2016 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

GAME 11—WASHINGTON STATE

BATTLE OF PAC-12 DIVISION LEADERS SET FOR FOOT OF THE FLATIRONS

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2016 • 1:35 p.m. MST • Folsom Field (50,183) • Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 11 (November 14, 2016)

FOX (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

The No. 12 (AP, USA Today/Coaches) Colorado Buffaloes (8-2, 6-1 Pac-12) return home for their final two games of the regular season, first facing the No. 20 Washington State Cougars (8-2, 7-0 Pac-12) in a 1:35 p.m. MST kickoff this Saturday, Nov. 19 at Folsom Field ... FOX will broadcast the game, CU's first-ever appearance on the network ... Colorado was ranked No. 10 in the College Football Playoff Committee poll issued Nov. 15, CU's first appearance in any major poll's top 10 since opening at No. 7 in the 2002 AP preseason poll ... The Buffs are 8-2 for the first time since 2001, and 6-1 in league play for the first time since 2002 (Big 12) under head coach Gary Barnett; CU is looking for its first 9-2/7-1 starts since those same two seasons and for its first five-game winning streak since '02 when it also won five straight... CU has won four straight league games for the first time since 2002 (and last won five in a row in 1996) ... Colorado remains alone at the top the standings in the Pac-12 South, owning a ½-game lead over USC and a 1-game edge over Utah and USC; USC owns the tiebreaker over the Buffs (and closes out league play this Saturday against UCLA); CU and the Utes close the regular season in Boulder on Nov. 26 ... The 12th Class will be inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame this Friday at a Noon luncheon in the Dal Ward Center (class details on pages 4-5) ... There are just 2 undefeated and 9 one-loss teams remaining in FBS play; Colorado is one of 13 two-loss squads meaning the other 104 have at least three setbacks ... In 2013, 31 schools hired new head coaches; 23 remain at those institutions; of those, only Western Michigan (P.J. Fleck, 10-0) has a better fourth-year record than CU's Mike MacIntyre (Willie Taggart at USF is also 8-2) ... Colorado won last Saturday, defeating Arizona in Tucson, 49-24 (it was 42-10 early in the fourth quarter), while Washington State bounced California at home, 56-21, to win its eighth straight, the Cougars longest winning streak since 1930 ... This will be a something has to give game: CU is allowing opponents to complete just 50.9 percent of their passes (sixth in the NCAA), while WSU leads the nation on offense at 74.1 percent (that includes an astounding 47-of-52, a 90.3 percentage, against Arizona two weeks ago, an NCAA record with 35 or more completions) ... CUBuffs.com/media as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK

With eight wins, the Buffaloes have their most victories since finishing 8-5 in 2004. Colorado is now gunning for its 14th nine-win season in its history, looking to join previous Buff squads that have won that many or more: 1923 (9-0), 1961 (9-2), 1967 (9-2), 1971 (10-2), 1975 (9-3), 1989 (11-1), 1990 (11-1-1), 1992 (9-2-1), 1994 (11-1), 1995 (10-2), 1996 (10-2), 2001 (10-3) and 2002 (9-5).

OBSCURER NOTE(S) OF THE WEEK

3-2: Colorado finished the 2016 with a 3-2 mark in true road games, its first time with a winning record in opponent stadiums since a similar mark in 2004, and nearly matched CU's road win total over the previous eight seasons (4-40). The Buffs also won back-to-back league games on the road (at Stanford, at Arizona) for the first time since winning three straight in the Big 12 over the 2004 (at Kansas, at Nebraska) and 2005 (Oklahoma State) seasons.

25: The Buffaloes' 49-24 win at Arizona on Nov. 12 (by 25 points) was its largest away from him since Oct. 1, 2005, when CU shutout Oklahoma State in Stillwater, 34-0. The only other larger margin of victory on the road thus millennium came in 2003, a 44-10 win at Iowa State.

Colorado Honor Candidates

There are a few Colorado players worthy of consideration for national and conference honors as the season; for those of you who have votes in such, please consider the below players that the coaching staff thought were deserving. The list (ALPHABETICAL) and very quick hits on each (All-Pac 12 candidates include those from first-team to honorable mention possibilities):

- ✓ CB CHIDOBE AWUZIE All-American & All-Pac 12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-0 / 205 / San Jose, Calif. Many have said he is one of the top corners in the country (and that includes most pro scouts who have passed through Boulder). He has a diverse stat line, backing up his diverse abilities (CB, S, N): 42 tackles (35 solo, 3 sacks—CU's all-time sack leader by a defensive back), 13 third down stops, nine PBU's, three hurries, two forced fumbles, two TD saves and an interception ... along with 19 special team points (through a variety of ways).
- ✓ WR BRYCE BOBO All-Pac 12 Candidate
Jr. / 6-2 / 190 / Covina, Calif. One of the most "acrobatic" receivers in the nation (two appearances on SportsCenter), he has 40 catches for 514 yards and two scores, along with a TD strike of 67 yards he threw to Phillip Lindsay at USC. Has six catches of 20-plus and 15 of 10 or more.
- ✓ DT JORDAN CARRELL All-Pac-12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-3 / 300 / Roseville, Calif. Is having a fine season but not getting the attention: he has 39 tackles (4½ sacks), five hurries and four third down stops as he is the iron man of the linemen with 505 snaps from scrimmage.
- ✓ WR SHAY FIELDS All-Pac 12 Candidate
Jr. / 5-11 / 180 / Bellflower, Calif. CU's most explosive offensive player out of many; he is averaging 17.8 yards per catch (40-710), with his 8 TDs covering 281 yards (35.1 per). Top game was an assault on Oregon State, when he caught seven balls for 169 and three touchdowns, the latter tying a school record.
- ✓ OLB JIMMIE GILBERT All-American & All-Pac 12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-5 / 230 / College Station, Texas The nation's second-leading player in forced fumbles (5) and among them in sacks (8½), he has 38 tackles, 14 third down stops, five hurries, two PBUs, two TD saves and a caused interception.
- ✓ OT JEROMY IRWIN All-Pac 12 Candidate
Jr. / 6-5 / 295 / Cypress, Texas A team captain, he is grading out as CU's best lineman, his return to the lineup after missing most of the 2015 season with torn knee ligaments has had a tremendous impact in CU's improved running game. He has team highs of 16 knockdown and 14 pass protection TD blocks, along with nine TD blocks on running plays while allowing only ½ a sack.
- ✓ DT SAMSON KAFOVALU All-Pac 12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-4 / 295 / Riverside, Calif. Another cog in the run-stopping machine: 363 tackles (2½ sacks), four third down stops, four tackles for zero gains, six hurries.
- ✓ C ALEX KELLEY All-Pac 12 Candidate
Jr. / 6-2 / 310 / Oceanside, Calif. One of CU's team leaders on offense, he's had another fine season, paving the way for CU's ground game up the middle. He has had 13 pass protection TD blocks, 11 direct TD blocks on running plays and nine significant knockdown blocks (pancakes-plus). He has allowed only 1½ sacks and five pressures.
- ✓ OG GERRAD KOUGH All-Pac 12 Candidate
Jr. / 6-4 / 295 / Pomona, Calif. One of the top guards in the conference, he's enjoying his breakout season. Grading out as CU's third-best lineman on one of the top units in the nation, he's had 10 pass protection TDB blocks, 10 more in the run game, eight knockdown blocks while allowing only two-and-a-half sacks and being flagged for a single penalty.
- ✓ TB PHILLIP LINDSAY All-Pac-12 Candidate
Jr. / 5-8 / 190 / Aurora, Colo. Enjoying a true breakout season; largely unrecruited after tearing an ACL his senior year, he's third all-time at CU in all-purpose yards. CU's leading rusher (934 yards), scorer (84 points) and all-purpose runner (1,274 yards). Bidding to become CU's first 1,000-yard runner since 2010.
- ✓ QB SEFO LIUFAU All-Pac-12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-4 / 230 / Tacoma, Wash. The holder of 84 school records and counting, he'd be a possible Heisman candidate had he not missed the better part of three games with an ankle injury he suffered at Michigan with CU ahead in the third quarter, 28-24 (CU is 6-1 with him as the starter). He has completed 67.2 percent of his passes (129-of-192) with 10 touchdowns to 3 interceptions and a quarterback rating of 148.4; he's in position to add single-season records for completion percentage and rating to his resume.
- ✓ ILB KENNETH OLUGBODE All-Pac-12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-1 / 220 / San Jose, Calif. Colorado's leading tackler with 108 on the season, with double-digits in six of his last eight games including a career-high 18 at Stanford. He has a lot of garnish, too: six TFLs (two sacks), four tackles for zero, six third down stops, two fumble recoveries, two TD saves, two interceptions, a caused INT and a forced fumble.
- ✓ WR DEVIN ROSS All-Pac 12 Candidate
Jr. / 5-9 / 185 / Altadena, Calif. CU's leader in receptions (48), averaging 11.3 yards per with five touchdowns; 18 of those have been for 10-plus yards and 25 for first downs.
- ✓ SS TEDRIC THOMPSON All-Pac 12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-1 / 205 / Valencia, Calif. Owns a team-best four interceptions (tied for the most at CU in the last nine seasons), and is third on the team with 64 tackles. He has the garnish too: 10 PBU's, 11 third down stops, six touchdown saves, two hurries, two TFLs.
- ✓ DT JOSH TUPOU All-American & All-Pac 12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-3 / 325 / Buena Park, Calif. As old school as it gets, he is the classic run-stopper. He has 38 tackles on the year (and a sack-and-a-half), but his mere presence alters the opponent game plan.
- ✓ CB AHKELLO WITHERSPOON All-Pac 12 Candidate
Sr. / 6-3 / 195 / Sacramento, Calif. Has really bloomed as a senior, as he has been among the leaders all season in passes broken up (14 at present); he has 19 tackles (17 solo), six third down stops and five touchdown saves – his biggest an interception in the end zone with just 7 seconds remaining to preserve CU's 41-38 win at Oregon.

Sophomore All-American Candidates: ILB Rick Gamboa, CB Isaiah Oliver

Freshman All-American Candidates: OG Tim Lynott, Jr., QB Steven Montez

✓ MIKE MacINTYRE COACH OF THE YEAR CANDIDATE National & Pac 12 Conference

Fourth year at Colorado, came into 2016 with a 10-27 record, 2-25 in Pac-12; at 8-2/6-1, has increased totals by 80 and 200 percent, respectively ... CU was 4-9 in 2015 (1-8 in Pac-12), so Buffaloes are +4 overall and +5 in conference games. CU is currently playing the nation's 33rd toughest schedule and has already recorded one of the great turnarounds in Pac-12 conference game history.

CU TO INDUCT 12 NEW MEMBERS INTO ITS ATHLETIC HALL-OF-FAME THIS FRIDAY

The 12th class that will be inducted into the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame this Friday will feature a dozen Golden Buffalo legends who are representative of eight sports in the school's history, all of whom left indelible marks in their CU athletic careers. The dozen, one of whom will be honored posthumously, represent nine different sports over a period that spans from the early 1940s to the middle of last decade, representing six different decades in all. Included in the group are a pair of football teammates from the '90s, the first woman to be inducted from the soccer team which celebrates its 20th anniversary this fall, two start distance performers on the track and trails, an NCAA wrestling champion and the second of only two golfers to win a pair of conference titles since World War II. Two more football players, a star track performer, one of CU's all-time greatest pitchers and a dominant '80s men's basketball player round out the group.

The 2016 class will be the second-largest inducted into the Hall since it was conceived in 1998, and the 12 will join 79 individuals (and the 1959 ski team) who have been enshrined to date (11 have been honored previously after their deaths). Athletic director Rick George personally notified all 11 living members of the upcoming class of their impending induction, as well as the next of kin for the deceased inductee, Dale "Pete" Atkins, one of the early stars on CU's baseball team who also served two terms as a CU regent.

Dale "Pete" Atkins (1940-42)

Known as the "Paonia Peach" for his Western Slope roots, Dr. Dale "Pete" Atkins was a two-time, first-team All-Mountain States Conference performer (and would likely have been an All-American but the first team wasn't selected until after World War II). In 1941, he enjoyed one of, if not the, finest seasons as a pitcher in CU baseball history, recording a 7-0 record, with 70 strikeouts in 61 innings; he allowed 20 earned runs for a 2.93 ERA. He led the conference in wins and struck out 19 batters in a season-opening 7-4 win at Colorado Mines (the second-most K's in school history). He was also unbeaten on the mound in 1942, earning all-league mention. Atkins earned three degrees from CU (A&S'43, MD'45 and MSci'53) and served as a member of the Board of Regents for two terms (1962-74). He truly loved his alma mater and his Buffaloes, as he was president of the Denver Buffalo Quarterback Club, a member of the Board of the Denver Area CU Alumni, a lifelong member of Alumni Directors Club, Buff Club, and Alumni C-Club. He passed away on Sept. 6, 2010, at the age of 88.

Bill Brundige, Football (1967-69)

One of the first prolific pass rushers in school history as the game had started moving away from a dominant one feature runs in the mid-to-late 60s. A first-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America/Look Magazine as a senior in 1969, when he was also a first-team All-Big 8 performer in earning the conference's Defensive Player of the Year nod. He had a monster senior season, setting a CU record that still stood some 33 seasons later with 24 tackles for 123 yards in losses; that included 13 quarterback sacks, also a school record that would last almost a quarter-century. He was a second-round draft pick by Washington in the 1970 National Football League Draft (43rd overall). He started every game his rookie season and played in Super Bowl VII following the '72 season.

Ted Castaneda, Cross Country & Track (1970-74)

He may very well have laid the groundwork for CU's success in distance running today. A five-time All-American in cross country and track, his best times included 1:52.4 in the 800, a 3:58.5 in the mile, an 8:29 two-mile, a 13:32 in the 5,000-meter run, a 28:30.6 in the 10k a 2-hour, 15-minute marathon. He held the American record in the 3-mile run albeit briefly: he ran a 13:10.6 at the 1973 NCAA Outdoor Championships but it was broken in the next heat by the legendary Steve Prefontaine. He still holds some of the top 5k and 10k times in CU history: his 28:30.6 time in the 10k set a CU record back in 1973 and stood for 31 years. He also set the Colorado "soil" record in the mile in 1976, running in 4:04.86; that mark stood for 37 years. He competed in two U.S. Olympic trials (5K, 10K in 1976, marathon in 1980). A graduate of Palmer High School in Colorado Springs, he returned to his hometown in 1980 to coach the men's cross country team at Colorado College, and by 1994 was head coach for all the men's and women's cross country and track teams, all positions he holds to this day. He was one of the seven original inductees into the Colorado Running Hall of Fame in its inaugural 2007 class.

Sara (Gorton) Slattery (2000-05)

She compiled one of the most impressive women's cross country and track resumes during her time at Colorado: she was a 10-time All-American and a six-time Big 12 Conference champion (14 All-Big 12 performances). A two-time NCAA champion, winning the 2003 Indoor 5,000-meter run and the 2005 Outdoor 10,000-meter run, she remains the CU record holder in the indoor mile (4:40.35), the indoor 3,000 (9:07.16) and the outdoor 5,000 (15:24.97). She was just the second Buff to earn three All-American titles in cross country (2000-02-04, the same years she earned All-Region and All-Conference accolades) and was the Big 12's Female Cross Country Newcomer of the Year in 2000. She was on CU's first national championship in women's cross country in 2000 (as a freshman), led CU its second crown as a senior in 2004 and was a member of four Big 12 champion cross country teams. She was the Big 12's Indoor Freshman of the Year for 2001, earning Indoor All-America honors in the 3k (2001, 2003) and the mile (2002), while outdoors, she was the Big 12 champion in the 5,000-meter run twice (2003, 2005) and in the 10k (2005). She is the NCAA record holder for sophomores in the Outdoor 5k (15:24.97), still the fourth-fastest collegiate time ... She earned two degrees from CU (Bachelor's in Economics and Master's in Education) and has enjoyed a stellar professional career since graduating from Colorado. She is married to former CU distance runner Steve Slattery.

Jerry Hillebrand, Football (1959-61)

He earned All-America honors as senior in 1961 in an era when only 11 players were named to the team since it was still the platoon format of the game. Also a two-time All-Big Eight Conference first-team performer (1960-61), in addition to being a great blocker and excellent receiver on offense, he was a tough defensive end and a fine placekicker. He recorded the fifth 100-yard receiving game in school history, catching four passes for 137 yards and a score against Arizona in 1960; it set the CU single game mark for yards at the time. As a kicker, he booted 54-yard field goal against Oklahoma State in 1961, the longest in school history at the time and the longest in the nation that season. His 696 career receiving yards at the time of his graduation were a school record, one that would hold for seven more seasons. He was an honorable mention member on CU's All-Century team (selected in 1989). A first-round draft pick by the N.Y. Giants in the 1962 National Football League draft (13th overall; selected as an outside linebacker) ... Played nine years in the NFL for three teams, the Giants (1962-66), St. Louis Cardinals (1967) and Pittsburgh (1968-70).

Chris Hudson, Football (1991-94)

The 1994 Jim Thorpe Award recipient as the nation's top defensive back, he was also a consensus first-team All-American and a three-time first-team All-Big Eight performer his sophomore through senior seasons. In fact, he is just one of seven Buffaloes to earn first-team all-conference honors three times. As a senior, he won the team's Hang Tough Award, presented to the player who overcame the most adversity, playing the entire year with a nagging turf toe injury and still played at an All-American level and won the Thorpe hardware. His 15 career interceptions still rank as the second most in Colorado history, while his 20 pass deflections tied for the seventh most by a Buff at the time of his graduation. A third round selection by Jacksonville in the 1995 NFL Draft (71st player overall), he played in 77 career NFL games with Jacksonville (1995-98), Chicago (1999) and Atlanta (2001).

CU TO INDUCT 12 INTO ITS ATHLETIC HALL-OF-FAME, CONTINUEDBob Justice, Wrestling (1967-69)

He was the 1968 NCAA champion as a junior in the 177-pound class, going 5-0 in the tournament at Penn State, with that win helping CU to tie for 14th in the team standings. He actually injured a shoulder in training just ahead of the NCAA's, suffering a partial separation but refused to see the trainer so he could compete. He was the Big 8 runner-up in the weight class (losing 5-1 to the 1967 NCAA champion, one of the premier wrestlers of the time period, Oklahoma State's Fred Fozzard, whom he upset 4-0 in the national semifinals); he was 4-1-3 in conference action and 22-3-3 overall for the season. He owned a most impressive career mark of 32-5-4, but his career was cut short by a serious knee injury his senior year, otherwise he may very well have been a two-time NCAA champion. A graduate of Denver's Abraham Lincoln High School, he was the Denver Public Schools champion and the Colorado state champion as a senior in high school. He graduated from CU in 1970 with a degree in Mechanical Engineering (and earned an MBA in Finance from CU-Colorado Springs in 1977).

Bobby Kalinowski, Golf (1990-94)

Since 1940, only four CU golfers have won conference championships, two of whom won a pair – Hale Irwin and Bobby Kalinowski. He was the Big 8 Conference individual champion in both 1993 and 1994, earning second-team All-America honors as a senior and third-team recognition as a junior (he was first-team All-Big 8 both years). He played in three NCAA Championships, his top effort being a runner-up finish in the 1994 Central Regional; he tied for ninth in the same event as a junior. His 72.62 stroke average for the 1993-94 season was the best in CU history by a senior at the time; he was second on the team as both a sophomore (73.87) and junior (73.67). His career average of 73.97 was fourth-best at the time of his graduation and still ranks 12th in school annals. He earned the Colorado Golf Association's Player of the Year honor for 1993 while still a student at CU.

Jim Miller, Track (1962-64)

He is considered one of the greatest high school track and field athletes in state history, he certainly made his mark at CU. He was the Big 8 Conference champion over his four-year stint at CU in the 60-yard low hurdles, 60-yard high hurdles, 330-yard Intermediate hurdles, 120-yard high hurdles and part of the league champion short relay squad. His list of accomplishments included Outstanding Athlete at the Kansas relays, Outstanding Athlete at the Big 8 Outdoor Championships and NCAA All-American laurels. In 1963, he won the Big Eight 330-yard intermediate hurdles title in a blazing time of 36.1 seconds that was an NCAA and American record at the time. He also was the co-holder of the American record (6.7) in the 60-yard low hurdles, was the AAU National Champion in the Pentathlon (1965) and 440-yard Intermediate Hurdles (1966). After his graduation from CU, he earned a Law degree from Howard University and went on to become a trial lawyer and an administrative judge for the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission. A Colorado Springs Palmer High School graduate, he won seven individual state titles in four separate events, and was inducted into the Colorado Springs Sports Hall of Fame in 2009.

Fran Munnely, Soccer (2002-05)

A member of the Big 12 Conference's 10th Anniversary Team and was the conference's Player of the Year as a sophomore in 2003, she was the first player in CU's history earn any kind of All-America distinction. A four-time, first-team All-Big 12 performer and a three-time, first-team All-Central Region her sophomore through senior years (2003-05). She was on the Big 12's All-Newcomer team as a freshman in 2002, when she was a finalist for the National Freshman of the Year. She started all 87 games in her Colorado career, leading the Buffs to a 52-26-9 record in that span and the school's first three appearances in the NCAA Championships. She scored 84 points in her career (30 goals, 24 assists), and finished as CU's all-time leader in points and goals (still stands second and third, respectively, through 2015). She was credited with 10 game-winning goals, including CU's goal in 1-0 upset win over Missouri in the 2002 Big 12 Tournament, CU's first-ever postseason win. She was CU's Female Career Achievement Award recipient in 2005, the Female Freshman Athlete of the Year for 2002-03 and was the first women's soccer player at CU to have her jersey (#13) formally honored.

Shaun Vandiver, Basketball (1988-91)

A two-time All-Big 8 performer (1989-90, 1990-91), after leading Hutchinson CC to the national junior college championship in 1988, he transferred to CU where he was the Big 8 Newcomer of the Year as a sophomore in 1988-89. He still ranks among the top five in both career scoring (fifth, 1,876 points) and rebounding (third, 962), and holds the school-record for career double-doubles (59). He is one of two players in school history to average a double-double in each of his three years as a Buff. His junior season was his finest as a player, being named an honorable mention All-American after leading the team in scoring (22.3 points per game), rebounding (11.2 average), blocks (36) and field goal percentage (59.3), in addition leading the Big 8 in scoring. In the '89-90 Big 8 Tournament, Vandiver earned most valuable player honors after he helped CU upset Missouri and Oklahoma State in back-to-back games, as CU became the first and only No. 8 seed to advance to the title game. He was selected No. 25 overall in the 1991 NBA Draft by the Golden State Warriors, but would play nine seasons overseas in Europe. After his playing days, he went into coaching and has been the head coach at Emporia State for the last five seasons.

