It's the 105th annual Homecoming Game for the Buffaloes; CU owns a 63-36-5 record in homecoming contests ... It's also Hall of Fame weekend, as the 15th class in CU's Athletic Hall of Fame be inducted Thursday evening, the first of several events for the group (more info, pages 3-5) ... Both teams are out of contention for their respective Pac-12 division titles, but remain alive for bowl eligibility; the Buffs have lost five straight games, while the Cardinal won its last time out and in three of the its last four ... Stanford leads the series, 6-4, (3-1 since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011); the Buffs won the last meeting in 2016 by the unusual score of 10-5 (one of two – and the last – Pac-12 games where CU has not allowed a touchdown) ... The Buffs are 63-24 against unranked teams in November dating back to 1985 ... Colorado has allowed at least 30 points in all nine games this season (1r in a row dating back to last year), while scoring 30 in five of the nine (and seven of the 14) ... The Buffs are coming off a 31-14 loss at UCLA last Saturday night; the Bruins zoomed to a 17-0 lead just 11-plus minutes in, forcing CU to play catch-up. UCLA held the Buffs to a season-low 283 yards on offense, as well the low in time of possession (25:33) ... Stanford had last weekend off after defeated Arizona at home, 41-31 (which included a wild first that had the Cardinal ahead, 31-24); UA outgained the Cardinal, 495-472. It was one of 11 games (out of 31) in the Pac-12 where both teams have scored 30 points ... Following the Stanford game, the Buffs will have their second bye week of the season before hosting Washington in the home finale on Nov. 23 ... CU is 1-4-2 in home "doubleheaders" in the Pac-12 (one sweep, four splits and swept twice) ... STAT OF THE WEEK

Third Down Successes. Colorado has been fairly proficient on third downs this season, especially when it comes to third-and-short (third-and-four or less). The Buffaloes are 38-of-55 in such situations, which translates to a 69.1 percent conversion rate (CU is 28-of-37 on third-and-three or less, 75.7 percent, and has earned a first down 10 of 12 times on third-and-one). Against UCLA, the Buffs converted all five times when faced with third-and-four or less. When CU has called a running play on third or fourth down, it has converted 33 of 45 times (73.3 percent), with WR Laviska Shenault leading the way (8-of-8), followed by TB Jaren Mangham (10-of-12) and TB Alex Fontenot (9-of-13).

OBSCURE NOTE(S) OF THE WEEK

Defensive Pearls. While the Buffaloes have taken their lumps defensively this season, there are some positives when looking deep into the numbers:

- ▶ Opponents have started 14 drives in CU territory, but have just converted those into nine scores (seven touchdowns);
- ▶ Of 31 penetrations of the CU 20 (red zone), the enemy has just 21 touchdowns (67.9 percent);
- ▶ Opponents have not converted on third down beyond 10 yards (0-of-11) and the Buffaloes have 11 third down sacks this season (opponents have just five).

CU TO INDUCT 10 NEW MEMBERS INTO ITS ATHLETIC HALL-OF-FAME

The 15th class that will be inducted into the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame this Thursday (Nov. 7) features 10 Golden Buffalo legends who are representative of five different sports, along with a trailblazer in administration, all of whom have their special place in history that collectively covers over a century of CU athletics. The 10, two of whom will be honored posthumously, cover a period starting in the 1890s through the 2000s. A pair earned their way into the Hall through coaching, one of whom has the stadium named for him, another through both playing and coaching and a fourth who was the first of just two women's athletic directors in school annals. Two cross country and track stars, two skiers and two football players, one of whom also played baseball, round out the class.

The 2019 class brings the total to 122 members (plus the '59 ski team, CU's first national champions) in the CU Athletic HOF since its inception in 1998 (15 have been honored previously after their deaths). Athletic director Rick George personally notified all nine living members of the upcoming class of their impending induction, as well as the next of kin for the deceased inductee, the legendary coach Fred Folsom. This year's inductees:

Gary Barnett, Football Coach (1983-91; 1999-2005)

Barnett was named the 22nd head coach in CU's football history in January 1999, and would go on to compile a 49-38 record over seven seasons (1999-2005), leading the Buffaloes to the 2001 Big 12 Conference championship, four Big 12 North Division titles (2001-02-04-05) and five bowl games (1999 Insight, 2002 Fiesta, 2002 Alamo, 2004 Houston, 2005 Champ Sports) ... CU appeared in four Big 12 championship games, winning the '01 affair in a thrilling 39-37 verdict over No. 3 Texas in Irving, Texas (essentially a road game); that had followed one of the biggest wins in school history, a 62-36 thrashing of No. 2 Nebraska in Boulder the previous week (NU was actually No. 1 in the BCS Standings at the time) ... He was the Big 12's Coach of the Year in both 2001 and 2004 ... During his time, CU was 34-22 against Big 12 opponents, with the 14-2 mark over the 2001-02 seasons the fourth-best two-year record in the history of the league ... His 2001 team defeated five ranked teams, tying the school mark set three previous occasions ... CU finished No. 9 in polls in 2001, and No. 20 (Associated Press) and No. 21 (USA Today/Coaches) in 2004; in 2001, the Buffs just missed by percentage points of finishing second in the BCS Standings which would have earned them a berth in the BCS title game ... During his tenure, nine Buffaloes earned first-team All-America honors, while on 22 occasions his players earned first-team All-Big 12 accolades ... His first stint with CU was as an assistant coach from 1984-91, where in those eight seasons the Buffaloes compiled a 59-34-2 record, won three Big Eight Conference titles and were the 1990 national champions ... He coached the running backs in his first season, and then would tutor the quarterbacks and fullbacks over the next seven years, also serving as CU's offensive coordinator in his final year (1991) before he was named head coach at Northwestern, where he compiled a 35-45-1 record over seven years, but would coach the Wildcats to Big Ten titles in 1995 and 1996 and berths in the Rose and Citrus bowls (NU had not been to a bowl since 1949) ... The near-unanimous choice for National Coach of the Year in 1995 ... He owned an 8-11-1 record as head coach of Fort Lewis (Durango, Colo.) prior to joining the CU staff ... After his coaching career, he became an analyst on national radio for assorted national games of the week, developing quickly into one of the best in the business ... He was inducted into the Northwestern Athletic Hall of Fame in 2015 ... He was born May 23, 1946 in Lakeland, Fla., he is currently in his fourth year as the color analyst for CU football games on the CU Football Radio Network (and has coached in or broadcast 241 CU games through last Saturday).

Jenny (Barringer) Simpson, Cross Country & Track (2005-09)

Lettered four times each in cross country, indoor and outdoor track from 2005-09 ... The fourth to be inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame in their first year of eligibility ... At Colorado, she earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team and two U.S. IAAF Championship teams ... Was a seven-time All-American (four in outdoor track, two in cross country, one indoor), which included four NCAA Individual titles (three in the steeplechase and one in the indoor 3,000-meter run); that is tied for the most in school history in any sport ... Was a 12-time All-Big 12 honoree (nine track, three cross country) and was a seven-time all-region performer (four track, three cross country) ... Led CU to three Big 12 cross country titles with runner-up finishes as a freshman, sophomore and junior (2005-06-07); she claimed the individual title as a senior in 2009 when the Buffs finished second ... Set the American record in the 3,000-meter steeplechase (9:12.50) ... Won three international meets (two in the steeplechase, one in the 5,000-meter run) while racing in a CU uniform ... Set collegiate records in the indoor mile (4:25.91), 3,000-meter run (8:42.03) and the 5,000 (15:01.70), as well outdoors in the 1,500-meter run (3:59.90), steeplechase (9:25.54) and 5,000 (15:07.64) ... Also set seven CU school records and set numerous stadium records across the nation ... Her times in the indoor 3k and 5k were the fifth fastest in the world during the 2009 season (first and second, respectively, by an American) and her mile was the fastest of the year ... At the time, she became the third fastest U.S. woman in the 1,500 at the Prefontaine Classic (3:59.90) ... Won a pair of USATF Outdoor Championships, both in the steeplechase ... CU's Co-Female Athlete of the Year for 2006-07 and solo recipient for 2008-09 (just the second to be honored twice at the time in 25 years of the award) ... She has gone on to have an outstanding professional career: A three-time Olympian (2008-12-16), twice as a professional, and won the bronze medal in the 1,500 in 2016; the women didn't compete in the 1,500 until the 1972 Olympics, and she became the first American woman to medal when doing so in the event in Rio de Janeiro (the 12th Olympiad with the event for women) ... Has won four USATF Indoor titles and has claimed seven USATF Outdoor championships ... Also the 2011 World Champion (1,500) and 2014 Diamond League Champion (1,500) ... Was the 1,500-meter runner-up at the 2013 and 2017 World Championships ... Set the American outdoor 2-mile record (9:16.78) and the indoor 2-mile record (9:18.35) ... Was also a part of the American record setting Distance Medley Relay ... Born August 23, 1986 in Webster City, Iowa, and graduated from Oviedo (Fla.) High School, where she was an eight-time state champion (five track, three cross country).

Brian Cabral, Football (Player & Assistant Coach; 1989-2012)

A Colorado Buffalo to the core, as he was a three-year letterman in football (1975-77) and an assistant coach for 24 seasons, 23 of which were full-time (1990-2012) ... Those 23 years as a full-time assistant rank as the most in CU history, not only for football but for all sports, as he passed the previous record holders (two legendary "Franks," Potts and Prentup, both of whom assisted Buff head football coaches for 18 seasons) ... In his tenure, he held various other titles, including interim head coach, associate head coach, assistant head coach and defensive run game coordinator and is currently serving as the team's "character coach" ... He first joined the Buffalo staff as graduate assistant in 1989 ... He always coached the inside linebackers, and occasionally had the outside 'backers under his direction as well ... He also coached the punt return unit (1999-2005) served as the director of CU's summer football camps (1995-2005) and for a brief time as recruiting coordinator ... He worked under five head coaches during his tenure: Bill McCartney, Rick Neuheisel, Gary Barnett, Dan Hawkins and Jon Embree (for all seven seasons under Barnett, Cabral also was the assistant head coach) ... He twice served as interim head coach, for a three-month period in the spring of 2004 and for the final three games of 2010 (CU was 2-1 under his direction) ... He coached three first team All-Americans: Jordan Dizon (Butkus Award runner-up), Roman Hollowell (punt returner) and Matt Russell (Butkus Award winner), seven All-Big Eight/12 performers and 10 NFL players and/or draft picks, including another Butkus runner-up in Ted Johnson ... Among other position players he recruited to CU were tailback Rashaan Salaam, the 1994 Heisman trophy winner, and Chris Naeole, a 1996 All-American guard ... His players through the years registered over 6,000 tackles ... He began his coaching career at Purdue as the inside linebackers coach for two seasons (1987-88), and was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for four years (2013-16) at Indiana State after leaving CU ... As a player under Coach Bill Mallory, he recorded 297 tackles in his CU career (120 solo), a number that still has him tied for 18th on Colorado's all-time list (a unique fact is that he coached 10 of the other 19 players in CU's all-time top 20, including eight players on the list ahead of him) ... He was a captain and played a big role on CU's Big Eight champion team in 1976, and led CU with 13 tackles (12 solo) in the 1977 Orange Bowl against Ohio State ... As a senior, he was honored as the Big Eight Conference's player of the week for a monster 25 tackles (13 solo) in a CU 27-21 win over Stanford (it is still tied for the fourth most in a single game in CU history) ... He holds the record for the most CU games coached and/or played in, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 (the last 294 in a row) ... He was a nine-year NFL veteran, as Atlanta drafted him in the fourth round in 1978 ... He played two seasons with Atlanta, one with Green Bay and six with Chicago ... He was selected as the Frito-Lay Unsung Hero in the Bears' 45-10 win over New England, as he had two solo and two assisted tackles on special teams ... He coached (14) or played in (two) a total of 16 bowl games in his collegiate career ... Was a founding board member of the Polynesian Coaches Association, formed in 2007 ... A 1978 CU graduate, as he earned a B.S. degree in therapeutic recreation ... Active in CU's alumni organization, Buffs4Life, which helps former Buffs in need ... Born June 23, 1956, in Fort Benning, Ga., but grew up in Kailua, Hawai'i ... A longtime active member in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and authored a book, Second String Champion.

Fred Folsom, Football Coach (1895-99, 1901-02, 1908-15)

The University of Colorado began its varsity football program in 1890, and went without a head coach for the first four years in its history, relying on team captains to guide the team ... Harry Heller was CU's first official head coach, but he would lead the team for just one year (1894) ... CU's 1895 captain, William Caley, formed a group to find CU's second coach and quickly zeroed in on Fred Folsom ... Fred Gorham Folsom was a 21-year old pre-law graduate from Dartmouth College, where he was an outstanding football and baseball player. Considered the finest end to play at Dartmouth to that point, he had led the Big Green to two straight league championships as a player-coach, a position which was common prior to the 20th century ... One problem, though, was the fact that Folsom was ticketed for the University of Michigan, where he planned on enrolling in law school; CU assured him that he could do both, attend law school and coach the Silver & Gold (one of CU's early nicknames, though the football teams of that era actually wore red jerseys and stockings) ... His love for the game of football won out and he headed west ... It was one of the first turning points in CU history, as landing Folsom immediately led to the program becoming a regional power ... Folsom would put permanent roots in Colorado, sans a short time when he returned to coach his alma mater (1903-06, where his teams were 29-5-4), as he became a leader in athletic, university, legal, civic and state affairs until his death in 1944 (that same year, Colorado Stadium, which had been built to replace Gamble Field in 1924, was named for him) ... Accounts referred to him as being a stern disciplinarian when it came to football, one who could install his schemes quickly and constantly tweaked them with innovative plays from his creative football mind ... Away from football, one of his trademarks was possessing a keen sense of humor ... Folsom coached CU for 15 seasons (still a school record), compiling a 77-23-2 record in three different stints as head coach (1895-99, 1901-02, 1908-15), winning nine conference championships in outscoring opponents by 1,813-555 ... His 77 wins stood as the most in school history for 78 years, until Bill McCartney surpassed the total in his next to last season (1993) ... He also coached CU's baseball team over the 1898-99 seasons, his squads going 6-6 ... Folsom earned his law degree from Colorado in 1899 and eventually taught at CU's law school for nearly four decades (earning a chair on CU's faculty), and had a distinguished career as a jurist ... In many photos, Folsom wore a signature "D" lapel pin, honoring his alma mater from which he graduated in 1895 ... He was born in Old Town, Maine, on November 9, 1873 and passed away on November 11, 1944 at the age of 71.

Bruce Gamble, Skiing (1975-78)

He lettered four times on the ski team from 1975-78 under head coach Bill Marolt ... He was a member of the four straight NCAA championship teams, the final four of seven straight under Marolt (one of seven CU skiers to be at least a three-time All-American and compete on four national title squads, and just one of three American-born skiers to do so) ... A three-time All-American (first-team as a sophomore and senior, second-team as a junior) ... As a senior in '78, he received the team's Buddy Werner Award as CU's most outstanding skier ... At the NCAA championships, he placed third in giant slalom in 1976 and second in the slalom in 1978; was fifth in the giant slalom in 1977 (he scored points for the team in all for NCAA events he skied in) ... In the '76 GS, he skied last for CU as he excelled in the icy conditions and Marolt knew he'd be up to the challenge; same icy conditions existed in '78 (both meets were held back east when ice was, and is, fairly common ... Had numerous top 10 finishes in his collegiate career ... He skied professionally for one year while he finished his degree in Communications at CU ('79) ... Marolt is on record for saying, "From his first team meeting, I knew he would be a difference maker. He was enthusiastic and excited about being at CU and over the next four years he became a loyal and proud member of the team." ... He has been an ardent supporter of the CU athletic department since his graduation, particularly with the school's Ski Ball event, the annual fundraiser for the ski team (the oldest fundraising event in the department, dating back over five decades); he served as chairman for three years (2015-16-17), setting a new record for funds raised each year ... The Ski Ball not only provides financial support to the men's and women's teams, it has served as an annual alumni event bringing back to campus many former skiers every year ... He is also an annual donor to the Buff Club, a season ticket holder in multiple sports and along with his wife, Becky (Callan, a former CU tennis player), donated the "seed" money to help create the department's Leadership Program for the benefit of CU's student-athletes ... Bruce and Becky were recognized as CU's athletic donors of the year for 1997 ... He also coordinated with his teammates to launch the Bill Marolt Scholarship Endowment Fund ... He was born July 18, 1955 in Decatur, Ill., and graduated from the Holderness School in Plymouth, N.H. ... Son Beau lettered in basketball at CU (member of CU's Pac-12 tournament champion team in 2012; three trips to the NCAA's) and daughter Berkley played one year on the soccer team ... Currently employed by Dean Callan & Company (Boulder) in the investment real estate business.

Barry Helton, Football (1984-87)

Lettered four times under head coach Bill McCartney from 1984-87 ... Recruited as both a quarterback and punter, but when CU moved to the wishbone on offense, he concentrated solely on punting duties, which eventually led to him being selected as a two-time, consensus first-team All-American as a sophomore in 1985 and junior in 1986 (including by the top two selectors, the Associated Press and United Press International) ... He was an honorable mention choice by UPI his senior year in 1987, which to this day makes him one of just two players to earn some level of All-American three times ... A three-time first-team All-Big Eight performer (1985-86-87), one of six three-time, first-team all-conference players in school history... As a sophomore, he averaged 46.0 yards for 52 punts (13 inside-the-20, 17 of 50 yards or longer); as a junior, he owned a 45.6 average for 57 punts (17 inside-the-20, 20 of 50-plus), and a senior, he averaged 44.0 yards for 40 punts (13 inside-the-20, six of 50 yards or more) ... His averages his sophomore and junior years still rank among the top seven single-season averages in school history ... A member of the Big Eight All-Decade team (1980-89) ... Selected as an honorable mention member on CU's All-Century team in 1989 ... His career average yards per punt (44.92) ranked as the best in school history from the time of his graduation until 2002 and still ranks second (43 of his 153 career punts went for at least 50 yards, with a career long of 68 yards) ... Owner of perhaps the most unique of all records at CU: Longest Punt with Non-Kicking Foot; he booted one 51 yards left-footed against Oklahoma State in 1985 ... His 44 career punts inside-the-20 tied for the second most in CU annals at the time (still ranks fifth), and his 43 career kicks over 50 yards set a record that lasted for six years ... He did throw four passes in his career, completing one for 17 yards ... A fourth round pick by San Francisco in the 1988 NFL Draft (102nd overall) ... Played in 50 career NFL games with San Francisco (1988-90) and the Los Angeles Rams (1991) ... Averaged 38.9 yards for 213 pro punts ... He won two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco (1988, 1989) ... In 2012, he was inducted into the Colorado Springs Sports Hall of Fame ... One of 26 players to have his jersey honored and name hung in Folsom Field ... As a quarterback for Simla High School, he led his team to three straight state titles (1980-82) in Colorado's 8-man division ... He improved his punting skills the summer prior to his sophomore year by practicing daily with his parent's on the family's eastern Colorado ranch ... He was born January 2, 1965 in Colorado Springs ... Owner and proprietor of Helton Auto Inc., in Colorado Springs and coaches youth sports in his spare time.

Ed Pudlik, Football & Baseball (1946-49)

He earned first-team All-Big 7 honors as a junior in 1948, Colorado's first year in the conference (one of just two players to make the first team) ... He played right end in the platoon era, and was one of the top receivers in the league on offense, catching 12 passes for 238 yards (19.8 per) and five touchdowns ... He was the team captain as a senior in 1949 ... Freshmen were allowed to play at the time due to World War II, and he would start all four years at end on both offense and defense during the platoon era ... At 6-0, 195, he was known for the big play during his CU career, as he caught 24 passes for 503 yards and nine touchdowns, the first player in school history to average over 20 yards per catch (21.0) and still one of just nine in school history to do so with at least 20 career receptions ... His nine TDs set a school record that stood for just four years, but would remain the second-most for 41 seasons (and are still tied for 17th) ... He scored 11 touchdowns overall and made 21-of-27 PAT kicks for 87 total points, which were the second only to Byron White at the time of his graduation and still tied for 53rd all-time ... Top game statistically came in a 27-13 loss at Missouri his junior year, when he caught five passes for 103 yards and two scores (and the one PAT kick for all of CU's points) ... He was a pitcher on CU's baseball team, and known for his fastball ... Had a 1-1 record in 1948, CU's first year in the Big 7 ... Pitched a complete game win against Iowa State in '49, striking out six, as CU's 6-4 upset win knocked the Cyclones out of the league lead on the next to last day of the season ... Turned down a $6,000 contract to sign with the Baltimore Colts in 1950 to go into dairy farming ... For years, he owned Colorado's largest private dairy farm (Eagle Dairy) on Highway 93 just outside of Golden ... He prepped at Denver North High School and was an All-State performer in football and baseball (many referred to him as the most dominant pitcher in the state as a prep) ... Followed his older brother John to CU (who once owned The Sink on the Hill) ... He was drafted into the U.S. Army out of high school and served two years in Europe, where he began his tour shortly after D-Day in 1944; he enrolled at CU upon his return ... He passed away from complications due to leukemia on March 30, 1999 at the age of 72.

Daniel Reese, Cross Country & Track (1982-87)

Colorado has become known in recent years as “Steeplechase U,” but the roots of such can be traced back to Daniel Reese, who ran cross country and track at CU in lettering four times from 1982-87 ... He ran his first steeplechase in the spring of 1983, and it immediately became his main (and signature) event; he never missed a track season from the time he was in 8th grade until the last of his three Olympic Trials in 1996 ... He would compete in the steeplechase for 14 straight seasons, including 12 consecutive USA Track & Field championships, and in over 100 steeplechase races, believed to be among the most in the sport ... The 1982 Big Eight Conference Newcomer of the Year in cross country, he was a team captain his junior and senior years (1984, 1985), when he earned first-team All-America honors; he finished 15th individually in the '85 NCAA Championships in Milwaukee, Wis., leading CU to its best national finish at the time (third) ... Placed 27th the previous year when CU was 21st ... First set a CU record in the 3,000-meter steeplechase in 1984, and eventually would post the top 10 times in school history in the event by the end of his career ... The 1987 Big Eight Conference champion in the steeplechase (8:51.71 time) ... He had set a record time of 8:37.10 at the 1987 NCAA Championships in June only to be disqualified (officials said he impeded another runner on a water jump; appeal was denied); that motivated him for USA Track & Field Championships in San Jose later that month where he ran an 8:34.94 in finishing 10th (the fourth collegian) ... That is still the fifth-best time ever at Colorado some three decades later, as only two performers have posted faster times than him (Steve Slattery and Billy Nelson) ... After graduating from CU in 1987 with a degree in Psychology, he went on to have an outstanding professional career, beginning with a fourth place effort in the steeplechase at the 1988 USA Track & Field Championships in Tampa, Fla. ... He earned an annual top 10 national ranking in the United States for an eight-year span (1988-95) as voted by the Track & Field News, topped by a No. 3 rank in 1993 ... He was a three-time qualifier for the Olympic Trials in the steeple (1988, 1992, 1996) ... In all, he was a member of 12 U.S. National teams, including two World Cup, two Pan American and one World Cross Country teams ... He was the third American to cross the finish line in the 1991 World Cross Country Championships in Antwerp, Belgium (78th overall, U.S. finished 10th), finished fifth in the 3,000-meter steeplechase in the Pan American Games in Havana in 1991 and was the bronze medalist in the steeple at the 1995 Pan American Games in Argentina ... He served as head cross country and track coach at Wheat Ridge High School from 1988-96, where he coached Rebekha McDowell, the first Colorado High School athlete to win four consecutive state cross country titles, and his younger brother, Tom, who was a three-time state champion and future three-time All-American at Colorado ... He graduated from Wheat Ridge, where he was the 1982 state champion in the 3,200 and a two-time runner-up in the state cross country meet ... He thrives on giving back to the sport and has helped mostly local student-athletes find a destination in college whereby they can continue to pursue their passion of the sport while getting a great education ... The middle of three brothers who would compete at CU: Sam, Dan and Tom ... He was born October 15, 1963 in Salt Lake City (the family moved to Colorado when he was 6) ... He is currently the general manager of CanSource, a Boulder County-based company that works with craft beverage companies around the country in helping to showcase their brand by providing custom packaging solutions.

