CU vs. WASHINGTON

GAME 4

BUFFS OPEN PAC-12 LEAGUE PLAY WITH '16 TITLE GAME REMATCH

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2017 • 8:07 p.m. MDT • Folsom Field (50,183) • Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 4 (September 18, 2017)

FOX Sports 1 (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

BUFFALO BITS ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (3-0, 0-0 Pac-12) begin their seventh year (already?) of Pac-12 Conference play by hosting the '16 league champion and No. 7 (AP)/No. 6 (USA Today/Coaches) Washington Huskies (3-0, 0-0 Pac-12) in an 8:07 p.m. kickoff at Folsom Field ... CU continues to receive votes in both polls and is just outside the top 25, but hasn't been in the top 25 in September since 2003 ... At No. 6 in the AP, Washington will be the highest ranked team to visit Boulder since Oct. 5, 2013, when Oregon came in ranked No. 2 ... A crowd of around 48,000 is expected for the game ... Colorado has opened 3-0 for the 41st time in its 128-year history, but for the first time since 2008 and just the second time since opening 5-0 in 1998 (3-0 also in 2004; the last time the Buffs were 4-0 was in 1998 – Rick Neuheisel's final year as head coach before moving on to Washington in 1999) ... Colorado is holding its annual Food Drive (partnering with Community Food Share) prior to the Washington game Saturday (see details on page 3) ... The Buffaloes are coming off a 41-21 home win over Northern Colorado, as the Bears hung around into the fourth quarter before CU sealed the game away with the final 13 points ... Washington toppled Fresno State, 48-16, also at home; the Huskies have outscored their three opponents by 114 points, or 38 points per game ... Colorado has won eight straight home games, it's longest string of wins at Folsom since claiming 10 in a row from 1993-95 ... After four straight games inside the state of Colorado's borders, the Buffaloes hit the road for the first time with a road match-up at UCLA on Sept. 30, the first of five Pac-12 road games in 2017 ... ESPN Game Day Radio cancelled out of the CU-UW game, as it was contractually obligated to go elsewhere ... Colorado is just two away from 700 all-time wins, as the Buffs own a record of 698-494-36 (.583 winning percentage), as the Buffaloes are 25th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A) ... CUBuffs.com/media as your one stop for everything, including our on-line media guide and live stats.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Blackout Boyz: CU's receivers have nicknamed themselves the "Blackout Boyz," mainly led by the four starters: seniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross and junior Jay MacIntyre. Those four against Northern Colorado combined for 26 catches for 342 yards (13.2 per), with four touchdowns and all 16 first downs earned in the passing game. It was the first time since Sept. 27, 2014 at California that four different Buffaloes have caught touchdown passes (when five did so in the 59-56 double overtime loss: Nelson Spruce had three while Bryce Bobo, George Frazier, D.D. Goodson and Sean Irwin all caught one).

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

In his 28 seasons as a coach, head or assistant, pro or college, this is the first time Mike MacIntyre is part of team that opened a season 3-0. He has been a member of several teams that started out 2-0 (which he has done three times at CU). As a player, as a freshman at Vanderbilt playing for his late father, George, the Commodores started 3-0 in 1984.

FOOD DRIVE AHEAD OF WASHINGTON GAME

The athletic department in partnership with Community Food Share is holding its annual food drive before this Saturday's Washington football game. Fans are encouraged to donate a canned food item to help fight hunger in Boulder and Broomfield counties. September is hunger action month, where people all over the country stand together with Feeding America and the nationwide network of food banks to fight hunger. It's a month to spread the word and take action on the hunger crisis, and dedicate ourselves to a solution.

Any factory sealed canned good is welcome but the most needed food items include peanut butter, canned meals, hot and cold cereals, canned tuna/chicken, canned vegetables, pasta and sauces, granola bars, etc. CU student-athletes and Community Food Share volunteers will staff donations bins on game day located at the the northeast, northwest, southeast and southwest gates.

TICKET UPDATE

To date, Colorado has sold 20,785 public season tickets and the maximum 11,500 student passes for a total of 32,232; that's well ahead of last year's final numbers (18,011, 9,890). For the Rocky Mountain Showdown, 27,464 public tickets were sold with students numbering 11,395 at the time, CU moved 38,859; 26 percent of CU's season ticket holders opted out of the Denver game in exchange for another game in Boulder. The increase of 2,784 season tickets over last year's total represents the sixth-largest increase from one year to the next since records are available dating back to World War II:

10,885	27,989 (1972)	17,104 (1971)	3,865	31,331 (1976)	27,466 (1975)
6,963	26,331 (1990)	19,368 (1989)	2,798	19,083 (1986)	16,285 (1985)
5,534	25,172 (2011)	19,638 (2010)	2,774	20,785 (2017)	18,011 (2016)

As for the student pass count, it's the largest since the maximum of 12,500 were sold for the 2008-09 and 2009-10 athletic seasons. CU will continue to sell season tickets through the Arizona game on Oct. 7 with assorted packages.

THE SCHEDULE ... THEN AND NOW

CU's home opener followed the CSU game against Texas State (Sept. 9), the first-ever meeting between the two and then the Buffaloes closed out non-league play in Boulder with the first game against Northern Colorado since 1934 (Sept. 16). Texas State replaced San Jose State on the schedule (who asked out in 2015) and that was after the Spartans had replaced Arizona State once CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011; UNC replaced a scheduled home game against Oregon for the same reason. Thus, Colorado's original 2017 non-conference schedule was: CSU in Denver, ASU in Tempe and Oregon in Boulder.

THE HEAVENS

The solar eclipse on August 21 was all the rage; for those wondering, the Buffaloes are 88-55-3 when any part of the United States has been fortunate to view a total eclipse of the sun (not partial or annular; 3-0 this year). Those previous years were 1900, 1918, 1923, 1925, 1932, 1943, 1945, 1954, 1959, 1963, 1970, 1972, 1979, 1990 and 1991.

➤ Colorado is also 38-15 when Haley's Comet is visible from Earth (1910-11-12, 1985-86-87), opening at 20-0.

300/100/100

Hard to believe, but last Saturday's game against Northern Colorado was just the 11th in school history where the Buffs have had a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver. CU did so behind Steven Montez (357 passing), Phillip Lindsay (151 rushing) and Devin Ross (143 receiving). For Montez, it was the second time he was involved in this type of offensive rarity and he joined Sefo Liufau and Mike Moschetti as the only Buffalo quarterbacks to be involved in multiple 300/100/100 games.

► The last four such occurrences have seen Devin Ross involved as the 100-yard receiver ... the only four 100-yard receiving games of his career.

LEWIS RECORDS A FIRST SINCE 1991

ILB Drew Lewis has become the first known Buffalo to record 10 or more tackles in the first three starts of his career since former CU great Greg Biekert did so back in 1990. Lewis opened up with 12 tackles against Colorado State, had 13 versus Texas State and 10 last weekend against Northern Colorado (all utilize coaches' film/video; CU does not use press box stats used by the Pac-12 and NCAA). Biekert actually did so in the first four starts of his career; 13 against Tennessee, 14 against Stanford, 20 versus Illinois and he posted 13 against Texas.

► In addition to him racking up the tackles, Lewis has been able to get after quarterbacks this year. His four quarterback hurries are tied with true freshman Jacob Callier for the most on the team.

GAME LENGTHS

The Pac-12 experimented in the non-conference season with a few shortened commercial breaks (a full 60 seconds cut from the quarter breaks), kickoff times 1 minute past the hour (instead of 7) and/or halftimes cut from 20 to 15 minutes; all these experiments took place in games on the Pac-12 Networks. The CU-Texas State had a reduced commercial format and took 3:01 to play, while the CU-Northern Colorado tried out the 15-minute halftime (the game still took 3:22 to play, largely due to 21 combined penalties and several replay reviews).

"STRIPE OUT FOLSOM"

This Saturday, the plan is to once again Stripe Out Folsom Field for a #SilverAndBlackAttack against Washington in this year's conference opener. One of the new trends nationally, CU is trying this for just the second time: fans who sit in odd-numbered sections are asked to wear grey or silver, and those in even-numbered sections are asked to wear black (as are all students and those in premium seating). Those interested in participating can find their section on the stadium chart to the left).

Colorado will wear silver helmets, black jerseys and silver pants, the first time it will be display the look in a game.

COLORADO & CONFERENCE OPENERS

In 123 conference openers in its history, Colorado has compiled an 80-41-2 record (a 65.8 winning percentage), including a 36-16-1 mark at Folsom Field (and 51-16-1 at home overall). Colorado was not a member of a conference from 1890-92 and did not play a conference schedule in 1905. Colorado was 7-8 in Big 12 Conference openers, as the Buffaloes started league play on the road six times in the final eight years it was a member of the league. In 63 conference openers in the Big Seven/Eight/12, the Buffs were 36-26-1 overall, including a 23-12-1 mark at home. CU is 2-4 in Pac-12 conference openers, its two wins both coming on the road, at Washington State in 2012 (by a 35-34 score) and last year at Oregon (41-38). The breakdown:

SIGNATURE CONFERENCE OPENER ANNIVERSARY GAME — 21st. Colorado scored on its first offensive play of the game and never looked back as the No. 12 Buffaloes cruised to an easy 24-10 win over Texas A&M in College Station in the first-ever Big 12 Conference game for both schools. It was just the third home loss for the Aggies over the last eight seasons, as things went CU's way from the start. Ryan Sutter (eventually of "The Bachelorette" fame) forced a fumble that the late Brandon Southward recovered on the A&M 28-yard line. It took one play for the Buffs to score, as the Buffs called for a reverse with Rae Carruth running around the left side for an easy touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Koy Detmer then connected with Herchell Troutman on a 50-yard play on a screen pass that put the Buffs up, 14-0, early in the second quarter. A&M would never have the ball again trailing by less than two scores. Detmer added another TD pass late in the half, connecting with current CU co-offensive coordinator Darrin Chiaverini on a 9-yard TD pass that put CU up, 21-7, at intermission. Detmer would pass for 246 yards and the two TDs as CU survived an Aggie offense that ran 97 plays — including 64 passes.

FOUR STRAIGHT IN THE CENTENNIAL STATE

The Buffs are playing their first four games of the season within the state, three of them being at Folsom Field. CU will not leave the state until week five when the Buffs play at UCLA on Sept. 30. The last season when Colorado played its first four games to start a year within the Centennial State was in 2001. That year the Buffaloes opened at home with Fresno State, played Colorado State in Denver in week two and then hosted San Jose State and Kansas at Folsom Field. Other seasons in which that has occurred was 1998 and 1978; both years the Buffs opened up with 4-0 records. The 2001 team opened up 3-1, the one loss coming to Fresno State. CU finished 8-4 in '98 and 6-5 in '78. Looking ahead, the 2019 and 2021 schedules have the potential to produce the same start. CU will open up both those seasons with three non-conference games within the state. The week four game both years will be determined when the conference schedules are set prior to the year.

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. WASHINGTON

Washington has won seven straight in the series to take a 10-5-1 lead; the Huskies lead 4-1 in Boulder, 4-3-1 in Seattle and 2-1 at neutral sites (two bowl games and the '16 Pac-12 championship game); UW has won all five games with CU as a member of the Pac-12 Conference. Arguably, the span of six games in the series (1985-2000) all had elevated importance, including the two bowl games (1985 Freedom, CU's first bowl game in nine years; 1996 Holiday). In 1989, CU traveled to Washington the week after QB Sal Aunese died from complications due to stomach cancer, building a 38-6 lead late in the third quarter en route to a 45-28 win. In 1990, CU's national championship season, the Buffs closed a non-conference gauntlet with a 20-14 win over UW in Boulder, thanks to Deon Figures' interception in the end zone to preserve the win (CU opened the year tying Tennessee, defeating Stanford, losing by a point at Illinois, and then rallying for a win at Texas; those kind of non-league schedules are sadly gone in college football). Then, in 1999-2000, the Buffs squared off against UW and its new head coach, Rick Neuheisel, who the Huskies lured away from the Buffaloes; both games were emotional and went down to the wire, with the Huskies claiming each, scoring late to break a tie in '99 to win 31-24, and holding off a furious CU rally a year later to win, 17-14, in Boulder. The schools split the first three games (1-1-1), with the tie likely being an ultimate bore: in Seattle in 1957, a 6-6 draw that was scoreless in the second half, both teams missed their PAT kicks, 14 punts, a total of seven turnovers, 4-of-15 combined passing and 449 total yards.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—Two Washington head coaches had Colorado roots; most recently, Rick Neuheisel, who succeeded Bill McCartney as CU's boss in 1995 and spent four years in Boulder (33-14 record) before Washington lured him away with a million dollar salary, and more importantly, a contract that he did not have at Colorado. Legendary UW head coach, the late Don James, was the late Eddie Crowder's defensive coordinator from 1968-70 before being named head coach at Kent State in his native Ohio; that was his lone stop between CU and accepting the reins of the Huskies.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 60th. In 1957, the Buffs and Huskies played their season opener in Seattle; the Seattle Times' Mike Donohoe had this for his lead: "Washington's Huskies and Colorado's Buffaloes opened the collegiate football season in UW Stadium Saturday with a game which virtually satisfied nobody except the nature lovers basking in Indian summer sunshine. They battled to a 6-6 tie." Though CU head coach Dal Ward had a different take in his weekly coach's letter: "It is a pleasure to talk about our trip to Seattle, in as much as it was an entire successful venture from our standpoint. Our boys played a fine game of football, and the entire squad spent an enjoyable day Sunday sight-seeing in Seattle." Of course, the NCAA no longer allows that to happen. CU was coming off its first bowl win, a 27-21 verdict over Clemson in the Orange Bowl, and Washington returned 16 starters and were among the favorites to win the then-Pacific Coast Conference. FB Leroy Clark scored CU's touchdown, while Dick Peyseno had UW's.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: SEPTEMBER 23

Colorado is 4-3 all-time on September 23, having reeled off four straight wins on the date. CU first played on the date in 1944, lining up against Fort Francis-Warren in Boulder playing the funky World War II schedules that were common (FFW won, 7-6). Some highlighted games: 1950—CU opened on the Big Seven Conference road for the first time losing at Iowa State, 14-7. 1967—CU improved to 2-0 on the season with a 17-13 win at Oregon, as the Buffalo defense forced nine Duck turnovers: senior All-American safety Dick Anderson had three interceptions to go with 14 tackles in the contest, as CU picked off six passes and recovered three fumbles in the win. 1972—The Buffs, ranked No. 3 in the nation (slipping a sport after waxing Cincinnati, 56-14), go on the road and thump Minnesota, 38-6. CU scored 24 points in the second quarter and amassed 352 rushing yards in the win, as Charlie Davis (15-119, 2 TDs) and Ken Johnson (14-44, 2 TDs) put on the offensive show for Colorado. 1978—CU spots San Jose State a 7-0 lead and uses third quarter touchdown runs by James Mayberry and Bill Solomon in working to a 22-7 win. Mayberry rushed for 168 yards, but did so on 34 carries as SJSU made him earn every yard; the Spartans set a record for most penalties and yards by a CU opponent with 18 for 176; both records still stand today. 1995—Backup quarterback John Hessler replaced an injured Koy Detmer and rallied No. 7 Colorado to a 29-21 win over No. 3 Texas A&M (see below). The Buff defense derailed the Heisman Trophy campaign of A&M star back Leeland McElroy, who gained just 52 yards on 23 attempts. Unfortunately, the date is also known in 1989 as the day senior quarterback Sal Aunese passed away from complications due to stomach cancer. The Buffs dedicated the season to him in going 11-0 in the regular season and ascending to the school's first No. 1 ranking in the polls before losing to Notre Dame 21-6 in the Orange Bowl. 2006—Colorado, winless in its first three games under new head coach Dan Hawkins, was faced with the daunting task of traveling to No. 9 Georgia; the Buffs brought Ralphie with them for good luck, and it almost worked. The Buffs held Georgia to just 284 yards of total offense and built a 13-0 lead, only to see the Bulldogs rally with two fourth quarter touchdowns, the last coming with 46 seconds left in the game to steal the win. Bernard Jackson ran for 85 yards and a score and passed for another 140 yards, while Mason Crosby made good on two field goals to account for CU's scoring.

