2019 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

GOLORADO BUFFALOES IS. SOUTHERN GALIFORNIA TROJANS

BUFFS GUNNING FOR FIRST-EVER WIN OVER USC

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2019 • 7:01 p.m. MDT • Folsom Field (50,183) • Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 8 (October 21, 2019)

ESPN2 (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

BUFFALO BITS ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (3-4, 1-3 Pac-12) return home but have a short week ahead of them as they will play their third Friday night game in 2019, hosting the Southern California Trojans (4-3, 3-1 Pac-12) in a 7:01 p.m. MDT kickoff at Folsom Field (which officially turns 95 the day before, on Oct. 24) ... The long-range forecast is showing temperature in the upper 40s at kickoff but with no precipitation expected ... The series is lopsided to say the least, as USC owns a 13-0 advantage, which includes an 8-0 edge since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011 ... This will be CU's third Friday game this season (all at night), just the second time the Buffs will play three in a season (also in 2018); it's the second time CU will have two in the same month (previous: November 2011). All-time, CU is 19-26 on Fridays, 5-8 in Boulder, 10-12 in Colorado, 9-9 at night (this will be the 11th straight Friday game under the lights) 0-3 and against USC ... Colorado has allowed at least 30 points in all seven games this season (12 in a row dating back to last year), while scoring 30 in four of the seven (and six of the 12) ... The Buffs lost at Washington

State, 41-10, in the cold and rain last Saturday in Pullman (the third straight game there in similar conditions); the Buffs had cut the lead to 24-10 late in third but could get no closer. CU drove into plus territory six times but came away with just 10 points ... USC methodically built a 34-0 lead early into the fourth quarter in defeating Arizona, 41-14, last Saturday at the L.A. Coliseum ... The Trojans have already played four top 25 teams this season (three in the top 17) and have handed #12 Utah its only loss ... CU will play a third night game on the road on Nov. 2, with a 7 p.m. MDT kickoff at UCLA; even though the WSU game kicked off at 5 p.m. MDT, CU didn't get back to campus until after 1 a.m. (1:43), and likely won't be home until 3 a.m. but will gain an extra hour with the return to standard time on Nov. 2(CU returned after 4 a.m. from Arizona State and Oregon) ... The PDF version of the 2019 CU Media Guide can be found on-line at www.cubuffs.com/CUFBMG19 ... CUBuffs.com/media is all things Buff (on-line media guide, live stats, etc.). DEPTH CHART ON PAGE 62; ROSTERS ON PAGES 63-65; STAT PAGES 66-74

STAT OF THE WEEK

Feast or Famine. Colorado has allowed 41 plays of 20 yards or more in seven games this season, with 14 of those going for touchdowns. The 41 plays have netted 1,468 yards – an average of 35.8 yards per. The other 451 plays have netted 1,909 yards, a pedestrian 4.2 yards per, with 256 of those going for four yards or less. By comparison, CU has 31 plays for 20-plus yards (eight for scores), those gaining a combined 944 yards (or 30.5 per). CU's remaining 477 plays have earned 1,910 yards (4.0 per). Those 10 extra plays of 20-plus by the opponent provide a difference of 524 yards – the basic difference in total offense between two (483 yards through seven games).

OBSCURE NOTE(S) OF THE WEEK

Youngin's. The 14 true scholarship, first-year freshmen are the second-most to see action in a season dating back to 1984 when records are available; the most are the 15 who saw action in the 2011 season; the previous high to that were 13 that saw the field in 2012.

What Are The Odds? CU continues to mystify the odds when it comes to winning the opening coin toss; it has won five of seven this year and 34 of the last 45 (76 percent); after that many tosses, the number probably most like should be hovering in the 45-55 percent range. Any odds makers (or M.I.T. mathematicians), feel free to chime in with what those odds are (the only thing I could find on the web involved something like this: ln(.1) = n*ln(1-p)!

ATTENDANCE UPDATE

With the attendance for the Arizona game last Saturday (Family Weekend) of 52,569, it was CU's second sellout this season, the first time since 2005 Folsom Field has seen two the same season. The Buffs have drawn 154,680 for three games; the last time CU exceeded 150,000 for its first three home games was in 2011 (153,583), CU's first year in the Pac-12. This millennium, CU reached 150,000 after three games in 2000, 2005, 2008 and 2009 (154,849 that season, the most through three games in this span); it finished last century with eight straight years of 150k + (1990 through 1997) after not doing so since 1974.

CU AD GEORGE NAMED TO NFF/COLLEGE HALL OF FAME'S "TEAM OF EXCELLENCE"

With college football celebrating its 150th season in 2019, The National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame on October 8 announced its Team of Excellence, highlighting all NFF board members who played football and have gone on to success in life.

"From College Football Hall of Fame inductees to successful business leaders and athletics directors to broadcasters, the National Football Foundation's board of directors includes some of the most powerful people in the country," said NFF President & CEO Steve Hatchell, a 1970 graduate of the University of Colorado.

"By highlighting the members of our board who played football and have gone on to great success in their chosen fields," Hatchell said. "We hope to showcase the impact the game has had over 150 years in shaping some of our nation's greatest leaders. The Team of Excellence featuring our board members creates an impressive depth chart of talent that could go the distance against any football team out there. When your top three quarterbacks are Archie Manning, Roger Staubach and Troy Aikman, you know you have a loaded roster, and it just continues on from there."

CU athletic director Rick George (pictured left on the staff at his alma mater, the University of Illinois, following his graduation from in 1982) is one of 30 former players selected to the team. He lettered four years for the Illini and is one of seven former defensive backs on the Team of Excellence. George was joined on the defensive back "depth chart" by Ronnie Lott, Jack Ford, Bill Emerson, Jack Lengyel, Joe Castiglione and Roger Goodell (he was second behind Lott).

"It is truly and honor and most humbling to be mentioned among the group of people that the National Football Foundation named on that team," George said. "I'm proud to represent my alma mater, the University of Illinois, as a player, and the University of Colorado as an administrator."

The Team of Excellence is just one part of the NFF's plans to celebrate the anniversary. Founded in 1947 with early leadership from General Douglas MacArthur, legendary Army coach Earl "Red" Blaik and immortal journalist Grantland Rice, the NFF is highlighting throughout the season its 72-year history of using the power of amateur football in developing scholarship, citizenship and athletic achievement in young people. NFF Chairman Archie Manning serves as the honorary captain of the Team of Excellence, which features 10 members of the College Football Hall of Fame, 13 business executives, eight current or former athletics directors, five current or former broadcasters, two owners of NFL teams, the commissioner of the NFL, the commissioner of the ACC and the head football coach at Northwestern.

SERIES HISTORY-CU vs. SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Southern California has kept the Buffaloes out of the win column since the series started in 1927, now leading by a 13-0 count (8-0 since CU joined the Pac-12 for the 2011 season). The Trojans won that first game at the Los Angeles Coliseum, 46-7 (the Coliseum was just five years old at the time), but the two waited 36 years to play again, doing so in 1963-64, and then another 36 years passed before another home-and-home series in 2000 and 2002. This will be the seventh meeting in Boulder, the fourth since the two became Pac-12 South Division rivals (in 2011); the previous four games at Folsom field have all been at night. USC won the first Pac-12 game between the two in Boulder in 2011 by 42-17; CU took a 7-0 lead but the Trojans came back with the next 28 points and CU never got closer than 18 the rest of the way. The 2000 game is the only one that has come down to the wire, when USC was in the Pac-10 and CU in the Big 12; David Newbury's 24-yard field goal with 13 seconds remaining lifted the No. 11 Trojans to a 17-14 win. In that 1963 game, USC came to Boulder ranked No. 1, at the time just the third time the Buffaloes would line up across from the nation's top ranked team; CU lost to Oklahoma in 1956 (27-19 in Boulder) and then at Norman in 1957 (14-13). The Trojans own a scoring edge of 450-189 in the series (312-165 as members of the Pac-12).

- USC has won more games at the start of a series against Colorado (13) than any other team; the only other schools to have ever won 10 or more straight against Colorado at any point of a series are Missouri (10; 1938-50), Nebraska (18, 1968-85) and Oklahoma (12, 1977-88).
- CU head coach Mel Tucker has never coached against a USC team; USC head coach Clay Helton is 4-0 against the Buffaloes (having coached the 2015 game under an "interim" tag before being named full-time after the season).
- USC was ranked eight times in the first 11 games of the series, Colorado three times (including last year); the only time both were ranked was in 2002, when USC rolled to a 40-3 win in Boulder (CU was No. 18, USC No. 17).

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?— The 1963 game in Boulder, played on a muddy field after days of rain, was the first of 118 games as head coach for the late Eddie Crowder. CU would give top-ranked USC all it could handle that afternoon but the Trojans would prevail, 14-0, in game that featured 313 total yards of offense – by both teams.

SERIES SIGNATURE GAME — 1963. Rain had soaked Folsom Field for two days leading up to the game, the season opener for both teams for the 1963 season. Unbeknownst at the time that the president would be assassinated two months and one day in the future, USC was optimistic for a great year, opening No. 1 in the polls under head coach John McKay, while the Buffaloes had hired a young wunderkind from Bud Wilkinson's staff at Oklahoma, 32-year old Eddie Crowder. QB Pete Beathard scored both touchdowns in USC's 14-0 in, each 5-yard runs, the first with 12:06 left in the second quarter, the second to clinch the win with 3:46 remaining in the game. That last score came as the skies opened up again, pouring down rain, as the Trojans used a 15-play, 69-yard drive that ate up over nine minutes of clock. The Buffs tried only one pass and had just 83 yards of total offense, and were their own worst enemy—CU fumbled eight times, losing six; USC turned it over three times and gained just 230 yards on 75 plays, a shade over three yards per.

At left: HB Bill Harris tries to pick up yardage against a stingy Trojan defense; CU's leading rusher would gain 19 yards on seven carries that day.

LAST TIME: SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 31, COLORADO 20

(OCTOBER 13, 2018)

LOS ANGELES — Colorado drew first blood but USC answered with four straight scores in the Coliseum to send the Buffs back to Boulder with a 31-20 loss.

The loss dropped CU to 0-13 all-time against the Trojans, as the Buffs couldn't take advantage of some early opportunities.

CU intercepted USC quarterback JT Daniels twice in the first half, including a pick by linebacker Drew Lewis on the first play from scrimmage. Evan Worthington added the second, giving Colorado two chances to create some early momentum.

But both times, the Buffs failed to convert the interceptions into scores.

Still, the Buffs scored first, ending a two-game skid in which they had failed to score in the first half against USC. Laviska Shenault Jr. — the nation's leading receiver ran 49 yards from the wildcat formation to give Colorado a 7-0 lead with 11:58 to go in the half.

But USC answered quickly, putting three touchdowns on the board in the second period, all through the air.

The Trojans tied the score on their ensuing possession. Daniels shook off the two early picks to hit Tyler Vaughns with a 28-yard pass to put the Trojans at the Colorado 27, then hit Vaughns again on the next play with a 27-yard scoring toss to tie the game.

After a pair of Colorado punts sandwiched around a USC punt, the Trojans scored again, needing just two plays. Daniels hit Michael Pittman with a 65-yard touchdown bomb to give USC a 14-7 lead with 3:33 to go in the half.

The Buffs' offense then continued to go nowhere, producing its third straight threeand-out. That left the Trojans more than enough time to go 55 yards for their third touchdown, this one a 9-yard Daniels toss to Pittman that was set up by a 39-yard Daniels to Pittman connection. USC then stymied a last-minute CU drive into Trojan territory, and Colorado trailed 21-7 at the half.

Trailing in the third period was nothing new for the Buffs, as they trailed Nebraska, UCLA and Arizona State after halftime in earlier games in the season, and came back to win all three times.

But there was no rally this time around, as any hopes of a Colorado rally were dashed in the third period. After the two teams traded punts, the Buffs found themselves backed up deep in their own territory. On third-and-22, a Montez pass bounced off the hands of Shenault to USC's Ajene Harris. The Trojans defensive back returned the ball 6 yards for a score and a 28-7 USC lead. It was the second year in a row Harris returned a Montez interception for a touchdown.

The Buffs finally got on the board again in the fourth quarter when they went 65 yards in 16 plays, getting a 2-yard Kyle Evans run to cap the drive and cut the USC lead to 28-14. USC recovered the ensuing onside kick and then drove 28 yards before settling for a 38-yard field goal before Colorado drove 75 yards in 10 plays for the final score of the night. Montez carried in from 19 yards out for the touchdown, but a 2-point conversion try failed.

The deep ball that had been a staple of the Buffs' offense in the first five games never materialized against the Trojans. CU's longest play of the night was Shenault's 49-yard touchdown run. But through the air, Colorado's biggest gain was a 24-yard pass to Shenault, as the Trojans managed to keep the CU sophomore bottled up for most of the evening. While he did catch nine passes, he totaled just 72 yards receiving.

GAME NOTES

Colorado sold its entire ticket allotment for the game (3,000) ... The Buffs had won three straight games dating back to 2014 when wearing gold helmets/white jerseys/gold pants ... USC extended its lead in the series by a 13-0 count (7-0 in Los Angeles) ... This marked the third time CU had a lead versus USC since the Buffs joined the Pac-12 in 2011: CU led 7-0 in '11, 17-3 in '15 and tonight... When USC took a 21-7 lead late in the first half, it marked the first time that CU trailed by two scores in 2018 ... Of the 73 plays in the first half, only 13 were in plus territory (USC 8, CU 5); for the game, just 45 of 145 were (CU 27, USC 18) ... PK James Stefanou improved to 61-of-61 for his career in PAT kicks ... CB Chris Miller made his first career start; WR Jaylon Jackson saw his first career action (the 42nd player to do so for CU this season) and also made his first career receptions ... S Kyle Trego recovered CU's onside kick; the Buffs had not recovered one for the previous six tries (including one in this game), as WR Nelson Spruce recovered the last one at Oregon in 2014 ... The scoreless first quarter was just the ninth involving the Buffaloes over the last 196 games (dating back to 2003) ... but the second season in a row with the Trojans ... ILB Drew Lewis made his first career interception on the first play of the game; it was CU's fourth pick of the year, all by linebackers at that point. The secondary then got its first later in the quarter when S Evan Worthington had the fourth of his career ... Colorado came in allowing just 3 points in the fourth quarter (best in the nation); USC came in with 39 fourth quarter points (47th); CU outscored USC in the quarter ended a run of 11 straight quarters by the Buffs without committing a turnover; it also ended a streak of 83 consecutive passes by QB Steven Montez without throwing a pick, his third streak of 80-plus in his career.

THIS DAY IN COLORADO HISTORY: OCTOBER 25

Colorado is 9-4-3 all-time on October 25, with a couple of significant games played on the date in school history. Here's a brief look at some happenings on this day in Buff history: 1930—Jim Haley had what is believed to be the first 100-yard receiving game in school history, as he caught three passes for 108 yards, with his 34-yard grab from Pete Middlemist late in the first quarter all CU needed in a 7-0 win over Colorado A & M. 1958—Howard Cook ran for two scores and passed for a third in a 27-16 homecoming win over Nebraska. Cook scored on runs of 11 and 71 vards in the first half, and his 20-vard touchdown pass to Boyd Dowler in the fourth put CU ahead for good at 20-16. 1969-Paul Arendt's 79-yard touchdown bomb to Monte Huber highlighted a first half aerial blitz and then CU held No. 5 Missouri at bay by returning to the run in the second half in posting a 31-24 win. It was CU's first-ever victory over a top-five ranked team. 1975—It was No. 10 versus No. 4, and the 10th-ranked Buffs got off to a 7-0 lead in Lincoln only to see Nebraska score the next 63 points in what would be a 63-21 drubbing. 1986—In what came to be known as "the turning point" in the early McCartney years, CU upends No. 3 Nebraska in Boulder, 20-10. The Buffs scored first on a 39-yard reverse by Jeff Campbell and never trailed, with Dave DeLine's 57-yard field goal padding the lead to 10-0 at halftime. Nebraska got on the board toward the end of the third quarter, but CU came right back and scored on the first play of the fourth, a 52-yard halfback option pass from O.C. Oliver to Lance Carl. The crowd rushed the field postgame and CU officials left the scoreboard lit with the final score through Monday afternoon. 1997-John Hessler threw for one touchdown and ran for another and the Colorado defense intercepted five passes as the Buffaloes easily handled the Texas Longhorns, 47-30. Leading 24-17 at halftime, Ryan Sutter (who would go on to national fame by being selected as the finalist in The Bachelorette), returned an interception 34 yards for a score early in the second half to put CU up by two scores; Jeremy Aldrich added three field goals in the period to extend the lead to 40-17. Ricky Williams rushed for 209 yards and all four Texas TDs in a preview to his '98 Heisman Trophy. The game is also remembered for the team getting stranded for over 24 hours in Texas due to a surprise blizzard that blanketed the Denver metro area with five feet of snow. 2003—CU battled No. 1 Oklahoma tough, but still found itself down 27-7 early in the fourth quarter. But a pair of Joel Klatt touchdown passes to Brian Calhoun and Derek McCoy pulled CU to within 27-20 with the Buff defense rising to the occasion. But faced with a 3rd-&-6, and aided by an illegal pick that went undetected by the officials, Jason White and Mark Clayton hooked up on a clinching 59-yard pass play for a score and the final points in a 34-20 OU win. 2008-Not gonna write much on this one: CU lost 58-0 at Missouri, and in the process, saw its 242-game scoring streak come to an end. 2014—The Buffs fall in a wild one in double overtime in Boulder against UCLA, 40-37; the Bruins were seemingly in control, taking a 17-0 lead and still ahead by 31-14 entering the fourth quarter, but a pair of Sefo Liufau to Bryce Bobo TD passes and a 35-vard field goal by Will Oliver, the latter with 36 seconds left in regulation, sent the game into the extra sessions. After swapping field goals in the first OT, Oliver made good on a 38-yard boot to give CU its only lead of the game at 37-34, but UCLA came back and scored six on a two-play drive capped by an 8-yad run by quarterback Brett Hundley. UCLA edged CU in total offense, 509-500.

