2016 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

GAME 3—MICHIGAN

BUFFS RETURN TO THE SCENE OF THE 1994 MIRACLE IN MICHIGAN

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2016 • 1:42 p.m. MDT • Michigan Stadium (107,601) • Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 3 (September 12, 2016)

BIG TEN NETWORK (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

The Colorado Buffaloes (2-0, 0-0 Pac-12) will leave the state for their first true road game this year, traveling to Ann Arbor this Saturday, Sept. 17, to take on the Michigan Wolverines (2-0, 0-0 Big Ten) in a 1:30 p.m. MDT kickoff at Michigan Stadium ... The game will be televised national on the Big Ten Network (Comcast 410 in Colorado), and will be broadcast nationally on radio on the Touchdown Radio Network (Daniel Rabinowitz, Gino Toretta and Ryan Ermanni to call the action) ... This is a “one-and-done” game, arranged through ESPN in 2013 (for a $1.4 million payday for CU); it will be the fourth game in Ann Arbor with just one in Boulder (in 1996, the last time ESPN’s GameDay was in town) ... The two largest crowds CU has ever played before took place at Michigan, in 1997 and 1994; this will be the fifth time the Buffs will play before 100,000-plus ... Colorado has dropped 22 straight games against ranked teams (0-11 under head coach Mike MacIntyre) ... Both teams opened the season with lopsided wins, Colorado outscoring its foes 100-14 and Michigan theirs by 114-17 ... With 260 rushing yards against CSU and 262 against Idaho State, the Buffs are now 60-2-1 dating back to 1989 when running for 250 or more ... Colorado is now 46-1 in “Sub 100/100 games,” when holding the opponent under 100 in both rushing and passing (Idaho State had 96 total yards, 29 rushing and 67 passing) ... The Buffaloes will remain on the road, opening Pac-12 play at Oregon next Saturday; when all is said and done, the Buffs will have traveled 4,176 miles round trip to both Ann Arbor and Eugene ... Visit CUBuffs.com/media as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Offense: Colorado has gained 500-plus yards in back-to-back games for the first time since Nov. 9-16, 2002 (575 at Missouri in a 42-35 OT win and 518 vs. Iowa State in a 41-27 win in Boulder); it marked the first time in back-to-back games to open a season since 1993 (when CU had 500+ in three straight versus Texas, Baylor and Stanford). Defense: Colorado has allowed just 14 points in the first two games, its low since 1978, when the Buffs allowed 7 points in each of the first five games; CU has allowed just 124 passing yards in two games (opponents are averaging 1.84 yards per attempt and CU’s defensive pass efficiency rating is 56.6). Overall, the Buffaloes enter week 3 as the nation’s top ranked defensive unit in terms of yards allowed (160.5).

OBSCURE NOTES OF THE WEEK

QB Sefo Liufau is off to a hot start; owning a rating of 179.9 and completing 74.5 percent of his passes – the latter is eighth best in the nation. But he’s only the fifth best in the Pac-12 Conference; the league has the fourth-through-eighth ranked players in the category, and they have combined to complete 237-of-310 passes in the first two weeks of the year, a staggering 76.5 percent figure.

🐾 The Buffaloes are 14-of-15 on third-&-short (1-3 yards, including 8-of-8 on third-&-1), and are also 2-of-2 on fourth-&-1

🐾 Colorado is 15-of-16 in the Red Zone (12 touchdowns), the only non-score late in the Idaho State game when CU essentially ran the ball into the line.

🐾 The Buffs have 85 plays in two games of five yards or more, compared to 31 by the opponent (33-9 edge in plays that have gone for 10 or more).

STAT CHANGE: In the CU-Idaho State game, the Bengals first play on offense was initially scored as a 6-yard rush; upon video review, it was indeed, a short “flip” pass forward (or even a “baby” shovel pass). Thus for the game, ISU had 13 rushes for 29 yards and was 20-of-42 for 67 passing yards.

SEASON OPENER REVIEW

Statistically speaking, Colorado had one of its best season-opening games in school history on Sept. 2 against Colorado State. CU's 578 yards of total offense in the contest were the most in a season opener since 1994, when that Buff team (which went 11-1 and finished the year ranked No. 4 in the coaches poll) put up 649 yards of offense in a 48-13 win over Northeast Louisiana. That 1994 season-opening total is the highest yardage gained for any game to begin a season in Buffalo history, but the 578 yards vs. CSU last Friday comes in at No. 2. It was also just the eighth time since 1946 that Colorado has gained more than 500 yards of offense in the season opener.

What was equally impressive was the Buff defense allowing just 225 yards of total offense. CU outgained CSU by 353 yards on the night, which is the second most it has out-gained an opponent in a season-opener in program history (trailing the 1994 opener when CU outgained Northeast Louisiana by 394 yards). Here are the largest margins of victory in a CU season opener in history (not including contests against local high schools at the turn of last century):

LARGEST MARGINS OF VICTORY IN SEASON OPENER

Year	Opponent	Score	Margin	Year	Opponent	Score	Margin
1954	DRAKE	61- 0	61	1943	FT. WARREN	38- 0	38
1942	COLORADO MINES	54- 0	54	2016	Colorado State (Denver)	44- 7	37
1988	FRESNO STATE	45- 3	42	1995	at Wisconsin	43- 7	36
1923	BRIGHAM YOUNG	41- 0	41	1994	NORTHEAST LOUISIANA	48-13	35

QUICK STARTS

Colorado through two games now has led at the half by a combined score of 80-0. CU led Colorado State 31-0 after two quarters in the season opener and last Saturday led Idaho State 49-0 at the half. The Buffs have held combined first-half advantages of 774-124 in total yards and 37-8 in first downs gained.

LIUFAU SNARES PAC-12 OFFENSIVE HONOR

Senior QB Sefo Liufau earned the Pac-12's Offensive Player of the Week honor for his efforts in CU's 44-7 win over Colorado State. He completed 23-of-33 passes for 318 yards and a touchdown (no interceptions), while rushing 14 times for 66 yards. His passer rating was 160.6 and he earned 17 first downs (5 rush/12 pass) and now owns or shares 78 CU records. It was his first game back after a Lisfranc (foot) injury sidelined him for the last 2¾ games in 2015. During the game, he became CU's all-time leader in passing yards (7,715), extended his own mark for total offense (8,226, the first to eclipse 8K at Colorado), and also took over the record for the most offensive plays for a career (1,356). He is the seventh Buff to be afforded Pac-12 POW honors since Colorado joined the conference in 2011, the fourth to win it on offense, joining WR Paul Richardson (twice) and QB Jordan Webb. CU's Pac-12 POW's:

Sept. 10, 2011	Paul Richardson, WR (Offensive vs. California)
Nov. 12, 2011	Travis Sandersfeld, CB (Defensive vs. Arizona)
Nov. 25, 2011	Jon Major, OLB (Defensive vs. Utah)
Sept. 22, 2012	Jordan Webb, QB (Offensive vs. Washington State)

Sept. 1, 2013	Paul Richardson, WR (Offensive vs. Colorado State)
Sept. 19, 2015	Kenneth Olugbode, ILB (Defensive vs. Colorado State)
Sept. 2, 2016	Sefo Liufau, QB (Offensive vs. Colorado State)

KELLEY MAKES HISTORY

When C Alex Kelley recovered a fumble that opened the scoring in CU's season opening 44-7 win over Colorado State on Sept. 2, he became the first offensive lineman in school history to score Colorado's first points of any season – 127 of them. In the process, he also became the first O-lineman to score a touchdown since OG Heath Irwin recovered a fumble in a 44-21 loss to Nebraska in Boulder on Oct. 28, 2005. He sat out the Idaho State game with an ankle sprain but is full-go for Michigan.

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. MICHIGAN

Michigan leads the all-time series with the Buffaloes by a 3-1 count, the first game in the series coming in 1974 and the last in 1997; all have been regular season affairs. The Wolverines lead 2-1 in Ann Arbor, site of the last contest (a 27-3 Michigan win), and also lead 1-0 in Boulder. Of course, the '94 game is the most memorable in the series, at least from CU's perspective (see it here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aY_DcN001NI).

➔ UM coach Jim Harbaugh is 0-0 against Colorado (he is 12-3 in his second season at Michigan).

CU-MICHIGAN BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia in the Colorado-Michigan series:

- 4 The number of football games Colorado and Michigan have played in their history;
- 30 The number of times Colorado and Michigan are ranked in the top 20 of major statistical categories through Sept. 10 (CU 17, UM 13);
- 64 The official length of the "Miracle in Michigan" pass from QB Kordell Stewart to WR Michael Westbrook, via Blake Anderson tip, in the 1994 game;
- 72 The number of yards the ball was in the air, as Stewart let it heave from the Colorado 27 and it was tipped at the Michigan;
- 214-31 The combined scores of the two school's first two games: CU 100-14, Michigan 114-17;
- 226 The number of yards gained by Colorado in the final 8:40 of the '94 game (on 21 plays), as CU rallied from 26-14 down to win, 27-26;
- 387 The combined number of extra points made by the two schools (236 by Michigan, 151 by Colorado);
- 1,130 The distance between Boulder, Colo., and Ann Arbor, Mich.;
- +1,250 The difference between CU & UM's total offense in two games (2,134) and the yards both have allowed (884);
- 106,427 The attendance at the 1994 game (Sept. 24) between CU and Michigan in Ann Arbor, the most at the time CU had ever played before;
- 106,474 The attendance at the 1997 game (Sept. 13) between CU and Michigan in Ann Arbor, the most CU has ever played before.

CONFERENCE CALL

- ➔ Colorado is 35-64-3 all-time versus current members of the Big Ten Conference (102 games), but the number vastly grew when Nebraska joined the league in 2011 (69 games). Thus, most of the games have come against the Huskers (NU leads, 49-18-2; the two will meet again in 2018, 2019, 2023 and 2024). Otherwise, the Buffs are 3-0 against Minnesota (a series set for 2021-22), 2-0 against Iowa, 4-1-1 versus Wisconsin, 3-1 against Indiana, 1-1 against Illinois, Northwestern and Penn State, 1-3 against Michigan, 1-4 against Ohio State and 0-3 versus Michigan State.

THE LAST TIME: MICHIGAN 27, COLORADO 3 (SEPTEMBER 13, 1997)

MICHIGAN STADIUM, ANN ARBOR

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Brian Griese looked like his two-time Super Bowl champion father (Bob) in passing for 258 yards and two touchdowns, leading No. 14 Michigan to a 27-3 upset of No. 8 Colorado.

The Wolverines, the last school in the nation to open the 1997 season and doing so against the Buffs, broke open a tight game with 10 points combined on possessions which sandwiched halftime. Leading 7-0, Michigan forced Colorado to punt late in the first half, with a Griese-to-Charles Woodson 29-yard pass setting up a 37-yard field goal at the gun by Kraig Baker.

Griese then led Michigan on an 11-play, 89-yard drive to open the second half, culminating with a 5-yard touchdown pass to Chris Howard that put the Wolverines up, 17-0. By the time the CU offense got the ball back, it had gone from one score needed to three to tie or take the lead, which was a tall task against a strong Michigan defensive effort. By day's end, Colorado was held to its third lowest offensive output of the last 12 years with just 224 yards.

