ARIZONA NOTES & NUMBERS

» The Arizona Wildcats will travel to Boulder for their first Pac-12 Conference road game of the season. The Wildcats have won their last two Pac-12 road openers, topping Oregon State last year in Corvallis and Colorado in 2017 in Boulder.

» The Wildcats are riding a three-game winning streak and topped visiting UCLA 20-17 on Saturday to improve to 3-1 on the season. » Following a 28-14 win over Texas Tech, Arizona allowed just 17 points to UCLA. It marked the first time since 2010 that Arizona held back-to-back Power 5 opponents to fewer than 20 points. Coach Marcel Yates' defense has not allowed a fourth-quarter point in either of the past two games.

» Junior linebackers Colin Schooler and Tony Fields II both recorded double-digit tackle totals against UCLA on Saturday. It's the sixth time both players have had 10 or more tackles in the same game and the first this season. The duo combined for 23 tackles, two tackles-for-loss and two pass breakups against the Bruins.

SOME GAME THEMES: Riding a three-game winning streak, the Arizona Wildcats will travel for the first time since its Aug. 24 opener at Hawai'i...Boulder, Colorado will be the final destination for the Wildcats where the 3-1 Buffaloes will be waiting... With Arizona also at 3-1, this will mark the first time since Colorado joined the Pac-12 in 2011 that both teams will have a winning record at the time of the matchup... Since the Buffaloes joined the conference, Arizona owns a 6-2 advantage in the series over Colorado...This will be the first game in the series featuring first-year Colorado head coach Mel Tucker...Tucker and Arizona head coach Kevin Sumlin first crossed paths in 1997 when Tucker was a graduate assistant at Michigan State and Sumlin was an assistant at Minnesota...Tucker's Michigan State team, ranked No. 12 in the nation, topped the Golden Gophers 31-10 on Oct. 4, 1997...That matchup of course won't have much to do with this one as both teams will be looking to move to 2-0 in conference play...The Buffaloes are coming off an idle weekend after going on the road and beating Arizona State 34-31...Quarterback Steven Montez is off to a strong start for the Buffaloes and has completed 90 of 134 passes for 1,164 yards and nine touchdowns to just two interceptions...Montez has a deep receiving corps to work with that is headlined by Laviska Shenault and includes Tony Brown, K.D. Nixon, Dimitri Stanley and others...Arizona also knows about strong quarterback play...Filling in for Khalil Tate, true freshman Grant Gunnell shined against UCLA in Arizona's 20-17 win on Saturday...Gunnell completed 29 of 44 passes for 352 yards and threw a 75-yard touchdown to Bam Smith...Gunnell is the first true freshman Arizona quarterback to win his starting debut since Willie Tuitama in 2005...He completed passes to nine different players against UCLA, completing multiple passes to seven of them...Prior to Gunnell's start, the last Arizona true freshman to start at quarterback was Tate in 2016 when he opened the game against USC...Gunnell has played in two games for Arizona and has a 75-yard touchdown pass in both games...He also played against NAU and had a 75-yard touchdown pass to Thomas Reid III...He was helped in the backfield by another freshman in Smith...A redshirt freshman, Smith had five catches for 99 yards and the touchdown to go along with 35 rushing yards on six attempts... It's the second straight game Smith has compiled more than 100 all-purpose yards... The Wildcats spread the wealth in the backfield without the services of J.J. Taylor... Gary Brightwell had a team-high seven carries, including a 10-yard touchdown run... Smith had six carries, while Michael Wiley had four and Nathan Tilford had three... The running back depth has been on display all year as Arizona has four rushers with at least 182 yards on the season...Colorado ranks 10th in the conference in rushing defense at 175.5 yards per game.

LAST MEETING: One year after Khalil Tate put on a show against the Buffaloes with his legs, he did it with his arm in the 2018 matchup...Tate completed 17 of 22 passes for 350 yards and five touchdowns to just one interception in a 42-34 win over the Buffaloes at Arizona Stadium...The Buffaloes took a 10-0 lead through the first quarter, but Arizona then scored on its next eight possessions with Tate running the show... He threw two touchdown passes to Shawn Poindexter and one each to Shun Brown, Stanley Berryhill and Cedric Peterson...J.J. Taylor also had a big night next to Tate in the backfield and rushed for 192 yards on 40 carries...It was Taylor's third straight game rushing for 150 or more yards...Also in the game, kicker Lucas Havrisik connected from 55 yards out on a field goal as time in the first half expired...The Wildcats were 9 of 14 on third downs and converted on all four of their redzone chances, which are two areas to watch Saturday in Boulder...In the end, Arizona compiled 566 yards of total offense against Colorado and have compiled 1,117 yards of total offense against the Buffaloes in their last two matchups combined...Defensively, keep an eye on linebacker Tony Fields II, who had a team-high 10 tackles last year against Colorado and has 21 tackles in two career games against the Buffaloes.

CHARTING THE CATS (CAREER):

- Running back J.J. Taylor has 2,750 career rushing yards, which ranks ninth all-time at Arizona. Taylor needs 208 yards to pass Nic Grigsby for eighth all-time.. Taylor's 474 career carries are the fewest of any player in the top 10.