OCTOBER 25 COLORADO MVP: The CU Defense, 1986. The Buffs limited No. 3 Nebraska's second-ranked rushing game to just 123 yards on 43 carries and forced four turnovers in the 20-10 win, which snapped an 18-game losing streak to the Cornhuskers. David Tate and Barry Remington each had nine tackles, with Remington and Solomon Wilcots intercepting passes.

THE BUFFS ON FRIDAY

Colorado has played 45 times on "TGIF," Friday, six times to open the season; the Buffaloes are 19-26 on the last day of the work week (16-23 regular season, 3-2 bowl), 5-8 in Boulder, 7-13 on the road, 7-5 at neutral sites (including 4-2 in Denver) and 9-9 in night games. Colorado opened the 1908, 1964, 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons on a Friday; CU's second-ever night game was played on a Friday, against Oklahoma State in Stillwater in 1933. The bulk of the games have been played in November (a 7-18 record), and the most common opponent has been Nebraska (15 times; 4-11). Here's a look at the games:

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL NOTE / 1959

Sixty years ago in 1959, the Buffs were in their first season under a new head coach, Sonny Grandelius, after being guided by Dal Ward the previous 11 seasons (1948-58). But things weren't going so well with the coaching change, as Colorado opened the season losing four of his first five games, the last of which was a 27-0 loss at Iowa State. The turnaround started on Oct. 24, as with an 18-0 win in the desert night at Arizona propelled the Buffs to win four of the last five to finish with a 5-5 record in Grandelius' first year.

➡ In the 60 years and nearly 700 games since, only one other time has CU followed a shutout loss with a shutout win: in 1985, after losing 31-0 at Oklahoma, the Buffaloes bounced back with a 30-0 win at home over Kansas State, earning a Freedom Bowl invitation in the process.

BONUS HISTORICAL NOTE / 1992

On October 24, 1992, the Buffaloes had one of its best games defensively in the last half century, if not all-time; in a 54-7 rout over Kansas State, the offense wasn't the story (CU ran 105 plays for 514 yards). The Buff defense, the '92 team overall its best season defensively since 1967 to the present (allowing 278.0 yards per game), limited the Wildcats to 16 total yards and three first downs on 47 plays. K-State had minus-16 yards rushing, though CU had five sacks for 42 yards to diminish that total into the red. The game was over by halftime (30-0), and it could have worse if CU didn't throw three interceptions; in fact, KSU had five times the return yards (79) than those on offense, while CU had a 726-115 edge in all-purpose yards.

SWEET SIXTEEN

Colorado, which did not play an FCS team until 2006, is one of 16 schools in 2019 who will play strictly FBS teams over the course of the entire season. The Big Ten Conference has 11 of those 16 schools, as it came out with a mandatory rule a few years back to eliminate those teams from their future schedules (Indiana, Maryland and Penn State had previous games scheduled further out). CU is joined by Southern California, Stanford and UCLA in the Pac-12, with the only other school nationally being Texas. Only three FCS schools appear on future CU schedules: Northern Colorado (2021), North Dakota State (2024) and Colgate (2027).

MUSIC IN HIS BLOOD: Assistant head coach Darrin Chiaverini has music in his blood, though not to the extent of his father, Eddie "Day" Chiaverini, who played the rhythm guitar for The Lively Ones, a rock and roll band in the early 1960s. One of their songs, Surf Rider, made the soundtrack of the 1994 blockbuster movie, Pulp Fiction, playing over the opening and closing credits. You can hear it here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CXfQYRjjxvc.

BACK-TO-BACK (AND THIS YEAR: -TO BACK) RIVALS FOR OPENERS?

When Colorado opened with Colorado State and Nebraska last year, it was just the 13th time a school opened with back-to-back traditional rivals since the advent of 11 game regular seasons schedules beginning in 1971; and of the previous 12 time, only five schools did it (Boise State, Georgia, Illinois, New Mexico State and Temple). Fast-forward to 2019, and the Buffaloes are opening with three traditional rivals: Colorado State in Denver, Nebraska in Boulder and Air Force in Boulder. The Buffaloes and Falcons will meet at Folsom Field this Saturday – the first meeting between the schools since 1974; this be just the second time CSU and AFA appear on the schedule in the same year, along with 1958. After that season, the series with CSU went dormant for 25 years while Air Force appeared every year except one between 1958 and 1974.

Colorado has played Colorado State (91), Nebraska (71) and Air Force (17) a combined 179 times; the remaining nine schools on CU's schedule in 2019 have combined to play the Buffaloes 165 times (and 65 of those by CU's other top 20th century rival, Utah).

ONU MAKING HIS MARK FAST

Graduate transfer (from SMU) S Mikial Onu has made his mark pretty quick as a Buffalo this season. He has four interceptions on the year, topping ILB Nate Landman's team-high of two in 2018 and S Evan Worthington's CU-best of three in 2017 (S Tedric Thompson had seven in 2016).

- He has created six (of CU's opponent 13) turnovers, with four picks and two forced fumbles. The CU season record for most turnovers created is nine, held by two school Hall-of-Famers, Dick Anderson in 1967 and John Stearns, in 1972. Anderson had seven interceptions and two forced fumbles, while Stearns had six picks and three forced fumbles.
- Onu also racked up 12 tackles in the overtime loss to Air Force (10 of which we solo stops); he is second overall on the team with 44 (30 solo).

FAMILY TIES

The University of Colorado has two sets of brothers: PK/P Davis and PK Evan Price, and WR Laviska and WR Vontae Shenault. Two Buffs have fathers who played for CU, WR Curtis Chiaverini (Darrin, CU's assistant head coach, 1995-98) and WR Dimitri Stanley (Walter, 1980-81). DB Uryan Hudson's uncle is Chris Hudson (the 1994 Thorpe Award winner), while TE Brady Russell's uncle is Matt Russell (the 1996 Butkus Award recipient).

Father-Son Scoring. When WR Dimitri Stanley scored the first touchdown (and points) of his career with his 13-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter, he joined his father Walter ('81) as the fourth father-son duo to score points for the Buffs (the list; year is the last season on the Buffs):

THE CUPBOARD MAY NOT BE BARE, BUT ...

This year's University of Colorado team entered the season with players on the roster just making 179 previous career starts – the fewest in program history since the advent of 11-game regular seasons in 1971. There were no players who had career starts at either running back or defensive tackle; 110 of the starts were are offense. Here are the returning number of starts by position, and the number of players making those (*—11 made at a previous CB position):

- 56 Offensive Line (4)
- 27 Quarterback (1)
- 24 Wide Receiver (4)

- 13 Defensive End (2)
- 12 Inside Linebacker (1)
- 3 Tight End (1)
- 0 Defensive Tackle
- 0 Running Back

HALL OF FAMERS PASS

The Buffaloes lost two former players within the last eight months who were inducted into All-Americans and enshrined in CU's Athletic Hall of Fame, DE Bill Brundige (Dec. 29, he was 70) and WR Cliff Branch (August 1 at the age of 71). Branch was inducted in 2010 in the eighth class of the Hall, while Brundige soon followed, getting the call for CU's Hall in the 10th class (2014). They were both members of CU's 69 Liberty Bowl champion team, Brundige a senior with Branch forced to sit out by the NCAA. Brundige was drafted by the Washington Redskins in 1970 and spent eight seasons with the club, while Branch was selected by the Raiders and spent 14 seasons with the franchise.

This is the fourth time that the Buffs and Broncos have first-year head coaches in the same season. In 1962, Bud Davis took over the CU program while Jack Faulkner did so for the Broncos; in 1995, Rick Neuheisel (CU) and Mike Shanahan (Denver) were named the top man; and in 2011, Jon Embree (CU) and John Fox (Broncos) took over the reins of their respective teams.

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffaloes rank on some of CU's all-time seven games into the 2019 season (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career numbers for players past and present will differ from NCAA):

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked it rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (74.1 percent of the entire roster—active and inactive—as of Sept. 3: 83 of 112 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: California 38, Colorado 27, Texas 18, Florida 3, Georgia 3, Michigan 3, Alabama 2, Illinois 2, Mississippi 2, Oregon 2, Washington 2, Arizona 1, Indiana 1, Louisiana 1, South Carolina 1, Virginia 1. That's 16 states total along with AMERICAN SAMOA (2), AUSTRALIA (1) and AUSTRIA (1) that has produced the make-up of this year's team.

- AROUND THE WORLD: Eight Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: WR Daniel Arias (Santa Domingo, D.R.), OLB Joshka Gustav (Germany), ILB Nate Landman (Zimbabwe), OL Va'atofu Sauvao (American Samoa), OL Valentin Senn (Austria), PK James Stefanou (Australia) and OLB Alex Tchangam (Cameroon). TE coach Al Pupunu was also born overseas (Tonga).
- BY CLASS: 3 graduate transfers; 15 seniors (8 fifth-year), 20 juniors, 30 sophomores, 45 freshmen (16 redshirt/3 2nd-year/26 true).

AND THE J'S HAVE IT

Statistics show that more first names in the United States begin with the letter "J," followed by M, S, D and C. The Buffaloes take that to the extreme: on the 2019 Colorado roster, over 20 percent on the team has first names that begin with J: 24 players overall who go by 21 different J names. The list:

Jake (2)	J.T.	Jamar	Jarek	Javden	Joe	Josh
Jalen (2)	Jack	Janaz	Jaren	Jaylon	Jonathan	Joshka
James (2)	Jacob	Jared	Jash	Jeremiah	John	Joshua

APOLLO MOON PROGRAM TRIVIA

America celebrated the 50th anniversary of Apollo 11 and man stepping foot on the moon on July 20, 1969, a reminder that one of the three men who traveled the furthest away from Earth (due to where the Moon was located during their mission) was a Colorado Buffalo. Jack Swigert, a '53 CU graduate, lettered from 1950-52 at guard (teammates included Tom Brookshier and Carroll Hardy). He was the command module pilot for the ill-fated Apollo 13, the mission dubbed a "successful failure" as the ship made it back to Earth after orbiting the moon despite an oxygen tank explosion in April 1971. Swigert's fellow astronauts were Jim Lovell (l.) and Fred Haise (r.); he was played by actor Kevin Bacon in the 1995 movie Apollo 13 depicting the journey; with Hollywood often taking liberties, it was Swigert who said the famous line, "Houston, we've had a problem," not Tom Hanks delivering it as Lovell. The three men flew 248,655 miles away from Earth, the furthest distance ever recorded by humans, putting their round trip mileage at 497,310 miles. (Swigert, who died in 1982 just after being elected to Congress from Colorado, wasn't even supposed to be on that mission; be replaced Ken Mattingly 48 hours prior when Mattingly was exposed to the measles and was removed from the flight.)

THE BUFFS IN NFL STADIUMS

The Buffaloes have played 25 games to date in seven current NFL venues, owning a record of 15-10 (11-5 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City and 0-1 in Santa Clara). All-time, the Buffs are 21-21-1 playing games in stadiums that simultaneously hosted NFL teams (13-6 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in Irving, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 2-3 in Houston, 1-2 in Miami 1-2 in Tempe, 0-2-1 in Anaheim, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City, 0-1 in Santa Clara and 0-3 in Los Angeles).

MORETTI MEDICALLY RETIRES

Sophomore OL Jake Moretti decided to end his football career in late July, as he had battled knee, foot and nerve injuries over the last three years. The 6-4, 290-pound product of Arvada's Pomona High School redshirted as a freshman in 2017, but appeared in seven games in 2018, including a pair of starts. He was in for 65 snaps overall, seeing his most action against New Hampshire (33 snaps) and USC (18).

SACK DOMESTIC VIOLENCE. CU Athletics and its multimedia rightsholder, Buffalo Sports Properties, have partnered with Burnham Law to "Stop Domestic Violence" this football season. For each defensive "three and out" or "fourth down stop" that the Buffs record, Burnham Law will donate $100 to benefit locally based SPAN (Safehouse Progressive Alliance for Nonviolence) and the CU Boulder Office of Victim Assistance (OVA), two organizations that support survivors, raise awareness around domestic violence and reduce violence in Boulder and surrounding communities.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CELEBRATING 150TH ANNIVERSARY

College football is celebrating the 150th anniversary of the first-ever college game, played on November 6, 1869. It's in the books at Rutgers 6, Princeton 4, but Princeton was actually known then as the College of New Jersey Tigers; Rutgers at the time were the Queensmen before adopting the Scarlet Knights as its nickname. The game was played primarily with rules closer to rugby, and few probably know that a week later on November 13, the College of New Jersey avenged the loss with an 8-0 win. Meanwhile, nearly 1,800 miles to the west, the University of Colorado was seven years away from being formed, and CU did not start playing football until 1890. Boulder looked like, well, the picture to the right. The Buffaloes are wearing a 150 decal on their helmets this season.

THE 150 LOGO (pictured on front page of release): CU is one of several schools incorporating the 150 as the stencil for the 50-yard line; the Buffs are joined by BYU, Clemson, Connecticut, Duke, Florida State, Georgia Tech, N.C. State and Syracuse. The Sugar Bowl and College Football Playoff games will use it as well.

SEASON TICKET SALES UP 5+ PERCENT

CU sold 20,362 public season tickets for the 2019 season, an increase of 1,078 (or 5.6 percent) over 2018. While not cracking the top six in season-to-season ticket increases in school history, there is some significance to the additional sales: the last time CU hired a new head coach and season ticket sales increased (without some major reduced pricing) was in 1974. There were 27,996 season ticket holders in 1973, Eddie Crowder's last year as head coach, and that number jumped to 29,260 for 1974 when Bill Mallory took over; sales declined, slightly for the most part, for six of the seven head coaches in-between Mallory and Mel Tucker (the exception was in 2011; Jon Embree took over as coach, but sales got bumps from joining the Pac-12, hosting Oregon and USC and a special $120 season ticket price). Here are the largest season ticket increases in school history since records are available dating back to World War II:

NOYER MOVES TO D, MAYBE ANOTHER HALE IRWIN?

Since the end of the Platoon Era (pre-1965), there have been very few occasions where players who lettered at quarterback, made the switch to another position and then earned a letter at their new spot. Sam Noyer moved from quarterback to safety on August 19 and is anxious to make an impact on the other side of the ball. The most famous switch in CU history happened in the third game of the '69 season, when Bobby Anderson moved from quarterback to tailback and would go on to earn first-team All-American honors. Charles Davis ('78-81) bounced around between quarterback, halfback and fullback over the course of his career while lettering four times; Ayyub Abdul-Rahmaan earned a letter at quarterback in 1995 and then at receiver in '96; Adam Bledsoe lettered twice as the signal caller ('97-98) and then at tight end ('99).

Now, Hale Irwin played both quarterback and defensive back in 1964; once platooning ended, he moved permanently to defense in '65, and as a senior in 1966 he earned All-Big Eight Conference honors.

BISHARAT CLIMBING SPECIAL TEAM CHARTS

Senior TE Beau Bisharat has been a force on special teams since he arrived at Colorado. The two-time reigning "special teams point" champion on the Buffaloes with 29 in each of the last two years now has 85 career special team points, which is fourth at CU since the category was created back in 1987. His career ST tackles, 35 (26 solo), are the fifth-most. FS Ryan Sutter ('97; yes, the same Ryan Sutter on who was on the "Bachelorette") is the CU career leader in both, with 123 points and 64 tackles; CB Arthur Jaffee ('11) is second with 88 points, with FB Darren Fisk ('97) third with 86.

MANGHAM COULD MAKE HIS MARK

CILEDESHMAN SEASON DUSHING (200 plus vards)

Freshman TB Jaren Mangham, through five games, appears poised to crack the list of all-time rushing yards by a CU freshman (true or redshirt). With 281 yards at present, he projects to finish at his current pace between 400 and 500 yards; only eight players as freshmen have rushed for 400 or more (and 14 for 300-plus). A look at the young ones who have had solid years running the ball (*—denotes redshirt-freshman):

TOUCHDOWN RECORD: 8, Herchell Troutman, 1994 (244 yards)

The last 100-yard rushing game by a freshman? It was actually by QB Steven Montez, who rushed for 135 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries in a 41-38 win at Oregon on Sept. 24, 2016 (when he was a redshirt frosh). The last by a running back was by Patrick Carr at UCLA on Oct. 31, 2015 (19-100, 1 TD).

GEORGE A RARITY

CU's Cymone George is in her first year as CU's director of recruiting; how rare is that in the FBS ranks? Here's the entire list:

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

Colorado has seven players on its roster who were born outside the United States, tied for the fourth-most among FBS schools (though the seven represent seven different countries, the second-most behind a whopping 11 for Temple). What's interesting in this group is how many islands of the Caribbean are represented (Bahamas, Dominican Republic, Haiti, Jamaica, Puerto Rico and the Turks and Caicos Islands). Here's a list of those schools with five or more born anywhere but among the 50 U.S. States (U.S. possessions count as outside the country, as they are countries):

ALMOST PERFECT IN CLOSE

Dating back to nine games into the 2016 season, Colorado has had 61 goal-to-go situations, scoring 59 times (or 97 percent of the time); 47 of the scores have been touchdowns to go with 12 field goals. The only non-scores came on a drive ending on downs last year against Oregon State (in overtime) and an interception this year at Oregon. A look at perfect (or near) seasons in this regard since 1984 when the stat was first tracked:

SEASON OPENER OBSCURE NOTES

► Colorado was one of 11 teams to not commit a turnover or allow a quarterback sack last weekend; those teams went 10-1 (Rice lost to Army, 14-7); three of the 11 were from the Pac-12, as Utah and Washington both accomplished the feat.

