PAC-12 CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE HISTORY

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back over 96 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference, essentially replacing Colorado, which left for the Big 7 two years earlier. The PCC continued as a nine-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as commissioner of the Pac-8.

On July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Thomas C. Hansen was named the commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the conference into a modern 12-team league by adding the University of Colorado and the University of Utah. The addition of CU and Utah led to an agreement to equal revenue sharing for the first time in conference history, created two divisions (North and South) for football only, established a football championship game for the first time ever, secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school and established the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, as the Buffaloes were the first domino to fall in a change of the national landscape which, in just one week, saw Nebraska also leave the Big 12 and join the Big 10, Boise State depart the WAC for the Mountain West, TCU jump from the MWC for the Big East, and then on June 17, Utah agreeing to join CU to make it an even dozen in the Pac-12. Big-time rivals for the first half of the last century, the Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Pac-10 teams claimed 258 NCAA titles (130 women's, 128 men's).

At present, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the conference schools are members of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports. CU will participate in the MPSF in men's and women's indoor track, and already competes in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association (RMISA) in skiing, which is a coed sport.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.

CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushers in a new era with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2011.

The Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions" ®, claiming an incredible 180 NCAA team titles over the past two decades, including nine in 2010-11, averaging nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 27 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led the nation in NCAA Championships in 45 of the last 51 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of CU and UU, league teams have captured 442 NCAA titles (302 men's, 140 women's), outdistancing the next closest conference by nearly 200.

In 2010-11, the then-Pac-10 led the country with nine NCAA titles, with men's and women's programs sharing the wealth as the Conference claimed five NCAA women's titles and four men's crowns.

Including titles previously won by Colorado and Utah, Pac-12 members have won 302 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 89 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12: 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 52 tennis titles, 44 outdoor track & field crowns, and 26 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 42 NCAA titles in volleyball, 37 of 42 in water polo, and 22 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions, as well, boasting 2,019 individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 30 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 22 occasions, including 2010-11. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 140 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC (second with 77). Pac-10 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 19 tennis crowns, 13 of the last 21 volleyball titles, 14 of the last 22 trophies in golf, and 12 in swimming and diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 616 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

Colorado and Utah have combined to win 16 coed skiing titles, one of three NCAA sports to score championships based on men's and women's results along with fencing and rifle. Combined, the newest Pac-12 entrants have 28 NCAA crowns and 152 individual champions in the sport.

ANNE KELLY

It's no coincidence that Colorado's climb as one of the top programs in the region has coincided with the hiring of Anne Kelly as its second head coach in 1997.

Entering her 17th season as head coach of the Colorado women's golf team, Kelly and the Buffs continue CU's new era after the school's move to the toughest women's golf conference in the country, the Pac-12, three seasons ago. The timing proved to be right for Kelly and the Buffs, as CU enjoyed its most successful season in its inaugural Pac-12 campaign.

Kelly returned to her native Colorado from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where she filled head coaching duties for one-and-a-half years. Prior to her work at UNC Greensboro, she spent five years from 1991-96 as a teaching professional at Silverbell Golf Course in Tucson, Ariz., where she earned PGA Class A status, a position which followed a six-year stint from 1984-90 on the LPGA Tour.

During her six seasons on the women's tour, Kelly won a Women's Professional Golf Tour event in Phoenix in 1991. She fired a career low round of 69 at the 1989 McDonald's Championship and her career best finishes included several top-20 finishes. Her professional career culminated in a career low scoring average of 74.63 in 1990.

Kelly sparkled as a collegiate golfer, earning four letters for head coach Fred Warren and the Texas Christian University women's golf team. She was a member of the Horned Frogs' 1983 NCAA Championship team, and, all told, won 25 tournament team titles during her four-year career from 1979-83. She was named the team's most valuable player in 1980 and won TCU's Dutch Meyer Award, which recognizes the school's outstanding student-athletes, in 1983. She also tied for top individual honors in the San Jose State Lady Spartan Classic in 1982. Her 1983 NCAA Championship team was inducted into the TCU Hall of Fame in October 2000.

"I love coaching because it allows me to combine my competitive experience and professional golf experience into one job," Kelly says. "All of my different experiences in golf help me to assist team members in whatever situation they might encounter."

At UNC Greensboro, Kelly was named the 1997 Big South Conference Coach of the Year after the team won two tournaments. She coached UNCG's Becky Morgan to five individual tournament titles and second-team All-America standing on the year and, under Kelly's tutelage, Morgan finished 10th individually at the 1997 NCAA Championships and also earned GTE Academic All-America honors. Morgan is now in her fifth year as an LPGA and European tour member.

