned the nation's Most Improved Team honor from the NCAA (+5½ over the '84 season)
Rick Neuheisel	1995	10-2	10-2	5-6	8-4	Buff's rebound from staying home in '97 postseason and trounce Oregon in Aloha Bowl
Gary Barnett	1999	7-5	3-8	10-3	9-5	Colorado wins Big 12 North for a second straight year with 7-1 league mark (14-2 still one of best in Big 12)
Dan Hawkins	2006	2-10	6-7	5-7	3-9	Two losses in five days to open the year on a sour note, with four losses overall by 8 points or less
Mike MacIntyre	2013	4-8	2-10	4-9	4-2	Buff's gunning to be third team in CU history to post a winning record in Year 4 after a sub-.500 Year 3

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

The last four CU head coaches all have or have had media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) was a studio host on the Pac-12 Network for the network's first three years before moving on to CBS in 2015; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) was an analyst on Sports USA Radio and part of the lineup at SiriusXM, and now is tasked with replacing the legendary Larry Zimmer as analyst on CU's KOA-Radio team starting this fall; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute. And even Bill McCartney (1982-94) hosted a radio show in 2012 on 102.3 FM in Denver.

JEFFCOAT ON PAC-12 ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Two CU assistant coaches earned finalist status for the Pac-12 All-Century team announced in 2015, with defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat named to the final team as one of five defensive ends for accomplishments at Arizona State as a player. Former receivers coach Troy Walters was one of 10 finalists at the receiver position for which he won the '99 Biletnikoff Award at Stanford; he was named offensive coordinator at Central Florida on December 4.

JEFFCOAT'S PEDIGREE: RUSHING AND GETTING TO THE QB

Defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

TWO NEW TRADITIONS BEGUN IN 2013, THREE ADDED IN 2014

Mike MacIntyre installed a couple of new traditions in 2013 when the team took the field. One player carries out a toolbox and another a sledgehammer (the players will vote on who gets the nod). MacIntyre did this at San Jose State with a sword (because they were the Spartans) and the sledgehammer. The toolbox is representative of the commitment the players have made to each other and the team as a whole; now, there aren't actual tools in the box, rather it contains "commitment cards" where each player wrote down something of significance he will do in the game. So when they view the toolbox during the game, it will serve as a reminder of that commitment. The sledgehammer goes to the big hit of the previous game (the biggest or most important "legal" hit – the play cannot draw a penalty). In 2014, the staff added the "special teams belt" which is awarded to the special teams player of the week, a buffalo head and midway through the season, added the flags of the United States and the state of Colorado. The special teams belt and the buffalo head were eliminated ahead of the 2016 campaign.

BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Brad Bedell ('99), OL, Arkansas State; Ronnie Bradford ('92), DB, USC; Jason Burianek ('02), HC, Missouri Baptist; Darrin Chiaverini ('98), ST, Texas Tech; Cedric Cormier ('01), WR, UNLV; Rich Fisher ('92), WR, Nebraska; David Gibbs ('90), DC, Houston; Chris Naeole ('96), Interim HC/OL, Hawaii; Anthony Perkins ('11), CB, Ohio; Rod Perry ('75), DB, Oregon State; Pete Shinnick ('86), HC, West Florida; Steve Stripling ('76), Assoc. HC/DL, Tennessee; Ryan Walters ('08), DB, Missouri. IN THE FCS: Brian Cabral, AHC/DC ('78), Indiana State; Paul Creighton ('03), UC Davis, TE; Ty Gregorak ('99), DC/LB, Montana; Parker Orms ('13), GA/CB, West Georgia; Anthony Perkins ('11), DB, Indiana State; Jeff Smart ('09), LB, Penn. AND DOWN I-25 AT CSU-PUEBLO: Donnell Leomiti ('95), DB.

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) this year became the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseasons combined; he set the record with a 21-yard field goal late in the Packs' 27-17 win over Seattle on Sept. 20, 2015, his 13th point of the night (he made all four field goal tries in the game, including a 54-yarder, and an extra point). He now has scored 1,177 points in 147 regular season games and 118 in 15 playoff games for a total of 1,295 (through games of Oct. 9; he also has made an NFL record 20 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks (243 regular season, 23 postseason); Ryan Longwell previously owned all marks (1,054/226 and 85/15). Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points. How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawaii (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,384/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349), WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary this past August.

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 84 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including seven active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Mike MacIntyre and his oldest son, Jay; Colorado is one of a handful of schools to have it happen twice, as Dan Hawkins had son Cody on his CU teams from 2007-10.

Perhaps the most famous and best head coach father and son tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career).

Note: another famous combo was at Marshall, when they were a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

A FIRST? We polled the nation on two occasions, and no other instance has yet to turn up where a head coach had his father as a head coach in college and then had a son on a team that he is the head coach. But that appears to be the case with Mike MacIntyre, who was coached by his father George at Vanderbilt in 1984-85 and is now coaching his son, Jay, at Colorado.

There are currently eight schools where a player is playing for his head coach father, and in one case, two sons are (Iowa State). Here's a look at the all-time list of known head coaching father-player son pairings at the same school (#—denotes active in 2016):

*—denotes started/first-team (at some point when father was head coach at the time; in some cases, they became the starter after the father moved on). %—The elder Brewer moved on to Mississippi in 1983 and son followed.

While this is the second time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 127th season of competition having played 1,217 games with an all-time record of 689-492-36. CU currently stands 25th on the all-time win list and is 37th in all-time winning percentage (.581); the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 127 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,227), with only USC (816) and Washington (709) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 305-169-10 (.640) in their 93rd season on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 6-7 all-time in overtime games (3-4 at home); the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last 10 seasons, Buffs rallied to win from 10 or more points down 12 times, including twice under Mike MacIntyre, including rallying from its largest deficit ever against CSU. In 2014, UMass was up by 11 early in the second half after cashing in on a pick-six. Two of the rallies came from 17 down: in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Eight have taken place in Boulder, a ninth (the first one) in Denver against CSU, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 37 occasions (and are 27-10 in games when this occurs). The last time it happened was at Oregon this year, when QB Steven Montez rushed for 135 yards and WR Devin Ross hauled in seven passes for 153 yards. It was the sixth time CU's done it as a member of the Pac-12 (one each year: 2015 at UCLA, 2014 versus Washington, 2013 versus Charleston Southern, 2012 at Washington State and vs. Arizona in 2011. In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 182 of the 2016 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2015 was 236,331, an average of 39,389 for six home games, about 2,000 more than CU's 2014 average. It marked the 21st straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 39th time in the last 41 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count so far in 2015 is just under 25,000 when adding in 7,354 student holders to 17,299 public tickets (those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2015, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 50th straight year, ahead of Air Force (26,026; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965) and Colorado State (24,917); all had six games. The Broncos averaged 76,939 fans per game in 2014 and around the same this year; the Rockies averaged 31,334 this past summer.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 570 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 46 straight games overall; last shutout was at home against Stanford on Nov. 3, 2012 (a 48-0 loss).
- CU has scored in 156 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 310 games (all the way back to 1963).