► The Buffaloes were one of just three teams to have no turnovers, no sacks allowed while also committing fewer than five penalties in the game, joined only by Kansas State and Rice.

► The Colorado offensive line did not surrender a quarterback sack (for the second straight season opener), allowed just two tackles for loss and helped the run game average 6.1 yards per play (40 attempts). How are is limited the opponent to just two TFL's? Going back over the last 10 seasons, it's tied for the fourth-fewest by the enemy:

Opponent	Date	TFL's	Yards	Opponent	Date	TFL's	Yards

FOURTH QUARTER BUFFS

Colorado's 24 points against Nebraska in the fourth quarter was its most since scoring the exact same amount against the Huskers in Boulder on Nov. 26, 1999. It tied for the fourth most points by the Buffaloes in a fourth quarter over the last 74 seasons (dating back to 1946); records are sketchy prior to that season, but the known school record for points in the fourth stanza is 34 at Brigham Young in a 48-6 win on Oct. 20, 1934. Top fourth quarter scoring by the Buffs since the end of World War II:

Opponent	Date	Points	Result	Opponent	Date	Points	Result
CINCINNATI	Sept. 16, 1972	28	W, 56-14	NEBRASKA (OT)	Nov. 26, 1999	24	L, 30-33
at Utah	Nov. 10, 1951	27	W, 54-0	NEBRASKA (OT)	Sept. 7, 2019	24	W, 34-31
at Arizona	Oct. 11, 1958	25	W, 65-12	at Iowa State	Oct. 21, 1995	23	W, 50-28

The 258 yards gained in the quarter set a fourth quarter record for CU as well; the previous high was 231 on Sept, 24, 1994 – in CU's 27-26 win at Michigan.

SHENAULT WAS MAKING WAVES & HISTORY

Prior to being injured in the sixth game last season at Southern California (in the third quarter), then-sophomore WR Laviska Shenault had one amazing start to the 2018 season. He opened by recording the second-most receiving yards in back-to-back games (388) and tying for both the second (25) and fifth-most receptions (21) in two consecutive games in CU history. Through the season's eighth week games, he led the nation in both categories each week and was averaging 10.0 catches and 130.0 yards per game; he qualified once again for the national rankings after playing in the final three games (NCAA requires a player to appear in 75 percent of his games; after suffering a toe injury against the Trojans, he missed the Washington, Oregon State and Arizona games). Upon his return, he caught 26 passes for 231 yards; his average per catch dropped but he still managed to lead the nation in receptions per game with 9.6. On Sept. 25, he was added to the official Biletnikoff Award watch list by the award's committee, and also advanced to the final 15 for the Maxwell Award. A look at his CU accomplishments his sophomore season:

SHENAULT ASSAULT ON FIRST DOWNS

Shenault is a virtual first down machine, earning a first down (or scoring a touchdown in goal-to-go situations where the NCAA doesn't award a first down as is the case in the NFL) on 87 of 149 offensive touches, or 58.4 percent of the time (or one for just under every two touches).

He missed three full games in 2018 after being injured in the third quarter at Southern California.

- ► He was named a 2018 Midseason All-American (first-team) by the Associated Press, The Athletic, CBSSports.com, ESPN.com, ProFootballFocus.com and Rivals.com.
- ► His longest reception in each of CU's first five games went for a touchdown in 2018, as did his first in 2019.
- ► He scored a touchdown in the first six games in 2018 before he was injured, at one time threatening the school record of 10 by TB J.J. Flannigan.
- ► His 11 touchdowns in 2018 added to 302 yards, or 27.5 yards per (his six TD receptions went for a combined 247 yards, or 41.2 per).
- ► His 16 career touchdowns have added to 432 yards, or 27.0 yards per.

▶ His 5 games with 10 or more receptions was a CU season record (old: 4, Nelson Spruce, 2014); he's tied for the second-most in a career (Spruce 7, Paul Richardson 5).

▶ In 2017 as a freshman, he became the 15th known Buffalo at the time to score a touchdown on his first collegiate touch (excluding defensive players), but statistically, it wasn't an official toucb. Against Texas State, he scooped up a fumble on a CU punt return and ran 55 yards for a TD; however, the NCAA does not score it as a fumble return but views it as an extension of a punt return, thus he was credited with no return for 55 yards, much like a lateral is scored (full list of first touch scores on page 38).

SHENAULT CRACKED PRESTIGIOUS GROUP

When he scored four touchdowns in CU's 28-21 win over Arizona State last October 6, WR Laviska Shenault joined a very exclusive group in CU history. He became the 15th different player to score four (or more) touchdowns in a single game. Only TB Rashaan Salaam did it twice (in his Heisman Trophy year in 1994). While Shenault was the first to score four with two rushing and two receiving, the standard still might be what HB Byron White did against Utah on a snow-covered field in a 31-7 win in Boulder in 1936: White scored on punt returns of 38 and 43 yards in the first quarter, scored on a 38-yard run in the second, and returned the second half kickoff 90 yards for a score (he also threw a TD pass for 50 yards and kicked one extra point). The 16 times Buffaloes crossed into the end zone for four-plus touchdowns (*—includes three kick return touchdowns (two punt, one kickoff):

SHENAULT SECOND BUFF WR TO EARN FIRST-TEAMALL-PAC-12 HONORS

WR Laviska Shenault was named first-team All-Pac-12 by the league coaches on Dec. 4; he is just the second offensive player and fifth Buffalo overall to earn first-team honors since the Buffs joined the Pac-12 in 2011 (joining WR Paul Richardson in 2013, DE Jimmie Gilbert and S Ryan Moeller (all-purpose player) in 2016 and CB Isaiah Oliver in 2017. Shenault and Richardson are the only CU receivers to earn first-team all-conference honors since 1997, when WR Phil Savoy earned first-team All-Big 12 accolades; the Buffs had at least one for six straight seasons from 1992-97 between the Big 8 and Big 12. Shenault finished the 2018 season with 86 receptions for 1,011 yards and six touchdowns. He also added 17 rushes for 115 yards and five touchdowns on the ground. Missing three-and-a-half games due to injury and playing the last three games of the season at less than 100 percent, he still managed to lead the nation in receiving at 9.6 receptions per game, exactly 1.0 reception per game more than any other player in the country.

► In 2018, Shenault was the only player in the nation to score at least five touchdowns via both rushing and receiving. He's the second player in CU history to accomplish that feat alongside WR Mike Pritchard, who did so in 1990 aided by playing the season-opening Tennessee game at tailback and rushing 20 times for 217 yards and two touchdowns.

PUNT COVERAGE & PROTECTION

The opponent has been held under 100 punt return yards in each of the last two seasons: opponents had 19 returns for 89 yards last year, and 15 for 75 in 2017; thus, the two-year total was 164 yards on 34 returns, or 4.82 per. You had to go back to 1997 to find the previous season when the opponent had less than 100 punt return yards (18 for 88), and all the way back to 1970 (10 for 54) and 1971 (11 for 77) for the last time CU held the enemy to under 100 yards two seasons in a row. So far this season, the opponent has just 49 on eight returns (6.1 per) through six games.

CU had 64 punts in 2018 with none blocked, the 29th season since 1946 the Buffaloes did not have one blocked. The 64 punts without one rank seventh

- for the most punts in a season without at least one blocked, trailing 1949 (77), 2012 (76), 1984 (72), 1979 (71), 2004 (68) and 2014 (65).
- CU has punted 106 times since one was last blocked (at Arizona State in 2017); 10 in 2017, 64 in 2018, 32 in 2019.

COLORADO IN THE POLLS – 2019 WEEK-BY-WEEK

A look at where Colorado has placed weekly in each of the three major polls in 2019 (the College Football Playoff committee first released its weekly rankings on Tuesday, Oct. 30; RV—denotes received votes; number is place outside top 25):

IN THE POLLS / SOME HISTORY

Colorado was last ranked on Oct. 13, 2018 (No. 25 in the USA Today/Coaches poll), and was last in the AP poll on Oct. 6, 2018 (No. 19; the Buffs were a season-high No. 18 the same day in the coaches ballot). The Buffs were not ranked in 2017, and had climbed to as high as No. 9 in both polls (twice) in 2016; CU had not been ranked previous to '16 since 2005. Colorado owns the ninth longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the fifth week of 1997, CU had a run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has now been ranked 304 times in its history, the 26th most all-time (Georgia Tech is 25th with 307), and has finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 12, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

47 WINS OVER AP RANKED TEAMS 20TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 47 wins over Associated Press ranked teams dating back to the 1989 season (when the AP expanded to a top 25) are tied for the 20th most in the nation in this time frame (31 seasons). Through Oct. 19, Alabama has the most (96), followed by Ohio State (90), Florida State (83), Florida (80), LSU (77), Michigan (72), Oklahoma (71), Southern Cal (70), Miami, Fla. (62), Georgia (61), Tennessee (60), Auburn (60), Texas (59), Notre Dame (58), Clemson (57), Oregon (55), Penn State (54), Washington (53), UCLA (52), Colorado (47), Michigan State (47) and Nebraska (47). All-time, Colorado's 70 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. Since 1989, CU has played the seventh most ranked teams in the nation (138, with a record of 47-89-2), trailing only Alabama 154 (96-57-1), Florida (154; 80-73-1), LSU (152; 77-75), Michigan 144 (72-70-2) and Ohio State 143 (90-50-3); Florida State has also played 138 (83-55).

- CU is 4-32 against ranked teams since a 34-30 win versus No. 17 Kansas in Boulder on Oct. 17, 2009 (the wins over #25 Nebraska and #24 Arizona State this year and #20 WSU and #21 Utah in 2016)).
- CU's last win over a top 5 or 10 team was on Sept. 29, 2007: a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in Boulder.
- > Note: In 2016, ASU was ranked #24 in the USA Today/Coaches poll when CU defeated it, 40-16; but all historical records are solely against those teams ranked by the AP.
- The Buffs had lost 29 straight road games against ranked opponents until the 34-31 win at Arizona State on Sept. 21; the last win had been a 31-17 over UCLA at the Rose Bowl in 2002 – on the same exact date: Sept. 21.

1,000 / 1,000

Prior to 2018, in school history there had been 16 1,000-yard rushing seasons and nine 1,000-yard receiving season, but never both in the same season until last year. WR Laviska Shenault had 1,011 receiving and TB Travon McMillian 1,009 to become the first duo to do in the same season. Shenault's average of 11.8 tied for the eighth-best of the now 10 1,000-yard receiving years, while McMillian's 5.02 norm was the 13th-best of the thousand yard runners.

700 CLUB

Colorado became the 25th school to reach the 700-win mark with a 44-28 win over California in 2017; the Buffs have an all-time record of 708-512-36 (a .578 winning percentage). In addition to being 26th on the all-time win list, CU is 36th in winning percentage (29th for schools with 1,000 or more games played in the FBS). The top 30 in all-time wins through games of October 19:

CHEV'S "COACHED" A HATRICK ... PLUS

Darrin Chiaverini is in his fourth year as CU's wide receivers coach. During his 37 games to date, he's now coached four players who have passed him on CU's all-time receiving yards list. WR Shay Fields passed him as a junior in 2016, while seniors WR Devin Ross and WR Bryce Bobo did so in 2017. And a fourth, WR Laviska Shenault zoomed by him in the first game of 2019, while WR K.D. Nixon now looms as the next one to likely to pass him by:

O-LINE NOTES. Colorado has three starters returning on the offensive line (Tim Lynott, Jr.; Colby Pursell; Will Sherman); that's tied with several schools but only 12 have more (led by Auburn, Boise State and Iowa State all with five). With Pursell moving from center to guard and Lynott from guard to center, eight other schools are doing the latter and four the former (no Pac-12 schools).

OPENING DEPTH CHART NOTES

The Buffs released their season-opening depth chart on August 22, and for the fifth time in the last seven seasons, CU has more underclassmen than upperclassmen listed. Of the approximately 55 players who figure to see action from scrimmage, 32 are underclassmen (16 freshman, 16 sophomores). ► In both 2016 and 2017, CU did not start a true freshman in any game over the course of the season; that had not happened since 2005.

SEASON OPENERS: UNDERCLASSMEN STARTERS
The depth is always fluid leading up to the first game, but with nine underclassmen atop the August 22 depth chart, if that were to hold, for the second straight year that many would start the opener. In 2018, it marked the fifth time since 1995 that three freshmen cracked the opening day starter list; the most was four in 2007 (when six underclassmen started in the opener). A look at the most underclassmen starters for the Buffaloes over the last 25 seasons:	Season 2014 2009 2018 2003 2004 2008 2012	Fr. 3 3 1 1 1 2	So. 9 8 6 7 7 7 6	Total 12 11 9 8 8 8 8 8 8

THAT REDSHIRT RULE

Beginning with the 2018 season, incoming freshmen can now play in up to four games but not lose a year of eligibility; this also applies to anyone else on the roster. In any year they play in four games or less, they get the year back (and the four can be at any point during the season; they do not have to be the first four games). Also if a player redshirts as a true freshman and then suffers a season-ending injury within the first four games of another season, he's now eligible for a sixth-year without having to lose two years to injuries and go through the old petition process. A perfect example would be Derek McCartney, who redshirted as a true freshman in 2013, and was injured in game three of his fourth-year (2016); he would have been awarded a sixth-year of eligibility under this rule change.

If this new rule above had been permanently in place since freshmen were allowed to play, here are some notable Buffaloes that would have earned a full season back due to either playing in four games or less at some point in their career due to injury, and others who once played, were simply inserted at the end of games over the course of the season when the outcomes had already been decided (assuming the four-game maximum would have applied in 11-game seasons prior to 2006; *— denotes true freshman):

WR *Dave Logan, 1972	Debuted late in week two in a 56-14 win over Cincinnati, when he had his lone reception of the year. He was on the travel squad, but appeared just a couple of more times.
TB *James Mayberry, 1975	Appeared late in several games, had 16 rushing attempts and one reception.
DT George Smith, 1982	Injured in the fourth game of the year, he had 34 tackles, four for losses when he was lost for the year.
WB * Mike Pritchard, 1987	Appeared in six games and 17 rushes and threw seven passes.
QB *Darian Hagan, 1988	Appeared in five games (plus the Freedom Bowl), had 38 rushes and threw seven passes.
QB *Vance Joseph, 1990	Appeared in four games, had 13 rushes and threw seven passes (and was next in line to play in the '91 Orange Bowl).
QB *Kordell Stewart, 1991	Appeared in two games, had 18 rushes and threw two passes.
QB *Koy Detmer, 1992	Pressed into duty to rally CU over Minnesota in game three, started two others and appeared in seven overall; but he was also injured early in the fourth game in 1995, so either would have applied.
ILB Jashon Sykes, 2001	Injured in the fourth game of the year, he had already racked up 33 tackles and $3\frac{1}{2}$ sacks
QB *Joel Klatt, 2002	Played three snaps late against Baylor in game seven, appeared in a handful of others after, including on the punt team.
OLB Derek McCartney, 2016	Had already utilized his redshirt year, so when lost for the season with a torn ACL in game three at Michigan, he lost that year.

And there were several players in 1984, when CU resurrected its junior varsity team for one year; several played in the three JV games and then saw some time afterward in some of the last six varsity games. These included WR Lance Carl, ILB Don DeLuzio, TB Dion Dyson, TE/P Keith English, WR Drew Ferrando, QB Mark Hatcher, P Barry Helton, TB Sam Smith, CB David Tate and FB Anthony Weatherspoon.

AND WHO BENEFITTED? SEVEN BUFFS

There were seven Buffaloes who benefitted from the NCAA's new redshirt which permits players to play in up to four games and not lose a year of eligibility provided they had a redshirt year available to them (no fifth-year seniors played in four games or less who were lost for the season due to injury, as exceptions could have been made in those instances). Those players, with the games they appeared in parenthesis (*—no longer on team): OLB Jacob Callier (4), PK Tyler Francis (2), P Alex Kinney (4), PK Evan Price (2), WR Dimitri Stanley (3), DB *L.J. Wallace (1) and ILB *Jake Yurachek (1).

FUMBLE OR FUMBLE ME NOT

Hanging on to the football is one thing that the Colorado Buffaloes have done most of this decade, and they've taken it up a notch in 2019. The Buffaloes have not fumbled the ball in their last 327 touches (scrimmage plays, punts/placement kicks, returns). For the year (607 touches), Colorado has just six fumbles, or one for every 101.2 touches. The ones most likely to fumble, the running backs, have none in 232 (rushes, receptions, returns); tailbacks have just 19 over the last seven seasons in 2,322 carries (or just one in every 122.2 attempts). And "six" is actually a bit misleading, as three have been charged to the team on bad snaps; the two that were lost were both fumbled on kickoff returns meaning just one has been charged to a player on offense.

▶ Since the start of the 2013 season, Colorado has a total of 111 fumbles (losing 47) – out of 7,496 touches (or 1 in for every 67.5 touches).

This was the third straight year CU opened with four of its first five games in the state of Colorado; it's fairly common for the Buffs, as this is the 19th time CU will leave the state just once in the first five games dating back to the 1978 season.