Since Kelly's arrive in 1997, the team has shown steady improvement and progress every year, culminating with the best season in program history last year. She has coached the Buffs to nine tournament wins and 30 second or third place finishes. Last season, the Buffs took a momentous step forward, qualifying for the NCAA Championships for the first time, while also earning a nod to NCAA Regionals for the third time in program history, all happening in the past four seasons.

In 2012, the Buffs won three tournaments while playing the toughest slate in program history with all 12 events having a top 50 rank for strength of competition from Golfweek, with most earning a top 30 nod.

Club and earned a trip to its own site after breaking into the top 10 for the first time in program history. CU was the No. 4 seed and looking to advance to the finals for the first time (eight teams from each site go). The Buffs struggled the first two days, but then put together one of the best team rounds in CU history, collectively shooting a 9-under par to jump from ninth to fourth the final day and advance.

The program has seen individual players excel both on the course and in the class room.

The Buffs have had 29 players earn 58 Academic All-Conference honors during Kelly's tenure and the Buffs time in that league, and seven Buffs have been named to the prestigious NCGA All-America Scholars team, including for the first time two players in 2011 with Taylor Doyle and Jessica Wallace. Former Buff Maria Persson-Gulda was named to that team three times and was also honored with an NCAA postgraduate scholarship. She was honored as CU's top female student athlete academically in 2006, an honor recent graduate Jamie Befort has racked up twice. Additionally, an astonishing 47 CU players have earned mention on the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.0 GPA or higher in a semester) a total of 205 times in Kelly's tenure.

DID YOU KNOW?
Kelly was a captain of the Texas Christian 1983 NCAA Championship team.

Erin Kerr was the first Buff to qualify for a NCAA Regional post season bid in 2001 and that was followed up with another invitation in 2002. Hannah Hoch became a two time tournament winner in 2004-05 and broke many school records. She also became the first player in Buff history to be named All Big 12 second team that year as well. Last season, Emily Talley and Jessica Wallace were both named first-team All-Big 12, the first two players to earn that honor, and each were named twice as the Big 12 Golfer of the Month over the past two seasons. Wallace won CU's only Big 12 individual honor, named the Newcomer of the Year last season, as well.

Talley became CU's first All-American, earning honorable mention from both the coaches (Golfstat) and Golfweek after the 2011-12 season. Alex Stewart joined Talley on the Golfweek poll as both were also given the distinction of being named to the All-Pac-12 team along with Wallace.

Born May 15, 1961, in Aspen, Colo., Kelly graduated from TCU in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in business communications. She prepped at Santa Rita High School in Tucson, Ariz.

BRENT FRANKLIN

Brent Franklin enters his 12th season working with the Buffaloes in 2013-14, including his 10th as the assistant coach. He began as a volunteer assistant coach for Anne Kelly's team in 2003, was promoted to assistant in 2005, trading roles with Linda-Sue Chenoweth, who was named Executive Director of the Colorado Opens in 2004.

"Having a professional golfer of Brent's caliber is a tremendous asset to this program," Kelly explains. "He comes to us with a wealth of playing and teaching experience as a highly successful amateur competitor and international touring professional. His enthusiasm, combined with his golf knowledge, communication skills, sense of humor, and incredible teaching experience, as well as his willingness to share his expertise, will help take this team to the next level."

Franklin was named to the 2010 class of the Canadian Golf Hall of Fame. He enjoyed a great deal of success as a junior golfer in Canada, winning both the Canadian Junior Boys Championship and the British Columbia Junior Boys Championships in both 1983 and '84 before embarking on a collegiate career at Brigham Young.

He went to college at Brigham Young, where he was a three-time All-American for the Cougars while also being named the 1986 Western Athletic Conference player of the year after winning medalists honors that season. During that time period, he also became the only person to win three straight Canadian Men's Amateur Championships in stroke play format from 1985-87 and in 1985 he also won the Alberta Amateur Championship.

He turned pro in 1988 and earned the Canadian Professional Golf Tour's Rookie of the Year after claiming six top 10 finishes in eight tour starts, including winning the Canadian PGA Championship. He then moved to Japan to compete on the Japan Golf Tour from 1989-95, where he compiled 10 runner-up finishes in 112 starts. In 1993, he was selected to the Dunhill

Cup Team for Canada and twice represented Canada for the two-man world cup championship. He was Canada's highest world ranked player from 1992 through 1994 reaching a high of 86 in the world rankings

After being hit by a car while jogging in 1990 this eventually curtailed his career but in a brief return to the pro ranks from 1998-2001, he had three second place finishes

Franklin is married to the former Kristine Hoos, who served as CU's Director of Men's Basketball Operations from 1998-99. They are the parents of 13-year-old Jaxon and Walker, 11. His brother-in-law, Eric Hoos, is the head men's golf coach at the University of Denver and former CU men's assistant from 1997-99.