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 40-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 233 of 264 times, losing 28 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 34 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were last year, in the 38-31 loss to Arizona (led 24-17 entering the fourth) and in the 35-31 loss at UCLA (CU took a 31-28 lead early in the fourth); CU lost four games in 2014 where it had small fourth quarter advantages. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 117 of its last 138 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 38 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent was the 41-38 win at Oregon on Sept. 24; CU had led most of the game but Oregon went ahead, 38-33, late in the third quarter. But a Steven Montez to Bryce Bobo 31-yard TD pass (and the two connecting again on the two-point conversion) were the only points in the fourth quarter and CU held the Ducks off for the win. Two of the biggest ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

2015 INJURY COUNT SIXTH-WORST IN LAST 30 SEASONS

The injury bug hit the Buffs in 2015, as 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. The injury bug avoided Mike MacIntyre's first two teams for the most part, but last year ('15) was a different story: the Buffs lost 93 full games from players who figured in the two-deep (or those who regularly rotated in at the skill positions), and 120 games overall by the entire team. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 29 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

2002	13	139	1118	12.4	80	572	14.0

Dating back to 1987, only 10 times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2016 Record	Mike MacIntyre Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-54-2	8-22-1	0-3	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-91-3	14-37-2	0-4	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney

versus Top 25.....	69-160-3	43-81-2	0-12	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 81-42 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 78-45-1 in its last 124 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 544-277-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

SIXTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 16 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Sophomore ILB Rick Gamboa is the latest to join the club, snaring a batted pass and returning it 20 yards for a score against Oregon State on Oct. 1. ILB Kenneth Olugbode had the previous one, racing 60 yards for a score with his first pick in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State in 2015. That was the first in eight years, however, as the one previous came in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. Prior to that may have been the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

➤ And two did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998) and Jeremy Bloom (vs. CSU in 2002).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

The longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (he would miss the final six games of the season). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games this season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (552 at the time) and Bill Hillgrove, Pittsburgh (535) had called more games than Zim, who was tied for fourth in the number of years calling major college football for the same team (42nd season) behind Robertson (49th), Hillgrove (46th) and Don Fischer, Indiana (43rd; South Carolina's Tommy Suggs was also in his 42nd year). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's seen a total of 461 overall, working and non-working). SID Dave Plati has worked 438 overall, including the last 396 (dating to the '83 finale). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games – since 1940 (they turn 92 on Nov. 22). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 44th year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 19th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 23 seniors on its 2016 roster, and if history holds, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season. Thus far in 2016, 17 teams have scouted the Buffs in person at games: Arizona, Atlanta, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Detroit, Jacksonville, Los Angeles, Miami, Minnesota, N.Y. Jets, Oakland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Tennessee. Not including camps or practices, 776 scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are nine former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of October 10; there were 10 on the rosters at the end of the 2015 season. Colorado has had 236 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 266 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and the 22nd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th (29); nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; a—active/physically unable to perform; i—on injured reserve; p—practice squad):

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 29 of 39 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

A LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS HAVE RISEN TO FIRST-TEAM AT COLORADO

After the NCAA reduced the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (37 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

THE VERTICAL GAME ... RETURNING?

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 50 "explosion" plays in 2015, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that's the most by a CU team since 2011. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the 2015 Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

- 99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)
- 99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays)
- 99—vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)
- 99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)
- 99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays)
- 99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays)
- 99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays)

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (74 percent of the entire roster—active, those reporting the first day of class and inactive—as of August 5: 86 of 116 players—includes others reporting later this summer). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 42, Colorado 35, Texas 9, Arizona 5, Georgia 5, Washington 4, Florida 3, Utah 3, Hawai'i 2, Arkansas 1, Idaho 1, New Jersey 1, Oklahoma 1, Oregon 1, Pennsylvania 1, Wisconsin 1. That's 16 states total along MEXICO (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Four Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: OL Mo Bandi (India), PK Diego Gonzalez (Monterrey, Mexico), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), C Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 312-23-1 when scoring 30 or more points (4-0 in 2016), along with records of 224-8 with 35-plus points and 207-6 with 36-plus, 184-4 with 38-plus and 118-2 with 43 or more tallies. The six losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012) and California (59-56 in 20T in 2014). CU has played 1,217 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 109-106-3 in its last 218 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 7-41 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 138 of its last 327 games, posting a 119-18-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 216 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 24-95-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2013, the Buffs enjoyed their best season on first down in years: CU averaged 5.83 for the season overall, their best since 2001 (6.7). In 2014, the average was 5.36 and last year climbed back to 5.76.
 - ➔ In 2016, the Buffs are averaging 6.24 per first down play (212 of them).
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 57 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 17 seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 76 scores by return in 261 games (69 regular season, seven bowl). Nine in the MacIntyre Era (5 in 2013, 2 in 2015, 2 in 2016).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 44 times in the last 288 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it eight times under MacIntyre. CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 200. The Buffs are 44-6 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 52-9 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ 600+. Colorado is 16-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first loss was last year when the Buffs had 630 in the 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU was 1-0 in 2015 after rolling up 636 against Nicholls State.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 82-91 in its last 173 games on grass, including a 52-53 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass (3-1 on grass this season).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 97-59-3 in its last 159 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 63-43-3 mark in conference games. CU is 1-1 this year (and 4-9 under MacIntyre).
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, that number was 14.1 in 2005, 10.2; in 2006, 12.0; in 2007, 14.0; in 2008, 9.7 (the only time under 10 in this span); in 2009, 15.7; in 2010, 12.3; in 2011, 13.7; in 2012, 12.3; in 2013, 11.2.
 - ➔ In 2014, CU allowed just 15 plays of 20 yards or more on third down: opponents overall gained 949 yards on 70 makes (13.6 per) and had a net 82 yards on the other 105 plays (0.78).
 - ➔ Last year, CU allowed 17 plays of 20 yards or more on third down; opponents gained 1,122 yards on 87 makes (12.9), but on the 119 misses, have just 45 total yards (0.38 per).
- ➔ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 17-2 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, winning twice this season, in back-to-back games against Massachusetts and Colorado State, the first time it has happened in back-to-back games. It now marks three times under MacIntyre (including the 2014 CSU game); previous to that was against Cal in 2011 (both were losses). The last win previously had come against Nebraska in 2007 (65-51). In these 19 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 772-395, with only four games decided by less than 17 points.
- ➔ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 77 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 51-22-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under MacIntyre, CU is 5-3 in miscue-free contests.
- ➔ Opponents have made 161-of-202 field goals dating back to 2006 (79.7 percent), including 4-of-6 this year and 68-of-79 (86.1) dating back to the 2012 opener. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 117-of-131 (89.4) on kicks inside 40 yards. In the same span, CU is 135-of-209 (64.6).
- ➔ Between 2010 and 2013, opponents had 279 plays of 20 yards or more, earning a combined 8,651 yards (31.0 yards per); the average annually has always hovered around 30 yards, which makes sense since the cutoff is all plays of 20 yards or longer. But it's the count that's the concern: in 2008, opponents had just 44 plays of 20-plus, followed by 53 (2009) and 50 (2010); those counts ballooned to 75 in 2011, 81 in 2012 and to 73 in 2013.
 - ➔ In 2013, opponents had 73 plays of 20 yards or more (out of 924), netting 2,316 yards (31.7 per) and 41.2 percent of the total yards (5,616); 7.9 percent of opponent plays were of the 20+ variety.
 - ➔ In 2014, opponents had 72 plays that gained 20 or more yards (8.5 percent of the 845 overall), with those collectively gaining 2,456 yards (1,472 pass/984 rush, 34.1 per).
 - ➔ In 2015, the number was a bit reduced: opponents had 65 plays over 20 yards, totaling 2,242 yards (still 34.5 per).
- ➔ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2014, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season just 14 times, before 2014 last doing so in 2001 (434.4), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season; CU gained 400-plus yards in nine of 11 regular season games that year. The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once — 303.5 — in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just three times including 2014.
 - ➔ In 2016, CU is looking to rewrite or add to the above, averaging 504.5 yards per outing and 306.3 through the air after five games.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-122 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09; Stanford is the last to do it (2011; the opponent is now 0-of-21 since). The CU offense is 11-of-132 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ CU has scored in 19 of 24 quarters in 2016 (38 of 52 in 2015), and in 126 of 172 under MacIntyre (73 percent).

