Arizona Notes & Numbers

» Arizona is coming off its first win over a ranked team and has two of its last three games at home.

» UA has at least one win against an AP Top 25 team in 13 of the past 15 seasons.

» The Wildcats have won five of the seven meetings between these schools since CU joined the Pac-12 Conference.

» The winning team in this series has scored at least 38 points in all seven meetings since the Buffs joined the conference.

» Running back J.J. Taylor leads all Power 5 players with 1,579 all-purpose yards and his average of 175.4 ypg is currently most for a UA player since at least 2000.

» Arizona's defense is limiting Pac-12 teams to 23.8 points per game, the second-best improvement of any Power 5 school from non-conference to conference play.

» Currently averaging 27.4 ppg allowed, UA's defense is allowing 10.9 fewer points per game than it did in Marcel Yates' first season in 2016.

» S Demetrius Flannigan-Fowles set a new career-high with three pass breakups last week vs. Oregon.

» WR Shun Brown had a career-high 10 catches against Oregon. He is 14 shy of UA's career Top 10 chart.

The Bear Down Tradition

Arizona's most memorable athletic tradition is the slogan "Bear Down," given to Wildcat teams by John "Button" Salmon, student body president and varsity athlete, shortly before he died in 1926 following an auto accident. Button Salmon's last message to his teammates, spoken to J.F. "Pop" McKale, coach and athletic director, was, "Tell them... tell the team to bear down." The rally cry predates "Win One for the Gipper" by two years.

Media Information

Blair Willis and Daniel Berk of Arizona Athletics Communication Services will assist media members throughout the season in their coverage of Arizona Football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Any questions about media policies should be directed to Blair Willis via email at bmw23@arizona.edu or (520) 621-0914.

Interview Requests

The Arizona Athletics Communication Services office will make every attempt to fulfill phone interview requests for media members. Interview requests for head coach Kevin Sumlin and UA players should be directed to Blair Willis (bmw23@arizona.edu) and Daniel Berk (dberk@arizona.edu). To make a request by phone, call 520-621-4163. Please submit requests well in advance to allow time for an interview to be scheduled. However, some requests may not be granted based on academic schedules and other team responsibilities. All player availability will be on Tuesdays.

Weekly Press Conference

Head Coach Kevin Sumlin is available at a press conference each Monday of game week during the regular season. Press conferences begin at noon in the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility Room 370. There is no weekly press conference during bye weeks. A live web stream is available at: <http://pac-12.com/videos/university-arizona>.

Practices

Practices are closed to media. All interviews with Coach Sumlin and student-athletes will take place on Monday (coach) or Tuesday (players) afternoons in the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility. Contact Blair Willis or Daniel Berk for more specific information on the weekly availability throughout the season.

Postgame Interviews

Arizona has a closed locker room policy after games. There is no player availability on the field immediately after the game. Head coach Kevin Sumlin will address the assembled media only after his postgame radio show responsibilities have been completed both at home and on the road. At home games, Coach Sumlin will hold a postgame press conference in Room 370 of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility. Selected offensive and defensive players will also be available after games. For road games, each locker room situation will dictate postgame protocol. Please direct any specific requests for players to Blair Willis and Daniel Berk with the UA Communication Services staff.

Pac-12 Weekly Teleconference

Head Coach Kevin Sumlin is available at 11:15 a.m. (PT) each week during the season on the Pac-12 Football Coaches Weekly Teleconference. For information in regards to obtaining the phone number to take part in the weekly teleconference, please call the Pac-12 Conference office (925-932-4411), or the UA Communication Services Office (520-621-4163). UPDATE: Beginning on Sept. 18, this teleconference is hosted every other week instead of weekly.

Facilities Access for Media

Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at Arizona Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes; these guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

Credentials

Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Arizona Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. All credential requests may be submitted at www.arizonawildcats.com/FBCredentials. Game-specific credential requests must be received no later than 48 hours prior to a contest. Parking and press seating may be limited for certain games. All questions concerning credentials should be directed to Blair Willis at bmw23@arizona.edu or 520-621-0914.

Some Game Themes: The calendar turns to November and the Friday night lights shine on a Pac-12 South showdown in the desert ... Yes, the final month of the college football regular season is upon us and if trends continue, it will be a wild finish out west ... The Wildcats are riding the high of a Homecoming upset over No. 19 Oregon, which surprised many outsiders. The victory repositions Arizona for postseason considerations and even within striking distance of the top spot in the Pac-12 South ... But we'll keep the focus narrow here. It's a short week, which didn't go so well for the Wildcats a few weeks ago in Salt Lake City ... Instead of hitting the road on six-day notice, this time UA gets to enjoy the friendly confines of Arizona Stadium where Kevin Sumlin's charges are closing out the season with three of their final four at home ... Coming to town are the Buffaloes smarting from a three-game losing streak after looking like one of the Pac-12 South's early contenders ... One of the veteran coaches in the league, Mike MacIntyre, hopes equally veteran quarterback Steven Montez can rally the Buffs and keep Colorado in the mix in the closing stretches ... The health and availability of do-everything Laviska Shenault is a key question mark as the spectacular playmaker has missed the last two games ... Shenault's explosiveness was drawing headlines somewhat similar to UA quarterback Khalil Tate a year ago, and Tate's own breakout performance came in Boulder against these Buffs last October. Don't think some payback won't be on Colorado's mind this week ... Arizona hopes Tate has shaken off his own injury struggles from earlier this season. He was steady in his return last week ... Marcel Yates' defense delivered a signature performance last week against the Ducks, and while it may not have seemed to be the case after an 0-2 start, his three-year plan to rebuild Arizona's defense is finally paying off. No, the Cats aren't a shut down defense, but they've begun making plays and if they can get off the field on third downs like they against the Ducks, it's a pretty sturdy unit ... Special teams also broke through in a big way for Arizona last week, something else Sumlin would like to see gain consistency down the stretch ... Arizona running back J.J. Taylor is one of the nation's top all-purpose playmakers, and he's produced some of his best oments the last two weeks ... The Cats may have a question or two along an inexperienced offensive line, but it's a group that has matured and will be a key if a late-season surge is in store ... This is Arizona's 10th-consecutive game before it finally gets an open date next week ... The home stretch is here. We'll see you Friday night.

Last Week: Head coach Kevin Sumlin implored his team to play four quarters of football and the Wildcats delivered the performance of the season with a 44-15 rout of No. 19 Oregon on Homecoming. The Cats had competed and played hard all season, but consistency in all three phases had not synched up until last Saturday night. The defense set the tone early, forcing a three-and-out. Healthy again, Khalil Tate and the offense took advantage, scoring early with a 22-yard pass to Shawn Poindexter. The defense dug in from there, forcing three more punts and gaining two turnovers on Oregon's next five possessions. Meanwhile, the offense sputtered a bit, but Josh Pollack drilled three field goals and by the 11:30 mark of the second quarter it was a 16-0 game. Justin Herbert finally led the Ducks on a scoring drive, finding Dillon Mitchell for a 29-yard score. An ensuing 2-point conversion made it a one score game at 16-8, but the Wildcats weren't ready to let the Ducks back in it. Tate and running back J.J. Taylor marched the Cats back down the field, going 88 yards in 18 plays over 7:30 before Taylor punched in a 1-yard score. It was a 23-8 halftime lead for the Cats and not even a Tate interception to open the third quarter could spark Oregon as Arizona's defense was simply too good. The Ducks punted on their first three drives of the second, lost a fumble and turned it over on downs in their first five possessions. On the other side, Tate hit Poindexter (8 yards) and Shun Brown (27 yards) for scoring tosses, and Taylor continued to carry the load on the ground, gaining 212 yards on a career high 30 carries. A fourth quarter Oregon score was answered by Taylor's leaping, spinning 19-yard touchdown into the endzone to set the score at its final, 44-15. It was the fourth time since 2007 that Arizona upset a ranked Oregon squad.