JENNY COLEMAN

Career—Coleman has emerged as the team leader for the Buffaloes as one of two seniors on the squad and an essential part of the two best seasons in CU history, during her sophomore and junior seasons. Her career stroke average of 75.16 is the third best in CU history for those with 50-plus rounds played and the second-best for those with 100 rounds. She holds the record at CU for career birdies – with 281 birdies she is 15 ahead of the closest Buff (Emily Talley). She has played in 40 events and 119 rounds in her career with one victory, five top five finishes, eight top 10 and 17 top 20 performances. She has four rounds in the 60s and 102 in the 70s. She has 16 subpar rounds and 29 total rounds at or under par in her career.

College-2013-14 (Sr.)—Coleman began her senior year on an impressive note, earning her fifth top five finish, and becoming the only Buffalo to do so in 2013 fall play. At the Buffs' first tournament of the season, the Ptarmigan Ram Classic, she shot an even par 216 (73-72-71) to tie for fifth and help the Buffs to a runner-up finish. Coleman recorded another top 15 finish in the next tournament, tying for 11th at the UNM Invitational, shooting a 73-74-73—220. Her nine birdies in the tournament helped her move into sole possession of the record at CU and reach a total of 268 in her career – a record she extended to 281 by the fall season's end.

2012-13 (Jr.)—Coleman helped lead the Buffaloes to one of the best seasons on the books and was rewarded with an individual invitation to the 2013 NCAA Championships. She played in all 10 events in the regular season and 12 overall counting the 2013 Pac-12 Championships and the NCAA Regionals, playing in 35 rounds with a stroke average of 74.11, the fifth best mark in CU history. At the NCAA Regionals, Coleman finished with a 72-79-71—222 scorecard, tying the third-best round by a Buff in the postseason (regional or finals) on the final day. Her 222 total was the fifth-best for the postseason. She really had two stand-out performances that put her name throughout the CU record book. The first was in the fall where she won the New Mexico Invitational, shooting a 70-70-68—208 on the par 73 course to finish at 11-under par 208. Her 208 was the best 54-hole mark in CU history for any tournament and her 11-under par score topped the school record by four strokes.

She then opened the postseason with a stellar third place finish at the 2013 Pac-12 Championships, shooting a 74-67-72—213. The third place finish, her second round 67 and her 54-hole score of 213 are all new CU postseason records. She became the first CU player to shoot a round in the 60s twice in the postseason and has two of the six such rounds in school history. Other than those two tournaments, she was just one round away in several other tournaments from competing for medalist honors. She finished 13th at the Windy City Classic and was in contention entering the back nine of her final round. She opened the spring with a 20th place showing at the loaded Sugar Bowl Intercollegiate in New Orleans and then followed that up with a 15th place finish at the Clover Cup. She was able to accomplish all this while the Buffs played the 20th-toughest schedule nationally throughout the season.

2011-12 (Soph.)—She cemented herself one of the five golfers in the rotation on the best team in school history behind three of the best players in program history. CU had two significant firsts by becoming the first top 10 ranked team in program history and advancing to the NCAA Championships for the first time in program history. Her stroke average of 75.08 was third best on the team and also the seventh best mark in CU history. Her spring stroke average of 74.92 is the fifth-best mark in school history as the top six places on that chart have happened from 2010-11 and 2011-12. She had two top five and five top 10 performances on the season with two rounds in the 60s and 30 more in the 70s. She had six subpar rounds and three more at even par. She opened the fall season with a fifth place finish at the Ptarmigan Ram Classic, her first top five finish, by shooting a 2-over par 218 through 54 holes. She then finished 10th at the Edean Invitational, helping the Buffs to the tournament win with a 10-over par 226. When she was at her best, the Buffs were at their best. In the spring season, she finished tied for sixth at the Clover Cup and third at the Anuenue Spring Break Challenge, both of which the Buffs won, and 10th at the NCAA West Regional at Colorado National Golf Club when the Buffs advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time. At both the Clover Cup and Anuenue, she finished at 4-over par 220 while she matched her 54-hole best of 4-over par 218 at the NCAA West Regional. She shot a 3-over par 69 in the second round of the Clover Cup and then was integral in the Buffs comeback at the NCAA West Regional. Her final round 3-under par 69 there helped the Buffs to a 9-under team score as the Buffs improved from ninth to fourth over the course of the final round. She then shot a 10-over par at the NCAA Championships with a solid 76-73-74-75—298 scorecard.