Michael Westbrook, Football (1991-94)

You can't recall the "Miracle in Michigan" without his name coming to mind. He was on the receiving end of college football's play of the decade if not the century when he hauled down a 64-yard pass from Kordell Stewart (via Blake Anderson tip) after time expired to rally CU to a 27-26 win at Michigan in 1994. That play won an ESPY as the national play of the year in all sports (and he's got the actual ESPY since he caught the ball). That play may have defined his career, but it was much more than just that one play. A two-time first-team All American, he became only the third Buffalo receiver to earn all-league honors and was the first to be named twice. He exited his career as CU's all-time leader in both receptions (167) and receiving yards (2,548), both records just recently broken in the last two seasons. He had eight career 100-yard games (six of 128 or more), and caught nine or more passes three times. A first round pick by Washington in the 1995 NFL Draft (No. 4 overall; tied for the second-highest ever among CU players). He was on the regional ballot for the College Football Hall of Fame for the first time in 2016, but he did not advance to the national ballot.

The group will officially be inducted in the Hall of Fame Friday in a luncheon ceremony in the Touchdown Club in the Dal Ward Center, and will be recognized at CU's men's basketball game the previous night, will be featured in the Pearl Street Stampede parade Friday night and will be introduced at halftime of the CU-Washington State football game.

All inductees were nominated by their peers in the Alumni C-Club or by members of the selection committee; over 50 names were originally submitted and were pared to 28 semifinalists. There are now 91 members (plus the '59 ski team, CU's first national champions) in the CU Athletic HOF since its inception in 1998. An athlete must be at least 10 years removed from their CU career and retired from professional sports (teams) to be considered for induction. With an induction every year instead of on a biennial basis as was the case for the first 16 years of the Hall, CU has been able to get more of those who are deserving of the recognition honored in a shorter time span with larger induction classes.

INJURY REPORT

Colorado no longer provides an NFL-style injury report (the Buffs were one of the last and few to do so); the list will now only contain players out for an extended period of time or those lost for the season.

WR	Juwann Winfree	knee	suffered a torn ACL in practice on August 18; will undergo surgery on Sept. 6 (he has a redshirt year available to him)	OUT/SEASON

ATTENDANCE UP

Through four of six home games on the '16 slate, CU is averaging 44,673 for the season, with the Arizona State crowd of 48,588 for Homecoming the largest at Folsom since Nov. 4, 2011 against Southern California (50,083). CU last averaged over 40,000 for a full season in 2012 (45,373).

100/300

The Buffaloes have historically done well when holding the opponent to under 100 yards rushing and under 300 yards total offense. Dating back to the start of the 1985 season, Colorado is 100-14-1 when the opponent fails to reach 100 yards on the ground, and 100-20-1 when the enemy is held under 300 yards overall. CU is 6-0 and 10-0 in each, respectively, in 46 games under Mike MacIntyre.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND THE ROSTER

Through 10 games, and thanks largely to opening with three of four wins combined by 127 points, 16 different players have caught passes for the Buffaloes (five have thrown them), and 13 players have at least one rushing attempt. Eighteen players have scored points this season (all with six or more), and 19 have earned first downs. On defense, eight different players have at least one interception, and 11 have registered a quarterback sack, while 23 have recorded at least one third down stop.

CAPTAINS

On July 5, the team met to elect their 2016 captains; after a discussion of who they thought would be the best leaders on several fronts, the five who emerged as CU's captains are seniors QB Sefo Liufau and ILB Kenneth Olugbode and juniors FB/TE George Frazier, OT Jeromy Irwin and TB Phillip Lindsay. An interesting note on Liufau: having been named a captain as a sophomore in 2014 and again last year, he is now just the second CU player to serve as a team captain for three seasons, the first since Pat Carney did so over 120 years ago (1891-92-93).

► Liufau is one of six players in the nation currently serving in his third year as a team captain; he's joined by Dakota Cox (New Mexico), Taysom Hill (BYU), Ryan Janvion (Wake Forest), Mitch Leidner (Minnesota), Pat O'Connor (Eastern Michigan) and Justin Thomas (Georgia Tech). North Carolina's Mack Hollins is a three-time captain, but UNC elects captains after the season.

IN THE POLLS / SOME HISTORY

Colorado re-entered the national polls this past October 2 for the first time since 2005, as the Buffaloes came in at No. 21 in the Associated Press (media) poll and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches ballot; while it lasted for just the one week, it had been 11 years since CU had been nationally ranked, last appearing on November 6, 2005, when the Buffs were No. 21 in the coaches' ballot and No. 22 in the AP survey. The Buffs still own the 10th longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the first five weeks of 1997, CU had a tremendous run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has now been ranked 298 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 300), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 11, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

- CU received one vote in each of the AP and Coaches polls of Sept. 6, the first time since Sept. 21, 2008 that the Buffs received at least one vote in each.
- What was going on in the fall of 2005, the last time CU was ranked?
 - The Earth's population was estimated at 6.5 billion; it is now over 7.4 billion (growing almost 14 percent).
 - Mr. & Mrs. Smith was the most popular movie; The Office debuted on NBC; Mariah Carey's We Belong Together was Billboard's No. 1 song of the year.
 - Pro Sport Champions: New England (NFL), San Antonio (NBA), Chicago White Sox (MLB); no NHL Stanley Cup champion as the players were locked out.
 - Top news events: George W. Bush begins second term; Hurricane Katrina devastates the South; disgraced journalist Dan Rather forced to resign from CBS.
 - Famous people who died included Pope John Paul II, Johnny Carson, Richard Pryor, Rosa Parks, Pat Morita, Anne Bancroft and Bob Denver.

43 WINS OVER AP RANKED TEAMS 19TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season (when the AP expanded to a top 25) are the 19th most in the nation in this time frame (28 seasons). Through games of Nov. 12, Florida State has the most (80), followed by Alabama (80), Ohio State (78), Florida (72), Michigan (67), LSU (66), Southern Cal (64), Oklahoma (61), Miami, Fla. (57), Tennessee (57), Auburn (53), Georgia (53), Oregon (52), Texas (53), UCLA (51), Notre Dame (50), Penn State (48), Nebraska (47), Washington (46), Colorado (43) and Clemson (43). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the sixth most ranked teams in the nation (126, with a record of 43-81-2), trailing only Florida (140; 72-67-1), LSU (137; 66-71), Alabama 136 (80-55-1), Michigan 129 (67-60-2) and Ohio State 129 (78-48-3); the leader in wins, Florida State, has played 124; 80-44.

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team.
- CU has lost 23 straight against ranked teams, 0-1 this season (loss at Michigan), 0-3 in 2015 and 0-5 in 2014; the Buffs have lost 27 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.
- Arizona State was ranked No. 24 in the USA Today/Coaches poll when CU defeated it, 40-16; but all historical records are solely against those teams ranked by the AP.

TRIFECTA OF DEFENSE

On October 8, Colorado left the southern California having allowed a season-high 548 yards of total offense to USC, but the next three games were a whole different ball game. The Buffaloes have allowed just 672 yards in the three games after the USC loss, which stood as the second lowest three-game total since 1967, where there were three different three-game spans under 700. Going back over the last 49 seasons, here are the best three-game defensive efforts in succession by the Buffaloes:

1992	510	Missouri (187), Oklahoma (307), Kansas State (16)	2007	590	Florida State (221), Miami-Ohio (139), Oklahoma (230)
1977	593	Kent State (137), New Mexico (175), Army (281)	1998	649	Fresno State (330), Utah State (141), Baylor (178)
1969	597	Penn State (229), Indiana (167), Iowa State (201)	2016	672	Arizona State (199), Stanford (263), UCLA (210)
1999	628	Oklahoma (317), Kansas State (197), Baylor (114)	1998	673	Colorado State (202), Fresno State (330), Utah State (141)
1967	673	Colorado State (202), Fresno State (330), Utah State (141)

SWEET 16

Colorado has held six opponents to 16 points or less this season, including four Pac-12 foes; it's been awhile since the Buffs have accomplished these feats. In fact, you have to go back to 1998, when CU held those same exact numbers (six and four) to 16 or fewer, except that the four league opponents were Big 12 Conference mates. The Buffs held seven teams overall to 16 or less in 1985 and 1991, and also held six teams to that in 1971, 1972, 1977, 1987, 19983 and 1998 (the best in the last 50 seasons is nine in 1967, when six Big 8 opponents were limited to 16 or less). Conference foes were held to 16 or less five times in 1985, 1993 and 1996.

► NATIONALLY: Across the FBS, just two teams have held eight opponents to 16 or fewer points (Alabama, Michigan); five have held seven (Auburn, Florida, San Diego State, Stanford, Wisconsin). Two others join the Buffs holding six teams at or below that figure (Army, LSU) while two others have done it five times: Appalachian State, Clemson.

MORE DEFENSE

When Colorado held UCLA to just 210 yards of total offense on Nov. 3, it marked the sixth time this season that the Buffs held their opponent to under 275 yards (five were against FBS opponents). Of all 64 schools in a Power-5 conference, in addition to independent programs Notre Dame and BYU (a total of 66 teams), Colorado is one of only six schools that have held five or more opponents to under 300 yards of offense this season (counting only games against FBS teams). Alabama leads the nation with eight such games, followed by Louisville and Ohio State with seven, and Florida and Michigan with six. CU for the season ranks first in the Pac-12 and 12th nationally in total defense, allowing just 308.4 yards per game, and it is ninth in scoring defense by giving up only 17.9 points per game.

► GOING FOR THE "HATRICK": Colorado has led its conference in total defense just twice since World War II, in 1958 (Big Seven) and in 1992 (Big Eight).

AND STILL MORE DEFENSE

- Over CU's four game winning streak it has held opponents to an average of 271.0 yards per game and just 13.8 points. Opponents have only converted 17-of-62 (27.4 percent) third-down tries against the Buffs in these last three games.

- Colorado remains second in the nation in red zone defense, allowing opponent red zone scores just 66.7 percent of the time. Of the 27 times opponents have reached the red zone on CU's defense, they have only scored 18 times (14 TDs); Michigan leads the nation at 64.7 (11 scores, 17 penetrations).

Note: these are national numbers where the 20-yard line is included in the red zone; CU invented this stat in 1981 and the 20 was not included, and that's the format the NFL adopted. CU's miscellaneous stats do not match national totals.*

- Don't Come Around Here No More: in a tip of the hat to Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers, in CU's last three games, the opponent have run a combined 29 plays in CU's red zone for a net 25 yards (10 penetrations, 5 touchdowns).

PAC-12 CONFERENCE TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES TO DETERMINE DIVISION CHAMPIONS

The winner of each division will be determined by the record in all games played (both divisional and cross-divisional) within the conference. In the event of a tie, the following procedures will be applied to determine the Pac-12 Championship Game representatives:

Two-Team Tie

1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams;
2. Record in games played within the division;
3. Record against the next highest placed team in the division (based on record in all games played within the conference), proceeding through the division;
4. Record in common conference games;
5. Total number of wins in a 12-game season; the following conditions will apply to the calculation of the total number of wins:
 - A. Only one win against a team from the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision or lower division will be counted annually.
 - B. Any games that are exempted from counting against the annual maximum number of football contests per NCAA rules shall not be included;
6. Highest ranking by SportSource Analytics (<http://sportsourceanalytics.com/>) following the last day of regular-season games;
7. Coin toss.

Multiple-Team Ties

The following procedures are used to eliminate all but two teams, at which point the two-team procedure will be applied:

1. Head-to-head (best record in games among the tied teams);
2. Record in games played within the division;
3. Record against the next highest placed team in the division (based on conference record), proceeding through the division;
4. Record in common conference games;
5. Highest ranking by SportSource Analytics (<http://sportsourceanalytics.com/>) following the last day of regular-season games.

MOST IMPROVED TEAMS ALL-TIME IN PAC-12 LEAGUE PLAY

Colorado has already made one of the best improvements in league record from one year to the next in the history of the Pac-12 Conference. CU, at 6-1 in league play, has already won five more conference games this year than it had in 2015. After going 5-40 in Pac-12 play since the Buffs joined the league in 2011 through 2015, CU was picked to finish last in the South Division in the 2016 preseason poll.

In Pac-12 Conference history, there are now seven instances where a school won five more games in league play than it did the season before, as Colorado joined that select group with its win at Arizona; the biggest jump in league victories from one season to the next is seven, accomplished by Stanford in 1940, who went 7-0 that year after finishing the 1939 season 0-6-1. Stanford's 6½-game improvement that year is also the best from one year to the next, with three others improving by five games; CU has joined that latter group and will finish either at +7 (with two wins), +6 (with a split) but no worst then +5.

MOST IMPROVED FBS TEAMS IN 2016

There have been two previous seasons in school history where Colorado finished a year as the nation's most improved team. In one of the more dramatic turnarounds in NCAA history, CU went from 1-10 in 1984 to 7-5 in 1985, a 5½-game improvement, after the Buffs switched from a pro passing attack to the wishbone on offense. Then in 2001, Colorado improved six games, finishing 10-3 after going 3-8 the year before; in fact, CU just missed playing in the BCS Championship game by .05 of a point. This year, CU already has one of the biggest jumps over its 2015 record. The Buffs debuted as No. 15 in the first College Football Playoff Poll of the season and of all the teams that appeared in that first CFP ranking released on Nov. 1, only CU and Nebraska had losing seasons a year ago (CU was 4-9 while Nebraska was 6-7). The most improved teams thus far in 2016:

School	2015	2016	Improvement
UCF	0-12	6-4	+ 7
Wyoming	2-10	7-3	+ 6
Eastern Michigan	1-11	6-4	+ 6
Colorado	4-9	8-2	+ 5½

School	2015	2016	Improvement
Troy	4-8	8-1	+ 5½
Army	2-10	5-4	+ 4½
North Texas	1-11	4-6	+ 4
Wake Forest	3-9	6-4	+ 4

UNCOMMON

One of the team themes is to be "uncommon." CU has won four straight conference games within the same year for the first time since opening 4-0 in the Big 12 in 2002 (en route to a 7-1 finish and a Big 12 North Division title). CU also closed the 2001 Big 12 conference schedule with four straight victories (and technically made a fifth with a win over Texas in the league's title game). The last time a Colorado team reeled off five straight league wins over the course of a regular season was in 1996, when the Buffaloes opened 7-0 in the first year of the Big 12; in the 1989 and 1990 seasons, CU finished 7-0 on its way to Big 8 titles those seasons. CU won five straight Big 8 tilts in 1986, otherwise you have to drift back to 1961 for the previous five-game league streak (7-0, Big 8).

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HISTORIC

For just the second time since the 1955 season, when Air Force began playing intercollegiate football, all five Division I teams along the Rocky Mountain Front Range had winning records after the first weekend in November: CU and Wyoming (7-2), Air Force and New Mexico (6-3) and Colorado State (5-4). The only other year among these 62 seasons? The record after games of Nov. 2, 1996: Wyoming (9-0), Colorado (7-1), Air Force (5-3), Colorado State (6-4) and New Mexico (5-4); that's also the last year all finished with winning records (CU and WYO 10-2; CSU 7-5; AFA and UNM 6-5) and just one of two overall (the other season was 1958: AFA 9-0-2, WYO 8-3, UNM 7-3, CU and CSU 6-4).

TALK ABOUT ATTENTION

At the UCLA game in Boulder on Nov. 3, there were 31 scouts in attendance from 20 NFL teams: Arizona, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Miami, Minnesota, New Orleans, New York Giants, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Seattle and Tennessee.

DÉJÀ VU: STARTING TWINS

In 2015, the Buffs were the only team in the country (FBS) who had twins that are both in the starting lineup, until Jeromy Irwin was lost for the season with a knee injury in the UMass game. He was starting at left tackle and Sean Irwin at tight end. The duo started three games in 2014 (the first two against CSU and Massachusetts and the finale against Utah). Several other teams have twins, and in a few cases, more than one set, but the Irwins were the only starting pair to start the season; they're technically not twins—they're two-thirds of a set of triplets (the other brother doesn't play football).

LINDSAY TOPS 3,000 ALL-PURPOSE YARDS, JOINS 500/500 CLUB

TB Phillip Lindsay has rapidly moved up CU's all-time all-purpose yards chart this season, rising from 33rd to open the year (with 2,376 yards) into a tie for third with 3,622; he has rushed for 1,981 yards, has 612 receiving and 1,028 in kickoff return yardage. He became the 14th player to join CU's 500/500 Club (rushing and receiving yards), doing so in the Arizona State game; once he "broke" into the club, he now has the eighth most total combined yards of the 14:

MORE LINDSAY

TB Phillip Lindsay has scored a touchdown in seven games this year and now has 21 in his career (19 rushing/2 receiving), not too bad considering he didn't score his first until the 14th game of his career. He has 126 career points, becoming the 50th player in CU history to reach 100. His 13 rushing touchdowns through 10 games are the most since 2002, when Chris Brown had 18; his 14 overall scores is also the most since Brown's 2002 count. The last CU running back with double-digit rushing touchdowns in a season had been Rodney Stewart with 10 in 2010.

CHASING DOWN HIS COACH: Lindsay is 20th on CU's all-time rushing chart (1,981); ahead of him in 18th is his current position coach, Darian Hagan (2,007), with Carroll Hardy in-between (1,999).

LINDSAY MAKES SOME HISTORY

When junior TB Phillip Lindsay had career-highs of six receptions for 105 yards in the 21-17 loss at USC on October 8, he made some history in the process. He became just the fifth running back to have 100-plus receiving yards in Colorado history, and the first to do it since 2001, when TB Cortlen Johnson had identical numbers in a 40-27 Colorado win at Iowa State. A look at this rare quintet:

Player	Date	Opponent	Score	No.	Yds	TD	Player	Date	Opponent	Score	No.	Yds	TD
Jim Haley	Oct. 25, 1930	COLORADO A&M	W 7-0	3	108	1	Cortlen Johnson	Nov. 10, 2001	at Iowa State	W 40-27	6	105	1
Ron Johnson	Sept. 29, 1951	at Northwestern	L 14-35	2	108	0	Phillip Lindsay	Oct. 8, 2016	at Southern Cal	L 17-21	6	105	1
Leon Mavity	Nov. 11, 1961	UTAH	L 12-21	2	112	1

► Lindsay rushed for a career-high 219 yards (on 26 carries) against Arizona State, scoring three touchdowns in CU's 40-16 win. It was CU's first 200-plus game since 2002 (Chris Brown, 211 at Missouri) and the 24th 200-yard game in school history. He became the 15th different Buffalo to rush for 200-plus in a game.

► He is bidding to become CU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2010, when Rodney "Speedy" Stewart had 1,318 (with 10 touchdowns on 290 carries).

► With back-to-back triple digit games against Arizona State and Stanford, he was the first Buff to post back-to-back 100-yard efforts since Michael Adkins II in 2014 (vs. UCLA & Washington). UCLA ended Lindsay's run at two games as he was limited to 73 yards on 24 carries, though 47 of those yards came post-contact.

► His 11 receptions versus UCLA (for 76 yards) were a record for the most in a game by a CU running back; the old mark was nine by FB Lawrence Vickers versus Oklahoma State in Boulder on Oct. 9, 2004 (for 96 yards).

PRICE MAKES HIS MARK (notice this tag starts with a "P" and ends with a "K," or PK)

PK Davis Price joined the team as a recruited walk-on in June, but little did he know he'd see much if any action as a true freshman. But with the season-ending injury in the Michigan game to Diego Gonzalez, he was pressed into service as the kickoff specialist for the Oregon game. Chris Graham then struggled with a couple of low PAT kicks, so Price was ushered into the first-team role for the second kick of the Oregon State game, and how did he respond? He made all five of his extra point tries and both of his field goals, including a 54-yard boot on his first try, the CU record for both the longest made by a freshman and the longest first-career make (his high school best at Evergreen (in the foothills west of Denver) was 47 yards). He was recognized for his performance as the Pac-12's Special Teams Player of the Week. He missed the Stanford and UCLA games after taking ill the Wednesday prior but returned to play against Arizona.

► A FIRST? It was for sure for CU: the Buffs charter with United Airlines for their travel, and for the flights to and from Los Angeles, the pilot was Doug Price – Davis' father. A CU graduate himself, he is an Air Force Veteran who has been flying for United for 20 years; he normally flies military charters bringing troops back home from overseas.

OLUGBODE ENJOYING FINEST SEASON; NEARING 100 TACKLES

ILB Kenneth Olugbode has been credited with 108 tackles this season, a number that would rank fifth among all FBS players (CU uses coaches' video for defensive stats, not press box stats that the NCAA utilizes in statistical rankings). Those would also lead the Pac-12 – UCLA LB Jayon Brown is second with 97; he recorded 19 against the Buffaloes. Olugbode posted a career-high 18 tackles earlier this season in the win against Stanford. He has posted double-digit tackles in 6-of-10 games this year, which has given him 12 career double-digit tackle performances. Those 18 tackles versus Stanford on Oct. 22 were the most by a Buff since his fellow teammate Addison Gillam also recorded 18 against Oregon during his true freshman year of 2013. He has zoomed up CU's tackles chart and also has two interceptions this season—the first linebacker at CU to pick off two in a season since Shaun Mohler had a pair in 2008.

STANFORD WINNING POINT TOTAL PRETTY RARE

Colorado won three games in 1966 when scoring fewer than 14 points; but how rare was CU's 10-5 win at Stanford on October 22? It was just the ninth win in the last 50 seasons where the Buffs won when scoring under 14 points, and the first in 20 years. A look at these low scoring affairs (#—Orange Bowl):

Nov. 11, 1967	KANSAS	W 12- 8	Sept. 18, 1982	at Washington State	W 12- 0	Oct. 8, 1992	at Missouri	W 6- 0
Nov. 5, 1977	at Iowa State	W 12- 7	Jan. 1, 1991	#Notre Dame	W 10- 9	Nov. 16, 1996	KANSAS STATE	W 12- 0
Oct. 17, 1981	OKLAHOMA STATE	W 11-10	Oct. 26, 1991	at Kansas State	W 10- 0	Oct. 22, 2016	at Stanford	W 10- 5

Note: CU scored two touchdowns in the '67 and '96 games, four field goals in the '82 game; and two field goals in the '92 game; others were a combination.

