BRUINS WELCOME COLORADO TO ROSE BOWL — UCLA will host Colorado and head coach Karl Dorrell (UCLA head coach 2003-07 and UCLA player 1982-86 -- caught 108 balls for 1,517 yards and 9 TDs, including a pair of scores in the 1984 Rose Bowl) in a Pac-12 contest set for 6 p.m. PT kickoff on Saturday, Nov. 13. The game will be televised by the Pac-12 Network. The UCLA Learfield Radio Network will broadcast the contest, which will also be aired over SiriusXM and the Varsity App.

UCLA owns an 11-5 overall advantage in the series with the Buffs. The teams have taken turns by winning home games in the series over the past six meetings. The Bruins hold a 5-1 edge in games played in Pasadena. CU won last year's battle in Boulder, 48-42. UCLA's last series win came in 2019 by a score of 31-14 on Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl.

Fourth-year head coach Chip Kelly was named UCLA's head football coach on Nov. 25, 2017. Kelly owns a collegiate record of 61-32 compiled in three-plus seasons at UCLA (2-2 vs. CU) and in four seasons as the head coach at the University of Oregon (2009-12, 1-0 vs. CU). During that span in Eugene, his Duck teams captured first place or a share of first in the North Division of the conference (three outright conference championships 2009-11) and four BCS bowl games. Kelly guided Oregon to appearances in a National Championship Game (2010), two Rose Bowls (after 2011 and 2009 seasons) and the Fiesta Bowl following the 2012 season. Kelly was named the 2009 and 2010 Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 2010 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, 2010 Walter Camp Coach of the Year, 2010 Sporting News Coach of the Year, 2010 AFCA Coach of the Year Award and 2010 Associated Press Coach of the Year. In six of his seven seasons as a collegiate head coach, Kelly has produced a top-15 rated NCAA rushing leader in yards-per-game average -- 2020: Demetric Felton, Jr., 14th; 2018: Joshua Kelley, 9th; 2012: Kenjon Barner, 4th; 2011: LaMichael James, 1st; 2010: LaMichael James, 1st; 2009: LaMichael James, 9th.

UCLA vs. Colorado — Last year in Boulder, the teams combined for 90 points and 1,003 yards of total offense in a 48-42 decision won by the Buffs in Karl Dorrell's first game as head coach. Colorado surged to a 35-14 halftime advantage only to see the Bruins cut the margin to 42-35 late in the third quarter. Dorian Thompson-Robinson ran for 109 yards and threw for 303 yards in the game.

In its last series win, UCLA secured a 31-14 victory over Colorado in the 2019 season at the Rose Bowl. The Bruins jumped out to a 17-0 advantage after the first quarter of play. Thompson-Robinson passed for 226 yards and Joshua Kelley (now with the Chargers) ran for 126 yards in the win.

THE WATCHLIST

Phillips led the team in catches the past two seasons (2020 - 38) and he became the 27th UCLA receiver to reach the 100-catch mark for a career in 2020 ... in 2019, he topped UCLA in receptions (60), which was the most ever in a single season by a Bruin freshman/redshirt freshman ... he was the first redshirt freshman to lead the team since Craig Bragg in 2001.

• Dorian Thompson-Robinson is set to move up the charts and rates 6th on the school list in career passing yards (6,771; 107 yards from moving up to fifth) ... next on that list is Cory Paus (1999-02 with 6,877) ... The Bruins have averaged 244.8 yards on the ground this season in wins and 142.8 in losses.

• Zach Charbonnet posted his fifth 100-yard game of the season at Washington, a season-best 131-yard effort ... his five 100-yard games are tied for the most by a P12 player this season and are the most by a Bruin in a season since Josh Kelley (now with Chargers) posted six in 2018. The last Bruin with more than six was UCLA's all-time leading rusher Johnathan Franklin who had a school-record nine in 2012.

THE STORY OF NO. 36 - A WALK-ON EARNS A SCHOLARSHIP

On Sunday, Aug. 18, 2019, Coach Kelly awarded Ethan Fernea (FIR-nee-uh) the No. 36 jersey in honor of Nick Pasquale who wore the number for the Bruins in 2012 and 2013 before his death in a car accident. Nick's parents, Mel and Laurie, along with his brother A.J. were on the practice field for the presentation. On Aug. 29, just before leaving for the first game of the 2019 season, Fernea was put on scholarship. He caught his first career touchdown pass against Colorado. Nick was a 5-7, 172 pound redshirt freshman walk-on receiver for the Bruins who had seen his first game action a week before his death in September of 2013. He was known for his passion for the game, his limitless determination and his high qualities as a teammate. Current UCLA coaches Jerry Neuheisel and Daniel Fields were teammates with Pasquale. The 2019 season was the first that a Bruin had worn the No. 36 since the start of the 2013 season.

UCLA SIGNS DEAL WITH JORDAN / NIKE — UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics Martin Jarmond forged a six-year agreement with Nike, Inc. to make Jordan Brand and Nike the Bruins' official athletic footwear, apparel and equipment provider beginning on July 1, 2021. Under the terms of the agreement, Nike will supply uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment to 22 of UCLA's 25 varsity athletic teams, while Jordan Brand will outfit the football and men's and women's basketball programs with "Jumpman" product. With this agreement, UCLA becomes the only school to wear the Jumpman in the Pac-12 Conference, and only the fifth university in the country to join forces with Jordan Brand on football, as well as both men's and women's basketball. The contract will extend beyond outfitting some of the most iconic teams in collegiate athletics. NIKE, Inc. also will lend its support to UCLA Athletics' student-athlete development programs, offer two summer internships per calendar year to UCLA students, and annually host a group of selected UCLA students at its headquarters for an educational experience.

