CU vs. WASHINGTON STATE GAME 8

BUFFS RETURN TO PACIFIC NORTHWEST LOOKING FOR FIRST PAC-12 ROAD SWEEP

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2017 • 8:45 p.m. MDT • Martin Stadium (32,952) • Pullman, Wash.

RELEASE NUMBER 8 (October 16, 2017)

ESPN (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

BUFFALO BITS ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (4-3, 1-3 Pac-12) will ping-pong it right back to the the Pacific Northwest this Saturday, traveling to Pullman to take on the No. 15 (AP)/No. 18 (USA Today/Coaches) Washington State Cougars (6-1, 3-1 Pac-12) in an 8:45 p.m. MDT kickoff at Martin Stadium (WSU is No. 14 in the FWAA-Super 16 poll) ... Colorado heads right back to the Pacific Northwest after defeating Oregon State, 36-33, in Pullman last Saturday; this is the seventh time in as many years in the conference that the Buffs are playing back-to-back road games. It's the first time CU has won the front end of the back-to-back trip, while having won the back end in 2011, a 17-14 verdict at Utah to close their first year in the league, thus the Buffs are looking for their first road sweep ... The last time CU made back-to-back trips in back-to-back weeks to roughly the same part of the country was in 1985 (at Iowa State, at Nebraska) ... The Buffs will fly into and headquarter in Lewiston, Idaho ... CU snapped a three-game losing streak last Saturday with the come-from-behind win over the Beavers ... Washington State had climbed to No. 8 in the polls but suffered its first defeat of the year last Friday night in Berkeley, falling 37-3 to California; seven turnovers did the Cougars in ... Colorado is now one win away from 700 all-time wins, as the Buffs own a record of 699-497-36 (a .582 winning percentage), as the Buffaloes are 25th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A) ... The Buffs then return home on Oct. 28 to host Cal in their annual homecoming game; CU will officially retire the late Rashaan Salaam's jersey (#19) and honor its 1967 Bluebonnet Bowl champion team as part of the weekend's festivities ... DEPTH CHART ON PAGE 63; ROSTER ON PAGES 64-66

CU-Washington State (ESPN/National): Beth Mowins (play-by-play) / Anthony Becht (color) / Rocky Boiman (sideline reporter) / Ben Hogg (producer)

Note: Mowins will be the second woman ever to handle play-by-play chores on a CU telecast; Pam Ward did the same for the 2002 opener versus Colorado State.

STAT OF THE WEEK

CU was turnover-free against Oregon State, and has now gone a school record 13 straight quarters without committing one, and has gone three straight games without one for the first time in school history (had gone back-to-back five different times). The Buffs now have played four turnover-free games this year, tying the school record set previously in 1989, 1993, 2006 and 2011. Under Mike MacIntyre, CU is 8-5 in miscue-free contests (2-2 this season); it has not turned the ball over in 13 of 58 games during his tenure, easily the best percentage (22.4) of any coach in CU history. Post-World War II (dating back to 1946), Colorado has played 80 turnover-free games, owning a record of 52-24-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls).

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

The Buffaloes have converted on seven straight fourth down attempts dating back to the second half of the UCLA game (2-of-2; the last miss was in the first half of that game). Colorado was 4-for-4 on fourth down conversions against Arizona, the second-best single-game performance in school history, earning first downs needing 2, 1 and 4 yards on runs by TB Phillip Lindsay, and a touchdown from 2 yards out on a QB Steven Montez to TE Chris Bounds pass. Lindsay then made a 4th-and-1 try at Oregon State last Saturday. The school record for consecutive fourth down makes is 12 over the 2008-09 seasons.

SEASON TICKET JUMP SIXTH-MOST IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Colorado sold 20,784 public season tickets and the maximum 11,500 student passes for a total of 32,274; that's well ahead of last year's final numbers (18,011, 9,890). For the Rocky Mountain Showdown, 27,464 public tickets were sold with students numbering 11,395 at the time, CU moved 38,859; 26 percent of CU's season ticket holders opted out of the Denver game in exchange for another game in Boulder. The increase of 2,773 season tickets over last year's total represents the sixth-largest increase from one year to the next since records are available dating back to World War II:

10,885	27,989	(1972)	17,104	(1971)	3,865	31,331	(1976)	27,466	(1975)
6,963	26,331	(1990)	19,368	(1989)	2,798	19,083	(1986)	16,285	(1985)
5,534	25,172	(2011)	19,638	(2010)	2,773	20,784	(2017)	18,011	(2016)

As for the student pass count, it's the largest since the maximum of 12,500 were sold for the 2008-09 and 2009-10 athletic seasons. CU will continue to sell season tickets through the Arizona game on Oct. 7 with assorted packages.

THE HEAVENS

The solar eclipse on August 21 was all the rage; for those wondering, the Buffaloes are 89-58-3 when any part of the United States has been fortunate to view a total eclipse of the sun (not partial or annular; 4-3 this year). Those previous years were 1900, 1918, 1923, 1925, 1932, 1943, 1945, 1954, 1959, 1963, 1970, 1972, 1979, 1990 and 1991.

➤ Colorado is also 38-15 when Halley's Comet is visible from Earth (1910-11-12, 1985-86-87), opening at 20-0. It won't return until the year 2061.

TIME TO BECOME ROAD WARRIORS

Colorado is in a stretch that sees four of its final six games coming on the road; it started last Saturday with the 36-33 win at Oregon State and continued this week with a return trip to the Pacific Northwest to face No. 15 Washington State. The Buffs, Cougars and Arizona Wildcats are the three teams in the league with the heavy road schedules to end the year (Washington State has four of its last six on the road while Arizona has four of its seven remaining games on the road). Last year, Colorado was 3-1 in Pac-12 road games (after going 3-20 in its first five years as a member of the Pac-12). In 2015, the Buffs also played four of its final six games on the road (going 1-3 with a 17-13 win at Oregon State). Prior to this year and 2015, you have to go back to 1999 when CU was a member of the Big 12 to find a year where the Buffs closed a season with four of six on the road (and 1993 previous to that).

IMPRESSIVE FOURTH QUARTER SCORING DRIVES

In the first three quarters against Oregon State, Colorado quarterback Steven Montez was 6-of-14 passing for only 100 yards. He led CU to the second fourth quarter comeback of his career (first was last year at Oregon) by going 8-for-10 passing for 68 yards and two touchdowns while adding four rushes for 29 yards in the final 15 minutes that saw CU overcome two different deficits in the period. He led CU to touchdowns on both of its drives, the first being an 18-play, 88-yard drive. The second was a nine-play, 82 yard scoring drive. Colorado now has four scoring drives this season that used 15 or more plays (all four have come in the last three games). The Buffs are one of just two Power 5 programs, along with Duke, that has four scoring drives that consisted of 15 or more plays. A look at those teams and their drives:

Team	Opponent	Score	Plays	Yards	Time	Team	Opponent	Score	Plays	Yards	Time
Colorado	Arizona	Lindsay 1-yd rushing TD	19	85	9:34	Duke	North Carolina	24-yd field goal	19	70	7:03
Colorado	Oregon State	Bobo 9-yd TD from Montez	18	88	6:22	Duke	Virginia	Koppenhaver 1-yd pass	15	88	6:56
Colorado	UCLA	Stefanou 33-yd field goal	16	62	4:28	Duke	Northwestern	Koppenhaver 1-yd pass	15	75	5:10
Colorado	Arizona	Bobo 7-yd TD from Montez	15	75	5:08	Duke	Florida State	37-yd field goal	15	66	6:14

► There have been six drives in the NCAA this season that have consumed nine or more minutes; CU has the fourth-longest of those:

Team	Opponent	Score	Plays	Yards	Time
Virginia	UConn	3-yard rushing TD	18	88	9:46
South Alabama	Ole Miss	20-yd FG	19	95	9:39
Army	Ohio State	3-yd rushing TD	18	99	9:37
Colorado	Arizona	Lindsay 1-yd rushing TD	19	85	9:34
Minnesota	Oregon State	1-yd rushing TD	15	77	9:24
Arkansas	NM State	3-yd passing TD	16	63	9:01

► Colorado in the fourth quarter of its last two games has put up 302 yards of offense (147 at Oregon State, 155 vs. Arizona), is 6-of-8 on third downs and has scored 36 total points.

► Overall on the season, Colorado's 55 points scored in fourth quarters of games is its second-highest output for any period (that is on an average of 101.3 yards in the final 15 minutes of a game). The top quarter for the Buffs is the first where the Buffs have put up 59 points (with 98.3 yards per average in the opening period).

LOOKING TO JOIN THE "100" CLUB

QB Steven Montez enters Saturday night's game at Washington State having thrown 95 consecutive pass attempts without being picked off. In those 95 attempts, which dates back to a third-quarter interception against No. 7 Washington on Sept. 23, he has thrown for 678 yards with six touchdowns, but has only completed 55.8 percent of those attempts. There have been eight streaks in school history where a QB has gone 100 consecutive pass attempts without throwing an interception, with Montez' 95 the 11th-longest streak in school history. The most attempts without an interception in CU history:

152	Sefo Liufau (nine games, Nov. 13, 2015 to Nov. 3, 2016)	104	Craig Ochs (four games, Oct. 14 to Nov. 4, 2000)
139	Joel Klatt (five games, Oct. 15 to Nov. 12, 2005)	100	John Hessler (six games, Sept. 2 to Oct. 7, 1995)
131	Tyler Hansen (four games, Sept. 3 to Oct. 1, 2011)	99	Darian Hagan (six games, Sept. 21 to Nov. 2, 1991)
118	Sefo Liufau (five games, Sept. 3 to Oct. 3, 2015)	98	Kordell Stewart (five games, Oct. 22 to Nov. 19, 1994)
114	Cody Hawkins (four games, Oct. 9 to Nov. 6, 2010)	95	Steven Montez (four games, Sept. 23, 2017 to present)
107	Sefo Liufau (four games, Oct. 10-31, 2015)

MORE MONTEZ NOTES

► He needs 332 passing yards for 3,000 in his career, which would make him the 13th Buff in school history to hit that passing milestone.

► Last weekend he threw the 20th touchdown pass of his career, becoming just the 10th Colorado quarterback to throw 20 or more TDs in a career (he sits with 21 touchdown passes against 10 interceptions in his career).

BOBO PRODUCES SECOND 100-YARD GAME

Senior WR Bryce Bobo had a career-high 126 yards receiving on nine receptions with two touchdowns in the win at Oregon State last weekend. It was just the second 100-yard receiving game of his career, the other occurring last year at home against Arizona State when he had 110 yards and six catches. It was also the second two-touchdown game of his career, but first since Oct. 25, 2014 at UCLA during his redshirt freshman season. Bobo currently ranks in a tie for third in the Pac-12 in receptions (44), is tied for fourth in touchdown catches and is 12th in yards per game (61.7). One of the players ahead of him in touchdown receptions is Washington State's Tavares Martin Jr., who has seven on the year.

► With his nine receptions (just one off his single-game high of 10 set last year at USC), Bryce Bobo moved into the top 10 all-time at Colorado in career receptions. He surpassed Charles E. Johnson (127, 1990-93) and now is six behind Derek McCoy (134, 2000-03) for ninth place and seven behind Rae Carruth (135, 1992-96) for eighth.

DOUBLE-DIGIT TACKLE PERFORMANCES

There have been 11 double-digit tackle performances produced by five different Buffaloes this season. ILB Drew Lewis leads the team with five of those, his high being 13 in the win over Texas State. Fellow ILB Rick Gamboa is close behind him with three games of 10-plus tackles while Afolabi Laguda (11 vs. Colorado State), Derek McCartney (10 at Oregon State) and Evan Worthington (12 at Oregon State) account for the other three. Last season, five Buffs combined to produce 16 double-digit tackle performances with ILB Kenneth Olugbode leading the way with seven of those. Colorado's current leader in career games with 10 or more tackles is Rick Gamboa, who has produced 10 in his career. Lewis is next in line with five (all from this year) and Laguda is third with four such games.

OLIVER vs. FALK – 2016 REWIND

Last year when No. 20 Washington State rolled in to Folsom Field to face the 12th-ranked Buffaloes on Nov. 19, Cougar QB Luke Falk was leading the nation in completion percentage (.739), was second in passing yards per game (361.0) and fifth in TD passes (33). He faced CU's secondary that at the time led the Pac-12 in passing defense (176.9, which was 10th nationally), opponent completion percentage (.509) and pass efficiency defense (98.85, fourth nationally). CU CB Isaiah Oliver played a season-high 66 snaps in that game, had four tackles, two pass breakups and one third down stop in the contest where he played a big part in helping the Buffalo defense to hold Falk to 26-of-53 passing, or 49.1 percent, and 325 yards passing (36 yards below his average). In that contest, Falk targeted the receiver Oliver was covering nine times (if you include penalties) with only three completions for 84 yards, but two of the completions came on 42- and 16-yard gains off of wide receiver screen passes. Here is a breakdown of those plays where Falk targeted Oliver.

Qtr.	Down-Distance	Spot	Play	Result/Note
1	3rd-and-7	WSU 28	Falk pass to Tavares Martin Jr. (26 yards in air)	Isaiah Oliver flagged for pass interference
2	1st-and-10	WSU 18	Falk screen pass to Martin	complete for a 42-yard catch and run
2	2nd-and-10	WSU 24	Falk scramble, throws downfield for Gabe Marks	Incomplete
2	2nd-and-15	CU 16	Falk throws in corner of end zone for Martin	Incomplete
2	3rd-and-10	CU 11	Falk throws across middle in end zone for Martin	Pass broken up by S Fisher, who cut in front of Oliver who had position on Martin
3	3rd-and-7	WSU 41	Falk throws 35 yards down sideline to Martin	Oliver breaks up pass
3	1st-and-10	CU 28	Falk throws in corner of end zone for Marks	Oliver breaks up pass
4	2nd-and-2	CU 40	Falk screen pass to Martin	complete for a 16-yard catch and run
1	1st-10	WSU 31	Falk throws 34 yards down sideline to Martin	Oliver intercepts pass, but play nullified because of a defensive offsides penalty

O-LINE ROTATIONS

With OT Isaac Miller making his first two career starts for the Buffs the last two times out at right tackle, CU has now used four different starting offensive line combinations in the first seven weeks of the season. In 14 games last season, the Buffs used five different starting offensive line groups, and in 2015, that number was 10, which was tremendously different that the first two seasons of Mike MacIntyre's tenure. In 2014, CU utilized just three different starting offensive line groups and in 2013, CU had the same starting five up front in all 12 games.

McCARTNEY MATCHES CAREER-HIGH

OLB Derek McCartney posted 15 tackles, two sacks and an additional tackle for a loss in the first half of the season. In the first game of the second half of the year at Oregon State last week, he nearly doubled his tackle figure. McCartney was credited with 10 tackles, which matched his career-high he set back in 2015 in a win over Colorado State. The two-year team captain has 135 tackles and 11½ sacks in his career, which is tied for 27th in Colorado history.

WORTHINGTON 10+ AND A PICK

S Evan Worthington picked off his third pass of the season while recording a career-high 12 tackles in CU's win at Oregon State. He returned that theft 43 yards and now his three picks are tied for the third-most by any Pac-12 defender. Worthington also added two pass breakups in the victory to give him seven passes defended on the year, which is four off the league lead that he held by his teammate in CB Isaiah Oliver (who has 11).

TURNOVER FREE

Colorado has now played 13 games out of 58 under Mike MacIntyre without a turnover, including the last two; that is easily the highest percentage in any CU head coach's tenure over two years since World War II. Take a look (TFG—turnover free games; TG—total games):

Coach	TFG	(Record)	TG	Pct.	Coach	TFG	(Record)	TG	Pct.
Mike MacIntyre	13	(8-5)	58	22.4	Bill Mallory	1	(1-0)	57	1.7
Bill McCartney	23	(18-3-2)	153	15.0	Chuck Fairbanks	0	(0-0)	33	0.0
Dan Hawkins	8	(3-5)	58	13.8	-----two or fewer seasons/interims-----
Gary Barnett	11	(49-38)	87	12.6	Mike Hankwitz	1	(0-1)	1	100.0
Sonny Grandelius	3	(2-1)	31	9.7	Jon Embree	5	(1-4)	25	20.0

Dal Ward	5	(2-1-2)	110	4.5	Jim Yeager	0	(0-0)	19	0.0

➤ Colorado has already played four turnover-free games in 2017, and has now gone a record 13 straight quarters without one, dating back to a third quarter interception in week four against Washington. The four games ties the school record previously accomplished in 1989, 1993, 2006 and 2011.

CHIV'S "COACHED" A HATRICK

Darrin Chiaverini is in his second year as CU's co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. During his 21 games to date, he's coached three players who have passed him on CU's all-time receiving yards list. WR Shay Fields passed him as a junior last season, while seniors WR Devin Ross and WR Bryce Bobo did so this year (and a fourth, WR Jay MacIntyre, is lurking for the future (he has 698):

Rk	Player (Seasons)	No.	Yards	Avg.	TD

SERIES HISTORY— COLORADO vs. WASHINGTON STATE

Colorado leads the all-time series with Washington State by a 6-4 count, as the series is tied 2-2 since the Buffaloes joined the Pac-12 in 2011. Colorado won last year in Boulder, 38-24, in the first game in the series where both teams were ranked (CU 12, WSU 20). WSU won the last time out in Pullman, 27-3, two years ago on a miserable night (a late kickoff, cold and gusting winds had the wind chill in the low 20s). The schools did not play in 2013-14, after the Buffs won the in their first-ever trip to Pullman in 2012; Jordan Webb scored on a 4-yard run on fourth down with 9 seconds left to rally CU to a 35-34 win ... it would be CU's only win in a 1-11 season. The Cougars won the first game in the series with both schools as members of the Pac-12 Conference in 2011, scoring two touchdowns in the last 155 seconds to rally from a 27-17 deficit for a 31-27 win. That was the first meeting in seven years between the two, as CU had won 20-12 in Seattle in 2004 (at Qwest Field); that was a make-up contest from 2001 as the two were scheduled to play in Pullman on September 15, but the cowardly terrorist events of September 11 canceled the game. Thus, the order of a home-and-home series was switched, as he back end originally was the 2003 game in Boulder; when rescheduled, WSU officials decided to move the game to Seattle. The series between the pair began in 1981, with Washington State "stealing" a 14-10 win over the Buffaloes by scoring a pair of touchdowns in the final two minutes after two Buff punt mistakes. CU won the following year in Spokane, grabbing a 12-0 win on four Tom Field field goals. The next three games in the series were in Boulder, a 26-17 CU win in '87, a 37-19 Buff victory in '96 and a WSU 47-26 romp in 2003.

➔ CU coach Mike MacIntyre is 1-1 against Washington State; WSU coach Mike Leach is 2-5 versus Colorado (1-2 at WSU, 1-3 at Texas Tech).