The CU-Stanford game is the fourth-lowest scoring game of the season involving an FBS program. The list of the nine games in 2016 with 20 or fewer points:

HOME COOKING

Colorado is approaching its 400th victory at home since it began play in 1890; the win count sits at 399 after the 20-10 win over UCLA; the Buffaloes have two more home games this season and have opened 4-0 at home for the first time since 2005. The friendly confines of Folsom Field have been just that, as CU has outscored the opponents 163-39, allowing just three touchdowns (all on short fields: 27 yards by Idaho State, 31 by Arizona State and 38 by UCLA, the first two following turnovers). CU has outgained the three by 2,044-731, with a 109-42 edge in first downs. Opponents are converting at just a 22.2 clip on third downs (14-of-63) and have crossed the 50 just 20 times in 60 drives (six three-and-outs, running 79 plays for only 151 yards in plus territory).

HOW LOUD? Against Arizona State, CU had its largest home attendance since the end of the 2011 season, as 48,588 attended Homecoming. The question of how much louder Folsom Field would be since the completion of the Champions Center on the northeast side of the stadium was answered: noise in fact was held in from that direction, amplifying already what is considered to be one of the traditionally loudest stadiums in the nation when at or near capacity.

HOME DOMINANCE

There are just two Pac-12 teams remaining who are undefeated at home this year through games of November 12; the Buffs have been slightly more dominant than USC:

Team	Record	Points For (Avg.)	Points Against (Avg.)	Scoring Differential	Yards Gained (Avg.)	Yards Allowed (Avg.)	Difference in Total Offense vs. Yards Allowed

BOWL ELIGIBLE FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 2007

Colorado became bowl eligible after its win at Stanford, doing so for the first time since 2007, when it went 6-6 in the regular season and earned a berth in the Independence Bowl (where the Buffs lost to Alabama, 30-24). That season, the Buffs got to six wins and eligible for a bowl on Nov. 23 by beating Nebraska in the regular season finale, 65-51. The last time the Buffs were bowl eligible after only eight games was back in 2005 when they also started 6-2. That 2005 season was also the last time the Buffs played in a conference championship game after winning the Big 12 North. It looks good that Colorado this year will be making its 29th bowl appearance, having come into the season ranked 36th in all-time bowl appearances, which stands sixth in the Pac-12 behind USC (51), UCLA (35), Washington (35), Oregon (30) and Arizona State (29).

RETURN YARDS HIGH

Often lost in all the conversation about total offense and defense are return yards — CU had 175 against UCLA in its 20-10 win, and they played a huge role, accounting for one touchdown via punt return and setting up CU's lone offensive score via an interception return. It was the most return yards by the Buffs since Oct. 26, 2002, when they had 183 in a 37-13 win over Texas Tech (125 interception, 44 punt, 14 fumble). It was just the third time since that 2002 game that the Buffs recorded over 100 returns yards in a game and the first time against an FBS/Division I-A opponent; CU had 135 against Eastern Washington in 2008 and 125 against Central Arkansas in 2013.

SERIES HISTORY— COLORADO vs. WASHINGTON STATE

Colorado leads the all-time series with Washington State by a 5-4 count, as the Cougars own a 2-1 lead in games since the Buffaloes joined the Pac-12 in 2011. WSU won last year in Pullman, 27-3, on a miserable night in Pullman (a late kickoff, cold and gusting winds had the wind chill in the low 20s). The schools did not play in 2013-14, after the Buffs won the in their first-ever trip to Pullman in 2012; Jordan Webb scored on a 4-yard run on fourth down with 4 seconds left to rally CU to a 35-34 win ... it would be CU's only win in a 1-11 season. The Cougars won the first game in the series with both schools as members of the Pac-12 Conference in 2011, scoring two touchdowns in the last 155 seconds to rally from a 27-17 deficit for a 31-27 win. That was the first meeting in seven years between the two, as CU had won 20-12 in Seattle in 2004 (at Qwest Field); that was a make-up contest from 2001 as the two were scheduled to play in Pullman on September 15, but the cowardly terrorist events of September 11 canceled the game. Thus, the order of a home-and-home series was switched, as he back end originally was the 2003 game in Boulder; when rescheduled, WSU officials decided to move the game to Seattle. The series between the pair began in 1981, with Washington State "stealing" a 14-10 win over the Buffaloes by scoring a pair of touchdowns in the final two minutes after two Buff punt mistakes. CU won the following year in Spokane, grabbing a 12-0 win on four Tom Field field goals. The next three games in the series were in Boulder, a 26-17 CU win in '87, a 37-19 Buff victory in '96 and a WSU 47-26 romp in 2003.

➔ CU coach Mike MacIntyre is 0-1 against Washington State; WSU coach Mike Leach is 2-4 versus Colorado (1-1 at WSU, 1-3 at Texas Tech).

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—The 12-0 win at Spokane in 1982 was the first of what would amount to 93 victories by CU's all-time winningest coach, Bill McCartney. It was the second game of his "Era," which had opened the previous week with a 31-17 loss to California in Boulder.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 20th. In 1996, Colorado opened the year ranked No. 5 in the preseason polls and did not disappoint, as the Buffaloes defeated Washington State and its star quarterback, Ryan Leaf, 37-19 in Boulder in the season opener for both teams. Koy Detmer threw three touchdown passes (7 yards to James Kidd, 43 yards to Chris Anderson and 25 yards to Herchell Troutman) and scored on a 1-yard run himself as the Buffs built a commanding 37-6 lead early in the fourth quarter. In fact, CU was going in for another score when Taylor Boose scooped up a fumble and returned it 94 yards for a touchdown — to this day the longest fumble return against the Buffs (and the eighth longest play aside from kickoff returns). Colorado dominated the statistics, most notably in total offense (470-168), first downs (23-9) and time of possession (38:40). In addition, the CU defense held the Cougars to a net 5 rushing yards (29 not including quarterback sacks on 18 true carries). Jason Lesley added three field goals to account for the other CU points.

WASHINGTON STATE SNAPSHOT

Washington State is 8-2, reeling off eight straight wins after opening the season with two straight three-point setbacks (45-42 to Eastern Washington and 31-28 at Boise State); since those games, WSU has outscored their opponent by 373-167. As was the case when the two played last year, the Cougars might be playing as well as any team in the conference at this juncture, and are 13-3 in their last 16 Pac-12 games, the best record in league games over the last two seasons and has started 7-0 in Pac-12 play for the first time in its history).

➔ Washington State coach Mike Leach is in his fifth season in Pullman, owning a 29-31 record at the reins of the Cougars. He is 113-74 in his 15th season as a head coach. He is no stranger to playing the Buffaloes, as he spent 11 seasons in the Big 12, one season as the offensive coordinator at Oklahoma in 1999 and 10 seasons as the head coach at Texas Tech (2000-09). The Buffs have been a thorn in his side, however: Leach has faced the Buffs seven times as an assistant and head coach and CU owns a 5-2 record against his teams. The Buffs beat Oklahoma in Boulder in 1999, 38-24, and then beat Texas Tech in Boulder in 2002 (37-13) and 2006 (30-6) and split two games in Lubbock, losing 26-21 in 2003 and winning in 2007, 31-26. Prior to his Big 12 days, Leach has been an offensive coordinator setting records at every stop, including Kentucky (1997-98), Valdosta State (1992-96) and Iowa Wesleyan (1989-91). He coached defense one season, mentoring the linebackers at the College of the Desert in 1988 one year after his coaching career began as an offensive line coach at Cal Poly in 1987.

➔ Washington State has won eight straight games in the same season for the first time since 1930.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL NOTE / 1979

As the 1979 season wound down, the Buffs were 1-8 heading into their final two games; CU had a long offseason, letting coach Bill Mallory go after a 6-5 record in '78 and five seasons overall; there were grand visions of a great future with the hiring of Chuck Fairbanks (which was announced to the world on Monday Night Football by Howard Cosell). The New England Patriots sued CU and by the time everything was settled, Fairbanks could not officially join the school until April 4. But installing a pro-style offensive attack and a change in defensive schemes, it took well into the season for everything to click. After a certain win in week nine against Oklahoma State was frittered away (a 20-0 lead entering the fourth quarter turned into a 21-20 loss), the Buffs traveled to Kansas where an agitated CU team spotted the home team a 10-0 lead before rallying for a 31-17 win over the Jayhawks. Colorado outgained KU, 391-170, recording seven sacks and limiting KU to 65 rushing yards on 45 tries. The Buffs then closed out the year with a 21-6 win over Kansas State in Boulder (a day after a massive snowstorm in which most of the CU athletic department was asked to pitch in and shovel snow out of Folsom Field).

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 19

Colorado is 8-5 all-time on November 19, having won seven consecutive times on the date beginning in 1949 through 1994. Here's a brief look at some of the games played on the date: 1921—The always interesting recap early last century from the CU yearbook (Coloradoan) of a 10-0 win over Colorado State (Colorado A&M). "The team entered a week of strenuous practice in order to beat the Farmers on their home field before their homecoming crowd ... Neither team scored the first half, and the Farmers were unable to penetrate the State line, and at no time did the Aggies threaten the Silver and Gold line." It went on to say, "The Aggies in a desperate attempt to win opened up an aerial attack in their own territory; which resulted in Trophy intercepting a pass and running thru the Farmers for a touchdown." 1927—Again from the yearbook, after the Buffs lost at Southern Cal the week before: "Returning from the California game with a disastrous toll of injuries to Capt. Wittemyer, Gress, Buck and Bill Smith and Bagnall, Colorado, with its light and inexperienced substitutes, gave all it had of spirit and effort in the closing games the following Saturday and Thanksgiving Day with Aggies and Denver University, but met with its two overwhelming defeats." Translation: The Buffs fell at Colorado A&M, 39-7 on Nov. 19 before falling 48-0 at Denver on Nov. 24. 1949—In a back-and-forth game at Nebraska, the Buffs lost 25-14. Colorado scored first to take a 7-0 lead before Nebraska scored twice within minutes of each other to go up 13-7. In the second quarter, Colorado regained the lead, 14-13, but the Cornhuskers scored on the last play of the first half to lead 19-14. One Nebraska touchdown was all the scoring in the second half. 1955—Folsom Field was a muddy mess and that hampered both teams in the first half, but CU exploded in the second half, scoring 28 of its 40 points (two touchdowns apiece in the third and fourth quarters) while shutting out Iowa State. Colorado outgained Iowa State 375-76 (307-77 rushing) and Bob Stransky and Emerson Wilson both rushed for two touchdowns in the win. 1960—In a game the Denver Post described as a tennis match because the ball was fumbled back and forth so much (10 combined fumbles lost, CU four, OSU six), the Buffs finally scored in the second quarter two failed red zone attempts to take a 7-0 lead. Oklahoma State scored its only points of the game in the third quarter after a CU fumble, but missed the extra point. Colorado then scored a touchdown after a fourth quarter Oklahoma State fumble for the final points of the game, giving CU a 13-6 win. 1966—John Farler drilled a 34-yard field goal with just over five minutes left to give Colorado a slim 10-9 victory over Air Force as the Buffs end their 7-3 season with four straight wins. CU fell behind 9-0 as Dick Hall kicked field goals of 18, 26 and 32 yards for Air Force before Colorado could get on the scoreboard. Bernie McCall scored on a 4-yard run while surpassing the 3,000-yard mark in career total offense. Dick Anderson picked off two passes and accumulated 16 tackles while Isaac Howard intercepted an AFA pass in the end zone late in the game to prevent a touchdown and potential fourth field goal attempt. 1977—James Mayberry set a CU record with 40 rushes, picking up 174 yards and a touchdown as Colorado opened up a 17-0 halftime lead and cruised to defeat Kansas State 23-0 on senior day. The end of the season was unique for the Buffs as junior Gary Washington, a deaf running back, rambled 72 yards for a touchdown with just :13 left in the game as the Buffs stormed the field in congratulations. 1983—The Buffs outscored Kansas State 31-0 in the second half to win 38-21. Colorado threw four first-half interceptions and the score could have been worse but the Wildcats fumbled four times. The Buffs were down 21-7 at half but were able to tie the game just two minutes into the second half after K-State fumbled for the fifth and sixth time on the first two series of the third quarter and the Buffs capitalized on both. Kent Davis recovered two fumbles, forced another and had the other interception for the Buffs defense. 1988—Colorado amassed 555 yards in total offense, the most since 1981, and J.J. Flannigan rushed for 151 yards and three scores as the Buffs pounded Kansas State, 56-14, to close out the season with an 8-4 record, the best Buffs best record in 12 seasons. Flannigan scored twice in the first quarter as the Buffs opened up a 35-7 lead by halftime. 1994—On one of the most memorable afternoons in Folsom Field history, the Buffs defeated Iowa State 41-20. The Heisman Trophy candidate (Rashaan Salaam) surpassed the 2,000 yard mark, the All-Big Eight quarterback (Kordell Stewart) broke the 2,000 yard plateau and became the all-time Big Eight leader in total offense. The tight end (Christian Fauria) broke the Big Eight receiving record for his position. Oh, and the head coach (Bill McCartney) resigned following the game. Salaam needed 204 yards to reach 2,000 and he broke that mark in style. On 1st-and-10 early in the fourth quarter, he took the hand-off, darted quickly to his right and raced down the sideline for 67 yards, giving CU a 34-13 lead. CU became the second team in 125 years of college football to have a 2,000 yard passer and rusher. Stewart surpassed that mark twice, the first time to Fauria that enabled him to become the Big Eight career reception leader among tight ends. Stewart was then sacked and went back over 2,000 yards on a nine-yard toss to Chris Anderson for his first career catch. McCartney finished his 13-year career with a 92-55-3 mark and exited as the winningest coach in CU history. CU racked up 576 yards of offense while holding the Cyclones to a CU opponent season low 243. 2009—The Buffs lost a heartbreaker at No. 13 Oklahoma State, 31-28; CU led the see-saw battle 21-10 at one point, and took a 28-24 lead with 11:11 to play on a 98-yard kickoff return for a score by Brian Lockridge. But OSU would go ahead for good on a 28-yard touchdown pass from two now household names, Brandon Weeden to Justin Blackmon. 2011—Colorado lost its first game at UCLA as a member of the Pac-12, falling 45-6 at the Rose Bowl; former CU coach Rick Neuheisel led his alma mater to the deciding win, with the Bruins gaining 553 yards to CU's 229.

NOVEMBER 19 COLORADO MVP: TB Rashaan Salaam, 1994 (photo at right), who secured his bid for the Heisman, Doak Walker and Walter Camp trophies with 259 yards rushing against Iowa State to give him 2,055 total yards (at the time becoming the fourth player in NCAA history to reach the 2,000-yard plateau for a single-season).

DID YOU KNOW ... that CU was the only team that has held a second-half lead on one-time No. 3 Michigan this year until Iowa upset the then No. 2 Wolverines 14-13 on Nov. 12? Colorado went ahead of UM, 28-24, early in the third quarter after a Sefo Liufau 70-yard touchdown pass to Shay Fields. Liufau was injured on the next series and left the game with Michigan going on to win, 45-28.

THE LAST TIME WASHINGTON ST. 27, COLORADO 3NOVEMBER 21, 2015 MARTIN STADIUM, PULLMAN

PULLMAN, Wash. — Facing the No. 24 team in the country on the road with a freshman quarterback making his first college start, the Colorado Buffaloes needed a near-perfect effort to knock off Washington State.

They didn't get it. Instead, it was WSU quarterback Luke Falk who was near perfect in the first half while the CU made too many mistakes to keep itself in the game.

The result was the Buffs' seventh Pac-12 loss of the season, a 27-3 decision that officially eliminated hope of a postseason berth.

The Buffs had their chances in the first half, but couldn't take advantage. WSU took a 14-0 lead into the locker room at intermission, then added to the lead early in the third quarter with a field goal following an interception thrown by CU's Cade Apsay.

Apsay, making his first start as a Buff, played relatively well, especially given his inexperience. He completed 26 of his 40 pass attempts for 238 yards, but did not have a touchdown pass and threw two interceptions.

Falk, who left the game with a head injury after a sack in the third quarter, was 21-for-23 for 156 yards and a touchdown in the first half.

The Buffs kept the Cougars in check on WSU's first two possessions, forcing a punt on their opening drive, then stopping a Washington State fourth-down try.

But the Buffs couldn't take advantage either time. CU's first possession ended on a missed Diego Gonzalez field try from 47 yards out after CU drove to the WSU 30 and the second ended on its own 42 when the Buffs couldn't convert a fourth-and-1.

The Cougars didn't let that opportunity slip away. Falk completed a 29-yard pass on fourth-and-6 to keep the march alive and Keith Harrington capped a seven-play, 42-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 Washington State lead.

CU's next possession ended after just four plays. An Alex Kinney punt pinned Washington State at its own 4, but 10 plays later, the Cougars were back in the end zone. Falk completed nine straight passes on the drive, with the score coming on an 11-yard toss to Dom Williams for a 14-0 lead.

Colorado then had one more chance to get on the board before the half ended. Starting from their own 15, the Buffs drove to the WSU 16 before a penalty stalled the drive. Gonzalez then missed a 33-yard field goal try.

Falk was injured late in the third quarter when his head slammed to the turf on a sack by Colorado defensive lineman Samson Kafovalu.

Backup Peyton Bender, however, finished the drive by putting the Cougars in position for a field goal and 17-0 lead.

Colorado finally scored late in the third period when Apsay engineered a 10-play, 66-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard Gonzalez field goal to cut WSU's lead to 17-3.

But WSU then put the game away by going 76 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown early in the fourth period. Bender tossed a 16-yard touchdown to Gabe Marks to give WSU a 24-3 lead with 14:25 left in the game.

Colorado had one more chance to score late in the game following a Tedric Thompson interception, but a bad snap led to an Apsay fumble on fourth-and-goal from the 2, and the Buffs turned it over on downs.

Washington State then drove 72 yards for a field goal and the game's final points.

Phillip Lindsay led the Buffs in rushing with 78 yards on 16 carries. Nelson Spruce had 10 catches for 120 yards, the eighth 100-yard game of his career.

GAME NOTES

CU now leads the series by a 5-4 count (3-1 in the state of Washington, 1-1 in Pullman) ... the Buffs are 7-5-1 all-time in the state of Washington ... Colorado was shut out in the first half for the first time in 23 games, or since the 2013 finale at Utah (Nov. 30) ... The Buffs did not score a touchdown for the first time since a 38-3 loss to Washington in Boulder on Nov. 17, 2012 ... WSU had 149 rushing yards, its third most in the series, and five more than it had in the previous three games against the Buffs combined ...

QB Cade Apsay (40-26-2, 238, 0 TD) became the 11th freshman (fifth redshirt frosh) to start a game at quarterback at Colorado; he threw for the seventh most passing yards in a starting debut by a CU quarterback (the third most by a freshman) ... WR Nelson Spruce (10-120, 0 TD) made his 45th career start, setting a CU record for the most starts by an offensive player (breaking a tie with OG Joe Garten, 1987-90, and C Bryan Stoltenberg, 1992-95); he also had his eighth 100-yard game of his career (and moved from 15th into 10th place in all-time on the Pac-12 receiving yards list ... P Alex Kinney. His first punt of the evening was downed inside-the-5, giving him CU freshman single-season records of 22 punts inside-the-20 and nine punts inside-the-10 ... S Tedric Thompson had his second interception of the season and the fifth of his career ... The wind chill hovered between 20 and 24 degrees for most of the game, but there was no precipitation.

TURNOVER STREAK LONGEST IN THE NATION

Colorado was one of only six schools in the nation to force at least one turnover in every game in 2015 (and the only Power 5 school to do so); Boise State, Northern Illinois, Marshall, Georgia State and Toledo joined the Buffaloes. CU forced 22 turnovers last year (14 interceptions, eight fumble recoveries); that was the most by the Buffaloes in a season since forcing 25 in 2009. Three schools on that list did not force an opponent miscue in the season opener, and CU had been tied with North Carolina who did not force one in week three and the list is now down to three. Prior to this run, in which CU has forced 42 turnovers that have led to 115 points (20 this year into 57), the Buffs had just 11 turnovers in their previous 12 games and turned those into just 20 points.

Consecutive Games Forcing A Turnover Through Games Of November 12 (W-L record): Colorado 23 (12-11), Alabama 22 (22-0).

The national record is believed to be held by the Buffaloes, 55 games from Sept. 28, 1974 through Sept. 15, 1979; the NCAA lists the mark at 67 games, but that's been incorrect.

WITHERSPOON KEPT TURNOVER STREAK ALIVE IN A BIG WAY It took 59 minutes and 12 seconds to get it, but Colorado was able to extend its streak of consecutive games forcing a turnover to 17 on Sept. 24 thanks to Ahkello Witherspoon's interception in the final minute at Oregon; he preserved the win in the process as the Ducks had just lined up for a first-and-goal at the CU 7. For Witherspoon, it was his first interception of the season and third of his career (he had two picks in 2015, one of those coming against Oregon as well).

FIRST QUARTER SUCCESS

The Buffaloes have generally been rolling out of the gate, leading after the first quarter in five games, tied in two others and trailing in just two (at USC, at Stanford, the only two first quarters CU did not score in). CU is on a record pace for scoring in the opening stanza:

Colorado: All-Time First Quarter Scoring

DRIVIN'

Colorado has 42 touchdown drives this season, totaling 2,777 yards (average length of 66.1 yards, including penalty yardage), 33 which have consumed less than three minutes, and 19 of those under two minutes. CU has gained 2,690 yards of offense on 285 plays on those drives, or 9.4 yards per play. Colorado has started 42 drives either inside (25) or at its own 20 (146 this season ... but the Buffaloes haven't been overly daunted by the task at hand, scoring 11 times when starting with that poor field position (69 points overall, 9 TDs). The opponent? Just two TD's for 14 points in 38 such drives.

OUT OF THE GATE(S)

Colorado has been dominant in the opening drives of each half. In the first half, CU has outscored the opponent 42-0 with edges of 30-7 in first downs and 475-113 in yards, along with forcing the opponent into five three-and-outs; in the second half, the Buffs have outpointed the foe 24-7 on the first possession, and own advantages of 19-15 in first downs and 456-294 in yards. Combined, CU has scored on 10 of the 20 opening half drives, and the opponent just once (a second half TD by Michigan).