Jana (Rehema) Weinberger, Skiing (2003-06)

A five-time first-team All-American and two-time individual NCAA champion during her CU career (2003-06), she participated in 28 collegiate races, claiming 23 top five and 27 top 10 performances ... CU's Co-Female Career Athletic Achievement Award winner in 2005-06 ... Her most prolific season came as a senior in 2006, when she captained CU's national championship team; she opened with two runner-up finishes and then closed the year with six consecutive wins, including both the freestyle and classical titles at the RMISA Championships (NCAA West Regional) and the NCAA Championships ... As a senior, she was awarded the Dick Schoenberger Memorial Award, presented annually to CU's most outstanding skier ... When she earned a pair of All-America citations in 2004, she became just the sixth women's cross country skier to accomplish that feat and first since former teammate and former assistant coach Mari Storeng in 2001 ... She was also the recipient of the Outstanding Nordic Woman award in both 2003 and 2004 ... Born July 27, 1979 in Russia, she skied for the Tartu Ski Club in Estonia and also competed in basketball and track and field at Estonia Sport Gymnasium prior to attending Colorado ... As a senior, she was named to the prestigious National All-Academic Ski Team ... She began her coaching career in 2009 as CU's assistant Nordic coach, recently completing her 11th season – in her tenure, a total of 17 different CU skiers have won 86 races and she has coached 12 individual NCAA champions with 18 different Nordic skiers earning a combined 49 first-team All-America honors ... In July 2018, she was promoted to Head Nordic Coach upon the retirement of her college coach (Bruce Cranmer) ... She is married to former CU All-American and her predecessor as the assistant Nordic Coach, Dan Weinberger; the couple has three children.

Jane Wahl, Women's Athletic Director (1975-79)

Colorado's first women's athletic director (1975-79) ... Wahl was named the Coordinator of Women's Sports, under the direction of the CU Rec Center in 1974, and a year later, she was officially appointed the first Women's Athletic Director in CU history ... She would serve in that role from 1975-79 ... It was first solely a position within the rec center, then a hybrid position between the Rec Center and Athletic Department until all varsity sports came under one umbrella in the latter ... She was charged with hiring coaches for those club sports that would earn varsity status, working with those coaches and teams on all facets of their program, including budgets, scheduling and travel ... Title IX passed into law in 1972, with deadline in summer of 1978 for schools to comply or face the loss of federal funding; she was responsible with being the point-person to bring CU into compliance ... She worked to get Colorado membership in the AIAW (the women's version of the NCAA) and the Intermountain Conference, which had members in Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Arizona, Idaho and New Mexico ... Worked with men's A.D. Eddie Crowder to grow the women's budget from less than $100,000 when she took over to over four times that in 1978-79, when all the women's sports with varsity status were officially merged with the men's ... Left CU in 1979 to finish her doctoral degree, with her thesis on Title IX, where she examined the status of women's intercollegiate athletic programs nationwide following the passage of the law ... She was honored with the Sportswomen of Colorado's 2013 Dorothy Mauk Pioneer Award for her role in starting and advancing women's varsity athletics at Colorado ... Presented with CU's inaugural award named in her honor (Jane Wahl Legacy Award) in 2014, presented to a member of the CU women's basketball community, who through their achievements bring honor and recognition to the university and CU Athletics ... She is a native of Eustis, Neb., and grew up on a farm.

The group will officially be inducted in the Hall of Fame Thursday evening at a sold-out dinner ceremony at the CU Events Center, will be featured in the Pearl Street Stampede parade Friday night and will be introduced at halftime of Saturday's CU-Stanford game. All inductees were nominated by their peers in the Alumni C-Club or by members of the selection committee; over 40 names were originally submitted and were pared to 26 semifinalists. An athlete must be at least 10 years removed from their CU career and retired from professional sports (teams) to be considered for induction. With an induction every year instead of on a biennial basis as was the case for the first 16 years of the Hall, CU has been able to get more of those who are deserving of the recognition honored in a shorter time span with larger induction classes.

DID YOU KNOW? That CU's inaugural Athletic Hall of Fame class included just one inductee? In 1998, the late Byron “Whizzer” White was the sole former Buff enshrined; he is still, to this day, considered CU's greatest all-around athlete. He was also in the first class of the state's Hall of Fame class in 1965, and was CU's first to be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954 – its second class.

STARTERS IN 2019

Colorado's rash of injuries have led to the Buffaloes being 13th in the nation for the number of different players who have started this season. Through nine games, CU has seen 38 different players start on offense (17) and defense (21). A look at the national leaders:

BYU	46	West Virginia	40	Colorado	38	Stanford	35
Old Dominion	46	Akron	39	N.C. State	38	Maryland	34
Tennessee	42	Fresno State	39	Georgia Tech	37
Massachusetts	41	Oregon State	39	Arkansas State	36
New Mexico	41	Wyoming	39	Florida State	36
Houston	40	Troy	39	TCU	36

SEASON TICKET SALES UP NEARLY 6 PERCENT

CU sold 20,414 public season tickets for the 2019 season, an increase of 1,130 (or 5.9 percent) over 2018. While not cracking the top six in season-to-season ticket increases in school history, there is some significance to the additional sales: the last time CU hired a new head coach and season ticket sales increased (without some major reduced pricing) was in 1974. There were 27,996 season ticket holders in 1973, Eddie Crowder's last year as head coach, and that number jumped to 29,260 for 1974 when Bill Mallory took over; sales declined, slightly for the most part, for six of the seven head coaches in-between Mallory and Mel Tucker (the exception was in 2011; Jon Embree took over as coach, but sales got bumps from joining the Pac-12, hosting Oregon and USC and a special $120 season ticket price). Here are the largest season ticket increases in school history since records are available dating back to World War II:

10,885	27,989	(1972)	17,104	(1971)	3,865	31,331	(1976)	27,466	(1975)
6,963	26,331	(1990)	19,368	(1989)	2,798	19,083	(1986)	16,285	(1985)
5,534	25,172	(2011)	19,638	(2010)	2,797	20,808	(2017)	18,011	(2016)

ATTENDANCE UPDATE

The attendance of 48,913 for the Southern California game pushed the season number to 203,593 for four games, including two sellouts (against Nebraska and Arizona State; the last time CU exceeded 200,000 for its first four home games was in 2011 (203,666), CU's first year in the Pac-12. The Buffaloes are at 101.4 percent of capacity at this point, one of the top figures nationally (CU's final season ticket count for the year was 20,414, while students purchased the full allotment of 12,254 sport passes).

COLORADO & HOMECOMING

Colorado is 63-36-5 in 104 previous homecoming games, but is 6-13 since reeling off 16 straight wins in homecoming tilts from 1984 through 1999; the Buffs have won two of the last three, dropping last year's in overtime to Oregon State, 41-34. The Buffs snapped an 8-game losing streak in homecoming affairs with a 40-16 romp over Arizona State in 2016, and then sent the alums home happy last year with a 44-28 win over Cal. Though Family Weekend has really supplanted Homecoming as the bigger draw, there have been some memorable Homecoming highlights through the years. Here's a quick look:

MEMORABLE HOMECOMING GAMES — A few homecoming games that have stood out over the years: 1953—The Buffs win a wild one over Iowa State, 41-34, as Carroll Hardy's 17-yard run with 1:22 left rallies the Buffs from a 28-13 deficit, CU's largest rally ever on homecoming and the fifth biggest comeback in school history; 1967—The first homecoming game that featured Ralphie leading the team out on to the field, Oklahoma State dealt the No. 3-ranked Buffs a 10-7 defeat. 1981—Perhaps the greatest comeback in school history, as the Buffs rally for an 11-10 win over Oklahoma State—after facing a second-and-14 from its own 4 with just over a minute left in the game. CU drives for the score to pull to within 10-9, and then Steve Vogel connects with Derek Singleton for the 2-point play and the win; it would be the last time Singleton touches the ball for the Buffs, as he falls ill to spiral meningitis the following Friday and passed away on New Year's Day, 1982; 1991—CU wins for just the second time wearing all-black uniforms, trouncing Missouri 55-7 as the Buffs have had enough of the "Fifth Down" talk from the previous year's game in Columbia; 1995—The Buffs top Missouri 21-0, in the only game in the last 50 years really affected by Boulder's notorious winds, which whipped up to 70 miles per hour that day; 1998—CU rallied to beat Baylor, 18-16, as the No. 15 Buffaloes led most of the game until the Bears took a 16-15 lead with 6:31 remaining; a 31-yard Jeremy Aldrich field goal at the 2:00 mark would win it; 2001—CU topped Texas A&M 31-21, and the Buffs may have had a little help from above in that one, as Joey Johnson returned a fumble 52 yards for a touchdown with 58 seconds left to thwart A&M's attempt to tie or win the game. Occurring one day after long-time athletic department staffer Fred Casotti had passed away at the age of 77, the coaches made reference to maybe Fred having something to do with the timely fumble from the heavens. 2002—CU surprises No. 13 Kansas State, 35-31, going up big early and then staving off a furious Wildcat rally. The game featured the school's longest pass play ever, a 94-yard bomb from Robert Hodge to Jeremy Bloom. 2007—Trailing 24-7 against No. 3 Oklahoma midway through the fourth quarter, Colorado tied the school's fourth largest comeback in its history by scoring the final 20 points of the game, the last three coming on Kevin Eberhart's 45-yard field goal as time expired. 2014—The Buffs trailed UCLA, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter but mounted a furious rally to send the game into overtime. CU and the Bruins traded field goals in the first extra session, but the Buffs couldn't get it into the end zone in the second OT, whereas UCLA did to escape Boulder with the win. 2016—Were the Buffs, at 4-2, for real? A 40-16 pasting of Arizona State confirmed so as CU outgained ASU 580-199, which included 315 yards and five touchdowns rushing.

TURNING BACK THE CLOCK: A SPECIAL HOMECOMING IN 1946

In 1946, the homecoming game against New Mexico (a 14-13 CU win before 17,000) featured a halftime ceremony where CU President Robert Stearns announced the official naming of the stadium in honor of the late Frederick Folsom, CU's all-time winningest coach at the time who helped develop the program at its infancy. The structure, now known as Folsom Field, had been known as Colorado Stadium since it debuted in October 1924. Mrs. Folsom accepted the honor on her husband's behalf, as he passed away two years earlier in 1944. A side note: Mrs. Folsom was also crowned the Homecoming Queen due to a scandal of ballot-box stuffing by the two Homecoming Queen candidates! The Folsom family papers are in the Special Collection section in Norlin Library. HOMECOMING EVENTS SET FOR THIS WEEKEND

A stampede, parade and pep rally are in store for the Boulder community beginning at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 8 — part of the University of Colorado Boulder Homecoming celebrations that will enliven the city throughout the weekend. Once again this year, which marks CU-Boulder's 105th Homecoming, the parade is being combined with the Pearl Street Stampede.

The 90th annual Alumni Awards Ceremony, honoring outstanding alumni, faculty, staff members and students, will be held in the Glenn Miller Ballroom at the University Memorial Center Thursday, Nov. 7. The event sold out fast, but walk-ups are welcome. Details and registration, which is free for students and $25 for campus and community members, are at <http://www.colorado.edu/alumni/events/annual-alumni-awards>.

For a complete list of all Homecoming activities and events as well as event registration, visit <http://www.colorado.edu/homecoming>.

An alumni note: PK Mason Crosby ('06) played in his 200th game in the National Football League in Kansas City on October 27; he has now appeared in 201, all with the Green Bay Packers. In the process, he became the second Buffalo to participate in 200 pro games, as he joined OT Stan Brock ('79) as the only Colorado alumni to play in 200; Brock was in 234 games in his career that spanned 16 seasons with New Orleans (1980-92) and San Diego (1993-95).

FIVE CU GAMES IN ESPN's TOP 150 ALL-TIME

ESPN has been doing all kinds of top lists commemorating the 150th anniversary of college football, and recently came out with its listing of the top 150 games. Five Buffalo games made the list (all wins); while we might not necessarily agree as in our opinion, the "Fifth Down" game could have been bumped for the 62-36 win over Nebraska in 2001, or the 21-21 tie with Oklahoma in 1952 (the Sooners' only blemish in Big 7 play). Five out of 150 is not too bad; those games:

No. 21	Ann Arbor	Sept. 24, 1994	#7 Colorado 27, #4 Michigan 26
No. 64	Miami	Jan. 1, 1991	(Orange Bowl) #1 Colorado 10, #5 Notre Dame 9
No. 87	Columbia	Oct. 6, 1990	#2 Colorado 33, Missouri 31
No. 123	Irving	Dec. 1, 2001	(Big 12 Championship) #9 Colorado 39, #3 Texas 37
No. 130	Boulder	Nov. 4, 1989	#2 Colorado 27, #3 Nebraska 21

Number one on the list? The true game of the century, Nov. 25, 1971, #1 Nebraska 35, #2 Oklahoma 31 in Norman, Okla.

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. STANFORD

Stanford leads the series by a 6-4 margin, as Colorado's 10-5 win on its way to the 2016 South Division title ended a five-game winning streak by the Cardinal in the series, which had dated back to 1991. Stanford owns a 3-1 edge with both as members of the Pac-12 Conference, which CU joined in 2011. The series dates back 115 years, to a Friday after Thanksgiving game in Denver in 1904, when the Cardinal left the state with a 33-0 whitewash of the Buffaloes. Otherwise, four of the next five games in the series were all decided by a touchdown or less until the first three Pac-12 league meetings, in which Stanford has outscored CU 138-17. Colorado won the first three games in Boulder, until Cardinal came to town in 2012 and won 48-0, ending a CU streak of 150 straight game it had scored in at home (and remains the only opponent shutout at Folsom Field in the last 33 years). Stanford captured the first three games in Palo Alto (including the first two played there in the early 1990s, the last two games in the series before the schools became conference mates). This will be only the fourth game of the series where neither team is ranked.

➔ CU's Mel Tucker has never coached against Stanford in his college career; Stanford's David Shaw is 3-1 against Colorado.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—Stanford was the opponent for CU's first-ever Thursday night game in Boulder (Sept. 6, 1990), and the Buffaloes battled back from a 14-0 and 17-14 deficits to win 21-17. Eric Bieniemy scored on fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line with 12 seconds remaining in the game to give CU the win after Stanford had retaken the lead with just over four minutes to play. It was CU's first of what would be 11 wins in its national championship season. As a freshman in 1987, Bieniemy rushed 14 times for 119 yards and a touchdown in CU's 31-17 win; it was his first of 22 career games where he would rush for 100 or more yards, still the school record. While some say it was controversial but replays showed Bieniemy scored, the football Gods helped Stanford in the '93 game (a 41-37 Cardinal win), when Stanford was awarded a touchdown on a Steve Stenstrom (the father of CU quarterback Blake) to Tony Cline 7-yard pass that Cline held on to for barely half a second before Dwayne Davis knocked the ball out of his grasp—no way a touchdown today with instant replay; however, had it been ruled incomplete, Stanford still had fourth down to run a play, trying to rally from a 37-27 deficit with four minutes left.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME—42nd. In 1977, the Buffs opened as the No. 12 team in the nation in the Associated Press poll, coming off winning the 1976 Big 8 Championship and defeated the Cardinal in a thriller in Boulder, 27-21. TB James Mayberry starred on offense (152 yards, 2 TD) and LB Brian Cabral on defense (25 tackles, 13 solo). Cabral also had an interception (in the end zone with CU leading, 20-14 midway through the fourth quarter) and two passes broken up in being named the Big 8 Conference's player of the week.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL NOTE / 2004

Fifteen years ago, the Buffaloes had an amazing November to rally and win the Big 12 North Division for the third time in four years. Entering the month, most had CU left for dead with a 1-4 league record after suffering back-to-back losses at Texas A&M (in overtime) and to Texas. But three division games remained against Kansas, Kansas State and Nebraska, though two were on the road. CU needed three straight wins (and a lot of other things to fall into place) to have a shot at the Big 12 North title, and got the first one in Lawrence, leaving town with a 30-21 win. The Buffs overcame four turnovers and just 253 yards on offense, but had return touchdowns from S Dominique Brooks (41 yard, fumble) and WR Stephone Robinson (48, punt) to bolster the effort. Next up was K-State in Boulder; the Wildcats never led, but tied the Buffs on three different occasions, the last at 31-31 with just 36 seconds left – overtime appeared inevitable. CU took over at its own 23, and after two incomplete passes, FB Lawrence Vickers dashed 13 yards up the middle for a first down at the CU 36 (we'll note an irony shortly). Sixteen seconds now remain, and QB Joel Klatt (pictured at right) unloaded a bomb to WR Ron Monteilh, who caught it at the KSU 23, eluded two defenders and raced into the end zone with five ticks to go, securing a 38-31 win for the Buffs (now, 10 years earlier, the “Miracle in Michigan” pass at the end of the game from Kordell Stewart to Michael Westbrook as time ran out covered – yep, 64 yards). On the final weekend of the season, Colorado needed to beat the Cornhuskers in Lincoln and then have Iowa State lose to Missouri the next day to win the division title. CU took care of business, zooming out to a 17-0 lead en route to a 26-20 win (NU scored late to make the game closer than it appeared). Klatt completed 18-of-29 passes for 222 yards and a touchdown, while TB Bobby Purify rushed for 130 yards and a touchdown with Vickers adding 71 as CU corralled the ball for 36:38. PK Mason Crosby hit four field goals and P John Torp placed three punts inside-the-20 to enable CU to win the special teams game. Less than 24 hours later, Mizzou won 17-14 in overtime in Ames and CU won the head-to-head tiebreaker with the Cyclones to claim the division and advance to the Big 12 title game against Oklahoma (in which a 42-3 loss soured the November rally).

IN THE ZONE: In CU's last 14 season openers (2006-19), the Buffaloes are 42-of-46 in the red zone (28 TDs, 14 FGs), including 36-of-38 against Colorado State (and one of the four misses was at Hawai'i in 2015 in a controversial ending when the Mountain West officials botched setting the ball as time ran out (CU was 2-of-4 in that game).

MUSIC IN HIS BLOOD: Assistant head coach Darrin Chiaverini has music in his blood, though not to the extent of his father, Eddie “Day” Chiaverini, who played the rhythm guitar for The Lively Ones, a rock and roll band in the early 1960s. One of their songs, Surf Rider, made the soundtrack of the 1994 blockbuster movie, Pulp Fiction, playing over the opening and closing credits. LAST TIME: COLORADO 10, STANFORD 5*OCTOBER 22, 2016*STANFORD STADIUM, PALO ALTO

PALO ALTO — Colorado's defense put forth a game for the ages, holding Stanford's offense to just three points as the Buffaloes punched out a 10-5 win over the Cardinal to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2007.

The Buffs, who produced four defensive takeaways, improved their record to 6-2 overall and 4-1 in Pac-12 play, matching their largest win total since 2007.

Stanford struck first with a 66-yard drive that produced a field goal with 2:33 left in the first half. Christian McCaffrey carried six times for 29 yards on the drive and Stanford converted two third downs on the march. CU finally held when Chidobe Awuzie forced an incompletion on third down and Stanford settled for a 3-0 lead — the only offensive points Stanford produced all afternoon.

Following punts from both teams, Colorado answered with a sustained scoring drive. The Buffs went 73 yards in nine plays, with Phillip Lindsay carrying three times for 23 yards, including a 19-yard burst. Sefo Liufau completed three passes for 36 yards on the drive, including a 15-yard scoring toss to Shay Fields. Chris Graham's PAT gave CU a 7-3 lead with 11:59 to go in the first half.

Lindsay proved to be an effective weapon for the Buffs all day. The CU junior outrushed his Stanford counterpart, finishing with 131 yards on 12 carries, compared to McCaffrey's 92 yards on 11 carries.

After its first touchdown, CU missed an opportunity for more points on its next possession. The defense forced its third Stanford three-and-out of the half and Colorado drove from its own 12 to the Stanford 22 before the drive stalled. The Buffs came away with no points when Graham, subbing for an ill Davis Price, was wide left on a 42-yard field goal try.

The Buffs' kicking woes struck again — twice — in the third quarter.

On their first possession of the second half, CU took the opening kick and drove inside the Stanford 5. But on second-and-goal from the 3, Liufau was sacked and Liufau threw incomplete on third down. Graham then attempted a 28-yard field goal and was again wide right and the score remained 7-3.

CU's defense then held Stanford on fourth down in CU territory, and the Buffs again drove to the Stanford 5-yard line. But a 5-yard touchdown pass from Liufau to Bryce Bobo was nullified by a pass interference penalty. Three plays later, the Buffs then sent punter Alex Kinney on to try a 31-yard field goal — and it was wide right and the score remained 7-3 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

After back-to-back three-and-outs, Stanford finally mustered a long drive, aided by a pair of penalties. The Cardinal moved from its own 34 to CU's 4-yard line. But on first-and-goal, Stanford's Ryan Burns fumbled the snap and CU's Kenneth Olugbode recovered. CU drove to its own 36 before stalling and a Kinney punt put the Cardinal at the Stanford 5-yard line with 8:36 to go.

CU's Tedric Thompson then recorded his second interception of the game and his 30-yard return gave the Buffs the ball on the Stanford 20. Colorado marched to the Stanford 5-yard line and the Buffs finally were successful on a field goal attempt as Graham was good from 23 yards out to give the Buffs a 10-3 lead.

Isaiah Oliver ended Stanford's final threat with an interception with 1:37 left. The Buffaloes, with not quite enough time to run out the clock, had to take a safety with :04 left, but the strategy worked perfectly after Graham's squib kick left Stanford only one desperation play from 82-yards out as time ran out.

