

Postgame Notes - UCLA vs. Colorado (Sept. 30, 2017)

Team Notes

UCLA Football claimed the 599th overall victory in school history.

The Bruins won their third straight home game to begin the season, starting 3-0 at The Rose Bowl for the first time since 2013 and for just the second time since 2006.

UCLA improved to 10-3 all-time against Colorado and 6-1 in Los Angeles, winning its fourth in a row in the series. The last four matchups have been decided by a total of 21 points.

The Bruins are 38-3 under head coach Jim Mora when leading at the half.

The Bruins have scored on 23 of 25 red zone opportunities this season, including all five tonight. UCLA has 18 touchdowns and five field goals.

Player Notes

Junior Josh Rosen, who became the first Bruin quarterback to record more than three 300-yard passing games in a row during the same season, made it four straight with 372 passing yards.

Rosen broke out of a tie with Cade McNown for 350-yard passing games in a season with his fourth. It was the eighth 350-yard passing game of his career, adding to his school record.

Rosen had a touchdown pass for the 14th game in a row to add to his school record. His first quarter score to redshirt junior tight end Austin Roberts was the 50th of his career to tie Tom Ramsey for fourth on UCLA's all-time list.

Rosen posted his ninth career 350-yard total offense game to set a new school record, breaking the deadlock with McNown and Brett Hundley.

Rosen threw for over 300 yards for the fifth time this season. He was already the first to post four 300-yard passing games in a row. He has 15 career 300-yard passing games.

Redshirt senior Darren Andrews caught eight balls for 96 yards, giving him 142 career receptions. He is tied with Sean LaChapelle for eighth in school history in receptions.

Redshirt sophomore tight end Caleb Wilson and sophomore wide receiver Theo Howard each caught passes for the eighth consecutive game. Andrews made it five straight with a catch.

Redshirt junior Jordan Lasley (seven receptions, 146 yards) posted his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and fifth of his career. His three 100-yard receiving contests in 2017 leads the team. It was his second 100-yard game in a row after recording 158 at Stanford.

Junior Soso Jamabo rushed 21 times (season high) for 70 yards and a touchdown.

Senior linebacker Kenny Young had 12 tackles, a season best and one shy of tying a career high.
