- » Freshman quarterback Will Plummer made his first career start against Colorado. He finished the night 19-for-32 passing with 154 yards. He added 29 yards on 14 carries on the ground. It was the second appearance of Plummer's career, after playing all but one snap last weekend at UCLA.
- » Senior running back Gary Brightwell's 26-yard rushing touchdown in the first quarter broke a career-long streak of 61 straight rush attempts without a score.
- » Brightwell finished the game against Colorado with 113 yards on 20 carries. It was the fifth 100-yard performance of his career and his second of the season. He now sports 1,252 yards and nine touchdowns in his Arizona career.
- » Brightwell's 26-yard touchdown run in the first quarter was his first rushing touchdown of the season and his second-longest rush of the season, trailing his 34-yard run against USC. The score also marked the senior's first rushing touchdown in seven games.
- » Sophomore running back Michael Wiley set a career-high in rushing on his first two attempts of the game (29 yds, 45 yds), totaling 74 yards and besting his previous single-game high of 39 yards. - » Arizona had two 100-yard rushers on Saturday night, marking the first time they've achieved the feat this season. Brightwell and Wiley combined for 239 yards on the ground. It marked the third time under head coach Kevin Sumlin that the Wildcats had two running backs cross the 100-yard mark in a game.
- » Redshirt senior defensive back Lorenzo Burns' fumble recovery late in the first quarter was the Wildcats first forced turnover of the season. They finished the night with three turnovers, their most since creating six turnovers at Hawai'i in 2019.

His third quarter interception of Sam Noyer was his first since Texas Tech in 2019. Pandey now has three career interceptions, all of which have come at home.
- » The end of the first quarter saw Arizona holding a 10-0 lead, which was the team's largest lead after the first quarter of a Pac-12 game since beginning the second quarter of the 2018 Oregon game with a 10-0 lead (a span of 16 games).
- » Junior defensive back Isaiah Mays finished tied for second on the team with seven tackles on Saturday night, besting his previous single-game high of four. Mays also tallied one tackle for loss and a forced fumble.