SEPTEMBER 23 COLORADO MVP: Hessler. In subbing for Detmer, who tore his ACL, he completed 10 of 20 passes for 177 yards and a game winning touchdown to Tennyson McCarty that covered some 20 yards with 14:28 left in the game. He scored two touchdowns himself on short runs that rallied CU to 17-7 lead after falling behind 7-3 early.

THIS WEEK'S BUFFALO HISTORICAL NOTE / 1987

Thirty-years ago (1987), perhaps in a look to the future, CU opened its season with three game at home against Pacific-10 Conference teams. Very unusual historically for any school to play that many non-conference games against one league, it was actually the second time the Buffs did so, also playing three in 1982. In '87, the Buffs opened with a 10-7 loss to Oregon before bouncing back with wins over Stanford (31-17) and Washington State (26-17); the Buffs outgained all three opponents (actually holding Oregon to just 277 yards, but five turnovers derailed CU's hope for a victory (a late interception with 3:01 to play on a tipped ball sealed CU's fate). In '82, Bill McCartney's first year as head coach, Colorado lost to Cal in a rain-soaked opener (31-17), then defeated Washington State in Pullman (12-0), and then after a home loss to Wyoming, dropped a 34-6 decision to UCLA in Boulder (in that game, future CU head coach Rick Neuheisel appeared in some mop up duty in the fourth quarter, completing 4-of-8 passes for 58 yards, but was sacked twice).

PAC-12 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

WASHINGTON 41, COLORADO 10

DECEMBER 2, 2016

LEVI'S STADIUM, SANTA CLARA, CALIF.

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — Colorado lost starting quarterback Sefo Liufau for almost the entire first half to injury and the Buffs never found their rhythm in dropping a 41-10 decision to Washington in the Pac-12 Championship game at Levi's Stadium.

For the first time this year, a CU opponent took the opening kickoff and scored, as Washington went 65 yards on seven plays for the game's opening touchdown. The big play on the drive was a 26-yard run from Lavon Coleman, which put the Huskies on CU's 12. Four plays later, Coleman scored from 1 yard out for a 7-0 lead.

Colorado took the kickoff and drove into Washington territory before Liufau was injured on a quarterback sack. Montez replaced Liufau and two plays later, threw incomplete on fourth down.

CU's defense, however, returned the favor. The Buffs sacked Washington quarterback Jake Browning twice on the Huskies' next possession, including a fourth-down stop from Jimmie Gilbert and Timothy Coleman Jr. that gave the ball back to Colorado.

Montez then engineered a seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive to tie the game. He completed a 13-yard pass to Kyle Evans on third-and-7 to keep the drive alive and followed that with a 21-yard strike to Shay Fields to the UW 9. Two plays later, Phillip Lindsay scored from 3 yards out and Davis Price's PAT tied the game at 7-7.

The two teams then traded punts, but the Huskies came out with good field position after CU was forced to kick from deep in its own territory. UW then drove 56 yards (nine plays) for the go-ahead score with Jake Browning throwing a 15-yard pass to Darrell Daniels and the PAT gave the Huskies a 14-7 lead that held through halftime.

Liufau returned behind center for the Buffs to start the second half, but on CU's first play from scrimmage, a tipped pass ended up in the hands of Washington's Taylor

Rapp, who returned it 35 yards for a touchdown. The PAT gave Washington a 21-7 lead with 14:44 still to go in the third quarter.

Washington's defense then struck again, with Rapp notching his second interception of Liufau and returning it to the CU 25. Colorado's defense rose to the occasion and held UW to a 24-yard Cameron Van Winkle field goal, but the Huskies still held a 24-7 lead with 11:27 still to go in the third period.

The Huskies then extended their lead to 31-7 two possessions later. Moving from their own 40, UW needed just four plays to go 60 yards for the score. Browning completed a 19-yard touchdown pass to John Ross, throwing while in the grasp of CU's Gilbert to give Washington a 31-7 lead.

The Buffs finally managed to add to their point total on the ensuing possession. Anthony Julmisse returned the kick to midfield before fumbling, only to have the ball bounce directly into the hands of Lindsay, who caught it on the run and advanced it to the UW 2-yard line. A penalty on second down put the Buffs back to the 14 and they managed only 7 yards on the next two plays, but Colorado did salvage a Chris Graham 24-yard field goal to make the score 31-10 with 3:43 to go in the third period.

The Huskies then added a field goal and another touchdown to finish the night's scoring.

The Buffs were outgained 383-163, with the Huskies racking up 265 yards on the ground. CU's previous low yardage total had been 304 yards. The Huskies also won the turnover battle, picking off three passes, while Colorado saw its nation-leading streak of games with at least one defensive takeaway end at 25.

GAME NOTES

The Buffs are now 1-4 in league championship games (1-3 Big 12, 0-1 Pac-12) ... Colorado suffered its first loss and are now 2-1 when wearing their "White Ice" ensemble (all white: helmet-uniform-pant) ... Washington had two 100-yard runners; the last team that did that against CU was Oregon in 2015 ... The loss snapped a CU six-game winning streak, its longest since 1996 ... Both teams had just three penalties tonight; CU had just the three over its last two games ... CU ran just 54 plays, only the third time MacIntyre's 50 games the Buffs ran under 60 ... Colorado had a streak of scoring in 15 straight quarters come to an end in the scoreless second ... CU possessed the ball for only 21:26, its fewest since the 2010 season finale at Nebraska (20:30) ... The opponent had failed to score on its first possession in the first 12 games this season until UW's Lavon Coleman scored on a 1-yard run to cap the Huskies' first possession ... Washington came in outscoring its opponents 162-26 in the first quarter, but it was a 7-7 draw after 15 minutes ... CU held its last four opponents to under 50 percent passing in each game (9-of-24, 37.5 percent by UW; 60-of-143 over the four games (42.0) ... CU's nation's best streak of forcing a turnover in 25 straight games came to an end ... TB Phillip Lindsay finished the year with 47 receptions, a record for a running back at Colorado; His 102 points scored (17 TD) tied for the sixth most for a single-season in school history ... QB Sefo Liufau had a streak of 89 passes without an interception end.

MOELLER LAST YEAR VS. WASHINGTON

S/OLB Ryan Moeller in last season's Pac-12 Championship game against Washington posted a season-high eight tackles, two for losses and had a third stop for no gain. His two tackles for losses in that game are his single-game high for the 35 contests he has played in during his career.

MORE 2016 WASHINGTON REWIND

► Colorado last season held Jake Browning to 9 of 24 passing for 118 yards, but he threw two touchdowns and was not intercepted. CU sacked Browning twice in the game, but Washington ran for 265 yards on the Buffaloes (averaged 4.9 yards per carry). Browning is entering Saturday's game as the Pac-12 leader in passer efficiency at 191.6; he has completed 74.4 percent of his 78 pass attempts and has eight touchdowns against one interception.

► QB Steven Montez, who did not start the Pac-12 Championship game last season, was inserted into the lineup for the injured Sefo Liufau on Colorado's first drive of the game (on a third-and-13). On his first full drive, he led Colorado to its only touchdown of the game – engineering a seven-play, 55-yard march down the field. Montez was 2 of 3 on the drive for 34 yards, his big completion a 13-yard hookup with Kyle Evans on a third-and-8, and a 21-yard pass to Shay Fields that got Colorado inside the UW 10-yard line. Overall, Montez was 5-of-12 for 60 yards in the game and ran three times for 11 yards.

► Colorado and Washington's secondary's in last season's game were two of the best in the country – UW finished the year ranked 15th against the pass and CU 20th. Both teams had three players from their defensive backfield drafted. The starters or featured players returning from the two defensive backfields off of the teams are CU's Isaiah Oliver and Afolabi Laguda and Washington's Taylor Rapp. Rapp had four tackles in the game last season, one for a loss and intercepted two Liufau passes in the game, one that he returned 35 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage in the second half. Laguda posted 10 tackles, one for a loss and had one pass breakup while Oliver had two pass breakups in the contest and a third down stop.

► The Buffaloes were held to 2.8 yards per carry, and had just 82 total rushing yards in the loss to Washington last year. The 163 total yards were the fewest by Colorado since Nov. 3, 2012 when No. 15 Stanford held CU to 76 yards of offense.

D.J.'s DEBUT

New Colorado defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot joined some fine as well as rare company after the Buffaloes held Colorado State to just 3 points in his first game overseeing the CU defense. That was some 55 points fewer than the Rams scored in their opener in a 58-27 win over Oregon State). Since the defensive coordinator position evolved in the late 1960s, the three points by CSU tied for the fewest point Colorado has allowed in the first game of a new DC. Take a look:

END ZONE BLOCKADE

D.J. Eliot's defense made some history in his first season as CU's defensive coordinator: holding Colorado State and Texas State to one field goal apiece, it marked the first time since 1958 that Colorado had not allowed a touchdown in its first two games of the year (offensive or otherwise). In 1958, CU opened with a 13-3 win over Kansas State at home and then shut out Kansas on the road, 31-0. CU and Vanderbilt are tied for the second-fewest points allowed in the FBS with six, trailing only Air Force (which has allowed zero but has played just one game). The 123-plus minutes played this season were the fourth-most in the post-World War II Era that CU has gone without allowing a touchdown (offensive or otherwise); a closer look:

SWEET 16

Dating back to the start of the 2016 season, Colorado has held eight of 17 opponents to 16 points or less in 2016, including four Pac-12 foes; it had been awhile since the Buffs have accomplished these feats. The last time Colorado had as good of a 16-game stretch was over the 1992-93 seasons. Within one season, you have to go back to 1998, when CU held those same exact numbers (six and four) to 16 or fewer, except that the four league opponents were Big 12 Conference mates. The Buffs held seven teams overall to 16 or less in 1985 and 1991, and also held six teams to that in 1971, 1972, 1977, 1987, 1998 and 1998 (the best in the last 50 seasons is nine in 1967, when six Big 8 opponents were limited to 16 or less). Conference foes were held to 16 or less five times in 1985, 1993 and 1996.

SACK ATTACK

Colorado recorded six quarterback sacks against Texas State, (for 27 yards in losses); it marked CU's first six-sack game since Nov. 25, 2011 (six at Utah in the season finale); the last time the Buffs had more than six was in 2010 (nine at Iowa State). DE Leo Jackson III had three of those sacks, becoming the first Buffalo in seven years to record that many in a game; OLB Josh Hartigan had been the last to do it, with three for 20 yards in losses against Kansas State in Boulder on Nov. 20, 2010.

IN THE POLLS / SOME HISTORY

Colorado re-entered the national polls on October 2, 2016 for the first time in 11 years (since 2005), as the Buffaloes came in at No. 21 in the Associated Press (media) poll and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches ballot; while it lasted for just the one week, it was the first appearance since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs were No. 21 in the coaches' ballot and No. 22 in the AP survey. However, the Buffs reappeared three weeks later for the remainder of 2016. The Buffs own the ninth longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the fifth week of 1997, CU had a run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has now been ranked 302 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 307), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 12, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

45 WINS OVER AP RANKED TEAMS 20TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 45 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season (when the AP expanded to a top 25) are the 20th most in the nation in this time frame (28 seasons). Through games of Sept. 16, Alabama has the most (84), followed by Florida State (82), Ohio State (79), Florida (76), LSU (68), Michigan (68), Southern Cal (66), Oklahoma (65), Miami, Fla. (58), Tennessee (58), Georgia (54), Auburn (53), Oregon (53), Texas (53), UCLA (51), Notre Dame (50), Penn State (49), Clemson (48), Washington (48), Nebraska (47) and Colorado (45). All-time, Colorado's 68 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the sixth most ranked teams in the nation (130, with a record of 45-83-2), trailing only Florida (146; 75-70-1), Alabama 141 (84-56-1), LSU (140; 68-72), Michigan 132 (68-64-2) and Ohio State 132 (79-50-3); the runner-up in wins, Florida State, has played 128; 82-46.

- CU had lost 23 straight against ranked teams until defeating No. 23 Washington State, 38-24, in Boulder on Nov. 19; its previous win was against No. 17 Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 17, 2009 (CU, 34-30). CU's last win over a top 5 or 10 team was on Sept. 29, 2007 (a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in Boulder).
- Note: ASU State was ranked No. 24 in the USA Today/Coaches poll when CU defeated it, 40-16; but all historical records are solely against those teams ranked by the AP.
- The Buffs have still lost 27 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

FOLLOW UP: THE YEAR AFTER WINNING NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR HONORS

Looking at the previous eight national coaches of the year, they all came back with strong years to follow up their award-winning campaigns. The previous eight combined to win an average of 11 games the year after being named coach of the year, five finished the next season ranked inside the top 10 and two won national championships.

Year	Coach, School	Record the Following Year	Final Ranking the Next Season
2016	Mike MacIntyre, Colorado	TBD	TBD
2015	Dabo Swinney, Clemson	14-1	No. 1 (National Champions)
2014	Gary Patterson, TCU	11-2	No. 7
2013	Gus Malzahn, Auburn	8-5	No. 19
2012	Brian Kelly, Notre Dame	9-4	No. 20
2011	Les Miles, LSU	10-3	No. 14
2010	Chip Kelly, Oregon	12-2	No. 4 (Pac-12 Champions)
2009	Gary Patterson, TCU	13-0	No. 2
2008	Nick Saban, Alabama	14-0	No. 1 (National Champions)

DEFENSIVE CLIMB

Colorado's defense has improved greatly in each season under head coach Mike MacIntyre. Before he took over, CU gave up 488.5 yards and 46 points per game in 2012. After MacIntyre's first season in 2013, those averages dropped slightly to 38.3 points per game and 468.0 yards and have decreased ever since. Colorado, Michigan, Ohio, Ohio State, Temple and Washington State are the only schools in the nation that have dropped their total defense average each season since 2013, while New Mexico was also close to doing just that. Though it is early in 2017, the defensive improvement has still held true and CU, Michigan and Washington State are the three of these schools on track to drop their total defense average for a fifth-straight season (research courtesy of New Mexico SID):

School	2017	2016	2015	2014	2013
Colorado	317.7	342.5	416.9	461.0	468.0
Michigan	208.0	261.8	280.7	311.3	371.5
Ohio	372.3	360.2	377.7	394.3	405.8
Ohio State	401.7	296.8	311.3	342.4	377.4

School	2017	2016	2015	2014	2013
Temple	488.7	282.5	337.0	347.1	473.6
Washington State	299.3	405.9	416.8	442.3	458.0
New Mexico	348.7	394.8	437.4	519.0	516.2

I Dare You To Cross This Line: The Colorado defense has stiffened once the opponent reaches midfield. The enemy has run 50 plays in plus territory, for a net 163 yards or an average of 3.3 per play; Colorado State gained 63 yards on 29 plays (40 of those on two passes) and Texas State just 25 on 15; UNC ran just six plays in plus territory but did net 75 yards. The opponent has run plays in plus territory on 13 of 41 total possessions, and thus is averaging just 12.5 yards each. And the four times it has cracked the red zone (inside-the-20), it has run nine plays for a net minus-2 yards and has just two field goals.