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—The 12-0 win at Spokane in 1982 was the first of what would amount to 93 victories by CU's all-time winningest coach, Bill McCartney. It was the second game of his "Era," which had opened the previous week with a 31-17 loss to California in Boulder.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 5th. In 2012, Colorado escaped Pullman with a 35-34 victory, as the Buffaloes rallied from 31-14 down early in the fourth quarter. Nick Kasa raced 70 yards with a Jordan Webb pass that pulled CU to within 31-21 with 7:06 to play, and on CU's next series, on the second play Tony Jones ran 84 yards for a score to cut the deficit to 31-28 with 4:23 to go. After a WSU field goal upped its lead back to six at the 3:17 mark, Webb led Colorado on a 12-play, 70-yard drive for the tying score, which he ran in himself from 4 yards out with :09 left in the game; Will Oliver's PAT kick proved to be the winning point. It would be CU's only win in a 1-11 season that saw CU relieve head coach Jon Embree of his duties at the end of the year.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: OCTOBER 21

Colorado is 10-7 all-time on October 21, which includes a 3-4 record on the road. It's the second time the Buffs and Sooners will have played on the date, with the first meeting coming in 1972 when No. 9 Colorado defeated No. 2 Oklahoma 20-14 in Boulder. The Sooners had not allowed a touchdown in six games and led 7-0 at halftime, but TDs by Gary Campbell (a 43-yard run) and Jon Keyworth (a 6-yard pass from Ken Johnson) in the third quarter put CU up for good at 14-7. Two 33-yard field goals by Fred Lima sealed the deal for CU (Lima once played a cop in Conquest of the Planet of the Apes). Some other highlighted Oct. 21 games: 1923—CU scores a 60-0 win over State Teachers College (now Northern Colorado) in a game the '24 yearbook recapped with the following: "Colorado opened up with a bewildering offensive of passes and plunges that backed her opponents down the field for nine touchdowns. The pass formations used by Colorado seemed impossible to break, and the Withamites proved themselves to be powerful on the offense and a stone wall on the defense." Withamites? 1950—Merwin Hodel scored two touchdowns, Jim Dalthorp had 16 tackles and Zack Jordan averaged 57.1 yards on six punts as the Buffs hold off Arizona at Folsom, 28-25. 1961—CU moves to 4-0 on the season, holding Kansas State to just four first downs and 46 yards (on 52 plays) in Manhattan in a 13-0 win over the Wildcats. 1967—No one knew it at the time, but CU's 21-16 win at Nebraska would be the last by the Buffs over the Cornhuskers until 1986. CU returned two interceptions for scores, one by Dick Anderson who lateraled to Mike Veeder, the other by Jeff Raymond (who went on to star in St. Pauli beer commercials in the 70s and 80s). Anderson also had 13 tackles as CU was outgained 402-182 but forced eight turnovers. 1989—J.J. Flannigan rushed for 178 yards and three touchdowns on just 10 carries to lead CU to an easy 49-17 win at Kansas. 1995—CU cruised to a 27-10 halftime lead at Iowa State only to see the Cyclones storm back to take a 28-27 lead early in the fourth quarter. But a potent Buff running game led the comeback, along with a 30-yard interception return for a TD by Matt Russell paved the way for a 50-28 Colorado win. 2000—Roman Hollowell returned a punt 66 yards for a score and Mark Mariscal kicked three field goals but Kansas' running game (262 yards) proved too much as the Jayhawks won, 23-15, in Lawrence. 2006—Defense ruled the roost on this cold (46 degrees), windy (24 mph) evening in Norman, as Oklahoma defeated CU, 24-3. The Buffs held OU to 271 yards of total offense, but the Sooners did one better, limiting CU to 113. Mason Crosby's 39-yard field goal with 6:13 remaining kept alive CU's long scoring streak that dated back to 1988. OCTOBER 21 COLORADO MVP: TE J.V. Cain. The late Cain, who passed away suddenly in 1979 while a member of the St. Louis Cardinals, caught five passes for 102 yards in the '72 win over the Sooners; four of the grabs earned first downs, two coming on third-and-longs.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL NOTE / 1986

Thirty-one years ago, on Oct. 25, 1986, Colorado was coming off two wins after opening the season with four heart-wrenching losses, the last three of those by a combined eight points. The Buffs got into the win column with a 17-12 win at Missouri and then a 31-3 romp over Iowa State in Boulder. Game 7 that year saw No. 3 Nebraska heading to Boulder; the Buffaloes had given the Huskers all they could handle the previous two years, but still remained winless over their northeast neighbors since 1967. That game would soon be referred to as "The Turning Point" in the Bill McCartney Era, as a staunch CU defense limited Nebraska to an unheard of low of 123 yard rushing and 262 overall in a 20-10 victory. WR Jeff Campbell put CU on the board and ahead for good with a 39-yard touchdown run on a reverse, HB O.C. Oliver opened the fourth quarter with a 52-yard halfback option pass to SE Lance Carl for a score, and ILB Barry Remington sealed the win with an interception in the waning moments.

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Behind a dominant running game and an opportunistic, take-charge defense, the No. 12 Colorado Buffaloes dispatched No. 20 Washington State 38-24 at Folsom Field and remained in control of the Pac-12 Conference's South Division.

Tailback Phillip Lindsay and quarterback Sefo Liufau accounted for 252 of CU's 258 yards rushing and scored five touchdowns between them. Lindsay ran for 144 yards, going over 1,000 for the season and 2,000 for his career, and scored twice. Liufau ran for a career-best 108 yards, scored three TDs and completed 27-of-41 passes for 345 yards. With his 100-yard rushing, 300-yard passing game, Liufau became only the second player in CU history to accomplish that feat. The first was his backup, Steven Montez, this season at Oregon.

WSU entered the game with the Pac-12's top-ranked rushing defense, allowing only 116.9 yards a game. Cougars quarterback Luke Falk, the league leader in passing (361.0 yards a game) and total offense (356.2), completed 26-of-53 passes for 325 yards, with three TDs and one interception.

CU (9-2, 7-1) scored 10 points in the fourth quarter to put away WSU (8-3, 7-1), which had won eight straight after opening the season 0-2. It was CU's first win against a ranked opponent since 2009.

The Buffs stopped the Cougars on their first possession, took over and promptly marched 81 yards in 12 plays — mixing four pass completions with eight runs and scoring on a 9-yard carry by Lindsay. Davis Price's PAT put CU up 7-0.

But WSU retaliated quickly, and at the culmination of a 78-yard scoring drive CU lost safety Afolabi Laguda for the remainder of the game on a targeting call. He was whistled for hitting receiver Robert Lewis in the end zone during the completion of a 14-yard scoring pass as WSU tied the game at 7-7.

Later in the first quarter, Liufau was incomplete on a fourth-down pass and Falk and the Cougars needed just three plays to travel 72 yards and break the tie, the score coming on a 46-yard pass to Morrow.

The Buffs, though, came up with their own fourth-down stop early in the second quarter when Ahkello Witherspoon deflected a Falk pass. Liufau guided the Buffs 74 yards to the tying touchdown. He completed 5 of 6 passes for 50 yards, got a 10-yard run from Lindsay, and then gained the last 14 yards of the drive himself, including a 3-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 14-14.

WSU countered with a 28-yard field goal for a 17-14 lead that held until halftime.

Colorado quickly regained the lead, opening the third quarter with a 71-yard drive. CU converted three third-down attempts on the march, with Liufau keeping and converting on two of them before scoring a 7-yard keeper.

WSU responded once again, putting together a 67-yard scoring drive with Falk throwing a 7-yard TD pass to receiver John Thompson to take a 24-21 lead. It proved to be WSU's last points of the day.

The Buffs responded again, this time with a 75-yard scoring march. Liufau scored from 11 yards out to give the Buffs a 28-24 lead. The Buffs followed by coming up with a big fourth-down stop from Nick Fisher, which led to another CU score, a 46-yard Chris Graham field goal for a 31-24 lead.

Colorado then put the game away with a game-clinching 63-yard scoring drive that finished with a 13-yard Lindsay run and a 38-24 cushion.

In the closing minutes, the Buffs extended their nation-leading streak of games with at least one defensive takeaway to 24 when linebacker Addison Gillam recovered a fumble and Tedric Thompson intercepted a Falk pass.

GAME NOTES

Colorado snapped a 23-game losing streak against ranked teams, as the last win over a ranked foe was against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30 in Boulder) ... This was CU's 400th all-time victory at home (308th at Folsom Field) ... Colorado improved to 9-2 overall for the first time since 2001, and to 7-1 in league play for the first time since back-to-back in 2001-02 ... This marked the first time the Buffs wore silver-black-silver (as in helmet-jersey-pant color) ... CU gained a season-high 603 yards and is now 17-1 all-time with 600+ yards (2-1 under MacIntyre) ... CU had two 100-yard rushers for the first time since Sept. 26, 2015 (versus Nicholls State); it was the 40th time the Buffs had a 100-yard rusher and receiver and now are 30-10 in those games ... Colorado has now scored a touchdown on 7 of its 11 possessions to open a game (outscored the opponent 49-0; the Buffs own a similar edge on the first drive of the second half by 31-7) ... Jimmie Gilbert's sack/fumble force and Addison Gillam's recovery with 2:58 left in the game extended CU's nation-best streak to forcing at least one turnover in 24 straight games ... WSU averaged 8.4 yards on first down in the first half, but the Buffs kept that to 2.8 after intermission ... WSU completed under 50 percent of its passes for the first time all year (49.1, 26-of-53; their previous worst was 58.3 versus UCLA, 28-of-48); its 325 yards were the third lowest ... Liufau and S Nick Fisher (6,0—6 TT, 4 3DS, 1 PBU) won the Pac-12 offensive and defensive player of the week honors.

WASHINGTON STATE SNAPSHOT

Washington State is 6-1, reeling off six straight wins to open the season until a Friday the 13th loss at California last week. Committing seven turnovers (five interceptions, two fumbles) to non by the Bears, Cal methodically worked to a 37-3 victory. WSU went into the game averaging 39.7 points and 474.7 yards per game, but were held to just the one field goal and 337 yards. The Cal defense sacked Heisman Trophy candidate Luke Falk nine times for 64 yards. The Cougars are still 16-6 in their last 22 Pac-12 games. Washington State opened 6-0 for the seventh time in program history, and for the first time since 2001

➔ Washington State coach Mike Leach is in his sixth season in Pullman, owning a 35-35 record at the reins of the Cougars (23-26 in Pac-12 games). He is 119-78 in his 16th season as a head coach. He is no stranger to playing the Buffaloes, as he spent 11 seasons in the Big 12, one season as the offensive coordinator at Oklahoma in 1999 and 10 seasons as the head coach at Texas Tech (2000-09). The Buffs have been a thorn in his side, however: Leach has faced the Buffs seven times as an assistant and head coach and CU owns a 5-2 record against his teams. The Buffs beat Oklahoma in Boulder in 1999, 38-24, and then beat Texas Tech in Boulder in 2002 (37-13) and 2006 (30-6) and split two games in Lubbock, losing 26-21 in 2003 and winning in 2007, 31-26. Prior to his Big 12 days, Leach had been an offensive coordinator setting records at every stop, including Kentucky (1997-98), Valdosta State (1992-96) and Iowa Wesleyan (1989-91). He coached defense one season, the linebackers at the College of the Desert in 1988 one year after his coaching career began as an offensive line coach at Cal Poly in 1987.

RECORD WATCH

The list of records set or tied this far this season; the Buffaloes have set 13 records and tied 3 others to date, for a total of 16 in 2017; NOTE: CU did not adopt the NCAA 2002 policy of adding bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers, thus some may differ from NCAA totals.

D.J.'s DEBUT

New Colorado defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot joined some fine as well as rare company after the Buffaloes held Colorado State to just 3 points in his first game overseeing the CU defense. That was some 55 points fewer than the Rams scored in their opener in a 58-27 win over Oregon State). Since the defensive coordinator position evolved in the late 1960s, the three points by CSU tied for the fewest point Colorado has allowed in the first game of a new DC. Take a look:

END ZONE BLOCKADE

D.J. Eliot's defense made some history in his first season as CU's defensive coordinator: holding Colorado State and Texas State to one field goal apiece, it marked the first time since 1958 that Colorado had not allowed a touchdown in its first two games of the year (offensive or otherwise). In 1958, CU opened with a 13-3 win over Kansas State at home and then shut out Kansas on the road, 31-0. CU and Vanderbilt are tied for the second-fewest points allowed in the FBS with six, trailing only Air Force (which has allowed zero but has played just one game). The 123-plus minutes played this season were the fourth-most in the post-World War II Era that CU has gone without allowing a touchdown (offensive or otherwise); a closer look:

Fewest Points Allowed/First Two Games Of Season (post-World War II)

0	1954	(had shutouts in first three games)
0	1955	(Bufs allowed 6 points in game three)
3	1958	(three points in opener; 12 allowed in game three)
6	2017	(three points in both games)
7	1965	(TD in game two after opening with 0-0 tie at Wisconsin; 0 in third game)

Time Into Season, First TD Allowed (Team)

189:30	(Arizona; 5-yard rush)
135:06	(Arizona; 8-yard rush)

SWEET 16

Dating back to the start of the 2016 season, Colorado has held eight of 20 opponents to 16 points or less, including four Pac-12 foes; it had been awhile since the Buffs have accomplished these feats. The last time CU had as good of a 19-game stretch was over the 1992-93 seasons. Within one season, you have to go back to 1998, when CU held those same exact numbers (six and four) to 16 or fewer, except that the four league opponents were Big 12 Conference mates. The Buffs held seven teams overall to 16 or less in 1985 and 1991, and also held six teams to that in 1971, 1972, 1977, 1987, 19983 and 1998 (the best in the last 50 seasons is nine in 1967, when six Big 8 opponents were limited to 16 or less). League foes were held to 16 or less five times in 1985, 1993 and 1996.

JACKSON LEADS SACK ATTACK

Colorado recorded six quarterback sacks against Texas State (for 27 yards in losses); it marked CU's first six-sack game since Nov. 25, 2011 (six at Utah in the season finale); the last time with more than six was in 2010 (nine at Iowa State). DE Leo Jackson III had three of those sacks, becoming the first Buffalo in seven years to record that many in a game; OLB Josh Hartigan had been the last to do it, with three against Kansas State in Boulder on Nov. 20, 2010.

IN THE POLLS / SOME HISTORY

Colorado re-entered the national polls on October 2, 2016 for the first time in 11 years (since 2005), as the Buffaloes came in at No. 21 in the Associated Press (media) poll and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches ballot; while it lasted for just the one week, it was the first appearance since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs were No. 21 in the coaches' ballot and No. 22 in the AP survey. However, the Buffs reappeared three weeks later for the remainder of 2016. The Buffs own the ninth longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the fifth week of 1997, CU had a run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has now been ranked 302 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 307), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the top four you say? ... the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 12, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

45 WINS OVER AP RANKED TEAMS 20TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 45 wins over Associated Press ranked teams dating back to the 1989 season (when the AP expanded to a top 25) are the 20th most in the nation in this time frame (28 seasons). Through games of Oct. 14, Alabama has the most (84), followed by Florida State (82), Ohio State (79), Florida (76), LSU (70), Michigan (68), Southern Cal (66), Oklahoma (65), Miami, Fla. (58), Tennessee (58), Georgia (55), Auburn (54), Oregon (53), Texas (53), UCLA (51), Notre Dame (50), Penn State (49), Clemson (49), Washington (48), Nebraska (47), Colorado (45) and Michigan State (44). All-time, Colorado's 68 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the sixth most ranked teams in the nation (131, with a record of 45-84-2), trailing only Florida (146; 75-70-1), LSU (142; 70-72), Alabama 141 (84-56-1), Michigan 132 (68-64-2) and Ohio State 132 (79-50-3); the runner-up in wins, Florida State, has played 129; 82-47.

- CU had lost 23 straight against ranked teams until defeating No. 23 Washington State, 38-24, in Boulder on Nov. 19; its previous win was against No. 17 Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 17, 2009 (CU, 34-30). CU's last win over a top 5 or 10 team was on Sept. 29, 2007 (a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in Boulder).
- Note: ASU State was ranked No. 24 in the USA Today/Coaches poll when CU defeated it, 40-16; but all historical records are solely against those teams ranked by the AP.
- The Buffs have still lost 27 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002.

FOUR STRAIGHT IN THE CENTENNIAL STATE

The Buffaloes opened 2017 by playing their first four games of the season within the state, three of them being at Folsom Field. CU did not leave the state until week five, when the Buffs traveled to UCLA on Sept. 30 (a 27-23 loss). The last time Colorado played its first four games to start a year within the Centennial State was in 2001, opening at home with Fresno State before facing Colorado State in Denver in week two and then hosted San Jose State in week three. However, a Sept. 15 game at Washington State was cancelled and CU resumed the following Saturday against Kansas at Folsom Field. Otherwise, other years in which CU opened with four straight games in Colorado was in 1998 and 1978; both times opening with 4-0 records. The 2001 team, like the '17 edition, won three of the four. CU finished 8-4 in '98 and 6-5 in '78. Looking ahead, in 2019 and 2021 there is the potential for the same: CU will open up both those seasons with three non-conference games within the state, so if the Pac-12 gives the Buffs a home conference opener in week four, the same could occur.

A COLORADO FIRST: FOUR WITH 100-PLUS

Colorado is the only team in the country that has four active players with 100 or more career receptions. Shay Fields is the leader with 177, and he was joined during the Texas State game by both Devin Ross and Bryce Bobo as they surpassed the century mark (becoming the 15th and 16th Buffaloes in history to catch over 100 balls). That marked the first time that the Buffaloes had three players on the same team to hit the century mark in receptions, and when Phillip Lindsay caught four balls at UCLA, he then reached the century mark. Prior to this, only two other times in CU history had the Buffs featured a roster that sported two players with over 100 career catches at the same time. It first occurred in 1993 when both Charles E. Johnson and Michael Westbrook surpassed the mark, with the second time in 1996 when Rae Carruth and Phil Savoy were above the century mark; the 2013 team came close with Paul Richardson (156) and Nelson Spruce (99). Colorado is also one of only four FBS teams currently that feature at least three receivers with 100 or more career receptions:

BOUNDS HAULS IN TWO SCORES, FIRST TIGHT END TO DO SO IN 12 YEARS

In making the first two TD receptions of his career against Arizona (Oct. 7), TE Chris Bounds became the first Colorado tight end to have two in a game since Joe Klopfenstein did so against Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 22, 2005. The TD grabs were Bounds' only two receptions of the game (he entered the contest with just two career catches for 14 yards); the first TD was a 2-yard score on 4th-and-goal, which was then followed by a 39-yarder, most of which he covered on the ground. His game was almost identical to Klopfenstein's back in '05: against the Jayhawks he also only had two catches in that game; they were three-yard and 40-yard TD passes from Joel Klatt. He also had two-touchdown games in 2004 against North Texas and in 2003 versus Washington State.

LINDSAY TOPS 5,000 APY; ALREADY A MEMBER OF CU's 500/500 CLUB; AIMING TO BE FIRST 1,000/1,000

TB Phillip Lindsay, who has been nicknamed the “Tazmanian Devil” by the coaches, has rapidly moved up CU's all-time all-purpose yards chart every season until taking over the top spot; he rose from 33rd to third last year alone with 4,029 yards at season's end. He has rushed for 3,228 yards, has 869 receiving and 1,077 in kickoff return yardage. He became the 14th player to join CU's 500/500 Club (rushing and receiving yards), and now has the second most total combined yards of the 14; he is gunning to become the first player in CU history to have 1,000 yards rushing AND receiving. AND LINDSAY HAS MADE SOME OTHER HISTORY

When TB Phillip Lindsay had career-highs of six receptions for 105 yards in the 21-17 loss at USC last October 8, he made some history in the process. He became just the fifth running back to have 100-plus receiving yards in Colorado history, and the first to do it since 2001, when TB Cortlen Johnson had identical numbers in a 40-27 Colorado win at Iowa State. Then in the Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State, he did it again, becoming the first running back to have 100 or more receiving yards twice in a game. A look at this rare quintet of players:

LINDSAY ONE-LINERS

- ▶ Lindsay rushed for a then career-high 219 yards (on 26 carries) against Arizona State last year in CU's 40-16 win. It was CU's first 200-plus game since 2002 (Chris Brown, 211 at Missouri) and the 24th 200-yard game in school history. He became the 15th different Buffalo to rush for 200-plus in a game.
- ▶ He then topped that effort with 281 yards (on a school-record 41 carries) against Arizona on Oct. 7.
- ▶ He became CU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2010, when Rodney “Speedy” Stewart had 1,318 (with 10 touchdowns on 290 carries).
- ▶ His 11 receptions versus UCLA (for 76 yards) last year were a record for the most in a game by a CU running back; the old mark was nine by FB Lawrence Vickers versus Oklahoma State in Boulder on Oct. 9, 2004 (for 96 yards).
- ▣ Lindsay has 103 receptions in his career, the most-ever by a running back at Colorado (he passed Rodney Stewart, who had 93 from 2008-11); his 869 yards are the second-most to Stewart's 969.
- ▣ His 16 rushing touchdowns in 2016 were the most since 2002, when Chris Brown had 18; his 17 overall scores were also the most since Brown's 2002 count. The last CU running back with double-digit rushing touchdowns in a season had been Rodney Stewart with 10 in 2010.
- ▶ He is one of 16 active NCAA players to have at least two 200-yard games (joined by Oregon's Royce Freeman and Stanford's Bryce Love in the Pac-12).

LINDSAY SETS CU ALL-PURPOSE YARDS MARK WHILE CLIMBING OTHER CHARTS

TB Phillip Lindsay has four 100-yard rushing games this season, giving him 10 for his career. He has now scored at least one touchdown in 18 of his last 22 games, going back to the 2015 finale at Utah, and with 210 career points, he is now sixth all-time at Colorado. He is now third on CU's all-time rushing list with 3,228 yards. But the one mark that is really the bellcow for a player who was barely recruited after tearing his ACL in his season opener as a high school senior is CU's all-purpose yards record. He has 5,174, passing Rodney Stewart (4,828, 2008-11) for all-time at CU after amassing 320 yards against Arizona. He's also the fourth active all-purpose yards leader in the NCAA (CU does not include bowl statistics since the NCAA only does since 2002):

LINDSAY LOOKS TO BE THE FIRST TO HIT 1,000 BACK-TO-BACK

TB Phillip Lindsay is five yards shy of recording a second consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, which would make him the first running back in school history to rush for over 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Eric Bienenmy is the only CU tailback with two 1,000-yard rushing seasons, but he did so in 1988 and 1990, not consecutively (he was injured for the first few games of the '89 season). If Lindsay can get five yards on his first carry of the Washington State game, Lindsay will hit the 1,000-yard mark on the same exact number of carries that he did last season, but it will come in three fewer games played in.