CADE MCNOWN IS HALL OF FAME BOUND — Quarterback Cade McNown will enter into the College Football Hall of Fame with the Class of 2020 in a December ceremony this year. McNown was a four-year starter for UCLA from 1995-98 and his teams posted a 30-14 record in his starts. His Bruin teams captured Pac-10 championships in 1997 and 1998. He is the only player in UCLA history to throw for at least 10,000 career yards and to quarterback the Bruins to four-straight wins over USC. McNown finished his career as the conference's career leader in total offense (11,285) and guided the Bruins to a school record 20 straight wins in '97-98. He was named a first-team All-America, Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1998 and eighth in 1997.

UCLA HEAD COACH CHIP KELLY

Chip Kelly was named UCLA's 17th head football coach on Nov. 25, 2017. Kelly, the National College Coach of the Year in 2010 and a two-time Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year, holds 30 seasons of coaching experience at both the professional and collegiate levels. Before coming to UCLA, he served as the head coach of the San Francisco 49ers in 2016. Prior to that, Kelly was the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles from 2013-15 and worked for four seasons (2009-12) as head coach at the University of Oregon where he posted a record of 46-7.

In 2020, UCLA led the Pac-12 in scoring (248 points) and touchdowns scored (31). Bruin quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson produced the school's best pass efficiency mark since 2005 (156.29). The third-year starter became the first Bruin quarterback to record a 300-yard passing (303) and 100-yard rushing game (109) in the same contest (at Colorado). UCLA produced a team rushing average of over 200 yards per game for just the fourth time since 1990. The mark of 230.6 rushing yards per game ranked 12th nationally. A Bruin team has not finished with a rushing yards per carry mark greater than 2020's 5.1 mark since 1976.

Tight end Greg Dulcich rated No. 2 in the nation among tight ends with both his 73.9 receiving yards per game average and 19.88 yards per catch mark. Dulcich's 126-yard performance in the opener at Colorado marked the seventh straight season in which a Bruin tight end had reach the century receiving yards mark in a game. Demetric Felton Jr. led the Pac-12 and ranked sixth in the NCAA in all-purpose yards (165.83). UCLA's defense showed improvement in all phases. The unit allowed almost 50 yards less in total offense (409.9) than the previous season, while reducing its rushing defense average by almost 10 yards per game (135.7). It sliced almost a half a yard off the rushing average per carry to 3.6, a mark which led the Pac-12. Per game averages for tackles for loss (6.8) and sacks (3.3-8th in NCAA) both went up in 2020.

In 2019, Thompson-Robinson finished among the top-10 at the school for a single season in completions (216-9th), total offense (2,899-10th) and TD passes (21-10th). He set a school mark with 564 yards of total offense in a win at Washington State while leading the second-largest comeback in school history (32 points). Running back Joshua Kelley became the eighth Bruin to post back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Kelley finished second in the Pac-12 in rushing yards per game average. Felton set a school mark for a running back with 55 receptions and added a school-record four scoring plays of 75-yards or more in length. UCLA produced five consecutive 200-yard rushing games for the first time since the 1978 season. Kyle Philips finished with the most catches (60) ever by a Bruin freshman player and became the first redshirt freshman to lead the team in receptions since 2001. The rush defense knocked off almost 0.5 yard/carry off the average of the previous season and the number of quarterback sacks increased dramatically to 26. Special teams improved across the board and featured a punt and kickoff return for a touchdown. UCLA ranked second in the nation in punt return average (22.5 yards).

In his first season in Westwood, Kelly became just the fourth Bruin head coach to guide his team past USC in his initial meeting with the crosstown rival. Kelley racked up 289 rushing yards in the win against the Trojans, most ever by a back in the series. The Bruin back finished ninth in the nation in rushing average (113.0 yds per game) and 18th nationally in all-purpose yards (130.55). It marked the fifth consecutive season in which Coach Kelly had produced an NCAA top-10 rated rushing offense leader as a college head coach. A young Bruin team, which saw a school-record 21 true freshmen student-athletes take the field during the season, showed steady improvement and generated 432.9 yards of total offense per game over the last eight games of the season, including a 528-yard effort in the season-finale versus Stanford.

Kelly's lone season in San Francisco saw the 49ers improve from the league's 21st-ranked rushing attack in 2015 (1,544 yards) to the 4th-best ground game in 2016 (2,019 yards). Running back Carlos Hyde was the biggest beneficiary of the improvement, gaining 988 yards in just 13 contests (76.0 yards per game).

Over Kelly's three seasons in Philadelphia, the Eagles ranked third in the NFL in points per game (26.9) and total offense (392.8 yards per game), as well as fourth in rushing yards per game (131.3). Sixteen Pro Bowlers were selected from his teams, including eight in 2014. The Eagles won 10 games in each of his first two seasons, as his 2014 offense scored a franchise-record 474 points to surpass his 2013 team's previous-record total of 442. The Eagles showed a marked improvement in Year 1 under Kelly, as their 10 wins followed a four-win 2012. He became just the second head coach in league history to win a division title in his first season in the NFL, as the Eagles captured an NFC East Division Championship. He was also named the Maxwell Club NFL Coach of the Year.

Kelly began his head coaching career at the University of Oregon in 2009, leading the Ducks to a 10-3 record and a trip to the Rose Bowl. He finished his time at Oregon with a overall record of 46-7 as head coach (2009-12), including a 33-3 mark in conference play. In his four seasons in Eugene, the Ducks averaged 44.7 points per game. Kelly became the first coach in school history to guide the program to three consecutive undisputed conference championships (2009-11) and its first three 12-win seasons (2010-12).

Oregon made an appearance in a BCS Bowl game in each of Kelly's four seasons, including a trip to the National Championship game following the 2010 campaign. Kelly was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year in back-to-back seasons in 2009 and '10, and Associated Press Coach of the Year in 2010.

The 2012 Ducks finished second in the nation in scoring (49.6 points per game) and fifth in total offense (537.4 yards per game) with freshman quarterback Marcus Mariota under center. They would conclude the season with a Fiesta Bowl victory over Kansas State. A January bowl game was also the end result for Oregon the year prior, as the Ducks defeated Wisconsin in a Rose Bowl thriller, 45-38. Kelly's offense notched Top-5 finishes in points per game (46.1, third) and total offense (522.8 yards per game, fourth) in 2011.

