Founded in 1876 at the foot of the Flatirons, over 141 years has transformed the University of Colorado from a lone building on a bleak, windswept hill to one of the nation's leading public research institutions. Established in 1861, the University was formally founded in 1876, the year Colorado became a state.

The Boulder campus encompasses over 1,100 acres on the main campus in the heart of town, east campus (which includes a research park), south campus, Williams Village and the Mountain Research Station north of nearby Nederland (which supports ecology, chemistry and geology).

While over 32,000 students are educated on the Boulder campus, another 30,000-plus study at the University of Colorado at Denver, the University of Colorado Anschutz Campus (Aurora) and the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. Nine elected Regents and President Bruce Benson lead the four-campus system, while each campus has a Chancellor who serves as the chief academic and administrative officer. Dr. Phil DiStefano is in his ninth year as the chancellor of the Boulder campus.

Students can enter any of 10 schools and colleges offering more than 3,900 courses in 150 fields, representing a full range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, physical and biological sciences, the fine and performing arts, and the professions. CU-Boulder is regularly ranked among the best of the United States' public universities by the Fiske Guide to Colleges, and a 2010 USA Today/Princeton Review survey rated the University of Colorado as the fifth-best value among American public colleges. CU was recently ranked as the No. 33 university in the world by the Times Higher Education.

CU-Boulder has played a major role in NASA space programs, designing and building many scientific instruments flown in outer space, and graduated 17 men and women who became astronauts, including the late Jack Swigert, one of the three astronauts in the crippled Apollo 13 mission who made it back to Earth safely from the moon. When the Hubble Space Telescope was launched in 1990, it was carrying seven major instruments, including a high-resolution spectrograph to study the evolution of stars and designed and built by an international science team led by astronomer Jack Brandt of CU-Boulder. Since Hubble has been deployed, CU-Boulder faculty and students have been among the top users of Hubble of any institution in the world. CU-Boulder is the only university in the country where undergraduate students have operated a NASA satellite.

The University has produced 19 Rhodes Scholars, five of which were former football student-athletes at CU, with Jim Hansen the most recent recipient in 1992. Faculty member Thomas Cech, a distinguished professor of chemistry and biochemistry, won the 1989 Nobel Prize in chemistry. Other notable alumni other than athletes include former United States Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, former big band leader Glenn Miller and actors

Robert Redford and Chris Meloni, the latter starring for years on Law & Order: Special Victims Unit, the creators of South Park, Trey Parker and Matt Stone, and Philip Bailey, co-founder of the popular music group Earth, Wind & Fire.

If the aphorism, "Somewhere between the Rockies and reality," seems too good to believe, then come for a visit. Start with a walk on the historic Pearl Street Mall, a downtown pedestrian mall that is the ceremonial heart of the city. Visitors may be so taken in by the scenery they may not realize the University that put it all together. From Pearl, Broadway leads directly onto campus where the University of Colorado Museum and the CU Heritage Center, in the original Old Main building, both introduce the University's past and present. The hub of campus activity can be found at both the University Memorial Center (UMC) and the Center for Community (C4C). The ATLAS building is one of the most state-of-the-art structures on any college campus.

Take in the fresh mountain air on any part of 100 miles of trails and 30,000 acres of open space. Climb the Flatirons or in Eldorado Canyon State Park. Swim or board sail at the Boulder Reservoir while elite runners sprint around it. Take in a pro sporting event down the road in Denver, just one of 13 cities with teams in all four pro leagues.

"The University of Colorado, and Boulder, is a town which stops where the Rocky Mountains begin. Normally in America such a superb site would be occupied by a golf course, but somebody goofed and instead they built what may be the most beautifully situated campus in the world... if anyone asks you to Boulder, I have one word of advice: 'Go.'"

— From London's Observer Magazine article, "Us and Them," by Simon Hoggart (April 23, 1989)

PRESIDENT BRUCE BENSON

Bruce D. Benson is in his 10th year as president of the University of Colorado, as he was named to the position in March 2008. Since taking the helm of his alma mater, he has enhanced CU's standing as one of the nation's leading teaching and research universities, advancing the economy, health and culture of Colorado and beyond.

The 21st president in the history of the university, he has now served the fifth-longest of the group, and is the longest-serving CU president since Robert L. Stearns held the post for the better part of 15 years (1939-53) well over 60 years ago.

During Benson's tenure, CU's research funding has reached record levels, including its best showing of $994 million in 2016-17, supporting the university's research strengths in biotechnology, health care, energy and aerospace engineering. He has led efforts to promote cross-campus collaboration that have resulted in cooperative academic programs and research initiatives, most notably CU's Biofrontiers Institute, led by Nobel laureate Tom Cech.

CU has broken records for fundraising in eight consecutive years (including a record $386.3 million in 2016-17) under his leadership. Benson and his wife, Marcy, chaired CU's $1.5 billion Creating Futures fundraising campaign, which surpassed its goal in November 2013. The campaign, the largest in university history, supported scholarships, academic enhancements (endowed faculty positions, programs), research projects and capital improvements across CU's campuses.

Benson, 79, has guided efforts to institute operational efficiencies, cut bureaucracy and improve business practices at the university. CU has secured legislation over the past nine sessions of the Colorado General Assembly that has allowed it to save millions annually in areas such as procurement, insurance and construction. He has also established a number of public-private partnerships to make the university more entrepreneurial and meet the needs of businesses in Colorado and across the country.

He oversees a system with four campuses (Boulder, Colorado Springs, Denver, and the Anschutz Medical Campus in Aurora) with a total enrollment of 63,202. During his tenure, CU's four campuses have seen record enrollment. The university's annual budget is $4.1 billion. The CU system is the third-largest employer in the state, with some 35,000 employees.

Before becoming CU's president, Benson had already made his mark in business, politics, philanthropy, education and civic endeavors. He founded Bruce Mineral Group in 1965, a year after earning his bachelor's degree in Geology from CU.

He has consistently been active in a variety of educational, civic and political endeavors, and was the Republican nominee for Colorado governor in 1994. Benson has received many honors recognizing his leadership, but two are particularly notable: CU in 2004 granted him an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, and in February 2009 he was inducted into the Colorado Business Hall of Fame. In August 2016, he was the recipient of the inaugural Courage in Education Award from the Steamboat Institute, as the honor is for encouraging intellectual diversity and the free and robust exchange of ideas.

He was born July 4, 1938 in Chicago, and has three children and 10 grandchildren.

CHANCELLOR PHIL DISTEFANO

Dr. Philip P. DiStefano is in his ninth year as the Chancellor at the University of Colorado Boulder. Prior to his appointment on May 5, 2009, Dr. DiStefano was the top academic officer at CU-Boulder for eight years as the Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. He had also served as interim chancellor twice during pivotal times in the university's history.

Dr. DiStefano, 70, co-chaired the steering committee for CU-Boulder's visionary strategic plan, Flagship 2030, conceived with campus, community and statewide input, to guide the university for decades to come. Today, Dr. DiStefano is shepherding its implementation as Flagship 2030 has moved from vision to reality.

Dr. DiStefano has served CU-Boulder for 43 years, first coming to the University of Colorado in 1974 as an Assistant Professor of Curriculum and Instruction at the School of Education. His academic career flourished as he assumed a series of academic and administrative positions, including Professor, Associate Dean, Dean and Vice Chancellor. He was appointed Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs in 2001.

He has established new initiatives to support students in their success, including an increased graduation rate. He also has set forth plans to create alternative sources of revenue and further advance CU's reputation as a top comprehensive national research university.

Dr. DiStefano is considered a national authority on integrating intercollegiate athletics into the university academic mission. For the sixth consecutive year under Chancellor DiStefano, CU's NCAA Academic Progress Rate, which tracks student-athlete progress toward graduation, is the best in school history.

Dr. DiStefano began a three-year term in August 2016 on the Board of Governors of the NCAA representing the Pac-12, within that role he was a member of the NCAA's revenue distribution working group. He also served five years as the University of Colorado's faculty representative to the Big 12 Conference, as he assumed the role on June 1, 2000, and held it until appointing Dr. David Clough to the position in the spring of 2005. He has been closely involved with the athletic program for most of his time at CU, and in June 2016, was recently accompanied by athletic director Rick George to Italy to promote the university and the success of its international students.

As Chancellor he works closely with students, faculty, staff, alumni, donors, governing officials, and business and community leaders in extending CU's legacy as a preeminent national comprehensive research university.

A first-generation college graduate, Dr. DiStefano earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University in 1968 and a Master of Arts degree in English Education from West Virginia University in 1971. He holds a Doctorate in Humanities Education from Ohio State University, where he served as a teaching and research associate.

Dr. DiStefano began his educational career as a high school English teacher in Ohio. He has authored and co-authored numerous books and articles on literacy education.

He was born September 21, 1946 in Steubenville, Ohio, and graduated from Steubenville Catholic Central High School. He has been married to the former Yvonne Pasquarella for 48 years, and the couple has three grown daughters, Gia, Nicole and Jennifer, and two granddaughters.

In 2015, he served as the official starter for the 37th annual Boulder Boulder, the city's 10-kilometer race that is the fourth largest in the nation. He has been very active throughout his career in the Boulder Community, having previously served on numerous boards, including the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club.

PROVOST RUSSELL MOORE

Dr. Russell L. Moore is entering his ninth year as the Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs for the University of Colorado, having assumed the position July 1, 2010.

Dr. Moore had enjoyed a long and distinguished career at CU, having previously served as interim vice chancellor for research from May 2009 to July 2010, and prior to that appointment, he was the associate vice chancellor for research since 2006.

Dr. Moore served as chair of kinesiology and applied physiology (now integrative physiology) from 1994 to 2001, and was an assistant professor (1984-86), associate professor (1993-96) and full professor (1996-present) in that department.

He co-chaired the Flagship 2030 Task Force on Research, Scholarship, and Creative Works.

He holds an adjunct professorship in medicine (cardiology) at the University of Colorado's Anschutz Medical Campus at the University of Colorado Denver.

He was an assistant and associate professor (1986-91) in the departments of medicine, cellular and molecular physiology at the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in Hershey, Pa. His research focused on adaptations of the heart to physiological and pathological stress, particularly as they relate to the development of heart failure.

Dr. Moore earned a Bachelor of Science degree in biochemistry from the University of California at Davis in 1976, and a doctorate from Washington State University in 1982. He did postdoctoral work at the University of Texas Health Science Center in Dallas (1981-84).

FACULTY REP JOE JUPILLE

Dr. Joseph (Joe) Jupille, an associate professor of political science, is in his first year as the University of Colorado's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) to the Pac-12 Conference, as he assumed the position on July 1, 2017.

Dr. Jupille, 46, replaced Dr. David Clough, who had served as FAR for 12 years starting in March 2005 until his retirement. Jupille is only the seventh FAR in CU history, joining a very prestigious list: Walter Franklin (1947-1948), Warren Thompson (1949-1966),

William Baughn (1967-1989), James Corbridge (1989-2000), current CU chancellor Phil DiStefano (2000-2005) and Clough (2005-2017).

Now in his 13th year at CU, he joined the faculty in 2005 and became an Associate Professor in 2007. He founded and served as Director of the Colorado European Union Center of Excellence (CEUCE) from 2008-15.

Professor Jupille's research specializes in rules and institutions, which comes in handy in the world of intercollegiate athletics. With James Caporaso (University of Washington) he is completing Theories of Institutions, which distills understandings of rules across a range of disciplinary orientations. He has previously published Institutional Choice and Global Commerce (2013, with Walter Mattli and Duncan Snidal) and Procedural Politics (2004), the latter of which centers on his core substantive and teaching expertise in the European Union (EU). He has been published widely in peer reviewed journals and edited volumes, including in the Annual Review of Political Science, Comparative Political Studies, European Political Science Review, International Organization and West European Politics.

Jupille has been involved with student-athletes almost since arriving at CU over a decade ago, serving on and then chairing the Boulder Faculty Assembly's Intercollegiate Athletics Committee (IAC), which works with the Department of Athletics in managing and thriving at the nexus of athletics and academics. He has served or continues to serve on a number of student-athlete-centered bodies such as the AD's Academic Risk Assessment (ARA) committee, the Title IX Task Force chaired by Senior Woman Administrator (SWA) Ceal Barry in addition to many others.

Jupille wants it all for CU student-athletes: a gold standard education, unparalleled opportunity for personal growth and professional preparation, a chance to enjoy year-round fresh air and sunshine and develop ways of being well, and of course, a world class athletic experience. It is the FAR's job to bring a faculty sensibility to the pursuit of these goals.

He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from UC Santa Barbara in 1992, a Master of Arts in International Public Policy from the Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey in 1995, and his Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of Washington in 2000.

Prior to joining the CU faculty in 2005, he was an Assistant Professor of Political Science at Florida International University for almost six years (2000-05).

He was born in Chicago and 1970. He is married to the former Lisa Avanzino and the couple have four children (Michael, Alex, Jackson and Julia). An avid cyclist, he commutes daily to CU by bike from the town of Superior (several miles to the southeast of Boulder). He grew up as a fan of the Pacific 10 Conference and in particular the California Bears but his allegiance is now sworn to the Buffaloes.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR RICK GEORGE

Rick George was introduced as just the sixth full-time athletic director in University of Colorado history on July 17, 2013, returning to Boulder where he helped play a role in the school's first and only national championship in football some 23 years earlier.

George, 57, came to Colorado from the Texas Rangers baseball club of the American League, where he was named chief operating officer on October 5, 2010 with a promotion to president of business operations in February 2013. He agreed to a 5-year contract at CU, and he officially started on the job on August 12, 2013. In June 2016, the Board of Regents approved a contract extension that carries him through 2020-21 academic and athletic year.

His list of achievements in his first 1,000 days in the position were many, but none more significant than shepherding through a $156 million Athletic Complex Expansion from creation through fruition, gaining approval from the Board of Regents and then raising nearly one-half of the estimated cost to initiate construction, which began May 12, 2014. The project is the core of the Sustainable Excellence Initiative (SEI), the jewel of which was a long-awaited indoor practice facility. Once green-lighted, he spearheaded the most successful fundraising campaign in athletic department history, raising to date $95 million for the project.

George implemented the department's first-ever comprehensive strategic plan, which has mapped CU's immediate and long range purpose and goals. He also redesigned the management teams, made tough budget decisions that reduced deficits he inherited (and has since produced two budget surpluses), and canvassed the state, region and nation in both friend- and fundraising.

In his fourth year in the position (2016-17), 13 of CU's 16 athletic teams were at one time or another ranked among the nation's Top 25 (including all five in the fall; skiing is a coed program with combined rankings). Included in that group was the football team, as the Buffaloes returned to the national rankings for the first time in 11 seasons, in part due to George's support of Mike MacIntyre as the program's head coach and allowing him to follow through with his plan to bring the Buffaloes back to national prominence. All but one team competed in the postseason, most in NCAA Championships, with football making it to a bowl game for the first time in nine years and both basketball teams going to their respective NIT events.

Near the end of his first year, he was recognized by CU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee as its choice for Staff Member of the Year; no token award, the group acknowledged his attendance at most home athletic events, regular meetings with team captains of all programs to interact with them and receive their feedback, and willingness to meet with any student-athlete and that his door is always open to them.

George brought the most diverse background to the position than any before him at Colorado: all five others had extensive and primarily exclusive college athletic histories, the only exceptions being when Marolt left CU after 10 years as ski coach to lead the U.S. Olympic ski team before returning, and Tharp, who was a university attorney with strong CU-Boulder campus ties. While George began and worked in the college athletic world for the first half of his professional career, he stepped outside that box for the second half.

George is just the sixth full-time athletic director in Colorado history, following in the footsteps of Harry Carlson (1927-65), Eddie Crowder (1965-84), Bill Marolt (1984-96), Dick Tharp (1996-2004) and Mike Bohn (2005-13). Two others have bridged directors in interim capacities, Jack Lengyel (six months between Tharp and Bohn) and Ceal Barry (two months between Bohn and George).

George was with the Rangers for less than three years, but saw the team win two American League championships and compile a 243-176 record (.580 winning percentage) during his time there, second-best in the major leagues during that time frame. As the COO, he worked closely with team president and CEO, baseball Hall-of-Famer Nolan Ryan, and was responsible for all facets of the Rangers' business operations, including oversight of all sales and marketing efforts, broadcast and communications, ticket and suite sales, naming rights, etc., in addition to overseeing the finance, human resource and operations departments.

Among his many accomplishments with the Rangers was a comprehensive branding study that successfully rebranded the ball club, and an implementation of a new ticketing strategy that over the course of three seasons increased ticket revenues by over $30 million. The club's attendance saw an increase of 40 percent from the 2010 season to nearly 3.5 million in 2012, second in the American League (behind the New York Yankees) and third in the majors. The 2013 numbers were on pace to exceed the 3 million mark again when he left the franchise for CU.

Prior to joining the Rangers, George served as executive vice president and chief of operations for the PGA TOUR for two-and-a-half years (beginning in June 2008). While with the TOUR, he worked with the corporate marketing department in renewing sponsorships and creating new events. He also oversaw the Tournament Business Affairs division that worked with Tournaments to increase tournament revenue.

He also worked for the PGA TOUR as president of the Champions Tour from 2003-08, and as the executive vice president for championship management his last three years there. His major accomplishments included increasing revenues and sponsorships and the development of strategic plans, the latter including a vision and mission statement as well as core values. The Champions Tour had grown to a minimum 29 events with over $55 million in prize money when he left for the PGA TOUR.

From 1998-2003, George served as President and CEO of the Fore!Kids Foundation, a 501c3 organization that raised money for children's charities via golf-related events, where he led rebranding and organizational efforts that resulted in increases in charitable giving to the Foundation.

At the collegiate level, George worked in three major conferences (Big Ten, Big 8, Southeastern) in football operations, beginning with his alma mater, the University of Illinois, as football recruiting coordinator (1983-87).

Bill McCartney's Hall of Fame Salute at Folsom Field: George, Joe Romig, Mac, Alfred Williams.

Rick and granddaughter Harper at ESPN's Basketball Game Day (February 2014).

He graduated from Illinois in 1982 with a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Arts & Sciences Individual Study that had an emphasis on Sports Communication and Journalism. He was a four-year letterman at cornerback for the Illini, playing in 44 straight games and starting in 27 games in all, as he played two years each under coaches Gary Moeller and Mike White. He was a two-time recipient of the school's Bruce Capel Award, given for dedication and courage to honor Capel who lost his life serving his country in Vietnam; George received the honor for his junior and senior seasons.

Upon his graduation, White named him the assistant director for player personnel for the Illini, and a year later (1983), he assumed the all sports recruiting coordinator. In March 1984, George took over the recruiting chores solely for football, with his first class ranked No. 1 in the nation by the recruiting services with all in the top 20; he coordinated five classes in all at Illinois when the call came to take him out west to Colorado.

On March 2, 1987, Bill McCartney hired him as Colorado's football recruiting coordinator. Two-and-a-half years later (Dec. 21, 1989), George was promoted to assistant athletic director for football operations, not coincidentally after the Buffaloes finished the regular season with an 11-0 record and the school's first-ever No. 1 national ranking in the polls. CU lost to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl and would finish No. 4, but came back to go 11-1-1 in 1990, this time defeating the Irish in the Orange Bowl to earn consensus national champion honors.

Shortly thereafter, he left the Buffaloes for Vanderbilt University, where he was reunited with former CU offensive coordinator Gerry DiNardo, who was named the Commodores' head coach a year earlier. In eight years at Vanderbilt (1991-98), he also served as associate athletic director for external operations in conjunction with overseeing the football program. This was where George first expanded his professional role outside of solely football, as he had oversight over all external departments, particularly in the area of managing budgets and developing marketing and promotional strategies for all sports.

George was born April 3, 1960 in Woodstock, Ill., and graduated from Collinsville (Ill.) High School, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Nancy Green, and the couple has two grown daughters, Jenni Reed (husband Tom) and Christi, and two granddaughters (Harper and Maddie).

On July 19, 2017, George was named chair of the LEAD1 Association, which represents the athletic directors, programs and student-athletes of the 129 member schools of the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). He immediately began serving a two-year term for the organization, as its mission includes influencing how the rules of college sports are enacted and implemented, advocating for the future of college athletics and providing various services to the members. He also serves on the Division I Council of the NCAA, and is part of the NCAA's D1 Council Transfer Working Group.

Conference History

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back 102 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland. The original membership consisted of four schools — the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin Atherton was commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference, essentially replacing Colorado, which left for the Big 7 two years earlier. The PCC continued as a nine-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as commissioner of the Pac-8.

On July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Tom Hansen was named the commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the conference into a modern 12-team league by adding the University of Colorado and the University of Utah. The addition of CU and Utah led to an agreement to equal revenue sharing for the first time in conference history, created two divisions (North and South) for football only, established a football championship game for the first time ever, secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school and established the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, as the Buffaloes were the first domino to fall in a change of the national landscape which, in just one week, saw Nebraska also leave the Big 12 and join the Big 10, Boise State depart the WAC for the Mountain West, TCU jump from the MWC for the Big East (before eventually landing in the Big 12). Less than a week later on June 17, Utah agreed to join CU to make it an even dozen in the Pac-12. Big-time rivals for the first half of the last century, the Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Pac-10 teams claimed 258 NCAA titles (130 women's, 128 men's).

Pac-12 Commissioner Larry Scott

At present, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 13 women's sports, having added women's lacrosse for the first time for the spring of 2018. Additionally, the conference schools are members of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and two women's sports. CU participates in the MPSF in indoor track and has competed since 1950 in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association (RMISA) in skiing, which is a coed sport.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco's downtown district and are headquartered in the same building as the Pac-12 Network.

Conference of Champions

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

That same year, the Pac-12 also launched its Globalization Initiative to proactively promote the Conference and member institutions through student-athlete exchanges and sport, as in the first five years, Pac-12 student-athletes have enjoyed unique cultural and athletic experiences in several foreign nations. In the past year, the Pac-12 became the first conference to have all of its schools become members of the Green Sports Alliance.

On the field, courts and in the pools of play, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions®," claiming an incredible 163 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000. For the 12th consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles of any conference in the country, having won at least six every year since 2000-01, including 23 over the last two years. No other conference has ever won 10 or more in a single athletic year, looking up at the record 14 the Pac-12 won in 1996-97 and now 13 in 2016-17. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 51 of the last 57 years (and was second four times and third twice).

Spanning over a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 200, 300, 400 and now 500 championships; despite having two fewer members than three of the other four so-called “Power 5” conferences, the Pac-12 outdistances the next conference by nearly 200 crowns. In all, Pac-12 conference teams have won 501 NCAA Championships (297 men’s, 174 women’s, 30 coed).

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions, as through the 2016-17 school year, 2,292 individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years (1,358 in men’s championships, 749 in women’s and 185 in coed, e.g. skiing).

On the women’s side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women’s championships 36 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 27 occasions, including 17 consecutive years from 2001-2017.

CU won back-to-back men’s NCAA cross country titles in 2013 and 2014.

Petra Hyncicova won both the classic and freestyle races at the 2017 NCAA’s.

David Ketterer swept the giant slalom and slalom races at the 2017 NCAA Ski Championships.

Dani Jones was the 2017 national champion in the indoor 3,000-meter run.

2016-17 QUICK REVIEW

In the 2016-17 academic year, the Pac-12’s 13 NCAA titles came in the form of a record 10 women’s crowns, along with two men’s and one coed title.

Living up to its well-deserved billing of “Conference of Champions®,” seven different league schools claimed NCAA titles including three of the seven nationally that won multiples crowns (Stanford was one of two that won four).

In 24 national championship events, Pac-12 schools earned 38 (out of a possible 96) top four finishes, with Oregon completing the first-ever “Triple Crown,” winning women’s national titles in cross country and both indoor and outdoor track and field. Stanford’s four titles came in men’s soccer, women’s swimming, women’s water polo and women’s volleyball. USC claimed the women’s soccer and beach volleyball championships. Arizona State (women’s golf), California (men’s water polo), Utah (skiing, holding off CU) and Washington (women’s rowing) rounded out the league’s victories.

While Colorado did not win an NCAA title in 2016-17 and the school’s count remains at 27, the Buffaloes finished second in skiing, third in women’s cross country (sixth in men’s) and seventh in women’s indoor track. CU has won 20 skiing titles (11 men’s, one AIAW women’s and eight coed) and seven cross country (five men’s, two women’s); the Buffs also were the consensus national champions in football in 1990, but since it is not an NCAA-sanctioned championship, it doesn’t count toward the Pac-12’s total of 501.

FOLSOM FIELD

Folsom Field, named after legendary University of Colorado Coach Frederick Folsom, opened for the 1924 season and has been the football team's home field ever since. The Buffaloes have played 93 seasons on the "hilltop," and own one of the nation's best all-time home records, as the Buffs are 309-169-10, a winning percentage of .643.

Colorado owns one of the nation's best all-time home records, as in the previous 91 seasons of play at Folsom, the Buffaloes are 303-169-10, a winning percentage of .639.

The stadium was dedicated on October 11, 1924, as Colorado defeated Regis College, 39-0. It actually was the second home game of the season, as CU closed out playing at Gamble Field the week before with a 31-0 win over Western State.

Folsom is tied for the 21st oldest venue among the 129 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums; it is the fifth oldest in the Pac-12 Conference. Through the years many improvements have been made, but the original beauty and intimate feeling has remained making it one of best venues in college football, if not all sports.

It originally was called Colorado Stadium, the name being changed to Folsom Field in 1944 following Folsom's death. In addition, old 24th Street was also changed to Folsom Street to honor the man who coached Colorado teams three different times totaling 15 years between 1895 and 1915. His 76.5 winning percentage (77-23-2) is still tops among all coaches ever at CU.

CU had played its games at Gamble Field for two decades, where seating was limited to temporary bleachers. In the winter of 1923-24, CU President George Norlin studied the possibility of a new stadium, as the approaching completion of a sparkling new gymnasium (Carlson Gym), the inadequate number of seats at Gamble Field (roughly 9,000) and the growing interest in physical education and intercollegiate athletics demanded that a remedy needed to take place soon.

Investigation of a natural ravine just east of the site of the gymnasium as a site for the new stadium, suggested by professor Whitney Huntington, was not only a convenient location, but by using it a great expense could be avoided. After a financing plan was worked out, CU's own construction department began moving dirt with a steam shovel on January 14, 1924.

The new structure had an original capacity of 26,000, featuring wooden bleacher seating over cement, and quarter-mile running track. A California red wood, dipped in creosote, was selected as the initial material, as estimates at the time put a lifetime of around 13 years for the wood. There were 22 sections divided by radial aisles installed, the same set-up in the lower bowl that still exists today.

Accounts at the time put the cost of the stadium at around $2.60 per seat, instead of $10 had concrete been used; the total cost was $65,000. By comparison, the cost to construct Carlson Gym was $350,000.

With expansion in mind when originally built, it was by design rather easy to add an upper deck. In 1956, Folsom Field's capacity was upped to 45,000 when a second deck was erected around two-thirds of the stadium. Some 6,000 more seats were added in 1967 when the running track was removed and the team dressing facilities were constructed at the north end of the field.

Improvements continued, as the gigantic six-level press box facility was added on the west side for the start of the 1968 season. It also serves as the home for CU's Flatirons Club, a group of donors who financially support the athletic program.

In the summer of 1976, Folsom Field had another face-lift, as the wooden bleacher seats were removed and replaced with silver and gold aluminum bleachers, expanding the stadium to

The renovation of CU's team house in the summer of 1979 took away a few seats, changing the capacity to 51,463. The construction of the magnificent Dal Ward Center in 1991 added new bleacher seating in the north end zone and increased the capacity to 51,748. In 1992, the addition of a yellow concourse wall on the southeast side took away a few hundred seats, and corporate boxes (in 1995) lowered the capacity to 51,655.

The removal of a set of old rickety bleachers in 2001 and a few other changes placed the stadium capacity at 50,942, but that figure stood for just two seasons. The addition of suites and club seating on the east side (at a cost of $45.2 million) completed in August 2003 increased the capacity to 53,750, an all-time Folsom Field high.

Prior to the 1971 season, the playing surface at Folsom Field was natural grass. Monsanto of St. Louis, Mo., replaced the natural grass with AstroTurf for the 1971 campaign, with the first game being played on the artificial surface against the University of Wyoming on September 18 (the Buffs won 56-13); it was a godsend, as that very morning, Boulder received a rare late summer snowstorm that blanketed the field with more than two feet of snow.

The original AstroTurf surface was replaced with a "new rug" for the start of the 1978 season, and in the summer of 1989, "AstroTurf-8" was installed, the third artificial surfacing in the school's history. Folsom was covered with artificial surfaces for 28 seasons (168 games), and it was fairly friendly for the Buffs, which posted a 110-56-2 record in those games.

In the spring of 1999, Folsom Field returned to natural grass, as "SportGrass" was installed on the stadium floor. The project, which included bio-thermal heating, drainage and a sub-air system, cost $1.2 million. Video display boards, known as "BuffVision" were also added in the summer of 1999 at a cost of $3.6 million; those were updated with state-of-the-art HD technology in 2012 at a cost of about $6.5 million.

In 2003, completion of a $45.2 million east side renovation added 1,903 club seats and 41 suites, increasing Folsom's capacity to its all-time high of 53,750. The state-of-the-art complex remains one of the best in college football, is not nearly as high as many clubs and suites at most stadiums, and offers a great view of the foothills of the Rocky Mountains and when clear, the Continental Divide.

The capacity of Folsom was 53,613 from 2007-13, following the removal of the fourth rows from three different levels of the Flatirons Club prior to the 2007 season (seats that always had some kind of obstructed view). In 2014, the north end zone bleachers and two northeast corner sections of the stadium were completely renovated into loge and club seating, altering the capacity to its current number of 50,183.

FOLSOM CONCERT HISTORY

Folsom Field was one of the premier venues for stadium concerts at the height of their popularity in the 1970s and 1980s. In fact, the largest crowd in the stadium's history was for what was billed as the Folsom Music Festival on May 1, 1977: 61,500 people attended the rain-soaked mega concert featuring Fleetwood Mac, Bob Seger's Silver Bullet Band, local musicians Firefall and John Sebastian. Eventually for assorted reasons, Folsom hosted less shows and a 15-year dormancy in shows ended in the summer of 2016 with the Dead & Company performing two concerts. It all started in 1969 with a show headlined by The Byrds and the Steve Miller Band, though the actual day in July is contested. And a side note: at CU's 2000 graduation ceremony, with his daughter graduating, Neil Diamond sang the national anthem. Balch Fieldhouse, the Coors Events Center and Macky Auditorium have also played host to other concerts on campus. Here's a list of Folsom's stadium shows:

ATHLETICS COMPLEX EXPANSION

The official groundbreaking took place on May 12, 2014, signifying the start of CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion (ACE), the most aggressive construction project undertaken by the university in relation to athletics since 1924, when Folsom Field was built. The project had three distinct phases: first was to renovate seating in two areas of Folsom, the north bleachers and the northeast corner (sections 121 and 122), both replaced with high-end club seating (1,876 total). The second was a combination of renovating a good portion of the existing Dal Ward Athletic Center (built in 1991) and building a massive new structure that would be named the Champions Center. The third and final phase was a long-awaited Indoor Practice Facility (IPF) that would also include a state-of-the-art 300-meter track.

All three phases took less than two years to complete through the combined efforts of Populous (the designer) and Mortenson Construction, with an official dedication on February 26, 2016 that was hosted by CU graduate and long-time ESPN college football reporter Chris Fowler.

DAL WARD ATHLETIC CENTER

The 1990-91 athletic season was a landmark one for the University of Colorado in two areas. The year produced two national championships, CU's first in football and its 14th at the time in skiing, and the men's basketball team reached the NIT Final Four. That was also the year that the magnificent Dal Ward Athletic Center became a reality.

The entire construction process was completed in less than nine months, from ground-breaking in December 1990, to completion the following August. The $14 million building was completely funded through private donations. The multi-functional, state-of-the-art structure was one of the top facilities anywhere in college athletics upon its completion. The DWAC boasted 92,000 square feet that included academic, sports medicine and weight training centers, a full-service kitchen and daily dining area, an auditorium, men's and women's locker rooms, a player's lounge and offices for athletic administration and coaches.

Construction on the project actually began in November 1990, with the demolition of the old team house building, which had stood in the north end of Folsom Field since its erection in 1967. The foundation was dug and concrete poured over the next couple of months, with construction of the actual building starting in February 1991. The structure was available for the football team's use by mid-August, with the remainder of the building completed later that fall.

The building is named for Dallas Ward, the football coach who led CU into the Big Seven Conference in 1948. Ward was the head coach for the Buffaloes for 11 seasons (1948-1958), compiling a 63-41-6 record, which made him the third-winningest coach in CU history at the time. His teams, noted for the single wing offense, were a constant threat to Oklahoma's supremacy in the Big Seven Conference.

The tile roof, native stone walls and traditional Italinete architecture were selected to compliment the style of the Boulder campus, and it also established a new sense of entry to the campus coming from the north. The building features a dramatic two story entry and lobby space with a grand staircase. In 1999, a state-of-the-art video replay board, known as "BuffVision," replaced the original scoreboard.

"We have built something that will truly give our athletes a chance to compete with the best," then-athletic director Bill Marolt said. The building was designed by the architectural firm of Sink Combs Dethlefs of Denver, with construction performed by Gerald H. Phipps, Inc.

But over the course of time, as is often the case with many new buildings, the needs of athletics and the football program outgrew what the Dal Ward Center could provide. Sure, there were a few tweaks and minor remodeling through the years, but as part of the ACE, there was a 37,000-square foot renovation that included the addition of men's and women's Olympic sports locker rooms, expansion of the Herbst Academic Center and a new weight room. The former athletic director's offices were converted into a leadership development program suite and a Touchdown Club created overlooking Folsom Field.

CHAMPIONS CENTER

The jewel of the ACE was no doubt the construction of the state-of-the-art Champions Center, a 212,000-square foot, six-story structure erected on the northeast corner of Folsom Field. The building houses new football offices, almost all of the athletic administration and Olympic sport coaches, new areas for sports medicine, strength and conditioning and equipment, meeting rooms, a dining facility and a rooftop terrace for game days and year-round special events.

There are five hydrotherapy pools (hot, cold, treadmill and two recovery), the weight room spans 11,285 square feet and massive meeting rooms that are comfortable and not cramped. The second floor also houses a Sports Medicine and Performance Center that is open to the public and provides medical services on game day that few if any other stadiums offer in the nation, college or pro. The rooftop terrace offers stunning panoramic views of Boulder’s signature Flatirons as well as all the way out to the peaks of the Continental Divide.

“Our vision of sustainable excellence is about transforming opportunity,” said athletic director Rick George, who spearheaded the project from the very start of his tenure (construction started nine months to the day of his first on the job). “In achieving this vision, each student-athlete that takes the field in black and gold will do so bolstered with the knowledge that we’ve provided them with every resource necessary to be successful – both in competition and in life beyond graduation.”

The Mortenson design/build team completed the fast-paced project without significant disruption to daily campus activity. The facility was also designed with bricks, mortar and masonry work in the familiar CU style of architecture – Tuscan vernacular. That style was adopted for the campus nearly 100 years ago, to be reminiscent of the hill towns around Florence and Siena, Italy. (The consistency maintained through the years is one of the reasons the CU campus always is at or near the top of the list of the most beautiful in the nation.)

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

When inclement weather hit during the fall or during spring practices, there were two choices prior to 2016: practice inside Balch Fieldhouse, or since 2006, an erected bubble-like complex that stood on the west practice field for six months out of the year. But that all changed with the third phase of the ACE, which added a 108,000-square foot, net zero energy (NZE) indoor practice facility (IPF), easily one of the best-ever constructed in college athletics.

The facility can serve all sports programs, has a 90-foot maximum clear height to aid the kicking game, and has a six-lane, 300-meter competition-venue track allows CU to host IAFF and NCAA-sanctioned indoor track events. There are 2,604 solar panels on the roof that create approximately 1,200 MWh/year of power generation. A 534-space underground parking garage below the IPF was constructed and will be a boon to the game day experience for CU fans. The final part of this phase was the re-sodding of Franklin Field, a 106,000-square-foot outdoor grass practice field adjacent to the IPF that is the outdoor practice home for the Buffaloes.

Less than one month after it opened, the Bleacher Report came out with its list of the top 15 indoor football practice facilities in the nation, and Colorado’s was included among them. The only other Pac-12 school was Oregon, and most of the others were at southern schools, likely built to deal with oppressive heat, hurricanes and tornadoes.

MASCOT/NICKNAME

The University of Colorado has one of the more unique mascots in all of intercollegiate athletics, a real buffalo named Ralphie. The tradition is celebrating its 50th anniversary in the 2017 season.

The live buffalo leads the football team out on the field both at the start of the game and second half. It is truly one of the special sights that exist anywhere in college or professional sports, especially for opposing teams, who often stop in their tracks watching the massive buffalo round the end zone and head directly at their sideline.

The buffalo first appeared in 1934, three weeks after a contest to select an official school nickname by the Silver & Gold newspaper had come to an end and "Buffaloes" was the winning entry. For the final game of the '34 season, a group of students paid $25 to rent a buffalo calf along with a real cowboy as his keeper. The calf was the son of Killer, a famed bison at Trails End Ranch in Fort Collins. It took the cowboy and four students to keep the calf under control on the sidelines, a 7-0 win at the University of Denver on Thanksgiving Day.

Prior to 1934, CU athletic teams usually were referred to as the "Silver and Gold," but other nicknames teams were sometimes called included Silver Helmets, Yellow Jackets, Hornets, Arapahoes, Big Horns, Grizzlies and Frontiersmen. The student newspaper decided to sponsor a national contest in the summer of 1934, with a $5 prize to go to the author of the winning selection. Entries, over 1,000 in all, arrived from almost every state in the union. Athletic Director Harry Carlson, graduate manager Walter Franklin and Kenneth Bundy of the Silver and Gold were the judges.