MORE LINDSAY NOTES

- ▶ Lindsay ranks No. 3 in the nation in rushing attempts with 178.
- ▶ Lindsay ranks fifth in the FBS in total rushing yards and is tied for sixth in rushing touchdowns with 10.
- ▶ He now has 3,228 rushing yards (CU's official stats do not count bowl games, thus the difference in numbers from the NCAA all-purpose yards chart on the previous page), as he moved into third place all-time at CU, passing Rashaan Salaam (3,057, 1992-94). He now trails only Eric Bienenmy (3,940, 1987-90) and Rodney Stewart (3,598, 2008-11).
- ▶ Last weekend with two TDs, he became the seventh player in school history to score 200 points (210).
- ▶ He has 10 games in his career rushing for over 100 yards (four in 2017).
- ▶ He has five runs of over 35 yards this season, which ranks in a tie for the ninth most in the FBS.
- ▶ His 3,291 career rushing yards (counting bowl games like the NCAA does) ranks 10th among active FBS players.

ANOTHER PINNACLE RECORD WITHIN REACH

TB Phillip Lindsay entered the year needed 1,708 rushing yards to surpass Eric Bienenmy (1987-90) as CU's all-time leading rusher. A tall task, as only two Colorado tailbacks have toppled 1,700 rushing yards in a season (Rashaan Salaam with 2,055 in 1994 and Chris Brown with 1,744 in 2002). However, through seven games Lindsay has put up 955 yards and surpassed the 3,000-yard mark to become the fifth Buff to hit that milestone (just passed Rashaan Salaam for third on CU's all-time rushing list). Lindsay now needs 713 yards in the final five games (an average of 142.6 per) to break Bienenmy's school record of 3,940. Seven games into the season, Lindsay's per game average is at 142.1 (sixth in the country), so he will have to maintain his current pace to get to the top (he is 370 yards behind Rodney Stewart, who holds the second-place spot with 3,598 yards between 2008-11).

- ▶ Lindsay has faced Washington State twice in his career and in those games he has rushed the ball 47 times for 231 yards (4.9 per rush) with two TDs.

LINDSAY GOES OFF; SETS TWO SCHOOL RECORDS

Against Arizona, TB Phillip Lindsay set a new school record for rushing attempts in a game (41) and also became Colorado's all-time leader in all-purpose yards. His career-high 281 yards rushing (fourth most in CU history) along with his three receptions for 39 yards gave him 320 all-purpose yards (seventh most in school history) and pushed him past Rodney Stewart (2008-11) for the most ever by a Colorado Buffalo. Lindsay now stands with 5,174 career all-purpose yards (not counting last year's bowl game). When including the Alamo Bowl, he became the fifth active player with over 5,000 all-purpose yards (see page 12 – SDSU's Rashaad Penny also passed the milestone last weekend as they became the fourth and fifth active players over 5,000).

► Lindsay's second career 200-yard rushing game made him the 16th active FBS player to have two or more 200 games in a career. Oregon's Royce Freeman and Stanford's Bryce Love are also on that list with Lindsay.

► He is currently third in yards from scrimmage with 4,097, trailing Bieniemy (4,320) and TB Rodney Stewart (4,567), so he needs 471 to take over that record;

► He is sixth in scoring (210 points, but is third by non-kickers; Bieniemy scored 254 points and Bobby Anderson 221 (he just passed Chris Brown 204).

► He scored three rushing touchdowns against the Wildcats, his third career three-TD game and two of those three have come against Arizona (the other was against Arizona State). Lindsay's three touchdowns gave him 30 for his career at the time, making him the fifth Buff in history to score 30 or more touchdowns on the ground (he's now up to 32):

MOST RUSHING TDS IN CU HISTORY

41 – Eric Bieniemy (1987-90)

34 – Chris Brown (2001-02)

34 – Bob Anderson (1967-69)

33 – Rashaan Salam (1992-94)

32 – Phillip Lindsay (2014-17)

PENSION FOR FIRST(S)

In 1987, Colorado started tracking first downs earned; it caught on in the NFL a few years later but never in college, but it's a cool stat: a player is credited with one when he earns one by rushing or receiving, and the quarterback also gets credited when throwing one. TB Phillip Lindsay had a game for the ages in this regard last Saturday against Arizona, as he tied the school mark for a non-quarterback with 17 (a record 16 of which were rushing); the late Rashaan Salaam set the mark on Oct. 1, 1994 when he had 15 rushing and two receiving. Even more remarkable was that 11 of those came on third (8) and fourth (3) downs: Lindsay was 8-of-11 on third downs and made all three of his fourth down tries.

THE "BLACKOUT BOYZ"

While on the subject, CU's receiving corps have nicknamed themselves the "Blackout Boyz," mainly led by the four starters: seniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross and junior Jay MacIntyre. The quartet's season totals: 109 receptions, 1,361 yards, 12.5 per, 9 TDs; those four against Northern Colorado combined for 26 catches for 342 yards (13.2 per), with four touchdowns and all 16 first downs earned in the passing game. It was the first time since Sept. 27, 2014 at California that four different Buffaloes caught TD passes (when five did so in the 59-56 double overtime loss: Nelson Spruce had three while Bryce Bobo, George Frazier, D.D. Goodson and Sean Irwin all caught one).

PAC-12 GAME LENGTH EXPERIMENT

The Pac-12 experimented in the non-conference season with a few shortened commercial breaks (60 seconds cut from quarter breaks), kickoff times 1 minute past the hour (instead of 7) and/or halftimes cut from 20 to 15 minutes; all experiments took place in games on the Pac-12 Networks. The CU-Texas State had a reduced commercial format and took 3:01 to play, while the CU-Northern Colorado tried out the 15-minute halftime (the game still took 3:22 to play, largely due to 21 combined penalties and several replay reviews). Ironically, the next game (Washington) took just 2:57 to play, CU's fastest game since 2014.

RED ZONE DEFENSE

Colorado remains one of the top teams in the nation when it comes to red zone defense. The opponent has made 24 trips inside-the-20 against CU, and while coming away with 20 scores, 10 have been field goals. Note: the NCAA counts a team taking a knee inside-the-20 to end of game; our stats do not (and since we invented it back in 1981 and the NFL goes by our format, we will not adjust); thus the Buffs are 52nd in allowing scores 80 percent of the time in the national rankings, when the realistic number is 83.3 (but it's not known who else has included the same). Regardless, when it comes to allowing touchdowns, the Buffs have allowed just 10, or 502 percent; just two of those have been via passing, tied for the third fewest touchdowns allowed via the pass. And once in the red zone, opponent have run 61 plays for a net 153 yards (2.5 per), and are just 4-of-15 on third down.

FIELDS: MR. DEEP THREAT

Senior WR Shay Fields has nine career plays from scrimmage that are 50 yards or longer; the school record is 13, set by WR Paul Richardson (2010-13). Fields last season averaged 16.3 yards per catch but is a little lower this year (13.0), as his long is “just” 44 yards. He rose fast on CU’s all-time receiving charts and currently has 177 receptions (third), 2,307 yards (seventh) and 19 touchdowns (sixth). Fields’ long-receptions (quarterback in parenthesis):

75 at Arizona	2014 (Liufau; TD)	67 at Arizona State	2015 (Liufau)	60 vs. Colorado State	2016 (Liufau)
72 Arizona	2015 (Liufau; TD)	65 vs. Colorado State	2015 (Liufau; TD)	52 Utah	2014 (Liufau)
70 at Michigan	2016 (Liufau; TD)	63 Oregon State	2016 (Montez; TD)	51 Oregon State	2016 (Montez; TD)

Fields’ 19 career touchdown receptions have covered some 621 yards (19, 4, 2 and 75 as a freshman in 2013; 65, 8, 72 and 30 as a sophomore in 2015; 70, 7, 51, 33, 63, 15, 15, 27 and 6 in 2016; and 31 and 28 this season); that works to 32.7 per score.

► MOST YARDS AGAINST ONE OPPONENT: Fields had two 100-yard games versus Arizona, but came up just short for the record for the most against a single team, as he caught 22 passes for 408 yards (with 5 touchdowns) against the Wildcats; still, it was the second most by a Buff against any team:

424—Paul Richardson vs. California (0 in 2010, 284 in 2011, 140 in 2013); 408—Shay Fields vs. Arizona (94 in 2014, 168 in 2015, 108 in 2016, 38 in 2017), 319—Nelson Spruce vs. California (140 in 2013, 179 in 2014); 318—Charles Johnson vs. Oklahoma (182 in 1992, 136 in 1993).

SHAY FIELDS AMONG PAC-12 LEADERS

WR Shay Fields is third all-time at CU in receptions with 177, and is just outside the top 10 among the active FBS leaders in receptions and yards (10th is Penn State’s Daesean Hamilton with 183 for 2,351). He is also looking to become the 10th active FBS player with 20 or more touchdown receptions in a career (he would become the sixth Buff to do so); the active FBS leaders in TD catches: James Washington, Oklahoma State 33; Anthony Miller, Memphis, 28; Courtland Sutton, SMU, 26; Dante Pettis, Washington, 23; Richie James, Middle Tennessee, 22; Christian Kirk, Texas A&M, 21; Darren Carrington, Utah, 20; Allen Lazard, Iowa State, 20; Cody Thompson, Toledo, 20. THE PAC-12 LEADERBOARD IN:

MORE FIELDS

A true deep threat, WR Shay Fields has nine career plays of 50 yards or longer (seven of which are over 60 yards); that places him in a tie for third in the NCAA among active leaders behind Oklahoma State’s James Washington (14) and Toledo’s Cody Thompson (10). Through seven games in 2017, his long is “just” 44 yards as he is still looking to crack double figures (CU’s record is 13 by WR Paul Richardson). FBS active career leaders with 50-plus yard receptions:

16 – James Washington, Oklahoma State	7 – Christian Kirk, Texas A&M	6 – Jamire Jordan, Fresno State
10 – Cody Thompson, Toledo	7 – J’Mon Moore, Missouri	5 – Josh Malone, Tennessee
9 – Shay Fields, Colorado	7 – Jester Weah, Pittsburgh	5 – Clinton Lynch, Georgia Tech
9 – Devonte Boyd, UNLV	6 – Keke Coutee, Texas Tech	5 – Chris Platt, Baylor
9 – Calvin Ridley, Alabama	6 – Anthony Miller, Memphis	5 – Demetris Robertson, California
7 – Richie James, Middle Tennessee	6 – Allenzae Staggers, Southern Miss

FACT: MOST EXPERIENCED PASS CATCHERS

Colorado returned almost all of its receptions from 2016: of the 267 completions last season, all but three passes were caught by players who are returning in 2017 (and one of those three was by a quarterback). That figure tied Wake Forest for the fewest number of receptions lost from any of the 128 FBS programs.

► Colorado led the nation in percentage of total receptions returning for 2017 (264 or 267, or 99.0 percent; Wake Forest was next (98.4, 187 of 190), with Troy third (96.8, 305 of 315), TCU fourth (96.6, 285 of 295) and Vanderbilt fifth (95.7, 201 of 210).

ACTIVE NCAA RECEIVING DUOS

The Buffaloes have three of the top 10 active receiving duos – by number of receptions – in the nation (research by Syracuse sports info):

366 Syracuse: Ervin Phillips (190), Steve Ishmael (176)	297 Colorado: Shay Fields (177), Devin Ross (120)
341 Middle Tennessee: Richie James (239), Ty Lee (102)	286 Washington State: Jamal Morrow (169), Robert Lewis (117)

CB ISAIAH OLIVER AMONG PAC-12 ELITE

Junior CB Isaiah Oliver is currently second in the nation in passes defended with 11 on the year (9 PBU / 2 INT). Taking a look at the Pac-12, he is second among the active leaders in passes defended as he has become the 18th Buffalo in history to break up 25 or more passes in a career (and he has done so in just 32 career games, in eight of which he has had multiple pass breakups):

CAREER PASSES DEFENDED – PAC-12 LEADERS

Name, School	Cl.	Passes Defended (Breakups/Interceptions)
Arrion Springs, Oregon	Sr.	35 (34/1)
Isaiah Oliver, CU	Jr.	31 (28/3)
Iman Marshall, USC	Jr.	31 (25/6)
Darius Allensworth, Cal	Sr.	24 (22/2)
Marcellus Pippins, WSU	Sr.	19 (14/5)

Oliver, who is a two-sport star, has competed two seasons in the decathlon on CU's outdoor track team, and is a two-time All-Pac-12 performer in the event. As a sophomore, he finished fourth at the 2017 Pac-12 Championships with 7,394 points (just 136 out of the lead), and he won the 100-meter (10.82) and 400-meter (48.15) dashes and the long jump (24-1); placed second in the 110-hurdles (14.36) and the shot put (42-2) and third in the discus (121-7)

His father, Muhammad, was also a two-sport star in college. He was a world-class decathlete (an NCAA track All-American) at Oregon and was also a cornerback for the Ducks before being selected in the ninth round of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos and playing five seasons in the league with five teams (Denver, Green Bay, Kansas City, Miami and Washington).

OLIVER'S TRAVELS

Up until last Saturday at Oregon State, the action coming CB Isaiah Oliver's way in every game had decreased. He still ranks fourth in the FBS in passes defended with 11 (nine breakups and two interceptions), and that figure is the high in the Pac-12 Conference. Opposing quarterbacks are completing 40.0 percent of their pass attempts when targeting Oliver.

Note: interceptions listed in parenthesis are interceptions by teammates on passes thrown at the receiver Oliver was covering.

TOUGH TO THROW AT

Last season CB Isaiah Oliver ranked No. 2 among Pac-12 cornerbacks returning in 2017 in completion percentage against, as opponents connected on just 43.1 percent of passes targeted his way. Oliver got off to quite the strong start this year, as he only allowed 6 of 15 passes to be completed on him against Colorado State; that is just 40 percent and of the 15 passes thrown his way, 10 of them were when he was in coverage on CSU wide receiver Michael Gallup. Gallup has NFL potential and the week before in CSU's win over Oregon State, he caught 11 passes for 134 yards. Oliver broke up four passes in the game, setting a new career-high, and Ram quarterback Nick Stevens had just a 61.95 passer efficiency rating when throwing at Oliver (one of Stevens' passes was picked off by Evan Worthington when he was targeting the receiver Oliver was covering).

► In CU's 2017 season opener, Oliver's four pass breakups were the second-most of any player in week one (or week zero for that matter) of the college football season. Only Ohio State junior Denzel Ward had more. Ward broke up five passes and also had an interception for the Buckeyes in their win at Indiana.

JUST IN CASE YOU WERE WONDERING

... about the debut of redshirt freshman CB Trey Udoffia. The receiver he was targeted 15 times in the game (32 percent of CSU's Nick Stevens' pass attempts) and he allowed eight completions for 114 yards, but no touchdowns and he picked off one pass and broke up another two attempts. Stevens had a passer rating of 103.84 when throwing Udoffia's way. The Loomis, Calif. native finished with five tackles in his first game action in college football.

WORTH(INGTON) THE WAIT

S Evan Worthington in seven games has posted 48 tackles (39 solo, three for losses), has all three of his career interceptions to go with five pass deflections, five third down stops and five touchdown saves. He had a career-high 12 (all solo stops) in CU's 36-33 win at Oregon State, with eight on two other occasions (Colorado State and UCLA). In his true freshman season, he played in 12 games (three starts) and recorded 31 tackles; in 2015, he was in just three games on defense (he made two tackles). After sitting out 2016, he is off to quite the start to his redshirt junior season and currently ranks fourth on the team in tackles while playing in 118 snaps from scrimmage (Note: he was Evan White his first two years as a Buff, but took on a family name upon his return).

2017 Note: Colorado opened 3-0 for the 41st time in its 128-year history, but for the first time since 2008 and just the second time since opening 5-0 in 1998 (3-0 also in 2004; 1998 remains the last time the Buffs were 4-0 – Rick Neuheisel's final year as head coach before moving on to Washington in 1999).

OLIVER SNAPS 11-YEAR DROUGHT; SHENAULT MAKES IT TWO IN EIGHT-GAME SPAN

CB Isaiah Oliver's 68-yard punt return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter in CU's 20-10 win over UCLA last Nov. 3 was the first punt return for a TD by a Buffalo since WR Stephone Robinson brought one back 81 yards against Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 22, 2005. In the game, Oliver returned five punts for 124 yards and was the first Buff to have over 100 yards in punt returns in a game since WR Josh Smith (4-108) against Eastern Washington on Sept. 6, 2008; it was the most yards since WR Roman Hollowell had 148 on six returns against Fresno State on Aug. 26, 2001. Then against Texas State this year, WR Laviska Shenault scooped up a fumble and raced it back 55 yards for a score — the NCAA officially terms it a punt return (and not a fumble), so thus, he made the list. CU's punt returns for touchdowns over the last 20 years (yards listed first):

82	Cedric Cormier vs. Colorado State in Denver, Sept. 5, 1998 (TD).	69	Roman Hollowell vs. Missouri in Boulder, Nov. 3, 2001 (TD).
68	Ben Kelly vs. Utah State in Boulder, Sept. 19, 1998 (TD).	75	Jeremy Bloom vs. Colorado State in Denver, Aug. 31, 2002 (TD).

2017 GAME RECOGNITIONS

Here is the list of those players who carried Colorado's symbolic artifacts when they took the field prior to each game; the sledgehammer is awarded for the toughest legal hit in the previous game (or in camp). The out of state flags were carried by natives of Texas and Florida as a show of support for the victims of Hurricanes Harvey and Irma:

GOING LOW

The CU-Stanford game was the fifth-lowest scoring game of the 2016 season involving an FBS program, as the Buffs won 10-5 in Palo Alto; it was one of 11 games with 20 or fewer points the entire year. Fast-forward to 2017, and the Buffaloes once again have participated in one of the nation's lowest-scoring affairs, their 17-3 season-opening win over Colorado State. In fact, it's tied for the second-lowest scoring through games of Oct. 14:

Oct. 7	Marshall 14, CHARLOTTE 3	17	Sept. 2	MINNESOTA 17, Buffalo 7	24
Sept. 1	Colorado 17, Colorado State 3 (Denver)	20	Sept. 9	Old Dominion 17, MASSACHUSETTS 7	24
Sept. 9	CLEMSON 14, Auburn 6	20	Sept. 28	Texas 17, IOWA STATE 7	24
Sept. 23	Florida International 13, RICE 7	20	Oct. 7	Michigan State 14, MICHIGAN 10	24
Oct. 14	ARIZONA STATE 13, Washington 7	20	Oct. 14	South Carolina 15, TENNESSEE 9	24
Sept. 16	VANDERBILT 14, Kansas State 7	21	Oct. 14	SOUTHERN MISS 24, Texas-El Paso 0	24
Sept. 16	MARSHALL 21, Kent State 0	21

➤ Colorado won three games in 1966 when scoring fewer than 14 points; but how rare was CU's 10-5 win at Stanford in 2016? It was just the ninth win in the last 50 seasons where the Buffs won when scoring under 14 points, and the first in 20 years. A look at these low scoring affairs (#—Orange Bowl):

Nov. 11, 1967	KANSAS	W 12- 8	Sept. 18, 1982	at Washington State	W 12- 0	Oct. 8, 1992	at Missouri	W 6- 0
Nov. 5, 1977	at Iowa State	W 12- 7	Jan. 1, 1991	#Notre Dame	W 10- 9	Nov. 16, 1996	KANSAS STATE	W 12- 0
Oct. 17, 1981	OKLAHOMA STATE	W 11-10	Oct. 26, 1991	at Kansas State	W 10- 0	Oct. 22, 2016	at Stanford	W 10- 5

Note: CU scored two touchdowns in the '67 and '96 games, four field goals in the '82 game; and two field goals in the '92 game; others were a combination.

BALL SECURITY UNDER MAC

The Buffaloes have had nothing short of incredible ball security in the MacIntyre Era, including CU's all-time low of 12 in the 2014 season. In 57 games under Mike MacIntyre, CU has not had any fumbles in 23 games, has not lost a fumble in 27 of those 58 and just one in 18 other games (meaning more than one only 17 times); that's just 76 total fumbles. In the four-plus seasons, the tailbacks have been exceptionally good: they total just 16 fumbles in 1,679 attempts, or one every 104.9 carries (they didn't have a fumble among them in Mac's first year until the ninth game of the year—254 attempts). Career counts of current Buffaloes: Phillip Lindsay has nine in 786 touches (641 rushes; but two of those fumbles were on kickoff returns as a freshman); Michael Adkins II just three in 275 (247 rushes); Kyle Evans one in 108 (101 rushes) and Beau Bisharat one in 31 (all rushes).