Up until the 10-point spree, the game had been a defensive struggle. Michigan used a 53-yard pass from Griese to Jerame Tuman to set up its first score, a one-yard run by Chris Floyd, on its second possession of the game. Both teams had minimal success moving the ball the remainder of the half, although Colorado did drive to the Michigan 24 before quarterback John Hessler was intercepted. Another Buff drive lost momentum when, after reaching midfield, there was a five-minute delay while Michigan officials tried to repair a broken down marker.

Trailing 17-0 and desperately trying to get back in the game, Hessler was intercepted for the third of four times, and three plays later Griese passed to Russell Shaw for a 2-yard score and an insurmountable 24-0 lead.

CU did avert its first shutout in 100 games when Jason Lesley punched through a career-best 52-yard field goal with 3:32 left in the third quarter.

Michigan amassed 426 yards on offense, doing the most damage by possessing the ball for 34:24. A bright spot for CU was free safety Ryan Sutter, who set a school record for tackles by a defensive back with 28.

The loss snapped CU's eight-game winning streak on grass, and marked the first time since 1991 that the Buffs didn't win their first two games of the season.

Michigan went on to claim a share of the national championship with a 12-0 record, while Woodson won the Heisman trophy.

FINALLY AN EXPERIENCED UNIT

The returning players on the '16 CU roster played in 1,072 games in their combined careers heading into the season—the most since the 2005 team (1,080); they also started 412 games, the most-ever in school history, besting the 333 by the '79 team (the 2015 Buffs were next with 327, followed by 326 in '01). Sixty-one players on the roster had appeared in at least one game (24 in 20 or more), with nine making at least 20 starts and 17 making 10. And for the first time in recent memory, almost half of the CU roster are upperclassmen: there are 116 players on the overall active roster, 56 of which are juniors (33) and seniors (23); and of those 116, there are 109 that coach Mike MacIntyre and his staff have brought in (four recruiting classes, transfers and walk-ons).

"THE MIRACLE IN MICHIGAN"Colorado 27, Michigan 26*SEPTEMBER 24, 1994*MICHIGAN STADIUM, ANN ARBOR

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Call it what you want: "The Miracle in Michigan," "The Throw" or "The Catch," but Kordell Stewart's 64-yard touchdown pass to Michael Westbrook on the final play of the game is cemented in history as one of the most dramatic scenes in nearly 150 years of college football.

The play lifted No. 7 Colorado to a 27-26 win over No. 4 Michigan.

The Buffs trailed 26-14 with just under three minutes left, and the comeback was on. Stewart engineered a 10-play, 72-yard drive in just 96 seconds, with Rashaan Salaam scoring from one yard out to cut the UM lead to 26-21. After an unsuccessful onside kick attempt, it was up to the Buff defense: hold Michigan without a first down and hope to give the ball back to the offense for one last try.

That's exactly what happened, as the defense stifled Michigan, holding the Wolverines to just seven yards (and to only 13 in their last three possessions), enabling the offense to run a couple of more plays. Chris Hudson fair caught the UM punt at the CU 15 with 0:15 remaining; Stewart then connected with Westbrook for 21 yards to get the ball out to the Buff 36, where he spiked the ball on first down to set up the last play. Called the "Rocket Jet," four CU receivers sprinted to the goal line, where Stewart threw the ball perfectly, some 72 yards in the air. That's where Blake Anderson tipped the ball into the waiting hands of Westbrook, stunning the 106,427 in attendance and no doubt millions more watching on national television.

Colorado had worked to a rather easy 14-3 lead over Michigan midway through the second quarter, only to see the Wolverines play perfect football for the next quarter-and-a-half in scoring 23 straight points and the 26-14 edge.

Stewart had 379 yards of total offense, the third most in a game in CU history at the time, with Salaam rushing for 141 yards on 22 carries (the most by an opponent back in the "Big House" in 21 years), and Westbrook catching seven passes for 157 yards.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL STAT / 1951

In 1951, television was basically still in its infancy; programs that debuted that year included I Love Lucy, Amos & Andy, Dragnet and The Roy Rogers Show. But it was a big year for sports debuts as well:

- August 11 - The first baseball game is televised in color, a doubleheader between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Boston Braves.
- September 29 - The first live sporting event seen coast-to-coast, a college football game between Duke University and the University of Pittsburgh, is televised on NBC.
- September 29 - CBS broadcasts the first college or pro football game in color, between the University of California and the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.
- October 3 - The first live coast-to-coast network telecast of a World Series game (New York Yankees-New York Giants).

And for the Buffaloes, they had their first-ever game televised on Nov. 17, 1951 from Lincoln, Neb. It was an independent broadcast, one billed as "part of the NCAA's experimental TV plan." Westinghouse was the sponsor, it was a regional telecast on 19 stations throughout the Midwest, stretching from Toledo to Kansas City; the game was not on in Colorado (and for some reason, blacked out in Schenectady. Bill Stern and Ray Michael were the announcers. As far as the game was concerned, Nebraska took an early 7-0 lead but Colorado eventually ran away with it, 36-14.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 17

Colorado is 6-1 all-time on September 17, having first played on the date in 1901 when the Buffs toppled State Prep (now Boulder High School), 5-0, to open the season; CU next played on the date 65 years later. Highlighted games: 1967—The Buffs fall to Miami, Fla., in their only other opener on the date, 24-3, in a defensive battle in Boulder. The Hurricanes held CU to just 178 total yards (46 rushing), with seven passes intercepted in the game, four by the Buffaloes. A look back: 1977—TB James Mayberry rushed for 95 yards and two touchdowns, QB Jeff Knapple completed 12-of-17 passes for 278 yards and a score and WR Steve Gauntty caught three balls for 124 yards including a 79-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring as the Buffaloes toppled Kent State, 42-0. CU's defense limited the Golden Flashes to just 137 total yards. 1983—In the renewal of CU-CSU series after a 25-year dormancy, the Buffs sprinted out to a 24-0 second quarter lead over the Rams en route to a 31-3 win. QB Steve Vogel threw a pair of touchdown passes to WR Loy Alexander, and the CU defense held the Rams to 234 total yards, just 42 rushing on as many attempts; the Buffs rushed for 233 (100 by TB Chris McLemore on 13 carries) and had 386 overall. 1988—QB Sal Aunese's 1-yard plunge with 1:55 remaining in the game capped an 85-yard drive to rally Colorado to a 24-21 win at No. 19 Iowa. TB Eric Bieniemy rushed for 153 yards, but it was Aunese's calm demeanor leading the comeback that paved the way for the first real signature road win over a ranked team in Bill McCartney's tenure. A fierce CU defense held Iowa to 75 rushing yards—on 38 tries, with SS Bruce Young and ILB Don DeLuzio each recording 11 tackles. 1994—The No. 7 Buffaloes steamrolled the defending Rose Bowl champion and No. 10 Wisconsin Badgers, 55-17, in Boulder. TB Rashaan Salaam rushed for 85 yards (his only non-100 yard game that season) and four touchdowns, tying the school record, while QB Kordell Stewart completed 8-of-15 passes for 249 yards and two scores; Buff receivers averaged 27.7 yards per catch in chewing up the Wisconsin secondary. 2011—Colorado defeated CSU in Denver, 28-14, to give new head coach Jon Embree his first win. QB Tyler Hansen threw for 215 yards and two touchdowns, while TB Rodney Stewart had 98 yards rushing and another 93 receiving. SEPTEMBER 17 COLORADO MVP: QB Sal Aunese. He completed 5-of-8 passes for 116 yards, and rushed for 31 yards and two touchdowns in CU's 24-21 win at No. 19 Iowa in 1988. CU led 14-0 only to see Iowa claw back and take a 21-17 lead in the third quarter.

FINAL NON-LEAGUE TUNE-UP FOR THE BUFFALOES

Saturday's Michigan game is CU's final non-conference test of the season ahead of the Pac-12 opener a week later at Oregon; the Buffs enter the contest with a 10-2 record in non-league games under fourth-year coach Mike MacIntyre. It's just the third non-league game outside the state for the Buffs under MacIntyre (who is 3-2 away from home in non-league, but three of those games were in Denver; the other two were at Massachusetts and Hawai'i). He is looking for his first win against a ranked opponent, both as head coach of the Buffaloes (0-11) and overall (0-18). The Buffs have had a few close calls, particularly against UCLA, falling by 35-31 in Pasadena to the No. 24 ranked Bruins last year after losing 40-37 in double overtime in 2014 in Boulder to the No. 24 club. A breakthrough win looms for the program, with as many as six of CU's next seven opponents with the potential to be ranked.

In Colorado history there have been a number of the most successful coaches who found success against ranked opponents once they finally got that first victory over a top 25 team under their belt. Bill McCartney lost his first 13 games against ranked opponents before a monumental 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska at Folsom Field in 1986. From there on out McCartney went 19-18-2 against ranked opponents, which included the 1991 Orange Bowl victory over No. 5 Notre Dame that gave CU the 1990 National Championship. Eddie Crowder dropped his first seven games against ranked opponents before defeating No. 10 Baylor on the road in 1966. Crowder went 12-14 against top 25 teams after getting his first win over a ranked opponent under his belt and had eight wins over top 10 teams after that.

Back to the present, MacIntyre looks to join Crowder and Rick Neuheisel as CU coaches to pick up their first win over a ranked opponent on the road. Neuheisel led CU to a 43-7 win at No. 21 Wisconsin in his very first game as the Buffs head coach, which is the third-largest win in Colorado history over a ranked opponent (behind McCartney's pair of 38-point victories over No. 10 Wisconsin and No. 22 Oklahoma in 1994).

WHEN THE TWO LAST PLAYED IN 1997 ...

- ▶ Colorado was ranked No. 8 in the nation entering the game, Michigan No. 14;
- ▶ Bill Clinton was in his next-to-last year of his second term as the United States' 42nd president;
- ▶ The Grammy Award for Song of the Year went to Shawn Colvin for Sunny Came Home (personal to the writer as my brother engineered the tune);
- ▶ Titanic won the Oscar for Best Picture, and The Lion King opened on Broadway;
- ▶ Michigan (AP) and Nebraska (Coaches) split the national championship ... Colorado played both, losing 27-3 to UM and 27-24 to Nebraska.

TURNOVER STREAK

Colorado was one of only six schools in the nation to force at least one turnover in every game in 2015 (and the only Power 5 school to do so); Boise State, Northern Illinois, Marshall, Georgia State and Toledo joined the Buffaloes. CU forced 22 turnovers last year (14 interceptions, eight fumble recoveries); that was the most by the Buffaloes in a season since forcing 25 in 2009. Three schools on that list did not force an opponent miscue in the season opener, thus the Buffaloes are now tied with North Carolina in the most consecutive games forcing at least one turnover. Consecutive Games Forcing A Turnover Through Games of September 10 (W-L record): Colorado 15 (6-9), North Carolina 15 (12-3), Alabama 14 (14-0), Marshall 14 (11-3).

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

There are two players on the current CU roster that scored a touchdown on their first career touch (both on offense). Jay MacIntyre did it a redshirt frosh against Nicholls State a year ago, and last week, Kabion Ento became the 14th known player to do in CU history. Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see page 24), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

A FIRST BY MONTEZ SINCE 1959 ... WE'RE PRETTY SURE

Colorado redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez became the first know player in CU history to throw a touchdown on his first career passing attempt since Joe Dowler did so back in 1959. Montez hit Kabion Ento on a 69-yard scoring strike in the second quarter last week against Idaho State. Dowler did so on Oct. 3, 1959 at Oklahoma, a 15-yard TD pass to Kirk Campbell in a 42-12 loss to the Sooners.

