NO. 10 COUGARS TRAVEL TO COLORADO FOR SATURDAY AFTERNOON MATCHUP

No. 10 Washington State heads to Boulder, Colo. to face Colorado, Saturday at 12:30 p.m. (PT) on ESPN.

SERIES HISTORY

Washington State trails the all-time series with Colorado 6-5 but posted a 28-0 victory over the Buffs in Pullman last season. The series is tied 3-3 when playing in Boulder with Colorado claiming a 38-24 win in 2016. WSU's last win in Boulder came in 2011.

COLLEGE GAMEDAY RECORD

Dating back to the middle of the 2003 season, ESPN's College GameDay has had the WSU flag appear throughout the show. The first appearance came Oct. 4, 2003 in Austin, Texas and the streak began two weeks later in Madison, Wisc. (10/18/03). The streak reached 217 after the show made its first appearance in Pullman Oct. 20, 2018. Last week, the streak reached 219 after making an appearance at the show in Baton Rouge, La. for the Alabama-LSU matchup. Two flags – Ol' Crimson and Gray – have been flown in the background of the GameDay set by dozens of friends and alumni. The Gray flag was added in 2014 after Whitey was retired in honor of Steve Gleason's "No White Flags." In addition to the flags that fly, there is a traveling flag signed by the holders after each episode. The traveling flag is retired after each season, the first is hanging in WSU's Alumni Center.

ABOUT WASHINGTON STATE

Washington State enters the week ranked No. 10 in the Associated Press Top-25 with an 8-1 overall record and 5-1 mark in Pac-12 play after posting a 19-13 win over California in Pullman last Saturday. WSU is 8-1 for the first time since 2002 and is looking to match the 2002 team's 9-1 start. The Cougars own the nation's best passing attack (397.4 ypg) and the No. 24-ranked defense in the country (327.1 ypg). Quarterback Gardner Minshew II paces the country in passing (390.8) and is sixth in touchdown passes (27).

PAC-12 TELECONFERENCE

The Pac-12 Conference hosts a weekly teleconference call each Tuesday during the football season. The teleconference call begins at 10:35 a.m., PT, while Mike Leach participates at 11:05 a.m. Contact the Pac-12 media relations office at 415-580-4200 for details and call-in information.

LEACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE AVAILABILITY

WSU head football coach Mike Leach is available for individual media interviews following practices Tuesday and Wednesday, along with after each Cougar game. Arrangements for interviews with coach Leach other than those times must be made through the WSU Athletic Communications office. WSU players are available for interviews after each game and three student-athletes will be made available only following Tuesday's practice. Contact Bill Stevens (wsstevens@wsu.edu) or Bobby Alworth (bobby.alworth@wsu.edu) in the WSU Athletic Communications Office. Media are reminded that they should not contact student-athletes via their cell phones or social media accounts. All interviews need to be scheduled through the Athletic Communications Office.

PRACTICE POLICY

The first 15 minutes of individual position drills at each practice will be open to media and only members of the coaching staff will be available to the media. Following the 15 minutes of open practice, the remainder of practice will be closed. Interviews with members of the coaching staff will be conducted on the field after practice. Media is asked to not report on injuries or strategy. All walk-thru practices are closed with no media availability.

MEDIA INFORMATION

THE WASHINGTON STATE IMG COLLEGE NETWORK

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via the Washington State IMG College Sports Network. The 19-station football network reaches from British Columbia to Oregon and can be heard worldwide via the internet and XM Satellite radio. Cougar football broadcasts begin an hour before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with post-game interviews with players and coaches.

IMG College produces the Washington State IMG College Sports Network, which also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and the Cougar Coaches Show in the fall and winter seasons.

IMG College, founded in 1992 in its corporate home of Winston-Salem, NC, manages corporate marketing opportunities and on-site promotions at WSU football and basketball games as well as oversees sales for all signage at Martin Stadium, Friel Court at Beasley Coliseum and all Cougar competition sites.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

WSU CONTINUES WORK PROMOTING MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

Following the tragic suicide of Washington State University student-athlete Tyler Hilinski last January, the university embarked on a number of activities to raise awareness of suicide prevention on campus. WSU's goal is to properly pay tribute to Tyler's memory while destigmatizing mental health concerns and delivering a strong message of hope and healing. As part of this commitment, four new initiatives were launched on campus last semester. These included:

- A second formal mental health screening for all members of the football team following the death of Tyler, along with meetings with all varsity athletes to help identify individuals who might be at risk for mental health issues.
- Adding a full-time clinical psychologist to the Athletic Department health and wellness area.
- Providing free access to Mental Health First Aid, a proactive intervention training, for the entire WSU student body,
- Active engagement with the JED Foundation to identify any changes that might be needed in the care of our students.

In addition to the immediate steps the university undertook during the last academic year, WSU students embraced the cause as well. The Associated Students of Washington State University (ASWSU) launched the Cougar Health Fund, a student-driven endowment that sponsors mental health awareness and related initiatives on the WSU Pullman campus. In the spring, ASWSU hosted the Cougar Courage 5K run to help raise money for the endowment. By the end of April, the group had already raised $50,000.

WSU COMMITTED TO ADDITIONAL STEPS IN 2018-19

These include:

- Inviting the Hilinski family to raise the Cougar flag at the September 8, 2018 home opener against San Jose State University to start the 2018 football season. (The National Alliance on Mental Illness has designated September as Suicide Prevention Awareness Month and September 10 is recognized as World Suicide Prevention Day).
- The football team will remember Tyler by displaying a decal on the back of their game day helmets this year and will maintain Tyler's locker as a "Locker of Hope" throughout the 2018 season.
- The university is adding a highlight from Tyler's playing career to the "Way Back Home" video, which will be shown at every home game throughout the 2018 football season. A public service announcement addressing mental health awareness and suicide prevention will also be played at home football games this year.
- A HILINSKI'S HOPE FOUNDATION flag will be displayed inside the stadium for the 2018 season.
- Plans are underway for a new multi-day event, Game Day for Mental Health, in April 2019 to coincide with the Crimson and Gray Spring Football Game on April 20. The Athletics Department will be returning the spring football game to Martin Stadium this year and, in coordination with Student Affairs, will create a series of activities around the preseason scrimmage.
- WSU will host a series of lectures during the 2018-2019 academic year that will be focused in the mental health arena. These lectures will be open to the entire university community, and began earlier this month with former WSU student-athlete Collin Henderson, as well as Dr. Derek Greenfield discussing inclusive excellence and positive change.
- The university will develop a permanent Walk of Hope on the Pullman campus. This memorial will offer messages of hope and provide resource information for those in need of mental health support.
- WSU Athletics will release a public service announcement to kick-off Suicide Prevention Awareness Month, featuring student-athletes from all WSU athletic programs.
- WSU Athletics, in partnership with Hilinski's Hope, is also joining with national experts in developing an innovative peer-to-peer mental health awareness program, beginning this September.

MIKE LEACH AMONG NATION'S BEST

Mike Leach is in his 17th season as a head coach and owns a 130-82 career record including a 46-39 mark at WSU, now in his seventh season in Pullman.

- Leach's 46 wins at WSU, 3rd-most in school history, Mike Price (1989-2002) is 2nd with 83, wins and O.E. Holtingberry (1926-42) owns the school-record with 93 wins
- Last year, Leach became the 1st Cougar head coach in school history to lead WSU to three straight bowl games
- Leach entered 2018 2nd in school history with 4 bowl appearances, trailing Mike Price's 5
- WSU is bowl eligible for the fourth-straight year, a first in program history
- Leach was the 2015 Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year, George Munger Coach of the Year semifinalist (2016, 2017)
- WSU has led the Pac-12 in passing in 5 of Leach's 6 seasons, only finishing 2nd behind Cal (Jared Goff) in 2013
- WSU lead the nation in passing twice under Leach, entered week leading the nation by more than 21 yards/g

FRIENDLY CONFINES OF MARTIN STADIUM

Washington State has claimed 12 straight victories at Martin Stadium, the third-longest home winning streak in program history. Last season, WSU went 7-0 at home, the most home wins in program history and was the first perfect home mark since going 6-0 in 2003.

- WSU's 12-game home winning streak is tied for the 4th-longest active streak in the country (Alabama - 23)
- WSU's longest home winning streak is 19 games that started in 1928 and ended with a tie in 1933
- WSU's 2nd-longest home winning streak is 14 games from 1904-08
- WSU's longest home unbeaten streak is 33 games that ran 1926-35 (wins and ties)

COUGARS IN TOP-25 RANKINGS

Washington State stayed at No. 10 in the latest Associated Press Top-25, the fourth-straight week WSU has been in the Top-25. The No. 10 ranking is the highest WSU has been ranked since reaching No. 8 prior to last season's matchup at California. WSU appeared eighth in last week's initial College Football Playoff Rankings, the highest WSU had appeared in the CFP since entering last year's Apple Cup ranked No. 13.