GILLAM GETTING BACK INTO THE FOLD

Injuries have hampered the career of ILB Addison Gillam dating back to early in his sophomore season. As a freshman in 2013, he earned unanimous first-team Freshman All-American honors and was the first frosh to ever lead CU in tackles (he had 119) since they were first tracked in 1964. His sophomore season he recorded 79 tackles, but in 2015, his junior year was cut short due to a knee injury. Now as a redshirt junior in 2016, he has been slowly working his way back from the injury. His playing time has increased since the first third of the season (186 plays the last six games after just 55 in the first four), with 34 tackles in those games after recording just 10 in the first four.

OLIVER SNAPS 11-YEAR DROUGHT

CB Isaiah Oliver's 68-yard punt return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter in CU's 20-10 win over UCLA was the first punt return for a TD by a Buffalo since WR Stephone Robinson brought one back 81 yards against Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 22, 2005. In the game, Oliver returned five punts for 124 yards and was the first Buff to have over 100 yards in punt returns in a game since WR Josh Smith (4-108) against Eastern Washington on Sept. 6, 2008; it was the most yards since WR Roman Hollowell had 148 on six returns against Fresno State on Aug. 26, 2001. Oliver's 148 yards is the fourth-highest registered in the FBS this season as well as the most by a Pac-12 player, and it earned him the conference's special teams player of the week honor. The 68-yard return tied for the 29th longest in school history. CU's punt returns for touchdowns over the last 20 years (yards listed first):

82	Cedric Cormier vs. Colorado State in Denver, Sept. 5, 1998 (TD).	69	Roman Hollowell vs. Missouri in Boulder, Nov. 3, 2001 (TD).
68	Ben Kelly vs. Utah State in Boulder, Sept. 19, 1998 (TD).	75	Jeremy Bloom vs. Colorado State in Denver, Aug. 31, 2002 (TD).
76	Ben Kelly vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Nov. 14, 1998 (TD).	80	Jeremy Bloom vs. Oklahoma at Houston, Dec. 7, 2002 (TD).
88	Ben Kelly vs. Boston College at Tucson (Insight Bowl), Dec. 31, 1999 (TD).	81	Stephone Robinson vs. Kansas in Boulder, Oct. 22, 2005 (TD).
66	Roman Hollowell vs. Kansas at Lawrence, Oct. 21, 2000 (TD).	68	Isaiah Oliver vs. UCLA in Boulder, Nov. 3, 2016 (TD).
77	Roman Hollowell vs. Fresno State in Boulder, Aug. 26, 2001 (TD).

The Buffaloes are flirting with finishing in the top 25 in both total offense and defense, previously doing so six times: 1958 (25th offense/11th defense); 1961 (24/16), 1987 (24/24), 1989 (6/18), 1990 (14 and 25) and 1996 (15/23).

CU-WSU: MATCH-UP OF STRENGTH vs. STRENGTH

The Colorado and Washington State matchup this weekend will pit CU's top-ranked passing defense up against Washington State's top-ranked passing offense. The CU Buffaloes lead the league in total defense (308.4 ypg – 12th nationally), passing defense (176.9 ypg – 10th nationally), opponent completion percentage (.509 – not tracked by NCAA) and pass efficiency defense (98.85 – 4th nationally). Washington State's offense leads the Pac-12 in passing (385.5 ypg – 2nd nationally), completion percentage (.741 – 1st nationally) while ranking second in the conference in passing efficiency (157.51 – 13th nationally) and total offense (517.9 ypg – 10th nationally). Like in most games, and especially in a matchup against the two divisional leaders, this one could come down to ball security. Washington State and Colorado have each recorded 20 takeaways this season and both rank in the top 20 in the country in turnover margin (WSU - +1.0, 7th nationally, Colorado - +0.70, 18th nationally).

► Another way for CU's defense to help out against the Cougar aerial attack is pressure on the quarterback. CU is third in the conference in sacks with 29 total or 2.9 per game; Washington State on the season ranks sixth in the league, having allowed 23 sacks on the year or 2.3 per game.

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

There are two players on the current CU roster that scored a touchdown on their first career touch (both on offense). Jay MacIntyre did it a redshirt frosh against Nicholls State a year ago, and in week two against Idaho State, Kabion Ento became the 14th known player to do in CU history. Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see page 31), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

Kabion Ento	Sept. 10, 2016	IDAHO STATE	W 56-7	69 yard pass from Steven Montez

This year across the nation, 18 players have scored a TD on their first career reception; Arizona State TE Jay Jay Wilson (30 yards versus Cal) is the only other Pac-12er to do it.

100 QUADFECTA

With Bryce Bobo's career-high 110 yards receiving on six catches against Arizona State on Oct. 15, he became the fourth different Buffalo to have a 100-yard receiving game this year. He joined Devin Ross (at Oregon), Shay Fields (versus Oregon State; at Arizona) and Phillip Lindsay (at Southern California) on that list; it accomplished two things: CU had four straight games with a 100-yard receiver, and marked only the second time in school history that the Buffaloes have had four different players record a 100-yard receiving game in the same year. The first time it happened was in 1984 when Loy Alexander, Ron Brown, Jon Embree and Ed Reinhardt all posted 100-yard receiving games. There have been five other seasons in program history where three different players all had 100-yard games, the last of those being in 2015 with Fields, Ross and Nelson Spruce. A look at the quadfectas in 1984 and this year:

2016

DID YOU KNOW this about the Colorado Buffaloes receiving corps:

► That Missouri (6), N.C. State (5), Purdue (5), Florida State (5), Colorado (4), Georgia State (4), Louisville (4), Oklahoma State (4), Syracuse (4) and Troy (4) are the only programs that have had four or more players record a 100-yard receiving game this year?

► That the only Pac-12 players to both throw and catch touchdown passes in the same game over the last two seasons are CU's Bobo and Stanford's Kevin Hogan and Christian McCaffrey?

O-LINE LEADS THE RUNNING GAME

Through 10 games, CU's tailbacks have combined for 282 attempts (168 by Phillip Lindsay, 80 by Kyle Evans, 15 by Beau Bisharat, 10 by Michael Adkins and 9 by Troy Lewis); they have gained 1,408 gross yards but have lost only 23 yards, thus have netted 1,385. Of those 282 carries, the tailbacks have been stopped behind the line just 12 times (4.3 percent): Lindsay 7, Adkins 2, Evans 2, Bisharat 1. That is a credit to CU's offensive line and its play in 2016.

Note: Lindsay entered the season with just the sixth fewest yards lost rushing (34) in the nation for returning players with at least 200 attempts.

AHEAD IN A BIG WAY

For the last 10 seasons, the opponent has almost always had a distinct advantage in TSL (time spent in the lead), but CU has reversed that and then some this season. Through 10 games, the Buffs have led for 394 minutes and 33 seconds, or 65.8 percent of the time; opponents for just 18.5 percent and the score tied the other 15.7 percent. CU has already led for more minutes this season than it had in all 11 previous years (and when it held the edge over an entire season just twice: 2005 and 2010. A closer look:

FINALLY AN EXPERIENCED UNIT

The returning players on the '16 CU roster played in 1,072 games in their combined careers heading into the season—the most since the 2005 team (1,080); they also started 412 games, the most-ever in school history, besting the 333 by the '79 team (the 2015 Buffs were next with 327, followed by 326 in '01). Sixty-one players on the roster had appeared in at least one game (24 in 20 or more), with nine making at least 20 starts and 17 making 10. And for the first time in recent memory, almost half of the CU roster are upperclassmen: there are 116 players on the overall roster, 56 of which are juniors (33) and seniors (23); and of those 116, there are 109 that coach Mike MacIntyre and his staff have brought in (four recruiting classes, transfers and walk-ons).

A FIRST WE ARE SURE OF ... BY JULMISSE

CB Anthony Julmisse became the first Buffalo since CB Greg Henderson's junior season in 2013 to record a take-away in each of the first two games of the year. Julmisse, a true freshman from Plantation, Fla., (pronounced joel-meese) recovered a fumble in the opener against CSU and then had his first career interception last week against Idaho State. Henderson's open to the 2013 season was quite impressive, as he returned a fumble 53 yards for a touchdown in the opener against Colorado State and came back the next week with a 46-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown in a win over Central Arkansas. Henderson would then go on to have a pick in the third game of the 2013 season against Oregon State and two more interceptions in week four against Oregon. That was a total of five takeaways that Henderson was responsible for in the first four weeks of the 2013 season.

HEY, I'M BACK HERE TOO

When it comes to the Buff secondary, CB Chidobe Awuzie gets the lion's share of attention. But right next to him is a force in his own right, SS Tedric Thompson. He has four interceptions this year and 10 for his career (several of which have been of the acrobatic variety), and is now the 13th Buffalo to record 10 or more interceptions in a career. He's the first to do so since CB Terrence Wheatley, who had 14 interceptions in his career (2003-07).

200 CLUB: Thompson became the 71st player to record 200 tackles in a CU career; he now has 235 (48th all-time) and became the fourth current Buff to have 200-plus, as he joined Kenneth Olugbode (277, 19th) Awuzie (255, 31st) and Addison Gillam (248, 35th).

INSIDE-THE-20

(FACT: CU invented charting the red zone in 1981; as in the NFL, the 20 is not in the red zone in its stats)

Under MacIntyre, Colorado is 144-of-176 in the "Red Zone" (81.8 percent, 98 touchdowns), and in 2013-14, had the best two-year scoring percentage since 1994-95 (86.7, 91-of-105, 73 TDs). The Buffs struggled a bit in 2015, going 38-of-53 (and scored TDs in 17-of-25 goal-to-go situations), but have been solid for the most part in 2016, going 40-of-46 (87.0; 29 TDs, 11 FGs) to date, including 8-of-8 versus Colorado State, 5-of-5 at Oregon and 4-of-4 at Arizona. In 2014, Colorado had 40 scores in 45 trips when penetrating the opponent 20-yard line (including 29 touchdowns), numbers well up from his first season in 2013 (26-of-32, with 14 TDs, so CU doubled its red zone TD production from 2013). The 29 TDs were the second most in the last 19 seasons in the red zone (30 in 2007, otherwise you go back to 33 in 1995); the overall scoring percentage of 88.9 was the best since 1997 (89.7, 35-of-39).

THIRD DOWN DEFENSE

Colorado's defense continues to excel in getting off the field. The Buffs rank 11th nationally and No. 1 in the Pac-12 in third down defense, holding opponents to a conversion percentage of just 30.7 (the national average is close to 40 percent; Michigan leads at 19.7). Opponents have converted over 40 percent against the Buffs in five of the last six seasons, the lone exception in Mike MacIntyre's first season as head coach (38.8 in 2013).

- ▶ USC converted 7-of-14 against CU, the only team to convert at 50 percent or better against CU in the last 13 games dating back to 2015.
- ▶ The Buff defense has been phenomenal in the first half of games on third down, as opponents have converted only 22-of-82 tries, or just 26.8 percent (USC is the only team to convert at 50 percent or better at 3-of-5; no one else has been better than 3-of-8, or 37.5 percent).
- ▶ Colorado has forced the opponents into 46 "three-and-outs" in 140 possessions (32.9 percent of the time); that ranks 16th in the country.

YOUNG GUNS NO MORE

It has been well-documented that this is Colorado's most experienced team in quite some time ... through seven games, the Buffs have yet to start a true freshman. The last time the Buffs did not start at least one true frosh was in 2001, and since freshmen became eligible to play again in 1972, there have been just nine seasons where no true rookie made a start (1972, 1974, 1978, 1981, 1985, 1989, 1990, 1993 and 2001). CU averaged 7.8 wins those years, winning three league titles, one national championship and went to six bowl games.

- ▶ The number of true freshman starts has dwindled since a high of 57 in 2012 ... they started 29 games in Mac's first year (2013), then 17, 6 and now zero.

HISTORIC OFFENSE?

Colorado owns the nation's No. 33 ranked offense, averaging 465.8 yards per game, having gained over 500 yards in five of 10 games this season. The most times CU has gained 500 yards in a game in a single season is six, set in 1994 when the Buffaloes set the school mark for the most total offense with 495.3; this year marks just the third time with five. Here is a look at CU's best seasons on offense and where those stood up through 10 games as compared to the 2016 Buffaloes:

CHASING 1994

With Colorado gaining over 500 yards in five games and averaging 495.8 yards per game to date, the Buffs are challenging the school's previous best of 495.3 yards of total offense for a single season. That '94 offense featured the likes of TB Rashaan Salaam, QB Kordell Stewart and WR Michael Westbrook, among others, as all 11 starters from that team eventually went on to play in the National Football League.

PASSING AVERAGE ON THE RISE

CU's 8.13 yards per passing attempt is 26th best in the nation (second in the Pac-12); the Buffs haven't averaged over eight yards per attempt for 20 years (8.56 in 1996 when the quarterback was Koy Detmer), and have averaged over seven per throw just once since 2003 (7.27 in 2013). The Buffs are averaging 12.5 yards per completion this season, also way up from previous years: Colorado's high in recent times came in 2002 – averaging 12.4 yards per completion (the school record is 23.8 set in 1988, but the Buffs were transitioning from the wishbone to the I-Bone then and threw 125 passes all year, completing 54).

► Only 34 schools have thrown fewer interceptions than CU's seven: that only dropped as UCLA picked off three against the Buffs (one on a tipped pass).

HARASSING THE QUARTERBACK

Colorado had season-highs of five quarterback sacks and nine hurries in the 40-16 win over Arizona State, and on the season, have 29 and 48, respectively. CU's sack attack has been led by OLB Jimmie Gilbert (8½), DE Jordan Carrell (4½), DE Samson Kafovalu (2½) and four others with two (Gilbert has the most sacks by a CU player since Abraham Wright had 11½ in 2006). The Buffaloes have set a single-season best in the MacIntyre Era with the 29 sacks, as his first team had 18 in 2013, 22 in 2014 and 28 last year.

► Thus, the opponent has called 361 pass plays, and has been sacked or hurried on 77 of those, or 21.3 percent of the time (with 12 interceptions as well).

30 FOR 30

Colorado is 13-6 under head coach Mike MacIntyre in games where it scores 30 or more points, including 6-0 this season (5-23 and 2-2, respectively when held to under 30). The Buffs have scored 352 points through 10 games and its 35.2 scoring average ranks fifth in the Pac-12 but 35th nationally. The last season in which the Buffs averaged over 30 points per game was in 2001 when CU put up 396 total points, or 33.0 per game. The school record for points in a season is the 452 scored by the 1989 Buffalo team that had an undefeated regular season before losing to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl. CU's all-time top scoring teams since World War II (minimum 30.0 per game; includes bowls):

Year	Points	Avg/G	W-L	Year	Points	Avg/G	W-L	Year	Points	Avg/G	W-L
1989	458	38.2	11-1	2016	352	35.2	8-2	1990	399	30.7	11-1-1
1995	444	37.0	10-2	1999	405	33.8	7-5	2001	412	31.7	10-3
1994	439	36.6	11-1	1971	370	30.8	10-2

TYING A STRANGE LOW

OLB Jimmie Gilbert led the Buffs with five tackles (three solo) in the 56-7 win over Idaho State ... that matched the lowest number of tackles that has ever led the Buffaloes in a game (CB Lorenzo Sims had five, all solo, in a 44-10 win at Iowa State on Nov. 15, 2003). Thirty different players played anywhere from six to 30 snaps on defense in the game, easily the most in recent history.

HOPE THIS ISN'T A JINX ... OOPS

Colorado placekickers made 156 straight extra-point kicks dating back to late in the 2011 season... until Oregon blocked CU's second try in the Buffs' 41-38 win on Sept. 24. Will Oliver made the last 102 of his career (2011-14); Diego Gonzalez made all 51 of his career PAT boots until being lost for the season with a torn Achilles) and Chris Graham made good on his first three tries before suffering the block.

KELLEY MAKES HISTORY

When C Alex Kelley recovered a fumble that opened the scoring in CU's season opening 44-7 win over Colorado State on Sept. 2, he became the first offensive lineman in school history to score Colorado's first points of any season – 127 of them. In the process, he also became the first O-lineman to score a touchdown since OG Heath Irwin recovered a fumble in a 44-21 loss to Nebraska in Boulder on Oct. 28, 2005.

GILBERT ON A ROLL

Senior OLB Jimmie Gilbert has had at least a half-sack in seven of 10 games this season, with his 8½ on the year leading the team and ranks fourth in the Pac-12 and 20th in the NCAA (both has him for 9, but the CU coaches split one of those sacks). Now with 18 career sacks, he is 12th all-time at Colorado, with his 147 yards in losses being the eighth-most. He also is second in the nation in forced fumbles with a total of five, and one point forcing one in three straight games; he is one of only five Buffs in school history to force five or more fumbles in a season.

► MOST FORCED FUMBLES/SEASON (CU): Jashon Sykes 7 (1999), Barry Remington 6 (1985), Jimmie Gilbert 5 (2016), Mickey Pruitt 5 (1986), Chidera Uzo-Diribe 5 (2013).

but he is tied for the league lead with ASU's Koron Crump in games recording two or more sacks (3) and for the lead in total number of games with a sack (7) along with three other players (Utah's, Hunter Dimick, UCLA's Takkarist McKinley and Stanford's Harrison Phillips).

ASSAULT ON LIUFAU

Senior QB Sefo Liufau has been criticized by some because he has a 14-22 record as a starter and like most quarterbacks, has had a few untimely interceptions. The now fourth-year starter (36 starts, a school record) has had to endure a lot of hits and pressure while never having the luxury until this year of playing behind an experienced offensive line (or one that has been healthy for most of a season). In his career, he has dropped back to pass 1,352 times; he has been sacked 65 times (the second-most in school history, see below); otherwise he is 817-of-1,285 for 8,932 yards with 59 touchdowns and 33 interceptions. His 63.6 completion percentage stands to be the best in school history (Joel Klatt has the record of 60.8). But that doesn't tell the whole story: Liufau has had 173 of his throws hurried, which is tallied when the quarterback is rushed and throws an incompletion or interception. Thus a whopping 37 percent of his non-completions have been when he is on the run (173 of 468); to put that in perspective, it's the second most throws by a Colorado QB that have been hurried—Cody Hawkins had 207 of such in his career. And of his 30 interceptions, six came on tips or break-ups. Despite the above, he has set or tied 84 school records, which are listed on the previous page.

CU'S MOST SACKED QUARTERBACKS (No./Yards Lost): Tyler Hansen 82/617 (2008-11); Sefo Liufau 67/417 (2013-16); Mike Moschetti 64/481 (1998-99); Bill Solomon 63/447 (1977-80); Joel Klatt 62/416 (2003-05); Kordell Stewart 55/451 (1991-94); Cody Hawkins 49/384 (2007-10).

LIUFAU TOPS THE CHARTS IN PLAYS

QB Sefo Liufau had easily been a part of the most plays (858) by the end of a sophomore year in CU history. He now ranks first all-time on the CU charts, the fifth to participate in 1,000 plays, and he took over the all-time mark with his 47 plays in the '16 season opener against Colorado State. A look at who's been a part of the most plays in Colorado annals (700-plus):

LIUFAU SIXTH TO CRACK 100, FIRST TO DO IT TWICE AND THRICE

QB Sefo Liufau became the sixth player in CU history to throw at least 100 passes without an interception as a junior and has since done it two more times, becoming the first player to do it not only twice but three times. After throwing 23 interceptions in his first two seasons (749 attempts), he has just eight in his last 509 (or an interception rate of just .016). His latest streak of 152 set a CU record before it ended against UCLA. The longest streaks in CU history:

152	Sefo Liufau	(nine games; Nov. 13, 2015 to Nov. 3, 2016)

LIUFAU RETURNS FROM INJURY AND SNARES PAC-12 OFFENSIVE HONOR

Senior QB Sefo Liufau earned the Pac-12's initial Offensive Player of the Week honor for his efforts in CU's 44-7 win over Colorado State. He completed 23-of-33 passes for 318 yards and a touchdown (no interceptions), while rushing 14 times for 66 yards. His passer rating was 160.6 and he earned 17 first downs (5 rush/12 pass). It was especially significant since it was his first game back after a Lisfranc (foot) injury sidelined him for the last 2¾ games in 2015. During the game, he became CU's all-time leader in passing yards and also took over the record for the most offensive plays for a career.

MONTEZ-MANIA

Redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez had quite the starting debut in CU's 41-38 at Oregon, easily one of the best in school history and arguably the best. He completed 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards (3 TD/2 INT), for a passer rating of 177.7 and also had 21 rushes for 135 yards (6.4 per), with a touchdown and a long run of 32 yards. It all added up to 468 yards of total offense and 23 first downs earned (8 rush/15 passing).

- He enjoyed the fifth-best game in a quarterback's first start at Colorado in terms of passing yards, but the best in total offense (see charts below).
- His 135 yards rushing were the most in a debut by a starting Buff QB (topping the 116 by Darian Hagan vs. Texas in 1989) and is the 10th most in any game all-time at Colorado by a quarterback (and the first 100-yard game by a quarterback since Nov. 4, 2006 when Bernard Jackson had 105 against Kansas State).
- His 468 yards of total offense were the fourth-most in a single-game in Colorado history.
- It was the first-ever 300 passing/100 rushing game in CU history and just the second 200/100 game (Stewart had 205/143 vs. Notre Dame in the '95 Fiesta Bowl).
- His 14 straight completions in the first half tied for the second-most in school history (trailing 15 by Mike Moschetti over two games in 1999); it matched the most in one game (Koy Detmer, 14 at Colorado State in 1996).

A FIRST BY MONTEZ SINCE 1959 ... WE'RE PRETTY SURE

Colorado redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez became the first known player in CU history to throw a touchdown on his first career passing attempt since Joe Dowler did so back in 1959. Montez hit Kabion Ento on a 69-yard scoring strike in the second quarter last week against Idaho State. Dowler did so on Oct. 3, 1959 at Oklahoma, a 15-yard TD pass to Kirk Campbell in a 42-12 loss to the Sooners.