Local articles first reported that Claude Bates of New Madrid, Mo., and James Proffitt of Cincinnati, Ohio, were co-winners for the prize as both submitted "Buffaloes" as their entry. But 10 days later, the newspaper declared Boulder resident Andrew Dickson the winner, after a follow-up revealed his submission of "Buffaloes" had actually arrived several days before those of the original winners. Through the years, synonyms which quickly came into use included "Bisons," "Bufs," "Thundering Herd," "Stampeding Herd," "Golden Avalanche," and "Golden Buffaloes."

Live buffaloes made appearances at CU games on and off through the years, usually in a pen on the field or sometimes driven around in a cage; in the 1940s, the school kept a baby buffalo in a special pen at the University Riding Academy. The first named buffalo was "Mr. Chips," who appeared for the first time at the 1957 CU Days kickoff rally, as supporter Mahlon White donated him to the school, and it was cared for by a men's honorary.

A few years passed between a live mascot on the sideline and the tradition Colorado fans have come to know so well. In 1966, John Lowery, the father of a CU freshman from Lubbock, Texas, donated to the school a six-month old buffalo calf from Sedgewick, Colo., and first appeared on Oct. 1, 1966 when the Buffs defeated Kansas State, 10-0.

For a while, she was billed as "Rraalph," but the origin of the name is in some doubt. Some say it was given by the student body after sounds she allegedly made while running and snorting; others say it was named for Ralph Jay Wallace, the junior class president at the time; and the original handlers will tell a third version. Regardless, an astute fan soon discovered that the buffalo was in fact a female, thus the name alteration to Ralphie.

The initial tradition was for CU's five sophomore class officers to run the buffalo around the stadium in a full loop. They would pick her up from caretaker C.D. "Buddy" Hays, who kept her at the Green Mountain Riding Stables during the season at Hidden Valley Ranch in the off season. The officers would run her for two hours in the morning to tire her a bit to keep her under control by the time the game started. At the conclusion of the run, the fans would break into the "Buffalo Stomp," which would literally shake the stadium in deafening fashion as the team took the field. But CU officials soon had the tradition stopped because of the actual physical damage it was causing.

Around that same time, head coach Eddie Crowder was approached with the idea the charging buffalo running out on the field before the game with the team behind right her. Crowder thought it was a great idea, and the debut of this great tradition took place on Sept. 16, 1967, and was celebrated with a 27-7 win over Baylor and the tradition was here to stay. The five sophomores appointed themselves as the board of directors of a fundraising effort to bring Ralphie to the '67 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, raising the necessary money through selling stock. (Eventually, those who had training in working with a wild animal eventually replaced the sophomores.)

Ralphie attended every CU home football game for 13 years (including all bowls), and retired at the end of the 1978 season. CU's first Ralphie achieved nationally celebrity status, and was even kidnapped in 1970 by some Air Force Academy students as well as being named the school's 1971 Homecoming Queen at the height of the anti-establishment era.

In 1976, The Bank of Boulder and its president Steve Bosley, proposed to Crowder they would do a fundraiser to send Ralphie I to the Orange Bowl Game with Ohio State.

When a reporter asked Bosley how Ralphie would travel to Miami, he explained that the information was top secret since CU was concerned that Ohio State students would try to kidnap (or “buffalo-nap”) Ralphie. The story of the potential “buffalo-napping” made newspapers nationwide, featuring a picture of Ralphie in full charge with her handlers. The story stimulated over $25,000 in donations. Ralphie’s trip to the Orange Bowl cost $2,500, and the balance was put into a fund for Ralphie’s future care.

In 1978, when Ralphie became ill, Bosley organized a search headed by Buddy Hays, who discovered a calf named Moon, short for Moonshine, which was owned by Boulder native Lyn Russell Holt. Holt grew up raising mainly domestic animals, but was an accomplished bull rider in area rodeos who loved buffalo. Bosley, The Bank of Boulder, and bank director Robert Confer bought Moonshine from Holt and donated her to CU. But the name Ralphie had become so popular that former athletic director Eddie Crowder made it permanent.

Ralphie II made her first appearance at CU’s final home game of the 1978 season. At age 12, after serving the Buffs for 10 years, she passed away on Sept. 19, 1987, following a 31-17 CU win over Stanford.

Ralphie III, donated by the C-Club, was pressed into action earlier than anticipated, as she had been in training for the 1988 season. Originally named “Tequila,” she made her debut on Nov. 7, 1987, when the Buffs beat Missouri, 27-10. After over 10 years of service, she passed away in January 1998, at the age of 13.

Ralphie IV was donated to the university by media and sports entrepreneur Ted Turner in 1998. Born in April 1997 on the Flying D Ranch in Gallatin Gateway, Montana, which is a part of Turner Ranches, she was named “Rowdy” by ranch hands. She was separated from her mother when she was about a month old and was literally found in the jaws of a coyote with bite marks around her neck. She survived the attack and was bottle-fed by the hands for four months. She was released back to the herd but wouldn’t bond with them, so the ranch hands took her back in and fed her grasses and grain. It was then that she was donated to CU as a yearling early in the spring of 1998.

Ralphie IV and V together in November 2007

John Parker, who trained and housed both Ralphie II and III and supervised the early training of Ralphie IV, retired after 12 years of service as caretaker in May 2000. His assistant, Ted Davis, assumed the program duties for the next year, while long-time CU supporters Dale and Lynn Johnson housed Ralphie for the following season.

In 2001, two former Ralphie Handlers and CU graduates, Ben Frei and Kevin Priola, took over as volunteer directors of the program. Together they coordinated the selection and managing of up to 15 student handlers along with all aspects of training. The overall program was managed from 1994-2013 by Gail Pederson, the CU Athletic Department’s Chief of Staff.

Ralphie IV made her debut against Colorado State at Mile High Stadium in Denver on September 5, 1998. She appeared at six bowl games and four Big 12 Championship games. In November 2007, “Ralphie’s Salute To A New Era” was held, where Ralphie IV was semi-retired and a 14-month old Ralphie V was officially introduced to the public. Ralphie IV’s last game was the 2008 season opener, as she led CU on to the field one last time, again versus CSU in Denver. She died on March 19, 2017, due to liver failure just one month shy of turning 20.

Ralphie V, known as “Blackout,” (she was the darkest calf in the herd), also from a Ted Turner Ranch, the Vermejo Park Ranch in New Mexico, was donated to the university in January 2007 as a 325-pound, four-month old calf. She made her debut on April 19, 2008 at CU’s annual spring game (which drew a record 17,800 spectators) and her regular season debut five months later on Sept. 6 at Folsom Field. She will be 10 years old this September and has reached full maturity, weighs in at approximately 1,200 pounds and as with all buffalo, can reach speeds up to 25 miles per hour (which she reached during her run around Folsom Field).

The Ralphie Live Mascot Program as it is formally known is currently under the direction of program manager John Graves, longtime coach Ben Frei and assistant coach Taylor Stratton, all of whom were handlers when they were CU students.

RALPHIE STATS: The five Ralphies have led the Buffaloes on to the field for 336 games (not including spring games): 283 home games, 24 bowl games, 16 Rocky Mountain Showdowns in Denver, nine regular season road games and four Big 12 Championship games.

NOTE: In 2016, President Barack Obama signed into law a bill that declared the bison as the official “National Mammal of the United States.”

HEAD COACH MIKE MACINTYRE

Mike MacIntyre is now in his fifth season as the head football coach at the University of Colorado, as he was named the 25th to the position in the school's history on December 10, 2012. He was hired at CU after leading San Jose State to its first 10-win season in 25 years; in his fourth year at CU, he led the Buffaloes to their first 10-win season in 15 seasons.

MacIntyre, 52, is 36-52 in seven seasons as a collegiate head coach, 20-31 in four at Colorado. Each of his four CU teams made gigantic strides, but his 2016 team (10-4) earned him eight National Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press, Walter Camp, Bobby Dodd, ESPN/Home Depot, FWAA/Eddie Robinson, American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), SB Nation and Scout.com, as well as a finalist for the Bear Bryant and Maxwell Club awards. He also earned the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year honor and the group's inaugural Comeback Coach of the Year Award. The Colorado Sports Hall of Fame presented him with its "King of the Hill" honor for all sports within the state for 2016.

The 2016 Buffaloes tied with five others for the most improved in the nation overall (+5½) and the most improved all-time in Pac-12 Conference league games (+7). He also earned Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors as Colorado won the league's South Division with an 8-1 mark and earned its first appearance in the conference's championship game. The Buffaloes returned to the nation's Top 25 for the first time in 11 years, climbing as high as No. 9 in both the Associated Press and USA Today/Coaches polls (and No. 8 in the College Football Playoff Standings). The Buffs were ranked No. 10 in the CFP's final standings, and finished No. 15 in the coaches and No. 17 in the AP polls, the first time CU made the final rankings since 2002.

The team had been making significant improvement from one year to the next, most notably closing games stronger in 2016 than it had been after losing eight league games by one score over the 2014-15 seasons. In its sixth year in the Pac-12, the Buffs finally picked up their first wins over Arizona State, Oregon, Stanford and UCLA.

His second Buffalo team set over 100 offensive records and started to close the gap in talent and performance with their Pac-12 brethren despite a 2-10 record in 2014, and in 2015, it was the defense's turn, showing improvement by as many as 50 spots nationally in many major defensive areas as the team would finish 4-9. The biggest jump came in points allowed per game, slicing off 11.5 per from the previous year, the fifth-best improvement in all of Division I/FBS.

But that team, like the 2014 squad, had some struggles closing out many games, a typical sign of youth needing to develop. Those late game woes may have cost the Buffs four wins in each of the last two seasons, so signs that CU is pulling closer to even with their Pac-12 counterparts is evidenced at every turn.

In his first year in Boulder (2013), he guided the Buffaloes to a 4-8 record, matching the number of wins in the program for the previous two seasons. There was measured improvement across the board, as evidenced by the team improving in over two dozen statistical categories despite playing the nation's seventh toughest schedule, which included five 10-win teams.

With a 41-27 win over Colorado State in the '13 season opener, he became just the second head coach since 1932 at Colorado to win his first game, joining Rick Neuheisel in 1995 as the only pair to do so among the 15 different men to lead the program in that time frame. He also had to face the daunting task of rallying his team after a devastating flood hit Boulder, forcing the cancellation of a game, which led to two consecutive bye weeks after the Buffs started out 2-0.

The team improved in 29 major statistical categories, in most cases rather dramatically, and set a record for the fewest fumbles in a season with just 14 while reducing penalties dramatically (ending the season with just 10 over the final four games, a 50-year program low). His second CU team broke that fumbles mark with just 12.

He coached San Jose State to a 10-2 record in 2012, with a final regular season ranking of No. 24 in the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches polls as well as in the final BCS Standings. The Spartans earned a berth in the Military Bowl where it defeated Bowling Green, 29-20, and finished No. 21 in the national polls (the win, per NCAA policy, is not credited to him since he did not coach SJSU in the bowl).

For his accomplishments at San Jose, he was the recipient of the 2012 Fellowship of Christian Athletes National Coach of the Year. The award is presented to a coach who exemplifies Christian principles and who is involved in the FCA, in addition to success and performance of that coach's team.

He assumed the SJSU position in December 2009, compiling a 16-21 record with the Spartans; he took over a team that had gone 2-10 in 2009, but began instilling a different culture despite a 1-12 record his first season in San Jose. His second Spartan team went 5-7, but closed the year with thrilling wins over Navy and Fresno State. His SJSU teams thus won 12 of his last 14 games there.

San Jose State's most impressive wins in his final year there came over San Diego State, Navy, BYU and Louisiana Tech, teams that otherwise combined to go 30-12 in 2012. Tech in particular was an offensive powerhouse (led the nation in scoring, second in total offense and fourth in passing), but their coaches felt MacIntyre and his staff put together the best plan to disrupt its high-octane offense of any of its opponents, including Texas A&M. The only losses were to Stanford (20-17 in the season opener, as the Cardinal won on a fourth quarter field goal) and to Utah State.

The 2012 season under MacIntyre is one of the best in San Jose State's nearly 120-year football history. In recording their first 10-win season since 1987, the Spartans did it with a highly-productive offense that scored 423 points, a defense that ranked among the national leaders in many statistical categories and reliable special teams.

His third Spartan team saw a school-record 16 SJSU players earn All-Western Athletic Conference honors, which came in a year that 36 school and conference records either were tied or broken.

MacIntyre's San Jose State teams performed in the classroom as well. In 2011, the school had a record number of Academic All-WAC team members – 13 – while defensive end Travis Johnson became the Spartans' first player in 30 years to get Academic All-America recognition. In addition, San Jose State's Academic Progress Rate (APR) score was 981, second best in the WAC.

Before his 2010 head coaching debut, MacIntyre instituted a comprehensive recruiting plan and initiated a "Summer Bridge" program for his first recruiting class to provide his newcomers a smooth transition into life as a college football player (he installed the same program at Colorado). Facing five nationally-ranked teams early in the season, the Spartans rebuilt themselves repeatedly, and were positioned late for victory in four of their final five games before finishing with a 1-12 record.

Under MacIntyre, the 2011 Spartans produced the fourth-best turnaround in their football history with a 4½-game improvement, exhibiting resiliency and resourcefulness to find a winning way: four of the team's five wins came in the game's final minute. The opportunistic Spartans were the co-national leaders with 20 fumble recoveries, tied for fourth in turnovers gained (33), were disciplined as the second least penalized team in the Football Bowl Subdivision and ranked in the top 25 in passing offense (23rd) for the first time in eight years.

After the season, San Jose State was so pleased with the direction of the program that they extended MacIntyre's contract through 2017.

A veteran coach of 25 seasons, MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke University, where he was reunited with head coach David Cutcliffe from earlier in his coaching days. Those Blue Devil defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span, and in 2009, Duke's five wins were the most in a season by the Blue Devils since 1994. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) named him its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year.

Prior to returning to college ball, MacIntyre spent five seasons in the National Football League with the New York Jets (2007) and Dallas Cowboys (2003-06) coaching defensive backs. Working for legendary coach Bill Parcells, the Cowboys returned to the NFL playoffs in 2003 and again in 2006 after missing out on postseason competition during the 2000 through 2002 seasons.

MacIntyre has coached on both sides of the line, spending four years at Ole Miss (1999-2002) where he started as the wide receivers coach for two seasons and the defensive secondary coach in his final two years. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.

At Mississippi, among his recruits were two high profile student-athletes that one could sign to letters-of-intent, quarterback Eli Manning and linebacker Patrick Willis. And along his coaching trail, he has mentored many current and former NFL players including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player. At Dallas, he also tutored Terrence Newman, the former

#—does not count in MacIntyre record
(did not coach team in bowl).

Kansas State cornerback who longtime CU fans certainly remember.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Georgia, working two years (1990-91) in that capacity. He then coached one year as the defensive coordinator at Davidson (1992), four years at Tennessee Martin (1993-96) and two seasons at Temple (1997-98); while with the Owls, he coached under former CU assistant coach Ron Dickerson and then Bobby Wallace, and in '98 helped coach Temple to a 28-24 upset of No. 14 Virginia Tech. He then joined Cutcliffe's staff at Ole Miss the following season.

A 1989 graduate of Georgia Tech, he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety and punt returner for legendary head coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85. The elder MacIntyre, who passed away in January 2016 at the age of 76, was the national coach of the year in 1982 when Vandy beat Alabama on its way to an 8-4 record. It was very special to Mike MacIntyre that he was able to earn the Bobby Dodd Award for 2016 that his father won in 1982.

MacIntyre earned a bachelor's degree in Business Management from Georgia Tech and his master's in Education with an emphasis on Sports Management from Georgia in 1991.

He originally agreed to a five-year deal with an annual salary of $2 million plus incentives (January 1, 2013 through December 31, 2017); in February 2014, CU's Board of Regents approved a one-year extension through the end of 2018. He was extended three more seasons through 2021 in January 2017, with his total package over the five years increased to $16.25 million.

He was born George Michael MacIntyre on March 14, 1965, in Miami, Fla., and is married to the former Trisha Rowan; the couple has three children, Jennifer, Jay and Jonston; Jay is a junior wide receiver on the CU football team. As previously stated, he is very active with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes as well as being an AFCA/Jason Foundation Ambassador, assisting the organization in spreading awareness of the problem of youth suicide.

WHAT THEY SAID ABOUT MIKE MACINTYRE

ELI MANNING, New York Giants Quarterback

MacIntyre recruited Manning to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"As good a coach as Mike MacIntyre is, he is an even better person. He recruited me to Ole Miss with a little help from my mother and father, and I was fortunate enough to work with him on both sides of the ball.

"He coached our wide receivers my freshman year, so I worked closely with him on our passing game, and then for the next two years I got to throw against his secondary every day in practice when he coached the defensive backs, which was invaluable in my preparation.

"He's a great coach and a great recruiter, and he will not be outworked. I wish Mike all the best at CU."

PATRICK WILLIS, San Francisco 49ers Linebacker

MacIntyre recruited Willis to Mississippi while on the Rebels' staff.

"Coach MacIntyre is a great guy, a guy who knows how to recruit. A guy who knows how to get guys to play, get guys on one accord. He proved that at San Jose State this year, leading them to a great season. I'm really happy for him and I wish him the best of luck at Colorado."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE, Duke Head Football Coach

MacIntyre worked for Cutcliffe at both Mississippi and Duke.

"Congratulations to Coach MacIntyre and his family – the University of Colorado has hired an excellent coach and an even finer man.

"Obviously our history together runs deep, and I couldn't be happier for him, Trisha and their children. Plain and simple, Coach MacIntyre knows how to coach the game of football. It's in his blood. He understands the importance of the well-rounded student-athlete as well as the football program's place in the community.

"His success in three years at San Jose State is well-documented and his work as an assistant coach on both the collegiate and professional levels speaks for itself. But on top of all of his coaching excellence – and there is a great deal of that – Coach MacIntyre is a tremendous person."

MARV SUNDERLAND, Tennessee Titans Scout

MacIntyre worked with Sunderland when both were with the New York Jets

"He's highly organized, a very good teacher, and a disciplinarian, but not in a nasty way, he commands it through respect. He's a very people-oriented type of person who will be a great recruiter for the University of Colorado. This man is a class guy."

DUKE IHENACHO, Former Denver Bronco Defensive Back

MacIntyre coached Ihenacho at San Jose State

"That's my guy, Coach Mac. I'm trying to get him to the scrimmage tomorrow, but I'm not sure how busy he is. CU has a good coach. They have a very passionate coach obviously. I think they got somebody that cares for the players and cares about the program. I can't say [anything] but nice things and great things about Coach Mac because I played under him and he benefitted me. Coach Mac is a great guy and he is going to get that program on the right track."

THE ASSISTANT COACHES

D.J. ELIOT

Defensive Coordinator/Outside Linebackers

D.J. Eliot is in his first season as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado, as he joined the Buffalo staff on January 19, 2017. He brings 18 years of coaching experience to the Buffaloes.

Eliot, 40, joined the Colorado staff from the University of Kentucky, where he was the Wildcats' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the last four seasons (2013-16) and helped coach UK to the 2016 TaxSlayer Bowl, the program's first postseason appearance since 2010.

At his past two coaching stops, Kentucky and Florida State, he coached eight players who were drafted in the National Football League, including two first round picks. Linebacker Bud Dupree was a 2015 first round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers, the first Kentucky first-rounder in 12 years, and defensive end Bjoern Werner from Florida State, who was selected by Indianapolis in 2013.

(He has coached two conference defensive players of the year and first-team All-Americans, Werner (the 2012 Atlantic Coast winner) and linebacker Nick Bunting at Tulsa, the 2006 Conference USA defensive POY.)

Overall at Kentucky, he coached 11 Wildcats who earned All-SEC recognition and in three of his four years with the school one of his linebackers recorded over 100 tackles in a season. Avery Williams, currently on the Tennessee Titans roster, recorded 102 stops in 2013, Josh Forrest, now with the Los Angeles Rams, posted 110 in 2014, a figure that ranked No. 3 in the SEC that season, while Jordan Jones had 109 in Eliot's final year with UK (Jones earned second-team All-SEC honors, also logging 14 tackles for loss that included four sacks).

At Kentucky, the Wildcats set a new school record for defensive touchdowns scored in a season with six in 2014; UK recorded 23 takeaways that year. UK jumped 45 places in the total defense rankings from 2013 to 2014 under Eliot, finishing in the top half of the nation in that statistic. In 2015, UK ranked 28th in the FBS in passing defense by giving up only 198.1 yards per game. And in 2016, sophomore safety Mike Edwards finished the regular season leading all SEC defensive backs in tackles (93) while tying for the team lead in interceptions with three, two coming against No. 11 Louisville and Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson in the Cats' 41-38 victory.

His presence at Florida State helped lead a revival of FSU's defense. The year prior to his arrival, the Seminoles ranked 108th in total defense and rushing defense. However, by 2012, FSU ranked second nationally in total defense (254.1 yards per game) and sixth in scoring defense (14.7 points per game).

In his three seasons at Florida State (2010-12), the 'Noles went 31-10 and he helped FSU tie for the national lead in sacks with 48 his first year there. In his second season FSU limited opponents to just 2.35 yards per carry, which led the nation in that category. His defensive ends on the 2012 team, Werner and Cornellius Carradine, combined for and 31 tackles for losses, including 24 sacks, when FSU finished 12-2.

In his second of three seasons at Rice (2007-09), he helped the Owls go 10-3 and win the 2008 Texas Bowl, the programs first bowl win since 1950 and first 10-win season since 1949.

Eliot got his start in coaching along the Rocky Mountain Front Range at his alma mater, Wyoming, as a graduate assistant in 1999. From there he went to the University of Houston as a graduate assistant for two years before landing in a similar position at Miami for the 2002 season; the Hurricanes went 12-0 and were ranked No. 1 at the end of the regular season before falling 31-24 in double overtime to Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

He spent two years in Division I-AA (FCS), coaching the linebackers at Texas State University (San Marcos). He helped lead a defensive turnaround (34.8 to 20.3 points per game, as well as 395 to 314 yards allowed). In 2005, the Bobcats went 11-3, reaching the semifinals of the I-AA playoffs.

Eliot lettered at linebacker at the University of Wyoming for coach Dana Dimel and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Natural Science in 1999. He earned his Master's degree in Education from the University of Houston in 2002.

He was born August 14, 1976 in Stillwater, Okla., and grew up in nearby Edmond, graduating from Edmond Memorial High School, where he lettered in football and basketball. He and his wife, the former Miekell Marsh, have one son, Dawson, and three daughters, Drue, Page and Reace. His favorite hobby outside of football is spending time and playing with his children. His first name is Darin.

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 127 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, including six bowl games (2006 Armed Forces, 2008 Texas, 2010 Chick-fil-A, 2011 Champ Sports, 2013 Orange, 2016 TaxSlayer). At Texas State, he coached in 25 Division I-AA (FCS) games, including three playoff contests. As a graduate assistant at three FBS schools, he was involved in 46 additional games and coached in the 2002 Fiesta/BCS National Championship game for Miami against Ohio State.

BRIAN LINDGREN

Co-Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

Brian Lindgren is in his fifth year on the Colorado staff, as he was hired on January 1, 2013, coming to Boulder with head coach Mike MacIntyre from San Jose State. He has coached the quarterbacks since his arrival at CU and is in his second year as the co-offensive coordinator, after serving in the position solo his first three years.

Lindgren, 37, came to CU from San Jose State, where he served in the same capacity under MacIntyre for the 2012 season, moving there after spending six seasons on the staff at Northern Arizona University. In its 2013 football preview issue, Athlon Sports cited Lindgren as one of the top 10 offensive coordinator hires in the completed his 25th season with the school in 2012.

Lindgren graduated from the University of Idaho with a bachelor's degree in Business (Marketing) in 2004. He was a three-time Academic All-Conference team member and won Idaho's Kathy Clark Scholar-Athlete Award, presented to the graduating senior with the highest grade point average. He lettered three years at quarterback for the Vandals, playing for head coaches Chris Tormey, who recruited him, and Tom Cable, the former Colorado offensive coordinator and line coach.

A first-team All-Sun Belt Conference performer and team captain, he threw for 6,541 yards and 44 touchdowns in three seasons as the starter for the Vandals, completing 61 percent of his passes with a 136.0 efficiency rating, all marks still among the best in Idaho history. He set the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) single-game record for the most total offense in a game by a sophomore with 657 yards against Middle Tennessee State in 2001, a mark that still stood through the 2012 season. In that game, he completed 49-of-71 passes for 637 yards (also still an NCAA sophomore mark) and five touchdowns (a 162.0 rating), while rushing twice for 20 yards. He also set an Idaho record for the most touchdown passes in a game (6) in a 48-38 win over San Diego State his junior year.

He was born August 6, 1980 in Walla Walla, Wash., where he graduated from DeSales Catholic High School, lettering in football, basketball and baseball. He still holds the Washington prep passing record for the most touchdown passes in a game (9), and is second in all-time completions (779), passing yards (12,575) and touchdowns (162). He earned his master's degree in Educational Leadership from Northern Arizona in 2007. His hobbies include golf and fly-fishing. He is married to the former Bradee Fitzpatrick, and the couple has three children, son Bronson (6), daughter Blake (5) and another son, Brooks (1).

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 64 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, including two bowl games (2012 Military, 2016 Alamo). At Northern Arizona, he coached in 66 Division I-AA (FCS) games.

nation (out of nearly three dozen).

He had the pleasure of coaching Sefo Liufau in each of his first four seasons at Colorado, with the 2016 senior polishing off his career by setting 99 school records (mostly in passing and total offense) while leading the Buffs to the Pac-12 South Division title, their subsequent first appearance in the Pac-12 Championship game and the first bowl game since 2007. The Colorado offense averaged 446.3 yards per game, its best number since 1996 and the school's sixth-highest in history.

In 2014, he tutored an offense that rewrote CU's passing and receiving records, with 110 individual and 24 team records set as CU averaged over 400 yards on offense (439.2) for the first time since the 2001 season. The Buffs averaged their fourth-most passing yards ever (284.6) and averaged over four yards per rush (4.11) for the first time since 2006. CU ranked 37th nationally in total offense after not cracking the top 40 in the NCAA since 2001. The 2015 team was hamstrung by several injuries, particularly along the offensive line, and the numbers suffered to a degree because of them.

In his first season (2013) with the Buffaloes, his offense improved significantly in 12 major statistical categories, most notably jumping from 96th to 47th nationally in passing offense, 116th to 87th in total offense and 117th to 86th in scoring offense. Averages per rush, pass and overall jumped, most noticeably in yards per pass attempt, which rose to 7.3 from 5.7, the first time since 2003 that a CU team averaged seven yards or more per pass play.

Lindgren's lone year coordinating the Spartan offense was a most productive one, as the school set 27 offensive records. San Jose State averaged 446.2 yards per game, including 332.7 passing, good for seventh in the nation, and a pass efficiency rating of 170.2, second best in the land. SJSU was 32nd overall in offense, with six games of 500 or more yards (seven 400-plus), and was 30th nationally in scoring as the team finished 11-2 on the year. He was a finalist for the Quarterback Coach of the Year, coordinated by footballcoop.com.

At NAU, he was the quarterbacks coach his final four years there (2008-11), the passing game coordinator that first year before being promoted to offensive coordinator for the last three. The Lumberjack offense averaging just above 28 points and 410 yards of total offense a game in his tenure, scoring 40 or more points on eight occasions. Twice NAU was ranked in the top 20 in passing in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), fifth in 2009 and 20th in 2011. In his first two seasons at Northern Arizona, he coached the wide receivers (2006) and then the running backs (2007).

He began his coaching career in 2005 as the quarterbacks coach at the University of Redlands under its long-time head coach, Mike Maynard, who

DARRIN CHIAVERINI

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers/ Recruiting Coordinator

Darrin Chiaverini is in his second year as the co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Colorado, joining the Buffalo staff on January 1, 2016 from Texas Tech University, where he spent the previous two seasons on the Red Raiders' staff.

Chiaverini, 39, also assumed the role of recruiting coordinator in returning to his alma mater where he lettered four times under coach Rick Neuheisel from 1995-98. He accepted his new roles on December 15, 2015, but remained with Tech for its bowl game.

In his first season on the CU staff, he helped guide the Buffalo offense to one of its best years overall in recent memory. Colorado averaged 446.3 yards per game, its best figure in 20 seasons, with the school's fourth-best conversion rate in the red zone in school history dating back to 1957 at 89.5 percent (51-of-57, with 37 touchdowns). His receiving corps hauled in 199 catches for 2,724 yards (13.7 per) with 19 touchdowns.

Chiaverini spent the 2014-15 seasons as the Red Raiders' special teams coordinator and outside receivers coach. At Tech, he recruited the Dallas, Houston and the Southern California areas, and one of his players, Jakeem Grant, earned second-team All-America honors at kick returner for the 2015 season.

One of new head coach Rick Neuheisel's first commitments in Colorado's 1995 recruiting class, Chiaverini earned four letters from 1995-98 and served as one of the team captains his senior season. He caught 97 passes for 1,199 yards and six touchdowns, averaging 12.4 yards per reception in his career, exiting at the time as CU's seventh all-time receiver (he remains in the top 15 in both catches and yards). He led the team as a senior with 52 catches for 630 yards and five scores.

He was a member of three CU bowl champion teams (Cotton, Holiday and Aloha), making an additional 10 catches for 190 yards and two touchdowns, one a 72-yard bomb from his best friend, quarterback Mike Moschetti against Oregon in the '98 Aloha Bowl.

He was a fifth-round selection by the Cleveland Browns in the 1999 National Football League Draft, and went on to set the club's rookie receiving record with 44 catches for 487 yards and four touchdowns. He spent four years in the NFL, also playing for Dallas and Atlanta; he would conclude his NFL career with 62 catches for 662 yards and seven scores. He then finished his professional playing days with the Austin Wranglers in the Arena Football League.

Chiaverini then turned his attention to coaching, tutoring the receivers at Mt. San Antonio College in 2007 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in 2008. In 2009, he rejoined his college coach, Neuheisel, as the assistant special teams coach at UCLA. He helped pilot one of the top units in the Pac-10 and the Bruins captured the Eagle Bank Bowl with a 30-21 win over Temple.

He returned to the junior college ranks for the next four seasons (2010-13) at Riverside (Calif.) City College, where he was the associated head coach, co-offensive and special teams coordinator in addition to being in charge of recruiting. Riverside was 40-5 in the four years there and produced 15 Division I players, three of whom would head to his next stop, Texas Tech.

His special teams units at Riverside from 2010-13 were some of the best in all of the junior college ranks with an impressive 22 blocked kicks in four seasons. Chiaverini coached the top punt returner in the state of California in 2011 and 2012, while Riverside's offense led California in scoring in 2011 and in total offense in 2013.

He was one of 30 coaches across the country selected to participate in the 2015 NFL and NCAA Coaches Academy. Initiated in 2011, it is a collaborative effort between NCAA Leadership Development and NFL Player Engagement to positively influence diversity numbers in the college game and as a way for talented young football coaches to get exposure.

Chiaverini earned his bachelor's degree in Communications from CU in 1999, and earned his master's degree in Human Performance and Sports Sciences from New Mexico Highlands University in 2007.

He was born on October 12, 1977 in Orange, Calif., and graduated from Corona (Calif.) High School where he was a USA Today honorable mention All-American in football and an All-County performer in baseball. He is married to the former Shannon Burchfield, and the couple has two children, Curtis (18), who will be a freshman wide receiver at Colorado this fall, and Kaylie (15).

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 52 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, and has coached in three bowl games (2009 Eagle Bank, 2015 Texas, 2016 Alamo).

KLAYTON ADAMS

Offensive Line

Klayton Adams is in his fifth year on the Colorado staff, his second as the offensive line coach, joining new head coach Mike MacIntyre's staff on January 1, 2013. He coached the running backs and tight ends in his first three seasons.

Adams, 34, came to CU from San Jose State, where he coached the tight ends under MacIntyre for two seasons. Though he never directly coached the running backs before coming to Colorado, at San Jose he effectively integrated the tight ends into several hybrid roles and had run game coordination experience in his background. At SJSU, he coached two-time John Mackey Award watch list member Ryan Otten to honorable mention All-American honors.

He transitioned smoothly into coaching the offensive line, as the group allowed the team to post its highest average per rush in 10 seasons (4.12), blocked for its first 1,000-yard runner in seven years (Phillip Lindsay, 1,189 yards) and cut down the overall sacks allowed by 13 from the previous season (41 to 28, with just 14½ of those allowed by the O-line). The linemen were flagged for just 23 penalties in 13 games.

As running back coach, in his first year in Boulder the Buffs enjoyed modest increases in yards per attempt and per game, but of the team's 14 total fumbles, itself a school record, his players at both positions just had one of those (down from eight in 2012). Then in 2014, the running backs had all of four fumbles of CU's 12 (another school low), and for the first time in its history, the Buffaloes had four different players rush for over 300 yards (actually 390). In the same time, the tight ends have proved to be solid blockers and have improved as the season progressed.

In 2015, six different players rushed for at least 200 yards, just the fourth time that occurred in school history and for the first time since 1989, when the Buffs ran an option offense. And once again, the backs held on to ball, suffering just six fumbles for the 13-game season.

He joined the San Jose State staff in April 2011 after two seasons at Sacramento State, his first full-time Division I (FCS) coaching experience. He was the Hornets' offensive tackles and tight ends coach his first year there in 2009, and then was promoted to the offensive line coach in 2010. Continuing his rapid rise, he was set to serve as Sacramento State's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach before he was hired by MacIntyre at SJSU.

While at Sacramento State, he coached three players to All-Big Sky Conference honors. His 2010 offensive linemen paved the way for the school's best ground attack over a five-season span averaging 170.4 yards per game.

He graduated from Boise State in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in Mass Communication with an emphasis in Journalism. He lettered twice at center for Coach Dan Hawkins on the 2003 and 2004 Bronco Western Athletic Conference championship teams that had a combined 24-2 record and won the 2003 Fort Worth Bowl and played in the 2004 Liberty Bowl. BSU finished 13-1 his junior year, ranked No. 16 in the final Associated Press poll, and was 11-1 his senior year (No. 12) when he was a second-team All-WAC selection.

He began his coaching career at Boise State in 2005 as a student assistant under Hawkins, who would become CU's head coach the following year. In 2006, Adams was the Broncos' offensive graduate assistant working primarily with the offensive line. He moved on to Western Washington University for the 2007 and 2008 seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator.

He was born February 13, 1983 in Sacramento, Calif., he graduated from Sheldon High School (Elk Grove, Calif.), where he lettered in football, wrestling and track and field. He is married to the former Stefani Panenka, and the couple has three young daughters, Mya (7), Emmy (5) and Harper (2).

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 76 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, and has coached in four bowl games (2005 MPC Computer, 2007 Fiesta, 2012 Military, 2016 Alamo).

GARY BERNARDI

Tight Ends & H-Backs

Gary Bernardi is in his fifth season at Colorado, as he came with head coach Mike MacIntyre from San Jose State and officially joined the staff on January 1, 2013. He is in his second year as the coach of the tight ends and the H-backs after tutoring the offensive line for his first three in Boulder.

Bernardi, 62, is a veteran of 36 seasons in the Division I-A (FBS) ranks, and is no stranger to the Pac-12, as he previously spent a combined 24 years at Arizona, Southern California and UCLA. He's coached in 403 games on college football's top level, a number that includes 13 bowl games, five of which were the granddaddy of them all, the Rose.

In his first two years at Colorado, the offensive line improved over the course of both seasons, with the five linemen in the game credited with allowing only 28 quarterback sacks in 999 passing plays (or one every 36 plays; and that number was just 11 in 545 for the 2014 season, or one every 49.5 plays). In 2014, CU's running backs averaged over for yards per carry (4.11) for the first time since 2006. His 2015 group suffered an inordinate amount of injuries, as only two players started every game, Alex Kelley at center and Stephane Nembot at tackle.

Throughout his professional career, he has been involved with winning programs and successful head coaches, establishing a reputation as a sharp recruiter and developer of all-star offensive linemen, tight ends and wide receivers. Several of his players have been afforded All-American honors and over 20 of his players have gone on to play professional football. He worked on the staffs of several notable coaches, including Larry Smith, Terry Donahue, Bob Toledo and Mike Sanford.

With the exception of just one season in his career, he's always coached the entire offensive line or at least the offensive tackles. He coached the line in his three seasons at San Jose State, where he landed after coaching five years at UNLV, where he coached the entire line and the tight ends, in addition to serving as the Rebels' recruiting coordinator.

It was Larry Smith who gave him his start in the collegiate ranks, hiring him at Arizona as the Wildcats' tackles and tight ends coach in 1980, a position he would hold the next five seasons. He then coached the wide receivers for the 1985 season before returning to tutor the tackles and tight ends in 1986. When Smith was hired as Southern California's head coach ahead of the 1987 season, he accompanied him to Los Angeles. For the next six seasons, he coached the Trojan tackles and tight ends, including Boulder's Tony Boselli, in addition to handing the special teams coordinator duties.

Bernardi then moved crosstown to UCLA in 1994, where he would spend the next 10 seasons under three different head coaches, responsible for the offensive line and tight ends in addition to being the Bruins recruiting coordinator. In-between his positions at USC and UCLA, he was the head coach at Burroughs High (Burbank) in 1993.

Bernardi was offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Northern Arizona for the 2004 season, his lone season in the FCS ranks before Sanford hired him at UNLV.