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 28 seasons. A closer look:

	Turnovers		+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers		+/-

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 25-21 in games following a bye week since 1948, when the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference; CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 27 of 29 seasons, with two weeks off 11 of those years and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 22-19 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes an 0-4 mark as a member of the Pac-12 Conference (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013 and at USC last year). CU has no bye weeks in 2015.

2016 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1891 (Nov. 26) After going 0-4 in its first season of intercollegiate football the previous year, and dropping the first four games in '91, Colorado earns its first-ever win in the sport with a 24-4 win on the road against the Colorado Springs Athletic Association.
- 1896 Colorado records its first undefeated season with a 5-0-0 mark, outscoring the five opponents 161-6.
- 1901 After a one-year absence, Fred Folsom returns for his second of three stints as CU head coach, piloting the Buffs to a 5-1-1 mark.
- 1906 Colorado posts perhaps its weirdest record in its football history: 2-3-4, the four ties all of the scoreless variety. CU scored just 28 points but allowed only 32.
- 1911 The 105th anniversary of the third of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. Colorado outscores the six opponents 88-5, allowing one field goal on defense and a safety for the only points.
- 1916 The first year of the post-Fred Folsom Era, as CU's legendary coach retired following the 1915 season; Bob Evans takes over but the Silver & Gold go 1-5-1.
- 1921 (Oct. 29) CU travels its furthest east for a football game, some 926 miles, but lose 35-0 at the University of Chicago, then a powerhouse in college football; the only longer trip at the time in program history was a 1915 game against Washington in Seattle, 999 miles from the CU campus. Trains took CU to both locales.
- 1926 CU opens the year with four straight home games, only done three times since (1937, 1943 and 1978 – in all of which the first five were at Folsom Field).
- 1931 (Nov. 26) Colorado defeats Arizona in Tucson, 27-7, on Thanksgiving, the last time (and of three total) Thanksgiving Day games CU has played out of the state.
- 1936 (Nov. 7) Byron White sets a school record by scoring 25 points (4 TD, 1 PAT) in a 31-7 win at Utah. White sets up his All-America season the following year by rushing for 643 yards with 1,339 all-purpose yards and 10 touchdowns.
- 1946 Jim Yeager reassumes head coaching position after serving in World War II for two years. An Oct. 12 win at Wyoming (20-0) was played in a blizzard.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado drills Nebraska in Lincoln, 36-14, in the program's first-ever televised game. Bill Stern (play-by-play) and Ray Michael (commentary) call the game, produced independently and aired regionally on NBC.
- 1956 (Nov. 4) After giving Oklahoma fits most of the decade, the Sooners roll into Boulder ranked No. 1 in the nation, CU's first-ever against the No. 1 team, and it appears the Buffaloes might finally break through. CU builds a 19-6 halftime lead, only to see OU rally with 21 second half points for a 27-19 win. The Buffs go on to finish 4-1-1 in the Big 7, earning the invitation to the Orange Bowl where CU beat Clemson, 27-21, for the first bowl win in school history.
- 1961 Colorado won its first Big 8 Conference championship, its first league title since 1942 (when it shared the Mountain States crown). The two biggest wins were a 20-19 win over Kansas (after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), and a 7-6 win over No. 10 Missouri. A 7-0 win at Nebraska remains to this day one of the school's all-time defensive gems: the Buffs held Nebraska to 31 total yards and zero first downs. CU reached No. 6 in the polls but lost to No. 4 LSU in the Orange Bowl, 25-7. Joe Romig is named an All-American for the second straight year and earns the Rhodes Scholarship.
- 1966 Colorado finished second in the Big 8 Conference race with a 5-2 mark (7-3 overall), the two league setbacks by a combined three points, 11-10 at Oklahoma State and 21-19 against Nebraska. After losing 24-3 to open the season at No. 20 Miami, the Buffaloes bounce back and win at No. 10 Baylor, 13-7, in a game where CU was on a mission to win after its black players were subject to racist taunts, including on a pregame radio show piped into the team locker room.
- 1971 Artificial surfacing makes its debut in Boulder on Sept. 18 versus Wyoming, as an AstroTurf carpet blanketed Folsom Field; fittingly, it snowed two feet that day and likely prevented cancellation of the game. CU's stunning road upsets of No. 9 Louisiana State and No. 6 Ohio State paved the way for a 10-2 season, as the Big 8 owned the top three spots in the final Associated Press poll after the bowls. With Nebraska (#1), Oklahoma (#2) and Colorado (#3), it was the first and to date only time in history one conference has occupied all top three positions at the end of the year. Charlie Davis rushes for a then-record 1,386 yards for the season, including a still-record 342 against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, while Cliff Branch returns an NCAA record four punts for touchdowns. CU caps its first 10-win season with a 29-17 win over No. 15 Houston in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.
- 1976 It's the 40th anniversary of Colorado's second Big 8 Conference title with a 5-2 league record; the Buffs were tied with Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, but CU earned the title via tiebreaker by virtue of its wins over the Sooners (42-31) and Cowboys (20-10). Nine players off the '76 team would be selected in the following spring's NFL Draft, including five in the second round in an 18-pick span between Nos. 35 and 52.
- 1981 The Buffs were 3-8, winning their season opener (45-27 over Texas Tech), homecoming (11-10 over Oklahoma State) and season finale (24-21 against Kansas State). Coach Chuck Fairbanks would resign the following June 1 to take a similar job with the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1986 Fresh off a season where CU won the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over a 1-10 record in 1984), the Buffaloes open up a disappointing 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined eight points. CU rallies to win its next five, including a 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska which many refer to as the "Turning Point" in the Coach Bill McCartney Era. That run set up a battle for first place in the Big 8 and the Orange Bowl berth that went with it against Oklahoma on Nov. 15. But the Sooners end the dream with a 28-0 win in Boulder, in a game where OU did not attempt a single pass.
- 1991 Colorado ties for a third straight Big 8 title with a 6-0-1 mark, as a Nov. 2 tie with Nebraska (19-19) ends a 19-game winning streak in conference play, dating back to the '88 finale. Lamont Warren rushes for 830 yards, to this day a single-season best by a CU freshman, and in one of the most daring personnel moves since the days of platoon football, coach Bill McCartney plays his starting quarterback, senior Darian Hagan, as the team's top punt returner so he can better showcase his talents for professional football.
- 1996 A 33-21 win over Washington gives CU a 10-2 record, its third consecutive 10-win season for the first time in school history. It was also the inaugural season of the Big 12 Conference, and Colorado won its first league game, 24-10, at Texas A&M in a game where the Buffs had the quickest score from scrimmage in their history: after Ryan Sutter recovered an A&M fumble on the opening kickoff, Rae Carruth scored on a 28-yard end around just 13 seconds into the game. Koy Detmer set a school record with 3,156 passing yards, and the 20-4 start over his first two seasons as a college coach by Rick Neuheisel ranks as one of the top 5 all-time in NCAA history.
- 2001 A Sept. 15 game at Washington State was cancelled due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the east coast. CU plays in its first Big 12 Championship game and wins the title with a 39-37 win over Texas in basically a road win at Irving; a 62-36 win over Nebraska the previous week gave the Buffs their first North Division title, as Chris Brown rushed for 198 yards and a school-record six touchdowns. Daniel Graham wins the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, and is named the school's sixth unanimous All-American. No. 2 Colorado plays in its first (and only) BCS game, but loses to No. 3 Oregon 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl.
- 2006 Dan Hawkins named 23rd full-time head coach at Colorado; PK Mason Crosby repeated as first-team All-American, as he was the first placekicker at CU to earn the honor even one time.
- 2011 Colorado officially becomes a member of the Pac-12 Conference, joining along with Utah what was previously known as the Pacific-10; both became members on July 1, 2011. CU wins league titles in men's and women's cross country and claims the postseason men's basketball championship by winning four games in as many days.