MONTEZ THE 12TH FRESHMAN AT COLORADO TO START A GAME AT QUARTERBACK

Redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez became just the 12th freshman in school history to start a game at quarterback at Colorado (the sixth redshirt frosh to do so) when he took the first snap at Oregon on September 24. He had the second-most passing yards by a freshman in a starting debut at CU quarterback. A closer look at every freshman's first career start at CU (*—denotes redshirt freshman):

THE "RUSHING/PASSING" QB's

QB Sefo Liufau is eighth at CU in all-time rushing yards by a quarterback (ninth-best average per attempt); he didn't score a rushing touchdown in his career until his junior season, when he scored five before suffering a season-ending Lisfranc (foot) injury against USC. It was the most rushing TDs scored in a season by CU quarterback since Bernard Jackson had seven in 2006. He had a touchdown receiving (against Arizona as a sophomore in 2014, coming on his 785th career touch), but didn't carry one over the goal line until his 22nd game, which was against Massachusetts in Boulder (and his 931st play). The list of CU's all-time rushing yards by quarterbacks adjusted to allow for sacks (*—Anderson switched to tailback in the third game of the 1969 season):

The others were in 2014: UCLA's Jerry Neuheisel (Sept. 15) and Brett Hundley (Sept. 29) and Washington State's Connor Halliday (Oct. 6) and Luke Falk (Nov. 10); in 1998: Arizona's Oretege Jenkins and Keith Smith (shared honors on Oct. 3); and in 1992: UCLA's Rob Walker (Sept. 19) and John Barnes (Nov. 21).

AWUZIE ATOP D-BACK SACK CHART

CB Chidobe Awuzie has become CU's all-time quarterback sack leader — among defensive backs. He has three this season after having four a year ago and now has eight in his career — topping the 6½ Michael Lewis had from 1998-2001. He was also the first CU defensive back to record a quarterback sack in three straight games. Awuzie also has cracked CU's top 35 in tackles, as he is 31st with 255 (10th in solo stops with 213), and his 25 tackles for loss are also the most by a defensive back at CU.

Here's a look at the list of CU defensive backs with the most career sacks:

THIRD DOWN STOPS AN AWUZIE TRAIT AS WELL

Awuzie is also CU's all-time leader among defensive backs in third down stops (he topped CB Cha'pelle Brown's 39 with one against UCLA); he also has the fifth-most in school history since CU started tracking this unique stat in the late 1980s. WITHERSPOON THE YIN IF AWUZIE IS THE YANG

Colorado CB Ahkello Witherspoon is tied for 14th in the nation with 13 passes defended (12 deflections, one interception); he actually has two more from CU's coaches' video review, which the school uses for all its record. Indiana's Rashard Fant leads with 18. Witherspoon has had at least one breakup in nine of 10 games this season (he didn't have one against UCLA), and has broken up two passes in five different games this year: Colorado State, Michigan, Arizona State, Stanford and Arizona, and had two defended at Oregon when he made his interception along with a PBU. Prior to this season he had six pass breakups, thus now with 20 in his career, he is tied for the 20th most in school history, while his 14 this season are tied for the 10th-most in a single season by a Buffalo (the school record for breakups in a season is the 22 that Ben Kelly recorded in 1998).

FIRST TO BREAK OUT IN 2016: DEVIN ROSS

WR Devin Ross burst on to the scene starting in the opener, when he caught eight passes against Colorado State, six of which earned first downs. He then had his career game at Oregon, when he had a seven-catch, 153-yard, one touchdown performance. It was his second career 100-yard receiving game, the first of the season by any Buff, and at the time, it gave him a touchdown reception in each of the first four games of the season. The last Buff to open a season with a TD catch in each of the first four games was Nelson Spruce in 2014, who actually had a TD catch in each of the first five games that year. Ross' streak of four straight games catching a touchdown tied for the third longest in school history but came to an end against Oregon State. Back to his game at Oregon — Ross' 153 yards receiving was a career-high and marked the 28th game in school history where a Buff receiver went for over 150 yards receiving. He has also earned 26 first downs this season (one rushing); he had all of 10 coming into the year.

FIELDS: MR. DEEP THREAT

Junior WR Shay Fields has nine career plays from scrimmage that are 50 yards or longer, including four this season; the school record is 13, set by WR Paul Richardson (2010-13). Fields this season is averaging 17.8 yards per catch (ranks No. 34 nationally, third in the Pac-12) and has eight touchdown catches. He has risen fast on CU's all-time receiving chart (132, 9th), receiving yardage (1,794, 10th) and touchdowns (16, 8th). Fields' long-receptions:

75	at Arizona	2014	(Liufau; TD)	67	at Arizona State	2015	(Liufau)	60	vs. Colorado State	2016	(Liufau)
72	Arizona	2015	(Liufau; TD)	65	vs. Colorado State	2015	(Liufau; TD)	52	Utah	2014	(Liufau)
70	at Michigan	2016	(Liufau; TD)	63	Oregon State	2016	(Montez; TD)	51	Oregon State	2016	(Montez; TD)

Fields' 16 career touchdown receptions have covered some 556 yards (19, 4, 2 and 75 as a freshman in 2013; 65, 8, 72 and 30 as a sophomore in 2015; and 70, 7, 51, 33, 63, 15, 15 and 27 this season); that works to 34.8 per score.

► MOST YARDS AGAINST ONE OPPONENT: Fields had his second 100-yard game of the season and the fourth of his career at Arizona (6-108, 2 TD). He has now caught 19 passes for 370 yards and 5 touchdowns against Arizona in his career, the second most by a Buff against any team:

424—Paul Richardson vs. California (0 in 2010, 284 in 2011, 140 in 2013); 370—Shay Fields vs. Arizona (94 in 2014, 168 in 2015, 108 in 2016), 319—Nelson Spruce vs. California (140 in 2013, 179 in 2014); 318—Charles Johnson vs. Oklahoma (182 in 1992, 136 in 1993).

MR. SPORTSCENTER TOP 10

While we're on receivers, junior Bryce Bobo appeared in SportsCenter's Top 10 two times now in the first month of the season. His first highlight came in the season-opener with his 46-yard one-handed catch inside the five-yard line. That play was No. 3 on SportsCenter's daily top 10 highlight package. He had the No. 1 play of the day on Saturday, Sept. 24, with his one-handed, body-twisting catch on a 31-yard touchdown grab that was the game-winner for the Buffaloes. Bobo this year has caught 40 passes for 519 yards and two touchdowns.

► SWEET HOME CALIFORNIA. Bobo, playing in Los Angeles in front of his family and friends (hometown is Covina, Calif.) had one of the best games of his career against USC on Oct. 8. The only thing missing from his stat line was the win, but he did more than his part in CU's narrow 21-17 loss. Bobo caught a career-high 10 passes (old: 6 vs. Arizona last year) for 83 yards, with seven of the receptions earning first downs. He also threw a 67-yard touchdown pass (left-handed) to Phillip Lindsay, which was his first career pass attempt (his passer rating is 992.8). He was responsible for both of Colorado's touchdowns in the game, also catching a 10-yard pass in the end zone early in the fourth quarter that tied the contest at 14.

BIG PLAYS BACK IN THE GROOVE VS. ARIZONA

Colorado's offense got its groove back last Saturday at Arizona after a minor two-game "slump." Albeit in wins over Stanford (Oct. 22) and UCLA (Nov. 3), the Buffalo offense went for 304 yards and 359 yards, respectively, two of the three-lowest outputs in total offense this season (the third being the 325 yards gained at Michigan on Sept. 17). In those games against Stanford and UCLA, CU had just two explosive plays – runs of 23 and 26 yards by Phillip Lindsay at Stanford. CU's longest play against UCLA was an 18-yard pass by Sefo Liufau to Shay Fields. But last weekend at Arizona the Buffaloes registered five explosive plays (defined as plays from scrimmage being 20 yards or longer), three of those were passes and two were rushes. Colorado this season has 43 explosive plays, or 4.3 per game, which is up from previous seasons. In 2015 CU averaged 3.9 explosive plays per game, in 2014 it was 4.0, in 2013 the Buffs averaged 3.6 and in 2012 it was 3.0.

PAC-12'S TOP DEFENSE

The Buffaloes lead the Pac-12 in seven major defensive categories: total defense (308.4), passing yards allowed (176.9), first downs (164), pass efficiency defense (98.9), third down conversion defense (30.7), scoring defense (17.9) and red zone defense (66.7). The Buffs have held four opponents to single-digits this season (Oregon State and Stanford did not score a touchdown), the most in 27 years, when CU held four under 10 in 1989 (also doing it in 1985 and 1988; the last time five were held under 10 was in 1978—when the first five opponents of the year all scored seven points). No other Pac-12 school this season has as many games holding the opposition to under 10 points (Washington is second with two games in the single digits). ► HOW IMPROVED IS THIS DEFENSE? In 2012, the season before MacIntyre arrived at CU, the Buffs ranked 117th in the nation allowing 488.5 yards per game, and 120th in scoring defense (46.0). Steady improvement and the addition of defensive guru Jim Leavitt have played a marked role in the success.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

"It's like having three super heroes to throw to," said QB Steven Montez about CU's three-headed monster at wide receiver in juniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross. The trio have combined for 128 catches for 1,767 yards (13.8 per) and 15 touchdowns through 10 games. All three have at least 40 receptions; it's the first time in CU history that three wide receivers have made 40-plus catches in the same season (receivers, no tight ends or running backs), and just the fourth time that three receivers have made 30-plus catches in the same year: three did it 2008 (107 receptions) and 2010 (127); four did it in 2014 (224, led by Nelson Spruce's single season record of 106).

TRIFECTA ACCOMPLISHED; BUT THE RARE QUADFECTA WON'T HAPPEN

There's a real rarity on this year's Colorado defense – the last three players to lead the team in tackles are all still playing. In 2013, ILB Addison Gillam led the team as a true freshman with 119 (easily the frosh record); in 2015, sophomore ILB Kenneth Olugbode finished atop the list with 83; and last year, redshirt freshman ILB Rick Gamboa had the honors with 96. It's possible any of the three could lead the team again this season, and at one times CB Chidobe Awuzie might have been a threat, as the senior has been flirting with the team lead like a popular song sneaking its way up the top 10: he was sixth as a freshman (59), third as a sophomore (64) and second last year (90). But with teams throwing away from his side of the field, it looks like Olugbode is the odds-on-favorite through 10 games to finish in the top spot.

DOUBLE DIGIT TACKLERS

CU junior S Afolabi Laguda set a new career-high last weekend when he was credited with 12 tackles by the coaches against the Arizona Wildcats (six solo, six assists). His previous personal-best was set earlier this season when he had 11 stops at USC. Laguda was one of two Buffaloes to record double-digit tackles against the Wildcats, as ILB Kenneth Olugbode had 15, including 14 solo, a season-high by any Buffalo. For the year Colorado defensive players have combined to post 13 double-digit tackle games: Olugbode leads the team with six of those, S Tedric Thompson has three followed by Laguda and ILB Rick Gamboa with two. In 2015, CU had 11 different defensive players record a combined 20 double-digit tackle games, but the starters are playing fewer snaps this year due to CU's success.

THE GAMES THEY REMEMBER ARE PLAYED IN NOVEMBER

Colorado opened the month of November with a 20-10 win over UCLA and then won its final road game of the year at Arizona, 49-24 – its most November points since defeating Nebraska 65-51 in 2007. In the previous 30 seasons, Colorado had won its first game in the 11th month of the year 15 times. For those 15 seasons, in the subsequent November games after their opening win, the Buffs posted a 21-11 record in remaining games of the month. The last time CU opened the month of November with a win was back in the 2009 season. CU is 54-19 dating back to the mid-1980s against unranked teams in November and is 5-18 against Pac-12 opponents in the month.

GRADUATION REVIEW

Over the last 15 years, Colorado has had 261 of its 286 seniors graduate, or translating to 91.3 percent in this time frame (including 17 of the 20 seniors in 2015); these are the 2001-2015 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last eight years, 146 of the last 156 have graduated (93.6%), with three of those 10 playing in the NFL and haven't been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.65 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2015 semester is its third highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has nine straight semester GPA's over 2.50.

BALL SECURITY UNDER MAC

The Buffaloes had 20 fumbles in 2015, a high in the MacIntyre Era, but still a relatively low number for 13 games, especially considering seven were by quarterbacks while being sacked and three others came on bad center snaps (and two others came on the Arizona game's final play when CU tried laterally the ball several times); that number is back down to 12 this season. In 47 games under Mike MacIntyre, CU has had a fumble in 19 games, has not lost a fumble in 21 of those and just one in 18 other games (meaning more than one only eight times); that's just 58 total fumbles. In the four seasons, the tailbacks have been exceptionally good: they total just 12 fumbles in 1,383 attempts, or one every 115.3 carries (they didn't have a fumble among them in Mac's first year until the ninth game of the year—254 attempts). Career counts: Michael Adkins II has just two in 263 touches (236 rushes); Phillip Lindsay six in 499 (387 rushes; but two of those fumbles were on kickoff returns as a freshman); and Kyle Evans one in 105 (98 rushes).

➤ In four seasons under MacIntyre, the Buffs have just the 58 fumbles in 4,279 touches, or one for every 73.8 plays (this year: 12 in 970 touches: 802 offensive plays (includes one 2-pt play), 114 special team snaps, 54 returns).

➤ CU established a team record in 2014 for the fewest fumbles in a season – 12 – breaking the mark the '13 team set (14). The six lost fumbles in 2014 were the second fewest ever to five recovered by the opponent in 1956 (out of 23 total). And of the 58 fumbles, the Buffs have lost just 30.

ADKINS, LINDSAY MAKES IT 52 & 53 FOR CU IN 1,000-YARD CAREER RUNNERS

In 2015, Michael Adkins became the 52nd player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career and later in the year, Phillip Lindsay joined him and became No. 53 to hit the grand mark. CU is seventh all-time in 1,000-yard runners; Oklahoma tops the list with 71 (and the Buffs are tied for ninth with the most 2,000-yard career runners). The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 1K and 2K plateaus:

Oklahoma	71/29	West Virginia	50/15	Duke	46/ 5	South Carolina	42/16	Illinois	40/16	Baylor	34/11
Ohio State	67/24	Texas	50/18	Mississippi	45/ 8	Virginia	41/17	Indiana	40/12	Wake Forest	34/11

In 1989, Colorado had four players on the roster at the same time with at least 1,000 career yards: TB Eric Bieniemy, TB J.J. Flannigan, QB Darian Hagan and FB Erich Kissick. Only two other times did the Buffs have three players that had hit that plateau on the same team, in 1993: FB James Hill, TB Rashaan Salaam and TB Lamont Warren and in 2015: Christian Powell, Michael Adkins and Phillip Lindsay.

HEAD COACH MIKE MACINTYRE

Mike MacIntyre is in his fourth season as the head coach of the University of Colorado football program, and his seventh season as a collegiate head coach; he has an 18-29 record at Colorado and is 34-50 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. A veteran coach of 23 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his late father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 51, has coached in a total of 340 football games in his career (84 as a head coach): 181 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ◆ He became just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins. Rick Neuheisel was the last to do both (in 1995).
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received my Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:
Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;
Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;
Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;
Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game (in both 2013 and 2014). MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On players having to be ready at a moment's notice to go into the game: "It's the only game in the world where you have 100 guys on the side watching just eleven in the game at any one time. So you're like the dog sitting on the porch. When that rabbit runs by, you've got to be ready to go."
- ◆ On playing music at practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ Unhappy that he had gained weight since college, slowly adding one or a few pounds here and there over the years (and of course recruiting season never helps when the coaches often eat two or even three dinners at various recruits' homes), he decided to do something about it. After the 2013 season, he read the book, Why Diets Fail Us; he started to eat much healthier, consumed either one or two nutrition-rich shakes a day (as replacement meals) and increased his workout regimen. The end result was that after six months, he dropped 63 pounds (he now weighs what he did as a junior in high school; he played at 175 in college).
- ◆ MacIntyre is a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll for third straight year and fourth time overall; coaches are selected by a random draw (he is one of six Pac-12 voters). CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 27 of the last 30 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million. In February 2014, CU's Board of Regents approved a one-year extension to the contract that takes him through the 2018 season.

- ♦ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ♦ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MacINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are defensive coordinator Jim Leavitt, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat, safeties coach Joe Tumpkin, co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach Darrin Chiaverini, offensive line coach Klayton Adams and running backs coach Darian Hagan. In the coaches booth are co-offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, tight ends/H-backs coach Gary Bernardi and cornerbacks coach Charles Clark. All four graduate assistants are also in the press box: John Hughes and Peter Tuitupou (offense) and Corey Edsall and Chidera Uzo-Diribe (defense), as is Nate Taye (quality control/defense). On the sideline are the other quality control personnel, Daniel DaPrato (offense) and Matt Thompson (special teams). Colorado signals in plays when not brought in by substituting players on offense (signal on defense).

2016 COACHING CHANGES

There were two offseason staff personnel moves. Darrin Chiaverini was hired as co-offensive coordinator, receivers coach and recruiting coordinator (replacing Troy Walters, who moved on to an OC position with Central Florida). Darian Hagan was named running backs coach, essentially replacing the position on staff held by Toby Neinas, who was the special teams coordinator (those duties will be shared among the staff). Klayton Adams moved from coaching the running backs and tight ends to the offensive line, and Gary Bernardi switched over from the OL to the tight ends/H-backs. In addition, Drew Wilson was named CU's director of strength and conditioning in January. MacIntyre's first two staffs (2013, 2014) were the same.

➔ The CU staff has remained intact twice since Bill McCartney's 1988 and 1989 teams, in 2011-12 and 2013-14.

FOURTH YEAR OFTEN A CHARM

MacIntyre is the 11th coach in CU history (out of 25 full-time) who is coaching the school for a fourth consecutive season. Seven of the previous 10 led CU to a winning season in their fourth year, one had a .500 mark and two others had losing records. The most dramatic fourth-year by a coach in the program came in 1985, when Bill McCartney's team went 7-5, equaling his win total for the first three years (7-25-1). He made the bold move in the offseason for the Buffaloes to switch to the wishbone on offense, which also helped the defense to improve dramatically. A look at Colorado's 11 coaches who coached the Buffs at least four straight years:

Head Coach	Inaugural Season	1st Yr Record	2nd Yr Record	3rd Yr Record	4th Yr Record	Notes
Fred Folsom.....	1895	5-1	5-0	7-1	4-4	Folsom would have a second run of four-plus straight years (1908-15)

Bunny Oakes	1935	5-4	4-3	8-1	3-4-1	Fourth team in '38 had to recover from the graduation of several key players, including Byron White
Dal Ward	1948	3-6	3-7	5-4-1	6-2-2	A 35-27 win over #20 Kansas in week three is Colorado's first-ever over a ranked opponent (AP poll)

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

The last four CU head coaches all have or have had media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) was a studio host on the Pac-12 Network for the network's first three years before moving on to CBS in 2015; Gary Barnett (1999-2005) was an analyst on Sports USA Radio and part of the lineup at SiriusXM, and now is tasked with replacing the legendary Larry Zimmer as analyst on CU's KOA-Radio team starting this fall; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) is an analyst for ESPN and co-hosts a national radio show on SiriusXM with Jack Arute. And even Bill McCartney (1982-94) hosted a radio show in 2012 on 102.3 FM in Denver.

JEFFCOAT ON PAC-12 ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Two CU assistant coaches earned finalist status for the Pac-12 All-Century team announced in 2015, with defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat named to the final team as one of five defensive ends for accomplishments at Arizona State as a player. Former receivers coach Troy Walters was one of 10 finalists at the receiver position for which he won the '99 Biletnikoff Award at Stanford; he was named offensive coordinator at Central Florida on December 4.

JEFFCOAT'S PEDIGREE: RUSHING AND GETTING TO THE QB

Defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

TWO NEW TRADITIONS BEGUN IN 2013, THREE ADDED IN 2014

Mike MacIntyre installed a couple of new traditions in 2013 when the team took the field. One player carries out a toolbox and another a sledgehammer (the players will vote on who gets the nod). MacIntyre did this at San Jose State with a sword (because they were the Spartans) and the sledgehammer. The toolbox is representative of the commitment the players have made to each other and the team as a whole; now, there aren't actual tools in the box, rather it contains "commitment cards" where each player wrote down something of significance he will do in the game. So when they view the toolbox during the game, it will serve as a reminder of that commitment. The sledgehammer goes to the big hit of the previous game (the biggest or most important "legal" hit – the play cannot draw a penalty). In 2014, the staff added the "special teams belt" which is awarded to the special teams player of the week, a buffalo head and midway through the season, added the flags of the United States and the state of Colorado. The special teams belt and the buffalo head were eliminated ahead of the 2016 campaign.

BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Brad Bedell ('99), OL, Arkansas State; Ronnie Bradford ('92), DB, USC; Jason Burianek ('02), HC, Missouri Baptist; Darrin Chiaverini ('98), ST, Texas Tech; Cedric Cormier ('01), WR, UNLV; Rich Fisher ('92), WR, Nebraska; David Gibbs ('90), DC, Houston; Chris Naeole ('96), Interim HC/OL, Hawaii; Anthony Perkins ('11), CB, Ohio; Rod Perry ('75), DB, Oregon State; Pete Shinnick ('86), HC, West Florida; Steve Stripling ('76), Assoc. HC/DL, Tennessee; Ryan Walters ('08), DB, Missouri. IN THE FCS: Brian Cabral, AHC/DC ('78), Indiana State; Paul Creighton ('03), UC Davis, TE; Ty Gregorak ('99), DC/LB, Montana; Parker Orms ('13), GA/CB, West Georgia; Anthony Perkins ('11), DB, Indiana State; Jeff Smart ('09), LB, Penn. AND DOWN I-25 AT CSU-PUEBLO: Donnell Leomiti ('95), DB.

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) this year became the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseasons combined; he set the record with a 21-yard field goal late in the Packs' 27-17 win over Seattle on Sept. 20, 2015, his 13th point of the night (he made all four field goal tries in the game, including a 54-yarder, and an extra point). He now has scored 1,216 points in 152 regular season games and 118 in 15 playoff games for a total of 1,334 (through games of Nov. 6; he also has made an NFL record 20 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks (253 regular season, 23 postseason); Ryan Longwell previously owned all marks (1,054/226 and 85/15). Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points.

➔ How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawai'i (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,384/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349), WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary in August 2015.

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 84 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including seven active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Mike MacIntyre and his oldest son, Jay; Colorado is one of a handful of schools to have it happen twice, as Dan Hawkins had son Cody on his CU teams from 2007-10.

Perhaps the most famous and best head coach father and son tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career).