GAME NOTES

Colorado improved to 6-2 overall and 4-1 in league play for the first time since the 2005 season (when CU opened 7-2 and 5-1, respectively, in the Big 12); the Buffs also became bowl-eligible for the first time since 2007 (Independence Bowl) ... Colorado took its first lead in the series (7-3 early in the second quarter) since holding a 37-34 lead late in the '93 game (a span of five games) ... The 10 combined first half points tied for the second-fewest in a game since CU joined the Pac-12 (league and non-league); CU trailed Washington at Boulder, 7-0, in an eventual 38-3 loss on Nov. 17, 2012; the Buffs led Utah, 10-0, at halftime in 2011 ... The 10 points CU scored was the fewest in winning a game since a 6-0 win at Missouri on Oct. 8, 1992 ... Colorado rushed for 224 yards (which included 29 lost yards to sacks); the Buffs had 122 against the Cardinal in the last three games combined ... The 359 yards of total offense was also a high against Stanford since joining the Pac-12 (topping 264, 76 and 231) ... This was the sixth time in school history the opponent scored 5 points in a game (5-1; the previous time prior to today was on Thanksgiving Day in 1907 (Nov. 28), a 5-4 loss to Colorado Mines in Denver ... CU snapped a 10-game losing streak in California, and is now 3-20-1; the Buffs also improved to 6-17 against the Pac-12 North since joining the league (3-0 this season) having beaten both Oregon schools and now Stanford (the fourth and final game is Nov. 19 vs. Washington State) ... The 2:58 game time was CU's fastest since 2013 (2:50 at Washington).

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 9

Colorado is 9-7 all-time on November 9, having won its last five times on the date. On the day that Mary Travers (Peter, Paul & Mary) and Lou Ferrigno (the Incredible Hulk) were born and NASA launched an unmanned Apollo 4 spacecraft, here's a brief look at some of the games played on the date: 1912—No accounts are available of CU's 3-0 win at Utah, the lowest scoring game in CU history that wasn't a scoreless tie (meaning no 2-0 affairs). 1929—The Buffs venture south to Golden and leave with a 13-9 win over Colorado Mines. 1935—Colorado edged Utah in Salt Lake City, 14-0, for its first win on the road in the series in 10 years; Kayo Lam (58-yard run) and Eddie Wagner (five yards) scored the Buff touchdowns. 1940—Missouri defeated CU in Boulder, 21-6, behind All-American quarterback Paul Christman. The '41 yearbook account: "Christman and company invaded Norlin Stadium and he punted, ran, called signals, wise-cracked and passed, oh how he passed, the Tigers to victory." 1946—A stifling Missouri defense held the Buffaloes to just 35 yards (on 39 plays), as the Tigers left Boulder with a 21-0 win. 1957—In what would be the next to last game in the series for a quarter century, the Buffs waltz out of Fort Collins with a 20-0 win over then-Colorado A&M. Bob Stransky, Eddie Dove and Gene Worden score touchdowns as CU outgains the Aggies, 348-88; it likely would have been worse had it not been for five Buff turnovers, four of which occurred in A&M territory. 1974—CU spotted Kansas a 13-0 lead, but rallied for a 17-16 win in Boulder. After Terry Kunz' 1-yard run knocked the deficit to 13-7, KU added a third straight field goal to go up 16-7 early in the fourth quarter. But Melvin Johnson took the ensuing kickoff and returned it 94 yards for a touchdown, and with 5:03 remaining, Tom MacKenzie made a 24-yard field goal for the winning points. The CU defense then took over, with Mike McCoy ending one drive with an interception and Troy Archer and Whitney Paul recording sacks to end the game. 1985—Colorado won a defensive battle at Kansas, as Dan McMillen recorded a still-CU record five quarterback sacks in the Buffaloes' 14-3 win in the cold and rain, with wind gusts up to 30 miles per hour. Mickey Pruitt scored CU's first TD on a 27-yard interception return on the third play of the game, and Mark Hatcher scored on a 5-yard run midway through the fourth quarter on a play set-up by a Ron Brown 41-yard run to seal the win. 1991—"We're gonna need another bus for coach Mac's b---," uttered redshirting freshman Bryan Stoltenberg, after Robbie James connected with Christian Fauria on a 20-yard touchdown pass on a fake field goal try with six seconds left in the game to rally No. 15 Colorado to a 16-12 over Oklahoma State in Stillwater. Tied 3-3 at the half in cold, light rain and gusting winds, Darian Hagan's 10-yard TD pass to Rico Smith gave the Buffs a 10-3 lead in the third quarter; OSU tied it up early in the fourth and then took the lead on a safety with 9:45 remaining. After a defensive stop deep in OSU territory, CU took over with just under two minutes to go at the Cowboys' 43; Hagan left the game with a sprained ankle and Vance Joseph, his replacement, completed a big 17-yard pass to James Hill on fourth down to set up the winning points, which came on a third down play. 1996—Koy Detmer threw for 401 yard and five touchdowns, with Rae Carruth catching six passes for 154 yards and three of those TDs and the No. 7 Colorado Buffaloes amassed 591 yards on offense in defeating Iowa State, 49-42. Iowa State's Troy Davis rushed 35 times for 228 yards and two touchdowns in his bid to become college football's first two-time 2,000-yard rusher (he finished the game with 1,822 and the season with 2,185). Thus, CU dictated the tempo of the game but could not put the Cyclones away until late in the fourth quarter, a 42-yard Detmer to Carruth scoring pass that gave CU the largest lead of the game at 49-28. 2002—Chris Brown rushed for 211 yards and three touchdowns, including the go-ahead score in overtime, and the CU defense came up big in the extra session as No. 18 prevented a frenzied Missouri comeback with a 42-35 win in Columbia. Brown scored on a 1-yard run as Colorado opened OT on offense; Marques Harris sacked Mizzou quarterback Brad Smith on the first play by the Tigers, and two plays later, J.J. Billingsley forced a fumble and Kory Mossoni recovered to end the game, which saw MU rally from being down 27-7 to take a 28-27 lead early in the fourth quarter. Bobby Purify added 119 yards on the ground for CU, which rolled up 372 rushing and 575 total yards. 2013—The Buffs lose 59-7 at Washington and were outgained, 628-299.

NOVEMBER 9 COLORADO MVP: ILB Dan McMillen, 1985 (pictured at right). His five quarterback sacks still stand as the CU single-game record and help to thwart the KU offensive all afternoon in a 14-3 Colorado win.

STENSTROM INTO THE RECORD BOOK

At Colorado, we do keep a lot of unique records (e.g., longest punt with non-kicking foot). QB Blake Stenstrom owns one of those, as when he gained 27 yards on his first collegiate rushing attempt, he set a school record for the longest first career rush by a quarterback. The old mark was 14 on two occasions (Sal Aunese vs. Stanford in Boulder, Sept. 19, 1987; Mike Moschetti vs. Colorado State in Denver, Sept. 5, 1998); it also was the second longest by any player, trailing only the 44-yard spurt that James Kidd had on a reverse at Wisconsin on Sept. 2, 1995. In fact, the longest first rush by an actual running back is only 13 yards: J.J. Flannigan vs. Oregon in Boulder (Sept. 12, 1987) and Bobby Purify vs. Kansas at Lawrence (Oct. 21, 2000). Even an offensive lineman has a longer one (23, Don Greenwood vs. Missouri at Columbia, Nov. 8, 1952).

FEAST OR FAMINE

Colorado has allowed 53 plays of 20 yards or more in the nine games this season, with 20 of those going for touchdowns. The 53 plays have netted 1,831 yards — an average of 34.5 yards per. The other 583 plays have netted 2,490 yards, a pedestrian 4.3 yards per, with 326 of those going for four yards or less. By comparison, CU has 35 plays for 20-plus yards (10 for scores), those gaining a combined 1,102 yards (or 31.5 per). CU's remaining 615 plays have earned 2,555 yards (4.2 per).

➔ The opponent has an edge in 30-plus plays by 26-11; those 26 plays have gained 1,191 yards for the foe, while's CU's 30-plus have netted 522. That difference of 669 yards is almost exactly the difference for the year between the Buffs and the enemy in total yards, which is 664.

FROSH SEEING ACTION

The 14 true scholarship, first-year freshmen are the second-most to see action in a season dating back to 1984 when records are available; the most are the 15 who saw action in the 2011 season; the previous high to that were 13 that saw the field in 2012.

➔ Including eight redshirt freshmen who have seen game action this fall, the 22 total "youngin's" have hit the field this year; that is 15th nationally behind Clemson 48 (35 true), North Carolina State 32 (17), Alabama 31 (21), Tennessee 31 (21), Southern California 31 (19), Purdue 30 (13), Oregon 29 (17), Penn State 28 (18), South Carolina 28 (18), TCU 28 (19), Stanford 27 (15), Iowa 26 (8), Texas A&M 25 (15), Nebraska 25 (13) and Colorado 22 (14).

➔ CU has had five different freshmen start a total of eight games; that trails only Alabama (9), Fresno State (7), Massachusetts (7), Stanford (7), Tennessee (7), Texas A&M (7), Colorado State (6) and Southern California (6); six other schools have had five, including Arizona State from the Pac-12.

SWEET SIXTEEN

Colorado, which did not play an FCS team until 2006, is one of 16 schools in 2019 who will play strictly FBS teams over the course of the entire season. The Big Ten Conference has 11 of those 16 schools, as it came out with a mandatory rule a few years back to eliminate those teams from their future schedules (Indiana, Maryland and Penn State had previous games scheduled further out). CU is joined by Southern California, Stanford and UCLA in the Pac-12, with the only other school nationally being Texas. Only three FCS schools appear on future CU schedules: Northern Colorado (2021), North Dakota State (2024) and Colgate (2027).

BACK-TO-BACK (AND THIS YEAR: -TO BACK) RIVALS FOR OPENERS?

When Colorado opened with Colorado State and Nebraska last year, it was just the 13th time a school opened with back-to-back traditional rivals since the advent of 11 game regular seasons schedules beginning in 1971; and of the previous 12 time, only five schools did it (Boise State, Georgia, Illinois, New Mexico State and Temple). Fast-forward to 2019, and the Buffaloes are opening with three traditional rivals: Colorado State in Denver, Nebraska in Boulder and Air Force in Boulder. The Buffaloes and Falcons will meet at Folsom Field this Saturday – the first meeting between the schools since 1974; this be just the second time CSU and AFA appear on the schedule in the same year, along with 1958. After that season, the series with CSU went dormant for 25 years while Air Force appeared every year except one between 1958 and 1974.

- Colorado has played Colorado State (91), Nebraska (71) and Air Force (17) a combined 179 times; the remaining nine schools on CU's schedule in 2019 have combined to play the Buffaloes 167 times (and 65 of those by CU's other top 20th century rival, Utah).

ONU MADE HIS MARK FAST

Graduate transfer (from SMU) S Mikial Onu made his mark pretty quick as a Buffalo this season. He has four interceptions on the year, topping ILB Nate Landman's team-high of two in 2018 and S Evan Worthington's CU-best of three in 2017 (S Tedric Thompson had seven in 2016).

- He has created six (of CU's opponent 13) turnovers, with four picks and two forced fumbles. The CU season record for most turnovers created is nine, held by two school Hall-of-Famers, Dick Anderson in 1967 and John Stearns, in 1972. Anderson had seven interceptions and two forced fumbles, while Stearns had six picks and three forced fumbles.
- Onu also racked up 12 tackles in the overtime loss to Air Force (10 of which we solo stops); he is second overall on the team with 57 (40 solo).

FAMILY TIES

The University of Colorado has two sets of brothers: PK/P Davis and PK Evan Price, and WR Laviska and WR Vontae Shenault. Two Buffs have fathers who played for CU, WR Curtis Chiaverini (Darrin, CU's assistant head coach, 1995-98) and WR Dimitri Stanley (Walter, 1980-81). DB Uryan Hudson's uncle is Chris Hudson (the 1994 Thorpe Award winner), while TE Brady Russell's uncle is Matt Russell (the 1996 Butkus Award recipient).

- Father-Son Scoring. When WR Dimitri Stanley scored the first touchdown (and points) of his career with his 13-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter, he joined his father Walter ('81) as the fourth father-son duo to score points for the Buffs (the list; year is the last season on the Buffs):

Father: Larry Brunson, 1971 (3 TDs)	Son: Matt Brunson, 2001 (2 TDs)
Father: Marc Walters, 1986 (2 TDs)	Son: Ryan Walters, 2006 (1 TD)
Father: Dick Anderson, 1967 (2 PATs)	Son: Blake Anderson, 1994 (1 TD)
Father: Walter Stanley, 1981 (5 TDs)	Son: Dimitri Stanley, 2019 (2 TDs)

THE CUPBOARD MAY NOT BE BARE, BUT ...

This year's University of Colorado team entered the season with players on the roster just making 179 previous career starts – the fewest in program history since the advent of 11-game regular seasons in 1971. There were no players who had career starts at either running back or defensive tackle; 110 of the starts were are offense. Here are the returning number of starts by position, and the number of players making those (*—11 made at a previous CB position):

56 Offensive Line (4)	18 Outside Linebacker (3)	13 Defensive End (2)	0 Defensive Tackle
27 Quarterback (1)	14 *Safety (2)	12 Inside Linebacker (1)	0 Running Back
24 Wide Receiver (4)	13 Cornerback (3)	3 Tight End (1)

HALL OF FAMERS PASS

The Buffaloes lost two former players within the last eight months who were inducted into All-Americans and enshrined in CU's Athletic Hall of Fame, DE Bill Brundige (Dec. 29, he was 70) and WR Cliff Branch (August 1 at the age of 71). Branch was inducted in 2010 in the eighth class of the Hall, while Brundige soon followed, getting the call for CU's Hall in the 10th class (2014). They were both members of CU's 69 Liberty Bowl champion team, Brundige a senior with Branch forced to sit out by the NCAA. Brundige was drafted by the Washington Redskins in 1970 and spent eight seasons with the club, while Branch was selected by the Raiders and spent 14 seasons with the franchise.

This is the fourth time that the Buffs and Broncos have first-year head coaches in the same season. In 1962, Bud Davis took over the CU program while Jack Faulkner did so for the Broncos; in 1995, Rick Neuheisel (CU) and Mike Shanahan (Denver) were named the top man; and in 2011, Jon Embree (CU) and John Fox (Broncos) took over the reins of their respective teams.

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffaloes rank on some of CU's all-time nine games into the 2019 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career numbers for players past and present will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ TB BEAU BISHARAT is fifth in special team tackles (37) and is second in special team points (93).

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (74.1 percent of the entire roster—active and inactive—as of Sept. 3: 83 of 112 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 38, Colorado 27, Texas 18, Florida 3, Georgia 3, Michigan 3, Alabama 2, Illinois 2, Mississippi 2, Oregon 2, Washington 2, Arizona 1, Indiana 1, Louisiana 1, South Carolina 1, Virginia 1. That's 16 states total along with AMERICAN SAMOA (2), AUSTRALIA (1) and AUSTRIA (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

- ➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Eight Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: WR Daniel Arias (Santa Domingo, D.R.), OLB Joshka Gustav (Germany), ILB Nate Landman (Zimbabwe), OL Va'atofu Sauvao (American Samoa), OL Valentin Senn (Austria), PK James Stefanou (Australia) and OLB Alex Tchangam (Cameroon). TE coach Al Pupunu was also born overseas (Tonga).
- ➔ BY CLASS: 3 graduate transfers; 15 seniors (8 fifth-year), 20 juniors, 30 sophomores, 45 freshmen (16 redshirt/3 2nd-year/26 true).

AND THE J'S HAVE IT

Statistics show that more first names in the United States begin with the letter "J," followed by M, S, D and C. The Buffaloes take that to the extreme: on the 2019 Colorado roster, over 20 percent on the team has first names that begin with J: 23 players overall who go by 20 different J names. The list:

Jake (2)	James (2)	Jack	Janaz	Jarek	Jash	Jaylon	Joe	John	Joshka
Jalen (2)	J.T.	Jamar	Jared	Jaren	Jayden	Jeremiah	Jonathan	Josh	Joshua

APOLLO MOON PROGRAM TRIVIA

America celebrated the 50th anniversary of Apollo 11 and man stepping foot on the moon on July 20, 1969, a reminder that one of the three men who traveled the furthest away from Earth (due to where the Moon was located during their mission) was a Colorado Buffalo. Jack Swigert, a '53 CU graduate, lettered from 1950-52 at guard (teammates included Tom Brookshier and Carroll Hardy). He was the command module pilot for the ill-fated Apollo 13, the mission dubbed a "successful failure" as the ship made it back to Earth after orbiting the moon despite an oxygen tank explosion in April 1971. Swigert's fellow astronauts were Jim Lovell (L) and Fred Haise (r.); he was played by actor Kevin Bacon in the 1995 movie Apollo 13 depicting the journey; with Hollywood often taking liberties, it was Swigert who said the famous line, "Houston, we've had a problem," not Tom Hanks delivering it as Lovell. The three men flew 248,655 miles away from Earth, the furthest distance ever recorded by humans, putting their round trip mileage at 497,310 miles. (Swigert, who died in 1982 just after being elected to Congress from Colorado, wasn't even supposed to be on that mission; he replaced Ken Mattingly 48 hours prior when Mattingly was exposed to the measles and was removed from the flight.)

"FREAK" LIST

For the past 16 years, college football analyst Bruce Feldman has put out a list in the summers on the biggest Freaks in college football. The list "showcases guys who generate buzz inside their programs by displaying the type of rare physical abilities that wow even those folks who are used to observing gifted athletes every day." The list is compiled with the help of many coaches, players and SIDs from around the nation. He had S/OLB Davion Taylor listed No. 22 on his 2018 compilation; Feldman's synopsis on Taylor:

No. 22 Taylor: "The Buffaloes amped up the speed of their defense quite a bit when they landed Taylor over the winter, the No. 1 outside linebacker junior college prospect (and No. 8 overall JUCO prospect) in the country. He completed spring football in February and March and went right to the track, where he raced in the 100 and 200 meters and was on the 4x100 relay team. The 6-3, 220-pounder was CU's fastest sprinter, and he finished sixth in the 100 at the Pac-12 Championships. His top 100 time this year was 10.51 in the prelims of the Pac-12s."

MORETTI MEDICALLY RETIRES

Sophomore OL Jake Moretti decided to end his football career in late July, as he had battled knee, foot and nerve injuries over the last three years. The 6-4, 290-pound product of Arvada's Pomona High School redshirted as a freshman in 2017, but appeared in seven games in 2018, including a pair of starts. He was in for 65 snaps overall, seeing his most action against New Hampshire (33 snaps) and USC (18).

SACK DOMESTIC VIOLENCE. CU Athletics and its multimedia rightsholder, Buffalo Sports Properties, have partnered with Burnham Law to "Stop Domestic Violence" this football season. For each defensive "three and out" or "fourth down stop" that the Buffs record, Burnham Law will donate $100 to benefit locally based SPAN (Safehouse Progressive Alliance for Nonviolence) and the CU Boulder Office of Victim Assistance (OVA), two organizations that support survivors, raise awareness around domestic violence and reduce violence in Boulder and surrounding communities.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CELEBRATING 150TH ANNIVERSARY

College football is celebrating the 150th anniversary of the first-ever college game, played on November 6, 1869. It's in the books at Rutgers 6, Princeton 4, but Princeton was actually known then as the College of New Jersey Tigers; Rutgers at the time were the Queensmen before adopting the Scarlet Knights as its nickname. The game was played primarily with rules closer to rugby, and few probably know that a week later on November 13, the College of New Jersey avenged the loss with an 8-0 win. Meanwhile, nearly 1,800 miles to the west, the University of Colorado was seven years away from being formed, and CU did not start playing football until 1890. Boulder looked like, well, the picture to the right. The Buffaloes are wearing a 150 decal on their helmets this season.

NOYER MOVES TO D, MAYBE ANOTHER HALE IRWIN?

Since the end of the Platoon Era (pre-1965), there have been very few occasions where players who lettered at quarterback, made the switch to another position and then earned a letter at their new spot. Sam Noyer moved from quarterback to safety on August 19 and is anxious to make an impact on the other side of the ball. The most famous switch in CU history happened in the third game of the '69 season, when Bobby Anderson moved from quarterback to tailback and would go on to earn first-team All-American honors. Charles Davis ('78-81) bounced around between quarterback, halfback and fullback over the course of his career while lettering four times; Ayyub Abdul-Rahmaan earned a letter at quarterback in 1995 and then at receiver in '96; Adam Bledsoe lettered twice as the signal caller ('97-98) and then at tight end ('99).

➔ Now, Hale Irwin played both quarterback and defensive back in 1964; once platooning ended, he moved permanently to defense in '65, and as a senior in 1966 he earned All-Big Eight Conference honors.

BISHARAT CLIMBING SPECIAL TEAM CHARTS

Senior TE Beau Bisharat has been a force on special teams since he arrived at Colorado. The two-time reigning "special teams point" champion on the Buffaloes with 29 in each of the last two years now has 93 career special team points, which is second at CU since the category was created back in 1987 (he has a team-high 23 this year). His career ST tackles, 37 (27 solo), are the fifth-most. FS Ryan Sutter ('97; yes, the same Ryan Sutter who was on the "Bachelorette") is the CU career leader in both, with 123 points and 64 tackles; CB Arthur Jaffee ('11) was second with 88 points.

MANGHAM COULD MAKE HIS MARK

Freshman TB Jaren Mangham, through eight games, has cracked the top 15 of all-time season rushing yards by a CU freshman (true or redshirt). With 396 yards at present, he projects to finish at his current pace around 500 yards; only seven players as freshmen have rushed for 500 or more (and 15 for 300-plus). A look at the young ones who have had solid years running the ball (*—denotes redshirt-freshman):

TOUCHDOWN RECORD: 8, Herchell Troutman, 1994 (244 yards)

➔ The last 100-yard rushing game by a freshman? It was actually by QB Steven Montez, who rushed for 135 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries in a 41-38 win at Oregon on Sept. 24, 2016 (when he was a redshirt frosh). The last by a running back was by Patrick Carr at UCLA on Oct. 31, 2015 (19-100, 1 TD).

97-98-99: No, not an easily remembered lock combination, but the jersey numbers of the CU's punt protection line for P Alex Kinney. OT Hunter Vaughn (#97), DT Nico Magri (#98) and DT Jalen Sami (#99) are three up-backs on the punt team; Vaughn wears #97 on special teams, as he is also on the FG/PAT unit, but wears #77 when he plays on offense.

