COLORADO 17 COLORADO STATE 3

SEPTEMBER 1, 2017

MILE HIGH STADIUM, DENVER

GAME 1

DENVER – An anticipated high-scoring shootout never materialized in the Rocky Mountain Showdown.

Instead, Colorado scored the first 17 points of the game, then relied on its defense for the rest of the night as the Buffs posted a 17-3 win over rival Colorado State.

The Buffs received a solid rushing effort from Phillip Lindsay (19 carries, 140 yards and one TD in his seventh career 100-yard game) and some highlight passing moments from quarterback Steven Montez (21-for-29, 202 yards, 1 TD, 2 interceptions), but it was new defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot's defense that made the difference for much of the game.

The Buffs put 17 unanswered points on the board to start the game, getting a touchdown and field goal in the first quarter, then adding another touchdown early in the second period. That was all the points the Buffs would need.

"I was really excited about how hard our guys played," CU head coach Mike MacIntyre said. "We started out fast and then we kind of stalled. We had some opportunities to score more points and let them hang around. But I was really proud of our defense and our special teams. We'll look at this tape and we'll improve."

After forcing a pair of CSU punts and one of their own, the Buffs put their first points on the board with a six-play, 94-yard drive. Montez completed four passes on the drive, including a 12-yard toss over the middle to Devin Ross on third-and-5 before Lindsay finished the march with a 45-yard burst up the middle to the end zone. Chris Graham's PAT gave CU a 7-0 lead at the 7:11 mark.

The Buffs bumped the margin to 10-0 on their next possession, driving to the CSU 22 before settling for a 39-yard James Stefanou field goal. Lindsay had two carries for 29 yards on the drive.

Colorado's defense, meanwhile, kept Rams quarterback Nick Stevens and the CSU running game in check. CU forced four CSU punts in the first quarter, and after the fourth, CU needed just four plays to put up its second touchdown of the night.

Lindsay ran for 18 yards on second down and for 7 more after a penalty. Montez then finished the drive by spinning out of the pocket under pressure, rolling to his left and motioning wide receiver Shay Fields into the end zone and unloading a perfect ball to a streaking Fields, who grabbed the catch in stride for a 31-yard touchdown pass and a 17-0 lead with 13:36 left in the second quarter.

The Rams finally got on the board on their next possession, moving from their own 25 to the CU 13, where they settled for a 31-yard Wyatt Bryan field goal.

That proved to be the end of the scoring for the evening.

The Buffs had several drives stall near midfield, and finally reached inside the CSU red zone in the fourth quarter, only to see the drive end on a missed field goal. CU also had a pair of drives ended by interceptions.

The Colorado defense, however, did its job all night. CSU reached inside the red zone only twice and came away with only a field goal. The Buffs held the Rams to just 88 yards rushing and while CSU finished 309 yards passing, 145 came in the fourth quarter as they tried to mount a comeback.

The Buffs held strong down the stretch, ending CSU's last three possessions on downs (incomplete pass), a fumble recovery by Afolabi Laguda and an interception by Trey Udoffia.

The win was CU's third straight in the series and gave Colorado an all-time 65-22-2 edge.

GAME NOTES

Colorado has won three straight season openers for the first time since 2003-04-05 (all against CSU both times) ... Buffs now lead the series 65-22-2 (11-6 in Denver, 22-8 since it was resumed in 1983) ... MacIntyre is now 3-2 in season openers at CU and is 6-1 against CSU overall (2-0 at San Jose State) ... Colorado is now 79-44-5 in 128 season openers ... CU won the coin toss and has now won 14 of the last 15 dating back to last year's opener ... The 17 points were the fewest scored by the Buffs in a season-opening win since 1970 (won 16-9 at Indiana) and the fewest by the winning team in the CU-CSU series since 2006 (CSU, 14-10 in Denver), and it is only the third time since the rivalry resumed in 1983 that the winning team didn't score at least 20 ... The 3 points the Buffaloes allowed were the fewest in a season opener since 2010 (24-3 win over CSU in Denver) and 1988 (45-3 over Fresno State in Boulder); otherwise, you have to go back to a 0-0 tie at Wisconsin in 1965 to find the last time CU allowed fewer ... It was the third time in the last 11 games that CU did not allow a touchdown, and the fewest points the Buffs have allowed in any game since a 48-0 win over Nicholls State in 2015 (the fewest by an FBS opponent since the 2010 CSU game) ... It had been eight years since CU played a game with a scoreless second half; last: at Kansas State, Oct. 24, 2009 (KSU won, 20-6) ... The attendance of 73,932 exceeded last year's (69,850) and is the most in the series since 2003 (76,219); it was the fifth-highest in the 17 games in Denver.

COLORADO 37 TEXAS STATE 3

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

GAME 2

BOULDER – Colorado broke open a tight game with a 17-point third-quarter outburst and went on to take a 37-3 win over a feisty Texas State squad at Folsom Field.

The Buffs improved to 2-0 with the win while Texas State dropped to 1-1.

While the game was never really in doubt, the Buffs had to grind this one out. CU took a 14-0 lead into the locker room at half, added 17 points to that total in the third quarter for a 31-3 lead, then tacked on two field goals in the fourth for the final tally.

Defensively, the Buffs were once again stellar, holding their opponent to a mere field goal for the second week in a row — the first time since 1958 that CU opened the season by holding its first two opponents without a touchdown. Led by three sacks from Leo Jackson III, Colorado recorded six sacks and a pair of takeaways, including a highlight-reel interception by cornerback Isaiah Oliver.

Offensively, Buffs quarterback Steven Montez finished strong, completing 19 of 31 attempts for 299 yards and a touchdown to go with a rushing touchdown. Running back Phillip Lindsay put in a workmanlike 26-carry, 87-yard effort that included a touchdown run; Buffs receivers Bryce Bobo (7 catches, 75 yards and a touchdown), Shay Fields (5-110) and Devin Ross (4-68) also had solid days; and James Stefanou added a perfect 3-for-3 day on his field goal tries.

But maybe the biggest play came on special teams. With the score still tied at 0-0 and CU's offense sputtering, the Buffs forced a Texas State punt near the end of the first quarter. CU's Oliver fielded the kick and returned it 4 yards before fumbling while attempting to spin out of a tackle. But Buffs true freshman Laviska Shenault Jr. was on the spot, snatching up the loose ball and racing 55 yards to the end zone for his first touchdown as a Buff on his first collegiate touch. Stefanou's ensuing PAT gave the Buffs a 7-0 lead.

From that point on, the Buffs scored by more conventional means. On their next possession following Shenault's score, Montez directed CU's longest scoring drive of the year, a 9-play, 96-yard drive that culminated with Montez carrying in from 2 yards out. The CU sophomore also completed passes of 44 yards to Fields and 28 yards to Bobo on the march.

But it wasn't until the third quarter that CU's offense finally found the consistency it had been missing. The Buffs opened the half with a 58-yard drive that produced a field goal and 17-0 lead, and two possessions later added a Lindsay 7-yard touchdown run for a 24-3 edge. Colorado then put its final touchdown of the day on the board late in the period by driving 86 yards in seven plays. Montez completed four passes on the march, including a 31-yard strike to Ross, a 16-yard toss to Lindsay and an 11-yard scoring pass to Bobo.

Defensively, the Buffs were in control most of the game, although they did dodge a bullet early. Texas State running back Anthony Taylor burst loose for a 55-yard run on the first play of the game, but the CU defense then held and a Bobcats field goal try was wide left.

After that initial thrust, the Bobcats never seriously threatened to reach the end zone, getting a 32-yard field goal in the third quarter to avoid a shutout. Oliver came up with the defensive play of the day, tipping a deep ball to himself for an interception, then returning it 41 yards to set up CU's third touchdown of the game.

Texas State gained over 50 percent of its yards on four plays (145), netting 138 on its other 61 plays.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 2-0 for the second straight year (owning a 154-20 scoring edge), for the third time under Mike MacIntyre and for the 56th time in 128 seasons ... The game time of 3:01 was partially due to a reduced commercial length format the Pac-12 is experimenting with (next week, a 15-minute halftime) ... CU won the coin toss (again) and has now won 15 of the last 16 dating back to last year's opener ... In holding Texas State to a field goal, it marked the first time since 1958 that Colorado did not allow a touchdown in its first two games of the year (offensive or otherwise) ... Colorado recorded six quarterback sacks against Texas State (for 27 yards in losses), its first six-sack game since Nov. 25, 2011 at Utah ... Texas State did most of its offensive damage on four plays, as two rushes and two passes totaled 145 yards; it had 138 yards on its other 61 plays (2.3 per) ... DE Leo Jackson recorded the first multi-sack game of his career. In 26 games prior, he had just three career sacks ... Freshman WR Laviska Shenault joined an exclusive club with just 14 other members today when he scored on his first collegiate touch: he recovered an Isaiah Oliver fumble on a punt return and raced 55 yards for the score; he joined Jeremy Bloom (2002) as the lone two freshmen to have done it ... CU had a huge 116-9 edge in return yards ... The Buffs were turnover-free and has now played 79 turnover-free games dating back to 1946 owning a record of 53-22-4 in those games (7-3 under MacIntyre, 4-0 over the last two seasons).

COLORADO 41 NORTHERN COLORADO 21

SEPTEMBER 16, 2017

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

GAME 3

BOULDER — It took Colorado longer than many expected to administer the knockout punch, but the Buffaloes survived a Northern Colorado rally, then pulled away in the second half to collect a 41-21 win at Folsom Field.

It was the first meeting between the two programs since 1934.

Bufs quarterback Steven Montez established career highs in attempts (41), completions (29), yardage (357) and touchdowns (four) while running back Phillip Lindsay ran for 151 yards and a score for his eighth career 100-yard game. The victory gave CU its first 3-0 start since 2008 and just the second since 1999.

The victory also extended CU's win streak at Folsom Field to eight, the longest since a 10-game home win streak from 1993-95.

After not giving up a touchdown in their first two games, the Buffs saw that streak come to an end in a hurry. The Bears forced a CU punt on the Buffs' first possession, then turned around and marched 70 yards in six plays for a touchdown, getting a 33-yard scoring pass from Jacob Knipp to Alex Wesley to take a 7-0 lead.

But Colorado then put 28 unanswered points on the board and looked ready to blow the game wide open.

The Buffs went 75 yards in six plays to tie the score, getting a 4-yard scoring toss from Montez to Devin Ross. The Buffs caught a break on UNC's next possession, recovering a bad snap to Knipp at the UNC 5-yard line and Colorado needed just one Phillip Lindsay run to take a 14-7 lead.

CU then added two more scores in the second quarter. Montez ended an 80-yard scoring drive with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Shay Fields, then finished a 73-yard march with a 29-yard touchdown pass to Bryce Bobo.

But almost before the announced Folsom Field crowd of 44,318 could settle in for the rout, the Bears had other ideas. UNC answered CU's fourth touchdown with a 90-yard scoring drive, finishing with a 48-yard pass from Knipp to Wesley to cut Colorado's lead to 28-14 at the half.

The Bears then took the second half opening kickoff and marched 75 yards to paydirt, with Knipp throwing 27 yards to tight end Michael McCauley for the score. At that point, Colorado's one-time 21-point lead had been cut to seven, 28-21.

The Buffs, though, finally pulled momentum back to their sideline, but not before losing a fumble deep in UNC territory. On their next possession, however, they drove for a 33-yard field goal from James Stefanou to bump their margin back to double digits, 31-21.

Montez and Co. then added an insurance touchdown in the fourth quarter, driving 85 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Montez completed the drive with a 14-yard scoring toss to Jay MacIntyre, his fourth touchdown pass of the day. MacIntyre became the fourth CU receiver in the game to catch a touchdown pass, joining Fields, Ross and Bobo. All four starting receivers also had at least four catches, with Ross totaling eight for 143 yards and Fields eight for 69.

The Buffs completed the scoring with a late fourth quarter field goal.

Overall, CU finished with 569 yards offense — 357 in the air and 212 on the ground — and the Buffs had scoring drives that covered 75, 80, 73 and 85 yards.

Defensively, ILB Drew Lewis had nine tackles and cornerback Isaiah Oliver had an interception for the second game in a row. The Buffs also stiffened defensively after UNC's initial score in the second half, and did not allow the Bears past midfield for the rest of the game.

GAME NOTES

Colorado opened 3-0 for the 41st time in its 128-year history, but for the first time since 2008 and just the second time since opening 5-0 in 1998 (3-0 also in 2004) ... CU leads the series with UNC by a 10-2 count; this was just the fifth time in 12 games both teams scored, and the first that both did in double figures; the 62 points combined were the most ... The game time of 3:22 despite halftime being reduced to 15 minutes ... CU lost the coin toss after winning 10 in a row, but has still won 15 of the last 17 dating back to last year's opener ... Colorado gained at least 100 yards in each quarter for the first time this season and for the first time since last year's Washington State game (CU did it three times in 2016) ... The Buffaloes went 123:52 before allowing their first touchdown this season ... This marked the 41st time in school history the Buffaloes had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game (31-10 in such contests): TB Phillip Lindsay (26-151 rushing) and WR Devin Ross (8-143; receiving); and the duo was seven yards receiving short of becoming the first 150/150 in CU annals (previous closest was nine rushing yards on two occasions) ... CU's receivers nicknamed themselves the "Blackout Boyz," mainly led by the four starters: seniors Bryce Bobo, Shay Fields and Devin Ross and junior Jay MacIntyre. Those four combined for 26 catches for 342 yards (13.2 per), with four touchdowns and all 16 first downs earned in the passing game ... Though just with six career starts (and a 5-1 record), QB Steven Montez has already tied a significant CU record as he now has career 400-yard total offense games.

GAME 4 WASHINGTON 37 COLORADO 10

SEPTEMBER 23, 2017

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

GAME 4

BOULDER — Seventh-ranked Washington handed Colorado a repeat of their Pac-12 title game from last year, methodically pounding out a 37-10 win before a soggy Folsom Field crowd of 47,666.

After a close first half, the Huskies pulled away after intermission, once again aided by an interception return for a touchdown — one of three interceptions thrown by Buffs quarterback Steven Montez, the same number of interceptions recorded by the Huskies in last year's game.

Washington, which outscored Colorado 27-3 in the second half last year for a 41-10 win, outscored the Buffs 27-3 in the second half again. The loss dropped Colorado to 3-1 on the season (0-1 Pac-12) while the Huskies improved to 4-0, 1-0.

The Buffs ended up being their own worst enemy in clutch situations. Colorado scored first, but the Huskies then put 17 unanswered points on the board off CU miscues and the UW offense wore down the Buffs defense.

Colorado drew first blood, taking the opening kickoff and marching 75 yards in 11 plays for the score. Montez completed four passes for 54 yards on the drive, including throws of 13 yards to Bryce Bobo and 22 yards to Devin Ross. Phillip Lindsay carried six times for 21 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown run. James Stefanou's PAT gave Colorado a 7-0 lead with 10:24 to go in the first quarter.

The Buffs then threatened to extend that margin after an Afolabi Laguda interception ended the Huskies' first possession. Colorado drove from its own 20 into Washington territory, but the drive stalled at the UW 40 and the Buffs punted.

Colorado got one more break on the Huskies' ensuing possession when UW kicker Tristan Vizcaino was wide right on a 32-yard field goal try.

But the Buffs' luck broke the other way on their next possession when Montez came up short on a third-down run, forcing a CU punt. The Huskies crashed protection and blocked an Alex Kinney kick, recovering at the Colorado 12.

Four plays later, the Huskies tied the game on a 1-yard Myles Gaskin run.

From that point on, the Buffs continued to create opportunities for the Huskies. On CU's next possession, Colorado drove into Washington territory before a Montez pass bounced off Lindsay's hands into those of UW's Jordan Miller. Nine plays later, the Huskies got a 25-yard go-ahead field goal for a 10-7 lead.

CU's next possession ended with a Montez interception in the end zone and UW ran out the clock to end the half.

The Huskies then methodically pulled away from the Buffs in the second half. Washington took the kickoff and marched 74 yards for a TD, with a CU penalty on a third-down incompleting keeping the drive alive. The Huskies capped the drive with a 43-yard touchdown pass from Jake Browning to Quinten Pounds for a 17-7 lead.

Colorado managed to answer with a scoring drive of its own, going 53 yards before settling for a 49-yard James Stefanou field goal to close to within 17-10. The Buffs then caught a break on UW's next possession when Vizcaino missed another field goal try.

But the Buffs then committed their biggest mistake of the night on their next possession when UW cornerback Myles Bryant broke on a Montez pass, picked it off and raced 35 yards to the end zone, giving the Huskies a 24-10 lead.

From that point on, Washington ground the Buffs down. The Huskies added a seven-play, 61-yard scoring drive early in the final period to go up 31-10, then added their final score of the night when Gaskin went 57 yards for a score midway through the fourth quarter.

GAME NOTES

This was the first time it rained during a game at Folsom Field in two years (there was light to moderate rain throughout the Oregon game on Oct. 3, 2015; just the second game with rain since 2006) ... Because of the weather and slippery conditions, CU's live buffalo mascot, Ralphie V, did not run in either half ... WR Juwann Winfree made his first career start; DL Jase Franke made his first career start at defensive end but his second overall ... Washington won its seventh straight in the series to extend its lead to 11-5-1 (CU's last win over the Huskies was in the '96 Holiday Bowl) ... The Buffs dropped to 1-1 when wearing silver helmets-black jerseys-silver pants ... The game time of 2:57 was easily the quickest of the year, matched last year's total of sub-3 hour games (1) and was the fastest since the 2013 CU-Washington game in Seattle that took 2:48 ... CU lost the coin toss after for the second consecutive game, which had not occurred since 2015 ... The Buffaloes scored for the first time in 2017 on their first possession of the game (driving 75 yards in 11 plays) ... Colorado's first kickoff return of the season (K.D. Nixon's 27-yard effort) came 201 minutes into the year; CU went on to return five kickoffs for a 22.2 average ... TB Phillip Lindsay (5-32 receiving) became CU's all-time reception leader by a running back with 96 receptions (for 783 yards, which is second); he passed Rodney Stewart (2008-11) who had 93 for 969 ... PK James Stefanou made his career-long 49 yard field goal and improved to 7-of-8 on the season; it was the fifth-longest field goal by a freshman in school history, and his 7-of-8 start ties the fourth-best beginning in field goal makes by any kicker in CU annals ... Myles Gaskin (27-202) was the first player to rush for over 200 yards against CU since Arizona's Jared Baker did so on Oct. 17, 2015 (23-207).

UCLA 27 COLORADO 23

ROSE BOWL, PASADENA, CALIF.

GAME 5

PASADENA, Calif. — True to form, the Colorado-UCLA game came down to the fourth quarter in the Rose Bowl, with the Bruins hanging on for a 27-23 win.

CU dropped to 3-2 on the season and 0-2 in the Pac-12. UCLA improved to 3-2, 1-1.

The game was close throughout, as Colorado led early, then saw the Bruins rally to take the lead. UCLA held a 14-10 edge at the half after a Buffs fake field goal attempt near the end of the half resulted in an incomplete pass.

The Bruins led by as many as 11 in the second half. Colorado cut the lead to one twice, 21-20 and 24-23, but could never completely erase the deficit.

For the second week in a row, Colorado scored first. The Buffs marched 63 yards on nine plays, reaching the end zone on a 21-yard pass from Steven Montez to Phillip Lindsay for a 7-0 lead.

Montez finished with 243 yards passing (17-for-36) and one touchdown and was also CU's leading rusher with 108 yards on 15 carries. The Buffs had 191 yards on the ground.

UCLA quickly answered, driving 75 yards on the ensuing possession to tie the game at 7-7, getting a 12-yard touchdown throw from Josh Rosen to Austin Roberts. Rosen was 28-for-45 for 372 yards with one touchdown and one interception. UCLA finished with just 95 yards rushing.

Colorado took the lead again two possessions later, driving 47 yards on five plays before settling for a 33-yard James Stefanou field goal for a 10-7 lead. It was Stefanou's seventh straight field goal of the season and his eighth successful in attempt in nine tries.

The Bruins, though, took the lead for the first time on their next possession when Rosen engineered an eight-play, 75-yard drive. Rosen completed a 46-yard toss to Lasley on a flea-flicker play before Jalen Starks carried in from the 1-yard line for a 14-10 lead.

Colorado then muffed a chance to pull within one late in the half when a fake field goal produced an incomplete pass and the half ended with the Bruins holding on to their 14-10 lead.

After a CU possession that went nowhere to open the second half, UCLA quickly built its lead to 21-10, driving 58-yards in five plays with Soso Jamabo carrying in from the 2.

Colorado finally got its offense back on track. The Buffs went 75 yards for a score on their next possession, with Phillip Lindsay capping the drive with a 2-yard run to cut UCLA's lead to 21-17 with 6:59 to go in the third quarter. The big play of the drive was a Montez run for 25 yards on fourth-and-1.

The Buffs then created their first big break of the game when safety Evan Worthington intercepted a Rosen pass near the sidelines. Colorado then drove 62 yards to the UCLA 16 before settling for a 33-yard field goal to close the gap to 21-20.

UCLA extended its lead to four in the fourth quarter on a 33-yard J.J. Molson field goal before Colorado answered again, driving from the CU 29 to the UCLA 16. Stefanou kicked his third 33-yard field goal of the night to pull the Buffs to within one, 24-23, with 6:46 left in the game.

The Bruins, however, took the ensuing kickoff and methodically marched downfield, eating up yardage and clock at the same time. The Bruins used 6:15 before taking a 31-yard Molson field goal for a 27-23 lead with just 26 seconds left in the game for the final points of the night.

Colorado's last-gasp drive ended with Montez throwing incomplete in the end zone as the clock ran out.

GAME NOTES

The last four games in the series have been decided by 21 points (UCLA has won three of the four, by 11 points) ... This marked the first time CU wore all black for a road game (previously did so for a bowl, a Big 12 title game and two CSU games in Denver); the Buffs are now 3-2 when donned in all black away from Folsom (2-15 when wearing black helmets as well) ... Colorado dropped to 3-22-1 in the state of California (1-4 in Pasadena), with UCLA's series lead at 10-3 (6-1 in California) ... Alumni-city on the CU sidelines: Chris Hudson ('94 Thorpe winner), Nelson Spruce, Scotty McKnight, Stephane Nembot, Jordan Carrell and Rashidi Barnes all in attendance ... DT Lyle Tuiloma made his first career start ... Colorado won the coin toss for the third time this year and for the 16th time in 19 tries dating back to last year's season opener ... Colorado finally started the offensive line it basically practiced with for all of August camp: LT-Jeromy Irwin, LG-Gerrad Kough, C-Jonathan Huckins, RG-Tim Lynott, RT-Aaron Haigler; Irwin missed the first two games for violating team rules, Huckins the last two after being injured against Texas State ... QB Steven Montez had his second career 100-yard rushing game but this was the first time in eight starts (5-3 record) that he did not complete 50 percent of his passes ... TB Phillip Lindsay became the 17th player in school history, and the first running back, to have 100 career receptions; he landed on that number with four receptions ... S Evan Worthington made his second career interception ... PK James Stefanou (2-2 PAT, 3-3 FG) extended his streak to nine straight FG makes, tied for the second-longest in school annals.

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

GAME 6

BOULDER — Phillip Lindsay became Colorado's all-time leader in all-purpose yards, but the Buffs had no answer on defense for Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate as the Buffs came up short, 45-42, at Folsom Field.

Lindsay ran for 281 yards and three touchdowns on a CU-record 41 carries, and also added 39 yards receiving as CU finished with 551 yards on offense. Tate, who replaced injured Brandon Dawkins early in the game, had 327 yards rushing on 14 carries — an FBS record for a quarterback — and four touchdowns, along with 142 yards passing and another score.

The game was the first time in FBS history that two players eclipsed 250 yards in rushing. Their 608 yards rushing was also an FBS record for most rushing yardage by two players.

The two teams traded scores all night, with Arizona taking a 21-14 lead at the half. The Buffs managed to stay close but could never completely close the gap.

On the 'Cats first possession after Dawkins' injury, Tate raced 58 yards to the end zone to give the Wildcats a 7-0 lead on the first play of the drive.

CU answered Arizona's first score with a 10-play, 75-yard drive. Steven Montez completed a pair of big third-down passes — the first for 39 yards to Jay MacIntyre and the second to Shay Fields for 15 — before Lindsay carried on the last four plays, including a 5-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 7-7.

Tate needed one play, a 75-yard run, to put Arizona back in the lead, 14-7, before Colorado answered again. The Buffs drove 85 yards in 19 plays for the tying score. Lindsay carried 14 times for 80 yards, including the 1-yard touchdown run.

Arizona, however, responded with a three-play, 68-yard drive. Tate had a 13-yard scoring pass to Shun Brown for a 21-14 lead, which held until the half.

After forcing a Colorado punt to open the second half, Arizona needed just 1:16 to go 70 yards for a score, with Tate scoring from 47 out and a 28-14 lead.

The Buffs answered again with another long, methodical march, driving 75 yards in 15 plays. Montez hit Bryce Bobo from 7 yards out for the score. The drive pulled the Buffs to within 28-21 with 7:13 still left in the third.

But Arizona and Tate responded by going 75 yards for another score. Tate had a 28-yard run on the drive as the Wildcats went up 35-21.

Colorado again pulled to within a touchdown. CU drove 75 yard in 10 plays, with a Montez 2-yard pass to Chris Bounds narrowing the Arizona lead to 35-28 early in the fourth.

Tate answered again. This time it was another 75-yard scoring run, his fourth rushing touchdown of the game, giving the Wildcats a 42-28 lead.

Colorado took the ensuing kickoff and marched 75 yards to its fifth touchdown of the night, capping the drive with a 39-yard Montez pass to Bounds, cutting Arizona's lead to 42-35 with 11:02 left.

Arizona then made it a two-score game again, but had to settle for a 24-yard Josh Pollack field goal for a 45-35 lead with 8:06 left.

CU then drove 75 yards again, in nine plays. Lindsay scored from 11 yards out on his 41st carry of the night. With 5:04 left in the game, the Buffs trailed by three, 45-42.

But Arizona managed to run the clock out on its next possession, with Tate running for a key conversion to extend the drive, racing 31 yards on a 3rd-and-7 to the Buff 17. The Wildcats then ran the clock out with a pair of kneeldowns with the Buffs all out of timeouts.

Tate also completed 12-of-13 passes for 154 yards, giving him 481 yards of total offense, leading UA to 10.13 yards per play (567 on 56 plays), the fourth-highest number ever against a CU team.

GAME NOTES

Tonight's attendance of 49,976 was the most for a CU-UA game at Folsom Field, besting the 48,111 back in 2011, the Buffs' first year in the Pac-12 Conference ... Colorado donned white helmets, black jerseys and white pants (dropping to 2-1 in the look) ... The Buffs are 18-8 in Family Weekend games and now lead the series with Arizona 14-6 (6-4 in Boulder, 7-3 in night games) ... This matched the highest scoring game in the series (87 points; UA won 56-31 in Tucson in 2012); both teams have scored 20 or more points in last eight games ... This tied for the third most points as well as the fourth most total offense in losing a game in CU history ... Colorado is now 188-5 all-time when scoring 38 or more points ... The teams combined for 725 rushing yards (UA 425, CU 300) ... Seniors TB Phillip Lindsay and WR Shay Fields and left indelible marks against Arizona, Lindsay finishing with the most career rushing yards against one opponent (605) and Fields the second-most career receiving yards versus one school (408) ... Lindsay had a record night, becoming CU's all-time leader in all-purpose yards (4,989), set the mark for the most carries (41), became the fifth Buff to surpass 3,000 yards rushing thanks to the fourth-most single game rushing yards (281), and tied the school mark for first downs earned in a game (17, 16 rushing) and he matched the late Rashaan Salaam's mark set against Texas in 1994 for the most by a non-quarterback. TE Chris Bounds, in making his first two TD receptions of his career, became the first CU tight end to have two in a game since Joe Klopfenstein did so against Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 22, 2005.

COLORADO 36 OREGON STATE 33

| COLORADO .....     | 7  | 7 | 7 | 15 | — | 36 |
| Oregon State ..... | 10 | 9 | 7 | 7  | — | 33 |

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Phillip Lindsay rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns and quarterback Steven Montez and wide receiver Bryce Bobo hooked up for three scores — with Bobo throwing one to Montez — to lead the Buffs to a 36-33 come-from-behind win at Oregon State.

The final Montez-to-Bobo score came with just 1:34 left in the game, capping a nine-play, 82-yard scoring drive that gave the Buffs their 36-33 lead.

Montez masterfully piloted the game-winning drive, completing all four of his passes for 38 yards, three for first downs, and also had an 11-yard run to earn one. Lindsay picked up 23 yards on four carries on the possession, in which the Buffs never were faced with a third down try.

Oregon State then drove into CU territory on its final possession, but a 52-yard field goal try with 10 seconds left fell short to clinch the Buffs win.

Montez finished 14-of-24 for 168 yards and two scores while Lindsay rushed 28 times for 185 yards and two scores, giving him 466 yards rushing and five touchdowns on 69 carries in his last two games.

After a lackluster first half that saw the Buffs trailing 19-14 at intermission, the Buffs finally took the lead early in the third period, sparked by an Evan Worthington interception on OSU's first possession of the half. Worthington returned the errant pass 43 yards and the Buffs needed just six plays to go 46 yards to the end zone. Montez threw 8 yards to Shay Fields and Lindsay ran 17 yards on the drive, with Lindsay scoring from 9 yards out. James Stefanou's PAT gave the Buff their first lead of the game, 21-19, with 7:07 left in the third period.

But Oregon State quickly answered, going 75 yards in six plays to regain the lead. OSU running back Ryan Nall scored from 13 yards out to give OSU to a 26-21 lead with 20 seconds left in the third period.

Colorado responded by driving 88 yards in 18 plays to regain the lead. Lindsay carried eight times for 33 yards on the drive and Montez capped the march with a 9-yard scoring toss to Bobo. Montez then threw again to Bobo for the 2-point conversion and CU led, 29-26, with 8:53 left in the game.

The Beavers, however, had one more touchdown drive in their pocket, driving 84 yards in 10 plays with Nall scoring from 4 yards out to give OSU a 33-29 lead with just 4:22 left.

That set the stage for CU's game-winning drive and the final defensive stand. Lindsay ran four times for 23 yards on the winning drive before Montez hit Bobo from 13 out for the game's final touchdown.

CU then came up with big defensive plays on OSU's final possession, forcing the Beavers to try a 52-yard field goal, which fell short.

In the first half, the Beavers scored on all five of their possessions, driving for a touchdown on their first time with the ball, then adding four field goals on their next four possessions to take a 19-14 lead at the half.

Colorado answered OSU's opening touchdown quickly, springing Lindsay loose on second down for a 74-yard touchdown run. After OSU took a 16-7 lead on three field goals, CU cut the lead to two when the Buffs went 73 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. Montez hit Bobo with a 15-yard toss to keep the drive moving early in the march and Bobo then returned the favor later, throwing an 11-yard scoring pass to Montez. It was Bobo's second career touchdown pass (he had one to Lindsay last year at USC) and it pulled Colorado to within two, 16-14.

But the Beavers then used the last 1:36 of the half to push their lead to five, getting their fourth field goal of the half to send the Buffs into the locker room trailing 19-14. All told, OSU drove into the red zone seven times in 10 possessions, but came away with just three touchdowns and the four field goals.

GAME NOTES

Colorado tied the series at 5-5 with Oregon State, taking a 2-1 lead in Corvallis ... This was the highest scoring game in the series, topping a 36-31 OSU win in Boulder in 2013 ... This was the 42nd time in CU history the Buffs had a 100-yard rusher and receiver; the Buffs are 32-10 in those games ... When the Buffs stopped the Beavers with a 3-and-out in the third quarter, it ended a run of 15 straight possessions where the opponent drove into CU territory (with two scores from outside the 50) ... Opponents have 24 drives inside-the-20 this year, but have come away with just 10 touchdowns; OSU had three TDs and four field goals on seven trips into the red zone ... The Buffs scored in all four quarters, extending the mark to 12 in a row ... CU's scoring drive in the fourth quarter went 88 yards over 18 plays, its fourth scoring drive this season of 15 or more plays ... CU has forced one or more turnovers in 32 of its last 34 games overall (all seven games in 2017); S Evan Worthington made his third career interception, all this season, returning it 43 yards. Offensively, CU extending its streak to a school record 13 straight quarters without committing a turnover, and have gone three straight games without one for the first time in school history (had gone back-to-back five times); it was also the fourth turnover-free game this year, tying the school record set in 1989, 1993, 2006 and 2011 ... TB Phillip Lindsay (28-185 rushing), had a two-game total of 466 yards, fourth-most in back-to-back games in school history ... WR Bryce Bobo had a career-high 126 receiving yards and threw his second career TD pass ... With QB Steven Montez making a TD reception, CU quarterbacks have caught at least one pass now in seven straight seasons; including three for touchdowns ... Colorado moved to within one win from becoming the 25th school to win 700 games (all-time record of 699-497-36).

WASHINGTON STATE 28 COLORADO 0

OCTOBER 21, 2017

MARTIN STADIUM, PULLMAN

GAME 8

PULLMAN, Wash. — Colorado was held scoreless for the first time since 2012 and Washington State did just enough offensively to carve out a 28-0 win over the Buffs in a wet, cold and windy Martin Stadium.

The Buffs even changed quarterbacks at the half, bringing in redshirt freshman Sam Noyer for an ineffective Steven Montez, but the change had no significant impact.

The last time CU had been shut out was a 48-0 loss at home to Stanford in 2012, or 60 games ago. Its 174 yards total offense was the lowest output since the 2016 Pac-12 championship game, when Colorado had just 163 yards offense.

Colorado dropped to 4-4 and 1-4 in Pac-12 play while WSU improved to 7-1, 4-1.

The Buffs had their chances to seize momentum early in the game, forcing and recovering a WSU fumble near midfield on the Cougars' second possession, then taking over near midfield again after a short WSU punt and penalty.

But the Buffs offense could never find a rhythm. CU did not produce a first down until late in the first quarter, and Montez did not complete a pass until late in the second period.

Then, after experiencing their own problems in a scoreless first quarter, the Cougars finally hit stride in the second period.

Following a Montez incompleting on fourth down in WSU territory early in the second period — a play that also resulted in the ejection of Buffs left tackle Jeromy Irwin for targeting — the Cougars went 72 yards in three plays for the first score of the game. Luke Falk hit Tay Martin for a 50-yard touchdown pass and WSU took a 7-0 lead with 11:25 to go in the half.

Seven minutes later, following CU's fourth punt of the half, the Cougars struck again. Falk guided a 10-play, 81-yard march, finishing with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Arconado.

CU's offense struggled the entire half. Montez did not complete a pass until less than five minutes remained in the second quarter, and he finished the half just 4-for-13 for 21 yards. CU's Phillip Lindsay ran for 58 yards in the first half, but needed 18 carries to hit that total, and he finished with 98 yards on 29 carries.

In the second half, the Buffs turned to redshirt freshman Noyer at quarterback, but Noyer's first drive was stifled in WSU territory after a high snap left the Buffs in a second-and-28 hole. CU punted, and nine plays later, the Cougars were in the end zone again, getting a 9-yard run from Jamal Morrow for a 21-0 lead with 9:26 to go in the third period.

Both teams then traded punts for much of the remainder of the game. The Buffs reached into WSU territory on a couple of occasions, but both times were stopped on fourth down at the Cougars' 17. Colorado entered the game having successfully converted seven straight fourth-down tries, but the Buffs were just 2-for-6 in that department against the Cougars and just 1-for-17 on third down.

Washington State tacked on one more score, going 52 yards in 10 plays, capping the drive with a 5-yard Falk pass to Renard Bell to push the final margin to 28-0.

Lindsay surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark in the game to become the first player in CU history to have back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons (Eric Bieniemy had 1,000-yard seasons in 1988 and 1990).

Montez finished 4-for-13 for 21 yards, but did extend his streak of throws without an interception to 108. Noyer was 7-for-18 for 53 yards. Quarterback Casey Marksberry saw his first action as a Buff and completed two of three attempts for 20 yards.

GAME NOTES

Colorado's lead in the all-time series was cut to 6-5; this was the second shutout in the series: the other took place on Sept. 18, 1982 in Spokane as CU's 12-0 win was the first by first-year head coach Bill McCartney ... Colorado has lost 28 straight road games to ranked opponents (last win: 31-17 at UCLA on Sept. 21, 2002) ... The Buffs are now 0-5-2 in Pac-12 back-to-back road doubleheaders (0 wins, swept 5 times, 2 splits; 2-12 combined record) ... CU was last shutout on Nov. 3, 2012 by Stanford, 48-0 in Boulder (last shutout on road: 2010 at Missouri, 26-0); the Buffaloes had scored in 60 straight games overall, and this marked just the fourth time in the last 355 games CU did not score (dating to a 7-0 loss at Nebraska in 1988) ... CU set school records with 16 straight quarters without committing a turnover (253:52 in total time), and nearly went four straight games without one ... QB Steven Montez extended his streak to 108 consecutive passes without an interceptions (sixth-longest in school history and the ninth of 100 or more) ... QB Engineering: Montez: 7 drives (34 plays, 82 yards); Sam Noyer: 7 drives (36 plays, 77 yards); Casey Marksberry: 2 drives (4 plays, 15 yards) ... The scoreless first quarter was just the sixth involving the Buffaloes over the last 178 games (dating back to 2003); the last one was against Washington in Boulder. The Buffs had scored in 12 straight quarters, the opponent had in 15 prior to tonight ... TB Phillip Lindsay (29-98 TD rushing; 7 FDE) recorded the 16th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history, the first player to do it in back-to-back years.

COLORADO 44 CALIFORNIA 28

OCTOBER 28, 2017

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

GAME 9

BOULDER —One week after a halftime benching, CU quarterback Steven Montez produced his best game of the season and Colorado's defense played well when it mattered — even contributing to the scoring — as the Buffs produced a 44-28 win over Cal at Folsom Field.

With the victory, Colorado became the 25th school in NCAA history to win 700 games, as the Buffs pushed their all-time record to 700-498-36.

Montez completed 20 of 26 passes for 347 yards and three touchdowns and also ran for one score while running back Phillip Lindsay carried 33 times for 161 yards. The game also featured a 100-yard interception return for a score by Colorado's Nick Fisher.

Colorado's offense put forth one of its best performances of the season in carving out a 27-14 halftime lead, putting up a season-high 361 yards in the first half.

After the two teams traded punts to start the game, the Buffs drove 73 yards in nine plays for a 7-0 lead. Lindsay had a 39-yard run on the drive and, following a sack of Montez, the CU quarterback threw 22 yards to Devin Ross for the score on third-and-17.

The Bears answered with their own long drive, going 75 yards to tie the score at 7-7, finishing the march with a 15-yard pass from wide receiver Vic Wharton to Kanawai Noa.

The Buffs then grabbed momentum, scoring touchdowns on their next two possessions.

Colorado needed just six plays to go 75 yards for the go-ahead score. Montez converted a third-and-18 with a 20-yard pass to Bryce Bobo, then hit a streaking Laviska Shenault Jr. with a 58-yard pass to the Cal 7-yard line. Montez scored on the next play and James Stefanou's PAT gave Colorado a 14-7 lead.

Colorado's defense then came up with a big stop, fueled by a George Frazier sack, that produced a Cal punt.

CU then needed just six plays again to go 96 yards for another score. Montez converted one third down with a 21-yard toss to Ross, then hit Shay Fields with a 65-yard scoring strike — CU's longest pass of the year — two plays later for a 21-7 lead.

After another Cal punt, Colorado extended its margin to 24-7, driving to the Cal 12 before settling for a 29-yard Stefanou field goal.

The Bears kept themselves in the game on the ensuing possession, taking 17 plays to go 79 yards. Cal scored on a 14-yard pass from Ross Bowers to Noa to pull to within 24-14.

But, in the final 1:16 left of the half, CU drove into Cal territory in time to produce a 39-yard Stefanou field goal as time expired to give the Buffs a 27-14 halftime lead.

Neither team scored in the third quarter. But early in the final period, Colorado built its cushion to 20 points by carving out a 14-play, 74-yard march. The Buffs got a 23-yard scoring pass from Montez to Jay MacIntyre on third-and-9 to give the Buffs a 34-14 lead with 13:17 left.

The Bears managed to cut the margin back to 13 after a five-play, 84-yard drive produced a Bowers 14-yard scoring pass to Wharton, shaving CU's cushion to 34-21 with 8:24 left, but Colorado answered with a methodical 55-yard drive that produced a 37-yard Stefanou field goal and 37-21 lead with just 5:22 left.

Fisher then put an exclamation point on the win by fielding a Bowers pass in the end zone and racing 100 yards down the sideline with 2:34 left in the game for a 44-21 Colorado lead.

After Fisher's interception, the Bears added the final score of the day, another Bowers touchdown pass.

GAME NOTES

Colorado pulled to within 5-4 in the series with Cal, but now lead 4-2 in Boulder ... The two have played four times as members of the Pac-12, with CU outscoring Cal 174-147, thus the 321 total points means the 80.3 per game when these two play (CU has 2,250 yards in the four games (562.5 per), Cal has 1,801 (450.3) ... CU earned a first down on its opening drive for the first time since the UCLA game; the opponent went three-and-out on its opening possession for the first time since the season opener (CSU) ... The scoreless third quarter was the first in the series since the fourth quarter in the 1975 game; one team scored in at least 22 straight quarters in the series, and the Buffs had scored in 14 in a row ... CU had just one turnover and thus has just two in the last 21 quarters ... To date, Colorado's 171 yards were its most in the first quarter this season; its 190 yards in the second quarter as its second most in any quarter (199 vs. Northern Colorado); and its 361 yards in the first half were the most in any half this year. The 553 total marked the third time with 500-plus this season (569 vs. UNC, 551 vs. Arizona) ... Junior DB Nick Fisher joined a very exclusive club when he returned an interception 100 yards in the fourth quarter. It was the 11th 100-yard play in CU history, the fourth interception return of that length ... Colorado rushed for 200 yards and passed for 353, the third time this year the Buffs had the 200/200 double; it's the 13th time under MacIntyre the Buffs have achieved it; it was just the seventh time CU went 200 rushing with 350 passing ... QB Steven Montez (26-20-0, 347, 3 TD) had a career-best rating and extended his streak without an interception to 134, third-longest in school history ... TB Phillip Lindsay had his fifth 100-yard game of the season and earned 10 first downs (nine rushing).

ARIZONA STATE 41 COLORADO 30

NOVEMBER 4, 2017
SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE

GAME 10

TEMPE, Ariz. — Colorado led for much of the game, but a 24-3 Arizona State fourth quarter paved the way for a 41-30 Buffs loss at Sun Devil Stadium.

While CU took the lead on its first possession and never trailed through the first half, the Buffs could have put much more distance between them and the Sun Devils had it not been for a handful of miscues.

In the end, those missed opportunities — dropped passes, a blocked punt and missed tackles — cost the Buffs a victory. The Buffs held a 10-point lead at three different junctures, including a 27-17 edge heading into the final period, but could not stop the Sun Devils down the stretch. ASU rushed for 381 yards in the game, with more than half — 191 — coming in the fourth quarter.

CU took a 3-0 lead on its first possession, getting a 34-yard field goal from James Stefanou. Two possessions later, the Buffs found the end zone, going 74 yards in 13 plays. Steven Montez completed a 16-yard pass to Shay Fields on third-and-6 and Phillip Lindsay ran eight times for 42 yards on the march, including a 6-yard scoring run for a 10-0 CU lead.

After stopping ASU at midfield, CU drove to the ASU 28, only to come up short on fourth down. Arizona State then answered with a 72-yard scoring drive, getting a 20-yard Manny Wilkins pass to N'Keal Harry to cut CU's lead to 10-7.

After both teams traded punts, Colorado put together an eight-play, 51-yard TD drive. Montez hit Jay MacIntyre for 20 yards, then connected with Bryce Bobo for 15 before Lindsay carried in from 1 out for a 17-7 lead with just 1:07 left in the half.

That, however, was enough time for the Sun Devils to go 77 yards in seven plays, with Wilkins connecting with Kyle Williams from 25 out with just 7 seconds remaining to cut CU's lead to 17-14.

Both teams traded punts to open the second half before Colorado extended its lead to 20-14 on a 53-yard Stefanou field goal, who improved to 15-for-17 on field goals for the season.

The Sun Devils then answered with a 15-play drive deep into CU territory before the Buffs held in the red zone, limiting ASU to a Ruiz field goal that closed CU's gap to 20-17.

CU then built its margin back to 10 for a third time when Montez connected with Fields on a 54-yard touchdown for a 27-17 lead with 4:55 to go in the third period.

Arizona State then cut the lead to 27-20 early in the fourth quarter, getting a 37-yard Ruiz field goal with 13:37 left in the game.

That led to a Colorado miscue that turned the tide in ASU's favor. On CU's ensuing possession, Alex Kinney's punt was blocked. The Sun Devils went 40 yards in seven plays, with a 5-yard Richard run tying the game at 27-27.

Colorado did come back quickly to regain the lead. A 60-yard Montez pass to Lindsay put the Buffs at the ASU 15, but Colorado had to settle for a 28-yard field goal and 30-27 lead with 7:09 remaining in the game.

The Sun Devils, however, continued to pound away at CU's tiring defense. ASU took its first lead of the game on the next possession, driving 75 yards in five plays. An Eno Benjamin 19-yard run helped ASU to a 34-30 edge with 5:33 to go in the game. Colorado could not move the ball on its next possession and punted, and the Sun Devils then tacked on one more touchdown for the final margin.

GAME NOTES

Arizona State now leads the series by an 8-1 margin (5-0 in Tempe, 6-1 as Pac-12 rivals); CU is 10-9 in the state of Arizona ... CU is now 0-5 on National Bison Day (designated since 2012 as the first Saturday in November) ... CU scored its first field goal on an opening possession since the 2015 Oregon State game, also the last time CU led a game, 3-0 ... It was the fifth time in 10 games CU shut out the opponent in the first quarter ... The last time CU was tied in the fourth quarter was also in game 10 last year (10-10 with UCLA) ... ASU had 54 rushes for 381 yards, both season-highs against the Buffs ... Colorado threw for over 300 yards for the fourth time this season ... The Buffs had forced a turnover in the first nine games this year but did not get one tonight ... The game time of 3:40 marked the longest game of the season for Colorado ... CU led for 47:31; in the previous three games in Tempe it never led, while ASU led for 172:35 out of a possible 180 minutes; CU did lead for 30:14 in the '07 game before ASU took a late first half lead ... QB Steven Montez set a school record with 174 passes without an interception, breaking CU's old mark of 152 by Sefo Liufau; it ended on the last play of the game ... PK James Stefanou's 53-yard field goal in the third quarter was a career-long and also the second-longest by a freshman in CU history ... WR Shay Fields made his 11th reception of over 50 yards in what was his seventh career 100-yard receiving game (third in 2017); that's the sixth-most in CU history (he also moved from sixth into a second-place tie on the all-time receiving yards list with 2548) ... OLB Derek McCartney had a career high 14 tackles (12 solo) ... TB Phillip Lindsay now has 952 career receiving yards, 18 shy for the most by a running back in CU history (and 48 yards short of becoming the first 1,000-yard rusher and receiver).

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 38 GAME 11 COLORADO 24

FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — A second-half comeback at Folsom Field fell short against the No. 15 team in the nation as Colorado dropped a 38-24 decision to USC. Colorado trailed 20-0 at the half and 27-0 early in the third quarter, but managed to come back and make a game of it late. But, the Buffs could never completely dig out of the early hole they made for themselves with some crucial mistakes.

After a scoreless first quarter in which the Buffs failed to take advantage of some early opportunities — and also had a 38-yard touchdown pass nullified by a penalty — the Trojans took charge.

USC went 60 yards to pay dirt on eight plays on its first possession of the second quarter, capping the drive on a 10-yard Sam Darnold pass to Michael Pittman. After a Colorado three-and-out, the Trojans struck again, driving 69 yards in seven plays, with Darnold throwing 18 yards to Deontay Burnett for the score and a 14-0 lead.

Colorado finally put together a long drive on the ensuing possession, getting five completions from quarterback Steven Montez. But the march stalled at the USC 30-yard line and a 47-yard James Stefanou field goal try was blocked.

The Buffs then gave themselves one more chance late in the half, forcing a punt and taking possession at their own 10 with a minute remaining. But the opportunity turned into a disaster when USC's Ajene Harris picked off a Montez pass and went 34 yards to the end zone. USC missed the PAT, but still took a 20-0 lead into the locker room at intermission.

The Buffs opened the second half by driving deep into USC territory, only to have another field goal blocked. USC then took possession and extended its margin to 27-0 with a 78-yard scoring drive.

Colorado then finally got on the scoreboard, and it took just two plays. After a Phillip Lindsay run netted 3 yards, Montez hit a wide open Juwann Winfree down the middle of the field for a 79-yard touchdown pass, cutting USC's margin to 27-7.

Colorado struck again just three minutes later when Buffs freshman Nate Landman blocked a Reid Budrovich punt. Kyle Trego scooped up the block and returned it to the 1-yard line, and three plays later, Lindsay carried in for the score to pull CU to within 27-14. The Trojans, though, quickly answered with a 57-yard drive that produced a Chase McGrath field goal and 30-14 lead.

CU closed the gap back to 13 early in the fourth quarter, driving 48 yards before settling for a 39-yard Stefanou field goal, making the score 30-17 with 12:42 to play.

The Trojans, though, quickly answered. USC took the ensuing kick and drove 72 yards to the end zone. Ronald Jones covered the last 22 and after a two-point conversion, the Trojans led 38-17 with 8:56 to go.

But the Buffs wouldn't go away quietly. On the ensuing possession, the Buffs went 75 yards for a touchdown in just four plays, with Montez connecting with Winfree again, this time for 57 yards. Stefanou's extra point pulled the Buffs back to within 14, 38-24.

Colorado managed one more drive deep into USC territory, but the drive stalled inside the Trojan 10 when CU couldn't convert a fourth down.

Lindsay finished with 68 yards on 20 carries in his final Folsom Field game. Montez was 27-for-49 for 376 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions and Winfree finished with five catches for 163 yards and two touchdowns.

The game left Colorado with a 5-6 record and needing a win in the season finale at Utah to become bowl eligible.

GAME NOTES

USC now leads the series by a 12-0 count (6-0 in Boulder, 6-0 in Los Angeles) ... The Buffs are 7-7 on November 11 (but 6-4 since the date officially became Veteran's Day in 1938) ... Colorado gained its most yards ever against USC (486; previous best was 403 in 2014); the 376 yards passing was the first time over 300 (high was 275 last year) ... USC's 522 was its fourth-most in the series ... The Trojans had rushed for over 300 yards in their last two games but had 193 (38 attempts) ... What was it about second down? Teams combined for 51 plays for 503 yards; the other downs combined: 104 for 505 ... WR Juwann Winfree (5-163) and WR Bryce Bobo (10-113) were the two first Buffaloes to have 100-yard games in the same game since Paul Richardson (11-140) and Nelson Spruce (8-140) against California in Boulder on Nov. 16, 2013 ... PK James Stefanou entered the day 16-of-18 on field goals but had the first two of his career blocked ... Marriage Proposal: At the end of CU's Senior Salute, ILB Trent Headley (Littleton/Columbine High School) proposed to Elizabeth Trujillo (a CU cheerleader; she did say yes) ... The scoreless first quarter was just the eighth involving the Buffaloes over the last 189 games (dating back to 2003), but the second this season and both in the last four games (Washington State was the other) ... USC was the last team to shutout CU in the first half at Folsom; the Trojans led 23-0 in an eventual 47-29 win on Nov. 23, 2013... ILB Nate Landman blocked CU's second punt of the year (the other was a tip); this was the first full block since ILB Doug Rippey had two at Toledo on Sept. 11, 2009 ... The 19th annual Buffalo Heart Award (coordinated and selected by the "fans behind the bench") was presented postgame to TB Phillip Lindsay.

UTAH 34 COLORADO 13

RICE-ECCLES STADIUM, SALT LAKE CITY

12

SALT LAKE CITY — Colorado's hopes of a second straight bowl bid ended at Rice-Eccles Stadium, as the Buffs dropped a 34-13 decision to Utah in the season finale with bowl eligibility on the line for both schools.

The loss finished Colorado's season at 5-7 while the Utes improved to 6-6 to become bowl eligible. The loss also dropped CU into last place in the Pac-12 South with a 2-7 conference record, one season after the Buffs won the division with a 10-2 regular season record, 8-1 in the Pac-12.

The seventh game between the two schools since they both joined the Pac-12 in 2011 was nothing like the first six, all of which were decided by seven points or less.

This time around, the Utes dominated the Buffs, taking a 28-0 lead at the half with two touchdowns in each of the first two quarters to effectively put the game away. Colorado momentarily threatened to make a game of it early in the fourth quarter, pulling to within 31-13 and driving deep into Utah territory, only to see quarterback Steven Montez stripped of the ball to end the threat.

The Utes outgained Colorado 491-319, including 310 yards on the ground. Utah running back Zack Moss did the most damage, carrying 26 times for 196 yards and two touchdowns.

The Buffs never had an answer for Utah's offense in the first half, as the Utes put together scoring drives of 73, 78, 88 and 74 yards to score four touchdowns in their first six possessions on their way to 340 yards of total offense by intermission.

Moss carried 16 times for 138 yards (8.6 average) and two scores in the first half and Utah quarterback Troy Williams, filling in for an injured Tyler Huntley, completed 10 of 14 attempts for 138 yards and also ran for two scores. By contrast, CU had just 119 yards and six first downs in the first half.

CU, meanwhile, never established any kind of offensive consistency. The Buffs drove into Utah territory twice in the first quarter, but saw the first drive end in a missed field goal and the second stall after two incompletions.

After that, Colorado never mounted any kind of serious scoring threat, finishing the half with just 119 yards offense.

Colorado finally got on the board early in the second half. After the two teams traded punts, CU marched 73 yards in six plays, getting a 21-yard Montez pass to Jay MacIntyre, a 13-yard Phillip Lindsay run and a 19-yard Montez pass to Chris Bounds to set up a 6-yard Lindsay touchdown run.

The Utes, however, answered with a long drive that ended in a 37-yard Matt Gay field goal to bump their lead back to 31-7.

The Buffs threatened to make a game of it in the fourth quarter, scoring early in the period to pull within 31-13. Colorado went 78 yards in 13 plays, with Montez throwing three times to Juwann Winfree for 14, 13 and 19 yards, along with a 28-yard completion to Bryce Bobo. Montez then ran 3 yards for the score in the first minute of the final period.

CU's defense then held and forced a Utah punt, and the Buffs drove to the Utah 14 on their next possession. But Utah's Bradlee Anae stripped the ball from Montez from behind on first down and Utah recovered to end the threat.

Utah then added a field goal to end the scoring.

Lindsay carried 18 times for 72 yards and a touchdown in his final game as a Buff. Lindsay finished his career as CU's all-time leader in all-purpose yards and second on CU's all-time rushing list.

Montez finished 14-for-28 for 195 yards while Bobo and Winfree both had four catches for 53 yards.

GAME NOTES

CU now leads the series by a 32-29-3 count (in Salt Lake City, 14-17-2; as members of the Pac-12, 2-5) ... The Buffs dropped to 2-2 when wearing all white helmet-toe ... This was the largest margin of victory in the series since 1955 (a CU 37-7 win in Boulder); the first six games since the rivalry resumed were decided by a total of 32 points (3, 7, 7, 4, 6 and 5) ... CU won the coin toss for the eighth time in 12 games this season (and for the 21st time in the last 26 games ... This was Mike MacIntyre's 100th game as a head coach (41-59 overall, 25-38 at Colorado) ... It was also game No. 100 for Darian Hagan as an assistant coach ... Utah's 340 yards in the first half was an opponent high for the year (and second-most for any half) ... Colorado did win the second half, 13-6 on the scoreboard, 200-151 in yards ... ILB Trent Headley was in on special teams and thus saw his first career action in his final game as a Buff ... WR K.D. Nixon recorded CU's longest kickoff return of the year (34 yards) ... WR Bryce Bobo (62-693) recorded the ninth 60-plus reception season in CU history with four catches in the game ... With WR Juwann Winfree going over 20 receptions on the season (21-325), it marks the seventh time in the last 14 years that CU has had six or more players with 20 or more receptions in a season (prior to 2004, that had never occurred) ... QB Steven Montez finished the year with 3,313 yards of total offense (2,975 passing, 338 rushing), the third 3,000-yard season in CU history (and just behind the record of 3,336 in 2014) ... ILB Nate Landman made eight tackles, two for losses, with two pass breakups and a forced fumble in his most extensive action of the season.