Note: another famous combo was at Marshall, when they were a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

A FIRST? We polled the nation on two occasions, and no other instance has yet to turn up where a head coach had his father as a head coach in college and then had a son on a team that he is the head coach. But that appears to be the case with Mike MacIntyre, who was coached by his father George at Vanderbilt in 1984-85 and is now coaching his son, Jay, at Colorado.

There are currently eight schools where a player is playing for his head coach father, and in one case, two sons are (Iowa State). Here's a look at the all-time list of known head coaching father-player son pairings at the same school (#—denotes active in 2016):

While this is the second time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2012, the Buffaloes started its fewest seniors believed ever (17.8%) and a record number of freshmen (28.0%; 21.6% true frosh). HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 127th season of competition having played 1,221 games with an all-time record of 693-492-36. CU currently stands 25th on the all-time win list and is 37th in all-time winning percentage (.582; the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 127 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,231), with only USC (820) and Washington (712) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 399-189-16 (.674) all-time and 307-169-10 (.642) in their 93rd season on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 6-7 all-time in overtime games (3-4 at home); the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last 10 seasons, Buffs rallied to win from 10 or more points down 12 times, including twice under Mike MacIntyre, including rallying from its largest deficit ever against CSU. In 2014, UMass was up by 11 early in the second half after cashing in on a pick-six. Two of the rallies came from 17 down: in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Eight have taken place in Boulder, a ninth (the first one) in Denver against CSU, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 39 occasions (and are 29-10 in games when this occurs). It's happened three times year (QB Steven Montez/WR Devin Ross at Oregon, TB Phillip Lindsay/WR Bryce Bobo versus Arizona State and TB Phillip Lindsay/WR Shay Fields at Arizona). It's happened eight times overall as a member of the Pac-12 (once each in 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 182 of the 2016 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2015 was 236,331, an average of 39,389 for six home games, about 2,000 more than CU's 2014 average. It marked the 21st straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 39th time in the last 41 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count so far in 2015 is just under 25,000 when adding in 7,354 student holders to 17,299 public tickets (those tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2015, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 50th straight year, ahead of Air Force (26,026; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965) and Colorado State (24,917); all had six games. The Broncos averaged 76,939 fans per game in 2014 and around the same this year; the Rockies averaged 31,334 this past summer.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 574 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 50 straight games overall; last shutout was at home against Stanford on Nov. 3, 2012 (a 48-0 loss).
- CU has scored in 156 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 313 games (all the way back to 1963).

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 40-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 236 of 267 times, losing 28 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 34 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were last year, in the 38-31 loss to Arizona (led 24-17 entering the fourth) and in the 35-31 loss at UCLA (CU took a 31-28 lead early in the fourth); CU lost four games in 2014 where it had small fourth quarter advantages. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 120 of its last 141 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 38 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent was the 41-38 win at Oregon on Sept. 24; CU had led most of the game but Oregon went ahead, 38-33, late in the third quarter. But a Steven Montez to Bryce Bobo 31-yard TD pass (and the two connecting again on the two-point conversion) were the only points in the fourth quarter and CU held the Ducks off for the win. Two of the biggest ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

2015 INJURY COUNT SIXTH-WORST IN LAST 30 SEASONS

The injury bug hit the Buffs in 2015, as 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. The injury bug avoided Mike MacIntyre's first two teams for the most part, but last year ('15) was a different story: the Buffs lost 93 full games from players who figured in the two-deep (or those who regularly rotated in at the skill positions), and 120 games overall by the entire team. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 29 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost — percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

2002	13	139	1118	12.4	80	572	14.0

Dating back to 1987, only 10 times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (bowls included) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-league ranked foes from 1996-2010.

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 83-42 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 79-45-1 in its last 124 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 547-277-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

SIXTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 16 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Sophomore ILB Rick Gamboa is the latest to join the club, snaring a batted pass and returning it 20 yards for a score against Oregon State on Oct. 1. ILB Kenneth Olugbode had the previous one, racing 60 yards for a score with his first pick in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State in 2015. That was the first in eight years, however, as the one previous came in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. Prior to that may have been the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

➤ And two did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998) and Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

The longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (he would miss the final six games of the season). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games this season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (552 at the time) and Bill Hillgrove, Pittsburgh (535) had called more games than Zim, who was tied for fourth in the number of years calling major college football for the same team (42nd season) behind Robertson (49th), Hillgrove (46th) and Don Fischer, Indiana (43rd; South Carolina's Tommy Suggs was also in his 42nd year). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home). SID Dave Plati has worked 442 overall, including the last 400 (dating to the '83 finale); Darian Hagan in his second stint as an assistant coach, has been a part of 230 (84 as an assistant, 62 as a football staff member, 35 as the Alumni C-Club director and 49 as a player); and Gary Barnett, now an analyst with KOA, has worked 205 (106 as an assistant coach, 87 as head coach and 12 on the radio). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games – since 1940 (they turn 92 on Nov. 22). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 44th year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 19th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 23 seniors on its 2016 roster, and if history holds, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season. Thus far in 2016, 27 teams have scouted the Buffs in person at games: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Miami, Minnesota, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Oakland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Seattle, Tampa Bay and Tennessee. Not including camps or practices, 825 scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites). At the 2016 UCLA game in Boulder (Nov. 3), a record for a CU game occurred as there were 31 scouts from 20 teams were in attendance for the game.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are nine former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as of November 13; there were 10 on the rosters at the end of the 2015 season. Colorado has had 236 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 266 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and the 22nd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th (29); nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; a—active/physically unable to perform; i—on injured reserve; p—practice squad):

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 29 of 39 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

A LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS HAVE RISEN TO FIRST-TEAM AT COLORADO

After the NCAA reduced the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (37 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

THE VERTICAL GAME ... RETURNING?

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 50 "explosion" plays in 2015, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that's the most by a CU team since 2011. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the 2015 Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)

99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (74 percent of the entire roster—active, those reporting the first day of class and inactive—as of August 5: 86 of 116 players—includes others reporting later this summer). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 42, Colorado 35, Texas 9, Arizona 5, Georgia 5, Washington 4, Florida 3, Utah 3, Hawai'i 2, Arkansas 1, Idaho 1, New Jersey 1, Oklahoma 1, Oregon 1, Pennsylvania 1, Wisconsin 1. That's 16 states total along MEXICO (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Four Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: OL Mo Bandi (India), PK Diego Gonzalez (Monterrey, Mexico), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), C Alex Kelley (Madrid, Spain; his parents were living there working as missionaries).

BUFFS ON ESPN'S GAMEDAY

Colorado has hosted ESPN's College GameDay three times (Sept. 23, 1995 vs. Texas A&M, Oct. 28, 1995 vs. Nebraska, Sept. 14, 1996 vs. Michigan); the Buffs have been the visiting team on three occasions as well (Oct. 29, 1994 at Nebraska, Sept. 30, 1995 at Oklahoma, Sept. 13, 1997 at Michigan).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 314-23-1 when scoring 30 or more points (6-0 in 2016), along with records of 226-8 with 35-plus points and 209-6 with 36-plus, 186-4 with 38-plus and 119-2 with 43 or more tallies. The six losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012) and California (59-56 in 20T in 2014). CU has played 1,221 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 113-106-3 in its last 222 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 11-41 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 140 of its last 331 games, posting a 121-18-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 218 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 26-95-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2013, in MacIntyre's first season, the Buffs had their best average on first down in years: CU averaged 5.83, their best since 2001 (6.7). In 2014, the average was 5.36 and last year climbed back to 5.76.
 - ➔ In 2016, the Buffs are averaging 6.38 per first down play (352 of them); CU hasn't averaged seven or more yards since 7.2 in 1994.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 58 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 18 seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 77 scores by return in 265 games (70 regular season, seven bowl). Ten in the MacIntyre Era (5 in 2013, 2 in 2015, 3 in 2016).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 45 times in the last 292 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it eight times under MacIntyre. CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 2001 (and is threatening to do it a fourth this year. The Buffs are 45-6 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 53-9 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ 600+. Colorado is 16-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first loss was last year when the Buffs had 630 in the 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU was 1-0 in 2015 after rolling up 636 against Nicholls State.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 85-91 in its last 176 games on grass, including a 54-53 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass (6-1 on grass this season).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 98-59-3 in its last 160 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 64-43-3 mark in conference games. CU is 2-1 this year (and 5-9 under MacIntyre).
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), they gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. Those averages since: 14.1 (2004), 10.2 (2005), 12.0 (2006), 14.0 (2007), 9.7 (2008, the only time under 10 in this span); 15.7 (2009), 12.3 (2010), 13.7 (2011), 12.3 (2012), 11.2 (2013).
 - ➔ In 2014, CU allowed just 15 plays of 20 yards or more on third down: opponents overall gained 949 yards on 70 makes (13.6 per) and had a net 82 yards on the other 105 plays (0.78).
 - ➔ In 2015, CU allowed 17 plays of 20-plus; opponents gained 1,122 yards on 87 makes (12.9), but on the 119 misses, have just 45 total yards (0.38 per).
 - ➔ This season, CU has allowed just nine third down plays of 20 yards or longer; the opponent has gained 314 yards on those (34.9 per); on the other 144 third down plays, they have gained 276 yards (1.9 per).
- ➔ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 17-2 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, winning twice this season, in back-to-back games against Massachusetts and Colorado State, the first time it has happened in back-to-back games. It now marks three times under MacIntyre (including the 2014 CSU game); previous to that was against Cal in 2011 (both were losses). The last win previously had come against Nebraska in 2007 (65-51). In these 19 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 772-395, with only four games decided by less than 17 points.
- ➔ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 78 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 52-22-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under MacIntyre, CU is 6-3 in miscue-free contests (3-0 in 2016).
- ➔ Opponents have made 167-of-214 field goals dating back to 2006 (78.0 percent), including 10-of-18 this year and 74-of-91 (81.3) dating back to the 2012 opener. The high percentage might be a byproduct of CU's defensive success at times inside its own 25, as the foe is 119-of-135 (88.2) on kicks inside 40 yards. In the same span, CU is 140-of-219 (63.9).
- ➔ Between 2010 and 2013, opponents had 279 plays of 20 yards or more, earning a combined 8,651 yards (31.0 yards per); the average annually has always hovered around 30 yards, which makes sense since the cutoff is all plays of 20 yards or longer. But it's the count that's the concern: in 2008, opponents had just 44 plays of 20-plus, followed by 53 (2009) and 50 (2010); those counts ballooned to 75 in 2011 and 81 in 2012.
 - ➔ Under MacIntyre, the number has been dwindling: in his first season (2013) opponents had 73 plays of 20 yards or more (out of 924, 7.9%), netting 2,316 yards (31.7 per); in 2014, opponents had 72 plays of 20-plus (8.5 percent of the 845 overall), with those collectively gaining 2,456 yards (1,472 pass/984 rush, 34.1 per). And in 2015, opponents had 65 plays of 20 or more yards (of 948, 6.9%, totaling 2,242 yards (still 34.5 per).
 - ➔ In 2016 (10 games), a noticeable difference: CU has allowed 37 plays of 20-plus for 1172 yards (31.7 per, but 5.5% of plays yielding 38.0% of yards).
- ➔ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2014, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season just 14 times, before 2014 last doing so in 2001 (434.4), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season; CU gained 400-plus yards in nine of 11 regular season games that year. The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once — 303.5 — in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just three times including 2014.
 - ➔ In 2016, CU is looking to rewrite or add to the above, averaging 465.8 yards per outing and 261.1 through the air after eight games.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-125 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09; Stanford is the last to do it (2011; the opponent is now 0-of-24 since). The CU offense is 11-of-134 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ CU has scored in 32 of 40 quarters in 2016 (38 of 52 in 2015), and in 139 of 188 under MacIntyre (73 percent).

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 28 seasons. A closer look:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
183 WINS	294	446	+ 152	1,449	623	+826
MacINTYRE ERA (18 WINS)	21	36	+15	109	65	+ 44
155 LOSSES (& 4 TIES)	368	238	- 130	561	1309	- 748
MacINTYRE ERA (29 LOSSES)	58	38	-20	80	259	- 179
28-SEASON TOTALS (342 Games)	662	684	+ 22	2,010	1,932	+ 78
MacINTYRE ERA (47 GAMES)	79	74	- 5	189	324	- 135

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 26-21 in games following a bye week since 1948, when the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference; CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 29 of 32 seasons, with two weeks off 11 of those years and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 23-19 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes a 1-4 mark as a member of the Pac-12 (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013 and at USC and Oregon in 2014; and the first win over UCLA in 2016).

2016 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1891 (Nov. 26) After going 0-4 in its first season of intercollegiate football the previous year, and dropping the first four games in '91, Colorado earns its first-ever win in the sport with a 24-4 win on the road against the Colorado Springs Athletic Association.
- 1896 Colorado records its first undefeated season with a 5-0-0 mark, outscoring the five opponents 161-6.
- 1901 After a one-year absence, Fred Folsom returns for his second of three stints as CU head coach, piloting the Buffs to a 5-1-1 mark.
- 1906 Colorado posts perhaps its weirdest record in its football history: 2-3-4, the four ties all of the scoreless variety. CU scored just 28 points but allowed only 32.
- 1911 The 105th anniversary of the third of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. Colorado outcores the six opponents 88-5, allowing one field goal on defense and a safety for the only points.
- 1916 The first year of the post-Fred Folsom Era, as CU's legendary coach retired following the 1915 season; Bob Evans takes over but the Silver & Gold go 1-5-1.
- 1921 (Oct. 29) CU travels its furthest east for a football game, some 926 miles, but lose 35-0 at the University of Chicago, then a powerhouse in college football; the only longer trip at the time in program history was a 1915 game against Washington in Seattle, 999 miles from the CU campus. Trains took CU to both locales.
- 1926 CU opens the year with four straight home games, only done three times since (1937, 1943 and 1978 – in all of which the first five were at Folsom Field).
- 1931 (Nov. 26) Colorado defeats Arizona in Tucson, 27-7, on Thanksgiving, the last time (and of three total) Thanksgiving Day games CU has played out of the state.
- 1936 (Nov. 7) Byron White sets a school record by scoring 25 points (4 TD, 1 PAT) in a 31-7 win at Utah. White sets up his All-America season the following year by rushing for 643 yards with 1,339 all-purpose yards and 10 touchdowns.
- 1946 Jim Yeager reassumes head coaching position after serving in World War II for two years. An Oct. 12 win at Wyoming (20-0) was played in a blizzard.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado drills Nebraska in Lincoln, 36-14, in the program's first-ever televised game. Bill Stern (play-by-play) and Ray Michael (commentary) call the game, produced independently and aired regionally on NBC.
- 1956 (Nov. 4) After giving Oklahoma fits most of the decade, the Sooners roll into Boulder ranked No. 1 in the nation, CU's first-ever against the No. 1 team, and it appears the Buffaloes might finally break through. CU builds a 19-6 halftime lead, only to see OU rally with 21 second half points for a 27-19 win. The Buffs go on to finish 4-1-1 in the Big 7, earning the invitation to the Orange Bowl where CU beat Clemson, 27-21, for the first bowl win in school history.
- 1961 Colorado won its first Big 8 Conference championship, its first league title since 1942 (when it shared the Mountain States crown). The two biggest wins were a 20-19 win over Kansas (after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), and a 7-6 win over No. 10 Missouri. A 7-0 win at Nebraska remains to this day one of the school's all-time defensive gems: the Buffs held Nebraska to 31 total yards and zero first downs. CU reached No. 6 in the polls but lost to No. 4 LSU in the Orange Bowl, 25-7. Joe Romig is named an All-American for the second straight year and earns the Rhodes Scholarship.
- 1966 Colorado finished second in the Big 8 Conference race with a 5-2 mark (7-3 overall), the two league setbacks by a combined three points, 11-10 at Oklahoma State and 21-19 against Nebraska. After losing 24-3 to open the season at No. 20 Miami, the Buffaloes bounce back and win at No. 10 Baylor, 13-7, in a game where CU was on a mission to win after its black players were subject to racist taunts, including on a pregame radio show piped into the team locker room.
- 1971 Artificial surfacing makes its debut in Boulder on Sept. 18 versus Wyoming, as an AstroTurf carpet blanketed Folsom Field; fittingly, it snowed two feet that day and likely prevented cancellation of the game. CU's stunning road upsets of No. 9 Louisiana State and No. 6 Ohio State paved the way for a 10-2 season, as the Big 8 owned the top three spots in the final Associated Press poll after the bowls. With Nebraska (#1), Oklahoma (#2) and Colorado (#3), it was the first and to date only time in history one conference has occupied all top three positions at the end of the year. Charlie Davis rushes for a then-record 1,386 yards for the season, including a still-record 342 against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, while Cliff Branch returns an NCAA record four punts for touchdowns. CU caps its first 10-win season with a 29-17 win over No. 15 Houston in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.
- 1976 It's the 40th anniversary of Colorado's second Big 8 Conference title with a 5-2 league record; the Buffs were tied with Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, but CU earned the title via tiebreaker by virtue of its wins over the Sooners (42-31) and Cowboys (20-10). Nine players off the '76 team would be selected in the following spring's NFL Draft, including five in the second round in an 18-pick span between Nos. 35 and 52.
- 1981 The Buffs were 3-8, winning their season opener (45-27 over Texas Tech), homecoming (11-10 over Oklahoma State) and season finale (24-21 against Kansas State). Coach Chuck Fairbanks would resign the following June 1 to take a similar job with the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1986 Fresh off a season where CU won the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over a 1-10 record in 1984), the Buffaloes open up a disappointing 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined eight points. CU rallies to win its next five, including a 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska which many refer to as the "Turning Point" in the Coach Bill McCartney Era. That run set up a battle for first place in the Big 8 and the Orange Bowl berth that went with it against Oklahoma on Nov. 15. But the Sooners end the dream with a 28-0 win in Boulder, in a game where OU did not attempt a single pass.
- 1991 Colorado ties for a third straight Big 8 title with a 6-0-1 mark, as a Nov. 2 tie with Nebraska (19-19) ends a 19-game winning streak in conference play, dating back to the '88 finale. Lamont Warren rushes for 830 yards, to this day a single-season best by a CU freshman, and in one of the most daring personnel moves since the days of platoon football, coach Bill McCartney plays his starting quarterback, senior Darian Hagan, as the team's top punt returner so he can better showcase his talents for professional football.
- 1996 A 33-21 win over Washington gives CU a 10-2 record, its third consecutive 10-win season for the first time in school history. It was also the inaugural season of the Big 12 Conference, and Colorado won its first league game, 24-10, at Texas A&M in a game where the Buffs had the quickest score from scrimmage in their history: after Ryan Sutter recovered an A&M fumble on the opening kickoff, Rae Carruth scored on a 28-yard end around just 13 seconds into the game. Koy Detmer set a school record with 3,156 passing yards, and the 20-4 start over his first two seasons as a college coach by Rick Neuheisel ranks as one of the top 5 all-time in NCAA history.
- 2001 A Sept. 15 game at Washington State was cancelled due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the east coast. CU plays in its first Big 12 Championship game and wins the title with a 39-37 win over Texas in basically a road win at Irving; a 62-36 win over Nebraska the previous week gave the Buffs their first North Division title, as Chris Brown rushed for 198 yards and a school-record six touchdowns. Daniel Graham wins the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, and is named the school's sixth unanimous All-American. No. 2 Colorado plays in its first (and only) BCS game, but loses to No. 3 Oregon 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl.
- 2006 Dan Hawkins named 23rd full-time head coach at Colorado; PK Mason Crosby repeated as first-team All-American, as he was the first placekicker at CU to earn the honor even one time.
- 2011 Colorado officially becomes a member of the Pac-12 Conference, joining along with Utah what was previously known as the Pacific-10; both became members on July 1, 2011. CU wins league titles in men's and women's cross country and claims the postseason men's basketball championship by winning four games in as many days.

OPPONENTS & 2016 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2016 Colorado schedule combined for a 90-65 record in 2015 (58.1 winning percentage); five teams won nine or more games a year ago (three 10-plus), with 10 playing in bowl games (tied for the second most in the nation, behind the 11 USC faced).

- The Buffaloes again had two weeknight games in 2016; CU opened the season on a Friday against Colorado State in Denver, and played a Thursday night affair against UCLA in Boulder (Nov. 3).
- CU had one of the toughest back-to-back road assignments in consecutive weeks in the nation, traveling to Michigan (Sept. 17) and then playing at Oregon (Sept. 24). In fact, it marked the first time in CU history the Buffs played one week in the Eastern Time Zone and then the other in the Pacific Time Zone. Others of note: Alabama (Arkansas, Tennessee); Mississippi (Arkansas, LSU); Ohio State (Wisconsin, Penn State); Pitt (Miami, Clemson); Tennessee (Georgia, Texas A&M); and Wisconsin (Michigan State, Michigan).
- Colorado traveled 9,010 air miles during the regular season this fall, or the equivalent of just over 55 percent around the Earth (24,901 miles at the equator). The round-trip distances of CU's road trips from Boulder to: Colorado State (Denver: 60), Michigan (Ann Arbor: 2,260), Oregon (Eugene: 1,916), USC (Los Angeles: 1,666), Stanford (Palo Alto: 1,858) and Arizona (Tucson: 1,250).
- Colorado has had at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 21st straight season; the Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But in 2013 and since, the rivalry game with the Utes has returned to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) are opting for other games for the Friday slots.
- Conference misses: the Buffaloes did not play California or Washington for the second straight year; both return in 2017, when Oregon and Stanford drop off the schedule (Oregon is the last school that comes off CU's schedule from the North Division, as the Ducks are the only team CU will have played in each of its first six years in the conference).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records in the 90s (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996 (snapping a 22-game home winning streak), and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of November 12 (with 2016 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

FOLSOM FIELD #1

LawnStarter.com recently ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State).

The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

300+AT FOLSOM

Colorado won its 300th game at Folsom Field in 2013 and is now 307-166-10 in 93 seasons playing its home games at Folsom. The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 399-189-16 all-time at home. Colorado's last winning record at home was in 2010, when the Buffaloes went 4-2; over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season and have now won four home games for the first time since that 2010 season (CU's last undefeated season at home was in 1994 when the Buffs went 6-0 in Rashaan Salaam's Heisman Trophy winning year).

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 48 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on five occasions (CU will also sport black helmets on the road occasionally). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

CU IS BLACK & GOLD, BUT FOLSOM IS "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. For more information, visit Ralphie's Green Stampede at http://www.cubuffs.com/ViewArticle.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=600&ATCLID=1549954.