2010-11 (Fr.)—Coleman got her career off to a great start, completing one of the best freshman seasons in CU history. She was the only player on the team to improve her stroke average from the fall to the spring and she sliced over two-and-a-half strokes off her average, improving from 78.07 in the fall to 75.45 in the spring. Her spring stroke average was third best on the team but fifth best in school history and her overall average was fourth best. Her 35 rounds tied the record for most in school history. She had five top 20 finishes, four in the spring, and 28 of her 35 rounds were in the 70s, tied for fifth best in school history. She had three rounds under par and one more at even par, with all four of those rounds in the spring. Her best finish of the season was an 11th place at the San Jose Spartan Invitational, the second tournament of the spring where she posted her first career round at or under par with an even-par 72 in the first round. She also tied for 12th twice, ironically at the two events that CU hosts, the Heather Farr Memorial at CU's Colorado National Golf Club in the fall and the MountainView Classic in Tucson, Ariz., in the spring. At the MountainView, she went under par in each of the second two rounds, and then she became the fourth player in school history to post three straight rounds under par when she scored a 1-under par 71 to open the inaugural Pacific Coast Collegiate. Her 76-71-71—218 score card at the MountainView was her best of the season and represents her best 54-hole score. She ranks tied for second on the list for most consecutive rounds under par. To open the spring, she had four top 20 finishes in the first five tournaments and finished tied for 25th in the other, the Gator Women's Invitational. In the post season, she placed tied for 43rd at the Big 12 Championships and tied for 69th at the NCAA East Regional, shooting 14-over par 230 both times.

KRISTIN COLEMAN

Career—Coleman emerged as a veteran after two-and-a-half years playing in the top rotation during one of the most successful stretches in school history. As one of two seniors on the team, she continues to shine as a leader. Her career stroke average of 77.00 is currently fourth-best in CU history for those with at least 100 rounds played and eighth-best for those with at least 50 rounds. She has played in 37 career events and 111 rounds. She has three top 10 and seven top 20 finishes with 80 rounds in the 70s, six subpar rounds and 14 total rounds at or under par in her career.

College-2013-14 (Sr.)—Through 12 rounds in the fall, all of which counted towards the team score, Coleman currently holds a career-best stroke average of 75.17. Coleman opened the season with her best performance, shooting a 73-72-72—217 at the Ptarmigan Ram Classic, where she placed eighth and helped the Buffs to a second place finish. All but one of Coleman's rounds were in the 70s, with three matching a season-best 72. She found success once more as the fall season came to a close at the Pac-12 Fall Preview, shooting 4-over par 223 to place just outside the top 20, tying for 22nd.

2012-13 (Jr.)—Coleman finished the fall with a stroke average of 78.33, fifth best on the team, having played in all five events and 15 rounds for the Buffaloes. She had eight rounds in the 70s and all 15 of her rounds counted toward team scoring, helping the team to two top nine performances in the fall. Coleman shot a season-low 73 in the first round of the team's first two tournaments, helping her to her season-best finishes at 35th and 39th, respectively. As the Buffs continued play in the nation's 20th-toughest schedule, Coleman played in four of the team's six spring tournaments, including the 2013 Pac-12 Championships. In spring play, she shot three more rounds in the 70s, finishing with an 81.00 stroke average through 12 rounds.

2011-12 (So.)—Coleman cemented herself in CU's top five rotation throughout the best season in program history, as she helped the Buffs earn the program's first top 10 ranking and first trip to the NCAA Championships. She had a stroke average of 76.65, fifth best on the team, and had two top 20 finishes and 28 rounds in the 70s with two rounds under par and another pair at even par. She basically book-ended the season with her top two performances, with one coming in the second tournament of the season and the other the second-to-last. She finished 12th at the New Mexico Invitational after shooting a 3-over par 222 with two even par rounds. She then performed near her best when it counted most, recording a 4-over par 220 at the NCAA West Regional at Colorado National Golf Club. She shot 1-under par 71s in the first and third rounds, her only two rounds under par on the season. Her 71 in the final round helped the Buffs to a 9-under par team score as the Buffs moved up from ninth to fourth to advance to the program's first ever NCAA Championship. She also had solid performances at the Clover Cup, as the Buffs won aided by her 22nd place finish of 11-over par 227. She matched that score at the Pac-12 Championships, finishing tied for 32nd.

2010-11 (Fr.)—Coleman had one of the best freshman seasons in CU history, compiling a stroke average of 76.06, the 10th best mark in CU history and third best by a freshman. She had 34 of 35 rounds counting toward team scoring, the second most in CU history with a mark that matched the school record entering the season, as she is second to teammate Jess Wallace. Her 35 rounds also matches the school record. She had 30 rounds in the 70s, third best in CU history, again matching the CU record as it stood before the season, as only Wallace's 32 rounds and Emily Talley's 31 rounds from this season are higher. She made an instant impact, compiling one of the best fall seasons in CU history with a stroke average of 74.67, and while that was the fourth best on the team, it was the ninth best in CU history as the 2010-11 squad produced four of the nine instances in CU history where a golfer went under 75 in the fall. She had two top 10 finishes, both in the fall, and had two rounds under par, needing one more to hit the top 10 of that career chart. She