In 2010, the Ducks led the nation both points per game (46.1) and total yardage (530.7 per game) en route to a BCS National Championship Game appearance. In addition to his Pac-10 Coach of the Year and Associated Press Coach of the Year awards, Kelly garnered Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year, Walter Camp Coach of the Year, Sporting News Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Coach of the Year accolades.

Kelly's first season as a head coach (2009) culminated in a Rose Bowl appearance and the Pac-10 Coach of the Year award, as his offense ranked sixth in the country in both points per game (36.1) and rushing yards per game (231.7). He was promoted to the top spot after his offenses led the Pac-10 in a number of categories during his two seasons (2007-08) as offensive coordinator under Mike Bellotti.

Kelly had spent the previous 13 years at his alma mater, the University of New Hampshire, before being named offensive coordinator at Oregon. As offensive coordinator at UNH, Kelly protégée Ricky Santos earned the Walter Payton Award as the most outstanding player in FCS in 2006. The quarterback previously finished second in 2005. Kelly also coached the Wildcats' offensive line (1997, 1998) and running backs (1992, 1994-96). The New Hampshire offense averaged better than 400 yards of total offense per game in seven of his eight seasons on staff.

Kelly began his coaching career guiding defensive backs and special teams at Columbia University in 1990. He moved to outside linebackers and safeties in 1991 before his first stint at UNH as running backs coach in 1992. He also spent one season at Johns Hopkins University as defensive coordinator in 1993.

UCLA REMEMBERS LEGENDARY COACH TERRY DONAHUE

Terry Donahue, the winningest coach in Pacific-12 Conference and UCLA football history, passed away on July 4, at his home in Newport Beach, Calif., surrounded by family, following a two-year battle with cancer. He was 77.

Donahue devoted the majority of his adult life to championing UCLA after enrolling at the school as a walk-on defensive lineman. In his first season (1965) in Westwood as a student-athlete, the 190-pound lineman helped lead the Bruins to the program's first-ever Rose Bowl victory with an upset of previously unbeaten and No. 1-ranked Michigan State. He went on to serve as an assistant coach for the Bruins under Pepper Rodgers and Dick Vermeil and then took over the reins as UCLA's head coach, at age 31, beginning with the 1976 season. Donahue, the first person to appear in a Rose Bowl Game as a player, assistant coach and head coach at his alma mater, would go on to post a conference-record 98 wins (98-51-5) and a school-record 151 wins (151-74-8). In a 20-year span, he won or shared five conference titles (1982, 1983, 1985, 1987, 1993) while finishing first or second in the league standings 12 times. The Bruins captured wins in three Rose Bowls (1983, 1984, 1986) during his tenure and he became the first college coach to come away with bowl game victories in seven consecutive seasons (1983 Rose Bowl, 1984 Rose Bowl, 1985 Fiesta Bowl, 1986 Rose Bowl, 1986 Freedom Bowl, 1987 Aloha Bowl, 1989 Cotton Bowl), including four New Year's Day wins in a row. Donahue's Bruins recorded seven straight top-20 finishes in the final Associated Press football poll from 1982-88.

During his 20-year head coaching reign, Donahue's Bruin teams produced 40 wins over ranked opponents culminating with his final coaching victory, a 24-20 decision in the L.A. Coliseum over No. 11 USC in 1995. He posted a 10-9-1 career ledger in battles against the crosstown rivals. Donahue's UCLA teams yielded 34 first-team All-America team selections, a list featuring some of the top performers in school history --- LB Jerry Robinson, S Kenny Easley, RB Freeman McNeil, K John Lee, LB Ken Norton Jr., QB Troy Aikman, LB Carnell Lake, S Eric Turner and OL Jonathan Ogden. Fourteen of Donahue's Bruins were chosen in the first round of the NFL Draft, including future Pro Football Hall of Famers Aikman, Easley and Ogden.

Donahue himself was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000. In 1997, he was welcomed into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. Donahue joined the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame with the class of 2001. In 2013, the press box at the Rose Bowl was officially dedicated as the Terry Donahue Pavilion. ESPN named Donahue one of the 150 Greatest College Coaches in its 2019 celebration of College Football's 150th Anniversary.

SPIEKER FIELD AT THE ROSE BOWL: HOME OF BRUIN FOOTBALL

The nation's most famous college football stadium – The Rose Bowl – will be in its 40th season as the home of the UCLA Bruins football team. The stadium is recognized as both a United States National Historic Landmark and a California Historic Civil Engineering landmark. Thanks to a generous donation in 2017 from prominent UCLA alum Tod Spieker and his family, the playing surface is called Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl.

The Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but has been utilized as a venue for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games' cycling events and was the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also played host to five NFL Super Bowls – XI in 1977, XIV in 1980, XVII in 1983, XXI in 1987 and XXVII in 1993. It was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and the 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games. The USA women's soccer team victory over China in the 1999 event drew over 90,000 fans. In addition, the 1983 Army-Navy game was played in the Rose Bowl.

On Jan. 1, 2018 and Jan. 1, 2015, the Rose Bowl served as the site of one of the College Football Playoff semifinal games. In 2014, the Rose Bowl hosted the final BCS Championship contest. It had also played host to the BCS Championship game in 2002, 2006 and 2010.

Considered an ideal concert venue, the Rose Bowl has hosted shows by such groups and artists as Taylor Swift, Beyonce, Jay-Z, Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, One Direction, U2, 'N Sync, Eagles, Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Michael Jackson, Metallica, Guns and Roses, Depeche Mode and Journey.

The iconic stadium has put the final touches on a $181 million dollar renovation, and now features a new video board, improved exiting, wider aisles in the end zones and the Terry Donahue Pavilion. The Pavilion area houses the press boxes, broadcast booths, premium seating, boxes and suites. In December of 2015, the radio and TV booths were renamed "The Keith Jackson Broadcast Center". Jackson, the former sportscaster, coined the phrase "The Granddaddy of Them All" for the Rose Bowl Game. Also added are field level entrances and exits, and additional concession stands and restroom facilities.