- Quarterback Khalil Tate has passed for 5,048 yards in his career, which ranks 11th-most in program history. He'll need another 42 yards to break into the Top 10.
- Tate has rushed for 2,110 yards. He is the 17th player in program history to rush for at least 2,000 yards. With 279 more yards, he would pass Jim Upchurch for 13th all-time at Arizona in rushing yards.
- Tate has racked up 7,158 yards of total offense in his career, which currently ranks No. 5 in school history. With 178 more total offense yards, Tate would move up to No. 4, passing Tom Tunnicliffe.
- Tate has passed for 49 touchdowns in his career, which ranks tied for third all-time in program history. With one more, Tate would officially pass Anu Solomon for third all-time. Nick Foles and Willie Tuitama share the record with 67 touchdown passes.
- Cornerback Jace Whittaker, who utilized his redshirt season last year, broke up his 32nd career pass Saturday against UCLA. He's now tied with Antoine Cason and Devin Ross for fourth all-time at Arizona with 32 PBUs. Whittaker is three behind Kelly Malveaux for third all-time.
- Linebacker Colin Schooler enters Saturday's game with Colorado with 39 tackles-for-loss in just 29 games. With 1.5 more, he'll reach the Arizona top 10 and tie Chris Singleton. Schooler has 3.5 tackles-for-loss over his last two games against UCLA and Texas Tech.

GUNNELL NAMED PAC-12 FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK: Freshman quarterback Grant Gunnell has been named the Pac-12 Conference Freshman Player of the Week, the league announced Monday afternoon. Gunnell led Arizona to victory Saturday night against UCLA in his first career start for the Wildcats. The freshman from The Woodlands, Texas, completed 29 of 44 passes for 352 yards and one touchdown. Gunnell hooked up with running back Bam Smith for a 75-yard touchdown pass in the win. Gunnell is the first Wildcat to win Freshman of the Week honors. The award is in its debut season. Gunnell became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for Arizona since Khalil Tate started versus USC in 2016. He's the first true freshman to win his first start since Willie Tuitama in 2005. The Texas native also became the first freshman quarterback to throw for 350 yards and no interceptions in a game since Keith Smith in 1997. The freshman was especially impressive in the second half against the Bruins. He completed 12 of 15 passes for 182 yards and a touchdown in the game's final 30 minutes. He also helped the Wildcats engineer a fourth-quarter comeback. Arizona was trailing 17-13 entering the final quarter. Gunnell is the first Arizona freshman to win a Pac-12 weekly award since running back Nick Wilson was named Offensive Player of the Week in 2014 following his performance against Utah.

THE CATS IN PAC-12 ROAD OPENERS: The Wildcats have won each of their last two Pac-12 road openers and are 6-6 in their last 12 overall. Arizona earned its first Pac-12 win under Coach Kevin Sumlin last year in its road opener, topping Oregon State 35-14. The year prior, Arizona won its road opener at Colorado when Khalil Tate rushed for an NCAA quarterback record 327 yards in the game. Arizona's most memorable Pac-12 road opener came in 2014 when the Wildcats upset Oregon 31-24 in Thursday night primetime action.

TATE IS GREAT: Three games into his senior season, Khalil Tate has already established himself as one of the most dynamic players in program history. Tate has thrown for 5,048 passing yards in his career and 49 touchdowns to 24 interceptions. He has also rushed for 2,110 yards and 17 touchdowns. He has averaged 6.9 yards per rushing attempt in his career and has accumulated 7,158 yards of total offense in his three-plus-year Wildcat career. Last season, Tate started all 11 games he suited up for and posted career highs in passing yards (2,530) and passing touchdowns (26). His pass efficiency rating of 149.77 ranked second in the Pac-12 and was the fifth-best mark in Arizona single-season history. Tate is one of two Power 5 quarterbacks with at least 2,000 career rushing yards and 5,000 career passing yards, joining Oklahoma's Jalen Hurts, who spent the first three seasons of his career at Alabama, before transferring as a graduate student.

EXCLUSIVE CLUB: In the season opener against Hawai'i, Tate threw for 361 yards and rushed for 108 yards. He became just the second Pac-12 quarterback ever to throw for at least 350 yards in a game and rush for at least 100. The other? A fellow Wildcat of course in Matt Scott, who accomplished the feat in 2012 against USC. Tate did his in a road game, meaning he's the only Pac-12 quarterback ever to go 350+, 100+ in a road game. Additionally, Tate became just the third quarterback nationally since 2000 to have 350+, 100+ in a season-opening game, joining Louisville's Lamar Jackson (2017) and Mississippi State's Keytaon Thompson (2018). Since 1996, only four quarterbacks, Lamar Jackson, Tajh Boyd, Johnny Manziel and Kyler Murray, have done it multiple times.

LATE SEASON FORM TRANSLATES TO 2019: Tate was especially strong late in the season for Arizona last year. The quarterback missed the Oct. 20 game against UCLA game to rest a foot injury. When he returned, Tate completed 75 of 124 passes (completion percentage of 60) for 1,115 yards and 15 touchdowns to just four interceptions. He averaged 278.8 yards per game. In his first seven games, Tate completed 53 percent of his passes and averaged 202.1 yards per game through the air. He also tossed 11 touchdowns in that seven-game span. It's also worth noting that two of Tate's final four games came against top 20 teams in Oregon and Washington State. The strong string of performances carried over to 2019 when Tate accounted for 269 yards of total offense against Hawai'i. His role was limited against NAU in a game where Arizona scored 51 points in the first quarter, but Tate went 14 for 17 for 138 yards and two touchdowns. It marked the sixth straight game, dating back to last season, that Tate has thrown multiple touchdowns in a game. Additionally, Tate's completion percentage of 82.4 against NAU is the highest of his career in a game in which he attempted 15 or more passes. Against Texas Tech, Tate broke his own record for longest run ever in program history by a quarterback with an 84-yard touchdown dash. He also threw his 49th career touchdown pass and surpassed the 100-yard rushing mark for the eighth time in his career.