YOUNG COUGS TAKE THE FIELD

WSU has seen 27 players make their debuts and 13 make their first career start in 2018. Six players made their first career starts on offense at Wyoming; Easop Winston Jr. (Z), Travell Harris (H), Liam Ryan (LG), Josh Watson (RG), Abraham Lucas (RT), Gardner Minshew II (QB) and four made third first career start on defense; Nick Begg (DT), Taylor Comfort (NT), Dominick Silvels (RUSH), Skyler Thomas (FS). Against Eastern Washington, Max Borghi (RB) made his first career start, Willie Taylor III (RUSH) made his first career start at USC and Will Rodgers III (DT) made his first career start against Utah.

COUGAR COLORADO CONNECTION

Washington State currently owns a couple connections to the state of Colorado.

- Freshman running back Max Borghi (449 all-purpose yards, 31 rec, 9 total TD) is a native of Arvada, Colo. and was the 2017 Colorado State Player of the Year at Pomona High School after rushing for 1,690 yards and 27 touchdowns, helping PHS to a 12-2 mark and a 5A State title
- In the 5A state title game played the Denver Broncos' Mile High Stadium, Borghi rushed for 247 yards and 3 TD
- Former Cougar wide receiver River Cracraft was called up to the Broncos 53-man roster last weekend and made his NFL debut last Sunday with a 5-yard punt return against the Houston Texans. Cracraft played at WSU (2013-16) and finished 2nd in WSU history with 218 career receptions and 6th in WSU history with 20 career TD catches

RECORD BOOK WATCH

A couple Cougars continue to see their names move up the Washington State record book.

- James Williams owns 177 receptions, 2nd-most by a WSU running back, and last week moved into a tied for 8th in WSU's Top-10 for receptions by all players
- Williams rushed for 2 TD at Stanford, now owns 22 career total TD, 10th-most in WSU history
- Keith Harrington owns 53 career receptions, tied with Ruben Mayes for 9th-most catches by a WSU RB
- Peyton Pelluer has played in 50 games, Gabe Marks (WR) and Daniel Ekuale (DL) own WSU record with 51 GP
- Pelluer moved into WSU's Top-10 for career tackles 3 weeks ago, now sits tied for 7th with 325 tackles (Page 7)
- Pelluer moved into WSU's Top-10 for career tackles-for-loss last week, is tied for 9th with 31.5 TFL (Page 7)
- Gardner Minshew II owns 27 passing TD, 8th-most in WSU single-season history
- Minshew II owns 3,517 passing yards, 8th-most in WSU single-season history
- Minshew II has thrown for 300+ yards in all 9 games, tied for 2nd-most in WSU single-season history
- Minshew II has thrown for 400+yards 5 times, tied for 2nd-most in WSU single-season history, (Luke Falk - 5, 2015 Connor Halliday - 6, 2014)

MINSHAW II NAMED MAXWELL AWARD SEMIFINALIST

Gardner Minshaw II was named a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award last week. Minshaw II is one of 20 semifinalists for the award which annually recognizes the College Player of the Year. Minshaw II was added to the award watch list following the win over Oregon State. Three finalists will be announced on Nov. 19 and a second round of voting will take place at that time. Eligible voters include Maxwell Football Club members, NCAA head football coaches, sports information directors and selected national media. The winner will be announced as part of the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show presented by Gildan which will be broadcast live on ESPN on Dec. 6, 2018.

MINSHAW II NAMED MAXWELL NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK, ADDED TO MAXWELL WATCH LIST

Gardner Minshaw II was named the Maxwell Award National Player of the Week after beating No. 12 Oregon after going 39-of-51 for 323 yards and four touchdowns. Minshaw II was also named the Rose Bowl Game Pac-12 Player of the Week, one of the Davey O'Brien Award Great 8 Quarterback Performances of the week, one of eight Manning Award "Star" quarterbacks of the week and was named among the Top-15 of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, given to nation's top senior or 4th-year junior quarterback.

MINSHAW II ADDS ACCOLADES AFTER OREGON STATE WIN

Quarterback Gardner Minshaw II was named the Manning Award Quarterback of the Week, the Allstate Sugar Bowl announced following the win over Oregon State. Minshaw II was one of eight quarterbacks named a "Star" of the week before a facebook fan vote determined the winner. Minshaw II completed 30-of-40 passes for 430 yards and five touchdowns in the win at Oregon State. Minshaw II was also named the Rose Bowl Game Pac-12 Player of the Week, the Reese's Senior Bowl Senior of the Week and was added to Maxwell Award Watch List, presented each year to the College Player of the Year.

HARRIS, MINSHAW II NAMED PAC-12 PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Kick returner Travell Harris and quarterback Gardner Minshaw II each earned Pac-12 Conference Player of the Week accolades after the win over Eastern Washington. Harris was named the Special Teams Player of the Week and Minshaw was named the Offensive Player of the Week. Harris, a redshirt-freshman, had a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the win over Eastern Washington. The Tampa, Fla. native averaged 41.5 yards-per-return and also recorded a tackle on kickoff coverage. Harris recorded WSU's first kick return for a touchdown since Robert Taylor had a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at Arizona State in 2016. Minshaw II, a senior graduate transfer from East Carolina, completed 45-of-57 passes for 470 yards and two touchdowns in the 59-24 victory over Eastern Washington.

AIR RAID

Last season WSU averaged a national-best 9.6 receivers catch a pass per game, according to an unofficial survey from sports information directors, and tied for national lead (New Mexico State) with eight players with 25+ catches. This season, Washington State has had at least nine players catch a pass in all nine games.

- 12 players caught a pass against Eastern Washington
- 11 players caught a pass against California
- 10 players caught a pass against San Jose State, Utah, at Oregon State, at Stanford
- 9 players caught a pass at Wyoming, at USC, Oregon
- Through 9 games, WSU has had 8 different receivers lead the team in receiving
- WSU owns 5 players with 30+ receptions, most by any team in the country
- 10 different receivers have 10-plus receptions and 8 receivers have 20-plus receptions in 2018
- Last season, WSU produced the nation's 2nd-best passing attack (366.8)
- In 2016, WSU was 3rd in the country in passing (362.5), set a single-season records for TD (67) and points (496)
- WSU led the country in passing in 2014 (477.7) and 2015 (389.5), was 4th in 2013 (368.4) and 8th in 2012 (330.4)

COUGAR WIDE RECEIVER NOTES (RATINGS BASED ON PFF COLLEGE)

- 4 receivers have recorded 100-yard games in 2018, Tay Martin (EWU, at Oregon State), Dezmon Patmon (Utah, at Stanford), Easop Winston Jr. (at USC, Utah) and Jamire Calvin (at Stanford)

- 4 receivers are rated among the Top-12 blocking WR in the Pac-12, Martin (7th), Sweet (9th), Travell Harris (12th) and Winston Jr. (12th)

ALL-PURPOSE, ALL THE TIME

The Cougar running backs serve all-purpose roles for the Air Raid. In each of the last two seasons, the Cougar backs combined to record 1,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving. Last season, James Williams led the Cougars with 71 receptions, also the most by any FBS running back in the country. In week one at Wyoming, the backs combined for 18 receptions, 101 rushing yards and four total touchdowns. Against Eastern Washington, the backs combined for 10 receptions and four rushing touchdowns including three from James Williams, the first Cougar with three rushing touchdowns since 2012. In the win over Oregon, the backs (Williams, Max Borghi, Keith Harrington) combined for 187 all-purpose yards, 93 rushing yards, 14 receptions and two touchdowns. At Stanford, the backs combined for 11 catches, 151 all-purpose yards and three TD (2 rushing, 1 receiving).

NEW-LOOK OFFENSIVE LINE

The Cougar offensive line features a couple new faces in 2018. Gone is four-year starting right tackle Cole Madison, drafted in the fifth round by the Green Bay Packers, two-time All-American left guard Cody O'Connell graduated as well as right guard B.J. Salmonson (44 GP). Two-year starter and 2017 All-Pac-12 HM left tackle Andre Dillard returned for his redshirt-senior season along with junior center Fred Mauigoo who started all 13 games last season and was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List prior to the 2018 season. Redshirt-sophomores Liam Ryan and Josh Watson took over at left guard and right guard, respectively, while redshirt-freshman Abraham Lucas made his collegiate debut at Wyoming and has started each game at right tackle.