LINDSAY LOOKING TO SHATTER RECORD

TB Phillip Lindsay went over 100 yards rushing for the eighth time in his career, as he tallied 151 yards on 26 carries with one touchdown, which was the 25th touchdown run of his career. He has now scored at least one touchdown in 14 of his last 18 games, including the Alamo Bowl, going back to the 2015 finale at Utah, and with 162 career points, he is now tied for 12th all-time at Colorado – with his position coach, Darian Hagan. Lindsay has moved from 10th into eighth on CU's all-time rushing list with 2,611 yards, passing Herchell Troutman (2,487, 1994-97) and James Mayberry (2,544, 1975-78). He is also second in all-purpose yards with 4,439, as he slipped by Eric Bieniemy (4,351, 1987-90). Lindsay is now just 390 all-purpose yards away from Rodney Stewart (4,828, 2008-11) for all-time at Colorado.

► Lindsay with 91 receptions in his career, needs three more catches to surpass Stewart's school record of 93 for the most by a running back at Colorado.

FACT: MOST EXPERIENCED PASS CATCHERS

One of the hot topics this offseason was the depth the Buffs have at wide receiver. Just how deep is Colorado, not just at receiver but the overall passing game? Of the 267 completions last season, all but three passes were caught by players who are returning in 2017 (reminder: CU's official statistics do not count bowl games). In case you are curious what three receptions are gone off of last year's team, they were by Joey Hall (for a first down versus Idaho State), Chris Hill (a TD, also against Idaho State) and Sefo Liufau (14-yard reception on CU's first play of the Michigan game). That figure ties with Wake Forest for the fewest number of receptions lost from any of the 128 FBS programs. However, Wake Forest RB Tyler Bell, who caught two passes in 2016, tore an ACL during spring ball and is expected to miss the season to the injury. Take his numbers out and CU would have the lowest number of receptions lost.

BIG PLAY SHAY AMONG PAC-12 LEADERS

Shay Fields continues to climb up on the Colorado receiving record lists. After his eight catches for 69 yards and one touchdown against Northern Colorado, he now has 163 catches for 2,186 yards and 19 touchdowns in his career. He moved up into fourth place (ahead of Paul Richardson) in receptions, leaped Phil Savoy for seventh in yards and now needs just one more TD to become the sixth Buffalo in CU history to catch 20 touchdown passes in a career. Among all active FBS receivers, there are currently five players who have 20 or more touchdown catches (29-James Washington, Oklahoma State; 24-Courtland Sutton, SMU; 22-Richie James, Middle Tennessee; 21-Anthony Miller, Memphis; 20-Cody Thompson, Toledo, and Dante Pettis, Washington).

THE PAC-12 LEADERBOARD IN (*—Carrington's numbers include his time at Oregon; he is a graduate transfer on Utah this fall):

TRACKING ISAIAH OLIVER

In three games this season, opposing quarterbacks have targeted the receiver Isaiah Oliver has been covering 30 times, yet Oliver has only allowed 11 completions. That means the Buffalo standout is only allowing a 36.7 completion percentage against. Oliver only allowed opponents to complete 43.1 percent of the passes his way last season, which ranked No. 2 among all Pac-12 returning cornerbacks.

Colorado State	15- 6- 1 (1)	.400	63	4	0	61.95

Totals	30-11-2 (1)	.367	166	6	2	85.15

Note: interceptions listed in parenthesis are interceptions by teammates on passes thrown at the receiver Oliver was covering.

WORTH(INGTON) THE WAIT

S Evan Worthington in two games has posted 20 tackles (17 solo, two for losses), his first career interception and he has two pass deflections and one third down stop. His eight tackles against Colorado State were one off his career-high of nine, which he recorded on Nov. 8, 2014 at No. 21 Arizona. In his true freshman year he played in 12 games with three starts and recorded 31 tackles. In 2015, he played in just three games on the defensive side of the ball and totaled only two tackles on the season. After sitting out 2016, he is off to quite the start to his redshirt junior season and currently ranks fourth on the team in tackles while playing in 118 snaps from scrimmage (Note: he was Evan White his first two years as a Buff, but took on a family name upon his return).

MORE FIELDS

A true deep threat, WR Shay Fields has nine career plays of 50 yards or longer (seven of which are over 60 yards); that places him third in the NCAA among active leaders. Only Oklahoma State's James Washington (12) and Toledo's Cody Thompson (4). A closer look at the FBS active career leaders with 50-plus yard receptions:

12 – James Washington, Oklahoma State

10 – Cody Thompson, Toledo

9 – Shay Fields, Colorado

8 – Devonte Boyd, UNLV

7 – Richie James, Middle Tennessee

6 – Christian Kirk, Texas A&M

6 – Anthony Miller, Memphis

6 – Allenzae Staggers, Southern Miss

6 – Jester Weah, Pittsburgh

5 – Jamire Jordan, Fresno State

5 – Josh Malone, Tennessee

5 – Clinton Lynch, Georgia Tech

5 – Demetris Robertson, California

OLDEST BUFFS

Aside from Stefanou, the next oldest Buff on the roster is DE Chris Mulumba, who will turn 25 in week seven of the season. Next up on the list is the only sixth-year senior on the squad, OT Jeromy Irwin, who is 24. Irwin, OG Gerrad Kough (23) and OLB Derek McCartney (turns 24 in late November) are the three remaining players on the roster who were signed by former head coach Jon Embree. Kough and McCartney both grayshirted in 2012 and joined the team in January 2013 when Mike MacIntyre had taken over the program. Irwin played in 10 games as a true freshman in 2012, redshirted in 2013 after breaking his foot doing yard work the summer before the season and was granted a medical redshirt in 2015 after suffering a torn ACL in the second game of the season.

Historic: The Buffs have had a few players in the past in their 30s, most recently walkon Matt Adinolfi, who was 31 when he was on the 1989 team.

OLIVER AMONG PAC-12 ELITE

After opening up the season with a career-high four pass breakups in the season opener against Colorado State, junior CB Isaiah Oliver followed it up in game two against Texas State with two more pass breakups and his first interception of the season (a highlight-reel pick at that); he added another pick against Northern Colorado. Taking a look at the Pac-12, he is tied for second among the active leaders in passes defended as he has become the 18th Buffalo in history to break up 25 or more passes in a career (and he has done so in just 29 career games). The Texas State game was his eighth career game with multiple pass breakups.

CAREER PASSES DEFENDED – PAC-12 LEADERS

Name, School	Cl.	Passes Defended (Breakups/Interceptions)
Arrion Springs, Oregon	Sr.	31 (30/1)
Isaiah Oliver, CU	Jr.	28 (25/3)
Iman Marshall, USC	Jr.	27 (21/6)
Darius Allensworth, Cal	Sr.	23 (21/2)
Marcellus Pippins, WSU	Sr.	18 (13/5)

Oliver, who is a two-sport star, has competed two seasons in the decathlon on CU's outdoor track team, and is a two-time All-Pac-12 performer in the event. As a sophomore, he finished fourth at the 2017 Pac-12 Championships with 7,394 points (just 136 out of the lead), and he won the 100-meter (10.82) and 400-meter (48.15) dashes and the long jump (24-1); placed second in the 110-hurdles (14.36) and the shot put (42-2) and third in the discus (121-7).

His father, Muhammad, was also a two-sport star in college. He was a world-class decathlete (an NCAA track All-American) at Oregon and was also a cornerback for the Ducks before being selected in the ninth round of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos and playing five seasons in the league with five teams (Denver, Green Bay, Kansas City, Miami and Washington).

2017 GAME RECOGNITIONS

Here is the list of those players who carried Colorado's symbolic artifacts when they took the field prior to each game; the sledgehammer is awarded for the toughest legal hit in the previous game (or in camp). The out of state flags were carried by natives of Texas and Florida as a show of support for the victims of Hurricanes Harvey and Irma:

Opponent	Toolbox	Sledgehammer	Colorado Flag	United States Flag	Other
Colorado State	C Jonathan Huckins	SS Ryan Moeller	OT Isaac Miller	ILB Trent Headley
Texas State	ILB Trent Headley	ILB Drew Lewis	CB Andrew Bergner	SN Brian Meek	C Jonathan Huckins (Texas flag)
Northern Colorado	TB Kyle Evans	S Evan Worthington	ILB Jonathan Van Diest	TB Phillip Lindsay	WR Johnny Huntley (Florida flag)

TOUGH TO THROW AT

Last season CB Isaiah Oliver ranked No. 2 among Pac-12 cornerbacks returning in 2017 in completion percentage against, as opponents connected on just 43.1 percent of passes targeted his way. Oliver got off to quite the strong start this year, as he only allowed 6 of 15 passes to be completed on him against Colorado State; that is just 40 percent and of the 15 passes thrown his way, 10 of them were when he was in coverage on CSU wide receiver Michael Gallup. Gallup has NFL potential and the week before in CSU's win over Oregon State, he caught 11 passes for 134 yards. Oliver broke up four passes in the game, setting a new career-high, and Ram quarterback Nick Stevens had just a 61.95 passer efficiency rating when throwing at Oliver (one of Stevens' passes was picked off by Evan Worthington when he was targeting the receiver Oliver was covering).

► Oliver's four pass breakups were the second-most of any player in week one (or week zero for that matter) of the college football season. Only Ohio State junior Denzel Ward had more. Ward broke up five passes and also had an interception for the Buckeyes in their win at Indiana.

JUST IN CASE YOU WERE WONDERING

... about the debut of redshirt freshman CB Trey Udoffia. The receiver he was targeted 15 times in the game (32 percent of CSU's Nick Stevens' pass attempts) and he allowed eight completions for 114 yards, but no touchdowns and he picked off one pass and broke up another two attempts. Stevens had a passer rating of 103.84 when throwing Udoffia's way. The Loomis, Calif. native finished with five tackles in his first game action in college football.

GAMBOA LEADING DEFENSE

Entering the season, junior ILB Rick Gamboa led all Buffs in career tackles with 175 from his first two seasons as a starter (he entered the year with 25 consecutive starts). He has since become the 71st Buffalo to record 200-plus tackles in a career.

ANOTHER WITH 10+

Senior S Afolabi Laguda stuffed his stat line in the season opener. The team captain finished with 10 tackles (eight solo stops), a tackle for a loss and he also forced and recovered a fumble. It marked the second game in his career where he was credited with a forced fumble and a recovery. His double-digit tackle performance was the fourth of his career, adding on to the three he posted in 2016 in his first year as a starter.

10+ IN SEASON OPENER

The last time Colorado had multiple defenders record 10 or more tackles in a season opener was back in 2012. That year Derrick Webb led the Buffs with 12, Ken Crawley had 10, as did Will Pericak in a 22-17 loss to Colorado State, a game also played on Sept. 1. In the eight season openers from 2012 through this year, only the 2012 and 2017 Buffs saw two or more players record double-digit tackles. That came after a four-year trend from 2005-08 where the Buffs saw multiple players record 10-plus tackles in the season opener.

EXPERIENCED UP FRONT

CU returned five offensive linemen who have started games in their careers. Of those five, three are seniors in Jonathan Huckins, Jeromy Irwin and Gerrad Kough, while the other two are now third-year sophomores Aaron Haigler and Tim Lynott, Jr. Those five combined for 82 starts and played in 5,862 snaps from scrimmage entering the season:

Player	GP	GS	Snaps from Scrimmage	Career Knockdown Blocks	Notes
Jeromy Irwin	36	26	1,906	69	two-year team captain
Gerrad Kough	31	23	1,446	33	was mid-season All-Pac-12 selection by ESPN last year
Jonathan Huckins	26	13	1,022	26	started three games in 2016
Tim Lynott, Jr.	14	14	940	9.5	freshman All-American last year
Aaron Haigler	12	7	548	4	played in 548 snaps last year

EIGHT STARTERS ON DEFENSE GONE ... BUT

Many have implied during the off season that with Colorado losing eight starters on defense, along with three of the four defensive coaches being new that the Buff defense could suffer a dramatic fall off from its banner 2016 season. But as Lee Corso would say, "not so fast, my friends." Because of the way CU has rotated players in and out of the lineup over past few years, there's plenty of returning experience: the 11 players occupying the top defensive spots on the mid-camp depth chart have played a total of 6,594 career snaps.

THE RISE ... FROM FOUR OR FEWER TO 10 OR MORE

Taking a look at the current landscape of the so-called Power-5 conferences (Atlantic Coast, Big 12, Big Ten, Pac-12 and Southeastern) and examining the history of those teams, CU's turnaround is up there with some of the all-time finest among college football's big boys. The Buffaloes became the ninth team among the Power-5 schools since 1972 to win 10 or more games after finishing the previous season with four or fewer wins (1972 was the year freshmen became eligible to play in NCAA Division I football, thus defining the modern era). (CU was just the 30th team to go from four to nine wins.) Here's a look at those current power-5 programs with the largest turnarounds since 1972 (conference listed after school name is the one it belonged to at the time).

MOST IMPROVED TEAMS ALL-TIME IN PAC-12 LEAGUE PLAY

Colorado completed the single biggest improvements in league record from one year to the next in the history of the Pac-12 Conference with its 27-22 win over Utah. Finishing at 8-1 in league play, that was a reversal from a 1-8 mark in 2015, or a difference of seven games. While those inside the CU program thought it could be done, after going 5-40 in Pac-12 play from 2011 through 2015, CU was picked to finish last in the South Division in the 2016 preseason media poll.

In Pac-12 history, there are just two instances where a school won seven or more games in league play than it did the season before, with Colorado joining the 1940 Stanford team as the only ones to accomplish the feat. Stanford's 6½-game improvement that year had been the best from one year to the next, with three others improving by five games; but at +7, this year's Buffaloes became the league's all-time most improved team. A closer look:

—LAST TO FIRST: Colorado is technically the first AND fourth team to go from “worst to first” in Pac-12 history. The Stanford and Cal teams did it, along with the '59 Washington team that was 1-6 in 1958 but went 3-1 in 1959 (the year Oregon, Oregon State and Washington State left the conference for up to five seasons). But in all three cases, Idaho was a member of the league those years but always played an abbreviated schedule (finishing 0-3 all three times).

MOST IMPROVED FBS TEAMS IN 2016

There have now been three seasons in school history where CU finished as or tied as the nation's most improved team. In one of the more dramatic turnarounds in NCAA history, CU went from 1-10 in 1984 to 7-5 in 1985, a 5½-game improvement, after the Buffs switched from a pro passing attack to the wishbone on offense. Then in 2001, Colorado improved six games, finishing 10-3 after going 3-8 the year before; in fact, CU just missed playing in the BCS Championship game by .05 of a point. This year, CU tied for the biggest jump over its 2015 record with five other schools; the Buffs also debuted as No. 15 in the first College Football Playoff Poll of the season, one of only two teams (with Nebraska) that had losing seasons in 2015. The most improved teams in 2016:

School	2015	2016	Diff.	School	2015	2016	Diff.	School	2015	2016	Diff.
Colorado	4-9	10-4	+ 5½	Troy	4-8	10-3	+ 5½	Wyoming	2-10	8-6	+ 5

GRADUATION REVIEW

(Through August 2017) Over the last 16 years, Colorado has had 286 of its 317 seniors graduate, or translating to 90.2 percent in this time frame (including 25 of the 31 seniors in 2016); these are the 2001-2016 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last eight years, 171 of the last 187 have graduated (91.4%), with nine of those 16 playing in the NFL and haven't yet been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren.

TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.58 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2017 semester is its sixth highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has 14 straight semester GPA's over 2.50.

CAPTAINS

On the Thursday prior to this year's spring game (March 16), the team met to elect their 2017 captains; head coach Mike MacIntyre has a two-stage process to select the captains, and the voting is limited to those players who have been in the program at least 18 months (one year if a JUCO transfer). Six players emerged from the process and were selected as captains of MacIntyre's fifth CU team: three who were captains last year: seniors TE/DE George Frazier, OT Jeromy Irwin and TB Phillip Lindsay, one who was in 2015, OLB Derek McCartney (when it was 12-man leadership group that rotated as game captains), and two first-timers: senior S Afolabi Laguda and junior ILB Rick Gamboa.