Last Meeting vs. Colorado (Oct. 7, 2017): In the land of "Run Ralphie Run" it was more like who could run farther: Khalil Tate or Phillip Lindsay? Arizona's sophomore quarterback spelled a shaken up Brandon Dawkins on the first series of the game and never looked back as he sprinted and passed his way into the record books. Tate rushed for an FBS quarterback record 327 yards and needed only 14 carries to do so. He amassed 208 yards on his four rushing touchdowns alone, a 52 yards-per average thanks to scores of 58, 28, 47 and 75 yards. He also threw for 154 yards and another score, giving him a tally of 481 total offense yards. Added up, it led the Wildcats to 45 points and 567 yards of offense. They needed every point because Lindsay, Colorado's do-everything running back, nearly matched Tate. Lindsay carried the Buffs on his shoulders with 281 yards on 41 rushes of his own. His third touchdown of the game – an 11-yarder – brought CU within three points at 45-42 with 5:04 remaining in the fourth quarter. That's when Tate and the Cats did something they hadn't done all night: slow things down. Instead of running for long touchdowns on short drives (twice on the first play of a drive), Tate engineered a methodical 8-play, 55-yard drive to run out the final five minutes and change. Included were two key third down conversions. The first came early in the possession when, on third-and-four, he dumped a short pass to tight end Bryce Wolma for an eight-yard gain to move the chains. Then, after two CU penalties gave UA another first down, Tate needed one more first down to run out the clock. Facing a third-and-seven with a little over a minute to go, Tate broke several tackles on his way to a game-clinching 31-yard gain that gave him the single-game rushing record for QBs. It also clinched another record: Tate and Lindsey combined for 608 rushing yards, the most by two opposing players in FBS history. It was a hard fought road victory that was Arizona's first in the Pac-12 since their last trip to Boulder in 2015. Arizona has now won five of its last six against Colorado, including three straight at Folsom Field.

Series History: Colorado owns a 14-6 advantage in this series, though Arizona has won five of the last six and six of the last eight... The Wildcats had won four straight under Rich Rodriguez, prior to a home loss (49-24) in 2016 ... Four of Arizona's six victories over the Buffs have come in Boulder, including in 2013, 2015 and 2017 ... Since Colorado joined the Pac-12 Conference in 2011, Arizona enjoys a 5-2 advantage. The winning team has scored at least 38 points in the seven meetings between these schools as Pac-12 members ... These schools first met on Nov. 26, 1931, when Colorado defeated Arizona, 27-7, in Tucson. The first meeting in Boulder was a 28-25 win for the Buffaloes on Oct. 21, 1950.

Cats Take Down No. 19: With Arizona's 44-15 victory last week, the Wildcats picked up their first win over an AP Top 25 team under Kevin Sumlin (it was also the first opportunity). Arizona now has at least one win against a ranked team in 13 of the last 15 seasons, including consecutive years on Homecoming (upset No. 15 Washington State in 2017). The Wildcats improved to 47-121-1 all-time against ranked teams, including 30-54 at home. Kevin Sumlin improved to 16-17 all-time against ranked foes in his career.

Defense Denies Ducks: Last week, Arizona's defense turned one of its most impressive performances in a number of years. Oregon entered the contest second in the Pac-12 in scoring offense (39.7 ppg) and second in total offense (460.7 ypg). The Wildcats held the Ducks to only 260 yards of offense and just 15 points, easily season lows. In fact, the 270 yards were the fewest Oregon gained in any contest since the 2010 Rose Bowl (2009 season) against Ohio State when the Ducks finished with 260 yards. The Wildcats forced nine three-and-outs (or the equivalent thereof with turnovers before a first down or a failed fourth down conversion). It resulted in a 3-for-16 conversion rate on third down, despite the fact the Ducks were the second-best team in the Pac-12 on third downs (49 percent) entering the contests. In addition to the third down stops, there were two forced fumbles, an interception, a blocked punt and six pass breakups. Indeed, the defense was flying around and at the end of the day quarterback Justin Herbert was the leading rusher (31 yards), but he'd completed only half of his 48 chunks of the football. The Ducks entered the fourth quarter with only 137 yards of offense, leaving much of their 260 total meaningless the rest of the way.

J.J. Taylor Leads All FBS Players: Running back J.J. Taylor leads all FBS conference players in all-purpose yardage, collecting 1,315 combined yards on rushing (817), receiving (87) and kick return (411) plays. The sophomore's 164.4 all-purpose average is third nationally among all FBS players, including best in the Pac-12 and second among Power 5 conference players (Rondale Moore, Purdue – 179.9 ypg). The average per game is also the best mark for a UA player since Ka'Deem Carey, who turned in consecutive seasons with 172.9 and 171.5 all-purpose yards per game averages in 2012 and 2013, respectively.

The 1K Club: Redshirt sophomore running back J.J. Taylor collected his second 200-yard rushing game of the season and his career Saturday versus Oregon. Taylor finished with 212 yards on 30 carries, while reaching the end zone twice. He eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark with the performance and enters this Friday night's matchup with Colorado with 1,029 rushing yards on the season. He becomes the 14th player in school history to post a 1,000-yard season, and his total of 1,029 yards already ranks 15th for single-season rushing in program history. Not only did Taylor go over 1,000 yards for the season, he also went over 2,000 for his career. Taylor now has 2,137 career rushing yards, which ranks 13th in program history. Next up would be Jim Upchurch at 2,389 yards. Only 15 previous players in program history went over 2,000 career yards. Taylor is one of two Pac-12 running backs to already go over 1,000 yards for the season, joining Jermar Jefferson from Oregon State. Only four players nationally – Taylor, Jefferson, Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor and Memphis' Darrell Henderson – have gone over 1,000 yards already this season.

Poindexter's Production Picks Up: This time last season, Shawn Poindexter did not know if he would be playing football in 2018. He was hopeful to be back for one more season, and, last December, the NCAA granted him a full additional year of eligibility. He has made the most of the opportunity, emerging as UA's preferred target in the passing game and building off a strong finish to the 2017 campaign. Dating to last November, Poindexter has 41 receptions for 734 yards and seven touchdowns in his last 12 outings. Included are multiple receptions in 11 of 12 games after producing only two multi-catch games in his first 20 career games. In fact, over his first 20 games, which including an injury-riddled 2016 season, Poindexter hauled in 16 receptions for 244 yards. In his last 11 contests, Poindexter has more than doubled his career tallies for receptions and yards. He now has 55 career grabs for 928 yards, an average of 16.9 yards per catch.

Scoring Defense: With last week's 44-15 upset of No. 19 Oregon, it's the latest indicator of the steady defensive improvement the Wildcats have made under third-year defensive coordinator Marcel Yates. When he arrived in 2016, Yates inherited a small roster lacking playmakers, especially in the front seven. His strategy was to make the most in Year 1 while focusing on adding length and skill in his first recruiting class that would arrive for 2017. That group provided a trio of freshmen All-Americans (Colin Schooler, Tony Fields II, Kylan Wilborn) and numerous other playmakers that made an early impact. The results were noticeable with the Cats reducing their points allowed and emerging as one of the league leaders for turnovers forced. Focus again centered on recruiting as Kevin Sumlin was hired and retained Yates, who had worked on Sumlin's staff at Texas A&M in 2012-13. Now in Year 3, Yates' unit has taken a more significant step in the scoring defense category, down more than 10 points from his first season.