MONTEZ /QUICKLY

Sophomore QB Steven Montez is 15-19 as CU's starting quarterback (2-1 in 2016, 5-7 in 2017, 5-7 in 2018, 3-4 in 2019). Some Montezbits:

Montez opened 5-1 as a starter was the best by a CU quarterback since Mike Moschetti opened 5-0 in 1998 (he went on to be 5-1, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3 and 7-3); Moschetti was the last to open 6-1 (along with John Hessler in 1995, who went on to be 8-1 in his first nine games as starter from 1995-97).

▶ He has started 34 games at quarterback: tied for third all-time at CU.

▶ He started games in four different seasons (3-2016, 12-2017, 12-2018, 2-2019); he joins his predecessor, Sefo Liufau (2013-16), Tyler Hansen (2008-11) and Hawkins as the four to do so in Colorado history.

He has started 31 consecutive games at the position; that has tied Gale Weidner (31, 1959-61, including the '62 Orange Bowl); he passed Kordell Stewart (28, 1992-94, including three bowls) earlier this season; nationally, that trails Jake Fromm, Georgia (35), Mason Fine, North Texas (35), Nate Stanley, Iowa and J'Mar Smith, Louisiana Tech (33) and Nathan Rourke, Ohio (32).

▶ In three season openers (all against Colorado State), he completed 56-of-74 passes for 772 yards (7 TD/3 INT) for a rating of 186.4. His 88.0 completion percentage in the 2018 opener (22-of-25) was a school record for 20- and 25-plus attempts and thus was by far a career-best, topping his previous best of 72.4 (21of-29), which was set against the Rams in 2017. Combined versus CSU, he was 25-of-33 on first downs (for 315 yards), 19-of-26 for 205 yards on second down and 12-of-15 for 252 yards on third down.

▶ He is the second player in school history to throw for 8,000 career yards (8,564; one of four to pass for over 7,000).

- ▶ He is also the second player in school history to accumulate 9,000 yards of total offense (9,406; he trails only Sefo Liufau, with 10,509).
- ▶ He has 16 career games of 300-plus yards total offense; breaking the school record of 13 by QB Sefo Liufau (2013-16).
- ▶ He is third at Colorado with 56 career touchdown passes (Sefo Liufau and Cody Hawkins lead with 60; Joel Klatt had 44).
- ▶ He has engineered 4 fourth quarter comebacks, three on the road (at Oregon, 2016, at Oregon State, 2017, at Nebraska, 2018) and one at home (Nebraska, 2019)

▶ He was the first Buffalo quarterback to throw a TD pass on his first career pass since Joe Dowler did so back in 1959. Montez hit WR Kabion Ento on a 69-yard scoring strike in the second quarter in his first appearance in the second game of the 2016 season (against Idaho State). Dowler had done it on Oct. 3, 1959 at Oklahoma, a 15-yard TD pass to Kirk Campbell in a 42-12 loss to the Sooners.

TAKING THE WORLD BY STORM

OB Steven Montez had quite a debut as CU's starter subbing for an injured Sefo Liufau at Oregon (Sept. 24, 2016). In leading the Buffs to a 41-38 win, he arguably had the best first game as a starter in school history. He completed 23 of 32 passes for 333 yards (3 TD/2 INT), for a passer rating of 177.7 and also had 21 rushes for 135 yards (6.4 per), with a touchdown and a long run of 32 yards. It all added up to 468 yards of total offense and 23 first downs earned (8 rush/15 passing). He received seven different national and/or conference accolades for his efforts, as well as:

- He enjoyed the fifth-best game in a quarterback's first start at Colorado in terms of passing yards, but the best in total offense (see charts below).
- His 135 yards rushing were the most in a debut by a starting Buff QB (topping the 116 by Darian Hagan vs. Texas in 1989) and is the 10th most in any game alltime at Colorado by a quarterback (and the first 100-yard game by a quarterback since Nov. 4, 2006 when Bernard Jackson had 105 against Kansas State).
- His 468 yards of total offense were the fourth-most in a single-game in Colorado history.
- It was the first-ever 300 passing/100 rushing game in CU history and just the second 200/100 game (Stewart had 205/143 vs. Notre Dame in the '95 Fiesta Bowl).
- His 14 straight completions in the first half tied for the second-most in school history (trailing 15 by Mike Moschetti over two games in 1999); it matched the most in one game (Koy Detmer, 14 at Colorado State in 1996).

MONTEZ THE 12TH FRESHMAN AT COLORADO TO START A GAME AT QUARTERBACK

QB Steven Montez became just the 12th freshman in school history to start a game at quarterback at Colorado (the sixth redshirt frosh to do so). He had the secondmost passing yards by a freshman in a starting debut at CU quarterback. A closer look at every freshman's first career start at CU (*-denotes redshirt freshman):

THE "RUSHING/PASSING" QB's

Montez is a two-way threat with his arm and his legs, as evidenced by being the first 300/100 player in CU history (300 yards passing/100 rushing in the same game). He's cracked CU's list of all-time rushing yards by quarterbacks (adjusted to allow for sacks; *—Anderson switched to tailback in the third game of the 1969 season):

THE 100 CLUB

QB Steven Montez set the school record for the most passing attempts without an interception with 172 over a seven-game span in 2017; it only ended on the last play of the game at Arizona State, when he was picked off on a batted ball in the end zone on "Hail Mary" thrown. It was the ninth streak of 100 passes or more in Colorado history (and he was the seventh different quarterback to do it). The 172-game streak was the longest active streak in the nation at the time, as the two ahead of him on the list were picked off the week before (N.C. State's Ryan Finley saw his streak end at 340 and San Diego State's Christian Chapman's ended at 168). He has four streaks of 80 or more (no other CU quarterback had more than two); he also joined Sefo Liufau as the only ones at Colorado with at least two 100-plus streaks (Liufau had three):

172 Steven Montez (seven games, Sept. 23-Nov. 4, 2017)

- Sefo Liufau (nine games, Nov. 13, 2015 to Nov. 3, 2016) 152
- 139 Joel Klatt (five games, Oct. 15 to Nov. 12, 2005)
- 131 Tyler Hansen (four games, Sept. 3 to Oct. 1, 2011)
- 118 Sefo Liufau (five games, Sept. 3 to Oct. 3, 2015)
- 115 Steven Montez (three games, Sept. 14 to Oct. 11, 2019)
- Cody Hawkins (four games, Oct. 9 to Nov. 6, 2010) 114

- 107 Sefo Liufau (four games, Oct. 10-31, 2015)
- Craig Ochs (four games, Oct. 14 to Nov. 4, 2000) 104 100
- John Hessler (six games, Sept. 2 to Oct. 7, 1995) ____

82 Steven Montez (three games, Oct. 20 to Nov. 2, 2018)

80 Steven Montez (three games, Aug. 31 to Sept. 15, 2018)

▶ During the streak, he was 100-of-172 for 1,391 yards and 10 touchdowns (58.1 completion percentage, 145.3 rating).

TDS, PICKS AND THROWS

QB Steven Montez threw 18 touchdown passes in 2017, tied for the seventh-most in a single season in school history. Of course, that can be dependent on the number of throws. For those 10 seasons where a quarterback threw at least 15 TD passes, his percentage was the second-lowest at 4.77; but he countered that by have the best interception percentage among the group, at just 2.39 percent. So his 2-to-1 ratio of 18 TD passes to nine picks also played out in the percentages, which only Joel Klatt (2003), John Hessler (1995) and Mike Moschetti (1998) bettered. Fast-forward to 2018, he bested his own numbers, and is on track to do the same in 2019. A closer look:

QUARTERBACK RECORDS AGAINST THE SUN DEVILS

CU's last two starting quarterbacks, Sefo Liufau and Steven Montez, enjoyed playing Arizona State judging by the yards both accounted for dating back to 2013, when Liufau made his first appearance in the second quarter in Tempe. The duo then started the next six games (Liufau 2014-16, Montez 2017-19) and posted these 1-2 numbers in the CU record book:

300/100/100

The Buffaloes have now had 15 occasions in their history with a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver, with Steven Montez is the quarterback involved the most (six), while Devin Ross has been a participant in the most at receiver (four) and Phillip Lindsay and Travon McMillian the most at running back (three). Colorado is 9-6 in these games:

DID YOU KNOW? Colorado is one of 29 schools to have had at least one member in all 13 years of the NFF Hampshire Honor Society (2007-19)? The Buffaloes are the only Pac-12 Conference school to do so and are one of just seven FBS/Division I schools recognized with the honors.

LINDY'S LIKES BOULDER—Lindy's Sports College Football gave CU two high rankings in its annual list of lists: Ralphie was named the No. 1 live mascot in the nation, and Folsom Field was selected as the third best stadium to "take a selfie."

COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S "OLD MAN" NO MORE

As a freshman in 2017, PK James Stefanou was the second oldest player overall in the FBS, but the oldest freshman; he assumed the mantle of being the oldest collegian in the game in 2018, but is back as the second-oldest this fall. One of the recent influxes of kickers from Australia, he came from a soccer background where he had elite level experience as a defender; he represented Australia on its U19 team, a youth progression team that is the feeder squad to the Olympic team. He also played professionally, most notably in two stints for South Melbourne FC, first from 2005-06 before he signed again with them in 2010. Stefanou got into football by training periodically over the course of six years (2012-17) at ProKick Australia, an academy developed to assist in the transition to American football by providing the fundamentals of punting and kicking. The elderly:

STEFANOU AMONG TOP FIVE IN KICK ACCURACY

PK James Stefanou is currently in the top five in accuracy for both field goals as well extra-point kicks - one of just two players on both short lists (joined only by PK Will Oliver, 2011-14):

THE VERTICAL GAME (EXPLOSION PLAYS)

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 57 "explosion" plays in 2016, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that was the most by a CU team since 2007 (49 in 2017). Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, not including bowls, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

AHEAD IN A BIG WAY

From 2006-15, the opponent had almost always had a distinct advantage in TSL (time spent in the lead), but CU reversed that and then some in 2016. The Buffs led for 457 minutes and 20 seconds, or 59 percent of the time; opponents for just 24 percent and the score tied the other 17 percent. CU led for more minutes in 2016 than it had in all 11 previous years after just eight games (and when it held the edge over an entire season just twice: 2005 and 2010. But alas, the opponent held a slight edge in both 2017 and 2018 (bowl games not included):

100/300

The Buffaloes have historically done well when holding the opponent to under 100 yards rushing and under 300 yards total offense. Dating back to the start of the 1985 season, Colorado is 103-15-1 when the opponent fails to reach 100 yards on the ground, and 104-20-1 when the enemy is held under 300 yards overall. CU is 10-1 and 15-0 in each, respectively, dating back to the start of the 2013 season.

FIVE, 5-0

Senior P Alex Kinney joined a handful of players is CU history to play in five games against the same opponent when he punted four times (in addition to holding on placements) in the season opener against Colorado State. He is the first Buffalo since TE Quinn Sypniewski, who lined up against the Rams in 2000-01-02-04-05); he lost two seasons after being injured early in 2003 and 2004 and was granted a sixth year.

-But: Kinney was 5-0 against Colorado State, believed to be either the first or second player in CU history to be involved in five wins against the same opponent. With no participation records available for the early years of the program, it can't be confirmed, but Harry Gamble lettered six times (1891-96) and could have been 5-0 against the University of Denver.

RECORD WATCH

The Buffaloes have set 6 records (and tied 3 others) for a total of 9 thus far in 2019. NOTE: CU did not adopt the NCAA 2002 policy of adding bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers, thus some may differ from NCAA totals.

"FREAK" LIST

For the past 16 years, college football analyst Bruce Feldman has put out a list in the summers on the biggest Freaks in college football. The list "showcases guys who generate buzz inside their programs by displaying the type of rare physical abilities that wow even those folks who are used to observing gifted athletes every day." The list is compiled with the help of many coaches, players and SIDs from around the nation. He had S/OLB Davion Taylor listed No. 22 on his 2018 compilation; Feldman's synopses on Taylor:

No. 22 Taylor: "The Buffaloes amped up the speed of their defense quite a bit when they landed Taylor over the winter, the No. 1 outside linebacker junior college prospect (and No. 8 overall JUCO prospect) in the country. He completed spring football in February and March and went right to the track, where he raced in the 100 and 200 meters and was on the 4x100 relay team. The 6-3, 220-pounder was CU's fastest sprinter, and he finished sixth in the 100 at the Pac-12 Championships. His top 100 time this year was 10.51 in the prelims of the Pac-12s.

INAUGURATIONS

Mel Tucker was named the 26th full-time head coach in Colorado history last December 5, the 16th dating back to 1935; after the first 10 CU coaches opened 8-1-1, the last 15 have gone 2-13. Mike MacIntyre became just the second coach in that group to win his CU opener in an 81-year span with a 41-27 win over Colorado State in Denver in 2013; the only other coach to do so since Herbert Hoover was U.S. President was Rick Neuheisel, who saw his team defeat Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7, in 1995 (one year after Tucker graduated). Both teams have scored 10 or more points in a new CU chief's debut only nine times, all since 1959. Overall, Colorado coaches are 11-14-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look (number in parenthesis indicates how many games that coach won in a row to begin career):

Head coaches have had more success in their first conference game piloting the Buffaloes, going 17-8 including Tucker's first CU squad winning 34-31 at Arizona State on Sept. 21 (CU was an independent in 1905 when Willis Kleinholtz coached his lone season). He is the first since Gary Barnett won his Big 12 Conference debut, a 51-17 win over Kansas in Boulder; the last three CU head coaches lost their league lid-lifters. As far as winning their first conference game on the road, Tucker became the sixth to do so (number in parenthesis is how many league wins in a row that coach started with):

TURNOVER FREE

In 2017, Colorado saw its record run of consecutive quarters played without turning the ball over end at Washington State with a fourth quarter; the streak ended at a school-record 16 straight quarters (253:52 in total time), and nearly went four straight games without one as there was just 3:20 remaining in the 28-0 loss to WSU when the streak came to a close. Colorado played 17 games out of 74 under Mike MacIntyre without a turnover, the highest percentage in any CU head coach's tenure over two years since World War II. Mel Tucker wasted no time coaching his first turnover-free game, doing it in his debut against Colorado State and already has seen his teams have two mistake free games. Take a look (TFG---turnover free games; TG---total games):

 \triangleright Colorado played four turnover-free games in 2018 (at Nebraska, vs. UCLA, vs. Arizona State, vs. Oregon State), tying the season record.

⋟ Wow: The Buffaloes committed eight turnovers in the first four games in 2017, but had just eight over the next nine contests (814 touches) until committing three against Washington State; so including the first nine games last year (822 touches), CU had just 14 turnovers in that 17-game span (1,548 touches).

- Colorado also played four turnover-free games in 2017, tying the school record previously accomplished in 1989, 1993, 2006 and 2011. It nearly had a \triangleright fifth—an interception on a Hail Mary as time ran out at Arizona State was the lone turnover of that game.
- Post-World War II (dating back to 1946), Colorado has played 86 turnover-free games, owning a record of 56-26-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls).
- \triangleright Colorado played at least three turnover-free games the last four seasons (2015-18), easily the longest streak in school history; the 14 games without a turnover over the last four seasons are the most in any four-year span in school history, besting 11 mistake free games from 1987-90.
- \geq Colorado has now had at least one turnover-free game for 10 straight seasons (2010-19, 27 total), tied for the longest run in school annals: the Buffs had at least one for 10 straight years (1998-2007, 19 total); CU also had a run of nine consecutive seasons (1987-95, 22 total).

LANDMAN HAS LANDMARK GAME

Junior ILB Nate Landman was a bright spot in CU's 45-3 loss at Oregon on Oct. 11; after the coaches video review, which CU has historically used for its defensive totals, he was credited with 16 tackles (all solo/unassisted; press box totals had him for 14, 10 solo). That tied for the fifth-most unassisted tackles in CU history, and the most since ILB Jordan Dizon had 17 against Colorado State in 2007. He's climbing CU's all-time tackle list, as his 225 has him 54th all-time in total stops, while his 146 unassisted stops rank 39th.

In his first career start on defense (in the 2018 season opener against Colorado State in Denver) he was in on 14 tackles (for solo), tied with three others for the most tackles in a first career start. He earned Pac-12 defensive pkayer of the week honors for his efforts.

With 11 tackles against Arizona on Oct. 5, Landman became the 73rd player in school history to record 200 career tackles, doing so in just 28 career games. He finished that game with career totals of 123 solo and 77 assisted.

ELEVEN HAVE DASHED 100 ... OR FURTHER

In 2017 (Oct. 28), then-junior DB Nick Fisher joined a very exclusive club when he returned an interception 100 vards in the fourth quarter to close out CU's 44-28 win over California. It was the 11th 100-yard play in CU history, the fourth interception return of that length. However, the NCAA seals returns at a 100-yard maximum; if it allowed returns to be scored like the NFL, counting end zone vardage, Fisher would have been credited with a 109-vard return (CU's head statistician is also the Broncos'). It was the first 100-yard interception return since 1996, when FS Steve Rosga pulled it off against Oklahoma State (his would have been 105 yards). ILB Marcus Burton came close in 2005, when he picked one off at the half yard line and raced 99 yards for a score - at Oklahoma State.

OTHER GRADUATES: Aside from the three graduate transfers and Kinney and Lynott, no other Buffaloes have graduated at this time.

GRADUATION REVIEW

(Tbrough August 2019) Over the last 18 years, Colorado has had 330 of its 364 seniors graduate, or translating to 90.7 percent in this time frame (including 20 of the 23 seniors in 2018); these are the 2001-2018 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last 11 years, 215 of the last 234 have graduated (91.9%), with eight of those 19 either playing in the NFL or attempting to do so and haven't yet been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.63 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2019 semester is its second highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has 17 straight semesters over a 2.5 (data collected since 1996).