He graduated from Cal State Northridge with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 1976, and earned his teaching credential from Southern California College. He started coaching in 1973 before his 19th birthday at Bell-Jeff High (Burbank, Calif.). After two seasons there, he moved on to his alma mater, Monroe High (North Hills, Calif.), as an assistant for one season (1975), before heading to Fountain Valley (Calif.) High for four seasons (1976-79).

Bernardi has been active in community service outside of coaching. He was a member of the ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease) Association Los Angeles chapter when he was coaching at UCLA, assisting in its fundraising efforts. On two occasions, he represented the ALS Association in Washington, D.C., meeting with United States senators and congressmen.

He was born September 24, 1954 in Burbank, Calif., and graduated from Monroe High School where he lettered in football and was an All-League receiver. He is married to the former Leigh Nasby, who worked as a Stanford Hospital registered nurse the three years they were in the Bay Area. They are the parents of three grown children, Marina and twins Briana and Joe. Marina works for a medical equipment company (BD) in San Antonio. Briana lettered in softball (catcher) at UNLV, where she earned her undergraduate and master's degrees, while Joe lettered in football (center) at Fresno State and is now a graduate assistant at Oregon, working with the offensive line. His brother, Rob, is the long-time athletic director at Nicholls State University (since 2000).

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 417 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, and has coached in 14 bowl games (1985 Sun, 1986 Aloha, 1988 Rose, 1989 Rose, 1990 Sun, 1992 Freedom, 1995 Aloha, 1997 Cotton, 1998 Rose, 2000 Sun, 2002 Las Vegas, 2003 Silicon Valley, 2012 Military, 2016 Alamo). He has also coached in 11 FCS games for a total of 428 collegiate games.

ShaDON BROWN

Secondary

ShaDon Brown is in his first season as an assistant coach on Mike MacIntyre's staff, as he was hired on January 30, 2017 to coach the entire secondary.

Brown, 37, came to CU after spending the 2016 season coaching the cornerbacks at Army, where the Black Knights' secondary was one of the top units in the nation. Army ranked sixth in the nation in passing defense allowing just 170.2 yards per game, as well as being 11th in interceptions (17) and 17th in a pass efficiency defense (115.12 rating).

Army, which ran a 3-4 defensive scheme (like CU), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense by allowing just 291.5 yards per game during an 8-5 season that saw the Black Knights win the 2016 Heart of Dallas Bowl in overtime over North Texas, 38-31. That was Army's first bowl appearance and winning season since 2010, and perhaps even bigger, his corners help limit Navy to 89 passing yards and 201 overall in a 21-17 win over the Midshipmen, Army's first win over its archrival since 2001.

Brown had a large impact on Army's turnaround (2-10 in '15) to winning a bowl game, aiding improvements from 47th in the NCAA in total defense to fourth (and from 48th in passing defense to sixth). And the success Army's secondary found came with Brown working with true freshman for most of the season, after the Knights lost four veteran cornerbacks either before or early in the season and thus made a go of it with true freshman starting most of the year.

In his five seasons (2011-15) at Wofford (S.C.) College, he spent the first four as cornerbacks coach before switching to the safeties in his final year there. Brown was also the special teams coordinator during the 2013-14 seasons and was promoted to recruiting coordinator in the spring of 2015. He coached three all-conference corners at Wofford, including Blake Wylie who in 2012 was earned third-team All-American honors.

In the summer of 2015, he participated in the NFL's program for minority coaches by interning with the Super Bowl 50 runner-up Carolina Panthers, where he worked with the defensive backs.

Before joining the Wofford staff, Brown was a coach in the Kentucky high school ranks. From 2008-10 he was head coach at Rowan County High School, where he led the Vikings to the 2010 Class 4A District 8 Championship, the school's first title since 1982. He was named the Kentucky Class 4A District 8 Coach of the Year for that season, and 10 of his players at went on to play college football. He was an assistant coach at Boyle County High for the 2007 season.

As a player himself, Brown started at linebacker for Campbellsville (Ky.) University, an NAIA school that in 2001 won a school record 10 games, reached the NAIA quarterfinals for the first time and finished the season ranked No. 10. He served as a team captain as a senior in 2002.

After graduating in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education, he started his coaching career in 2003 as a graduate assistant helping tutor the linebackers at the University of the Cumberlands (Williamsburg, Ky.). After one year, he was promoted to the full-time assistant coach for the inside linebackers for the 2004-05 seasons, helping lead the Patriot football team to a ranking as high as No. 5 in the nation. In 2006 he returned to his alma mater (Campbellsville) as the inside linebackers coach for one season.

A native of Danville, Ky., he graduated from Danville High School where he lettered in football under a legendary area coach, Sam Harp (276 wins and seven state titles in a 25-year career; Brown credits Harp with developing the drive in him to pursue a career in coaching). He and his wife, Rhonda, have a daughter, Shaelyn, and two sons, Braylon and Keenan.

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 13 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, and has coached in one bowl game (2016 Heart of Dallas). He also coached in 58 I-AA (FCS) games at Wofford, including three FCS playoff games.

ROSS ELS

Inside Linebackers

Ross Els joined the Colorado staff as inside linebackers coach on February 24, 2017, also bringing extensive special teams coaching experience to the program.

Els, 51, is a 27-year veteran in the collegiate coaching ranks, and joined the Buffaloes in time for the team's second spring practice. He came to Colorado from Purdue University, where he served as the Boilermakers' defensive coordinator in 2016 under head coach Darrell Hazell.

Els has the bulk of his experience as an assistant coach working with the linebackers, and all but one of his 27 years devoted on the defensive side of the ball. He spent four years at the University of Nebraska from 2011-14 under coach Bo Pellini, his first season as linebackers coach with the responsibilities of coordinating both special teams and recruiting added to his duties for the last three years. One of his top players while he was with the Huskers was Lavonte David, a finalist for the Butkus Award and the 2011 Big Ten Linebacker of the Year, as well as a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Lott Trophy. He was a second round selection by Tampa Bay in the 2012 National Football League Draft.

In 2012, he coached Nebraska's leading tackler, Will Compton, who record 110 total stops, six of which were for losses including three quarterback sacks. That aided a 10-win season and a berth in the Big Ten's championship game.

Nebraska was 37-16 in his four years on its staff, including four bowl appearances: Capital One (2012 and 2013), TaxSlayer Gator (2014) and Holiday (2014). In-between his Nebraska and Purdue appointments, he spent the 2015 season as an assistant coach at his son's high school, Lincoln (Neb.) Southwest.

Prior to Nebraska, he was the linebackers coach for six seasons, working under a former NU graduate in Frank Solich. In his third season there, he was named the Bobcats' special teams coordinator, and in his final year there (2010), Solich promoted him to assistant head coach. He coached four All-Mid-American Conference linebackers, in addition helping OU to two MAC East Division titles and three bowl appearances:

In 2010, Ohio's defense ranked 20th nationally and second in the MAC in rushing defense. Els' special teams were also a key part of Ohio's 8-5 season that culminated with a trip to the New Orleans Bowl. The Bobcats ranked first in the 14-team MAC in net punting, third in punt returns and fifth in kickoff returns. In 2009, he tutored linebacker Noah Keller, who led the MAC with 155 tackles en route to earning honorable mention All-America honors. He also coached punt returner LaVon Brazil to second-team All-America honors that season, while placekicker Matt Weller was named a Freshman All-American after kicking a school record 21 field goals.

He coached in Division I (now the FBS) for the first time when he spent four years at New Mexico State University, first tutoring the safeties and special teams for the 2001 and 2002 seasons, and then the linebackers along with a promotion to defensive coordinator in 2003 and 2004. He worked under Tony Samuel, another former Nebraska player and assistant coach, during his time in Las Cruces.

Els was the head coach at Hastings (Neb.) College from 1997-2000, where he was the quarterbacks coach in 1995 and the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1996. As Hastings' head coach, Els compiled a 32-9 record, including NAAI playoff appearances in 1998 and 1999.

A 1988 graduate of the University of Nebraska-Omaha, where he majored in Management Information Systems and lettered four years as a safety. He got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Northern Iowa, where he earned his Master's degree in Physical Education in 1999; that's where he began his coaching career a decade earlier as a graduate assistant (in 1989), working with the linebackers and secondary.

He then returned to his alma mater, UNO, for his first full-time position in the ranks, coaching the secondary for four seasons (1990-93).

He was born August 14, 1965 in Lincoln, Neb., and graduated from Lincoln Northeast High where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Jane Ketterer, and the couple has two daughters, Julie and Taylor (a sophomore on the volleyball team at Northern Colorado), and a son, Bo.

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 188 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, and has coached in seven bowl games (2006 GMAC, 2009 Little Caesars, 2010 New Orleans, 2012 Capital One, 2013 Capital One, 2014 Gator/TaxSlayer, 2014 Holiday).

DARIAN HAGAN

Running Backs

Darian Hagan, one of the names synonymous with Colorado's rise to glory in the late 1980s, is in his 13th season overall on the CU football staff, now in the second season of his second stint as the school's running back coach, a position he held for five years last decade.

Hagan, 47, spent the first three seasons on Mike MacIntyre's staff as the director of player development for the Buffaloes (2013-15), as he shifted into that role from one as the director of player personnel (2011-12) under head coach Jon Embree. He worked five seasons (2006-10) as running backs coach for head coach Dan Hawkins, as he was one of two mark in Big Eight Conference games as he led the Buffs to three straight league titles in 1989, 1990 and 1991. His 28-5-2 record as a starter (82.9 winning percentage) is the 37th best in college football history.

In 1989, he became just the sixth player in NCAA history at the time to run and pass for over 1,000 yards in the same season, finishing, as just a sophomore, fifth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy. He established the school record for total offense with 5,808 yards (broken three years later by Kordell Stewart), and is one of two players ever at CU to amass over 2,000 yards both rushing and passing along with Bobby Anderson. He was a two-time all-Big Eight performer, and the league's offensive player of the year for 1989 when he also was afforded various All-America honors. He still holds several CU records and was the school's male athlete-of-the-year for the 1991-92 academic year.

In 2002, he was a member of the fourth class to be inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame, and his jersey (No. 3) is one of several to have been honored. The Colorado Sports Hall of Fame finally recognized his achievements as well, inducting him into its prestigious group in the Class of 2014.

Hagan played for Toronto, Las Vegas and Edmonton over the course of five seasons in the Canadian Football League, mostly as a defensive back and special teams performer. He returned to CU to earn his diploma just prior to his last professional season, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology in May 1996. He was hired later that year (December 1) as the Alumni C Club Director, a position he held for 16 months until leaving for an incredible opportunity in private business.

In the summer of 2015, he served as an assistant under former CU head coach Dan Hawkins for the champion Team USA in the Federation of American Football (IFAF) World Championship in Canton, Ohio.

He was born February 1, 1970 in Lynwood, Calif., and graduated from Los Angeles' Locke High School in 1988, where he lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track. He was drafted in two sports, football (by San Francisco in the fourth round in the 1992 NFL Draft) and baseball (selected as a shortstop by both Seattle and Toronto). He is the father two sons, Darian, Jr., who played defensive back at California, and the late DeV Vaughn (who passed away on December 6, 2010 at the age of 19), and a daughter, Danielle.

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 88 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, and has coached in three bowl games (2005 Champs Sports, 2007 Independence, 2016 Alamo).

assistant coaches retained by Hawkins when he was named to the position in December 2005.

He was named an offensive assistant coach on Gary Barnett's staff on February 9, 2005, and worked with the skill position players on offense in the spring and fall in his first year as a full-time collegiate assistant.

A popular coach with his players yet with a stern touch, he was coaching true freshman Rodney Stewart on the way to a 1,000-yard season in 2008 until a season-ending injury sidelined him in the ninth game of the 2008 season. Stewart's 622 yards were the third most by a CU freshman in school history. In 2010, Stewart hit the plateau and then some, rushing for 1,318 yards and in position to threaten many of the school's all-time rushing marks. In 2007, Hagan tutored Hugh Charles to a 1,000-yard year including the Independence Bowl; he went on to have a successful career in the Canadian Football League.

He coached his third thousand yard rusher for the Buffaloes in 2016, when Phillip Lindsay recorded 1,189 yards in the regular season, the first to reach the mark since Stewart did so six years earlier.

Hagan made a difference in his first season (2006) mentoring the running backs, as CU had three 500-plus yard rushers for just the 10th time in its history. He also played a role in the development of quarterback Bernard Jackson, as Hagan's own skills of blending the run and the pass rubbed off on the Buff junior in his first year as a starter.

He had a brief taste of coaching in the spring of 2004 as he subbed as secondary coach when the staff was minus a full-time assistant. Otherwise, he was the defensive technical intern for the '04 season, assuming that role in February of that year. It marked the third time he has made the University of Colorado his destination of choice.

He starred at quarterback for the Buffaloes between 1988 and 1991, leading the school to its first national championship, and following his professional playing career, returned to CU in the mid-1990s to work as the Alumni C Club Director.

Hagan left CU in the spring of 1998 to work as an area sales manager for the Transit Marketing Group. Three months into his new position, he was promoted to Southeast Regional Sales Manager. He remained in that position for over five years until deciding to pursue his dream as a coach and return to his alma mater for the third time. By working as a technical intern, he learned the intricacies of the profession in a hands-on role in his desire to coach; when a temporary vacancy opened on the staff, he was "activated" as a coach to work with the defensive backs and it added to his penchant for the profession.

Arguably the best all-around athlete in the history of the CU football program, he was an integral part of CU's run at two national championships in 1989 and 1990. The Buffs were 11-1 in 1989, losing to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, but went 11-1-1 in 1990 with a win over the Irish in an Orange Bowl rematch to give CU its first national title in football. CU was 28-5-2 with him as the starting quarterback for three seasons, including a 20-0-1

JIM JEFFCOAT

Defensive Line

Jim Jeffcoat is in his fifth year at the University of Colorado, joining new head coach Mike MacIntyre's staff on January 1, 2013. He is coaching the full defensive line for the third consecutive season and fourth overall (which he did in his first year in 2013). He concentrated solely on CU's young defensive tackles in his second year.

Jeffcoat, 56, came to CU from San Jose State, where he coached the defensive line under MacIntyre for two seasons. In addition to his coaching acumen, he also brings over two decades of experience as a player and coach in the National Football League to the Buffalo coaching staff.

His 2016 unit was the best he has coached at Colorado, playing a significant role in stopping the run as well as pressuring the quarterback; the five players who rotated in at the end and tackle positions registered 187 tackles, 10½ sacks and 36 pressures during the 13-game regular season.

In 2012, he coached a Spartan defensive line in which all four starters accounted for 35 total sacks, led by 13 from the Western Athletic Conference player of the year, Travis Johnson; each player ranked in the nation's top 100, making San Jose State the only school to have four linemen to accomplish that feat. Along with Florida State, they were the only two schools to have all four linemen garner All-Conference honors. He made an immediate impact in his first year at San Jose, coaching Johnson to first-team All-WAC status and Travis Raciti to become one of the top defensive freshmen in the league.

Jeffcoat joined SJSU in March 2011 after coaching the defensive linemen at the University of Houston for the 2008 through 2010 seasons, where he coached three players, Phil Hunt, Tyrell Graham and Jake Ebner to All-Conference USA accolades.

He was a first round draft selection by Dallas in the 1983 (the 23rd overall pick), and he went on to enjoy a 15-year career with the Cowboys (1983-94) and the Buffalo Bills (1995-97). One of the league's most durable, reliable, productive and consistent defensive linemen, he played in 227 games in the league, one of the top 50 numbers in NFL history. He concluded his career with 102½ quarterback sacks (still among the top 25 all-time), two interceptions, both of which he returned for touchdowns, one of which covered 65 yards in a 28-21 win over the New York Giants in 1985.

During his time in professional football that spanned 22 years as a player and coach, he went to the playoffs 11 times: eight times as a player and three times as a coach, nine times with Dallas and twice with Buffalo. He was a member of Super Bowl XXVII and XXVIII champion teams with Dallas (1992, 1993 seasons). Ironically, he concluded his career with the team that Dallas defeated twice to win the world championship.

After retiring from playing professionally, Jeffcoat turned his eye toward coaching and returned to Dallas and began his career as a defensive line assistant with the Cowboys under head coach Chan Gailey in 1998. When Dave Campo was named head coach in 2000, Jeffcoat was promoted to the defensive end coach, a position he would hold the next five seasons, the last two under head coach Bill Parcells. That is when he first crossed paths with MacIntyre, who was on Parcells' staff those same two years.

He graduated from Arizona State with a bachelor's degree in Communication in 1982. A three-year starter at defensive end, he was the force behind the Sun Devils' No. 1 ranked defense in the NCAA as a senior, which allowed a paltry 228.9 yards per game in 1982. He recorded 95 tackles that season, earning first-team All-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-America honors. He was the defensive player of the game in ASU's 32-21 win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl, posting a dominant performance against the Sooners which would land him in the bowl's Hall of Fame in 1991. He went on to play in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl, and Arizona State inducted him into its Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. In 2015, he was named to the Pac-12 Conference's All-Century team as one of five defensive ends.

Jeffcoat has long been active in community service. In 1991, the New Jersey Sportswriters Association bestowed upon him its Unsung Hero Award for community service; in 2000, he and his Cowboys defensive players participated in the team's "Lineman Weigh-In" sponsored by Campbell Soup that resulted in a donation of 21,064 cans of soup to The Salvation Army Irving Corps Community Center and the Faith Mission Food Bank in Wichita Falls, Texas. He was also the 2012 recipient of the Believing in Youth Award, presented by the Santa Fe Youth Services of Fort Worth, Texas.

He was born April 1, 1961 in Long Branch, N.J., and graduated from Matawan (N.J.) Regional High School, where he lettered in football, wrestling and track. He is married to the former Tamara Young, and the couple has five children, three of whom are grown, Jaren and twins Jackson and Jacqueline, and two teenagers, Jasmine (18), who is one of the state's top prep basketball players, and Quinton (16). Jaren lettered four years in basketball at Norwich University; Jackson lettered four seasons at defensive end at the University of Texas, and was the recipient of the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top DE; and Jacqueline played four years on the Texas State women's basketball team.

AT-A-GLANCE—He has coached in 115 Division I-A (FBS) games as a full-time coach, including four bowl games (2008 Armed Forces, 2009 Armed Forces, 2012 Military, 2016 Alamo). In the NFL, he coached in 112 regular season and three playoff games.

DREW WILSON

Director of Football Strength & Conditioning

Drew Wilson is in his second year as the director of football strength and conditioning at the University of Colorado, officially joining the staff on January 4, 2016.

Wilson, 39, coordinates all aspects of training and development of the football team and manages a staff of three full-time assistants dedicated to the program.

He is a veteran with over a decade of experience working with Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) programs in strength and conditioning, he joined the CU staff from the University of Maryland, where he spent the previous five years as the Terrapins' director of strength and conditioning.

Wilson had the same responsibilities at Maryland under coach Randy Edsall, where his duties also included working with the training staff in the design of both prehabilitation and rehabilitation programs for the student-athletes in injury prevention and healing. During his time there, Maryland transitioned from the Atlantic Coast Conference into the Big Ten, and he was credited with improving the Terps interior lines on both sides of the ball. He was also the liaison for the program to the National Football League.

He has attained several certifications with the respected national organizations in his profession. Wilson is a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCC) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association; a strength and conditioning coach certified (SCCC) through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association; he is certified as a Level 1 coach by the United States Weightlifting Association; and is also certified in the Functional Movement Screen (FMS).

Prior to his time at Maryland, he had been at the University of Connecticut for five years (2006-10) with Edsall, working primarily with the Huskies' football program as the assistant strength and conditioning coach. UConn was invited to a bowl each of his last four seasons there. He also worked one year with the women's lacrosse team.

He has a little familiarity with the Buffaloes, as he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas from January 2005 to May 2006 when both schools were members of the Big 12 Conference. Prior to his stint at KU, he spent five months at Florida State University assisting with football, baseball and the track and field programs.

A 2000 graduate of King's College, earning his bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice & Sociology, he lettered in football. He was a preseason All-American and earned first-team All-Mid-Atlantic Conference honors at inside linebacker as a senior in 1999, when he was a team co-captain. He was on the Dean's List for five semesters at King's, which is located in Wilkes Barre, Pa.

He earned his master's degree in Exercise & Applied Science, with emphasis in Strength and Conditioning, from Springfield (Mass.) College in 2004. He had his first experience coaching while at Springfield, serving as an intern for the 2001-02 academic year. He was then named a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at the school, a position he would hold until he received his master's. During that time, he also fulfilled two summer internships, at Maryland (2003) and at Auburn University (2004).

He was born July 11, 1978 in Levittown, Pa., but grew up in nearby Yardley, both in suburbs of Trenton, N.J. He is married to the former Marguerite Widdoes and the couple has a daughter, Makaela, and two sons, Andrew Jr., and Isaac.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

BRYAN MCGINNIS
Director of Football Operations

Bryan McGinnis is in his fifth year as the director of football operations at the University of Colorado, having joined Mike MacIntyre's new Buffalo staff on January 2, 2013. In his position, he coordinates many facets for the football program, including team travel arrangements, itineraries and scheduling.

McGinnis, 36, served in the same capacity under MacIntyre for two seasons at San Jose State University, and thus accepted the invitation to follow him to Boulder. A life-long resident of the San Francisco Bay area, this marks his first time he has ever lived outside of Northern California.

Prior to being promoted to being in charge of San Jose State's football operations, he spent six years on the Spartans' coaching staff, working a variety of positions as an operations assistant in recruiting, equipment and video services. He also was a student assistant working with the defense, the linebackers in particular, the 2005 through 2007 seasons, and then switched sides, working as a graduate assistant on offense (running backs) for the 2008 and 2010 season; in-between, in 2009 he was the staff's operations assistant.

At San Jose, he was on the staffs of two teams that earned bowl invitations: the Spartans defeated New Mexico, 20-12, in the 2006 New Mexico Bowl (their first bowl since 1990) and beat Bowling Green, 29-20, in the 2012 Military Bowl. Those are the only two bowl games SJSU has ever played outside the state of California.

McGinnis played wide receiver for two years (2000-01) at Cabrillo College in Aptos, and then got into coaching, beginning his career at his alma mater, Harbor High School, where he spent two years as the school's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. In 2003, he joined the San Francisco 49ers staff as an intern in the player personnel department.

He then returned to school to finish his degree, graduating from San Jose State with Bachelor's in Kinesiology in 2007. While working with football, he took several graduate courses in Hospitality, Tourism and Recreation Management.

He was born June 22, 1981 in Santa Cruz, Calif., and graduated from Harbor High School there, lettering in football and track. He is a certified speed training coach by SAC (Speed, Agility & Conditioning USA/Canada). He is married to the former Vrinda Murphy, who is a behavior therapist for children with autism; the couple has two daughters, Emily Margaret (3) and Maddaline Grace, born this past January.

ADAM TOYAMA
Director of Football Recruiting

Adam Toyama is in his fifth year as the director of football recruiting at the University of Colorado, having joined Mike MacIntyre's new Buffalo staff on January 2, 2013.

Toyama, 35, joined the Colorado staff from San Jose State University, where he was the coordinator of football relations for the 2011 and 2012 seasons under MacIntyre; he was offered a promotion to direct all aspects of recruiting and thus accepted his invitation to follow him to Boulder.

Prior to joining MacIntyre at San Jose State, he was a recruiting and operations assistant at UNLV for two seasons under head coaches Mike Sanford (2009) and Bobby Hauck (2010). Before taking the UNLV job, he worked in facilities operations at Stanford.

Toyama earned his Bachelor's degree in Health, Exercise and Lifestyle Management from the University of Hawai'i in 2004, and went on to earn a Master's in Sports Management from the University of San Francisco in 2007. While earning his graduate degree, he spent over a year as an operations intern with the National Football League's San Francisco 49ers and for the 2006 season, he worked in suite sales and client relations for the Oakland Raiders.

He was born July 24, 1982 in Honolulu, Hawai'i, and graduated from the St. Louis School there, where he earned letters in volleyball and a sport unique to the islands, canoe paddling. He is married to the former Emmeline Yu.

KATIE BASON
Director of Football Academics

Katie Bason is in her fifth year as the director of football academics at the University of Colorado, having joined Mike MacIntyre's new Buffalo staff on January 7, 2013.

Bason, 34, joined the Colorado staff from San Jose State, where she spent the previous two years (2011-12) as the academic learning specialist for the football program under MacIntyre. When MacIntyre accepted the CU job, he built in the newly created position of director of academics and offered it to her. Prior to working specifically with the Spartans' football program, she spent a year as a learning specialist for the athletic department.

Prior to her three years at SJSU, she worked seven years with her alma mater, Wake Forest University, her main emphasis working with at-risk student athletes on improving study habits and skills. She also worked as a high school teacher in Charlotte and Winston-Salem, N.C., her courses including English, world history, civics and economics. She also held various operations positions for the Teach for America branch office in Charlotte.

Bason graduated from Wake Forest with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education in 2005, where she was a member of the Dean's List. As a student at WFU, she was a manager for the Demon Deacons men's basketball team.

She was born June 29, 1983 in Martinsville, Va., and graduated from Carlisle High School there, where she lettered in football and baseball; she was the only girl on the varsity baseball team, and was for four years. She played for the Chicago Storm women's baseball team (the 2002 Roy Hobbes National Champions) as well as the 2002 U-21 U.S. women's national team.

BRAD FORSYTH
Director of Player Personnel

Brad Forsyth is in his second year as CU's director of player of personnel, as he joined Mike MacIntyre's staff on August 22, 2016.

Forsyth, 48, came to Colorado after over two decades of working as an area scout for the National Football League, spending 21 seasons doing so for the Buffalo Bills (1994-2014) and the Miami Dolphins. He was a constant attendee in CU's Fred Casotti Press Box. He started with the Bills as an administrative assistant in 1993.

He graduated from Illinois Wesleyan in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. A four-year letterman at the school under Coach Norm Eash, he set school records that stood for over 20 years in season (62.9) and career (62.1) completion percentage. As a senior in 1990, he ranked second in the nation in passing efficiency and was the Titans' offensive most valuable player both as a junior and senior, when he also served as a team captain.

He earned his Master's degree in Sports Administration from Illinois State in 1992.

He was born October 1, 1968 in Spokane, Wash., and graduated from Paxton (Ill.) High School, where he earned a combined 10 letters in football, basketball and track. He is married (Kandiss), and the couple has two daughters, Kaedyn (13) and Kamryn (11).

DANIEL DaPRATO
Director of Quality Control/Offense

Daniel DaPrato is in his second year as the director of quality control for the offense, having joined the CU staff on April 1, 2016.

He came to Colorado from Montana State, where he spent three seasons (2013-15) as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. He spent the 2007-12 seasons at Sacramento State, where he coached the receivers all six years and added coaching the special teams the last three seasons (2010-12). He was on the staff of the Hornets when they visited Folsom Field in 2011 and upset the Buffaloes, 30-28, with a game-winning field goal as time ran out.

DaPrato, 34, began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Louisiana-Monroe, where he served as the graduate assistant on offense for the 2004-05 seasons; he then was promoted to the director of operations and recruiting coordinator in 2006. He earned two degree from UL-Monroe, his bachelor's in Health & Human Performance in 2003, and his Master's in Education, with emphasis in Instructional Technology, in 2004.

He began his college football career at New Mexico Highlands University in 2000, where he spent one year as the starting quarterback. He then transferred to Chabot (Calif.) Junior College where he started (QB) for the 2001 season and earned honorable mention All-Conference honors. DaPrato then concluded his career at UL-Monroe, where he earned two letters, also at quarterback. He was an Academic All-Conference team member at ULM. As a junior in 2002, ULM opened at Mississippi, where he started at quarterback and played against a secondary coached by Mike MacIntyre; a year later, he lined up against current CU cornerback Charles Clark when he starred at Ole Miss.

He was born October 2, 1981 in Sacramento, Calif., and graduated from Fred C. Beyer High School in Modesto, Calif., where he lettered in football, basketball and track (he was an All-District and All-League performer at quarterback on the gridiron). His hobbies include playing golf and hiking. He is married to the former Giovanna Arrondo.

NATE TAYE
Director of Quality Control/Defense

Nate Taye is in his fifth year on the Colorado staff, his second as the director of quality control for the defense as he was promoted to the position in the spring of 2016. He previously had worked as the assistant director of quality control since August 1, 2015, and prior to that appointment, he had served two years as a defensive graduate assistant coach, as he first joined the CU staff on June 3, 2013.

His primary role as a graduate assistant was coaching the nickelbacks, in addition to assisting former defensive coordinator Kent Baer with the linebackers as well as having general overall duties with the entire defense.

Taye, 27, joined CU from the San Jose State football staff, where he was a student assistant his junior and senior years. At SJSU, he also helped Baer with an assortment of duties including breaking down video, working with the scout team and other daily activities. He graduated from SJSU with a degree in Political Science in May 2013 and was a member of the Dean's List.

He was playing Jaycee football but wanted to pursue a career in a coaching, so he approached Mike MacIntyre at San Jose about volunteering and eventually earned a student assistant position.

He was born May 16, 1990 and grew up in San Jose, Calif., graduating from Prospect High School in nearby Saratoga, where he lettered in football, basketball and track. His hobbies include movies and video games.

MATT THOMPSON
Director of Quality Control/Special Teams

Matt Thompson is in his second year as the director of quality control for the special teams, having joined the CU staff on April 1, 2016.

He came to CU from just down the road in Broomfield, where he ran the Elite Kicking Academy, which trained high school, college and National Football League free agents (specialized coaching for placekickers and punters). He conducted the academy from 2007-10 and 2013-15, as in-between he was a video assistant working with the coaching staff at Colorado under head coach Jon Embree for the 2011-12 seasons. He also had worked in the construction business while running the kicking academy.

Thompson, 35, earned his bachelor's degree in 2005 in Business-Marketing from Fort Lewis College (Durango, Colo.). He began his college days at Tulane University, where he was on the team for spring drills and fall camp in 2001. He then transferred to Fort Lewis, where he played on the 2001 team, mainly handling kickoff chores but did make good on both of his extra point attempts.

He personally trained with kicking guru Doug Blevins for two years in Virginia, and then had a brief career in Arena Football, playing with the Odessa Roughnecks and the Pueblo Pistols.

He was born November 8, 1981 in Joplin, Mo., and graduated from Centaurus High School in Lafayette, Colo., where he lettered in football and baseball. His hobbies include golf, spending time with family and playing with his dog, Ruby. A distant relative is actor Randolph Mantooth (Emergency, several soap operas) his grandfather's cousin. He is married to the former Lindsay Christopher, and the couple has a daughter, Lily Ann, born last November.

MATT DANIELS
Graduate Assistant (Defense)

Matt Daniels is in his first year on the Colorado football staff, having joined the program on July 1, 2017 as a graduate assistant working with the defense.

Daniels, 27, is in his first coaching position as he came to the Buffaloes after retiring from the National Football League. An undrafted free agent, he signed with the St. Louis Rams and spent two seasons with the club. A safety, he moved on to the Jacksonville Jaguars for the 2014 season and then to the San Diego Chargers for 2015-16, though he spent the last year of his career on injured reserve. He played in a total of seven NFL games.

He graduated from Duke University with a bachelor's degree in Public Policy in 2012, appearing in 46 career games for the Blue Devils, including 36 consecutive to close his career. He had a tremendous senior season, racking up 126 tackles (four for losses), with 14 passes broken up, two interceptions and a forced fumble. He recorded 324 career tackles (13 for losses), with 31 pass deflections, seven forced fumbles and four interceptions.

He was born September 27, 1989 in Tucson, Ariz., and graduated from Fayette County High School (Fayetteville, Ga.) where he lettered in football and track and field (he set the school's single game rushing record of 348 yards). He is married to the former Tiffany Lee.

JOHN HUGHES
Graduate Assistant (Offense)

John Hughes is in his second year on the Colorado football staff, having joined the program on June 1, 2016 as a graduate assistant working with the offense.

Hughes, 28, came to CU from the University of Akron, where he was a graduate assistant on defense working with the linebackers for the 2015 season; the Zips defeated Utah State, 23-21, in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The previous two years (2013-14), he was a defensive assistant and the assistant defensive line coach for Sacramento State University. He started his coaching career at his alma mater, Humboldt State University, where he was the tight ends coach in 2012.

In 2014, he was a selected member of the NCAA Future Football Coaches Academy.

He graduated with his bachelor's degree in Communications from Humboldt State in 2012, earning All-GNAC Academic Team honors his junior and senior years. He was a three year starter on the offensive line (guard, center) after starting his collegiate career at Western Washington (he transferred to HSU after Western eliminated its football program). At Akron, he earned his Masters of Science in Sport Science and Coaching Administration, graduating in May 2016.

He was born on April 8, 1989 in Redlands, Calif., and graduated from Redlands High School where he lettered in football and wrestling (he was a first-team All-CIF performer in football). His hobbies include surfing, snowboarding, playing the piano and attending live concerts. His father, Phil, played football at the University of Northern Colorado. He is married to the former Kercia Brakel.

PETER TUITUPOU
Graduate Assistant (Offense)

Peter Tuitupou is in his second year on the Colorado football staff, having joined the program in the spring of 2016 as a graduate assistant working with the offense.

Tuitupou, 29, came to CU from private business, as he was working as a sales manager for a solar company in California for two years. Previously, he spent the 2013 season with Pittsburgh in the National Football League after signing with the Steelers as an undrafted free agent.

He graduated with his bachelor's degree in Communication Studies from San Jose State University in 2012, where he lettered twice at tight end for coach Mike MacIntyre, who was the Spartans' coach at the time. He was primarily a blocker in SJSU's offensive scheme, catching 14 passes for 183 yards (13.1 per) in his career, which also saw him be named twice to the Academic All-Western Athletic Conference team. He played in San Jose State's 29-21 win over Bowling Green in the Military Bowl as a senior.

He played two seasons at Snow Junior College (2007-08), where he was named a first-team JC All-American as a sophomore when he caught 21 passes for 251 yards (11.9 per) and four touchdowns. He then left school to serve his two-year Mormon Mission in Panama.

He was born on February 21, 1988 in Chicago, and graduated from Mountain View High School in Orem, Utah, where he lettered in football (tight end/defensive end), basketball and track; he was an All-State performer at tight end as a senior. Two older brothers also played college football, Tony at Brigham Young and David, also at San Jose State (defensive end). His hobbies include basketball, swimming and most outdoor sports. He is married to the former Seriah Lotulelei, and the couple has three young children, all three and under: daughter Kalolaine and sons Soni and Tevita. His wife's first cousin is Star Lotulelei, who played college football at Utah and is a defensive tackle with the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

CHIDERA UZO-DIRIBE
Graduate Assistant (Defense)

Chidera Uzo-Diribe is in his third year on the Colorado football staff, his second as a graduate assistant working with the defense. He initially joined the staff as a recruiting intern, named to the position on July 13, 2015 and in the process, returned to his alma mater.

Uzo-Diribe, 25, was a four-year letterman at defensive end for the Buffaloes, and graduated from CU in December 2014 with a bachelor's degree in Communication. He finished his career tied for sixth in quarterback sacks (20), tied for 17th in tackles for loss (31) and second in forced fumbles (10); his percentage of solo tackles (99) to overall tackles (118), or 83.9 percent, is the highest in CU history.

He signed with the New Orleans Saints as a free agent, and was one of the last to be waived during their training camp.

As a senior team captain, he earned first-team All-Colorado honors from the state's chapter of the National Football Foundation, was named CU's Defensive Trench Award winner and played in the East-West Shrine game. For the season, he was in on 46 tackles (36 solo), with 11 for losses including four quarterback sacks; he had seven tackles for zero gain, meaning he had 18 total stops at or behind the line of scrimmage. He was second in the nation in forced fumbles with five, and he also batted down four passes in 739 snaps of action. He was one of 27 players on the final watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award (defensive end of the year), and was one of 76 players on the official preseason watch list for the Bednarik Award.

He was born May 30, 1992 in Long Beach, Calif., and graduated from Rocky Mountain High School in Fort Collins where he played baseball and basketball. A cousin is Osi Umenyiora, the second round choice of the New York Giants in the 2003 NFL Draft; in 10 seasons with the Giants, he appeared in two Pro Bowls and was a member of the 2008 Super Bowl champion team; he spent the last two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons. Another cousin, Charles Saseun, was a sprinter at Cal-Berkeley.

SCOTT UNREIN
Operations & Recruiting Assistant

Scott Unrein is in his sixth year on the University of Colorado football staff as the operations and recruiting assistant, named to the position in July 2012.

In August 2017, he was named to the "30 under 30" team of rising stars in college football by 247Sports, as he was nominated as CU's "jack-of-all-trades life saver" for the football program, as he does a little bit of everything in his split roles between operations and recruiting.

His primary duties include overseeing the parents program, assisting with on-campus recruiting and daily football operations, including the team's social media coordinator. He also advances all football road trips and works with hotel staff in coordinating all aspects of the team's stay in opponent cities.

Unrein, 29, joined the football staff basically from the other side of Folsom Field, as he worked as an intern for coach Roy Edwards with the CU men's golf team for the 2010-11 season. His role with the team included helping to facilitate and organize the 2011 NCAA Men's Regional Championships that the Buffaloes hosted at Colorado National Golf Club in Erie, Colo.

He graduated from CU in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing. He also earned his Business of Sports Certificate in 2010.

He was born on August 31, 1988 in Sterling, Colo., and graduated from Rocky Mountain High School in Fort Collins where he played baseball and basketball. His hobbies include basketball, golf and hiking.

JUSTIN GEYER
Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Justin Geyer is in his second year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, joining the department on April 1, 2016. He works primarily with Colorado's football program.

Geyer, 30, came to Colorado from Arkansas State University, where he spent the previous year-and-a-half as the Red Wolves assistant director of strength and conditioning. Previously, he was the assistant football strength and conditioning coach at the University of Maryland from 2013-15. He began his career in the field as a volunteer coach at the University of Mississippi in 2012.