TOUCHDOWN TATE: Khalil Tate is known for his explosiveness, but even highlight reels may struggle to put into perspective how spectacular his big-play ability truly is. In 2017, Tate accounted for 26 touchdowns. He averaged 47.7 yards on his 12 rushing touchdowns, 28.6 yards on 14 passing touchdowns and 37.4 yards on all 26 touchdowns accounted for. Including his limited action as a freshman in 2016 and his season numbers in 2018, here's a look at Tate's career touchdowns:

GRANT LAND: Freshman quarterback Grant Gunnell made his first career start Saturday against UCLA, filling in for Khalil Tate, who missed the game due to injury. Gunnell threw for 352 yards and one touchdown against the Bruins. He's just the third true freshman quarterback in the country to throw for more than 350 yards in a game this season. He joins USC's Kedon Slovis and Boise State's Hank Bachmeier. Like Slovis, Gunnell didn't commit any turnovers in his performance and like both, he did it in his first career start. For the season, Gunnell is 38 of 55 for 503 yards and four touchdowns on the season. He's completing 69 percent of his passes. Gunnell is the first Arizona quarterback to throw for at least 350 yards and no interceptions since Anu Solomon did it against USC in 2014. Only five Arizona quarterbacks – Jason Johnson, Nick Foles, B.J. Denker, Anu Solomon and Gunnell – have thrown for 350 yards and no interceptions since 2000. He's the first Arizona freshman to do it since Keith Smith in 1996. Smith threw for 418 yards and five touchdowns at Cal in a 56-55 loss.

EXPERIENCE PLAYS: Arizona boasts a total of 245 starts on defense this season and 168 on the offensive side. On defense, Arizona has seven players with 20 or more starts in Tony Fields (29), Lorenzo Burns (28), Jace Whittaker (28), Justin Belknap (26), Colin Schooler (25), Kylan Wilborn (22) and Scottie Young (22). Safety Tristan Cooper also has double-digit starts with 13. Offensively, 72 of the 168 returning starts come on the offensive line. Cody Creason, who has played all over the line in his career and has started his senior season at right guard, has 23 career starts to his credit. Center Josh McCauley and left tackle Donovan Laie both started all 12 games last year, while Bryson Cain started the first nine games of the season, before suffering an injury and missing the final three. Redshirt senior wide receiver Cedric Peterson leads all returning offensive players with 25 career starts, while quarterback Khalil Tate has started 23. Running back J.J. Taylor, who was a third-team AP All-American last season, has started 19 games in his career.

IN A RUSH: Through three games this season, Arizona finds itself in a familiar situation. Arizona leads the conference in rushing with 255.5 yards per game after leading the conference in rushing each of the past three seasons. The Wildcats averaged 202.4 rushing yards per game last year, marking the fourth straight season the program has averaged 200 or more yards per game. Arizona is one of just eight programs nationally and one of three Power 5 teams to average at least 200 yards rushing per game over the past four seasons. Georgia Tech, Army, Air Force, Navy, Georgia Southern, Oklahoma and Appalachian State have also accomplished the feat. Arizona's ability to rush the ball often ties to the success of the team. Over the past five seasons when Arizona has rushed for 200 or more yards, the Wildcats are 26-10. In games where Arizona hasn't reached the 150-yard mark as a team, it is 5-14. It is worth noting Arizona beat UCLA on Saturday with just 99 rushing yards, breaking a 13-game conference losing streak when rushing for fewer than 100 yards as a team. Arizona is 28-8 in that span when it has a 100-yard rusher. Arizona has dominated the Pac-12 rushing scene since the start of the 2016 season and is the only program to top 10,000 yards in that span with 10,292. In fact, only Oregon, Washington and Utah have topped the 8,000-yard mark with Washington and Utah both surpassing the mark earlier this month.

Total Rush Yards by Pac-12 School Since Start of 2016 Season

	School	Yards
1.	Arizona	10,292
2.	Oregon	8,931
3.	Washington	8,582
4.	Utah	8,547

9.	Oregon State	6,669

11.	UCLA	4,944
12.	Washington State	3,938

PAVING THE WAY: That Arizona has led the Pac-12 in rushing each of the past three seasons is certainly a testament to the offensive line. This year's group returns three full-time starters from a year ago in sophomore left tackle Donovan Laie, redshirt junior center Josh McCauley and redshirt senior right guard Cody Creason. Robert Congel, a transfer from Texas A&M who sat out last season, started at left guard the first three games of the season, while redshirt sophomore Edgar Burrola and junior college transfer Paiton Fears split snaps at right tackle in the first four games with Burrola starting the first three and Fears starting against UCLA. On top of opening up running lanes for Arizona's outstanding rushing production, the offensive line has also been the best in the conference at protecting the quarterback over the past three seasons. Consider that during the same span where Arizona has rushed for 10,193 rushing yards, Wildcat quarterbacks have been sacked just 74 times. That number leads the conference.