100+ RETURN YARDS NOT THAT COMMON

Often lost in all the conversation about total offense and defense are return yards – but they often swing a game. In 2017, CU owned a 396-234 edge, and had two games with 100-plus return yards (116-9 versus Texas State and 126-5 against Cal). CU's had just five games since 2002 with over 100 returns yards in a game (and have had two in the same season since 2002; the last time with three was 2001). In 2016, CU had 175 against UCLA in its 20-10 win, and they played a huge role, accounting for one touchdown via punt return and setting up CU's lone offensive score via an interception return. It was the most return yards by the Buffs since Oct. 26, 2002, when they had 183 in a 37-13 win over Texas Tech (125 interception, 44 punt, 14 fumble). The other two games with 100-plus came in 2008 against Eastern Washington (135) and in 2013 against Central Arkansas (125).

- ► In the '18 opener against Colorado State, the Buffaloes owned an 87-0 edge in return yards, most coming on punts (85 yards); those collectively set CU up at their own 28-yard line; at Nebraska, the edge was 32-(-2). All told, CU had the advantage in eight games in 2018 with an overall edge of 372-275.
- ► For the ultimate example of how rare 100 return yards can be, look no further than CU's game at UCLA in 2017. The Buffs held the edge in return yardage ... 1-0. There were no punt or fumble returns, no miscellaneous returns, and the only yard game on the lone interception and return of the game. And then against Arizona, the Wildcats had a 6-0 edge (a single punt return).

Through seven games in 2019, CU and the opponent have combined for just 223 return yards (CU 67, Opponent 156 – most of the opponents have come on interception returns – 107).

PRICE MADE MARK AS A FROSH

PK Davis Price joined the team as a recruited walk-on in June 2016, and wound up seeing action as a true freshman due to a season-ending injury in the Michigan game to Diego Gonzalez. He was first pressed into service as the kickoff specialist at Oregon in game four, and the next week, he was promoted into the first-team role the next week for Oregon State. He responded by making all five of his extra point tries and both of his field goals, including a 54-yard boot on his first try, the CU record for both the longest made by a freshman and the longest first-career make. He was recognized for his performance as the Pac-12's Special Teams Player of the Week; the 54-yarder was the longest by a freshman in the NCAA in 2016 and tied for the fourth-longest overall.

Longest Field Goals By A Freshman In The NCAA / 2016

- 54 Davis Price, Colorado (Oct. 1 vs. Oregon State)
- 53 Matt Ammendola, Oklahoma State (Sept. 10 vs. Central Michigan)
- 53 Logan Tyler, Florida State (Nov. 11 vs. Boston College)
- No others over 50 yards

Longest Field Goals / Colorado Freshmen

- 53 James Stefanou vs. Arizona State at Tempe, Nov. 4, 2017
- 52 Will Oliver, vs. California in Boulder, Sept. 11, 2011
- 51 Tom Field, vs. Oregon in Boulder, Sept. 8, 1979 50 Tom Field, vs. Oklahoma State in Boulder, Nov.
- Tom Field, vs. Oklahoma State in Boulder, Nov. 10, 1979

A FIRST? It was for sure for CU: United Airlines provides the team charter for CU's travel, and for the 2016 USC trip, the pilot was Doug Price – Davis' father. A CU graduate himself, he is an Air Force Veteran who has been flying for United for 22 years; he normally flies military charters bringing troops back home from overseas.
 THE SECOND. He piloted CU's charter to and from Seattle for the Washington game this season, and it was extra special as his sons handled all the kicking chores in the game: Davis the punting and kickoff duties, and freshman Evan the placekicking (he made good on all three kicks, two field goals and a PAT). It was Evan's first game as he replaced an injured James Stefanou on the trip.

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

A look at annual fluctuations in the percentage of upperclassmen starting games over the last decade or so at Colorado; in 2012, the Buffaloes started its fewest seniors believed ever (17.8%) and a record number of freshmen (28.0%; 21.6% true frosh). A year-by-year glance at starts by class since 1999:

HEAD COACH MEL TUCKER

Mel Tucker is in his first season as a collegiate head coach, as he was named as Colorado's 26th full-time head coach on December 5, 2018. He thus owns a CU and career record of 3-4 as a head coach in NCAA Division I (FBS). A veteran of 22 seasons as coach (all on the defensive side of the ball), that run includes 10 years on three staffs in the National Football League from 2005-14 before he returned to the college ranks. He thus brings an impressive pedigree with him to Boulder, most recently as the defensive coordinator for the Georgia Bulldogs, who compiled a 32-9 record in his three years at the school, knocking heads with perennial power Alabama, where he was the assistant head coach to Nick Saban and the defensive backs coach for the Crimson Tide's 2015 national championship team. That was Tucker's second national championship team that he was a part of, as he was the defensive backs coach under Jim Tressel for Ohio State's 2002 BCS title team. He has been a member of three Saban staffs, as he began his coaching career in 1997 as a graduate assistant under him at Michigan State, and was with him for the 2000 season at Louisiana State (2000). In the NFL, he spent four seasons on both the Cleveland Brown and Jacksonville Jaguar staffs and two years with the ChicAago Bears, with seven of those years as a defensive coordinator. At the tail end of the 2011 season, he served as interim head for the Jaguars after Jack Del Rio was relieved of his duties, guiding the team to a 2-3 record to finish the year. Prior to CU, the teams he was a part of posted a 173-141 won-lost record, but that included a 114-40 mark in the college ranks.

- Tucker, 47, has coached in a total of 321 football games in his career (7 as a collegiate head coach; 5 as an interim NFL head coach): 161 in NCAA Division I/FBS (130 as a full-time assistant; 24 as a grad assistant at Michigan State); plus 160 in the National Football League (155 as an assistant coach).
- He has coached in 11 bowl games/postseason championships: 1997 Aloha, 2000 Peach, 2002 Outback, 2003 Fiesta/BCS National Championship, 2004 Fiesta, 2004 Alamo, 2015 Cotton/CFP Semifinal, 2016 CFP title game, 2016 Liberty, 2018 Rose/CFP Semifinal, 2018 CFP/National Championship.
- Coming to CU from Georgia, he didn't change fight songs: both schools incorporate the Battle Hymn of the Republic into their tunes.
- He is the second African-American head football coach at Colorado, as Jon Embree headed the program in 2011-12. He joins David Shaw (ninth year at Stanford), Herm Edwards (second season at Arizona State) and Kevin Sumlin (second season at Arizona) as black head coaches in the Pac-12 Conference. There are 13 in Division I/FBS, with the Big Ten having three (Illinois, Maryland, Penn State). Thus, the conferences tied into the Rose Bowl have seven African-Americans coaching their affiliate schools.
- Tucker has coached five NFL first round draft picks along with recruiting four others: Coached: CB Chris Gamble (Ohio State; No. 28 overall pick by Carolina, 2004 Draft); CB Donte Whitner (Ohio State; No. 6, Buffalo, 2006); CB Marlon Humphrey (Alabama; No. 16, Baltimore, 2017); S Minkah Fitzpatrick (Alabama; No. 11, Miami, 2018); LB Roquan Smith (Georgia; No. 8, Chicago, 2018).

Recruited: WR Ted Ginn, Jr. (Ohio State; No. 9, Miami, 2007); WR Anthony Gonzalez (Ohio State; No. 32, Indianapolis, 2007); CB Vernon Gholston (Ohio State; No. 6, N.Y. Jets, 2008); CB/S Malcolm Jenkins (Ohio State; No. 14, New Orleans, 2009).

- His father, Mel Tucker Sr., is a longtime close friend of John Wooten, CU's All-American guard in the mid-1950s who went on to play nine seasons with the Cleveland Browns and one with the Washington Redskins before starting a long and illustrious career in NFL administration. The families grew close from their time in Cleveland; Wooten was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012.
- Tucker is not the first to be hired at Colorado with no previous collegiate head coaching experience, though he does have five games in the National Football League as an interim head coach. In the modern era (post-World War II), he joins an impressive list in Dal Ward (1948), Sonny Grandelius (1959), Eddie Crowder (1963), Bill McCartney (1982), Rick Neuheisel (1995) and Jon Embree (2011) as full-time coaches who were previously assistants. McCartney, of course, went on to become CU's all-time winningest coach with a 93-55-5 record over 13 seasons, and all but Embree had winning records.
- Tucker became the sixth Colorado head coach to have their debut at the reins of the program televised nationally. as he joined Chuck Fairbanks (ESPN; 1979 vs. Oregon), Neuheisel (ABC; 1995 at Wisconsin), Gary Barnett (FOX; 1999, Colorado State in Denver), Embree (ESPN2; 2011 at Hawai'i) and Mike MacIntyre (CBS-SN; 2013, Colorado State in Denver).
- Tucker won his first two games against ranked opponents; only Neuheisel in 1995 won more (three); Barnett is the only other to win his first (1999).
- A 1995 graduate of the University of Wisconsin, earning his bachelor's degree in Agricultural Business Management. A member of the first recruiting class on Wisconsin head coach Barry Alvarez, he lettered at defensive back for the Badgers (and actually played a game against CU in Boulder in 1994).
- CONTRACT. Tucker was officially named CU's 26th full-time head coach on Dec. 5, 2018, and signed a 5-year contract worth just over $14.75 million overall ($500,000 base; $950,000 radio/TV income & public appearances; $950,000 assisting with promotions and fundraising income), plus various incentives that add to over $1 million. The base salary will increase by $75,000 and the other two major components by $100,000 annually.
- Tucker is NOT a voter in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll; coaches are selected by a random draw. CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has now had a vote for the 29 of the last 33 seasons.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT MEL TUCKER

NICK SABAN, Alabama Head Coach

"I've known Mel for well over 20 years and he is one of the brightest coaches in our profession. I think he will do an outstanding job as the head coach of the Colorado Buffaloes. They are getting a guy with a great personality, who knows college football, works hard each and every day, and does it with a tremendous amount of enthusiasm and positive energy."

KIRBY SMART, Georgia Head Coach

"When I came to Georgia, one of my top priorities was to bring Mel Tucker in as defensive coordinator. He is an exceptional coach, coordinator and trusted friend. He has a great combination of college experience, time in the NFL and has been a remarkable mentor to our players. Mel has been one of the major influences in the success we have had and we will certainly miss him. I look forward to following his career at Colorado."

BARRY ALVAREZ, Wisconsin A.D. (Tucker's College Coach)

"Mel was a part of my first recruiting class at Wisconsin and helped us turn the program around. He is an outstanding individual and a really good football person. His background, the people and the programs he has worked for and the success he's been a part of is very impressive. He's been successful at both the NFL and college level. He is truly a quality individual and the people at Colorado are going to love Mel."

ROMEO CRENNEL, Houston Texans Defensive Coordinator

"Congratulations to Mel Tucker and the Colorado Buffaloes on a fantastic hire. Mel is a great coach with a proven track record of success, but he's also a tremendous person with a great family that will represent the university with nothing but class. I look forward to seeing the program he will build at Colorado and wish him the best of luck."

JIM TRESSEL, Ohio State Head Coach (2001-10)

"Mel Tucker is a special communicator, a family man, and a superb football coach. The Buffalo Football Family will thrive under Mel's leadership. A man with high expectations for himself and his student-athletes, Colorado Football will enjoy a terrific recruiter, football strategist, and an "all-in" member of the community."

JOHN WOOTEN, Former Buff ('58)/CFB Hall of Fame Inductee

(After learning Tucker was hired) "Today, I am as happy as I was when we beat Clemson to win the 1957 Orange Bowl. Mel Tucker has been one of the top people in football as a coach and is a top quality person. Our families go back a long, long time. This is a sensational young man, a man of integrity just like his father. I am so excited that Rick George and the CU leadership believe Mel is the right person for the job. I would have told them so ahead of time ... I am just thrilled with this."

CHRIS FOWLER, ESPN CFB Personality (CU Alum)

"Mel is a strong, inspired choice to lead the Buffs' football program. I've spent a lot of time around the UGA program and have been impressed with his football savvy, communication skills, and recruiting talents. He has worked very hard for this opportunity and I believe he will seize it and succeed."

JOEL KLATT, FOX Sports CFB Personality (CU Alum)

"Coach Tucker is one of the most respected in the industry with a long track record of success coaching with the best college football and the NFL have to offer. Beloved by his players, Coach Tucker has a rare ability to connect with and motivate today's athlete. His defenses and teams have been some of the most successful, and more importantly, toughest teams in the sport.

BRIAN IWUH, CU Linebacker ('05), Jacksonville Jaguar (2009)

"Mel was great, a very good coach, just a solid guy who tells it like it is. I enjoyed playing for Mel. He got along with all of us, everybody liked him and was fond of him. His big thing was, 'scoop and score.' He always wanted the defense to make an impact. Get after the ball, let's score on defense."

PAUL POSLUSZNY, Former Jacksonville Jaguar

"I believe that Coach Tucker will absolutely make a great head coach, especially at the collegiate level. He has great command, presence, and he's very influential. He's very structured, detailed, and organized as well. I would have run through a brick wall if he asked me to." (Posluszny won the Bednarik Award twice (2005-06), and won the 2005 Butkus Award)

AND NEW FACES ABOUND IN TWO KEY AREAS

The Buffaloes also have two new employees in key areas heading into the season: Chris Dountas joined the department as the new director of football equipment on July 22, while Andrew Hamstra was named CU's new associate athletic trainer for football on August 6. Dountas, 40, came to Colorado from Stanford University, where he was an assistant athletic director and equipment manager since 2016, overseeing the day-to-day equipment operation for all 36 Cardinal varsity sport programs. Hamstra, 30, joined the Colorado staff from Washington State University, where he had served as the school's head football athletic trainer from June 2018 through July 2019; before he was named WSU's full-time athletic trainer, he was first the interim head athletic trainer for the 2018 spring practices and the initial summer workouts, a position he was promoted into from his assistant athletic trainer role in which he had performed dating back to 2014.

2019 COACHING CHANGES

Mike MacIntyre was dismissed after six seasons coaching the Buffaloes last Nov. 18; his teams were 30-44 overall and 14-39 in Pac-12 Conference games. Mel Tucker was then named the 26th head coach in Colorado history on Dec. 5. Tucker brought several of his colleagues from the University of Georgia to fill out his first-ever coaching staff, but did retain three assistants off MacIntyre's staff: Darrin Chiaverini, Ross Els and Darian Hagan. Also remaining on staff are Bryan McGinnis and Scott Unrein (football operations), graduate assistants Dalmin Gibson and Jack Harris and the entire strength and conditioning staff under Drew Wilson. (All but one coach who were not retained from the previous staff have found other full-time positions: Mike MacIntyre (Ole Miss), Klayton Adams (Indianapolis Colts, Gary Bernardi (San Diego State), Kwahn Drake and D.J. Eliot (Kansas) and Kurt Roper (N.C. State; Ashley Ambrose is the remaining coach.)

The CU staff has remained intact twice since Bill McCartney's 1988 and 1989 teams, in 2011-12 (under Jon Embree) and 2013-14 (under Mike MacIntyre).

COLORADO NEAR THE TOP IN ALL-TIME 1,000-YARD / 2,000-YARD CAREER RUNNERS

In 2018, Travon McMillian became the 54th player in Colorado history rush for 1,000 or more yards in a career, doing so with 1,009 yards in his only season in Boulder after being a graduate transfer from Virginia Tech. QB Steven Montez could be next in line, as he enters his senior year with 807 yards (he's well over 1,00 yards when you subtract sacks); he's looking to become the seventh quarterback to crack 1,000 career rushing yards. CU is sixth all-time in known 1,000-yard runners (many schools don't know the number). Oklahoma tops the list with 77, as well the 2K list with 32 (the Buffs are tied for 11th with the most 2,000-yard career runners, 19). The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 1K and 2K plateaus:

In 1989, Colorado had four players on the roster at the same time with at least 1,000 career yards: TB Eric Bieniemy, TB J.J. Flannigan, QB Darian Hagan and FB Erich Kissick. Only two other times did the Buffs have three players that had hit that plateau on the same team, in 1993: FB James Hill, TB Rashaan Salaam and TB Lamont Warren and in 2015: Christian Powell, Michael Adkins and Phillip Lindsay.

Historical Note. Colorado is 1-yard away from another 2,000-yard rusher: Carroll Hardy ('54) ended his career with 1,999 yards. CU's SID at the time, Fred Casotti, never forgave himself for that one, especially since his final game came against Kansas State, when he had 10 carries for 238 yards. In that 38-14 win, the Buffs rushed 36 times for 493 yards, or 13.7 yards per; he no doubt could have picked up that extra yard. Hardy went on to play pro football and baseball, and his claim to fame was becoming the only player to pinch-hit for Ted Williams (he also pinch-hit for Roger Maris and Carl Yastrzemski).

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 130th season of competition having played 1,256 games with an alltime record of 708-512-36. CU currently stands 26th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (.578; the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 130 (Cal is the only one who has played more games - 1,265), with only USC (843) and Washington (740) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

▶ In Boulder, the Buffs are 408-199-16 (.668) all-time and 316-177-10 (.638) in 96 seasons on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 7-9 all-time in overtime games (4-6 at home), with seven losses by three points; the Buffs became the 84th team in FBS/I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last 13 seasons, Buffs rallied to win from 10 or more points down 13 times, including rallying from its largest deficits ever against CSU and Nebraska. Three of the rallies have come from 17 down: this season against Nebraska, the turning point a 96-yard flea-flicker from QB Steven Montez to WR K.D. Nixon that pulled CU to within three; In 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Nine have taken place in Boulder, a 10th (the first one) in Denver against CSU, and two on the road (the Washington State comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2018 was 274,852, an average of 45,809 for six home games, a slight decrease after four straight years of increases. It will mark the 24th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest average draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 42nd time in the last 44 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count for 2017 was 32,308 when adding in 11,500 student holders to 20,808 public tickets (student tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2018, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 53rd straight year, ahead of Colorado State (29,504, six games) and Air Force (27,701, six games; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965). The Broncos averaged 76,446 fans per game in 2018; the Rockies averaged 36,954 this past summer (2019).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986. Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 23 straight games overall, dating back to being shut out at Washington State (0-28) in 2017 (snapping a 60-game scoring streak).
- CU has scored in 166 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979).