❶ In 2016, QB Sefo Liufau became the just the second player in CU history to serve three years as a captain, the first since Pat Carney did so 123 years earlier in 1891-92-93; Lindsay now joins that most exclusive group, having served as a sophomore in 2015 and last year as a junior.

❷ Frazier, Irwin and McCartney become the 11th, 12th and 13th players in school history to be named a captain twice; in addition to the trio of three-year captains, they also join these players selected twice: Harry Gamble (1894-96), ILB Barry Remington (1985-86), TB Bobby Purify (2003-04), QB Joel Klatt (QB, 2004-05), ILB Addison Gillam (2014-15), WR Nelson Spruce (2014-15) and ILB Kenneth Olugbode (2015-16).

❸ Lindsay is one of six players in the nation currently serving in his third year as a team captain; he's joined by Justin Lawler and Courtland Sutton (SMU), J.T. Barrett (Ohio State), Ja'Whaun Bentley (Purdue) and Lamar Jordan (New Mexico).

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffaloes rank on some of CU's all-time statistical charts two games into the 2017 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career numbers for players past and present will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ TB MICHAEL ADKINS is 40th in rushing yards (1,200).
- ⇒ WR BRYCE BOBO is 13th in receptions (109) and is 22nd in receiving yards (1,146).
- ⇒ WR SHAY FIELDS is fourth in receptions (163), is seventh in receiving yards (2,186) and is seventh in touchdown receptions (19).
- ⇒ ILB RICK GAMBOA is 70th in tackles (202).
- ⇒ TB DONOVAN LEE is 60th in receptions (46) and is 21st in kickoff return yards (586).
- ⇒ TB PHILLIP LINDSAY is eighth in rushing yards (2,611), is second in all-purpose yards (4,439), is 20th in receptions (91), 39th in receiving yards (751), fifth in yards from scrimmage (2,239) and is sixth in kickoff return yards (1,077).
- ⇒ OLB DEREK MCCARTNEY is tied for 27th in quarterback sacks (11½).
- ⇒ QB STEVEN MONTEZ is 21st in passing yards (1,875).
- ⇒ TB DEVIN ROSS is tied for 11th in receptions (111) and is 13th in receiving yards (1,344).

AHEAD IN A BIG WAY

From 2006-15, the opponent had almost always had a distinct advantage in TSL (time spent in the lead), but CU reversed that and then some in 2016 and is off to a good start this season. The Buffs led for 457 minutes and 20 seconds, or 59 percent of the time; opponents for just 24 percent and the score tied the other 17 percent. CU led for more minutes in 2016 than it had in all 11 previous years after just eight games (and when it held the edge over an entire season just twice: 2005 and 2010). A closer look, including the first three games of 2017 (bowl games not included):

EXPERIENCED UNIT UP FRONT

Last season the Buffs tied the school record with 500 yards of offense in six games, matching the 1994 squad. Can this offensive line help lead the current Buffs to challenge the all-time best units in CU history? Here is a look at CU's best seasons on offense:

CU Total Offense (Best Years)

Year	G	Yards	Avg/G	500+	Year	G	Yards	Avg/G	500+	Year	G	Yards	Avg/G	500+
1994	11	5,448	495.3	6	1996	11	4,973	452.1	4	1990	12	5,177	431.4	1

1989	11	5,201	472.8	4	2014	12	5,270	439.2	3
1993	11	5,175	470.5	5	2001	12	5,213	434.4	4

➔ CHASING 1994: With Colorado gaining over 500 yards in six games and averaging 446.3 yards per game in 2016, the Buffs were for a time challenging the school's previous best of 495.3 yards of total offense for a single season. That '94 offense featured the likes of the late TB Rashaan Salaam, QB Kordell Stewart and WR Michael Westbrook, among others, as all 11 starters from that team eventually went on to play in the National Football League.

Colorado is 15-6 under head coach Mike MacIntyre in games where it scores 30 or more points, including 7-0 in 2016 (7-25 and 3-4, respectively when held to under 30). Even including the Alamo Bowl, CU averaged over 30 points for the first time since 2001, when CU put up 396 total points, or 33.0 per game. The school record for points in a regular season remains the 452 scored by the 1989 Buffalo team was undefeated before losing to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl (as is the 458 total including bowl games). CU's all-time top scoring teams since World War II (minimum 30.0 per game; includes bowls):

Year	Points	Avg/G	W-L	Year	Points	Avg/G	W-L	Year	Points	Avg/G	W-L
1989	458	38.2	11-1	2016	435	31.1	10-4	1990	399	30.7	11-1-1
1995	444	37.0	10-2	1999	405	33.8	7-5	2001	412	31.7	10-3
1994	439	36.6	11-1	1971	370	30.8	10-2

HOME COOKING

Colorado won its 400th game in Boulder against Washington State last November (dating back to the 1890s on assorted campus fields); the Buffs enjoyed their first undefeated season at home (6-0) since 1994. The friendly confines of Folsom Field have been just that, as CU outscored the opponents 228-85, allowing just eight touchdowns (three on short fields). CU outgained the six by 3,025-1,532, with a 158-78 edge in first downs. Opponents converted at just a 24.2 clip on third downs (24-of-99) and crossed the 50 just 36 times in 90 drives (eight three-and-outs, running 144 plays for only 515 yards in plus territory).

700 CLUB ON HORIZON

Colorado has an all-time record of 698-494-26 (a .583 winning percentage), as the Buffaloes are 25th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-1). The Buffs are now two wins away from 700 and thus would be the 25th FBS program to reach the victory milestone; the top 30 in all-time wins:

100/300

The Buffaloes have historically done well when holding the opponent to under 100 yards rushing and under 300 yards total offense. Dating back to the start of the 1985 season, Colorado is 102-14-1 when the opponent fails to reach 100 yards on the ground, and 101-20-1 when the enemy is held under 300 yards overall. CU is 9-0 and 12-0 in each, respectively, in 54 games under Mike MacIntyre.

A COLORADO FIRST: THREE WITH 100-PLUS

Colorado is the only team in the country that has three receivers who currently all have over 100 career receptions. Shay Fields is the leader with 163, and he was joined during the Texas State game by both Devin Ross and Bryce Bobo as they surpassed the century mark (becoming the 15th and 16th Buffaloes in history to catch over 100 balls). This is the first time at Colorado that the Buffs have had three players on the same team to hit the century mark in receptions. Only two other times in CU history have the Buffaloes featured a roster that sported two players with over 100 career catches at the same time. It first occurred in 1993 when both Charles E. Johnson and Michael Westbrook surpassed the mark. Johnson finished that year with 127 career catches and Westbrook at 131. The second time was in 1996 when Ray Carruth finished with 135 catches on his career total and Phil Savoy 109. The 2013 team came close with Paul Richardson (156) and Nelson Spruce (99). Colorado is also the only FBS team currently that features three receivers all with 100 or more career receptions.

The interesting part is that the Buffs are close to adding a fourth on to the list; while the other three are all receivers, TB Phillip Lindsay is nine catches away from 100 for his career (he sits at 91, which is just two behind Rodney Stewart's 93 for the CU record for the most by a Colorado running back).

OLIVER SNAPS 11-YEAR DROUGHT; SHENAULT MAKES IT TWO IN EIGHT GAMES

CB Isaiah Oliver's 68-yard punt return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter in CU's 20-10 win over UCLA last Nov. 3 was the first punt return for a TD by a Buffalo since WR Stephone Robinson brought one back 81 yards against Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 22, 2005. In the game, Oliver returned five punts for 124 yards and was the first Buff to have over 100 yards in punt returns in a game since WR Josh Smith (4-108) against Eastern Washington on Sept. 6, 2008; it was the most yards since WR Roman Hollowell had 148 on six returns against Fresno State on Aug. 26, 2001. Then against Texas State this year, WR Laviska Shenault scooped up a fumble and raced it back 55 yards for a score – the NCAA officially terms it a punt return (and not a fumble), so thus, he made the list. CU's punt returns for touchdowns over the last 20 years (yards listed first):

LINDSAY TOPS 4,000 ALL-PURPOSE YARDS, JOINS 500/500 CLUB, AIMING TO BE FIRST 1,000/1,000

TB Phillip Lindsay has rapidly moved up CU's all-time all-purpose yards chart every season, and he's eyeing the top spot; he rose from 33rd to third last year alone with 4,029 yards at season's end. He has rushed for 2,611 yards, has 751 receiving and 1,077 in kickoff return yardage. He became the 14th player to join CU's 500/500 Club (rushing and receiving yards), and now has the third most total combined yards of the 14; he is gunning to become the first player in CU history to have 1,000 yards rushing AND receiving. AND LINDSAY MADE SOME OTHER HISTORY

When junior TB Phillip Lindsay had career-highs of six receptions for 105 yards in the 21-17 loss at USC on October 8, he made some history in the process. He became just the fifth running back to have 100-plus receiving yards in Colorado history, and the first to do it since 2001, when TB Cortlen Johnson had identical numbers in a 40-27 Colorado win at Iowa State. Then in the Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State, he did it again, becoming the first running back to have 100 or more receiving yards twice in a game. A look at this rare quintet of players:

Player	Date	Opponent	Score	No.	Yds	TD	Player	Date	Opponent	Score	No.	Yds	TD
Jim Haley	Oct. 25, 1930	COLORADO A&M	W 7-0	3	108	1	Phillip Lindsay	Oct. 8, 2016	at Southern Cal	L 17-21	6	105	1

Cortlen Johnson	Nov. 10, 2001	at Iowa State	W 40-27	6	105	1

- ▶ Lindsay rushed for a career-high 219 yards (on 26 carries) against Arizona State last year in CU's 40-16 win. It was CU's first 200-plus game since 2002 (Chris Brown, 211 at Missouri) and the 24th 200-yard game in school history. He became the 15th different Buffalo to rush for 200-plus in a game.
- ▶ He became CU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2010, when Rodney "Speedy" Stewart had 1,318 (with 10 touchdowns on 290 carries).
- ▶ His 11 receptions versus UCLA (for 76 yards) last year were a record for the most in a game by a CU running back; the old mark was nine by FB Lawrence Vickers versus Oklahoma State in Boulder on Oct. 9, 2004 (for 96 yards).

FIELDS: MR. DEEP THREAT

Senior WR Shay Fields has nine career plays from scrimmage that are 50 yards or longer; the school record is 13, set by WR Paul Richardson (2010-13). Fields last season averaged 16.3 yards per catch but is a little lower this year (13.5), as his long is “just” 44 yards. He rose fast on CU’s all-time receiving charts and currently has 163 receptions (fourth), 2,186 yards (seventh) and 19 touchdowns (sixth). Fields’ long-receptions:

75 at Arizona	2014	(Liufau; TD)	67 at Arizona State	2015	(Liufau)	60 vs. Colorado State	2016	(Liufau)
72 Arizona	2015	(Liufau; TD)	65 vs. Colorado State	2015	(Liufau; TD)	52 Utah	2014	(Liufau)
70 at Michigan	2016	(Liufau; TD)	63 Oregon State	2016	(Montez; TD)	51 Oregon State	2016	(Montez; TD)

Fields’ 19 career touchdown receptions have covered some 621 yards (19, 4, 2 and 75 as a freshman in 2013; 65, 8, 72 and 30 as a sophomore in 2015; 70, 7, 51, 33, 63, 15, 15, 27 and 6 in 2016; and 31 and 28 this season); that works to 32.7 per score.

► MOST YARDS AGAINST ONE OPPONENT: Last year, Fields had his second 100-yard game of the season and the fourth of his career at Arizona (6-108, 2 TD). He has now caught 19 passes for 370 yards and 5 touchdowns against Arizona in his career, the second most by a Buff against any team:

424—Paul Richardson vs. California (0 in 2010, 284 in 2011, 140 in 2013); 370—Shay Fields vs. Arizona (94 in 2014, 168 in 2015, 108 in 2016), 319—Nelson Spruce vs. California (140 in 2013, 179 in 2014); 318—Charles Johnson vs. Oklahoma (182 in 1992, 136 in 1993).

MONTEZ JOINS SOME ELITE COMPANY

Though just with six career starts (and a 5-1 record), QB Steven Montez has already tied a significant CU record: he joins Koy Detmer, Mike Moschetti and Sefo Liufau as those at Colorado with two career 400-yard total offense games. The list of all 13 games with 400-plus at Colorado:

LONG DRIVES

In the first two games of the season, Colorado marched 90-plus yards on a touchdown scoring drive. CU’s first was on its first scoring drive of the season, a 6-play, 94-yard drive that took just 1:30 off the clock and ended in a Phillip Lindsay 45-yard touchdown run. Last week against Texas State, the Buffs had a 9-play, 96-yard scoring drive over 2:44 that ended in a two-yard Steven Montez touchdown run. In 14 games last year, Colorado did not have one scoring drive of over 90 yards (its longest was 87 yards, which was done twice and both engineered by Steven Montez in the Oregon and Oregon State games). In Mike MacIntyre’s first four seasons at Colorado, the Buffs produced just three other 90-yard scoring drives.

Freshman WR Laviska Shenault became the 15th known Buffalo to score a touchdown on his first collegiate touch (excluding kickers, offensive linemen and defensive players), but statistically, it wasn’t an official touch. Against Texas State, he scooped up an Isaiah Oliver fumble after the latter had returned it four yards; Shenault then ran 55 yards for a TD to open the scoring in what would be a 37-3 Colorado win. However, the NCAA does not score it as a fumble return but views it as an extension of a punt return, thus he was credited with no return for 55 yards, much like a lateral is scored (full list on page 47).

MONTEZ /QUICKLY

Sophomore QB Steven Montez is now 5-1 as CU's starting quarterback with the team's 3-0 start this season. In the season opener against the Rams (having all spring and fall camp to think about it), he completed 21-of-29 passes for 202 yards (1 TD/2 INT) for a rating of 128.5. His 72.4 completion percentage was a career-best, as he was 7-of-11 on first downs (for 42 yards), 6-of-10 for 68 yards on second down and 8-of-8 for 92 yards on third down.

➤ His 5-1 record as a starter is the best by a CU quarterback since Mike Moschetti opened 5-0 in 1998 (he went on to be 5-1, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3 and 7-3); Moschetti was the last to open 6-1 (along with John Hessler in 1995, who went on to be 8-1 in his first nine games as starter from 1995-97).

TAKING THE WORLD BY STORM

QB Steven Montez had quite a debut as CU's starter subbing for an injured Sefo Liufau at Oregon (Sept. 24, 2016). In leading the Buffs to a 41-38 win, he arguably had the best first game as a starter in school history. He completed 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards (3 TD/2 INT), for a passer rating of 177.7 and also had 21 rushes for 135 yards (6.4 per), with a touchdown and a long run of 32 yards. It all added up to 468 yards of total offense and 23 first downs earned (8 rush/15 passing). He received seven different national and/or conference accolades for his efforts, as well as:

- He enjoyed the fifth-best game in a quarterback's first start at Colorado in terms of passing yards, but the best in total offense (see charts below).
- His 135 yards rushing were the most in a debut by a starting Buff QB (topping the 116 by Darian Hagan vs. Texas in 1989) and is the 10th most in any game all-time at Colorado by a quarterback (and the first 100-yard game by a quarterback since Nov. 4, 2006 when Bernard Jackson had 105 against Kansas State).
- His 468 yards of total offense were the fourth-most in a single-game in Colorado history.
- It was the first-ever 300 passing/100 rushing game in CU history and just the second 200/100 game (Stewart had 205/143 vs. Notre Dame in the '95 Fiesta Bowl).
- His 14 straight completions in the first half tied for the second-most in school history (trailing 15 by Mike Moschetti over two games in 1999); it matched the most in one game (Koy Detmer, 14 at Colorado State in 1996).