He graduated from the College of Mount St. Joseph in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in Athletic Training. He earned three letters playing linebacker and safety, starting for two seasons for the Lions. He was named to the Academic All-Heartland Conference team. He earned his Master's degree in Exercise Science from Springfield College in 2013.

He was born May 20, 1987 in Hamilton, Ohio, and graduated from Badin High School there, where he lettered in football. His hobbies include weightlifting and playing with his dog.

JEREMY LAYPORT
Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Jeremy Layport is in his third year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, joining the department on April 1, 2015. He works primarily with Colorado's football program.

He is a senior instructor for Strong First, certified in Level I and II "Hardstyle" Kettlebell instruction as well as in strong first barbell instruction. He is also certified as a strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). The United States Weightlifting Association (USWA) certified him in Olympic Lifting Technique and he is also a barefoot training specialist (Level I by both).

Layport, 37, joined the CU staff from Academy of Art University in San Francisco, where he worked three years (2012-14) as the Urban Knights' head strength and conditioning coach, coordinating the needs of the school's 16 NCAA sport programs, including men's and women's basketball, baseball, volleyball and track and field (AAU's women's track teams won both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Division II titles in the same year during his time there).

Prior to accepting the head position at the AAU, he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at San Jose State University for eight years (2004-12), where he first met current CU head coach Mike MacIntyre. He oversaw the conditioning needs of the baseball, softball, volleyball, men's golf, men's soccer and women's water polo programs and also assisted with football. While at SJSU, he earned his master's degree in Exercise Physiology in 2006 while working as a graduate assistant prior to being promoted to a full-time assistant.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Exercise Science and Sports Medicine (ESSM) from Cal Lutheran University in 2002, where he lettered four years at nose tackle for coach Scott Squires. He was a second-team All-SCIAC performer his senior season, when he served as a team captain and won CLU's Most Inspirational Award.

He was born July 12, 1980 in Paso Robles, Calif., and graduated from Paso Robles High School where he lettered in football and track. He has won several Olympic weightlifting competitions and has qualified for nationals. He has won a (RAW) Power Lifting competition (where he was the "lifter of the meet"), and was the third person to ever pass the "Beast Tamer Challenge," which he did in 2006 in the Russian Kettlebell Challenge.

TERRANCE MOTLEY
Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Terrance Motley is in his first year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, joining the athletic department on February 1, 2017. He works primarily with Colorado's football program.

Motley, 27, joined the Colorado staff from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, where he was a graduate assistant on the Ragin' Cajuns strength staff for a year-and-a-half (August 2015 until his CU appointment). He was the assistant coach for the football program and served as the head strength coach for the men's and women's tennis teams.

He is certified by both USA Weightlifting (Level I in sports performance) and by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) as a strength and conditioning specialist.

Prior to his joining the ULL program, he spent three months as an intern at Louisiana State University, where he assisted in strength & conditioning program implementation with the Tiger football, volleyball and baseball teams.

He graduated from BYU in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in Exercise and Wellness. He played one year of football (offensive line in 2011) and lettered two years in rugby (2013-14). He also worked as a intern in the Cougars' strength and conditioning department, where he assisted in exercise program design and implementation for BYU football and rugby.

While at Louisiana-Lafayette, Motley earned his Master of Science degree in Kinesiology, finishing up in 2017.

He was born December 29, 1989 in Provo, Utah, and graduated from Albuquerque's Cibola High School where he lettered in football and track and field (throws). His hobbies include weightlifting. He is fluent in Italian, and served his two-year Mormon mission for the LDS Church in Milan from February 2009 through February 2011. He is married to the former Katelyn Kerr, and the couple has two children, son Kai (2) and daughter Irie (born this past March).

ERIK AUNESE
Football Intern

Erik Aunese is in his third year on the University of Colorado staff as a football intern, named to the position on August 1, 2015, after working the previous two years as a student assistant in the football office.

Aunese, 25, was hired as a student assistant just prior to coach Mike MacIntyre's first fall camp at CU in August 2013.

He attended Fort Lewis College (Durango, Colo.) as a freshman on a partial scholarship in 2010; he returned to his native California where he played two years on the defensive line at Palomar Junior College under coach Joe Early. He earned his A.A. degree at Palomar in 2013; while working as an intern at Colorado, he took on-line classes with Colorado Mesa University (Grand Junction, Colo.) to finish off his bachelor's degree, earning his diploma in Sports Management in August 2016.

He was born on June 30, 1992 in Oceanside, Calif., and graduated from Mission Hills High School (San Marcos, Calif.), where he played football (fullback and defensive line); he attended MHHS for three years after going to Vista High School his freshman year. His hobbies include playing basketball and spending time with his extended family. An uncle, the late Sal Aunese, CU's starting quarterback in the 1987-88 seasons who passed away from stomach cancer on Sept. 23, 1989.

CORY HALL
Football Intern

Corey Hall is in his second year on the University of Colorado staff as a football recruiting intern, named to the position on June 6, 2016.

Hall, 23, had worked two-plus years as a student assistant working in the football office until he was promoted after graduating from CU with a B.S. degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in marketing. He was on the Dean's List for the Leeds Business School in both 2013 and 2015, and completed the exclusive Business of Sports Program the summer prior to his junior year.

He was born on November 21, 1993 in Golden, Colo., and graduated from Golden High School where he was an all-conference performer in football and lacrosse (he earned three letters in each). His hobbies include boating, snowboarding and biking.

BRUCE JONES
Football Intern

Bruce Jones is in his first year on the University of Colorado staff as a football recruiting intern, joining the staff on August 1, 2017.

Jones, 25, came to CU from Lubbock, Texas, where he had worked two years as the general sales manager for the Reagor Dykes Auto Group. He remained in the city after he graduated from Texas Tech University in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in Human Science.

He lettered at cornerback two seasons for Texas Tech under Kliff Kingsbury, recording 50 tackles (41 solo) with a team-high 10 passes broken up as a senior in 2013. He had 31 tackles (27 solo) and seven pass deflections as a junior, after he transferred to Tech from Riverside Community College. He appeared in 26 games for the Red Raiders, starting 19, and was on two bowl champion teams, as TTU defeated Minnesota in the Meineke Car Care Bowl and upset Arizona State in the Holiday Bowl.

He was born on August 5, 1992 in Inglewood, Calif., and graduated from Eleanor Roosevelt High School (Eastvale, Calif.), where he lettered in football. His hobbies include snowboarding, soccer and playing FIFA.

MICHAEL SLIFE
Football Intern

Michael Slife is in his first year on the University of Colorado staff as a football recruiting intern, joining the staff in June 2017.

Slife came to CU from just down the road, where he was the outside linebacker coach at the Colorado School of Mines from 2015 until he moved to Boulder. The Orediggers were the 2016 Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference champions and boasted the Harlan Hill Award winner in quarterback Justin Dvorak.

He previously spent the 2015 National Football League season working with the Cleveland Browns, working in the club's player personnel department. He also spent four years (2011-14) as in intern and a scout with Ourlads Scouting Services.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he lettered in football and lacrosse as a prep at St. Ignatius. He is married (Allison).

SHERYL VOTH
Assistant to the Head Coach

Sheryl Voth is in her third year of her second stint with the Colorado football program, as she is the assistant to head coach Mike MacIntyre, moving into the role in April 2015.

She had been working in the CU's athletics facility department for the previous two years, after she spent two years as the assistant to head football coach Jon Embree for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. She shifted into that position literally from down the hall in the Dal Ward Athletic Center, as she worked in the Herbst Academic Center.

Prior to working in athletics, she was employed on the CU-Boulder campus as an administrative assistant in the Registrar's Office. Before returning to the work force in 2008, she was fortunate to be able to stay at home with her three children, Tyler, Shelby, and Shaylyne. She has always been actively involved with volunteering, especially at her children's schools. Before raising her children, she worked for Safeway for many years managing the bakery at one of the Boulder stores.

A native of Boulder, she graduated from Fairview High School, and attended the University of Colorado. The former Sheryl Bonnes, when she was in sixth grade, she became one of the first girls in Boulder to play on a boys' Little League baseball team.

A professional cake decorator and instructor, her hobbies include waterskiing, particularly at Lake Powell, snow skiing, hiking and biking. She has also coached youth basketball, mentoring the YMCA girls' team in Boulder since 1999. A long-time fan of CU athletics and basketball in particular, she has had season tickets since the 80's.

JEAN ONAGA
Administrative Assistant

Jean Onaga is in her 32nd year with the Colorado football program as the administrative assistant to the assistant coaches, handling all secretarial duties for both the offensive and defensive coordinators and each staff. She also assists the director of football operations and director of recruiting in administrative duties.

Onaga also coordinates all football office volunteers regarding security for spring and fall practices. She facilitates program activities and events including all pro scout visits year-round and the school's annual pro timing day every March. She also coordinated former events such as the coaches' clinic and passing tournament camp, and still assists with registration for various football camps.

She joined the football staff in January 1986 and is the longest continuous employee in the football department; only three current employees have been associated with the entire athletic department longer than her. She has worked with six CU head coaches: Bill McCartney, Rick Neuheisel, Gary Barnett, Dan Hawkins, Jon Embree and now Mike MacIntyre.

For her years of service, Jean was recognized as an honorary member of the Alumni C Club by the Board of Directors during CU-Missouri game on November 3, 2007.

Originally from Honolulu, Hawaii, Jean and her husband Loren moved to Boulder in 1985. She graduated from McKinley High School and graduated from Kapiolani Community College with a degree in business.

SUPPORT PROGRAM STAFF

LANCE CARL
Associate AD/Business Development

Lance Carl, who participated in one of the key plays on the football field as a player for the University of Colorado in the mid-1980s, returned to his alma mater for the fourth time in his career when he was named to a newly created position, associate athletic director for business development on November 5, 2013.

He is completing his fourth year in the largely external role which encompasses business development, community partnerships and as serves as the coordinator for non-game day events. His duties include working build strategic community partnerships, improve the department's engagement with local community entities and work to attract non-game day event business to CU's athletic facilities. He has developed over two dozen key partnerships to date, as he is working to change the image and perception about athletics and its interactions in the business world. He also was the point-person working with AEG Rocky Mountain to bring the first concerts to Folsom Field in 15 years when Dead & Company played the stadium in July 2016 (and then returned a year later in June).

Carl, 51, is also the sports supervisor for the football program, as he has daily interactions with head coach Mike MacIntyre, the assistant coaches, support personnel and the student-athletes.

He rejoined the CU staff after spending the last six years with the Colorado Department of Higher Education, where he was a director for student motivational outreach. He was a direct liaison to all middle and high schools throughout the state, as well as for parents and administrators. He developed the Umbrella of Success motivational presentation and delivered that message to 160,000 students, parents and administrators during that time.

As a junior split end in 1986, he led the team in receiving with nine catches for 171 yards and two touchdowns, as with the Buffaloes in their second year of running the wishbone offense under coach Bill McCartney, Colorado didn't throw the ball all that often.

But one of those scores was as big as they come, a 52-yard reception from O.C. Oliver on a perfectly executed halfback option that answered a Nebraska field goal and put CU ahead, 17-7, on the first play of the fourth quarter. That helped keep the third-ranked Huskers at an arm's length and the Buffaloes went on to win, 20-10, in a game referred to as "the turning point" for the school under McCartney.

He graduated from CU in 1991 with a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Sociology; he had first returned to CU to finish his degree after signing as a free agent with the Washington Redskins and returning to his native Iowa.

Carl then came back to CU as a graduate assistant coach under Rick Neuheisel for the 1996 season. He also spent four years as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

He was born September 13, 1965 in Burlington, Iowa, and graduated from Fort Madison (Iowa) High School, where he was a four-sport letterman (12 letters total) in football, basketball, baseball and track. His hobbies include coaching his kid's sports teams, golf, hiking and mountain biking (he was an assistant coach of the North Boulder Wildcats team that reached the Little League World Series in 2015). He married to the former Jennifer Mysonhimer, also a CU graduate, she worked as a teaching assistant on campus and in the Herbst Academic Center when Carl was a grad assistant. The couple has three children, sons Savoy (19) and Jackson (14) and daughter Alana (7).

JASON DEPAEPE
Associate AD/Facilities & Game Day Operations

Jason DePaepe is in his 18th year at the University of Colorado and his fourth as the associate athletic director for facilities, promoted to that post in February 2013. Coordinating game day management and operations, specifically for football and CU's other outside sport programs, were added to his responsibilities in September 2014.

He is responsible for overseeing all facility needs for Folsom Field, the Dal Ward Athletic Center, the Champions Center, Balch Fieldhouse, Prentup Field, Potts Field, the Football Practice Facility, Kittredge Lacrosse Field, and the Kittredge Tennis Facility.

DePaepe, 43, had served as the athletic turf manager for 12 years prior to his promotion, responsible for all maintenance, renovation, upkeep and painting and design of Folsom Field's natural grass surface as well as the athletic practice fields located just north of Boulder Creek and Prentup Field, home to CU's women's soccer team. He originally joined CU in June 2000 as an assistant turf manager and was promoted to the head position in February 2001. He is considered by many to be one of the best in his field, and he still oversees all of CU's field operations.

The Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA) honored DePaepe and his staff in January 2003, when the organization recognized Folsom Field's turf with the Football Field of the Year Award for the college/university division. STMA has over 2,400 members, so the award, especially in just the fourth season since Folsom returned to natural grass, was quite an honor.

In 2008, he oversaw the complex replacement of SportGrass on the Folsom Field floor with a natural Kentucky blue grass.

He came to CU from the Baltimore Ravens, where he was the assistant field manager for a year. Prior to that, he was employed at Iowa State, where he graduated from in 1999 with Bachelor's degree in Horticulture and Turf Grass Management. He worked two years at ISU as a student turf manager.

He was born May 4, 1974 in Minot, N.D., and graduated from Waterloo (Iowa) West, where he lettered in baseball and basketball. His hobbies include golf and basketball. He is married to the former Kristen Sorensen, one-time CU's director of special events, and the couple has two daughters, Brielle (4) and Evelyn (2).

JAMIE GUY
Director of Sports Video

Jamie Guy is in his 14th year as CU's director of sports video and his 17th year overall on the Colorado staff, as he joined the department in August 2001. He was promoted to his current position in the fall of 2004 after working just over three years as the assistant director.

Guy, 42, came to CU from the Chicago Enforcers of the now-defunct XFL, where he worked the lone season of the league's existence.

In CU's first year in the Pac-12 Conference (2011-12), he was named the Pac-12 Video Coordinator of the Year as selected by a majority vote of his peers. He was twice selected as the video coordinator of the year in the Big 12 Conference, first in 2005-06 and again in 2009-10. The awards are coordinated and voted by members of the Collegiate Sports Video Association; members of each conference select the winner for their respective leagues, and the recipients are placed on the national ballot for the overall CSVA award, the Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year.

As talented as there is in the profession, Guy has coordinated the production of several video shorts showcasing in particular, the CU football program. Along with his former assistant John Snelson, the two were been honored twice with Heartland Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATA) Emmy awards, first in 2014 for their work called "Seasons," the story of a dream and the lifetime experience of being a Colorado Buffalo, and then again for 2015 for the series entitled, "Forward." The duo was also nominated in 2015 for their "Forever" video, his personal favorite because of the time, execution and passion that went into creating it (an all-encompassing look at what it means to be a Colorado Buffalo, on and off the field, as well as in 2016 for "The Rise," which documented CU's first Pac-12 South Division title and return to the postseason. "Forever" did win the 2015 FootballScoop FBS Video of the Year honor.

He graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in general studies. As a student, he worked in the Bearcats' sports video office for four years. Prior to entering the sports video profession, he worked as an electrician's apprentice and as a staff manager at Fitworks Fitness.

Born March 18, 1975 in Cincinnati, Ohio, he graduated from Lawrence Central High School (Indianapolis, Ind.) in 1994, where he lettered in track and football. His hobbies include collecting football memorabilia and playing the guitar. He is married to the former Kimberly Ernst.

KRIS LIVINGSTON
Associate AD/Student Success

Kris Livingston is in her 21st year at the University of Colorado, her fourth as the associate athletic director for student success, promoted to the position in the spring of 2014. She was promoted to an assistant athletic director in 2010 and she also has sports administrator duties for CU's soccer and skiing programs.

Included in her role is overseeing all of CU's academic support services for her 11th year. Located in the Herbst Academic Center, her area provides year-round academic support to all of CU's approximately 350 student-athletes; she was an assistant director for the unit until being named its director on May 24, 2007.

Former football coach Dan Hawkins credited her organization and philosophy about academics as one of the strongest factors for the football team's back-to-back record years for grade point average for the 2008-09 and 2009-10 school years. And under head coaches Jon Embree and Mike MacIntyre, football has continued to set record GPA figures and graduation rates, as have several others among CU's 17 intercollegiate programs.

She joined the CU staff in May 1997, hired by then-women's basketball head coach Ceal Barry to be the program's first-ever Director of Basketball Operations. She spent eight seasons in that position until Barry's retirement from coaching in March of 2005.

Livingston came to Boulder from Littleton, Colo., where she was a senior consultant at USA Group Noel-Levitz, an educational consulting firm that is hired by colleges to help recruit and retain students. Prior to that, Livingston spent eight years at Iowa State University as an assistant women's basketball coach (1984-89), admissions counselor (1989-91) and telecounseling coordinator (1991-92).

She earned her bachelor's degree in Sociology from Miami University (Oxford, Ohio) in May 1983, where she was a four-year letterwinner on Miami's women's basketball team and earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference and first-team Academic All-MAC honors. In August 1997, she was inducted into Miami's Hall of Fame, only the second women's basketball player to be so honored.

Livingston earned her master's degree in Sport and Exercise Science with an emphasis in Sport Administration from the University of Northern Colorado in August 2009.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, she graduated from Lake High School in Millbury, Ohio, in 1979. A three-sport athlete, she was an inaugural member of her high school Hall of Fame in 1983. She is married to Dr. Kelly Causey.

DAVID PLATI
Associate AD/Sports Information

David Plati is in his 34th year as the athletic department's director of sports information, and his 40th year overall in CU's Sports Information Office. He was promoted to assistant athletic director for media relations on July 1, 1988, and attained associate athletic director status in August 2005.

Plati, 57, was named the 13th full-time sports information director in CU history on July 24, 1984, after serving for three years as the assistant SID. The youngest SID in the nation at the time of his hiring, he previously worked as a student assistant and statistician after coming to CU as a freshman in 1978. Only six people have served in the role since 1952, with Plati's tenure in the position the longest in school annals; he was recognized in 2009 with the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Quarter Century of Service award.

His primary responsibilities are with the football, skiing and men's golf programs, though he oversees the sports information efforts for all sports, and at one time or another has personally handled nine sports during his CU career. He has easily worked or covered over 2,150 CU events: 446 football games including the last 404 dating to the 1983 finale, the second-longest active streak by any SID in the nation.

He has coordinated numerous successful promotional campaigns and public relations programs for student-athletes and coaches. Plati has written two books on CU football, the first about the school's 1990 national championship, and the second published in 2008, Colorado Football Vault, a coffee table style book with an awesome collection of photographs and reproduced keepsakes. In 2005, the Denver Buff Club recognized him as its "MVB" choice (Most Valuable Buff).

The Football Writers Association of America has recognized CU's sports information office seven times during his tenure, three times for an outstanding press box operation (1987, 1992, 1997; schools were eligible only every five years), and now four times with the FWA's Super 11 award (2010, 2013, 2014, 2016) for all-encompassing efforts with the nation's football media.

Plati is also an adjunct instructor in CU's College of Media, Communication and Information (CMCI), teaching a sports media relations class for the last 15 years. Since April 2001, he has been CU's representative on the board of directors of the Colorado Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, and in 2006, he became a member of the District 7 Screening Committee for the Hall. In 2009, he was appointed to the board of the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame, and in 2010, he was named to the board of the Colorado Rock & Roll Museum and Hall of Fame.

In 2015, Plati was a recipient of the Robert L. Stearns Award, presented to current members of the CU-Boulder faculty and staff for extraordinary achievement or service to the university.

While attending CU, Plati served four years as the information director for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. He also worked for the Colorado Golf Association and for the Rocky Mountain News.

He spent his senior year in college (1982) as the public relations director with the triple-A Denver Bears Baseball Club of the American Association. He has been a member of the Denver Broncos statistics crew since 1980, creating and maintaining miscellaneous stats (he received game balls from the NFL team for their back-to-back Super Bowl wins in the 90s). He has worked 383 Bronco games through the 2016 season, and among the many innovative numbers he is credited with first charting was "scoring percentage inside-the-20," which is now commonly known as the red zone. In the 1980s, he worked as a statistician for TBS for NBA telecasts, creating a wave of now commonplace statistics, and continues to work freelance for several networks, both television and radio, in a similar capacity. In 2004, he was appointed by major league baseball to serve as one of two official scorers for the Colorado Rockies baseball team, and has scored over 300 games.

Plati was the Hula Bowl's director of game week communications for four years (1995-98). He has also worked five BCS National Championship games (2002-06-09-10-13 seasons), all three College Football Playoff title games (2014-15-16 seasons), six Rose and two Fiesta bowls for a grand total of 39 postseason bowl games when including CU's 19.

He has worked as the media relations liaison for the Bolder Boulder 10K since 1987, and also served as the media relations assistant for the Colorado Open Golf Tournament for 12 years (1980-91). He was the media coordinator for the 1985, 1989 and 1996 NCAA West Regionals, and was the local media coordinator and NCAA liaison for the 1990 Final Four, all in Denver.

He graduated with a bachelor's degree in public relations, along with a minor in geography, from CU in 1982. He was a member of the journalism student council and wrote for The Campus Press.

Born April 19, 1960 in New Rochelle, N.Y., Plati graduated from Woodlands High School (Hartsdale, N.Y.) in 1978, where he lettered in football and golf (and was also the school's SID his senior year). In 1984, he was awarded an "Honorary C" for his service to Colorado athletics. An avid golfer, he won the 2005 Rocky Mountain Golf Writers Association fourth annual tournament. One of his proudest moments in his CU career came when late golf coach Mark Simpson asked him to present him for induction at Simpson's Golf Coaches Hall of Fame induction ceremony in January, 2005. He is also an avid concert goer, having attended some 360-plus in his lifetime (led by 37 Jimmy Buffett performances), and one of his hobbies is memorizing song lyrics. His younger brother (Mark, a top music engineer) was nominated for two Grammy Awards with David Bowie in 1998 (he was a guitarist in Bowie's band for five years), and also engineered the Song-of-the-Year for 1997 (Shawn Colvin's "Sunny Came Home").

With CU's move to the Pac-12 Conference, he was named the Education Director for the Pac-12 annual sports medicine meeting, a role he performed in the 2011-12 academic year and will continue to serve in for at least the 2012-13 year as well.

Ironically, his first football game as Fresno State's head trainer was in Boulder, as the Bulldogs played the Buffaloes in the Jim Thorpe Association Classic on August 26, 2001; FSU won the game, 24-22, and went on to climb into the nation's top 10, until getting knocked off by Boise State, then coached by CU's future coach, Dan Hawkins.

Rueda previously had worked two years (1995-97) as a graduate assistant trainer for the Bulldogs while earning his master's degree in exercise physiology.

He had rejoined the Fresno State staff from Towson University, where he served as an assistant athletic trainer from 1998 to 2001; he was the head trainer for football. Prior to Towson, Rueda spent time with the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League in 1997-98 and with Holy Cross in 1994-95. He also has extensive teaching experience, instructing classes ranging from sports medicine administration to basic athletic training courses over the past 10 years.

He received his undergraduate degree in athletic training from Boston University in 1994, and his master's degree from Fresno State in 1997. Rueda is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the College Athletic Trainers Society and has American Red Cross CPR and First Aid certification.

He was born November 17, 1971 in San Francisco, graduating from the city's Jay Eugene McAteer High School where he lettered in cross country and track. He and his wife, Andrea, have two sons, Gabriel and Christopher, and a daughter, Isabella.

ADAM HOLLIDAY
Head Football Trainer

Adam Holliday is in his eighth year in the sports medicine department at the University of Colorado, his third as the head athletic trainer for the football program. He was promoted to the position prior to spring practice in February 2015 after serving five years as the top assistant trainer for the program (with associate status the last two years), along with coordinating the needs of the women's golf team.

Holliday, 37, is in his second tour of duty with the department, as he had previously spent the 2004-05 academic year in Boulder as the professional intern under former head trainer Steve Willard, working with the football and men's and women's tennis teams. He returned to CU from the University of Texas, where he spent three years as the assistant athletic trainer for the Longhorns' football squad.

A 2002 graduate of the University of Kansas where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Science, he worked three years as a student athletic trainer for the Jayhawks. His first full-time position in athletic training came at Loris High School in Myrtle Beach, S.C., the year before being named an intern at CU. After his time in Boulder, he moved on to the University of Minnesota where he was a graduate assistant trainer for two years while earning his Master's in Sports Management in 2007.

He was born March 28, 1980 in Johnson, Kan., and graduated from Stanton County (Kan.) High School where he lettered in football and basketball. He is married to the former Marissa Carrizales, who is CU's volleyball and lacrosse trainer. His hobbies include golf, skiing, snowboarding and hiking/camping in the mountains.

LAURA ANDERSON
Sports Dietitian

Laura Anderson is in her fourth year as the sports dietitian for the University of Colorado athletic department, having joined the program in August 2014.

Anderson, 38, came to CU from the 10th Group Special Forces in Colorado Springs, where she was the performance dietitian for the Tactical Human Optimization, Rapid Rehabilitation & Recovery Program for just under four years (November 2010-August 2014). Among her many responsibilities was to provide individual and group performance nutrition counseling to enhance the health and performance of the Active Duty Special Forces tactical athlete, assisting with menu development, and education material for both food service staff and customers and directing nutritional care activities for active duty

MIGUEL RUEDA
Associate AD/Health & Performance

Miguel Rueda is in 12th year in the CU athletic department, his third as the associate athletic director for health and performance, as he was promoted to the position in February 2015. Also the head athletic trainer, he previously had served nine-plus years solely in that role after he was hired on August 1, 2006, just days ahead of football camp.

Rueda, 45, is the second-longest tenured trainer in CU's athletic history now in his 11th year in that capacity, behind only a 14-year run by Dave Burton, who held the position from 1985-99; one other had served in the role for eight years, and three others for seven. In his enhanced role, he oversees the entire training staff as well as serves as the school's liaison with the CU Sports Medicine and Performance Center, housed in the athletic department's brand new Champions Center. He also oversees the strength and conditioning and sports nutrition areas as well as CU's sports psychologist and works closely with campus on research initiatives.

He is also CU's institutional representative for the Pac-12's student health conference, and in that role, he organizes the annual meeting for all sports medicine officials from each league school.

He came to CU from Fresno State University, where he has been the Director of Sports Medicine since February 2001. At FSU, his primary responsibilities were the care and prevention of injuries for the football program and overseeing all areas of the Fresno State Sports Medicine Program. He has similar duties at Colorado, as he coordinates the needs and staffing for CU's 16 intercollegiate varsity programs.

soldiers, including those with complex medical and nutritional needs. In 2012, she received the Commander's Award For Civilian Service 10th Special Forces.

She previously has spent nearly three years (January 2008-November 2010) as a sport dietitian with the United States Olympic Committee, working with a wide diversity of male and female athletes for both winter and summer sports. Her duties ranged from performing assorted tests on the athletes to conducting educational seminars to even include the coaching staffs. She was also the official "team baker" for the men's and women's alpine ski teams at the 2010 Vancouver Winter Olympics.

Anderson also has worked in various other positions along the Colorado Front Range as a program dietitian, a nutrition services dietitian and as a dietitian/strength and conditioning specialist.

She earned her bachelor's degree in Health and Exercise Science from the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 2001, and received her master's degree in Interdisciplinary Health and Exercise Science and Nutrition from Colorado State University in 2004. She also performed two internships (Exercise Physiology at St. Andrews War Memorial Hospital in Brisbane, Australia, in 2001; Dietetic at James A. Haley Veterans Hospital in Tampa, Fla., in 2005).

A registered dietitian with the American Dietetic Association, she is also board certified as a specialist in sports nutrition, by the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) as a health and fitness instructor and by ISAK (International Society for Advancement in Kinanthropometry); she is also certified in CPR and first aid.

She is a member of the American Dietetic Association and the Colorado Dietetic Association, and an affiliate with SCAN (Sports, Cardiovascular and Wellness Nutrition), Weight Management and CPSDA (College, Professional, Sports Dietitian Association).

A native of Richland Center, Wis., and graduated from Richland Center High School, where she lettered four years each in softball and volleyball. Her hobbies include biking (mountain and road), rock climbing, trail running and cooking. She is married to Chris Alstrin, and as she says, the couple has one "crazy" dog (Lexi, a pointer lab).

CHRIS BADER
Counselor & Sports Psychologist

Dr. Christopher (Chris) Bader is entering his sixth year as the counseling and sport psychologist for the University of Colorado athletic department, joining the program in August 2012.

Bader, 40, provides mental health services including clinical, assessment and individual and team consultation to the student-athletes and coaches at CU. In addition, he works with incoming student-athletes in their adjustment to their new environment and in preparation for their matriculation through CU. Other areas of responsibility include serving on several department and university-wide committees: DA Task Force, Leadership Development Program, Continuum of Care, Diversity & Inclusion and the Alcohol and Other Drug Team.

Prior to coming to CU, for six years (2007-12) he was on staff in the Psychological Resources for Student-Athletes office at the University of Oklahoma. Bader is licensed as a psychologist (LP) in the states of Oklahoma (inactive) and Colorado. He currently holds the title of Certified Consultant through the Association for Applied Sport Psychology (CC-AASP), and he is a member of the United States Olympic Committee Sport Psychology Registry.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Psychology at Louisiana State University in 1998, where he was a member and president of the Rugby Football Club. Also at LSU, Bader was a member and president of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity, a member of the Golden Band from Tigerland (tenor saxophone), and a member of LSU's Student Government Association.

Bader continued his education in Louisiana earning his Master's degree in Psychology with an emphasis in psych neuroendocrinology at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. While earning his Master's degree, he discovered the field of sport psychology and chose to attend the University of North Texas, where he earned his Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology with an emphasis in Sport Psychology. He completed his pre-doctoral internship through the Oklahoma Health Consortium with a primary rotation in the OU athletics department. He stayed on at PROS in various capacities for four years following his internship.

He enjoys teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate levels and regularly attends and participates in national and international professional conferences. He is active in the American Psychological Association (APA) and the Association for Applied Sport Psychology (AASP), including recently being named the Communication Coordinator for Division 47 of APA. His professional interests include diversity and inclusion, leadership development, athletic administration, men's issues and student-athlete development and transition.

He was born Sept. 15, 1976 in Charlotte, N.C., and graduated from Christian Brothers High School in Memphis, Tenn., where he was a member of concert band (saxophone). His hobbies include watching sports (in particular college football), and recently has taken up hiking in Colorado's high country. He is married to the former LaTisha Braddock, and the couple has a daughter, Adella (2).

TYLER BALTIERRAS
Director of Football Equipment

Tyler Baltierras is in his sixth year as a member of the University of Colorado equipment staff, his fifth as a full-time employee as he was hired on April 8, 2013. He was promoted to the director of football equipment on July 1, 2016 after working three years as the top assistant under director J.T. Galloway.

Baltierras, 29, joined the department as an intern in the equipment office in the summer of 2012, initially working with just the football program. Once hired full-time, his duties expanded; he still worked with football, but added the spirit squads to his duties, along with managing the needs of several areas within the athletic department, including academics, alumni, marketing, the Buff Club and Buffalo Sports Properties.

A 2012 graduate of the Metro State University in Denver, where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Health Professions, with an emphasis on Recreation Management. While a student at Metro, he worked as a student equipment manager for the Buffaloes, starting as a sophomore and doing so through his senior year.

He was born November 11, 1987 in Boulder, and graduated from Monarch High School (Louisville, Colo.), where he earned two letters playing baseball (outfield). His hobbies include golfing, working out and collecting sneakers (he has over 60 pair).

JOSI CARLSON
Director of Special Events

Josi Carlson is in her 11th year overall working for CU athletics, her fifth as the school's director of special events as she was promoted to the position in September 2013. She is responsible for coordinating all special events for athletics, including team banquets and fan/donor luncheons, as well as managing events that are hosted in CU's Touchdown Club, Champions Club, Byron R. White Club and Rooftop Lounge.

Carlson, 35, has worked in special events for the athletic department since April 2011, helping to organize over 100 events a year as the top assistant. Prior to that, she spent two years as the director of operations for Olympic sports, overseeing the needs for the volleyball, soccer, men and women's golf and women's tennis programs. She originally joined the department as an assistant in the compliance office in June 2007 and worked two years in that position before shifting into her operations role.

Carlson graduated with her bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Montana in 2005. Prior to receiving her degree, Carlson earned her Associate of Arts degree in 2002 from Dawson Community College in Glendive, Mont., where she was a two-time softball letterwinner.

At Dawson, Carlson excelled on the field and in the classroom; she was a 2001 and 2002 Golden Glove recipient and a Louisville Slugger third team NJCAA All-American in 2002 (first base). In the classroom, she was named a 2001-02 distinguished Academic All-American and a 2001-02 scholar-athlete All-American.

Prior to her work at CU, Carlson served as a Public Information Coordinator for the Ivy League conference office in Princeton, N.J., and was an intern in the communications department for USA Wrestling at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs.

Born March 9, 1982 in Minneapolis, Minn., she graduated from Sentinel High School in Missoula, Mont., where she lettered in basketball, softball and volleyball. Her hobbies include golf, hiking and snowboarding.

JASON CLAY
Associate SID

Jason Clay was named associate sports information director on September 1, 2016, returning to his alma mater 10 years after graduating. Clay, 33, works primarily with the Buffalo football and skiing programs. A 2006 CU graduate with a bachelor's degree in Economics, he came back to Colorado after gaining 10 years of experience in the sports information, marketing, fan engagement and video service fields.

He previously worked five years (2011-16) at Fresno State, where the last two years of his time in California's central valley, he served as an assistant athletic director for external communications. In his role, he oversaw the external relations office that was charged with promoting and enhancing athletics through the avenues of communications, marketing and video services and was a member of Fresno State's senior staff management team.

On the communications side, Clay was the primary media contact for the Bulldog football team, and in 2013, his department was awarded the Super 11 award from the Football Writers Association of America, an honor given to the top sports information departments for outstanding achievements and media services.

Also that season, Clay spearheaded the Heisman Trophy campaign for quarterback Derek Carr, the two-time Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year (he finished eighth in the Heisman voting). He was also selected as a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete and became just the third Bulldog in school history to be honored as such. Carr was also one of two Academic All-Americans Clay successfully promoted, doubling the number in the school's first 89 seasons of program history.

He also worked closely with safety Phillip Thomas, who in 2012 became Fresno State's first-ever unanimous All-American and was one of three finalists for the Jim Thorpe Award. Thomas was one of eight All-Americans Clay promoted in his time at Fresno State.

Prior to Fresno State, he spent the better part of three years (2009-11) as an associate sports information director at Southern Illinois University. In 2009, he ran the Walter Payton Award campaign for running back Deji Karim, who finished third in the voting for the FCS Player of the Year award. SIU entered the playoffs as the No. 1 ranked team in the country that season. Clay also served as the SID for the Saluki baseball team.

He got his start in college athletics in 2006 right out of college as a media relations intern at New Mexico State University. After the one-year internship at NMSU, he was hired on full-time as an assistant director of media relations. In his time in Las Cruces, Clay worked directly with the Aggie football, women's basketball, softball and tennis programs.

He was born March 9, 1984 in Boulder, growing up in nearby Louisville, graduating from Monarch High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track and field. His hobbies include cooking, exercising, traveling and getting outdoors; he is also a fourth generation CU graduate in his family. He is engaged to Candace Loftin and they will marry next January.

JOHN GRAVES
Ralphie Program Manager

John Graves is in his third year as the Ralphie Live Mascot Program Manager, having assumed the position in July 2015. He was promoted from the assistant director position which he had held since April 2010.

Graves, 30, is more than familiar with the program, as he served as a Ralphie Handler for his sophomore through senior years (2007-09); he won the Handlers' "Rookie of the Year" Award in 2007.

He holds Humane Handling certifications for both cattle and horses, as well as a Humane Livestock Transportation certification. He also has been working with the National Bison Association to develop similar standards for buffalo (bison). He also holds an ISSA Strength and Conditioning Certification - Level 2, is a USA Weightlifting Sports Performance Coach - Level 1, and is certified in First Aid, AED and CPR. Graves also does extensive work with both the National Bison Association and the Rocky Mountain Buffalo Association.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Science in Business Administration from CU in December 2009, and his master's in Agriculture from Colorado State University in May 2016.

He was born January 6, 1987 in Salisbury, Md., and graduated from Aurora (Colo.) Grandview High School where he lettered in football, hockey and lacrosse. His hobbies include camping, mountain hiking and running. He is married to the former Jennifer Gray, who also works at the university as the financial aid communications coordinator.

GREG HUTCHINS
Assistant Equipment Manager

Greg Hutchins is in his first year as the assistant equipment manager for football, returning to his alma mater as a full-time employee on July 19, 2017.

Hutchins, 23, worked as undergraduate for three-plus years in CU's equipment office under both J.T. Galloway and Tyler Baltierras beginning in January 2013. After graduating with a bachelor's degree in Business (Operations Management) in May 2016, he worked as a season equipment intern with the National Football League's Seattle Seahawks. There, he was reunited with former Buff wide receiver Paul Richardson as the Seahawks won the NFC West Division and won the wildcard game.