Since 2007, UCLA and its opponents have dressed in new locker rooms located underneath the south concourse of the stadium. The locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine and equipment staffs. In addition, a new media interview room and working press area were included in the upgrades. In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged were installed, as well as a new sound system.

Completed in 1922 at a cost of $272,198, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California football game that year which was won by the Golden Bears 12-0. The stadium was originally horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end zone was enclosed prior to the 1929 game to increase seating capacity to 76,000. Further enlargements took place in 1932 (83,677) and 1949 (100,807). A record crowd of 106,869 fans witnessed the 1973 Ohio State – USC Rose Bowl contest.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts in its vast history. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, The UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide connection.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 feet from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. The square footage of the grass on the floor of the stadium is 79,156.

The University

In a dynamic, global city, on one of the nation's most beautiful campuses, doors are opened, and anything is possible. UCLA is one of the world's great universities, offering unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship to more than 31,000 undergraduates and nearly 13,000 graduate students. As the No. 1 public university in the nation, it's our mission to move knowledge into action. For over 100 years, our efforts have positively impacted not just those in our communities, but people around the world.

Bruins are a reflection of the university's commitment to excellence, diversity and equal opportunity. One-third of Bruins become first generation college graduates, realizing their parents' dream of creating a better life for the next generation.

Our faculty are among the most recognized and decorated in just about every field. UCLA boasts eight faculty Nobel Prize laureates, 15 MacArthur fellows, 11 National Medal of Science winners and three Pulitzer Prize winners, along with hundreds of recipients of Guggenheim fellowships, Fulbright awards and other academic distinctions. Bruin alumni are Oscar, Grammy, Tony and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians, professional athletes and coaches; and educators, engineers, bankers, entrepreneurs and astronauts. UCLA ON THE AIR

Bruins on the Radio

The 2021 season is UCLA's 25th season with Clear Channel Radio. This will be the 15th year for the Bruins to be aired on AM 570 LA Sports (or am 1150 KTLK) in Southern California (97.3 FM The Fan in San Diego). The broadcasts are produced by Learfield, UCLA's corporate and media-rights holder. The broadcast includes a pre- and post-game show.

Josh Lewin returns as the voice of the Bruins for a sixth season. Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens ('83-86) is set to begin his 25th year on the broadcast team and his 21st as the analyst in the booth after being welcomed into the So Cal Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2019. Another Bruin signal caller, Wayne Cook ('91-94) is in his 21st season as the sideline reporter.

AM 570 LA Sports also provides ancillary programming, including head coach and player interviews during game weeks. The weekly hour-long Bruin Insider Show also returns.

UCLA IMG Sports Network games are available nationally through an agreement with Sirius XM Satellite Radio, the Official Satellite Partner of UCLA Athletics. Games can also be heard, via the internet, at the Varsity App.

Bruins on Television

Following the 2021 Utah game, 214 of UCLA's last 215 games have been televised live, including 141 in a row. The Oregon State game in 2009 is the last game not to be aired live (it was on delayed television).

The Pac-12 Networks will air conference games and ancillary programming which feature football coach and player interviews during the season including special features.

2021 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1: UCLA 44, Hawai'i 10

Aug. 28 - Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. - Zach Charbonnet reached the end zone three times in his Bruin debut and Brittain Brown added another rushing touchdown, as the Bruins ran for 245 yards in a 44-10 season-opening victory over Hawai'i on Saturday at the Rose Bowl.

The 34-point margin of victory was the highest in a season opener for UCLA since Aug. 31, 2013 against Nevada.

Charbonnet finished the game with 106 yards on just six carries, with Brown running for 78 yards on 13 rushes. Dorian Thompson-Robinson tied Troy Aikman for seventh on UCLA's all-time touchdown passes list with 41, going 10-for-20 for 130 yards, adding 19 yards rushing.

The Bruins scored on each of their first five possessions, three on short fields thanks to a few Hawai'i miscues. After a 27-yard field goal by Nicholas Barr-Mira opened the scoring, UCLA posted a three-and-out on defense and then compiled a nine-play, 87-yard drive, punctuated by a 21-yard Charbonnet touchdown to put the Bruins up 10-0.

On the second play of the Rainbow Warriors' next possession, Chevan Cordeiro was intercepted by Datona Jackson, giving the Bruins a goal-to-go situation. Brown punched it in from the 1-yard line on fourth down to give UCLA a 17-0 lead with six minutes left in the first quarter.

Hawai'i got on the board in its next turn with the ball on a field goal, but UCLA stormed right back with a 61-second, four-play drive encompassing 75 yards, as Charbonnet scampered for a 47-yard touchdown run to make it 24-3 with just under a minute remaining in the first quarter. The 24 points for the Bruins over the first 15 minutes marked the most in an opening quarter since Sept. 10, 1988 against Nebraska (28).

The Rainbow Warriors turned the ball over on downs near midfield to end their next possession, and the Bruins turned it into even more points, with Charbonnet going for the trifecta on a 21-yard score to put the home team up 31-3, which would also be the score at halftime. The 28-point margin at intermission was the largest lead for the Bruins after two quarters since their last meeting with Hawai'i in 2017.

Out of the halftime break, the Bruins took only five plays to make it 37-3, as Thompson-Robinson completed four passes, including a 44-yard touchdown to Kazmeir Allen. The extra point was missed.

UCLA then added a special teams score, as Ale Kaho blocked a punt in the end zone, which was recovered by David Priebe to make it 44-3. Hawai'i reached double figures late in the third quarter on a 1-yard passing touchdown, with neither team cracking the scoreboard in the fourth.

The Bruins are back in action next Saturday at the Rose Bowl against LSU. Start time is 5:30 p.m. and the game will air on FOX and AM 1150 Radio.

GAME 2: UCLA 38, LSU 27

Sept. 4 - Rose Bowl

LOS ANGELES - UCLA reached the endzone on back-to-back possessions in the second quarter to take the lead for good, then created separation with a dominant fourth quarter to record a 38-27 victory over No. 16 LSU on Saturday night at the Rose Bowl in a FOX-televised contest.