Colorado is 54-55-2 in its last 111 October games dating back to 1989. The Buffs are 62-38 in its last 100 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays, and 57-47-1 in their last 105 November games (51-35 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month, and 52-19 against unranked teams). CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 3-3-1 in August games in its history.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against nine Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Colorado State, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Massachusetts, Notre Dame and Oregon State. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (11), Arizona State (7) and Washington (6), Missouri, Stanford and Texas (5), and Arizona, LSU, Ohio State and UCLA (4).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 26 seasons (1990-2015), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (and tied for 15th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Uinitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2015 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

OPPONENTS & 2016 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2016 Colorado schedule combined for a 90-65 record in 2015 (58.1 winning percentage); five teams won nine or more games a year ago (three 10-plus), with 10 playing in bowl games (tied for the second most in the nation, behind the 11 USC faced).

- The Buffaloes again have two weeknight games in 2016; CU opened the season on a Friday against Colorado State in Denver, and have a Thursday night affair later in the year against UCLA in Boulder (Nov. 3).
- CU might have had the toughest back-to-back road games in consecutive weeks in the nation, traveling to Michigan (Sept. 17) and then playing at Oregon (Sept. 24). In fact, it marked the first time in CU history the Buffs played one week in the Eastern Time Zone and then the other in the Pacific Time Zone. Others of note: Alabama (Arkansas, Tennessee); Mississippi (Arkansas, LSU); Ohio State (Wisconsin, Penn State); Pitt (Miami, Clemson); Tennessee (Georgia, Texas A&M); and Wisconsin (Michigan State, Michigan).
- Colorado will travel 9,010 air miles during the regular season this fall, or the equivalent of just over 55 percent around the Earth (24,901 miles at the equator). The round-trip distances of CU's road trips from Boulder to: Colorado State (Denver: 60), Michigan (Ann Arbor: 2,260), Oregon (Eugene: 1,916), USC (Los Angeles: 1,666), Stanford (Palo Alto: 1,858) and Arizona (Tucson: 1,250).
- Colorado will have at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 21st straight season; the Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But in 2013 and since, the rivalry game with the Utes has returned to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) are opting for other games for the Friday slots.
- Conference misses: the Buffaloes will not play California or Washington for the second straight year; both return in 2017, when Oregon and Stanford drop off the schedule (Oregon is the last school that comes off CU's schedule from the North Division, as the Ducks are the only team CU will have played in each of its first six years in the conference).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records in the 90s (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996 (snapping a 22-game home winning streak), and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of October 8 (with 2016 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

FOLSOM FIELD #1

LawnStarter.com recently ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State).

The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

300+ AT FOLSOM

Colorado won its 300th game at Folsom Field in 2013 and is now 305-166-10 in 93 seasons playing its home games at Folsom. The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 397-189-16 all-time at home. Colorado's last winning record at home was in 2010, when the Buffaloes went 4-2; over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 48 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on five occasions (CU will also sport black helmets on the road occasionally). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

ORVIS SET FOR INDUCTION INTO THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Herb Orvis, one of the most prolific pass rushers in University of Colorado football history, has been selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, the National Football Foundation announced last January 9.

Orvis, who will turn 70 on Oct. 17, is one of 14 players and two coaches in the Class of 2016 that will be inducted this December 8 at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City. He will be honored this Saturday in Boulder at the Oct. 15 Arizona State game.

He will become the eighth Buffalo enshrined in the Hall, joining Byron White (inducted in 1952), Joe Romig (1984), Dick Anderson (1993), Bobby Anderson (2006), Alfred Williams (2010), John Wooten (2012) and Coach Bill McCartney (2013). Orvis becomes the third player who was coached by the late Eddie Crowder to enter the Hall, preceded by the Anderson brothers; Crowder piloted the Buffaloes from 1963-73.

A near unanimous All-American at defensive end as a senior in 1971, earning recognition from five organizations, including AFCA/Kodak, Walter Camp and The Sporting News (he was a third-team Associated Press team member), he was also honored as a Playboy Preseason All-American prior to the season. He played a significant role in helping CU to a 10-2 record and No. 3 final national ranking, both school-bests at the time. Colorado's only losses came to top-ranked Nebraska and No. 2 Oklahoma, and to this day, it is the only time that the same conference occupied the top three spots in a final poll.

"First of all, it's a great surprise. A run of vivid memories come back to mind ... the players you get to play with, the coaches you played for, the games," Orvis said upon being informed of his selection by NFF CEO Steve Hatchell, a Colorado graduate who also happened to work as a CU equipment manager during Orvis' playing days.

"They all eventually disappear into another life, but an honor like this brings it all back together — just the excitement of playing on a great team and the love of the game. This is truly an unexpected honor."