He was born September 10, 1993 in Colorado Springs, and graduated from Berthoud (Colo.) High School where he earned 11 letters in three sports: football, basketball and track. His hobbies include golfing, hiking and playing basketball, in addition to calling himself a "forever learner." Growing up, he lived three years in northern England, and he is fluent in Italian.

MEDFORD MOORER
Academic Coordinator

Medford Moorer is in his seventh year as an academic coordinator in the Herbst Academic Center, having joined the athletic department staff on August 1, 2011 from across campus, where he had been working in administration as the graduate coordinator in the Civil Engineering department for the previous five years. His main sport responsibilities are with the football (offensive players and specialists) and the women's tennis teams.

Prior to returning to his alma mater in 2006, Moorer, 36, worked one year at Texas A&M as an assistant in academics. That followed two years as a teacher for a charter school in metro Denver, his first full-time position after he completed his college football career for the Buffaloes.

He graduated from CU with a degree in Sociology in August 2003. As a junior, he was the recipient of the Clancy A. Herbst Student-Athlete Achievement Award, presented to the Buff who overcame personal, academic and/or emotional difficulties to succeed academically while participating in athletics.

He was a four-year letterman in football at Colorado, leading the team in tackles with 111 his senior year in 2003, when he earned second-team All-Big 12 Conference honors from the league coaches. He won three postseason team awards that year, the Hang Tough Award (overcoming the most adversity); the Dave Jones Award (outstanding defensive player); and the Buffalo Heart Award (selected by "the fans behind the bench"). In the postseason, he played in the Hula Bowl. As a sophomore, he had a big play in CU's 39-37 win over Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, returning an interception 64 yards for a touchdown that gave CU a 29-10 lead late in the first half. His 256 career tackles are still the 27th most in school history.

He was born November 28, 1980 in Los Angeles, and graduated from the city's Locke High School, where was an All-City and All-League performer in football and also lettered in basketball and track. He is married to the former Mandy (Ament), and the couple has two children, son Marshall (6) and daughter Malia Ann (4).

KEVIN PROCHASKA
Associate Director/Compliance

Kevin Prochaska is in his sixth year as the associate director of compliance with the University of Colorado Athletic Department. In his duties he is responsible for the compliance needs of football as well as assisting with all other sports.

Prior to arriving at Colorado, he spent two years (2010-12) as the director of compliance and CHAMPS life skills at Miami (Ohio) University. Prochaska was also an adjunct professor at Miami, teaching a course for freshmen student-athletes.

Prochaska, 38 earned his bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin at Platteville in 2003. He earned his J.D. degree (juris doctor) from Marquette University Law School in 2009. While at Marquette, he served as a compliance intern in the athletic department for the 2008-09 school year, and served in a similar role at Northern Illinois University in 2009 before graduating. He accepted a position as a compliance coordinator at Ohio State University for the 2009-10 academic year.

He was born May 18, 1979 in Prairie du Chien, Wis., and graduated from Prairie du Chien High School where he lettered in football and golf. His hobbies include attending sporting events and concerts as well as traveling and playing golf. Prochaska and his wife, Jessica, are the parents of a daughter, Avery (2).

RACHEL RIPKEN
Community Outreach Manager

Rachel Ripken is in her 10th year as a member of CU athletic department, dating back to when she was a freshman in school in 2008 and earning her way into several promotions since. Most recently, she was promoted to Community Outreach Manager on July 1, 2016.

In her current role, she manages all of the athletic department's community outreach initiatives and popular programming such as Read with the Buffs, Chip's Kids Club and Ralphie's Kids Roundup. She also coordinates coach and student-athlete appearances and Leadership Through Service opportunities in the community. She also manages the Ralphie live mascot program and oversees CU's spirit groups, which include cheer, dance and the costumed mascot, Chip.

Ripken, 27, has spent her entire professional career with the Buffaloes, as she was appointed as a marketing and promotions associate following her graduation from CU in 2012. Shortly thereafter, she was hired full-time as a community outreach coordinator.

She graduated from the University of Colorado in 2012, with a double major in History and Communication while earning a minor in Dance. She worked as a student assistant for four years in the men's basketball office under head coaches Jeff Bzdelik and Tad Boyle while earning her degree.

She was born November 22, 1989 in Baltimore, Md., and graduated from St. Paul's High School in Brooklandville, Md., where she was a member of the school's dance company. Her hobbies include skiing, hiking, traveling and going to sporting events. Her family has famous baseball lineage, most notably her father, Cal Ripken Jr., the Baseball Hall of Fame infielder who played 21 seasons in the majors, all with the Baltimore Orioles (and set the record for most consecutive games played with 2,632). An uncle, Billy Ripken, also played in the majors for 12 seasons, and a grandfather, the late Cal Ripken Sr., was a player, coach and manager in the Orioles organization for 36 years. A younger brother, Ryan, is currently in the Orioles' minor league farm system.

 ADMINISTRATION

CEAL BARRY
Senior Associate AD/
Internal Operations/SWA

Ceal Barry is in her fifth year as the senior associate athletic director for internal operations at the University of Colorado, as she assumed that role under new athletic director Rick George in the spring of 2014. She is in her 12th year as the department's senior woman's administrator (commonly known as SWA).

Barry, CU's legendary women's basketball coach, served as interim athletic director for a little over two months prior to George being named to the position, assuming that role on June 3, 2013.

In her 35th year overall at CU, Barry's duties included the oversight of men's and women's basketball, soccer and volleyball. She also supervises several Student Services arms of the department including sports medicine, strength & conditioning, academics and student wellness.

Barry, 61, began the administrative chapter of her illustrious career as the associate athletic director for student services on April 1, 2005, just one month after completing a storied 22-year coaching career (1983-05). Barry retired having coached the most games, matches or tournaments (669) and the sixth most seasons of any sport in Colorado athletic history. Her 427 victories are also the most by any coach at the school.

Despite leaving the coaching ranks, Barry remains active and dedicated to the sport she has devoted so much time too. She served as chair of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Issues Committee for the 2010-11 season. In April 2010, she served as the chair of the search committee that brought back former Buffalo Linda Lappe to lead the CU women's basketball team.

Barry took over a regionally successful program from one of her would-be mentors, the late Russell "Sox" Walseth, as former athletic director Eddie Crowder hired her as the fifth head coach in CU women's basketball history on April 12, 1983. But her charge was to lead the then-Lady Buffs into the Big Eight Conference, which officially started league play her rookie season as coach and was considered the next level from the old Intermountain Conference in which CU had competed in since the sport attained varsity status in 1974.

Barry's pedigree, a four-year letterwinner at Kentucky and an 83-42 record in four seasons as head coach at Cincinnati convinced Crowder that she was the right woman for the job. Twenty-two years and four U.S. presidents later, a 427-242 record, 12 NCAA tournament appearances, including six times in the Sweet 16 and three times in the Elite Eight, 13 20-win seasons, four conference championships and assorted coach of the year honors for five different seasons has proved she was more than just the right person, she is a legend.

She became just the 24th coach in women's NCAA history to reach 500 career wins-hitting the plateau in February 2004-and her all-time record of 510-284 and .642 winning percentage remain among the all-time best. Her teams posted a 191-134 record in conference play, as 13 of her teams finished first, second or third in the league standings for the regular season. Off the court, Barry has graduated all but two four-year players (well over a 95% graduation rate) and has coached 85 Academic All-Conference student-athletes.

Prior to the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, Barry was the Big Eight Coach of the Year four times (1989, '93, '94, '95) and the District V Coach of the Year in 1993 and '95. The 1995 squad posted a school record 30 wins and came within a whisper of advancing to the Final Four. She led her teams to four regular season Big Eight titles and five postseason tournament titles, the last in the inaugural Big 12 Tournament in 1997.

When the 1997 tournament title placed Barry's name in the inaugural Big 12 record book it was a fitting transition for a coach whose name will forever be etched into the history of the Big Eight. In her 13 seasons she was 184-96 when leading the Buffs against Big Eight foes. Barry won more regular-season games (118), league titles (4), tournament titles (4), coach of the year honors (4) and coached more newcomers of the year (4) than any other league coach, while tying for the most NCAA tournament appearances with seven.

Barry's Buffs had three wins over then-defending national champions with the most shocking coming in 1993 in Colorado's first-ever Sweet 16 appearance, an 80-67 win over Stanford in the NCAA West Regional semifinal in Missoula, Mont.

Following her second consecutive Big Eight title in 1994, the United States Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Times Magazine named Barry National Coach of the Year. On the local level, she was inducted into the Colorado Sportswomen Hall of Fame the same year. Twice, Barry has had her name on the finalist list for the Naismith Award for Coaching, those honors coming in the last three seasons.

While those awards signified her on the court successes, Barry's favorite accolade in her decorated career came in 2003 when she was presented with the CU Alumni Association's Robert Stearns Award in recognition of one's extraordinary contributions to the university. Making the award even more special, she was nominated by that season's senior captains Linda Lappe, Sabrina Scott and Diana Spencer.

Her dedication to the student-athlete was also put on center stage in 1995 when she was presented with one of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's highest honors, the Carol Eckman Award. That honor is presented to a coach who exemplifies sportsmanship, commitment to the student-athlete, integrity, ethical behavior and dedication to the purpose. The award was made more special when presented to Barry by her friend and colleague, Carol Callan, also the color commentator on CU radio broadcasts.

Barry's impressive resume has also given her the chance to see the world, coaching the likes of the R. Williams Jones Cup Team, which toured Taiwan in 1988, to coaching the Big 12 All-Stars on a tour of Europe following the 2001 season. While her coaching travels have taken her abroad, the highlight was her stint as an assistant coach for the 1996 United States Olympic Basketball team that won the gold medal. The appointment was her seventh USA Basketball nod since 1987 as she worked with Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer in coaching the red, white and blue to victory.

She was head coach of the 2004 U.S. Junior World Championships Qualifying Team, which went undefeated en route to the gold medal.

Only Frank Potts (track, 41 seasons), Les Fowler (golf, 29), Mark Simpson (golf, 29), Richard Rokos (skiing, 25) Frank Prentup (baseball, 24) and Dick Gray (tennis, 23) and have logged more seasons as a head coach than Barry at Colorado.

Barry was inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2006 and the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame in 2010. In January 2011, she became the third recipient of the University of Kentucky's Susan B. Feamster Trailblazer Award. Barry, who earned her bachelor's degree in accounting from UK in 1977, was part of the school's first class of women's basketball players to receive an athletic scholarship, lettering four times under coaches Feamster and Debbie Yow.

She was born April 1, 1955 in Louisville, Ky., and graduated from Assumption High School in Louisville, where she lettered in basketball, volleyball and field hockey. She followed her bachelor's degree from Kentucky with her master's in education from Cincinnati in 1979. At Kentucky, she also lettered three times in field hockey in addition to her accomplishments as a basketball player.

MATT BIGGERS
Associate AD/Chief Marketing Officer

Matt Biggers is in his sixth year as the associate athletic director of external affairs and chief marketing officer, having joined the University of Colorado athletic staff on July 5, 2012. He is also the sports administrator for CU's women's volleyball program.

Biggers, 45, came to Colorado after spending a combined 18 years with two teams in the National Basketball Association.

At Colorado, he oversees marketing and promotions, ticket operations and all digital assets including CUbuffs.com. He also collaborates in the staging of special events, coordinating efforts with Buffalo Sports Properties (BSP), BuffVision, community outreach, the sports information department and the Buff Club.

Prior to coming to CU, he was the senior vice president of marketing and communications for the New Orleans Hornets. He was hired by the Hornets in 2007 as the vice president of marketing and communications, before being promoted the following year. Biggers oversaw the organization's marketing, advertising, branding, creative services, events, game operations, media relations and broadcasting.

Biggers' most demanding professional challenge undoubtedly came in "The Big Easy." In his first year in New Orleans, the Hornets set a club record for their time in New Orleans for most sellouts in a season (2007-08), and then broke that record the following season. But reaching and surpassing those marks was not easy.

When the Hornets returned to New Orleans after a two-year displacement to Oklahoma City following Hurricane Katrina, the season ticket base was fewer than 5,000. Biggers spearheaded drives that took season ticket sales to over 10,000 in 2008-09 - the largest increase in the NBA. He received the Hornets' "Coach of The Year" award in 2009, an acknowledgement from the team's senior executive peers given to the organizational leader who best exemplifies his/her team's mission and values.

Also under trying circumstances, the Hornets were challenged to reach the 10,000 season ticket mark again in the 2011-12 campaign. The NBA was dealing with a work stoppage and the New Orleans franchise was seeking to secure local ownership, a long-term lease agreement with the state and was facing the imminent departure of star point guard Chris Paul to the Los Angeles Clippers. Instrumental in that drive was the campaign "I'm In." The campaign included a "100 Events In 100 Days" initiative and proved to be a surprising success in the community, with the Hornets accomplishing the improbable and reaching their 10,000 season ticket goal.

Biggers' first NBA experience came with the Orlando Magic and RDV Sports, where he spent 12 years and left as the director of marketing for the Magic. His responsibilities with the Magic included overseeing all of the marketing, advertising, branding, game presentation and events. While in Orlando, he also worked as an operations/marketing assistant for the Orlando Predators (Arena Football) and served on the boards of the Florida Children's Hospital and the Heart of Florida United Way Promotions Committee.

He earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration Management from Appalachian State University in May 1994 and a Master of Science in Sport Management from Georgia Southern University in December 1995.

His previous work in collegiate athletics includes serving as a student assistant coach for the Appalachian State baseball team and as vice president of that school's men's club volleyball team. He also volunteered in sports media relations at Georgia Southern and worked as an event assistant for the Florida Citrus Bowl.

He was born on November 9, 1971 in Columbus, Ohio but moved to Florida at age 3 with his family; he graduated from Seabreeze High School (Daytona Beach), where he lettered in football and baseball. He is married to the former Robyn Winokur, and the couple has two daughters, Peyton (14) and Avery (11).

EMILY CANOVA
Assistant AD/Special Projects

Emily Canova is in her fourth year as the assistant athletic director for special projects, as she was promoted into the position in June 2014. She played a key role in the construction of CU's new Champions Center, serving as the liaison with Populous (the architects), particularly in the area of interior design and managing the overall branding of the building.

Canova joined the department as a community outreach coordinator in September 2010. After six months in that position, she transitioned into CU's newly created student-athlete leadership development program, where she served as its assistant director until she was appointed as an assistant AD. However, during this time frame, she also helped develop CU's "Guiding Principles" and then worked with athletic director Rick George to coordinate the formulation of the department's strategic plan and Sustainable Excellence Initiative (SEI).

Prior to CU, she had an extensive background working in non-profits in Colorado, where she relocated after her college graduation.

She graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1991, where she earned her bachelor's degree in Exercise Science and Athletic Training; she was a member of the Dean's List. At UW, she earned three letters as a member of the varsity crew team. As a senior, she was the recipient of the school's Graves Award, presented by the rowing team to the student-athlete who makes the most significant contribution based on leadership, physical strength and mental fortitude.

Canova trained on the Olympic Development Team for crew in Lake Placid in the summer of 1989.

She was born in Montclair, N.J., but moved to Virginia when she was 10, where graduated from Langley High School in McLean. Her hobbies include biking, hiking, cycling, swimming and in general enjoying the "wonders of Colorado with her family." A competitive triathlete, she finished third in the 1996 Danskin Triathlon. She is the mother of two, son Baker (13) and daughter Alice (11).

J.T. GALLOWAY
Associate AD/Equipment & Licensing

J.T. Galloway is in his 13th year overall in the CU athletic department, his seventh coordinating and managing all phases of CU's licensing, logos and imaging and was thus promoted to an assistant athletic director in 2010 and to associate athletic director status in 2016.

He first joined the department on April 4, 2005 as equipment manager overseeing the needs particularly for football but for all of Colorado's 16 intercollegiate sports at the time (now 17 with the addition of women's lacrosse).

Galloway, 49, continues to oversee the equipment operations, but reduced his day-to-day obligations with the Buffalo football program as he transitioned more and more into his licensing and trademark duties. In 2016, he added sports administrator duties over the men's and women's golf programs.

He became the fourth person to hit double figures in years serving as the equipment head in CU history. Lee "Silver" Akins handled the chores for 34 years (1936-69), with Bill Crowder heading the area for 17 years and Mike Smith just under 11. Galloway is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Manager's Association (AEMA), a status he attained in 1995 upon entering the profession full-time.

He graduated with a degree in sport management in 1994 from Washington State University, where he worked all four years of his college career as a student employee in the WSU equipment room. He began his professional career as an equipment intern at the University of Virginia in the fall of 1994 and worked there six months. He then moved on to the National Football League's Atlanta Falcons, where he was an assistant equipment manager for the 1995 season.

He returned to the college ranks as the football equipment director at Wake Forest from 1996 to 1998 before heading west to Arizona where he would spend the next six seasons as the associate director of equipment.

Born May 10, 1968 in Columbus, Ohio, Galloway graduated Gaither High School in Tampa, Fla. A sports fanatic, he enjoys all sports, especially golf. He is married to the former Kelly Christy, a registered nurse, and the couple has two children, Katie (18) and Collin (15). J.T. stands for John Thomas.

CORY HILLIARD
Associate AD/Business Operations & CFO

Cory Hilliard is in his 10th year with athletic department at the University of Colorado, his eighth as the associate athletic director for business operations as he joined the department in March 2008. On July 1, 2016, the chief financial officer (CFO) responsibilities were added to his title and duties. He is also the sports administrator for CU's cross country and track programs.

Hilliard, 45, came to CU from the University of North Dakota where he was the assistant athletic director for business operations for three years (2006-08). He earned the promotion at UND after serving five years as the assistant director for business services (2001-06).

In his position, Hilliard is responsible for the management of the administrative, financial, budget, human resources, and payroll functions for the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and its 17 sport programs. In addition to his business operations duties, Hilliard oversees the equipment, sports video and information technology support services for the Buffaloes.

Hilliard graduated from Minnesota State University-Moorhead in 1995 with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Health Education, and in 2006 earned his Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of North Dakota. Hilliard also attended the University of Wyoming from 1990-92 where he was a member of the track team, participating in the hurdles and relay events. While at MSU-Moorhead from 1993-95, he also lettered in the sport.

He was born August 2, 1972 in Rochester, Minn., he graduated from Manitou Springs High School (Colo.) in 1990, where he lettered in football and was an outstanding track and field athlete. He ran the 110- and 300-meter hurdles and was a member of the 4x200 and 4x400-meter relay teams that won multiple state titles in addition to the boys team championship in 1990. At one time (during the 1989 season), he held the Colorado state high school record in the 300-meter hurdle and is a former high school national champion in the 60-meter hurdles and 400-meter hurdles.

Hilliard is married to the former Abby Barendt, and the couple has two sons, Zach (21), a sophomore safety on the Missouri Baptist football team, and Jacob (15). He is actively involved in the College Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA) as well as a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

PREMA KHANNA
Assistant AD/Marketing

Prema Khanna is in her 14th year as CU's director of marketing, as she was promoted to the position July 7, 2004, and in her fourth as an assistant athletic director, earning that promotion in the summer of 2013.

She is in her 16th year overall the department, having worked two years as promotions manager for the Buffaloes after joining the staff in August 2002. She is responsible for coordinating marketing efforts for football, basketball and volleyball ticket sales, as well as promotions both on and-off the fields and courts, including game day atmosphere.

Khanna, 46, came to Colorado from Texas Tech, where she worked two years as the director of marketing and promotions. She got her start at Missouri, her alma mater, as a graduate assistant in 1995, and was hired full-time the following year as marketing and promotions coordinator. In 1997, she was promoted to assistant director of marketing and held that position for the next three years before moving on to Texas Tech in 2000.

She graduated from the University of Missouri with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1995, and earned her master's degree in sports administration from MU in 1997.

Born July 29, 1971 in Haldwani, India, her family moved to Cleveland, Ohio, when she was a toddler, and then to Toronto, Ontario in second grade. She lived in Canada until she was 13, when her family established residency in Columbia, Mo. She graduated from Rock Bridge High School, where she lettered in tennis.

LINDSAY LEW
Assistant AD/Digital Marketing

Lindsay Lew was promoted to assistant athletic director for digital and database marketing on July 1, 2016, after serving previously for nine years as the director of strategic sales and communication since 2007. She is in her 20th year overall at Colorado, in the second of two stints working for the school.

Lew, 42, is responsible for oversight of ecommerce operations and revenue management for the CU athletic department, as well as digital advertising, email marketing and business analytics.

She was an assistant sports information director for at CU for five years (1999-2004), before leaving in August 2004 for a marketing position with Webroot Software. She was promoted from graduate assistant SID on August 6, 1999 to an assistant's position after working the previous year as the GA in the media relations office and one year as a student assistant; she was the first woman at CU to hold the grad assistant role in the SID office, and is the first female student worker in sports information to become an assistant AD at the school.

Lew was the women's soccer SID her first three years as an assistant SID, before switching to women's basketball and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track for the final four years in her first tour of duty. She also served as media coordinator for two women's NCAA basketball sub-regionals and was the official statistician for the 1999 NCAA Women's Soccer College Cup in Palo Alto, Calif. In 2015 she served as the Tournament Director for the Pac-12 Women's Golf Championship in Boulder at Boulder Country Club.

Lew is a 1997 graduate of Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas, where she received her bachelor's degree in Communication. She returned to her native state in the fall of 1997 to begin graduate studies in the CU journalism school's Integrated Marketing Communication program. She received her master's degree in December 1998.

She was a soccer standout at Trinity, a nationally-ranked Division III program, earning all-conference honors all four years, as well as NSCAA All-Region honors as a sophomore. Lew also played collegiate golf for two years, helping Trinity to the 1995 conference championship. She also worked in the school's SID office her senior year.

Born July 23, 1975 in Denver, the former Lindsay Anhold graduated from Green Mountain High School in 1993, where she lettered in soccer, basketball and softball. She has remained active in soccer through the years, coaching in camps (including at one time for the Julie Foudy Championship camp), and is an avid golfer and runner. Her younger brother Eric is a Colorado grad, and her father Monty is a graduate of UC-Denver. She is married to Jason Lew and they have two sons, Jackson and Dylan.

ALEXIS WILLIAMS
Assistant AD/Ticket Operations

Alexis Williams is in her third year as the assistant athletic director for ticket operations, sales and services, having joined the department in March 2015.

Williams, 42, came to Colorado from Theatre Under The Stars in Houston, Texas, where she was the manager of ticketing and customer service for seven-and-a-half years (November 2007-March 2015).

She previously was the assistant athletic director for ticket operations at Rice University for just over four years (September 2003-November 2007). She was promoted into that position after serving three years as the Owls' assistant ticket manager. Her first position in the business came as the assistant ticket manager at SMU in 1999.

She earned two degrees from Louisiana State University. She received her bachelor's in Mathematics in 1996 and her master's in Sports Management in 1998. At LSU, she was active in the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and a manager for the women's basketball team.

She was born December 31, 1974 in Houston, Texas, and graduated from Houston's Bellaire High School, where she lettered in basketball (point guard). Her hobbies include playing golf, reading, travel and attending concerts and sporting events.

JILL KEEGAN
Assistant AD/Compliance

Jill Keegan is in her eighth year as a member of the University of Colorado athletic department, her third as the school's assistant athletic director for compliance, as she was promoted to the position on June 1, 2014. She also has sports administrator duties for CU's tennis program.

She previously was the associate director for four years, initially serving as the rules education coordinator, though her role gradually expanded through the years.

She came to Colorado in October 2010 from Michigan State University where she served as the Assistant Compliance Coordinator for four years. Prior to Michigan State, Gainey was the Assistant Director of Compliance at Marshall University where she also completed her Master's degree in Sport Administration in 2006. Gainey received her bachelor's degree in Sports Marketing and management from Indiana University in 2005 where she also served as an intern in the compliance office.

A native of Owatonna, Minn, the former Jill Gainey graduated from Angola High School in Angola, Ind., in 2001, lettering in volleyball, basketball and track and field. She currently resides in Denver with her husband Brian and enjoys attending sporting events, traveling, outdoor activities and reading. Her and her husband Brian are the parents of a son, Nolan, born this past August.

DR. ERIC MCCARTY
Director of Sports Medicine

Dr. Eric McCarty is in his 15th year working with the CU athletic program, joining the sports medicine team in July 2003. But he's certainly no stranger to the University or to Boulder.

McCarty, 52, accepted the Chief of Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery position in the Department of Orthopedics at CU's Health Sciences Center in Denver, where he also is an associate professor, enabling him to return to his home state where he starred as both a prep and collegian.

He returned to CU from Vanderbilt University, where he was an orthopedic surgeon, assistant professor and team physician for the Commodores' athletic teams for four years.

McCarty is the head team physician for both the University of Colorado and University of Denver athletic programs. As a board-certified orthopedic surgeon his specialized practice involves the care of collegiate athletes as well as recreational and highly competitive athletes from the community. A large part of his practice is the sports medicine care of high school athletes in the state of Colorado.

He graduated in 1988 from CU with a degree in kinesiology and a 3.75 grade point average. A four-time Academic All-Big Eight team member, the first in school history to be honored four times, he was an Academic All-American his senior year, when he reached the finalist stage for the Rhodes Scholarship. On the field, he earned first-team All-Big Eight honors as a senior, when he led the Buffaloes with 148 tackles, the fourth highest total at the time in team history. He had 237 career tackles in two years on defense, after moving over from offense where he played fullback (503 career rushing yards), and earned four letters.

He earned his M.D., with honors, in 1993 from the University of Colorado School of Medicine in Denver, and did his internship residency at Vanderbilt in orthopedic surgery between 1993 and 1998. Shortly thereafter, he spent a year at the internationally renowned Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City, where he received a fellowship in sports medicine and shoulder surgery. While residing in New York, he worked with the NFL's New York Giants. During this time is when he obtained his expertise in the arthroscopic and open surgical management of sports injuries to the knees and shoulders as well as a special emphasis in the management of complex shoulder problems including shoulder instability, rotator cuff tears and shoulder replacement surgery for arthritis.

In addition to his busy clinical practice, Dr. McCarty is very active in research, teaching, and writing articles in the field of sports medicine and knee and shoulder surgery. He has received grants for his research and has given numerous talks at both the national and international level. One of his many interests is the care of the high school athlete, and his background allows him the ability to understand the issues surrounding the prep athlete.

SCOTT MCMICHAEL
Assistant AD/Development

Scott McMichael is in his 11th year as an assistant athletic director of development at the University of Colorado. He works to support endowments, annual gifts, and capital projects by generating major gift revenue.

Prior to joining Colorado in 2007, McMichael spent 10 years working for the University of Kansas as the Assistant Athletic Director/Director of the Williams Educational Fund & K-Club. As Director of the Williams Fund he cultivated new contributors and stewardship of existing donors generating over $5 million annually. He also developed a Career Placement Program for student-athletes.

McMichael spent six years at Wilson Sporting Goods as a sales representative where he was responsible for new account openings, analyzing growth potential of established accounts and promotional calls on collegiate and professional teams.

McMichael graduated from Kansas with a bachelor's of science degree in education and also studied business and education in graduate school. He was a four-year letterwinner for the Jayhawks' football team where he set a school passing record as a sophomore and earned honorable mention to the All-Big 8 conference team. McMichael was a free agent signee of the Atlanta Falcons after his playing days at KU.

Born and raised in Kansas City, McMichael graduated from Shawnee Mission West High School in Overland Park, Kan. He enjoys spending time with his wife Marcia, his son Bryce, and his daughter Morgan. His hobbies include hiking, water skiing, golf, and travel.

MARY ELLEN O'MALLEY
Manager of Medical Services

Mary Ellen O'Malley is in her 10th year as the manager of medical services for the Sports Medicine Program at the University of Colorado, joining the sports medicine department in 2008.

Before joining the CU staff, she spent 13 years as the owner of HeartSong Wellness Coaching and Therapeutic Bodywork in Longmont, Colo. Nationally certified in therapeutic massage and bodywork, O'Malley's business catered to a diverse clientele in need of a variety of treatment protocols such as injury rehabilitation, sports maintenance/recovery and stress reduction.

O'Malley served as the President/Education Director of Colorado's Cortiva Institute from 2004-06, where she facilitated and managed a vocational school start-up for therapeutic massage training. She was also the vice president/faculty chair of the Boulder College of Massage Therapy from 1996-2003 as well as an instructor.

A native of Scranton, Pa., O'Malley is a 1977 graduate of the State University of New York at Buffalo where she played basketball and field hockey. She received the first financial grant for a female women's basketball player awarded by the athletic department after women's basketball became a varsity sport prior to her senior year.

After obtaining her bachelor's degree in Physical Education & Health, she served as a physical education teacher at West Seneca West Junior High School in West Seneca, N.Y.; she also coached varsity girls soccer and junior varsity girls basketball at West Seneca (Senior) High School. She then spent 12 years as a senior marketing representative/education coordinator for New York State Electric and Gas in Lancaster, N.Y., before moving to Colorado.

She is affectionately called "Clyde" by the student-athletes and staff, a nickname that dates back to her grade school days.

ERIC PELLONI
Assistant Director/BufVision

Eric Pelloni is in his 12th year as the assistant director of BufVision, although he has been involved in CU Athletics for the better part of 17 years. He was hired full-time on August 1, 2006 after working on a contractual basis since August 2001.

Pelloni, 44, assists with the video packages for CU's video display boards and has been on the BufVision game day crew for 15 seasons. Pelloni also helps coordinate streaming and technical issues between CU Athletics and Pac-12 Enterprises.

When CU overhauled its official athletic website, CUBuffs.com, in 2003, Pelloni was hired on a part-time basis to create video content and coordinate streaming live events. He has created the majority of the graphic work and assisted in the designing of the website, and has also designed several media guide covers.

Pelloni was also the associate producer of "The Buffalo Stampede" coaches show which aired weekly on FSN Rocky Mountain until ending with Colorado's transition over to the Pac-12 Networks agreement. In 2016, he won a Telly Award for his production work for the 2015 Pac-12 Conference's women's golf championship that was held at Boulder Country Club.

Prior to his full-time appointment at CU, Pelloni worked as a freelance video editor/graphic artist in the Denver area, creating video content for both broadcast and non-broadcast applications for a number of clients including Qwest Communications, Coors, XCEL Energy and the United Way of New York City.

He graduated from Metropolitan State College of Denver in 1998, majoring in Technical Communication with a minor in Speech Communication. He taught as an adjunct professor in the technical communications department at Metro State for the 2003-04 school year.

He was born November 21, 1972 in Detroit, Mich., and graduated from Broomfield (Colo.) High School, where he lettered in golf, which remains one of his favorite hobbies. He is married to the former Gabbie Perkins, who is CU's Director of Operations for Olympic Sports; the couple has a son, E.J. (Edwin James, 3) and a daughter (Sophia, 1).

ROGER PIELKE, JR.
Director/Sports Governance Center

Roger Pielke, Jr., is in his second year as the director of CU's innovative and trailblazing sports governance center, which was approved by the Boulder Campus and became operational in the spring of 2016. The center after just one-plus years of operation is already nationally acclaimed, mostly due to his efforts and guidance.

He has been on the faculty at the University of Colorado since 2001, as he is a professor in the Environmental Studies Program and a Fellow of the Cooperative Institute for Research in Environmental Sciences (CIRES). His research has long focused on science, innovation and politics. In 2011, Pielke began to write and research on the governance of sports organizations, including FIFA and the NCAA.

He holds degrees in mathematics, public policy and political science, all from the University of Colorado. In 2012 Pielke was awarded an honorary doctorate from Linköping University in Sweden and was also awarded the Public Service Award by the Geological Society of America. He also received the Eduard Brückner Prize in Munich, Germany in 2006 for outstanding achievement in interdisciplinary climate research.

Before joining the faculty of the University of Colorado, from 1993-2001 he was a Scientist at the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR), located in Boulder. He is also author, co-author or co-editor of seven books, including The Honest Broker: Making Sense of Science in Policy and Politics published by Cambridge University Press (2007) and The Climate Fix: What Scientists and Politicians Won't Tell you About Global Warming (2010, Basic Books). His most recent book is Rightful Place of Science Series, Disasters and Climate Change (2014, Consortium for Science, Policy & Outcomes). He is currently working on a book on sport in society.

DR. SOURAV PODDAR
Medical Director/Team Physician

Dr. Sourav Poddar is his 18th year working with the CU athletic program as a team physician, his 16th with the football program. On July 1, 2016, he was also named the athletic department's medical director as the Pac-12 Conference required someone from each member school to hold the designation.

Poddar, 45, is an assistant professor at the University of Colorado-Denver, and is on staff at the CU Sports Medicine Clinic as well as the University Medicine-Westminster. He also serves as the Director of the Primary Care Sports Medicine (PCSM) Program.

He is board certified in family practice, with a CAQ certificate in sports medicine. His specific areas of medical interest are sports medicine, heat illnesses and concussions. In addition to primary care, he specializes in the non-operative management of sports medicine injuries, as well as injury prevention, and novel approaches to treat overuse injuries.

He graduated from Rice University in 1993 with a degree in biochemistry, and then completed medical school at the University of Texas-Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas in 1997. At Rice, he was a member of the soccer team.

Poddar completed his residency in family practice at the UCHSC-Rose in Denver (he was chief resident during his third year in residency), and subsequently completed a fellowship in sports medicine at the University of Colorado, working with former CU team physician Rob Loeffler.

Born April 15, 1972 in Bombay, India, his family moved to the United States when he was a two-year old; he graduated from Clear Lake High School in Houston, where he lettered in soccer. He is married to the former Emily Aldeen. (His name is pronounced shuh-rav poe-dar.)

ERIN SANDERS
Alumni C Club Director

Erin Sanders is in her second year as the executive director of the Alumni C-Club, officially named to the position on April 1, 2016, returning to CU from right down the road in Denver, where she was employed in private business.

Sanders, 26, had a busy first few months in the position, as she fully updated the C-Club's Facebook page and created both Twitter and Instagram accounts to help improve communication to the membership. She also completed a four-year plan for the C-Club in CU's updated overall strategic plan.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Sanders worked as the public relations director for the Grizzly Rose in Denver and then was in sports marketing for Babolat, the world-wide leader in racquet sports.

She lettered in tennis from 2009-13, played for the Buffs in both the Big 12 and Pac-12 conferences. Sanders played in 74 singles matches (at Nos. 1 through 6, the bulk at the No. 4 position) and 70 doubles events during her CU career. She earned two degrees from CU, a Bachelor's of Science in Journalism/News Editorial and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology.

She was born August 10, 1991 in Englewood, Colo., and graduated from Ponderosa High School (Parker, Colo.), where she lettered in tennis. Her hobbies include tennis, horseback riding, running and was a soprano in her high school choir. She is engaged to be married to Kris Kreymborg this Labor Day weekend.

RON SCOTT
Director of Development

Ron Scott is in his eighth year as a director of development for the Buff Club, but has a long association with the university dating back to his time as a student-athlete. He has served in many roles with CU Athletics and the CU Foundation that has spanned over two decades in three different stints with the university.

Scott, 72, first arrived in Boulder as a member of Eddie Crowder's first freshman football class in 1963; he was recruited by another longtime CU coach, Dan Stavely. He was a three-year starter for the Buffs at middle guard on teams that went a combined 22-7-2 during his years of eligibility, and racked up 166 career tackles, including a high of 73 as a junior. A team captain as a senior in 1967, he helped lead the Buffaloes to a 9-2 record with a 31-21 victory over the Miami Hurricanes in the Bluebonnet Bowl. He graduated with a degree in Business (Marketing) in 1968.

He first returned to his alma mater after 14 years in the private sector, which included Flagstaff, Inc., a company he formed that built custom homes in the Denver Metro area, and two years as a co-owner and manager of the Boulderado Hotel. He was named the department's director of development and Buff Club director on November 1, 1982, building a staff and managed the annual fundraising effort for CU athletics. In 1988, he was promoted to an assistant athletic director and coordinated the fundraising campaign to design and build the Dal Ward Athletic Center, a $14 million, 100 percent privately funded campaign. Following the completion of the project in August 1991, he added the role of Vice President/Major Gifts and worked with a team of development officers, focused on major gifts for the university's four-campus system.

In 2001, Scott returned to the private sector and, along with his wife Ann, moved to Sheridan, Wyo., where they founded the Bison Corporation, a residential construction/development company.

In 2010 Scott returned to Boulder, when he was named director of development for athletics as well as the executive director of the Alumni C Club, CU's letterwinner organization. In 2012, he turned over his C Club responsibilities and has since focused on major gifts for athletics.

He was born June 26, 1945 in Casper, Wyo., and grew up in Billings, Mont., where he graduated from West High School; he lettered in football, basketball and track. He is married to the former Ann Miller, who holds two degrees from CU and a senior director of development with CU's College of Engineering. He is the father of two adult children, Kari Hillis (also a CU grad) and Lance Scott, and is the grandfather of six.

CURTIS SNYDER
Director of Digital Strategy

Curtis Snyder is in his 19th year as a member of the University of Colorado athletic department, his third as the director of digital strategy. He rejoined the Buffalo staff on December 1, 2008 after a five-and-a-half year absence.

He spent the previous seven-plus years (2008-15) as the associate sports information director, in addition to managing special projects and digital media. He was the secondary sports information contact for football for six seasons (2009-14) and was the primary SID for CU's renowned national championship ski program for eight years (2009-16). In August 2012, he was given the additional duties of overseeing overall strategy and execution of CUBuffs.com and social media (Facebook, Twitter, etc.).

Snyder, 42, was the championship director for the 2016 NCAA Skiing Championships that CU hosted in Steamboat Springs, and has served as the webmaster for the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association (RMISA) since 2008, a role he has continued despite transitioning completely out of sports information.

He returned to CU from Duke University, where he served as the director of Internet operations from 2003-08, managing the day-to-day operations of GoDuke.com and had various SID duties for the football and men's basketball programs. He accompanied the basketball team during the postseason, during which time the Blue Devils captured two ACC Championships and a berth in the 2004 Final Four in San Antonio. He also traveled with the women's basketball team to the 2006 Final Four in Boston.