A FIRST WE ARE SURE OF ... BY JULMISSE

CB Tony Julmisse became the first Buffalo since CB Greg Henderson's junior season in 2013 to record a take-away in each of the first two games of the year. Julmisse, a true freshman from Plantation, Fla., (pronounced joel-meese) recovered a fumble in the opener against CSU and then had his first career interception last week against Idaho State. Henderson's open to the 2013 season was quite impressive, as he returned a fumble 53 yards for a touchdown in the opener against Colorado State and came back the next week with a 46-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown in a win over Central Arkansas. Henderson would then go on to have a pick in the third game of the 2013 season against Oregon State and two more interceptions in week four against Oregon. That was a total of five takeaways that Henderson was responsible for in the first four weeks of the 2013 season.

HEY, I'M BACK HERE TOO

When it comes to the Buff secondary, CB Chidobe Awuzie gets the lion's share of attention. But right next to him is a force in his own right, SS Tedric Thompson. He picked off the seventh pass of his career in the third quarter in the season-opening win over Colorado State. Thompson joined 28 other Buffaloes in program history to record seven or more interceptions in a career, the most recent of those being CB Terrence Wheatley who had 14 interceptions in his career that spanned from 2003-07. Thompson has 178 tackles in his career and needs 22 more tackles to become the 70th player in school history to record 200; he would join teammates Chidobe Awuzie (224) and Addison Gillam (207) on that list.

2016 GAME RECOGNITIONS

Here is the list of those players who carried Colorado's symbolic artifacts when they took the field prior to each game; the sledgehammer is awarded for the toughest legal hit in the previous game (or in camp):

Colorado State	OLB Derek McCartney	ILB Ryan Severson	OLB Terran Hasselbach	TB Kyle Evans
Idaho State	TE Chris Hill	DT Jordan Carrell	TE Brian Boatman	DE Aaron Howard

INSIDE-THE-20

(FACT: CU invented charting the red zone in 1981; as in the NFL, the 20 is not in the red zone in its stats)

Under MacIntyre, Colorado is 119-of-146 in the red zone (81.5 percent, 79 touchdowns), and in 2013-14, had the best two-year scoring percentage since 1994-95 (86.7, 91-of-105, 73 TDs). The Buffs struggled a bit in 2015, going 38-of-53 (and scored TDs in 17-of-25 goal-to-go situations), but have opened 2016 in impressive fashion, going 15-of-16 (12 TDs, 3 FGs) against Colorado State. In 2014, Colorado had 40 scores in 45 trips when penetrating the opponent 20-yard line (including 29 touchdowns), numbers well up from his first season in 2013 (26-of-32, with 14 TDs, so CU doubled its red zone TD production from 2013). The 29 TDs were the second most in the last 19 seasons in the red zone (30 in 2007, otherwise you go back to 33 in 1995); the overall scoring percentage of 88.9 was the best since 1997 (89.7, 35-of-39).

TOP DEFENSE vs. TOP OFFENSE

Granted it's early in the season, but this week's matchup features one of the nation's top defenses against one of the top offenses. Michigan ranks No. 5 in the FBS in scoring offense at 57.0 points per game with 471.5 yards of offense (38th). Colorado's defense ranks No. 6 in the FBS by giving up 7.0 points per game and leads the nation in total defense at 160.5 yards per game. The leaders in total defense, along with the top five two-game, season-opening defensive efforts by the Buffaloes dating back to 1970 (since records are available back to the 1940s):

AND MORE DEFENSE

A year ago Colorado ranked 91st in the country in explosive plays allowed (plays of 20 yards or more), giving up 66 in 13 games. In CU's 2016 season opener the Buff defense only allowed one explosive play in the win over Colorado State (a late 24-yard run by Ram quarterback Faton Bauta). Last week against Idaho State, the Buffaloes did not allow one explosive play in the 56-7 victory where CU only gave up 96 total yards to the Bengals (the second year in a row that Mike MacIntyre's Buffaloes have held an opponent under 100 yards – UMass gained only 97 yards in a Buffalo 48-14 win last year also in week two). In fact, Idaho State had just one play of 10 yards or longer and only 10 that gained five yards or more.

Michigan's offense meanwhile has 12 explosive plays through the first two weeks of the season. The Wolverines had five explosive plays in their season-opening 63-3 win over Hawai'i when it put up 512 yards of offense. U-M last week registered seven plays of 20 or more yards in a 51-14 win over Central Florida when it had 447 yards of offense.

ASSAULT ON LIUFAU

Senior QB Sefo Liufau has been criticized by some because he has a 10-21 record as a starter and like most quarterbacks, has had a few untimely interceptions. The three-year starter (30 starts, school record is 35) has had to endure a lot of hits and pressure while never having the luxury of playing behind an experienced offensive line (or one that has been healthy for most of a season). In his career, he has dropped back to pass 1,196 times; he has been sacked 52 times (the sixth-most in school history, see below); otherwise he is 726-of-1,144 for 7,919 yards with 52 touchdowns and 30 interceptions. His 63.5 completion percentage stands to be the best in school history (Joel Klatt has the record of 60.8). But that doesn't tell the whole story: Liufau has had 159 of his throws hurried, which is tallied when the quarterback is rushed and throws an incompleteness or interception. Thus a whopping 39 percent of his non-completeness have been when he is on the run (159 of 418); to put that in perspective, it's the second most throws by a Colorado QB that have been hurried—Cody Hawkins had 172 of such in his career. And of his 30 interceptions, six came on tips or break-ups. Despite the above, he has set or tied 78 school records, which are listed on the previous page.

CU'S MOST SACKED QUARTERBACKS (No./Yards Lost): Tyler Hansen 82/617 (2008-11); Mike Moschetti 64/481 (1998-99); Bill Solomon 63/447 (1977-80); Joel Klatt 62/416 (2003-05); Kordell Stewart 55/451 (1991-94); Sefo Liufau 52/335 (2013-16); Cody Hawkins 49/384 (2007-10).

QB Sefo Liufau had easily been a part of the most plays (858) by the end of a sophomore year in CU history. He now ranks first all-time on the CU charts, the fifth to participate in 1,000 plays, and he took over the all-time mark with his 47 plays in the '16 season opener against Colorado State. LIUFAU SIXTH TO CRACK 100, FIRST TO DO IT TWICE

QB Sefo Liufau became the sixth player in CU history to throw at least 100 passes without an interception, reaching the plateau in CU's win over Nicholls State. The streak reached 107 before Oregon picked him off on his third throw of the game; he then went his next 46 without a pick until early in the Arizona State game, and then had another run of 118 before his one to become the first Buff with two streaks of 100+. His current streak stands at 64 through games of Sept. 10; here are the longest streaks in CU history:

139	Joel Klatt	(five games, Oct. 15 to Nov. 12, 2005)
131	Tyler Hansen	(four games, Sept. 3 to Oct. 1, 2011)

OPENING DEPTH CHART NOTES

The Buffs released their season-opening depth chart on August 27, and it showed that the Buffaloes finally had more upperclassmen filling out the depth chart than at any other time in coach Mike MacIntyre's previous three seasons in Boulder. In the two-deep, including all players expected to see game action in the opener against Colorado State (22 scrimmage positions plus four special teams—P, PK, SN, H), there are 17 seniors — as compared to just nine a year ago. In the first game, CU started 19 upperclassmen (9 seniors, 10 juniors), along with two sophomores and one redshirt freshman.

► Last year, CU did not start a freshman, true or redshirt, in the season opener for the first time since 2005; the Buffs had started at least one true freshman in each of the last four seasons prior to his year as well. Redshirt Tim Lynott, Jr., is slated to open at left guard for the Buffaloes this year.

THE “RUSHING/PASSING” QB

QB Sefo Liufau is 12th at CU in all-time rushing by a quarterback (eighth-best average per attempt); he didn't score a rushing touchdown in his career until his junior season, when he scored five before suffering a season-ending foot injury (Lisfranc) against USC (the most scored in a season by CU quarterback since Bernard Jackson scored seven in 2006). He had a touchdown receiving (against Arizona as a sophomore in 2014, coming on his 785th career touch), but didn't carry one over the goal line until his 22nd game, which was against Massachusetts in Boulder (and his 931st play). The list of CU's all-time rushing yards by quarterbacks adjusted to allow for sacks (*—Anderson switched to tailback in the third game of the 1969 season):

AWUZIE CLIMBING D-BACK SACK CHART

CB Chidobe Awuzie is in position to become CU's all-time quarterback sack leader — among defensive backs. He had four last season and five for his career, which has is third all-time. He was also the first CU defensive back to record a quarterback sack in three straight games. Awuzie also has cracked CU's top 100 in tackles, as he is 55th with 224.

Here's a look at the list of CU defensive backs with the most career sacks:

DÉJÀ VU: STARTING TWINS

In 2015, the Buffs were the only team in the country (FBS) who had twins that are both in the starting lineup, until Jeromy Irwin was lost for the season with a knee injury in the UMass game. He was starting at left tackle and Sean Irwin at tight end. The duo started three games in 2014 (the first two against CSU and Massachusetts and the finale against Utah). Several other teams have twins, and in a few cases, more than one set, but the Irwins were the only starting pair to start the season; they're technically not twins—they're two-thirds of a set of triplets (the other brother doesn't play football).

- Colorado also has another pair of twins, Drew and Troy Lewis, both sophomore junior college transfers from Coffeyville, Kan.

GONZALEZ OFF TO A GOOD START

PK Diego Gonzalez is off to a good start after struggling at the end of 2015. He opened up with 14 points against Colorado State (5-5 PAT, 3-3 FG), and booted eight of his nine kickoffs through the end zone for touchbacks. He followed that up with a 7-of-7 PAT kick performance with all five kickoffs beyond the end zone against Idaho State. In 2015 he was named first-team kicker, and he went on to make the first five field goals of his career before one was blocked in the first half against Colorado State; despite missing what would have been a game-winning 48-yard kick at the end of regulation, he bounced back with a 32-yarder in overtime to give CU the 27-24 win; those were his first two attempts at a game winning kick in his life, dating back to high school.

- He has made good on all 47 of his extra-point kicks, helping extend CU's school record streak to 151.
- He became the 49th player (and 16th placekicker) to score 100 career points in a CU uniform.
- As a junior, he made the most field goals in a first season as CU's regular placekicker (18-of-29), topping Fred Lima, who was 15-of-34 in 1972; the 18 field goals also tied the fourth most in a season in school annals and his 89 points were the fifth most scored by kicking in a single-season at CU (record is 98 by Ken Culbertson in 1989).

MR. LONG GAIN

He's only barely halfway through his CU career, but junior WR Shay Fields already has six plays from scrimmage that are 50 yards or longer; the school record is 13, set by WR Paul Richardson (2010-13). Fields' long-gainers:

75	at Arizona	2014	Pass from Sefo Liufau (TD)	65	vs. Colorado State	2015	Pass from Sefo Liufau (TD)
72	Arizona	2015	Pass from Sefo Liufau (TD)	60	vs. Colorado State	2016	Pass from Sefo Liufau
67	at Arizona State	2015	Pass from Sefo Liufau	52	Utah	2014	Pass from Sefo Liufau

TYING A STRANGE LOW

OLB Jimmie Gilbert led the Buffs with five tackles (three solo) in the 56-7 win over Idaho State ... that matched the lowest number of tackles that has ever led the Buffaloes in a game (CB Lorenzo Sims had five, all solo, in a 44-10 win at Iowa State on Nov. 15, 2003). Thirty different players played anywhere from six to 30 snaps on defense in the game, easily the most in recent history.