➤ In four-plus seasons under MacIntyre, the Buffs have just the 76 fumbles in 5,262 touches, or one for every 69.2 plays (this year: 8 in 620 touches: 530 offensive plays (includes one 2-pt play), 59 special team snaps, 31 returns. And of those 76 fumbles, the Buffs have lost just 35.

FALL ROSTER MOVES

Addition: A late walk on is WR Jack Moran, a true freshman who played his high school ball locally at Denver East. Removal: On Sept. 26, Coach Mike MacIntyre announced that sophomore DE Frank Umu has been dismissed from the football program. Umu, 6-4, 295, is from Littleton, Colo., and played his prep ball at Heritage High School. He appeared in 11 games including the Alamo Bowl as a redshirt freshman in 2016, playing a total of 18 snaps on defense while being in on the PAT/field goal team for 41 tries on the season.

GRADUATION REVIEW

(Through August 2017) Over the last 16 years, Colorado has had 286 of its 317 seniors graduate, or translating to 90.2 percent in this time frame (including 25 of the 31 seniors in 2016); these are the 2001-2016 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last eight years, 171 of the last 187 have graduated (91.4%), with nine of those 16 playing in the NFL and haven't yet been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren.

TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.58 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2017 semester is its sixth highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has 14 straight semester GPA's over 2.50.

CAPTAINS

On the Thursday prior to this year's spring game (March 16), the team met to elect their 2017 captains; head coach Mike MacIntyre has a two-stage process to select the captains, and the voting is limited to those players who have been in the program at least 18 months (one year if a JUCO transfer). Six players emerged from the process and were selected as captains of MacIntyre's fifth CU team: three who were captains last year: seniors TE/DE George Frazier, OT Jeromy Irwin and TB Phillip Lindsay, one who was in 2015, OLB Derek McCartney (when it was 12-man leadership group that rotated as game captains), and two first-timers: senior S Afolabi Laguda and junior ILB Rick Gamboa.

❶ In 2016, QB Sefo Liufau became the just the second player in CU history to serve three years as a captain, the first since Pat Carney did so 123 years earlier in 1891-92-93; Lindsay now joins that most exclusive group, having served as a sophomore in 2015 and last year as a junior.

❷ Frazier, Irwin and McCartney become the 11th, 12th and 13th players in school history to be named a captain twice; in addition to the trio of three-year captains, they also join these players selected twice: Harry Gamble (1894-96), ILB Barry Remington (1985-86), TB Bobby Purify (2003-04), QB Joel Klatt (QB, 2004-05), ILB Addison Gillam (2014-15), WR Nelson Spruce (2014-15) and ILB Kenneth Olugbode (2015-16).

❸ Lindsay is one of six players in the nation currently serving in his third year as a team captain; he's joined by Justin Lawler and Courtland Sutton (SMU), J.T. Barrett (Ohio State), Ja'Whaun Bentley (Purdue) and Lamar Jordan (New Mexico).

700 CLUB ON HORIZON

Colorado has an all-time record of 699-497-26 (a .582 winning percentage), as the Buffaloes are 25th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-I). The Buffs are just one win away from 700 and thus would be the 25th FBS program to reach the victory milestone; the top 30 in all-time wins:

AHEAD IN A BIG WAY

From 2006-15, the opponent had almost always had a distinct advantage in TSL (time spent in the lead), but CU reversed that and then some in 2016 and is off to a good start this season. The Buffs led for 457 minutes and 20 seconds, or 59 percent of the time; opponents for just 24 percent and the score tied the other 17 percent. CU led for more minutes in 2016 than it had in all 11 previous years after just eight games (and when it held the edge over an entire season just twice: 2005 and 2010). A closer look, including the first six games of 2017 (bow! games not included):

MAC 3.0

In his 28 seasons as a coach, head or assistant, pro or college, this was the first time Mike MacIntyre was part of team that opened a season 3-0. He has been a member of several teams that started out 2-0 (which he has done three times at CU). As a player, as a freshman at Vanderbilt playing for his late father, George, the Commodores started 3-0 in 1984.

30

Colorado is 17-7 under head coach Mike MacIntyre in games where it scores 30 or more points, including 3-1 this season after going 7-0 in 2016 (7-27 when held to under 30).

100/300

The Buffaloes have historically done well when holding the opponent to under 100 yards rushing and under 300 yards total offense. Dating back to the start of the 1985 season, Colorado is 102-14-1 when the opponent fails to reach 100 yards on the ground, and 101-20-1 when the enemy is held under 300 yards overall. CU is 9-0 and 12-0 in each, respectively, in 58 games under Mike MacIntyre.

HOME COOKING IN '16

Colorado won its 400th game in Boulder against Washington State last November (dating back to the 1890s on assorted campus fields); the Buffs enjoyed their first undefeated season at home (6-0) since 1994. The friendly confines of Folsom Field were just that, as CU outscored the opponents 228-85, allowing just eight touchdowns (three on short fields). CU outgained the six by 3,025-1,532, with a 158-78 edge in first downs. Opponents converted at just a 24.2 clip on third downs (24-of-99) and crossed the 50 just 36 times in 90 drives (eight three-and-outs, running 144 plays for only 515 yards in plus territory).

2017 MAJOR RULE CHANGES

The NCAA football rules committee recommended a very small number of changes for the 2017 season; since game lengths have come under fire, here's what was approved:

Point of Emphasis - Game Length

Length of games is a topic under active discussion among many in college football. The NCAA football rules committee has also been looking at this, as game times have crept up over the last several years.

Since 2008, when games at the FBS level averaged three hours and nine minutes, game time on average in 2016 stretched to three hours and 22 minutes, an increase of 13 minutes. Of course, this is an average that washes out a lot of detail. But it is clear that with a growing number of teams running high-powered offenses that generate more plays and more touchdowns, the overall length of games has naturally gone up.

In discussing this trend, the rules committee has not settled on an optimum game length. But the general sense is that times as long as three and a half hours would not be good for the game. As the committee seeks ways to deal with this, there is little support for making rules changes that would take plays out of the game. And so it will look for ways to manage the length of the game by addressing how to manage the dead-ball times. Officials are charged with the responsibility of being efficient in handling dead-ball intervals and plays where the game clock stops, such as incomplete passes.

One point of emphasis for the officials this year will be to have better control of the length of halftime. By rule the halftime is 20 minutes, but there are often some delays in starting the countdown. Also, current rules allow the schools to mutually agree that the halftime will be longer than 20 minutes. One small but perhaps significant editorial change for 2017 is this: the teams will be allowed to agree on a shorter halftime, but they may not make it longer than 20 minutes. And the referees are being instructed to start the 20-minute halftime countdown as soon as the first half ends, per the language of the rule. The hope is that these steps will halt the trend for longer game times.

LONG DRIVES

On occasion in this era of hurry-up offenses, under Mike MacIntyre, the Buffaloes have occasionally had a pension for long drives (35 of 80 yards or longer), drives with 15 or more plays (nine), and even a handful (six) that have consumed six or more minutes; two fall into that category this year (see below). In 14 games last year, Colorado had 11 scoring drives over 80 yards (long of 87 twice, both engineered by Steven Montez in the Oregon and Oregon State games).

Longest Drives – Mike MacIntyre Era

100+ RETURN YARDS NOT THAT COMMON

Often lost in all the conversation about total offense and defense are return yards – but they often swing a game. This year, CU already owns a 167-53 edge (116-9 versus Texas State, 11-0 against CSU). The 116 yards against TXST marked just the fourth time since 2002 that the Buffs recorded over 100 returns yards in a game (and just the second time against an FBS foe). Last year, CU had 175 against UCLA in its 20-10 win, and they played a huge role, accounting for one touchdown via punt return and setting up CU's lone offensive score via an interception return. It was the most return yards by the Buffs since Oct. 26, 2002, when they had 183 in a 37-13 win over Texas Tech (125 interception, 44 punt, 14 fumble). The other two games with 100-plus came in 2008 against Eastern Washington (135) and in 2013 against Central Arkansas (125).

► For the ultimate example of how rare 100 return yards can be, look no further than CU's game at UCLA on Sept. 30. The Buffs held the edge in return yardage ... 1-0. There were no punt or fumble returns, no miscellaneous returns, and the only yard game on the lone interception and return of the game. And then against Arizona, the Wildcats had a 6-0 edge (a single punt return).

COLORADO NEAR THE TOP IN ALL-TIME 1,000-YARD / 2,000-YARD CAREER RUNNERS

In 2015, Michael Adkins became the 52nd player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career and later in the year, Phillip Lindsay joined him and became No. 53 to hit the grand mark (and the 19th to hit 2,000 late in his junior year). CU is seventh all-time in known 1,000-yard runners (many schools don't know the number). Oklahoma tops the list with 72, as well the 2K list with 30 (the Buffs are tied for eighth with the most 2,000-yard career runners). The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 1K and 2K plateaus:

In 1989, Colorado had four players on the roster at the same time with at least 1,000 career yards: TB Eric Bieniemy, TB J.J. Flannigan, QB Darian Hagan and FB Erich Kissick. Only two other times did the Buffs have three players that had hit that plateau on the same team, in 1993: FB James Hill, TB Rashaan Salaam and TB Lamont Warren and in 2015: Christian Powell, Michael Adkins and Phillip Lindsay.

THORNS IN WILDCATS' PAWS

Seniors WR Shay Fields and TB Phillip Lindsay left indelible marks against Arizona, Fields finishing with the second most receiving yards against one opponent, with Lindsay's record night bumping him into first:

STREAKIN'

WR Devin Ross had caught a pass in 20 straight regular season games (21 including the Alamo Bowl), dating to the 2015 season finale but has now been shut out the last two games. WR Shay Fields now owns the longest streak at 20 (19 including the Alamo Bowl); he's caught two or more in 19 of those. WR Bryce Bobo has a streak of seven straight games (all multiple receptions), while WR Jay MacIntyre's streak of 10 ended last week at Oregon State.

Freshman WR Laviska Shenault became the 15th known Buffalo to score a touchdown on his first collegiate touch (excluding kickers, offensive linemen and defensive players), but statistically, it wasn't an official touch. Against Texas State, he scooped up an Isaiah Oliver fumble after the latter had returned it four yards; Shenault then ran 55 yards for a TD to open the scoring in what would be a 37-3 Colorado win. However, the NCAA does not score it as a fumble return but views it as an extension of a punt return, thus he was credited with no return for 55 yards, much like a lateral is scored (full list on page 50).

MONTEZ /QUICKLY

Sophomore QB Steven Montez is now 6-4 as CU's starting quarterback with the team's 4-3 start this season. In the season opener against the Rams (having all spring and fall camp to think about it), he completed 21-of-29 passes for 202 yards (1 TD/2 INT) for a rating of 128.5. His 72.4 completion percentage was a career-best, as he was 7-of-11 on first downs (for 42 yards), 6-of-10 for 68 yards on second down and 8-of-8 for 92 yards on third down.

➤ Opening 5-1 as a starter was the best by a CU quarterback since Mike Moschetti opened 5-0 in 1998 (he went on to be 5-1, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3 and 7-3); Moschetti was the last to open 6-1 (along with John Hessler in 1995, who went on to be 8-1 in his first nine games as starter from 1995-97).

TAKING THE WORLD BY STORM

QB Steven Montez had quite a debut as CU's starter subbing for an injured Sefo Liufau at Oregon (Sept. 24, 2016). In leading the Buffs to a 41-38 win, he arguably had the best first game as a starter in school history. He completed 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards (3 TD/2 INT), for a passer rating of 177.7 and also had 21 rushes for 135 yards (6.4 per), with a touchdown and a long run of 32 yards. It all added up to 468 yards of total offense and 23 first downs earned (8 rush/15 passing). He received seven different national and/or conference accolades for his efforts, as well as:

- He enjoyed the fifth-best game in a quarterback's first start at Colorado in terms of passing yards, but the best in total offense (see charts below).
- His 135 yards rushing were the most in a debut by a starting Buff QB (topping the 116 by Darian Hagan vs. Texas in 1989) and is the 10th most in any game all-time at Colorado by a quarterback (and the first 100-yard game by a quarterback since Nov. 4, 2006 when Bernard Jackson had 105 against Kansas State).
- His 468 yards of total offense were the fourth-most in a single-game in Colorado history.
- It was the first-ever 300 passing/100 rushing game in CU history and just the second 200/100 game (Stewart had 205/143 vs. Notre Dame in the '95 Fiesta Bowl).
- His 14 straight completions in the first half tied for the second-most in school history (trailing 15 by Mike Moschetti over two games in 1999); it matched the most in one game (Koy Detmer, 14 at Colorado State in 1996).

A FIRST BY MONTEZ SINCE 1959

QB Steven Montez became the first know player in CU history to throw a touchdown on his first career passing attempt since Joe Dowler did so back in 1959. Montez hit WR Kabion Ento on a 69-yard scoring strike in the second quarter last week against Idaho State. Dowler did so on Oct. 3, 1959 at Oklahoma, a 15-yard TD pass to Kirk Campbell in a 42-12 loss to the Sooners.

MONTEZ THE 12TH FRESHMAN AT COLORADO TO START A GAME AT QUARTERBACK

QB Steven Montez became just the 12th freshman in school history to start a game at quarterback at Colorado (the sixth redshirt frosh to do so). He had the second-most passing yards by a freshman in a starting debut at CU quarterback. A closer look at every freshman's first career start at CU (*—denotes redshirt freshman):

THE "RUSHING/PASSING" QB's

Montez is a two-way threat with his arm and his legs, as evidenced by being the first 300/100 player in CU history (300 yards passing/100 rushing in the same game). So we'll see how long it takes him to break into the below list of all-time rushing yards by quarterbacks (adjusted to allow for sacks; *—Anderson switched to tailback in the third game of the 1969 season):

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

Montez on his three primary receivers, seniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross: "It's like having three super heroes to throw to." Last year, the trio combined for 159 catches for 2,133 yards (13.4 per) and 16 touchdowns, and all three had at least 40 receptions, the first time in CU history that three wide receivers have made 40-plus catches in the same season. So far this year, the three have combined for 96 catches for 1,137 yards (11.8 per) and eight scores.

MONTEZ JOINED SOME ELITE COMPANY

Though just with 10 career starts (6-4 record), QB Steven Montez has already tied a significant CU record: he joins Koy Detmer, Mike Moschetti and Sefo Liufau as those at Colorado with two career 400-yard total offense games. The list of all 13 games with 400-plus at Colorado:

MONTEZ CONNECTION TO CAREER HIGHS

An interesting note from quarterback Steven Montez's time on the field last year is that three wide receivers all had career-highs in games that he started. Devin Ross started the trend in Montez's first career start at Oregon when he caught seven passes for a personal-best 153 yards and one touchdown. The next week versus Oregon State, it was Shay Fields who went for a career-high 169 yards receiving and three touchdowns, which tied the CU record for most TD receptions in a game (all were in the first half, a new school record for TD catches in a half). In Montez's third and final start at USC, Bryce Bobo caught a career-high 10 passes. Eight of those were from Montez, as Liufau did complete two passes to Bobo in his limited action in the second quarter when Montez went down briefly with a minor injury.

MORE MONTEZ – SOME 2016 ANALYSIS

Analyzing Steven Montez's numbers in his three starts last season, he threw for 274.3 yards per game, completed 67.7 percent of his passes (67 of 99) and had seven TDs against three interceptions. Shay Fields was his most productive receiver with 19 receptions for 288 yards and four TDs on passes from Montez. Bryce Bobo caught 16-of-28 pass attempts from Montez that went for 154 yards and two touchdowns while Devin Ross caught 15-of-30 balls thrown his way by Montez for 211 yards and one touchdown. Phillip Lindsay had the highest percentage of catches in passes from Montez, an obvious feat coming out of the backfield, as he caught 14-of-17 balls for 153 yards.

MONTEZ AT FOLSOM

Steven Montez has appeared seven times in games at Folsom Field, and generally has played very well; he owns a rating of 160.8. He has started five of the seven games (indicated by an *), and CU is 5-2 overall in games he has appeared in:

QB EXPERIENCE

As one would imagine with QB Sefo Liufau making 40 career starts over the past four seasons, the Buffaloes didn't have a lot of "starts" by other players at the position. Research Temple sports information showed that CU ranked 16th nationally (out of 129 schools) in the fewest starts made by players returning at the position (3, all by sophomore Steven Montez). Texas State had no returning players that even appeared in a single game at quarterback, and was joined by seven other schools that did not return anyone who made a single start. The Buffs had the fewest starts at the position returning by any Pac-12 school.

300/100/100

Against Northern Colorado, it marked just the 11th time in school history where the Buffs have had a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver. CU did so behind Steven Montez (357 passing), Phillip Lindsay (151 rushing) and Devin Ross (143 receiving). For Montez, it was the second time he was involved in this type of offensive rarity and he joined Sefo Liufau and Mike Moschetti as the only Buffalo quarterbacks to be involved in multiple 300/100/100 games.

► The last four such occurrences have seen Devin Ross involved as the 100-yard receiver ... the only four 100-yard receiving games of his career.

EARLIEST CAMP START IN PROGRAM HISTORY

With the NCAA eliminating two-a-day sessions but keeping the preseason practice count at 29, CU, like many schools, had its earliest reporting date and practices in program history. Players officially reported July 28 and started practice the next day. The previous earliest reporting date was July 31 in 1990 and 2001 (ahead of games on August 26); the earliest practice was on August 1 in those years (at the time for just the newcomers in 1990 but for the full squad in '01).

ROAD NOTES

- 3-2: Colorado finished the 2016 season with a 3-2 mark in true road games, its first time with a winning record in opponent stadiums since a similar mark in 2004, and nearly matched CU's road win total over the previous eight seasons (4-40). The Buffs also won two straight league games on the road (at Stanford, at Arizona) for the first time since winning three straight in the Big 12 over the 2004 (at Kansas, at Nebraska) and 2005 (at Oklahoma State) seasons.
- 4: CU's win at Oregon State was its fourth away from home over the last two years, matching its win total outside the state from 2008-15.
- 25: The Buffaloes' 49-24 win at Arizona on Nov. 12, 2016 (by 25 points) was its largest away from home since Oct. 1, 2005, when CU shutout Oklahoma State in Stillwater, 34-0. The only other larger margin of victory on the road thus millennium came in 2003, a 44-10 win at Iowa State.

30-YEAR OLD FRESHMAN

PK James Stefanou is the oldest freshman in the FBS this season, and the second oldest player overall; he signed with the Buffs on March 14 and came to the United States in July from Australia. He comes from a soccer background where he has elite level experience as a defender; he represented Australia on its U19 team, a youth progression team that is the feeder squad to the Olympic team. He also played professionally, most notably in two stints for South Melbourne FC, first from 2005-06 before he signed again with them in 2010. Stefanou got into football by training periodically over the past six years at ProKick Australia, an academy developed to assist in the transition to American football by providing the fundamentals of punting and kicking. Academy alumni include the last four Ray Guy Award winners: Tom Hornsey of Memphis in 2013 and three from Utah, Tom Hackett (2014, 2015) and Mitch Wishnowsky (2016). The elderly:

Age	Name, School	Position	Class	Birthdate	Hometown
30	Derrick Mitchell, Western Michigan	Punter	Jr.	1/05/87	Paw Paw, Mich. (played 10 seasons of minor league baseball)
30	James Stefanou, Colorado	Placekicker	Fr.	4/15/87	Melbourne, Australia (played 10 seasons of professional soccer)
29	Wade Lees, Maryland	Punter	So.	April 1988	Melbourne, Australia (has extensive Australian Rules Football experience)
28	Tom Sheldon, North Carolina	Punter	So.	10/19/1988	Echuca, Victoria, Australia
28	Dane Roy, Houston	Punter	So.	Jan. 1989	Bunyip, Australia (another ProKick Australia product)

► Stefanou made his first collegiate field goal attempt (39 yards) against Colorado State; he opened 10-of-11 before his second miss, which came after he made nine in a row, the second-best streak in school history (and tied for the best during the same season). Here are the best career starts with just a single miss in CU field goal history (Flores owns the school record for the most consecutive field goals made to start a career with 7; Aldrich was next with 6):

			Most Consecutive Field Goals Made
13-of-14	.929	Jeremy Aldrich (1996-97)	10 Mason Crosby, Nov. 6, 2004 to Sept. 10, 2005 (five games)

8-of-9	.889	Will Oliver (2011)	9 James Stefanou, Sept. 1-30, 2017 (five games)
7-of-8	.875	Tom Field (1979)

OLDEST BUFFS

Aside from Stefanou, the next oldest Buff on the roster is DE Chris Mulumba, who will turn 25 in week seven of the season. Next up on the list is the only sixth-year senior on the squad, OT Jeromy Irwin, who is 24. Irwin, OG Gerrad Kough (23) and OLB Derek McCartney (turns 24 in late November) are the three remaining players on the roster who were signed by former head coach Jon Embree. Kough and McCartney both grayshirted in 2012 and joined the team in January 2013 when Mike MacIntyre had taken over the program. Irwin played in 10 games as a true freshman in 2012, redshirted in 2013 after breaking his foot doing yard work the summer before the season and was granted a medical redshirt in 2015 after suffering a torn ACL in the second game of the season.