PICKS APLENTY: Arizona intercepted four passes in its season opener against Hawai'i, securing its highest total since picking off four passes against No. 15 Washington State on Oct. 28, 2017. The four interceptions were the most in a road game by Arizona since 2006 at Oregon. Three players – Jace Whittaker, Lorenzo Burns and Tony Fields II – combined for the four interceptions. None of them had an interception in 2018 after combining for nine in 2017. Whittaker and the Cats were at it again against NAU in the second game of the season. Both Whittaker and freshman Christian Roland-Wallace picked off passes, upping Arizona's season total to six. The Cats again picked off two passes in the non-conference finale against Texas Tech with Burns and linebacker Anthony Pandey intercepting passes. Burns kept the streak alive against UCLA, notching his third interception of the season and giving Arizona a national-best nine for the season. Whittaker missed all of last season with an injury, but now has seven interceptions for his career and has already tied his season-high of three set in 2017. Burns had five as a redshirt freshman in 2017, but went without any last year. Fields had one as a freshman in 2017 before picking off his second career pass against the Rainbow Warriors. Roland-Wallace, a true freshman, picked off the first pass of his game. As a team, Arizona had just seven interceptions last year and

FOURS UP: Arizona has come from behind to win each of its last two games and have outscored Texas Tech and UCLA 22-0 in the fourth quarter. Arizona trailed 14-13 heading into the final quarter before winning 28-14. Against UCLA, Arizona trailed 17-13, before pulling out the 20-17 win. The Wildcats had lost 25 straight games when trailing after three before the Texas Tech win and have not won back-to-back such games. A big reason why has been Gary Brightwell. In the two fourth quarters, Brightwell has rushed 17 times for 76 yards and three touchdowns. He helped the Wildcats generate a 13-play, 99-yard drive against Texas Tech in the final quarter to ice the game. Against UCLA, he had a 10-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

THIRD DOWN TO FIRST DOWN: Arizona is 10th in the country in third down conversion percentage at 52.4 percent. The Wildcats have converted on 33 of 63 chances through four games this season. The 33 conversions are tied for second nationally among teams who have played four games this season. The Wildcats trail just TCU, who has 37. Texas and Boise State both have 33, along with Arizona. Arizona converted 15 of 21 third downs against Texas Tech, one game after converting nine of 14 chances against NAU. Dating back to 1997, Arizona has never had more than 33 third-down conversions in the first four games of the season.

Arizona's Third Down Conversions Through 4 Games of the Season

Year	Third Down Conversions
2019	33-of-63 (52.38%)
2018	23-of-51 (45.10%)
2017	27-of-61 (44.26%)
2016	20-of-53 (37.74%)
2015	23-of-52 (44.23%)

HOMETOWN HEROES: The Arizona wide receiver room has a strong Tucson feel to it with three local players in Stanley Berryhill III, Drew Dixon and Jamarye Joiner. The three Tucsonans have combined for 31 catches for 426 yards and four touchdowns in the first four games of the season. Adding to the impressiveness of it is that all three players are underclassmen. Berryhill and Dixon are both redshirt sophomores, while Joiner is a redshirt freshman. Dixon had his first career catch against Hawai'i, and then had four catches for 46 yards and a touchdown against NAU. Dixon's four catches against the Lumberjacks tied for the game-high with Berryhill and senior Cedric Peterson. Joiner, who had four catches in the opener against Hawai'i, had one catch for 15 yards against NAU and two catches for 14 yards against Texas Tech. Dixon and Joiner were both high school quarterbacks, who transitioned to receiver. Both played their high school football in Tucson with Dixon attending Sabino High School and Joiner going to Cienega High School. Joiner and Berryhill each had three catches against UCLA. Dixon had two.

THE PANDY MAN CAN: When Anthony Pandy arrived at Arizona, he showed up with two other promising linebackers in his class in Tony Fields and Colin Schooler. While Fields and Schooler both earned starting spots right away, Pandy has had to be more patient, and it is paying off now. Pandey tied for the team lead with four tackles against NAU and had two tackles-for-loss. It was the first multiple tackle-for-loss game of his career. He then earned the second start of his career against Texas Tech, and it paid off for defensive coordinator Marcel Yates. Pandey had seven tackles and an interception – the first of his career – against Texas Tech. He had seven tackles and one sack in the conference opener against UCLA. Pandey has 24 tackles in four games and is third on the team behind Schooler and Fields. Pandey had 25 tackles, including 3.5 for a loss last season as a sophomore. For his career, Pandey now has 8.5 tackles-for-loss and 58 total tackles.

CREASON A CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST: Cody Creason has been selected as a semifinalist for the 2019 William V. Campbell Trophy. The prestigious award, in its 30th year, is presented annually to the nation's top football scholar athlete, taking into account academic success, football performance, and exemplary leadership. To be eligible for the award, a player must be a senior or graduate student in their final year of playing eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2, have outstanding football ability, and demonstrate strong leadership and citizenship. Creason has been a crucial member of a Wildcats offense line that has paved the way for the nation's No. 11 ranked rushing offense. In addition to his performance on the field, Creason has consistently achieved at a high level in the classroom. As an accounting major, he has posted a cumulative GPA of 3.308 at Arizona's lauded Eller College of Management and been selected Pac-12 All-Academic Honorable Mention twice in 2016 and 2018. Creason is currently pursuing his master's degree in accounting. Creason has also displayed outstanding leadership qualities with and away from the football program. He was selected and serves as a member of the Wildcats season-long Leadership Council and has volunteered his time around the community on multiple occasions. He served as a game captain for the Wildcats against NAU and UCLA.