The home shutout losses to Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only three times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 325 games (all the way back to 1963).

CU has been shutout just four times in the last 378 games overall (by Missouri in 2008 and 2010, by Stanford in 2012 and Washington State in 2017).

CU has been shutout just 11 times in its last 611 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only six schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Stanford.

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 41-plus seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 245 of 280 times, losing 33 and tying three when it blew the lead; a closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 35 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss was last year, a 41-34 overtime setback to Oregon State after taking a 31-3 lead on the first play of the second half. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

Colorado has won 130 of its last 154 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 41 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter. The most recent was the 34-31 win over Nebraska on Sept. 7 of this year: the Cornhuskers led 17-0 late in the third period when the Buffaloes started taking over the game. It was the second year in a row CU rallied in the fourth to beat Nebraska. Previous to those, the last two rallies were a 36-33 win at Oregon State in 2017 and a 41-38 win at Oregon in 2016. Two of the biggest ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

INJURIES UP AGAIN IN 2018 AFTER TWO PEDESTRIAN YEARS

Injuries were kept to a minimum the last two seasons after a flurry in 2015, as that season 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. But in 2018, it was a different story as injuries hit 11 different starting positions (including punter and placekicker) that lost their starter for multiple games. Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 33 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 24 positions (including kickers and punters plus backups):

Dating back to 1987, only 15 times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12-13-15-16-17-18).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- □ Colorado is 86-50 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- Colorado is 88-51-1 in its last 140 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- Colorado is 560-287-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

18 TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 18 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Junior CB Dante Wigley is the most recent to accomplish it, racing 27 yards with his first pick for a touchdown versus Oregon State on Oct. 27. S Nick Fisher did it in grand style on Oct. 28, 2017: he picked off a pass in the end zone against Cal, his momentum taking him back nine vards deep, and then he raced 109 yards for the score (100 officially by the NCAA). Previous to that, ILB Rick Gamboa returned a deflected pass 20 yards for a score against OSU in 2016, and ILB Kenneth Olugbode had the one before that, racing 60 yards for a score in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State in 2015. That was the first in eight years, going back to 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith had a 31-vard return that cut Nebraska's lead to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. Prior to that was another spectacular one: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD-Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run. > And three did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998), Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002) and Laviska Shenault (2017 vs. Texas State).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

The longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (he would miss the final six games of the season). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games this season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home). SID Dave Plati has worked 469 overall in person (a streak of 410 dating from the '83 finale to the sixth game of 2017; a streak of 249 straight home games and 271 in the state of Colorado are intact); Darian Hagan has been a part of 265 (118 in two stints as an assistant coach, 62 as a football staff member, 35 as the Alumni C-Club director and 49 as a player); Gary Barnett, now an analyst with KOA, has worked 239 (106 as an assistant coach, 87 as head coach and 46 on the radio); Mark Johnson, who succeeded Zimmer as the voice of the Buffaloes, has called 194 games. The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID/associate AD from 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games (including 268 in a row at Folsom) prior to his passing in 2001. The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 (the last 294 in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games – since 1940 and every single one – 356 – since 1958 (they're 93). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) is in his 47th year as a member of the CU football stat crew in 2019; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. Virginia did a survey on longest tenured state people, and Jack is 11th nationally.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 18 seniors on its 2019 roster, and as history has indicated, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season. So far this season, 28 teams have sent reps to the Colorado State game: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Houston, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Miami, Minnesota, New England, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Oakland, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Diego, San Francisco, Seattle, Tampa Bay, Tennessee and Washington (26 teams visited in 2017 and 2018; 28 in 2016). Not including camps or practices, 1,000 NFL scouts have attended Colorado games since 2000 home, road and neutral sites). At the 2016 UCLA game in Boulder, the record for a CU game occurred: 31 scouts from 20 teams were in attendance for the game (next most: 20 for USC in 2017).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 14 former Colorado Buffaloes currently on the 2019 National Football League rosters (as of October 20; 15 were on final rosters in 2018 after 19 started out in camps). Colorado has had 245 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 273 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and 22nd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002 (10th, 29). The active list (KEY: Exp.-denotes number of years in the league; i-on injured reserve/physically unable to perform: n___practice squad).

CANUCKS: One former Buff is in the Canadian Football League, OT Stephone Nembot (Ottawa). WR Shay Fields was on Montreal in the preseason but was released.

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Six players are the sons of former NFL players: WR Curtis Chiaverini (father Darrin played four seasons with three teams); RB Alex Fontenot (father Albert played 10 seasons with three teams); ILB Marvin Ham II (father Marvin, Carolina); QB Steven Montez (father Alfred, Oakland); WR Dimitri Stanley (father Walter, played eight seasons with five teams); QB Blake Stenstrom (father Steve played five seasons with Chicago and San Francisco).

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the five who head prep programs: Matt Flavin (Buena Vista), Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Spencer Colter (Denver East), Dusty Sprague (Holyoke), Scott Yates (Kent Denver) and DaVaughn Thornton (Overland). Marcus Washington is a defensive coordinator (Adams City).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltenberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three even remained on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) is the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseason combined; he set the record with a 21-yard field goal late in the Packs' 27-17 win over Seattle on Sept. 20, 2015, his 13th point of the night (he made all four field goal tries in the game, including a 54-yarder, and an extra point). Through games of Oct. 20, he has scored 1,521 points in 198 regular season games (24th in NFL history) and 137 in 18 playoff games for a total of 1,658 (he also made an NFL record 23 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks: 317 regular season (26th all-time) and 26 postseason; his 570 extra points made are 16th all-time. He is fourth on the points list and third on the field goal chart for players who have/had spent their career with just one team. Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points.

➡ How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawai'i (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,384/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349), WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary in August 2015.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 29 of 41 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

A LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS HAVE RISEN TO FIRST-TEAM AT COLORADO

After the NCAA reduced the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (41 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

Player	Pos.	First Season		s Notes
Willie Beebe	FB	1978	4L	Solid blocker who scored nine career touchdowns as a bruiser near the goal line
Kyle Rappold	NT	1985	ЗL	Known as the "trash compactor" for his stature, the Fort Lewis transfer clogged the run
Jeff Campbell	WR/KR	1986	4L	Earned scholarship second day of freshman camp; played five years in the NFL
Ken Culbertson	PK	1986	3L	Scored 98 points in CU's 11-0 run in '89 season, making 59-59 PAT and 11-17 FG
David Gibbs	CB	1986	4L	Solid corner and special teams performer, now coaching with NFL Kansas City Chiefs
Mark Henry	WR	1987	3L	Big play guy with 18 career catches for 416 yards, or 23.1 per catch
Robbie James	WR	1987	1L	Threw TD pass on third down FG fake at Oklahoma State to lead CU to 16-12 win in 1991

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- → 30+. In its history, Colorado is 326-28-1 when scoring 30 or more points (3-1 in 2019, 18-5 over the last three years), with records of 235-9 with 35-plus points and 218-7 with 36-plus, 193-5 with 38-plus and 124-2 with 43 or more tallies. The seven losses with 36 or more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012), California (59-56 in 20T in 2014) and Arizona in 2017 (45-42). CU has played 1,256 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and 75 and 109 above that mark.
- Colorado is 120-123-3 in its last 246 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
 - ➡ Colorado, however, is 18-58 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➡ 30 points / 3 TDs. Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 157 of its last 363 games, posting a 133-23-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 239 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 27-107-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➡ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. Technically the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year (6.7; CU did average 5.98 per first down play in 2016). Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➡ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, their lowest number since that 3.5 figure in 1979.

→ In 2016, the Buffs had their best average on first down in years: CU averaged 5.98, its best since 2001 (6.7).

▶ In 2018, the Buffs averaged 5.32 per 371 first down plays.

→ Thus far in 2019, the Buffs are averaging 5.81 yards on 218 first down plays (gaining five or more on 94 of those).

- ➡ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 64 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 21 seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 83 scores by return in 299 games (76 regular season, seven bowl). In the Tucker Era, Colorado has 1 (which happened in his first game—a 9-yard fumble return against Colorado State by Mustafa Johnson).
- ➡ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 53 times in the last 324 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it 1 time under Tucker (1-0). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 2001 (and threatened to do it in 2016). The Buffs are 51-8 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 59-11 overall. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its bistory.
- → 600+. Colorado is 17-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first loss was last year when the Buffs had 630 in the 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU is 0-0 under Tucker; the last two games with 600-plus were against Nicholls State in 2015 and Washington State, 2016.
- Grass. Colorado is 98-103 in its last 201 games on grass, including a 63-61 mark at home (though 13-8 in the last 21 games at Folsom), dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass (CU is 18-13 on grass over the last three-plus seasons).

- ➡ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 100-67-3 in its last 170 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 65-50-3 mark in conference games. CU was 1-3 in 2018 (and 0-2 this year under Mel Tucker).
- ➡ First Quarter Dominance. Dating to the start of 2016 (45 games), Colorado has been fairly dominant in the first quarter: the Buffs have outscored its opponents 330-228 with edges in total offense of 347 yards and plus-8 in TO margin.
- ➡ Goal-to-Go Situations: Over the last six seasons, the Buffs have scored in 122 out of 136 situations when it has been first-and-goal. This includes 99 touchdowns and 23 field goals, thus the TD percentage is 72.8 and the overall percentage is 89.7. The 14 non-scores: seven fourth down misses, four missed field goals (from 26, 28, 31 and 33 yards) and three turnovers.
- ➤ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 19-4 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover (1-1 under Tucker, including his first game as coach, the 52-31 win over Colorado State). In these 23 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 905-509 (only seven games decided by less than 17 points).
- ➤ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 86 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 56-26-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under Tucker, CU is 1-1.
- ★ Time Spent In The Lead. The Buffaloes held leads in 11 of 14 games in 2016 (two-score leads in 10 of those), and were ahead for a total of 457:20 on the season. That's the second-most by a hair in the 21 years CU has tracked the stat (CU led for 458:01 in 1996—a 12-game season including the bowl).
 - ▶ In 2017, CU held the edge up until the season finale at Utah, and for the year, the opponent wound up with a 302:13 to 285:30 (tied 132:17).

➡ In 2018, CU led 37 percent of the time (268:07), having led in the first 11 games of the year; the Buffs trailed in nine for 280:39.

- ➤ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2016, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season 16 times, including three of the last five seasons (417.6 in 2017), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season. CU was averaging over 400 through 10 games in 2018 but finished just below at 392.6.
 - ➡ CU opened 2019 with 475 yards against Colorado State.
 - ➡ The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once - 303.5 - in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just four times, including 2014 and 2016 (254.4).
- ➤ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Dating back to 1993, opponents are just 5-of-132 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense have had streaks of 51 and 30 in this span (Stanford is the last team to convert one, in 2011; the opponent is now 0-of-23 since). The CU offense is 12-of-149 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span (last converting on a 3rd-&-27 in the Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State).
- ➡ CU has scored in 19 of 28 quarters and in one overtime in 2019 (33 of 48 last year, including 15 in a row in one stretch) and in 87 of 124 quarters dating back to the start of the 2017 season).

TRENDS I

1985-PRESENT

ASSORTED TIMELINES

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years from 1978-84, corresponding with coach Bill McCartney switching to the wishbone, Colorado is 226-192-4; in these 422 games spanning the last 35 seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

 with 400-plus yards total offense 	134-41-2	when holding opponent to 17 points or less	128-19-1
 with 500-plus yards total offense 	66-12-0	 when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing 	110-18-1

 when rushing for 250-plus yards 	88- 6-1	 when scoring first 	148-59-1
 when rushing for 300-plus yards 	56- 2-1	 when leading at halftime 	177-35-2

♦ when scoring 40 or more points (18-2 since joining Pac-12)	83- 3-0

TRENDS II

A look at some Colorado records in games over assorted periods of time:

Since Start of 1892 Season (or all-time): > when scoring 43 or more points 124- 2 Since Start of 2013 Season: Since Start of 2001 Season: > when rushing for 200-plus yards 17-6 > when opponent has under 100 yards rushing (16-4 last 20) 44-17 when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards 12- 5 \triangleleft when opponent scores 17 points or less (21 straight wins) 46- 5 when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense 15- 0 when rushing for 250-plus yards (12-1 300-plus) 29-2 \triangleright with a 100-yard rusher 17-8 with 500-plus yards total offense (3-1 with 600-plus) 27-7 \triangleright when leading at halftime 23- 9 when scoring 30 or more points 25-11 > when leading after three (3-40 trailing, 4-1 tied) 26-5

TURNOVER ANALYSIS / TUCKER ERA

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics usually back up the argument, thus we will chart the numbers under Mel Tucker. A closer look:

	Turnovers	Turnovers		Scoring Off Tur	novers
Tucker Era	Committed	Forced	+/-	PF	PA	+/-
3 WINS	3	8	+5	20	10	+10
4 LOSSES	8	5	- 3	10	31	-21
7 GAMES	11	13	+2	30	41	- 11

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 28-24 in games following a bye week in the post-World War II Era (or since 1946); after the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference in 1948, CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 32 of 35 seasons, with two weeks off 12 of those years (including 2019) and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 24-21 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes a 2-6 mark as a member of the Pac-12 (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013, at USC and Oregon in 2014, at Utah in 2017 and to Arizona in 2019; and wins over UCLA in 2016 and 2018).

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

There are two players on the current CU roster that scored a touchdown on their first career touch. In 2017, WR Laviska Shenault joined the club when he picked up a fumble on punt return duty and raced 55 yards for a score. In 2018, WR Daniel Arias caught a 37-yard pass from QB Steven Montez to become the 16th known player to do so in CU history (he did so in his hometown, making it even more special). Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see page 37), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

SOUTH PARK RALPHIE INTRO

Most know that the creators of Comedy Central's popular South Park are University of Colorado alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. Trey voices Eric Cartman, he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that debuted during the countdown to kickoff prior to the 2014 Arizona State game. It's been a hit since, especially among the CU student section. Cartman is seen in his usual garb and he introduced Ralphie before the real buffalo led the Buffs on the field.

2019 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).
- 1909 Colorado finished 6-0 the first of three in a row to do so while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. CU squeezes by the State Prep School and an Alumni squad, both by 3-0 scores, but follow those up with routs over Colorado A&M (57-0) and New Mexico (53-0) before closing with road wins over Colorado College (9-0) and Colorado Mines (16-0).
- 1914 The 105th anniversary of a 5-1 Colorado team, the next-to-last squad that Fred Folsom would coach in Boulder, but what would be his last winner (CU went 1-6 in his final year in 1915).
- 1924 (Oct. 11) The 95th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State on its way to an 8-1-1 record, which included its first overseas games—two in Hawai'i.
- 1934 (Nov. 10) The 85th anniversary of CU's 7-6 win over Utah, snapping a nine-game losing streak at the time against its conference archrival. It's the first game that the school is known as the "Buffaloes" following a contest in the school newspaper to come up with a permanent nickname. In the 7-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day, the foundation for future Ralphie's is laid down when students rent a buffalo calf and more or less control it on the sidelines during the win.
- 1939 The Buffaloes open 0-3, but would go on and post their best finish after such a start, rallying to win five in a row to finish 5-3 and win their first Mountain States Conference title.
- 1949 (Oct. 29) The 70th anniversary of perhaps the wackiest game in CU history when it comes to the weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.
- 1954 The 65th anniversary of one of the most prolific rushing offenses in Colorado history, the unit averaging 316 yards per game, ranking third in the nation. John Bayuk (824 yards), Frank Bernardi (668), Carroll Hardy (642), Homer Jenkins (446) and Emerson Wilson (419) combine to average 6.8 yards per carry and 31 touchdowns in CU's 7-2-1 season.
- 1959 The 60th anniversary of Sonny Grandelius' first season as CU coach, as well as what tied for the second-largest comeback in school history, a 21-20 win over Missouri on Halloween (Oct. 31). Trailing 20-6 with 13:05 left, Gale Weidner threw one touchdown pass (12 yards to Jerry Hillebrand), completed a 2-point pass to Jim Counter, and then ran in the game-tying score himself with 6:15 left; Boyd Dowler converted the PAT kick for the winning margin.
- 1964 The 55th anniversary of Eddie Crowder's second CU team; though it repeated with a 2-8 record with one fewer win in Big 8 play, observers could see the future: in 1963, Colorado's five league losses came by a combined 132 points; in '64, this six by 39 (including four by a total of 12).
- 1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players, including tri-captain Bill Collins, while the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time. Bobby Anderson is moved from quarterback to tailback the third game of the season and goes on to earn All-America honors. On Oct. 25, the Buffs topple No. 5 Missouri, 31-24 in Boulder, the Tigers' lone conference loss of the year. The '69 team will be honored this year at the Arizona game (Oct. 6).
- 1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-4, but won nine of the last 10 by an average margin of 19 points. The series finally resumes some 45 years later this September in Boulder.
- 1979 (Sept. 8) The 40th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.
- 1984 (Sept. 15) The 35th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver, despite CU's new two-tight offense being revealed by the Denver Post in one of those weak "public's right to know" defenses. CU is never the same after the injury and fights its way through a 1-10 season.
- 1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer. His replacement, Darian Hagan, leads the team to the first of three straight undefeated seasons in Big 8 conference play and finishes fifth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy. The season is defined with back-to-back wins at Oklahoma (20-3) and then over No. 3 Nebraska (27-21).
- 1994 The 25th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.
- 1999 The 20th anniversary of Gary Barnett returning to head the program where he spent nine seasons as an assistant (1983-91); along the way, CU defeats at least one ranked opponent for a 12th straight season, plays in and wins its first overtime game in its history (46-39 over Missouri) and a monster bowl win (62-36 over Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl) extends CU's bowl winning streak to a nation's best six games.
- 2004 (Oct. 16) Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60-yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State. And 10 years after "The Catch," Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh hook up for the exact same distance—64 yards—with five seconds left to give CU a 38-31 win over Kansas State. Colorado, 1-4 in league play entering November, won its last three Big 12 games in rallying to win the Big 12 North Division.
- 2009 (Oct. 17) One of the few highlights in an otherwise disappointing season, CU defeated No. 17 Kansas, 34-30, in a thriller at Folsom Field. It stood as the last win over a ranked team by the Buffaloes for seven years.
- 2014 In a season where there wasn't much to celebrate (2-10, 0-9 in the Pac-12), Nelson Spruce had an outstanding year in catching a school-record 106 passes, the first to make 100 or more in a season at Colorado. Four of the league losses were by a combined 15 points, including a 59-56 loss at Cal in two overtimes.