TRIFECTA ACCOMPLISHED; GOING FOR THE RARE QUADFECTA

There's a real rarity on this year's Colorado defense — the last three players to lead the team in tackles are all still playing. In 2013, ILB Addison Gillam led the team as a true freshman with 119 (easily the frosh record); in 2015, sophomore ILB Kenneth Olugbode finished atop the list with 83; and last year, redshirt freshman ILB Rick Gamboa had the honors with 96. It's possible any of the three could lead the team again this season, but watch out for CB Chidobe Awuzie; the senior is already tied for 14th at Colorado in solo tackles with 186 and has been flirting with the team lead like a popular song sneaking its way up the top 10: he was sixth as a freshman (59), third as a sophomore (64) and second last year (90).

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. The Buffs had the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, tied with Pittsburgh for the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 300), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 11, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

- CU received one vote in each of the AP and Coaches polls of Sept. 6, the first time since Sept. 21, 2008 that the Buffs received at least one vote in each (CU opened 3-0 that year and started getting attention after a 17-14 overtime win over West Virginia; CU had 39 points in the AP poll and 30 in the Coaches). The Buffs lost 39-21 to Florida State at Jacksonville the following week, falling out of the USA Today poll but still earning two points in the AP's — the last time CU received at least one vote in either poll until this year. The Buffs had 2 points in the polls released on Sept. 11 (note: CU coach Mike MacIntyre votes in the Coaches poll, but he did not vote for his own team; UCLA occupied the 25th spot).

43 WINS OVER RANKEd TEAMS 19TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season (when the AP expanded to a top 25) are the 19th most in the nation in this time frame (27-plus seasons). Through games of Sept. 10, Florida State has the most (79), followed by Alabama (75), Ohio State (75), Florida (72), Michigan (66), LSU (65), Southern Cal (62), Oklahoma (60), Miami, Fla. (57), Tennessee (55), Georgia (52), Oregon (52), Texas (52), Auburn (51), UCLA (51), Notre Dame (50), Penn State (47), Nebraska (46), Washington (44), Colorado (43) and Clemson (41). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the sixth most ranked teams in the nation (125, with a record of 43-80-2), trailing only Florida (139; 72-66-1), LSU (134; 65-69), Alabama 131 (75-55-1), Michigan 128 (66-60-2) and Ohio State 126 (75-48-3); the leader in wins, Florida State, has played 121; 79-42. (AP polls used for these figures; coaches' poll omits teams on probation but the AP does not.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost 22 straight against ranked teams, going 0-3 in 2015 (0-5 in 2014; last win: 34-30 over Kansas in 2009); the Buffs have lost 26 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

WR Devin Ross caught eight passes in the season opener against Colorado State, six of which earned first downs; coming into the 2016 season, he had 10 total for his career (nine last year, one in 2013).

OBSCURE NOTES IN 2015

- ▶ CU did not start a freshman, true or redshirt, in the season opener (at Hawai'i) for the first time since 2005; the Buffs had started at least one true freshman on either offense or defense in each of the last four seasons prior to his year as well.
- ▶ CU's win over UMass came in the program's 1200th game; the Buffs also won their 100th, 200th, 300th, 400th, 500th, 700th, 800th, 900th and 1000th.
- ▶ PPP (Pass Protection & Picks): Colorado did not throw an interception or allow a quarterback sack in the Massachusetts, Colorado State or Nicholls State games; how rare is that to accomplish in back-to-back-to-back games? The last time it happened was back in 1989, when the Buffs went three straight games without either (Oct. 7-21: wins over Missouri, Iowa State and Kansas); that's believed to be the only other time it has happened in documented history (records back to 1946; though CU started tracking sacks in the late 1960s, there is only one stretch prior to 1989 where CU went four straight games without an interception – 1985 – but did allow a sack in that span). Thus, four straight games without allowing a sack or throwing a pick has not occurred at Colorado.
- ▶ Against Nicholls State, kickoff coverage played a huge role in field position: the Colonels average start was at their own 15; all five returns attempted by Nicholls didn't make it out to the 20 (the average was their 12: each at the 11-, 3-, 13-, 18- and 13-yardlines). Credited with tackles inside-the-20 were FB Jordan Murphy (two) and OLB Jaleel Awini, S Ryan Moeller and ILB Ryan Severson with one.
- ▶ Colorado did not have a negative play on offense against Nicholls until its 92nd and 93rd plays—two kneel-downs at the end of the game.
- ▶ They come in bunches: CB Ahkello Witherspoon had his first career interception against Oregon and then recorded his second in the next game at Arizona State; S Jered Bell had two against Nicholls State, and last year, S Tedric Thompson had three in a span of four games. After making only three in 2014 (and none in the last eight games), the Buffs are on pace to pick off their most passes since 2007 (15), 2001 (17) or 1992 (18); the latter is generally considered to have one of CU's top secondaries ever with two Thorpe Award winners. Colorado had an interception in six straight games to open the season (the last time with picks in six straight in the same season was a six-game stretch in 2004).

Here's a look at the nation's longest PAT made streaks through games of September 10; the NCAA record is 262, set by Syracuse between 1978 and 1989:

CAPTAINS

On July 5, the team met to elect their 2016 captains; after a discussion of who they thought would be the best leaders on several fronts, the five who emerged as CU's captains are seniors QB Sefo Liufau and ILB Kenneth Olugbode and juniors FB/TE George Frazier, OT Jeromy Irwin and TB Phillip Lindsay. An interesting note on Liufau: having been named a captain as a sophomore in 2014 and again last year, he is now just the second CU player to serve as a team captain for three seasons, the first since Pat Carney did so over 120 years ago (1891-92-93).

▶ Liufau is one of six players in the nation currently serving in his third year as a team captain; he's joined by LB Dakota Cox (New Mexico), Taysom Hill (BYU), Ryan Janvion (Wake Forest), Mitch Leidner (Minnesota) and Pat O'Connor (Eastern Michigan). North Carolina's Mack Hollins is a three-time captain, but UNC elects captains after the season.

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last 15 years, Colorado has had 261 of its 286 seniors graduate, or translating to 91.3 percent in this time frame (including 17 of the 20 seniors in 2015); these are the 2001-2015 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last eight years, 146 of the last 156 have graduated (93.6%), with three of those 10 playing in the NFL and haven't been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.65 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2015 semester is its third highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has nine straight semester GPA's over 2.50.

BALL SECURITY UNDER MAC

The Buffaloes had 20 fumbles in 2015, a high in the MacIntyre Era, but still a relatively low number for 13 games, especially considering seven were by quarterbacks while being sacked and three others came on bad center snaps (and two others came on the Arizona game's final play when CU tried laterally the ball several times). In 39 games under Mike MacIntyre, CU has not lost a fumble in 15 of those and just one in 17 other games (meaning more than one only seven times); CU still has just 50 total fumbles in his time as head coach. In the three-plus seasons, the tailbacks have been exceptionally good: they total just 10 fumbles in 1,162 attempts, or one every 116.2 carries (they didn't have a fumble among them in Mac's first year until the ninth game of the year—254 attempts). Career counts: Michael Adkins II has just two in 253 touches (226 rushes) and Phillip Lindsay five in 331 (246 rushes; but two of those were on kickoff returns as a freshman).

- In three-plus seasons under MacIntyre, the Buffs have just the 49 fumbles in 3,522 touches, or one for every 71.9 plays (this year: four in 212 touches: 177 offensive plays, 23 special team snaps, 12 returns).
- CU established a team record in 2014 for the fewest fumbles in a season — 12 — breaking the mark the '13 team set (14). The six lost fumbles in 2014 were the second fewest ever to five recovered by the opponent in 1956 (out of 23 total). And of the 50 fumbles, the Buffs have lost just 27.

ADKINS, LINDSAY MAKES IT 52 & 53 FOR CU IN 1,000-YARD CAREER RUNNERS

In 2015, Michael Adkins became the 52nd player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career and later in the year, Phillip Lindsay joined him and became No. 53 to hit the grand mark. CU is seventh all-time in 1,000-yard runners; Oklahoma tops the list with 71 (and the Buffs are tied for ninth with the most 2,000-yard career runners). The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 1K and 2K plateaus:

In 1989, Colorado had four players on the roster at the same time with at least 1,000 career yards: TB Eric Bieniemy, TB J.J. Flannigan, QB Darian Hagan and FB Erich Kissick. Only two other times did the Buffs have three players that had hit that plateau on the same team, in 1993: FB James Hill, TB Rashaan Salaam and TB Lamont Warren and in 2015: Christian Powell, Michael Adkins and Phillip Lindsay.

Mike MacIntyre is entering his third season as the head coach of the University of Colorado football program, and his sixth season as a collegiate head coach; he has a 12-27 record at Colorado and is 28-48 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. A veteran coach of 23 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his late father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 51, has coached in a total of 332 football games in his career (76 as a head coach): 173 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ◆ He became just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins. Rick Neuheisel was the last to do both (in 1995).
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received my Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterback drills learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:
Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;
Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;
Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;
Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game (in both 2013 and 2014). MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On players having to be ready at a moment's notice to go into the game: "It's the only game in the world where you have 100 guys on the side watching just eleven in the game at any one time. So you're like the dog sitting on the porch. When that rabbit runs by, you've got to be ready to go."
- ◆ On playing music at practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ Unhappy that he had gained weight since college, slowly adding one or two pounds here and there over the years (and of course recruiting season never helps when the coaches often eat two or even three dinners at various recruits' homes), he decided to do something about it. After the 2013 season, he read the book, Why Diets Fail Us; he started to eat much healthier, consumed either one or two nutrition-rich shakes a day (as replacement meals) and increased his workout regimen. The end result was that after six months, he dropped 63 pounds (he now weighs what he did as a junior in high school; he played at 175 in college).
- ◆ MacIntyre is a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll for third straight year and fourth time overall; coaches are selected by a random draw (he is one of six Pac-12 voters). CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 27 of the last 30 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million. In February 2014, CU's Board of Regents approved a one-year extension to the contract that takes him through the 2018 season.

- ♦ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ♦ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MacINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

THE CLASS OF '13

Ahead of the 2013 season, 31 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 14 of whom (denoted by an *) were first-time head coaches on the collegiate level. Here's a look at what coaches make up the "class of 2013" and their records through games of September 10:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are defensive coordinator Jim Leavitt, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat, safeties coach Joe Tumpkin, co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach Darrin Chiaverini, offensive line coach Klayton Adams and running backs coach Darian Hagan. In the coaches booth are co-offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, tight ends/H-backs coach Gary Bernardi and cornerbacks coach Charles Clark. All four graduate assistants are also in the press box: John Hughes and Peter Tuitupou (offense) and Corey Edsall and Chidera Uzo-Diribe (defense), as is Nate Taye (quality control/defense). On the sideline are the other quality control personnel, Daniel DaPrato (offense) and Matt Thompson (special teams). Colorado signals in plays when not brought in by substituting players on offense (signal on defense).