Historic: The Buffs have had a few players in the past in their 30s, most recently walkon Matt Adinolfi, who was 31 when he was on the 1989 team.

KINNEY COMING OF AGE

P Alex Kinney, CU's nomination for the Ray Guy Award, is off to the best start of his career. Through seven games, he's averaging a healthy 41.9 yards per punt, and that figure has been affected by six of his 30 kicks coming in opponent territory (it's 44.2 on kicks in CU territory). His net is 39.6, where he has made the greatest strides, up from 38.1 his freshman year and 35.4 as a sophomore. Of his 30 punts, 11 have landed inside-the-20 (six inside-the-15), and he got off his career long of 70 yards against Texas State. A look at his expanded punting numbers:

PRICE MADE MARK AS A FROSH

PK Davis Price joined the team as a recruited walk-on in June 2016, and wound up seeing action as a true freshman due to a season-ending injury in the Michigan game to Diego Gonzalez. He was first pressed into service as the kickoff specialist at Oregon in game four, and the next week, he was promoted into the first-team role the next week for Oregon State. He responded by making all five of his extra point tries and both of his field goals, including a 54-yard boot on his first try, the CU record for both the longest made by a freshman and the longest first-career make. He was recognized for his performance as the Pac-12's Special Teams Player of the Week; the 54-yarder was the longest by a freshman in the NCAA in 2016 and tied for the fourth-longest overall.

► A FIRST? It was for sure for CU: United Airlines provides the team charter for CU's travel, and for the USC trip, the pilot was Doug Price — Davis' father. A CU graduate himself, he is an Air Force Veteran who has been flying for United for 20 years; he normally flies military charters bringing troops back home from overseas.

Mike MacIntyre is in his fifth season as the head coach of the University of Colorado football program, and his seventh season as a collegiate head coach; he has a 24-34 record at Colorado and is 40-55 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). The 25th full-time head coach in CU history (27th overall) brought an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, resuscitating a San Jose State Spartan team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 11-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. Now a veteran coach of 27 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. Another one of his mentors was the legendary and now Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells, and of course, his late father, George MacIntyre, coached at Vanderbilt (the 1982 national coach of the year).

- ◆ He became just the second coach at Colorado since 1932 to win his first game at the reins of the Buffaloes (out of 15 coaches), and just the ninth (out of 25) to open with two wins. Rick Neuheisel was the last to do both (in 1995).
- ◆ MacIntyre is an '89 graduate of Georgia Tech and is the first Atlantic Coast Conference alum to take over the reins of the CU football program.
- ◆ MacIntyre On His Roots: "I'm the son of a coach. And I received by Ph.D. in coaching from Bill Parcells. I used to sit next to him in staff meetings with the Cowboys. The two most important things I probably learned from him were how to evaluate personnel and how to organize practices." He says Parcells taught him that quarterbacks learn more in 11-on-11 drills than the standard 7-on-7.
- ◆ He has also been influenced immensely by the late John Wooden (UCLA basketball); he has read all his books numerous times. On his own success: "It takes a lot of people to be successful, it's never just you. It's everyone around you. The team effort starts before you ever get to the players."
- ◆ Throughout his coaching career, MacIntyre has crafted an approach to coaching college football that incorporates "The Four F's" – Foundation, Family, Future and Football. He believes that if Colorado's student-athletes focus on these 4 F's, it will lead to great things:
Foundation is about becoming a solid person on a daily basis in their daily activities. That includes a commitment to things like self-discipline, perseverance, time management and responsibility;
Family is about being close, caring about each other and being accountable to each other. CU's players have to fully understand how their actions affect their teammates – on the field and in life. They will understand how their actions represent Colorado and their individual legacies;
Future is about putting the necessary energy into their academics; education is their future. Even if our student-athletes go on to play in the NFL for three-to-five years (the average length of a pro career), they need to have an idea about what they want to be the rest of their lives. Football is what they currently do, it's not who they are. Use football to get an education and a better future;
Football is the final F. MacIntyre believes if they have a good foundation, if they're doing the right things, they care about the guys around them and they're doing well academically and know what their future is, when they come to football practice, they are freed up; they'll play better and won't have a lot of baggage.
- ◆ MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the ball, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.
- ◆ The Coin. MacIntyre always carries the same commemorative coin in his pocket, one his dad received in 1982 as the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year. "I'm the proud son of George MacIntyre," he says in referring to his father coaching the Commodores to an 8-4 record that season.
- ◆ Unique End of Spring. The coaching staff put the players through one more practice after the spring game (in both 2013 and 2014). MacIntyre said it was to go over what they did right and wrong in the game, as well as to teach them how he wanted them to practice on their own in summer workouts.
- ◆ On players having to be ready at a moment's notice to go into the game: "It's the only game in the world where you have 100 guys on the side watching just eleven in the game at any one time. So you're like the dog sitting on the porch. When that rabbit runs by, you've got to be ready to go."
- ◆ On playing music at practice: "Bill Belichick, Eric Mangini both did it. They believed it enhanced practice in many ways, including maintaining rhythm. It's no different than crowd noise; you're teaching the players to block out distractions, all background noise, yet and at the same time to still hear us."
- ◆ At Mississippi, among his recruits were quarterback Eli Manning and Butkus Award winning linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.
- ◆ Unhappy that he had gained weight since college, slowly adding one a few pounds here and there over the years, he decided to do something about it. In early 2014, he read the book, Why Diets Fail Us; he started to eat much healthier, consume one or two nutrition-rich shakes a day (as replacement meals) and increased his workout regimen. The end result was that after six months, he dropped 63 pounds (he now weighs 180, what he did as a collegian).
- ◆ MacIntyre is a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll for third straight year and fourth time overall; coaches are selected by a random draw (he is one of six Pac-12 voters). CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 27 of the last 30 seasons.
- ◆ CONTRACT. MacIntyre was officially named CU's 25th full-time head coach on Dec. 10, 2012, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $2 million overall ($250,000 base; $875,000 radio/TV income, $875,000 sponsorship income), plus various incentives that add to well over $1 million. He received a one-year extension through 2018 in February 2014, and in January 2017, he signed a new agreement for five years (through 2021) for $16.25 million (3.1 for the 2017 season with modest increases each year).

- ♦ A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech (Business Management), he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety/punt returner for coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record.
- ♦ He earned his Master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from the University of Georgia in 1991.

MACINTYRE 2016 CONSENSUS COACH OF THE YEAR

The avalanche of honors all started late last November when Mike MacIntyre was named the Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year, CU's first as a member of the league it joined in 2011, and the first since Gary Barnett won it for the Big 12 in 2004. Then the National Coach of the Year awards started to roll in, and when all was said and done, he captured eight of the 10 earning the honor from: the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Bobby Dodd, ESPN/Home Depot, FWAA/Eddie Robinson, American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), SB Nation and Scout.com; he was as well a finalist for the other two, the Bear Bryant and Maxwell Club awards. He also earned the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year honor and the group's inaugural Comeback Coach of the Year Award. The Colorado Sports Hall of Fame presented him with its "King of the Hill" honor for all sports within the state for 2016. MacIntyre joined Bill McCartney as CU's only national coaches of the year, as "Mac I" was the unanimous selection for the 1989 season.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MIKE MacINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball. He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation. He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DUKE IHENACHO, Denver Broncos

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it with respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man. Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community. His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

THE CLASS OF '13

Ahead of the 2013 season, 31 programs including Colorado hired new head coaches, 14 of whom (denoted by an *) were first-time head coaches on the collegiate level. Here's a look at the remaining 15 coaches that make up the "class of 2013" and their records through games of October 14:

COACHES ON GAME DAY

The coaching staff, as always, is split between the sidelines and the press box. Head coach Mike MacIntyre wears a headset on the sideline; other full-time assistants on the sideline are defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot, defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat, secondary coach ShaDon Brown, co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach Darrin Chiaverini, offensive line coach Klayton Adams and running backs coach Darian Hagan. In the coaches booth are co-offensive coordinator Brian Lindgren, tight ends/H-backs coach Gary Bernardi and inside linebackers coach Ross Els. Three of the four graduate assistants are also in the press box: John Hughes and Peter Tuitupou (offense) and Chidera Uzo-Diribe (defense); Matt Daniels is on the field. Colorado signals in plays when not brought in by substituting players on offense (signal on defense).

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 89 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including three active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Mike MacIntyre and his oldest son, Jay; Colorado is one of a handful of schools to have it happen twice, as Dan Hawkins had son Cody on his CU teams from 2007-10.

Perhaps the most famous and best head coach father and son tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career).

Note: Marshall had a famous combo when it was a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

A FIRST? We polled the nation on two occasions, and no other instance has yet to turn up where a head coach had his father as a head coach in college and then had a son on a team that he is the head coach. But that appears to be the case with Mike MacIntyre, who was coached by his father George at Vanderbilt in 1984-85 and is now coaching his son, Jay, a junior at Colorado.

There are currently nine schools where a player is playing for his head coach father, and in one case, two sons are (Iowa State). Here's a look at the all-time list of known head coaching father-player son pairings at the same school (#—denotes active in 2017):

While this is the second time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

2017 COACHING CHANGES

There are four new members of CU's coaching staff: D.J. Eliot, defensive coordinator/outside linebackers (replaces Jim Leavitt, who coached all the LBs); ShaDon Brown (secondary, replaces Charles Clark and Joe Tumpkin, who coached the corners and safeties, respectively); and Ross Els (outside linebackers). In addition, Matt Daniels joined as an offensive graduate assistant, replacing Corey Edsall, who took a full-time position at Connecticut coaching tight ends under his father.

➔ The CU staff has remained intact twice since Bill McCartney's 1988 and 1989 teams, in 2011-12 (under Jon Embree) and 2013-14 (under MacIntyre).

FIFTH YEAR USUALLY A WINNER

MacIntyre is now the 10th coach in CU history (out of 25 full-time) who is coaching the team for a fifth consecutive season; he became the eighth of the 11 to lead CU to a winning season in their fourth year. He matched the 1985 Buffaloes under Bill McCartney for the most dramatic fourth-year by a coach in the program; both teams had a +5½ game improvement over the previous year and both ended long bowl droughts. The 1985 team went 7-5 after the previous six CU teams went 7-25-1. The 2016 Buffs went 10-4, matching the team's win total over the previous three years (10-27), and went 8-1 in league play (CU was 7-46 the previous six years). A look at Colorado's 10 coaches who coached the Buffs at least five straight years:

Head Coach	Inaugural Season	1st Yr Record	2nd Yr Record	3rd Yr Record	4th Yr Record	5th Yr Record	Notes
Fred Folsom.....	1895	5-1	5-0	7-1	4-4	7-2	Folsom would have a second run of four-plus straight years (1908-15)
Myron Witham.....	1920	4-1-2	4-1-1	4-4	9-0	8-1-1	Two-year record of 17-1-1 remains best in school history (next best: 22-2-1 in 1989-90)
Bunny Oakes	1935	5-4	4-3	8-1	3-4-1	5-3	After an 0-3 start, Buffs rebound to win five in a row to close season
Dal Ward	1948	3-6	3-7	5-4-1	7-3	6-2-2	The game of this year was a 21-21 tie with No. 4 Oklahoma; OU's only blemish in league play over 11 seasons
Eddie Crowder	1963	2-8	2-8	6-2-2	7-3	9-2	Colorado zooms to No. 3 in the nation after 5-0 start; win second bowl game in program history
Bill Mallory	1974	5-6	9-3	8-4	7-3-1	6-5	Buffs ascend to No. 13 ranking nationally with 5-0 start (for second straight year), but drop five of six
Bill McCartney	1982	2-8-1	4-7	1-10	7-5	6-6	After opening 0-4 (three losses by eight points), Buffs rally to finish 6-1 in Big 8 (with win over No. 3 NU)
Gary Barnett	1999	7-5	3-8	10-3	9-5	5-7	Buffs would rebound to win the Big 12 North Division in his sixth and seventh years
Dan Hawkins	2006	2-10	6-7	5-7	3-9	3-6	He was relieved of head coaching duties with three games remaining in season
Mike MacIntyre	2013	4-8	2-10	4-9	10-4	4-3	His '16 Buffs were the third team in CU history to post a winning record in Year 4 after a sub-.500 Year 3

FOLLOW UP: THE YEAR AFTER WINNING NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR HONORS

Looking at the eight previous national coaches of the year, they all came back with strong years to follow up their award-winning campaigns (combining to win an average of 11 games the year after being named coach of the year; five finished ranked inside the top 10 and two won national championships):

JEFFCOAT ON PAC-12 ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Two CU assistant coaches earned finalist status for the Pac-12 All-Century team announced in 2015, with defensive line coach Jim Jeffcoat named to the final team as one of five defensive ends for accomplishments at Arizona State as a player. Jeffcoat recorded 102.5 quarterback sacks in his 15-year career in the National Football League (with Dallas and Buffalo), a number that still ranks 26th all-time in the NFL, which was 10th at the time he retired (though he might enjoy talking about his two career interceptions which he returned 65 and 26 yards, respectively, and both for touchdowns).

THE RISE ... FROM FOUR OR FEWER TO 10 OR MORE

Taking a look at the current landscape of the so-called Power-5 conferences (Atlantic Coast, Big 12, Big Ten, Pac-12 and Southeastern) and examining the history of those teams, CU's turnaround in 2016 is up there with some of the all-time finest among college football's "big boys." The Buffaloes became the ninth team among the Power-5 schools since 1972 to win 10 or more games after finishing the previous season with four or fewer wins (1972 was the year freshmen became eligible to play in NCAA Division I football, thus defining the modern era). (CU was just the 30th team to go from four to nine wins.) Here's a look at those current power-5 programs with the largest turnarounds since 1972 (conference listed after school name is the one it belonged to at the time).

MOST IMPROVED TEAMS ALL-TIME IN PAC-12 LEAGUE PLAY

Colorado completed the single biggest improvements in league record from one year to the next in the history of the Pac-12 Conference with its 27-22 win over Utah. Finishing at 8-1 in league play, that was a reversal from a 1-8 mark in 2015, or a difference of seven games. While those inside the CU program thought it could be done, after going 5-40 in Pac-12 play from 2011 through 2015, CU was picked to finish last in the South Division in the 2016 preseason media poll.

In Pac-12 history, there are just two instances where a school won seven or more games in league play than it did the season before, with Colorado joining the 1940 Stanford team as the only ones to accomplish the feat. Stanford's 6½-game improvement that year had been the best from one year to the next, with three others improving by five games; but at +7, this year's Buffaloes became the league's all-time most improved team. A closer look:

ALL-TIME BIGGEST OVERALL IMPROVEMENT IN PAC-12 CONFERENCE PLAY FROM ONE YEAR TO THE NEXT

—LAST TO FIRST: Colorado is technically the first AND fourth team to go from "worst to first" in Pac-12 history. The Stanford and Cal teams did it, along with the '59 Washington team that was 1-6 in 1958 but went 3-1 in 1959 (the year Oregon, Oregon State and Washington State left the conference for up to five seasons). But in all three cases, Idaho was a member of the league those years but always played an abbreviated schedule (finishing 0-3 all three times).

MOST IMPROVED FBS TEAMS IN 2016

There have now been three seasons in school history where CU finished as or tied as the nation's most improved team. In one of the more dramatic turnarounds in NCAA history, CU went from 1-10 in 1984 to 7-5 in 1985, a 5½-game improvement, after the Buffs switched from a pro passing attack to the wishbone on offense. Then in 2001, Colorado improved six games, finishing 10-3 after going 3-8 the year before; in fact, CU just missed playing in the BCS Championship game by .05 of a point. This year, CU tied for the biggest jump over its 2015 record with five other schools; the Buffs also debuted as No. 15 in the first College Football Playoff Poll of the season, one of only two teams (with Nebraska) that had losing seasons in 2015. The most improved teams in 2016:

School	2015	2016	Diff.	School	2015	2016	Diff.	School	2015	2016	Diff.
Colorado	4-9	10-4	+ 5½	Troy	4-8	10-3	+ 5½	Wyoming	2-10	8-6	+ 5

Eastern Michigan	1-11	7-6	+ 5½	Georgia Tech	3-9	9-4	+ 5½

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 128th season of competition having played 1,232 games with an all-time record of 699-497-36. CU currently stands 25th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (.582); the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 128 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,240), with only USC (829) and Washington (721) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 403-191-16 (.675) all-time and 311-171-10 (.644) in their 94th season on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 6-7 all-time in overtime games (3-4 at home), all seven losses by three points; the Buffs became the 84th team in FBS/I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last 10 seasons, Buffs rallied to win from 10 or more points down 12 times, including twice under Mike MacIntyre, including rallying from its largest deficit ever against CSU. In 2014, UMass was up by 11 early in the second half after cashing in on a pick-six. Two of the rallies came from 17 down: in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Eight have taken place in Boulder, a ninth (the first one) in Denver against CSU, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 42 occasions (and are 32-10 in games when this occurs). It's happened twice this year, against Northern Colorado (TB Phillip Lindsay/WR Devin Ross as the duo just missed one becoming the first to do 150/150) and Oregon State (Lindsay/WR Bryce Bobo). Since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011, it has happened 12 times overall (once each in 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015; four times in 2016 and now twice in 2017). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 197 of the 2017 CU Media Guide.

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2016 was 279,652, an average of 46,609 for six home games, over 7,220 more than CU's 2015 average. It marked the 22nd straight season that Colorado football was the second largest draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 40th time in the last 42 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count in 2016 was just under 27,000 when adding in 9,200 student holders to 17,500 public tickets (student tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2016, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 51st straight year, ahead of Air Force (29,586; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965) and Colorado State (27,600); all had six games. The Broncos averaged 76,744 fans per game in 2016; the Rockies are averaging 36,693 this summer (70 games, Sept. 4).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986.

Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 60 straight games overall; last shutout was at home against Stanford on Nov. 3, 2012 (a 48-0 loss).
- CU has scored in 160 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 314 games (all the way back to 1963).
- CU has been shutout just three times in the last 354 games overall (by Missouri in 2008 and 2010 and by Stanford in 2012).
- CU has been shutout just 10 times in its last 587 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford.

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 40-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 239 of 270 times, losing 28 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 34 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were last year, in the 38-31 loss to Arizona (led 24-17 entering the fourth) and in the 35-31 loss at UCLA (CU took a 31-28 lead early in the fourth); CU lost four games in 2014 where it had small fourth quarter advantages. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 124 of its last 145 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 38 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent was the 41-38 win at Oregon on Sept. 24; CU had led most of the game but Oregon went ahead, 38-33, late in the third quarter. But a Steven Montez to Bryce Bobo 31-yard TD pass (and the two connecting again on the two-point conversion) were the only points in the fourth quarter and CU held the Ducks off for the win. Two of the biggest ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

INJURIES DOWN TWO YEARS IN A ROW AFTER 2015 COUNT SIXTH-WORST IN LAST 30 SEASONS

The injury bug hit the Buffs in 2015, as 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. The injury bug avoided Mike MacIntyre's first two teams for the most part, but last year ('15) was a different story: the Buffs lost 93 full games from players who figured in the two-deep (or those who regularly rotated in at the skill positions), and 120 games overall by the entire team. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 29 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

Dating back to 1987, only 10 times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12).

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

versus Top 25.....	71-163-3	45-84-2	2-15	20 / Bill McCartney

CU played 21 ranked non-conference opponents (bowls included) as a member of the Big 12, going 9-12, the most wins over non-league ranked foes from 1996-2010.