Orvis, who stood 6-foot-5 and weighed 235 pounds, had developed the reputation as fierce pass rusher his sophomore and junior seasons, when he racked up 144 tackles, which included 26 for losses and 17 quarterback sacks. A badly sprained ankle early in his senior year forced him to miss the better part of three games and play extremely limited in two others, but when healthy, he was a force against the run as well as a terror in opponent backfields. Example: he helped limited Nebraska's potent running game to just 180 yards and recorded two sacks in Lincoln.

Colorado's interior line coach for that '71 team, Jim Mora, once said of what Orvis' style of play meant to the defense: "He gives us the kind of lift on defense that a Cliff Branch runback does on offense. It's the kind of thing you can't really explain. It's electric in its makeup and it sometimes can turn a game around."

He was a two-time first-team All-Big Eight Conference performer as a junior and senior, and was the Big Eight Conference Newcomer of the Year as a sophomore in 1969, when he had 75 tackles, with 12 for losses including nine quarterback sacks.

Orvis was the national lineman-of-the-week for his play in CU's 41-13 win over Penn State on Sept. 26, 1970; that victory stopped the Nittany Lions winning streak at 23 games and their unbeaten run at 31 games as Orvis posted 12 tackles, three for losses including two sacks. He also helped limit the potent Penn State rushing attack featuring Franco Harris and Lydell Mitchell to 144 yards on 50 carries.

He finished his career with 189 tackles (regular season), tied for the most at the time among CU defensive linemen and still tied for 13th. His 20 career quarterback sacks would have ranked first at the time of his graduation, but they weren't computed until several years later (film study); his 32 tackles for loss at the end of his career did rank second.

Colorado was 24-10 in the three seasons he lettered, earning bowl invitations all three years. As a sophomore in 1969, the Buffs defeated Bear Bryant and Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, 47-33; the following year, CU lost in its return to the Liberty to Tulane; and in '71, Colorado upended No. 15 Houston in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl in what was practically a home game for the Cougars. In that game, he tied for the game-high in recording 10 tackles (five solo, three for losses), a sack and a pass broken up.

In the three bowl games, he recorded an additional 24 tackles, three sacks, two passes broken up and a fumble recovery.

A standout performer at Flint Beecher High School in Petoskey, Mich., he joined the Army while still in high school and earned his diploma overseas. He met Crowder in Germany when the Buff boss was in Europe on a government-sponsored coaching tour and found his way to Colorado.

Orvis was a first round pick by the Detroit Lions in the 1972 National Football League Draft; the 16th overall selection, it was the highest at the time that a CU defender had ever been selected. He went on to play in 122 NFL games with Detroit (1972-77) and Baltimore (1978-81). He was a second-team NFC All-Conference performer at tackle for the Lions in 1975.

Orvis was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in its Class of 2014, was selected as a member of the All-Big Eight Decade team for the 1970s and inducted into the Big Eight Hall of Fame in 1982. He also played in the 1972 Hula Bowl.

CU IS BLACK & GOLD, BUT FOLSOM IS "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game? George Frazier was the last to do so on regular basis in the 2014 season, when he appeared for 14 snaps at defensive end for the first time against Arizona State, while lining up for five plays per game at fullback. He became the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player before Frazier in 2014 to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the 2015 world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing.

BUFFS BACK ON TV IN DENVER; "THE RISE" GOES NATIONAL

Two new "all-Colorado" sport programs debuted last week, as CU has been without a weekly television presence in Denver since the 2011-12 athletic year:

The Buffalo Stamped returned with a new format and a new home: Altitude Sports (Comcast Ch. 25/725 HD). The show initially airs on Wednesday nights at 11:00 p.m., with several replays over the following two days. It will run through the men's and women's basketball seasons.

"The Rise" is the latest video series produced by CU's acclaimed football video staff; it is following the Colorado Buffaloes through the 2016 season. "The Rise" will be an interview driven narrative featuring and following the seniors through this journey. Six to eight episodes will cover the season from camp to bowl week. "The Rise" will be cinematic, yet organic, featuring behind-the-scenes footage and a narrative told by the seniors and coaches. It premiered on Aug. 31 and can be seen on Pac-12 Mountain and CUBuffs.com.

Colorado has 61 lettermen returning for 2015 (59 from the 2015 team, with three others from past years); they break down into 28 on offense, 30 on defense and 3 specialists; the Buffs lose 27 lettermen off the 2015 squad (11 offense/15 defense/1 specialist). CU returns 18 starters from last season (9 offense/9 defense), losing 4 (2 offense/2 defense); several positions had multiple personnel shuttle in and out, so there are several other players back with starting experience. The 2015 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams; #—lettered but injured early in the 2015 season and has been submitted for medical hardships. The breakdown (positions for returning players are their 2015 spots):

NATIONAL IMPROVEMENT

In terms of scoring defense, the Buffaloes were the fifth-most improved unit in 2015 from 2014 numbers (third among Power 5 schools). Colorado allowed 39.0 points in 2014, but cut that back to 27.5 last fall, or 11.5 points fewer. The four ahead of CU: Georgia State 15.0 (43.3 to 28.3), North Carolina 14.5 (39.0 to 24.5), Western Kentucky 14.0 (39.9 to 25.9) and Vanderbilt 12.3 (33.3 to 21.0). In conference games, the Buffs improved by 10.7 points (43.0 to 32.3), and overall allowed 30 or more points just five times as compared to 11 times in 2014.

COLORADO 44, COLORADO STATE 7

SEPTEMBER 2, 2016

SAF AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER – Starting fast offensively and rock solid defensively, the Colorado Buffaloes opened the 2016 season with a convincing 44-7 win over Colorado State on a Friday night at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

The Buffs rolled up 578 yards of total offense – their most in a season opener in 22 years – and held the Rams to 225. CU was in control from the start, holding the Rams to three plays and out on the game’s first series and then marching 73 plays in 11 yards to take a 7-0 lead just four-plus minutes into the game and the rout was on.

CU senior Sefo Liufau, playing his first game since successfully rehabilitating from a Lisfranc (foot) injury, completed 23-of-33 passes for 318 yards and one touchdown, becoming the school’s career leader in passing yardage (7,715).

HOW IT HAPPENED: CU scored on three of its first four possessions and led 24-0 with 13:59 left in the first half. By the end of the first quarter, the Buffs offense had outgained the Rams 253-10, with the CU defense emphatically answering the pressing pregame question about stopping the CSU run game. And the Buffs’ up-tempo offense was up-and-running (and passing) early. The Buffs were fast: Their four first-half TD drives required 2:59, 1:56, 1:09 and 1:01.

CU’s first scoring march was its longest in both time required (2:59) and distance covered (73 yards, 11 plays). Tailback Phillip Lindsay ran for 38 yards during the drive and Liufau completed two of three passes for 22 yards.

Liufau carried twice in that march, gaining eight yards on first down from the CSU 13, then fumbling at the goal line on second down. But his 310-pound center, Alex Kelley, smothered the football in the end zone.