2016 COACHING CHANGES

There were two offseason staff personnel moves. Darrin Chiaverini was hired as co-offensive coordinator, receivers coach and recruiting coordinator (replacing Troy Walters, who moved on to an OC position with Central Florida). Darian Hagan was named running backs coach, essentially replacing the position on staff held by Toby Neinas, who was the special teams coordinator (those duties will be shared among the staff). Klayton Adams moved from coaching the running backs and tight ends to the offensive line, and Gary Bernardi switched over from the OL to the tight ends/H-backs. In addition, Drew Wilson was named CU's director of strength and conditioning in January. MacIntyre's first two staffs (2013, 2014) were the same.

➔ The CU staff has remained intact twice since Bill McCartney's 1988 and 1989 teams, in 2011-12 and 2013-14.

FOURTH YEAR OFTEN A CHARM

MacIntyre is the 11th coach in CU history (out of 25 full-time) who is coaching the school for a fourth consecutive season. Seven of the previous 10 led CU to a winning season in their fourth year, one had a .500 mark and two others had losing records. The most dramatic fourth-year by a coach in the program came in 1985, when Bill McCartney's team went 7-5, equaling his win total for the first three years (7-25-1). He made the bold move in the offseason for the Buffaloes to switch to the wishbone on offense, which also helped the defense to improve dramatically. A look at Colorado's 11 coaches who coached the Buffs at least four straight years:

Head Coach	Inaugural Season	1st Yr Record	2nd Yr Record	3rd Yr Record	4th Yr Record	Notes
Fred Folsom.....	1895	5-1	5-0	7-1	4-4	Folsom would have a second run of four-plus straight years (1908-15)

Bunny Oakes.....	1935	5-4	4-3	8-1	3-4-1	Fourth team in '38 had to recover from the graduation of several key players, including Byron White
Dal Ward.....	1948	3-6	3-7	5-4-1	6-2-2	A 35-27 win over #20 Kansas in week three is Colorado's first-ever over a ranked opponent (AP poll)
Eddie Crowder.....	1963	2-8	2-8	6-2-2	7-3	Though team was denied a bowl invite, it was CU's most wins since a 9-2 mark in '61
Bill Mallory.....	1974	5-6	9-3	8-4	7-3-1	Buff's ascend to No. 3 ranking nationally with 5-0 start but couldn't maintain second half of the year
Bill McCartney.....	1982	2-8-1	4-7	1-10	7-5	CU earned the nation's Most Improved Team honor from the NCAA (+5½ over the '84 season)
Rick Neuheisel.....	1995	10-2	10-2	5-6	8-4	Buff's rebound from staying home in '97 postseason and trounce Oregon in Aloha Bowl
Gary Barnett.....	1999	7-5	3-8	10-3	9-5	Colorado wins Big 12 North for a second straight year with 7-1 league mark (14-2 still one of best in Big 12)
Dan Hawkins.....	2006	2-10	6-7	5-7	3-9	Two losses in five days to open the year on a sour note, with four losses overall by 8 points or less
Mike MacIntyre.....	2013	4-8	2-10	4-9	2-0	Buff's gunning to be third team in CU history to post a winning record in Year 4 after a sub-.500 Year 3

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

The last four CU head coaches all have or have had media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) was a studio host on the Pac-12 Network for the network's first three years before moving on to CBS in 2015; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) was an analyst on Sports USA Radio and part of the lineup at SiriusXM, and now is tasked with replacing the legendary Larry Zimmer as analyst on CU's KOA-Radio team starting this fall; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute. And even Bill McCartney (1982-94) hosted a radio show in 2012 on 102.3 FM in Denver.

JEFFCOAT ON PAC-12 ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Two CU assistant coaches earned finalist status for the Pac-12 All-Century team announced in 2015, with defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat named to the final team as one of five defensive ends for accomplishments at Arizona State as a player. Former receivers coach Troy Walters was one of 10 finalists at the receiver position for which he won the '99 Biletnikoff Award at Stanford; he was named offensive coordinator at Central Florida on December 4.

JEFFCOAT'S PEDIGREE: RUSHING AND GETTING TO THE QB

Defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

TWO NEW TRADITIONS BEGUN IN 2013, THREE ADDED IN 2014

Mike MacIntyre installed a couple of new traditions in 2013 when the team took the field. One player carries out a toolbox and another a sledgehammer (the players will vote on who gets the nod). MacIntyre did this at San Jose State with a sword (because they were the Spartans) and the sledgehammer. The toolbox is representative of the commitment the players have made to each other and the team as a whole; now, there aren't actual tools in the box, rather it contains "commitment cards" where each player wrote down something of significance he will do in the game. So when they view the toolbox during the game, it will serve as a reminder of that commitment. The sledgehammer goes to the big hit of the previous game (the biggest or most important "legal" hit – the play cannot draw a penalty). In 2014, the staff added the "special teams belt" which is awarded to the special teams player of the week, a Buffalo head and midway through the season, added the flags of the United States and the state of Colorado. Here who has been honored with the three objects for player-of-the-week recognition in 2014:

BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Brad Bedell ('99), OL, Arkansas State; Ronnie Bradford ('92), DB, USC; Jason Burianek ('02), HC, Missouri Baptist; Darrin Chiaverini ('98), ST, Texas Tech; Cedric Cormier ('01), WR, UNLV; Rich Fisher ('92), WR, Nebraska; David Gibbs ('90), DC, Houston; Chris Naeole ('96), Interim HC/OL, Hawaii; Anthony Perkins ('11), CB, Ohio; Rod Perry ('75), DB, Oregon State; Pete Shinnick ('86), HC, West Florida; Steve Stripling ('76), Assoc. HC/DL, Tennessee; Ryan Walters ('08), DB, Missouri. IN THE FCS: Brian Cabral, AHC/DC ('78), Indiana State; Paul Creighton ('03), UC Davis, TE; Ty Gregorak ('99), DC/LB, Montana; Parker Orms ('13), GA/CB, West Georgia; Anthony Perkins ('11), DB, Indiana State; Jeff Smart ('09), LB, Penn. AND DOWN I-25 AT CSU-PUEBLO: Donnell Leomiti ('95), DB.

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) this year became the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseasons combined; he set the record with a 21-yard field goal late in the Packs' 27-17 win over Seattle on Sept. 20, 2015, his 13th point of the night (he made all four field goal tries in the game, including a 54-yarder, and an extra point). He now has scored 1,154 points in 145 regular season games and 118 in 15 playoff games for a total of 1,272 (through games of Sept. 11; he also has made an NFL record 20 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks (238 regular season, 23 postseason); Ryan Longwell previously owned all marks (1,054/226 and 85/15). Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points. How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawaii (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,384/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349); WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary this past August.

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 84 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including seven active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Mike MacIntyre and his oldest son, Jay; Colorado is one of a handful of schools to have it happen twice, as Dan Hawkins had son Cody on his CU teams from 2007-10.

Perhaps the most famous and best head coach father and son tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career).

Note: another famous combo was at Marshall, when they were a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

A FIRST? We polled the nation on two occasions, and no other instance has yet to turn up where a head coach had his father as a head coach in college and then had a son on a team that he is the head coach. But that appears to be the case with Mike MacIntyre, who was coached by his father George at Vanderbilt in 1984-85 and is now coaching his son, Jay, at Colorado.

There are currently eight schools where a player is playing for his head coach father, and in one case, two sons are (Iowa State). Here's a look at the all-time list of known head coaching father-player son pairings at the same school (#—denotes active in 2016):

While this is the second time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

Listed below are the career games played/started for the players on the 2016 Colorado Buffaloes. The players on the opening day roster collectively have played in 1,072 games, with 412 starts, both all-time highs for any returning Colorado team. Other recent years: 824/327 (2015), 904/314 (2014), 896/268 (2013), 674/223 (2012), 890/303 (2011), 877/313 (2010), 847/236 (2009), 817/277 (2008), 853/251 (2007) and 1,053/295 (2006). The list for 2016:

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 127th season of competition having played 1,213 games with an all-time record of 687-490-36. CU currently stands 25th on the all-time win list and is 37th in all-time winning percentage (.581; the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 127 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,223), with only USC (814) and Washington (705) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 304-169-10 (.640) in their 93rd season on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 6-7 all-time in overtime games (3-4 at home); the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last nine seasons, Buffs rallied from 10 or more points down 12 times, including once this season, rallying from its largest deficit ever against Colorado State to beat the Rams. In 2014, UMass was up by 11 early in the second half after cashing in on a pick-six. Two of the rallies came from 17 down: in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Eight have taken place in Boulder, a ninth (the first one) in Denver against Colorado State, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 36 occasions (and are 26-10 in games when this occurs). The last time it happened was against UCLA this year, when TB Patrick Carr rushed for 100 yards and WR Devin Ross hauled in nine passes for 101 yards. It was the fifth time CU's done it as a member of the Pac-12 (one each year), in 2014 against Washington, in 2013 against Charleston Southern, in 2012 at Washington State and against Arizona in 2011. In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 164 of the 2015 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2015 was 236,331, an average of 39,389 for six home games, about 2,000 more than CU's 2014 average. It marked the 21st straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 39th time in the last 41 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count so far in 2015 is just under 25,000 when adding in 7,354 student holders to 17,299 public tickets (those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2015, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 50th straight year, ahead of Air Force (26,026; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965) and Colorado State (24,917); all had six games. The Broncos averaged 76,939 fans per game in 2014 and around the same this year; the Rockies averaged 31,334 this past summer.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 565 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 42 straight games overall; last shutout was at home against Stanford on Nov. 3, 2012 (a 48-0 loss).
- CU has scored in 155 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 309 games (all the way back to 1963).

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 40-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 231 of 261 times, losing 27 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 34 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were last year, in the 38-31 loss to Arizona (led 24-17 entering the fourth) and in the 35-31 loss at UCLA (CU took a 31-28 lead early in the fourth); CU lost four games in 2014 where it had small fourth quarter advantages. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

➤ Colorado has won 115 of its last 136 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 37 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent are the first two games of the '13 season (CSU led briefly 26-24 late in the third quarter and into the fourth; UCA led 24-17, also early in the fourth); the two previous to those came by the same score: in 2012 at Washington State (won 35-34 after trailing 31-14 with 8:07 left) and in 2009 against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining). Two big ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

2015 INJURY COUNT SIXTH-WORST IN LAST 30 SEASONS

The injury bug hit the Buffs in 2015, as 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. The injury bug avoided Mike MacIntyre's first two teams for the most part, but last year was a different story: the Buffs lost 93 full games from players who figured in the two-deep (or those who regularly rotated in at the skill positions), and 120 games overall by the entire team. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 29 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost — percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

2010	12	103	924	11.1	88	528	16.7	1997	11	51	770	6.6	41	484	8.5

Dating back to 1987, only 10 times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2016 Record	Mike MacIntyre Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-53-2	8-21-1	0-2	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-90-3	14-36-2	0-3	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney

versus Top 25.....	69-159-3	43-80-2	0-11	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-Big 12 ranked foes in that period of the conference; Nebraska was next in both games (15) and wins (8), followed by Texas (13, 7).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 81-41 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 77-45-1 in its last 123 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 543-277-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FIFTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 15 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Junior ILB Kenneth Olugbode is the latest to join the "club," racing 60 yards for a score with his first pick in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State. That was the first in eight years, however, as the one previous came in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

➤ And two did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998) and Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

The longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (he would miss the final six games of the season). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games this season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (552 at the time) and Bill Hillgrove, Pittsburgh (535) had called more games than Zim, who was tied for fourth in the number of years calling major college football for the same team (42nd season) behind Robertson (49th), Hillgrove (46th) and Don Fischer, Indiana (43rd; South Carolina's Tommy Suggs was also in his 42nd year). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he's seen a total of 461 overall, working and non-working). SID Dave Plati has worked 434 overall, including the last 392 (dating to the '83 finale). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games — since 1940 (they turn 92 on Nov. 22). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 44th year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 19th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 23 seniors on its 2016 roster, and if history holds, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season. Thus far in 2016, five teams have scouted the Buffs in person at games: Arizona, Carolina, Denver, Minnesota and Philadelphia. Not including camps or practices, 753 scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are nine former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of September 12; there were 10 on the rosters at the end of the 2015 season. Colorado has had 236 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 266 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and the 22nd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th (29); nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; a—active/physically unable to perform; i—on injured reserve; p—practice squad):

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 29 of 39 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

THE VERTICAL GAME ... RETURNING?