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 84-43 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 84-46-1 in its last 131 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 552-279-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

SIXTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 16 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Sophomore ILB Rick Gamboa is the latest to join the club, snaring a batted pass and returning it 20 yards for a score against Oregon State on Oct. 1. ILB Kenneth Olugbode had the previous one, racing 60 yards for a score with his first pick in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State in 2015. That was the first in eight years, however, as the one previous came in 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. Prior to that may have been the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

➤ And three did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998), Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002) and Laviska Shenault (2017 vs. Texas State).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

The longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (he would miss the final six games of the season). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games this season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. At their current school, only Bob Robertson, Washington State (552 at the time) and Bill Hillgrove, Pittsburgh (535) had called more games than Zim, who was tied for fourth in the number of years calling major college football for the same team (42nd season) behind Robertson (49th), Hillgrove (46th) and Don Fischer, Indiana (43rd; South Carolina's Tommy Suggs was also in his 42nd year). In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home). SID Dave Plati has worked 452 overall (a streak of 410 dating from the '83 finale to the sixth game of 2017); Darian Hagan, in his second stint as an assistant coach, has been a part of 241 (95 as an assistant coach, 62 as a football staff member, 35 as the Alumni C-Club director and 49 as a player); and Gary Barnett, now an analyst with KOA, has worked 216 (106 as an assistant coach, 87 as head coach and 23 on the radio). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 CU games (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 in all (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games – since 1940 (they're 92). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 45th year as a member of the CU football stat crew; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 18th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 23 seniors on its 2017 roster, and if history holds, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season. In 2016, 28 teams scouted the Buffs in person at games, and thus far in 2017, 17 teams have: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Indianapolis, Kansas City, L.A. Chargers, L.A. Rams, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Philadelphia, San Francisco and Tampa Bay. Not including camps or practices, 873 scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 (home, road and neutral sites). At the 2016 UCLA game in Boulder, the record for a CU game occurred: 31 scouts from 20 teams were in attendance for the game.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 13 former Colorado Buffaloes on the 2017 National Football League as of Oct. 16, four more than at the end of 2016. Colorado has had 242 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 270 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and the 22nd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th (29); nationally, CU was in the top four from 1996-99 (third in '09, fourth the other years). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league; i—on injured reserve/physically unable to perform; p—practice squad):

CANUCKS: One former Buff is playing north of the border in the Canadian Football League. CB Greg Henderson is in his second year with the Montreal Alouettes.

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Six players are the sons of former National Football League players: DL Terran Hasselbach (father Harald played with Washington and Denver); ILB Drew Lewis (father Will played with Seattle and is now the director of scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs); OLB Derek McCartney (father Shannon Clavelle, Green Bay); QB Steven Montez (father Alfred, Oakland); CB Isaiah Oliver (father Muhammad, five years with as many teams: Denver, Green Bay, Kansas City, Miami, Washington); and ILB Jacob Stoltenberg (father Bryan played with San Diego, N.Y. Giants and Carolina).

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Five former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the five who head prep programs: Matt Flavin (Buena Vista), Phil Jackson (Sierra), Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Vincent Smith (Boulder) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 29 of 41 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) is the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseason combined; he set the record with a 21-yard field goal late in the Packs' 27-17 win over Seattle on Sept. 20, 2015, his 13th point of the night (he made all four field goal tries in the game, including a 54-yarder, and an extra point). He now has scored 1,300 points in 166 regular season games and 137 in 18 playoff games for a total of 1,437 (through Oct. 8; he also made an NFL record 23 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks (268 regular season, 26 postseason); Ryan Longwell previously owned all marks (1,054/226 and 85/15). Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points.

➔ How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawai'i (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,384/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349); WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary in August 2015.

THE VERTICAL GAME ... RETURNING?

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 57 "explosion" plays in 2016, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that's the most by a CU team since 2007. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, not including bowls, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass

BUFFS ON ESPN'S GAMEDAY

Colorado has hosted ESPN's College GameDay three times (Sept. 23, 1995 vs. Texas A&M, Oct. 28, 1995 vs. Nebraska, Sept. 14, 1996 vs. Michigan); the Buffs have been the visiting team on three occasions as well (Oct. 29, 1994 at Nebraska, Sept. 30, 1995 at Oklahoma, Sept. 13, 1997 at Michigan).

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 318-24-1 when scoring 30 or more points (3-1 in 2017, 6-0 in 2016), along with records of 230-9 with 35-plus points and 213-7 with 36-plus, 188-5 with 38-plus and 119-2 with 43 or more tallies. The six losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012) and California (59-56 in 20T in 2014). CU has played 1,232 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 116-109-3 in its last 228 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run. Colorado, however, is 14-44 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 145 of its last 342 games, posting a 125-19-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 223 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 27-99-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. Technically the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year (6.7; CU did average 5.98 per first down play in 2016). Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2013, in MacIntyre's first season, the Buffs had their best average on first down in years: CU averaged 5.83, their best since 2001 (6.7). In 2014, the average was 5.36 and in 2015 it was back up to 5.76. So with the 5.98 figure in 2016, it has improved almost every year.
 - ➔ In 2017, the Buffs are averaging 5.97 per first down play (236 of them).
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 60 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 18-plus seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 79 scores by return in 276 games (72 regular season, seven bowl). Twelve in the MacIntyre Era (5 in 2013, 2 in 2015, 4 in 2016, 1 in 2017).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 48 times in the last 302 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it 12 times under MacIntyre (8-4). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 2001 (and threatened to do it in 2016). The Buffs are 47-7 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 55-10 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ 600+. Colorado is 17-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first loss was last year when the Buffs had 630 in the 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU is 2-0 under MacIntyre (Nicholls State, 2015; Washington State, 2016).
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 90-95 in its last 185 games on grass, including a 58-55 mark at home, dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass (11-5 on grass over the last two seasons).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 99-60-3 in its last 162 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 65-43-3 mark in conference games. CU is 1-0 in 2017 (and is 6-10 under MacIntyre).
- ➔ First Quarter Dominance. Dating to the start of 2016, Colorado has been fairly dominant in the first quarter: the Buffs have outscored its opponents 186-107, with an edge in total offense of 2,413-1,830 (plus-2 in TO margin).
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. That year, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), they gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. Those averages since on third down makes: 14.1 (2004), 10.2 (2005), 12.0 (2006), 14.0 (2007), 9.7 (2008, the only time under 10 in this span); 15.7 (2009), 12.3 (2010), 13.7 (2011), 12.3 (2012), 11.2 (2013), 13.6 (2014), 12.9 (2015).
 - ➔ In 2016, CU allowed just 10 third down plays of 20 yards or longer; the opponent gained 344 yards on those (34.4 per); on the other 196 third down plays, it gained 485 yards (2.5 per).
- ➔ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 17-3 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover (2-2 under MacIntyre, including the 27-23 loss to UCLA this season). In these 20 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 795-422, with only five games decided by less than 17 points.
- ➔ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 80 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 52-24-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under MacIntyre, CU is 8-5 in miscue-free contests (3-0 in 2016, 2-2 in 2017).
- ➔ Time Spent In The Lead. The Buffaloes held leads in 11 of 14 games in 2016 (two-score leads in 10 of those), and were ahead for a total of 457:20 on the season. That's the second-most by a hair in the 21 years CU has tracked the stat (CU led for 458:01 in 1996—a 12-game season including the bowl).
 - ➔ In 2017, the Buffs held a lead in the first five games until Arizona never trailed; CU has trailed for the most part in the last three games but still owns a 24:39 margin over the foe.
- ➔ Between 2010 and 2013, opponents had 279 plays of 20 yards or more, earning a combined 8,651 yards (31.0 yards per); the average annually has always hovered around 30 yards, which makes sense since the cutoff is all plays of 20 yards or longer. But it's the count that's the concern: in 2008, opponents had just 44 plays of 20-plus, followed by 53 (2009) and 50 (2010); those counts ballooned to 75 in 2011 and 81 in 2012.
 - ➔ Under MacIntyre, the number has been dwindling: in his first season (2013) opponents had 73 plays of 20 yards or more (out of 924, 7.9%), netting 2,316 yards (31.7 per); in 2014, opponents had 72 plays of 20-plus (8.5 percent of the 845 overall), with those collectively gaining 2,456 yards (1,472 pass/984 rush, 34.1 per). And in 2015, opponents had 65 plays of 20 or more yards (of 948, 6.9%, totaling 2,242 yards (still 34.5 per).
 - ➔ In 2016 (13 games), a noticeable difference: CU allowed 49 plays of 20-plus for 1,548 yards (31.6 per, but 5.4% of plays yielding 36% of yards).
 - ➔ It's feast or famine for the opponent in 2017: it has 32 plays of 20 or more yards that total 1,187 yards (a whopping 37.1 yards per); the other 460 plays have netted 1,783 yards (or 3.9 per).
- ➔ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2014, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season just 15 times, before 2014 and 2016 last doing so in 2001 (434.4), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season; CU gained 400-plus yards in nine of 11 regular season games that year. The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once — 303.5 — in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just four times, including 2014 and 2016 (254.4). In 2016, CU was flirting with rewriting the above through the first three-fourths of the season, finishing with 446.3 yards per outing.
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Dating back to 1993, opponents are just 5-of-126 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense have had streaks of 51 and 30 in this span (Stanford is the last team to convert one, in 2011; the opponent is now 0-of-16 since). The CU offense is 12-of-139 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span (last converting on a 3rd-&-27 in the Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State).
- ➔ CU has scored in 24 of 28 quarters this year, including 12 in a row (43 of 56 quarters in 2016), and in 174 of 232 under MacIntyre (75 percent).

TURNOVER ANALYSIS / MAC ERA

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give in the four-plus seasons Mike MacIntyre has been head coach. A closer look:

MacIntyre Era	Turnovers	Turnovers	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers
	Committed	Forced		PF	PA	+/-
24 WINS	28	50	+22	140	68	+ 72
34 LOSSES	66	41	-25	83	282	- 199

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 26-21 in games following a bye week since 1948, when the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference; CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 29 of 32 seasons, with two weeks off 11 of those years and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 23-19 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes a 1-4 mark as a member of the Pac-12 (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013 and at USC and Oregon in 2014; and the first win over UCLA in 2016).

2017 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1892 (Feb. 10, 1893) This result was tacked on to the 1892 season: Colorado A&M challenged the University of Colorado to a game ... Oops, CU wins big in Fort Collins, 70-6, with it enabling the Silver & Gold to finish with their first winning record (3-2) in year three of their history.
- 1897 Every school has years like this and the NCAA counts the wins: in a 7-1 season, CU is 3-0 against DPL school (East, West, Manual), topples Mines, an Athletic Club from Littleton and the infamous Denver Wheel Club, though did beat Colorado College before ending the season with a loss to the Denver A.C.
- 1902 Fred Folsom coaches the Buffs to a 5-1 mark, including an 11-6 win over Colorado A&M; there's no available account of the game, but this was in the span of 1898 through 1903 where both touchdowns and field goals were worth five points and a PAT one, so CU had at least one TD/PAT... or three safeties.
- 1907 The 105th anniversary of the weirdest score in CU's football history: on Thanksgiving Day, Mines beats CU in Denver, 5-4 (field goals were back at 4 points, so it was either one of those or two safeties).
- 1912 Colorado A&M beats CU, 21-0, six months to the day of the Titanic setting sail; Colorado takes it out on Wyoming a week later, winning 75-0 in Boulder.
- 1917 After leading CU to a 1-5-1 mark in his first year, Bob Evans, the successor to Fred Folsom, pilots the team to a 6-2 mark and then leaves the profession.
- 1922 CU travels by train to Kansas where it succumbs, 39-6, then travels back for a Thanksgiving Day game just five days later and manages to beat Mines, 16-0.
- 1927 (Oct. 8) At the same time the '27 Yankees defeat Pittsburgh, 4-3, to win the World Series and finish 114-44 on the year, CU falls at Montana State, 12-6.
- 1932 William Saunders takes over the coaching reins from Myron Witham (who went 63-26-7 from 1920-31), and CU goes 2-4 in his first season.
- 1937 Byron White is named CU's first All-American in football, captivating the nation with his feats leading CU to an 8-0 regular season record and its first bowl game (Cotton Bowl, where Rice defeats CU, 28-14). White led the nation in rushing, scoring and all-purpose yards.
- 1942 The Buffs go 7-2, tie for the Mountain States title with Utah (though losing 13-0 to the Utes) in the last season before World War II brings the sport to a near standstill with many CU players, as was the case nationwide, enlisting to fight; many returned to play and graduate later in the decade.
- 1947 CU's last year in the Mountain States, as the Buffs announced earlier in the summer they were joining the Big 6/Missouri Valley Conference (to make it the Big 7); CU goes 3-3 in league play, but loses the season finale on Thanksgiving at Denver, 26-20, before the largest crowd in the series (28,063).
- 1952 (Sept. 27) The only blemish on Oklahoma's incredible 63-0-1 record in Big Seven and Eight conference play between 1947-1958 came on this day in Boulder: CU's Zack Jordan was a one-man wrecking crew for the Buffaloes in a 21-21 tie with the No. 4 Sooners. He scored on runs of 10 and 6 yards and caught a 16-yard touchdown pass from Lee Venzke with 11:50 remaining to put CU ahead, 21-14; OU tied it on a Billy Vessels 1-yard run with 1:51 left and the PAT; Frank Bernardi broke free for a 22-yard run to the Sooner 21 on the game's last play, as time ran out before CU had a chance to win it.
- 1957 Bob Stransky earned All-America honors, finishing second in the nation in rushing with 1,097 yards (CU led the nation with 322.4 yards per game); an Interesting year: CU opens 3-1-1 but isn't ranked until it falls in game six at Oklahoma, 14-13; edged at home by Missouri 9-6, CU falls out of the rankings but doesn't reappear despite closing with three blowout wins at Colorado State (20-0) and Nebraska (27-0), and over Iowa State at home (38-21).
- 1962 Devastated by NCAA penalties, Bud Davis ('51) takes over for Sonny Grandelius as head coach for just the '62 season to right the program; the team didn't know he was a one-year wonder until he told them the morning of the last game, and the Buffs go out and upset Air Force, 34-10, to end a 2-8 year.
- 1967 Eddie Crowder coaches the Buffs back into the postseason, where CU defeated Miami, Fla., in the Bluebonnet Bowl, 31-21, to finish 9-2. CU was 5-2 in Big 8 play, finishing second to Oklahoma (the Sooners won the head-to-head matchup 23-0 in Norman a week after Oklahoma State tripped up the Buffs in Boulder, 10-7). The Anderson brothers paced CU, senior Dick being named an All-American at safety (sixth nationally with seven interceptions) with sophomore Bobby passing for 733 yards and rushing for 625 more.
- 1972 (Sept. 30) Thirty-five years ago, some had Colorado pegged to be a national champion contender, but a stunning 38-6 loss at Oklahoma State sidetracked the dream; Oklahoma rolled into town ranked No. 2, but behind Gary Campbell and Jon Keyworth, the Buffaloes pull off a 20-14 upset. The latter, played on October 22, drew a then-record 52,022 in attendance for any sporting event in the state of Colorado. The Buffs climb back to No. 7 after the win but back-to-back losses to Missouri and No. 3 Nebraska drop CU back into the teens in the rankings, with the 33-10 loss to Huskers played before 52,128, breaking the state mark set just two weeks earlier versus Oklahoma (Mile High wasn't expanded over 50,000 until 1976).
- 1977 (Oct. 1) Colorado's last trip to the Northeast results in a 31-0 whitewash of Army at West Point; CU will finally return to the area on Sept. 6, 2014, playing the University of Massachusetts in Foxboro (home of the NFL New England Patriots).
- 1982 (Sept. 11) Bill McCartney makes his coaching debut for the Buffaloes, but California wins a rain-soaked game in Boulder, 31-17, to spoil it; he gets in the win column the next Saturday (Sept. 18) with a 12-0 win against Washington State in Spokane. McCartney took over the program on June 9 after Chuck Fairbanks resigned on June 1 to become head coach of the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1987 (Oct. 3) Sal Aunese makes his starting quarterback debut at Colorado State; in leading CU to a 29-16 win, he rushes 18 times for 83 yards a touchdown and completes 4-of-6 passes for 139 yards and a score. That was a 316.3 quarterback rating for the game (still third best in CU history for a game with five or more attempts). The Buffs rolled to a 26-0 lead early in the second quarter and coasted from there.
- 1992 (Oct. 17) Mitch Berger's 53-yard field goal at the gun completes a furious Colorado rally as the Buffs tie Oklahoma, 24-24, in Boulder; it extends CU's unbeaten streak in Big Eight play to 24 games; the streak would reach 25 (23-0-2) before coming to an end with a loss two weeks later at Nebraska.
- 1997 Following a 33-29 loss at Oklahoma State, CU drops out of the polls for the first time since the 1988 season; it ends a 143-consecutive week run being ranked, the eighth longest streak of all-time (at the time). The Buffs lose two family members in the offseason, linebacker Tyronee Bussey on January 3 to leukemia and assistant coach (running backs) Ben Gregory on April 10 to a heart attack.
- 2002 TB Chris Brown rushes for 1,744 yards, third in the nation, but his Heisman hopes are dashed by a late season ankle injury that forced him to miss the better part of three games. WR Jeremy Bloom makes his CU debut in style, returning a punt 75 yards for a touchdown the first time he touches the ball as a collegian in the season-opener against Colorado State. CU opens 9-3 in defending its Big 12 North Division title, but drops the league title game to Oklahoma and the Alamo Bowl to Wisconsin to finish 9-5, with the 14 games the most in a single season in school history.
- 2007 The last season the Buffaloes went to a bowl game (Independence); CU defeated both Oklahoma and Nebraska in the same season for a record fifth time (1960-61-89-90-2007); CU rallied from 17 down in the third quarter to beat No. 3 Oklahoma, 27-24 (on a 45-yard Kevin Eberhart field goal as time expired) and beat Nebraska in a wild affair, 65-51, qualifying for the postseason with the win.

MONTHLY TAB

The Buffs are 57-56-2 in their last 115 October games dating back to 1989 and are 65-40 in their last 105 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. Colorado is 61-47-1 in its last 109 November games (55-35 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-12-1 against NU in turkey month, and 54-19 against unranked teams; in 2016, Colorado was 4-0 in November for the first time since 1975). CU is 5-9 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and is 3-3-1 in August games in its history.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS FOR 2017

Here are the Pac-12 bowl agreements that were signed in 2014 and run through the 2020 season; the conference's lineup for the 2017 bowl season:

- | | |
|---|--|
| # 1 Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (Jan. 1, if in CFP semifinal; otherwise, see below). | # 4 Foster Farms (Dec. 27 vs. Big Ten) |
| # 2 Valero Alamo (Dec. 28 vs. Big 12) | # 5 Hyundai Sun (Dec. 29 vs. ACC) |
| # 3 San Diego County Credit Union Holiday (Dec. 28 vs. Big Ten) | # 6 Las Vegas (Dec. 16 vs. MW or BYU) |
| | # 7 Cactus (Dec. 26 vs. Big 12) |

Note: If the Pac-12 champion is in the top four of the College Football Playoff poll following the 2017 season it would play in the Rose Bowl as a participant in the CFP semifinals. If the champion is not among those four, it would play in either the Fiesta, Orange, Peach or Cotton bowls.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Colorado State, Minnesota, Oregon State, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Massachusetts and Notre Dame. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (11), Washington (8), Missouri and Texas (5), and LSU, Michigan, Ohio State and Oklahoma State (3).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 27 seasons (1990-2016), the 15th most nationally when it comes to trophies (and tied for 15th in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage, etc. awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2016 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

OPPONENTS & 2017 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2017 Colorado schedule combined for a 75-74 record in 2016 (50.3 winning percentage); five teams made the postseason, including one College Football Playoff participant (Washington).

- The Buffaloes opened on a weeknight for the fourth straight season (2015 in Honolulu, and 2014, 2016 and 2017 in Denver); the Buffs opened the MacIntyre Era on a Sunday in 2013, so Colorado has not opened a season on a Saturday since 2012.
- Colorado didn't leave the state for its first road game until Sept. 30, the fifth week/game of the season (one game in Denver followed by three in Boulder); the last time that happened was in 2001, but that was due to 9/11 (CU was supposed to play at Washington State in week four, or on Sept. 15). Otherwise you have to go back to 1998 (three in Boulder, one in Denver) and then 1978 (when the Buffaloes opened with five straight games at home en route to a record eight home games). A little different from last year, when for the first time in CU history the Buffs played one week in the Eastern Time Zone (at Michigan) and then the next in the Pacific (at Oregon).
- The Buffaloes played Northern Colorado for the first time since 1934; the Bears won that, 13-7, over the Silver & Gold as CU was a month-plus shy of adopting "Buffaloes" as its permanent nickname. That was also CU's first-ever night game in the state of Colorado.
- 2 & 2. Colorado doesn't have a game the week before two games (Colorado State, Utah), while only Northern Colorado and Arizona have a bye prior to playing the Buffs (Arizona's was scheduled; UNC's was not, as a Sept. 9 game at Florida was cancelled due to Hurricane Irma, giving the Bears an unscheduled bye).
- Colorado will travel 7,086 miles round-trip for its non-Boulder games in 2017: CSU (Denver, 60), UCLA (Los Angeles, 1,666), Oregon State (Eugene, 1,916), Washington State (Lewiston, 1,554), Arizona State (Tempe, 1,178) and Utah (Salt Lake City: 712). Last year, CU traveled 11,704 miles over the course of the season (eight trips, including to Denver for CSU, the Pac-12 Championship game and the Alamo Bowl).
- Colorado has at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 22nd straight season; the Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But starting in 2013, the game with the Utes has been passed on by the Pac-12's television partners for Friday airing.
- Conference regular season misses: the Buffaloes do not play Oregon or Stanford (replaced by California and Washington); Oregon is the last school that has come off CU's schedule from the North Division, the only team in the division CU played in all of its first six years in the conference.
- Washington was just the third defending conference champion to visit Boulder in the last 13 years, joining Oklahoma (2007) and Oregon (2015).