Turnover Turnaround: The Wildcats opened the season by creating just one turnover in the first four games. Since, Arizona's defense has forced 12 turnovers in the last five contests. The recent surge has vaulted UA to the top of the league for most turnovers gained in conference games. The Cats cashed in two of their turnovers for touchdowns in a victory over California on Oct. 6, the only two defensive scores of the season. Here's a look at the Pac-12 leaders for turnovers forced in conference contests:

Pollack on Point: Graduate student kicker Josh Pollack has assumed the starting place-kicking duties in recent weeks, a move that has steadied UA's kicking game. The Highland Park, Ill., native has made 8-of-10 field goal tries, including 3-for-3 in each of the last two games. He's also converted all 12 extra point tries this season and has run his season scoring tally to 36 points, highlight by 14 last week in a win over Oregon. He's now in position to move into the program's all-time scoring top 10 list soon. Here's a look at where Pollack stands:

Not So Mellow Yellow: Arizona leads the nation in opponent penalty yards. Incredibly, three of UA's last five opponents (USC, Cal and UCLA) have topped 100 yards in penalties, while Utah came oh-so-close three weeks ago in Salt Lake City (94 yards). Adding up the last five games, it's 58 penalties for 534 total yards or an average of 11.6 penalties for 106.8 yards per game. With the Trojans and Bears each topping the century mark in penalty yards, it was the first time since 2014 that UA's opponents had consecutive games with 100 or more yards of penalties. That stretch included three straight games in which happened for UCLA (11-118), Colorado (10-103) and Washington (13-111).

Push 'Em Back: An emerging strength of the Arizona defense has been its ability to make plays behind the line of scrimmage, something lacking early in the season, especially when it came to pressuring the quarterback. Through six Pac-12 Conference games, UA has recorded 40.0 tackles-for-loss, which is second-most in league play. The Wildcats registered only two sacks in non-conference play (none in first two games of season), but have racked up 14 in six conference games (also second-most by Pac-12 team in conference-only games).

Bole-ing Them Over: Senior defensive tackle Dereck Boles has come on as of late. After having eight tackles in his first four games of the season, Boles has 19 over his last five. Boles has also added three tackles-for-loss, one sack, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries over that five-game span. He didn't have any tackles-for-loss, sacks, forced fumbles or fumble recoveries during the first four. Two games ago, at UCLA, Boles picked up the first sack of his career, while also forcing and recovering a fumble. Saturday against Oregon, he had four tackles (all solo) and picked up another tackle-for-loss. Boles has already doubled his TFL total from last season when he had 1 1/2. He has played in all 22 games of his Arizona career since joining the program from Coffeyville Community College and Boise State.

Negativity Not Allowed: As young, inexperienced and shuffled around as Arizona's offensive line has been this season, one thing the unit has done very well is prevent negative yardage plays. In fact, the Wildcats are third nationally and lead the Pac-12 for fewest negative yardage plays. UA has surrendered just 30 tackles-for-loss this season, checking out to only 3.33 per game. That clip is on pace to easily be the program's best of the last decade, which is impressive considering the Cats' have only one senior (LT Layth Frekh) that factors into the equation. Last week's starting lineup included a true freshman right tackle (Donovan Laie), a sophomore right guard (Bryson Cain), a walk-on sophomore center (Josh McCauley), a junior left guard (Cody Creason) and Friekh. Additionally, UA's top tight ends (Bryce Wolma and Jamie Nunley) are both sophomores, as is the running back duo of J.J. Taylor and Gary Brightwell.

All over the Field(s): Sophomore linebacker Tony Fields has been a tackling machine since making his debut last season. Fields led Arizona with 104 stops last season, and currently sits second on the team with 63 tackles and is 14th in the league through nine games with 7.0 tackles per game. In his 22 career games, Fields has 167 total tackles, which is now the second-most by any Arizona player through 22 career games. His teammate, Colin Schooler has 20 more tackles than Fields through their first 22. Fields has started every game of his career and has proven to be a stalwart for coach Marcel Yates' defense. The combination of Fields and Schooler at linebacker has been a lethal one-two punch. In fact, the two teammates have combined for 155 total tackles through two games, which is the third-most of any conference teammates this season. The two combined for 199 last season with 21 tackles-for-loss and nine sacks. The two combined for three tackles-for-loss Saturday against Oregon. Fields picked up his first sack of the season against the Ducks.

School-er Zone: A consensus Freshman All-America selection last season, Colin Schooler has been a man on a mission his sophomore season. He leads Arizona with 92 tackles through nine games. Schooler has 16 tackles-for-loss, which leads the Pac-12 and is second-most in the country. Schooler has had at least ½ tackle-for-loss in eight of nine games this season. In the team's most recent game, a 44-15 win over Oregon, Schooler led the Wildcats with 11 tackles and finished with 1 ½ tackles-for-loss. That came on the heels of a 10-tackle, three-TFL game against UCLA the week before at the Rose Bowl. Going back, Schooler had five tackles against Utah, marking the first time this season he didn't finish the game as Arizona's leading or second-leading tackler. The linebacker had Arizona's first 16-tackle game in four seasons in the opener versus BYU. He then had nine tackles apiece against Houston and Southern Utah over the next two weeks, before hitting 10 against Oregon State. Schooler led the Wildcats with 13 stops against USC. He has 29 1/2 career TFLs to his credit in just 22 career games and 19 career starts. Schooler is averaging 1.55 TFLs per start in his career. He's had at least three TFLs in a game five times over his last 12 games dating back to last season. Also dating back to last season, Schooler has either been the team's leading tackler or second leading tackler in 13 of Arizona's last 15 games. Nationally, he is one of 13 players to register 90 or more tackles already this season. Only seven Power 5 players have hit the 90-tackle mark already. Schooler already has more tackles than five of the past 10 end-of-season leaders for Arizona.

More on Schooler's TFLs: Schooler's 16 tackles-for-loss are the second-most through nine games by any Arizona defensive player since Scooby Wright collected 19 ½ through the Wildcats' first nine games of the 2014 season. Wright is the only player who has collected more TFLs in the first nine games of a season than Schooler. In 1997, Mike Szlauko, Joe Salave'a and Daniel Greer all had 13 TFLs through nine games. Wright finished with 29 TFLs in 2014 with Arizona playing 14 total games that season. Schooler's 16 tackles-for-loss this season are the most by any player in a Power 5 Conference. With 16 TFLs already this season, Schooler has more TFLs than 19 of the past 22 end-of-season leaders for Arizona. Since 1996, only Salave'a (17 in 1997), Joe Tafoya (18 in 2000) and Wright finished a season with more than 16 TFLs on the season.

Shun Does a Ton: A member of the Paul Hornung Award List for the country's most versatile player, Shun Brown does a little bit of everything for Arizona. A dynamic punt returner, Brown's primary responsibility for the Wildcats is as the team's leading receiver. Brown has led the team in catches in four of the team's last five games. For his career, Brown has 122 catches. He is just six catches away from entering Arizona's Top 12 all-time in receptions. With seven more, he would pass Cayleb Jones and David Roberts and sit in 12th alone. Brown has also entered Arizona's Top 14 all-time in receiving touchdowns with 13. He's one away from tying Jones for 13th all-time. Additionally, Brown has 1,603 career receiving yards and is 36 yards away from tying Samajie Grant for 15th all-time at Arizona. Brown led Arizona with 43 receptions last year and finished with 573 yards, which was second most on the team behind Tony Ellison. Against Oregon last weekend, Brown had a career high 10 catches for 96 yards and a touchdown. Brown has now caught five or passes in five of nine games this season. He only had five or more catches in three games total last season. In the 38 career games he played leading into the season, Brown had five or more catches a total of five times.

Lockdown Lo: Sophomore cornerback Lorenzo Burns, who had a breakout season last year as a redshirt freshman, has taken the next step in his development this year as a sophomore. Burns has played in eight of nine games, missing the UCLA contest with an injury. He leads Arizona with nine pass breakups and is fifth in tackles with 31. Burns ranks third in the Pac-12 with his nine pass breakups and is tied for third at 1.12 passes defended per game. After missing the game against the Bruins, Burns returned against Oregon. He was effective in coverage and only notched one tackle. He also had a pass breakup and a fumble recovery. Burns established himself as one of Arizona's most reliable defenders a year ago as a freshman. He tied for second in the nation in interceptions by a freshman with his five. The five picks were the most by an Arizona defender since Trevin Wade also had five in 2009. Burns now has 16 career pass breakups in 21 games.