OFFENSIVE LINE NOTES (RATINGS BASED ON PFF COLLEGE)

- WSU owns the nation's best passing attack, is rated the 3rd-best pass-blocking line in the country
- WSU has allowed just 7 sacks this season on 425 pass attempts, fewest sacks allowed in the Pac-12 and 5th-fewest allowed in the country, allowed one sack for every 68 pass attempts

NEW FACES MAKE MARK FOR SPECIAL TEAMS

The Cougar special teams have seen some new faces produce in 2018. Kicker Blake Mazza owns nine field goals including a long of 50 at USC, tied for the longest by any Pac-12 kicker in 2018, and a game-winning 42-yarder with 19 seconds left at Stanford. Punter Oscar Draguicevich III has produced nine punts of 50+ and put eight inside the 20 while averaging 47.36 yards per punt, good for fourth in the country. (The minimum to qualify for NCAA stats is 3.6 punts/g, Draguicevich III averages 3.1 punts/g). Kyle Sweet has averaged 7.2 yards-per-punt return and produced a 26-yard return against San Jose State and an 18-yarder against Eastern Washington.

WSU special teams entered the week:

- 8th in the country in net punting (41.9), punter Oscar Draguicevich III is 4th in the country in punting (47.3)

PELLUER NAMED CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST

Linebacker Peyton Pelluer was named a semifinalist for the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame announced. Pelluer is one of 179 semifinalists for the award that recognizes the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation. Pelluer earned his bachelor's degree in history in 2017 and is currently pursuing a master's degree in teaching. The Sammamish, Wash. native is a five-time member of the WSU President's Honor Roll, a two-time CoSIDA All-Academic District VIII First Team and a four-time Pac-12 Conference All-Academic selection, once to the first team and twice to the second team. The NFF will announce 12-14 finalists Oct. 31, and each of them will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the 60th NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class.

SIX FORMER WALK-ONS EARN SCHOLARSHIPS

This past summer, the Cougars awarded scholarships to six former walk-ons. (stats prior to 2018)

Brandon Arconado (WR, RS-Jr.)	11 GP, 4 REC, 1 TD, Pac-12 All-Academic 2nd Team
Tristan Brock (LB, RS-Jr.)	24 GP, Played special teams, 2x Pac-12 All-Academic HM
Kyle Celli (LS, RS-Sr.)	13 starts in 2017, Pac-12 All-Academic HM
Taylor Comfort (DL, RS-Sr.)	13 GP, mostly on special teams, graduated this past summer - Criminal Justice
Dillon Sherman (LB, RS-So.)	13 GP, 23 tackles, 1 sack, 1 fumble recovery
Trey Tinsley (QB, RS-Jr.)	13 GP, holder on FG all 2017 season, Pac-12 All-Academic HM

17 COUGS EARN DEGREES

All 17 members of the 2018 senior class will earn their degree by Summer, 2019. Six players already own bachelor's degrees (Nick Begg, Taylor Comfort, Andre Dillard, Robert Lewis, Gardner Minshew II, Peyton Pelluer) with two, Minshew II and Pelluer pursuing master's degrees. Five more players will complete their degree this fall, four more will finish in the spring and two more will finish next summer. All 19 members of last year's 2017 senior class will have earned their degree by the end of the current fall, 2018 semester.

WELCOME BACK LEWIS, PELLUER

The Cougars welcome back a couple of major contributors for a sixth season. Senior linebacker Peyton Pelluer (254 career tackles) and senior wide receiver Robert Lewis (117 career receptions) were both granted a sixth-year by the NCAA during the offseason. Lewis missed all of 2017 after suffering a knee injury prior to the season and Pelluer played in the first three games before a foot injury ended his 2017 campaign. Both have earned their bachelor's degrees with Lewis working towards another political science major and Pelluer working on his second year pursuing a master's in teaching.

POLYNESIAN PIPELINE

The Washington State roster has seen an influx in Polynesian players since Mike Leach and his coaching staff arrived in 2012. The 2018 roster has 10 players who are of Polynesian decent including five from Hawaii, two from American Samoa and one from Australia.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Last season, four Cougars shared a unique bond with their dads and/or grandpa who also had worn the crimson a gray. The 2018 roster features three Cougs who's dad's also played at WSU. Left tackle Andre Dillard's dad, Mitch was an offensive lineman and tight end for the Cougars in the late 1980's; linebacker Peyton Pelluer's dad, Scott also played linebacker for the Cougs, matching Peyton's No. 47 from 1977-80; Peyton's grandpa, Arnie played end for WSU in the mid 1950's and his great grandpa, Carl Gustafson, played flanker in the 1920's; and quarterback John Bledsoe's dad, Drew Bledsoe played at WSU from 1990-92, was the No. 1 overall pick by the New England Patriots in the 1993 NFL Draft and played 14 seasons.

WSU ADDS PAIR FROM "LAST CHANCE U"

Washington State signed a pair of players from Independence Community College who was featured on the latest season of "Last Chance U" on Netflix. Junior wideout Calvin Jackson Jr. played two seasons at ICC, leading the team with four touchdown catches last season before signing with the Cougars in February while sophomore safety Chad Davis Jr. played just one season, recording 15 tackles and three pass breakups at ICC before signing with WSU this past spring.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

The 2018 Cougar coaching staff features four new faces and three familiar faces who moved to different roles. Former Minnesota head coach Tracy Claeys arrives to serve as the defensive coordinator, Matt Brock arrives from Bowling Green to serve as the Special Teams coach and outside linebackers coach, Darcel McBrath assumes a full-time assistant position working with the cornerbacks after spending last season as a defensive quality control, Eric Mele worked the previous two and half seasons as the Cougars special teams coach but as moved to coach the Cougar running backs in 2018, Kendrick Shaver arrives from Utah State to coach the safeties, former Western Kentucky assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach Steve Spurrier Jr. arrived to coach the Cougar outside receivers and Tyson Brown returns as the head strength and conditioning coach after a brief stint at Elon College. Brown had served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cougars the previous four seasons.

HALL OF FAMER BOB ROBERTSON ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

Washington State's legendary hall of fame announcer Bob Robertson announced Oct. 15 that he is retiring from the Cougar broadcasting booth, effective immediately. "I've been with the Cougars a lot of years, more than half a century, calling basketball, football for the fans around the Northwest and elsewhere around the country and I've enjoyed every minute of it," said Robertson. "But as of this moment, I've asked the athletic department at Washington State University to list me as a retired, former sportscaster for the Cougars," Robertson continued. "It is a matter of getting old is what it is. Everything seems to move a lot faster around me, I move more slowly. I hope to see you soon, I'm not going to go away. I like Washington State people and the school itself too much to do that. But I am going to be on the retired list, starting immediately." Robertson was in his 52nd year calling Cougar athletics, serving as the play-by-play voice from 1964-2011, then moving over to the analyst chair for the past seven seasons. He began his association with WSU football in 1964 and with the exception of a three-year period from 1969-71, has been a member of WSU's broadcast crew ever since. He was behind the mic for 589 Cougar games, including 568 consecutive broadcasts from 1964-2016, the lone exception being the 1981 Holiday Bowl when local radio was not permitted to broadcast. He has been behind the mic for many magical moments and seasons of Cougar football, including the Cardiac Kids, the Palouse Posse, the Fab Five, the 1981 Holiday Bowl, WSU's first bowl game in 50 years, as well as the 1998 and 2002 Rose Bowls. Additionally, he called Rueben Mayes' 357-yard rushing game at Oregon, the 1992 Snow Bowl, 54 Apple Cups (including the three while calling games at Washington) and worked alongside 10 head coaches. Robertson has had a legendary career, having been selected Washington Sportscaster of the Year 12 times, was inducted into both the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame and the Inland Empire Hall of Fame in 2001-02, and in August 2004 received the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award at ceremonies held at the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. As much as Robertson is part of Cougar Football Saturday, so is his closing broadcast signature, "Always be a good sport, be a good sport all ways."

Among his many accomplishments, Robertson has:

- Spent three decades calling Pacific Coast League baseball in Seattle and Tacoma
- Had his "cup of coffee" in major league baseball, broadcasting some Seattle Mariner games in the late 1990's
- Long-time voice of the Spokane Indians baseball team and Pacific Lutheran University basketball
- Served as the television voice of Notre Dame football and basketball for two years in the 1950's.

COUGAR FOOTBALL BROADCAST TEAM

Matt Chazanow is in his fourth season as the play-by-play voice for Cougar football, men's basketball and baseball broadcasts. Joining Chazanow for his first season will be former Cougar quarterback Alex Brink who is the only WSU quarterback to win three Apple Cups and was later a seventh-round draft pick by the Houston Texans. Returning for her seventh season as the sideline reporter is Jessamyn McIntyre, an executive producer for 710 ESPN Seattle.