GEORGE A RARITY

CU's Cymone George is in her first year as CU's director of recruiting; how rare is that in the FBS ranks? Here's the entire list:

School	Name	Actual Title	Year	School	Name	Actual Title	Year
Oklahoma	Annie Hanson	Executive Director of Recruiting	3rd	Georgia	Haley Schaafsma	Director of Recruiting Operations	1st
TCU	Rachel Phillips	Director of Recruiting Operations	3rd	Georgia State	Ginny Thompson	Director of On-campus Recruiting & Player Personnel	1st
Florida	*Lee Begley	Director of Recruiting Operations	2nd	USC	Kelsea Winkle	Director of On-Campus Recruiting	1st
Colorado	Cymone George	Director of Recruiting	1st	(*—held same position previously at Mississippi State)
Colorado State	Jessica Jefferson	Director of Recruiting	1st

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

Colorado has seven players on its roster who were born outside the United States, tied for the fourth-most among FBS schools (though the seven represent seven different countries, the second-most behind a whopping 11 for Temple). What's interesting in this group is how many islands of the Caribbean are represented (Bahamas, Dominican Republic, Haiti, Jamaica, Puerto Rico and the Turks and Caicos Islands). Here's a list of those schools with five or more born anywhere but among the 50 U.S. States (U.S. possessions count as outside the country, as they are countries):

School	No.	Countries
Temple	13	11 Cameroon (2), Sweden (2), Canada, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Jamaica, Liberia, Nigeria, Peru, Turks and Caicos Islands, Uganda
Hawai'i	13	3 American Samoa (9), Australia (3), Canada

Oklahoma State	7	5 Australia (2), Nigeria (2), Canada, Guinea, The Netherlands
Michigan	6	6 Canada, Germany, Haiti, Liberia, Nigeria, Turks and Caicos Islands

ALMOST PERFECT IN CLOSE

Dating back to nine games into the 2016 season, Colorado has had 64 goal-to-go situations, scoring 62 times (or 97 percent of the time); 49 of the scores have been touchdowns to go with 13 field goals. The only non-scores came on a drive ending on downs last year against Oregon State (in overtime) and an interception this year at Oregon. A look at perfect (or near) seasons in this regard since 1984 when the stat was first tracked:

SEASON OPENER OBSCURE NOTES

- ▶ Colorado was one of 11 teams to not commit a turnover or allow a quarterback sack last weekend; those teams went 10-1 (Rice lost to Army, 14-7); three of the 11 were from the Pac-12, as Utah and Washington both accomplished the feat.
- ▶ The Buffaloes were one of just three teams to have no turnovers, no sacks allowed while also committing fewer than five penalties in the game, joined only by Kansas State and Rice.
- ▶ The Colorado offensive line did not surrender a quarterback sack (for the second straight season opener), allowed just two tackles for loss and helped the run game average 6.1 yards per play (40 attempts). How rare is limited the opponent to just two TFL's? Going back over the last 10 seasons, it's tied for the fourth-fewest by the enemy:

Opponent	Date	TFL's	Yards	Opponent	Date	TFL's	Yards
Nebraska	Nov. 26, 2010	0	0	Charleston Southern	Oct. 19, 2013	2	16
Nicholls State	Sept. 26, 2015	0	0	Arizona	Oct. 26, 2013	2	4
Oregon State	Oct. 1, 2016	1	1	Colorado State	Aug. 29, 2014	2	11
Colorado State	Sept. 17, 2011	2	10	Colorado State	Aug. 30, 2019	2	4

FOURTH QUARTER BUFFS

Colorado's 24 points against Nebraska in the fourth quarter was its most since scoring the exact same amount against the Huskers in Boulder on Nov. 26, 1999. It tied for the fourth most points by the Buffaloes in a fourth quarter over the last 74 seasons (dating back to 1946); records are sketchy prior to that season, but the known school record for points in the fourth stanza is 34 at Brigham Young in a 48-6 win on Oct. 20, 1934. Top fourth quarter scoring by the Buffs since the end of World War II:

Opponent	Date	Points	Result	Opponent	Date	Points	Result
CINCINNATI	Sept. 16, 1972	28	W, 56-14	NEBRASKA (OT)	Nov. 26, 1999	24	L, 30-33
at Utah	Nov. 10, 1951	27	W, 54-0	NEBRASKA (OT)	Sept. 7, 2019	24	W, 34-31
at Arizona	Oct. 11, 1958	25	W, 65-12	at Iowa State	Oct. 21, 1995	23	W, 50-28

The 258 yards gained in the quarter set a fourth quarter record for CU as well; the previous high was 231 on Sept. 24, 1994 — in CU's 27-26 win at Michigan.

SHENAUT WAS MAKING WAVES & HISTORY

Prior to being injured in the sixth game last season at Southern California (in the third quarter), then-sophomore WR Laviska Shenault had one amazing start to the 2018 season. He opened by recording the second-most receiving yards in back-to-back games (388) and tying for both the second (25) and fifth-most receptions (21) in two consecutive games in CU history. Through the season's eighth week games, he led the nation in both categories each week and was averaging 10.0 catches and 130.0 yards per game; he qualified once again for the national rankings after playing in the final three games (NCAA requires a player to appear in 75 percent of his games; after suffering a toe injury against the Trojans, he missed the Washington, Oregon State and Arizona games). Upon his return, he caught 26 passes for 231 yards; his average per catch dropped but he still managed to lead the nation in receptions per game with 9.6. On Sept. 25, he was added to the official Biletnikoff Award watch list by the award's committee, and also advanced to the final 15 for the Maxwell Award. A look at his CU accomplishments his sophomore season:

SHENAUT ASSAULT ON FIRST DOWNS

Shenault is a virtual first down machine, earning a first down (or scoring a touchdown in goal-to-go situations where the NCAA doesn't award a first down as is the case in the NFL) on 94 of 163 offensive touches, or 57.7 percent of the time (or one for just under every two touches).

- ▶ His 11 touchdowns in 2018 added to 302 yards, or 27.5 yards per (his six TD receptions went for a combined 247 yards, or 41.2 per).
- ▶ His 17 career touchdowns have added to 503 yards, or 29.6 yards per.
- ▶ His 5 games with 10 or more receptions was a CU season record (old: 4, Nelson Spruce, 2014); he has the second-most in a career (Nelson Spruce had 7).
- ▶ In 2017 as a freshman, he became the 15th known Buffalo at the time to score a touchdown on his first collegiate touch (excluding defensive players), but statistically, it wasn't an official touch. Against Texas State, he scooped up a fumble on a CU punt return and ran 55 yards for a TD; however, the NCAA does not score it as a fumble return but views it as an extension of a punt return, thus he was credited with no return for 55 yards, much like a lateral is scored (full list of first touch scores on page 42).

SHENAULT CRACKED PRESTIGIOUS GROUP

When he scored four touchdowns in CU's 28-21 win over Arizona State last October 6, WR Laviska Shenault joined a very exclusive group in CU history. He became the 15th different player to score four (or more) touchdowns in a single game. Only TB Rashaan Salaam did it twice (in his Heisman Trophy year in 1994). While Shenault was the first to score four with two rushing and two receiving, the standard still might be what HB Byron White did against Utah on a snow-covered field in a 31-7 win in Boulder in 1936: White scored on punt returns of 38 and 43 yards in the first quarter, scored on a 38-yard run in the second, and returned the second half kickoff 90 yards for a score (he also threw a TD pass for 50 yards and kicked one extra point). The 16 times Buffaloes crossed into the end zone for four-plus touchdowns (*—includes three kick return touchdowns (two punt, one kickoff)):

SHENAULT SECOND BUFF WR TO EARN FIRST-TEAM ALL-PAC-12 HONORS

WR Laviska Shenault was named first-team All-Pac-12 by the league coaches on Dec. 4; he is just the second offensive player and fifth Buffalo overall to earn first-team honors since the Buffs joined the Pac-12 in 2011 (joining WR Paul Richardson in 2013, DE Jimmie Gilbert and S Ryan Moeller (all-purpose player) in 2016 and CB Isaiah Oliver in 2017). Shenault and Richardson are the only CU receivers to earn first-team all-conference honors since 1997, when WR Phil Savoy earned first-team All-Big 12 accolades; the Buffs had at least one for six straight seasons from 1992-97 between the Big 8 and Big 12. Shenault finished the 2018 season with 86 receptions for 1,011 yards and six touchdowns. He also added 17 rushes for 115 yards and five touchdowns on the ground. Missing three-and-a-half games due to injury and playing the last three games of the season at less than 100 percent, he still managed to lead the nation in receiving at 9.6 receptions per game, exactly 1.0 reception per game more than any other player in the country.

► In 2018, Shenault was the only player in the nation to score at least five touchdowns via both rushing and receiving. He's the second player in CU history to accomplish that feat alongside WR Mike Pritchard, who did so in 1990 aided by playing the season-opening Tennessee game at tailback and rushing 20 times for 217 yards and two touchdowns.

PUNT COVERAGE & PROTECTION

The opponent has been held under 100 punt return yards in each of the last two seasons: opponents had 19 returns for 89 yards last year, and 15 for 75 in 2017; thus, the two-year total was 164 yards on 34 returns, or 4.82 per. You had to go back to 1997 to find the previous season when the opponent had less than 100 punt return yards (18 for 88), and all the way back to 1970 (10 for 54) and 1971 (11 for 77) for the last time CU held the enemy to under 100 yards two seasons in a row. So far this season, the opponent has just 51 on 10 returns (5.1 per) through nine games.

► CU had 64 punts in 2018 with none blocked, the 29th season since 1946 the Buffaloes did not have one blocked. The 64 punts without one rank seventh for the most punts in a season without at least one blocked, trailing 1949 (77), 2012 (76), 1984 (72), 1979 (71), 2004 (68) and 2014 (65).

► CU has punted 118 times since one was last blocked (at Arizona State in 2017); 10 in 2017, 64 in 2018, 44 in 2019.

IN THE POLLS / SOME HISTORY

Colorado was last ranked on Oct. 13, 2018 (No. 25 in the USA Today/Coaches poll), and was last in the AP poll on Oct. 6, 2018 (No. 19; the Buffs were a season-high No. 18 the same day in the coaches ballot). The Buffs were not ranked in 2017, and had climbed to as high as No. 9 in both polls (twice) in 2016; CU had not been ranked previous to '16 since 2005. Colorado owns the ninth longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the fifth week of 1997, CU had a run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has now been ranked 304 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 307), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 12, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

47 WINS OVER AP RANKED TEAMS 20TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 47 wins over Associated Press ranked teams dating back to the 1989 season (when the AP expanded to a top 25) are tied for the 20th most in the nation in this time frame (31 seasons). Through Nov. 2, Alabama has the most (96), followed by Ohio State (91), Florida State (83), Florida (80), LSU (78), Michigan (73), Oklahoma (71), Southern Cal (70), Georgia (62), Miami, Fla. (62), Tennessee (60), Auburn (60), Texas (59), Notre Dame (58), Clemson (57), Oregon (55), Penn State (54), Washington (53), UCLA (53), Colorado (47), Michigan State (47) and Nebraska (47). All-time, Colorado's 70 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the seventh most ranked teams in the nation (138, with a record of 47-89-2), trailing only Alabama 154 (96-57-1), Florida (155; 80-74-1), LSU (153; 78-75), Michigan 145 (73-70-2) and Ohio State 144 (91-50-3); Florida State has also played 138 (83-55).

- CU is 4-32 against ranked teams since a 34-30 win versus No. 17 Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 17, 2009 (the wins over #25 Nebraska and #24 Arizona State this year and #20 WSU and #21 Utah in 2016)).
- CU's last win over a top 5 or 10 team was on Sept. 29, 2007: a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in Boulder.
- Note: In 2016, ASU was ranked #24 in the USA Today/Coaches poll when CU defeated it, 40-16; but all historical records are solely against those teams ranked by the AP.
- The Buffs had lost 29 straight road games against ranked opponents until the 34-31 win at Arizona State on Sept. 21; the last win had been a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002 – on the same exact date: Sept. 21.

1,000 / 1,000

Prior to 2018, in school history there had been 16 1,000-yard rushing seasons and nine 1,000-yard receiving season, but never both in the same season until last year. WR Laviska Shenault had 1,011 receiving and TB Tramon McMillian 1,009 to become the first duo to do in the same season. Shenault's average of 11.8 tied for the eighth-best of the now 10 1,000-yard receiving years, while McMillian's 5.02 norm was the 13th-best of the thousand yard runners.

700 CLUB

Colorado became the 25th school to reach the 700-win mark with a 44-28 win over California in 2017; the Buffs have an all-time record of 708-512-36 (a .578 winning percentage). In addition to being 26th on the all-time win list, CU is 36th in winning percentage (29th for schools with 1,000 or more games played in the FBS). CHEV'S "COACHED" A HATRICK ... PLUS

Darrin Chiaverini is in his fourth year as CU's wide receivers coach. During his 37 games to date, he's now coached four players who have passed him on CU's all-time receiving yards list. WR Shay Fields passed him as a junior in 2016, while seniors WR Devin Ross and WR Bryce Bobo did so in 2017. And a fourth, WR Laviska Shenault zoomed by him in the first game of 2019, while WR K.D. Nixon now looms as the next one to likely to pass him by:

O-LINE NOTES. Colorado has three starters returning on the offensive line (Tim Lynott, Jr.; Colby Pursell; Will Sherman); that's tied with several schools but only 12 have more (led by Auburn, Boise State and Iowa State all with five). With Pursell moving from center to guard and Lynott from guard to center, eight other schools are doing the latter and four the former (no Pac-12 schools).

OPENING DEPTH CHART NOTES

The Buffs released their season-opening depth chart on August 22, and for the fifth time in the last seven seasons, CU has more underclassmen than upperclassmen listed. Of the approximately 55 players who figure to see action from scrimmage, 32 are underclassmen (16 freshman, 16 sophomores).

► In both 2016 and 2017, CU did not start a true freshman in any game over the course of the season; that had not happened since 2005.

SEASON OPENERS: UNDERCLASSMEN STARTERS

The depth is always fluid leading up to the first game, but with nine underclassmen atop the August 22 depth chart, if that were to hold, for the second straight year that many would start the opener. In 2018, it marked the fifth time since 1995 that three freshmen cracked the opening day starter list; the most was four in 2007 (when six underclassmen started in the opener). A look at the most underclassmen starters for the Buffaloes over the last 25 seasons:

Season	Fr.	So.	Total
2014	3	9	12
2009	3	8	11
2018	3	6	9
2003	1	7	8
2004	1	7	8
2008	1	7	8
2012	2	6	8

THAT REDSHIRT RULE

Beginning with the 2018 season, incoming freshmen can now play in up to four games but not lose a year of eligibility; this also applies to anyone else on the roster. In any year they play in four games or less, they get the year back (and the four can be at any point during the season; they do not have to be the first four games). Also if a player redshirts as a true freshman and then suffers a season-ending injury within the first four games of another season, he's now eligible for a sixth-year without having to lose two years to injuries and go through the old petition process. A perfect example would be Derek McCartney, who redshirted as a true freshman in 2013, and was injured in game three of his fourth-year (2016); he would have been awarded a sixth-year of eligibility under this rule change.

If this new rule above had been permanently in place since freshmen were allowed to play, here are some notable Buffaloes that would have earned a full season back due to either playing in four games or less at some point in their career due to injury, and others who once played, were simply inserted at the end of games over the course of the season when the outcomes had already been decided (assuming the four-game maximum would have applied in 11-game seasons prior to 2006; *—denotes true freshman):

WR *Dave Logan, 1972	Debuted late in week two in a 56-14 win over Cincinnati, when he had his lone reception of the year. He was on the travel squad, but appeared just a couple of more times.
TB *James Mayberry, 1975	Appeared late in several games, had 16 rushing attempts and one reception.
DT George Smith, 1982	Injured in the fourth game of the year, he had 34 tackles, four for losses when he was lost for the year.
WB *Mike Pritchard, 1987	Appeared in six games and 17 rushes and threw seven passes.
QB *Darian Hagan, 1988	Appeared in five games (plus the Freedom Bowl), had 38 rushes and threw seven passes.
QB *Vance Joseph, 1990	Appeared in four games, had 13 rushes and threw seven passes (and was next in line to play in the '91 Orange Bowl).
QB *Kordell Stewart, 1991	Appeared in two games, had 18 rushes and threw two passes.
QB *Koy Detmer, 1992	Pressed into duty to rally CU over Minnesota in game three, started two others and appeared in seven overall; but he was also injured early in the fourth game in 1995, so either would have applied.
ILB Jashon Sykes, 2001	Injured in the fourth game of the year, he had already racked up 33 tackles and 3½ sacks
QB *Joel Klatt, 2002	Played three snaps late against Baylor in game seven, appeared in a handful of others after, including on the punt team.
OLB Derek McCartney, 2016	Had already utilized his redshirt year, so when lost for the season with a torn ACL in game three at Michigan, he lost that year.

And there were several players in 1984, when CU resurrected its junior varsity team for one year; several played in the three JV games and then saw some time afterward in some of the last six varsity games. These included WR Lance Carl, ILB Don DeLuzio, TB Dion Dyson, TE/P Keith English, WR Drew Ferrando, QB Mark Hatcher, P Barry Helton, TB Sam Smith, CB David Tate and FB Anthony Weatherspoon.

AND WHO BENEFITTED? SEVEN BUFFS

There were seven Buffaloes who benefitted from the NCAA's new redshirt which permits players to play in up to four games and not lose a year of eligibility provided they had a redshirt year available to them (no fifth-year seniors played in four games or less who were lost for the season due to injury, as exceptions could have been made in those instances). Those players, with the games they appeared in parenthesis (*—no longer on team): OLB Jacob Callier (4), PK Tyler Francis (2), P Alex Kinney (4), PK Evan Price (2), WR Dimitri Stanley (3), DB *L.J. Wallace (1) and ILB *Jake Yurachek (1).

FUMBLE OR FUMBLE ME NOT

Hanging on to the football is one thing that the Colorado Buffaloes have done most of this decade, and they've taken it up a notch in 2019. The Buffaloes have not fumbled the ball in five games, and has just seven fumbles, and "seven" is actually a bit misleading: three have been charged to the team on bad snaps. In fact, the two that were lost were both fumbled on kickoff returns meaning just two have been charged to a player on offense. The Buffs recently set a record with four consecutive games without a fumble, which included a stretch of 446 touches (scrimmage plays, punts/placement kicks, returns, fair catches). For the year (784 touches), that's one for every 114 touches. The ones most likely to fumble, the running backs, have just one in 281 (rushes, receptions, returns); tailbacks have just 20 over the last seven seasons in 2,364 carries (or just one in every 118.2 attempts).

► Since the start of the 2013 season, Colorado has a total of 112 fumbles (losing 47) — out of 7,744 touches (or 1 in for every 69.1 touches).

This was the third straight year CU opened with four of its first five games in the state of Colorado; it's fairly common for the Buffs, as this is the 19th time CU will leave the state just once in the first five games dating back to the 1978 season.

MONTEZ /QUICKLY

Senior QB Steven Montez is 15-21 as CU's starting quarterback (2-1 in 2016, 5-7 in 2017, 5-7 in 2018, 3-5 in 2019). Some Montezbits:

- ▶ Montez opened 5-1 as a starter was the best by a CU quarterback since Mike Moschetti opened 5-0 in 1998 (he went on to be 5-1, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3 and 7-3); Moschetti was the last to open 6-1 (along with John Hessler in 1995, who went on to be 8-1 in his first nine games as starter from 1995-97).
- ▶ He has started 36 games at quarterback: tied for second all-time at CU.
- ▶ He started games in four different seasons (3-2016, 12-2017, 12-2018, 2-2019); he joins his predecessor, Sefo Liufau (2013-16), Tyler Hansen (2008-11) and Hawkins as the four to do so in Colorado history.
- ▶ He has started 33 consecutive games at the position; that bested the old mark by Gale Weidner (31, 1959-61, including the '62 Orange Bowl); he passed Kordell Stewart (28, 1992-94, including three bowls) earlier this season; nationally, that trails Mason Fine, North Texas (36), Jake Fromm, Georgia (35), Nate Stanley, Iowa (34) and is tied with Nathan Rourke, Ohio (33).
- ▶ In three season openers (all against Colorado State), he completed 56-of-74 passes for 772 yards (7 TD/3 INT) for a rating of 186.4. His 88.0 completion percentage in the 2018 opener (22-of-25) was a school record for 20- and 25-plus attempts and thus was by far a career-best, topping his previous best of 72.4 (21-of-29), which was set against the Rams in 2017. Combined versus CSU, he was 25-of-33 on first downs (for 315 yards), 19-of-26 for 205 yards on second down and 12-of-15 for 252 yards on third down.
- ▶ He is the second player in school history to throw for 9,000 career yards (9,083; one of four to pass for over 7,000).
- ▶ He is also the second player in school history to accumulate 9,000 yards of total offense (9,968; he trails only Sefo Liufau, with 10,509).
- ▶ He has 17 career games of 300-plus yards total offense; breaking the school record of 13 by QB Sefo Liufau (2013-16).
- ▶ He is now tied at Colorado for the most career touchdown passes with 60 (Sefo Liufau and Cody Hawkins also had 60).
- ▶ He has engineered 4 fourth quarter comebacks, three on the road (at Oregon, 2016, at Oregon State, 2017, at Nebraska, 2018) and one at home (Nebraska, 2019)
- ▶ He was the first Buffalo quarterback to throw a TD pass on his first career pass since Joe Dowler did so back in 1959. Montez hit WR Kabion Ento on a 69-yard scoring strike in the second quarter in his first appearance in the second game of the 2016 season (against Idaho State). Dowler had done it on Oct. 3, 1959 at Oklahoma, a 15-yard TD pass to Kirk Campbell in a 42-12 loss to the Sooners.

TAKING THE WORLD BY STORM

QB Steven Montez had quite a debut as CU's starter subbing for an injured Sefo Liufau at Oregon (Sept. 24, 2016). In leading the Buffs to a 41-38 win, he arguably had the best first game as a starter in school history. He completed 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards (3 TD/2 INT), for a passer rating of 177.7 and also had 21 rushes for 135 yards (6.4 per), with a touchdown and a long run of 32 yards. It all added up to 468 yards of total offense and 23 first downs earned (8 rush/15 passing). He received seven different national and/or conference accolades for his efforts, as well as:

- He enjoyed the fifth-best game in a quarterback's first start at Colorado in terms of passing yards, but the best in total offense (see charts below).
- His 135 yards rushing were the most in a debut by a starting Buff QB (topping the 116 by Darian Hagan vs. Texas in 1989) and is the 10th most in any game all-time at Colorado by a quarterback (and the first 100-yard game by a quarterback since Nov. 4, 2006 when Bernard Jackson had 105 against Kansas State).
- His 468 yards of total offense were the fourth-most in a single-game in Colorado history.
- It was the first-ever 300 passing/100 rushing game in CU history and just the second 200/100 game (Stewart had 205/143 vs. Notre Dame in the '95 Fiesta Bowl).
- His 14 straight completions in the first half tied for the second-most in school history (trailing 15 by Mike Moschetti over two games in 1999); it matched the most in one game (Koy Detmer, 14 at Colorado State in 1996).