He previously served four years as a student assistant in CU's athletic media relations office (it's then name) from 1994-98 and then five years as a full-time assistant SID and as well as the Internet managing editor from 1998-2003. As a student, Snyder worked with the volleyball and men's basketball programs and was presented with the Athletic Director's medal for service to the department.

In his first stint at CU, he worked at various times as the primary contact for the men's basketball, volleyball and men's and women's tennis programs while also being named the Internet coordinator and eventually Internet managing editor, overseeing the official website, CUBuffs.com.

He also currently serves as a back-up statistician for the NBA's Denver Nuggets and has worked with the AVP (professional beach volleyball tour). He has been an active member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and served on the technology committee for five years (2007-11).

Born Sept. 2, 1975, in Boulder, he graduated from Boulder High School in 1994, where he was a fourth-generation student and lettered three times in basketball. His grandmother graduated from CU in 1929, his grandfather was recruited to CU by Frank Potts to be a decathlete and also to play basketball and football and his father, mother and sister all attended CU. He is married to the former Kami Carmann, a four-time letterwinner and two-time captain of the women's basketball team at CU who is currently a sports anchor and reporter for Fox 31 (KDVR-TV) in Denver. The couple resides in Erie and has three children, twins Lucy and Samuel (7) and Cooper (4).

DERIC SWANSON
Executive Director of BuffVision

Deric Swanson is in his 19th year as the executive director of BuffVision, coordinating all aspects of production involving the video display boards at Folsom Field and the Coors Events Center, both recently upgraded to a near $10 million operation for both facilities combined. He is the only director the area has ever had since it was created in 1999.

Swanson, 43, is easily considered one of the best in his field and came to CU from the National Hockey League's Colorado Avalanche, where he had worked for a brief time as the manager of game entertainment and video production. He had previously worked three-plus seasons with the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club, first as a stadium camera operator, and then as video production coordinator, including the 1998 Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Coors Field.

In 2003, BuffVision won the Golden Matrix Award for "Best Overall Video Display" in the University Division at the Information Display and Entertainment Association (IDEA) conference in Atlanta.

The following year, BuffVision was awarded two distinctions, one for the 2004 Aurora Awards, a Platinum Best of Show statue for In-Game Entertainment Graphics/Design, and a Telly Award for The Buffalo Stampede, CU's coaches' show. In 2006 and 2007, BuffVision won three more Telly Awards for Swanson's production, including two for the "Ralphie on Campus" institutional spot and another for The Buffalo Stampede, and in 2013 earned another Telly for a production involving CU's men's basketball team and the Navy Seals.

He is a 1996 graduate of Colorado State University, earning his bachelor's degree in technical journalism and broadcasting. He graduated Magna Cum Laude and was recognized as CSU's outstanding graduate in journalism.

He was born May 24, 1974 in Oakland, Calif., and attended two high schools. His father was stationed in the Azores, Portugal, and he spent two years at Lajes High School, where he lettered in football, soccer, volleyball and basketball. After moving to Colorado, he graduated from Liberty High School in Colorado Springs, where he lettered in football. He played volleyball on CSU's club team for three years. His hobbies include hiking and biking; he has now competed in 15 IronMan events (through August 2017), including a personal best of 11 hours and 29 minutes in Tempe, Ariz., in 2009.

He is the father of two sons, Gavin (9) and Dane (6).

#— at Levi's Stadium, Santa Clara, Calif.

All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Pacific-12 Conference game. Television selections Sept. 23 and beyond are made on 12 days' notice by the Pac-12 television partners (ESPN/ABC, FOX/FOX Sports 1, Pac-12 Networks); ESPN/ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. With the advent of the Pac-12 Networks (National; Arizona, Bay Area, Mountain, Oregon, Southern California, Washington), all conference games and all home non-league games will again be televised in 2017 (78 in all). ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Pac-12, American Athletic, ACC, Big 10 or Big 12 conferences).

LETTERMAN PICTURE

Colorado has 49 lettermen returning for 2017 (47 from the 2016 team, with two others from past years); they break down into 24 on offense, 21 on defense and 4 specialists; the Buffs lose 36 lettermen off the 2016 squad (19 offense/16 defense/1 specialist). CU returns 12 starters from last season (9 offense/3 defense), losing 12 (4 offense/8 defense); two players started seven games each at right tackle and one player started 10 times as the fourth wide receiver, so the offensive starter count last year is based off 13 players. The 2016 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams; #—lettered but injured early in the 2016 season and has been submitted for medical hardships. ## SHAY FIELDS, WR

5-11, 185, Sr., 3L

Bellflower, Calif.
(St. John Bosco)

AT COLORADO: Career—On CU's all-time receiving charts, he ranks sixth in receptions (144), ninth in touchdown receptions (17) and 10th in yards (1,929); he has caught two or more TD passes in three career games ... A true deep threat, he has nine career plays of 50 yards or longer (seven of which are over 60 yards) ... His 33 career starts are the most of any player on the team and he leads all Pac-12 returning players in career receiving yards.

This Season (Sr.)—He was named to the Biletnikoff Award (top receiver) preseason watch list (one of 45 players on official list) ... Lindy's College Football ranked him as the 15th best wide receiver in the nation while Phil Steele's College Football ranked him at No. 41 ... Athlon Sports selected him as a preseason first-team All-Pac-12 performer while Lindy's College Football, Phil Steele's College Football and collegefootballnews.com named him a preseason second-team performer.

2016 (Jr.)—He started all 13 games and the Alamo Bowl, garnering honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors from the league coaches (he was a third-team All-Pac-12 selection by Phil Steele's College Football and was a second-team All-Colorado team pick by the NFF College Football Hall of Fame Colorado Chapter) ... Led Colorado in receiving yards with 845 and was second in receptions with 52, with his nine touchdowns the fourth-most in CU single-season history ... Ranked fourth in the Pac-12 in receiving yards and tied for fifth in TD receptions ... His four receptions of over 50 yards on the year ranked in a tie for No. 16 for the most by any FBS player ... Recorded two 100-yard receiving games ... Had a season/career-high of 169 yards on seven catches with three TDs in a win over Oregon State ... All three of his touchdown receptions against the Beavers came in the first half, setting a new CU record for TD catches in a half while tying the school record for most in a game ... He was named the NFF/Colorado Chapter State of Colorado Player of the Week for his performance against the Beavers ... He also had two TD catches in the win at Arizona, when he went for 108 yards receiving on six catches ... Opened the season with a three-catch, 79-yard performance against Colorado State that included a 60-yard reception ... At No. 4 Michigan he caught four passes for 99 yards and a touchdown, which was 70-yard scoring play (the second-longest play of the season for the Buffs) and gave CU a 28-24 lead in the third quarter ... He caught a TD pass for the second consecutive game in week four at Oregon when he finished with five receptions for 35 yards ... His sixth TD reception of the season was CU's only touchdown in a 10-5 win at Stanford ... Posted four catches for 51 yards and the one 15-yard TD in the first quarter against the Cardinal ... In the regular season finale against No. 21 Utah, he caught seven passes for 78 yards, including a six-yard touchdown catch to end the third quarter that gave the Buffaloes a lead they would not surrender in a 27-22 win to clinch the Pac-12 South Division title ... He earned 31 first downs on the year (30 receiving, one rushing) and did much if his damage on first down, catching 19 passes for 420 yards (22.1 per).

2015 (Soph.)—He played in 12 games (10 starts, missing one to an injury) and finished second on the team in receptions (42) and receiving yards (598) while tying for the team lead in touchdowns (4) ... He had the long play of the year when he caught a 72-yard TD pass from Sefo Liufau against Arizona, and overall, 19 of his catches went for 10 or more yards and seven for 20 yards or longer ... He earned 23 first downs (22 receiving, one rushing, the latter on his long run of his career, a 17-yard dash against Colorado State) ... He was just starting to get on a roll with back-to-back 100-yard games when he suffered a high ankle sprain late against Arizona; he had five catches for 103 yards at Arizona State and then made eight grabs for 168 yards and two touchdowns against UA (the TDs covered 72 and 30 yards, and he suffered the injury when tackled in the end zone on the latter) ... He missed the next game at Oregon State and returned at UCLA, but just wasn't the same after the sprain: he had just 10 receptions for 94 yards the last five games of the year ... He did his most damage on third downs, when he caught 10 passes for 167 yards, seven earning first downs ... He had two rushes on the year for 17 yards, and returned two punts for a yard.

2014 (Fr.)—He worked his way into the lineup from the get-go, playing in all 12 games including 10 starts; in fact, he became just the fifth true freshman to start a season opener on offense at Colorado, and only the second to do so at receiver ... In earning the CU's Freshman Male Athlete of the Year Award (all sports) and the team's Lee Willard Award as the outstanding freshman on offense, he set five fresh records, most notably the record for season receptions with 50; he gained 486 yards and scored four touchdowns in averaging 9.7 yards per catch ... He also tied the CU record for the most receptions in a first game of a career (eight versus Colorado State) as well as in the first two games (14); his 21 catches over his first three games did set the school mark ... He had 46 yards against CSU, also a first game freshman high, and his 75-yard reception from Sefo Liufau for a touchdown to open the Arizona game was the second longest catch by a freshman in CU history (and also was the quickest-ever score by CU in a game: only 11 seconds in) ... Top games came against Arizona (five catches for 94 yards, one touchdown), Massachusetts (6-93, 1 TD), Utah (4-69) and Oregon State (4-44); his other touchdowns came against Arizona State and USC ... AT COLORADO: 2016 (Soph.)—He played in 12 games, eight on defense (no starts) and in the Alamo Bowl ... Recorded 10 tackles on the season, five third down stops and one pass breakup .. Was named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week for his performance in the win over No. 20 Washington State ... In that game he subbed in for the ejected Afolabi Laguda (targeting) and the injured Ryan Moeller, but stepped right in and made six tackles (all solo), with three third down stops, a fourth down stop and one pass breakup; the fourth down stop was a key play in the game, coming at CU's 15-yard line when Washington State was driving trying to take the lead (trailing 28-24 with 13:17 left in the game) ... After only playing 39 snaps previously on the season, he played 67 versus WSU ... Helped contribute to the defense holding Cougar quarterback Luke Falk to 26-of-53 passing, or 49.1 percent (Falk entered the game leading the nation in completion percentage at .739) ... Recorded seven special teams points during the fall, coming from two solo tackles, one assisted tackle (inside the 20-yard line), one knockdown or springing block on a kick return, was credited with being the first down field once on a kickoff or punt that altered the return path and had one stuffed fake punt.

2015 (Fr.)—He played in all 13 games, seven on defense (including one start at the nickel spot against Oregon), and was in all on special teams ... He was in for 66 snaps from scrimmage and recorded a solo tackle, but on special teams, he earned 10 points on the strength of three assisted tackles (two inside-the-20), three knockdown blocks and two first downfield credits that altered opponent returns.

HIGH SCHOOL—He was an honorable mention All-State performer as a junior, when he also garnered first-team All-CIF and All-Southwestern League honors; he was a second-team All-League selection for his sophomore seasons (he unfortunately wasn't afforded any postseason honors due to missing the better part of five games with a knee injury) ... A three-year starter at cornerback, he had 10 interceptions and 37 pass deflections in his career; he was a two-year starting running back, rushing for 2,191 career yards ... He still posted some decent numbers despite missing 40 percent of his senior season: he had 44 tackles (34 solo, one for a loss), with four interceptions, nine pass deflections and a fumble recovery; on offense, he had 100 rushes for 791 yards and 12 touchdowns, averaging 7.9 yards per attempt in rushing for over 100 yards on four occasions (200-plus twice) ... As a junior, he was in on 40 tackles (35 solo, one for a loss), with three interceptions, 18 passes broken up and a forced fumble; he ran for 1,266 yards and 18 TDs on offense (152 attempts), with five 100-yard games (two over 200); he also caught five passes for 61 yards ... He punted on four occasions, with a long of 43 and one placed inside-the-20 ... Racked up 43 tackles as a sophomore (34 solo), with four interceptions and 10 PBU's ... Top games as a senior: in a 38-21 win over Carlsbad, he rushed 17 times for 257 yards and three TDs, with two passes broken up on defense; in a 55-37 win over Chino Hills, he recorded a career-high 12 tackles with an interception; and in his first game back from his knee injury, a 49-23 win over Murietta Valley, he was asked to play free safety for the first time in his life, and he responded with three interceptions and two solo tackles ... As a junior, in a 40-13 win over Heritage, he rushed for 295 yards and three scores, and in a 28-27 triumph over Murietta Valley, he had nine tackles (eight solo), two pass deflections and an interception, with 116 yards and three TDs rushing ... Under coach Robbie Robinson, Great Oak was 10-3 his senior season (city champions, CIF semifinalists), 6-5 his junior year and 5-6 his sophomore campaign ... He also lettered three times in track and field (sprints and relays); he owned career bests of 10.89 in the 100-meter dash, 23-6 in the long jump and 47-9 in the triple jump, the latter two Great Oak school records.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in Strategic Communications at Colorado ... Earned honorable mention Academic All-Colorado honors from the state's NFF chapter as a true freshman ... He owned a 3.2 grade point average in high school.

PERSONAL—He was born May 23, 1997 in Wildomar, Calif. ... Hobbies include bowling; his career-best game is a 215 (which he rolled with a "house-ball"), and in his free time, he enjoys going to the gym at least four days a week to keep in shape ... He first played football when he was four years old, as he was on Pop Warner teams until he entered high school ... He was also an accomplished baseball player in his youth (pitcher, outfielder): a two-time Little League All-Star, he was nicknamed the "Man-Child" for his stature and hitting prowess (a consistent home run hitter, he lived the dream of many: a grand slam home run with two outs in the last inning to win a game) ... He is active in the community through his church, including serving meals to underprivileged community members on weekends, and participating in the yearly Backpack Outreach serving 500 children with backpacks full of essential supplies.

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—He was named captain with five other teammates ... After spring drills, he was one of two recipients of the Eddie Crowder Award for outstanding leadership as presented by the coaching staff ... Phil Steele's College Football ranked him as the No. 33 top inside linebacker in the country.

2016 (Soph.)—He started all 13 games plus the Alamo Bowl at the "mike" inside linebacker position ... Ranked third on the team with 79 tackles on the season (42 solo, three for losses), had eight third-down stops, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and four pass breakups ... Played in 499 snaps on the season ... He matched his career-high with 12 tackles at No. 4 Michigan when he also posted one tackle for a loss and one third down stop ... Racked up 12 tackles for a second-straight game in the road win at Oregon (with two third down stops) ... Against Oregon State, he made the first interception of his career near the end of the first half and he returned it 20 yards for a touchdown, making him the 16th Buffalo since 1992 to return his first career pick for a score ... His seven tackle performance in a win at Stanford helped limit the Cardinal to just 263 total yards in the game ... He recovered a fumble at Arizona which extended CU's streak of consecutive games forcing a turnover to 23 straight at the time ... In the regular season finale against No. 21 Utah, he forced a fumble that fellow linebacker Kenneth Olugbode was able to recover and return 10 yards for a touchdown to seal CU's victory and clinch the Pac-12 South Division title ... Phil Steele's College Football selected him as a preseason third-team All-Pac-12 performer.

2015 (Fr.-RS)—He played in all 13 games, starting 11 (the last 11 of the season after he replaced the injured Addison Gillam at the mike inside linebacker position) ... He recorded a team-high 96 tackles (58 solo), and in the process earned the team's Lee Willard Award as CU's most outstanding freshman ... The 96 tackles also set a school record for the most by a redshirt freshman, as he topped the previous mark of 85 set by Matt Russell in 1993, and he also became just the second frosh to lead the Buffs in tackles (joining Gillam, who had 119 as a true freshman in 2013) ... He had six tackles for zero gains, six third down stops, three quarterback hurries, three passes broken up, two touchdown saves, a tackle for loss, a quarterback sack and a caused interception as he did a little of everything ... Had four games with double-digit tackle numbers, topped by a career/season-high of 12 at Washington State (10 of which were solo); he had 11 at Utah and against Colorado State and racked up 10 versus Arizona ... He had 13 tackles (eight solo) and a third down stop in the four main spring scrimmages.

LEO JACKSON III, DE

Decatur, Ga.
Foothill College)

AT COLORADO: 2016 (Jr.)—He played in all 13 games (one start, at Southern California) plus the Alamo Bowl and played in 254 snaps from scrimmage, the most of any non-starting defensive linemen ... Credited with 16 tackles on the season, one third down stop, one quarterback hurry, a touchdown save and one quarterback chasedown ... Recorded his first multi-tackle game of the season in the road win at Oregon to open Pac-12 play, as he had two solo tackles and one quarterback chasedown ... Upped that tackle total two weeks later again on the road with four stops at USC.

2015 (Soph.)—He played in 12 games (10 starts), missing the Nicholls State as he went through concussion protocol ... Was in for 586 snaps from scrimmage, the second-most by any down lineman, and recorded 33 tackles (18 solo, including two quarterback sacks) ... He added three tackles for zero gains, five third down stops, four hurries, two chasedowns (near-sacks), a caused interception and a forced fumble ... Had a career/season-high six tackles (two solo) against Colorado State, and had five on three other occasions (Oregon, Arizona State, Oregon State; his high in solo stops was four against the Beavers) ... Made an immediate impact upon his arrival on the defensive line ... He had 13 tackles (nine solo) in the four main spring scrimmages, which included four tackles for loss, two of which were quarterback sacks ... The coaches selected him as the recipient of the Dick Anderson Award, presented to the player with outstanding toughness following spring practice ... Won the Iron Buffalo Award for the defensive linemen during spring practice, which recognizes hard work, dedication, toughness and total lifting performance ... He enrolled at Colorado for the spring, delaying his enrollment a semester; he bulked up a bit in the weight room from when he signed with CU the previous spring, adding 25 pounds to his frame.

JUNIOR COLLEGE—He played in 10 games (eight starts) at defensive end for Foothill College in Los Altos Hills, Calif., as a true freshman ... He recorded 34 total tackles, 22 of the solo variety which included 10 for losses and six-and-a-half quarterback sacks ... Also had 12 quarterback pressures, four passes broken up and two forced fumbles ... Under coach Kelly Edwards, Foothill posted a 2-8 record.

HIGH SCHOOL—A two-year letterman, he played defensive end, tackle and offensive tackle, starting all 19 games his junior and senior seasons ... As a senior, he was in on 25 tackles (15 solo), with six for losses including three-and-a-half quarterback sacks, along with eight hurries, three passes broken up and a fumble recovery ... He played under two difference coaches in high school, Stanley Pritchett his senior season with NAHS going 2-7, and Brian Montgomery his junior year, who coached the team to a 7-3 mark.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in Sociology at Colorado ... He earned his A.A. degree from Foothill College in December 2014 ... He was an Honor Roll student in high school.

PERSONAL—He was born Oct. 5, 1994 in Atlanta, Ga. ... Hobbies include playing most sports (soccer is his second favorite), and trying new extreme sports ... A self-proclaimed late bloomer, he didn't have any offers out of high school but was a full qualifier, so he decided to go the junior college route to hone his skills and hopefully get some Division I offers, which he did.

ANTHONY JULMISSE, DB

6-1, 190, Soph., 1L

Plantation, Fla.
(South Plantation)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—Athlon Sports selected him as a preseason fourth-team All-Pac-12 performer as a kickoff returner.

2016 (Fr.)—He played in all 13 games plus the Alamo Bowl, as he was one of only four true freshmen to see the field in 2016 ... A versatile player who appeared in all three phases of the game (offense, defense and special teams), his biggest contribution was on the kickoff return unit where he returned 17 kickoffs for an average of 22.6 yards; his long of 48 came against No. 4 Washington in the Pac-12 Championship game ... Became the first Buffalo defender since Greg Henderson in 2013 to record a take-away in each of the first two games of the season, as he recovered a fumble in the season opener against Colorado State and had an interception in week two versus Idaho State (they were his only two on the year) ... Was in for a handful of snaps on offense, was in for 53 on defense, recording three tackles and he had one quarterback pressure ... Picked up a first down on a 10-yard rush at USC, which came on the first rushing attempt of his career - his only offensive statistic of the season although he practiced on that side of the ball along with defense all fall camp and in the first month of the regular season ... Finished fifth in special team points with 20, as he was on several units; he was in on nine tackles (three solo), with five knockdown blocks, three forced fair catches, two first downfield credits that altered returns and a caused penalty.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned second-team All-State honors at the utility position and first-team All-Broward County honors from the Miami Herald ... A three-year starter on offense playing both the running back and receiver positions, his senior season he rushed 81 times for 672 yards and eight touchdowns, averaging 8.3 yards a carry ... Also amassed 360 receiving yards and scored four more times ... On defense playing safety, he was in on 32 tackles, eight for losses, with two interceptions (returning one for a TD) and a blocked kick ... He also scored two times via return (punt, kickoff) ... One of his top games as a senior came in a 13-12 win over Flanagan, which had been ranked No. 8 in the nation by SuperPrep and No. 16 by USA Today, as he scored the Paladins' first points of the game on an electrifying 88-yard punt return and later blocked a field goal attempt that could have provided the winning points ... In a 39-32 loss to Cypress Bay, he scored two touchdowns, one receiving and one on an interception return ... Under coach Nick Dellaria, SPHS was 3-7 his senior year; he replaced Doug Gatewood as head coach prior to the season, as South Plantation was 4-5 under his direction his junior season and 6-3 his sophomore year ... He also lettered once in track (sprints/relays).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in Environmental Studies at Colorado ... He was on the Honor Roll every semester in high school and owned a 3.9 grade point average.

ALEX
KINNEY, P

6-1, 205, Jr., 2L

Fort Collins, Colo.
(Rocky Mountain)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—Lindy's College Football selected him as a preseason third-team All-Pac-12 performer.

2016 (Soph.)—He played in all 13 games plus the Alamo Bowl and averaged 41.3 yards on 66 punts for the season ... Had eight punts over 50 yards (with a long of 59), along with 15 inside-the-20, eight inside-the-15 and five inside-the-10 ... Of his 66 punts, 41 (or 62.1 percent) were not returned, as 26 were fair caught, four went for touchbacks and others were either downed or went out of bounds ... Best kick of the year was his long, as the 59-yard punt at Stanford was downed at the SU 5-yard line in the fourth quarter with CU leading 7-3; it was also his career-long ... In that game, two of his five punts were downed inside the 20 and he also attempted one field goal, a 31-yard try that was wide right ... He also assisted on one tackle on the punt team ... Averaged 41.5 yards for 18 punts kicked inside-the-CU-25, and placed five of nine kicks in plus territory inside-the-20 ... Had one left-footed kick that went 33 yards against Idaho State ... The coaches named him the winner of the Bill McCartney Award as the most improved special teams player in spring practices ... Athlon Sports selected him as a preseason third-team All-Pac-12 performer, with Phil Steele's College Football tabbing him a fourth-team selection.

2015 (Fr.)—He played in all 13 games in becoming just the seventh freshman in school history to become CU's regular punter; his 40.1 average ranked third out of the seven, trailing only Matt DiLallo (43.7 in 2006) and Darragh O'Neill (42.6 in 2011) ... Had 66 punts on the season, with a net average of 38.1; 73 percent of his kicks went unreturned as 22 were fair caught and 14 were downed (he had just one touchback) ... His average spiked up to 41.4 when allowing for 12 punts he had in opponent territory (10 of which he pinned inside-the-20) ... His long punt was 58 yards (at Oregon State) and he had six overall of 50 yards or longer ... Tied the school record for the most punts inside-the-10 with 10 (which was a freshman record), and he set the frosh mark for the most inside-the-20 with 23 (topping the old mark of 21) ... In addition, he had 17 punts inside-the-15 and four inside-the-5 ... He started out a bit slow, owning just a 33.5 average after two games (11 punts), but his average rose steadily each game over the course of the remainder of the season ... He did have two punts blocked, but only one of his kicks was returned over 15 yards (a long of 25 by Stanford's Barry Sanders, Jr.).

HIGH SCHOOL—He earned All-Colorado and first-team All-State honors from the Denver Post, Mile High Sports Magazine and Six Zero Strength & Fitness as a senior, when he also garnered All-USA Colorado (USA Today/American Family Insurance) and first-team All-Front Range League recognition at both kicker and punter ... Made the prestigious Western 100 list compiled by the Tacoma News-Tribune (one of four specialists on the paper's 2014 squad), and some services had him ranked as the No.3 prep punter nationally .. Was a second-team All-State selection as a junior (kicker), when he was the league's first-team kicker and second-team punter ... As a senior, he averaged 41.6 yards for 47 punts, with a long of 66 and nine inside-the-20; he scored 58 points as he made all 34 of his extra point kicks and 8-of-12 field goals, including a 57-yard boot that tied the eighth-longest in state history ... In addition, 51 of his 54 kickoffs went for touchbacks ... His junior year he scored 60 points on the strength of 27-of-28 PAT kicks and 11-of-15 field goals (long of 51), with 32 of 50 kickoffs going for touchbacks; he averaged 35.8 yards on 40 punts, with a long of 63 ... Handled some of the kickoff chores as a sophomore (10 total, six touchbacks), but did not have any placements or punts ... Made 61-of-62 PAT kicks and 19-of-27 field goals in his prep career: the 3-pointers were not "gimmies" as the average length of his 19 makes covered 38.3 yards (36.9 as a senior, 39.4 as a junior); he made nine field goals of 40 yards or longer, including two over 50 ... Top games his senior year including a season-opening 34-7 win over Brighton, when he scored 10 points, four PAT kicks and two field goals, including his 57-yarder, and in the playoffs against Fountain-Fort Carson (a 21-7 loss), when he had his season best punt of 55 yards from his end zone that got his team out of a field position hole ... As a junior, in a 16-7 win over Horizon, he made good on all three of his field goal tries from 49, 51 and 35 yards ... Under coach Mark Brook, RMHS was 9-2 his senior season (league runners-up), 5-5 his junior year and 1-9 his sophomore season.

ACADEMICS— He is majoring in Environmental Studies and Business (Management) at Colorado ... Earned honorable mention Pac-12 All-Academic Team honors as a sophomore and honorable mention Academic All-Colorado honors from the state's NFF chapter as both a sophomore and a true freshman ... As a senior at Rocky Mountain High School, he earned honorable mention status on the state's All-Academic team.

PERSONAL—He was born May 31, 1997 in Fort Collins, Colo. ... His hobbies include skiing and fishing, and he played club rugby outside of high school (he played the prop position; his team reached the state championship game as a sophomore) ... He is just the second player from Rocky Mountain High School to sign with the Buffaloes out of high school (joining Darrell Troutd, an offensive lineman in the 1975 class).

2015 (Soph.)—He played in all 13 games, including six starts, as he led the team in rushing with 653 yards, averaging 4.7 per his 140 attempts; he scored six touchdowns and had 17 runs of 10-plus yards (long of 37) and 48 of five or more ... He lost just 27 yards rushing, the ninth-fewest in the nation for a player with at least 100 attempts ... Caught 26 passes, tied for the third-most on the team, for 211 yards and a TD (his seven TDs and 42 points led the non-kickers on the team) ... His top game came against Nicholls State, when he rushed for 113 yards and two scores; he had 91 against Arizona and 78 in the rain at Washington State ... Also returned seven kickoffs for 154 yards (22.0 per), with a long of 41; thus, it all added up to 1,018 all-purpose yards, which trailed only Nelson Spruce's 1,114 total ... Overall, he earned 39 first downs, 30 rushing and nine receiving; he picked up the first down 11 times on 18 third and/or fourth down tries (9-of-11 when it was 3rd/4th-and-1) ... The coaches selected him as the recipient of the Derek Singleton Award for his spirit, dedication and enthusiasm, and he also earned the Hammer Award for the hardest legal hit of the year ... He was one of 12 players on CU's leadership council, which essentially served as team captains ... For the spring, the coaching staff selected him as the recipient of the Dick Anderson Award, presented to the player with outstanding toughness following spring practice ... Phil Steele's College Football selected him as a second-team preseason All-Pac-12 performer at kick returner, with Athlon Sports selecting him to its fourth team.

2014 (Fr.-RS)—He saw action in all 12 games on offense and special teams (no starts); in amassing 1,358 all-purpose yards, he shattered the previous freshman mark by over 400 yards (947 by Lamont Warren in 1991); it was also the 14th-most overall by any player in any season ... Averaged 10.5 yards for every touch on the year (a team-high 129) ... He had the third-most kickoff return yards in a single-season in school history with 849, averaging 23.6 yards per return (long of 51); that ranked him eighth in the Pac-12 and 50th in the nation ... Finished fourth on the team in rushing with 391 yards on 79 carries, a healthy 4.95 yards per carry, and he also caught 14 passes for 118 yards (9.8 per) ... In all, he earned 17 first downs (14 rushing, three receiving), with his 12 rushes of 10 yards or longer second best on the team ... Top game running ball came at Arizona (17 carries, 114 yards with his season longest run of 36), with other top efforts all on the road as well, against USC (10-55), Oregon (11-49) and Massachusetts (7-41) ... He had 207 all-purpose yards against Oregon, setting a CU single-game record for a redshirt freshman (142 via kickoff return, 49 rushing and 26 receiving on 22 total touches) ... Received plenty of reps in the spring, with 22 rushes for 77 yards in the four main spring scrimmages (with five receptions for 44 yards and a touchdown) ... The coaches selected him as the recipient of the Fred Casotti Award for the spring, presented to the most improved running back.

2013 (Fr.)—Redshirted; he practiced the entire fall at running back but filled in where needed on the scout team and earned the Offensive Scout Player of the Year honor as selected by the coaches.

HIGH SCHOOL—The No. 5 overall and top running back prospect in the state by the Denver Post, he earned PrepStar All-Central Region honors at running back as a senior, despite suffering a knee injury in the season opener ... He sat out one game and came back to play in South's third game (against rival East), but came out after one quarter as was injured again ... It was then determined he had a torn ACL instead of a sprain, and underwent surgery on September 19 ... In those two games, he still rushed for 299 yards on 31 carries, scoring two touchdowns, with one reception for 18 yards and a punt return for 35; he thus had 33 touches for 352 yards, or 10.6 per ... On defense, he had 12 tackles (five solo) ... SuperPrep named him to its preseason All-Midlands team, the No. 49 player overall in the region and the third-ranked running back ... As a linebacker on defense, had 285 tackles, 10 quarterback sacks and three interceptions ... As a junior, he had 192 rushes for 1,762 yards (9.2 per) and 13 touchdowns, with 10 receptions for 177 yards and three scores; he racked up 94 tackles on defense (65 solo), with five or losses (three sacks), an interception, a pass broken up and a forced fumble ... Returned eight kickoffs for 130 yards and four punts for 54 ... His sophomore season, he carried 164 times for 1,261 yards and 16 TDs, with 13 catches for 219 yards and four scores; he had 101 tackles (75 solo, three sacks) and an interception with five kickoff returns for 146 yards and four punt returns for 125 yards ... Making the varsity as a freshman, he rushed for 1,265 yards and 13 touchdowns on 158 carries, caught 10 passes for 169 yards and two touchdowns, recorded 78 tackles (36 solo, four sacks), an interception, a caused fumble and a recovery ... In his two games as a senior, he had 22 rushes for 160 yards and a TD in a 42-34 win over Mesa Ridge (when he had his reception and punt return), and in a 53-34 win over Denver East, he had nine carries for 139 yards and a score (including a 66-yard run) in just the first quarter before exiting with the knee injury ... Top games as a junior: in a 64-13 win over Lincoln, he had 17 rushes for 300 yards and four touchdowns, returning an interception 39 yards for another TD; he had three other games over 200 yards, against Niwot (19-231, 1 TD in a 49-12 win), George Washington (15-225, 2 TD and a season-high 13 tackles in a 50-28 win) and Poudre (15-206, 1 TD and 12 tackles in a 23-20 loss) ... Top games as a sophomore: in a 41-34 win over Lakewood, when he had 18 rushes for 138 yards and a score, caught two passes for 38 yards, both for touchdowns, and returned a kickoff 82 yards for a fourth TD; and in a 48-0 win over Lincoln, he carried 17 times for 250 yards and two TDs ... As a freshman, he burst on the scene with seven 100-yard games, including 175 and a touchdown on 15 carries in his first varsity game (a 47-33 loss to Golden, in which he also caught a 9-yard TD pass); he also had his career-high in tackles, posting 18 (nine solo with a sack) in a 26-12 win over Kennedy ... Under Coach Tony Lindsay (his uncle), Denver South was 12-2 his senior season, the 4A Plains League champions and the state runner-up (falling 17-14 to Monarch in the 4A title game), 6-4 his junior year, 7-3 his sophomore campaign and 6-4 his freshman year ... He lettered in basketball (guard) as a freshman, and lettered four times in track (sprints and relays); he had personal bests of 10.9 in the 100-meter dash, 22.2 in the 200 and 49.0 in the 400.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in both Communications and Sociology at Colorado ... He owned a 3.49 grade point average in high school, just .01 shy of making the Honor Roll ... In the spring of his junior year at CU, he was one of four recipients of the Ceal Barry Leadership Award, which is presented to those student-athletes who have inspired their team and the Colorado campus and community through exemplary commitment, composure and integrity.

PERSONAL—He was born July 24, 1994 in Denver ... Hobbies include riding his mountain bike on area trails (often with his father), playing video games and playing with his younger brothers ... Father (Troy) was a fullback at Colorado State; two cousins, Gabe and Tony Lindsay, played college football at Oklahoma State; and two older sisters were collegiate athletes, Cheri, an All-SWAC volleyball player at Prairie View A&M and Sparkle, who lettered in basketball at Mesa (Colo.) State ... Three days after he underwent knee surgery his senior year of high school, he received a personal call to cheer him up from Denver Bronco running back Willis McGahee, who rebounded from a similar injury to continue his pro career ... He is the first player on the roster from Denver South since 1983, when seniors Scott Martin and Shelby Nash were seniors; but was the first to join the team as a true freshman since 1967 (defensive ends John Bliss and Dave Turner) ... The first player to commit in CU's 2013 recruiting class (on March 22, 2012), his family's house was robbed and his dog (Rambo) beaten that same night; the burglars were apprehended and the dog fully recovered .. He has earned the nickname "The Tasmanian Devil" due to the way he plays the game.

El Paso, Texas
(Coronado)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—At the conclusion of spring practices he was moved from the defensive line over to tight end.

2016 (Soph.-RS)—Though he did not see game action, he did dress for the first three contests of the year.

2015 (Soph.)—He played in just the first three games (no starts), missing the remainder of the season due to a foot injury ... Was in for 21 snaps from scrimmage and had a quarterback pressure against Massachusetts for his only statistic on the season ... He had five tackles in the four main spring scrimmages, three coming in the spring game (including a quarterback sack and a tackle for zero gain).

2014 (Fr.)—He saw action in 11 games, playing for the first time in the second game of the season at Massachusetts and then in every game for the remainder of the season ... In 123 snaps from scrimmage, he recorded 10 tackles (five solo), with one quarterback chasedown (near-sack) ... Played 14 snaps at UMass in his first game, with a season-high 22 at USC, when he recorded two assisted tackles ... Had two tackles three other times (one solo, one assist), against Washington, Arizona and Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL—A two-year starter at defensive tackle, as a senior, he earned first-team All-District 1-5A and first-team All-City honors along with the El Paso Times naming him as the co-defensive player of the year; he was second-team All-District as a junior ... As a senior, he was in on 69 tackles (42 solo), with 16 for losses including four quarterback sacks; he pressured 31 throws by opposing quarterbacks ... He was in on 41 tackles as a junior, with 21 of his 27 solo tackles behind the line of scrimmage, including three-and-a-half sacks; he had 23 quarterback hurries, a fumble recovery, a pass broken up and a blocked kick ... He was a part-time starter at fullback and tight end as a sophomore (no defense), rushing once for 15 yards ... Top games as a senior: in a 59-0 win over Socorro, he had a career-high 10 tackles, three for losses including a sack with five hurries; in a 24-23 win over Montwood, he had six tackles (two TFLs) and seven hurries ... His top game as a junior came in a 41-7 win over Hanks, when he had six tackles, all for losses (three sacks, three TFLs) and also had six hurries ... Under coach Bob Anderson, Coronado was 8-3 his senior year, 4-6 his junior season and 4-7 his sophomore year ... He also lettered three times in basketball, playing both power forward and center his freshman through junior years, though mostly was a reserve performer.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in Sociology at Colorado ... He had the equivalent of a 3.1 grade point average in high school.

PERSONAL—He was born July 29, 1996 in El Paso, Texas (he is the last member of CU's 2014 recruiting class to turn 21) ... Hobbies include snowboarding, paintball and playing golf (though he's only been playing since his junior year in high school, he already breaks 90 regularly) ... His prep coach, Bob Anderson, had this to say of him after he was named co-defensive player of the year: "There weren't too many people that could block him. He was getting double- and triple-teamed because he was that big of a force for us."

TIM LYNOTT, JR., OL

6-3, 300, Soph., 1L

Parker, Colo.
(Regis)

56

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—Athlon Sports selected him as a preseason third-team All-Pac-12 performer while Phil Steele's College Football placed him on the fourth-team (as a center).