THE 2017 SCHEDULE ... THEN AND NOW

CU's home opener followed the CSU game against Texas State (Sept. 9), the first-ever meeting between the two and then the Buffaloes closed out non-league play in Boulder with the first game against Northern Colorado since 1934 (Sept. 16). Texas State replaced San Jose State on the schedule (who asked out in 2015) and that was after the Spartans had replaced Arizona State once CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011; UNC replaced a scheduled home game against Oregon for the same reason. Thus, Colorado's original 2017 non-conference schedule was: CSU in Denver, ASU in Tempe and Oregon in Boulder.

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of October 14 (with 2017 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

FOLSOM FIELD #1

LawnStarter.com recently ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State).

The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

300+ AT FOLSOM

Colorado won its 300th game at Folsom Field in 2013 and is now 310-168-10 in the 94th season playing its home games at Folsom. The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 403-191-16 all-time at home. The 2016 season marked CU's first winning one at home, as the Buffaloes went 6-0; Colorado's last winning record at home had been in 2010 (with a 4-2 mark); it was CU's first undefeated season at home since 1994, when the Buffs went 6-0 in the late Rashaan Salaam's Heisman Trophy winning year. Over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season; the Buffs pulled even at home under "Mac" with the 6-0 mark in 2016 and are now 14-14 at Folsom in his tenure.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 50 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants, owning a 22-27-1 record; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on five occasions (0-6 in that combo). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

The list of special weekends at Folsom Field this fall:

Sept. 23 (Washington): Ski Ball; Men's & Women's Tennis Reunion
Oct. 7 (Arizona): Family Weekend; Living Legends; '57 Orange Bowl Team Reunion

Oct. 28 (California): Homecoming; Ralphie 50th Anniversary Celebration; 1967 CU Bluebonnet Bowl Team Reunion; Salaam Jersey Retirement

CU IS BLACK & GOLD, BUT FOLSOM IS "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. For more information, visit Ralphie's Green Stampede at http://www.cubuffs.com/ViewArticle.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=600&ATCLID=1549954.

WHO IS/HAS BEEN IN ON OFFENSE & DEFENSE

George Frazier, as he did his freshman year in 2014, is appearing on both offense (TE/FB) and defense (DE) as senior in 2017. In 2014, he played both defensive end and fullback for the first time against Arizona State, becoming the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player before Frazier in 2014 to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

NO. 33 IN THE WORLD

In the 2015 world university rankings by the TimesHigherEducation.co.uk, the University of Colorado held its previous position of being the No. 33 ranked university in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, this ranking is based on teaching (the learning environment, 30%), research (volume, income and reputation, 30%), citations (research influence, 30%), international outlook (staff and students, 7.5%) and industry income (innovation, 2.5%). Nine Pac-12 schools made the Top 100, led by Stanford (No. 2) and California (No. 3); Harvard came in at No. 1 with M.I.T. (No. 4) and the University of Cambridge (U.K., No. 5) rounding out the top five. UCLA (No. 12), Washington (No. 16), Colorado (No. 33, the 25th U.S. school), Southern California (No. 47), Arizona (No. 78), Arizona State (No. 79) and Utah (No. 85) completing the Pac-12 listing.

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the 2015 Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)
99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)
99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays)
99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays)
99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays)

99—vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (75.6 percent of the entire roster—active, those reporting the first day of class and inactive—as of October 7: 90 of 119 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: Colorado 39, California 36, Texas 15, Georgia 6, Florida 5, Arizona 4, Hawai'i 3, Arkansas 1, Illinois 1, Louisiana 1, New Jersey 1, Oklahoma 1, Oregon 1, Utah 1, Washington 1, Wisconsin 1. That's 16 states total along with AUSTRALIA (1) and FINLAND (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Six Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: OL Mo Bandi (India), OL Jonathan Huckins (London, England), ILB Nate Landman (Zimbabwe), ILB/SN Bryan Meek (Neumarkt, Germany), DE Chris Mulumba (Finland) and PK James Stefanou (Australia).

THE BUFFS IN NFL STADIUMS

The Buffaloes have played 23 games to date in seven current NFL venues, owning a record of 13-10 (9-5 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City and 0-1 in Santa Clara). All-time, the Buffs are 19-21-1 playing games in stadiums that simultaneously hosted NFL teams (11-6 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in Irving, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 2-3 in Houston, 1-2 in Miami 1-2 in Tempe, 0-2-1 in Anaheim, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City, 0-1 in Santa Clara and 0-3 in Los Angeles).

10 (NOT BO DEREK)

With 10 wins in 2016, the Buffaloes had their most victories since finishing 10-3 in 2001. It was the eighth time that the Buffaloes have won 10 or games in a season, joining six previous teams under four different coaches: under Eddie Crowder in 1971 (10-2); under Bill McCartney in 1989 (11-1), 1990 (11-1-1) and 1994 (11-1); under Rick Neuheisel in 1995 (10-2) and 1996 (10-2); under Gary Barnett in 2001 (10-3) and now under Mike MacIntyre in 2016 (10-4). Colorado has also won at least nine games 14 times in its history.

➔ CU won six straight conference games in 2016 within the same season for the first time since opening 7-0 in the Big 12 in 1996. In the 1961, 1989 and 1990 seasons, CU also finished 7-0 on its way to Big 8 titles those years. The eight Pac-12 wins in '16 were the most CU has ever won in a conference season.

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

There are now three players on the current CU roster that scored a touchdown on their first career touch (two on offense). Jay MacIntyre did it a redshirt frosh against Nicholls State in 2015, and in 2016 against Idaho State, Kabion Ento accomplished the feat. Fast-forward to 2017, as WR Laviska Shenault joined the club when he picked up a fumble on punt return duty and raced 55 yards for a score, and in the process became the 15th known player to do so in CU history. Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see page 26), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

THE GAMES THEY REMEMBER ARE PLAYED IN NOVEMBER

Colorado opened the month of November 2016 with a 20-10 win over UCLA and then won its final road game of the year at Arizona, 49-24 – its most November points since defeating Nebraska 65-51 in 2007; the last time CU opened the month of November with a win was back in the 2009 season. CU is 54-19 dating back to the mid-1980s against unranked teams in November and is 7-18 against Pac-12 opponents in the month. The Buffs were undefeated (4-0) in this “November to Remember,” their best since 3-0 marks in 1989, 1990, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995, 2001 and 2004; CU was last 4-0 in November in 1975.

SOUTH PARK RALPHIE INTRO

Most know that the creators of Comedy Central's popular South Park are University of Colorado alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. Trey voices Eric Cartman; he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that debuted during the countdown to kickoff prior to the 2014 Arizona State game. It's been a hit since, especially among the CU student section. Cartman is seen in his usual garb and he introduced Ralphie before the real buffalo led the Buffs on the field.

BUFFS BACK ON TV IN DENVER

CU had been without a weekly television presence in Denver since the 2011-12 athletic year: but last year the Buffs returned to the local airways.

The Buffalo Stampede returned with a new format and a new home: Altitude Sports (Comcast Ch. 25/725 HD). The show initially airs on Wednesday nights at 11:00 p.m., with several replays over the following two days. It also is picked up by Pac-12 Mountain and repeats a few times weekly as well.

It will again run through the men's and women's basketball seasons.

CU TO RETIRE THE LATE RASHAAN SALAAM'S NUMBER 19

CU announced on August 25 that it will permanently retire uniform number 19 after this season to honor the late Rashaan Salaam, as the announcement took place Friday at the school's annual football kickoff luncheon hosted by the Boulder Chamber of Commerce. Salaam, the Heisman Trophy and Doak Walker Award winner for the 1994 season, was also a unanimous All-American and the Walter Camp National Player of the Year after having one of the best individual seasons in college football history. He tragically took his own life last Dec. 5 in Boulder at the age of 42.

The jersey will officially be retired on October 28, when CU hosts California in its annual homecoming game. Currently, senior tailback Michael Adkins II adorns the number, thus will be the last to wear it before it is permanently placed out of service in honor of Salaam.

A 6-foot-1, 215-pound tailback who played 8-man football at San Diego's La Jolla Country Day School, he would become just the fourth player at the time to gain 2,000 yards rushing in a season, when schools generally played an 11-game schedule and the NCAA did not count bowl statistics into season totals. He ran for 2,055 yards in averaging 6.9 yards per carry, doing so even though he did not play in five fourth quarters and on two other occasions, he played only briefly in the third quarter; over half of the yards (1,040) came against ranked opponents. He led the nation in rushing, scoring (24 TDs / 144 points) and all-purpose yards (2,349) and reeled off nine consecutive 100-yard games, including four 200-plus yard games. All the aforementioned set and remain school records.

Three numbers previously have been retired in CU's 127-year football history: No. 24 worn by quarterback/halfback Byron White in 1936-37 (he wore No. 8 in 1935); No. 67 worn by guard/linebacker Joe Romig (1959-61); and No. 11 worn by quarterback/tailback Bobby Anderson (1967-69). Anderson's was the last to be retired, done so at halftime of CU's 1970 spring game and right after he had been drafted in the first round by the Denver Broncos.

He won the first (and only) Heisman Trophy in Colorado history, claiming the 60th annual award as a junior, and declared early for the National Football League Draft. He was a first round pick by Chicago (21st overall) and would play three seasons for the Bears (1995-97), winning the NFC Rookie-of-the-Year honor in 1995 when he rushed for 1,074 yards and 10 TDs. Knee and ankle injuries would eventually shorten his pro career. He was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

GAME 1

COLORADO 17, COLORADO STATE 3

SEPTEMBER 1, 2017

SAF AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — An anticipated high-scoring shootout never materialized in the Rocky Mountain Showdown.

Instead, Colorado scored the first 17 points of the game, then relied on its defense for the rest of the night as the Buffs posted a 17-3 win over rival Colorado State.

The Buffs received a solid rushing effort from Phillip Lindsay (19 carries, 140 yards and one TD in his seventh career 100-yard game) and some highlight passing moments from quarterback Steven Montez (21-for-29, 202 yards, 1 TD, 2 interceptions), but it was new defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot's defense that made the difference for much of the game.

The Buffs put 17 unanswered points on the board to start the game, getting a touchdown and field goal in the first quarter, then adding another touchdown early in the second period. That was all the points the Buffs would need.

"I was really excited about how hard our guys played," CU head coach Mike MacIntyre said. "We started out fast and then we kind of stalled. We had some opportunities to score more points and let them hang around. But I was really proud of our defense and our special teams. We'll look at this tape and we'll improve."

After forcing a pair of CSU punts and one of their own, the Buffs put their first points on the board with a six-play, 94-yard drive. Montez completed four passes on the drive, including a 12-yard toss over the middle to Devin Ross on third-and-5 before Lindsay finished the march with a 45-yard burst up the middle to the end zone. Chris Graham's PAT gave CU a 7-0 lead at the 7:11 mark.

The Buffs bumped the margin to 10-0 on their next possession, driving to the CSU 22 before settling for a 39-yard James Stefanou field goal. Lindsay had two carries for 29 yards on the drive.

Colorado's defense, meanwhile, kept Rams quarterback Nick Stevens and the CSU running game in check. CU forced four CSU punts in the first quarter, and after the fourth, CU needed just four plays to put up its second touchdown of the night.

Lindsay ran for 18 yards on second down and for 7 more after a penalty. Montez then finished the drive by spinning out of the pocket under pressure, rolling to his left and motioning wide receiver Shay Fields into the end zone and unloading a perfect ball to a streaking Fields, who grabbed the catch in stride for a 31-yard touchdown pass and a 17-0 lead with 13:36 left in the second quarter.

The Rams finally got on the board on their next possession, moving from their own 25 to the CU 13, where they settled for a 31-yard Wyatt Bryan field goal.

That proved to be the end of the scoring for the evening.

The Buffs had several drives stall near midfield, and finally reached inside the CSU red zone in the fourth quarter, only to see the drive end on a missed field goal. CU also had a pair of drives ended by interceptions.

The Colorado defense, however, did its job all night. CSU reached inside the red zone only twice and came away with only a field goal. The Buffs held the Rams to just 88 yards rushing and while CSU finished 309 yards passing, 145 came in the fourth quarter as they tried to mount a comeback.

The Buffs held strong down the stretch, ending CSU's last three possessions on downs (incomplete pass), a fumble recovery by Afolabi Laguda and an interception by Trey Udoffia.

The win was CU's third straight in the series and gave Colorado an all-time 65-22-2 edge.

GAME NOTES

Colorado has won three straight season openers for the first time since 2003-04-05 (all against CSU both times) ... Buffs now lead the series 65-22-2 (11-6 in Denver, 22-8 since it was resumed in 1983) ... MacIntyre is now 3-2 in season openers at CU and is 6-1 against CSU overall (2-0 at San Jose State) ... Colorado is now 79-44-5 in 128 season openers ... CU won the coin toss and has now won 14 of the last 15 dating back to last year's opener ... The 17 points were the fewest scored by the Buffs in a season-opening win since 1970 (won 16-9 at Indiana) and the fewest by the winning team in the CU-CSU series since 2006 (CSU, 14-10 in Denver), and it is only the third time since the rivalry resumed in 1983 that the winning team didn't score at least 20 ... The 3 points the Buffaloes allowed were the fewest in a season opener since 2010 (24-3 win over CSU in Denver) and 1988 (45-3 over Fresno State in Boulder); otherwise, you have to go back to a 0-0 tie at Wisconsin in 1965 to find the last time CU allowed fewer ... It was the third time in the last 11 games that CU did not allow a touchdown, and the fewest points the Buffs have allowed in any game since a 48-0 win over Nicholls State in 2015 (the fewest by an FBS opponent since the 2010 CSU game) ... It had been eight years since CU played a game with a scoreless second half; last: at Kansas State, Oct. 24, 2009 (KSU won, 20-6) ... The attendance of 73,932 exceeded last year's (69,850) and is the most in the series since 2003 (76,219); it was the fifth-highest in the 17 games in Denver.

GAME 2

COLORADO 37, TEXAS STATE 3

SEPTEMBER 9, 2017

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado broke open a tight game with a 17-point third-quarter outburst and went on to take a 37-3 win over a feisty Texas State squad at Folsom Field.

The Buffs improved to 2-0 with the win while Texas State dropped to 1-1.

While the game was never really in doubt, the Buffs had to grind this one out. CU took a 14-0 lead into the locker room at half, added 17 points to that total in the third quarter for a 31-3 lead, then tacked on two field goals in the fourth for the final tally.

Defensively, the Buffs were once again stellar, holding their opponent to a mere field goal for the second week in a row — the first time since 1958 that CU opened the season by holding its first two opponents without a touchdown. Led by three sacks from Leo Jackson III, Colorado recorded six sacks and a pair of takeaways, including a highlight-reel interception by cornerback Isaiah Oliver.

Offensively, Buffs quarterback Steven Montez finished strong, completing 19 of 31 attempts for 299 yards and a touchdown to go with a rushing touchdown. Running back Phillip Lindsay put in a workmanlike 26-carry, 87-yard effort that included a touchdown run; Buffs receivers Bryce Bobo (7 catches, 75 yards and a touchdown), Shay Fields (5-110) and Devin Ross (4-68) also had solid days; and James Stefanou added a perfect 3-for-3 day on his field goal tries.

But maybe the biggest play came on special teams. With the score still tied at 0-0 and CU's offense sputtering, the Buffs forced a Texas State punt near the end of the first quarter. CU's Oliver fielded the kick and returned it 4 yards before fumbling while attempting to spin out of a tackle. But Buffs true freshman Laviska Shenault Jr. was on the spot, snatching up the loose ball and racing 55 yards to the end zone for his first touchdown as a Buff on his first collegiate touch. Stefanou's ensuing PAT gave the Buffs a 7-0 lead.

From that point on, the Buffs scored by more conventional means. On their next possession following Shenault's score, Montez directed CU's longest scoring drive of the year, a 9-play, 96-yard drive that culminated with Montez carrying in from 2 yards out. The CU sophomore also completed passes of 44 yards to Fields and 28 yards to Bobo on the march.

But it wasn't until the third quarter that CU's offense finally found the consistency it had been missing. The Buffs opened the half with a 58-yard drive that produced a field goal and 17-0 lead, and two possessions later added a Lindsay 7-yard touchdown run for a 24-3 edge. Colorado then put its final touchdown of the day on the board late in the period by driving 86 yards in seven plays. Montez completed four passes on the march, including a 31-yard strike to Ross, a 16-yard toss to Lindsay and an 11-yard scoring pass to Bobo.

Defensively, the Buffs were in control most of the game, although they did dodge a bullet early. Texas State running back Anthony Taylor burst loose for a 55-yard run on the first play of the game, but the CU defense then held and a Bobcats field goal try was wide left.

After that initial thrust, the Bobcats never seriously threatened to reach the end zone, getting a 32-yard field goal in the third quarter to avoid a shutout. Oliver came up with the defensive play of the day, tipping a deep ball to himself for an interception, then returning it 41 yards to set up CU's third touchdown of the game.

Texas State gained over 50 percent of its yards on four plays (145), netting 138 on its other 61 plays.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 2-0 for the second straight year (owning a 154-20 scoring edge), for the third time under Mike MacIntyre and for the 56th time in 128 seasons ... The game time of 3:01 was partially due to a reduced commercial length format the Pac-12 is experimenting with (next week, a 15-minute halftime) ... CU won the coin toss (again) and has now won 15 of the last 16 dating back to last year's opener ... In holding Texas State to a field goal, it marked the first time since 1958 that Colorado did not allow a touchdown in its first two games of the year (offensive or otherwise) ... Colorado recorded six quarterback sacks against Texas State (for 27 yards in losses), its first six-sack game since Nov. 25, 2011 at Utah ... Texas State did most of its offensive damage on four plays, as two rushes and two passes totaled 145 yards; it had 138 yards on its other 61 plays (2.3 per) ... DE Leo Jackson recorded the first multi-sack game of his career. In 26 games prior, he had just three career sacks ... Freshman WR Laviska Shenault joined an exclusive club with just 14 other members today when he scored on his first collegiate touch: he recovered an Isaiah Oliver fumble on a punt return and raced 55 yards for the score; he joined Jeremy Bloom (2002) as the lone two freshmen to have done it ... CU had a huge 116-9 edge in return yards ... The Buffs were turnover-free and has now played 79 turnover-free games dating back to 1946 owning a record of 53-22-4 in those games (7-3 under MacIntyre, 4-0 over the last two seasons).

GAME 3 COLORADO 41, NORTHERN COLORADO 21 SEPTEMBER 16, 2017 FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — It took Colorado longer than many expected to administer the knockout punch, but the Buffaloes survived a Northern Colorado rally, then pulled away in the second half to collect a 41-21 win at Folsom Field.

It was the first meeting between the two programs since 1934.

Bufs quarterback Steven Montez established career highs in attempts (41), completions (29), yardage (357) and touchdowns (four) while running back Phillip Lindsay ran for 151 yards and a score for his eighth career 100-yard game. The victory gave CU its first 3-0 start since 2008 and just the second since 1999.

The victory also extended CU's win streak at Folsom Field to eight, the longest since a 10-game home win streak from 1993-95.

After not giving up a touchdown in their first two games, the Buffs saw that streak come to an end in a hurry. The Bears forced a CU punt on the Buffs' first possession, then turned around and marched 70 yards in six plays for a touchdown, getting a 33-yard scoring pass from Jacob Knipp to Alex Wesley to take a 7-0 lead.

But Colorado then put 28 unanswered points on the board and looked ready to blow the game wide open.

The Buffs went 75 yards in six plays to tie the score, getting a 4-yard scoring toss from Montez to Devin Ross. The Buffs caught a break on UNC's next possession, recovering a bad snap to Knipp at the UNC 5-yard line and Colorado needed just one Phillip Lindsay run to take a 14-7 lead.

CU then added two more scores in the second quarter. Montez ended an 80-yard scoring drive with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Shay Fields, then finished a 73-yard march with a 29-yard touchdown pass to Bryce Bobo.

But almost before the announced Folsom Field crowd of 44,318 could settle in for the rout, the Bears had other ideas. UNC answered CU's fourth touchdown with a 90-yard scoring drive, finishing with a 48-yard pass from Knipp to Wesley to cut Colorado's lead to 28-14 at the half.

The Bears then took the second half opening kickoff and marched 75 yards to paydirt, with Knipp throwing 27 yards to tight end Michael McCauley for the score. At that point, Colorado's one-time 21-point lead had been cut to seven, 28-21.