MONTEZ THE 12TH FRESHMAN AT COLORADO TO START A GAME AT QUARTERBACK

QB Steven Montez became just the 12th freshman in school history to start a game at quarterback at Colorado (the sixth redshirt frosh to do so). He had the second-most passing yards by a freshman in a starting debut at CU quarterback. A closer look at every freshman's first career start at CU (*—denotes redshirt freshman):

THE "RUSHING/PASSING" QB's

Montez is a two-way threat with his arm and his legs, as evidenced by being the first 300/100 player in CU history (300 yards passing/100 rushing in the same game). He's cracked CU's list of all-time rushing yards by quarterbacks (adjusted to allow for sacks; *—Anderson switched to tailback in the third game of the 1969 season):

THE 100 CLUB

QB Steven Montez set the school record for the most passing attempts without an interception with 172 over a seven-game span in 2017; it only ended on the last play of the game at Arizona State, when he was picked off on a batted ball in the end zone on "Hail Mary" thrown. It was the ninth streak of 100 passes or more in Colorado history (and he was the seventh different quarterback to do it). The 172-game streak was the longest active streak in the nation at the time, as the two ahead of him on the list were picked off the week before (N.C. State's Ryan Finley saw his streak end at 340 and San Diego State's Christian Chapman's ended at 168). He has four streaks of 80 or more (no other CU quarterback had more than two); he also joined Sefo Liufau as the only ones at Colorado with at least two 100-plus streaks (Liufau had three):

172	Steven Montez (seven games, Sept. 23-Nov. 4, 2017)
152	Sefo Liufau (nine games, Nov. 13, 2015 to Nov. 3, 2016)
139	Joel Klatt (five games, Oct. 15 to Nov. 12, 2005)
131	Tyler Hansen (four games, Sept. 3 to Oct. 1, 2011)
118	Sefo Liufau (five games, Sept. 3 to Oct. 3, 2015)
115	Steven Montez (three games, Sept. 14 to Oct. 11, 2019)
114	Cody Hawkins (four games, Oct. 9 to Nov. 6, 2010)

107	Sefo Liufau (four games, Oct. 10-31, 2015)
104	Craig Ochs (four games, Oct. 14 to Nov. 4, 2000)
100	John Hessler (six games, Sept. 2 to Oct. 7, 1995)

82	Steven Montez (three games, Oct. 20 to Nov. 2, 2018)
80	Steven Montez (three games, Aug. 31 to Sept. 15, 2018)

► During the streak, he was 100-of-172 for 1,391 yards and 10 touchdowns (58.1 completion percentage, 145.3 rating).

TDS, PICKS AND THROWS

QB Steven Montez threw 18 touchdown passes in 2017, tied for the seventh-most in a single season in school history. Of course, that can be dependent on the number of throws. For those 10 seasons where a quarterback threw at least 15 TD passes, his percentage was the second-lowest at 4.77; but he countered that by have the best interception percentage among the group, at just 2.39 percent. So his 2-to-1 ratio of 18 TD passes to nine picks also played out in the percentages, which only Joel Klatt (2003), John Hessler (1995) and Mike Moschetti (1998) bettered. Fast-forward to 2018, he bested his own numbers, and is on track to do the same in 2019. A closer look:

QUARTERBACK RECORDS AGAINST THE SUN DEVILS

CU's last two starting quarterbacks, Sefo Liufau and Steven Montez, enjoyed playing Arizona State judging by the yards both accounted for dating back to 2013, when Liufau made his first appearance in the second quarter in Tempe. The duo then started the next six games (Liufau 2014-16, Montez 2017-19) and posted these 1-2 numbers in the CU record book:

Most Passing Yards Against One Opponent

1,101—Sefo Liufau vs. Arizona State (169 in 2013, 278 in 2014, 389 in 2015, 265 in 2016)
1,010—Steven Montez vs. Arizona State (345 in 2017, 328 in 2018, 337 in 2019)

Most Total Offense Gained Against One Opponent

1,113—Sefo Liufau vs. Arizona State (179 in 2013, 276 in 2014, 355 in 2015, 303 in 2016)
1,063—Steven Montez vs. Arizona State (371 in 2017, 345 in 2018, 347 in 2019).

300/100/100

The Buffaloes have now had 15 occasions in their history with a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver, with Steven Montez is the quarterback involved the most (six), while Devin Ross has been a participant in the most at receiver (four) and Phillip Lindsay and Travon McMillian the most at running back (three). Colorado is 9-6 in these games:

DID YOU KNOW? Colorado is one of 29 schools to have had at least one member in all 13 years of the NFF Hampshire Honor Society (2007-19)? The Buffaloes are the only Pac-12 Conference school to do so and are one of just seven FBS/Division I schools recognized with the honors.

LINDY'S LIKES BOULDER—Lindy's Sports College Football gave CU two high rankings in its annual list of lists: Ralphie was named the No. 1 live mascot in the nation, and Folsom Field was selected as the third best stadium to "take a selfie."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S "OLD MAN" NO MORE

As a freshman in 2017, PK James Stefanou was the second oldest player overall in the FBS, but the oldest freshman; he assumed the mantle of being the oldest collegian in the game in 2018, but is back as the second-oldest this fall. One of the recent influxes of kickers from Australia, he came from a soccer background where he had elite level experience as a defender; he represented Australia on its U19 team, a youth progression team that is the feeder squad to the Olympic team. He also played professionally, most notably in two stints for South Melbourne FC, first from 2005-06 before he signed again with them in 2010. Stefanou got into football by training periodically over the course of six years (2012-17) at ProKick Australia, an academy developed to assist in the transition to American football by providing the fundamentals of punting and kicking. The elderly:

STEFANOUE AMONG TOP FIVE IN KICK ACCURACY

PK James Stefanou is currently in the top five in accuracy for both field goals as well extra-point kicks – one of just two players on both short lists (joined only by PK Will Oliver, 2011-14):

THE VERTICAL GAME (EXPLOSION PLAYS)

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 57 “explosion” plays in 2016, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that was the most by a CU team since 2007 (49 in 2017). Here’s a look at CU’s 20-plus plays in recent memory, not including bowls, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

AHEAD IN A BIG WAY

From 2006-15, the opponent had almost always had a distinct advantage in TSL (time spent in the lead), but CU reversed that and then some in 2016. The Buffs led for 457 minutes and 20 seconds, or 59 percent of the time; opponents for just 24 percent and the score tied the other 17 percent. CU led for more minutes in 2016 than it had in all 11 previous years after just eight games (and when it held the edge over an entire season just twice: 2005 and 2010. But alas, the opponent held a slight edge in both 2017 and 2018 (bowl games not included):

100/300

The Buffaloes have historically done well when holding the opponent to under 100 yards rushing and under 300 yards total offense. Dating back to the start of the 1985 season, Colorado is 103-15-1 when the opponent fails to reach 100 yards on the ground, and 104-20-1 when the enemy is held under 300 yards overall. CU is 10-1 and 15-0 in each, respectively, dating back to the start of the 2013 season.

FIVE, 5-0

Senior P Alex Kinney joined a handful of players in CU history to play in five games against the same opponent when he punted four times (in addition to holding on placements) in the season opener against Colorado State. He is the first Buffalo since TE Quinn Sypniewski, who lined up against the Rams in 2000-01-02-04-05; he lost two seasons after being injured early in 2003 and 2004 and was granted a sixth year.

—But: Kinney was 5-0 against Colorado State, believed to be either the first or second player in CU history to be involved in five wins against the same opponent. With no participation records available for the early years of the program, it can’t be confirmed, but Harry Gamble lettered six times (1891-96) and could have been 5-0 against the University of Denver.

RECORD WATCH

The Buffaloes have set 9 records (and tied 4 others) for a total of 13 thus far in 2019. NOTE: CU did not adopt the NCAA 2002 policy of adding bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers, thus some may differ from NCAA totals.

What Are The Odds? / We Found Out. CU continues to mystify the odds when it comes to winning the opening coin toss; it has won five of nine this year. More along the normal lines, but have still won 34 of the last 47 (73 percent); after that many tosses, the number probably most like should be hovering in the 45-55 percent range. We had a couple of responses when we asked any odds makers (or M.I.T. mathematicians) to chime in: after seven games, it was 1 in 3,486 to win something 34 of 45 times.

TURNOVER FREE

In 2017, Colorado saw its record run of consecutive quarters played without turning the ball over end at Washington State with a fourth quarter; the streak ended at a school-record 16 straight quarters (253:52 in total time), and nearly went four straight games without one as there was just 3:20 remaining in the 28-0 loss to WSU when the streak came to a close. Colorado played 17 games out of 74 under Mike MacIntyre without a turnover, the highest percentage in any CU head coach's tenure over two years since World War II. Mel Tucker wasted no time coaching his first turnover-free game, doing it in his debut against Colorado State and already has seen his teams have three mistake free games. Take a look (TFG—turnover free games; TG—total games):

- Colorado has now played three turnover-free games in 2019 (once again threatening the school record of four, set in six previous times, last in 2018).
- Colorado also played four turnover-free games in 2017, tying the school record previously accomplished in 1989, 1993, 2006 and 2011. It nearly had a fifth—an interception on a Hail Mary as time ran out at Arizona State was the lone turnover of that game.
- Post-World War II (dating back to 1946), Colorado has played 87 turnover-free games, owning a record of 56-27-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls).
- Colorado played at least three turnover-free games the last five seasons (2015-19), easily the longest streak in school history; the 15 games without a turnover over the last four-plus seasons are the most in any four-year span in school history, besting 11 mistake free games from 1987-90.
- Colorado has now had at least one turnover-free game for 10 straight seasons (2010-19, 27 total), tied for the longest run in school annals: the Buffs had at least one for 10 straight years (1998-2007, 19 total); CU also had a run of nine consecutive seasons (1987-95, 22 total).

LANDMAN HAS LANDMARK GAME

Junior ILB Nate Landman was a bright spot in CU's 45-3 loss at Oregon on Oct. 11; after the coaches video review, which CU has historically used for its defensive totals, he was credited with 16 tackles (all solo/unassisted; press box totals had him for 14, 10 solo). That tied for the fifth-most unassisted tackles in CU history, and the most since ILB Jordan Dizon had 17 against Colorado State in 2007.

15	(3-18)	Ryan Sutter	at Kansas State	Nov. 15, 1997
15	(2-17)	Clyde Surrell	Texas Tech	Oct. 26, 2002

- In his first career start on defense (in the 2018 season opener against Colorado State in Denver) he was in on 14 tackles (for solo), tied with three others for the most tackles in a first career start. He earned Pac-12 defensive pkayer of the week honors for his efforts.
- With 11 tackles against Arizona on Oct. 5, Landman became the 73rd player in school history to record 200 career tackles, doing so in just 28 career games. He finished that game with career totals of 123 solo and 77 assisted.
- He's rapidly climbing CU's all-time tackle list, as his 249 has him 29th all-time in total stops, while his 146 unassisted stops rank 26th (he is also 34th in tackles for loss with 23).
- He has 109 tackles this season (92 solo), or 12.1 per game; barring injury, he's on pace to finish with the most stops since ILB Jordon Dizon racked up 160 in 2007 (120 solo).
- He has 13 career double-digit tackle games (six this season); his personal best is tackles (11 solo) against Utah in Boulder in 2018.

ELEVEN HAVE DASHED 100 ... OR FURTHER

In 2017 (Oct. 28), then-junior DB Nick Fisher joined a very exclusive club when he returned an interception 100 yards in the fourth quarter to close out CU's 44-28 win over California. It was the 11th 100-yard play in CU history, the fourth interception return of that length. However, the NCAA seals returns at a 100-yard maximum; if it allowed returns to be scored like the NFL, counting end zone yardage, Fisher would have been credited with a 109-yard return (CU's head statistician is also the Broncos'). It was the first 100-yard interception return since 1996, when FS Steve Rosga pulled it off against Oklahoma State (his would have been 105 yards). ILB Marcus Burton came close in 2005, when he picked one off at the half yard line and raced 99 yards for a score — at Oklahoma State.

GRADUATION REVIEW

(Through August 2019) Over the last 18 years, Colorado has had 330 of its 364 seniors graduate, or translating to 90.7 percent in this time frame (including 20 of the 23 seniors in 2018); these are the 2001-2018 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last 11 years, 215 of the last 234 have graduated (91.9%), with eight of those 19 either playing in the NFL or attempting to do so and haven't yet been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.63 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2019 semester is its second highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has 17 straight semesters over a 2.5 (data collected since 1996).

100+ RETURN YARDS NOT THAT COMMON

Often lost in all the conversation about total offense and defense are return yards — but they often swing a game. In 2017, CU owned a 396-234 edge, and had two games with 100-plus return yards (116-9 versus Texas State and 126-5 against Cal). CU's had just five games since 2002 with over 100 returns yards in a game (and have had two in the same season since 2002; the last time with three was 2001). In 2016, CU had 175 against UCLA in its 20-10 win, and they played a huge role, accounting for one touchdown via punt return and setting up CU's lone offensive score via an interception return. It was the most return yards by the Buffs since Oct. 26, 2002, when they had 183 in a 37-13 win over Texas Tech (125 interception, 44 punt, 14 fumble). The other two games with 100-plus came in 2008 against Eastern Washington (135) and in 2013 against Central Arkansas (125).

- In the '18 opener against Colorado State, the Buffaloes owned an 87-0 edge in return yards, most coming on punts (85 yards); those collectively set CU up at their own 28-yard line; at Nebraska, the edge was 32-(-2). All told, CU had the advantage in eight games in 2018 with an overall edge of 372-275.
- For the ultimate example of how rare 100 return yards can be, look no further than CU's game at UCLA in 2017. The Buffs held the edge in return yardage ... 1-0. There were no punt or fumble returns, no miscellaneous returns, and the only yard game on the lone interception and return of the game. And then against Arizona, the Wildcats had a 6-0 edge (a single punt return).
- Through eight games in 2019, CU and the opponent have combined for just 227 return yards (CU 69, Opponent 158 — most of the opponents have come on interception returns — 107).

PRICE MADE MARK AS A FROSH

PK Davis Price joined the team as a recruited walk-on in June 2016, and wound up seeing action as a true freshman due to a season-ending injury in the Michigan game to Diego Gonzalez. He was first pressed into service as the kickoff specialist at Oregon in game four, and the next week, he was promoted into the first-team role the next week for Oregon State. He responded by making all five of his extra point tries and both of his field goals, including a 54-yard boot on his first try, the CU record for both the longest made by a freshman and the longest first-career make. He was recognized for his performance as the Pac-12's Special Teams Player of the Week; the 54-yarder was the longest by a freshman in the NCAA in 2016 and tied for the fourth-longest overall.

- A FIRST? It was for sure for CU: United Airlines provides the team charter for CU's travel, and for the 2016 USC trip, the pilot was Doug Price — Davis' father. A CU graduate himself, he is an Air Force Veteran who has been flying for United for 22 years; he normally flies military charters bringing troops back home from overseas.
- THE SECOND. He piloted CU's charter to and from Seattle for the Washington game this season, and it was extra special as his sons handled all the kicking chores in the game: Davis the punting and kickoff duties, and freshman Evan the placekicking (he made good on all three kicks, two field goals and a PAT). It was Evan's first game as he replaced an injured James Stefanou on the trip.

HEAD COACH MEL TUCKER

Mel Tucker is in his first season as a collegiate head coach, as he was named as Colorado's 26th full-time head coach on December 5, 2018. He thus owns a CU and career record of 3-6 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). A veteran of 22 seasons as coach (all on the defensive side of the ball), that run includes 10 years on three staffs in the National Football League from 2005-14 before he returned to the college ranks. He thus brings an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, most recently as the defensive coordinator for the Georgia Bulldogs, who compiled a 32-9 record in his three years at the school, knocking heads with perennial power Alabama, where he was the assistant head coach to Nick Saban and the defensive backs coach for the Crimson Tide's 2015 national championship team. That was Tucker's second national championship team that he was a part of, as he was the defensive backs coach under Jim Tressel for Ohio State's 2002 BCS title team. He has been a member of three Saban staffs, as he began his coaching career in 1997 as a graduate assistant under him at Michigan State, and was with him for the 2000 season at Louisiana State (2000). In the NFL, he spent four seasons on both the Cleveland Brown and Jacksonville Jaguar staffs and two years with the Chicago Bears, with seven of those years as a defensive coordinator. At the tail end of the 2011 season, he served as interim head for the Jaguars after Jack Del Rio was relieved of his duties, guiding the team to a 2-3 record to finish the year. Prior to CU, the teams he was a part of posted a 173-141 won-lost record, but that included a 114-40 mark in the college ranks.

- ◆ Tucker, 47, has coached in a total of 323 football games in his career (9 as a collegiate head coach; 5 as an interim NFL head coach): 163 in NCAA Division I/FBS (130 as a full-time assistant; 24 as a grad assistant at Michigan State); plus 160 in the National Football League (155 as an assistant coach).
- ◆ He has coached in 11 bowl games/postseason championships: 1997 Aloha, 2000 Peach, 2002 Outback, 2003 Fiesta/BCS National Championship, 2004 Fiesta, 2004 Alamo, 2015 Cotton/CFP Semifinal, 2016 CFP title game, 2016 Liberty, 2018 Rose/CFP Semifinal, 2018 CFP/National Championship.
- ◆ Coming to CU from Georgia, he didn't change fight songs: both schools incorporate the Battle Hymn of the Republic into their tunes.
- ◆ He is the second African-American head football coach at Colorado, as Jon Embree headed the program in 2011-12. He joins David Shaw (ninth year at Stanford), Herm Edwards (second season at Arizona State) and Kevin Sumlin (second season at Arizona) as black head coaches in the Pac-12 Conference. There are 13 in Division I/FBS, with the Big Ten having three (Illinois, Maryland, Penn State). Thus, the conferences tied into the Rose Bowl have seven African-Americans coaching their affiliate schools.
- ◆ Tucker has coached five NFL first round draft picks along with recruiting four others: Coached: CB Chris Gamble (Ohio State; No. 28 overall pick by Carolina, 2004 Draft); CB Donte Whitner (Ohio State; No. 6, Buffalo, 2006); CB Marlon Humphrey (Alabama; No. 16, Baltimore, 2017); S Minkah Fitzpatrick (Alabama; No. 11, Miami, 2018); LB Roquan Smith (Georgia; No. 8, Chicago, 2018).
Recruited: WR Ted Ginn, Jr. (Ohio State; No. 9, Miami, 2007); WR Anthony Gonzalez (Ohio State; No. 32, Indianapolis, 2007); CB Vernon Gholston (Ohio State; No. 6, N.Y. Jets, 2008); CB/S Malcolm Jenkins (Ohio State; No. 14, New Orleans, 2009).
- ◆ His father, Mel Tucker Sr., is a longtime close friend of John Wooten, CU's All-American guard in the mid-1950s who went on to play nine seasons with the Cleveland Browns and one with the Washington Redskins before starting a long and illustrious career in NFL administration. The families grew close from their time in Cleveland; Wooten was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012.
- ◆ Tucker is not the first to be hired at Colorado with no previous collegiate head coaching experience, though he does have five games in the National Football League as an interim head coach. In the modern era (post-World War II), he joins an impressive list in Dal Ward (1948), Sonny Grandelius (1959), Eddie Crowder (1963), Bill McCartney (1982), Rick Neuheisel (1995) and Jon Embree (2011) as full-time coaches who were previously assistants. McCartney, of course, went on to become CU's all-time winningest coach with a 93-55-5 record over 13 seasons, and all but Embree had winning records.
- ◆ Tucker became the sixth Colorado head coach to have their debut at the reins of the program televised nationally, as he joined Chuck Fairbanks (ESPN; 1979 vs. Oregon), Neuheisel (ABC; 1995 at Wisconsin), Gary Barnett (FOX; 1999, Colorado State in Denver), Embree (ESPN2; 2011 at Hawai'i) and Mike MacIntyre (CBS-SN; 2013, Colorado State in Denver).
- ◆ Tucker won his first two games against ranked opponents; only Neuheisel in 1995 won more (three); Barnett is the only other to win his first (1999).
- ◆ A 1995 graduate of the University of Wisconsin, earning his bachelor's degree in Agricultural Business Management. A member of the first recruiting class on Wisconsin head coach Barry Alvarez, he lettered at defensive back for the Badgers (and actually played a game against CU in Boulder in 1994).
- ◆ CONTRACT. Tucker was officially named CU's 26th full-time head coach on Dec. 5, 2018, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $14.75 million overall ($500,000 base; $950,000 radio/TV income & public appearances; $950,000 assisting with promotions and fundraising income), plus various incentives that add to over $1 million. The base salary will increase by $75,000 and the other two major components by $100,000 annually.
- ◆ Tucker is NOT a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll; coaches are selected by a random draw. CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 29 of the last 33 seasons.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MEL TUCKER

NICK SABAN, Alabama Head Coach

"I've known Mel for well over 20 years and he is one of the brightest coaches in our profession. I think he will do an outstanding job as the head coach of the Colorado Buffaloes. They are getting a guy with a great personality, who knows college football, works hard each and every day, and does it with a tremendous amount of enthusiasm and positive energy."

KIRBY SMART, Georgia Head Coach

"When I came to Georgia, one of my top priorities was to bring Mel Tucker in as defensive coordinator. He is an exceptional coach, coordinator and trusted friend. He has a great combination of college experience, time in the NFL and has been a remarkable mentor to our players. Mel has been one of the major influences in the success we have had and we will certainly miss him. I look forward to following his career at Colorado."

BARRY ALVAREZ, Wisconsin A.D. (Tucker's College Coach)

"Mel was a part of my first recruiting class at Wisconsin and helped us turn the program around. He is an outstanding individual and a really good football person. His background, the people and the programs he has worked for and the success he's been a part of is very impressive. He's been successful at both the NFL and college level. He is truly a quality individual and the people at Colorado are going to love Mel."

ROMEO CRENNEL, Houston Texans Defensive Coordinator

"Congratulations to Mel Tucker and the Colorado Buffaloes on a fantastic hire. Mel is a great coach with a proven track record of success, but he's also a tremendous person with a great family that will represent the university with nothing but class. I look forward to seeing the program he will build at Colorado and wish him the best of luck."

JIM TRESSEL, Ohio State Head Coach (2001-10)

"Mel Tucker is a special communicator, a family man, and a superb football coach. The Buffalo Football Family will thrive under Mel's leadership. A man with high expectations for himself and his student-athletes, Colorado Football will enjoy a terrific recruiter, football strategist, and an "all-in" member of the community."

JOHN WOOTEN, Former Buff ('58)/CFB Hall of Fame Inductee

(After learning Tucker was hired) "Today, I am as happy as I was when we beat Clemson to win the 1957 Orange Bowl. Mel Tucker has been one of the top people in football as a coach and is a top quality person. Our families go back a long, long time. This is a sensational young man, a man of integrity just like his father. I am so excited that Rick George and the CU leadership believe Mel is the right person for the job. I would have told them so ahead of time... I am just thrilled with this."

CHRIS FOWLER, ESPN CFB Personality (CU Alum)

"Mel is a strong, inspired choice to lead the Buffs' football program. I've spent a lot of time around the UGA program and have been impressed with his football savvy, communication skills, and recruiting talents. He has worked very hard for this opportunity and I believe he will seize it and succeed."

JOEL KLATT, FOX Sports CFB Personality (CU Alum)

"Coach Tucker is one of the most respected in the industry with a long track record of success coaching with the best college football and the NFL have to offer. Beloved by his players, Coach Tucker has a rare ability to connect with and motivate today's athlete. His defenses and teams have been some of the most successful, and more importantly, toughest teams in the sport."

BRIAN IWUH, CU Linebacker ('05), Jacksonville Jaguar (2009)

"Mel was great, a very good coach, just a solid guy who tells it like it is. I enjoyed playing for Mel. He got along with all of us, everybody liked him and was fond of him. His big thing was, 'scoop and score.' He always wanted the defense to make an impact. Get after the ball, let's score on defense."