The Bruins (2-0) outgained the Tigers (0-1) by more than a 4-1 margin on the ground (210-48) in the first ever football meeting between the two schools. UCLA improved to 19-15-4 all-time against current members of the SEC, including a 6-1 mark in its last seven matchups.

UCLA received standout performances from its top two running backs on Saturday. Junior Zach Charbonnet followed up his three-touchdown debut against Hawai'i with 117 yards rushing and one touchdown on 11 carries against the Tigers. Redshirt senior Brittain Brown added 96 yards on 17 carries to go along with a touchdown of his own.

Senior quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson needed just 16 attempts to net 260 yards passing and three touchdowns. His performance moved him into sixth place in UCLA history for career passing touchdowns (44) and seventh place in career passing yards (5,522).

Redshirt junior tight end Greg Dulcich (3 receptions, 117 yards) and redshirt junior wide receiver Kyle Phillips (2 receptions, 49 yards) added touchdown catches to lead the team's receiving corps.

On the defensive end, UCLA limited its opponent to under-50 yards rushing for a second consecutive week. Standout defensive plays included a third-down sack by senior linebacker Bo Calvert late in the first quarter and a third-quarter interception from senior linebacker Caleb Johnson.

With their lead sitting in single digits for most of the game, the Bruins scored the first two touchdowns of the fourth quarter to establish a game-high 18-point lead at 38-20.

Charbonnet and Brown teamed up to score the first of those fourth-quarter scores. On just the second play of the quarter, Charbonnet found a gap and sprinted for a 43-yard gain that got UCLA to the opposing 16-yard line. A few plays later, Brown found pay dirt with a one-yard rush to the left.

Midway through the fourth, Phillips put the exclamation point on an 81-yard drive with a highlight-reel 45-yard touchdown catch, hauling in a pass from Thompson-Robinson around the 35-yard line and slipping between a pair of LSU defenders while staying inbounds near the left sideline for the score.

LSU ended up driving 73 yards for a touchdown to get within 11 with 4:08 remaining, but the Bruins stood strong the rest of the way.

The Tigers were led by quarterback Max Johnson, who recorded 330 yards in the air with three touchdowns and one interception on 26-of-46 passing. Kayshon Boutte was on the receiving end of all three passing TDs, finishing with 148 yards receiving.

After a scoreless first quarter, LSU opened the scoring on their first possession of the second quarter, capping off a 63-yard drive with a quick 3-yard strike to Boutte in the corner of the end zone.

The Bruins responded by scoring on each of their next two possessions, establishing a seven-point lead that they would never relinquish.

Just one play was needed on the first drive, with Thompson-Robinson hooking up with Dulcich for a 75-yard catch-and-run. Thompson-Robinson hit a wide-open Dulcich with a running pass that was caught at the UCLA 40, and he proceeded to shake a tackle at the opposite 35-yard line before fending off two defenders near the goal line to roll into the end zone for the game-tying score.

The Bruins went ahead on their next possession, in which Charbonnet was clearly the star. The Camarillo, Calif. native opened the drive by breaking several tackles as part of a 20-yard run, picked up 35 yards on a checkdown pass in the flat, then notched the touchdown by running 12 yards practically untouched on a draw play. Charbonnet accounted for 67-of-71 yards on the scoring drive.

An LSU field goal made it a four-point game heading into the halftime

The two teams traded a touchdown and field goal apiece in the third quarter - the Bruins parlayed an interception into red zone field position and a 14-yard touchdown catch from Chase Cota before LSU answered with a 44-yard TD reception from Boutte, who got some help as a referee unintentionally set a pick on the over-the-middle catch - keeping the score at a four-point margin heading into the final quarter.

UCLA, which plays its first three games of the 2021 season at home, is off next week and returns to action on Sept. 18 against Fresno State at the Rose Bowl.

GAME 3: Fresno State 40, UCLA 37

Sept. 18 - Rose Bowl

LOS ANGELES - No. 13 UCLA football dropped a late-game thriller to Fresno State, 40-37, at the Rose Bowl on Saturday night.

Redshirt senior quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson connected with redshirt junior Kyle Phillips for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, the second capturing the lead for the Bruins (2-1) with 54 seconds remaining. On the next drive, Bulldog quarterback Jake Haener led his offense downfield to the game-winning touchdown: a 13-yard completion to Jalen Cropper.

Haener - the nation's passing leader - had 455 yards and two touchdowns in the victory.

After falling behind 23-10 entering the second half, the Bruin defense flipped the Bulldog (3-1) passing attack on its head with two fumbles in the fourth quarter to give UCLA a chance to pull out the victory. UCLA trailed Fresno State, 26-17, with 9:23 remaining in the fourth quarter when linebacker Carl Jones, Jr. stripped Fresno State quarterback Jake Haener for a fumble that was recovered 43 yards down field by lineman Datona Jackson.

Three plays later, Thompson-Robinson unleashed a 42-yard drive to Kyle Phillips for a touchdown to bring the Bruins within two points at 26-24. Phillips finished the game with seven completions for 113 yards. Thompson-Robinson ended the night with three touchdowns - the sev enth time in his career finishing with that total. It was also the second game in his career in which he recorded multiple passing touchdowns with no interceptions.

On the next play from scrimmage, defensive back Qwuantrezz Knight muscled the football out of a Bulldog receiver's arms and linebacker Jordan Genmark Heath promptly carried it 19 yards to the Fresno State 18. Junior running back Zach Charbonnet bounced his way into the endzone for his second touchdown of the night – his sixth through three games – to give the Bruins their first lead since the first quarter.

Thompson-Robinson's first touchdown pass of the game, set up by a 3rd and long completion to Kyle Phillips, was a connection on a crossing route to redshirt sophomore receiver Kam Brown came on UCLA's opening drive of the second half.