The Buffs, though, finally pulled momentum back to their sideline, but not before losing a fumble deep in UNC territory. On their next possession, however, they drove for a 33-yard field goal from James Stefanou to bump their margin back to double digits, 31-21.

Montez and Co. then added an insurance touchdown in the fourth quarter, driving 85 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Montez completed the drive with a 14-yard scoring toss to Jay MacIntyre, his fourth touchdown pass of the day. MacIntyre became the fourth CU receiver in the game to catch a touchdown pass, joining Fields, Ross and Bobo. All four starting receivers also had at least four catches, with Ross totaling eight for 143 yards and Fields eight for 69.

The Buffs completed the scoring with a late fourth quarter field goal.

Overall, CU finished with 569 yards offense — 357 in the air and 212 on the ground — and the Buffs had scoring drives that covered 75, 80, 73 and 85 yards.

Defensively, ILB Drew Lewis had nine tackles and cornerback Isaiah Oliver had an interception for the second game in a row. The Buffs also stiffened defensively after UNC's initial score in the second half, and did not allow the Bears past midfield for the rest of the game.

GAME NOTES

Colorado opened 3-0 for the 41st time in its 128-year history, but for the first time since 2008 and just the second time since opening 5-0 in 1998 (3-0 also in 2004) ... CU leads the series with UNC by a 10-2 count; this was just the fifth time in 12 games both teams scored, and the first that both did in double figures; the 62 points combined were the most ... The game time of 3:22 despite halftime being reduced to 15 minutes ... CU lost the coin toss after winning 10 in a row, but has still won 15 of the last 17 dating back to last year's opener ... Colorado gained at least 100 yards in each quarter for the first time this season and for the first time since last year's Washington State game (CU did it three times in 2016) ... The Buffaloes went 123:52 before allowing their first touchdown this season ... This marked the 41st time in school history the Buffaloes had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game (31-10 in such contests): TB Phillip Lindsay (26-151 rushing) and WR Devin Ross (8-143; receiving); and the duo was seven yards receiving short of becoming the first 150/150 in CU annals (previous closest was nine rushing yards on two occasions) ... CU's receivers nicknamed themselves the "Blackout Boyz," mainly led by the four starters: seniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross and junior Jay MacIntyre. Those four combined for 26 catches for 342 yards (13.2 per), with four touchdowns and all 16 first downs earned in the passing game ... Though just with six career starts (and a 5-1 record), QB Steven Montez has already tied a significant CU record as he now has career 400-yard total offense games.

GAME 4 WASHINGTON 37, COLORADO 10 SEPTEMBER 23, 2017 FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Seventh-ranked Washington handed Colorado a repeat of their Pac-12 title game from last year, methodically pounding out a 37-10 win before a soggy Folsom Field crowd of 47,666.

After a close first half, the Huskies pulled away after intermission, once again aided by an interception return for a touchdown — one of three interceptions thrown by Buffs quarterback Steven Montez, the same number of interceptions recorded by the Huskies in last year's game.

Washington, which outscored Colorado 27-3 in the second half last year for a 41-10 win, outscored the Buffs 27-3 in the second half again. The loss dropped Colorado to 3-1 on the season (0-1 Pac-12) while the Huskies improved to 4-0, 1-0.

The Buffs ended up being their own worst enemy in clutch situations. Colorado scored first, but the Huskies then put 17 unanswered points on the board off CU miscues and the UW offense wore down the Buffs defense.

Colorado drew first blood, taking the opening kickoff and marching 75 yards in 11 plays for the score. Montez completed four passes for 54 yards on the drive, including throws of 13 yards to Bryce Bobo and 22 yards to Devin Ross. Phillip Lindsay carried six times for 21 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown run. James Stefanou's PAT gave Colorado a 7-0 lead with 10:24 to go in the first quarter.

The Buffs then threatened to extend that margin after an Afolabi Laguda interception ended the Huskies' first possession. Colorado drove from its own 20 into Washington territory, but the drive stalled at the UW 40 and the Buffs punted.

Colorado got one more break on the Huskies' ensuing possession when UW kicker Tristan Vizcaino was wide right on a 32-yard field goal try.

But the Buffs' luck broke the other way on their next possession when Montez came up short on a third-down run, forcing a CU punt. The Huskies crashed protection and blocked an Alex Kinney kick, recovering at the Colorado 12.

Four plays later, the Huskies tied the game on a 1-yard Myles Gaskin run.

From that point on, the Buffs continued to create opportunities for the Huskies. On CU's next possession, Colorado drove into Washington territory before a Montez pass bounced off Lindsay's hands into those of UW's Jordan Miller. Nine plays later, the Huskies got a 25-yard go-ahead field goal for a 10-7 lead.

CU's next possession ended with a Montez interception in the end zone and UW ran out the clock to end the half.

The Huskies then methodically pulled away from the Buffs in the second half. Washington took the kickoff and marched 74 yards for a TD, with a CU penalty on a third-down incompletion keeping the drive alive. The Huskies capped the drive with a 43-yard touchdown pass from Jake Browning to Quinten Pounds for a 17-7 lead.

Colorado managed to answer with a scoring drive of its own, going 53 yards before settling for a 49-yard James Stefanou field goal to close to within 17-10. The Buffs then caught a break on UW's next possession when Vizcaino missed another field goal try.

But the Buffs then committed their biggest mistake of the night on their next possession when UW cornerback Myles Bryant broke on a Montez pass, picked it off and raced 35 yards to the end zone, giving the Huskies a 24-10 lead.

From that point on, Washington ground the Buffs down. The Huskies added a seven-play, 61-yard scoring drive early in the final period to go up 31-10, then added their final score of the night when Gaskin went 57 yards for a score midway through the fourth quarter.

GAME NOTES

This was the first time it rained during a game at Folsom Field in two years (there was light to moderate rain throughout the Oregon game on Oct. 3, 2015; just the second game with rain since 2006) ... Because of the weather and slippery conditions, CU's live buffalo mascot, Ralphie V, did not run in either half ... WR Juwann Winfree made his first career start; DL Jase Franke made his first career start at defensive end but his second overall ... Washington won its seventh straight in the series to extend its lead to 11-5-1 (CU's last win over the Huskies was in the '96 Holiday Bowl) ... The Buffs dropped to 1-1 when wearing silver helmets-black jerseys-silver pants ... The game time of 2:57 was easily the quickest of the year, matched last year's total of sub-3 hour games (1) and was the fastest since the 2013 CU-Washington game in Seattle that took 2:48 ... CU lost the coin toss after for the second consecutive game, which had not occurred since 2015 ... The Buffaloes scored for the first time in 2017 on their first possession of the game (driving 75 yards in 11 plays) ... Colorado's first kickoff return of the season (K.D. Nixon's 27-yard effort) came 201 minutes into the year; CU went on to return five kickoffs for a 22.2 average ... TB Phillip Lindsay (5-32 receiving) became CU's all-time reception leader by a running back with 96 receptions (for 783 yards, which is second); he passed Rodney Stewart (2008-11) who had 93 for 969 ... PK James Stefanou made his career-long 49 yard field goal and improved to 7-of-8 on the season; it was the fifth-longest field goal by a freshman in school history, and his 7-of-8 start ties the fourth-best beginning in field goal makes by any kicker in CU annals ... Myles Gaskin (27-202) was the first player to rush for over 200 yards against CU since Arizona's Jared Baker did so on Oct. 17, 2015 (23-207).

GAME 5 UCLA 27, COLORADO 23 SEPTEMBER 30, 2017 ROSE BOWL, PASADENA, CALIF.

PASADENA, Calif. — True to form, the Colorado-UCLA game came down to the fourth quarter in the Rose Bowl, with the Bruins hanging on for a 27-23 win.

CU dropped to 3-2 on the season and 0-2 in the Pac-12. UCLA improved to 3-2, 1-1.

The game was close throughout, as Colorado led early, then saw the Bruins rally to take the lead. UCLA held a 14-10 edge at the half after a Buffs fake field goal attempt near the end of the half resulted in an incomplete pass.

The Bruins led by as many as 11 in the second half. Colorado cut the lead to one twice, 21-20 and 24-23, but could never completely erase the deficit.

For the second week in a row, Colorado scored first. The Buffs marched 63 yards on nine plays, reaching the end zone on a 21-yard pass from Steven Montez to Phillip Lindsay for a 7-0 lead.

Montez finished with 243 yards passing (17-for-36) and one touchdown and was also CU's leading rusher with 108 yards on 15 carries. The Buffs had 191 yards on the ground.

UCLA quickly answered, driving 75 yards on the ensuing possession to tie the game at 7-7, getting a 12-yard touchdown throw from Josh Rosen to Austin Roberts. Rosen was 28-for-45 for 372 yards with one touchdown and one interception. UCLA finished with just 95 yards rushing.

Colorado took the lead again two possessions later, driving 47 yards on five plays before settling for a 33-yard James Stefanou field goal for a 10-7 lead. It was Stefanou's seventh straight field goal of the season and his eighth successful in attempt in nine tries.

The Bruins, though, took the lead for the first time on their next possession when Rosen engineered an eight-play, 75-yard drive. Rosen completed a 46-yard toss to Lasley on a flea-flicker play before Jalen Starks carried in from the 1-yard line for a 14-10 lead.

Colorado then muffed a chance to pull within one late in the half when a fake field goal produced an incomplete pass and the half ended with the Bruins holding on to their 14-10 lead.

After a CU possession that went nowhere to open the second half, UCLA quickly built its lead to 21-10, driving 58-yards in five plays with Soso Jamabo carrying in from the 2.

Colorado finally got its offense back on track. The Buffs went 75 yards for a score on their next possession, with Phillip Lindsay capping the drive with a 2-yard run to cut UCLA's lead to 21-17 with 6:59 to go in the third quarter. The big play of the drive was a Montez run for 25 yards on fourth-and-1.

The Buffs then created their first big break of the game when safety Evan Worthington intercepted a Rosen pass near the sidelines. Colorado then drove 62 yards to the UCLA 16 before settling for a 33-yard field goal to close the gap to 21-20.

UCLA extended its lead to four in the fourth quarter on a 33-yard J.J. Molson field goal before Colorado answered again, driving from the CU 29 to the UCLA 16. Stefanou kicked his third 33-yard field goal of the night to pull the Buffs to within one, 24-23, with 6:46 left in the game.

The Bruins, however, took the ensuing kickoff and methodically marched downfield, eating up yardage and clock at the same time. The Bruins used 6:15 before taking a 31-yard Molson field goal for a 27-23 lead with just 26 seconds left in the game for the final points of the night.

Colorado's last-gasp drive ended with Montez throwing incomplete in the end zone as the clock ran out.

GAME NOTES

The last four games in the series have been decided by 21 points (UCLA has won three of the four, by 11 points) ... This marked the first time CU wore all black for a road game (previously did so for a bowl, a Big 12 title game and two CSU games in Denver); the Buffs are now 3-2 when donned in all black away from Folsom (2-15 when wearing black helmets as well) ... Colorado dropped to 3-22-1 in the state of California (1-4 in Pasadena), with UCLA's series lead at 10-3 (6-1 in California) ... Alumni-city on the CU sidelines: Chris Hudson ('94 Thorpe winner), Nelson Spruce, Scotty McKnight, Stephane Nembot, Jordan Carrell and Rashidi Barnes all in attendance ... DT Lyle Tuiloma made his first career start ... Colorado won the coin toss for the third time this year and for the 16th time in 19 tries dating back to last year's season opener ... Colorado finally started the offensive line it basically practiced with for all of August camp: LT-Jeromy Irwin, LG-Gerrad Kough, C-Jonathan Huckins, RG-Tim Lynott, RT-Aaron Haigler; Irwin missed the first two games for violating team rules, Huckins the last two after being injured against Texas State ... QB Steven Montez had his second career 100-yard rushing game but this was the first time in eight starts (5-3 record) that he did not complete 50 percent of his passes ... TB Phillip Lindsay became the 17th player in school history, and the first running back, to have 100 career receptions; he landed on that number with four receptions ... S Evan Worthington made his second career interception ... PK James Stefanou (2-2 PAT, 3-3 FG) extended his streak to nine straight FG makes, tied for the second-longest in school annals.

GAME 6 ARIZONA 45, COLORADO 42 OCTOBER 7, 2017FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Phillip Lindsay became Colorado's all-time leader in all-purpose yards, but the Buffs had no answer on defense for Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate as the Buffs came up short, 45-42, at Folsom Field.

Lindsay ran for 281 yards and three touchdowns on a CU-record 41 carries, and also added 39 yards receiving as CU finished with 551 yards on offense. Tate, who replaced injured Brandon Dawkins early in the game, had 327 yards rushing on 14 carries — an FBS record for a quarterback — and four touchdowns, along with 142 yards passing and another score.

The game was the first time in FBS history that two players eclipsed 250 yards in rushing. Their 608 yards rushing was also an FBS record for most rushing yardage by two players.

The two teams traded scores all night, with Arizona taking a 21-14 lead at the half. The Buffs managed to stay close but could never completely close the gap.

On the 'Cats first possession after Dawkins' injury, Tate raced 58 yards to the end zone to give the Wildcats a 7-0 lead on the first play of the drive.

CU answered Arizona's first score with a 10-play, 75-yard drive. Steven Montez completed a pair of big third-down passes — the first for 39 yards to Jay MacIntyre and the second to Shay Fields for 15 — before Lindsay carried on the last four plays, including a 5-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 7-7.

Tate needed one play, a 75-yard run, to put Arizona back in the lead, 14-7, before Colorado answered again. The Buffs drove 85 yards in 19 plays for the tying score. Lindsay carried 14 times for 80 yards, including the 1-yard touchdown run.

Arizona, however, responded with a three-play, 68-yard drive. Tate had a 13-yard scoring pass to Shun Brown for a 21-14 lead, which held until the half.

After forcing a Colorado punt to open the second half, Arizona needed just 1:16 to go 70 yards for a score, with Tate scoring from 47 out and a 28-14 lead.

The Buffs answered again with another long, methodical march, driving 75 yards in 15 plays. Montez hit Bryce Bobo from 7 yards out for the score. The drive pulled the Buffs to within 28-21 with 7:13 still left in the third.

But Arizona and Tate responded by going 75 yards for another score. Tate had a 28-yard run on the drive as the Wildcats went up 35-21.

Colorado again pulled to within a touchdown. CU drove 75 yard in 10 plays, with a Montez 2-yard pass to Chris Bounds narrowing the Arizona lead to 35-28 early in the fourth.

Tate answered again. This time it was another 75-yard scoring run, his fourth rushing touchdown of the game, giving the Wildcats a 42-28 lead.

Colorado took the ensuing kickoff and marched 75 yards to its fifth touchdown of the night, capping the drive with a 39-yard Montez pass to Bounds, cutting Arizona's lead to 42-35 with 11:02 left.

Arizona then made it a two-score game again, but had to settle for a 24-yard Josh Pollack field goal for a 45-35 lead with 8:06 left.

CU then drove 75 yards again, in nine plays. Lindsay scored from 11 yards out on his 41st carry of the night. With 5:04 left in the game, the Buffs trailed by three, 45-42.

But Arizona managed to run the clock out on its next possession, with Tate running for a key conversion to extend the drive, racing 31 yards on a 3rd-and-7 to the Buff 17. The Wildcats then ran the clock out with a pair of kneeldowns with the Buffs all out of timeouts.

Tate also completed 12-of-13 passes for 154 yards, giving him 481 yards of total offense, leading UA to 10.13 yards per play (567 on 56 plays), the fourth-highest number ever against a CU team.

GAME NOTES

Tonight's attendance of 49,976 was the most for a CU-UA game at Folsom Field, besting the 48,111 back in 2011, the Buffs' first year in the Pac-12 Conference ... Colorado donned white helmets, black jerseys and white pants (dropping to 2-1 in the look) ... The Buffs are 18-8 in Family Weekend games and now lead the series with Arizona 14-6 (6-4 in Boulder, 7-3 in night games) ... This matched the highest scoring game in the series (87 points; UA won 56-31 in Tucson in 2012); both teams have scored 20 or more points in last eight games ... This tied for the third most points as well as the fourth most total offense in losing a game in CU history ... Colorado is now 188-5 all-time when scoring 38 or more points ... The teams combined for 725 rushing yards (UA 425, CU 300) ... Seniors TB Phillip Lindsay and WR Shay Fields and left indelible marks against Arizona, Lindsay finishing with the most career rushing yards against one opponent (605) and Fields the second-most career receiving yards versus one school (408) ... Lindsay had a record night, becoming CU's all-time leader in all-purpose yards (4,989), set the mark for the most carries (41), became the fifth Buff to surpass 3,000 yards rushing thanks to the fourth-most single game rushing yards (281), and tied the school mark for first downs earned in a game (17, 16 rushing) and he matched the late Rashaan Salaam's mark set against Texas in 1994 for the most by a non-quarterback. TE Chris Bounds, in making his first two TD receptions of his career, became the first CU tight end to have two in a game since Joe Klopfenstein did so against Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 22, 2005.

GAME 7 COLORADO 36, OREGON STATE 33OCTOBER 14, 2017*RESER STADIUM, CORVALLIS

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Phillip Lindsay rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns and quarterback Steven Montez and wide receiver Bryce Bobo hooked up for three scores — with Bobo throwing one to Montez — to lead the Buffs to a 36-33 come-from-behind win at Oregon State.

The final Montez-to-Bobo score came with just 1:34 left in the game, capping a nine-play, 82-yard scoring drive that gave the Buffs their 36-33 lead.

Montez masterfully piloted the game-winning drive, completing all four of his passes for 38 yards, three for first downs, and also had an 11-yard run to earn one. Lindsay picked up 23 yards on four carries on the possession, in which the Buffs never were faced with a third down try.

Oregon State then drove into CU territory on its final possession, but a 52-yard field goal try with 10 seconds left fell short to clinch the Buffs win.

Montez finished 14-of-24 for 168 yards and two scores while Lindsay rushed 28 times for 185 yards and two scores, giving him 466 yards rushing and five touchdowns on 69 carries in his last two games.

After a lackluster first half that saw the Buffs trailing 19-14 at intermission, the Buffs finally took the lead early in the third period, sparked by an Evan Worthington interception on OSU's first possession of the half. Worthington returned the errant pass 43 yards and the Buffs needed just six plays to go 46 yards to the end zone. Montez threw 8 yards to Shay Fields and Lindsay ran 17 yards on the drive, with Lindsay scoring from 9 yards out. James Stefanou's PAT gave the Buff their first lead of the game, 21-19, with 7:07 left in the third period.

But Oregon State quickly answered, going 75 yards in six plays to regain the lead. OSU running back Ryan Nall scored from 13 yards out to give OSU to a 26-21 lead with 20 seconds left in the third period.

Colorado responded by driving 88 yards in 18 plays to regain the lead. Lindsay carried eight times for 33 yards on the drive and Montez capped the march with a 9-yard scoring toss to Bobo. Montez then threw again to Bobo for the 2-point conversion and CU led, 29-26, with 8:53 left in the game.

The Beavers, however, had one more touchdown drive in their pocket, driving 84 yards in 10 plays with Nall scoring from 4 yards out to give OSU a 33-29 lead with just 4:22 left.

That set the stage for CU's game-winning drive and the final defensive stand. Lindsay ran four times for 23 yards on the winning drive before Montez hit Bobo from 13 out for the game's final touchdown.

CU then came up with big defensive plays on OSU's final possession, forcing the Beavers to try a 52-yard field goal, which fell short.

In the first half, the Beavers scored on all five of their possessions, driving for a touchdown on their first time with the ball, then adding four field goals on their next four possessions to take a 19-14 lead at the half.

Colorado answered OSU's opening touchdown quickly, springing Lindsay loose on second down for a 74-yard touchdown run. After OSU took a 16-7 lead on three field goals, CU cut the lead to two when the Buffs went 73 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Montez hit Bobo with a 15-yard toss to keep the drive moving early in the march and Bobo then returned the favor later, throwing an 11-yard scoring pass to Montez. It was Bobo's second career touchdown pass (he had one to Lindsay last year at USC) and it pulled Colorado to within two, 16-14.

But the Beavers then used the last 1:36 of the half to push their lead to five, getting their fourth field goal of the half to send the Buffs into the locker room trailing 19-14. All told, OSU drove into the red zone seven times in 10 possessions, but came away with just three touchdowns and the four field goals.

Colorado has 49 lettermen returning for 2017 (47 from the 2016 team, with two others from past years); they break down into 24 on offense, 21 on defense and 4 specialists; the Buffs lose 36 lettermen off the 2016 squad (19 offense/16 defense/1 specialist). CU returns 12 starters from last season (9 offense/3 defense), losing 12 (4 offense/8 defense); two players started seven games each at right tackle and one player started 10 times as the fourth wide receiver, so the offensive starter count last year is based off 13 players. The 2016 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams; #—lettered but injured early in the 2016 season and has been submitted for medical hardships.