2016 (Fr.-RS)—He was named a USA Today First-Team Freshman All-American, CU's first since 2013 ... Earned the team's Lee Willard Award, one of two presented by the coaches to an outstanding freshman (along with quarterback Steven Montez) ... Started all 13 games in addition to the Alamo Bowl at right guard and his 940 snaps played were the most of any player on the team ... Was credited with 9.5 knockdown blocks, 19 touchdown blocks (direct), 14 perfect plays on passing touchdowns, gave up only three sacks and six pressures while committing only four penalties on the season ... In his first career start he helped the Buffs gain 578 yards of total offense – the second-most ever for CU in a season opener – in a 44-7 win over Colorado State when he played 89 snaps (the most of any offensive lineman) ... Became the 13th freshman to start a season opener on the offensive line (12 redshirt, one true – OG Clint Moore versus Wyoming in 1991), and the first to do so since 2009 ... Athlon Sports had selected him as a fourth-team All-Pac-12 preseason team member ... Had an outstanding spring, earning the team's John Wooten Award as selected by the coaches for his outstanding work ethic ... Phil Steele's College Football selected him as a third-team preseason All-Pac-12 choice at guard.

2015 (Fr.)—Redshirted; he practiced on the offensive line (guard and center) the entire fall.

HIGH SCHOOL—He earned All-Colorado and first-team All-State honors from the Denver Post, Mile High Sports Magazine and Six Zero Strength & Fitness as a senior, when he also earned All-USA Colorado (USA Today/American Family Insurance) and made the prestigious Western 100 list compiled by the Tacoma News-Tribune (one of 18 offensive linemen it cited) ... Was a first-team All-Continental League performer his junior and senior seasons, and was second-team as a sophomore ... Considered the No. 2 overall prospect in the state of Colorado by Scout.com, which also ranked him the No. 23 offensive guard in the nation ... A three-year starter at offensive guard (right side), he did not allow a quarterback sack his junior or senior seasons, and in the latter, he did not even allow a single quarterback pressure; he also was flagged for just a single penalty and it was estimated he had 28 direct touchdown blocks leading running backs or receivers into the end zone ... Never played defense in high school ... Under coach Mark Nolan, Regis was 10-2 his senior year, 9-2 his junior season (the Continental League champions both years) and 5-6 his sophomore campaign ... Also lettered twice in baseball (first base/designated hitter); he hit five home runs as a sophomore, including a shot straight over the 410-foot centerfield fence.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in Sociology at Colorado while seeking a minor in Ethnic Studies ... He owned a 3.10 grade point average in high school.

PERSONAL—He was born Nov. 10, 1996 in Parker, Colo. ... Included among his hobbies are weightlifting, bicycling and hiking ... His father (Tim Sr.) played college baseball at Penn State ... A distant family cousin, the late Phil Lynott, was the co-founder, bass guitarist and vocalist of the rock band, Thin Lizzy (which had several international hits, including Jailbreak and The Boys Are Back In Town) ... He is just the second player in at least the last 44 recruiting classes to sign with the Buffaloes from Regis. (Last name is pronounced Lin-knot.)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Fr.)—He joined the team in January for spring drills, as he was one of two grayshirts from 2016 recruiting class ... He enrolled in school for the fall 2016 semester and payed his own way to get a jump on his college education.

HIGH SCHOOL—A two-year starter at offensive tackle, he earned All-District 26-6A honors as a junior and senior; he was the San Antonio co-offensive lineman of the year and an area All-Star team selection as a senior as well ... Had a stellar senior season, as he allowed just one quarterback sack and just a handful of pressures while being called for just four penalties; he had numerous touchdown and downfield blocks for Churchill, which ran a balanced offense ... On defense, he was a backup performer on the line (usually the nose guard spot); he was in on 10 tackles along with five hurries, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and half a sack; he was primarily used in situations against the run ... He played exclusively on offense as a junior, and was on the junior varsity as a freshman and sophomore (offensive tackle, defensive line) ... Under coach Ron Harris, Churchill was 6-5 his senior year, and the Chargers were 8-3 his junior year under coach Glenn Hill (they were knocked out of the playoffs both years by an eventual state semifinalist) ... Also lettered once in track (throws) and played two years of junior varsity basketball as a freshman and sophomore (center/power forward).

ACADEMICS—He is pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in music with a focus on voice performance ... He owned a 3.7 grade point average in high school, which includes several honors courses ... Earned second-team Academic All-State honors as a senior and was a two-time Academic All-District team member as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL—He was born June 9, 1998 in San Antonio, Texas ... Hobbies include music – he can play four instruments: cello, violin, piano and the mandolin – and also composes music and lyrics; he appeared in two of high school annual musicals and has earned two top honors, All-Region Orchestra (violin, 2012) and All-Region Choir (2015) ... Other pastimes include swimming, playing basketball (he was on an AAU team for three years) and he has trained in boxing ... A grandfather (Morris Owens) was an Army Golden Gloves Champion, and his other grandfather (Col. Robert Litle) is in the Army Air Corps Hall of Fame as he owns numerous aviation records ... The family changed the spelling of their last name from Litle to Lytle as it was always being mispronounced. (Last name is pronounced Lytull.)

He participated in spring drills, and in the three main scrimmages including the spring game, he completed 15-of-25 passes for 175 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions (a 176.8 rating).

HIGH SCHOOL—He was a 2016 first-team All-Trinity League selection at quarterback playing under coach Scott Meyer at Servite High School ... There he broke the school's single-season passing record by throwing for 2,759 yards and 19 touchdowns his senior season when he was named the Servite Player of the Year ... In 11 games in 2016 he completed 199-of-331 passes (60.1 percent) and averaged 250 yards per game ... Ranked second in the league in passing and added seven touchdowns rushing the ball, as he had 45 carries for 141 yards as a senior ... Some of his top passing games include throwing for 424 yards as a junior in 2015 against Fountain Valley, 343 yards against Junipero Serra his senior year and 335 yards against Mission Viejo also in 2016 ... The Servite Friars ended the regular season 4-6 and grabbed an at-large bid to continue their season in the CIF Southern Section Playoffs ... He was invited to play in the inaugural Polynesian Bowl at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu and in the Blue-Grey All-American Bowl, both of which he did not be competing in as he enrolled early at CU.

ACADEMICS—He is enrolled in Colorado's Leeds School of Business, but is undecided on his major ... Held a 3.67 GPA in High School and graduated early to enroll at CU.

PERSONAL—He was born on Aug. 6, 1998 in Scottsdale, Ariz. ... His father, Mike Lytle, played safety at the University of Hawai'i. (Last name is pronounced lie-dull.)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—Lindy's College Football selected him as a preseason third-team All-Pac-12 performer (as an all-purpose player). 2016 (Soph.)—He played in all 13 games plus the Alamo Bowl, including 10 starts as the fourth receiver in the four-wide set ... Also started in the 2016 Valero Alamo Bowl where he caught two passes for 22 yards ... Was fifth on the team with 30 receptions, gaining 390 yards and scoring touchdown - a 40-yard catch he hauled in just before halftime at Arizona ... Averaged 13.0 yards per catch, had seven receptions of over 20 yards and 15 of over 10 ... Developed into a go-to receiver for the Buffs on third down and of his eight receptions on a third or fourth downs, seven of the moved the chains ... Was also used as a punt returner for the Buffs during the first half of the season, returning 17 punts on the year for an average of 15.2 yards with a long of 32, which came at No. 4 Michigan and set up CU's first touchdown of the game to give the Buffs a 7-0 lead ... Had a career-high seven catches for 90 yards in the win over No. 20 Washington State when five of his seven receptions went for first downs ... Another top game came when he had six receptions for 76 yards against Idaho State - the reception total was a team-high that day (four of his six receptions came in the first quarter).

2015 (Fr.-RS)—He played in 12 games, including a pair of starts that came on the road at Arizona State and UCLA; he sat out the Washington State game with a mild hamstring strain but returned for the season finale at Utah ... For the season, he caught eight passes for 84 yards (10.5 per) and a touchdown, while returning four punts for 37 yards, or 9.3 per ... Made a big splash in CU's 48-0 win over Nicholls State: he caught three passes for 53 yards, including a 38-yard touchdown on a third-&-16 pass from Sefo Liufau in the first quarter; later in the game, he had a 31-yard punt return, the longest by a Buff since Travon Patterson returned one 45 yards against Texas Tech in 2010 ... The TD reception came on his first collegiate touch, making it even more special, as he became the 13th known Buffalo dating back to 1954 to score a touchdown the first time he touched the football ... Caught six passes for 85 yards and a touchdown in the four main spring scrimmages ... He shared the Iron Buffalo Award for the wide receivers during spring practice, which recognizes hard work, dedication, toughness and total lifting performance.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned All-Colorado honors from both the Denver Post and Mile High Sports Magazine along with all-Mountain League honors ... As a junior, playing for San Jose's Valley Christian, he earned first-team All-West Catholic Athletic League honors (second-team as a sophomore, when he was Valley's sophomore of the year for all sports) ... As a senior, he rushed 80 times for 696 yards and 14 touchdowns, averaging 8.7 yards per carry with a long run of 55; he completed 32-of-54 passes for 986 yards and 12 touchdowns (with only two interceptions), a completion rate of 59.3 percent while averaging a gaudy 18.3 yards per attempt and 30.8 per completion (for a passer rating by NCAA standards of 278.6) ... He also returned eight punts for 225 yards and three touchdowns (28.2 per, long of 50); he had six kickoff returns for 320 yards and three scores (53.3 per, long of 94) ... On defense, playing cornerback, he had three interceptions, returning those for 57 yards with a touchdown (which covered 55 yards) and 16 passes broken up ... Overall, he accounted for 1,682 yards of total offense, and 1,298 all-purpose yards on 97 touches, or an average of 13.4 per play; and these numbers despite the fact that Monarch was so far ahead of its opponent in the second half, the "mercy rule" was enacted in seven of its 12 games (played with a running clock) ... He also punted six times for a 34.5 average (with a long of 66)—the only six punts Monarch had all season ...

Top games included throwing four touchdown passes in the first four minutes of the game against John F. Kennedy, as MHS scored 42 first quarter points en route to a 56-6 win; in a 45-18 triumph over Wheat Ridge, he was 4-of-5 for 142 yards and a touchdown (the incompleteness was a spike), rushed for 54 yards and a score, and picked off two passes, returning one for a touchdown ... As a junior at Valley Christian, he had 71 rushing attempts for 436 yards and five touchdowns, while completing 42-of-82 passes for 979 yards (11 TDs/4 INT); as a sophomore, he rushed for 228 yards and five scores on 51 tries and completed 37-of-78 passes for 550 yards and seven TDs ... He played defense when needed, either as a safety or the nickel back ... Top game as a junior came in the CIF Southern Section championship, a 51-20 win over Altos: in being named the game's MVP, he completed 7-of-8 passes for 116 yards and three touchdowns, rushed six times for 36 yards and a score, and had nine tackles and an interception on defense ... In a wild 49-42 loss to Archbishop Mitty, he rushed for 109 yards and a touchdown and passed for 100 and another score; as a sophomore in a 35-28 win over Mitty, he completed 10-of-13 passes for 161 and two TDs with a third TD rushing ... Under coach Phil Bravo, Monarch was 10-2 his senior year, the Mountain 4A champs and state semifinalist; under coach Mike Machado, Valley Christian was 8-6 his junior year, the Division 3 CIF Central Coast Section champions, and was 6-6 his sophomore year ... He lettered four times in basketball; he played his first two seasons at Valley Christian, where he scored his career-high of 29 points against Monte Vista Christian, and the last two at Monarch (averaging 15 points as a senior).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring Communications at Colorado ... He owned a 3.3 grade point average in high school.

PERSONAL—He was born April 9, 1995 in Martin, Tenn. ... Hobbies include playing video games and spending time with his family's golden retriever, Millie ... Has been selected as one of 42 players for the Lott IMPACT Trophy Watch List (character & performance/defensive player) ... Was also CU's nominee for the Wuerffel Trophy honoring athletic, academic and community achievement (one of 109 players on the official watch list) ... Phil Steele's College Football ranked him at No. 55 on its list of the nation's top outside linebackers.

2016 (Jr.)—He was named to the 2016 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, one of just 12 Division I players honored; the 25th annual team is perhaps the most coveted off-the-field honors in the sport, as it recognizes and celebrates those who dedicate their time to bettering the community and the lives of others ... He attended the Allstate Sugar Bowl in January to be honored with the other members of the AFCA Good Works Team at halftime of the game ... He is the fifth Buffalo to be honored on the team; Derek West made the inaugural one in 1992, followed by Robbie Robinson (2001), George Hypolite (2007) and Brian Lockridge (2011) ... Started two of the first three games of the season before suffering a season-ending knee injury in the first half at No. 4 Michigan ... Before exiting the Michigan game with the injury he returned a fumble 18 yards for a touchdown that gave CU a 14-0 lead less than five minutes into the game ... On the season he recorded three tackles, one of which went for a loss, one third-down stop and one quarterback chasedown ... Both Athlon Sports and Phil Steele's College Football selected him as a third-team preseason All-Pac-12 choice at linebacker.

2015 (Soph.)—He played in 12 games, including 10 starts, as he missed the Nicholls State game with a slight knee sprain ... Was in for 670 snaps from scrimmage and racked up 70 tackles (47 solo, 10 of which were for losses including five quarterback sacks); he had five tackles for zero, giving him 15 stops at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Had a team-high 16 quarterback hurries, eight third down stops, two chasedowns (near-sacks), a forced fumble, a touchdown save and a pass broken up ... In the opener at Hawaii, he made his first career interception, returning it 33 yards that would set up CU's first score of the year ... The coaches named him the recipient of the Defensive Trench Award, recognizing his play up front ... Had a career/season-high 10 tackles (five solo) against Colorado State, against whom he played all 88 snaps; he also had nine tackles at Utah, eight against Southern California and six or more in seven games ... He was one of 12 players on CU's leadership council, which essentially served as team captains.

2014 (Fr.-RS)—He enjoyed a fine "rookie" season after not playing organized football for two years; he started all 12 games at left defense end and played 457 snaps from scrimmage ... Had 34 tackles on the year, 23 solo that included six for losses and four others for zero gains, giving him 10 at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Was in on four-and-a-half quarterback sacks, tied for the second-most sacks by a freshman (true or redshirt) in school history ... Also had six hurries, four third down stops, two passes broken up, two forced fumbles, one recovery, one touchdown save and one chase down (near sack) ... Posted a season-high five tackles in the finale against Utah (four solo), with four tackles in three other games and three on three occasions ... Earned honorable mention Freshman All-American honors from collegesportsmadness.com, he shared the team's Lee Willard Award as the most outstanding freshman on defense and was also a finalist for the CU Male Freshman of the Year Award (for all sports) ... He won the Dan Stavely Award as selected by the coaching staff for being the most improved defensive lineman in spring practices, when he had 12 tackles, five for losses including four quarterback sacks, in the four main scrimmages.

2013 (Fr.)—Redshirted; did not see any action ... He won the team's award as the Defensive Scout Player of the Year for his efforts on the scout team ... Ended spring practices tied for second at the right defensive end position; he had seven tackles in the main scrimmages ... He was awarded the Jim Hansen Award for outstanding academics, selected by the coaching staff after spring ball ... Joined the program in January for the 2013 spring semester; he signed in the 2012 recruiting class but grayshirted ... Weighed 215 on signing day, but bulked up to just over 230 by the time he reported to campus.

HIGH SCHOOL—He earned first-team 2A All-State (Denver Post) and All-Flatirons League honors his sophomore through senior seasons as a starter for Faith Christian ... Played both defensive end and tight end for the Eagles, compiling 132 tackles and 30 quarterback sacks on defense, and 15 catches for 187 yards and a touchdown in his career ... As a senior, he had 62 tackles (42 solo), 16 sacks, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, and two pass deflections, in addition to blocking both a punt and a field goal ... On offense, he had eight catches for 53 yards ... His top games as a senior came in a 35-7 win against Platte Valley (11 tackles, three sacks, blocked punt) and a 23-13 loss to Kent Denver (eight tackles, three sacks) ... In his junior season, he tallied 40 tackles (23 solo), including six sacks and four forced fumbles on defense, while also catching five balls for 47 yards and a touchdown at tight end ... As a sophomore, he had 30 tackles with eight sacks and two fumble recoveries, also intercepting three passes on defense ... Offensively, he had two receptions for 87 yards ... In his four years as a letterman, Faith Christian went 44-7 under coach Blair Hubbard, winning the Flatirons League all four seasons; included in that mark was a 14-0 record and a state championship his sophomore season ... Also lettered in basketball (forward/center), earning second-team 2A All-State honors as a junior and helping the Eagles to a No. 1 ranking as a senior, when he was honorable mention 3A All-State (FCHS moved up one classification in basketball) ... In the spring, he lettered in track (throws); as a senior, he was the state 3A champion in the discus (154-11) while placing fifth in the shot put (3A, with a throw of 47-5½) ... He was second in the shot put in the (3A) state as a junior (49-10¾); he was 14th in the discus (124-3, thus he improved by over 30 feet between his junior and senior years).

ACADEMICS—He graduated in May 2016 after just three years with a degree in one of CU's most challenging majors – Integrative Physiology – with a Pre-Med course of study at Colorado ... Is now enrolled in CU's graduate program for IPHY and started taking classes in the summer of '16; he is on schedule to earn his master's this December ... Earned Academic All-Colorado honors from the state's National Football Foundation chapter (and was CU's nominee for the chapter's Scholar Athlete of the Year) ... Was presented with the 2015 Clancy A. Herbst Student-Athlete Achievement Award, which is presented to those athletes who have overcome personal, academic or emotional challenges ... Earned first-team Academic All-Colorado honors from the state's chapter of the National Football Foundation, and was an honorable mention All-Pac-12 Academic Team selection as a redshirt freshman ... In the spring of his fourth year at CU (2017), he was inducted into CU's 4.0 club after earning that perfect grade point in the previous semester.

PERSONAL—He was born Nov. 22, 1993, in Chicago, Ill. ... His grandfather is the legendary Bill McCartney, the all-time winningest football coach in Colorado history and member of the College Football Hall of Fame ... His father is former CU and Green Bay Packers defensive tackle Shannon Clavelle ... His older brother, T.C. McCartney, played football at LSU and was a graduate assistant with the Buffs for two years (2012-13); he is now in quality control with the Cleveland Browns ... Hobbies include reading and hanging out with friends in his free time ... In the 2016 offseason, he made national headlines after being matched with a recipient for a bone marrow donation; it came about thanks to CU's "Be A Match" program that coach Mike MacIntyre started after his first year in Boulder.

COLORADO 44 COLORADO STATE 7

GAME 1

SEPTEMBER 2, 2016

SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Starting fast offensively and rock solid defensively, the Colorado Buffaloes opened the 2016 season with a convincing 44-7 win over Colorado State on a Friday night at Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

The Buffs rolled up 578 yards of total offense – their most in a season opener in 22 years – and held the Rams to 225. CU was in control from the start, holding the Rams to three plays and out on the game’s first series and then marching 73 plays in 11 yards to take a 7-0 lead just four-plus minutes into the game and the rout was on.

CU senior Sefo Liufau, playing his first game since successfully rehabilitating from a Lisfranc (foot) injury, completed 23-of-33 passes for 318 yards and one touchdown, becoming the school’s career leader in passing yardage (7,715).

CU scored on three of its first four possessions and led 24-0 with 13:59 left in the first half. By the end of the first quarter, the Buffs offense had outgained the Rams 253-10, with the CU defense emphatically answering the pressing pregame question about stopping the CSU run game. And the Buffs’ up-tempo offense was up-and-running (and passing) early. The Buffs were fast: Their four first-half TD drives required 2:59, 1:56, 1:09 and 1:01.

CU’s first scoring march was its longest in both time required (2:59) and distance covered (73 yards, 11 plays). Tailback Phillip Lindsay ran for 38 yards during the drive and Liufau completed two of three passes for 22 yards.

Liufau carried twice in that march, gaining eight yards on first down from the CSU 13, then fumbling at the goal line on second down. But his 310-pound center, Alex Kelley, smothered the football in the end zone.

Four more scores would follow in quick succession – a 17-yard Liufau to Devin Ross pass, a 1-yard Lindsay run, a 30-yard Diego Gonzalez field goal, and another 1-yard Lindsay dive that made it 31-0; the latter followed a 46-yard one-handed catch by Bryce Bobo that he hauled in before stepping out at the CSU 1-yard line.

In addition to his 30-yard field goal, Gonzalez kicked four PATs, extending his streak to 39 straight over last season and this. Through Friday night’s first half, CU kicking specialists had made 142 straight extra points.

CU outgained CSU 364-79 in total yardage in the first half, including holding a 248-22 passing yards advantage. The Rams used two quarterbacks – starter Nick Stevens, transfer Faton Bauta – who combined to go 6-of-17 with one interception. That pick was by Chidobe Awuzie, who picked off Stevens late in the first half to set up the Buffs at their own 41-yard line. Lindsay scored on his second 1-yard dive five plays later.

CU increased its lead to 37-0 on a pair of third-quarter Gonzalez field goals (29, 22 yards) and took its shutout into the final quarter. The Rams finally scored on the first play of the fourth quarter, getting a 5-yard TD pass from Bauta to Marcus Wilson.

Liufau left the game after fumbling the ball away after a jarring tackle on a keeper with 12:38 remaining. CSU took over at its 33 but couldn’t capitalize on the turnover.

But he returned on the next series, marching the Buffs 50 yards in 11 plays for their final score. The touchdown came on a 1-yard leap by former walk-on tailback Kyle Evans, who was awarded a scholarship midway through preseason camp. Gonzalez’s PAT pushed CU’s lead to 44-7 with 4:24 remaining. Seeing his first college action, redshirt freshman QB Steven Montez spelled Liufau on the Buffs’ final possession.

The tone was set early by the CU ‘D.’ The Buffs held the Rams to 10 yards on 15 first-quarter plays, limiting them to 8 yards rushing and sending a decisive early message about stopping the CSU running game. The Rams didn’t register their initial first down until 10:23 remained before halftime, and that possession ended three plays later with their sixth punt of the first half.

Lindsay: 20 carries, 95 yards, 2 TDs; Liufau: 23-33, 318 yards, 1 TD; Awuzie: nine tackles (eight solo), four third down stops and the interception.

GAME NOTES

The announced attendance of 69,850 was the most in the series since 2003 (76,219); Colorado sold 33,486 tickets (9,217 student) for the game, accounting for that number despite season ticket holders of just under 2,800 tickets opted out for the game to receive an equal value in number for a Pac-12 game ... Colorado’s 31-0 halftime lead was its largest since Nov. 15, 2003, when it led Iowa State 37-0 in Ames (an eventual 44-10 win) ... CU’s 44 points were the most in the series by either team since 1996, when the Buffs won 48-34 in Fort Collins, and the 37-point win was the most lopsided in the series since a 47-7 CU win in 1956 (and the largest in an opener since 1988, when CU beat Fresno State in Boulder, 45-3) ... The 578 yards on offense by the Buffaloes were their most in a season opener since 1994 (649 in a 48-13 win over NE Louisiana), with the 225 yards allowed the fewest by an opponent in an opener since 1998 (CSU: 202 in a 42-14 Buff win) ... C Alex Kelley scored the first TD by a Buff offensive lineman since Oct. 28, 1995, when OG Heath Irwin recovered a fumble in the end zone in a 44-21 loss to Nebraska; Kelley became the first offensive lineman in CU history to score the team’s first points of the year ... The Buffs outgained CSU, 253-10, in the first quarter (14 of CSU’s first 18 plays went for three yards or less) as the Rams opened the game with six three-and-outs. In the first half, CSU ran nine plays in CU territory for minus-2 yards.

BOULDER — Colorado won its second straight game with a record-setting performance at Folsom Field, rolling to a 56-7 win over visiting Idaho State in the home opener to start the season 2-0.

Sefo Liufau threw for 204 yards and two touchdowns, and added 54 yards and another score running the ball as the Buffaloes pulled away from the Bengals early and would play 71 of 86 players that dressed for the game.

The Buffs tied school records for the most points in the second quarter (35) and first half (49), and set a school record for the largest halftime lead (49-0), eclipsing a 49-7 edge they held against Northeast Louisiana in 1995.

The Buffs thoroughly dominated the game in every regard, putting it away before halftime.

CU scored on seven of its eight possessions in the first half. Colorado quarterback Sefo Liufau was 15-for-18 for 204 yards and two touchdowns in the first half, and also ran for 54 yards and a score before intermission. Phillip Lindsay added a pair of rushing touchdowns and Devin Ross and Kabion Ento each had a touchdown reception. Ento also added another touchdown catch in the third quarter for CU's final points of the day

Colorado led 14-0 after the first quarter, opening with a 15-yard Liufau touchdown pass to Ross, followed by a 6-yard Lindsay run.

The Buffs then added five more touchdowns in the second quarter, with Lindsay adding another score from 2 yards, Kyle Evans rushing 1 yard for a touchdown, Liufau throwing to Chris Hill for a 4-yard score and Liufau running in from 19 yards out. CU backup quarterback Steven Montez then got into the act, completing a 69-yard touchdown pass to Ento on his first pass attempt as a collegian. Ento's touchdown was also the first time he touched the ball as a Buff.

Colorado finished with 597 yards offense, the Buffs' second straight week with at least 500 yards, following a 578-yard effort in an opening 44-7 win over Colorado State.

Defensively, the Buffs were equally dominant, holding the Bengals to 96 yards offense — 29 rushing and 67 passing. Colorado also did not allow Idaho State to cross midfield in the first half, and allowed just seven first downs for the entire game (three in the first half).

After punting on their second possession of the day, the Buffs defense forced a three-and-out and the offense came back to drive 61 yards in five plays for a touchdown to go up 14-0, opening the gate for six straight CU touchdowns.

The Bengals averaged just 1.7 yards per offensive play while the Buffs averaged 6.8 per snap.

An interception from true freshman Tony Julmisse extended CU's streak with at least one defensive takeaway to 15 games, best in the nation. ... It is the first 2-0 start by the Buffs since 2013, when Mike MacIntyre's first CU team beat CSU and Central Arkansas to open the year. ... CU played 71 of the 86 players who dressed for the game. ... It was the first time CU has gained 500-plus yards in back-to-back games since Nov. 9-16, 2002.

"I think we just go out there and play as hard as we can play. The whole key of the first two games goes back to practice. It doesn't go to what happened in the game, it goes to how we practice and how we focus and prepare." — CU coach Mike MacIntyre

"I just think we are executing at a higher level. I think we're holding ourselves to a higher standard." — Liufau

GAME NOTES

CU dropped to 10-22 in games played in the Eastern Time Zone (8-16 regular season, 2-6 bowl) ... This was the fifth time CU has played before 100,000-plus, with the 110,042 the largest of the five; it was the ninth time a team from the state of Colorado has played before a six-figure crowd: Air Force twice previously, CSU once and the Denver Broncos in SB XXI in Pasadena) ... CU has lost 23 straight against ranked teams, and 27 straight road games against ranked opponents (last win over Kansas in 2009, last road win at UCLA in 2002) ... OT Aaron Haigler made his first career start, doing so on the right side ... In the first half, the teams combined to go 1-of-14 on third down, gaining 4 net yards ... CU scored 28 points after scoring 30 in its first three trips here (0-31 in 1974, 27-26 in 1994, 3-27 in 1997) ... Liufau engineered 11 drives before leaving with the ankle injury (46 plays, 307 yards); Steven Montez was in for six drives (20 plays, 17 yards); Jordan Gehrke in for one play (1 yard) when Montez’ helmet was knocked off ... CU was 7-of-9 on second downs in the first quarter, all conversions six yards or longer ... Colorado surrendered 397 yards on defense, 184 of which came on five plays ... OLB Derek McCartney’s 18-yard fumble return for a touchdown as CU’s first since Samson Kafovalu returned one 33 yards for a score last year at UCLA.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Colorado twice held a 14-point lead in the first quarter, but special teams miscues and injuries took their toll, as fourth-ranked Michigan rallied for a 45-28 win at Michigan Stadium.

The Wolverines turned one blocked punt into a touchdown and forced another bad punt that put the Wolverines in position for a second touchdown in the first half, and took a 24-21 lead into the locker room at intermission.

Colorado regained the lead on the first possession of the third quarter when Sefo Liufau tossed a 70-yard touchdown pass to Shay Fields, but Liufau (16-for-25, 245 yards, 3 touchdowns) left the game with an ankle injury after CU’s next possession and the Buffs did not score again while Michigan answered with three more scores.

The Buffs jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead, scoring on their first offensive possession, then adding a defensive score less than a minute later.

After forcing Michigan to punt on its first possession, Colorado needed just three plays to go 49 yards for a touchdown. Liufau hit Jay MacIntyre with a 14-yard pass to start the drive, then connected with Devin Ross on a 37-yard scoring strike down the middle two plays later to give the Buffs a 7-0 lead.

Colorado then extended the lead to 14-0 less than a minute later. With Michigan facing a third-and-7, CU defensive back Chidobe Awuzie came off the edge and sacked Michigan quarterback Wilton Speight, forcing a fumble. Colorado linebacker Derek McCartney scooped up the loose ball and rumbled 18 yards for a touchdown and 14-0 lead.

Michigan, though, responded with a big play of its own. After stopping CU’s offense in Colorado territory, UM’s Michael Jocz blocked Alex Kinney’s punt. Grant Perry then grabbed the ball at CU’s 6-yard line and took it to the end zone as Michigan cut CU’s lead to 14-7.

Colorado then bumped its edge back to 14 by driving 67 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Phillip Lindsay had a 10-yard run on the drive, Liufau hit Shay Fields for an 18-yard gain and Kabion Ento for 16 yards before finding Ross again on a fade route in the corner of the end zone.

The second period, however, was all Michigan. CU’s Diego Gonzalez was wide right on a 36-yard field goal try and on CU’s next possession, Kinney punted the ball into the backside of a CU player. It took Michigan just two plays to go 38 yards for the score, getting a 17-yard scoring run from Jehu Chesson to cut the Buffs’ lead to 21-14.

Michigan added a 39-yard field goal with 1:59 left in the half to pull within 21-17 and the Buffs couldn’t muster a drive and punted. The Wolverines needed one play to take the lead when Amara Darboh ran 45 yards for a score, giving UM a 24-21 edge heading into halftime.

But CU needed just three plays to score after the half, getting a 70-yard touchdown throw from Liufau to Fields for a 28-24 lead. Liufau, though, was injured on the prior play and while he returned on CU’s next series, it was his last action of the day.

The Wolverines quickly responded. After a kick return by Jabrill Peppers past midfield, Michigan needed just two plays to reach the end zone, getting a 42-yard run from De’Veon Smith for a 31-28 lead, one the Wolverines never relinquished.

Michigan tacked on two more scores, going 80 yards for one and getting a 54-yard punt return for a touchdown from Peppers for another for the final tally.

CU scored 21 points and had 195 total yards in the first quarter, but just seven and 130 afterwards.

It was CU’s 23rd straight loss against a ranked team dating back to 2009.

GAME NOTES

Colorado extended the nation's fifth-longest PAT made streak to 156 before Oregon blocked the Buffs' second attempt of the game (the 156 was a school record; the streak dated back to Nov. 26, 2011) ... Colorado improved to 80-41-2 all-time in conference openers (2-4 in the Pac-12 — both wins on the road;) ... CU ended a 6-game losing streak against the Ducks; Oregon now leads the series, 12-9 (5-3 in Eugene) ... Colorado has come out of the gate strong all four games: CU has outscored the opponent 72-14 with an 815-197 edge in total offense in the four first quarters combined ... The Buffs ran plays in Oregon territory on each of their first eight drives before going 3-and-out on the ninth drive ... CU was 17-of-31 on second down conversions (54.8 percent), 5-of-5 with 1-to-4 yards to go ... Colorado is now 51-9 all-time when rushing (260 today) and passing (333) for 200-plus yards in both ... The 593 yards are the most CU has ever gained in 21 games against the Ducks and is actually the first time a Colorado team has gained over 400 ... CB Ahkello Witherspoon's game-saving interception extended CU's nation's-best streak of forcing at least one turnover to 17 games ... This was the fewest points Oregon has scored against CU as a member of the Pac-12, and the fewest since the 2002 Fiesta Bowl (a 38-16 UO win).

EUGENE, Ore. — Ahkello Witherspoon's interception in the end zone ended a last-ditch Oregon drive Saturday, clinching a 41-38 Colorado win over Oregon at Autzen Stadium in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

Witherspoon's interception came with 48 seconds remaining in the game and Oregon with a first-and-goal from the 7-yard line, giving the Buffs the signature win they've been seeking to signal that CU's program has indeed turned around.

Steven Montez had a record-setting starting debut for the 3-1 Buffs at quarterback, completing 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards and three touchdowns and two interceptions. He turned in the first-ever 300-yard passing/100-yard rushing game in school history.

After jumping out to a double-digit lead for the second week in a row only to see the lead disappear, the Buffs rallied to win this one.

The Buffs jumped out to a 23-7 edge before the Ducks rallied to take a 38-33 lead late in the third quarter, turning a pair of Montez interceptions into touchdown drives.

But the Buffs showed some moxie in crunch time, regaining the lead midway through the fourth quarter when Montez threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to Bryce Bobo. The pass was originally ruled incomplete, but after instant replay review, the officials signaled touchdown. A 2-point conversion pass from Montez to Bobo gave the Buffs a 41-38 lead with 8:43 to go in the game, and the Buffs defense took over and made the lead stand, coming up with three straight defensive stops.

Colorado built its early lead with another strong start. After Oregon punted following a three-and-out on its opening possession of the game, the Buffs drove 80 yards in eight plays for their first TD, getting a 1-yard scoring run from Phillip Lindsay to cap the drive, in which Montez completed three passes and Lindsay had a 33-yard run.

CU's defense then forced another three-and-out and the Buffs put together a seven-play, 44-yard drive that produced a 24-yard Chris Graham field goal and 10-0 lead.

Oregon then answered with its first score of the game to cut the lead to 10-7 when Taj Griffin scored from 1 yard out on a drive that was sparked by a 50-yard Tony Brooks-James run.

The Buffs, though, quickly responded, putting together back-to-back scoring drives to take a 23-7 lead. The first was a 12-play, 87-yard march, capped by a 7-yard Montez toss to Shay Fields, but a blocked PAT left CU with a 16-7 lead. Following an Oregon punt, CU struck quickly, going 63 yards in just four plays. A 61-yard Montez pass to Devin Ross put the Buffs at the Oregon 5, and two plays later, Montez dove over from the 3-yard line and Graham's PAT gave CU a 23-7 lead.

But Oregon answered with a touchdown and field goal, sandwiched around a CU drive that stalled in Ducks territory after a failed fourth-down try. The Ducks kept their touchdown drive alive with a 29-yard run on a fake punt, then scored on a 25-yard pass from Dakota Prukop to Darren Carrington Jr.

Colorado closed the half with a field goal to take a 26-17 lead into the locker room at intermission, then opened the third quarter with a 75-yard scoring drive. Montez hit Ross with a 48-yard scoring pass that was initially ruled incomplete but ruled a touchdown by replay and CU led 33-17 just two minutes into the third quarter.

This one had no turning point until the end. Montez's touchdown to Bobo and Witherspoon's interception were both plays that made the win possible.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 4-1 for the first time since the 2005 season and 2-0 in league play for the first time since 2007 ... The attendance (46,839) was the largest in four seasons and the largest for Family Weekend since 2011 (CU is now 18-7 in Family Weekend games) ... CU dressed 75 players for the game, 68 played ... The 41-point win was CU's largest in a league game since Oct. 24, 1992, when the Buffs beat Kansas State 54-7 in Boulder ... CU was 14-of-31 on second down conversions, meaning the Buffs were 31-of-62 against the Oregon schools (17-of-31 versus the Ducks the previous last week) ... Colorado is now 52-9 all-time when rushing (247 today) and passing (316) for 200-plus yards in both: 4-0 this year ... The Buffs gained over 500 yards for the fourth time in five games this season (563 today), doing that last in 1994 ... The 6 points allowed by CU was the fewest in a Pac-12 game (47 total); previous low was 13 by OSU last year; and also first time CU has not allowed a TD in a Pac-12 contest ... The last time CU held a league opponent without a TD was 11 years ago to the day: Oct. 1, 2005 in a 34-0 win at Oklahoma State ... The Buff defense cranked it up when the Beavers hit midfield; OSU ran 30 plays in plus territory for 51 yards ... WR Shay Fields (7-169, 3 TD, 5 FDE) became just the fourth Buffalo to have three touchdowns receiving in a game, but the first to have three in a single half ... PK Davis Price (5-5 PAT, 2-2 FG, 11 points) had his first career placekicks, and in the process, set CU records for the longest field goal made by a freshman as well as the longest for a first-career make (54 yards).

BOULDER — With Steven Montez throwing and Shay Fields catching, the Colorado Buffaloes scored 20 unanswered first-half points and zipped past Oregon State 47-6 on a sunny Saturday afternoon at Folsom Field.

Montez and Fields hooked up for three first-half touchdowns, enabling Fields to tie the school record for TD receptions in a game (three) with three other players and the Buffs to remain unbeaten (2-0) in the Pac-12 Conference (4-1 overall).

Montez, a redshirt freshman making his second college start at quarterback in place of injured senior Sefo Liufau (ankle), followed his winning starting debut at Oregon with another solid afternoon. He accounted for 321 yards in total offense (293 passing, 28 rushing in three quarters against the Beavers (0-1, 1-3) to help CU to back-to-back conference wins for the first time since 2010.

For the first time this season, the Buffs trailed in the first quarter as OSU took a 3-0 lead on a 32-yard Garrett Owens field goal.

The Buffs came back in a hurry as Montez and Fields connected for scores on CU's next three possessions. The first was a 51-yarder that found Fields at least five steps behind the Beavers secondary, the second a 33-yarder that saw Fields equally uncovered. The Buffs led 13-3 after the first quarter, bumping their first-quarter scoring edge to 85-17 for the season.

After CU defensive end Jimmie Gilbert (two sacks on the day) forced a fumble by OSU QB Darrel Garretson and a subsequent 20-yard loss on the Beavers' first possession of the second quarter, the Buffs took over on their own 13-yard line.