High Marks for Scottie: Sophomore safety Scottie Young Jr., received a game grade of 80.6 for his performance Saturday against Oregon from Pro Football Focus. Not only did Young Jr., lead the team with that score, he led all Pac-12 safeties. The next closest was Talanoa Hufanga from USC at 78.7 and Taylor Rapp from Washington at 76.4. Against the Ducks, Young Jr., had two tackles, an interception and a pass breakup. He now leads the team with three interceptions. He leads the Pac-12 Conference with 0.43 interceptions per game and is tied for the overall lead at three with four others. All three of Young's interceptions have come in home conference games. He picked off two against California in a 24-17 win. According to his PFF report, Young spent 46 snaps in coverage and 17 in run defense. He graded out at 84.9 in coverage.

PJ Making Plays: Arizona added some beef on its defensive line with the addition of junior college transfer P.J. Johnson. The 6-foot-4-inch, 335-pound lineman from Sacramento, California has had an instant impact for the Wildcats. Johnson started the first game of the season against BYU, but then missed the next two with a foot injury. He returned against Oregon State and has at least one tackle-for-loss in five of six games since returning from injury. Saturday against Oregon was the first time since returning that Johnson did not have a tackle-for-loss. He had two total tackles and forced a fumble, his first of the season. Johnson had two tackles, including one for a loss against Cal. The previous week, Johnson had four tackles, 1 1/2 tackles-for-loss and one fumble recovery against USC. Johnson had a pair of tackles-for-loss against OSU and has 4 1/2 on the season, which is second on the squad to Colin Schooler. Johnson started at tackle against BYU, but then moved to defensive end against USC and Cal. Against Utah, Johnson moved back to tackle and had a career-high seven tackles, while also picking up his third sack of the season, which leads the team. He stayed at tackle at UCLA and finished with five tackles, including one for a loss.

P.J. Johnson's Production Since Returning From Injury

Opponent	Total Tackles	TFLs (Sacks)
at Oregon State	3	2 (1)
USC	4	1.5 (1)

Oregon	2	0 (0), 1 forced fumble

Who's Down With DFF?: Demetrius Flannigan-Fowles, a local product from Mountain View High School and Tucson High, has played in all 47 games in his career, never missing a contest. The senior has become a model of consistency and experience for the Arizona defense, which still features a number of underclassmen. He made his 34th career start Saturday versus Oregon and posted a career-high three pass breakups. He now has seven for the season, which is second on the team to Lorenzo Burns. Against Southern Utah this year, he received a Pro Football Focus grade of 76.7, which was the highest of any Arizona defender with 50 or more snaps played. Flannigan-Fowles played 86 snaps, spending 44 in coverage and 42 in run defense prevention. With his five tackles against Southern Utah, Flannigan-Fowles reached 200 tackles for his career. He received a Pro Football Focus game score of 72.9 against Oregon State, which was the highest by any member of Arizona's secondary. He was the highest rated member of the secondary against Southern Utah and Oregon State and second-highest rated against USC, behind sophomore Scottie Young Jr. Flannigan-Fowles was the highest-rated secondary member against Utah and played 71 snaps, which was second to Young Jr's 72. He once again had the highest score for a defensive back against UCLA and played 79 total snaps. Flannigan-Fowles graded out at 75.7 against Oregon, according to PFF, which was the fourth-best grade by a Pac-12 safety last week. His teammate, Scottie Young Jr., led the way at 80.6.

Up Next: Arizona enjoys its lone open date of the season next week before returning to action at No. 10 Washington State on Saturday, Nov. 17. Game time and television information is expected to be determined next Monday, Nov. 5.

BOULDER, Colo. -- AP — The Colorado coach had a simple request after the game.

"Could someone please tackle No. 14 for Arizona?" Mike MacIntyre said.

Too late. He's already gone.

Backup Khalil Tate rushed for 327 yards, an FBS record by a quarterback, and accounted for five touchdowns to help Arizona hold off Colorado 45-42 on Saturday night.

Tate entered the game after Brandon Dawkins took a late hit out of bounds on the opening drive. Dawkins stood on the sideline for the rest of the game with his helmet in his hand as Tate flawlessly orchestrated the offense.

The speedy Tate had TD runs of 58, 28, 47 and 75 yards. He also threw for 142 yards, including a 13-yard TD pass to Shun Brown, as the Wildcats (3-2, 1-1 Pac-12) won at Folsom Field for a third straight time on a night when both offenses combined for 1,118 total yards.

Tate was hardly touched all night -- if at all. Asked if he was tackled, he grinned and responded: "A couple of times." He's been previously hampered by a sprained shoulder. Once in the game -- and back to 100 percent -- Tate quickly made up for lost time by breaking the record by a QB on his final run of the evening -- a 31-yard scamper that also sealed the win. The mark was held by Northern Illinois' Jordan Lynch, who gained 321 yards rushing on Nov. 26, 2013.

What's more, it was the second-most ever in Arizona history. The Wildcats' record for yards rushing in a game is held by Ka'Deem Carey, who gained 366 in 2012 against Colorado. Tate averaged 23.4 yards on 14 carries.

"We didn't even know his number, to be quite honest," Colorado defensive back Ryan Moeller said.

The Buffaloes certainly do now.

"He should be national player of the week," MacIntyre said. "He's a phenomenal player."

Phillip Lindsay sparked the offense for Colorado (3-3, 0-3) with a career-high 281 yards rushing and three touchdowns on a school-record 41 carries.

Colorado was its own worst enemy in dropping a third straight conference game. The Buffaloes committed 12 penalties for 110 yards, including two late hits.

Despite all that, Colorado trailed 45-42 after Lindsay's 11-yard TD run with 5:04 remaining. But Tate picked up a big third-down conversion with his arm -- an 8-yard strike to Bryce Wolma -- and then clinched the game with his long third-down run with just over a minute remaining.

Tate was modest after his performance.

"Offense did a great job blocking," he said. "Receivers did a great job getting open."

Dawkins was momentarily dinged after taking a late hit out of bounds that was announced on linebacker Drew Lewis. He was looked at by the trainer as Tate jogged into the game. It was difficult to even entertain the notion of bringing Dawkins back in, though, given the way Tate was playing.

"Tell them... tell the team to bear down." — John Byrd "Button" Salmon, 1926

Arizona Notebook

• Sophomore quarterback Khalil Tate rushed for 327 yards on 14 carries to establish a new FBS rushing record by a quarterback. Tate surpassed Northern Illinois' Jordan Lynch, who held the record previously with 321 yards, set in 2013.

• Tate averaged 23.4 yards per carry and scored four rushing touchdowns. The 23.4 yard per carry average establishes a new school record for at least 10 carries in a game. Trung Canidate held the previous record at 16 yards per carry. Tate is the fifth player in school history to rush for four touchdowns in a game.

• Tate became the first quarterback in Arizona history to rush for 200 or more yards in a game. He's the 20th player total in school history to eclipse the 200-yard mark and first since Jared Baker rushed for 207 yards on 23 carries at Colorado in 2015. His 327 yards are the second highest total in school history behind Ka'Deem Carey's 366 yards set against Colorado in 2012.

Kevin Sumlin, a three-time national Coach of the Year finalist, was named Arizona's 32nd head coach on Jan. 14, 2018. He was formally introduced at a press conference on Jan. 16.

Sumlin comes to Arizona after serving as the head football coach at Texas A&M University for the past six seasons (2012-17), compiling a 51-26 record including three bowl victories. He also served as the head coach at the University of Houston for four seasons (2008-11), amassing a 35-17 record. In his 10 seasons as a head coach, Sumlin has compiled an 86-43 record and his teams have played in bowl games in nine of those seasons.

During his time at Texas A&M, Sumlin averaged over eight victories per season and won at least seven games each year, while competing in what many believe to be the toughest division in college football, the SEC West. His 44 wins over his first five seasons in College Station marked the second-fastest coaching start in school history, behind R.C. Slocum's 49 wins from 1989-93. Sumlin was the first Aggie head coach to lead his first six teams to a bowl game, and Sumlin's teams improved the Aggies' school record streak of consecutive seasons with a bowl game appearance to nine. His three bowl victories are tied for the most in school history. In addition, Sumlin guided Johnny Manziel to a stellar freshman season that saw him throw for 3,419 yards and 24 TDs, while running for 1,181 yards and 19 TDs en route to the 2012 Heisman Trophy.