PATRICK CHUN NAMED DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Washington State University President Kirk Schulz selected Patrick Chun as the WSU Director of Athletics, it was announced Jan. 22, 2018. Chun is the 14th individual to lead Cougar athletics in school history and began his duties Feb. 5. "This is a game-changing day for our athletics program," said WSU President Kirk Schulz. "We were focused on finding a leader with the right blend of experience, vision, and passion to lead Cougar athletics to the next level of success. In Pat, we're confident we found that person. His achievements in fundraising, boosting the academic success rate of student athletes, and building strong relationships with the community—on- and off-campus—are exemplary." Chun, 43, is the first Asian-American athletic director to lead a Power 5 school and continues President Schulz' drive to diversify his senior leadership team. He has spent the past five and a half years leading Florida Atlantic University athletics and the previous 15 years at Ohio State University in a multitude of roles from 1997 through 2012, culminating as the executive associate athletics director.

JASON HANSON NAMED TO COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA HALL OF FAME

Jason Hanson was inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame this past summer. Hanson became the first student-athlete in school history to receive this honor, entering the hall of fame along with Tennessee football player Peyton Manning, Florida International baseball player Mike Lowell and San Jose State basketball and track and field athlete Dr. Harry Edwards. Hanson, a pre-med major, was a three-time Academic All-American during his four years in Pullman (1988-91) and concluded his senior season by being named a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, one of only five in WSU history to receive the honor. The Spokane, Wash. native, Hanson was an All-American kicker and punter for the Cougars, earning Freshman All-America honors as a kicker in 1988 and later became WSU's first unanimous first team All-American as a sophomore in 1989. As a junior, he was named All-Pac-10 as both a punter and kicker and earned All-American honors as a punter that season. As a senior in 1991, he was named an All-American at both punter and kicker. Hanson finished his WSU career with 19 field goals of 50+ yards including a Pac-10 record 62-yarder, the longest without use of a tee in NCAA Division I history. He was drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round of the 1992 NFL draft and played 21 seasons with the Lions, earning Pro Bowl honors twice, second team All-Pro honors in 1997 and was a first team All-Pro selection in 1993. Upon his retirement, Hanson held the NFL record for career 50-yard kicks (52) and was inducted into the WSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001 and the Lions Ring of Honor in 2013.

STEVE GLEASON RECRUIT SUITE IN COUGAR FOOTBALL COMPLEX

In fall, 2016, WSU announced the naming of the Steve Gleason Recruit Suite, inside the Cougar Football Complex. Gleason, the Washington State Athletic Hall of Famer who played football and baseball in a Cougar uniform from 1995-99, was on hand as the room all future Cougar football players will walk through was named in his honor. The opportunity arrived courtesy of Cougar alumnus Glenn Osterhout's naming donation of $250,000. With his pledge, Osterhout, a 1983 graduate who is a certified financial planner in Bellevue, was presented the opportunity to name the recruiting room inside the Cougar Football Complex.

CU-WSU SERIES HISTORY

LAST YEAR IN PULLMAN
Oct. 21, 2017

No. 15 WASHINGTON STATE def. Colorado, 28-0
PULLMAN, Wash. — Luke Falk threw for three touchdowns as No. 15 Washington State beat Colorado 28-0 on a rainy and windy Saturday night. Jamal Morrow rushed for 73 yards and a touchdown for Washington State (7-1, 4-1 Pac-12), which rebounded from a 34-point loss at California that coach Mike Leach called the worst game the Cougars have played in his six years there. "It's an improvement," Leach said. "Our team played hard. We missed some opportunities." Leach acknowledged the weather was brutal. "The first half was pretty extreme," Leach said. "The wind was blowing and all the swirling rain makes it tough." Phillip Lindsay rushed for 98 yards for Colorado (4-4, 1-4), which was coming off its first Pac-12 win. Lindsay came in needing just five yards to top 1,000 for the season. "That was the worst offensive performance we've had since I've been a coach here," Colorado coach Mike MacIntyre said. The Buffaloes completed just 13 of 34 passes for 94 yards and were held to 174 yards of offense. "Mainly they just whipped us," MacIntyre said. "Washington State played great tonight." Falk completed 17 of 34 passes for 197 yards. This was WSU's second shutout of the season, after Montana State in the season opener. The teams had trouble moving the ball in the driving rain and the first quarter was scoreless. Colorado offensive tackle Jeromy Irwin was ejected for targeting on Washington State's Derek Moore early in the second quarter. On the next series, Falk fired a 50-yard touchdown pass to Tay Martin to give the Cougars a 7-0 lead. After a Colorado punt, Washington State drove 81 yards, with Brandon Arconado catching an 18-yard touchdown pass for a 14-0 lead that stood at halftime. Colorado quarterback Steven Montez missed on his first seven pass attempts and the Buffaloes had just 82 yards of offense in the first half. Freshman Sam Noyer replaced him at the start of the second half. Morrow ran nine yards for a touchdown on Washington State's first possession of the second half for a 21-0 lead. Falk added a touchdown pass to Renard Bell in the fourth.

No. 12 COLORADO def. No. 20 Washington State, 38-24
BOULDER, Colo. — Sefo Liufau threw for 345 yards, rushed for 108 more and scored three touchdowns as No. 12 Colorado beat No. 20 Washington State 38-24 in a matchup of unlikely Pac-12 division leaders. Phillip Lindsay added 144 yards rushing and two TDs for the Buffaloes (9-2, 7-1, No. 10 CFP), who can wrap up the South side of the conference if Southern California loses to UCLA later Saturday or by beating Utah next week. "It means the world to go out there and win, keep our hopes alive," Liufau said. "It's more fun than anything. We've been in close games for a long time now. We've gotten a little older and a little better at being consistent and executing." Liufau briefly left in the fourth quarter only to return and pick up a crucial third-and-short that led to a game-sealing TD run by Lindsay. He becomes the second-ever Colorado player to throw for 300 and rush for 100 in a game, joining Steven Montez, who accomplished the feat at Oregon in September while filling in for a banged-up Liufau. Luke Falk threw for 325 yards and three scores for Washington State (8-3, 7-1, No. 22 CFP), which had won eight in a row. The Cougars can still win the North Division with a victory against No. 7 Washington next week. "I just thought we were incohesive as far as doing our jobs," Washington State coach Mike Leach said. Colorado's defense stepped up after the Buffaloes fell behind 24-21 late in the third quarter. The next four Washington State drives went like this: Turned the ball over on downs, punt, fumble and interception. "We lost focus and in the second half we buckled down," defensive back Chidobe Awuzie said. Washington State and Colorado weren't really expected to be in position for a division title this late into November. The Cougars were picked to finish fourth in the North during the preseason conference poll and the Buffaloes last in the South. Leach's gambling mentality cost the Cougars a possible field goal when he went for it on fourth-and-4 in the fourth quarter. Colorado safety Nick Fisher tackled receiver Kyle Sweet short of the first down. Earlier, Leach rolled the dice on fourth-and-1 at his own 41 and Jamal Morrow rewarded his faith by gaining 30 yards. John Thompson later hauled in a 7-yard TD pass to give the Cougars a 24-21 lead. The Cougars finished 2 of 4 on fourth-down attempts. "We were close on two of those," Leach said. "One of them I probably should have kicked a field goal. In the end, it probably wouldn't have mattered." TAKE-AWAYS Washington State: Standout receiver River Cracraft didn't play because of what's been reported as a torn ACL suffered last week. The Cougars made up for his absence by spreading around the wealth. Ten different players caught at least one pass. Colorado: The defense came up big in the fourth quarter with the only two sacks of Falk. This after being dealt a big blow in the first quarter when safety Afolabi Laguda was ejected for targeting.

GAME RECAPS

WASHINGTON STATE AT WYOMING

Sept. 1, 2018 • War Memorial Stadium • Att.: 24,131 • TV: CBS Sports Network

LARAMIE, Wyo. – Washington State's starting quarterback wasn't publicly known until the offense took the field Saturday against Wyoming. But graduate transfer Gardner Minshew knew he was the starter and responded by throwing for 319 yards and three touchdowns as the Cougars gained a 41-19 season-opening win over the Cowboys. Minshew, who transferred from East Carolina, completed 38 of 57 attempts. He had TD passes of 2 yards to James Williams, 6 yards to Max Borghi and 7 yards to Easop Winston. Minshew threw one interception. Cougar coach Mike Leach had kept his starting quarterback a secret until the game started, but Minshew said after the game that he knew he was the starter a couple of weeks ago. Williams rushed 16 times for 82 yards and one score for Washington State (1-0). He also caught 10 passes for 53 yards. Washington State trailed at halftime but the Cougars scored touchdowns on four of its five possessions in the second half. "I thought the first half we were trying to do too much, focusing on trying to be perfect," Leach said. Leach said Minshew was "slow at delivering the ball" but was more decisive in the second half. Minshew said the offense simply did a better job in the second half. "The receivers caught the ball really well in the second half, and I just started throwing the ball better," he said. "I was making better decisions." Wyoming (1-1) was led by Nico Evans, who ran for 89 yards and a touchdown before leaving the game during the Cowboys' first series of the second half because of an unspecified rib injury. The Cowboys offense was limited to 206 total yards, including just 67 passing yards. Wyoming led 16-13 at the half but managed only a 30-yard field goal in the second half. The Cowboys hurt themselves with penalties, committing 13 infractions for 109 yards. "If you're going to play against a good team, you can't shoot yourself in the foot, and I think we did that," Wyoming coach Craig Bohl said. "The margin for doing that is pretty slim, and we didn't get it done." THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Entered the game having lost seven straight season-openers played on the road. The Cougars' last season-opening win on the road was in 2004 when they beat New Mexico 21-17. Wyoming: The Cowboys have lost 13 straight games against Power 5 conference opponents. Their last victory against a Power 5 team was in 2007 when they beat Tennessee 13-7. SLOW START Wyoming's offense struggled early on against the Cougar defense. The Cowboys had no first downs and just 9 total yards in the first quarter. Tyler Vander Waal, who attempted four passes in the first quarter, didn't complete his first pass until Wyoming's first possession of the second quarter.