Four more scores would follow in quick succession – a 17-yard Liufau to Devin Ross pass, a 1-yard Lindsay run, a 30-yard Diego Gonzalez field goal, and another 1-yard Lindsay dive that made it 31-0; the latter followed a 46-yard one-handed catch by Bryce Bobo that he hauled in before stepping out at the CSU 1-yard line.

In addition to his 30-yard field goal, Gonzalez kicked four PATs, extending his streak to 39 straight over last season and this. Through Friday night’s first half, CU kicking specialists had made 142 straight extra points.

CU outgained CSU 364-79 in total yardage in the first half, including holding a 248-22 passing yards advantage. The Rams used two quarterbacks – starter Nick Stevens, transfer Faton Bauta – who combined to go 6-of-17 with one interception. That pick was by Chidobe Awuzie, who picked off Stevens late in the first half to set up the Buffs at their own 41-yard line. Lindsay scored on his second 1-yard dive five plays later.

CU increased its lead to 37-0 on a pair of third-quarter Gonzalez field goals (29, 22 yards) and took its shutout into the final quarter. The Rams finally scored on the first play of the fourth quarter, getting a 5-yard TD pass from Bauta to Marcus Wilson.

Liufau left the game after fumbling the ball away after a jarring tackle on a keeper with 12:38 remaining. CSU took over at its 33 but couldn’t capitalize on the turnover.

But he returned on the next series, marching the Buffs 50 yards in 11 plays for their final score. The touchdown came on a 1-yard leap by former walk-on tailback Kyle Evans, who was awarded a scholarship midway through preseason camp. Gonzalez’s PAT pushed CU’s lead to 44-7 with 4:24 remaining. Seeing his first college action, redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez spelled Liufau on the Buffs’ final possession.

TURNING POINT: The tone was set early by the CU ‘D.’ The Buffs held the Rams to 10 yards on 15 first-quarter plays, limiting them to 8 yards rushing and sending a decisive early message about stopping the CSU running game. The Rams didn’t register their initial first down until 10:23 remained before halftime, and that possession ended three plays later with their sixth punt of the first half.

CU STANDOUTS: Lindsay: 20 carries, 95 yards, 2 TDs; Liufau: 23-33, 318 yards, 1 TD; Awuzie: nine tackles (eight solo), four third down stops and the interception.

GAME NOTES

The announced attendance of 69,850 was the most in the series since 2003 (76,219); Colorado sold 33,486 tickets (9,217 student) for the game, accounting for that number despite season ticket holders of just under 2,800 tickets opted out for the game to receive an equal value in number for a Pac-12 game ... Colorado’s 31-0 halftime lead was its largest since Nov. 15, 2003, when it led Iowa State 37-0 in Ames (an eventual 44-10 win) ... CU’s 44 points were the most in the series by either team since 1996, when the Buffs won 48-34 in Fort Collins, and the 37-point win was the most lopsided in the series since a 47-7 CU win in 1956 (and the largest in an opener since 1988, when CU beat Fresno State in Boulder, 45-3) ... The 578 yards on offense by the Buffaloes were their most in a season opener since 1994 (649 in a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana), with the 225 yards allowed the fewest by an opponent in an opener since 1998 (CSU: 202 in a 42-14 Buff win) ... C Alex Kelley scored the first TD by a Buff offensive lineman since Oct. 28, 1995, when OG Heath Irwin recovered a fumble in the end zone in a 44-21 loss to Nebraska; Kelley became the first offensive lineman in CU history to score the team’s first points of the year ... The Buffs outgained CSU, 253-10, in the first quarter (14 of CSU’s first 18 plays went for three yards or less) as the Rams opened the game with six three-and-outs. In the first half, CSU ran nine plays in CU territory for minus-2 yards.

COLORADO 56, IDAHO STATE 7

SEPTEMBER 10, 2016

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado won its second straight game with a record-setting performance at Folsom Field, rolling to a 56-7 win over visiting Idaho State in the home opener to start the season 2-0.

Sefo Liufau threw for 204 yards and two touchdowns, and added 54 yards and another score running the ball as the Buffaloes pulled away from the Bengals early and would play 71 of 86 players that dressed for the game.

The Buffs tied school records for the most points in the second quarter (35) and first half (49), and set a school record for the largest halftime lead (49-0), eclipsing a 49-7 edge they held against Northeast Louisiana in 1995.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs thoroughly dominated the game in every regard, putting it away before halftime.

CU scored on seven of its eight possessions in the first half. Colorado quarterback Sefo Liufau was 15-for-18 for 204 yards and two touchdowns in the first half, and also ran for 54 yards and a score before intermission. Phillip Lindsay added a pair of rushing touchdowns and Devin Ross and Kabion Ento each had a touchdown reception. Ento also added another touchdown catch in the third quarter for CU's final points of the day

Colorado led 14-0 after the first quarter, opening with a 15-yard Liufau touchdown pass to Ross, followed by a 6-yard Lindsay run.

The Buffs then added five more touchdowns in the second quarter, with Lindsay adding another score from 2 yards, Kyle Evans rushing 1 yard for a touchdown, Liufau throwing to Chris Hill for a 4-yard score and Liufau running in from 19 yards out. CU backup quarterback Steven Montez then got into the act, completing a 69-yard touchdown pass to Ento on his first pass attempt as a collegian. Ento's touchdown was also the first time he touched the ball as a Buff.

Colorado finished with 597 yards offense, the Buffs' second straight week with at least 500 yards, following a 578-yard effort in an opening 44-7 win over Colorado State.

Defensively, the Buffs were equally dominant, holding the Bengals to 96 yards offense — 29 rushing and 67 passing. Colorado also did not allow Idaho State to cross midfield in the first half, and allowed just seven first downs for the entire game (three in the first half).

TURNING POINT: After punting on their second possession of the day, the Buffs defense forced a three-and-out and the offense came back to drive 61 yards in five plays for a touchdown to go up 14-0, opening the gate for six straight CU touchdowns.

KEY STATISTIC: The Bengals averaged just 1.7 yards per offensive play while the Buffs averaged 6.8 per snap.

NOTEWORTHY: An interception from true freshman Tony Julmisse extended CU's streak with at least one defensive takeaway to 15 games, best in the nation. ... It is the first 2-0 start by the Buffs since 2013, when Mike MacIntyre's first CU team beat CSU and Central Arkansas to open the year. ... CU played 71 of the 86 players who dressed for the game. ... It was the first time CU has gained 500-plus yards in back-to-back games since Nov. 9-16, 2002.

QUOTEWORTHY: "I think we just go out there and play as hard as we can play. The whole key of the first two games goes back to practice. It doesn't go to what happened in the game, it goes to how we practice and how we focus and prepare." — CU coach Mike MacIntyre

"I just think we are executing at a higher level. I think we're holding ourselves to a higher standard." — Liufau

MICHIGAN 45, COLORADO 28

SEPTEMBER 17, 2016

MICHIGAN STADIUM, ANN ARBOR

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Colorado twice held a 14-point lead in the first quarter, but special teams miscues and injuries took their toll, as fourth-ranked Michigan rallied for a 45-28 win at Michigan Stadium.