Despite his defensive background as a linebacker at Purdue in the mid-1980s, it's been his offenses that have been his calling card as a head coach. In Sumlin's six seasons in the SEC, his offenses led the conference in passing, scoring and total offense twice. His 2012 edition became the first to break the 7,000-yard plateau in total offense with 7,261 yards, and his 2013 unit was just a yard shy of the milestone. Texas A&M owns SEC season records for passing yards (4,593 in 2013), total yards and average total offense (7,261/558.5 in 2012) and first downs (357 in 2013).

In his 10 seasons as a head coach, Sumlin's offenses have averaged more than 400 yards of total offense every season, including more than 500 yards five times. His teams have scored more than 500 points five times, including an incredible 690 points in 2011.

Sumlin was hired at Texas A&M after a successful stint as head coach at the University of Houston. His final Cougar squad set a school record with 13 victories (12 prior to Sumlin's departure to Texas A&M) in 2011 and notched the program's highest finish in the Bowl Championship Series standings. He was named the Region 5 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association that year and was one of five finalists for the AFCA's National Coach of the Year award. Sumlin guided the Cougars to berths in the 2011 Ticket Center Bowl and the 2008 and 2009 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowls.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Brigham Young's offensive line pushed Arizona around. Tanner Mangum was effective in his return from an Achilles' tendon injury. The Cougars kept Khalil Tate from breaking off any big runs.

BYU expected to be better after a four-win season ago and sure seems to be after opening the season with a road win over a Pac-12 team.

Squally Canada scored on three short runs and BYU spoiled Kevin Sumlin's Arizona coaching debut with a 28-23 win over the Wildcats on Saturday night.

"We've been thinking about this for a long time, so really happy for the team in their ability to get the win," BYU coach Kalani Sitake said.

BYU went 4-9 last year, but was overpowering up front on offense and the defense limited Tate's effectiveness by not letting him get out and run.

Arizona had some good moments in the first half in its first game under Sumlin, but struggled on both sides of the ball in the third quarter as BYU built an 18-point lead.

Tate rallied Arizona in the fourth quarter. He scored on a 2-yard run and set up J.J. Taylor's 1-yard TD run with just over three minutes left, but Arizona trailed 28-23 after the 2-point conversion failed.

BYU never let the Wildcats get the ball back, grinding out a pair of first downs behind its powerful offensive line. "We got into a game that they were able to control the line of scrimmage," Sumlin said. "We couldn't get them off the field and when we did put them in a third-down position, they were able to make the plays to get a first down."

Tate threw for 197 yards and a TD on 17-of-34 passing, but was held to 14 yards rushing on eight carries.

Mangum battled injuries last season, throwing nine interceptions and eight touchdowns before going down with a season-ending Achilles' tendon injury. He was sharp against Arizona, throwing for 209 yards and a touchdown on 18-of-28 passing.

Mangum orchestrated a drive to set up Canada's first 1-yard TD run in the second quarter and opened the third with a 24-yard scoring pass to Matt Bushman that put BYU up 14-10.

"It was fun," Mangum said. "I was just enjoying it, the atmosphere, I love being with the guys and being healthy."

The Cougars began blowing the Wildcats off the ball on their next quick-hitting drive, marching 58 yards for Canada's second 1-yard TD run. Canada's 2-yard run at the end of the third quarter put BYU up 28-10.

Defensively, BYU was effective at limiting Tate's running options, but he found ways to beat them with his arm in the first half.

Tate led Arizona on a late scoring drive in the first half -- with help from BYU's two 15-yard penalties -- and hit Tony Ellison on a 15-yard touchdown pass to put the Wildcats up 10-7.

Tate had success again in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough to prevent Arizona's first home-opener loss since 2000.

"Being a quarterback, you want to win games. That's the ultimate goal," he said. "When the team wins, everybody wins."

Arizona Notebook

- Wide receiver Tony Ellison's touchdown reception versus BYU on Saturday gave the senior three touchdown receptions in his last two games. Ellison had two touchdown catches in the Foster Farms Bowl versus Purdue. Ellison's six career touchdowns are second-most on Arizona behind Shun Brown's nine.

- Linebacker Colin Schooler finished with a career-high 16 tackles, besting his previous mark of 14 at California last season. The 16 tackles were the most by an Arizona player since Scooby Wright III had 19 stops against UCLA on Nov. 1, 2014.

- Redshirt sophomore Isaiah Hayes set a career high with 13 tackles, surpassing previous career mark of nine. Hayes missed the 2017 season with an injury and played his first game Saturday since 2016. He started seven games as a true freshman.

HOUSTON (AP) Houston quarterback D'Eriq King and the rest of the Cougars' offense made it a miserable homecoming for Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin.

King threw for four touchdowns and rushed for two more as the Cougars hammered Arizona 45-18 on Saturday, dropping the Wildcats to 0-2 in Sumlin's first season.

King, who finished with 246 passing and 31 rushing yards, connected with Marquez Stevenson on a 24-yard TD pass, scored on a 1-yard run, then hit tight end Romello Brooker for a 52-yard score and it was 21-0 Houston after one quarter.

Arizona, playing uphill the rest of the game, never recovered.

Houston (2-0) scored twice more before halftime -- on a 35-yard field goal from Dalton Witherspoon and on King's 13-yard pass to Bryson Smith for a 31-0 lead.

"I thought our offensive staff and players did a great job today," Houston coach Major Applewhite said. "Getting out to a big lead was huge. It allowed us to get some other guys in the game."

Houston defensive lineman Ed Oliver, an All-American, gets a lot of hype but the Cougars' offense has a clear identity after the first two weeks. It's up-tempo and efficient. The Cougars are quick between plays, giving opponents little time to set up. On Saturday, it took Arizona some time to adjust.

"Defenses get tired with our fast offense," Brooker said. "I think it's really effective. We are improving on offense, too."

Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate, who has been mentioned in the Heisman Trophy conversation, looked sluggish at times, but finished the game strong, completing 24 of 45 passes for 341 yards and two interceptions and a scoring run. He tweaked his ankle in the first half but remained in the game. Sumlin said he and his staff checked on Tate throughout the game.

Tate said the ankle injury affected him a little, but that he still felt like his team did what they were trying to do. "You get bumps and bruises," he said. "We were still able to follow the game plan."

Arizona avoided the shut out, scoring its first points in the third quarter on a 49-yard field goal from Lucas Havrisik.

Running back Darrius Smith scored on a 1-yard rush with 11 seconds remaining in the third quarter to give the Wildcats their first touchdown. With just over 11 minutes left in the game, Tate scored his only touchdown of the day on a 2-yard run.

The Wildcats looked much better in the second half, but it was too little, too late.

"We didn't start fast, we got behind and it took too long to get things going," said Sumlin, who coached the Cougars from 2008-2011 before leaving for Texas A&M. "We have to start faster."

Arizona ran 100 total plays in the game and finished with 531 total yards (381 passing, 150 rushing.)

Arizona Notebook

- Senior receiver Shawn Poindexter finished with a career high in catches (seven) and yards (134) in Saturday's loss. Poindexter's 134 yards were the most by an Arizona receiver since Cayleb Jones had 182 yards in the 2015 New Mexico Bowl.

- Junior quarterback Khalil Tate established a new career high in passing yards (341), pass attempts (45) and completions (24) in Saturday's contest versus Houston.

- Arizona totaled 381 passing yards Saturday. That's the team's highest total since passing for 395 yards in a 28-26 loss to USC in 2014. Rhett Rodriguez had 40 passing yards Saturday, adding to Tate's total of 341.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- A sore ankle seems to be slowing that dynamic breakaway speed of Khalil Tate. But the Arizona quarterback sure can still throw the ball.

Tate passed for a career-best 349 yards and five touchdowns, then sat out most of the fourth quarter and Arizona gave Kevin Sumlin his first victory as Wildcats coach with a 62-31 rout of Southern Utah on Saturday night.