A FIRST BY MONTEZ SINCE 1959

QB Steven Montez became the first know player in CU history to throw a touchdown on his first career passing attempt since Joe Dowler did so back in 1959. Montez hit WR Kabion Ento on a 69-yard scoring strike in the second quarter last week against Idaho State. Dowler did so on Oct. 3, 1959 at Oklahoma, a 15-yard TD pass to Kirk Campbell in a 42-12 loss to the Sooners.

MONTEZ THE 12TH FRESHMAN AT COLORADO TO START A GAME AT QUARTERBACK

QB Steven Montez became just the 12th freshman in school history to start a game at quarterback at Colorado (the sixth redshirt frosh to do so). He had the second-most passing yards by a freshman in a starting debut at CU quarterback. A closer look at every freshman's first career start at CU (*—denotes redshirt freshman):

THE "RUSHING/PASSING" QB's

Montez is a two-way threat with his arm and his legs, as evidenced by being the first 300/100 player in CU history (300 yards passing/100 rushing in the same game). So we'll see how long it takes him to break into the below list of all-time rushing yards by quarterbacks (adjusted to allow for sacks; *—Anderson switched to tailback in the third game of the 1969 season):

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

Montez on his three primary receivers, seniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross: "It's like having three super heroes to throw to." Last year, the trio combined for 159 catches for 2,133 yards (13.4 per) and 16 touchdowns, and all three had at least 40 receptions, the first time in CU history that three wide receivers have made 40-plus catches in the same season. So far this year, the three have combined for 32 catches for 400 yards (12.5 per) and two scores.

MONTEZ CONNECTION TO CAREER HIGHS

An interesting note from quarterback Steven Montez's time on the field last year is that three wide receivers all had career-highs in games that he started. Devin Ross started the trend in Montez's first career start at Oregon when he caught seven passes for a personal-best 153 yards and one touchdown. The next week versus Oregon State, it was Shay Fields who went for a career-high 169 yards receiving and three touchdowns, which tied the CU record for most TD receptions in a game (all were in the first half, a new school record for TD catches in a half). In Montez's third and final start at USC, Bryce Bobo caught a career-high 10 passes. Eight of those were from Montez, as Liufau did complete two passes to Bobo in his limited action in the second quarter when Montez went down briefly with a minor injury.

MORE MONTEZ – SOME 2016 ANALYSIS

Analyzing Steven Montez's numbers in his three starts last season, he threw for 274.3 yards per game, completed 67.7 percent of his passes (67 of 99) and had seven TDs against three interceptions. Shay Fields was his most productive receiver with 19 receptions for 288 yards and four TDs on passes from Montez. Bryce Bobo caught 16-of-28 pass attempts from Montez that went for 154 yards and two touchdowns while Devin Ross caught 15-of-30 balls thrown his way by Montez for 211 yards and one touchdown. Phillip Lindsay had the highest percentage of catches in passes from Montez, an obvious feat coming out of the backfield, as he caught 14-of-17 balls for 153 yards.

MONTEZ AT FOLSOM

Steven Montez now in four career appearances at Folsom Field has completed 66.7 percent of his passes, has six touchdowns against just one interception and averaged 16.1 yards per completion. He has started in three of the five games (indicated by an *), and CU has won all five he has appeared in.

QB EXPERIENCE

As one would imagine with QB Sefo Liufau making 40 career starts over the past four seasons, the Buffaloes don't have a lot of "starts" by other players at the position. But research by our friends in Temple's SID department shows that CU ranks only 16th nationally in the fewest starts made by players returning at the position – 3 (all by sophomore Steven Montez). But he did appear in 11 games including the Alamo Bowl, and in his first career start was the first player in school history to run for 100 yards and pass for 300. A look nationally (games—total number of games played by returning quarterbacks, includes transfers):

30-YEAR OLD FRESHMAN

PK James Stefanou is the oldest freshman in the FBS this season, and the second oldest player overall; he signed with the Buffs on March 14 and came to the United States in July from Australia. He comes from a soccer background where he has elite level experience as a defender; he represented Australia on its U19 team, a youth progression team that is the feeder squad to the Olympic team. He also played professionally, most notably in two stints for South Melbourne FC, first from 2005-06 before he signed again with them in 2010. Stefanou got into football by training periodically over the past six years at ProKick Australia, an academy developed to assist in the transition to American football by providing the fundamentals of punting and kicking. Academy alumni include the last four Ray Guy Award winners: Tom Hornsey of Memphis in 2013 and three from Utah, Tom Hackett (2014, 2015) and Mitch Wishnowsky (2016). The elderly:

Age	Name, School	Position	Class	Birthdate	Hometown
30	Derrick Mitchell, Western Michigan	Punter	Jr.	1/05/87	Paw Paw, Mich. (played 10 seasons of minor league baseball)
30	James Stefanou, Colorado	Placekicker	Fr.	4/15/87	Melbourne, Australia (played 10 seasons of professional soccer)

27	Tyler Stovall, Auburn	Long Snapper	Sr.	12/27/89	Hokes Bluff, Ala. (played four seasons of minor league baseball)

Stefanou made his first collegiate field goal attempt (39 yards) against Colorado State; he's 6-of-7 through three games (and has made his last five). Here are the best starts with just a single miss in CU field goal history (Flores owns the school record for the most consecutive field goals made to start a career with 7; Aldrich is next with 6:

KINNEY COMING OF AGE

P Alex Kinney, CU's nomination for the Ray Guy Award, is off to the best start of his career. Through three games, he's averaging a healthy 43.8 yards per punt, and that figure has been affected by four of his 15 kicks coming in opponent territory. His net is 40.5, where he has made the greatest strides, up from 38.1 his freshman year and 35.4 as a sophomore. Six of his 11 kicks have landed inside-the-20 (four inside-the-15), and he got off his career long of 70 yards against Texas State. A look at his expanded punting numbers:

PRICE MADE MARK AS A FROSH

PK Davis Price joined the team as a recruited walk-on in June 2016, and wound up seeing action as a true freshman due to a season-ending injury in the Michigan game to Diego Gonzalez. He was first pressed into service as the kickoff specialist at Oregon in game four, and the next week, he was promoted into the first-team role the next week for Oregon State. He responded by making all five of his extra point tries and both of his field goals, including a 54-yard boot on his first try, the CU record for both the longest made by a freshman and the longest first-career make. He was recognized for his performance as the Pac-12's Special Teams Player of the Week; the 54-yarder was the longest by a freshman in the NCAA in 2016 and tied for the fourth-longest overall.

► A FIRST? It was for sure for CU: United Airlines provides the team charter for CU's travel, and for the USC trip, the pilot was Doug Price — Davis' father. A CU graduate himself, he is an Air Force Veteran who has been flying for United for 20 years; he normally flies military charters bringing troops back home from overseas.

100+ RETURN YARDS NOT THAT COMMON

Often lost in all the conversation about total offense and defense are return yards — but they often swing a game. This year, CU already owns a 167-53 edge (116-9 versus Texas State, 11-0 against CSU). The 116 yards against TXST marked just the fourth time since 2002 that the Buffs recorded over 100 returns yards in a game (and just the second time against an FBS foe). Last year, CU had 175 against UCLA in its 20-10 win, and they played a huge role, accounting for one touchdown via punt return and setting up CU's lone offensive score via an interception return. It was the most return yards by the Buffs since Oct. 26, 2002, when they had 183 in a 37-13 win over Texas Tech (125 interception, 44 punt, 14 fumble). The other two games with 100-plus came in 2008 against Eastern Washington (135) and in 2013 against Central Arkansas (125).

EARLIEST CAMP START IN PROGRAM HISTORY

With the NCAA eliminating two-a-day sessions but keeping the preseason practice count at 29, CU, no doubt like many schools, had its earliest reporting date and practices in program history. Players officially reported Friday (July 28), and began practicing the next day. The previous earliest reporting date was July 31 in 1990 and 2001 (ahead of games on August 26); the earliest practice was on August 1 in those years (at the time for just the newcomers in 1990 but for the full squad in '01).

ROAD NOTES

3-2: Colorado finished the 2016 season with a 3-2 mark in true road games, its first time with a winning record in opponent stadiums since a similar mark in 2004, and nearly matched CU's road win total over the previous eight seasons (4-40). The Buffs also won back-to-back league games on the road (at Stanford, at Arizona) for the first time since winning three straight in the Big 12 over the 2004 (at Kansas, at Nebraska) and 2005 (Oklahoma State) seasons.

25: The Buffaloes' 49-24 win at Arizona on Nov. 12 (by 25 points) was its largest away from home since Oct. 1, 2005, when CU shutout Oklahoma State in Stillwater, 34-0. The only other larger margin of victory on the road thus millennium came in 2003, a 44-10 win at Iowa State.

CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED CHART

The players on the opening camp roster collectively have played in 1,027 games (the third-most by a returning team in school history), with 313 starts (fifth-most). Both all-time highs for any returning Colorado team occurred last year: 1,072/412. The numbers in Mike MacIntyre's other seasons: 824/327 (2015), 904/314 (2014) and 896/268 (2013). The list through three games in 2017 (includes the '16 Alamo Bowl):

HEAD COACH MIKE MacINTYRE

Mike MacIntyre is in his fifth season as the head coach of the University of Colorado football program, and his seventh season as a collegiate head coach; he has a 23-31 record at Colorado and is 39-52 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. Now a veteran coach of 27 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his late father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ MacIntyre, 51, has coached in a total of 347 football games in his career (91 as a head coach): 188 in NCAA Division I (and another 23 as a grad assistant at Georgia); 82 as a full-time assistant coach in the National Football League; 54 in NCAA Division I-AA (at the time).
- ◆ He became just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins. Rick Neuheisel was the last to do both (in 1995).
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received by Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:
Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;
Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;
Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;
Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game (in both 2013 and 2014). MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On players having to be ready at a moment's notice to go into the game: "It's the only game in the world where you have 100 guys on the side watching just eleven in the game at any one time. So you're like the dog sitting on the porch. When that rabbit runs by, you've got to be ready to go."
- ◆ On playing music at practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ Unhappy that he had gained weight since college, slowly adding one or two pounds here and there over the years, he decided to do something about it. In early 2014, he read the book, Why Diets Fail Us; he started to eat much healthier, consume one or two nutrition-rich shakes a day (as replacement meals) and increased his workout regimen. The end result was that after six months, he dropped 63 pounds (he now weighs 180, what he did as a collegian).
- ◆ MacIntyre is a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll for third straight year and fourth time overall; coaches are selected by a random draw (he is one of six Pac-12 voters). CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 27 of the last 30 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million. He received a one-year extension through 2018 in February 2014, and in January 2017, he signed a new agreement for five years (through 2021) for $16.25 million (3.1 for the 2017 season with modest increases each year).

- ♦ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ♦ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.

MACINTYRE 2016 CONSENSUS COACH OF THE YEAR

The avalanche of honors all started late last November when Mike MacIntyre was named the Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year, CU's first as a member of the league it joined in 2011, and the first since Gary Barnett won it for the Big 12 in 2004. Then the National Coach of the Year awards started to roll in, and when all was said and done, he captured eight of the 10 earning the honor from: the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Bobby Dodd, ESPN/Home Depot, FWAA/Eddie Robinson, American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), SB Nation and Scout.com; he was as well a finalist for the other two, the Bear Bryant and Maxwell Club awards. He also earned the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year honor and the group's inaugural Comeback Coach of the Year Award. The Colorado Sports Hall of Fame presented him with its "King of the Hill" honor for all sports within the state for 2016. MacIntyre joined Bill McCartney as CU's only national coaches of the year, as "Mac I" was the unanimous selection for the 1989 season.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MacINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

THE CLASS OF '13

Ahead of the 2013 season, 31 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 14 of whom (denoted by an *) were first-time head coaches on the collegiate level. Here's a look at the remaining 15 coaches that make up the "class of 2013" and their records through games of September 16:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat, secondary coach ShaDon Brown, co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach Darrin Chiaverini, offensive line coach Klayton Adams and running backs coach Darian Hagan. In the coaches booth are co-offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, tight ends/H-backs coach Gary Bernardi and inside linebackers coach Ross Els. Three of the four graduate assistants are also in the press box: John Hughes and Peter Tuitupou (offense) and Chidera Uzo-Diribe (defense); Matt Daniels is on the field. Colorado signals in plays when not brought in by substituting players on offense (signal on defense).

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 89 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including three active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Mike MacIntyre and his oldest son, Jay; Colorado is one of a handful of schools to have it happen twice, as Dan Hawkins had son Cody on his CU teams from 2007-10.

Perhaps the most famous and best head coach father and son tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career).

Note: Marshall had a famous combo when it was a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

A FIRST? We polled the nation on two occasions, and no other instance has yet to turn up where a head coach had his father as a head coach in college and then had a son on a team that he is the head coach. But that appears to be the case with Mike MacIntyre, who was coached by his father George at Vanderbilt in 1984-85 and is now coaching his son, Jay, a junior at Colorado.

There are currently nine schools where a player is playing for his head coach father, and in one case, two sons are (Iowa State). Here's a look at the all-time list of known head coaching father-player son pairings at the same school (#—denotes active in 2017):

While this is the second time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

2017 COACHING CHANGES

There are four new members of CU's coaching staff: D.J. Eliot, defensive coordinator/outside linebackers (replaces Jim Leavitt, who coached all the LBs); ShaDon Brown (secondary, replaces Charles Clark and Joe Tumpkin, who coached the corners and safeties, respectively); and Ross Els (outside linebackers). In addition, Matt Daniels joins the ranks as an offensive graduate assistant, replacing Corey Edsall, who took a full-time position at Connecticut coaching tight ends under his father.

➔ The CU staff has remained intact twice since Bill McCartney's 1988 and 1989 teams, in 2011-12 (under Jon Embree) and 2013-14 (under MacIntyre).

FIFTH YEAR USUALLY A WINNER

MacIntyre is now the 10th coach in CU history (out of 25 full-time) who is coaching the team for a fifth consecutive season; he became the eighth of the 11 to lead CU to a winning season in their fourth year. He matched the 1985 Buffaloes under Bill McCartney for the most dramatic fourth-year by a coach in the program; both teams had a +5½ game improvement over the previous year and both ended long bowl droughts. The 1985 team went 7-5 after the previous six CU teams went 7-25-1. The 2016 Buffs went 10-4, matching the team's win total over the previous three years (10-27), and went 8-1 in league play (CU was 7-46 the previous six years). A look at Colorado's 10 coaches who coached the Buffs at least five straight years:

Head Coach	Inaugural Season	1st Yr Record	2nd Yr Record	3rd Yr Record	4th Yr Record	5th Yr Record	Notes
Fred Folsom.....	1895	5-1	5-0	7-1	4-4	7-2	Folsom would have a second run of four-plus straight years (1908-15)
Myron Witham.....	1920	4-1-2	4-1-1	4-4	9-0	8-1-1	Two-year record of 17-1-1 remains best in school history (next best: 22-2-1 in 1989-90)
Bunny Oakes	1935	5-4	4-3	8-1	3-4-1	5-3	After an 0-3 start, Buffs rebound to win five in a row to close season
Dal Ward	1948	3-6	3-7	5-4-1	7-3	6-2-2	The game of this year was a 21-21 tie with No. 4 Oklahoma; OU's only blemish in league play over 11 seasons
Eddie Crowder.....	1963	2-8	2-8	6-2-2	7-3	9-2	Colorado zooms to No. 3 in the nation after 5-0 start; win second bowl game in program history
Bill Mallory	1974	5-6	9-3	8-4	7-3-1	6-5	Buffs ascend to No. 13 ranking nationally with 5-0 start (for second straight year), but drop five of six
Bill McCartney	1982	2-8-1	4-7	1-10	7-5	6-6	After opening 0-4 (three losses by eight points), Buffs rally to finish 6-1 in Big 8 (with win over No. 3 NU)
Gary Barnett	1999	7-5	3-8	10-3	9-5	5-7	Buffs would rebound to win the Big 12 North Division in his sixth and seventh years
Dan Hawkins	2006	2-10	6-7	5-7	3-9	3-6	He was relieved of head coaching duties with three games remaining in season
Mike MacIntyre	2013	4-8	2-10	4-9	10-4	3-0	His '16 Buffs were the third team in CU history to post a winning record in Year 4 after a sub-.500 Year 3

COACH AT COLORADO ... LAND A MEDIA GIG POST-CAREER

Four of the last five CU head coaches all have or have had media gigs. Rick Neuheisel (1995-98) was a studio host on the Pac-12 Network for the network's first three years before moving on to CBS in 2015 (he also co-hosts a daily show on SiriusXM College Sports (Ch 84); Gary Barnett (1999-2005) is an occasional analyst on Sports USA Radio and is the analyst on CU's KOA-Radio broadcasts; and Dan Hawkins (2006-10) was an analyst for ESPN before taking over as head coach at UC Davis in 2017. And even Bill McCartney (1982-94) hosted a radio show in 2012 on 102.3 FM in Denver.