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Who will be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game? George Frazier was the last to do so on regular basis in the 2014 season, when he appeared for 14 snaps at defensive end for the first time against Arizona State, while lining up for five plays per game at fullback. He became the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player before Frazier in 2014 to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the 2015 world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing.

BUFFS BACK ON TV IN DENVER; "THE RISE" GOES NATIONAL

Two new "all-Colorado" sport programs debuted last week, as CU has been without a weekly television presence in Denver since the 2011-12 athletic year:

The Buffalo Stampede returned with a new format and a new home: Altitude Sports (Comcast Ch. 25/725 HD). The show initially airs on Wednesday nights at 11:00 p.m., with several replays over the following two days. It will run through the men's and women's basketball seasons.

"The Rise" is the latest video series produced by CU's acclaimed football video staff; it is following the Colorado Buffaloes through the 2016 season. "The Rise" will be an interview driven narrative featuring and following the seniors through this journey. Six to eight episodes will cover the season from camp to bowl week. "The Rise" will be cinematic, yet organic, featuring behind-the-scenes footage and a narrative told by the seniors and coaches. It premiered on Aug. 31 and can be seen on Pac-12 Mountain and CUBuffs.com.

Colorado has 61 lettermen returning for 2015 (59 from the 2015 team, with three others from past years); they break down into 28 on offense, 30 on defense and 3 specialists; the Buffs lose 27 lettermen off the 2015 squad (11 offense/15 defense/1 specialist). CU returns 18 starters from last season (9 offense/9 defense), losing 4 (2 offense/2 defense); several positions had multiple personnel shuttle in and out, so there are several other players back with starting experience. The 2015 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams; #—lettered but injured early in the 2015 season and has been submitted for medical hardships. NATIONAL IMPROVEMENT

In terms of scoring defense, the Buffaloes were the fifth-most improved unit in 2015 from 2014 numbers (third among Power 5 schools). Colorado allowed 39.0 points in 2014, but cut that back to 27.5 last fall, or 11.5 points fewer. The four ahead of CU: Georgia State 15.0 (43.3 to 28.3), North Carolina 14.5 (39.0 to 24.5), Western Kentucky 14.0 (39.9 to 25.9) and Vanderbilt 12.3 (33.3 to 21.0). In conference games, the Buffs improved by 10.7 points (43.0 to 32.3), and overall allowed 30 or more points just five times as compared to 11 times in 2014.

SEASON OPENER REVIEW

Statistically speaking, Colorado had one of its best season-opening games in school history on Sept. 2 against Colorado State. CU's 578 yards of total offense in the contest were the most in a season opener since 1994, when that Buff team (which went 11-1 and finished the year ranked No. 4 in the coaches poll) put up 649 yards of offense in a 48-13 win over Northeast Louisiana. That 1994 season-opening total is the highest yardage gained for any game to begin a season in Buffalo history, but the 578 yards vs. CSU last Friday comes in at No. 2. It was also just the eighth time since 1946 that Colorado has gained more than 500 yards of offense in the season opener.

What was equally impressive was the Buff defense allowing just 225 yards of total offense. CU outgained CSU by 353 yards on the night, which is the second most it has out-gained an opponent in a season-opener in program history (trailing the 1994 opener when CU outgained Northeast Louisiana by 394 yards). Here are the largest margins of victory in a CU season opener in history (not including contests against local high schools at the turn of last century):

LARGEST MARGINS OF VICTORY IN SEASON OPENER

Year	Opponent	Score	Margin	Year	Opponent	Score	Margin	Year	Opponent	Score	Margin
1954	DRAKE	61- 0	61	1923	BRIGHAM YOUNG	41- 0	41	1995	at Wisconsin	43- 7	36
1942	COLORADO MINES	54- 0	54	1943	FT. WARREN	38- 0	38	1994	NORTHEAST LOUISIANA	48-13	35
1988	FRESNO STATE	45- 3	42	2016	Colorado State (Denver)	44- 7	37

OPENING DEPTH CHART NOTES

The Buffs released their season-opening depth chart on August 27, and it showed that the Buffaloes finally had more upperclassmen filling out the depth chart than at any other time in coach Mike MacIntyre's previous three seasons in Boulder. In the two-deep, including all players expected to see game action in the opener against Colorado State (22 scrimmage positions plus four special teams—P, PK, SN, H), there are 17 seniors – as compared to just nine a year ago. In the first game, CU started 19 upperclassmen (9 seniors, 10 juniors), along with two sophomores and one redshirt freshman.

► Last year, CU did not start a freshman, true or redshirt, in the season opener for the first time since 2005; the Buffs had started at least one true freshman in each of the last four seasons prior to his year as well. Redshirt Tim Lynott, Jr., is slated to open at left guard for the Buffaloes this year.

SOUTH PARK RALPHIE INTRO

Most know that the creators of Comedy Central's popular South Park are University of Colorado alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. They voices Eric Cartman; he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that debuted during the countdown to kickoff prior to the 2014 Arizona State game. It's been a hit since, especially among the CU student section. Cartman is seen in his usual garb and he introduced Ralphie before the real buffalo led the Buffs on the field.

HERB ORVIS TRIBUTE

Colorado and the National Football Foundation honored Herb Orvis in the first quarter as he will become the seventh CU player (and eighth associated with the school) to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame this December 6 in New York City. Orvis, a defensive end, played at CU from 1969-71; NFF CEO and CU grad Steve Hatchell and '93 Buffalo inductee Dick Anderson (class of '67) participated in the ceremony. Orvis wore his #88 CU jersey for the last time, as it will be sent with his helmet and the game ball from CU's win over Ohio State in '71 to the Hall of Fame.

COLORADO 44, COLORADO STATE 7

SEPTEMBER 2, 2016

SAF AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Starting fast offensively and rock solid defensively, the Colorado Buffaloes opened the 2016 season with a convincing 44-7 win over Colorado State on a Friday night at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

The Buffs rolled up 578 yards of total offense — their most in a season opener in 22 years — and held the Rams to 225. CU was in control from the start, holding the Rams to three plays and out on the game's first series and then marching 73 plays in 11 yards to take a 7-0 lead just four-plus minutes into the game and the rout was on.

CU senior Sefo Liufau, playing his first game since successfully rehabilitating from a Lisfranc (foot) injury, completed 23-of-33 passes for 318 yards and one touchdown, becoming the school's career leader in passing yardage (7,715).

HOW IT HAPPENED: CU scored on three of its first four possessions and led 24-0 with 13:59 left in the first half. By the end of the first quarter, the Buffs offense had outgained the Rams 253-10, with the CU defense emphatically answering the pressing pregame question about stopping the CSU run game. And the Buffs' up-tempo offense was up-and-running (and passing) early. The Buffs were fast: Their four first-half TD drives required 2:59, 1:56, 1:09 and 1:01.

CU's first scoring march was its longest in both time required (2:59) and distance covered (73 yards, 11 plays). Tailback Phillip Lindsay ran for 38 yards during the drive and Liufau completed two of three passes for 22 yards.

Liufau carried twice in that march, gaining eight yards on first down from the CSU 13, then fumbling at the goal line on second down. But his 310-pound center, Alex Kelley, smothered the football in the end zone.

Four more scores would follow in quick succession — a 17-yard Liufau to Devin Ross pass, a 1-yard Lindsay run, a 30-yard Diego Gonzalez field goal, and another 1-yard Lindsay dive that made it 31-0; the latter followed a 46-yard one-handed catch by Bryce Bobo that he hauled in before stepping out at the CSU 1-yard line.

In addition to his 30-yard field goal, Gonzalez kicked four PATs, extending his streak to 39 straight over last season and this. Through Friday night's first half, CU kicking specialists had made 142 straight extra points.

CU outgained CSU 364-79 in total yardage in the first half, including holding a 248-22 passing yards advantage. The Rams used two quarterbacks — starter Nick Stevens, transfer Faton Bauta — who combined to go 6-of-17 with one interception. That pick was by Chidobe Awuzie, who picked off Stevens late in the first half to set up the Buffs at their own 41-yard line. Lindsay scored on his second 1-yard dive five plays later.

CU increased its lead to 37-0 on a pair of third-quarter Gonzalez field goals (29, 22 yards) and took its shutout into the final quarter. The Rams finally scored on the first play of the fourth quarter, getting a 5-yard TD pass from Bauta to Marcus Wilson.

Liufau left the game after fumbling the ball away after a jarring tackle on a keeper with 12:38 remaining. CSU took over at its 33 but couldn't capitalize on the turnover.

But he returned on the next series, marching the Buffs 50 yards in 11 plays for their final score. The touchdown came on a 1-yard leap by former walk-on tailback Kyle Evans, who was awarded a scholarship midway through preseason camp. Gonzalez's PAT pushed CU's lead to 44-7 with 4:24 remaining. Seeing his first college action, redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez spelled Liufau on the Buffs' final possession.

TURNING POINT: The tone was set early by the CU 'D.' The Buffs held the Rams to 10 yards on 15 first-quarter plays, limiting them to 8 yards rushing and sending a decisive early message about stopping the CSU running game. The Rams didn't register their initial first down until 10:23 remained before halftime, and that possession ended three plays later with their sixth punt of the first half.

CU STANDOUTS: Lindsay: 20 carries, 95 yards, 2 TDs; Liufau: 23-33, 318 yards, 1 TD; Awuzie: nine tackles (eight solo), four third down stops and the interception.

GAME NOTES

The announced attendance of 69,850 was the most in the series since 2003 (76,219); Colorado sold 33,486 tickets (9,217 student) for the game, accounting for that number despite season ticket holders of just under 2,800 tickets opted out for the game to receive an equal value in number for a Pac-12 game ... Colorado's 31-0 halftime lead was its largest since Nov. 15, 2003, when it led Iowa State 37-0 in Ames (an eventual 44-10 win) ... CU's 44 points were the most in the series by either team since 1996, when the Buffs won 48-34 in Fort Collins, and the 37-point win was the most lopsided in the series since a 47-7 CU win in 1956 (and the largest in an opener since 1988, when CU beat Fresno State in Boulder, 45-3) ... The 578 yards on offense by the Buffaloes were their most in a season opener since 1994 (649 in a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana), with the 225 yards allowed the fewest by an opponent in an opener since 1998 (CSU: 202 in a 42-14 Buff win) ... C Alex Kelley scored the first TD by a Buff offensive lineman since Oct. 28, 1995, when OG Heath Irwin recovered a fumble in the end zone in a 44-21 loss to Nebraska; Kelley became the first offensive lineman in CU history to score the team's first points of the year ... The Buffs outgained CSU, 253-10, in the first quarter (14 of CSU's first 18 plays went for three yards or less) as the Rams opened the game with six three-and-outs. In the first half, CSU ran nine plays in CU territory for minus-2 yards.

COLORADO 56, IDAHO STATE 7

SEPTEMBER 10, 2016

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado won its second straight game with a record-setting performance at Folsom Field, rolling to a 56-7 win over visiting Idaho State in the home opener to start the season 2-0.

Sefo Liufau threw for 204 yards and two touchdowns, and added 54 yards and another score running the ball as the Buffaloes pulled away from the Bengals early and would play 71 of 86 players that dressed for the game.

The Buffs tied school records for the most points in the second quarter (35) and first half (49), and set a school record for the largest halftime lead (49-0), eclipsing a 49-7 edge they held against Northeast Louisiana in 1995.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs thoroughly dominated the game in every regard, putting it away before halftime.

CU scored on seven of its eight possessions in the first half. Colorado quarterback Sefo Liufau was 15-for-18 for 204 yards and two touchdowns in the first half, and also ran for 54 yards and a score before intermission. Phillip Lindsay added a pair of rushing touchdowns and Devin Ross and Kabion Ento each had a touchdown reception. Ento also added another touchdown catch in the third quarter for CU's final points of the day.

Colorado led 14-0 after the first quarter, opening with a 15-yard Liufau touchdown pass to Ross, followed by a 6-yard Lindsay run.

The Buffs then added five more touchdowns in the second quarter, with Lindsay adding another score from 2 yards, Kyle Evans rushing 1 yard for a touchdown, Liufau throwing to Chris Hill for a 4-yard score and Liufau running in from 19 yards out. CU backup quarterback Steven Montez then got into the act, completing a 69-yard touchdown pass to Ento on his first pass attempt as a collegian. Ento's touchdown was also the first time he touched the ball as a Buff.

Colorado finished with 597 yards offense, the Buffs' second straight week with at least 500 yards, following a 578-yard effort in an opening 44-7 win over Colorado State.

Defensively, the Buffs were equally dominant, holding the Bengals to 96 yards offense — 29 rushing and 67 passing. Colorado also did not allow Idaho State to cross midfield in the first half, and allowed just seven first downs for the entire game (three in the first half).

TURNING POINT: After punting on their second possession of the day, the Buffs defense forced a three-and-out and the offense came back to drive 61 yards in five plays for a touchdown to go up 14-0, opening the gate for six straight CU touchdowns.

KEY STATISTIC: The Bengals averaged just 1.7 yards per offensive play while the Buffs averaged 6.8 per snap.

NOTEWORTHY: An interception from true freshman Tony Julmisse extended CU's streak with at least one defensive takeaway to 15 games, best in the nation. ... It is the first 2-0 start by the Buffs since 2013, when Mike MacIntyre's first CU team beat CSU and Central Arkansas to open the year. ... CU played 71 of the 86 players who dressed for the game. ... It was the first time CU has gained 500-plus yards in back-to-back games since Nov. 9-16, 2002.

QUOTEWORTHY: "I think we just go out there and play as hard as we can play. The whole key of the first two games goes back to practice. It doesn't go to what happened in the game, it goes to how we practice and how we focus and prepare." — CU coach Mike MacIntyre

"I just think we are executing at a higher level. I think we're holding ourselves to a higher standard." — Liufau

MICHIGAN 45, COLORADO 28SEPTEMBER 17, 2016*MICHIGAN STADIUM, ANN ARBOR

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Colorado twice held a 14-point lead in the first quarter, but special teams miscues and injuries took their toll, as fourth-ranked Michigan rallied for a 45-28 win at Michigan Stadium.

The Wolverines turned one blocked punt into a touchdown and forced another bad punt that put the Wolverines in position for a second touchdown in the first half, and took a 24-21 lead into the locker room at intermission.

Colorado regained the lead on the first possession of the third quarter when Sefo Liufau tossed a 70-yard touchdown pass to Shay Fields, but Liufau (16-for-25, 245 yards, 3 touchdowns) left the game with an ankle injury after CU's next possession and the Buffs did not score again while Michigan answered with three more scores.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead, scoring on their first offensive possession, then adding a defensive score less than a minute later.

After forcing Michigan to punt on its first possession, Colorado needed just three plays to go 49 yards for a touchdown. Liufau hit Jay MacIntyre with a 14-yard pass to start the drive, then connected with Devin Ross on a 37-yard scoring strike down the middle two plays later to give the Buffs a 7-0 lead.

Colorado then extended the lead to 14-0 less than a minute later. With Michigan facing a third-and-7, CU defensive back Chidobe Awuzie came off the edge and sacked Michigan quarterback Wilton Speight, forcing a fumble. Colorado linebacker Derek McCartney scooped up the loose ball and rumbled 18 yards for a touchdown and 14-0 lead.

Michigan, though, responded with a big play of its own. After stopping CU's offense in Colorado territory, UM's Michael Jocz blocked Alex Kinney's punt. Grant Perry then grabbed the ball at CU's 6-yard line and took it to the end zone as Michigan cut CU's lead to 14-7.

Colorado then bumped its edge back to 14 by driving 67 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Phillip Lindsay had a 10-yard run on the drive, Liufau hit Shay Fields for an 18-yard gain and Kabion Ento for 16 yards before finding Ross again on a fade route in the corner of the end zone.

The second period, however, was all Michigan. CU's Diego Gonzalez was wide right on a 36-yard field goal try and on CU's next possession, Kinney punted the ball into the backside of a CU player. It took Michigan just two plays to go 38 yards for the score, getting a 17-yard scoring run from Jehu Chesson to cut the Buffs' lead to 21-14.

TURNING POINT: Michigan added a 39-yard field goal with 1:59 left in the half to pull within 21-17 and the Buffs couldn't muster a drive and punted. The Wolverines needed one play to take the lead when Amara Darboh ran 45 yards for a score, giving UM a 24-21 edge heading into halftime.

But CU needed just three plays to score after the half, getting a 70-yard touchdown throw from Liufau to Fields for a 28-24 lead. Liufau, though, was injured on the prior play and while he returned on CU's next series, it was his last action of the day.

The Wolverines quickly responded. After a kick return by Jabrill Peppers past midfield, Michigan needed just two plays to reach the end zone, getting a 42-yard run from De'Veon Smith for a 31-28 lead, one the Wolverines never relinquished.

Michigan tacked on two more scores, going 80 yards for one and getting a 54-yard punt return for a touchdown from Peppers for another for the final tally.

KEY STATISTIC: CU scored 21 points and had 195 total yards in the first quarter, but just seven and 130 afterwards.

NOTEWORTHY: It was CU's 23rd straight loss against a ranked team dating back to 2009.

COLORADO 41, OREGON 38

SEPTEMBER 24, 2016

AUTZEN STADIUM, EUGENE

EUGENE, Ore. — Ahkello Witherspoon's interception in the end zone ended a last-ditch Oregon drive Saturday, clinching a 41-38 Colorado win over Oregon at Autzen Stadium in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

Witherspoon's interception came with 48 seconds remaining in the game and Oregon with a first-and-goal from the 7-yard line, giving the Buffs the signature win they've been seeking to signal that CU's program has indeed turned around.

HOW IT HAPPENED: Steven Montez had a record-setting starting debut for the 3-1 Buffs at quarterback, completing 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards and three touchdowns and two interceptions. He turned in the first-ever 300-yard passing/100-yard rushing game in school history.

After jumping out to a double-digit lead for the second week in a row only to see the lead disappear, the Buffs rallied to win this one.

The Buffs jumped out to a 23-7 edge before the Ducks rallied to take a 38-33 lead late in the third quarter, turning a pair of Montez interceptions into touchdown drives.

But the Buffs showed some moxie in crunch time, regaining the lead midway through the fourth quarter when Montez threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to Bryce Bobo. The pass was originally ruled incomplete, but after instant replay review, the officials signaled touchdown. A 2-point conversion pass from Montez to Bobo gave the Buffs a 41-38 lead with 8:43 to go in the game, and the Buffs defense took over and made the lead stand, coming up with three straight defensive stops.

Colorado built its early lead with another strong start. After Oregon punted following a three-and-out on its opening possession of the game, the Buffs drove 80 yards in eight plays for their first TD, getting a 1-yard scoring run from Phillip Lindsay to cap the drive, in which Montez completed three passes and Lindsay had a 33-yard run.

CU's defense then forced another three-and-out and the Buffs put together a seven-play, 44-yard drive that produced a 24-yard Chris Graham field goal and 10-0 lead.

Oregon then answered with its first score of the game to cut the lead to 10-7 when Taj Griffin scored from 1 yard out on a drive that was sparked by a 50-yard Tony Brooks-James run.

The Buffs, though, quickly responded, putting together back-to-back scoring drives to take a 23-7 lead. The first was a 12-play, 87-yard march, capped by a 7-yard Montez toss to Shay Fields, but a blocked PAT left CU with a 16-7 lead. Following an Oregon punt, CU struck quickly, going 63 yards in just four plays. A 61-yard Montez pass to Devin Ross put the Buffs at the Oregon 5, and two plays later, Montez dove over from the 3-yard line and Graham's PAT gave CU a 23-7 lead.

But Oregon answered with a touchdown and field goal, sandwiched around a CU drive that stalled in Ducks territory after a failed fourth-down try. The Ducks kept their touchdown drive alive with a 29-yard run on a fake punt, then scored on a 25-yard pass from Dakota Prukop to Darren Carrington Jr.

Colorado closed the half with a field goal to take a 26-17 lead into the locker room at intermission, then opened the third quarter with a 75-yard scoring drive. Montez hit Ross with a 48-yard scoring pass that was initially ruled incomplete but ruled a touchdown by replay and CU led 33-17 just two minutes into the third quarter.

TURNING POINT: This one had no turning point until the end. Montez's touchdown to Bobo and Witherspoon's interception were both plays that made the win possible.

CU was 17-of-31 on second down conversions (54.8 percent), 5-of-5 with 1-to-4 yards to go ... Colorado is now 51-9 all-time when rushing (260 today) and passing (333) for 200-plus yards in both ... The 593 yards are the most CU has ever gained in 21 games against the Ducks and is actually the first time a Colorado team has gained over 400 ... CB Ahkello Witherspoon's game-saving interception extended CU's nation's-best streak of forcing at least one turnover to 17 games ... This was the fewest points Oregon has scored against CU as a member of the Pac-12, and the fewest since the 2002 Fiesta Bowl (a 38-16 UO win).

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — With Steven Montez throwing and Shay Fields catching, the Colorado Buffaloes scored 20 unanswered first-half points and zipped past Oregon State 47-6 on a sunny Saturday afternoon at Folsom Field.

Montez and Fields hooked up for three first-half touchdowns, enabling Fields to tie the school record for TD receptions in a game (three) with three other players and the Buffs to remain unbeaten (2-0) in the Pac-12 Conference (4-1 overall).

Montez, a redshirt freshman making his second college start at quarterback in place of injured senior Sefo Liufau (ankle), followed his winning starting debut at Oregon with another solid afternoon. He accounted for 321 yards in total offense (293 passing, 28 rushing in three quarters against the Beavers (0-1, 1-3) to help CU to back-to-back conference wins for the first time since 2010.

For the first time this season, the Buffs trailed in the first quarter as OSU took a 3-0 lead on a 32-yard Garrett Owens field goal.

The Buffs came back in a hurry as Montez and Fields connected for scores on CU's next three possessions. The first was a 51-yarder that found Fields at least five steps behind the Beavers secondary, the second a 33-yarder that saw Fields equally uncovered. The Buffs led 13-3 after the first quarter, bumping their first-quarter scoring edge to 85-17 for the season.

After CU defensive end Jimmie Gilbert (two sacks on the day) forced a fumble by OSU QB Darrel Garretson and a subsequent 20-yard loss on the Beavers' first possession of the second quarter, the Buffs took over on their own 13-yard line.