UCLA had two costly fumbles in the third quarter. Thompson-Robinson had the ball slip out of his hands in UCLA territory, and after forcing a turnover on downs later in the period, senior receiver Chase Cota fumbled a 45-yard completion with the endzone in sight.

The Bulldogs dominated the time of possession in the first half with 49 plays compared to the Bruins' 16 and 17 first downs compared UCLA's 3.

Fresno State's Ronnie Rivers pounded a one-yard rush over the UCLA goal line to score the game's first points, capping a 10-play drive, 55-yard drive. The Bulldogs failed on their two-point conversion attempt.

Thompson-Robinson responded on his very next play from scrimmage with a 38-yard connection to redshirt sophomore wide receiver Kam Brown, putting the Bruins at Fresno State's. Four rushes later, Charbonnet barreled through a defender and into the endzone to give UCLA the lead.

The Bulldogs orchestrated another methodical, 14-play drive that lasted roughly seven minutes on their next possession, resulting in a one-yard touchdown rush by Jalen Cropper to recapture the lead.

Redshirt junior Kazmeir Allen tapped into his sprinter instincts when he returned Fresno State's kickoff downfield before eventually being tripped up at the Bulldog 26. The drive resulted in a 39-yard field goal by redshirt sophomore Nicholas Barr-Mira.

Fresno State scored twice more before halftime to extend its lead to 13. The first score was a 36-yard rush for Rivers' second touchdown of the game, and the second a 21-yard field goal by Abraham Montano.

UCLA will travel to Stanford for both its first road and Pac-12 contest of the season next week on Saturday, Sept. 25 at 3 p.m. PT.

GAME 4: UCLA 35, Stanford 24

Sept. 25 - Stanford, Calif.

STANFORD, Calif. – Redshirt senior quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson muscled through a four-touchdown performance in No. 24 UCLA's 35-24 victory over Stanford at Stanford Stadium on Saturday night.

Thompson-Robinson and redshirt junior receiver Kyle Phillips replicated last week's fourth quarter with another pair of late-game touchdown connections to pull the Bruins (3-1, 1-0 Pac-12) away from the Cardinal (2-2, 0-2 Pac-12). UCLA has now defeated

Stanford in back-to-back meetings for the first time since 2007-08.

It was Thompson-Robinson's first game with at least two passing and rushing scores since the Bruins' 67-63 win over Washington State on Sept. 21, 2019.

After leaving the field with under four minutes left in the game on a third-down conversion from a quarterback keeper, Thompson-Robinson re-entered a play later and found Phillips on an out route to put UCLA up two scores.

Previously in the fourth quarter, the Cardinal evened a 14-point deficit coming out of halftime, 21-21, with a pair of 40+ yard passing touchdowns by quarterback Tanner McKee. The first was a 56-yard heave to wide receiver Elijah Higgins at the 5:30 mark in the third quarter, and the second a 46-yard reception by Bryce Farrell in Stanford's opening drive in the fourth quarter.

On the Bruins' next play from scrimmage, Kyle Phillips split two defenders across the middle and connected with Thompson-Robinson for his second 75-yard touchdown reception of the season. The last came in the Bruins' 38-27 win over LSU on Sept. 4. Phillips finished the game with 111 yards on five receptions for the first back-to-back 100-yard receiving showings of his career.Redshirt senior defensive lineman Datona Jackson sacked McKee for a loss of eight yards on Stanford's first play in its next possession to put to rest any possibility of a Cardinal comeback.

UCLA's defense opened the game preventing Stanford from gaining a first down and crossing midfield until its sixth drive of the game coming at the 7:30 mark in the second quarter. On the Bruins' first punt return of the game, Phillips weaved past defenders for a 58-yard return before being downed at the Stanford 13.

Junior running back Zach Charbonnet rushed four times for 12 yards to inch UCLA to the goal line, and on the next play, Thompson-Robinson pulled the ball on a read option to waltz untouched into the endzone for the Bruins' first score of the game and his first rushing touchdown of the season.

The Bruins' second score in the first quarter came on an 18-play, eight-minute drive that featured 15 running plays beginning on the UCLA 12. Charbonnet was responsible for nine of those carries for 49 yards, two of which came on fourth and third down conversions to keep the drive alive. With a push from four of his offensive linemen, Charbonnet found paydirt for the seventh time this season.

Charbonnet finished the game with 129 yards for his third 100-yard rushing game of the season.

Stanford scored in the final five minutes of the second quarter when McKee hit Brycen Tremayne on a corner route to the pylon.

A UCLA sack on Stanford's next possession pushed the Cardinal to 3rd and 14 with their backs nearing their own endzone to give the Bruins a chance to score once more before the end of the half.

On UCLA's next possession, Thompson-Robinson check downed to Charbonnet out of the backfield for two first down gains. Charbonnet rushed on a draw for 16 yards on the next play to put the Bruins in the redzone. Another zone read by Thompson-Robinson capped the drive as he glided in for his second rushing touchdown of the game.

The Bruins return to the Rose Bowl on Oct. 2 when they host Arizona State (2-1) at 7:30 p.m. The contest will be televised on FS1.

GAME 5: Arizona State 42, UCLA 23

Oct. 2 - Rose Bowl

LOS ANGELES – Redshirt senior quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson threw for 235 yards in the air and rushed for 93 yards on the ground in No. 20 UCLA's 42-23 loss to Arizona State at the Rose Bowl on Saturday night.

After the Bruins (3-2, 1-1 Pac-12) trimmed the Sun Devils' (4-1, 2-0 Pac-12) lead to just a point, 24-23, as time in the first half expired, Arizona State outscored UCLA 18-0 in the second half. The Bruins ran 83 plays compared to the Sun Devils' 51, but Arizona State scored in flashes with three touchdown plays of 40-plus yards.

Redshirt junior Kyle Phillips was the beneficiary of Thompson-Robinson's touchdown throw, marking Phillips' fourth consecutive game finding paydirt. Redshirt junior tight end Greg Dulcich led the Bruins with nine catches for 136 yards, averaging 15.1 yards per catch. Junior running back Zach Charbonnet rushed for 89 yards on 21 carries.