PAUL POSLUSZNY, Former Jacksonville Jaguar

"I believe that Coach Tucker will absolutely make a great head coach, especially at the collegiate level. He has great command, presence, and he's very influential. He's very structured, detailed, and organized as well. I would have run through a brick wall if he asked me to." (Posluszny won the Bednarik Award twice (2005-06), and won the 2005 Butkus Award)

INAUGURATIONS

Mel Tucker was named the 26th full-time head coach in Colorado history last December 5, the 16th dating back to 1935; after the first 10 CU coaches opened 8-1-1, the last 15 have gone 2-13. Mike MacIntyre became just the second coach in that group to win his CU opener in an 81-year span with a 41-27 win over Colorado State in Denver in 2013; the only other coach to do so since Herbert Hoover was U.S. President was Rick Neuheisel, who saw his team defeat Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7, in 1995 (one year after Tucker graduated). Both teams have scored 10 or more points in a new CU chief's debut only nine times, all since 1959. Overall, Colorado coaches are 11-14-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look (number in parenthesis indicates how many games that coach won in a row to begin career):

... AND IN CONFERENCE PLAY

Head coaches have had more success in their first conference game piloting the Buffaloes, going 17-8 including Tucker's first CU squad winning 34-31 at Arizona State on Sept. 21 (CU was an independent in 1905 when Willis Kleinholtz coached his lone season). He is the first since Gary Barnett won his Big 12 Conference debut, a 51-17 win over Kansas in Boulder; the last three CU head coaches lost their league lid-lifters. As far as winning their first conference game on the road, Tucker became the sixth to do so (number in parenthesis is how many league wins in a row that coach started with):

1920 Myron Witham	at Denver	W 31- 0 (2)	1963 Eddie Crowder	at Kansas State	W 21- 7 (2)

COLORADO NEAR THE TOP IN ALL-TIME 1,000-YARD / 2,000-YARD CAREER RUNNERS

In 2018, Travon McMillian became the 54th player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career, doing so with 1,009 yards in his only season in Boulder after being a graduate transfer from Virginia Tech. QB Steven Montez could be next in line, as he enters his senior year with 807 yards (he's well over 1,00 yards when you subtract sacks); he's looking to become the seventh quarterback to crack 1,000 career rushing yards. CU is sixth all-time in known 1,000-yard runners (many schools don't know the number). Oklahoma tops the list with 77, as well the 2K list with 32 (the Buffs are tied for 11th with the most 2,000-yard career runners, 19). The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 1K and 2K plateaus:

Oklahoma	77/32	Texas A & M	47/20	Illinois	44/17	Indiana	41/13	Kentucky	36/ 9	Florida	--/18

LSU	48/16	Mississippi	45/ 8	Michigan State	41/16	East Carolina	36/17	Northern Illinois	--/19

In 1989, Colorado had four players on the roster at the same time with at least 1,000 career yards: TB Eric Bieniemy, TB J.J. Flannigan, QB Darian Hagan and FB Erich Kissick. Only two other times did the Buffs have three players that had hit that plateau on the same team, in 1993: FB James Hill, TB Rashaan Salaam and TB Lamont Warren and in 2015: Christian Powell, Michael Adkins and Phillip Lindsay.

Historical Note. Colorado is 1-yard away from another 2,000-yard rusher: Carroll Hardy ('54) ended his career with 1,999 yards. CU's SID at the time, Fred Casotti, never forgave himself for that one, especially since his final game came against Kansas State, when he had 10 carries for 238 yards. In that 38-14 win, the Buffs rushed 36 times for 493 yards, or 13.7 yards per; he no doubt could have picked up that extra yard. Hardy went on to play pro football and baseball, and his claim to fame was becoming the only player to pinch-hit for Ted Williams (he also pinch-hit for Roger Maris and Carl Yastrzemski).

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 130th season of competition having played 1,258 games with an all-time record of 708-514-36. CU currently stands 26th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (.577; the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 130 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,266), with only USC (844) and Washington (740) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 408-200-16 (.667) all-time and 316-178-10 (.637) in 96 seasons on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 7-9 all-time in overtime games (4-6 at home), with seven losses by three points; the Buffs became the 84th team in FBS/I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last 13 seasons, Buffs rallied to win from 10 or more points down 13 times, including rallying from its largest deficits ever against CSU and Nebraska. Three of the rallies have come from 17 down: this season against Nebraska, the turning point a 96-yard flea-flicker from QB Steven Montez to WR K.D. Nixon that pulled CU to within three; In 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Nine have taken place in Boulder, a 10th in Denver against CSU, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2018 was 274,852, an average of 45,809 for six home games, a slight decrease after four straight years of increases. It will mark the 24th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest average draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 42nd time in the last 44 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count for 2017 was 32,308 when adding in 11,500 student holders to 20,808 public tickets (student tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2018, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 53rd straight year, ahead of Colorado State (29,504, six games) and Air Force (27,701, six games; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965). The Broncos averaged 76,446 fans per game in 2018; the Rockies averaged 36,954 this past summer (2019).

THE BUFFS IN NFL STADIUMS

The Buffaloes have played 25 games to date in seven current NFL venues, owning a record of 15-10 (11-5 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City and 0-1 in Santa Clara). All-time, the Buffs are 21-21-1 playing games in stadiums that simultaneously hosted NFL teams (13-6 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in Irving, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 2-3 in Houston, 1-2 in Miami 1-2 in Tempe, 0-2-1 in Anaheim, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City, 0-1 in Santa Clara and 0-3 in Los Angeles).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986.

Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 25 straight games overall, dating back to being shut out at Washington State (0-28) in 2017 (snapping a 60-game scoring streak).
- CU has scored in 166 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).
- The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 326 games (all the way back to 1963).
- CU has been shutout just four times in the last 380 games overall (by Missouri in 2008 and 2010, by Stanford in 2012 and Washington State in 2017).
- CU has been shutout just 11 times in its last 613 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford.

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 41-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 245 of 281 times, losing 34 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 36 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss was this past Oct. 25, a 35-31 setback to USC after entering the final stanza with a 31-28 advantage. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 130 of its last 155 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 41 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter. The most recent was the 34-31 win over Nebraska on Sept. 7 of this year: the Cornhuskers led 17-0 late in the third period when the Buffaloes started taking over the game. It was the second year in a row CU rallied in the fourth to beat Nebraska. Previous to those, the last two rallies were a 36-33 win at Oregon State in 2017 and a 41-38 win at Oregon in 2016. Two of the biggest ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

INJURIES UP AGAIN IN 2018 AFTER TWO PEDESTRIAN YEARS

Injuries were kept to a minimum the last two seasons after a flurry in 2015, as that season 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. But in 2018, it was a different story as injuries hit 11 different starting positions (including punter and placekicker) that lost their starter for multiple games. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 33 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost —percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 24 positions (including kickers and punters plus backups):

Dating back to 1987, only 15 times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12-13-15-16-17-18).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 86-52 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 88-51-1 in its last 140 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);

18 TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 18 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Junior CB Dante Wigley is the most recent to accomplish it, racing 27 yards with his first pick for a touchdown versus Oregon State on Oct. 27. S Nick Fisher did it in grand style on Oct. 28, 2017: he picked off a pass in the end zone against Cal, his momentum taking him back nine yards deep, and then he raced 109 yards for the score (100 officially by the NCAA). Previous to that, ILB Rick Gamboa returned a deflected pass 20 yards for a score against OSU in 2016, and ILB Kenneth Olugbode had the one before that, racing 60 yards for a score in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State in 2015. That was the first in eight years, going back to 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith had a 31-yard return that cut Nebraska's lead to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. Prior to that was another spectacular one: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

➤ And three did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998), Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002) and Laviska Shenault (2017 vs. Texas State).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

The longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (he would miss the final six games of the season). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games this season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home). SID Dave Plati has worked 470 overall in person (a streak of 410 dating from the '83 finale to the sixth game of 2017; a streak of 250 straight home games and 272 in the state of Colorado are intact); Darian Hagan has been a part of 267 (120 in two stints as an assistant coach, 62 as a football staff member, 35 as the Alumni C-Club director and 49 as a player); Gary Barnett, now an analyst with KOA, has worked 241 (106 as an assistant coach, 87 as head coach and 48 on the radio); Mark Johnson, who succeeded Zimmer as the voice of the Buffaloes, has called 196 games. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID/associate AD from 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games (including 268 in a row at Folsom) prior to his passing in 2001. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games — since 1940 and every single one — 356 — since 1958 (they're 93). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 47th year as a member of the CU football stat crew in 2019; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 11th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 18 seniors on its 2019 roster, and as history has indicated, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season. So far this season, 30 teams have sent reps to the Colorado State game: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Houston, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, L.A. Chargers, Miami, Minnesota, New England, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Oakland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Seattle, Tampa Bay, Tennessee and Washington (26 teams visited in 2017 and 2018; 28 in 2016). Not including camps or practices, 1,019 NFL scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 home, road and neutral sites). At the 2016 UCLA game in Boulder, the record for a CU game occurred: 31 scouts from 20 teams were in attendance for the game (next most: 20 for USC in 2017).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 15 former Colorado Buffaloes currently on the 2019 National Football League rosters (as of November 3; 15 were on final rosters in 2018 after 19 started out in camps). Colorado has had 245 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 273 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and 22nd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002 (10th, 29). ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three even remained on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) is the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseason combined; he set the record with a 21-yard field goal late in the Packs' 27-17 win over Seattle on Sept. 20, 2015, his 13th point of the night (he made all four field goal tries in the game, including a 54-yarder, and an extra point). Through games of Nov. 3, he has scored 1,531 points in 201 regular season games (24th in NFL history) and 137 in 18 playoff games for a total of 1,668 (he also made an NFL record 23 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks: 319 regular season (26th all-time) and 26 postseason; his 574 extra points made are 16th all-time. He is fourth on the points list and third on the field goal chart for players who have/had spent their career with just one team. Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points.

➔ How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawai'i (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,384/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349), WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary in August 2015.

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 326-29-1 when scoring 30 or more points (3-2 in 2019, 18-6 over the last three years), with records of 235-9 with 35-plus points and 218-7 with 36-plus, 193-5 with 38-plus and 124-2 with 43 or more tallies. The seven losses with 36 or more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012), California (59-56 in 20T in 2014) and Arizona in 2017 (45-42). CU has played 1,258 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 120-125-3 in its last 248 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
 - ➔ Colorado, however, is only 18-60 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 158 of its last 365 games, posting a 133-24-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 240 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 27-108-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. Technically the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year (6.7; CU did average 5.98 per first down play in 2016). Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, the lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ In 2016, the Buffs had their best average on first down in years: CU averaged 5.98, its best since 2001 (6.7).
 - ➔ Thus far in 2019, the Buffs are averaging 5.84 yards on for 252 first down plays (gaining five or more on 113 of those).
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 64 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 21 seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 83 scores by return in 301 games (76 regular season, seven bowl). In the Tucker Era, Colorado has 1 (which happened in his first game—a 9-yard fumble return against Colorado State by Mustafa Johnson).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 53 times in the last 326 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it 1 time under Tucker (1-0). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 2001 (and threatened to do it in 2016). The Buffs are 51-8 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 59-11 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ 600+. Colorado is 17-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first loss was last year when the Buffs had 630 in the 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU is 0-0 under Tucker; the last two games with 600-plus were against Nicholls State in 2015 and Washington State, 2016.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 98-105 in its last 203 games on grass, including a 63-62 mark at home (13-9 in the last 22 games at Folsom), dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass (CU is 18-13 on grass over the last three-plus seasons).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 100-67-3 in its last 170 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 65-50-3 mark in conference games. CU was 1-3 in 2018 (and 0-2 this year under Mel Tucker).
- ➔ First Quarter Dominance. Dating to the start of 2016 (47 games), Colorado has been fairly dominant in the first quarter: the Buffs have outscored its opponents 333-252 with edges in total offense of 175 yards and plus-8 in TO margin.
- ➔ Goal-to-Go Situations: Over the last six seasons, the Buffs have scored in 125 out of 139 situations when it has been first-and-goal. This includes 101 touchdowns and 24 field goals, thus the TD percentage is 72.7 and the overall percentage is 89.9. The 14 non-scores: seven fourth down misses, four missed field goals (from 26, 28, 31 and 33 yards) and three turnovers.
- ➔ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 19-4 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover (1-1 under Tucker, including his first game as coach, the 52-31 win over Colorado State). In these 23 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 905-509 (only seven games decided by less than 17 points).
- ➔ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 87 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 56-27-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under Tucker, CU is 1-2.
- ➔ Time Spent In The Lead. The Buffaloes held leads in 11 of 14 games in 2016 (two-score leads in 10 of those), and were ahead for a total of 457:20 on the season. That's the second-most by a hair in the 21 years CU has tracked the stat (CU led for 458:01 in 1996—a 12-game season including the bowl).
 - ➔ In 2017, CU held the edge up until the season finale at Utah, and for the year, the opponent wound up with a 302:13 to 285:30 (tied 132:17).
 - ➔ In 2018, CU led 37 percent of the time (268:07), having led in the first 11 games of the year; the Buffs trailed in nine for 280:39.
- ➔ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2016, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season 16 times, including three of the last five seasons (417.6 in 2017), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season. CU was averaging over 400 through 10 games in 2018 but finished just below at 392.6.
 - ➔ CU opened 2019 with 475 yards against Colorado State.
 - ➔ The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once – 303.5 – in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just four times, including 2014 and 2016 (254.4).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Dating back to 1993, opponents are just 5-of-133 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense have had streaks of 51 and 30 in this span (Stanford is the last team to convert one, in 2011; the opponent is now 0-of-24 since). The CU offense is 12-of-149 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span (last converting on a 3rd-&-27 in the Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State).
- ➔ CU has scored in 24 of 36 quarters and in one overtime in 2019 (33 of 48 last year, including 15 in a row in one stretch) and in 92 of 132 quarters dating back to the start of the 2017 season).

TURNOVER ANALYSIS / TUCKER ERA

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics usually back up the argument, thus we will chart the numbers under Mel Tucker. A closer look:

Tucker Era	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
3 WINS	3	8	+5	20	10	+10
6 LOSSES	9	7	- 2	17	38	-21
9 GAMES	12	15	+3	37	48	- 11

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 28-24 in games following a bye week in the post-World War II Era (or since 1946); after the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference in 1948, CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 32 of 35 seasons, with two weeks off 12 of those years (including 2019) and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 24-21 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes a 2-6 mark as a member of the Pac-12 (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013, at USC and Oregon in 2014, at Utah in 2017 and to Arizona in 2019; and wins over UCLA in 2016 and 2018).

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

There are two players on the current CU roster that scored a touchdown on their first career touch. In 2017, WR Laviska Shenault joined the club when he picked up a fumble on punt return duty and raced 55 yards for a score. In 2018, WR Daniel Arias caught a 37-yard pass from QB Steven Montez to become the 16th known player to do so in CU history (he did so in his hometown, making it even more special). Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see page 37), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

Player	Date	Opponent	Score	How	Player	Date	Opponent	Score	How
Lamar Meyer	Sept. 18, 1954	DRAKE	W 61- 0	26 pass from Frank Bernardi	James Kidd	Sept. 11, 1993	BAYLOR	W 45-21	25 pass from Vance Joseph

SOUTH PARK RALPHIE INTRO

Most know that the creators of Comedy Central's popular South Park are University of Colorado alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. Trey voices Eric Cartman; he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that debuted during the countdown to kickoff prior to the 2014 Arizona State game. It's been a hit since, especially among the CU student section. Cartman is seen in his usual garb and he introduced Ralphie before the real buffalo led the Buffs on the field.

2019 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).
- 1909 Colorado finished 6-0 the first of three in a row to do so while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. CU squeezes by the State Prep School and an Alumni squad, both by 3-0 scores, but follow those up with routs over Colorado A&M (57-0) and New Mexico (53-0) before closing with road wins over Colorado College (9-0) and Colorado Mines (16-0).
- 1914 The 105th anniversary of a 5-1 Colorado team, the next-to-last squad that Fred Folsom would coach in Boulder, but what would be his last winner (CU went 1-6 in his final year in 1915).
- 1924 (Oct. 11) The 95th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State on its way to an 8-1-1 record, which included its first overseas games—two in Hawai'i.
- 1934 (Nov. 10) The 85th anniversary of CU's 7-6 win over Utah, snapping a nine-game losing streak at the time against its conference archrival. It's the first game that the school is known as the "Buffaloes" following a contest in the school newspaper to come up with a permanent nickname. In the 7-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day, the foundation for future Ralphie's is laid down when students rent a buffalo calf and more or less control it on the sidelines during the win.
- 1939 The Buffaloes open 0-3, but would go on and post their best finish after such a start, rallying to win five in a row to finish 5-3 and win their first Mountain States Conference title.
- 1949 (Oct. 29) The 70th anniversary of perhaps the wackiest game in CU history when it comes to the weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.
- 1954 The 65th anniversary of one of the most prolific rushing offenses in Colorado history, the unit averaging 316 yards per game, ranking third in the nation. John Bayuk (824 yards), Frank Bernardi (668), Carroll Hardy (642), Homer Jenkins (446) and Emerson Wilson (419) combine to average 6.8 yards per carry and 31 touchdowns in CU's 7-2-1 season.
- 1959 The 60th anniversary of Sonny Grandelius' first season as CU coach, as well as what tied for the second-largest comeback in school history, a 21-20 win over Missouri on Halloween (Oct. 31). Trailing 20-6 with 13:05 left, Gale Weidner threw one touchdown pass (12 yards to Jerry Hillebrand), completed a 2-point pass to Jim Counter, and then ran in the game-tying score himself with 6:15 left; Boyd Dowler converted the PAT kick for the winning margin.
- 1964 The 55th anniversary of Eddie Crowder's second CU team; though it repeated with a 2-8 record with one fewer win in Big 8 play, observers could see the future: in 1963, Colorado's five league losses came by a combined 132 points; in '64, this six by 39 (including four by a total of 12).
- 1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players, including tri-captain Bill Collins, while the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time. Bobby Anderson is moved from quarterback to tailback the third game of the season and goes on to earn All-America honors. On Oct. 25, the Buffs topple No. 5 Missouri, 31-24 in Boulder, the Tigers' lone conference loss of the year. The '69 team will be honored this year at the Arizona game (Oct. 6).
- 1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-4, but won nine of the last 10 by an average margin of 19 points. The series finally resumes some 45 years later this September in Boulder.
- 1979 (Sept. 8) The 40th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.
- 1984 (Sept. 15) The 35th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver, despite CU's new two-tight offense being revealed by the Denver Post in one of those weak "public's right to know" defenses. CU is never the same after the injury and fights its way through a 1-10 season.
- 1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer. His replacement, Darian Hagan, leads the team to the first of three straight undefeated seasons in Big 8 conference play and finishes fifth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy. The season is defined with back-to-back wins at Oklahoma (20-3) and then over No. 3 Nebraska (27-21).
- 1994 The 25th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.
- 1999 The 20th anniversary of Gary Barnett returning to head the program where he spent nine seasons as an assistant (1983-91); along the way, CU defeats at least one ranked opponent for a 12th straight season, plays in and wins its first overtime game in its history (46-39 over Missouri) and a monster bowl win (62-36 over Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl) extends CU's bowl winning streak to a nation's best six games.
- 2004 (Oct. 16) Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60-yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State. And 10 years after "The Catch," Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh hook up for the exact same distance—64 yards—with five seconds left to give CU a 38-31 win over Kansas State. Colorado, 1-4 in league play entering November, won its last three Big 12 games in rallying to win the Big 12 North Division.
- 2009 (Oct. 17) One of the few highlights in an otherwise disappointing season, CU defeated No. 17 Kansas, 34-30, in a thriller at Folsom Field. It stood as the last win over a ranked team by the Buffaloes for seven years.
- 2014 In a season where there wasn't much to celebrate (2-10, 0-9 in the Pac-12), Nelson Spruce had an outstanding year in catching a school-record 106 passes, the first to make 100 or more in a season at Colorado. Four of the league losses were by a combined 15 points, including a 59-56 loss at Cal in two overtimes.

BUFFS ON ESPN'S GAMEDAY

Colorado has hosted ESPN's College GameDay three times (Sept. 23, 1995 vs. Texas A&M, Oct. 28, 1995 vs. Nebraska, Sept. 14, 1996 vs. Michigan); the Buffs have been the visiting team on three occasions as well (Oct. 29, 1994 at Nebraska, Sept. 30, 1995 at Oklahoma, Sept. 13, 1997 at Michigan).

The Buffs are 59-63-2 in their last 124 October games dating back to 1989 and is 71-41 in its last 112 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. The Buffs are 5-9 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and are 4-3-1 in August games in its history.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS FOR 2019

Here are the Pac-12 bowl agreements that were signed in 2014 and run through the 2020 season; the conference's lineup for the 2019 bowl season:

- # 1 Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (Pasadena; Jan. 1, vs. Big Ten; if in CFP semifinal; otherwise, see below).
 # 2 Valero Alamo (San Antonio; Dec. 31 vs. Big 12)
 # 3 San Diego County Credit Union Holiday (Dec. 27 vs. Big Ten)

- # 4 San Francisco (Santa Clara; Dec. 30 vs. Big Ten)
 # 5 Hyundai Sun (El Paso; Dec. 31 vs. ACC/Notre Dame)
 # 6 Mitsubishi Motors Las Vegas (Dec. 21 vs. MW or BYU)
 # 7 Cheez-It (Phoenix; Dec. 27 vs. Big 12)

Note: If the Pac-12 champion is in the top four of the College Football Playoff poll following the 2019 season it would play in either the Fiesta or Peach bowls as a participant in the CFP semifinals. If the champion is not among those four, it will play in the Rose.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Colorado State; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Arizona State, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Massachusetts, Nebraska and Notre Dame. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (14), Washington (9), Missouri and Texas (5), and LSU, Michigan, Ohio State and Oklahoma State (3).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches, the BCS and the CFP; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 29 seasons (1990-2018), the 18th most nationally when it comes to trophies (and tied for 17th as well in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage, etc. awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2018 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

OPPONENTS & 2019 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2019 Colorado schedule combined for an 80-72 record in 2018 (52.6 winning percentage); six teams earned bowl invitations and four won 9 or more games.