TAYLOR MADE: With 102 yards on the ground in Arizona's home opener against Northern Arizona, junior running back J.J. Taylor crossed over the 2,700-yard mark for his career. It was the ninth 100-yard performance of his career. Taylor now sports 2,750 career rushing yards during his four seasons in a Wildcat uniform, good for ninth all-time in school history. The next player on the list – sitting at No. 8 with 2,957 yards, just 207 more than Taylor – is Nic Grigsby, who played for Arizona from 2007-10. Taylor finished the 2018 season with 1,434 rushing yards, the fourth-most in a single season in Arizona school history and the seventh-most in the nation last year. He became the 14th player in school history to accumulate 1,000+ rushing yards in a single season when he went for 212 yards in an upset over No. 19 ranked Oregon on Oct. 27. Taylor eclipsed the 100-yard mark five times in 2018, four of which came in the Wildcats final five games of the season.

per rush. He rewrote the Arizona record books in week two against Northern Arizona – his 94-yard touchdown run against NAU is tied with Nic Grigsby (2009) for the second-longest run in school history, and was just two yards shy of tying the all-time record of 96 yards set by Trung Canidate in 1997. Through three seasons and 124 attempts, Brightwell has amassed 784 rushing yards for the Cats, good for an average of 6.3 yards per carry.

SCHOOL(ER)'S IN SESSION: Junior linebacker Colin Schooler has put together an incredible Arizona career through his two-plus seasons in Tucson, racking up 246 total tackles, 39.0 tackles for loss, and 8.0 sacks. He finished the 2018 season, his sophomore campaign, with 119 total tackles, good for fifth-most in the Pac-12. Additionally, Schooler's 21.5 tackles for loss during last year's season were second-most in the conference, just 0.5 behind Utah's Chase Hansen. Schooler led the Wildcats in tackles seven times last year, and finished second on the team twice. Over his Cats career, Schooler is averaging 8.48 tackles per game and 1.34 tackles for loss per game. He is currently on the cusp of breaking onto a pair of Arizona career leaderboards – He is 4 tackles shy of becoming just the 24th player in Wildcat history to log 250+ tackles, and is 1.5 tackles for loss shy of the Arizona career top-10 (records dating back to 1967).

AT A LOSS FOR YARDS: Schooler's 21.5 tackles for loss in 2018 were the second-most in the Pac-12, tied for fifth-most in the nation, and the fourth-most in a single season in school history. He averaged 1.79 tackles for loss over 12 games last season, and through the Wildcat's victory over UCLA on Saturday has now tallied 39.0 TFL during his career. Schooler's 21.5 tackles for loss in 2018 were the most recorded by a Wildcat player in 24 of the last 25 years, with Scooby Wright's 29.0 TFL in 2014 being the lone exception. He is just 1.5 TFL away from breaking into the top 10 all-time in school history.

HAVING A FIELD DAY: Sitting right behind Schooler is another junior linebacker, Tony Fields II, who has logged 221 career total tackles, 14.0 tackles for loss, and 7.0 sacks in two-plus seasons with the Cats. This Saturday will be Fields' 30th consecutive start – he has started in every game he has played for the Wildcats. Fields logged five tackles in the Wildcats season opener at Hawai'i, had four against NAU, led the team with nine tackles against Texas Tech, and tallied a season-high 10 stops last weekend against UCLA. In two career games against Colorado, Fields has logged double-digit tackle totals in both with a combined effort of 21 tackles, 2.0 TFL, and 2.0 sacks in those contests. After leading Arizona with 104 total tackles in 2017, Fields finished second on the squad in 2018 with 89. Last season, Fields and Schooler combined to total 208 tackles, the fourth-most by any Pac-12 duo of leading tacklers in 2018. They were 18 tackles clear of the No. 5 duo.

YOU SHALL NOT PASS: Redshirt senior cornerback Jace Whittaker and redshirt junior cornerback Lorenzo Burns are currently tied for second in the Pac-12 lead and tied for third among all qualified FBS players with an average of 2.0 passes defended per game. The duo of Whittaker and Burns has combined for six interceptions this season, more than 106-of-130 FBS programs have logged.

WHAT A STUD: Redshirt sophomore STUD Jalen Harris, one of the Wildcats most impressive players during fall camp, has steadily produced at a high level for Arizona this season. Harris currently ranks tied for seventh on the team with 11 total tackles while leading the team in tackles for loss (4.5) and sacks (2.5). He put together one of the best performances of his young career in the Cats season opener at Hawai'i, logging five total tackles, including a career-high 1.5 tackles for loss, and 0.5 sacks. His five total tackles in the opener were tied for a single-game career high. He followed it up with 1.0 sack against Northern Arizona in week two, a three-tackle, 1.0 TFL performance against Texas Tech, and two tackles (1.0 TFL) and 1.0 sack against UCLA. Across three seasons in Tucson, Harris has 42 total tackles, 8.5 of which have gone for a loss, in 20 games.

EXPERIENCED SECONDARY: Between redshirt senior Jace Whittaker, redshirt junior Lorenzo Burns, and junior Scottie Young Jr., the Wildcats feature 93 combined games of experience in the secondary. Whittaker, a cornerback, has four-plus seasons of disrupting opponent's passing games under his belt and to that end he has broken into the Arizona career top-10 in pass breakups; he currently sits tied at No. 4 all-time with 32 (also: Antoine Cason, 2004-07; Devin Ross, 2006-09). Whittaker logged four passes defended (PBU+INT) as a freshman, 12 as a sophomore, a career-high 16 as a junior, and seven this year. He was limited to one game due to injury last season. During the 2017 season – Whittaker's last complete campaign – he logged at least one pass breakup in seven games, including three games with three PBU. His single-game career-high came on Oct. 10, 2016 at Utah, when he notched five pass breakups. For a complete chart of the Arizona top-10 in PBU, see the sidebar on page nine. Burns, another cornerback, has 22 career pass breakups to his name and hauled in five interceptions during the 2017 season. He has also picked up 136 total career tackles, 6.0 tackles for loss, and 2.0 sacks during his three-plus seasons in Tucson. Burns' five interceptions during the 2017 campaign were the most logged by a Wildcat since Trevin Wade also hauled in five in 2009. Four of Burns' five sacks in 2017 came during a six-game stretch from Oct. 21 at California to Nov. 25 at Arizona State. Young, a safety, took over the mantle from Burns in 2018, grabbing three interceptions to lead the team and rank sixth in the Pac-12. Young saw extended action as a true freshman in 2017, logging time in 10 games and tallying 53 tackles, one interception, and two pass breakups.