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 50 "explosion" plays in 2015, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that's the most by a CU team since 2011. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass
1994	76	37	39	1999	57	12	45	2004	48	13	35	2009	44	7	37	2014	48	12	36

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)
 99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)
 99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays)
 99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays)
 99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays)

99—vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (74 percent of the entire roster—active, those reporting the first day of class and inactive—as of August 5: 86 of 116 players—includes others reporting later this summer). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 42, Colorado 35, Texas 9, Arizona 5, Georgia 5, Washington 4, Florida 3, Utah 3, Hawai'i 2, Arkansas 1, Idaho 1, New Jersey 1, Oklahoma 1, Oregon 1, Pennsylvania 1, Wisconsin 1. That's 16 states total along MEXICO (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Four Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: OL Mo Bandi (India), PK Diego Gonzalez (Monterrey, Mexico), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), C Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 310-23-1 when scoring 30 or more points (2-2 in 2015), along with records of 222-8 with 35-plus points and 205-6 with 36-plus, 182-4 with 38-plus and 117-2 with 43 or more tallies. The six losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012) and California (59-56 in 2014). CU has played 1,213 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 107-105-3 in its last 215 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 5-40 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 136 of its last 323 games, posting a 117-18-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 213 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 24-94-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2013, the Buffs enjoyed their best season on first down in years: CU averaged 5.83 for the season overall, their best since 2001 (6.7). In 2014, the average was 5.36 and last year climbed back to 5.76.
 - ➔ In 2016, the Buffs are averaging 8.35 per first down play (78 of them).
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 55 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 17 seasons (high of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 75 scores by return in 258 games (68 regular season, seven bowl). Seven in the MacIntyre Era (5 in 2013, 2 in 2015).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 42 times in the last 284 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it six times under MacIntyre. CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 200. The Buffs are 42-6 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 50-9 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ 600+. Colorado is 16-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first loss was last year when the Buffs had 630 in the 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU was 1-0 in 2015 after rolling up 636 against Nicholls State.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 81-90 in its last 171 games on grass, including a 51-53 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass (2-0 this season).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 96-58-3 in its last 157 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 62-43-3 mark in conference games. CU was 1-3 in 2015 after going 2-2 in 2014, 0-3 in 2013 and 1-2 in 2012.
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made, gaining 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, that number was 14.1 in 2005, 10.2; in 2006, 12.0; in 2007, 14.0; in 2008, 9.7 (the only time under 10 in this span); in 2009, 15.7; in 2010, 12.3; in 2011, 13.7; in 2012, 12.3; in 2013, 11.2.
- ➔ In 2014, CU allowed just 15 plays of 20 yards or more on third down: opponents overall gained 949 yards on 70 makes (13.6 per) and had a net 82 yards on the other 105 plays (0.78).
- ➔ Last year, CU allowed 17 plays of 20 yards or more on third down; opponents gained 1,122 yards on 87 makes (12.9), but on the 119 misses, have just 45 total yards (0.38 per).
- ➔ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 16-2 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, winning twice this season, in back-to-back games against Massachusetts and Colorado State, the first time it has happened in back-to-back games. It now marks three times under MacIntyre (including the 2014 CSU game); previous to that was against Cal in 2011 (both were losses). The last win previously had come against Nebraska in 2007 (65-51). In these 18 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 725-389, with only four games decided by less than 17 points.
- ➔ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 75 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 50-21-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under MacIntyre, CU is 4-2 in miscue-free contests.
- ➔ Opponents have made 157-of-196 field goals dating back to 2006 (80.1 percent), including 16-of-22 this year, 18-of-19 in 2014 and 64-of-73 (87.7) dating back to the 2012 opener. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 115-of-128 (89.8) on kicks inside 40 yards. In the same span, CU is 130-of-203 (64.0).
- ➔ Between 2010 and 2013, opponents had 279 plays of 20 yards or more, earning a combined 8,651 yards (31.0 yards per); the average annually has always hovered around 30 yards, which makes sense since the cutoff is all plays of 20 yards or longer. But it's the count that's the concern: in 2008, opponents had just 44 plays of 20-plus, followed by 53 (2009) and 50 (2010); those counts ballooned to 75 in 2011, 81 in 2012 and to 73 in 2013.
 - ➔ In 2013, opponents had 73 plays of 20 yards or more (out of 924), netting 2,316 yards (31.7 per) and 41.2 percent of the total yards (5,616); 7.9 percent of opponent plays were of the 20+ variety.
 - ➔ In 2014, opponents had 72 plays that gained 20 or more yards (8.5 percent of the 845 overall), with those collectively gaining 2,456 yards (1,472 pass/984 rush, 34.1 per).
 - ➔ In 2015, the number was a bit reduced: opponents had 65 plays over 20 yards, totaling 2,242 yards (still 34.5 per).
- ➔ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2014, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season just 14 times, before last year last doing so in 2001 (434.4), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season; CU gained 400-plus yards in nine of 11 regular season games that year. The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once – 303.5 – in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just three times including 2014.
 - ➔ In 2015, CU averaged 396.8 yards per outing; the Buffs almost averaged 400-plus yards in back-to-back years for the first time since a five year run from 1992-96.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-122 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09; Stanford is the last to do it (2011; the opponent is now 0-of-21 since). The CU offense is 11-of-130 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ CU has scored in 7 of 8 quarters in 2016 (38 of 52 in 2015), and in 114 of 156 under MacIntyre (73 percent).

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 28 seasons. A closer look:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
178 WINS	285	436	+ 151	1,426	603	+823
MacINTYRE ERA (12 WINS)	12	26	+14	86	38	+ 48

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 25-21 in games following a bye week since 1948, when the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference; CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 27 of 29 seasons, with two weeks off 11 of those years and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 22-19 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes an 0-4 mark as a member of the Pac-12 Conference (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013 and at USC last year). CU has no bye weeks in 2015.

2016 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1891 (Nov. 26) After going 0-4 in its first season of intercollegiate football the previous year, and dropping the first four games in '91, Colorado earns its first-ever win in the sport with a 24-4 win on the road against the Colorado Springs Athletic Association.
- 1896 Colorado records its first undefeated season with a 5-0-0 mark, outscoring the five opponents 161-6.
- 1901 After a one-year absence, Fred Folsom returns for his second of three stints as CU head coach, piloting the Buffs to a 5-1-1 mark.
- 1906 Colorado posts perhaps its weirdest record in its football history: 2-3-4, the four ties all of the scoreless variety. CU scored just 28 points but allowed only 32.
- 1911 The 105th anniversary of the third of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. Colorado outscored the six opponents 88-5, allowing one field goal on defense and a safety for the only points.
- 1916 The first year of the post-Fred Folsom Era, as CU's legendary coach retired following the 1915 season; Bob Evans takes over but the Silver & Gold go 1-5-1.
- 1921 (Oct. 29) CU travels its furthest east for a football game, some 926 miles, but lose 35-0 at the University of Chicago, then a powerhouse in college football; the only longer trip at the time in program history was a 1915 game against Washington in Seattle, 999 miles from the CU campus. Trains took CU to both locales.
- 1926 CU opens the year with four straight home games, only done three times since (1937, 1943 and 1978 – in all of which the first five were at Folsom Field).
- 1931 (Nov. 26) Colorado defeats Arizona in Tucson, 27-7, on Thanksgiving, the last time (and of three total) Thanksgiving Day games CU has played out of the state.
- 1936 (Nov. 7) Byron White sets a school record by scoring 25 points (4 TD, 1 PAT) in a 31-7 win at Utah. White sets up his All-America season the following year by rushing for 643 yards with 1,339 all-purpose yards and 10 touchdowns.
- 1946 Jim Yeager reassumes head coaching position after serving in World War II for two years. An Oct. 12 win at Wyoming (20-0) was played in a blizzard.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado drills Nebraska in Lincoln, 36-14, in the program's first-ever televised game. Bill Stern (play-by-play) and Ray Michael (commentary) call the game, produced independently and aired regionally on NBC.
- 1956 (Nov. 4) After giving Oklahoma fits most of the decade, the Sooners roll into Boulder ranked No. 1 in the nation, CU's first-ever against the No. 1 team, and it appears the Buffaloes might finally break through. CU builds a 19-6 halftime lead, only to see OU rally with 21 second half points for a 27-19 win. The Buffs go on to finish 4-1-1 in the Big 7, earning the invitation to the Orange Bowl where CU beat Clemson, 27-21, for the first bowl win in school history.
- 1961 Colorado won its first Big 8 Conference championship, its first league title since 1942 (when it shared the Mountain States crown). The two biggest wins were a 20-19 win over Kansas (after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), and a 7-6 win over No. 10 Missouri. A 7-0 win at Nebraska remains to this day one of the school's all-time defensive gems: the Buffs held Nebraska to 31 total yards and zero first downs. CU reached No. 6 in the polls but lost to No. 4 LSU in the Orange Bowl, 25-7. Joe Romig is named an All-American for the second straight year and earns the Rhodes Scholarship.
- 1966 Colorado finished second in the Big 8 Conference race with a 5-2 mark (7-3 overall), the two league setbacks by a combined three points, 11-10 at Oklahoma State and 21-19 against Nebraska. After losing 24-3 to open the season at No. 20 Miami, the Buffaloes bounce back and win at No. 10 Baylor, 13-7, in a game where CU was on a mission to win after its black players were subject to racist taunts, including on a pregame radio show piped into the team locker room.
- 1971 Artificial surfacing makes its debut in Boulder on Sept. 18 versus Wyoming, as an AstroTurf carpet blanketed Folsom Field; fittingly, it snowed two feet that day and likely prevented cancellation of the game. CU's stunning road upsets of No. 9 Louisiana State and No. 6 Ohio State paved the way for a 10-2 season, as the Big 8 owned the top three spots in the final Associated Press poll after the bowls. With Nebraska (#1), Oklahoma (#2) and Colorado (#3), it was the first and to date only time in history one conference has occupied all top three positions at the end of the year. Charlie Davis rushes for a then-record 1,386 yards for the season, including a still-record 342 against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, while Cliff Branch returns an NCAA record four punts for touchdowns. CU caps its first 10-win season with a 29-17 win over No. 15 Houston in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.
- 1976 It's the 40th anniversary of Colorado's second Big 8 Conference title with a 5-2 league record; the Buffs were tied with Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, but CU earned the title via tiebreaker by virtue of its wins over the Sooners (42-31) and Cowboys (20-10). Nine players off the '76 team would be selected in the following spring's NFL Draft, including five in the second round in an 18-pick span between Nos. 35 and 52.
- 1981 The Buffs were 3-8, winning their season opener (45-27 over Texas Tech), homecoming (11-10 over Oklahoma State) and season finale (24-21 against Kansas State). Coach Chuck Fairbanks would resign the following June 1 to take a similar job with the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1986 Fresh off a season where CU won the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over a 1-10 record in 1984), the Buffaloes open up a disappointing 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined eight points. CU rallies to win its next five, including a 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska which many refer to as the "Turning Point" in the Coach Bill McCartney Era. That run set up a battle for first place in the Big 8 and the Orange Bowl berth that went with it against Oklahoma on Nov. 15. But the Sooners end the dream with a 28-0 win in Boulder, in a game where OU did not attempt a single pass.
- 1991 Colorado ties for a third straight Big 8 title with a 6-0-1 mark, as a Nov. 2 tie with Nebraska (19-19) ends a 19-game winning streak in conference play, dating back to the '88 finale. Lamont Warren rushes for 830 yards, to this day a single-season best by a CU freshman, and in one of the most daring personnel moves since the days of platoon football, coach Bill McCartney plays his starting quarterback, senior Darian Hagan, as the team's top punt returner so he can better showcase his talents for professional football.
- 1996 A 33-21 win over Washington gives CU a 10-2 record, its third consecutive 10-win season for the first time in school history. It was also the inaugural season of the Big 12 Conference, and Colorado won its first league game, 24-10, at Texas A&M in a game where the Buffs had the quickest score from scrimmage in their history: after Ryan Sutter recovered an A&M fumble on the opening kickoff, Rae Carruth scored on a 28-yard end around just 13 seconds into the game. Koy Detmer set a school record with 3,156 passing yards, and the 20-4 start over his first two seasons as a college coach by Rick Neuheisel ranks as one of the top 5 all-time in NCAA history.
- 2001 A Sept. 15 game at Washington State was cancelled due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the east coast. CU plays in its first Big 12 Championship game and wins the title with a 39-37 win over Texas in basically a road win at Irving; a 62-36 win over Nebraska the previous week gave the Buffs their first North Division title, as Chris Brown rushed for 198 yards and a school-record six touchdowns. Daniel Graham wins the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, and is named the school's sixth unanimous All-American. No. 2 Colorado plays in its first (and only) BCS game, but loses to No. 3 Oregon 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl.
- 2006 Dan Hawkins named 23rd full-time head coach at Colorado; PK Mason Crosby repeated as first-team All-American, as he was the first placekicker at CU to earn the honor even one time.
- 2011 Colorado officially becomes a member of the Pac-12 Conference, joining along with Utah what was previously known as the Pacific-10; both became members on July 1, 2011. CU wins league titles in men's and women's cross country and claims the postseason men's basketball championship by winning four games in as many days.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No.3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against nine Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Colorado State, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Massachusetts and Notre Dame. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (10), Arizona State and Oregon (7) and Washington (6), Missouri, Stanford and Texas (5), and Arizona, LSU, Ohio State and UCLA (4).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 26 seasons (1990-2015), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (and tied for 15th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullsworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2015 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