- The Buffaloes opened on a weeknight for the sixth straight season (2015 in Honolulu, and 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 in Denver); the Buffs opened the 2013 season on a Sunday, so Colorado has not opened a season on a Saturday since 2012. Mel Tucker became only the second of 26 head coaches at Colorado to open his career on a non-Saturday.
- Friday Night Lights. The Buffaloes played on three Friday nights this fall (1-2 record), once at home (against USC on Oct. 25), once on the road (at Oregon on Oct. 11) and once at a neutral site (the season opener on Aug. 30 against Colorado State in Denver). It was just the second time in 130 seasons that the Buffaloes played three regular season games on a Friday, and for the second year in a row at that; it's just the third time the Buffs had as many as three non-Saturday games in the same regular season as well: in 2009, the Buffs played five: two on a Thursday, two on a Friday and one on a Sunday.
- The two other Division I/FBS schools in the state, Air Force and Colorado, appeared on the CU schedule for just the second time, and for the first time since 1958 (or 61 years ago). Back then and unbeknownst to all at the time, it was the last time that CU and CSU would play until the rivalry was revived in 1983; that season also marked the first-ever meeting between the Buffaloes and Air Force, as the Falcons' program was born just three years earlier in 1955 (when they played just a freshmen schedule); but by '58, AFA would go 9-0-2 and tie TCU (0-0) in the Cotton Bowl. CSU defeated CU, 15-14 and Air Force got the best of the Buffs, 20-14; with both games in Boulder, they wound up being the last two under coach Dal Ward, who was let go when the team finished 6-4, losing four of its last five after opening 5-0 and rising to No. 9 in the nation.
- Air Force, Stanford and Washington all have byes the week before playing Colorado this fall; the Buffs do have the same week off prior to hosting Washington on Nov. 23, and was off on Sept. 28 when Arizona hosted UCLA before traveling to Boulder on Oct. 5.
- Colorado will travel 7,014 miles round-trip for its non-Boulder games in 2019: CSU (Denver, 60), Arizona State (Tempe, 1,178), Oregon (Eugene, 1,916), Washington State (Pullman, 1,512), UCLA (Pasadena, 1,636) and Utah (Salt Lake City, 712). CU traveled 8,028 miles in 2018, 7,086 in 2017 and 11,704 in 2016 (two extra games).
- With three Friday night affairs, Colorado will have had at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 24th straight season; the Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But starting in 2013, the game with the Utes has been passed on by the Pac-12's television partners for Friday airing.
- Pac-12 Conference regular season matters: The Buffaloes will not play California or Oregon State in 2019 (replaced by Oregon and Stanford, both of whom CU last played in 2016). CU hosts Stanford and will travel to Oregon, with the reverse in the 2020 season. Cal and OSU will return to the CU schedule in 2021, at which time the Buffs will have a two-year hiatus from playing Stanford and Washington State.

Air Force. Arizona State. Arizona. This is the first time since 1936 that CU played three straight games against schools that start with the same letter (in '36, CU won three straight over Colorado Mines, Colorado A&M (State) and Colorado College. It will be the 11th time overall, playing three straight C schools nine times previously and three D schools once (CU has played two schools starting with the same letter 11 times: C, D, H, I, K, M, N, O, T, U, W).

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the late spring additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of November 2 (2019 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a. the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a., Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

FOLSOM FIELD #1

LawnStarter.com recently ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State).

The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

300+AT FOLSOM

Colorado is 316-178-10 in its 96th season playing its home games at Folsom Field (504 in all). The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 408-197-16 all-time at home. The 2016 season marked CU's first winning one at home in six years, as the Buffaloes went 6-0; Colorado's last winning record at home had been in 2010 (with a 4-2 mark); it was CU's first undefeated season at home since 1994, when the Buffs went 6-0 in the late Rashaan Salaam's Heisman Trophy winning year. Over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season; the Buffs pulled even at home under "Mac" with the 6-0 mark in 2016 and finished 18-17 at Folsom in his tenure. CU is 1-3 at home under Mel Tucker.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 53 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants, owning a 23-29-1 record; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on six occasions (0-7 in that combo). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

CU IS BLACK & GOLD, BUT FOLSOM IS "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. WHO IS/HAS BEEN IN ON OFFENSE & DEFENSE

OLB Carson Wells played some fullback late in 2018 (three snaps, picking up two touchdown block credits) ... George Frazier, as he did his freshman year in 2014, appeared on both offense (TE/FB) and defense (DE) as senior in 2017 (he played 506 total snaps between offense, defense and special teams). In 2014, he played both defensive end and fullback for the first time against Arizona State, becoming the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player before Frazier in 2014 to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

NO. 38 IN THE WORLD

In the 2019 world university rankings by the ARWU (Academic Ranking of World Universities), the University of Colorado was ranked as the No. 38 University in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe, unless the planet PSR1257+12A has life orbiting around a distant pulsar). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, the ARWU, compiled by the Shanghai Ranking Consultancy, uses six objective indicators to create the rankings. Colorado came in No. 25 among American colleges on a list very well represented by the Pac-12: Stanford came in No. 2 (behind Harvard), followed by California (No. 4), UCLA (No. 10) and Washington (No. 13), giving the Pac-12 five schools in the top 25.

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the 2015 Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays)

99—vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)

99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays)

99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays)

THE FIRST COLLEGE WEBSITE WITH ITS OWN CARTOONIST?

CUBuffs.com might be the first college sports website with its own cartoonist – maybe for any sports website for that matter – as Denver's award-winning Drew Litton joined CU in 2018 and returns this fall for a series primarily surrounding each football game. His designs are featured on CU's social media channels.

Litton is a nationally syndicated sports cartoonist and is best known for his 25-plus years as the creator of the popular Rocky Mountain News, "Win, Lose & Drew" sports cartoon. He began drawing his fun-filled Colorado Buffaloes cartoons exclusively for the University of Colorado the Friday ahead of the Rocky Mountain Showdown and has three drawings to date. He also draws for KUSA TV 9News, The Colorado Springs Gazette, The Colorado Rockies Magazine, Mile High Sports Magazine and a variety of other clients. His work has been featured on ESPN.com, as well as the Chicago Tribune. Nobody covers the wild ride of Colorado sports through art and humor better than Litton, who resides in the Denver area with a rather extensive collection of cartoon bobbleheads and Finnegan, his overly caffeinated Schnauzer. This year's toons to date:

COLORADO 52, COLORADO STATE 31*(AUGUST 30, 2019)*BRONCOS STADIUM AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Colorado's defense produced four turnovers and a touchdown and Alex Fontenot rushed for 125 yards three touchdowns to give Mel Tucker a 52-31 win over Colorado State in his CU head coaching debut.

While offense was the name of the game for most of the night — the 83 combined points were the most in series history — the Buffs defense came up with some huge stops that paved the way for CU's fifth straight win in the series.

The clincher came late in the fourth quarter, when CU linebacker Jonathan Van Diest sacked CSU quarterback Collin Hill, forcing a fumble. Buffs defensive lineman Mustafa Johnson scooped up the ball and rumbled 9 yards to the end zone for the final points of the game with 3:57 remaining.

In the 19th and final game in Denver between the two in-state rivals (they will play in Fort Collins next year), the Buffs and Rams combined to produce nearly 1,000 yards total offense. Kickoff was delayed 37 minutes because of lightning and the game didn't finish until after midnight.

After a see-saw first half that saw four lead changes in the final nine minutes of the second quarter, the Buffs finally took control after recovering a CSU fumble on the first possession of the third quarter.

With CU leading 24-21, CU safety Aaron Maddox stripped the ball from CSU running back Marvin Kinsey and Jalen Sami recovered, giving the Buffs the ball at the CSU 27. Quarterback Steven Montez then ran for 19 yards to set up a 7-yard Fontenot touchdown run and a 31-21 CU lead.

The Rams never came closer than seven again. The Buffs extended the margin to 38-24 on the last play of the third period on a Fontenot 14-yard run, and following a

CSU touchdown that cut the gap back to seven, the Buffs answered with a 75-yard drive and a 22-yard Fontenot run to go back up by two touchdowns, 45-31, with 9:16 left in the game.

Van Diest's strip sack and Johnson's touchdown then sealed the game.

Defensively, Mikial Onu had two interceptions for Colorado while CU's offense did not turn the ball over.

The Buffs drew first blood, taking the opening possession and going 75 yards for a score. CU rushed for 68 yards on the drive before tight end Jalen Harris capped the march with a 1-yard scoring pass from Montez.

But the Rams quickly answered with an 80-yard drive to tie the game.

After a CU punt and Mikial Onu's first interception, the Buffs regained the lead, 10-7, on a James Stefanou field goal early in the second quarter. But CSU quickly answered with another long drive, going 92 yards in 11 plays for a 14-10 lead.

Colorado then responded with a 75-yard scoring drive, getting freshman Jaren Mangham's first touchdown of his career, a 5-yard run to give the Buffs a 17-14 lead. CSU, however, drove 75 yards on its next possession to regain the lead, 21-17, with just 1:35 left in the half when wide receiver Dante Wright scampered 41 yards for a score.

That, though, was more than enough time for the Buffs to answer. Montez hit tight end Brady Russell with back-to-back passes to take Colorado into CSU territory. Two plays later, Montez rolled to his left and found Laviska Shenault at the goal line for a 25-yard touchdown pass with 25 seconds left in the half. That gave CU a 24-21 lead heading into halftime.

GAME NOTES

As 66,997 attended the final Rocky Mountain Showdowns in Denver, the 19 events (16 at the new stadium, three at old Mile High) attracted a total of 1,294,101 in attendance (for the final game, CU sold 38,102 tickets; 25,868 public, 12,234 student). With kickoff at 8:47 p.m., it was the fourth latest kickoff in CU history (second latest in Colorado—latest was 9:08 vs. Oregon in 2015); the 37-minute delay due to lightning was reminiscent of a 28-minute delay in the 2003 game here (that was in the third quarter) ... The ending at 12:06 a.m. was the second latest in the state (Oregon, 12:31 a.m.) ... CU has won four straight season openers for the first time since claiming eight in a row (1991-98) ... Mel Tucker joined Rick Neuheisel (1995) and Mike MacIntyre (2013) as the only coaches to win their first game at the reins of the Buffaloes dating back to 1932 ... Buffs now lead the series with CSU by 67-22-2 (13-6 in Denver, 23-8 since it was resumed in 1983) ... Colorado is now 81-44-5 in 130 season openers ... The 83 points scored tonight are the most in the 91 games in the series, topping the 82 in the 1996 game at Fort Collins (a 48-34 CU win) ... CU has won five straight in the series, the longest run by either school since the Buffs claimed eight straight from 1987 through 1998 (CU has outscored the Rams 185-78 in the streak) ... The 52 points by CU are the most in the series since 1952, when CU won 61-0 in Boulder; it's also the sixth-most overall (all by Colorado) ... Colorado is now 124-2 all-time when scoring 43 or more points ... The Buffs have now made 102 consecutive PAT kicks dating back to October 2016 ... CU dressed 104 players for tonight, it's most in recent memory.

COLORADO 34, NEBRASKA 31 (OT)*(SEPTEMBER 7, 2019)*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado staged one of the more improbable comebacks in program history, rallying from a 17-0 halftime deficit to take a 34-31 overtime win over 25th-ranked Nebraska at Folsom Field.

James Stefanou's 34-yard field goal in the first overtime gave the Buffs their first lead of the day and the Buffs then held NU on the ensuing possession. A Mustafa Johnson sack of Nebraska quarterback Adrian Martinez put the Huskers back at the 31-yard line, and an Isaac Armstrong 48-yard field goal attempt on fourth down went wide right.

That triggered a massive Folsom Field celebration as Colorado improved to 2-0 under first-year head coach Mel Tucker. Nebraska dropped to 1-1.

Colorado's Steven Montez finished with 375 yards passing and two touchdowns, with 291 of those yards and both scores coming after halftime as Colorado outscored the Huskers 31-14 after intermission, including a 24-14 count in the fourth quarter. CU junior receiver K.D. Nixon had six catches for 148 yards — including a 96-yard touchdown catch, the longest play from scrimmage in CU history — and Tony Brown added five catches for 60 yards and a score.

Defensively, the Buffs finished with six sacks and once again won the turnover battle, coming up with two fumble recoveries and an interception while the offense turned the ball over twice.

It was CU's first win over a ranked opponent since the end of the 2016 regular season. It was also CU's second come-from-behind win this season, coming on the heels of last week's season opening 52-31 win over Colorado State, and the Buffs' second straight win over Nebraska.

After a tough first half on both sides of the ball, the Buffs came alive in the second half to stage their rally.

The defense set the tone, forcing Nebraska punts on the Huskers' first four possessions of the half. The Buffs offense couldn't take advantage of the first two, but finally got on the board after the third, marching 64 yards in eight plays for their first touchdown of the game. Jaren Mangham capped the drive with an 11-yard run to pull CU to within 17-7 with 2:24 left in the third period.

CU's defense then answered the bell again to force another Nebraska punt — and this time the Buffs needed just one play to score. Montez took a pitch back on a flea flicker play, then heaved a 96-yard touchdown pass to Nixon to cut the margin to 17-14 with 14:22 still to play.

The Huskers then finally answered with a 75-yard scoring pass from Martinez to Maurice Washington for a 24-14 lead.

But the Buffs responded, going 75 yards in five plays for a touchdown on their next drive to pull within 24-21. Montez hit Jaylon Jackson with a 57-yard pass, which set up a 7-yard Mangham run.

That set the stage for another CU defensive big play. Johnson sacked Martinez, forcing a fumble. Nu'umotu Falo recovered — his second of the game — and seven plays later, Stefanou's 20-yard field goal for Colorado tied the game at 24-24.

Nebraska then regained the lead with a 75-yard TD march. But following a CU fumble and another NU punt, Montez guided a 10-play, 71-yard march that culminated with a 26-yard touchdown pass to Brown to tie the game at 31-31 with 46 seconds left.

Nebraska had one more shot in regulation, but a Chris Miller interception ended the possession to send the game into overtime.

In the first half, the Buffs had no answer for Nebraska's Martinez. The NU sophomore was a perfect 9-for-9 for 180 yards while Colorado struggled to just 84 yards offense.

GAME NOTES

Mel Tucker became the 10th coach (out of 26) in CU history to win his first two games at the reins of the program ... CU rallied from a 17-point deficit to win, tying its fourth-largest comeback in school history; it's previous large comeback against Nebraska was 12 (down 12-0 entering the fourth quarter at Lincoln in 1990) ... The sellout crowd of 52,829 was the largest (and third of 50,000-plus) since Folsom was reconfigured ahead of the 2015 season ... Colorado improved to 7-8 in overtime games in its history (1-1 vs. Nebraska; in the 1999 OT game won by the Huskers, CU rallied from down 27-3 tie the game but missed a 33-yarder that would have won it; NU held CU to a field goal in OT as it did today, but scored a TD on its possession to win) ... The Buffaloes snapped an 8-game losing streak against (AP) ranked teams, its last win coming over No. 21 Utah in 2016 ... CU has won 13 straight non-conference games in the state's borders (eight in Boulder, five in Denver) ... Colorado gained 258 yards in the fourth quarter after having 193 at the end of three ... Colorado's first 10 plays in NU territory were for net negative 6 yards; the last 21 gained 134 yards ... Colorado had six quarterback sacks in the game, four coming on third downs (all in the second half) ... The Buffs have now made 106 consecutive PAT kicks dating back to October 2016 ... A defensive battle through three quarters (24 points, 509 yards) did a 180 in the fourth, when the teams combined for 38 points and 417 yards ... Nebraska was 7-of-12 on second down in the first half, but was held to 1-of-12 in the second half.

AIR FORCE 30, COLORADO 23 (OT)*(SEPTEMBER 14, 2019)*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado came back from a 23-10 deficit to tie the game at 23-23 and force overtime against Air Force, but unlike the previous week, the Buffaloes couldn't produce a win in the extra period, dropping a 30-23 decision at Folsom Field.

The loss came on the heels of a 34-31 win over Nebraska in overtime, making it the first time in CU history that the Buffs have played back-to-back OT games. Colorado dropped to 2-1 while Air Force improved to 2-0.

Colorado scored a touchdown on its first possession of the game and then quickly added a field goal for a 10-0 lead, but after that it was all Air Force until late in the fourth quarter. The Falcons scored three straight touchdowns in the first half to take a 20-10 lead, and it took an interception by CU's Mikial Onu in the end zone near the end of the first half to prevent the Falcons from making the margin even bigger.

While Air Force did produce 439 yards total offense, Colorado's defense also continued its takeaway trend, producing three in the game, getting two fumble recoveries to go with Onu's interception.

Air Force scored the winning touchdown on the first play of overtime, getting a 25-yard run from Kadin Remsberg. The Buffs then managed a first down on the ensuing possession, but a fourth-down pass attempt from Steven Montez to Laviska Shenault Jr. in the end zone fell incomplete.

Colorado trailed 20-10 at the half, then saw Air Force push the lead to 23-10 with a field goal midway through the fourth quarter after a scoreless third period.

The Buffs finally answered with their first touchdown since the opening drive of the game when they went 75 yards in 12 plays for the score. Montez hit Shenault with a key third-down pass to keep the drive alive, then found Dimitri Stanley in the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown with 6:09 left in regulation. The PAT was blocked, however, leaving Colorado trailing by seven, 23-16, with just more than six minutes to play.

The Buffs then forced an Air Force punt and drove 60 yards for the tying touchdown, getting a 2-yard run from Shenault. The PAT tied the game at 23-23 with 28 seconds left and sent the game into overtime.

Colorado's offense looked good early, taking the opening kickoff and going 75 yards in 11 plays for a score, culminating the drive with a 42-yard Montez pass to Shenault. Shenault also had a 17-yard catch to keep the drive alive on third down, and Jaren Mangham ran for 2 yards on fourth-and-1.

Colorado then pushed its edge to 10-0 with 7:23 still left in the first quarter when the Buffs converted a Davion Taylor fumble recovery into a 36-yard James Stefanou field goal.

But from that point on, the Falcons controlled the tempo and the rest of the half.

AFA pulled to within 10-6 after CU's field goal, driving 75 yards in seven plays, with a Donald Hammond 32-yard pass to Geraud Sanders capping the drive. AFA's extra point try bounced off the upright, keeping CU's edge at 10-6.

The Falcons, though, kept punching away. AFA forced a CU punt, then went 78 yards in 12 plays for the go-ahead score. Hammond capped the drive with a 2-yard run and the PAT gave the Falcons a 13-10 lead. After another CU punt, AFA needed just two plays to extend its lead to 20-10. Hammond hit Benjamin Waters with an 81-yard touchdown pass and Air Force had a 20-10 lead with 6:37 to go in the half.

GAME NOTES

This marked the first time in CU history the Buffs played back-to-back overtime games (fourth time two in the same season: 1999, 2002, 2014, 2019); Colorado is now 7-9 in overtime games in its history ... CU is now 0-2 in black helmet/silver jerseys/black pant (and now 3-17 in black helmets) ... Air Force snapped a five-game losing streak to the Buffaloes, but CU still holds a 12-5 lead in the series ... Air Force has now scored in 308 straight games dating back to 1992 ... The loss snapped CU's 13-game winning streak against non-conference opponents within the state's borders (eight in Boulder, five in Denver) ... Colorado has outscored the opponent 51-24 in the fourth quarter this season, with a 507-330 edge in yards (393-181 the last two games) ... Colorado has now forced 10 turnovers in three games (committing three) for a +2.33 in turnover margin ... The Buffs had made 107 consecutive PAT kicks dating back to October 2016 before Air Force blocked one in the fourth quarter ... AFA's 81-yard TD play was the eighth longest pass play against the Buffs in their history ... When WR Dimitri Stanley scored the first touchdown (and points) of his career with his 13-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter, he joined his father Walter ('81) as the fourth father-son duo to score points for the Buffs ... WR Laviska Shenault (8-124, 1 TD receiving, 3-25 1 TD rushing; 149 all-purpose yards; 9 FDE/2 rush, 7 receive) had the fourth game of his career where he scored TDs both rushing and receiving and his sixth 100-yard receiving career game ... S Mikial Onu (11 TT, 1 INT, 1 FF) made his third interception on the season and forced his second fumble, thus creating five turnovers in his first three games as a Buff ... COLORADO 34, ARIZONA STATE 31*(SEPTEMBER 21, 2019)*SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE

TEMPE, Ariz. — Colorado's James Stefanou broke a 31-31 tie with a 44-yard field goal with 2:03 left in the game and CU's defense then came up with a final defensive stand to give the Buffs a 34-31 win over No. 24 Arizona State at Sun Devil Stadium.

Colorado scored 24 points in the first half and added another touchdown in the third quarter, but it took Stefanou's field goal to make the difference in the Pac-12 opener for both teams. ASU had not given up a point in the first three quarters of a game this year.

The victory ended an 0-5 CU skid against the Sun Devils on their home turf and also gave the Buffs their first road win against a ranked team since 2002, ending a 29-game losing skein (the last win coming at UCLA on the same date 17 years earlier). It was also CU's second win over a ranked team this season, as the Buffs earlier knocked off No. 25 Nebraska in overtime by the same 34-31 score.

Colorado needed just five minutes to do what no one else had done against Arizona State in three games this year — score a first quarter touchdown. The Buffs took the opening kick and marched 75 yards to pay dirt for a 7-0 lead. Steven Montez completed passes of 17 yards to Dimitri Stanley, 10 to Brown and 23 to Laviska Shenault Jr. before Alex Fontenot crashed over the left side from 1-yard out.

The Buffs made it 14-0 on their next possession following a missed ASU field goal. Montez was again on target, completing throws of 15 yards to Fontenot and 6 to Brown before connecting with Brown again on a 29-yard score.

But ASU finally answered, going 76 yards for a score, with the big chunk a 53-yard scoring toss from Jayden Daniels to Brandon Aiyuk. ASU then recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and went 44 yards for another touchdown to tie the game at 14-14.

Colorado, however, quickly answered. The Buffs needed just 1:47 to go 61 yards and regain the lead, with Montez connecting with Brown again, this time from 31 yards out for a 21-14 CU lead.

The Sun Devils, though, carved out a response. ASU converted two third downs on its next possession, with Eno Benjamin capping the drive with a 3-yard scoring drive to tie the game again, 21-21, with 5:23 to go in the half.

That was enough time for CU to march downfield and pick up a 25-yard Stefanou field goal with 28 seconds left in the half for a 24-21 Buffs halftime lead.

The Sun Devils tied it up at 24-24 with a field goal late in the third quarter before Colorado regained the lead again. Montez hooked up with Brown for a 20-yard touchdown pass for a 31-24 lead with just 1:10 left in the third quarter. The Sun Devils quickly answered, getting a 39-yard touchdown pass from Jayden Daniels to Frank Darby, tying the game at 31-31 with 13:51 left in regulation.

The teams then traded a pair of empty possessions, with CU ending one ASU drive on an interception by Derrion Rakestraw. Then, after exchanging punts, Colorado put together the game-winning drive, ending with Stefanou's field goal.

That gave ASU one more chance, but the CU defense rose to the occasion. Colorado forced two Sun Devil incompletions before Terrance Lang came up with a huge sack on third down. That left ASU with a fourth-and-16 and CU again got pressure on fourth down to force an incomplection.

