Hall Named Interim HC —

» Assistant Coach Cory Hall was named Oregon State’s Interim Head Coach on Monday after Gary Andersen stepped down as head coach.
 » Hall joined the Oregon State program in January 2016 after one season as the cornerbacks coach at Weber State. He has been the cornerbacks coach at OSU since.
 » Hall played safety at Fresno State from 1995-98 before being a third-round selection by the NFL’s Cincinnati Bengals in 1999.
 » A Bakersfield, Calif., native, he played six seasons in the NFL - four with the Bengals and two with the Atlanta Falcons. Hall appeared in 87 career games, including 70 starts, and made 193 tackles with three interceptions, two forced fumbles and seven pass deflections.
 » He has also served as the head coach at Clovis High School in California (from 2011-13). He was an assistant at Clovis from 2008-11.
 » Hall was a graduate assistant coach with the defense at Wisconsin in 2014 and a graduate assistant at Washington State in 2006.

Against Colorado —

» Oregon State has a limited history with the Buffaloes, holding a 5-4-1 lead in the series that dates back to 1931.
 » The teams had met just five times prior to Colorado’s entry into the now Pac-12. The 2013 matchup at Reser Stadium was the first game between the teams since a 28-21 win by Colorado in 1988.
 » The 2013 game was the first between the teams in Corvallis. Colorado had twice visited the state of Oregon to play the Beavers, but the 1931 and 1963 games (both Oregon State victories) were played in Portland.
 » Sean Mannion passed for 414 yards and six touchdowns, two each to Brandin Cooks and Caleb Smith, in the 2013 meeting. Mannion’s six touchdowns mark an Oregon State single-game record. And his total passing yardage ranks as the 11th-most at OSU.
 » Andre Harris’ 22 tackles against Colorado in 1988 is tied for the Oregon State single-game record.
 » Artavis Pierce ran for 61 yards and Seth Collins caught five passes for 55 yards in last season’s matchup, held in Boulder. Among returners, Brandon Arnold, Manase Hungalu, Jonathan Willis and Bright Ugwoegbu all had seven tackles. One of Willis’ seven tackles was for a loss.

OSU/Colorado Connections —

» Only one Beaver hails from the state of Colorado - Jalen Moore, who attended Denver East High School before transferring to Upland High School in Southern California. He was rated as the No. 3 safety in the state of Colorado during his tenure.

BEYOND FOOTBALL

Beyond Football aims to provide Oregon State Football student-athletes with an integrated, personally meaningful educational experience that provides them with a strong sense of self, understanding of civic engagement and the tools to succeed as productive professionals and global citizens.

Thanks to the generous support of an Oregon State alumnus, the Beyond Football program is redefining the model for student-athlete development by taking an individualized approach that supports the holistic development of our student-athletes. Focused on three central tenets—EMPOWER, ENGAGE and PREPARE, the program aligns with the team’s commitment to developing student-athletes who succeed academically, athletically and socially. Through unique programming and innovative curriculum, our Beyond Football program develops young men who are capable of translating their athletic experience into success in life beyond football.

THREE CENTRAL TENETS

EMPOWER

Encourage and provide opportunities that allow student-athletes to develop a strong sense of self and take personal ownership of their educational experience, growth and development.

ENGAGE

Foster an understanding of volunteerism and civic engagement and a multi-faceted, rich undergraduate experience.

PREPARE

Provide student-athletes and alumni with the tools and on-going support to acquire employment and succeed as professionals and global citizens.

Incoming freshmen student-athletes meet with Kayla Gross, Director of Beyond Football, upon arriving to campus. Freshmen meet with Gross bi-weekly during fall term to engage in programming focused on self-exploration, goal-setting and increasing familiarity with campus, team culture and resources.

Willis Whalen, Senior Manager of Player Affairs for the NFL Players Association presented on "Rookie Realities" of playing in the NFL during "Workshop Wednesday." Workshop Wednesdays are held weekly during the off-season featuring lectures or workshops on topics related to professional or personal development.

EMPOWER

The Beyond Football program takes an intentional approach to identity and character development by providing speakers and experiences that expand the worldview of our student-athletes. The program aims to meet the unique needs of each student-athlete by providing individualized support and quarterly one-on-one meetings with the Beyond Football staff to assess involvement and progress towards off-field goals.

(right) Former NFL player Freddie Scott presented on character and 'Habitudes' during Workshop Wednesday thanks to a new initiative and partnership with the NFL.

For more information or to support the Beyond Football effort, contact Kayla Gross, Director of Beyond Football, at kayla.gross@oregonstate.edu

Student-athletes volunteering 10+ hours

Thanks to a generous sponsorship from Unitus Credit Union, 12 children battling serious or chronic illness received the ultimate VIP wish experience through our Dream Come True program

The Coaching Staff and student-athletes contributed funds to fulfill the holiday wishes of two families with children battling childhood cancer in partnership with Children Cancer Association's Hope for the Holidays initiative. The Beavers shopped for, wrapped and delivered the gifts to the homes of the families.

The Beavers were inspired by the strength of a young patient during a visit to Doernbecher Children's Hospital

PREPARE

Encompassing experiential learning opportunities, networking trips, career preparation workshops and one-on-one LinkedIn and resume consultation, the Beyond Football program aims to identify and secure opportunities for student-athletes to acquire professional experience. Tailored to the unique career interests of each student-athlete, the program features an innovative new curriculum to ensure adequate professional development and tracks progress towards off-field goals.

Ten student-athletes embarked on a three-day networking and career development trip to San Francisco, Calif. in May. The Beavers met with executives from LinkedIn, Pac-12 Networks and the San Francisco 49ers and toured their facilities.

(right) Darell Garretson and Manase Hungalu were selected to attend NFL/Pac-12 Career in Sports Forum, a two-day event held at Pac-12 Network Offices in San Francisco.