SAN JOSE STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 8, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 26,141 • TV: Pac-12 Network

PULLMAN, Wash. – Washington State beat San Jose State 31-0 on Saturday night, but that doesn't mean Cougars' coach Mike Leach was happy with his team. "I was not impressed with our second half," Leach said, after the Cougars managed just one touchdown after halftime. "We were too soft," Leach said, especially at running back. "We could get a fast seventh grader and hit the hole as hard as we did." "We need a complete game," Leach said. Leach did acknowledge that the shutout was "a fantastic effort" by the defense. Actually, the Cougars looked pretty good in piling up 544 yards while holding the Spartans to 109. San Jose State punted 11 times. Gardner Minshew threw three touchdown passes and ran for another score during an emotional night that began with a brief tribute to deceased WSU quarterback Tyler Hilinski. Tay Martin caught a pair of touchdown passes for Washington State (2-0), a five-touchdown favorite in the game. Minshew completed 34 of 51 passes for 414 yards. Quarterback Montel Aaron led a Spartan offense that sputtered much of the game. San Jose State (0-2) was coming off a loss to a Football Championship Series team at home last week. San Jose State coach Brent Brennan said his team needs to improve. "To win the turnover battle 3-1 and to get beat like that just tells you we have got a lot of work to do," Brennan said. "Obviously they built quite a program here and I give them lots of credit." Martin caught a 15-yard touchdown pass from Minshew to cap Washington State's first possession. On fourth and 10, Minshew fired a 36-yard scoring pass to a wide-open Martin down the left sideline for a 14-0 lead. "They hit a couple deep balls, we were in a couple situations where we were trying to bring some pressure, trying to get the quarterback off his spot," Brennan said. Blake Mazza kicked a 36-yard field goal for a 17-0 WSU lead. Minshew rushed over from the 1 as time expired in the first half, giving Washington State a 24-0 lead. San Jose State was held to 23 yards and two first downs in the first half, while Washington State piled up 316 yards. James Williams caught a 3-yard touchdown pass from Minshew late in the fourth. This was the first WSU home game since Hilinski took his own life last January. The program is remembering Hilinski, who was the presumptive starter for this season, by wearing decals with his No. 3 on their helmets, and maintaining his locker. Hilinski's parents and two brothers raised the Cougar flag prior to the game. A suicide prevention video played on the scoreboard prior to the game.

GAME RECAPS

EASTERN WASHINGTON AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 15, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 32,952 • TV: Pac-12 Network

PULLMAN, Wash. – Graduate transfer quarterback Gardner Minshew didn't start playing with his Washington State teammates until fall drills, but you wouldn't know it from his production. Minshew threw for 470 yards and two touchdowns as Washington State beat Eastern Washington 59-24 on Saturday night to avenge a 2016 loss to its FCS neighbor. "We have a bunch of new receivers and a new quarterback," Washington State coach Mike Leach said. "All of it is tuning into one another." "Those guys are getting tuned in together," Leach said. Tay Martin caught 13 passes for 149 yards for Washington State (3-0), which piled up 565 yards of offense. Gage Gubrud threw three touchdown passes but was intercepted three times for Eastern Washington (2-1), which upset the Cougars 45-42 in Pullman in 2016. Eastern Washington came in leading the FCS with an average of 623 yards per game, but was limited to 372 yards. Minshew, who played for East Carolina last year, completed 45 of 57 passes, two for touchdowns, and was not intercepted. "It's awesome," Minshew said of throwing 57 times. "It's so much fun." "We are getting better as an offense each week," Minshew said. James Williams rushed for three Washington State touchdowns, despite getting just six total carries. "We've just got to make plays when we get opportunities," Williams said. Despite the final score, this one was close for three quarters. "We counter-punched at times," Eastern Washington coach Aaron Best said. "We just didn't have enough juice in our counter punches. We turned the ball over four times." "We shot ourselves in the foot," Best said. Jalen Thompson intercepted a Gubrud pass to give the Cougars the ball on their own 32. James Williams punched the ball over from the 1 to give Washington State a 7-0 lead. Minshew's 14-yard touchdown pass to Eason Winston Jr. lifted Washington State to a 14-0 lead. Eastern Washington drove to Washington State's 19, but had to settle for Roldan Alcobendas' 37-yard field goal. Travell Harris ran the subsequent kickoff back 100 yards for a touchdown. Gubrud was intercepted near the goal line by Jahad Woods. Washington State drove 98 yards, and Williams ployed over from the 2 for a 28-3 lead. But the Eagles were not going away. Gubrud fired a 26-yard touchdown pass to Andrew Boston to cut Washington State's halftime lead to 28-10. On the opening drive of the second half, Gubrud hit a wide-open Zach Eagle for a 34-yard touchdown pass to cut WSU's lead to 28-17. Minshew completed seven consecutive passes as the Cougars drove from their 1 to the EWU 8. Williams covered that distance for his third touchdown and a 35-17 lead. Gubrud replied with a 44-yard touchdown pass to Dennis Merritt to bring the Eagles within 35-24. Gubrud was intercepted late in the third by Jahad Woods, giving the Cougars possession on Eastern's 27. But they had to settle for Blake Mazza's 44-yard field goal. Minshew hit Martin with a 21-yard touchdown pass for a 45-24 lead with 9:47 left in the game and the Eagles did not threaten again. THE TAKEAWAY Eastern Washington: Coming into this game, the Eagles had won three of their past eight games against FBS opponents. They clearly belonged on the field with the Cougars for most of this game. Washington State: Washington State's Air Raid offense gave the Cougars an early lead the Eagles could not overcome. Leach said his team played well in all three phases of the game. "We played kind of a complete game," Leach said. ARE WE THERE YET? Washington State had drives of 99 and 98 yards in the game. BEVY OF RECEIVERS In addition to Martin, Washington State's Jamire Calvin caught six passes for 70 yards. Winston caught six passes for 42 yards and Dezmon Patmon caught five for 57. GAUGING GAGE Gubrud had a huge game against the Cougars in 2016, throwing for five touchdowns and running for another. This time not so much. He completed just 14 of 36 passes for 231 yards. Zach Eagle caught four of the passes for 73 yards.

WASHINGTON STATE AT USC

Sept. 21, 2018 • Memorial Coliseum • Att.: 52,421 • TV: ESPN

LOS ANGELES – Southern California trailed by 13 points in the second half, and the smallish Coliseum crowd grumbled at the prospect of an already shaky season slipping away entirely from this powerhouse program. Right before the Trojans really got in trouble, they started making big plays. And when Jay Tufele slipped into the perfect spot and got his big arm up to block a field goal, USC's season was back on track. J.T. Daniels passed for 241 yards and three touchdowns, and Tufele blocked Washington State's attempt at a tying field goal with 1:41 to play in USC's 18th consecutive home victory, 39-36 Friday night. After back-to-back road losses to Stanford and Texas put the Trojans in dire September straits, the Trojans (2-2, 1-1 Pac-12) fell behind the Cougars early, but made a series of big stops and slick adjustments down the stretch to remain unbeaten at the Coliseum under coach Clay Helton. None was bigger than the special-teams call on the Cougars' last field goal attempt, allowing Tufele to get in an ideal position for the block. "The kids knew exactly what to do," Helton said. "Our last team meeting, we showed it. We showed the gap that would be open. It was the absolute perfect call at the right time." One year after the Trojans took their first loss of last season in a Friday night game in Pullman, USC showed resilience and fourth-quarter tenacity while avoiding a disastrous start to the season. Vavae Malepeai rushed for his second touchdown with 8:03 to play as USC rallied from two scores down in the second half and eventually held off the Cougars (3-1, 0-1). "I've always thought that adversity kind of defines who you are," Helton said. "Being in that second half down two scores, a bunch of great kids defined who they are as men, and I can't tell you how proud I am of them." Gardner Minshew passed for 344 yards and three touchdowns in the new quarterback's latest strong performance for Washington State, while James Williams and Max Borghi rushed for scores. Eason Winston caught his second TD pass from Minshew with 10:15 to go, but the Trojans responded with a 56-yard scoring drive. After Malepeai's go-ahead TD and Daniels' pinpoint 2-point conversion pass to Tyler Vaughns, Washington State drove into field goal range in the waning minutes. That's where Tufele swatted down Blake Mazza's 38-yard attempt with relative ease. "Looked like they got a pretty good push, and it looked like we struck it low," Washington State coach Mike Leach said. "I thought we played pretty good. We played pretty hard across the board. I think our effort is great. We've got to become a more consistent team." The Trojans' special teams have made several significant mistakes this season, but the unit executed flawlessly at the biggest moment and then celebrated wildly. The Cougars led 24-17 at halftime, and they opened the second half with a 75-yard drive capped by Borghi's 13-yard TD run before the Trojans finally responded. Pittman, whose exceptional catch shortly before halftime was ruled just out of bounds, took a 50-yard pass to the house. USC's defense stiffened and forced two punts before St. Brown's gorgeous TD catch and the extra point put the Trojans up 31-30. "We left too many drives out there," said Minshew, who went 37 for 52 without an interception. "That was all on me." But Winston immediately caught a 59-yard pass down the middle and followed it up with a 4-yard TD catch. Washington State's 2-point conversion attempt failed, and the Cougars didn't score again. COLISEUM CROWD The weekday attendance of 52,421 was USC's smallest for a home game since 2001, but was still bigger than many expected for the school's first Friday home game since 1999.