The Sun Devils' first score of the second half came on a 49-yard touchdown rush by running back DeaMonte Trayanum. Their score in the fourth quarter was a one-yard rush by running back Rachad White to cap off Arizona State's longest drive of the game for 6:52.

The two teams traded field goals for their first points of the game. UCLA's three points came off the boot of redshirt sophomore kicker Nicholas Barr-Mira, who nailed a career-long 48-yard field goal on the first drive of the game.

An eight-yard scramble by Thompson-Robinson and a 21-yard carry by Charbonnet put the Bruins in the redzone for the first time of the night as time ran out in the first quarter. On the first play of the second period, Thompson-Robinson located his target junior wide receiver Kyle Phillips for a four-yard touchdown – Phillips' sixth of the year.

Thompson-Robinson and Phillips connected on the Bruin offense's next play from scrimmage with a 24-yard pass to open their next touchdown drive of the first half. Again, Thompson-Robinson made a play with his legs to put UCLA inside the Arizona State 20 following a 35-yard run up the middle. Redshirt senior running back Brittain Brown capped the drive by stretching his arms over the goal line. Brown finished the night with 33 yards on 11 carries.

Arizona State quarterback Jayden Daniels answered both UCLA scores with two 50-plus-yard plays to wide receiver Ricky Pearsall. The first, a 65-yard screen pass, and the second, a 54-yard heave to give the Sun Devils' the lead for the remainder of the game.

Arizona State returner D.J. Taylor muffed his reception of the Bruins' last punt before the end of the first half. Junior long snapper Jack Landherr IV promptly pancaked Taylor as redshirt sophomore linebacker Kain Medrano recovered, leading to another Barr-Mira field goal.

Barr-Mira nailed three of his four field goal attempts from 48, 21 and 26 yards.

GAME 6: UCLA 34, Arizona 16

Oct. 9 - Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. — Brittain Brown totaled a team-leading 146 rushing yards to propel the UCLA football team past Arizona, 34-16, in a Pac-12 contest at Arizona Stadium on Saturday evening.

Brown and Zach Charbonnet each topped the 100-yard rushing plateau. Brown averaged 12.2 yards per carry, netting 146 yards on 12 carries. Charbonnet had 117 rushing yards (on 21 carries) for the visiting Bruins (4-2, 2-1 Pac-12), logging his fourth game of the season with at least 100 yards on the ground.

Saturday's game marked UCLA's first contest since Oct. 25, 2014, in which two players tallied at least 100 rushing yards. In a 40-37 road win at Colorado in 2014, Paul Perkins rushed for 180 yards and quarterback Brett Hundley had 110 rushing yards.

UCLA finished with a season-best 329 rushing yards in the win against Arizona (0-5, 0-2 Pac-12), limiting the host Wildcats to just 122 rushing yards on 41 attempts.

Bruins' quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson had a pair of rushing touchdowns, finishing the Pac-12 contest with 82 passing yards and 28 rushing yards.

Brown's 48-yard touchdown carry midway through the fourth quarter helped UCLA separate from Arizona, taking a 31-16 lead. The Bruins later added a field goal, a 43-yard kick by Nicholas Barr-Mira with fewer than two minutes to play.

Neither team had led by more than 10 points through the game's first three quarters.

The Bruins pushed ahead, 24-16, on a four-yard touchdown carry from Thompson-Robinson with 4:06 remaining in the third quarter. UCLA totaled 75 yards on a nine-play drive, including a 22-yard pass from Thompson-Robinson to Greg Dulcich that gave the Bruins possession on the Arizona 28-yard line.

Dulcich finished the game with three receptions for 36 yards.

UCLA led Arizona at halftime, 14-13, after having secured a 14-6 advantage on a nine-play, 72-yard scoring drive with just over three minutes to play in the second quarter. Arizona scored a touchdown with 30 seconds to play before halftime, cutting UCLA's margin to 14-13.

After Arizona scored three points on a field goal midway through the opening quarter, UCLA took a 7-3 lead in the 3:48 mark in the first frame. Thompson-Robinson connected with Dulcich on a three-yard pass, capping a 13-play, 75-yard drive.

GAME 7: UCLA 24, Washington 17

Oct. 16 - Seattle, Wash.

SEATTLE -- Dorian Thompson-Robinson found the endzone three times, twice through the air and once on the ground, for 270 total scrimmage yards in UCLA's 24-17 road victory over Washington at Husky Stadium on Saturday night.

Thompson-Robinson saved his best drive for the fourth quarter, capping a 13-play, and five-minute, 47-second possession with a strike to tight end Greg Dulcich to give the Bruins (5-2, 3-1 Pac-12) the lead over the Huskies (2-4, 2-2 Pac-12). It was Thompson-Robinson's second passing touchdown of the game, and marked the seventh game of his career with at least two passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown. The redshirt senior quarterback did it at an efficient rate, too, completing 21 of his 26 passes for 183 yards and a 165.3 quarterback rating. Dulcich's score was set up by two 16-yard and 14-yard rushes by running back Zach Charbonnet. Charbonnet eclipsed 100 yards rushing for the fifth time this season, gaining a team-high 131 rushing yards tonight. A fourth-down conversion on a one-yard push by Thompson-Robinson and a shovel pass to Dulcich out of the backfield put the Bruins at the Washington 12.

The Huskies crossed midfield on their next possession and hurled a deep ball down field that freshman defensive back Devin Kirkwood bobbled and snatched away from the Washington receiver for the Bruins' second interception of the day and the first of his career.

A Thompson-Robinson zone read for eight yards converted a third down with two minutes remaining and sealed the Bruin victory.

Thompson-Robinson rushed for 87 total yards on 12 rushing attempts. UCLA dominated the fourth quarter with 118 total yards compared to Washington's 23.

Senior defensive back Quentin Lake picked off Washington quarterback Dylan Morris at the Husky 30-yard line in Washington's first possession of the game. The first score came in the first quarter from a field goal off the foot of Washington's Peyton Henry.