Five plays into that drive, Montez hit Fields with a short pass near the right sideline and the CU junior then raced 63 yards to the end zone. Freshman Davis Price – called on after Chris Graham's initial PAT was blocked – kicked the Buffs ahead 20-3 with 11:32 left before halftime.

Owens got the Beavers another three points with a 40-yard field goal (20-6), but the Buffs wasted no time answering. After a 33-yard kickoff return by freshman Tony Julmisse, CU marched 66 yards in 11 plays, capping the drive with a 1-yard walk-in TD by Phillip Lindsay on fourth down.

Price's PAT pushed CU ahead 27-6 with just under 5 minutes left before halftime. The Beavers were slowly, efficiently being buried, and for good measure the Buffs positioned Price for a 54-yard field goal with 50 seconds left in the half. It was the freshman's first field try as a collegian, and he delivered with the longest FG by a freshman in CU history.

Nine seconds later a hit by CU linebacker Kenneth Olugbode helped Rick Gamboa collect the first interception of his career, which Gamboa returned 20 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Colorado took a 37-6 lead at intermission.

After a Tedric Thompson interception midway through the third quarter, Price added his second field of the afternoon – a 22-yarder that increased CU's lead to 40-3 with 4:38 left in the quarter.

Although OSU managed another field goal, the Buffs' defense kept the Beavers out of the end zone, the first time in 11 years Colorado had held a conference opponent without a touchdown. Colorado also added one more touchdown to provide the final margin of victory.

The victory boosted the Buffs back into the national polls, with CU at No. 21 in the AP poll and No. 23 in the coaches' poll when the voting was announced Sunday.

LOS ANGELES — After falling behind 14-0 in the first half, the No. 21 Colorado Buffaloes rallied to tie the game at 14-14 in the fourth quarter before finally falling to USC, 21-17, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Colorado forced four turnovers in the game, but could only manage to convert one into a score. CU dropped to 4-2 overall (2-1 Pac-12) while USC improved to 3-3, 2-2. The loss also dropped CU to 0-11 against the Trojans all time.

USC broke the tie midway through the fourth quarter by going 70 yards in six plays for the winning score, getting a 7-yard pass from Sam Darnold to Tyler Petite.

The Buffs had battled back from a 14-0 halftime deficit, tying the game with 10:20 to go in the game on a 10-yard Steven Montez scoring pass to Bryce Bobo.

Earlier in the half, Bobo helped the Buffs cut into USC's lead by throwing a 67-yard touchdown pass to Phillip Lindsay after taking a lateral from Montez.

Colorado's defense was stellar for most of the second half. The Buffs forced three second-half turnovers — two fumbles and an interception — and Colorado converted one of them into a touchdown. Afolabi Laguda and Jordan Carrell had fumble recoveries for the Buffs and Kenneth Olugbode had the interception.

The Buffs finally broke onto the scoreboard early in the third quarter. Following Carrell's fumble recovery, created by an Addison Gillam sack of Darnold, the Buffs needed one play to score on Bobo's pass to Lindsay.

CU's defense continued to hold and early in the fourth quarter, after the Buffs forced a second straight USC punt, Colorado finally put together its first sustained scoring drive of the game, going 84 yards in eight plays for the tying score. Montez helped keep the drive alive with an 11-yard throw to Kabion Ento on third-and-6 before Lindsay rumbled 37 yards to the USC 11. Three plays later, Montez found Bobo in the end zone for a 10-yard scoring pass and Davis Price's PAT tied the game at 14-14.

The Trojans, however, responded to regain the lead on Darnold's third touchdown pass of the game. Colorado quickly answered with a drive inside USC territory that produced a 42-yard Price field goal, but that finished the scoring for the game as USC managed to drive into CU territory and run out the clock on its next possession.

After outscoring opponents 85-17 in the first quarter and 164-47 in the first half this season, the Buffs were held scoreless in the first 30 minutes. The Trojans, meanwhile, put together a pair of long scoring drives, going 80 yards in nine plays for their first touchdown, then adding a 13-play, 92-yard drive for the 14-0 lead.

The Buffs had dodged a bullet on USC's first possession by forcing a Darnold fumble near the goal line with Ahkello Witherspoon recovering it in the end zone.

CU never mustered much of an offensive threat in the opening 30 minutes as the Buffs' high-powered offense never found a rhythm. Colorado also produced some self-inflicted wounds, including a pair of penalties that stifled the Buffs' deepest penetration into USC territory. Just after reaching the Trojan 34, the Buffs committed two penalties on three snaps, setting them back to their side of the 50.

Montez, who was starting his third straight game for the Buffs, was injured on CU's last possession of the half. Senior Sefo Liufau replaced Montez and moved the Buffs into Trojan territory before the drive stalled.

Montez returned for the second half and finished the game.

GAME NOTES

USC now leads the all-time series by an 11-0 count, though the last two games have gone down to the wire and were decided by a total of 7 points ... The Buffs had won all five coin tosses this season prior to USC winning ... The 90-degree temperature at kickoff tied for the 11th warmest in school history (sixth at 90°); CU is 7-9 when the temp is 90-plus at kickoff ... Colorado is now 0-2 when wearing its silver-white-silver combination look ... This was the first game as a head coach that Mike MacIntyre coached with his team ranked (80 games total) ... USC led for 46:39; the Buffs had trailed for all of 39:04 in their first five games; this was the first time this year CU did not own a lead in a game ... CU is now 2-20-1 all-time in the state of California, dropping the last 10 games ... Colorado had not allowed a touchdown in five straight quarters until USC scored one in the first quarter; the last time CU did not allow a TD in five straight was in 2012 ... USC was the first team to slow down the Buffs out of the gate this season, the only school to keep CU from scoring in the first quarter and the first half. The Trojans were the first to hold CU under 161 yards in the first quarter (70) and under 232 in the first half (127) ... By forcing four USC turnover, CU extended its nation's-best streak of forcing at least one turnover to 19 straight games ... TB Phillip Lindsay was the first Buff running back to have 100 yards receiving in a game since TB Cortlen Johnson did so at Iowa State on Nov. 10, 2001 (both had identical stats: 6-105 with a TD).

GAME NOTES

Colorado is both 5-2 overall and 3-1 in league play for the first time since the 2005 season and improved to 62-35-5 in Homecoming games ... This was CU's 398th all-time victory at home (306th at Folsom Field) ... Zane Gonzalez' 59-yard field goal was the second-longest in Folsom Field history; CU's Mason Crosby owns the longest (60 yards vs. Iowa State in 2004) ... In the last seven quarters in Boulder, CU has outgained ASU by 1,103-403 ... Colorado is now 4-0 in games against schools that were ranked in the coaches' poll but not in the Associated Press one ... Colorado and the National Football Foundation honored Herb Orvis in the first quarter as he will become the seventh CU player (and eighth associated with the school) to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Orvis, a defensive end, played at CU from 1969-71; NFF CEO and CU grad Steve Hatchell and '93 Buffalo inductee Dick Anderson (class of '67) participated in the ceremony ... Colorado rushed for 315 yards; the Buffs had 703 total in the first seven games in the series ... CU is now 28-10 in games with a 100-yard rusher and receiver; it was just the third 200/100 game (3-0) ... ASU was 0-of-14 on second down before converting its first time early in the fourth quarter; it finished the game 1-of-20 ... ASU ran 23 plays in CU territory for a net 19 yards.

BOULDER — The Colorado Buffaloes parlayed the return of senior quarterback Sefo Liufau with a punishing ground game and buried No. 24 Arizona State, 40-16, at Folsom Field.

Beating the Sun Devils for the first time in eight tries, the Buffs (5-2, 3-1) remained tied with Utah (6-1, 3-1) in the Pac-12 Conference's South Division.

Liufau, out for all but two series in the previous three games with an ankle injury, completed 23 of his 31 passes for 265 yards. But it was CU's ground game — led by Phillip Lindsay's 29 carries for 219 yards and three touchdowns — that overran ASU (5-2, 2-2). The Sun Devils had entered the game with a Pac-12 leading rush defense, giving up just 89.3 yards per game.

Lindsay's 200-plus yard rushing game was the first by a Buff since Chris Brown's 211-yard effort against Missouri in 2002.

The Buffs celebrated Liufau's return by immediately kicking their offense into gear. They scored on their first possession, marching 81 yards in 10 plays and taking a 7-0 lead on Kyle Evans' 16-yard run and Davis Price's PAT.

Liufau gave a hint of his accuracy on the drive, completing all three of his pass attempts, and he completed his first nine of the night. Wide receiver Bryce Bobo finished the half with five receptions for 105 yards — his first career 100-yard receiving game.

The Buffs and Sun Devils went back and forth, battling to 7-7 and 10-10 ties until Liufau engineered a pair of scoring drives that covered 75 and 56 yards and opened a 23-10 halftime lead for CU.

Liufau's 3-yard keeper produced the first of those two TDs and Lindsay's 13-yard run accounted for the second. Price kicked a 20-yard field goal on the fourth play of the second quarter — his fourth of the season in as many attempts — and added two of three extra points. His first missed PAT of the season caromed off the right upright following Lindsay's TD run.

ASU's 10 first-half points came on a 5-yard Manny Wilkins to Kody Kohl pass and a 51-yard field goal by Zane Gonzalez.

CU's defense limited the Sun Devils to 50 rushing yards and 149 passing yards (199 total offense) for the game and held the visitors to 3-of-18 third-down conversions. Colorado also finished with a commanding 27-7 edge in first downs.

CU opened the second half with something a few decibels beyond a bang — a 75-yard TD run by Lindsay on the first play from scrimmage. Lindsay's score and Price's PAT pushed the Buffs in front 30-10.

The Sun Devils cut the lead to 30-13 on a 50-yard field goal by Gonzalez. After Price's first missed field goal of the season — a 26-yarder that drifted wide right — the Buffs got the ball back on Afolabi Laguda's interception, the first of his career. That gave CU possession at its own 20, and the Buffs converted it into a 32-yard field by Chris Graham that increased CU's lead to 33-13.

Gonzalez nailed a 59-yard field goal to bring ASU to within 33-16 midway through the fourth before Liufau and the Buffs put together an 8-play, 47-yard scoring drive, capped by Lindsay's 4-yard run with 40 seconds remaining, to finish the scoring.

ASU's 199 total yards was the lowest total by ASU in the Todd Graham era, and the lowest total by a CU conference foe since Kansas State managed just 196 in 2001.

Laguda's interception also pushed CU's streak of games with at least one defensive takeaway to a nation-leading 20, and Colorado's 580 total yards marked the fifth time the Buffs surpassed the 500-yard mark this season.

PALO ALTO — Colorado's defense put forth a game for the ages, holding Stanford's offense to just three points as the Buffaloes punched out a 10-5 win over the Cardinal to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2007.

The Buffs, who produced four defensive takeaways, improved their record to 6-2 overall and 4-1 in Pac-12 play, matching their largest win total since 2007.

Stanford struck first with a 66-yard drive that produced a field goal with 2:33 left in the first half. Christian McCaffrey carried six times for 29 yards on the drive and Stanford converted two third downs on the march. CU finally held when Chidobe Awuzie forced an incompletion on third down and Stanford settled for a 3-0 lead — the only offensive points Stanford produced all afternoon.

Following punts from both teams, Colorado answered with a sustained scoring drive. The Buffs went 73 yards in nine plays, with Phillip Lindsay carrying three times for 23 yards, including a 19-yard burst. Sefo Liufau completed three passes for 36 yards on the drive, including a 15-yard scoring toss to Shay Fields. Chris Graham's PAT gave CU a 7-3 lead with 11:59 to go in the first half.

Lindsay proved to be an effective weapon for the Buffs all day. The CU junior outrushed his Stanford counterpart, finishing with 131 yards on 12 carries, compared to McCaffrey's 92 yards on 11 carries.

After its first touchdown, CU missed an opportunity for more points on its next possession. The defense forced its third Stanford three-and-out of the half and Colorado drove from its own 12 to the Stanford 22 before the drive stalled. The Buffs came away with no points when Graham, subbing for an ill Davis Price, was wide left on a 42-yard field goal try.

The Buffs' kicking woes struck again — twice — in the third quarter. On their first possession of the second half, CU took the opening kick and drove inside the Stanford 5. But on second-and-goal from the 3, Liufau was sacked and Liufau threw incomplete on third down. Graham then attempted a 28-yard field goal and was again wide right and the score remained 7-3.

CU's defense then held Stanford on fourth down in CU territory, and the Buffs again drove to the Stanford 5-yard line. But a 5-yard touchdown pass from Liufau to Bryce Bobo was nullified by a pass interference penalty. Three plays later, the Buffs then sent punter Alex Kinney on to try a 31-yard field goal — and it was wide right and the score remained 7-3 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

After back-to-back three-and-outs, Stanford finally mustered a long drive, aided by a pair of penalties. The Cardinal moved from its own 34 to CU's 4-yard line. But on first-and-goal, Stanford's Ryan Burns fumbled the snap and CU's Kenneth Olugbode recovered. CU drove to its own 36 before stalling and a Kinney punt put the Cardinal at the Stanford 5-yard line with 8:36 to go.

CU's Tedric Thompson then recorded his second interception of the game and his 30-yard return gave the Buffs the ball on the Stanford 20. Colorado marched to the Stanford 5-yard line and the Buffs finally were successful on a field goal attempt as Graham was good from 23 yards out to give the Buffs a 10-3 lead.

Isaiah Oliver ended Stanford's final threat with an interception with 1:37 left. The Buffaloes, with not quite enough time to run out the clock, had to take a safety with :04 left, but the strategy worked perfectly after Graham's squib kick left Stanford only one desperation play from 82-yards out as time ran out.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 6-2 overall and 4-1 in league play for the first time since the 2005 season (when CU opened 7-2 and 5-1, respectively, in the Big 12); the Buffs also became bowl-eligible for the first time since 2007 (Independence Bowl) ... Colorado took its first lead in the series (7-3 early in the second quarter) since holding a 37-34 lead late in the '93 game (a span of five games) ... The 10 combined first half points tied for the second-fewest in a game since CU joined the Pac-12 (league and non-league); CU trailed Washington at Boulder, 7-0, in an eventual 38-3 loss on Nov. 17, 2012; the Buffs led Utah, 10-0, at halftime in 2011 ... The 10 points CU scored was the fewest in winning a game since a 6-0 win at Missouri on Oct. 8, 1992 ... Colorado rushed for 224 yards (which included 29 lost yards to sacks); the Buffs had 122 against the Cardinal in the last three games combined ... The 359 yards of total offense was also a high against Stanford since joining the Pac-12 (topping 264, 76 and 231) ... This was the sixth time in school history the opponent scored 5 points in a game (5-1; the previous time prior to today was on Thanksgiving Day in 1907 (Nov. 28), a 5-4 loss to Colorado Mines in Denver ... CU snapped a 10-game losing streak in California, and is now 3-20-1; the Buffs also improved to 6-17 against the Pac-12 North since joining the league (3-0 this season) having beaten both Oregon schools and now Stanford (the fourth and final game is Nov. 19 vs. Washington State) ... The 2:58 game time was CU's fastest since 2013 (2:50 at Washington).

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to both 7-2 overall and 5-1 in league play for the first time since 2005 ... CU's last winning score of 20-10 came 30 years ago almost to the week: Oct. 25, 1986 over No. 3 Nebraska in Boulder ... UCLA was the fifth opponent to open a game on offense with a "three-and-out" against the Buffs (three others had just one first down) ... UCLA became just the second team in five games to own a lead over the Buffaloes this year in the state of Colorado (Oregon State led 3-0 for 2:06) ... Colorado trailed at halftime for just the third time this season (24-21 at Michigan, 14-0 at USC previously) ... The last time CU and its opponent both had 10 or more penalties in a game was on Oct. 1, 2011 (CU 10-90, Washington State 10-125); that was CU's first Pac-12 league game ... This was CU's 399th all-time victory at home (307th at Folsom Field) ... Colorado won back-to-back games scoring 20 or fewer points for the first time since the 1969 season (identical 17-14 wins over Kansas and Oklahoma State on Nov. 8-15) ... CU had 105 yards in the second quarter—its 23rd 100-yard quarter out of 36; only UCLA and Michigan have held the Buffs to one 100-yard quarter in a game this season. UCLA finished with 210 yards of offense; it is the fourth team the Buffs have held to under 250 this season, last done by CU in 1998 (four under 250 that year) ... UCLA was 3-of-19 on second downs and limited the Bruins to 20 total yards ... The Bruins opened 3-of-4 on first downs but converted just 1-of-11 the rest of the way.

BOULDER — Isaiah Oliver's 68-yard fourth-quarter punt return for a touchdown led No. 21 Colorado to a 20-10 Pac-12 Conference victory over UCLA at Folsom Field.

It was CU's first win over the Bruins in six Pac-12 meetings, but was not without a challenge. The Buffs were penalized a season-high 12 times for 128 yards while UCLA was flagged 13 times for 96 yards. The Buffs suffered three interceptions and lost one of four fumbles.

But the Buffs defense held the Bruins to 210 yards in total offense, including only 25 rushing. CU rushed for 144 yards, paced by tailback Phillip Lindsay (78 yards, 1 TD) and quarterback Sefo Liufau (58 yards). Lindsay also made 11 receptions, a CU record for a running back.

Given a short field after the Bruins' first error-marred possession, the Buffs took over at the UCLA 37 but couldn't capitalize. CU turned the ball over on a Liufau interception — his first after a school-record 152 attempts without one — by safety Tahaan Goodman who gathered in a tipped pass that ended the streak.

The Buffs defense quickly returned the favor, with linebacker Kenneth Olugbode picking off Mike Fafaul and returning it to the Bruins' 25. A 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty pushed CU back to the UCLA 28.

But CU took quick advantage of Olugbode's theft, moving 38 yards in eight plays and capping the drive with Lindsay's 2-yard run. Chris Graham's PAT gave the Buffs a 7-0 lead, but the Bruins responded almost immediately, taking advantage of a 65-yard kickoff return by Brandon Burton and another 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty set UCLA up inside the CU 40.

Three plays later, UCLA quarterback Mike Fafaul found receiver Darren Andrews uncovered on the left sideline and hit him with a 38-yard scoring pass. Andrew Strauch's PAT kick created a 7-7 tie that held for the remainder of the first quarter.

Liufau was picked off again in the opening minutes of the second quarter, this time by linebacker Cameron Judge on an errant throw. Taking over at the CU 28, UCLA promptly lost 8 yards and on fourth down summoned J.J. Molson, whose 48-yard field goal with 12:19 left before halftime gave the Bruins a 10-7 lead.

UCLA had another chance to score later in the half after Liufau was hit from behind and fumbled. CU's defense rose to the occasion again, however, and after failing the move the ball, the Bruins came up empty when Chidobe Awuzie blocked a 26-yard field goal try by Molson.

The Buffs received the second-half kickoff, with Liufau returning at quarterback after he left late in the first half with an injury.

But CU's first-half offensive woes also came back, and it took a 42-yard punt return by Oliver to help the Buffs pull to a 10-10 tie. Oliver's return, along with an illegal substitution call on the Bruins that gave the Buffs a first down and Lindsay recovering his own fumble at the 1-yard line, led to a 21-yard Graham field goal to tie the game.

Later in the quarter, UCLA was wide right on a 44-yard field goal attempt. Liufau then drove the Buffs to the Bruins' 5-yard line before a penalty set the Buffs back, leading to a 37-yard Graham field goal early in the fourth period and 13-10 CU lead.

Oliver finally gave the Buffs a cushion with CU's first punt return for a touchdown since 2005. His 68-yard score gave CU a 20-10 lead with 5:27 to go in the game.

Olugbode's interception extended CU's nation-leading streak of forcing at least one turnover to 22 consecutive games while Liufau tied the CU school record for starts by a quarterback, matching Darian Hagan's 35 career starts.

TUCSON, Ariz. — Colorado quarterback Sefo Liufau threw three touchdown passes and rushed for another and Phillip Lindsay ran for three scores as the Buffaloes improved to 8-2 with a 49-24 win over Arizona at Arizona Stadium.

The Buffs improved to 8-2 overall and maintained their Pac-12 South lead with a 6-1 mark.

After a slow start, CU's offense methodically put the game away, building a 28-10 lead by halftime and extending it to 42-10 by the end of the third quarter.

Meanwhile, although Arizona's offense moved the ball well between the 20s, the Buffs' defense responded when they had their backs to the wall. The Wildcats' rushing game produced more yards against the Buffs than they had given up in the previous three games combined, but the Buffs forced Arizona to settle for field goal tries when it mattered — and the Wildcats missed three of their four attempts.

After taking a 7-0 lead on their first possession on a 1-yard Lindsay run, only to see the Wildcats tie the game early in the second quarter at 7-7, the Buffs took the lead for good on a 4-yard Lindsay run with 11:29 to go in the second quarter. Lindsay's run was set up by a 50-yard Liufau pass to Shay Fields and Davis Price's second PAT of the game gave the Buffs a 14-7 lead.

UA managed to pull within four on its next possession, getting a 23-yard field goal from Josh Pollack to narrow the gap to 14-10.

Colorado, though, then put up 28 unanswered points, beginning with a seven-play, 62-yard touchdown drive on the ensuing possession. Liufau had a 22-yard run on the march, and the Wildcats gave the Buffs a helping hand three plays later with a late-hit penalty that put CU at the Wildcats 16 yard line. Two plays later, Liufau hit Fields with a 15-yard touchdown pass and Price's third PAT gave CU a 21-10 lead.

On Arizona's next possession, Colorado extended its nation-leading streak of forcing at least one defensive takeaway to 23 when a Ryan Moeller hit on Arizona's Nate Phillips forced a fumble that Rick Gamboa recovered.

Two series later, the Buffs pushed the lead to 28-10, going 53 yards in four plays. Liufau hit a wide-open Jay MacIntyre down the left sideline for a 40-yard score and CU upped its lead to 28-10.

Arizona then missed a field goal try just before halftime and another on its first possession of the third period.

The Buffs then drove for the clinching touchdown, going 73 yards in seven plays for a 35-10 lead as Liufau hooked up with Fields on a 27-yard pass for the score.

Colorado added another score late in the third period, driving 52 yards in seven plays with Liufau scoring from 2 yards out for a 42-10 lead.

The Wildcats finally ended CU's 28-point run with a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, going 75 yards in seven plays, with Samajie Grant scoring from 3 yards out. Arizona then scored again after a tipped ball resulted in a Liufau interception. The Wildcats went 33 yards in three plays and a Zach Green 3-yard run cut CU's lead to 42-24 with 12:11 to go in the game.

But, Colorado snuffed any hopes of an Arizona comeback when the Buffs went 54 yards in four plays for the game's final score. Lindsay scored his third touchdown of the night on a 34-yard scamper to push CU's lead to 49-24 with 3:34 to go in the game.

Liufau made his 36th career start at QB for the Buffs, a CU record. He eclipsed the old mark of 35, set by Darian Hagan.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to both 8-2 overall and 6-1 in league play for the first time since 2001 (in the Big 12 North under coach Gary Barnett) ... This was the Buffs' fourth straight win, their first four-game winning streak since 2002 when it won five straight; it was a second straight league road game win, the first since claiming three straight in the Big 12 over the 2004 and 2005 seasons (both also under Barnett) ... CU improved to 54-19 against unranked teams in November dating back to the early 1990s ... Colorado scored on its first possession for the sixth time in 10 games ... The Buffs are now 29-10 all-time with a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver, as Phillip Lindsay (25-119) and Shay Fields (6-108) accomplished the feat against Arizona ... The opponent has not scored on its first drive in all 10 games this season (and on just one of 10 to open the second half) ... Ryan Moeller's forced fumble in the second quarter extended CU's nation-best streak to forcing at least one turnover in 23 straight games (Alabama is next with 22) ... Colorado had four sacks — all on third downs, and now 29 on the year, a high in the MacIntyre Era (besting the 28 last year—which was in 13 games) ... OLB Jimmie Gilbert (2 QBS-16). He increased his season sack total to 8½, tied for the 15th most in school history and a team-high since Abraham Wright recorded 11½ in 2006.

GAME NOTES

Colorado snapped a 23-game losing streak against ranked teams, as the last win over a ranked foe was against No. 17 Kansas in 2009 (34-30 in Boulder) ... This was CU's 400th all-time victory at home (308th at Folsom Field) ... Colorado improved to 9-2 overall for the first time since 2001, and to 7-1 in league play for the first time since back-to-back in 2001-02 ... This marked the first time the Buffs wore silver-black-silver (as in helmet-jersey-pant color) ... CU gained a season-high 603 yards and is now 17-1 all-time with 600+ yards (2-1 under MacIntyre) ... CU had two 100-yard rushers for the first time since Sept. 26, 2015 (versus Nicholls State); it was the 40th time the Buffs had a 100-yard rusher and receiver and now are 30-10 in those games ... Colorado has now scored a touchdown on 7 of its 11 possessions to open a game (outscore the opponent 49-0; the Buffs own a similar edge on the first drive of the second half by 31-7) ... Jimmie Gilbert's sack/fumble force and Addison Gillam's recovery with 2:58 left in the game extended CU's nation-best streak to forcing at least one turnover in 24 straight games ... WSU averaged 8.4 yards on first down in the first half, but the Buffs kept that to 2.8 after intermission ... WSU completed under 50 percent of its passes for the first time all year (49.1, 26-of-53; their previous worst was 58.3 versus UCLA, 28-of-48); its 325 yards were the third lowest ... Liufau and S Nick Fisher (6,0—6 TT, 4 3DS, 1 PBU) won the Pac-12 offensive and defensive player of the week honors.

BOULDER — Behind a dominant running game and an opportunistic, take-charge defense, the No. 12 Colorado Buffaloes dispatched No. 20 Washington State 38-24 at Folsom Field and remained in control of the Pac-12 Conference's South Division.

Tailback Phillip Lindsay and quarterback Sefo Liufau accounted for 252 of CU's 258 yards rushing and scored five touchdowns between them. Lindsay ran for 144 yards, going over 1,000 for the season and 2,000 for his career, and scored twice. Liufau ran for a career-best 108 yards, scored three TDs and completed 27-of-41 passes for 345 yards. With his 100-yard rushing, 300-yard passing game, Liufau became only the second player in CU history to accomplish that feat. The first was his backup, Steven Montez, this season at Oregon.

WSU entered the game with the Pac-12's top-ranked rushing defense, allowing only 116.9 yards a game. Cougars quarterback Luke Falk, the league leader in passing (361.0 yards a game) and total offense (356.2), completed 26-of-53 passes for 325 yards, with three TDs and one interception.

CU (9-2, 7-1) scored 10 points in the fourth quarter to put away WSU (8-3, 7-1), which had won eight straight after opening the season 0-2. It was CU's first win against a ranked opponent since 2009.

The Buffs stopped the Cougars on their first possession, took over and promptly marched 81 yards in 12 plays – mixing four pass completions with eight runs and scoring on a 9-yard carry by Lindsay. Davis Price's PAT put CU up 7-0.

But WSU retaliated quickly, and at the culmination of a 78-yard scoring drive CU lost safety Afolabi Laguda for the remainder of the game on a targeting call. He was whistled for hitting receiver Robert Lewis in the end zone during the completion of a 14-yard scoring pass as WSU tied the game at 7-7.

Later in the first quarter, Liufau was incomplete on a fourth-down pass and Falk and the Cougars needed just three plays to travel 72 yards and break the tie, the score coming on a 46-yard pass to Morrow.

The Buffs, though, came up with their own fourth-down stop early in the second quarter when Ahkello Witherspoon deflected a Falk pass. Liufau guided the Buffs 74 yards to the tying touchdown. He completed 5 of 6 passes for 50 yards, got a 10-yard run from Lindsay, and then gained the last 14 yards of the drive himself, including a 3-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 14-14.

WSU countered with a 28-yard field goal for a 17-14 lead that held until halftime.

Colorado quickly regained the lead, opening the third quarter with a 71-yard drive. CU converted three third-down attempts on the march, with Liufau keeping and converting on two of them before scoring a 7-yard keeper.

WSU responded once again, putting together a 67-yard scoring drive with Falk throwing a 7-yard TD pass to receiver John Thompson to take a 24-21 lead. It proved to be WSU's last points of the day.

The Buffs responded again, this time with a 75-yard scoring march. Liufau scored from 11 yards out to give the Buffs a 28-24 lead. The Buffs followed by coming up with a big fourth-down stop from Nick Fisher, which led to another CU score, a 46-yard Chris Graham field goal for a 31-24 lead.

Colorado then put the game away with a game-clinching 63-yard scoring drive that finished with a 13-yard Lindsay run and a 38-24 cushion.

GAME NOTES

The attendance of 52,301 was CU's first sellout since Oct. 4, 2008 (Texas) ... Colorado upped its lead in the series to 32-28-3, but Utah holds the edge as members of the Pac-12 by a 4-2 margin; all six of those games have been decided by one score (3, 7, 7, 4, 6, 5) and all came down to the last or next-to-last possession, and have been decided by a total of 32 points ... Colorado improved to 10-2 overall for the first time since 2001, and its 8-1 mark in league play is CU's first-ever 8-win conference season ... CU became the fifth team to win the Pac-12 South Division title ... The Buffs won their sixth in a row for the first time since 1996 ... The Buffs finished undefeated at home (6-0) since a similar mark in 1994 ... The Buffs improved to 22-26-1 when wearing all black (22-21-1 with a gold helmet) ... Colorado had no penalties for just the fifth time in recorded history, and for just the second time since 1985 ... CU defeated two ranked teams in back-to-back weeks for the first time since 2002 (31-17 over #20 UCLA, 35-31 over #13 Kansas State ... Colorado is now 4-1 as a ranked team this year ... The Buffs extended their scoring streak to 14 straight quarters (extending that streak twice against Utah with scores at 0:00 of the 1st and 3rd stanzas) ... CU was 6-of-8 on 3rd-&-1 plays ... Utah's longest gain on first down in the first half was 5 yards; it gained a net of 3 on 11 plays (0.3 per); its 86 first half yards were the third-lowest this year against the Buffs ... Utah was 2-of-11 for 20 yards passing on first down (sacked twice for 12 yards) ... Utah had four goal-to-go situations and was stuffed on its first nine plays (kicking three field goals), before scoring a TD on its 10th try.

BOULDER — The Colorado defense clamped down on Utah at Folsom Field, preserving a 27-22 victory that earned the No. 9 Buffaloes their first Pac-12 Conference South Division championship and their 10th victory of the season.

The win sent CU (10-2, 8-1) into the title game against North champ Washington.

No. 21 Utah (8-4, 5-4) took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter but never led again.

The Buffs forced four Utes turnovers, the last a fumble returned for a fourth-quarter touchdown by linebacker Kenneth Olugbode that put CU up 27-16. Safety Tedric Thompson made a pair of interceptions, giving him seven for the season and tying him with Dick Anderson and Cullen Bryant for the single-season school record.

Safety Chidobe Awuzie also recovered a fumble for the Buffs and made a touchdown-saving tackle on a 94-yard Utah kickoff return.

Buff's quarterback Sefo Liufau accounted for 326 yards in total offense (270 passing, 56 rushing) and two touchdowns. His 6-yard scoring pass to Shay Fields gave him 60 for his career, tying him with Cody Hawkins for the CU record.

The Buffs last enjoyed a 10-win season in 2001. It was the seventh 10-win season in school history.

Utah drew first blood on a 55-yard punt return for a touchdown by Boobie Hobbs.

CU finally responded after Utah's Andy Phillips missed a field goal try. Liufau and the Buffs drove 73 yards in seven plays for the tying score, with Liufau pin-balling in from the 2-yard line. He ran three times on the march for 21 yards and completed two passes for 49 yards, including a 42-yarder to Devin Ross.

After forcing another Utes three-and-out, Chris Graham capped a 14-play, 69-yard Buffs drive with a 25-yard field goal for a 10-7 lead.

CU's next possession ended the same way, with another Graham field goal from 19 yards out for a 13-7 lead that held through the half.

The Buffs then hit an offensive lull to start the second half. While CU was limited to a pair of three-and-outs on its first two possessions, Utah strung together a 7-play, 38-yard drive on its first possession and pulled to within 13-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Phillips.

On their next possession the Utes appeared to be on their way to at least another field goal when Joe Williams, who had moved the pile for a 12-yard gain, was stripped by CU's Ryan Moeller and the fumble recovered by Awuzie.

The Buffs moved from their own 2-yard line to the 40, where on third-and-one Liufau was stripped on a keeper. Four plays later, Phillips tied the game at 13-13 with a 22-yard field goal.

The Buffs answered with a 75-yard drive for the go-ahead score. On the eighth play, Liufau threw his 60th career TD pass — a 6-yard fade to Fields.

Utah's Kyle Fulks returned to the ensuing kickoff to the CU 3-yard line, where he was finally chased down by Awuzie. CU's defense then held again, forcing the Utes to settle for another field goal to pull within 20-16.

After a CU punt, Buffs linebacker Rick Gamboa punched the ball loose from Joe Williams and Olugbode scooped it up and ran 10 yards to the end zone, with the ensuing PAT giving Colorado a 27-16 lead with 10:56 to play.

Thompson then recorded his second interception of the game, the two teams traded punts and Utah scored the final points of the game with just more than 1:30 to play. CU stopped the 2-point try, then took the kickoff and three Phillip Lindsay runs produced 18 yards and a first down, enough for the Buffs to then run out the clock.

GAME NOTES

The Buffs are now 1-4 in league championship games (1-3 Big 12, 0-1 Pac-12) ... Colorado suffered its first loss and are now 2-1 when wearing their "White Ice" ensemble (all white: helmet-uniform-pant) ... Washington had two 100-yard runners; the last team that did that against CU was Oregon in 2015 ... The loss snapped a CU six-game winning streak, its longest since 1996 ... Both teams had just three penalties tonight; CU had just the three over its last two games ... CU ran just 54 plays, only the third time MacIntyre's 50 games the Buffs ran under 60 ... Colorado had a streak of scoring in 15 straight quarters come to an end in the scoreless second ... CU possessed the ball for only 21:26, its fewest since the 2010 season finale at Nebraska (20:30) ... The opponent had failed to score on its first possession in the first 12 games this season until UW's Lavon Coleman scored on a 1-yard run to cap the Huskies' first possession ... Washington came in outscoring its opponents 162-26 in the first quarter, but it was a 7-7 draw after 15 minutes ... CU held its last four opponents to under 50 percent passing in each game (9-of-24, 37.5 percent by UW; 60-of-143 over the four games (42.0) ... CU's nation's best streak of forcing a turnover in 25 straight games came to an end ... TB Phillip Lindsay finished the year with 47 receptions, a record for a running back at Colorado; His 102 points scored (17 TD) tied for the sixth most for a single-season in school history ... QB Sefo Liufau had a streak of 89 passes without an interception end.

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — Colorado lost starting quarterback Sefo Liufau for almost the entire first half to injury and the Buffs never found their rhythm in dropping a 41-10 decision to Washington in the Pac-12 Championship game at Levi's Stadium.

For the first time this year, a CU opponent took the opening kickoff and scored, as Washington went 65 yards on seven plays for the game's opening touchdown. The big play on the drive was a 26-yard run from Lavon Coleman, which put the Huskies on CU's 12. Four plays later, Coleman scored from 1 yard out for a 7-0 lead.

Colorado took the kickoff and drove into Washington territory before Liufau was injured on a quarterback sack. Montez replaced Liufau and two plays later, threw incomplete on fourth down.

CU's defense, however, returned the favor. The Buffs sacked Washington quarterback Jake Browning twice on the Huskies' next possession, including a fourth-down stop from Jimmie Gilbert and Timothy Coleman Jr. that gave the ball back to Colorado.

Montez then engineered a seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive to tie the game. He completed a 13-yard pass to Kyle Evans on third-and-7 to keep the drive alive and followed that with a 21-yard strike to Shay Fields to the UW 9. Two plays later, Phillip Lindsay scored from 3 yards out and Davis Price's PAT tied the game at 7-7.

The two teams then traded punts, but the Huskies came out with good field position after CU was forced to kick from deep in its own territory. UW then drove 56 yards (nine plays) for the go-ahead score with Jake Browning throwing a 15-yard pass to Darrell Daniels and the PAT gave the Huskies a 14-7 lead that held through halftime.

Liufau returned behind center for the Buffs to start the second half, but on CU's first play from scrimmage, a tipped pass ended up in the hands of Washington's Taylor Rapp, who returned it 35 yards for a touchdown. The PAT gave Washington a 21-7 lead with 14:44 still to go in the third quarter.

Washington's defense then struck again, with Rapp notching his second interception of Liufau and returning it to the CU 25. Colorado's defense rose to the occasion and held UW to a 24-yard Cameron Van Winkle field goal, but the Huskies still held a 24-7 lead with 11:27 still to go in the third period.

The Huskies then extended their lead to 31-7 two possessions later. Moving from their own 40, UW needed just four plays to go 60 yards for the score. Browning completed a 19-yard touchdown pass to John Ross, throwing while in the grasp of CU's Gilbert to give Washington a 31-7 lead.

The Buffs finally managed to add to their point total on the ensuing possession. Anthony Julmisse returned the kick to midfield before fumbling, only to have the ball bounce directly into the hands of Lindsay, who caught it on the run and advanced it to the UW 2-yard line. A penalty on second down put the Buffs back to the 14 and they managed only 7 yards on the next two plays, but Colorado did salvage a Chris Graham 24-yard field goal to make the score 31-10 with 3:43 to go in the third period.

The Huskies then added a field goal and another touchdown to finish the night's scoring.

The Buffs were outgained 383-163, with the Huskies racking up 265 yards on the ground. CU's previous low yardage total had been 304 yards. The Huskies also won the turnover battle, picking off three passes, while Colorado saw its nation-leading streak of games with at least one defensive takeaway end at 25.