NFL CATS: The Arizona Wildcats are once again well represented in NFL with the new season set to begin this week. There are currently eight former Wildcats in the NFL, including Demetrius Flannigan-Fowles from last year's roster, who was signed to the San Francisco 49ers practice squad. The Wildcats of course lost one of their most prestigious alums in the NFL this offseason when Rob Gronkowski announced his retirement. The longest tenured NFL Wildcat is defensive lineman Earl Mitchell, who is preparing for his 10th professional season. Mitchell signed with the Seattle Seahawks this offseason, marking the fourth different team of his career. Brooks Reed, who is entering his ninth season, and Nick Foles, beginning his eighth NFL season, also both switched teams this offseason. Reed moved from the Atlanta Falcons to the Arizona Cardinals, while Foles, a former Super Bowl MVP, moved from Philadelphia to Jacksonville. Reggie Gilbert was traded from Green Bay to Tennessee last month and has been reunited with former Wildcat teammate Dane Cruikshank, who is in his second season with the organization.

"DT": The Arizona Wildcats will honor legendary coach Dick Tomey throughout the season in a variety of ways. That will include wearing a "DT" sticker on their helmets to recognize Arizona's all-time winningest coach. The Wildcats wore the sticker in the season opener against Hawai'i and again in the home opener against NAU. It's a black circle sticker with a white border that says DT in the middle in white lettering. Tomey's family was on hand for Arizona's game against NAU and participated in the pregame coin toss, along with University President, Dr. Robert C. Robbins and the game's honorary captain. The Tomey family also received a helmet during an in-game presentation, along with a video tribute to the late coach. Arizona will also honor Tomey later in the season for its Homecoming game against Oregon State.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Khalil Tate threw for career-high 350 yards and five touchdowns after setting an FBS rushing record against Colorado a year ago, lifting Arizona to a 42-34 victory over the Buffaloes Friday night. Arizona (5-5, 4-3 Pac-12) struggled early while falling into a 10-0 hole, then scored on its next eight possessions.

Tate orchestrated the rally.

Arizona's junior quarterback ran all over Colorado a year ago, setting an FBS record for a quarterback with 327 yards rushing. He beat the Buffaloes with his arm this time, completing 17 of 22 passes, including a pair of touchdowns to Shawn Poindexter.

J.J. Taylor provided balance to the Wildcats' offense, running for 192 yards on 40 carries to send Colorado (5-4, 2-4) to its fourth straight loss.

Steven Montez threw for 343 yards and three touchdowns, but had a late interception for the Buffaloes.

Arizona's offense stagnated early and Taylor lost a fumble at the Wildcats' 7-yard line, setting up a field goal. Arizona also had a pair of miscues on special teams and K.D. Nixon scored on an 8-yard run to put Colorado up 10-0 after one quarter.

Once Tate got the Wildcats going, Colorado had a hard time stopping him.

He hit Stanley Berryhill III on a 40-yard touchdown pass, tossed a 1-yarder to Poindexter and 12 yards to Shun Brown for another score.

Two defensive breakdowns allowed Colorado to stay in it.

The first came when Montez caught Arizona on a blitz and found Kyle Evans on a 17-yard touchdown pass. Then Wildcats safety Jarrius Wallace missed on an interception attempt, clearing the way for Travon McMillian's 57-yard touchdown.

Lucas Havrisik hit a 55-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to put Arizona up 26-24.

Tate kept firing in the second half, hitting Poindexter on a 39-yard touchdown in the third, and Cedric Peterson on a 57-yard score in the fourth to put the Wildcats up 42-34.

Montez found Tony Brown on a 20-yard TD pass in the third, but threw an interception in the end zone with five minutes left.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Redshirt sophomore running back J.J. Taylor rushed for 192 yards on 40 carries in Friday night's win. It marked the third straight game Taylor has rushed for at least 150 yards. - Arizona scored 26 points in the second quarter Friday. That marked the highest single-quarter output in a conference game since the Wildcats scored 36 points in the fourth quarter against Cal in 2014 in a 49-45 victory.
- Arizona finished with five sacks in the win Friday night, marking a new season high. It's the first time Arizona has had five sacks since last season's 47-30 win over UCLA.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

1983-1986, Purdue, Linebacker

Kevin Sumlin, a three-time national Coach of the Year finalist, was named Arizona's 32nd head coach on Jan. 14, 2018. He was formally introduced at a press conference on Jan. 16.

Sumlin comes to Arizona after serving as the head football coach at Texas A&M University for six seasons (2012-17), compiling a 51-26 record including three bowl victories. He also served as the head coach at the University of Houston for four seasons (2008-11), amassing a 35-17 record. In his 11 seasons as a head coach, Sumlin has compiled an 91-50 record and his teams have played in bowl games in nine of those seasons.