The Wolverines turned one blocked punt into a touchdown and forced another bad punt that put the Wolverines in position for a second touchdown in the first half, and took a 24-21 lead into the locker room at intermission.

Colorado regained the lead on the first possession of the third quarter when Sefo Liufau tossed a 70-yard touchdown pass to Shay Fields, but Liufau (16-for-25, 245 yards, 3 touchdowns) left the game with an ankle injury after CU's next possession and the Buffs did not score again while Michigan answered with three more scores.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead, scoring on their first offensive possession, then adding a defensive score less than a minute later.

After forcing Michigan to punt on its first possession, Colorado needed just three plays to go 49 yards for a touchdown. Liufau hit Jay MacIntyre with a 14-yard pass to start the drive, then connected with Devin Ross on a 37-yard scoring strike down the middle two plays later to give the Buffs a 7-0 lead.

Colorado then extended the lead to 14-0 less than a minute later. With Michigan facing a third-and-7, CU defensive back Chidobe Awuzie came off the edge and sacked Michigan quarterback Wilton Speight, forcing a fumble. Colorado linebacker Derek McCartney scooped up the loose ball and rumbled 18 yards for a touchdown and 14-0 lead.

Michigan, though, responded with a big play of its own. After stopping CU's offense in Colorado territory, UM's Michael Jocz blocked Alex Kinney's punt. Grant Perry then grabbed the ball at CU's 6-yard line and took it to the end zone as Michigan cut CU's lead to 14-7.

Colorado then bumped its edge back to 14 by driving 67 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Phillip Lindsay had a 10-yard run on the drive, Liufau hit Shay Fields for an 18-yard gain and Kabion Ento for 16 yards before finding Ross again on a fade route in the corner of the end zone.

The second period, however, was all Michigan. CU's Diego Gonzalez was wide right on a 36-yard field goal try and on CU's next possession, Kinney punted the ball into the backside of a CU player. It took Michigan just two plays to go 38 yards for the score, getting a 17-yard scoring run from Jehu Chesson to cut the Buffs' lead to 21-14.

TURNING POINT: Michigan added a 39-yard field goal with 1:59 left in the half to pull within 21-17 and the Buffs couldn't muster a drive and punted. The Wolverines needed one play to take the lead when Amara Darboh ran 45 yards for a score, giving UM a 24-21 edge heading into halftime.

But CU needed just three plays to score after the half, getting a 70-yard touchdown throw from Liufau to Fields for a 28-24 lead. Liufau, though, was injured on the prior play and while he returned on CU's next series, it was his last action of the day.

The Wolverines quickly responded. After a kick return by Jabrill Peppers past midfield, Michigan needed just two plays to reach the end zone, getting a 42-yard run from De'Veon Smith for a 31-28 lead, one the Wolverines never relinquished.

Michigan tacked on two more scores, going 80 yards for one and getting a 54-yard punt return for a touchdown from Peppers for another for the final tally.

KEY STATISTIC: CU scored 21 points and had 195 total yards in the first quarter, but just seven and 130 afterwards.

NOTEWORTHY: It was CU's 23rd straight loss against a ranked team dating back to 2009.

COLORADO 41, OREGON 38

SEPTEMBER 24, 2016

AUTZEN STADIUM, EUGENE

EUGENE, Ore. — Ahkello Witherspoon's interception in the end zone ended a last-ditch Oregon drive Saturday, clinching a 41-38 Colorado win over Oregon at Autzen Stadium in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

Witherspoon's interception came with 48 seconds remaining in the game and Oregon with a first-and-goal from the 7-yard line, giving the Buffs the signature win they've been seeking to signal that CU's program has indeed turned around.

HOW IT HAPPENED: Steven Montez had a record-setting starting debut for the 3-1 Buffs at quarterback, completing 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards and three touchdowns and two interceptions. He turned in the first-ever 300-yard passing/100-yard rushing game in school history.

After jumping out to a double-digit lead for the second week in a row only to see the lead disappear, the Buffs rallied to win this one.

The Buffs jumped out to a 23-7 edge before the Ducks rallied to take a 38-33 lead late in the third quarter, turning a pair of Montez interceptions into touchdown drives.

But the Buffs showed some moxie in crunch time, regaining the lead midway through the fourth quarter when Montez threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to Bryce Bobo. The pass was originally ruled incomplete, but after instant replay review, the officials signaled touchdown. A 2-point conversion pass from Montez to Bobo gave the Buffs a 41-38 lead with 8:43 to go in the game, and the Buffs defense took over and made the lead stand, coming up with three straight defensive stops.

Colorado built its early lead with another strong start. After Oregon punted following a three-and-out on its opening possession of the game, the Buffs drove 80 yards in eight plays for their first TD, getting a 1-yard scoring run from Phillip Lindsay to cap the drive, in which Montez completed three passes and Lindsay had a 33-yard run.

CU's defense then forced another three-and-out and the Buffs put together a seven-play, 44-yard drive that produced a 24-yard Chris Graham field goal and 10-0 lead.

Oregon then answered with its first score of the game to cut the lead to 10-7 when Taj Griffin scored from 1 yard out on a drive that was sparked by a 50-yard Tony Brooks-James run.

The Buffs, though, quickly responded, putting together back-to-back scoring drives to take a 23-7 lead. The first was a 12-play, 87-yard march, capped by a 7-yard Montez toss to Shay Fields, but a blocked PAT left CU with a 16-7 lead. Following an Oregon punt, CU struck quickly, going 63 yards in just four plays. A 61-yard Montez pass to Devin Ross put the Buffs at the Oregon 5, and two plays later, Montez dove over from the 3-yard line and Graham's PAT gave CU a 23-7 lead.

But Oregon answered with a touchdown and field goal, sandwiched around a CU drive that stalled in Ducks territory after a failed fourth-down try. The Ducks kept their touchdown drive alive with a 29-yard run on a fake punt, then scored on a 25-yard pass from Dakota Prukop to Darren Carrington Jr.

Colorado closed the half with a field goal to take a 26-17 lead into the locker room at intermission, then opened the third quarter with a 75-yard scoring drive. Montez hit Ross with a 48-yard scoring pass that was initially ruled incomplete but ruled a touchdown by replay and CU led 33-17 just two minutes into the third quarter.

TURNING POINT: This one had no turning point until the end. Montez's touchdown to Bobo and Witherspoon's interception were both plays that made the win possible.

COLORADO 47, OREGON STATE 6

OCTOBER 1, 2016

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER – With Steven Montez throwing and Shay Fields catching, the Colorado Buffaloes scored 20 unanswered first-half points and zipped past Oregon State 47-6 on a sunny Saturday afternoon at Folsom Field.

Montez and Fields hooked up for three first-half touchdowns, enabling Fields to tie the school record for TD receptions in a game (three) with three other players and the Buffs to remain unbeaten (2-0) in the Pac-12 Conference (4-1 overall).