Tate needed just 13 completions, in 20 attempts, to amass his big numbers. His five touchdowns, which matched a career best, covered 17, 11, 2, 65 and 75 yards.

"Obviously he had some big plays that he created either in the pocket or got outside of it and kept his eyes downfield," Sumlin said, "and did some really nice things with some explosive plays. The first play of the game, he sat in there, then the second and third he had three progressions and so he was still able to improvise a little bit. He managed the game well."

Arizona (1-2) scored 31 consecutive points after Southern Utah (0-3), an FCS school coming off a 45-28 loss at Oregon State, tied it at 17-17 late in the second quarter.

J.J. Taylor returned a kickoff 84 yards for a touchdown for the Wildcats, his first kickoff return for a score in his college career.

"We just made plays," Tate said. "Like I said last week, you make that one play, I think that changes the outcome of the game."

Arizona, coming off a home loss to BYU and a dispiriting 45-18 rout at Houston, had 626 total yards to Southern Utah's 463, despite running 60 plays to the Thunderbirds' 98.

Tate tweaked an ankle early in the Houston game and hasn't shown his dynamic running ability since. He didn't need to against Southern Utah. His passing was plenty.

In the third quarter alone, Tate was 6-of-8 for 215 yards and three touchdowns. That included a 65-yard TD pass to Shun Brown and a pretty over-the-shoulder pass to Shawn Poindexter for a 75-yard score.

After Southern Utah rallied to tie it at 17-17 with 2:39 left in the first half, Tate quickly got the Wildcats back in the lead for good.

His 30-yard pass to Tony Ellison was the highlight of the eight-play, 67-yard drive. From the Thunderbirds' 11, Tate bought time running to his right and threw in the end zone to Brown for the TD.

The Wildcats took the second-half kickoff and put together another quick scoring drive. With the help of an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty, Arizona went 67 yards in five plays in just 1:55. Tate threw 2 yards to Cedric Peterson for the score and it was 31-17.

Arizona scored the first time it had the ball, Tate throwing 17 yards to Ellison for the score.

"The offense did a great job of controlling the football the first half," Southern Utah coach Demario Warren said. "I think they had their defense tired and worn out, but our defense just couldn't stop them tonight. Khalil Tate had a great game."

Arizona Notebook

- Arizona finished with 626 yards of total offense in Saturday's victory. It's the most total yardage in a single game since totaling 644 yards against Oregon State on Oct. 10, 2015. It's Arizona's 12th 600-yard game since 2012.

- J.J. Taylor scored on an 84-yard kickoff return in the second quarter, marking Arizona's first kickoff return for a touchdown since Cayleb Jones returned an onside kick 44 yards for a touchdown against Washington State on Oct. 25, 2014. Taylor's kickoff return was the first non-onside kickoff return since Travis Cobb returned a kick 100 yards against Iowa in 2010.

- Arizona had three defenders make their first career starts Saturday: Defensive end JB Brown, nose guard Abraham Maiava Jr and SPUR safety Dayven Coleman.

CORVALLIS, Ore -- After an explosive game, Arizona running back J.J. Taylor was asked what was working well for him.

"The offensive line," he responded, then chuckled. "All the stuff that we do at practice just showed up today."

Taylor rushed for a Reser Stadium-record 284 yards and two touchdowns, including a 62-yard sprint, as Arizona ran wild over Oregon State 35-14 in the Pac-12 opener on Saturday afternoon.

Dual-threat quarterback Khalil Tate, hampered by an injured ankle this season, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns for the Wildcats. Gary Brightwell added 113 yards rushing and a touchdown and Shawn Poindexter had 92 receiving yards and a score for Arizona.

Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said there was no doubt this was his team's best game of the season.

Safety Jalen Moore had 14 tackles, 13 unassisted, while Conor Blount threw for 137 yards and two touchdowns for the Beavers.

Arizona outgained Oregon State 594 yards to 238 yards.

"We never really found some rhythm out there. We really didn't," said Oregon State coach Jonathan Smith.

The Wildcats led 14-7 at halftime but missed scoring opportunities, in part due to penalties.

Arizona (2-2, 1-0 Pac-12) scored on the first possession of the second half to take control of the game, with Tate throwing a 16-yard touchdown to Poindexter.

With the score 28-14, Taylor's long run crushed any remaining hopes for the Beavers (1-3, 0-1).

Oregon State has juggled starters and playing time at quarterback, but Blount started his third straight game. Season starter Jake Luton replaced Blount last week versus Nevada but injured his ankle and did not play Saturday. Last season, Arizona went for a whopping 534 rushing yards against the Beavers in a 49-28 victory.

On Saturday, the Wildcats had 442 rushing yards.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona: The Wildcat offensive line opened up big holes for their running backs, who often weren't touched until they were well into the secondary. No one expected Tate to match his career-high 349 yards and five touchdowns from last week against Southern Utah, but he was effective enough against the Beavers despite completing 9 of 17 passes.

Oregon State: Wide receiver Trevon Bradford, injured Sept. 15 versus Nevada, returned to action against the Wildcats and caught an 8-yard touchdown. Running back Jermar Jefferson totaled 100 yards, with 82 rushing yards.

YELLOW FLAGS -- The Wildcats were hit with seven penalties for 55 yards. Arizona had a touchdown wiped out with about 4 minutes left in the first half due to an illegal man downfield penalty. After an intentional grounding call pushed the ball back further, kicker Lucas Havrisik badly missed a 55-yard field goal. Sumlin estimated that penalties cost the Wildcats 21 points on Saturday, and said flags could cause the team to lose a game down the road.

KICKING WOES? -- Havrisik also missed a 43-yard field goal in the first half. Early in the third quarter, Arizona lined up for another 43-yard field goal, but the Wildcats rushed for a first down on a trick play. Havrisik is now 4 for 8, though that statistic is slightly misleading. All his misses are from 43 yards or longer.

Arizona Notebook

- Kevin Sumlin became the first Arizona coach since Larry Smith in 1980 to win his first Pac-12 game as the Wildcats' coach. Rich Rodriguez, Mike Stoops, John Mackovic and Dick Tomey all lost their first conference games as Arizona's coach.

- Redshirt sophomore running back J.J. Taylor rushed for 284 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries. Taylor's 284 yards are the fourth-best mark in school history and third-best by a running back. He's the 15th player in program history to rush for at least 200 yards in a game. The 284 yards and two touchdowns mark career highs for Taylor.

- As a team, Arizona rushed for 442 yards, which is the team's biggest output since rushing for a program-record 534 yards last season against Oregon State.

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Southern California clicked on both sides of the ball, overcoming a rash of penalties while building a 24-point lead.

Then the offense bogged down. Two fumbles were lost in the fourth quarter. The penalties kept piling up.

What appeared to be an easy road victory turned into an ugly one.

Aca'Cedric Ware ran for 197 yards and two touchdowns, and USC overcame a mountain of penalties to hold off Arizona for a 24-20 victory Saturday night.

"The one thing I love about our kids is they're realists," USC coach Clay Helton said. "To be able to come out of here with a victory and know there's still more on the bone is a good thing."

USC (3-2, 2-1 Pac-12) dominated the Wildcats while building a 24-point third-quarter lead, but lost two fourth-quarter fumbles to let Arizona (2-3, 1-1) back in it. The Trojans also had 18 penalties for 169 yards, including a pass interference call that negated an interception in the fourth quarter.

Arizona's Gary Brightwell scored on a 1-yard run with 1:40 to play, but Lucas Havrisik missed the extra point and USC recovered the onside kick.

"We didn't play very well," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said. "Really, after that first drive of the second half, our defense did a good job."

JT Daniels managed the Trojans offense well in the first half before the Trojans went stagnant in the second. He completed 16 of 24 passes for 197 yards and lost a fumble to set up Khalil Tate's 32-yard touchdown pass to Cedric Peterson.

