

SUPPORT STAFF

Cory Harbor - Academic Counselor - Second Season

Cory Harbor is in his second year as an assistant director of academics in the Herbst Academic Center, working with the cross country and track & field programs. Prior to his arrival at Colorado, he was an academic advisor at Northwestern (2013-2016). Harbor also worked as an academic counselor at Illinois (2011-2013) and Missouri State (2010-2011). A four-year letterwinner on the football team at MSU, Harbor earned his bachelor's degree in sports administration in 2008 and his master's in sports administration in 2009. He is currently finalizing his MBA at MSU as well. Harbor and his wife, Nicole, have one son, Luca. He enjoys working out, being outside, playing basketball, reading and spending time with family.

MT Eisner - Assistant Sports Performance Coach - Sixth Season

MT Eisner joined the Colorado Sports Performance staff in September of 2013 after spending just over a year at the University of Denver as a part-time assistant coach, working with all 17 Division I programs. She graduated from Fairfield University in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in communication and journalism and went on to receive her master's degree in sports medicine with a specialization in strength and conditioning from UC-Colorado Springs in 2013. While attending Fairfield, she earned four letters in soccer and was named to the First Team All-MAAC in 2007 and 2008. Her team was the MAAC Champion in 2005 and represented the conference in the NCAA Tournament that same season. Eisner has certifications in CSCS (certified strength and conditioning specialist), USA Weightlifting Level 1 and CPR/AED. She graduated from Arapahoe High School in 2004 where she lettered in soccer. Eisner also enjoys playing tennis and running. The former MT Church is married to Justin Eisner and the couple has two sons, Sutter and Calder.

Kimberly Detwiler - Assistant Athletic Trainer - Second Season

Kimberly Detwiler is in her second year as an assistant athletic trainer for the cross country and track and field team at Colorado. She joins the staff at CU after spending the last seven years at Texas where she worked with the softball team. Detwiler earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training from San Diego State in 2005 and received her master's degree in athletic training from Oregon in 2007. She has served the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) in various capacities. Most notably, Detwiler served as the inaugural chair for the NATA's Young Professionals' Committee and various other groups including VisionQuest, work-life balance position statement writing team and Strategic Implementation Team. In addition to this service, she also enjoys giving presentations and writing articles related to the field of athletic training. In her free time, Detwiler enjoys cycling, running, hiking, camping, writing and reading. She also enjoys traveling, especially back home to California to see her family.

Tim Horton - Assistant Equipment Manager - 18th Season

Tim Horton is his 26th year at CU, his 18th as the assistant equipment manager for Olympic Sports, as he joined the CU staff in the fall of 1992. His primary duties at Colorado are handling the equipment needs for the non-revenue sports, along with helping the football program on game day. The student-athletes selected him as the 2002-03 Staff Member of the Year for his contributions and time dedicated to the success of the members of CU's 17 intercollegiate programs, presenting him with the honor at the 2003 CUSPY's. He graduated from the University of Northern Colorado in 1979, earning a bachelor's of science degree in business administration and marketing. He was a member of the Bears' ski team while in college. Born Dec. 11, 1956 in Leadville, Colo., he graduated from Boulder's Fairview High in 1975, where he lettered in football. An avid bicyclist, he participated in the 2004 Ride The Rockies to test his endurance over the 350-plus mile trek. Horton also rode the Denver Century in June 2014 and raised over $1,500 for cancer research in search of the Leukemia Lymphoma Society. He has a son, Davis Paul and is an 11-year cancer survivor.

Linda Sprouse - Associate Sports Information Director - 14th Season

Linda Sprouse enters her 14th season as the assistant sports information director for the CU cross country team. She also works with the women's golf and lacrosse programs. Sprouse served as the media coordinator for the 2013 Pac-12 Cross Country, 2008 Big 12 Outdoor Track & Field Championship, and the inaugural 2018 Pac-12 Lacrosse Tournament. Prior to joining CU, she served as the coordinator of media relations for the American Volleyball Coaches Association from 2003-05, working primarily with NCAA women's Division II and III and men's Division III volleyball programs. Sprouse served as a graduate assistant in the athletic communications office at Minnesota State University from 2001-03. She worked with several of the Mavericks' programs, including volleyball, women's ice hockey and women's basketball. Sprouse earned her bachelor's degree in Mass Communications from MSU in 2001 and completed her master's of science in sport administration from MSU in December '07. A native of New Ulm, Minn., she earned two letters as a member of the tennis team. The former Linda Poncin is married to Nick Sprouse, the director of equipment for the Colorado volleyball, women's lacrosse and men's and women's basketball programs. The couple has a daughter, Lily, and resides in Thornton, Colo.