JEFFCOAT ON PAC-12 ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Two CU assistant coaches earned finalist status for the Pac-12 All-Century team announced in 2015, with defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat named to the final team as one of five defensive ends for accomplishments at Arizona State as a player. Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

BUFF ALUMNI IN THE FBS COACHING RANKS: Brad Bedell ('99), OL, Arkansas State; Ronnie Bradford ('92), DB, USC; Jason Burianek ('02), HC, Missouri Baptist; Cedric Cormier ('01), WR, UNLV; Rich Fisher ('92), WR, Nebraska; David Gibbs ('90), DC, Houston; Chris Naeole ('96), Interim HC/OL, Hawaii; Anthony Perkins ('11), CB, Ohio; Rod Perry ('75), DB, Oregon State; Pete Shinnick ('86), HC, West Florida; Steve Stripling ('76), Assoc. HC/DL, Tennessee; Ryan Walters ('08), DB, Missouri. IN THE FCS: Brian Cabral, AHC/DC ('78), Indiana State; Paul Creighton ('03), UC Davis, TE; Ty Gregorak ('99), DC/LB, Montana; Parker Orms ('13), GA/CB, West Georgia; Anthony Perkins ('11), DB, Indiana State; Jeff Smart ('09), LB, Penn. AND DOWN I-25 AT CSU-PUEBLO: Donnell Leomiti ('95), DB.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes finished their 127th season of competition having played 1,228 games with an all-time record of 698-494-36. CU currently stands 25th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (.583; the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 128 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,235), with only USC (826) and Washington (718) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 403-189-16 (.676) all-time and 311-169-10 (.645) in their 94th season on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 6-7 all-time in overtime games (3-4 at home); the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last 10 seasons, Buffs rallied to win from 10 or more points down 12 times, including twice under Mike MacIntyre, including rallying from its largest deficit ever against CSU. In 2014, UMass was up by 11 early in the second half after cashing in on a pick-six. Two of the rallies came from 17 down: in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Eight have taken place in Boulder, a ninth (the first one) in Denver against CSU, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 41 occasions (and are 31-10 in games when this occurs). It's happened once this year, against Northern Colorado (TB Phillip Lindsay/WR Devin Ross as the duo just missed one becoming the first to do 150/150). Since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011, it has happened 10 times overall (once each in 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 and four times in 2016). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 197 of the 2017 CU Information Guide & Record Book supplement.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2016 was 279,652, an average of 46,609 for six home games, over 7,220 more than CU's 2015 average. It marked the 22nd straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 40th time in the last 42 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count in 2016 was just under 27,000 when adding in 9,200 student holders to 17,500 public tickets (student tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2016, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 51st straight year, ahead of Air Force (29,586; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965) and Colorado State (27,600); all had six games. The Broncos averaged 76,744 fans per game in 2016; the Rockies are averaging 36,693 this summer (70 games, Sept. 4).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 580 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford. Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 56 straight games overall; last shutout was at home against Stanford on Nov. 3, 2012 (a 48-0 loss).
- CU has scored in 160 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 316 games (all the way back to 1963).

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 40-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 239 of 270 times, losing 28 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 34 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were last year, in the 38-31 loss to Arizona (led 24-17 entering the fourth) and in the 35-31 loss at UCLA (CU took a 31-28 lead early in the fourth); CU lost four games in 2014 where it had small fourth quarter advantages. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 124 of its last 145 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 38 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent was the 41-38 win at Oregon on Sept. 24; CU had led most of the game but Oregon went ahead, 38-33, late in the third quarter. But a Steven Montez to Bryce Bobo 31-yard TD pass (and the two connecting again on the two-point conversion) were the only points in the fourth quarter and CU held the Ducks off for the win. Two of the biggest ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

INJURIES DOWN AFTER 2015 COUNT SIXTH-WORST IN LAST 30 SEASONS

The injury bug hit the Buffs in 2015, as 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. The injury bug avoided Mike MacIntyre's first two teams for the most part, but last year ('15) was a different story: the Buffs lost 93 full games from players who figured in the two-deep (or those who regularly rotated in at the skill positions), and 120 games overall by the entire team. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 29 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

*—man-games for 2-deep include PK spot.

Dating back to 1987, only 10 times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-2016 Record	Mike MacIntyre Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-55-2	8-23-1	0-4	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-92-3	14-38-2	0-5	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney

versus Top 25.....	71-162-3	45-83-2	2-14	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (bowls included) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-league ranked foes from 1996-2010.

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 84-43 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 82-46-1 in its last 129 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 552-277-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

SIXTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 16 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Sophomore ILB Rick Gamboa is the latest to join the club, snaring a batted pass and returning it 20 yards for a score against Oregon State on Oct. 1. ILB Kenneth Olugbode had the previous one, racing 60 yards for a score with his first pick in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State in 2015. That was the first in eight years, however, as the one previous came in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. Prior to that may have been the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

➤ And two did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998) and Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

The longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (he would miss the final six games of the season). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games this season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (552 at the time) and Bill Hillgrove, Pittsburgh (535) had called more games than Zim, who was tied for fourth in the number of years calling major college football for the same team (42nd season) behind Robertson (49th), Hillgrove (46th) and Don Fischer, Indiana (43rd; South Carolina's Tommy Suggs was also in his 42nd year). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home). SID Dave Plati has worked 449 overall, including the last 407 (dating to the '83 finale); Darian Hagan, in his second stint as an assistant coach, has been a part of 237 (91 as an assistant coach, 62 as a football staff member, 35 as the Alumni C-Club director and 49 as a player); and Gary Barnett, now an analyst with KOA, has worked 212 (106 as an assistant coach, 87 as head coach and 19 on the radio). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games – since 1940 (they're 92). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 45th year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 18th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 23 seniors on its 2017 roster, and if history holds, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season. In 2016, 28 teams scouted the Buffs in person at games, and thus far in 2017, nine teams have: Baltimore, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Indianapolis, L.A. Rams, Philadelphia, San Francisco and Tampa Bay. Not including camps or practices, 863 scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites). At the 2016 UCLA game in Boulder (Nov. 3), a record for a CU game occurred as there were 31 scouts from 20 teams were in attendance for the game.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 13 former Colorado Buffaloes on the 2017 National Football League as of Sept. 17, four more than at the end of 2016. Colorado has had 242 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 270 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and the 22nd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th (29); nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; i—on injured reserve/physically unable to perform; p—practice squad):

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 29 of 41 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) is the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseason combined; he set the record with a 21-yard field goal late in the Packs' 27-17 win over Seattle on Sept. 20, 2015, his 13th point of the night (he made all four field goal tries in the game, including a 54-yarder, and an extra point). He now has scored 1,277 points in 162 regular season games and 137 in 18 playoff games for a total of 1,414 (through Sept. 17; he also made an NFL record 23 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks (264 regular season, 26 postseason); Ryan Longwell previously owned all marks (1,054/226 and 85/15). Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points.

➔ How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawai'i (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,384/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349), WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary in August 2015.

A LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS HAVE RISEN TO FIRST-TEAM AT COLORADO

After the NCAA reduced the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (37 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

Willie Beebe	FB	1978	4L	Solid blocker who scored nine career touchdowns as a bruiser near the goal line

THE VERTICAL GAME ... RETURNING?

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 57 "explosion" plays in 2016, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that's the most by a CU team since 2007. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, not including bowls, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

BUFFS ON ESPN'S GAMEDAY

Colorado has hosted ESPN's College GameDay three times (Sept. 23, 1995 vs. Texas A&M, Oct. 28, 1995 vs. Nebraska, Sept. 14, 1996 vs. Michigan); the Buffs have been the visiting team on three occasions as well (Oct. 29, 1994 at Nebraska, Sept. 30, 1995 at Oklahoma, Sept. 13, 1997 at Michigan).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 317-23-1 when scoring 30 or more points (6-0 in 2016), along with records of 229-8 with 35-plus points and 212-6 with 36-plus, 188-4 with 38-plus and 119-2 with 43 or more tallies. The six losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012) and California (59-56 in 20T in 2014). CU has played 1,228 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 115-106-3 in its last 224 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 13-41 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 143 of its last 338 games, posting a 124-18-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 221 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 27-97-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. But the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2013, in MacIntyre's first season, the Buffs had their best average on first down in years: CU averaged 5.83, their best since 2001 (6.7). In 2014, the average was 5.36 and last year climbed back to 5.76.
 - ➔ In 2016, the Buffs are averaging 5.98 per first down play (395 of them); CU hasn't averaged six or more yards since 6.7 in 2001.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 60 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 18-plus seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 79 scores by return in 272 games (72 regular season, seven bowl). Twelve in the MacIntyre Era (5 in 2013, 2 in 2015, 4 in 2016, 1 in 2017).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 47 times in the last 299 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it 11 times under MacIntyre (8-3). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 2001 (and threatened to do it in 2016). The Buffs are 47-6 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 55-9 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ 600+. Colorado is 17-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first loss was last year when the Buffs had 630 in the 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU is 2-0 under MacIntyre (Nicholls State, 2015; Washington State, 2016).
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 90-92 in its last 182 games on grass, including a 58-53 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass (11-2 on grass over the last two seasons).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 98-60-3 in its last 161 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 64-43-3 mark in conference games. CU was 2-2 in 2016 (and is 5-10 under MacIntyre).
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), they gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. Those averages since: 14.1 (2004), 10.2 (2005), 12.0 (2006), 14.0 (2007), 9.7 (2008, the only time under 10 in this span); 15.7 (2009), 12.3 (2010), 13.7 (2011), 12.3 (2012), 11.2 (2013).
 - ➔ In 2014, CU allowed just 15 plays of 20 yards or more on third down: opponents overall gained 949 yards on 70 makes (13.6 per) and had a net 82 yards on the other 105 plays (0.78).
 - ➔ In 2015, CU allowed 17 plays of 20-plus; opponents gained 1,122 yards on 87 makes (12.9), but on the 119 misses, have just 45 total yards (0.38 per).
 - ➔ This season, CU has allowed just 10 third down plays of 20 yards or longer; the opponent has gained 344 yards on those (34.4 per); on the other 196 third down plays, they have gained 485 yards (2.5 per).
- ➔ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 17-2 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover, winning twice this season, in back-to-back games against Massachusetts and Colorado State, the first time it has happened in back-to-back games. It now marks three times under MacIntyre (including the 2014 CSU game); previous to that was against Cal in 2011 (both were losses). The last win previously had come against Nebraska in 2007 (65-51). In these 19 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 772-395, with only four games decided by less than 17 points.
- ➔ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 79 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 53-22-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under MacIntyre, CU is 7-3 in miscue-free contests (3-0 in 2016, 1-0 in 2017).
- ➔ Time Spent In The Lead. The Buffaloes held leads in 11 of 14 games in 2016 (two-score leads in 10 of those), and were ahead for a total of 457:20 on the season. That's the second-most by a hair in the 21 years CU has tracked the stat (CU led for 458:01 in 1996—a 12-game season including the bowl).
- ➔ Between 2010 and 2013, opponents had 279 plays of 20 yards or more, earning a combined 8,651 yards (31.0 yards per); the average annually has always hovered around 30 yards, which makes sense since the cutoff is all plays of 20 yards or longer. But it's the count that's the concern: in 2008, opponents had just 44 plays of 20-plus, followed by 53 (2009) and 50 (2010); those counts ballooned to 75 in 2011 and 81 in 2012.
 - ➔ Under MacIntyre, the number has been dwindling: in his first season (2013) opponents had 73 plays of 20 yards or more (out of 924, 7.9%), netting 2,316 yards (31.7 per); in 2014, opponents had 72 plays of 20-plus (8.5 percent of the 845 overall), with those collectively gaining 2,456 yards (1,472 pass/984 rush, 34.1 per). And in 2015, opponents had 65 plays of 20 or more yards (of 948, 6.9%, totaling 2,242 yards (still 34.5 per).
 - ➔ In 2016 (13 games), a noticeable difference: CU has allowed 49 plays of 20-plus for 1,548 yards (31.6 per, but 5.4% of plays yielding 36% of yards).
- ➔ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2014, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season just 14 times, before 2014 last doing so in 2001 (434.4), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season; CU gained 400-plus yards in nine of 11 regular season games that year. The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once — 303.5 — in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just three times including 2014.
 - ➔ In 2016, CU was flirting with rewriting the above through the first three-fourths of the season, finishing with 446.3 yards per outing and 254.4 passing.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 5-of-126 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09; Stanford is the last to do it (2011; the opponent is now 0-of-24 since). The CU offense is 12-of-138 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span (converting on a 3rd-&-27 in the Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State).
- ➔ CU has scored in 10 of 12 quarters this year (43 of 56 quarters in 2016), and in 160 of 216 under MacIntyre (74 percent).

TURNOVER ANALYSIS / MAC ERA

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give in the four-plus seasons Mike MacIntyre has been head coach. A closer look:

MacIntyre Era	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
23 WINS	28	49	+21	133	68	+ 65
31 LOSSES	63	38	-25	80	272	- 192
54 GAMES	91	87	- 4	213	340	- 127

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 26-21 in games following a bye week since 1948, when the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference; CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 29 of 32 seasons, with two weeks off 11 of those years and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 23-19 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes a 1-4 mark as a member of the Pac-12 (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013 and at USC and Oregon in 2014; and the first win over UCLA in 2016).