During his time at Texas A&M, Sumlin averaged over eight victories per season and won at least seven games each year, while competing in what many believe to be the toughest division in college football, the SEC West. His 44 wins over his first five seasons in College Station marked the second-fastest coaching start in school history, behind R.C. Slocum's 49 wins from 1989-93. Sumlin was the first Aggie head coach to lead his first six teams to a bowl game, and Sumlin's teams improved the Aggies' school record streak of consecutive seasons with a bowl game appearance to nine. His three bowl victories are tied for the most in school history. In addition, Sumlin guided Johnny Manziel to a stellar freshman season that saw him throw for 3,419 yards and 24 TDs, while running for 1,181 yards and 19 TDs en route to the 2012 Heisman Trophy.

Sumlin was hired at Texas A&M after a successful stint as head coach at the University of Houston. His final Cougar squad set a school record with 13 victories (12 prior to Sumlin's departure to Texas A&M) in 2011 and notched the program's highest finish in the Bowl Championship Series standings. He was named the Region 5 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association that year and was one of five finalists for the AFCA's National Coach of the Year award. Sumlin guided the Cougars to berths in the 2011 Ticket Center Bowl and the 2008 and 2009 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowls.

Sumlin went to Houston after seven seasons as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator in the Big 12. He spent five seasons at the University of Oklahoma under head coach Bob Stoops, where he served as both the co-offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (2006-07) and special teams coordinator/tight ends coach (2003-05).

Before his arrival in Norman, Sumlin spent two seasons at Texas A&M under head coach R.C. Slocum, where he served as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Aggies (2001-2002).

Sumlin's coaching career has also seen stops at his alma mater Purdue (1998-2001), Minnesota (1993-97) and Wyoming (1991-92).

RECAP

HONOLULU, Hawai'i -- Cedric Byrd hauled in four touchdown passes to help Hawaii escape with a 45-38 win over Arizona Saturday.

The Rainbow Warriors (1-0) never trailed, saw three separate 14-point leads erased and overcame six turnovers to record their first win over the Wildcats (0-1) in six tries.

Byrd caught scoring passes of 7 and 25 yards in the first half and added TD grabs of 35 and 30 yards after halftime. He finished with career-highs of 14 receptions for 224 yards. Arizona evened the score at 35-all with Khalil Tate's 21-yard TD pass to Stanley Berryhill III late in the third quarter, but Hawaii took the lead for good on Ryan Meskell's 34-yard field goal with 10:39 left to play.

Tate passed for 361 yards and three touchdowns on 22-of-39 passing with two interceptions. He also rushed for a team-high 108 yards on 13 carries. Hawaii used two quarterbacks in the win. Starter Cole McDonald completed 29 of 41 passes for 378 and four touchdowns, but was intercepted four times. Chevan

Cordeiro replaced McDonald in the third quarter and finished 5 of 7 for 58 yards and a touchdown.

The Wildcats had a chance to tie on the final play, but Tate scrambled all the way to the Hawaii 1-yard line before he was tackled by Kalen Hicks and Manly Williams to end the game.

Jace Whittaker recorded two of Arizona's four interceptions.

Hawaii led 28-21 at halftime.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona: After just six carries for 16 yards in the first half, running back J.J. Taylor finished with 11 rushes for 75 yards and a touchdown. He ran for 1,434 yards as a sophomore last year, when he earned third team AP All-American honors. The Wildcats, who averaged 202.4 rushing yards per game in 2018, ran for 178 yards Saturday.

Hawaii: The Rainbow Warriors executed their lone punt of the night inside the game's final minute. Of their 14 total offensive possessions, six drives ended with a touchdown, six others in turnovers (four interceptions, two fumbles) and one field goal. They were 5 of 10 on third-down conversions and 2 of 3 on fourth downs.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Gary Brightwell ran for 141 yards and a touchdown on five carries, Khalil Tate accounted for three scores and Arizona bounced back from an opening loss by routing Northern Arizona 65-41 on Saturday night.

The Wildcats took it out on the Lumberjacks (1-1), scoring on their seven drives and racking up 517 yards while setting a school record for points in a half for a 51-13 halftime lead.

Arizona had 720 yards of total offense, 431 rushing. Brightwell scored on a 94-yard run, Darrius Smith scored twice, and J.J. Taylor ran for 102 yards and a touchdown.

Tate hit 14 of 17 passes for 138 yards and threw two touchdowns to Tayvian Cunningham before being replaced by Grant Gunnell with 7:56 left in the second quarter. Tate played two series in the third quarter before sitting for good.

Coming off an opening win against Missouri State, Northern Arizona had a few good offensive moments against Arizona, but dug too deep of an early hole to ever have much of a chance.

Case Cookus threw for 373 yards and two touchdowns with two interceptions for the Lumberjacks.

Arizona's onslaught started from the opening drive, when Tate hit Cunningham on a 47-yard score. Next series, Taylor broke free for a 49-yard run, then scored on a 25-yard burst up the middle.

Brightwell made it 21-0 midway through the first quarter, making one defender miss and racing past the rest on a 94-yard touchdown run, tied for second-longest in school history.

Tate went in untouched on a 1-yard run, then found Cunningham for a second time, on an 8-yard TD pass before heading to the bench.