Colorado is 71-41 in its last 112 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays. The Buffs are 5-9 in December games since 1993, including bowls, and are 4-3-1 in August games in its history.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No.3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Colorado State; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Arizona State, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Massachusetts, Nebraska and Notre Dame. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (13), Washington (9), Missouri and Texas (5), and LSU, Michigan, Ohio State and Oklahoma State (3).

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches, the BCS and the CFP; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last the 29 seasons (1990-2018), the 18th most nationally when it comes to trophies (and tied for 17th as well in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung and Bullsworth (on-field player awards only— for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage, etc. awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2018 (players only; LSU and Michigan players shared the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

OPPONENTS & 2019 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 12 opponents on the 2019 Colorado schedule combined for an 80-72 record in 2018 (52.6 winning percentage); six teams earned bowl invitations and four won 9 or more games.

- ⊳ The Buffaloes opened on a weeknight for the sixth straight season (2015 in Honolulu, and 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 in Denver); the Buffs opened the 2013 season on a Sunday, so Colorado has not opened a season on a Saturday since 2012. Mel Tucker became only the second of 26 head coaches at Colorado to open his career on a non-Saturday.
- ⊳ Friday Night Lights. The Buffaloes will play on three Friday nights this fall, once at home (against USC on Oct. 25), once on the road (at Oregon on Oct. 11) and once at a neutral site (the season opener on Aug. 30 against Colorado State in Denver). It will mark just the second time in 130 seasons that the Buffaloes will play three regular season games on a Friday, and for the second year in a row at that; it's just the third time the Buffs will have as many as three non-Saturday games in the same regular season as well: in 2009, the Buffs played five: two on a Thursday, two on a Friday and one on a Sunday.

- ≻ The two other Division I/FBS schools in the state, Air Force and Colorado, appeared on the CU schedule for just the second time, and for the first time since 1958 (or 61 years ago). Back then and unbeknownst to all at the time, it was the last time that CU and CSU would play until the rivalry was revived in 1983; that season also marked the first-ever meeting between the Buffaloes and Air Force, as the Falcons' program was born just three years earlier in 1955 (when they played just a freshmen schedule); but by '58, AFA would go 9-0-2 and tie TCU (0-0) in the Cotton Bowl. CSU defeated CU, 15-14 and Air Force got the best of the Buffs, 20-14; with both games in Boulder, they wound up being the last two under coach Dal Ward, who was let go when the team finished 6-4, losing four of its last five after opening 5-0 and rising to No. 9 in the nation.
- Air Force, Stanford and Washington all have byes the week before playing Colorado this fall; the Buffs do have the same week off prior to hosting Washington on Nov. 23, and was off on Sept. 28 when Arizona hosts UCLA before traveling to Boulder on Oct. 5.
- Colorado will travel 7,014 miles round-trip for its non-Boulder games in 2019: CSU (Denver, 60), Arizona State (Tempe, 1,178), Oregon (Eugene, 1,916), Washington State (Pullman, 1,512), UCLA (Pasadena, 1,636) and Utah (Salt Lake City, 712). CU traveled 8,028 miles in 2018, 7,086 in 2017 and 11,704 in 2016 (two extra games).
- With three Friday night affairs, Colorado will have had at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 24th straight season; the Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But starting in 2013, the game with the Utes has been passed on by the Pac-12's television partners for Friday airing.
- Pac-12 Conference regular season misses: The Buffaloes will not play California or Oregon State in 2019 (replaced by Oregon and Stanford, both of whom CU last ≻ played in 2016). CU hosts Stanford and will travel to Oregon, with the reverse in the 2020 season. Cal and OSU will return to the CU schedule in 2021, at which time the Buffs will have a two-year hiatus from playing Stanford and Washington State.

Air Force. Arizona State. Arizona. This is the first time since 1936 that CU played three straight games against schools that start with the same letter (in '36, CU won three straight over Colorado Mines, Colorado A&M (State) and Colorado College. It will be the 11th time overall, playing three straight C schools nine times previously and three D schools once (CU has played two schools starting with the same letter 11 times: C, D, H, I, K, M, N, O, T, U, W).

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the late spring additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), later that year the divisions in football only were announced: CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford would comprise the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of October 19 (2019 records in parenthesis):

PERCEPTION

Here's a quick fact when it comes to CU and Utah joining the Pac-12: the two are travel partners, and most assumed it wouldn't be a cozy as the other five pairs. Well, first of all, it's not like they travel together, the same teams will roll into Boulder and Salt Lake City the same weekends, and the other schools will host CU and Utah in one order or the other. The campus of CU and Utah are 356 miles apart; did you know Washington and Washington State's campuses are 252 miles apart? And the Arizona schools are separated by 102 miles; the others are all under 40, with USC and UCLA the closest. Bottom line is that CU and Utah are not really that far out of whack (Texas A&M and Texas Tech are further apart than the Buffs and the Utes by some 29 miles).

FOLSOM FIELD RANKED SEVENTH TOUGHEST PLACE TO PLAY

Yahoo! Sports in 2012 came out with its top 25 toughest places to play list, and lo and behold, Folsom Field came in at No. 7. In ranking CU in that spot, Yahoo! wrote: "Folsom Field, home of the Colorado Buffaloes, is one of the most underrated venues in college sports. The fans here always cheer hard and loud, and they are quite respectful and friendly to visiting fans." The Top 10 were comprised of: 1. Ohio State (Ohio Stadium); 2. Florida (Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, a.k.a, the Swamp); 3. Louisiana State (Tiger Stadium, a.k.a, Death Valley); 4. Auburn (Jordan-Hare Stadium); 5. Michigan State (Spartan Stadium); 6. Miami, Fla. (Sun Life Stadium); 7. Colorado (Folsom Field); 8. West Virginia (Mountaineer Field at Milan Puskar Stadium); 9. Iowa (Kinnick Stadium); 10. Texas A&M (Kyle Field). The next Pac-12 school on the list was Oregon (Autzen Stadium) at No. 21, with Washington at No. 23 (Husky Stadium).

FOLSOM FIELD #1

LawnStarter.com recently ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State). The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

300+AT FOLSOM

Colorado is 316-177-10 in its 96th season playing its home games at Folsom Field (503 in all). The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000); previous, CU was 73-17-6 at Gamble Field and 19-5 on other grass areas of campus; the Buffs are 408-196-16 all-time at home. The 2016 season marked CU's first winning one at home in six years, as the Buffaloes went 6-0; Colorado's last winning record at home had been in 2010 (with a 4-2 mark); it was CU's first undefeated season at home since 1994, when the Buffs went 6-0 in the late Rashaan Salaam's Heisman Trophy winning year. Over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season; the Buffs pulled even at home under "Mac" with the 6-0 mark in 2016 and finished 18-17 at Folsom in his tenure. CU is 1-1 at home under Mel Tucker.

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 52 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants, owning a 23-28-1 record; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on six occasions (0-6 in that combo). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process. WHO IS/HAS BEEN IN ON OFFENSE & DEFENSE

OLB Carson Wells played some fullback late in 2018 (three snaps, picking up two touchdown block credits) ... George Frazier, as he did his freshman year in 2014, appeared on both offense (TE/FB) and defense (DE) as senior in 2017 (he played 506 total snaps between offense, defense and special teams). In 2014, he played both defensive end and fullback for the first time against Arizona State, becoming the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. In 2008, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, M

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former longtime senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

NO. 38 IN THE WORLD

In the 2019 world university rankings by the ARWU (Academic Ranking of World Universities), the University of Colorado was ranked as the No. 38 University in the world (which translates to the solar system, the galaxy and the universe, unless the planet PSR1257+12A has life orbiting around a distant pulsar). Unlike other rankings that are based more on cost of attendance and class sizes, the ARWU, compiled by the Shanghai Ranking Consultancy, uses six objective indicators to create the rankings. Colorado came in No. 25 among American colleges on a list very well represented by the Pac-12: Stanford came in No. 2 (behind Harvard), followed by California (No. 4), UCLA (No. 10) and Washington (No. 13), giving the Pac-12 five schools in the top 25.

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the 2015 Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays) 99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays) 99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays) 99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays) 99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays) 99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays) 99-vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)

THE FIRST COLLEGE WEBSITE WITH ITS OWN CARTOONIST?

CUBuffs.com might be the first college sports website with its own cartoonist – maybe for any sports website for that matter – as Denver's award-winning Drew Litton joined CU in 2018 and returns this fall for a series primarily surrounding each football game. His designs are featured on CU's social media channels.

Litton is a nationally syndicated sports cartoonist and is best known for his 25-plus years as the creator of the popular Rocky Mountain News, "Win, Lose & Drew" sports cartoon. He began drawing his fun-filled Colorado Buffaloes cartoons exclusively for the University of Colorado the Friday ahead of the Rocky Mountain Showdown and has three drawings to date. He also draws for KUSA TV 9News, The Colorado Springs Gazette, The Colorado Rockies Magazine, Mile Higb Sports Magazine and a variety of other clients. His work has been featured on ESPN.com, as well as the Chicago Tribune. Nobody covers the wild ride of Colorado sports through art and humor better than Litton, who resides in the Denver area with a rather extensive collection of cartoon bobbleheads and Finnegan, his overly caffeinated Schnauzer. This year's toons to date:

2019 RULE CHANGES

In early May, the NCAA Rules committee approved several rule changes after its annual meeting. Here are the major ones:

- Overtime Scoring. Should the game still be tied after four overtimes, beginning with the fifth extra period, a team's possession series will be one play for a 2-point conversion from the 3-yard line (unless relocated by penalty). After the second and fourth overtimes, there will now be a two-minute mandatory break period (instead of 60 seconds).
- Targeting. All targeting calls must be confirmed by the Instant Replay Official; if it cannot be confirmed, then it will be overturned (no call will determined as "stands." If a player receives a third targeting call in any season, he is automatically suspended for the next game.
- Kickoff Wedges. Wedges of three players were eliminated years ago; now two-player wedges are no longer permitted on returns (made for player safety).
- Blocking. Same rules now apply for offense and defense when blocking below the waste is allowed; the block must come from the front.

PAC-12 TWEAKS

- Travel Squads. The number of players who can travel has been increased from 70 to 74.
- Shorter Halftimes are no more; the 15-minute experiment for some games is over; all will be the standard 20 minutes.

COLORADO 52, COLORADO STATE 31

(AUGUST 30, 2019)

BRONCOS STADIUM AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Colorado's defense produced four turnovers and a touchdown and Alex Fontenot rushed for 125 yards three touchdowns to give Mel Tucker a 52-31 win over Colorado State in his CU head coaching debut.

While offense was the name of the game for most of the night — the 83 combined points were the most in series history — the Buffs defense came up with some huge stops that paved the way for CU's fifth straight win in the series.

The clincher came late in the fourth quarter, when CU linebacker Jonathan Van Diest sacked CSU quarterback Collin Hill, forcing a fumble. Buffs defensive lineman Mustafa Johnson scooped up the ball and rumbled 9 yards to the end zone for the final points of the game with 3:57 remaining.

In the 19th and final game in Denver between the two in-state rivals (they will play in Fort Collins next year), the Buffs and Rams combined to produce nearly 1,000 yards total offense. Kickoff was delayed 37 minutes because of lightning and the game didn't finish until after midnight.

After a see-saw first half that saw four lead changes in the final nine minutes of the second quarter, the Buffs finally took control after recovering a CSU fumble on the first possession of the third quarter.

With CU leading 24-21, CU safety Aaron Maddox stripped the ball from CSU running back Marvin Kinsey and Jalen Sami recovered, giving the Buffs the ball at the CSU 27. Quarterback Steven Montez then ran for 19 yards to set up a 7-yard Fontenot touchdown run and a 31-21 CU lead.

The Rams never came closer than seven again. The Buffs extended the margin to 38-24 on the last play of the third period on a Fontenot 14-yard run, and following a

CSU touchdown that cut the gap back to seven, the Buffs answered with a 75-yard drive and a 22-yard Fontenot run to go back up by two touchdowns, 45-31, with 9:16 left in the game.

Van Diest's strip sack and Johnson's touchdown then sealed the game.

Defensively, Mikial Onu had two interceptions for Colorado while CU's offense did not turn the ball over.

The Buffs drew first blood, taking the opening possession and going 75 yards for a score. CU rushed for 68 yards on the drive before tight end Jalen Harris capped the march with a 1-yard scoring pass from Montez.

But the Rams quickly answered with an 80-yard drive to tie the game.

After a CU punt and Mikial Onu's first interception, the Buffs regained the lead, 10-7, on a James Stefanou field goal early in the second quarter. But CSU quickly answered with another long drive, going 92 yards in 11 plays for a 14-10 lead.

Colorado then responded with a 75-yard scoring drive, getting freshman Jaren Mangham's first touchdown of his career, a 5-yard run to give the Buffs a 17-14 lead. CSU, however, drove 75 yards on its next possession to regain the lead, 21-17, with just 1:35 left in the half when wide receiver Dante Wright scampered 41 yards for a score.

That, though, was more than enough time for the Buffs to answer. Montez hit tight end Brady Russell with back-to-back passes to take Colorado into CSU territory. Two plays later, Montez rolled to his left and found Laviska Shenault at the goal line for a 25-yard touchdown pass with 25 seconds left in the half. That gave CU a 24-21 lead heading into halftime.

COLORADO 34, NEBRASKA 31 (OT)

(SEPTEMBER 7, 2019)

BOULDER — Colorado staged one of the more improbable comebacks in program history, rallying from a 17-0 halftime deficit to take a 34-31 overtime win over 25th-ranked Nebraska at Folsom Field.

James Stefanou's 34-yard field goal in the first overtime gave the Buffs their first lead of the day and the Buffs then held NU on the ensuing possession. A Mustafa Johnson sack of Nebraska quarterback Adrian Martinez put the Huskers back at the 31-yard line, and an Isaac Armstrong 48-yard field goal attempt on fourth down went wide right.

That triggered a massive Folsom Field celebration as Colorado improved to 2-0 under first-year head coach Mel Tucker. Nebraska dropped to 1-1.

Colorado's Steven Montez finished with 375 yards passing and two touchdowns, with 291 of those yards and both scores coming after halftime as Colorado outscored the Huskers 31-14 after intermission, including a 24-14 count in the fourth quarter. CU junior receiver K.D. Nixon had six catches for 148 yards — including a 96-yard touchdown catch, the longest play from scrimmage in CU history — and Tony Brown added five catches for 60 yards and a score.

Defensively, the Buffs finished with six sacks and once again won the turnover battle, coming up with two fumble recoveries and an interception while the offense turned the ball over twice.

It was CU's first win over a ranked opponent since the end of the 2016 regular season. It was also CU's second come-from-behind win this season, coming on the heels of last week's season opening 52-31 win over Colorado State, and the Buffs' second straight win over Nebraska.

After a tough first half on both sides of the ball, the Buffs came alive in the second half to stage their rally.

The defense set the tone, forcing Nebraska punts on the Huskers' first four possessions of the half. The Buffs offense couldn't take advantage of the first two, but finally got on the board after the third, marching 64 yards in eight plays for their first touchdown of the game. Jaren Mangham capped the drive with an 11-yard run to pull CU to within 17-7 with 2:24 left in the third period.

CU's defense then answered the bell again to force another Nebraska punt — and this time the Buffs needed just one play to score. Montez took a pitch back on a flea flicker play, then heaved a 96-yard touchdown pass to Nixon to cut the margin to 17-14 with 14:22 still to play.

The Huskers then finally answered with a 75-yard scoring pass from Martinez to Maurice Washington for a 24-14 lead.

But the Buffs responded, going 75 yards in five plays for a touchdown on their next drive to pull within 24-21. Montez hit Jaylon Jackson with a 57-yard pass, which set up a 7-yard Mangham run.

That set the stage for another CU defensive big play. Johnson sacked Martinez, forcing a fumble. Nu'umotu Falo recovered — his second of the game — and seven plays later, Stefanou's 20-yard field goal for Colorado tied the game at 24-24.

Nebraska then regained the lead with a 75-yard TD march. But following a CU fumble and another NU punt, Montez guided a 10-play, 71-yard march that culminated with a 26-yard touchdown pass to Brown to tie the game at 31-31 with 46 seconds left.