GAME RECAPS

UTAH AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 29, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 30,088 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash. – Easop Winston Jr. caught the football over his shoulder, made a couple of sweet moves to shed a defender, and completed an 89-yard touchdown play that lifted Washington State to a 28-24 victory over Utah on Saturday. Winston said he could hear the roar of the crowd as he made the catch late in the fourth quarter, and had only one thought on his mind. "I just had to get in the end zone," Winston said. "Just get in the end zone." After Winston scored with 4:14 left in the game, Utah had one last chance to score. But the Utes turned the ball over on downs after a penalty-plagued possession and Washington State won its 10th consecutive home game. Washington State (4-1, 1-1 Pac-12) shredded the nation's No. 1 defense for 445 total yards. Utah (2-2, 0-2) was coming off a bye week. The Utes defense came in allowing just 12.3 points and 204 yards per game. Washington State quarterback Gardner Minshew completed 31 of 56 passes for three touchdowns and one interception. He also ran for a touchdown. "This game was all about resiliency," Minshew said, after the Cougars were shut out for most of the second half. Minshew said he saw that Winston, who caught four passes for 115 yards, drew just one defender on the play that produced the winning touchdown. "I saw they were one on one with a guy who is pretty much unguardable one on one," Minshew said. After the catch, "I was waiting for him to get caught and he never did," Minshew said. Utah only managed to score one field goal in the second half. "Our defense studded up in the second half," Utah coach Kyle Whittingham said. "One big play and that was obviously the back breaker." "We did a lot of positive things that were negated by penalties," he said. "This team has a lot of character, a lot of heart," Whittingham said. "They'll come back ready to go to work on Monday." Washington State marched to the Utah 17 on the opening drive, but Minshew was intercepted by Corrian Ballard near the end zone and the scoring threat. On the ensuing series, Utah's Britain Covey appeared to fumble after catching a pass and the ball was recovered by Washington State. But safety Skyler Thomas was called for targeting and ejected from the game and Utah retained the ball at midfield. Quarterback Tyler Huntley ran up the middle for 24 yards and a 7-0 Utah lead. Minshew threw a short touchdown pass to Tay Martin on the next series to tie the score. Zach Moss ran for a 6-yard touchdown to put Utah ahead. Minshew bootlegged 10 yards for a touchdown to tie the score at 14-14. After Utah's first punt, Minshew fired a 65-yard touchdown pass to a streaking Dezmon Patmon, who caught the ball near midfield and ran untouched into the end zone. Utah tied the score at 21-21 on Huntley's 1-yard plunge, and that stood at halftime. The defenses took over in the second half. Matt Gay kicked a 41-yard field goal on the first possession of the third to put Utah ahead 24-21. Blake Mazza tried a 52-yard field goal on the next series for WSU, but it was blocked by Maxs Tupai. In the fourth, Minshew lofted an 89-yard touchdown pass to Winston to take a 28-24 lead with 4:14 left. Utah turned the ball over on downs with 50 seconds left when Huntley's pass fell short on fourth-and-20. THE TAKEAWAY Utah: The Utes' slumbering offense woke up, but the defense could not stop WSU's Air Raid in the first half. "It doesn't get any easier with a road trip to Stanford," Whittingham said of the next game. Washington State: Washington State has won 10 straight home games, dating to its latest home loss in 2016. It's the Cougars' longest streak since winning nine in a row from 1941-46 (there was no football in 1943-44 because of the war). "Protecting our home is one of our big things," said WSU defensive lineman Will Rodgers. UTAH RUNS Utah running back Zach Moss rushed for 106 yards and quarterback Huntley ran for 88 yards. But the Utes managed only 118 yards through the air. PERFECT PEYTON Washington State linebacker Peyton Pelluer led all players with 13 tackles, one sack and one tackle for loss. The sack was huge, forcing Utah to punt on its second-to-last possession. "It was a special feeling," Pelluer said. "Hearing the crowd erupt."

WASHINGTON STATE AT OREGON STATE

Oct. 6, 2018 • Reser Stadium • Att.: 34,429 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

CORVALLIS, Ore. – When Washington State fell behind on Saturday, the Cougars' offense responded, and that's part of the team's mindset, said quarterback Gardner Minshew II. "Any time our backs are to the wall, we're going to come out swinging," Minshew added. Minshew threw for 430 yards and five touchdowns as Washington State scored 28 straight second half points to beat Oregon State 56-37 on Saturday night. Tay Martin had 119 yards receiving and two touchdowns and James Williams added 134 yards from scrimmage and a receiving touchdown for the Cougars (5-1, 2-1 Pac-12). "We have a bunch of guys who can make plays, and I trust any of them in one-on-ones," Minshew said. Washington State Coach Mike Leach said Minshew has room for improvement this season. "He continues to get better as the receivers get used to him. The receivers around him are young guys," Leach added. Jermar Jefferson rushed for 139 yards and four touchdowns for the Beavers (1-5, 0-3). "We gave it all out there, but it's not quite good enough," Oregon State coach Jonathan Smith said. "We're playing good teams and we can't get over the hump." Oregon State hasn't been able to stop the run lately, but Washington State stuck to its strengths - the Air Raid offense and Minshew's arm - to pull away in the second half. Washington State stormed out to a 14-0 lead in less than two-and-a-half minutes, thanks in part to a blocked punt that was recovered for a touchdown. But Oregon State tied things up before the end of the first quarter, scoring its second touchdown after a muffed punt by the Cougars. The Cougars led 28-24 at the break, but trailed 30-28 after Oregon State scored first in the second half. Washington State responded with two touchdowns, and led 42-30 early in the fourth quarter. The Beavers appeared poised to respond, but the Washington State defense forced a fumble from Jefferson that was recovered in the end zone. The Cougars pounced on the opportunity, and an 80-yard drive was capped by a 27-yard touchdown pass to Martin with 9:06 remaining. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Minshew entered Saturday leading the nation in passing yards per game (398.4). He has thrown for more than 300 yards in every contest this season. The Cougars likely improved their chances to move into the Top 25. Washington State received votes in last week's poll, and the team's only loss was by three points at Southern California on Sept. 21. Oregon State: Quarterback Connor Blount left the game about midway through the fourth quarter with an injury and did not return. Jefferson, a true freshman, scored his 12th touchdown of the season. TRICKERATION: The Beavers broke out numerous trick plays, including an unsuccessful outside kick that resembled a soccer cross and a kickoff returner camouflaging himself in the end zone by lying face down, getting lateraled the ball and going for 55 yards. "Usually when you have that many in your bag you don't end up connecting with that many, but they did," Leach said. MORE THAN ZERO: The Cougars had a grand total of zero yards rushing last week against Utah, and Williams said that motivated players. "We felt like this week, we had an opportunity," he added. The Cougars finished with 17 rushes for 62 yards, 46 of them by Williams.