Tate threw for 232 yards and two touchdowns, but was limited to 38 yards rushing. J.J. Taylor, who had 284 yards rushing against Oregon State last week, was held to 50 yards on 18 carries.

"USC did a nice job of challenging us," Sumlin said.

The Trojans controlled Arizona on both sides of the ball while building a 17-0 halftime lead.

USC racked up 281 total yards in the first half, scoring on Vavae Malepeai's 1-yard run in the first quarter and Ware's 26-yarder in the second. The Trojans stymied the Wildcats' offense, limiting them to 116 yards while intercepting a pass by Tate to set up Michael Brown's 42-yard field goal.

Arizona caught a break when a facemask penalty -- USC's ninth penalty of the half -- tacked on to a 20-yard completion gave the Wildcats a chance for a field goal with no time on the clock. Marvell Tell blocked Havrisik's 28-yard field-goal attempt, preserving the first-half shutout.

The second half continued the same as the first: Arizona gained 13 yards before punting on its first drive, Ware ripped off a 69-yard touchdown run.

Arizona's offense finally showed some life with Tate connecting on two long throws. The second one, 33 yards to Stanley Berryhill III, cut USC's lead to 24-7.

The Wildcats recovered a fumble at USC's 32-yard line after sacking Daniels early in the fourth quarter and Tate hit Cedric Peterson for a 32-yard touchdown on the next play, cutting the lead to 10.

Arizona got another score, but took too long in getting it and couldn't get the ball back.

"We just need to play a complete game in all three phases," Arizona linebacker Colin Schooler said. "If you look at our losses, we haven't done that."

Arizona Notebook

- Redshirt freshman receiver Stanley Berryhill caught a 33-yard touchdown pass from Khalil Tate in the third quarter for his first career touchdown. That was Berryhill's lone catch of the evening.

- Redshirt junior receiver Cedric Peterson finished with two catches for 38 yards and a touchdown. The 38 yards established a new career high, besting his previous total of 33 set in 2016 versus Colorado. The touchdown was the second of Peterson's career.

- Redshirt sophomore safety Jarrius Wallace finished with nine tackles, tying his career high, set last season at California. Wallace made his third consecutive start for the Wildcats at the Bandit safety position.

- Redshirt sophomore Jacob Colacion finished with a career-high four tackles Saturday.

TUCSON, Ariz. -- California, searching for its first Pac-12 road victory in three years, dominated Arizona statistically on Saturday.

But turnovers doomed Cal in another loss to the Wildcats in what Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin called "a really gutty performance" by his team.

The Wildcats took advantage of four turnovers in the second half, all by Cal quarterback Brandon McIlwain, turning two of them into touchdowns, and the Wildcats handed California its 14th consecutive Pac-12 road loss with a 24-17 victory over the Bears on Saturday night.

Scottie Young Jr. had two fourth-quarter interceptions, returning the second one 24 yards for a touchdown to put Arizona up 24-14 with 3:13 to play.

Arizona (3-3, 2-1 Pac-12) beat the Bears (3-2, 0-2) for the fifth straight time.

"We gave them two touchdowns and we can't do that," Cal coach Justin Wilcox said. "We had turnovers, penalties and self-inflicted wounds. ... We have smart guys so we have to play smarter. We can't make dumb mistakes like that."

Cal's Greg Thomas kicked a 35-yard field goal with 16 seconds to play but the Wildcats recovered the onside kick attempt to preserve the victory.

McIlwain, who got his first start for Cal and played the entire game at quarterback after sharing the job the first three games, ran for two touchdowns but in the second half threw three interceptions and fumbled the ball away.

He also was stopped short on a fourth-and-one situation at the Arizona 3-yard line as Cal tried to take the lead rather than settle for what would have been a game-tying field goal.

Down 14-10, Arizona took the lead late in the third quarter with a strange combination interception return/fumble return.

Colin Schooler picked off McIlwain's pass and returned it 39 yards. As he was running, he had the ball knocked loose by Cal's Jeremiah Hawkins. The ball bounced once and the Wildcats' Azizi Hearn grabbed it in stride and raced 34 yards to the end zone for the score to make it 17-14 with 3:19 left in the quarter.

"That went from a good play to a bad play to a great play," Schooler said. "It was a huge momentum swing."

Cal drove to the Arizona 3-yard line and went for it on fourth-and-one. But McIlwain was stopped for no gain by Derek Boles and a host of other tacklers, keeping the Wildcats up by three points.

After Arizona fumbled the ball away at midfield, Young intercepted McIlwain's pass and returned it 35 yards to set up Josh Pollack's 40-yard field goal try. But it bounced off the left upright and it remained a three-point game with 7:05 to play.

McIlwain completed 32 of 43 passes for 315 yards with no touchdowns and three interceptions. He rushed 107 yards, including touchdown runs of 25 and 23 yards.

McIlwain was coming off a 123-yard rushing game in last weekend's home loss to Oregon, becoming the first Cal quarterback to reach 100 yards on the ground since Joe Kapp in 1958.

He appeared in eight games, three as a starter, as a freshman at South Carolina two seasons ago. He had been sharing quarterback duties at Cal with redshirt freshman Chase Garbers before Saturday night.

Khalil Tate was 15 of 25 for 141 yards and a touchdown for Arizona. He also gained 40 yards on eight carries despite aggravating an ankle injury.

Arizona Notebook

- Arizona posted just 265 yards of total offense in Saturday's win over Cal. It's the fewest yards Arizona has had in a win since also totaling 265 in a 20-17 win over Arizona State in 2009.

- Arizona scored a pair of defensive touchdowns Saturday. Azizi Hearn had a 34-yard interception return and safety Scottie Young Jr., also had a 24-yard interception return for a touchdown. It's the first time Arizona has had two defensive touchdowns in a game since Sept. 3, 2015 versus UTSA. In that game, Anthony Lopez had an interception return for a touchdown and Jamar Allah had a fumble return for a touchdown.

- Scottie Young Jr., had a pair of interceptions Saturday, marking the first time an Arizona player had two interceptions in a game since Jace Whittaker had a pair of interceptions last year versus UCLA on Oct. 14.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah -- Tyler Huntley is flashing his familiar gap-toothed smile a lot more often these days.

"Man, that was pretty tight," Huntley said with a wide grin after he threw for two touchdowns, ran for another and caught a 58-yard TD pass, leading Utah past Arizona 42-10 on Friday night.

In an effort to keep Huntley healthy, Utah coaches talked all fall camp about limiting his hits and making him more of a passer. After losses to Washington and Washington State where the Utah offense sputtered, the Utes committed to the running game and has let Huntley freelance again with his legs and arm.

On a play that typified the game, Huntley handed the ball to Zack Moss, who tossed it to Britain Covey coming the other direction. Covey, a title-winning high school quarterback who is now Utah's leading receiver, threw a perfect spiral to Huntley for 58-yard touchdown.

In postgame interviews, Huntley made sure everyone knew there was no quarterback controversy with Covey.

"I'm definitely quarterback and that isn't even a question," Huntley said after his triple-threat performance.

Utah (4-2, 2-2 Pac-12) led 35-0 less than two minutes into the second half.

Chase Hansen sacked Khalil Tate by the ankle late in the first quarter and the Wildcats' QB was visibly limping after that point. Jamarie Joiner replaced Tate for two series before giving way to Rhett Rodriguez, who threw for 226 yards and a 42-yard fourth-quarter touchdown to Cedric Peterson for Arizona (3-4, 2-2).

"Running was out of the question and even dropping back and handing it off (was hard)," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said about Tate. "I saw a player that could barely move, so we had to make a change."

Huntley, who went 14 of 19 for 201 yards, lobbed a pass to Samson Nacua for an 8-yard touchdown that capped a 15-play, 75-yard opening drive, marking the longest possession of the season for Utah.

"We've talked a lot about starting fast and starting physical. I think we've really found an identity as a team and it's obvious to see," Covey said.

In addition to 64 yards rushing, Huntley completed his longest pass of the season (68 yards) down the right sideline to Demari Simpkins in stride for the Utes' third touchdown.