2017 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1892 (Feb. 10, 1893) This result was tacked on to the 1892 season: Colorado A&M challenged the University of Colorado to a game ... Oops, CU wins big in Fort Collins, 70-6, with it enabling the Silver & Gold to finish with their first winning record (3-2) in year three of their history.
- 1897 Every school has years like this and the NCAA counts the wins: in a 7-1 season, CU is 3-0 against DPL school (East, West, Manual), topples Mines, an Athletic Club from Littleton and the infamous Denver Wheel Club, though did beat Colorado College before ending the season with a loss to the Denver A.C.
- 1902 Fred Folsom coaches the Buffs to a 5-1 mark, including an 11-6 win over Colorado A&M; there's no available account of the game, but this was in the span of 1898 through 1903 where both touchdowns and field goals were worth five points and a PAT one, so CU had at least one TD/PAT... or three safeties.
- 1907 The 105th anniversary of the weirdest score in CU's football history: on Thanksgiving Day, Mines beats CU in Denver, 5-4 (field goals were back at 4 points, so it was either one of those or two safeties).
- 1912 Colorado A&M beats CU, 21-0, six months to the day of the Titanic setting sail; Colorado takes it out on Wyoming a week later, winning 75-0 in Boulder.
- 1917 After leading CU to a 1-5-1 mark in his first year, Bob Evans, the successor to Fred Folsom, pilots the team to a 6-2 mark and then leaves the profession.
- 1922 CU travels by train to Kansas where it succumbs, 39-6, then travels back for a Thanksgiving Day game just five days later and manages to beat Mines, 16-0.
- 1927 (Oct. 8) At the same time the '27 Yankees defeat Pittsburgh, 4-3, to win the World Series and finish 114-44 on the year, CU falls at Montana State, 12-6.
- 1932 William Saunders takes over the coaching reins from Myron Witham (who went 63-26-7 from 1920-31), and CU goes 2-4 in his first season.
- 1937 Byron White is named CU's first All-American in football, captivating the nation with his feats leading CU to an 8-0 regular season record and its first bowl game (Cotton Bowl, where Rice defeats CU, 28-14). White led the nation in rushing, scoring and all-purpose yards.
- 1942 The Buffs go 7-2, tie for the Mountain States title with Utah (though losing 13-0 to the Utes) in the last season before World War II brings the sport to a near standstill with many CU players, as was the case nationwide, enlisting to fight; many returned to play and graduate later in the decade.
- 1947 CU's last year in the Mountain States, as the Buffs announced earlier in the summer they were joining the Big 6/Missouri Valley Conference (to make it the Big 7); CU goes 3-3 in league play, but loses the season finale on Thanksgiving at Denver, 26-20, before the largest crowd in the series (28,063).
- 1952 (Sept. 27) The only blemish on Oklahoma's incredible 63-0-1 record in Big Seven and Eight conference play between 1947-1958 came on this day in Boulder: CU's Zack Jordan was a one-man wrecking crew for the Buffaloes in a 21-21 tie with the No. 4 Sooners. He scored on runs of 10 and 6 yards and caught a 16-yard touchdown pass from Lee Venzke with 11:50 remaining to put CU ahead, 21-14; OU tied it on a Billy Vessels 1-yard run with 1:51 left and the PAT; Frank Bernardi broke free for a 22-yard run to the Sooner 21 on the game's last play, as time ran out before CU had a chance to win it.
- 1957 Bob Stransky earned All-America honors, finishing second in the nation in rushing with 1,097 yards (CU led the nation with 322.4 yards per game); an Interesting year: CU opens 3-1-1 but isn't ranked until it falls in game six at Oklahoma, 14-13; edged at home by Missouri 9-6, CU falls out of the rankings but doesn't reappear despite closing with three blowout wins at Colorado State (20-0) and Nebraska (27-0), and over Iowa State at home (38-21).
- 1962 Devastated by NCAA penalties, Bud Davis ('51) takes over for Sonny Grandelius as head coach for just the '62 season to right the program; the team didn't know he was a one-year wonder until he told them the morning of the last game, and the Buffs go out and upset Air Force, 34-10, to end a 2-8 year.
- 1967 Eddie Crowder coaches the Buffs back into the postseason, where CU defeated Miami, Fla., in the Bluebonnet Bowl, 31-21, to finish 9-2. CU was 5-2 in Big 8 play, finishing second to Oklahoma (the Sooners won the head-to-head matchup 23-0 in Norman a week after Oklahoma State tripped up the Buffs in Boulder, 10-7). The Anderson brothers paced CU, senior Dick being named an All-American at safety (sixth nationally with seven interceptions) with sophomore Bobby passing for 733 yards and rushing for 625 more.
- 1972 (Sept. 30) Thirty-five years ago, some had Colorado pegged to be a national champion contender, but a stunning 38-6 loss at Oklahoma State sidetracked the dream; Oklahoma rolled into town ranked No. 2, but behind Gary Campbell and Jon Keyworth, the Buffaloes pull off a 20-14 upset. The latter, played on October 22, drew a then-record 52,022 in attendance for any sporting event in the state of Colorado. The Buffs climb back to No. 7 after the win but back-to-back losses to Missouri and No. 3 Nebraska drop CU back into the teens in the rankings, with the 33-10 loss to Huskers played before 52,128, breaking the state mark set just two weeks earlier versus Oklahoma (Mile High wasn't expanded over 50,000 until 1976).
- 1977 (Oct. 1) Colorado's last trip to the Northeast results in a 31-0 whitewash of Army at West Point; CU will finally return to the area on Sept. 6, 2014, playing the University of Massachusetts in Foxboro (home of the NFL New England Patriots).
- 1982 (Sept. 11) Bill McCartney makes his coaching debut for the Buffaloes, but California wins a rain-soaked game in Boulder, 31-17, to spoil it; he gets in the win column the next Saturday (Sept. 18) with a 12-0 win against Washington State in Spokane. McCartney took over the program on June 9 after Chuck Fairbanks resigned on June 1 to become head coach of the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1987 (Oct. 3) Sal Aunese makes his starting quarterback debut at Colorado State; in leading CU to a 29-16 win, he rushes 18 times for 83 yards a touchdown and completes 4-of-6 passes for 139 yards and a score. That was a 316.3 quarterback rating for the game (still third best in CU history for a game with five or more attempts). The Buffs rolled to a 26-0 lead early in the second quarter and coasted from there.
- 1992 (Oct. 17) Mitch Berger's 53-yard field goal at the gun completes a furious Colorado rally as the Buffs tie Oklahoma, 24-24, in Boulder; it extends CU's unbeaten streak in Big Eight play to 24 games; the streak would reach 25 (23-0-2) before coming to an end with a loss two weeks later at Nebraska.
- 1997 Following a 33-29 loss at Oklahoma State, CU drops out of the polls for the first time since the 1988 season; it ends a 143-consecutive week run being ranked, the eighth longest streak of all-time (at the time). The Buffs lose two family members in the offseason, linebacker Tyronee Bussey on January 3 to leukemia and assistant coach (running backs) Ben Gregory on April 10 to a heart attack.
- 2002 TB Chris Brown rushes for 1,744 yards, third in the nation, but his Heisman hopes are dashed by a late season ankle injury that forced him to miss the better part of three games. WR Jeremy Bloom makes his CU debut in style, returning a punt 75 yards for a touchdown the first time he touches the ball as a collegian in the season-opener against Colorado State. CU opens 9-3 in defending its Big 12 North Division title, but drops the league title game to Oklahoma and the Alamo Bowl to Wisconsin to finish 9-5, with the 14 games the most in a single season in school history.
- 2007 The last season the Buffaloes went to a bowl game (Independence); CU defeated both Oklahoma and Nebraska in the same season for a record fifth time (1960-61-89-90-2007); CU rallied from 17 down in the third quarter to beat No. 3 Oklahoma, 27-24 (on a 45-yard Kevin Eberhart field goal as time expired) and beat Nebraska in a wild affair, 65-51, qualifying for the postseason with the win.

CU is 5-9 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 3-3-1 in August games in its history.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS FOR 2017

Here are the Pac-12 bowl agreements that were signed in 2014 and run through the 2020 season; the conference's lineup for the 2017 bowl season:

- | | |
|---|--|
| # 1 Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (Jan. 1, if in CFP semifinal; otherwise, see below). | # 4 Foster Farms (Dec. 27 vs. Big Ten) |
| # 2 Valero Alamo (Dec. 28 vs. Big 12) | # 5 Hyundai Sun (Dec. 29 vs. ACC) |
| # 3 San Diego County Credit Union Holiday (Dec. 28 vs. Big Ten) | # 6 Las Vegas (Dec. 16 vs. MW or BYU) |
| | # 7 Cactus (Dec. 26 vs. Big 12) |

Note: If the Pac-12 champion is in the top four of the College Football Playoff poll following the 2017 season it would play in the Rose Bowl as a participant in the CFP semifinals. If the champion is not among those four, it would play in either the Fiesta, Orange, Peach or Cotton bowls.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Colorado State, Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Massachusetts, Notre Dame and Oregon State. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (11), Washington (7), Missouri and Texas (5), and LSU, Michigan, Ohio State and Oklahoma State (3).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 27 seasons (1990-2016), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (and tied for 15th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage, etc. awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2016 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

OPPONENTS & 2017 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2017 Colorado schedule combined for a 75-74 record in 2016 (50.3 winning percentage); five teams made the postseason, including one College Football Playoff participant (Washington).

- The Buffaloes opened on a weeknight for the fourth straight season (2015 in Honolulu, and 2014, 2016 and 2017 in Denver); the Buffs opened the MacIntyre Era on a Sunday in 2013, so Colorado has not opened a season on a Saturday since 2012.
- Colorado doesn't leave the state for its first road game until Sept. 30, the fifth week/game of the season (one game in Denver followed by three in Boulder); the last time that happened was in 2001, but that was due to 9/11 (CU was supposed to play at Washington State in week four, or on Sept. 15). Otherwise you have to go back to 1998 (three in Boulder, one in Denver) and then 1978 (when the Buffaloes opened with five straight games at home en route to a record eight home games). A little different from last year, when for the first time in CU history the Buffs played one week in the Eastern Time Zone (at Michigan) and then the next in the Pacific (at Oregon).
- The Buffaloes will play Northern Colorado for the first time since 1934; the Bears won that, 13-7, over the Silver & Gold as CU was a month-plus shy of adopting "Buffaloes" as its permanent nickname. That was also CU's first-ever night game in the state of Colorado.
- 2 & 1. Colorado doesn't have a game the week before two games (Colorado State, Utah), while only Arizona has a bye prior to playing the Buffs.
- Colorado will travel 7,086 miles round-trip for its non-Boulder games in 2017: CSU (Denver, 60), UCLA (Los Angeles, 1,666), Oregon State (Eugene, 1,916), Washington State (Lewiston, 1,554), Arizona State (Tempe, 1,178) and Utah (Salt Lake City: 712). Last year, CU traveled 11,704 miles over the course of the season (eight trips, including to Denver for CSU, the Pac-12 Championship game and the Alamo Bowl).
- Colorado has at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 22nd straight season; the Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But in 2013 and since, the rivalry game with the Utes has returned to Saturday as the Pac-12's television partners (ESPN, FOX) are opting for other games for the Friday slots.
- Conference regular season misses: the Buffaloes do not play Oregon or Stanford (replaced by California and Washington); Oregon is the last school that has come off CU's schedule from the North Division, the only team in the division CU played in all of its first six years in the conference.
- Washington will be just the third defending conference champion to visit Boulder in the last 13 years, joining Oklahoma (2007) and Oregon (2015).

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of September 16 (with 2017 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

FOLSOM FIELD #1

LawnStarter.com recently ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State).

The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

300+ AT FOLSOM

Colorado won its 300th game at Folsom Field in 2013 and is now 310-166-10 in 93 seasons playing its home games at Folsom. The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 403-189-16 all-time at home. The 2016 season marked CU's first winning one at home, as the Buffaloes went 6-0; Colorado's last winning record at home had been in 2010 (with a 4-2 mark); it was CU's first undefeated season at home since 1994, when the Buffs went 6-0 in the late Rashaan Salaam's Heisman Trophy winning year. Over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season; the Buffs pulled even at home under "Mac" with the 6-0 mark in 2016 and are now 14-12 at Folsom in his tenure, with an 8-game winning streak.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 49 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants, owning a 22-26-1 record; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on five occasions (0-5 in that look). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

CU IS BLACK & GOLD, BUT FOLSOM IS "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. For more information, visit Ralphie's Green Stampede at http://www.cubuffs.com/ViewArticle.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=600&ATCLID=1549954.

WHO IS/HAS BEEN IN ON OFFENSE & DEFENSE

George Frazier, as he did his freshman year in 2014, is appearing on both offense and defense as senior in 2017. In 2014, he played both defensive end and fullback for the first time against Arizona State, becoming the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player before Frazier in 2014 to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the 2015 world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing.

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the 2015 Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)
99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)
99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays)
99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays)
99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays)

99—vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (74.7 percent of the entire roster—active, those reporting the first day of class and inactive—as of September 4: 89 of 119 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: Colorado 39, California 35, Texas 15, Georgia 6, Florida 5, Arizona 4, Hawai'i 3, Louisiana 2, Illinois 1, Arkansas 1, New Jersey 1, Oklahoma 1, Oregon 1, Utah 1, Washington 1, Wisconsin 1. That's 16 states total along with AUSTRALIA (1) and FINLAND (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Two Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: OL Mo Bandi (India), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England).

THE BUFFS IN NFL STADIUMS

The Buffaloes have played 23 games to date in seven current NFL venues, owning a record of 13-10 (9-5 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City and 0-1 in Santa Clara). All-time, the Buffs are 19-21-1 playing games in stadiums that simultaneously hosted NFL teams (11-6 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in Irving, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 2-3 in Houston, 1-2 in Miami 1-2 in Tempe, 0-2-1 in Anaheim, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City, 0-1 in Santa Clara and 0-3 in Los Angeles).

10 (NOT BO DEREK)

With 10 wins in 2016, the Buffaloes had their most victories since finishing 10-3 in 2001. It was the eighth time that the Buffaloes have won 10 or games in a season, joining six previous teams under four different coaches: under Eddie Crowder in 1971 (10-2); under Bill McCartney in 1989 (11-1), 1990 (11-1-1) and 1994 (11-1); under Rick Neuheisel in 1995 (10-2) and 1996 (10-2); under Gary Barnett in 2001 (10-3) and now under Mike MacIntyre in 2016 (10-4). Colorado has also won at least nine games 14 times in its history.

➔ CU won six straight conference games in 2016 within the same season for the first time since opening 7-0 in the Big 12 in 1996. In the 1961, 1989 and 1990 seasons, CU also finished 7-0 on its way to Big 8 titles those years. The eight Pac-12 wins in '16 were the most CU has ever won in a conference season.

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

There are now three players on the current CU roster that scored a touchdown on their first career touch (two on offense). Jay MacIntyre did it a redshirt frosh against Nicholls State in 2015, and in 2016 against Idaho State, Kabion Ento accomplished the feat. Fast-forward to 2017, as WR Laviska Shenault joined the club when he picked up a fumble on punt return duty and raced 55 yards for a score, and in the process became the 15th known player to do so in CU history. Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see page 26), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

THE GAMES THEY REMEMBER ARE PLAYED IN NOVEMBER

Colorado opened the month of November 2016 with a 20-10 win over UCLA and then won its final road game of the year at Arizona, 49-24 – its most November points since defeating Nebraska 65-51 in 2007; the last time CU opened the month of November with a win was back in the 2009 season. CU is 54-19 dating back to the mid-1980s against unranked teams in November and is 7-18 against Pac-12 opponents in the month. The Buffs were undefeated (4-0) in this “November to Remember,” its best since 3-0 marks in 1989, 1990, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995, 2001 and 2004; CU was last 4-0 in November in 1975.

SOUTH PARK RALPHIE INTRO

Most know that the creators of Comedy Central's popular South Park are University of Colorado alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. Trey voices Eric Cartman; he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that debuted during the countdown to kickoff prior to the 2014 Arizona State game. It's been a hit since, especially among the CU student section. Cartman is seen in his usual garb and he introduced Ralphie before the real buffalo led the Buffs on the field.

BUFFS BACK ON TV IN DENVER

CU had been without a weekly television presence in Denver since the 2011-12 athletic year: but last year the Buffs returned to the local airways.

The Buffalo Stampede returned with a new format and a new home: Altitude Sports (Comcast Ch. 25/725 HD). The show initially airs on Wednesday nights at 11:00 p.m., with several replays over the following two days. It also is picked up by Pac-12 Mountain and repeats a few times weekly as well.

It will again run through the men's and women's basketball seasons.

CU TO RETIRE THE LATE RASHAAN SALAAM'S NUMBER 19

CU announced on August 25 that it will permanently retire uniform number 19 after this season to honor the late Rashaan Salaam, as the announcement took place Friday at the school's annual football kickoff luncheon hosted by the Boulder Chamber of Commerce. Salaam, the Heisman Trophy and Doak Walker Award winner for the 1994 season, was also a unanimous All-American and the Walter Camp National Player of the Year after having one of the best individual seasons in college football history. He tragically took his own life last Dec. 5 in Boulder at the age of 42.