OPPONENTS & 2016 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2016 Colorado schedule combined for a 90-65 record in 2015 (58.1 winning percentage); five teams won nine or more games a year ago (three 10-plus), with 10 playing in bowl games (tied for the second most in the nation, behind the 11 USC faced).

- The Buffaloes again have two weeknight games in 2016; CU opened the season on a Friday against Colorado State in Denver, and have a Thursday night affair later in the year against UCLA in Boulder (Nov. 3).
- CU might have the toughest back-to-back road games in consecutive weeks in the nation, traveling to Michigan for a Sept. 17 game and then playing at Oregon on Sept. 24. Others of note: Alabama (Arkansas, Tennessee); Duke (Northwestern, Notre Dame); Mississippi (Arkansas, LSU); Ohio State (Wisconsin, Penn State); Pitt (at Miami, at Clemson); Tennessee (Georgia, Texas A&M); and Wisconsin (Michigan State, Michigan).
- Colorado will travel 9,010 air miles during the regular season this fall, or the equivalent of just over 55 percent around the Earth (24,901 miles at the equator). The round-trip distances of CU's road trips from Boulder to: Colorado State (Denver: 60), Michigan (Ann Arbor: 2,260), Oregon (Eugene: 1,916), USC (Los Angeles: 1,666), Stanford (Palo Alto: 1,858) and Arizona (Tucson: 1,250).
- Colorado will have at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 21st straight season; the Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But in 2013 and since, the rivalry game with the Utes has returned to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) are opting for other games for the Friday slots.
- Conference misses: the Buffaloes will not play California or Washington for the second straight year; both will return in 2017, when Oregon and Stanford drop off the schedule (Oregon is the last school that comes off CU's schedule from the North Division, as the Ducks are the only team CU will have played in each of its first six years in the conference).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of September 10 (with 2016 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

FOLSOM FIELD #1

LawnStarter.com recently ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State).

The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

300+ AT FOLSOM

Colorado won its 300th game at Folsom Field in 2013 and is now 304-166-10 in 93 seasons playing its home games at Folsom. The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 396-189-16 all-time at home. Colorado's last winning record at home was in 2010, when the Buffaloes went 4-2; over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season.

2015 BUFFS CONTINUED TO IMPROVE IN SEVERAL AREAS

Colorado continued to improve in several areas over the course of 2015 season, most notably on defense, despite its sixth-worst injury year on record since 1987 (players who figured into the season two-deep lost over 16 percent of their games due to injury). A closer look at some of the key improvements:

GENERAL

- ➔ Point Differential. The gap is closing significantly in point differential:
Overall: -218 (2011), -338 (2012), -154 (2013), -126 (2014), -37 (2015). Pac-12: -192 (2011), -276 (2012), -215 (2013), -124 (2014), -114 (2015).
- ➔ Setbacks. In CU's first three years in the Pac-12 (2011-13), Colorado lost 19 games by 20 or more points; that number has been reduced to five the last two seasons (2014-15). Eight of CU's losses in the Pac-12 over the last two seasons have been by a combined 35 points (four by 20 total this year after suffering with four by 15 in 2014).
- ➔ Penalties. Colorado was flagged an average of 6.2 times per game (64th out of 128th nationally); that was down from 7.2 and 104th in 2014; in the last three seasons, CU has been called for 218 penalties, or 5.9 per; that average for a three-year span is the lowest at Colorado since 1985-87 (5.5 per).

OFFENSE

- ➔ First Down. Colorado averaged 5.76 yards on first down (260 plays), its third straight year over 5.0 after four years under that mark; it was the second-highest average since 2001 (other was 5.83 in 2013).
- ➔ Spreading the Numbers. For the first time in its history, CU had six players with 200-plus yards rushing with at least six catching passes for 200 (seven reached that number); it was the first time since 1991 that six players gained 100 in each.
- ➔ Ball Security. In the last three seasons, CU has a total of 46 fumbles (24 lost); both numbers over three seasons are CU historical lows. The skill position players (TB, WR, TE) have just 16 of those fumbles, losing 10 (that's out of 1,874 touches, or one every 117.1 plays). The remainder of the fumbles are by quarterbacks, almost all when sacked, return men or errant center snaps.
- ➔ Scoring. Colorado has scored 300-plus points in three straight seasons for the first time since 2001-03. In the second half/overtime, CU was outscored by 164-150; that's the closest margin since 2009, when the opponent held a slight 154-153 edge (that figure was 188-167 in 2013 and 233-143 in 2014).

DEFENSE

- ➔ General. The defense snapped a three-year run of allowing 200 yards rushing and passing; overall low (416.9) since 2010 (400.0).
- ➔ Improvement, mostly dramatic, was made in the major statistical categories from 2014 to 2015; see below:

Category	2014-----			2015-----			Diff.	Notes
	Stat	Pac-12	NCAA	Stat	Pac-12	NCAA
Rushing Defense	204.8	12th	102nd	198.7	9th	97th	- 6.1	Best league finish since 2010
Passing Efficiency Defense.....	149.9	12th	114th	123.8	4th	58th	-26.1	Best league finish since 2007
Passing Yards Allowed	256.2	5th	100th	218.2	3rd	59th	-38.0	Best league finish since 2008
Total Defense	461.0	11th	111th	416.9	6th	85th	-44.1	Best league finish since 2006
*Explosion Plays Allowed	72	65	- 7	One more game in 2015
Scoring Defense.....	39.0	11th	116th	27.5	6th	70th	-11.5	NCAA, league marks best since 2006
Interceptions	3	12th	124th	14	3rd	24th	+ 11	Most INT since 2007
Turnovers Gained.....	11	12th	125th	22	5th	34th	+ 11	Most TO's forced since 2009
Point Differential	-10.5	12th	111th	- 2.9	11th	85th	+ 7.6	Smallest deficit since 2007

- ➔ In addition to the above, CU allowed the opponent an average of 5.65 yards on first down, the first time under 6.0 yards per attempt since 2006 (4.6).
- ➔ CU allowed 11.5 fewer points than in 2014 as noted above; that improvement ranked fifth in the nation (third by an FBS program behind North Carolina and Vanderbilt).
- ➔ Opponents averaged 6.52 yards per pass attempt (35th in the NCAA/2nd in Pac-12), a school best since 6.0 in the 2002 season; that number was over 8.0 from 2010-12 and ranked in the bottom 10 in the nation all three years.
- ➔ CU saw slight increases in quarterback sacks (28 from 22), tackles for loss (69 from 57) and tackles at/or behind the line of scrimmage (124 from 119).
- ➔ Colorado was among the nation's leaders in passes broken up (PBU's) for the second straight year; 17 different players combined for 63 break-ups, the most by the Buffaloes since 2007 (63 as well); when including the 14 interceptions, the 77 total worked to breaking up 18 percent of opponent throws, the highest percentage since the 2001 team (19.4%).
- ➔ CU allowed 291 points in nine Pac-12 games (32.3 per), its lowest since joining the Pac-12 (previous: 39.3 in 2011; 47.9 in 2012; 44.2 in 2013; 43.0 in 2014). Four teams were held to 27 points or less (including the last three games by teams averaging 33.6 points per game going in); the previous number of the teams CU held to 27 and below in the first four years in the league was three.

FIELD POSITION / SPECIAL TEAMS

- ➔ Return Yards. Field position is often flipped by return yards (punt/interception/fumble/blocked kick—not kickoff); Colorado held the advantage over the opponent (394-376) for the first time since 2008. The +18 difference in 2015 was a 420-yard turnaround from 2014 (CU was minus-420) and the average difference the previous six seasons (2009-14) was minus-324 yards.
- ➔ Average Field Position. Colorado's was its own 30, the opponent its 31; that's the first time within one yard of the opponent since 2008 as well.
- ➔ Punting. Alex Kinney set freshman school records for kicks inside-the-20 (23), inside-the-15 (17) and inside-the-20 (9) he did so on 68 punts; the previous marks of 21, 15 & 9 were done on 74 punts (Darragh O'Neill, 2011).
- ➔ Kickoffs. Opponents started 22 drives inside-the-25 and 11 inside-the-20; those are highs since 2009.
- ➔ PAT Kicks. Despite late-season issues with field goals, CU extended its school record streak of consecutive extra-point kicks made to 138 (36-of-36).

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 48 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on five occasions (CU will also sport black helmets on the road occasionally). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

CU IS BLACK & GOLD, BUT FOLSOM IS "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game? George Frazier was the last to do so on regular basis in the 2014 season, when he appeared for 14 snaps at defensive end for the first time against Arizona State, while lining up for five plays per game at fullback. He became the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player before Frazier in 2014 to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well as painted blue instead of the familiar black.

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the latest world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing. The Big 10 placed 10 schools in the top 100 (Wisconsin has the highest rank – No. 19); the ACC placed four (Duke was its highest at No. 31); the SEC two (Vanderbilt at No. 49, Florida at No. 71) and the Big 12 one (Texas, No. 36).

BUFFS BACK ON TV IN DENVER; "THE RISE" GOES NATIONAL

Two new "all-Colorado" sport programs debuted last week, as CU has been without a weekly television presence in Denver since the 2011-12 athletic year:

The Buffalo Stampede returned with a new format and a new home: Altitude Sports (Comcast Ch. 25/725 HD). The show initially airs on Wednesday nights at 11:00 p.m., with several replays over the following two days. It will run through the men's and women's basketball seasons.

"The Rise" is the latest video series produced by CU's acclaimed football video staff; it is following the Colorado Buffaloes through the 2016 season. This team has a large senior class with more experience and skill than any of the previous MacIntyre-coached teams at CU. "The Rise" will be an interview driven narrative featuring and following the seniors through this journey. Six to eight episodes will cover the season from camp to bowl week. "The Rise" will be cinematic, yet organic, featuring behind-the-scenes footage and a narrative told by the seniors and coaches. It premiered on Aug. 31 and can be seen on Pac-12 Mountain and CUBuffs.com.

Colorado has 61 lettermen returning for 2015 (59 from the 2015 team, with three others from past years); they break down into 28 on offense, 30 on defense and 3 specialists; the Buffs lose 27 lettermen off the 2015 squad (11 offense/15 defense/1 specialist). CU returns 18 starters from last season (9 offense/9 defense), losing 4 (2 offense/2 defense); several positions had multiple personnel shuttle in and out, so there are several other players back with starting experience. The 2015 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams; #—lettered but injured early in the 2015 season and has been submitted for medical hardships. The breakdown (positions for returning players are their 2015 spots):

NATIONAL IMPROVEMENT

In terms of scoring defense, the Buffaloes were the fifth-most improved unit in 2015 from 2014 numbers (third among Power 5 schools). Colorado allowed 39.0 points in 2014, but cut that back to 27.5 last fall, or 11.5 points fewer. The four ahead of CU: Georgia State 15.0 (43.3 to 28.3), North Carolina 14.5 (39.0 to 24.5), Western Kentucky 14.0 (39.9 to 25.9) and Vanderbilt 12.3 (33.3 to 21.0). In conference games, the Buffs improved by 10.7 points (43.0 to 32.3), and overall allowed 30 or more points just five times as compared to 11 times in 2014.

SAF AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Starting fast offensively and rock solid defensively, the Colorado Buffaloes opened the 2016 season with a convincing 44-7 win over Colorado State on a Friday night at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

The Buffs rolled up 578 yards of total offense — their most in a season opener in 22 years — and held the Rams to 225. CU was in control from the start, holding the Rams to three plays and out on the game's first series and then marching 73 plays in 11 yards to take a 7-0 lead just four-plus minutes into the game and the rout was on.

CU senior Sefo Liufau, playing his first game since successfully rehabilitating from a Lisfranc (foot) injury, completed 23-of-33 passes for 318 yards and one touchdown, becoming the school's career leader in passing yardage (7,715).

HOW IT HAPPENED: CU scored on three of its first four possessions and led 24-0 with 13:59 left in the first half. By the end of the first quarter, the Buffs offense had outgained the Rams 253-10, with the CU defense emphatically answering the pressing pregame question about stopping the CSU run game. And the Buffs' up-tempo offense was up-and-running (and passing) early. The Buffs were fast: Their four first-half TD drives required 2:59, 1:56, 1:09 and 1:01.

CU's first scoring march was its longest in both time required (2:59) and distance covered (73 yards, 11 plays). Tailback Phillip Lindsay ran for 38 yards during the drive and Liufau completed two of three passes for 22 yards.

Liufau carried twice in that march, gaining eight yards on first down from the CSU 13, then fumbling at the goal line on second down. But his 310-pound center, Alex Kelley, smothered the football in the end zone.

Four more scores would follow in quick succession — a 17-yard Liufau to Devin Ross pass, a 1-yard Lindsay run, a 30-yard Diego Gonzalez field goal, and another 1-yard Lindsay dive that made it 31-0; the latter followed a 46-yard one-handed catch by Bryce Bobo that he hauled in before stepping out at the CSU 1-yard line.

In addition to his 30-yard field goal, Gonzalez kicked four PATs, extending his streak to 39 straight over last season and this. Through Friday night's first half, CU kicking specialists had made 142 straight extra points.

CU outgained CSU 364-79 in total yardage in the first half, including holding a 248-22 passing yards advantage. The Rams used two quarterbacks — starter Nick Stevens, transfer Faton Bauta — who combined to go 6-of-17 with one interception. That pick was by Chidobe Awuzie, who picked off Stevens late in the first half to set up the Buffs at their own 41-yard line. Lindsay scored on his second 1-yard dive five plays later.

CU increased its lead to 37-0 on a pair of third-quarter Gonzalez field goals (29, 22 yards) and took its shutout into the final quarter. The Rams finally scored on the first play of the fourth quarter, getting a 5-yard TD pass from Bauta to Marcus Wilson.

Liufau left the game after fumbling the ball away after a jarring tackle on a keeper with 12:38 remaining. CSU took over at its 33 but couldn't capitalize on the turnover.

But he returned on the next series, marching the Buffs 50 yards in 11 plays for their final score. The touchdown came on a 1-yard leap by former walk-on tailback Kyle Evans, who was awarded a scholarship midway through preseason camp. Gonzalez's PAT pushed CU's lead to 44-7 with 4:24 remaining. Seeing his first college action, redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez spelled Liufau on the Buffs' final possession.

TURNING POINT: The tone was set early by the CU 'D.' The Buffs held the Rams to 10 yards on 15 first-quarter plays, limiting them to 8 yards rushing and sending a decisive early message about stopping the CSU running game. The Rams didn't register their initial first down until 10:23 remained before halftime, and that possession ended three plays later with their sixth punt of the first half.

CU STANDOUTS: Lindsay: 20 carries, 95 yards, 2 TDs; Liufau: 23-33, 318 yards, 1 TD; Awuzie: nine tackles (eight solo), four third down stops and the interception.

GAME NOTES

The announced attendance of 69,850 was the most in the series since 2003 (76,219); Colorado sold 33,486 tickets (9,217 student) for the game, accounting for that number despite season ticket holders of just under 2,800 tickets opted out for the game to receive an equal value in number for a Pac-12 game ... Colorado's 31-0 halftime lead was its largest since Nov. 15, 2003, when it led Iowa State 37-0 in Ames (an eventual 44-10 win) ... CU's 44 points were the most in the series by either team since 1996, when the Buffs won 48-34 in Fort Collins, and the 37-point win was the most lopsided in the series since a 47-7 CU win in 1956 (and the largest in an opener since 1988, when CU beat Fresno State in Boulder, 45-3) ... The 578 yards on offense by the Buffaloes were their most in a season opener since 1994 (649 in a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana), with the 225 yards allowed the fewest by an opponent in an opener since 1998 (CSU: 202 in a 42-14 Buff win) ... C Alex Kelley scored the first TD by a Buff offensive lineman since Oct. 28, 1995, when OG Heath Irwin recovered a fumble in the end zone in a 44-21 loss to Nebraska; Kelley became the first offensive lineman in CU history to score the team's first points of the year ... The Buffs outgained CSU, 253-10, in the first quarter (14 of CSU's first 18 plays went for three yards or less) as the Rams opened the game with six three-and-outs. In the first half, CSU ran nine plays in CU territory for minus-2 yards.

COLORADO 56, IDAHO STATE 7

SEPTEMBER 10, 2016

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado won its second straight game with a record-setting performance at Folsom Field, rolling to a 56-7 win over visiting Idaho State in the home opener to start the season 2-0.

Sefo Liufau threw for 204 yards and two touchdowns, and added 54 yards and another score running the ball as the Buffaloes pulled away from the Bengals early and would play 71 of 86 players that dressed for the game.

The Buffs tied school records for the most points in the second quarter (35) and first half (49), and set a school record for the largest halftime lead (49-0), eclipsing a 49-7 edge they held against Northeast Louisiana in 1995.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs thoroughly dominated the game in every regard, putting it away before halftime.

CU scored on seven of its eight possessions in the first half. Colorado quarterback Sefo Liufau was 15-for-18 for 204 yards and two touchdowns in the first half, and also ran for 54 yards and a score before intermission. Phillip Lindsay added a pair of rushing touchdowns and Devin Ross and Kabion Ento each had a touchdown reception. Ento also added another touchdown catch in the third quarter for CU's final points of the day.

Colorado led 14-0 after the first quarter, opening with a 15-yard Liufau touchdown pass to Ross, followed by a 6-yard Lindsay run.

The Buffs then added five more touchdowns in the second quarter, with Lindsay adding another score from 2 yards, Kyle Evans rushing 1 yard for a touchdown, Liufau throwing to Chris Hill for a 4-yard score and Liufau running in from 19 yards out. CU backup quarterback Steven Montez then got into the act, completing a 69-yard touchdown pass to Ento on his first pass attempt as a collegian. Ento's touchdown was also the first time he touched the ball as a Buff.

Colorado finished with 597 yards offense, the Buffs' second straight week with at least 500 yards, following a 578-yard effort in an opening 44-7 win over Colorado State.

Defensively, the Buffs were equally dominant, holding the Bengals to 96 yards offense — 29 rushing and 67 passing. Colorado also did not allow Idaho State to cross midfield in the first half, and allowed just seven first downs for the entire game (three in the first half).

TURNING POINT: After punting on their second possession of the day, the Buffs defense forced a three-and-out and the offense came back to drive 61 yards in five plays for a touchdown to go up 14-0, opening the gate for six straight CU touchdowns.

KEY STATISTIC: The Bengals averaged just 1.7 yards per offensive play while the Buffs averaged 6.8 per snap.

NOTEWORTHY: An interception from true freshman Tony Julmisse extended CU's streak with at least one defensive takeaway to 15 games, best in the nation. ... It is the first 2-0 start by the Buffs since 2013, when Mike MacIntyre's first CU team beat CSU and Central Arkansas to open the year. ... CU played 71 of the 86 players who dressed for the game. ... It was the first time CU has gained 500-plus yards in back-to-back games since Nov. 9-16, 2002.

QUOTEWORTHY: "I think we just go out there and play as hard as we can play. The whole key of the first two games goes back to practice. It doesn't go to what happened in the game, it goes to how we practice and how we focus and prepare." — CU coach Mike MacIntyre

"I just think we are executing at a higher level. I think we're holding ourselves to a higher standard." — Liufau