GAME RECAPS

NO. 12 OREGON AT NO. 25 WASHINGTON STATE
Oct. 20, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 33,152 • TV: FOX

PULLMAN, Wash – Gardner Minshew threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to Dezmon Patmon in the back of the end zone with 3:40 left and No. 25 Washington State beat No. 12 Oregon 34-20 on Saturday night. The Cougars (6-1, 3-1 Pac-12) capped one of the biggest days in program history by taking control of the North Division race. Washington State hosted ESPN's "College Gameday" and later celebrated its fourth straight victory over Oregon (6-1, 3-1). Minshew was 39 of 51 for 323 yards and four touchdowns. "We want to be in a position to control our own destiny," Minshew said. Down 27-0 at the half, Oregon pulled to 27-20 on Adam Stack's 23-yard field goal with 6:38 left. The Cougars got a huge play on the next drive from Travell Harris when he stole a pass from Oregon's Jevon Holland for a 37-yard gain into Oregon territory. Minshew then hit Harris for 11 yards to convert fourth-and-6 and, two plays later, Minshew hit Patmon for the touchdown that finally put away the Ducks. "Travell he's a competitor," Minshew said. "He wasn't going to let him take it. He fought for me." Minshew had a pass intercepted by cornerback Deommodore Lenoir to start the game after driving deep into Oregon territory. Minshew and the Cougars then went on a tear, pulling away to the big halftime lead. Washington State scored on its second possession on James Williams' 24-yard run. Williams bounced off several defenders and stiff-armed his way to the sideline. Minshew found wide receiver Renard Bell for a 16-yard touchdown pass early in the second quarter, and added two more strikes in the final three minutes of the half - a 6-yarder to Easop Winston Jr. and a 15-yarder to Max Borghi. Justin Herbert was 25 of 44 for 270 yards and a TD for Oregon. "Any time you play like that in the first half, you're not gonna win many ballgames," Herbert said. THE TAKEAWAY Oregon: A week after knocking off Washington at home in overtime, the Ducks were flat in the first half and unable to overcome such a large deficit. With two conference losses, Oregon will need help from someone to get back into the North Division race. Washington State: The Cougars four-game win streak against the Ducks is their longest since the early 1980s. Washington State has a clear path to the North Division title, but will face road tests at Stanford and Colorado, along with Washington in the Apple Cup.

NO. 14 WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 24 STANFORD
Oct. 27, 2018 • Stanford Stadium • Att.: 39,596 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

STANFORD, Calif. – Gardner Minshew completed his first 19 passes of the second half and drove No. 14 Washington State to a 42-yard field by Blake Mazza with 19 seconds remaining to put the Cougars in sole possession of first place in the Pac-12 North with a 41-38 victory over No. 24 Stanford on Saturday. "We want the ball to come to us," Minshew said. "We want to have the chance to make the play to win the game. ... We knew if we got the chance, we could win it for us." Minshew completed 40 of 50 passes for 438 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Cougars (7-1, 4-1 Pac-12) to their third straight win over the Cardinal (5-3, 3-2). This victory follows last week's over then-No. 12 Oregon, giving Washington State back-to-back wins over ranked opponents for the first time since 2002. Minshew engineered the winning drive in the final 1:25 with the big play coming on a 35-yard pass to Jamire Calvin on third-and-2 from the 33. Minshew completed one more pass to move the ball to the 25 and after two incomplete passes, Mazza made his kick to win it in his first try at a game-winner at any level. "It's exhilarating and it's awesome," Mazza said. "Those are the two things that describe that moment. Only a certain amount of people can experience that in sports." With No. 15 Washington losing at California, the Cougars head into the final month of the season alone in first place in the conference and remain the only one-loss team in the Pac-12. K.J. Costello threw a game-tying 25-yard touchdown pass to JJ Arcega-Whiteside with 1:25 to play but it wasn't enough to prevent Stanford from losing for the third time in four games. Washington State trailed by 14 points late in the first half before rallying behind Minshew for the win. He led them to three TDs on the first four drives of the second half, using his legs and arm to knock off the Cardinal. Minshew scrambled on a key drive in the fourth quarter for 4 yards on third-and-5, nearly performing a flip out of bounds as he fought for the marker. He then converted the fourth down with a keeper, setting up a go-ahead 3-yard TD pass to Renard Bell. "It was a little bit like doing surgery with chain saws out there for both sides," Cougars coach Mike Leach said. "You just have to stick in it. You never know what's going to happen in a football game." The Cardinal had been stopped on a fourth-and-3 from the 32 on the previous drive with Dominick Silvels stopping Bryce Love for a 1-yard loss on a short pass from K.J. Costello. That was one of the few mistakes Costello made all day as he threw for 323 yards and four touchdowns, including two to Arcega-Whiteside. "Learned a couple lessons," coach David Shaw said. "It's hard. You can't check the ball down on fourth-and-(3), unless the check down is beyond the first-down marker. That was a tough play." THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: After last week's emotional home win over Oregon, the Cougars didn't have a letdown despite falling behind 28-14 late in the first half. Minshew led a 69-yard field-goal drive in the final 1:04 of the second quarter and the Cougars then got a second TD run by James Williams on the opening drive of the second half. They tied it early in the fourth on a 7-yard pass from Minshew to Tay Martin. Stanford: The Cardinal have turned into a pass-first team, throwing 43 times compared to 23 runs with some of those coming on sacks and scrambles. Love broke one long run for 43 yards but had just four more carries for 10 yards. Arcega-Whiteside had 10 catches for 111 yards, Kaden Smith had nine catches for 112 yards and a TD and Houston Heimuli also caught a touchdown pass.

GAME RECAPS

CALIFORNIA AT NO. 10 WASHINGTON STATE

Nov. 4, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 32,952 • TV: ESPN

PULLMAN, Wash – California shut down No. 10 Washington State's vaunted Air Raid offense for most of Saturday's game, but the Bears could not quite close the deal. Gardner Minshew threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Easop Winston Jr. with 32 seconds left to lift Washington State to a 19-13 win over California, extending WSU's long-shot quest to crash the College Football Playoff. "I thought that it would be a war and it was," Washington State coach Mike Leach said. "We hung in there, kept our composure and did it." Minshew completed 35 of 51 passes for 334 yards for Washington State (8-1, 5-1 Pac-12, No. 8 CFP), which is also seeking its first Pac-12 North title. The Cougars have a 12-game home winning streak, fourth-longest in the nation. Minshew, a graduate transfer, has thrown for at least 300 yards in every game this season. "When we get down there, we expect to score," Minshew said. "We didn't want to kick a field goal." Chase Garbers threw for 127 yards and ran for 67 for Cal (5-4, 2-4). This is Washington State's first 8-1 start since 2002. California kept possession for much of the second half, but managed to score only one field goal in that time. "Losing is awful and we had chances," Cal coach Justin Wilcox said. "We weren't able to take advantage of them." "We've got to find a few more plays in the game in order to win it," Wilcox said. "That's where we were short, and they made them, so you got to give them credit." Blake Mazza's 29-yard field goal put WSU up 3-0 early in the game. After Evan Weaver intercepted a Minshew pass at the Washington State 39, Garbers threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Malik McMorris to give the Bears a 7-3 lead. Max Borghi replied with a 5-yard touchdown run, capping a 75-yard drive, to put the Cougars ahead 10-7. Greg Thomas hit a 42-yard field goal late in the first half to tie the score at 10-10. Washington State linebacker Dominick Silvels was ejected from the game during the drive for targeting on tight end Ian Bunting. Mazza kicked a 36-yard field goal with one second left in the first half to give Washington State a 13-10 lead. Thomas kicked a 46-yard field goal late in the third to tie the score at 13-13. Cal was driving for a go-ahead touchdown when quarterback Brandon McLlwin was intercepted in the end zone by Skyler Thomas midway through the fourth. The Cougars drove to the California 13, where Mazza missed a 30-yard field goal with 3:31 left in the game. "We can't throw it to the other team," Wilcox said of the interception in the end zone. After Cal went three and out, Minshew drove the Cougars 69 yards, ending with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Winston for a 19-13 lead. "He's getting better and better," Leach said of Winston. "He's one of our most improved players without question." Winston caught seven passes for 92 yards. THE TAKEAWAY Cal: The game was a classic showdown between Washington State's Air Raid offense, which is averaging 40.8 points, and a California defense that is the best in the Pac-12 against the pass. Cal managed to play the game on its terms until the very end. Washington State: The Cougars are the only remaining Pac-12 team with a single loss, and the Cougars almost certainly need to win out for a chance at their first playoff bid. RUNNING BEAR Patrick Laird rushed 18 times but netted only 40 yards for California. He also caught four passes for 38 yards. POLL IMPLICATIONS Washington State should expect to move up a spot or two in the Top 25. POINTS PLEASE This is the fewest points Washington State has scored in a game all season. PEYTON'S PLACE Washington State linebacker Peyton Pelluer had 10 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss. "What he does best is he leads and generates energy," Leach said.

Mike
LEACH
Head Coach
7th Year

Mike Leach, the 2015 Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year, is in his seventh season leading the Washington State Cougar football program after being named the Cougars' head football coach, Nov. 30, 2011. Leach has guided the Cougars to four bowl appearances in his first six years, a first for a WSU head coach, and the only head coach to lead WSU to three-straight bowl games.