Utah's balanced attack produced 230 yards rushing to compliment 265 yards through the air. Meanwhile, Arizona was held to 72 yards on the ground, 130 under its average, as the Wildcats became one-dimensional.

DEBILITATE-D

Before leaving the game in the first quarter, Tate was 1-of-4 passing for three yards and had just three yards rushing. Pegged as a Heisman Trophy hopeful, Tate has been dealing with a sprained left ankle since the second game of the season at Houston. After running for 1,411 yards last season, Tate has been held to 112 yards rushing in seven games.

TOO MUCH OF A KILLER INSTINCT?

Despite leading 35-10 in the fourth quarter, Mitch Wishnowsky faked a punt and ran 28 yards for a first down. Utah coach Kyle Whittingham has said several times this season that the Australian punter has the green light to run anytime he sees an opening. Thomas Reid III got a personal foul on the tackle and there was pushing and shoving between the frustrated Wildcats and the jubilant Utes along the Arizona sideline. "That wasn't a called play," Whittingham said. "It's just part of our rugby punt package."

PASADENA, Calif. -- Wilton Speight didn't know when he was going to receive another opportunity to play quarterback for UCLA, but when he did he wasn't going to let the opportunity slip away.

The graduate transfer got that chance during Saturday's game against Arizona when starter Dorian Thompson-Robinson was injured during the second quarter. Speight came in and threw a pair of touchdown passes as the Bruins held on for a 31-30 victory.

"It has been a long time but I am happy and relieved," said Speight, who completed 17 of 27 passes for 204 yards.

Speight transferred from Michigan, where he started 16 games over three seasons. He won UCLA's starting job but aggravated a back injury during the first half of the Sept. 1 opener against Cincinnati and was replaced by Dorian Thompson-Robinson.

Thompson-Robinson, who was 5 of 8 for 103 yards and a touchdown, appeared to injure his arm while being sacked during the second quarter, which paved the way for Speight.

"I thought he was good. He hadn't played in a while, so there was a little rust there," UCLA coach Chip Kelly said. "For him to come back in was good. In the fourth quarter he was on point. Once we kind of got settled with him I thought he did a really nice job."

Joshua Kelley -- who had 136 yards on 31 carries -- has rushed for over 100 yards in four straight games, becoming the first Bruins' running back to do that since Tyler Ebell had a six-game streak in 2002. Kelley's 28-yard touchdown with 11:33 remaining gave the Bruins (2-5, 2-2 Pac-12) the lead for good.

"Wilton was excellent. He is experienced and has always tried to stay ready," Kelley said.

Arizona's Rhett Rodriguez was 15 of 34 for 231 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions in his first collegiate start while J.J. Taylor rushed for 154 yards and a touchdown. Shawn Poindexter had six receptions for 106 yards and two touchdowns.

The Wildcats (3-5, 2-3) would have won the game if it wasn't for a pair of costly turnovers in the first half. Rodriguez was picked off by UCLA free safety Quentin Lake in the end zone to end the Wildcats' second drive.

In the second quarter, Taylor appeared to be going in for a 56-yard touchdown until Darnay Holmes forced a fumble at the UCLA 3 and recovered it in the end zone.

"The decision making in critical moments hurts in a game like this," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said. "When you are in these one-score games we have to close them out. Tonight was a situation where UCLA did it."

UCLA led 17-7 at halftime before Arizona scored 13 straight points. After Josh Pollack's 29-yard field goal brought the Wildcats within a touchdown, they tied it on their next possession on a Rodriguez 11-yard touchdown to Poindexter. Arizona took over on the UCLA 15 after Derek Boles' sacked Speight and recovered a fumble.

The Wildcats would take a 20-17 lead on a 39-yard field goal by Pollack before the Bruins would take it back when Speight threw a 25-yard touchdown to Demetric Felton.

Taylor's 1-yard TD early in the fourth quarter put Arizona back on top 27-24, but it lasted only 61 seconds before Kelley's score.

A Pollack 29-yard field goal with 6:28 remaining brought the Wildcats within a point, but UCLA would take over and run out the clock.

Arizona Notebook

• Arizona finished with 12 tackles-for-loss and four sacks in Saturday's loss, marking new season highs in both. The Wildcats had 10 tackles-for-loss and three sacks in a win over Oregon State earlier this season, which stood as the respective previous highs for the season.

• Senior receiver Shawn Poindexter had six catches for 106 yards and two touchdowns. It marked the senior's first career multiple-touchdown game and second career 100-yard receiving game. Poindexter had seven catches for 134 yards earlier this season at Houston for his other 100-yard receiving game.

• Redshirt sophomore running back J.J. Taylor finished with 154 yards on 19 carries for his fifth-career 100-yard rushing game and second this season. Taylor ran for 284 yards earlier this season against Oregon State. The 154 yards are the third-most in Taylor's career and second-highest against a Pac-12 opponent.

TUCAON, Ariz. -- J.J. Taylor burst through holes and leaped over defenders. Khalil Tate was sharp in his return. The defense created turnovers, so did special teams.

Stuck in a recent rut, Arizona picked a great time to play its best game of the season.

Taylor ran for 212 yards and two touchdowns, Tate threw for three scores and the Wildcats dominated No. 19 Oregon 44-15 on Saturday night.

"We talked about playing four quarters," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said. "Not playing a perfect game, but playing four quarters and we did that."

Arizona (4-5, 3-3 Pac-12) jumped on the Ducks early and never let them up, turning one Oregon miscue after another into scores.

Tate threw for 189 yards on 19-of-33 passing with an interception after missing last week's game against UCLA with a left ankle injury. Shawn PoinDEXter caught two touchdown passes and Josh Pollack kicked three field goals for Arizona, which had lost three of four.

"That was my first time missing a game in my whole football career, so that was something different for me to adjust to," Tate said. "I knew I had to bounce back and lead my team to a W."

Oregon (5-3, 2-3) got off to a slow start for the second straight week, committed three turnovers and two costly mistakes on special teams. The Ducks were forced to pass after falling behind early and had 270 total yards -- 190 below their average -- against one of the Pac-12's worst defenses.

"This was a gut check," coach Mario Cristobal said. "We've got to make sure we're working the right way, doing the right things and enhancing those things, and getting ready to take the brunt of what comes with a loss like this."

Oregon fell behind 27-0 by halftime last week, preventing any chance of a comeback in a 34-20 loss to No. 14 Washington State.

Oregon's offense sputtered early and the Ducks kept turning it over to give the Wildcats short fields.

Travis Dye lost a fumble, star quarterback Justin Herbert tossed an interception on an ill-advised throw and Arizona's Chacho Ulloa broke through to block Tom Snee's punt at the Oregon 6-yard line. Pollack kicked field goals after each play, putting Arizona up 16-0.

The Ducks finally got some momentum going with Herbert's 29-yard TD pass to Dillon Mitchell, but Arizona followed with an 18-play scoring drive capped by Taylor's 1-yard run to lead 23-8 at halftime.

"I thought we had some momentum there, but they came right back and scored," Cristobal said.

Tate opened the second half with an 8-yard TD pass to PoinDEXter, then found Shun Brown for a 27-yard score after a punt hit an Oregon player and Arizona recovered.

Taylor capped the rout by leaping over a defender into the end zone on a 19-yard TD run in the fourth quarter.

Arizona Notebook

• Arizona beat No. 19 Oregon 44-15 on Saturday night, marking the program's first win over a ranked opponent since beating No. 15 Washington State 58-37 on Oct. 28, 2017.

• The 15 points allowed were the fewest to a ranked opponent since topping No. 20 Oregon 42-10 on Nov. 22, 2014.

• Sophomore RB J.J. Taylor finished with 212 yards and two touchdowns on 30 carries. Taylor eclipsed the 100-yard mark on the ground for the sixth time in his career and tallied back-to-back 100-yard rushing games for the first time in his career. The 212 rushing yards are the 14th-most in a single game in program history. Taylor joins Ka'Deem Carey and Khalil Tate as the only players in program history to have two games with 210 or more yards.