Montez, a redshirt freshman making his second college start at quarterback in place of injured senior Sefo Liufau (ankle), followed his winning starting debut at Oregon with another solid afternoon. He accounted for 321 yards in total offense (293 passing, 28 rushing in three quarters against the Beavers (0-1, 1-3) to help CU to back-to-back conference wins for the first time since 2010.

For the first time this season, the Buffs trailed in the first quarter as OSU took a 3-0 lead on a 32-yard Garrett Owens field goal.

The Buffs came back in a hurry as Montez and Fields connected for scores on CU's next three possessions. The first was a 51-yarder that found Fields at least five steps behind the Beavers secondary, the second a 33-yarder that saw Fields equally uncovered. The Buffs led 13-3 after the first quarter, bumping their first-quarter scoring edge to 85-17 for the season.

After CU defensive end Jimmie Gilbert (two sacks on the day) forced a fumble by OSU QB Darrel Garretson and a subsequent 20-yard loss on the Beavers' first possession of the second quarter, the Buffs took over on their own 13-yard line.

Five plays into that drive, Montez hit Fields with a short pass near the right sideline and the CU junior then raced 63 yards to the end zone. Freshman Davis Price – called on after Chris Graham's initial PAT was blocked – kicked the Buffs ahead 20-3 with 11:32 left before halftime.

Owens got the Beavers another three points with a 40-yard field goal (20-6), but the Buffs wasted no time answering. After a 33-yard kickoff return by freshman Tony Julmisse, CU marched 66 yards in 11 plays, capping the drive with a 1-yard walk-in TD by Phillip Lindsay on fourth down.

Price's PAT pushed CU ahead 27-6 with just under 5 minutes left before halftime. The Beavers were slowly, efficiently being buried, and for good measure the Buffs positioned Price for a 54-yard field goal with 50 seconds left in the half. It was the freshman's first field try as a collegian, and he delivered with the longest FG by a freshman in CU history.

Nine seconds later a hit by CU linebacker Kenneth Olugbode helped Rick Gamboa collect the first interception of his career, which Gamboa returned 20 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Colorado took a 37-6 lead at intermission.

After a Tedric Thompson interception midway through the third quarter, Price added his second field of the afternoon – a 22-yarder that increased CU's lead to 40-3 with 4:38 left in the quarter.

Although OSU managed another field goal, the Buffs' defense kept the Beavers out of the end zone, the first time in 11 years Colorado had held a conference opponent without a touchdown. Colorado also added one more touchdown to provide the final margin of victory.

The victory boosted the Buffs back into the national polls, with CU at No. 21 in the AP poll and No. 23 in the coaches' poll when the voting was announced Sunday.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 21, COLORADO 17

OCTOBER 8, 2016

LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

LOS ANGELES — After falling behind 14-0 in the first half, the No. 21 Colorado Buffaloes rallied to tie the game at 14-14 in the fourth quarter before finally falling to USC, 21-17, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Colorado forced four turnovers in the game, but could only manage to convert one into a score. CU dropped to 4-2 overall (2-1 Pac-12) while USC improved to 3-3, 2-2. The loss also dropped CU to 0-11 against the Trojans all time.

USC broke the tie midway through the fourth quarter by going 70 yards in six plays for the winning score, getting a 7-yard pass from Sam Darnold to Tyler Petite.

The Buffs had battled back from a 14-0 halftime deficit, tying the game with 10:20 to go in the game on a 10-yard Steven Montez scoring pass to Bryce Bobo.

Earlier in the half, Bobo helped the Buffs cut into USC's lead by throwing a 67-yard touchdown pass to Phillip Lindsay after taking a lateral from Montez.

Colorado's defense was stellar for most of the second half. The Buffs forced three second-half turnovers — two fumbles and an interception — and Colorado converted one of them into a touchdown. Afolabi Laguda and Jordan Carrell had fumble recoveries for the Buffs and Kenneth Olugbode had the interception.

The Buffs finally broke onto the scoreboard early in the third quarter. Following Carrell's fumble recovery, created by an Addison Gillam sack of Darnold, the Buffs needed one play to score on Bobo's pass to Lindsay.

CU's defense continued to hold and early in the fourth quarter, after the Buffs forced a second straight USC punt, Colorado finally put together its first sustained scoring drive of the game, going 84 yards in eight plays for the tying score. Montez helped keep the drive alive with an 11-yard throw to Kabion Ento on third-and-6 before Lindsay rumbled 37 yards to the USC 11. Three plays later, Montez found Bobo in the end zone for a 10-yard scoring pass and Davis Price's PAT tied the game at 14-14.

The Trojans, however, responded to regain the lead on Darnold's third touchdown pass of the game. Colorado quickly answered with a drive inside USC territory that produced a 42-yard Price field goal, but that finished the scoring for the game as USC managed to drive into CU territory and run out the clock on its next possession.

After outscoring opponents 85-17 in the first quarter and 164-47 in the first half this season, the Buffs were held scoreless in the first 30 minutes. The Trojans, meanwhile, put together a pair of long scoring drives, going 80 yards in nine plays for their first touchdown, then adding a 13-play, 92-yard drive for the 14-0 lead.

The Buffs had dodged a bullet on USC's first possession by forcing a Darnold fumble near the goal line with Ahkello Witherspoon recovering it in the end zone.

CU never mustered much of an offensive threat in the opening 30 minutes as the Buffs' high-powered offense never found a rhythm. Colorado also produced some self-inflicted wounds, including a pair of penalties that stifled the Buffs' deepest penetration into USC territory. Just after reaching the Trojan 34, the Buffs committed two penalties on three snaps, setting them back to their side of the 50.

Montez, who was starting his third straight game for the Buffs, was injured on CU's last possession of the half. Senior Sefo Liufau replaced Montez and moved the Buffs into Trojan territory before the drive stalled.

Montez returned for the second half and finished the game.

GAME NOTES

USC now leads the all-time series by an 11-0 count, though the last two games have gone down to the wire and were decided by a total of 7 points ... The Buffs had won all five coin tosses this season prior to USC winning ... The 90-degree temperature at kickoff tied for the 11th warmest in school history (sixth at 90°); CU is 7-9 when the temp is 90-plus at kickoff ... Colorado is now 0-2 when wearing its silver-white-silver combination look ... This was the first game as a head coach that Mike MacIntyre coached with his team ranked (80 games total) ... USC led for 46:39; the Buffs had trailed for all of 39:04 in their first five games; this was the first time this year CU did not own a lead in a game ... CU is now 2-20-1 all-time in the state of California, dropping the last 10 games ... Colorado had not allowed a touchdown in five straight quarters until USC scored one in the first quarter; the last time CU did not allow a TD in five straight was in 2012 ... The Trojans were the first to hold CU under 161 yards in the first quarter (70) and under 232 in the first half (127) ... By forcing four USC turnover, CU extended its nation's-best streak of forcing at least one turnover to 19 straight games ... TB Phillip Lindsay was the first Buff running back to have 100 yards receiving in a game since TB Cortlen Johnson did so at Iowa State on Nov. 10, 2001 (both had identical stats: 6-105 with a TD).