Gunnell stepped in and threw TD passes on his first two collegiate drives, hitting Drew Dixon on a 9-yarder and Thomas Reid III on a 75-yarder. Gunnell added a 1-yard TD pass to Smith in the fourth quarter to put Arizona up 65-27.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Khalil Tate accounted for 314 yards and two touchdowns, Gary Brightwell capped a late 99-yard drive with his second touchdown run and Arizona grinded out a 28-14 win over Texas Tech Saturday night.

Arizona (2-1) hit a few chunk plays passing, but it was the ground game that made the difference.

The Wildcats ran for 314 yards and went 99 yards in 13 plays — all rushes — to set up Brightwell's second touchdown, a 1-yard run with four minutes left.

Tate scored on an 84-yard run and finished with 129 yards on 17 carries to help overcome three turnovers.

Arizona also bounced back from shaky defensive performances its first two games, keeping Texas Tech's vaunted passing game under control most of the night.

Alan Bowman threw for 311 yards and hit McLane Mannix on an 8-yard touchdown to put the Red Raiders (2-1) up 14-13 in the third quarter.

Arizona answered on the first play of the fourth quarter, going up 20-14 on Brightwell's 1-yard TD run. The Wildcats pounded out the victory after that with their 99-yard, all-run scoring drive.

Arizona's offense was sharp the first two games, averaging 629.5 yards and 51.5 points per game.

Texas Tech has had one of the nation's most prolific offenses since the Mike Leach days and won its first two games by a combined score of 83-13. The expected offensive showdown never really got going.

The Red Raiders and Wildcats had four turnovers in a span of five possessions in the first quarter: Two Bowman interceptions, a fumble and interception by Tate.

T.J. Vasher seemed to get Texas Tech going with a diving 39-yard catch, setting up SaRoderick Thompson's 1-yard TD run.

Darrius Smith jumpstarted Arizona by turning a screen pass into a 46-yard gain, setting the stage for Tate's 12-yard scoring pass to Stanley Berryhill III.

Tate followed with an 84-yard touchdown run, but the offenses went dormant again for the rest of the half.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- With his 129-yard rushing effort, Khalil Tate became just the second quarterback in Pac-12 conference history to throw for 5,000+ yards and rush for 2,000+ yards in their career. The first to accomplish the feat was Oregon's Marcus Mariota.
- Tate's night was highlighted by an 84-yard touchdown run, the longest rush of his career and the longest rush by a quarterback in school history. The 84-yard sprint is tied for the seventh-longest rush in Arizona history, matching Willi Hamilton's effort at Oregon on Sept. 16, 1972.
- The 14 points allowed by the Wildcats defense are the fewest allowed in a non-conference game since holding Northern Arizona to 13 in a 77-13 victory in 2013. Including bowl games, 14 points allowed by the Cats are the fewest for a non-Pac-12 power five team since Arizona surrendered just nine to Wisconsin in 2004.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Grant Gunnell threw for 352 yards and a touchdown and Arizona held on to beat UCLA 20-17 Saturday night after JJ Molson missed a 39-yard field goal in the closing seconds.

Arizona (3-1, 1-0 Pac-12) played without its two best offensive players with quarterback Khalil Tate and running back J.J. Taylor out due to leg injuries.

Gunnell had seen spot action earlier this season, but was making his first collegiate start. The freshman played like he had been the starter all along, playing with poise while completing 29 of 44 passes.

UCLA (1-4, 1-1) pulled off an epic comeback last week, rallying from 35 points down to beat Washington State. The Bruins needed another, not-so-monumental comeback after Gary Brightwell scored on a 10-yard run to put Arizona up 20-17.

Dorian Thompson-Robinson led the comeback against the Cougars, but left late in the third quarter after Arizona defensive end Jalen Harris fell on his left leg from behind.

His replacement, sophomore Austin Burton, had a chance when UCLA forced a punt and got the ball at its 9-yard line with 2:52 left.

Burton worked the Bruins down the field quickly to Arizona's 21-yard line, but Molson pushed his field goal attempt wide right with 34 seconds left.

UCLA saved its season and potentially coach Chip Kelly's job last week with its 67-63 comeback win over then-No. 19 Washington State.

Thompson-Robinson had a school-record 564 yards of offense while accounting for seven touchdowns and looked like he was going to slice right through Arizona's defense as well.

UCLA went 85 yards - 40 on Thompson-Robinson runs - in 12 plays on its opening drive and scored on Matt Lynch's 2-yard touchdown catch.

The Bruins sputtered after that, managing 100 yards the rest of the half.

Arizona was a little better at moving the ball - well, until it got to the red zone. The Wildcats crossed UCLA's 20-yard line three times in the first half and stalled each time, settling for two Lucas Havrisik field goals and another he missed.

Arizona didn't take long to get going in the second half, scoring on its first play when Darrius Smith took advantage of a breakdown in coverage by UCLA and streaked along the sideline alone for a 75-yard touchdown.

UCLA answered after Thompson-Robinson went down, scoring on a 3-yard run by Joshua Kelly after he broke off a 36-yard run to put UCLA up 17-13.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Arizona QB Grant Gunnell made his first collegiate start. The true freshman is the first Arizona QB to throw for over 300 yards in his first career start since Anu Solomon did it on 8/29/2014 against UNLV (425 yards). He finished 29-of-44 for 352 yards and one touchdown.
- For the first time since 2010, the Wildcats have held Power 5 opponents to 20 points or fewer in back-to-back games. In 2010 the Cats beat WSU 24-7 and UW 44-14.
- The Wildcats have now won two consecutive games after trailing entering the fourth quarter. Prior to those two games, Arizona had lost 24 straight games when trailing entering the final period.