Nebraska had one more shot in regulation, but a Chris Miller interception ended the possession to send the game into overtime.

In the first half, the Buffs had no answer for Nebraska's Martinez. The NU sophomore was a perfect 9-for-9 for 180 yards while Colorado struggled to just 84 yards offense.

AIR FORCE 30, COLORADO 23 (OT)

(SEPTEMBER 14, 2019)

BOULDER — Colorado came back from a 23-10 deficit to tie the game at 23-23 and force overtime against Air Force, but unlike the previous week, the Buffaloes couldn't produce a win in the extra period, dropping a 30-23 decision at Folsom Field.

The loss came on the heels of a 34-31 win over Nebraska in overtime, making it the first time in CU history that the Buffs have played back-to-back OT games. Colorado dropped to 2-1 while Air Force improved to 2-0.

Colorado scored a touchdown on its first possession of the game and then quickly added a field goal for a 10-0 lead, but after that it was all Air Force until late in the fourth quarter. The Falcons scored three straight touchdowns in the first half to take a 20-10 lead, and it took an interception by CU's Mikial Onu in the end zone near the end of the first half to prevent the Falcons from making the margin even bigger.

While Air Force did produce 439 yards total offense, Colorado's defense also continued its takeaway trend, producing three in the game, getting two fumble recoveries to go with Onu's interception.

Air Force scored the winning touchdown on the first play of overtime, getting a 25-yard run from Kadin Remsberg. The Buffs then managed a first down on the ensuing possession, but a fourth-down pass attempt from Steven Montez to Laviska Shenault Jr. in the end zone fell incomplete.

Colorado trailed 20-10 at the half, then saw Air Force push the lead to 23-10 with a field goal midway through the fourth quarter after a scoreless third period.

The Buffs finally answered with their first touchdown since the opening drive of the game when they went 75 yards in 12 plays for the score. Montez hit Shenault with a key third-down pass to keep the drive alive, then found Dimitri Stanley in the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown with 6:09 left in regulation. The PAT was blocked, however, leaving Colorado trailing by seven, 23-16, with just more than six minutes to play.

The Buffs then forced an Air Force punt and drove 60 yards for the tying touchdown, getting a 2-yard run from Shenault. The PAT tied the game at 23-23 with 28 seconds left and sent the game into overtime.

Colorado's offense looked good early, taking the opening kickoff and going 75 yards in 11 plays for a score, culminating the drive with a 42-yard Montez pass to Shenault. Shenault also had a 17-yard catch to keep the drive alive on third down, and Jaren Mangham ran for 2 yards on fourth-and-1.

Colorado then pushed its edge to 10-0 with 7:23 still left in the first quarter when the Buffs converted a Davion Taylor fumble recovery into a 36-yard James Stefanou field goal.

But from that point on, the Falcons controlled the tempo and the rest of the half.

AFA pulled to within 10-6 after CU's field goal, driving 75 yards in seven plays, with a Donald Hammond 32-yard pass to Geraud Sanders capping the drive. AFA's extra point try bounced off the upright, keeping CU's edge at 10-6.

The Falcons, though, kept punching away. AFA forced a CU punt, then went 78 yards in 12 plays for the go-ahead score. Hammond capped the drive with a 2-yard run and the PAT gave the Falcons a 13-10 lead. After another CU punt, AFA needed just two plays to extend its lead to 20-10. Hammond hit Benjamin Waters with an 81-yard touchdown pass and Air Force had a 20-10 lead with 6:37 to go in the half.

(SEPTEMBER 21, 2019)

TEMPE, Ariz. — Colorado's James Stefanou broke a 31-31 tie with a 44-yard field goal with 2:03 left in the game and CU's defense then came up with a final defensive stand to give the Buffs a 34-31 win over No. 24 Arizona State at Sun Devil Stadium.

Colorado scored 24 points in the first half and added another touchdown in the third quarter, but it took Stefanou's field goal to make the difference in the Pac-12 opener for both teams. ASU had not given up a point in the first three quarters of a game this year.

The victory ended an 0-5 CU skid against the Sun Devils on their home turf and also gave the Buffs their first road win against a ranked team since 2002, ending a 29-game losing skein (the last win coming at UCLA on the same date 17 years earlier). It was also CU's second win over a ranked team this season, as the Buffs earlier knocked off No. 25 Nebraska in overtime by the same 34-31 score.

Colorado needed just five minutes to do what no one else had done against Arizona State in three games this year — score a first quarter touchdown. The Buffs took the opening kick and marched 75 yards to pay dirt for a 7-0 lead. Steven Montez completed passes of 17 yards to Dimitri Stanley, 10 to Brown and 23 to Laviska Shenault Jr. before Alex Fontenot crashed over the left side from 1-yard out.

The Buffs made it 14-0 on their next possession following a missed ASU field goal. Montez was again on target, completing throws of 15 yards to Fontenot and 6 to Brown before connecting with Brown again on a 29-yard score.

But ASU finally answered, going 76 yards for a score, with the big chunk a 53-yard scoring toss from Jayden Daniels to Brandon Aiyuk. ASU then recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and went 44 yards for another touchdown to tie the game at 14-14.

Colorado, however, quickly answered. The Buffs needed just 1:47 to go 61 yards and regain the lead, with Montez connecting with Brown again, this time from 31 yards out for a 21-14 CU lead.

The Sun Devils, though, carved out a response. ASU converted two third downs on its next possession, with Eno Benjamin capping the drive with a 3-yard scoring drive to tie the game again, 21-21, with 5:23 to go in the half.

That was enough time for CU to march downfield and pick up a 25-yard Stefanou field goal with 28 seconds left in the half for a 24-21 Buffs halftime lead.

The Sun Devils tied it up at 24-24 with a field goal late in the third quarter before Colorado regained the lead again. Montez hooked up with Brown for a 20-yard touchdown pass for a 31-24 lead with just 1:10 left in the third quarter. The Sun Devils quickly answered, getting a 39-yard touchdown pass from Jayden Daniels to Frank Darby, tying the game at 31-31 with 13:51 left in regulation.

The teams then traded a pair of empty possessions, with CU ending one ASU drive on an interception by Derrion Rakestraw. Then, after exchanging punts, Colorado put together the game-winning drive, ending with Stefanou's field goal.

That gave ASU one more chance, but the CU defense rose to the occasion. Colorado forced two Sun Devil incompletions before Terrance Lang came up with a huge sack on third down. That left ASU with a fourth-and-16 and CU again got pressure on fourth down to force an incompletion.

GAME NOTES

The 91-degree temperature at kickoff tied for the eighth-warmest for a CU game in its history (the 18th of 90 or hotter; CU is 9-9 in these games) ... Mel Tucker is just the second Colorado coach to win his first two games against ranked opponents (Nebraska, Arizona State). Rick Neuheisel won his first three in 1995 (Wisconsin, Texas A&M, Oklahoma); the only other CU coach to win the first time he faced a ranked opponent was Gary Barnett (Oklahoma, 1999) ... The Sun Devils now lead the series by an 8-3 margin, as the Buffs won for the first time in Tempe (1-5) and for the first time in back-to-back games in the series (nine of the games have been at night: ASU leads those, 6-3) ... CU is 4-5 in Pac-12 conference openers (3-1 on the road), averaging 36.3 points in its three wins ... The Buffs are 82-42-2 all-time in conference openers, including a 5-15-1 mark against ranked teams ... CU's last win on the road against a ranked team was on this very date (Sept. 21) in 2002, winning 31-17 at UCLA (snapping a 17-year, 29-game losing streak) ... CU didn't get called for a penalty until there was 1:33 left in the third quarter and just had three in the game (one an unsportsmanlike call when the officials saw the retaliation after an ASU hard tackle) ... The Buffaloes did not allow a sack for the second time this season, and has yet to allow one in the second half ... This was the first game in 2019 that Colorado outgained its opponent (475-453) ... CU has now scored 56 of its last 57 times in goal-to-go situations (47 TD/9 FG; CU was not charged with an attempt for taking a knee at the end) ... PK James Stefanou made the game winner with 2:03 left in the game (he also kicked the game winner in overtim

FOLSOM FIELD

BOULDER — An expected offensive shootout lived up to its billing at Folsom Field, but Colorado came out on the short end, dropping a 35-30 decision to Arizona. The game featured nine lead changes, with Arizona scoring what proved to be the winning touchdown with 6:51 left in the game. Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate had third straight big game against the Buffs, going 31-for-41 for 404 yards and three scores. CU quarterback Steven Montez was 28-for-42 for 299 yards and a touchdown, and Tony Brown had 10 catches for 141 yards and a 15-yard rushing touchdown.

CU took a 20-14 halftime lead into the locker room, thanks to a nine-play, 75yard drive capped with a 12-yard Montez throw to tight end Brady Russell with three seconds left, as Montez scrambled for several seconds to keep the play alive.

But the Wildcats answered with a touchdown on their first possession of the second half, going 65 yards in just six plays for a 21-20 lead. CU then responded with a four-play, 68-yard scoring drive, with Steven Montez connecting with Tony Brown for a 49-yard gain before Brown ran 15 yards on a reverse on the next play for a touchdown and 27-21 lead.

Once again, though, the Wildcats responded. Tate directed a six-play, 85-yard drive, capped by a 5-yard Nathan Tilford run to put Arizona up 28-27 after the PAT.

But CU marched downfield to retake the lead on its next possession, going 72 yards before settling for a 20-yard James Stefanou field goal and a 30-28 lead with 11:29 left in the fourth period.

But that was more than enough time for the Wildcats to put together what proved to be the game-winning drive. UA marched 77 yards on 13 plays, getting another 5yard Tilford scoring run, and the PAT gave the Wildcats a 35-30 lead with 6:51 to go.

Colorado then had one more chance with the ball, but the drive ended on downs at midfield. Arizona took possession with 2:23 to go and ran the clock down.

After an unexpected defensive struggle for much of the first half, the two teams exploded to put 21 points on the board in the last two minutes of the second quarter.

Colorado started the run with a 38-yard trick play for a touchdown following an interception by CU's Mikial Onu. Montez handed off to running back Jaren Mangham, who ran left, then pitched back to wide receiver K.D. Nixon on a reverse. Montez then threw a big block to give Nixon enough time to heave a 38-yard scoring pass to a wide-open Dimitri Stanley in the end zone for a 13-7 CU lead.

But even before Buffs fans could finish celebrating, Arizona answered on the first play from scrimmage on its ensuing possession. Tate dropped back and hit a streaking Cedric Peterson with a 75-yard touchdown throw to put the Wildcats back in the lead, 14-13, with just 1:40 remaining.

That, though, was enough time for Montez to guide a nine-play, 75-yard scoring march. CU capped the drive with the 12-yard Montez pass to Russell.

Prior to the late scoring surge, the Buffs had taken the lead with a field goal on their first possession of the day before Arizona took the lead with a 90-yard touchdown drive late in the first quarter. Colorado finally pulled to within 7-6 on another Stefanou field goal with 2:37 to play in the second quarter, setting the stage for the frantic final minutes of the half.

This millennium, CU reached 150,000 after three games in 2000, 2005, 2008 and 2009 (154,849 that season, the most through three games in this span); it finished last century with eight straight years of 150k+ (1990 through 1997) after not doing so since 1974 ... AUTZEN STADIUM, EUGENE, ORE

EUGENE, Ore. — Colorado's hopes of claiming a third win over a ranked team in 2019 ran into a buzz saw as the Buffaloes dropped a 45-3 decision to No. 13 Oregon at Autzen Stadium.

Colorado's offense struggled all night against the Pac-12's top-ranked scoring defense. Mel Tucker's Buffs managed a field goal on their second possession of the night to pull within 7-3, but those ended up being the only points they could produce. Oregon put the game away with a 21-point barrage over a seven-minute span late in the first half and early in the second.

CU quarterback Steven Montez, who had thrown just two interceptions in the first five games, had a career-high four passes picked off by the Ducks, and Oregon converted three of them into touchdowns. The Buffs also hurt themselves with season highs in penalties and yards — 14 for 114 — and Oregon's offense steadily wore the Buffs down as the game progressed.

Colorado's defense kept it in the game early, but the Buffs let a golden opportunity slip away late in the second quarter when they drove to the Oregon 1-yard line, only to come away empty after Montez was intercepted in the end zone.

The Ducks responded with an 80-yard touchdown drive to take a 24-3 lead at halftime, then added two more scores after two more Montez interceptions in the first five minutes of the second half to take a 38-3 lead and put the game away.

After Oregon drove 75 yards for a touchdown on the opening drive, CU's defense stiffened and gave the Buffs a chance to stay in the game. CU got on the board late in the first quarter with a 27-yard James Stefanou field goal to pull within 7-3 before the Ducks bumped the margin back to seven with a field goal on their next possession.

But after two Colorado three-and-outs, the Ducks finally found the end zone again, going 69 yards in seven plays to go up 17-3 with 7:39 left in the half, setting the stage for a key turning point.

The Buffs drove from their own 20 all the way to the Oregon 1-yard line on their next possession, aided by two pass interference penalties on the Ducks, a 16-yard Montez pass to Laviska Shenault Jr. and a 20-yard Alex Fontenot run.

But after a Fontenot run gave the Buffs second-and-goal from the 1-yard line, the drive stalled, ending on a Montez interception in the end zone.

The Ducks then went 80 yards in eight plays — aided by a 15-yard personal foul on Colorado — for a touchdown and 24-3 haltime lead.

Oregon then quickly put the game away for good early in the third quarter. UO's second interception of Montez gave the Ducks the ball at the CU 40 just two plays into the second half. Five plays later, Oregon extended its lead to 31-3 on a 13-yard Herbert pass to Jaylon Redd.

Oregon intercepted Montez again on CU's next possession, and a 53-yard return left the Ducks just 3 yards away from the end zone. They scored on the next play to take a 38-3 lead less than five minutes into the half.

Oregon added one more touchdown early in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring.

Stefanou — who had tied Mason Crosby's CU record of 10 consecutive field goals early in the game — missed a chance to own the record outright when his 33-yard try in the fourth quarter clanged off the right goal post.

COLORADO 52, WASHINGTON STATE 43

(OCTOBER 19, 2019)

MARTIN STADIUM, PULLMAN, WASH

PULLMAN, Wash. — Colorado's offense struggled all night and Washington State took advantage of every opportunity that came its way as the Buffaloes dropped a 41-10 decision at Martin Stadium.

The loss was CU's third in a row while WSU ended a three-game skid.

Colorado entered the game hoping to take advantage of a Washington State defense that had given up an average of 47 points per game in three Pac-12 contests. But the Buffs struggled from the beginning, with quarterback Steven Montez throwing a pair of interceptions in the first half and James Stefanou connecting on just one of three field goal attempts.

The Cougars, meanwhile, scored touchdowns on their first three possessions, including a drive that needed only 26 yards after Montez's first interception, to take a 21-3 lead after the first quarter.

For the second week in a row, the Buffs were plagued by problems in the red zone. CU reached inside the WSU 20-yard line twice in the first half, but came away with just three points.

Of Colorado's six first-half possessions, two ended on missed field goals (from 48 and 52 yards), two ended on interceptions, one resulted in a punt and one produced a 24-yard Stefanou field goal.

After Washington State scored on its first two possessions, the Buffs finally answered by marching deep into WSU territory and earning a first-and-goal from the 10-yard line. But the drive stalled after a short run and two incompletions, and CU had to settle for a Stefanou field goal to cut WSU's lead to 14-3.

The Cougars quickly answered with another touchdown drive, getting a 47-yard Max Borghi run to cap the march for a 21-3 lead with 1:49 still left in the first quarter.

After WSU's third touchdown, Colorado's defense stiffened. The Buffs stopped the Cougars on downs on their next possession, then forced a three-and-out.

But the Buffs' two ensuing drives ended with an interception in the end zone from the WSU 15-yard line and a three-and-out. That left WSU just enough time to drive for a field goal just before the half, leaving Colorado with a 24-3 halftime deficit.

The Buffs gave themselves some hope in the third quarter with two defensive stops to set the stage for a 51-yard march to the end zone. Montez connected with Laviska Shenault Jr. for 24 yards on third down to keep the drive alive before Shenault took a direct snap and powered into the end zone from 6 yards out.

That pulled CU to within 24-10 with 5:06 still left to play in the third period.

But the Cougars quickly answered with an 81-yard touchdown drive, getting a 44yard Gordon touchdown pass to give WSU a three-score cushion, 31-10. It was one of three WSU touchdown plays of at least 22 yards, as Gordon also had a 22-yard touchdown pass and Max Borghi had a 47-yard scoring run.

WSU then added another touchdown and field goal in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring.

Montez was replaced by sophomore Tyler Lytle midway through the fourth quarter, but Lytle was hurt on his first play. That brought redshirt freshman Blake Stenstrom into the game for his first action, but his first collegiate pass was intercepted.

CU's run game was a bright spot, finishing with 179 yards. Sophomore running back Alex Fontenot had his second career 100-yard game, finishing with 105 yards on 11 carries. With the debut of DB Tarik Luckett, it marked the 14th true scholarship freshman to play for the Buffs this year, the second-most since 1984.

2019 COLORADO FOOTBALL ORIGINAL LETTERMAN PICTURE

Colorado had 54 lettermen returning for 2019 (53 from the 2018 team, one from 2017); they broke down into 27 on offense, 21 on defense and six specialists; the Buffs lost 36 lettermen off the 2018 squad (15 offense/20 defense/1 specialist). CU returned 11 starters from last season (6 offense/5 defense), losing 13 (6 offense/7 defense); two players started six games each on offense and defense, so the starter count was based off 12 players instead of the standard 11.