Last season Leach guided WSU to a 9-4 record, 6-3 in conference play, and a second-straight Holiday Bowl appearance and third-straight bowl game overall. The Cougars opened the seasons with six-straight victories and posted wins over No. 5 USC and No. 18 Stanford. Once again, the Cougar offense ranked among the national leaders in passing offense (2nd) while the defense ranked in the national top 25 in seven categories, including four in the top 10. Senior offensive lineman Cody O'Connell repeated as a First-Team All-American while junior Hercules Mata'afa also earned First-Team All-American honors.

In 2016, the Cougars posted an 8-5 mark, including a 7-2 record in Pac-12 play, along with an appearance in the Holiday Bowl. Leach guided a WSU offense that led the Pac-12 and finished third nationally in passing (362.5 ypg), and also led the Pac-12 in completion percentage, second nationally, at .703 percent. WSU won eight-straight games midway through the season, the most since the 1930 campaign. WSU had 10 players earn All-Pac-12 honors, five were named to the Pac-12 All-Academic teams, and redshirt junior offensive lineman Cody O'Connell was a unanimous All-American and finalist for the Outland Trophy.

The Cougars ended the 2015 season with a 9-4 record, 6-3 in the Pac-12 Conference, capped by a 20-14 Sun Bowl victory over Miami. After starting the season 2-2, the Cougars went 7-2 over the final nine games, posting last-minute victories at Oregon and No. 18 UCLA, and rallying from a fourth-quarter deficit in a 38-24 victory against Arizona State. For the second-straight season WSU led the nation in passing at 389.5 ypg, while also finishing second in the nation in red zone offense, converting 94.5 percent of their opportunities. WSU concluded the regular season by having 11 student-athletes named to All-Pac-12 teams and five to Pac-12 All-Academic teams. Senior offensive lineman Joe Dahl earned Second-Team All-America honors while defensive lineman Hercules Mata'afa garnered First-Team Freshman All-American honors by USA Today.

In 2014 Leach's offense led the nation in passing at 477.7 yards per game, the second-highest total in FBS history, trailing only Houston's 511.3 in 1989. WSU set or tied 42 school, conference and NCAA records during the season, including quarterback Connor Halliday who threw for an NCAA single-game record 734 yards against California. WSU also placed five student-athletes on Pac-12 All-Academic teams and five on All-Pac-12 teams during the season.

In 2013, Leach's second season at the helm of the Cougars, he guided Washington State to the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, the first bowl game for the Cougars in a decade. Last season the Cougars ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, setting a school-record at 368.00 yards per game, eclipsing the previous mark of 343.3 ypg in 1997. The Cougar offense threw for more than 400 yards five times, including a 2013 NCAA FBS-best 557 yards at Oregon. Quarterback Connor Halliday set WSU single-season records for passing yards (4,587), attempts (714) and completions (449), the first WSU quarterback to surpass the 4,000-yard mark. The Cougars picked up more national recognition as safety Deone Bucannon became WSU's first All-America first-team selection since 2005 and was later selected as the No. 27 overall pick in NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, the first Cougar taken in the first round since 2003. The Cougars also placed eight student-athletes on Pac-12 All-Academic teams during the season.

In his first season in Pullman, Leach's high-powered offense led the Pac-12 Conference in passing, averaging 330.42 yards per game. That figure ranked ninth nationally and marked the second-highest average in school history. Academically, nine Cougars received Pac-12 All-Academic honors while the 2012 fall semester football GPA of 2.66 marked the first time the football team had been over a 2.60 GPA for fall semester.

Leach brought a proven record of winning to Pullman. In 10 seasons as a head coach, all at Texas Tech (2000-09) his program earned 10 bowl bids. In addition, the Susanville, Calif., native who was raised in Cody, Wyo., recorded a school-record 84 victories during his tenure.

Leading the most prolific passing offense in the country, Leach received three national coach of the year awards in 2008 - the Woody Hayes Award, Howie Long/Fieldturf Coach of the Year, and George Munger Award. His offense spreads the field with his exciting brand of football and guided Texas Tech to six NCAA passing titles and three total offense titles during his 10 seasons in Lubbock. Leach's offense produced school records in nearly every passing category in 2000, his first season with the Red Raiders, but surpassed those numbers in each

During Leach's time in Lubbock, Texas, the Red Raiders increased their yards per game by more than 150 and averaged nearly 20 points more per outing. In the passing game, Texas Tech threw for about 300 yards more per game in the decade Leach was at the helm.

Leach led Texas Tech to one of the most memorable seasons in school history in 2008 as the team set a program record with 11 regular-season wins en route to an 11-2 record. The win total tied the mark, set previously by the 1953 and 1973 Red Raider squads. Numerous accolades poured in from across the country as an unprecedented four players earned first-team All-America status, in addition to Leach's three coach of the year honors. Quarterback Graham Harrell, offensive tackle Rylan Reed and offensive guard Brandon Carter each garnered first-team honors, while wide receiver Michael Crabtree was honored as a unanimous All-American for the second-straight season.

On the field in 2008, the Red Raiders led the nation in passing for the sixth time in Leach's ten seasons and ranked among the top five in total offense. Harrell finished his storied career second on the NCAA career passing yardage list with 15,793 yards. Harrell also broke the career NCAA passing touchdowns mark with 134.

The Texas Tech program has established itself as one of the nation's leading producers of productive quarterbacks since the 2000 season. Harrell threw for 4,555 yards in his debut as the starter in 2006 and became the sixth player and third Red Raider in NCAA history to throw for 5,000 yards in a season with his 5,705-yard effort in 2007 and 5,111 yards last season. He also is the third quarterback under Leach to win nine games in a season and the first Red Raider in history to win 11 in a regular season. Former quarterback Kliff Kingsbury in 2002 and Cody Hodges in 2005 each posted nine-win seasons during their careers, while 2003 and 2004 signal callers B.J. Symons and Sonny Cumbie each won eight games in their respective seasons as the starter.

The running game flourished under Leach as well. Former Red Raider Taurean Henderson holds the NCAA career record for receptions by a running back. The Red Raiders' 28 total rushing scores in 2008 were the most for a Tech team since the 1993 team scored 30. Despite Tech's offense revolving around the pass, Leach did a tremendous job of incorporating the running back position into the mix. Henderson finished his career with 303 receptions, which ranks first in NCAA history among running backs and fourth overall.

Leach has coached several players who have gone on to the NFL. While at Tech, 18 players have been drafted and 21 others have signed free agent contracts. In the spring of 2009, four players were selected among the first four rounds of the NFL Draft, marking the most successful draft for Texas Tech in the Leach era.

Safety Darcel McBath was selected by the Denver Broncos in the second round, while offensive lineman Louis Vasquez was taken in the third by San Diego. Defensive end Brandon Williams went to the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth.

The program made strides academically as well under Leach. During his 10 years, Tech was recognized as one of the nation's top institutions for consistently being above a 70 percent graduation rate, according to the American Football Coaches Association.

Prior to coming on board at Texas Tech, Leach, in just one season at Oklahoma, directed a Sooner offense that went from one of the worst in the Big 12 Conference to one of the best. Leach guided an Oklahoma offense that went from 11th in the Big 12 in 1998 to first in 1999 and 101st in the nation to 11th. In just one year, OU's total offense numbers improved from 293.3 to 427.2 yards per game. Under Leach, the Oklahoma offense set six Big 12 Conference and 17 OU records.

Prior to joining Bob Stoops' Oklahoma staff, Leach served as offensive coordinator for Hal Mumme at the University of Kentucky and Valdosta (Ga.) State University. Under Mumme and Leach, the Kentucky offense set six NCAA records, 41 Southeastern Conference records and 116 school records in 22 games.

Named 1996 Division II Offensive Coordinator of the Year by American Football Quarterly magazine, Leach helped Mumme lead Valdosta State to a 40-17-1 record. The 1993 Blazer offense smashed 66 school records, 22 conference records and seven national records. In 1994, Valdosta State advanced to the Division II playoffs with Leach's offense shattering 80 school records, 35 conference records and seven more national marks.

Leach and Mumme first teamed up at Iowa Wesleyan College in 1989. From 1989 to 1991 Leach served as offensive coordinator and line coach for an offense that led the NAIA in passing yardage one season and finished second the other two. Iowa Wesleyan quarterbacks passed for more than 11,000 yards in Leach's three seasons and broke 26 national records.

Leach also has made coaching stops in Pori, Finland, where he served as a head coach in the European Football League (1989), as well as one-year stints at College of the Desert (1988) and Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1987).

After graduating with honors from BYU in 1983, Leach earned a master's degree from the U.S. Sports Academy and his law degree from Pepperdine University, where he graduated in the top one-third of his class.

The oldest of six siblings, Leach and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of four children; Janeen, Kim, Cody and Kiersten, along with three grandchildren.