GAME NOTES

The 91-degree temperature at kickoff tied for the eighth-warmest for a CU game in its history (the 18th of 90 or hotter; CU is 9-9 in these games) ... Mel Tucker is just the second Colorado coach to win his first two games against ranked opponents (Nebraska, Arizona State). Rick Neuheisel won his first three in 1995 (Wisconsin, Texas A&M, Oklahoma); the only other CU coach to win the first time he faced a ranked opponent was Gary Barnett (Oklahoma, 1999) ... The Sun Devils now lead the series by an 8-3 margin, as the Buffs won for the first time in Tempe (1-5) and for the first time in back-to-back games in the series (nine of the games have been at night: ASU leads those, 6-3) ... CU is 4-5 in Pac-12 conference openers (3-1 on the road), averaging 36.3 points in its three wins ... The Buffs are 82-42-2 all-time in conference openers, including a 5-15-1 mark against ranked teams ... CU's last win on the road against a ranked team was on this very date (Sept. 21) in 2002, winning 31-17 at UCLA (snapping a 17-year, 29-game losing streak) ... CU moved to 2-0 against ranked teams this year, equaling its total over the previous nine seasons ... CU scored a touchdown on its first drive of the game for the third time in four tries in 2019 ... Colorado drove into ASU territory on its first six possessions (running 27 of its first 49 plays in the plus-zone) ... CU didn't get called for a penalty until there was 1:33 left in the third quarter and just had three in the game (one an unsportsmanlike call when the officials saw the retaliation after an ASU hard tackle) ... The Buffaloes did not allow a sack for the second time this season, and has yet to allow one in the second half ... This was the first game in 2019 that Colorado outgained its opponent (475-453) ... CU has now scored 56 of its last 57 times in goal-to-go situations (47 TD/9 FG; CU was not charged with an attempt for taking a knee at the end) ... PK James Stefanou made the game winner with 2:03 left in the game (he also kicked the game winner in overtime versus Nebraska); it's the latest in regulation that CU won a game with a field goal since Kevin Eberhart made a 45-yard field goal as time ran out lead CU to a 27-24 win over No.3 Oklahoma in Boulder on Sept. 29, 2007.

ARIZONA 35, COLORADO 30*(OCTOBER 5, 2019)*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — An expected offensive shootout lived up to its billing at Folsom Field, but Colorado came out on the short end, dropping a 35-30 decision to Arizona.

The game featured nine lead changes, with Arizona scoring what proved to be the winning touchdown with 6:51 left in the game.

Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate had third straight big game against the Buffs, going 31-for-41 for 404 yards and three scores. CU quarterback Steven Montez was 28-for-42 for 299 yards and a touchdown, and Tony Brown had 10 catches for 141 yards and a 15-yard rushing touchdown.

CU took a 20-14 halftime lead into the locker room, thanks to a nine-play, 75-yard drive capped with a 12-yard Montez throw to tight end Brady Russell with three seconds left, as Montez scrambled for several seconds to keep the play alive.

But the Wildcats answered with a touchdown on their first possession of the second half, going 65 yards in just six plays for a 21-20 lead. CU then responded with a four-play, 68-yard scoring drive, with Steven Montez connecting with Tony Brown for a 49-yard gain before Brown ran 15 yards on a reverse on the next play for a touchdown and 27-21 lead.

Once again, though, the Wildcats responded. Tate directed a six-play, 85-yard drive, capped by a 5-yard Nathan Tilford run to put Arizona up 28-27 after the PAT.

But CU marched downfield to retake the lead on its next possession, going 72 yards before settling for a 20-yard James Stefanou field goal and a 30-28 lead with 11:29 left in the fourth period.

But that was more than enough time for the Wildcats to put together what proved to be the game-winning drive. UA marched 77 yards on 13 plays, getting another 5-yard Tilford scoring run, and the PAT gave the Wildcats a 35-30 lead with 6:51 to go.

Colorado then had one more chance with the ball, but the drive ended on downs at midfield. Arizona took possession with 2:23 to go and ran the clock down.

After an unexpected defensive struggle for much of the first half, the two teams exploded to put 21 points on the board in the last two minutes of the second quarter.

Colorado started the run with a 38-yard trick play for a touchdown following an interception by CU's Mikial Onu. Montez handed off to running back Jaren Mangham, who ran left, then pitched back to wide receiver K.D. Nixon on a reverse. Montez then threw a big block to give Nixon enough time to heave a 38-yard scoring pass to a wide-open Dimitri Stanley in the end zone for a 13-7 CU lead.

But even before Buffs fans could finish celebrating, Arizona answered on the first play from scrimmage on its ensuing possession. Tate dropped back and hit a streaking Cedric Peterson with a 75-yard touchdown throw to put the Wildcats back in the lead, 14-13, with just 1:40 remaining.

That, though, was enough time for Montez to guide a nine-play, 75-yard scoring march. CU capped the drive with the 12-yard Montez pass to Russell.

Prior to the late scoring surge, the Buffs had taken the lead with a field goal on their first possession of the day before Arizona took the lead with a 90-yard touchdown drive late in the first quarter. Colorado finally pulled to within 7-6 on another Stefanou field goal with 2:37 to play in the second quarter, setting the stage for the frantic final minutes of the half.

GAME NOTES

With the attendance of 52,569 (sellout), the Buffs have drawn 154,680 for three games; the last time CU exceeded 150,000 for its first three home games was in 2011 (153,583), CU's first year in the Pac-12. This millennium, CU reached 150,000 after three games in 2000, 2005, 2008 and 2009 (154,849 that season, the most through three games in this span); it finished last century with eight straight years of 150k+ (1990 through 1997) after not doing so since 1974 ... The two sellouts this season are the most in a year since 2005 (two) ... CU lost the coin toss for the first time this year, but has still won it 33 of the last 43 games ... Colorado has scored on its first possession four of five times in 2019 (3 TD/1 FG) ... In the nine games in the series since CU joined the Pac-12, the winner has averaged 43.8 points per game (the loser has averaged 29.0) ... The Buffaloes are now 19-9 in Family Weekend games dating back to 1992 ... Colorado still leads the series by a 14-8 margin (but the series is tied in Boulder at 5-5) ... There were nine lead changes in today's game, fairly high for a football game ... Arizona has now gained 400-plus yards against CU in 10 straight games dating back to 1986 ... Colorado has gained 400-plus yards four times in its first five games for the second straight year and the fourth time in the last six ... The Buffaloes did not allow a quarterback sack for the third time this season (and thus still none in the second half) ... This is the first CU game where neither team had a quarterback sack since 2015 (Colorado State in week three) ... CU did not commit a turnover or allow a sack for the 23rd time since 1972 (19-4 record; 1-1 under Mel Tucker) ... CU has now scored 57 of its last 58 times in goal-to-go situations (47 TD/10 FG) over the course of its last 32 games (one situation today—field goal) ... CU allowed a season-low 83 rushing yards (3.2 per carry), with no double-digit rushing gains ... CB K.J. Trujillo and OG Casey Roddick made their first career starts ... WR Tony Brown (10-141, 7 FDE receiving; 1-15, 1 TD rushing) had a career high 10 receptions and had his second 100-yard game as a Buffalo (second in a row).

OREGON 45, COLORADO 3*(OCTOBER 11, 2019)*AUTZEN STADIUM, EUGENE, ORE.

EUGENE, Ore. — Colorado's hopes of claiming a third win over a ranked team in 2019 ran into a buzz saw as the Buffaloes dropped a 45-3 decision to No. 13 Oregon at Autzen Stadium.

Colorado's offense struggled all night against the Pac-12's top-ranked scoring defense. Mel Tucker's Buffs managed a field goal on their second possession of the night to pull within 7-3, but those ended up being the only points they could produce.

Oregon put the game away with a 21-point barrage over a seven-minute span late in the first half and early in the second.

CU quarterback Steven Montez, who had thrown just two interceptions in the first five games, had a career-high four passes picked off by the Ducks, and Oregon converted three of them into touchdowns. The Buffs also hurt themselves with season highs in penalties and yards — 14 for 114 — and Oregon's offense steadily wore the Buffs down as the game progressed.

Colorado's defense kept it in the game early, but the Buffs let a golden opportunity slip away late in the second quarter when they drove to the Oregon 1-yard line, only to come away empty after Montez was intercepted in the end zone.

The Ducks responded with an 80-yard touchdown drive to take a 24-3 lead at halftime, then added two more scores after two more Montez interceptions in the first five minutes of the second half to take a 38-3 lead and put the game away.

After Oregon drove 75 yards for a touchdown on the opening drive, CU's defense stiffened and gave the Buffs a chance to stay in the game. CU got on the board late in the first quarter with a 27-yard James Stefanou field goal to pull within 7-3 before the Ducks bumped the margin back to seven with a field goal on their next possession.

But after two Colorado three-and-outs, the Ducks finally found the end zone again, going 69 yards in seven plays to go up 17-3 with 7:39 left in the half, setting the stage for a key turning point.

The Buffs drove from their own 20 all the way to the Oregon 1-yard line on their next possession, aided by two pass interference penalties on the Ducks, a 16-yard Montez pass to Laviska Shenault Jr. and a 20-yard Alex Fontenot run.

But after a Fontenot run gave the Buffs second-and-goal from the 1-yard line, the drive stalled, ending on a Montez interception in the end zone.

The Ducks then went 80 yards in eight plays — aided by a 15-yard personal foul on Colorado — for a touchdown and 24-3 halftime lead.

Oregon then quickly put the game away for good early in the third quarter. UO's second interception of Montez gave the Ducks the ball at the CU 40 just two plays into the second half. Five plays later, Oregon extended its lead to 31-3 on a 13-yard Herbert pass to Jaylon Redd.

Oregon intercepted Montez again on CU's next possession, and a 53-yard return left the Ducks just 3 yards away from the end zone. They scored on the next play to take a 38-3 lead less than five minutes into the half.

Oregon added one more touchdown early in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring.

Stefanou — who had tied Mason Crosby's CU record of 10 consecutive field goals early in the game — missed a chance to own the record outright when his 33-yard try in the fourth quarter clanged off the right goal post.

WASHINGTON STATE 41, COLORADO 10*(OCTOBER 19, 2019)*MARTIN STADIUM, PULLMAN, WASH.

PULLMAN, Wash. — Colorado's offense struggled all night and Washington State took advantage of every opportunity that came its way as the Buffaloes dropped a 41-10 decision at Martin Stadium.

The loss was CU's third in a row while WSU ended a three-game skid.

Colorado entered the game hoping to take advantage of a Washington State defense that had given up an average of 47 points per game in three Pac-12 contests. But the Buffs struggled from the beginning, with quarterback Steven Montez throwing a pair of interceptions in the first half and James Stefanou connecting on just one of three field goal attempts.

The Cougars, meanwhile, scored touchdowns on their first three possessions, including a drive that needed only 26 yards after Montez's first interception, to take a 21-3 lead after the first quarter.

For the second week in a row, the Buffs were plagued by problems in the red zone. CU reached inside the WSU 20-yard line twice in the first half, but came away with just three points.

Of Colorado's six first-half possessions, two ended on missed field goals (from 48 and 52 yards), two ended on interceptions, one resulted in a punt and one produced a 24-yard Stefanou field goal.

After Washington State scored on its first two possessions, the Buffs finally answered by marching deep into WSU territory and earning a first-and-goal from the 10-yard line. But the drive stalled after a short run and two incompletions, and CU had to settle for a Stefanou field goal to cut WSU's lead to 14-3.

The Cougars quickly answered with another touchdown drive, getting a 47-yard Max Borghi run to cap the march for a 21-3 lead with 1:49 still left in the first quarter.

After WSU's third touchdown, Colorado's defense stiffened. The Buffs stopped the Cougars on downs on their next possession, then forced a three-and-out.

But the Buffs' two ensuing drives ended with an interception in the end zone from the WSU 15-yard line and a three-and-out. That left WSU just enough time to drive for a field goal just before the half, leaving Colorado with a 24-3 halftime deficit.

The Buffs gave themselves some hope in the third quarter with two defensive stops to set the stage for a 51-yard march to the end zone. Montez connected with Laviska Shenault Jr. for 24 yards on third down to keep the drive alive before Shenault took a direct snap and powered into the end zone from 6 yards out.

That pulled CU to within 24-10 with 5:06 still left to play in the third period.

But the Cougars quickly answered with an 81-yard touchdown drive, getting a 44-yard Gordon touchdown pass to give WSU a three-score cushion, 31-10. It was one of three WSU touchdown plays of at least 22 yards, as Gordon also had a 22-yard touchdown pass and Max Borghi had a 47-yard scoring run.

WSU then added another touchdown and field goal in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring.

Montez was replaced by sophomore Tyler Lytle midway through the fourth quarter, but Lytle was hurt on his first play. That brought redshirt freshman Blake Stenstrom into the game for his first action, but his first collegiate pass was intercepted.

CU's run game was a bright spot, finishing with 179 yards. Sophomore running back Alex Fontenot had his second career 100-yard game, finishing with 105 yards on 11 carries. With the debut of DB Tarik Luckett, it marked the 14th true scholarship freshman to play for the Buffs this year, the second-most since 1984.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 35, COLORADO 31*(OCTOBER 25, 2019)*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado led for much of the game under the Friday night lights at Folsom Field, but Southern California overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to collect a 35-31 win.

It was CU's 14th loss to the Trojans in as many tries.

After falling behind early, 7-0, the Buffs rallied to take a 17-7 lead in the second quarter and still led 17-14 at the half. Colorado then scored two touchdowns in the first six minutes of the second half, sandwiched around a USC score, for a 31-21 lead.

But the Buffs couldn't find the end zone again and the Trojans managed two more touchdowns, the last coming with 2:12 left in the game, to collect the win.

Colorado quarterback Steven Montez accounted for all four CU touchdowns with 324 yards and three touchdowns passing and 45 yards and one touchdown rushing. CU's Laviska Shenault Jr. caught nine passes for 172 yards and one score.

The Buffs held the lead for nearly 43 minutes, including much of the first half and the entire third quarter. CU's offense, which had struggled in recent weeks, found its groove and the defense came up with some big plays and big stops against a talented USC offense.

Colorado took at 17-14 lead into the locker room at halftime, then needed just two plays to boost the margin to 10 after intermission. After a 4-yard Montez pass to Nixon, the CU quarterback connected with Shenault for a 71-yard touchdown to give CU a 24-14 edge just 45 seconds into the half.

The Trojans answered with a 75-yard scoring drive to close the gap back to 24-21 on a 21-yard Kedon Slovis pass to Tyler Vaughns, but the Buffs responded again, driving 66 yards for a touchdown on their next possession. Shenault kept the drive alive with a 17-yard run on fourth down, and one play later, Montez scampered in from 17 yards out to give CU a 31-21 lead with 9:16 still to go in the third quarter.

Montez was injured late in the third quarter, but returned to the game in the fourth.

USC closed the CU lead to three early in the final period, needing five plays to go 66 yards for a touchdown. Slovis threw 44 yards to Michael Pittman for the score to cut Colorado's lead to 31-28 with 11:25 remaining.

Then, after two more Colorado punts, the Trojans finally took the lead, driving 89 yards in 12 plays. USC converted two third downs on the drive before getting a 37-yard scoring pass from Slovis to Pittman for the score and a 35-31 lead. CU forced a fumble and nearly came up with an interception on the drive, but both times the ball bounced USC's way.

Colorado took possession after the ensuing kickoff at its own 25 with 2:15 left on the clock and gained a quick first down, but the drive stalled near midfield and USC was then able to run the clock out for the win.

In the first half, Colorado overcame a quick USC opening touchdown to take a 17-7 lead. CU got a 22-yard James Stefanou field goal on its first possession, then drove 77 yards for a touchdown and 10-7 lead after CU freshman cornerback K.J. Trujillo recorded his first career interception. Montez threw 7 yards to K.D. Nixon for the touchdown.

Colorado extended the lead to 17-7 late in the second quarter on another 7-yard Montez pass to Nixon before the Trojans cut the gap to 17-14 with a long drive just before halftime.

GAME NOTES

This was the lone game with two FBS teams on this Friday ... There were 13 scouts from 10 NFL teams in attendance ... The first quarter took only 33 minutes to play (and that was with 7:40 of commercials) ... Colorado outgained the opponent in the first quarter for just the second time this season (135-126) ... Ralphie did not run because she wasn't of the proper temperament, and her safety and that of her handlers is top priority (she has led the team out on Folsom 296 times since 1967; this was one of the few times she didn't run) ... CU dropped to 23-29-1 when wearing all black uniforms (0-7 with black helmets) and to 3-18 overall with the black headgear ... USC now leads the series 14-0 (7-0 in Boulder) ... All-time, CU is now 19-27 on Fridays (0-4 and against USC) ... CU had its 1940s logo (reborn in the 70s for shirts and decals) on its helmet, the first time CU didn't wear its official logo since the 2009 Wyoming game (throwback units with the 50s/60s horns) ... CU set a school record with no fumbles for a fourth straight game ... CU had 91 touches tonight without a fumble, extending the streak to 418; the tailbacks still have none in 260 touches this season (rushes and receptions) ... In the eight previous games against USC since the Buffs joined the Pac-12, the Trojans had outscored CU 180-47 in the first half and by 77-27 in the four games in Boulder ... This marked the fourth time CU had a lead versus USC since the Buffs joined the Pac-12 in 2011: CU led 7-0 in '11, 17-3 in '15 and 7-0 last year; CU led for 42:40 tonight after leading for just 34:02 in the previous eight games ... CU gained 219 yards in the third quarter, its second most in a quarter this year (behind 258 vs. Nebraska in the 4th). The Buffaloes scored their most points ever against USC (31; old: 29 in 2013), had their most total offense (520; old, 486 in 2017), and their most rushing yards (196; old, 172 in 2014).

UCLA 31, COLORADO 14*(NOVEMBER 2, 2019)*ROSE BOWL, PASADENA

PASADENA, Calif. — A slow start doomed Colorado as UCLA jumped out to a 17-0 first-quarter lead and the Buffaloes never recovered, dropping a 31-14 decision at the Rose Bowl.

CU's defense struggled early and the offense sputtered for much of the night as the Buffaloes suffered their fifth straight loss in finishing with a season-low 283 total yards.

After spotting the Bruins a 17-0 lead on UCLA's first three possessions, including a touchdown on the first play following an interception of CU quarterback Steven Montez, the Buffs finally got on the board with an 83-yard touchdown drive.

The big play of that possession was a 16-yard Montez completion to Brady Russell, with a 15-yard late hit penalty on the play putting CU at the UCLA 27-line. Freshman running back Jaren Mangham, who had 32 yards rushing on the drive, then ran for 16 yards before Montez scored from 2 yards out to cut UCLA's lead to 17-7 with 8:42 to go in the second quarter.

CU's defense then came up with consecutive stops, but the Buffs' offense couldn't capitalize. Colorado drove into UCLA territory in the final minute of the half, but the drive stalled at the Bruins 30 and a James Stefanou 47-yard field goal try went wide left to send CU into the locker room trailing 17-7 at intermission.

The Buffs then missed another chance to add to their point total early in the third quarter. After linebacker Carson Wells came up with an interception in UCLA territory, the Buffs moved 28 yards to the Bruins' 8-yard line before settling for a 27-yard Stefanou field goal try. But the attempt bounced off the right upright, leaving CU's deficit at 10 points, 17-7.

The Bruins then put the game away for all intents and purposes on the ensuing possession. UCLA drove 80 yards in 11 plays, getting a Josh Kelley 5-yard scoring run with 4:11 to go in the third quarter for a 24-7 lead.

Colorado did manage to crawl back to within 10 late in the fourth quarter, driving 68 yards in six plays for a touchdown. Montez completed six passes on the drive, including an 18-yarder to Dimitri Stanley, before finishing the march with a 27-yard scoring toss to Tony Brown to narrow UCLA's lead to 24-14 with 5:57 still remaining.

But the Bruins quickly answered with a 48-yard drive in four plays after recovering an onside kick attempt, with Kelley scoring from 35 yards out to give UCLA to complete the scoring with 4:14 to go.

The Bruins scored on their first three possessions of the night to set the tone.

After a Colorado punt on the opening drive, UCLA went 57 yards for a score, getting a 16-yard scoring toss from Thompson-Robinson to Devin Asiasi. The Bruins then added a field goal after another CU punt before CU's Montez was intercepted. UCLA needed just one play to bump its margin to 17-0, getting a 45-yard Thompson-Robinson touchdown pass to Ethan Fernea with 3:42 still to play in the first quarter.

The Buffs played the game without starting running back Alex Fontenot and starting cornerback K.J. Trujillo, who both sat out with injuries.

Mangham replaced Fontenot and another true freshman, Tarik Luckett, took Trujillo's place. It brought the total of true freshmen to start for Colorado this season to five, matching the most since the 2014 season. It also brought the total of Buffs who made their first starts for Colorado this season to 21.

Junior linebacker Nate Landman tied a career high with two sacks.

GAME NOTES

CU's 65 plays were its second-fewest this season (60 vs. CSU in the opener), and its 25:33 of possession was a season low, as were the 426 total yards by UCLA, the fewest CU has allowed this season (previous: 439 vs. Air Force) ... UCLA now leads the series 11-4 (5-1 in Pasadena); the teams have split the last four, protecting their home turf ... CU wore its "Storm Trooper" look tonight (all white, head-to-toe) and are now 2-4 when wearing white helmets, jerseys and pants (lost last three) ... National Bison Day. Former president Barack Obama back in 2012 declared the first Saturday in November going forward as National Bison Day; but the day has yet to be very good to the Buffaloes who are now 0-7 on the day celebrating its mascot ... With first career starts tonight by CB Tarik Luckett and TB Jaren Mangham, that brings the total to five true freshmen making at least one start for CU this season (8 total starts) ... CU had 20 touches in the game before its first fumble in five games; the Buffaloes went 446 touches between fumbles (scrimmage, returns, fair catches, special team snaps). The tailbacks had 266 touches this season (rushes and receptions) before their first (Mangham early in the second quarter) ... In making his first career start and at 6-foot-2, Mangham was the tallest player to start a game at tailback for CU since Lawrence Vickers (6-2, 230) against Oklahoma State in Boulder on Oct. 9, 2004; that was his only start at tailback as he was a natural fullback. The last true tailback that tall was Chris Brown (6-3, 220) who started 10 games in 2002 ... CU allowed a season-high 201 yards in the first quarter but came back to allow a season-low 33 in the second ... QB Steven Montez tied the school record for the most career touchdown passes (60), as he pulled even with Sefo Liufau (2013-16), his predecessor, and Cody Hawkins (2007-10) ... ILB Nate Landman (15 tackles, 11 solo), tied his career-high with two quarterback sacks and was in on career-high four third down stops.

2019 COLORADO FOOTBALL ORIGINAL LETTERMAN PICTURE

Colorado had 54 lettermen returning for 2019 (53 from the 2018 team, one from 2017); they broke down into 27 on offense, 21 on defense and six specialists; the Buffs lost 36 lettermen off the 2018 squad (15 offense/20 defense/1 specialist). CU returned 11 starters from last season (6 offense/5 defense), losing 13 (6 offense/7 defense); two players started six games each on offense and defense, so the starter count was based off 12 players instead of the standard 11. The 2018 starters are listed in bold (six or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams. The breakdown:

ASY—Average Starting Yardline; Ret—averages using returned kicks only. OnSides (OnS), short squibs (SQB) and free kicks are omitted in figuring the above; out-of-bounds are not;

Note: Montez' drives ended count adds to one more than the started as he replaced Stenstrom on a fourth quarter drive against USC.