Five plays into that drive, Montez hit Fields with a short pass near the right sideline and the CU junior then raced 63 yards to the end zone. Freshman Davis Price — called on after Chris Graham's initial PAT was blocked — kicked the Buffs ahead 20-3 with 11:32 left before halftime.

Owens got the Beavers another three points with a 40-yard field goal (20-6), but the Buffs wasted no time answering. After a 33-yard kickoff return by freshman Tony Julmisse, CU marched 66 yards in 11 plays, capping the drive with a 1-yard walk-in TD by Phillip Lindsay on fourth down.

Price's PAT pushed CU ahead 27-6 with just under 5 minutes left before halftime. The Beavers were slowly, efficiently being buried, and for good measure the Buffs positioned Price for a 54-yard field goal with 50 seconds left in the half. It was the freshman's first field try as a collegian, and he delivered with the longest FG by a freshman in CU history.

Nine seconds later a hit by CU linebacker Kenneth Olugbode helped Rick Gamboa collect the first interception of his career, which Gamboa returned 20 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Colorado took a 37-6 lead at intermission.

After a Tedric Thompson interception midway through the third quarter, Price added his second field of the afternoon — a 22-yarder that increased CU's lead to 40-3 with 4:38 left in the quarter.

Although OSU managed another field goal, the Buffs' defense kept the Beavers out of the end zone, the first time in 11 years Colorado had held a conference opponent without a touchdown. Colorado also added one more touchdown to provide the final margin of victory.

The victory boosted the Buffs back into the national polls, with CU at No. 21 in the AP poll and No. 23 in the coaches' poll when the voting was announced Sunday.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 4-1 for the first time since the 2005 season and 2-0 in league play for the first time since 2007 ... The attendance (46,839) was the largest in four seasons and the largest for Family Weekend since 2011 (CU is now 18-7 in Family Weekend games) ... CU dressed 75 players for the game, 68 played ... The 41-point win was CU's largest in a league game since Oct. 24, 1992, when the Buffs beat Kansas State 54-7 in Boulder ... CU was 14-of-31 on second down conversions, meaning the Buffs were 31-of-62 against the Oregon schools (17-of-31 versus the Ducks the previous last week) ... Colorado is now 52-9 all-time when rushing (247 today) and passing (316) for 200-plus yards in both: 4-0 this year ... The Buffs gained over 500 yards for the fourth time in five games this season (563 today), doing that last in 1994 ... The 6 points allowed by CU was the fewest in a Pac-12 game (47 total); previous low was 13 by OSU last year; and also first time CU has not allowed a TD in a Pac-12 contest ... The last time CU held a league opponent without a TD was 11 years ago to the day: Oct. 1, 2005 in a 34-0 win at Oklahoma State ... The Buff defense cranked it up when the Beavers hit midfield; OSU ran 30 plays in plus territory for 51 yards ... WR Shay Fields (7-169, 3 TD, 5 FDE) became just the fourth Buffalo to have three touchdowns receiving in a game, but the first to have three in a single half ... PK Davis Price (5-5 PAT, 2-2 FG, 11 points) had his first career placekicks, and in the process, set CU records for the longest field goal made by a freshman as well as the longest for a first-career make (54 yards).

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 21, COLORADO 17OCTOBER 8, 2016*LOS ANGELES COLISEUM

LOS ANGELES — After falling behind 14-0 in the first half, the No. 21 Colorado Buffaloes rallied to tie the game at 14-14 in the fourth quarter before finally falling to USC, 21-17, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Colorado forced four turnovers in the game, but could only manage to convert one into a score. CU dropped to 4-2 overall (2-1 Pac-12) while USC improved to 3-3, 2-2. The loss also dropped CU to 0-11 against the Trojans all time.

USC broke the tie midway through the fourth quarter by going 70 yards in six plays for the winning score, getting a 7-yard pass from Sam Darnold to Tyler Petite.

The Buffs had battled back from a 14-0 halftime deficit, tying the game with 10:20 to go in the game on a 10-yard Steven Montez scoring pass to Bryce Bobo.

Earlier in the half, Bobo helped the Buffs cut into USC's lead by throwing a 67-yard touchdown pass to Phillip Lindsay after taking a lateral from Montez.

Colorado's defense was stellar for most of the second half. The Buffs forced three second-half turnovers — two fumbles and an interception — and Colorado converted one of them into a touchdown. Afolabi Laguda and Jordan Carrell had fumble recoveries for the Buffs and Kenneth Olugbode had the interception.

The Buffs finally broke onto the scoreboard early in the third quarter. Following Carrell's fumble recovery, created by an Addison Gillam sack of Darnold, the Buffs needed one play to score on Bobo's pass to Lindsay.

CU's defense continued to hold and early in the fourth quarter, after the Buffs forced a second straight USC punt, Colorado finally put together its first sustained scoring drive of the game, going 84 yards in eight plays for the tying score. Montez helped keep the drive alive with an 11-yard throw to Kabion Ento on third-and-6 before Lindsay rumbled 37 yards to the USC 11. Three plays later, Montez found Bobo in the end zone for a 10-yard scoring pass and Davis Price's PAT tied the game at 14-14.

The Trojans, however, responded to regain the lead on Darnold's third touchdown pass of the game. Colorado quickly answered with a drive inside USC territory that produced a 42-yard Price field goal, but that finished the scoring for the game as USC managed to drive into CU territory and run out the clock on its next possession.

After outscoring opponents 85-17 in the first quarter and 164-47 in the first half this season, the Buffs were held scoreless in the first 30 minutes. The Trojans, meanwhile, put together a pair of long scoring drives, going 80 yards in nine plays for their first touchdown, then adding a 13-play, 92-yard drive for the 14-0 lead.

The Buffs had dodged a bullet on USC's first possession by forcing a Darnold fumble near the goal line with Ahkello Witherspoon recovering it in the end zone.

CU never mustered much of an offensive threat in the opening 30 minutes as the Buffs' high-powered offense never found a rhythm. Colorado also produced some self-inflicted wounds, including a pair of penalties that stifled the Buffs' deepest penetration into USC territory. Just after reaching the Trojan 34, the Buffs committed two penalties on three snaps, setting them back to their side of the 50.

Montez, who was starting his third straight game for the Buffs, was injured on CU's last possession of the half. Senior Sefo Liufau replaced Montez and moved the Buffs into Trojan territory before the drive stalled.

Montez returned for the second half and finished the game.

COLORADO 40, ARIZONA STATE 16

OCTOBER 15, 2016

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — The Colorado Buffaloes parlayed the return of senior quarterback Sefo Liufau with a punishing ground game and buried No. 24 Arizona State, 40-16, at Folsom Field.

Beating the Sun Devils for the first time in eight tries, the Buffs (5-2, 3-1) remained tied with Utah (6-1, 3-1) in the Pac-12 Conference's South Division.

Liufau, out for all but two series in the previous three games with an ankle injury, completed 23 of his 31 passes for 265 yards. But it was CU's ground game — led by Phillip Lindsay's 29 carries for 219 yards and three touchdowns — that overran ASU (5-2, 2-2). The Sun Devils had entered the game with a Pac-12 leading rush defense, giving up just 89.3 yards per game.

Lindsay's 200-plus yard rushing game was the first by a Buff since Chris Brown's 211-yard effort against Missouri in 2002.

The Buffs celebrated Liufau's return by immediately kicking their offense into gear. They scored on their first possession, marching 81 yards in 10 plays and taking a 7-0 lead on Kyle Evans' 16-yard run and Davis Price's PAT.

Liufau gave a hint of his accuracy on the drive, completing all three of his pass attempts, and he completed his first nine of the night. Wide receiver Bryce Bobo finished the half with five receptions for 105 yards — his first career 100-yard receiving game.

The Buffs and Sun Devils went back and forth, battling to 7-7 and 10-10 ties until Liufau engineered a pair of scoring drives that covered 75 and 56 yards and opened a 23-10 halftime lead for CU.

Liufau's 3-yard keeper produced the first of those two TDs and Lindsay's 13-yard run accounted for the second. Price kicked a 20-yard field goal on the fourth play of the second quarter — his fourth of the season in as many attempts — and added two of three extra points. His first missed PAT of the season caromed off the right upright following Lindsay's TD run.

ASU's 10 first-half points came on a 5-yard Manny Wilkins to Kody Kohl pass and a 51-yard field goal by Zane Gonzalez.

CU's defense limited the Sun Devils to 50 rushing yards and 149 passing yards (199 total offense) for the game and held the visitors to 3-of-18 third-down conversions. Colorado also finished with a commanding 27-7 edge in first downs.

CU opened the second half with something a few decibels beyond a bang — a 75-yard TD run by Lindsay on the first play from scrimmage. Lindsay's score and Price's PAT pushed the Buffs in front 30-10.

The Sun Devils cut the lead to 30-13 on a 50-yard field goal by Gonzalez. After Price's first missed field goal of the season — a 26-yarder that drifted wide right — the Buffs got the ball back on Afolabi Laguda's interception, the first of his career. That gave CU possession at its own 20, and the Buffs converted it into a 32-yard field by Chris Graham that increased CU's lead to 33-13.

Gonzalez nailed a 59-yard field goal to bring ASU to within 33-16 midway through the fourth before Liufau and the Buffs put together an 8-play, 47-yard scoring drive, capped by Lindsay's 4-yard run with 40 seconds remaining, to finish the scoring.

ASU's 199 total yards was the lowest total by ASU in the Todd Graham era, and the lowest total by a CU conference foe since Kansas State managed just 196 in 2001.

Laguda's interception also pushed CU's streak of games with at least one defensive takeaway to a nation-leading 20, and Colorado's 580 total yards marked the fifth time the Buffs surpassed the 500-yard mark this season.

COLORADO 10, STANFORD 5OCTOBER 22, 2016*STANFORD STADIUM, PALO ALTO

PALO ALTO — Colorado's defense put forth a game for the ages, holding Stanford's offense to just three points as the Buffaloes punched out a 10-5 win over the Cardinal to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2007.

The Buffs, who produced four defensive takeaways, improved their record to 6-2 overall and 4-1 in Pac-12 play, matching their largest win total since 2007.

Stanford struck first with a 66-yard drive that produced a field goal with 2:33 left in the first half. Christian McCaffrey carried six times for 29 yards on the drive and Stanford converted two third downs on the march. CU finally held when Chidobe Awuzie forced an incompletion on third down and Stanford settled for a 3-0 lead — the only offensive points Stanford produced all afternoon.

Following punts from both teams, Colorado answered with a sustained scoring drive. The Buffs went 73 yards in nine plays, with Phillip Lindsay carrying three times for 23 yards, including a 19-yard burst. Sefo Liufau completed three passes for 36 yards on the drive, including a 15-yard scoring toss to Shay Fields. Chris Graham's PAT gave CU a 7-3 lead with 11:59 to go in the first half.

Lindsay proved to be an effective weapon for the Buffs all day. The CU junior outrushed his Stanford counterpart, finishing with 131 yards on 12 carries, compared to McCaffrey's 92 yards on 11 carries.

After its first touchdown, CU missed an opportunity for more points on its next possession. The defense forced its third Stanford three-and-out of the half and Colorado drove from its own 12 to the Stanford 22 before the drive stalled. The Buffs came away with no points when Graham, subbing for an ill Davis Price, was wide left on a 42-yard field goal try.

The Buffs' kicking woes struck again — twice — in the third quarter.

On their first possession of the second half, CU took the opening kick and drove inside the Stanford 5. But on second-and-goal from the 3, Liufau was sacked and Liufau threw incomplete on third down. Graham then attempted a 28-yard field goal and was again wide right and the score remained 7-3.

CU's defense then held Stanford on fourth down in CU territory, and the Buffs again drove to the Stanford 5-yard line. But a 5-yard touchdown pass from Liufau to Bryce Bobo was nullified by a pass interference penalty. Three plays later, the Buffs then sent punter Alex Kinney on to try a 31-yard field goal — and it was wide right and the score remained 7-3 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

After back-to-back three-and-outs, Stanford finally mustered a long drive, aided by a pair of penalties. The Cardinal moved from its own 34 to CU's 4-yard line. But on first-and-goal, Stanford's Ryan Burns fumbled the snap and CU's Kenneth Olugbode recovered. CU drove to its own 36 before stalling and a Kinney punt put the Cardinal at the Stanford 5-yard line with 8:36 to go.

CU's Tedric Thompson then recorded his second interception of the game and his 30-yard return gave the Buffs the ball on the Stanford 20. Colorado marched to the Stanford 5-yard line and the Buffs finally were successful on a field goal attempt as Graham was good from 23 yards out to give the Buffs a 10-3 lead.

Isaiah Oliver ended Stanford's final threat with an interception with 1:37 left. The Buffaloes, with not quite enough time to run out the clock, had to take a safety with :04 left, but the strategy worked perfectly after Graham's squib kick left Stanford only one desperation play from 82-yards out as time ran out.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 6-2 overall and 4-1 in league play for the first time since the 2005 season (when CU opened 7-2 and 5-1, respectively, in the Big 12); the Buffs also became bowl-eligible for the first time since 2007 (Independence Bowl) ... CU snapped a 10-game losing streak in California, and is now 3-20-1; the Buffs also improved to 6-17 against the Pac-12 North since joining the league (3-0 this season) having beaten both Oregon schools and now Stanford (the fourth and final game is Nov. 19 vs. Washington State) ... The 2:58 game time was CU's fastest since 2013 (2:50 at Washington).

COLORADO 20, UCLA 10

NOVEMBER 3, 2016

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Isaiah Oliver's 68-yard fourth-quarter punt return for a touchdown led No. 21 Colorado to a 20-10 Pac-12 Conference victory over UCLA at Folsom Field.

It was CU's first win over the Bruins in six Pac-12 meetings, but was not without a challenge. The Buffs were penalized a season-high 12 times for 128 yards while UCLA was flagged 13 times for 96 yards. The Buffs suffered three interceptions and lost one of four fumbles.

But the Buffs defense held the Bruins to 210 yards in total offense, including only 25 rushing. CU rushed for 144 yards, paced by tailback Phillip Lindsay (78 yards, 1 TD) and quarterback Sefo Liufau (58 yards). Lindsay also made 11 receptions, a CU record for a running back.

Given a short field after the Bruins' first error-marred possession, the Buffs took over at the UCLA 37 but couldn't capitalize. CU turned the ball over on a Liufau interception — his first after a school-record 152 attempts without one — by safety Tahaan Goodman who gathered in a tipped pass that ended the streak.

The Buffs defense quickly returned the favor, with linebacker Kenneth Olujobode picking off Mike Fafaul and returning it to the Bruins' 25. A 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty pushed CU back to the UCLA 28.

But CU took quick advantage of Olujobode's theft, moving 38 yards in eight plays and capping the drive with Lindsay's 2-yard run. Chris Graham's PAT gave the Buffs a 7-0 lead, but the Bruins responded almost immediately, taking advantage of a 65-yard kickoff return by Brandon Burton and another 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty set UCLA up inside the CU 40.

Three plays later, UCLA quarterback Mike Fafaul found receiver Darren Andrews uncovered on the left sideline and hit him with a 38-yard scoring pass. Andrew Strauch's PAT kick created a 7-7 tie that held for the remainder of the first quarter.

Liufau was picked off again in the opening minutes of the second quarter, this time by linebacker Cameron Judge on an errant throw. Taking over at the CU 28, UCLA promptly lost 8 yards and on fourth down summoned J.J. Molson, whose 48-yard field goal with 12:19 left before halftime gave the Bruins a 10-7 lead.

UCLA had another chance to score later in the half after Liufau was hit from behind and fumbled. CU's defense rose to the occasion again, however, and after failing the move the ball, the Bruins came up empty when Chidobe Awuzie blocked a 26-yard field goal try by Molson.

The Buffs received the second-half kickoff, with Liufau returning at quarterback after he left late in the first half with an injury.

But CU's first-half offensive woes also came back, and it took a 42-yard punt return by Oliver to help the Buffs pull to a 10-10 tie. Oliver's return, along with an illegal substitution call on the Bruins that gave the Buffs a first down and Lindsay recovering his own fumble at the 1-yard line, led to a 21-yard Graham field goal to tie the game.

Later in the quarter, UCLA was wide right on a 44-yard field goal attempt. Liufau then drove the Buffs to the Bruins' 5-yard line before a penalty set the Buffs back, leading to a 37-yard Graham field goal early in the fourth period and 13-10 CU lead.

Oliver finally gave the Buffs a cushion with CU's first punt return for a touchdown since 2005. His 68-yard score gave CU a 20-10 lead with 5:27 to go in the game.

Olujobode's interception extended CU's nation-leading streak of forcing at least one turnover to 22 consecutive games while Liufau tied the CU school record for starts by a quarterback, matching Darian Hagan's 35 career starts.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to both 7-2 overall and 5-1 in league play for the first time since 2005 ... CU's last winning score of 20-10 came 30 years ago almost to the week: Oct. 25, 1986 over No. 3 Nebraska in Boulder ... UCLA was the fifth opponent to open a game on offense with a "three-and-out" against the Buffs (three others had just one first down) ... UCLA became just the second team in five games to own a lead over the Buffs this year in the state of Colorado (Oregon State led 3-0 for 2:06) ... Colorado trailed at halftime for just the third time this season (24-21 at Michigan, 14-0 at USC previously) ... The last time CU and its opponent both had 10 or more penalties in a game was on Oct. 1, 2011 (CU 10-90, Washington State 10-125); that was CU's first Pac-12 league game ... This was CU's 399th all-time victory at home (307th at Folsom Field) ... Colorado won back-to-back games scoring 20 or fewer points for the first time since the 1969 season (identical 17-14 wins over Kansas and Oklahoma State on Nov. 8-15) ... CU had 105 yards in the second quarter—its 23rd 100-yard quarter out of 36; only UCLA and Michigan have held the Buffs to one 100-yard quarter in a game this season. UCLA finished with 210 yards of offense; it is the fourth team the Buffs have held to under 250 this season, last done by CU in 1998 (four under 250 that year) ... UCLA was 3-of-19 on second downs and limited the Bruins to 20 total yards ... The Bruins opened 3-of-4 on first downs but converted just 1-of-11 the rest of the way.

COLORADO 49, ARIZONA 24

ARIZONA STADIUM, TUCSON

TUCSON, Ariz. — Colorado quarterback Sefo Liufau threw three touchdown passes and rushed for another and Phillip Lindsay ran for three scores as the Buffaloes improved to 8-2 with a 49-24 win over Arizona at Arizona Stadium.

The Buffs improved to 8-2 overall and maintained their Pac-12 South lead with a 6-1 mark.

After a slow start, CU's offense methodically put the game away, building a 28-10 lead by halftime and extending it to 42-10 by the end of the third quarter.

Meanwhile, although Arizona's offense moved the ball well between the 20s, the Buffs' defense responded when they had their backs to the wall. The Wildcats' rushing game produced more yards against the Buffs than they had given up in the previous three games combined, but the Buffs forced Arizona to settle for field goal tries when it mattered — and the Wildcats missed three of their four attempts.

After taking a 7-0 lead on their first possession on a 1-yard Lindsay run, only to see the Wildcats tie the game early in the second quarter at 7-7, the Buffs took the lead for good on a 4-yard Lindsay run with 11:29 to go in the second quarter. Lindsay's run was set up by a 50-yard Liufau pass to Shay Fields and Davis Price's second PAT of the game gave the Buffs a 14-7 lead.

UA managed to pull within four on its next possession, getting a 23-yard field goal from Josh Pollack to narrow the gap to 14-10.

Colorado, though, then put up 28 unanswered points, beginning with a seven-play, 62-yard touchdown drive on the ensuing possession. Liufau had a 22-yard run on the march, and the Wildcats gave the Buffs a helping hand three plays later with a late-hit penalty that put CU at the Wildcats 16 yard line. Two plays later, Liufau hit Fields with a 15-yard touchdown pass and Price's third PAT gave CU a 21-10 lead.

On Arizona's next possession, Colorado extended its nation-leading streak of forcing at least one defensive takeaway to 23 when a Ryan Moeller hit on Arizona's Nate Phillips forced a fumble that Rick Gamboa recovered.

Two series later, the Buffs pushed the lead to 28-10, going 53 yards in four plays. Liufau hit a wide-open Jay MacIntyre down the left sideline for a 40-yard score and CU upped its lead to 28-10.

Arizona then missed a field goal try just before halftime and another on its first possession of the third period.

The Buffs then drove for the clinching touchdown, going 73 yards in seven plays for a 35-10 lead as Liufau hooked up with Fields on a 27-yard pass for the score.

Colorado added another score late in the third period, driving 52 yards in seven plays with Liufau scoring from 2 yards out for a 42-10 lead.

The Wildcats finally ended CU's 28-point run with a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, going 75 yards in seven plays, with Samajie Grant scoring from 3 yards out. Arizona then scored again after a tipped ball resulted in a Liufau interception. The Wildcats went 33 yards in three plays and a Zach Green 3-yard run cut CU's lead to 42-24 with 12:11 to go in the game.

But, Colorado snuffed any hopes of an Arizona comeback when the Buffs went 54 yards in four plays for the game's final score. Lindsay scored his third touchdown of the night on a 34-yard scamper to push CU's lead to 49-24 with 3:34 to go in the game.

Liufau made his 36th career start at QB for the Buffs, a CU record. He eclipsed the old mark of 35, set by Darian Hagan.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to both 8-2 overall and 6-1 in league play for the first time since 2001 (in the Big 12 North under coach Gary Barnett) ... This was the Buffs' fourth straight win, their first four-game winning streak since 2002 when it won five straight; it was a second straight league road game win, the first since claiming three straight in the Big 12 over the 2004 and 2005 seasons (both also under Barnett) ... CU improved to 54-19 against unranked teams in November dating back to the early 1990s ... Colorado scored on its first possession for the sixth time in 10 games ... The Buffs are now 29-10 all-time with a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver, as Phillip Lindsay (25-119) and Shay Fields (6-108) accomplished the feat against Arizona ... The opponent has not scored on its first drive in all 10 games this season (and on just one of 10 to open the second half) ... Ryan Moeller's forced fumble in the second quarter extended CU's nation-best streak to forcing at least one turnover in 23 straight games (Alabama is next with 22) ... Colorado had four sacks — all on third downs, and now 29 on the year, a high in the MacIntyre Era (besting the 28 last year—which was in 13 games) ... OLB Jimmie Gilbert (2 QBS-16). He increased his season sack total to 8½, tied for the 15th most in school history and a team-high since Abraham Wright recorded 11½ in 2006.