The jersey will officially be retired on October 28, when CU hosts California in its annual homecoming game. Currently, senior tailback Michael Adkins II adorns the number, thus will be the last to wear it before it is permanently placed out of service in honor of Salaam.

A 6-foot-1, 215-pound tailback who played 8-man football at San Diego's La Jolla Country Day School, he would become just the fourth player at the time to gain 2,000 yards rushing in a season, when schools generally played an 11-game schedule and the NCAA did not count bowl statistics into season totals. He ran for 2,055 yards in averaging 6.9 yards per carry, doing so even though he did not play in five fourth quarters and on two other occasions, he played only briefly in the third quarter; over half of the yards (1,040) came against ranked opponents. He led the nation in rushing, scoring (24 TDs / 144 points) and all-purpose yards (2,349) and reeled off nine consecutive 100-yard games, including four 200-plus yard games. All the aforementioned set and remain school records.

Three numbers previously have been retired in CU's 127-year football history: No. 24 worn by quarterback/halfback Byron White in 1936-37 (he wore No. 8 in 1935); No. 67 worn by guard/linebacker Joe Romig (1959-61); and No. 11 worn by quarterback/tailback Bobby Anderson (1967-69). Anderson's was the last to be retired, done so at halftime of CU's 1970 spring game and right after he had been drafted in the first round by the Denver Broncos.

He won the first (and only) Heisman Trophy in Colorado history, claiming the 60th annual award as a junior, and declared early for the National Football League Draft. He was a first round pick by Chicago (21st overall) and would play three seasons for the Bears (1995-97), winning the NFC Rookie-of-the-Year honor in 1995 when he rushed for 1,074 yards and 10 TDs. Knee and ankle injuries would eventually shorten his pro career. He was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

GAME 1

COLORADO 17, COLORADO STATE 3

SEPTEMBER 1, 2017

SAF AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — An anticipated high-scoring shootout never materialized in the Rocky Mountain Showdown.

Instead, Colorado scored the first 17 points of the game, then relied on its defense for the rest of the night as the Buffs posted a 17-3 win over rival Colorado State.

The Buffs received a solid rushing effort from Phillip Lindsay (19 carries, 140 yards and one TD in his seventh career 100-yard game) and some highlight passing moments from quarterback Steven Montez (21-for-29, 202 yards, 1 TD, 2 interceptions), but it was new defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot's defense that made the difference for much of the game.

The Buffs put 17 unanswered points on the board to start the game, getting a touchdown and field goal in the first quarter, then adding another touchdown early in the second period. That was all the points the Buffs would need.

"I was really excited about how hard our guys played," CU head coach Mike MacIntyre said. "We started out fast and then we kind of stalled. We had some opportunities to score more points and let them hang around. But I was really proud of our defense and our special teams. We'll look at this tape and we'll improve."

After forcing a pair of CSU punts and one of their own, the Buffs put their first points on the board with a six-play, 94-yard drive. Montez completed four passes on the drive, including a 12-yard toss over the middle to Devin Ross on third-and-5 before Lindsay finished the march with a 45-yard burst up the middle to the end zone. Chris Graham's PAT gave CU a 7-0 lead at the 7:11 mark.

The Buffs bumped the margin to 10-0 on their next possession, driving to the CSU 22 before settling for a 39-yard James Stefanou field goal. Lindsay had two carries for 29 yards on the drive.

Colorado's defense, meanwhile, kept Rams quarterback Nick Stevens and the CSU running game in check. CU forced four CSU punts in the first quarter, and after the fourth, CU needed just four plays to put up its second touchdown of the night.

Lindsay ran for 18 yards on second down and for 7 more after a penalty. Montez then finished the drive by spinning out of the pocket under pressure, rolling to his left and motioning wide receiver Shay Fields into the end zone and unloading a perfect ball to a streaking Fields, who grabbed the catch in stride for a 31-yard touchdown pass and a 17-0 lead with 13:36 left in the second quarter.

The Rams finally got on the board on their next possession, moving from their own 25 to the CU 13, where they settled for a 31-yard Wyatt Bryan field goal.

That proved to be the end of the scoring for the evening.

The Buffs had several drives stall near midfield, and finally reached inside the CSU red zone in the fourth quarter, only to see the drive end on a missed field goal. CU also had a pair of drives ended by interceptions.

The Colorado defense, however, did its job all night. CSU reached inside the red zone only twice and came away with only a field goal. The Buffs held the Rams to just 88 yards rushing and while CSU finished 309 yards passing, 145 came in the fourth quarter as they tried to mount a comeback.

The Buffs held strong down the stretch, ending CSU's last three possessions on downs (incomplete pass), a fumble recovery by Afolabi Laguda and an interception by Trey Udoffia.

The win was CU's third straight in the series and gave Colorado an all-time 65-22-2 edge.

GAME NOTES

Colorado has won three straight season openers for the first time since 2003-04-05 (all against CSU both times) ... Buffs now lead the series 65-22-2 (11-6 in Denver, 22-8 since it was resumed in 1983) ... MacIntyre is now 3-2 in season openers at CU and is 6-1 against CSU overall (2-0 at San Jose State) ... Colorado is now 79-44-5 in 128 season openers ... CU won the coin toss and has now won 14 of the last 15 dating back to last year's opener ... The 17 points were the fewest scored by the Buffs in a season-opening win since 1970 (won 16-9 at Indiana) and the fewest by the winning team in the CU-CSU series since 2006 (CSU, 14-10 in Denver), and it is only the third time since the rivalry resumed in 1983 that the winning team didn't score at least 20 ... The 3 points the Buffaloes allowed were the fewest in a season opener since 2010 (24-3 win over CSU in Denver) and 1988 (45-3 over Fresno State in Boulder); otherwise, you have to go back to a 0-0 tie at Wisconsin in 1965 to find the last time CU allowed fewer ... It was the third time in the last 11 games that CU did not allow a touchdown, and the fewest points the Buffs have allowed in any game since a 48-0 win over Nicholls State in 2015 (the fewest by an FBS opponent since the 2010 CSU game) ... It had been eight years since CU played a game with a scoreless second half; last: at Kansas State, Oct. 24, 2009 (KSU won, 20-6) ... The attendance of 73,932 exceeded last year's (69,850) and is the most in the series since 2003 (76,219); it was the fifth-highest in the 17 games in Denver.

GAME 2

COLORADO 37, TEXAS STATE 3

SEPTEMBER 9, 2017

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado broke open a tight game with a 17-point third-quarter outburst and went on to take a 37-3 win over a feisty Texas State squad at Folsom Field.

The Buffs improved to 2-0 with the win while Texas State dropped to 1-1.

While the game was never really in doubt, the Buffs had to grind this one out. CU took a 14-0 lead into the locker room at half, added 17 points to that total in the third quarter for a 31-3 lead, then tacked on two field goals in the fourth for the final tally.

Defensively, the Buffs were once again stellar, holding their opponent to a mere field goal for the second week in a row — the first time since 1958 that CU opened the season by holding its first two opponents without a touchdown. Led by three sacks from Leo Jackson III, Colorado recorded six sacks and a pair of takeaways, including a highlight-reel interception by cornerback Isaiah Oliver.

Offensively, Buffs quarterback Steven Montez finished strong, completing 19 of 31 attempts for 299 yards and a touchdown to go with a rushing touchdown. Running back Phillip Lindsay put in a workmanlike 26-carry, 87-yard effort that included a touchdown run; Buffs receivers Bryce Bobo (7 catches, 75 yards and a touchdown), Shay Fields (5-110) and Devin Ross (4-68) also had solid days; and James Stefanou added a perfect 3-for-3 day on his field goal tries.

But maybe the biggest play came on special teams. With the score still tied at 0-0 and CU's offense sputtering, the Buffs forced a Texas State punt near the end of the first quarter. CU's Oliver fielded the kick and returned it 4 yards before fumbling while attempting to spin out of a tackle. But Buffs true freshman Laviska Shenault Jr. was on the spot, snatching up the loose ball and racing 55 yards to the end zone for his first touchdown as a Buff on his first collegiate touch. Stefanou's ensuing PAT gave the Buffs a 7-0 lead.

From that point on, the Buffs scored by more conventional means. On their next possession following Shenault's score, Montez directed CU's longest scoring drive of the year, a 9-play, 96-yard drive that culminated with Montez carrying in from 2 yards out. The CU sophomore also completed passes of 44 yards to Fields and 28 yards to Bobo on the march.

But it wasn't until the third quarter that CU's offense finally found the consistency it had been missing. The Buffs opened the half with a 58-yard drive that produced a field goal and 17-0 lead, and two possessions later added a Lindsay 7-yard touchdown run for a 24-3 edge. Colorado then put its final touchdown of the day on the board late in the period by driving 86 yards in seven plays. Montez completed four passes on the march, including a 31-yard strike to Ross, a 16-yard toss to Lindsay and an 11-yard scoring pass to Bobo.

Defensively, the Buffs were in control most of the game, although they did dodge a bullet early. Texas State running back Anthony Taylor burst loose for a 55-yard run on the first play of the game, but the CU defense then held and a Bobcats field goal try was wide left.

After that initial thrust, the Bobcats never seriously threatened to reach the end zone, getting a 32-yard field goal in the third quarter to avoid a shutout. Oliver came up with the defensive play of the day, tipping a deep ball to himself for an interception, then returning it 41 yards to set up CU's third touchdown of the game.

Texas State gained over 50 percent of its yards on four plays (145), netting 138 on its other 61 plays.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 2-0 for the second straight year (owning a 154-20 scoring edge), for the third time under Mike MacIntyre and for the 56th time in 128 seasons ... The game time of 3:01 was partially due to a reduced commercial length format the Pac-12 is experimenting with (next week, a 15-minute halftime) ... CU won the coin toss (again) and has now won 15 of the last 16 dating back to last year's opener ... In holding Texas State to a field goal, it marked the first time since 1958 that Colorado did not allow a touchdown in its first two games of the year (offensive or otherwise) ... Colorado recorded six quarterback sacks against Texas State (for 27 yards in losses), its first six-sack game since Nov. 25, 2011 at Utah ... Texas State did most of its offensive damage on four plays, as two rushes and two passes totaled 145 yards; it had 138 yards on its other 61 plays (2.3 per) ... DE Leo Jackson recorded the first multi-sack game of his career. In 26 games prior, he had just three career sacks ... Freshman WR Laviska Shenault joined an exclusive club with just 14 other members today when he scored on his first collegiate touch: he recovered an Isaiah Oliver fumble on a punt return and raced 55 yards for the score; he joined Jeremy Bloom (2002) as the lone two freshmen to have done it ... CU had a huge 116-9 edge in return yards ... The Buffs were turnover-free and has now played 79 turnover-free games dating back to 1946 owning a record of 53-22-4 in those games (7-3 under MacIntyre, 4-0 over the last two seasons).

GAME 3 COLORADO 49, NORTHERN COLORADO 6 SEPTEMBER 16, 2017 FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — It took Colorado longer than many expected to administer the knockout punch, but the Buffaloes survived a Northern Colorado rally, then pulled away in the second half to collect a 41-21 win at Folsom Field.

It was the first meeting between the two programs since 1934.

Buff's quarterback Steven Montez established career highs in attempts (41), completions (29), yardage (357) and touchdowns (four) while running back Phillip Lindsay ran for 151 yards and a score for his eighth career 100-yard game. The victory gave CU its first 3-0 start since 2008 and just the second since 1999.

The victory also extended CU's win streak at Folsom Field to eight, the longest since a 10-game home win streak from 1993-95.

After not giving up a touchdown in their first two games, the Buffs saw that streak come to an end in a hurry. The Bears forced a CU punt on the Buffs' first possession, then turned around and marched 70 yards in six plays for a touchdown, getting a 33-yard scoring pass from Jacob Knipp to Alex Wesley to take a 7-0 lead.

But Colorado then put 28 unanswered points on the board and looked ready to blow the game wide open.

The Buffs went 75 yards in six plays to tie the score, getting a 4-yard scoring toss from Montez to Devin Ross. The Buffs caught a break on UNC's next possession, recovering a bad snap to Knipp at the UNC 5-yard line and Colorado needed just one Phillip Lindsay run to take a 14-7 lead.

CU then added two more scores in the second quarter. Montez ended an 80-yard scoring drive with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Shay Fields, then finished a 73-yard march with a 29-yard touchdown pass to Bryce Bobo.

But almost before the announced Folsom Field crowd of 44,318 could settle in for the rout, the Bears had other ideas. UNC answered CU's fourth touchdown with a 90-yard scoring drive, finishing with a 48-yard pass from Knipp to Wesley to cut Colorado's lead to 28-14 at the half.

The Bears then took the second half opening kickoff and marched 75 yards to paydirt, with Knipp throwing 27 yards to tight end Michael McCauley for the score. At that point, Colorado's one-time 21-point lead had been cut to seven, 28-21.

The Buffs, though, finally pulled momentum back to their sideline, but not before losing a fumble deep in UNC territory. On their next possession, however, they drove for a 33-yard field goal from James Stefanou to bump their margin back to double digits, 31-21.

Montez and Co. then added an insurance touchdown in the fourth quarter, driving 85 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Montez completed the drive with a 14-yard scoring toss to Jay MacIntyre, his fourth touchdown pass of the day. MacIntyre became the fourth CU receiver in the game to catch a touchdown pass, joining Fields, Ross and Bobo. All four starting receivers also had at least four catches, with Ross totaling eight for 143 yards and Fields eight for 69.

The Buffs completed the scoring with a late fourth quarter field goal.

Overall, CU finished with 569 yards offense — 357 in the air and 212 on the ground — and the Buffs had scoring drives that covered 75, 80, 73 and 85 yards.

Defensively, ILB Drew Lewis had nine tackles and cornerback Isaiah Oliver had an interception for the second game in a row. The Buffs also stiffened defensively after UNC's initial score in the second half, and did not allow the Bears past midfield for the rest of the game.

CU leads the series with UNC by a 10-2 count; this was just the fifth time in 12 games both teams scored, and the first that both did in double figures; the 62 points combined were the most ... The game time of 3:22 despite halftime being reduced to 15 minutes ... CU lost the coin toss after winning 10 in a row, but has still won 15 of the last 17 dating back to last year's opener ... Colorado gained at least 100 yards in each quarter for the first time this season and for the first time since last year's Washington State game (CU did it three times in 2016) ... The Buffaloes went 123:52 before allowing their first touchdown this season ... This marked the 41st time in school history the Buffaloes had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game (31-10 in such contests): TB Phillip Lindsay (26-151 rushing) and WR Devin Ross (8-143; receiving); and the duo was seven yards receiving short of becoming the first 150/150 in CU annals (previous closest was nine rushing yards on two occasions) ... CU's receivers nicknamed themselves the "Blackout Boyz," mainly led by the four starters: seniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross and junior Jay MacIntyre. Those four combined for 26 catches for 342 yards (13.2 per), with four touchdowns and all 16 first downs earned in the passing game ... Though just with six career starts (and a 5-1 record), QB Steven Montez has already tied a significant CU record has he now has career 400-yard total offense games.

Colorado has 49 lettermen returning for 2017 (47 from the 2016 team, with two others from past years); they break down into 24 on offense, 21 on defense and 4 specialists; the Buffs lose 36 lettermen off the 2016 squad (19 offense/16 defense/1 specialist). CU returns 12 starters from last season (9 offense/3 defense), losing 12 (4 offense/8 defense); two players started seven games each at right tackle and one player started 10 times as the fourth wide receiver, so the offensive starter count last year is based off 13 players. The 2016 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams; #—lettered but injured early in the 2016 season and has been submitted for medical hardships. The breakdown:
