MASSACHUSETTS-COLORADO FOOTBALL SERIES

Colorado leads, 1-0. Last meeting: Colorado 41, Massachusetts 38; Sept. 6, 2014

UMASS FOOTBALL BEGINS 2015 CAMPAIGN AT COLORADO

University of Massachusetts football begins its 2015 campaign with a Saturday, Sept. 12 contest at the University of Colorado. The tilt marks the second of a three-game series between the sides. UMass dropped the opening act, 41-38, on Sept. 6, 2014. The final chapter of the series is slated for the 2021 season and will also be played in Boulder, Colo.

The Buffaloes started their year with a trip to Hawai'i but were unable to come away from Aloha Stadium with a victory as the Warriors prevailed, 28-20. Colorado quarterback Sefo Liufao ran for 81 yards on 18 carries (4.5 ypc) and threw for 158 more, but was sacked four times and tossed one interception in the loss. Michael Adkins led the Buffaloes with 90 yards on the ground and both Colorado touchdowns as the squad was within one point of tying the game on three occasions, but could not jump ahead of Hawai'i.

Colorado finished 2014 with a 2-10 overall record, including nine losses in as many Pac-12 games; however, one of those two wins was against the Minutemen. Liufao sparked the Buffaloes to victory through a 26-for-42 afternoon with 318 yards passing and three touchdowns thrown. Liufao's back-to-back fourth quarter TD tosses to Nelson Spruce (10 receptions, 145 yards) put Colorado up for good.

The 2015 meeting will be featured live on Pac-12 Networks - check local listings for availability. A UMass Sports Network broadcast can be found by MinuteFans on their radio dials. Voice of the Minutemen Josh Maurer will serve as the play-by-play broadcaster and UMass football alumnus Matt Goldstein will fill the analyst role. Fans can tune in on WEEI (105.5 FM Springfield), the flagship station of the UMass Sports Network, along with affiliates in Boston (Bloomberg Radio 1200 WXKS), Worcester (WVEI 1440 AM) and on the South Shore (WATD 95.9 FM). Additionally, fans can listen online (weei.com/umass) or on their mobile devices through the TuneIn Radio app (tunein.com/radio). Pregame coverage begins 20 minutes prior to kickoff.

LISTEN TO GAMES LIVE WITH VOICE OF THE MINUTEMEN JOSH MAURER

University of Massachusetts football games will again be broadcast live by Voice of the Minutemen Josh Maurer and color commentator Matt Goldstein. Maurer and Goldstein can be heard calling all Minuteman contests live on the flagship station 105.5 FM WEEI Springfield. Fans can also listen live on their mobile devices through the TuneIn App.

UMASS TO APPEAR IN NATIONALLY TELEVISED GAMES

UMass football will play its opening two road games on national television channels. The Maroon and White face Colorado in Boulder, Colo., on the Pac-12 Network for a 2 p.m. ET start. Two weeks later, Massachusetts will be on NBC at Notre Dame for a 3:30 p.m. contest.

In between the Colorado and Notre Dame games, UMass hosts Temple at Gillette Stadium on Sept. 19 for an ESPN3 broadcast. Homecoming against Kent State at McGuirk Stadium on Oct. 17 will also be televised on a to-be-determined channel.

UMASS FOOTBALL GAME WEEK

MAC WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Every Monday morning through the end of the season, the Mid-American Conference will conduct a teleconference with each of its football head coaches. The teleconference will start at 9:20 a.m. with a brief recap of the weekend's action and other pertinent information. Following that, each head coach has an assigned eight-minute slot to discuss his team and its upcoming opponent, and field any questions from the media. For numbers and codes to access the call, please contact Ken Mather in the MAC Office at (216) 566-4622 or e-mail at kmather@mac-sports.com. The conference call will also be available online at www.mac-sports.com.

THE BUD LIGHT UMASS FOOTBALL RADIO SHOW

The Bud Light UMass Football Radio Show will be broadcast live on 105.5 FM WEEI from the new Hangar Pub and Grill location on University Drive in Amherst. The show starts at 7 p.m. and will feature player guests. Josh Maurer, the Voice of the Minutemen, will host the weekly show. A complete list of shows is available on page 9.

COACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The University of Massachusetts Athletic Communications Office organizes all interviews for the football program, its coaches, student-athletes and administrative support staff. Interview requests should be submitted to primary football contact Molly O'Mara (momara@umass.edu or 413-406-6434) or secondary contact Cody Lahl (clahl@admin.umass.edu or 845-750-4225). Please submit interview requests ahead of the expected interview time, preferably 24 hours notice, to give the staff the time needed to organize the interview. Personal phone numbers for student-athletes, coaches or administrators will not be given out to the media.

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE

QUICK SNAPS

University of Massachusetts football...

- Created one of the nation's best offensive turnarounds from 2013 to 2014. Scoring increased 15.6 points per game (11.7 in 2013 to 27.3 in 2014) and the prolific pro-style offense saw total yards per game jump from 281.6 to 421.1 as well.
- MinuteFans helped UMass put up its single-season best attendance mark in 2014. Massachusetts football averaged 16,088 fans per game last season. The UMass-Boston College attendance (30,479) broke the UMass home game attendance record. The Minutemen previously packed Gillette Stadium with 32,848 fans for a game against New Hampshire in 2010, but UNH was designated the home team for the contest.
- Put up 311.8 passing yards per game in 2014 through the arm strength and accuracy of returning quarterback Blake Frohnapfel. That total ranked first in the MAC and 10th among all NCAA Division I FBS teams.
- Was one of only two teams in NCAA Division I FBS to face four Power 5 schools during non-conference competition in 2014. The Minutemen played Boston College (ACC), Colorado (Pac-12), Vanderbilt (SEC) and Penn State (Big Ten).
- Scored 40 or more points in three consecutive games during the 2014 season with 40 at Kent State, 41 at Miami (Ohio) and 42 versus Bowling Green. In the 131 prior seasons of UMass football (1,167 games), the Minutemen only accomplished the feat twice (1963 and 1972).
- Placed five Minutemen on a combined 11 watch lists ahead of the 2015 season. A complete breakdown of who appears on what award watch list is available on pages 10-11.
- Has three returning coaches assuming new responsibilities for the 2015 season: Liam Coen (co-passing game coordinator and quarterbacks), Spencer Whipple (co-passing game coordinator, recruiting coordinator and wide receivers) and Steve Costello (tight ends).
- Has two new faces patrolling the sideline during 2015 in special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach Mark Michaels and running backs coach Darrius Smith.
- Put 10 members on the Phil Steele All-MAC Team ahead of the 2015 season, including first-teamers Blake Frohnapfel (QB), Tajae Sharpe (WR), Rodney Mills (TE), Jovan Santos-Knox (LB) and Randall Jette (CB). Trey Dudley-Giles (CB; third team), Khary Bailey-Smith (KR; third team), Shadrach Abrokwah (RB; fourth team), Tyrell Smith (OL; fourth team) and Kassin Messiah (LB; fourth team) also appeared.
- Graduate student Blake Frohnapfel is the fastest quarterback to hit 2,000 yards passing to start his career at UMass. He accomplished the milestone in seven games which was faster than Todd Bankhead, Liam Coen and Jeff Krohn.
- Senior Tajae Sharpe has also etched his name into the UMass record book. The senior wide receiver begins 2015 third all-time for receptions (166) and fourth in receiving yards (2,167).
- Senior Rodney Mills emerged as a pass-catching and touchdown-earning offensive weapon a year ago. After he entered 2014 with only five receptions, 47 career yards and zero trips to the endzone over two seasons, Mills put up 489 yards over 30 receptions (16.3 ypc), five of which went as touchdown grabs.
- Senior Trey Dudley-Giles enters his final season with 986 career kick return yards, good for eighth all-time. He needs 23 yards to pass Jesse Julmiste (1,009) for seventh.
- Was also lauded for its work in the classroom during the 2014-15 school year. Fabian Hoeller and Matt Sparks picked up Capital One Academic All-District I honors. Both student-athletes also appeared on the MAC All-Academic Team while Sparks was a MAC Distinguished Scholar with Blake Frohnapfel.

LET'S GET THE BAND BACK TOGETHER!

Head coach Mark Whipple will be flanked by former Minutemen on the sideline again in 2015. Included on his coaching staff are three recent program alumni in Liam Coen (co-passing game coordinator and quarterbacks), Steve Costello (tight ends) and Charles Walker (outside linebackers).

In addition, Whipple's son, Spencer, is now coaching the wide receivers alongside his duties as the co-passing game coordinator and recruiting coordinator after he suited up for the Maroon & White in 2008 before transferring to play for his dad at Miami.

Also back are several coaches who were part of Whipple's first staff (Tom Masella and Mark Michaels) along with veteran coaches Dave Sollazzo and Shane Waldron, who have been a part of the UMass Football Bowl Subdivision teams since 2012.

IT'S GOOD TO BE BACK

UMass will once again play games back on campus this season with three contests at McGuirk Stadium. The 2015 campaign will feature the Kent State game as Homecoming on Oct. 17 after Florida International visits Amherst two weeks prior. The Minutemen will also host Miami (Ohio) in the regular season finale for Senior Day on Nov. 21.

FORMER MINUTEMEN IN THE NFL

Entering the 2015 NFL Season, UMass is well represented on Sunday afternoons. The most prominent UMass alumnus remains Victor Cruz, whose improbable story and highlight reel season in 2011 captured America's attention. Cruz helped the New York Giants to a Super Bowl win while setting a franchise record for receiving yardage in a single-season. Along with the publicity he garnered for his signature 'Salsa Dance' as a touchdown celebration, Cruz also wrote a book during the off-season, which became a best-seller.

Lining up opposite from Cruz in the 2012 Super Bowl was James Ihedigbo with the New England Patriots. Ihedigbo previously played three years with the New York Jets alongside Vladimir Ducasse and is now with the Detroit Lions after Ihedigbo helped the Baltimore Ravens win Super Bowl XLVII in 2013, which marked the second consecutive year that UMass had an alum hoist the Lombardi Trophy.

Ducasse was drafted in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft and is entering his sixth season in the NFL and first with the Chicago Bears after four years playing for the Jets and one with the Minnesota Vikings.

The latest Minuteman to be drafted into the NFL elite was tight end Rob Blanchflower, who was chosen by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the seventh round of the 2014 draft.

In 2013, UMass had seven players on NFL active rosters, which was an all-time high. The previous high mark for UMass products in the pros came in 1968, when UMass had five players combined between the NFL and AFL, prior to the leagues' merger in 1970. That year, tight end Milt Morin played for the Cleveland Browns, quarterback Greg Landry was a first-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions, quarterback John McCormick played for the Denver Broncos and halfback Terry Swanson and lineman Ed Toner suited up for the then-Boston Patriots.

CURRENT MINUTEMEN ON NFL ROSTERS

Rob Blanchflower, Pittsburgh Steelers (injured reserve)
Victor Cruz, New York Giants
Vladimir Ducasse, Chicago
James Ihedigbo, Detroit Lions
Julian Talley, New York Giants (practice squad)

SCORING IS UP UNDER WHIPPLE

Through the 2014 season, the UMass offense drastically improved under head coach Mark Whipple and his pro-style offense. The Minutemen scored 45 offensive touchdowns in those games compared to a total of 14 during 2013 and 17 in all of 2012. UMass had 16 rushing scores with 27 more through the air in 2014 compared to just five rushing and nine passing in 2013 and eight rushing and nine passing in 2012.

The 123 combined points scored in the Bowling Green, Miami (Ohio), and Kent State games marked just the third time in 132 years of football at UMass that the Minutemen put up 40 or more points in three consecutive games. UMass had 135 points during those three contests in 1972 and 131 points over the three-game span in the 1963 season. UMass has never had four straight games with 40 or more points after falling just short of the 40-point mark in the 36-14 win over Eastern Michigan.

FROH KNOWS WATCH LISTS

Second year graduate student quarterback Blake Frohnapfel appears on four watch lists entering the 2015 season. His watch list accolades include the Dave O'Brien Award, which is given to the top quarterback across college football by the Davey O'Brien Foundation. He is also up for the Manning Award, handed out by the Allstate Sugar Bowl to the top quarterback in NCAA football.

Frohnapfel appears on the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List, which highlights a combination of community service, athletic success and academic achievement. He is also eligible for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, which is presented annually at the end of each season to the nation's top college quarterback based on character, citizenship, scholastic achievement, leadership qualities and athletic accomplishments.

On top of his watch list candidacies, Frohnapfel earned Phil Steele Preseason All-MAC First Team and AthlonSports Preseason All-MAC First Team at quarterback and is also up for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

SHARPE STAYS STEADY

Tajae Sharpe has at least one reception in each of his 35 collegiate games, the third-longest active streak in the nation behind D.J. Foster's 41 for Arizona State and Alonzo Russell's 38 for Toledo.

Sharpe begins his senior season with 166 receptions. He recorded 85 catches as a junior in 2014, 61 prior to that as a sophomore and 20 during his true freshman campaign. Sharpe is 22 receptions away from resetting the program's all-time mark for most in school history, currently held by Adrian Zullo (187; 1998-2002).

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH ONE RECEPTION

(Through Saturday, Sept. 5, 2015)

RK.	PLAYER	SCHOOL	GAMES
1.	D.J. Foster	Arizona State	41
2.	Alonzo Russell	Toledo	38
3.	Tajae Sharpe	Massachusetts	35
4.	Alton Howard	Tennessee	33
5.	Rashon Ceaser	Louisiana-Monroe	32

	Shaq Washington	Cincinnati	27
10.	Tyler Boyd	Pittsburgh	26
	Nelson Spruce	Colorado	26

SANTOS-KNOX LAUDED AT LINEBACKER

Inside linebacker Jovan Santos-Knox appears on the 2015 watch lists for the Chuck Bednarik, Bronko Nagurski and Rotary Lombardi award following his 143-tackle season as a junior one year ago. The Maxwell Football Club bestows the Bednarik Award upon the top defensive player nationally while the Charlotte Touchdown Club hands out Nagurski Award based on the same criteria. The Rotary Lombardi Award recognizes the top lineman, offensive or defensive.

Like Frohnapfel, Santos-Knox is also on the Phil Steele Preseason All-MAC First Team and AthlonSports Preseason All-MAC First Team listings.

SPARKS UP FOR RIMINGTON, OUTLAND TROPHIES

Previously lauded for his work in the classroom, senior center Matt Sparks added athletic accolades in the form of spots on the Rimington Trophy and Outland Trophy watch lists. The Rimington is given to the top college center while the Outland is awarded to the top interior lineman, offensive or defensive. Sparks started 10 games at center in 2014 and helped the UMass attack put up 27.3 points and 421.1 yards per game as one of the top offenses in the MAC.

BILETNIKOFF AWARD COMMITTEE TABS SHARPE TO WATCH LIST

Senior wide receiver Tajae Sharpe begins his final year with the Maroon and White as one of 48 candidates for the 2015 Fred Biletnikoff Award. The Biletnikoff Award honors the top receiver, regardless of position, across college football. Sharpe earned the nod after he produced 1,281 yards over 85 receptions (15.1 ypc) with seven touchdowns as a junior in 2014, when he was a midseason addition to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List.

Sharpe is a part of the quintet of Minutemen on the Phil Steele Preseason All-MAC First Team and AthlonSports Preseason All-MAC First Team as well. He enters his final year of eligibility first all-time in the UMass record book in career receptions per game (4.74), third for receptions (166), fourth with 2,167 career receiving yards and 11th in touchdown receptions (11)

JETTE RECOGNIZED AMONG JIM THORPE TROPHY CANDIDATES

Randall Jette begins 2015 on the watch list for the Jim Thorpe Award, taken home by the top defensive back nationally. One year ago, Jette anchored the UMass secondary with 67 tackles, 18 passes defended and four interceptions with one fumble forced and another recovered. He owns 29 career pass breakups, fourth all-time among Minutemen while his 2014 passes defended total (18) tied him for third-most in the nation among NCAA Division I FBS competitors.

Phil Steele and AthlonSports lauded Jette on their respective all-MAC first teams alongside fellow Minutemen Blake Frohnapfel, Jovan Santos-Knox, Tajae Sharpe and Matt Sparks.

EXTENDED DRIVES LEAD TO MINUTEMAN POINTS

Of UMass' 49 scoring drives during the 2014 campaign, 40 were at least 50 yards in length. The one outlier was the 53-yard Brian McDonald touchdown pass to Rodney Mills on a fake punt at Vanderbilt. In 2013, UMass had 15 scoring drives measuring 50 or more yards, one greater than the team's total from 2012.

UMass put together a season-long 99-yard drive at Miami (Ohio), and needed only three minutes, 17 seconds to complete it. UMass last had a 90+ yard drive in 2012, when the squad recorded a pair of them.

41 HALFTIME POINTS MOST IN FBS ERA

UMass put up 41 points in the first half at Miami (Ohio), which were the most scored in a half as the FBS program. The last time UMass scored as many points in the first half was on Sept. 23, 2006 when the Minutemen held a 42-0 lead over Stony Brook at intermission. At Miami (Ohio), UMass also held its largest lead in a game as an FBS program, 41-14 (+27).

PASS OFFENSE ONE OF NCAA'S BEST

UMass put up extraordinary numbers through the air in 2014, which resulted in the Minutemen being ranked as one of the top passing games in the country. Massachusetts finished the season ranked 10th overall nationally and first in the MAC for passing offense (311.8 yards/game). The Minutemen also stood 21st in NCAA FBS for passing yards per completion and second in the MAC (13.91 yards/completion).

CONVERTING IN THE RED ZONE

In the win at Kent State, UMass was a perfect 6-for-6 in red zone scoring, marking the second time during the season the squad accomplished this feat. UMass was also 6-for-6 against Colorado. The Minutemen notched their most trips to the red zone at Miami (Ohio), where they were 5-for-8 in the category, and against Eastern Michigan (6-of-8). For the year, UMass was 38-of-54 in Red Zone scoring with 17 pass touchdowns and 15 rushing touchdowns. The Minutemen failed to score nine times on downs, twice by fumble and once by interception.

MOVING UP THE MAC RANKINGS

Throughout 2014, UMass steadily improved in the Mid-American Conference statistical rankings as the Minutemen were among the top seven teams in 11 different categories.

Scoring Offense	7th	27.3 points/game
Total Offense	6th	421.1 yards/game
Pass Offense	1st	311.8 yards/game
Passing Efficiency	6th	131.4
Kickoff Returns	3rd	22.4 yards/return
Interceptions	6th	12
First Downs	3rd	22.2/game
Opponent 3rd Down Conv.	5th	41.6 percent
4th Down Conversion	5th	52.8 percent
Penalty Yards	5th (Fewest)	51.4 yards/game
Opponent Penalty Yards	1st (Most)	75.7 yards/game

FROHNAPFEL AMONG NCAA LEADERS

Frohnapfel finished the 2014 season among the top statistical quarterbacks in the NCAA. He ranked 10th nationally in passing yards (3,345), tied for 22nd in passing TDs (23), fourth in passing yards per game (334.5) and 18th in yards per completion (13.88). He led the MAC in passing yards and passing yards per game, and was tied for second in passing touchdowns.

FROH KNOWS: PASSING RECORDS

Blake Frohnapfel was named the MAC East Offensive Player of the Week after his 589-yard, five-touchdown performance against Bowling Green. The 589 yards passing were a UMass and MAC record for most passing yards in a single game. The five touchdowns tied the UMass record as well.

Frohnapfel completed 36 passes during play against BGSU - also a program record for a game - while his 61 attempts ranks No. 2 overall. The previous yardage thrown high mark was 450, set by Kyle Havens in 2010. Frohnapfel's 570 yards of total offense also counts as an individual program record for a one game.

The 589 yards passing were the 20th-best single-game performance by a quarterback in the history of the NCAA. Since 2004, only 10 times has an FBS quarterback thrown for 569 yards or more in a single game (thank you Western Kentucky University for this information).

JUST FROH-ING IT OUT THERE

To put Blake Frohnapfel's banner year into perspective, he became the fastest UMass quarterback to reach 2,000 yards passing in program history in his first seven games. No other quarterback was able to hit that mark in their first seven games played, including some of the Minutemen's greatest - Liam Coen, Todd Bankhead and Jeff Krohn.

FROH KNOWS RE-WRITING THE UMASS RECORD BOOK

Blake Frohnapfel worked his way into the UMass football record book during his banner 2014 season and finished near the top of several single-season top-10 lists, including:

CATEGORY	2014 (RANK)	ALL-TIME LEADER (STAT; YEAR)
Passing Yards	3,345 (Second)	Todd Bankhead (3,919; 1998)
Passing TDs	23 (Tied-Sixth)	Todd Bankhead (34; 1998)
Pass Attempts	437 (Second)	Todd Bankhead (525; 1998)
Pass Completions	241 (Third)	Todd Bankhead (303; 1998)
Total Offense	3,261 (Second)	Todd Bankhead (3,756; 1998)
Passing Yards/Game	334.5 (First)	-
Total Offense/Game	326.1 (First)	-

MICHEL RETURNS AFTER YEAR AWAY

With the new coaching staff in place, wide receiver Marken Michel returned to Amherst in 2014 after taking a year away from football. Michel was one of UMass' top wide receivers in 2012 with 28 catches for 229 yards.

In his return season, Michel was a dynamic threat on offense who recorded 501 all-purpose yards split between 115 on the ground and 386 as a receiver. During five starts spread over his 12 appearances, Michael carried the ball 19 times for 115 yards (6.1 ypc) and a pair of touchdowns. He added 386 yards as a wide receiver via 30 catches (12.9 per reception) with one TD.

ABROKWAH TAKES OVER AS STARTER

Despite missing the opening four games of his sophomore season, Shadrach Abrokwhah provided the Minutemen with the top team marks in rushing yards (578), rushing yards per game (72.2) and rushing touchdowns (7) during the 2014 season over eight games played.

During the season, he provided three games of 100 or more yards on the ground, including against Miami (Ohio) when he produced 128 yards on Oct. 4, 2014, Eastern Michigan (135; Oct. 18) and Buffalo (100; Nov. 28). The 100-yard game against Miami (Ohio) marked the second-such performance of his career, which was only four games old at the time.

A former walk-on, Abrokwhah was utilized in the final two games of the year in 2013. He finished those contests with an average of 101.5 yards per game.

WOODLEY PLAYS BIG WHEN CALLED ON

Lorenzo Woodley provided timely boosts to the run game during the 2014 season with 310 yards during the team's three victories, an average of 103.3 per game. Woodley dashed for 160 yards on 23 carries (7.0 ypc) at Kent State on Oct. 11 before he provided 63 more yards in 15 rushing attempts (4.2 ypc) during the win over Eastern Michigan (Oct. 18). He added 87 when called upon 19 times (4.6 ypc) against Ball State two weeks later. Woodley found the endzone once in each of those wins.

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE

SHARPE LEAVING HIS MARK TOO

With 1,281 receiving yards and 7.1 receptions per game, Tajae Sharpe stood atop the Mid-American Conference rankings in both categories during the 2014 season. Sharpe was also second in the league with 106.8 receiving yards per game.

On three occasions during 2014 alone, Sharpe tied the single-game receptions mark when he hauled in 13 grabs each against Bowling Green, Eastern Michigan and Ball State. A 13-reception game had previously only been recorded by three Minutemen once apiece: Victor Cruz (2008), JJ Moore (2005) and Brandon London (2005).

The first of those 13-reception performances doubled as the seventh-most receiving yards recorded by a Minuteman during one contest as Sharpe turned his baker's dozen of catches against Bowling Green into 179 yards.

Sharpe reset his own personal best against Eastern Michigan with 193 yards receiving, the fifth-most in a single game only to outperform himself later in the season against Ball State. In the game against the Cardinals, Sharpe torched the Ball State secondary for 239 yards. It marked the 11th-best receiving performance in the history of the MAC and the second-most yards recorded in UMass history.

Below is a breakdown of Sharpe's 2014 season highlights and his career standings in the UMass football record book.

MILLS FINDING THE ENDZONE

Rodney Mills, who fills a hybrid role as a fullback and tight end, had five touchdowns in 2014 after he did not reach the endzone during his first two seasons at UMass. His TD reception against Colorado was the first of his career, while he followed that with his first career two-TD game against Vanderbilt. Mills' second TD against the Commodores was a show-stopper - a 53-yard touchdown catch and run on a fake punt where he juked out the return man en route to the end zone.

Mills made another highlight touchdown play against Bowling Green with a leaping stretch to the endzone as part of a 32-yard pass and run from Blake Frohnapfel. Mills hit the pylon with the football while horizontal to the ground for his fourth TD of the year. He ended the year fourth on the team in touchdowns, with five in 30 catches covering 489 yards.

SPARKS AND HOELLER MAKE THE GRADE

Offensive linemen Matt Sparks and Fabian Hoeller were named to the Capital One Academic All-District I Football Team during the 2014 season. The duo was part of 11 players from the Mid-American Conference to earn the honor. Sparks, a native of Hawai'i, is a civil engineering major, while Hoeller, who hails from Germany, is a micro-biology major. Both also earned MAC All-Academic Team laurels in 2014 while Sparks took home MAC Distinguished Scholar alongside Blake Frohnapfel.

VETERAN CENTER IN SPARKS

A veteran offensive unit overall, the group is led in 2015 by senior center Matt Sparks. Sparks enters his third season directing the line with 24 career starts, including 21 in the spot during the previous 24 games.

With Sparks' help in 2014, the Minutemen sported the top passing offense in the Mid-American Conference (311.8 yards per game). The senior from Mililani, Hawai'i, took home preseason accolades for his work on the offensive line with 2015 Rimington Trophy and Outland Trophy watch list recognition.

LOTS OF STARTS SURROUNDING SPARKS

The UMass offensive line returns each of its starters from one year ago, including a pair of seniors (Josh Bruns & Matt Sparks) and three juniors (Fabian Hoeller, Tyrell Smith & Elijah Wilkinson). This experienced quintet combined for 82 starts on the line during their careers with the Maroon and White.

The left side of the line remained unchanged in 2014, with Hoeller and Smith appearing as starters at guard and tackle, respectively, in each of the 12 contests. Sparks was the starter at center in 10 of 12 games while Bruns filled the role in his short absence due to injury. Bruns held down the right guard spot in the opening six games of the season before switching to center for two appearances while Wilkinson anchored right tackle alongside Bruns.

THE QUARTERBACK GURU

Two of the most successful quarterbacks in program history played for Mark Whipple during his first tenure at UMass while two highly successful NFL QBs played for him during his time with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles.

Todd Bankhead led the team from 1998-99 and finished his career with 7,018 passing yards, the second-most for a career in program history. Jeff Krohn suited up for Whipple from 2002-03 when he threw for 4,993 yards. Bankhead had 51 career touchdowns, while Krohn produced 44, which rank second and third on the program's all-time top 10 list, respectively. Blake Frohnapfel added his name to the list of successful QBs coached by Whipple after he put up 3,345 yards and 23 touchdowns in his first year as a college starter in 2014.

During his tenure in the professional ranks, Whipple guided then-recent Steelers draft choice Ben Roethlisberger and also worked with Eagles star Donovan McNabb.

SANTOS-KNOX STANDS TALL

Jovan Santos-Knox emerged as a key cog in the UMass linebacking corp as a junior in 2014. During the season, Santos-Knox led all Mid-American Conference players with 143 tackles for an average of 11.9 per game. The Middletown, Conn., native provided eight double-digit takedown performances on the year, including a career-high 19 stops at Akron on Nov. 18.

The 143 stops Santos-Knox recorded in 2014 - the eight-most made by a UMass player in one year - more than doubled his numbers as a freshman and sophomore. He had 64 total tackles over the 2012-13 seasons (20 solo, 44 assisted) before his breakout campaign as a junior when he earned All-MAC and Phil Steele All-Conference First Team at linebacker.

COLTON GOES FROM WALK-ON TO STARTER IN THE SECONDARY

Senior Joe Colton began his UMass playing days as a walk-on before he earned a scholarship following his freshman season thanks in part to his hard-hitting efforts and team-first mentality. He has grown into a prominent role in the secondary as a starter in 23 games over the previous three seasons, including all 12 at strong safety during 2014.

Colton increased his work rate in each campaign with 49 tackles as a freshman (27 solo, 22 assists) before he posted 65 as a sophomore (36, 29) and 98 during his junior year (43, 55). He enters 2015 with his solo vs. assisted tackles breakdown even with 106 in each category.

The native of Norwood, Mass., which is only about 10 miles away from Gillette Stadium, has provided 11.5 TFLs, defended nine passes and forced a pair of fumbles while he contributes as a member of the UMass special teams unit as well.

DUDLEY-GILES DOES IT ALL IN DEFENSIVE SECONDARY

After starting at cornerback for his previous two years at UMass, Trey Dudley-Giles moved to free safety during preseason camp ahead of the 2014 season. After he earned the starting nod at the position in each of the opening eight games of the campaign, Dudley-Giles moved back to his familiar role of cornerback for the last four contests of 2014. He is expected to move positions again and start at strong safety for the 2015 opener at Colorado.

JETTE PROVIDES STEADY VETERAN PRESENCE

Entering his redshirt-senior season, Randall Jette owns 35 career starts in the University of Massachusetts football secondary over the previous three campaigns. Jette, who lines up as a cornerback, has only missed on game during his three active seasons, the 2012 season finale at Ohio on Nov. 29. He is the most-tenured player on the team in terms of total starts, ahead of classmate Tajae Sharpe's 31.

JETTE ONE OF THE TOP CORNERS IN THE MAC

Randall Jette begins his senior campaign as a lauded member of the UMass secondary sporting a watch list spot for the Jim Thorpe Award and preseason first team all-MAC accolades from Phil Steele and AthlonSports. The Oak Bluffs, Mass., native owns 165 career tackles with 36 passes defended, seven interceptions, four fumble recoveries and three forced fumbles to his ledger.

Jette's 29 pass breakups marks the fourth-most recorded in program history and four from surpassing Don Caparotti (1989-92) in third. Jerard White (1996-99) is in first with 38 breakups, followed by Garrick Amos (1987-89) with 35.

As a junior in 2014, Jette finished with 18 passes defended, the third-highest total in the MAC. He recorded back-to-back interceptions against Boston College (Aug. 30) and Colorado (Sept. 6), which is a feat he also accomplished in 2012 when Jette did so against Akron (Nov. 10) and Buffalo (Nov. 17).

LAURENT'S BIG DEBUT AT KENT STATE

Then-backup punter Logan Laurent showed he also has ability in the kicking game in the 40-17 win at Kent State. Laurent served as the primary place kicker against the Golden Flashes and booted a pair of field goals (31, 22) while he also converted four PATs for 10 points on the game. The appearance marked his first as a Minuteman as he redshirted the 2013 campaign.

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE

DUDLEY-GILES AMONG CAREER LEADERS FOR KICK RETURN YARDAGE

With 986 career kick return yards, Trey Dudley-Giles ranks 8th all-time at UMass. He needs just 23 yards to pass Jesse Julmiste (1,009 yards) for seventh on the list. Dudley-Giles accrued 669 of those yards on kick returns in 2013 for an average of 22.3 yards per attempt. He added 269 more yards on only eight returns last season (33.6 ypr).

BAILEY-SMITH A BIG-PLAY DIFFERENCE MAKER

Return man and defensive back Khary Bailey-Smith has provided the Minutemen with big plays during his three completed seasons with the squad, including a pair of kick return touchdowns and a total of seven interceptions.

Bailey-Smith brought back his first career kick return back for a touchdown against Western Michigan on Oct. 26, 2013 after he fielded the ball on the 10 yard line and outmaneuvered the Broncos to the opposite endzone. It was the first kick returned for a touchdown by UMass since Jesse Julmiste accomplished the feat against Central Connecticut on Oct. 8, 2011. He added his second return TD on Oct. 4, 2014 against Miami (Ohio) as Bailey-Smith raced 93 yards for the score. The native of Weymouth is now tied with Julmiste (2009-11), Dennis Dent (1975-78) and Phil DeRose (1962-64) as the only players to return two career kickoffs for touchdowns in program history.

On defense, Bailey-Smith recorded a multi-interception game during the win over Miami (Ohio) on Oct. 12, 2013, which was also his lone double-digit tackle performance as he provided 10 stops against the RedHawks. It marked the first two-interception game for a Maroon and White player since Darren Thellen's picked off a pair of Delaware passes on Oct. 15, 2011. Bailey-Smith also recovered one fumble during the same game as his 93-yard return touchdown in 2014.

UMASS ONE OF TWO TEAMS TO FACE FOUR POWER-FIVE SCHOOLS

A breakdown of every FBS program's schedule revealed that UMass was one only two programs to face a quartet of Power-5 conference schools for its 2014 non-conference schedule. UMass faced Boston College (ACC), Colorado (Pac-12), Vanderbilt (SEC) and Penn State (Big Ten) in order. Louisiana-Monroe was the other school to face the same number of Power-5 schools during 2014 with games against Wake Forest (ACC), LSU (SEC), Kentucky (SEC) and Texas A&M (SEC) on its non-conference slate.

MINUTEFANS HELP MINUTEMEN BREAK ALL-TIME ATTENDANCE MARK

With an average of 15,830 fans per each of the six home games last season, UMass reset its attendance record. The previous high mark was 14,684, recorded in 1999 at McGuirk Stadium the year after UMass won the NCAA I-AA National Championship Game.

The 2013 attendance average (15,830) was more than 30 percent higher than the year prior (10,901), which was UMass' first season at the FBS level and first year playing games at Gillette Stadium.

UMASS-BOSTON COLLEGE ATTENDANCE SETS HOME RECORD

The 2014 University of Massachusetts football season-opener against Boston College drew 30,479 fans to Gillette Stadium on Aug. 30. That mark set a program record for a home game and was the second-largest crowd for a UMass football game at Gillette Stadium. In 2010, there were 32,848 fans on-site for the first-ever college football game hosted by the stadium - the Colonial Clash between UMass and New Hampshire. UNH was designated as the home team for that contest.

UPGRADING MCGUIRK STADIUM

As part of the transition plan to the FBS, McGuirk Stadium in Amherst went through an extensive construction project over the last two years. With groundbreaking during April 2013, the two main additions included the UMass Football Performance Center and the Martin and Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex.

The Football Performance Center contains coach, operations and academic staff offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, a film room theatre, athletic training facilities, a video suite and a strength & conditioning area. This marks the first time in the modern era that all support services for the program are housed in one complex. The Martin And Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex offers the first upgrade to the media center of McGuirk Stadium in a half-century. The complex also offers viewing opportunities for dignitaries and fans alike.

GO EAST YOUNG MEN

In addition to the Football Performance Center and the Martin & Richard Jacobson Press & Skybox Complex, the Minutemen switched sidelines in anticipation of their return to on-campus competition in 2014. The home sideline is now one the East side of the stadium, opposite the press box, in an effort to promote the team and show the home fan section when on national television broadcast.

HEAD COACH MARK WHIPPLE

EIGHTH SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS // 18TH AS COLLEGIATE HEAD COACH // BROWN 1979

Mark Whipple, the architect of one of the University of Massachusetts football program's most successful eras, was named the team's head coach on Jan. 14, 2014 for his second stint in Amherst. He was previously at the helm of the Minuteman program from 1998-2003 when he led the Minutemen to the NCAA I-AA National Championship in his first season while making two additional postseason appearances in the following five years.

Whipple is the second head coach of the program during the Football Bowl Subdivision at UMass. He is the fourth of the Minutemen's 29 all-time coaches to serve multiple tenures.

A 30-year coaching veteran of the collegiate and professional levels, Whipple is widely regarded for his prowess as an offensive coordinator and his ability to develop quarterbacks. He helped Ben Roethlisberger of the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers win a Super Bowl in his second year, built the University of Miami's 2009 and 2010 offenses into two of its best all-time and his teams set 40 offensive records while at UMass.

Whipple brings more than 15 years of experience as a head coach with a 124-68 overall record, including a 52-35 mark at UMass. His coaching resume includes a National Coach of the Year award (1998), a Brown Athletic Hall of Fame induction (1996), an NFL Super Bowl Championship (2006) and a pair of collegiate bowl game appearances (2009, 2010).

Whipple last coached with the Cleveland Browns from 2011-12 where he served as quarterbacks coach. He worked with second-year quarterback Colt McCoy (2011) and rookie Brandon Weeden (2012) within the Browns' West Coast offensive scheme.

His most recent collegiate stop was at the University of Miami as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2009-10 seasons. During his time in Coral Gables, he guided the explosive Hurricane offense during two of their best statistical seasons in program history. Both years featured total yardage in excess of 5,000 yards with 2010's total of 5,483 standing as the third-most in program history.

In 2009, Whipple led Miami to its best offensive season since the national-title contending 2002 team. The Hurricanes put up 5,199 yards of offense becoming just the eighth team in school history to eclipse the 5,000-yard mark in total yards gained. Under Whipple's tutelage, quarterback Jacory Harris totaled the second-most pass completions (249), fourth-most passing yards (3,352) and sixth-most touchdowns (24) in a single season at Miami.

The 2010 Miami squad posted the fourth-best total rushing yardage in program history with 2,372 on the ground. Damien Berry led a stable of tailbacks with 899 yards and five touchdowns. The group overall averaged 182.5 yards on the ground per game with an average of 4.8 per carry.

Whipple spent the 2008 season as an offensive assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles, helping the team to an appearance in the NFC Championship game. Before joining the Eagles, he served as the quarterbacks coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2004-06 where he was instrumental in the development of Roethlisberger, who became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl as a rookie. In 2004, Roethlisberger became the first NFL quarterback to finish a season undefeated with a 13-0 record in games he started.

Prior to his move to the NFL, Whipple spent 16 years as a collegiate head coach. In addition to his time at UMass, Whipple also led the Brown and New Haven programs.

At every stop in his college coaching career, the trademark of a Whipple team was a high-powered offense. His UMass teams rewrote the program's record book, setting more than 40 team records. In 1998, his national championship team posted school records in points scored (524), touchdowns (73), total yards (7,074), passing yards (4,050), completions (306) and first downs (354).

While at UMass, he posted a 49-26 (.653) record in six years (1998-2003), leading the Minutemen to a Division I-AA National Championship in his first season with the team in 1998. He also won three Atlantic 10 Conference Championships. He was named the American Football Coaches Association's GTE Division I-AA National Coach of the Year, while also receiving National Coach of the Year honors from Don Hansen's Football Gazette and finished runner-up for the Eddie Robinson Award, presented by The Sports Network.

In addition, Whipple was named the Scotty Whitelaw Division I-AA Coach of the Year by the New York Metropolitan Football Writers Association, and earned AFCA/GTE Region I Coach of the Year honors. In 2003, he earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors. He was selected as the New England Coach of the Year by the New England Football Writers and the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston in both 1998 and 2003. He posted five winning seasons in only six years as head coach with 17 different players earning All-America honors.

Taking over a program which finished 2-9 in 1997 and having had won just 19 games in the previous four seasons before his arrival, Whipple brought unparalleled success to the Minutemen under his leadership. Consider that in Whipple's six seasons on the sideline, UMass football captured a national title, won three conference championships, made consecutive NCAA I-AA playoff appearances for the first time ever and had three NCAA berths overall.

Introduced as the 26th coach in UMass history by then-athletic director Bob Marcum on Dec. 16, 1997, Whipple-coached teams posted a .500-or-better record 14 times. No UMass football coach reached the 20-win plateau faster than Whipple, who also owns five of the school's 11 all-time postseason victories.

In Whipple's rookie season at UMass, the Minutemen won a then school-record 12 games (broken by the 2006 NCAA national runner-up team) en route to the 1998 NCAA Division I-AA championship. UMass posted a record six victories over ranked opponents in 1998, including a 55-43 triumph over top-ranked and previously unbeaten Georgia Southern in the NCAA Championship game.

The Minutemen followed up Whipple's first campaign with another outstanding season in 1999. Armed with a lofty preseason ranking, UMass rebounded from a 1-3 start to post a 9-4 record and advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs. Along the way, UMass tied the all-time school record for consecutive victories with eight, and also claimed a share of the 18th Atlantic 10 title in school history.

In 2000, UMass struggled with injuries to key players throughout the season, but was still able to post an overall record of 7-4, with three of the losses coming against teams which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs. It marked the first time UMass had strung together three-straight winning seasons since a five-year run from 1977-1981. In addition, the Minutemen finished in third place in the Atlantic 10 with a 5-3 league mark, and handed Whipple his 100th career win with UMass' 29-21 season-ending victory at Rhode Island.

A young and inexperienced team was hit hard by injuries in 2001, finishing 3-8, but Whipple's 2002 Minutemen rebounded to post an overall record of 8-4. UMass tied for third place in the Atlantic 10 with a 6-3 mark in conference games, while downing two teams ranked in the top five in the nation (No. 2 Maine and No. 4 Villanova).

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS FOOTBALL HEAD COACH MARK WHIPPLE

Whipple came to UMass following a four-year stint at his alma mater, Brown University. During his four years with the Bears (1994-97), Whipple compiled a 24-16 (.600) overall record without a losing season. His teams won more games in four years than the previous eight seasons at Brown combined.

Whipple led Brown to a 7-3 mark and a second-place finish in the Ivy League in his first season in 1994, posting the school's best record and first winning season since 1987. His squad capped the year with four consecutive victories, marking the first time since 1980 that Brown had accomplished that feat.

In 1995, the Brown offense set several single season school records, including most points (282), total offense (4,165 yards), passing offense (2,502 yards) and first downs (227). His 1996 team came within a play of the Ivy League title. Battling Dartmouth to the final minute of the game in the ninth week of the season, the Bears fell to the undefeated Big Green by three points. For the second straight year, Whipple's passing offense set a new school mark with 2,628 yards.

In 1997, his squad set Ivy League and school records for total offense (474.3 yards per game) and Brown records for single season first downs (233), passing yards (317.9 yards per game) and single game total offense (629 yards vs. Yale).

Before his tenure at Brown, Whipple spent six years at the University of New Haven (1988-93), where he posted an impressive 48-17 (.738) overall record as head coach and offensive coordinator, including two straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 1992 and 1993. The Chargers were ranked in the top 20 nationally in five of his six seasons at New Haven.

In 1992, he led the Chargers to a 12-1 mark, advancing to the NCAA semifinals and finishing with a No. 5 ranking nationally. The squad led all NCAA divisions in scoring offense (50.5 points per game) and total offense (587.7 yards per game).

Whipple guided the 1993 squad to a second-straight undefeated regular season (10-0) and a No. 2 national ranking, before falling in the NCAA quarterfinals. That team was named Sports Illustrated's "Best Offense in College Football", averaging 52.5 points and 557.6 yards of total offense per game.

Prior to his stint at New Haven, Whipple served as the offensive coordinator at the University of New Hampshire for two years. He was also a member of the coaching staff for the USFL's Arizona Wranglers under George Allen, assisting with the quarterbacks. Whipple was an assistant coach at Brown for one season (1983), working with the wide receivers. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at St. Lawrence University (1980), before serving as the offensive coordinator at Union College for two years (1981-82).

A 1979 graduate of Brown University with a bachelor's degree in political science, Whipple was the starting quarterback for the Bears in 1977 and 1978 leading Brown to a 13-5 record and a pair of second-place Ivy League finishes. He was a member of the Bears' 1976 Ivy League Championship team, the first Ivy title in school history. During his three-year varsity career, he completed 175 of 340 passes for 2,365 yards and 13 touchdowns, while running for 518 yards and 10 touchdowns. A two-time honorable mention All-Ivy pick in football, Whipple also earned four varsity letters on the baseball diamond as Brown's starting shortstop. He was inducted into the Brown Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996.

Whipple was born in Tarrytown, N.Y. before moving to Phoenix, Ariz. at the age of nine. He is a graduate of Camelback High School where he was an all-state performer in both football and baseball. Whipple was named the Arizona Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 1975. He and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Spencer and Austin. Spencer was a quarterback at UMass and the University of Miami where he graduated in 2012. He is currently UMass' co-passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach. Austin began his college career as a quarterback on the Penn State football team before transferring to UMass prior to the 2014 season.