UCLA answered at the end of the quarter on a drive that started and ended with 17-plus-yard completions by Thompson-Robinson. Thompson-Robinson located senior wide receiver Chase Cota for 19 yards — their first of three connections for 60 yards in the half. Charbonnet toted the rock for three consecutive rushes, the last going for 23 yards. On the next play, Thompson-Robinson hit redshirt sophomore Kam Brown on a 17-yard screen pass for a touchdown to take the lead, 7-3.

Two big gains on the ground — a 22-yard rush by redshirt senior running back Brittain Brown and 13-yard rush by Charbonnet — pushed UCLA into scoring position on its next possession. Redshirt sophomore kicker Nicholas Barr-Mira drilled his ninth field goal of the season from 39 yards out to extend the Bruins' lead to a touchdown, 10-3, in the second quarter.

The Bruins' score went unanswered as the Huskies were forced to punt on a three-and-out. Thompson-Robinson picked up two big chunks of yards with a 22-yard scramble on the opening play of the drive followed by a 27-yard completion to Cota that would put UCLA at the Washington 10. On 4th and one at the goal line, Thompson-Robinson, with a push from Brown, squeezed through the Husky defensive line for paydirt, 17-3.

The Huskies evened the score, 17-17, with two touchdowns coming before the end of the first half and their first possession of the second half.

GAME 8: Oregon 34, UCLA 31

Oct. 23 - Rose Bowl

Pasadena, Calif. — The Bruins' late-game heroics fell short in their 34-31 loss to the No. 10 Ducks at the Rose Bowl on Saturday.

Two fourth-quarter touchdowns and interceptions put UCLA (5-3, 3-2 Pac-12) in position with three minutes left in the game to either even the score or take the lead on their final drive, but Oregon (6-1, 3-1 Pac-12) intercepted the ball with 48 seconds left to seal the game.

The Ducks were marching downfield into UCLA territory when senior defensive back Jay Shaw glided in front of an Oregon receiver to snag the Bruins' second interception of the fourth quarter. UCLA had its back against the walls twice in its final drive, but redshirt senior quarterback Dorian Thompson-Robinson converted on a 4th down and 7 with a 16-yard completion and, later in the drive, freshman quarterback Ethan Garbers moved the chains on a 4th and 8 strike to redshirt junior receiver Kyle Philips.

The Bruins scored their first points of the fourth quarter with a two-yard rush by Thompson-Robinson which was set up earlier in the drive by two conversions, both to redshirt junior tight end Greg Dulcich.

An interception by redshirt senior linebacker Jordan Genmark Heath and return for 20 yards set up UCLA's next touchdown. After a defensive holding penalty by the Ducks on 3rd and 6 on the Oregon six-yard line, redshirt senior running back Brittain Brown toted the ball for two carries, the last resulting in a touchdown.

Brown finished the game with 45 rushing yards on 13 carries for two touchdowns.

Thompson-Robinson threw for 99 yards of his total 220 passing yards in the fourth quarter.

The Ducks outscored the Bruins 27-3 in the second and third periods following a 14-0 cushion set by UCLA in the first quarter. Oregon running back Travis Dye rushed for four of the Ducks' five touchdowns on 14 carries for 35 yards. The other score came on a 43-yard TD rush by quarterback Anthony Brown.

Thompson-Robinson utilized his air and ground attack and the Bruin defense tallied a sack, three tackles for loss, a forced fumble and two pass break ups to give UCLA the early lead in the opening period.

Thompson-Robinson moved the ball with ease on the Bruins' first drive of the game with six first downs, completing all four of his passing attempts to four different receivers. On the Bruins' next two plays, Thompson-Robinson picked up two first downs on the ground with 10-and-11-yard rushes. A 13-yard carry touchdown by Brittain Brown – his fifth of the year – put the first points on the scoreboard, capping a 12-play, 75-yard possession.

Thompson-Robinson rushed for 35 yards on his 15 carries. Philips was the Bruins' leading receiver with 73 yards on eight receptions.

The Ducks threatened to answer the Bruins' score, attempting a fourth-down conversion at UCLA's 35 when redshirt senior linebacker Jordan Genmark Heath closed in to tackle Oregon running back Travis Dye for a turnover on downs.

A sack by redshirt junior linebacker Ale Kaho on the Ducks' next possession forced a punt on fourth and 20. Defensive back Martell Irby swarmed the Oregon punter for a block and fumble recovery, putting the ball in Thompson-Robinson's hands at the Oregon 30.

Thompson-Robinson promptly found redshirt sophomore running back Keegan Jones in stride down the sideline for a 19-yard reception. On the next play, Thompson-Robinson threw a quick strike to running back Kazmeir Allen for the touchdown.

UCLA's three points in the second quarter came off the boot of redshirt sophomore Nicholas Barr-Mira for a 37-yard field goal.

GAME 9: Utah 44, UCLA 24

Oct. 30 - Salt Lake City, Utah

SALT LAKE CITY - UCLA dropped its first road contest of the season, allowing a season-high 290 rushing yards and five rushing touchdowns in a 44-24 loss at Utah.

In his first collegiate start, Bruin redshirt freshman quarterback Ethan Garbers was 27-for-44 with 265 yards and threw for two touchdowns. He also rushed for 36 yards on 14 attempts and led UCLA to seven of nine fourth down conversions. Zach Charbonnet was UCLA's top runner with 65 yards rushing and one touchdown.

Utah running back Tavion Thomas rushed for four touchdowns and totaled 160 yards on 24 carries, while quarterback Cameron Rising was 17-for-29 with 179 yards passing and one touchdown.

Both teams scored on their first two drives, with Utah taking an early 7-0 lead after a 20-yard Thomas touchdown rush on the first drive. The Bruins responded with a 16-play drive that resulted in a 28-yard field goal by Nicholas Barr-Mira. Garbers helped keep the drive alive by scrambling six yards for a first down on 4th and 2 at the Utah 41.

Thomas scored again for the Utes in the second quarter, an eight-yard run that put Utah up 14-3, but UCLA came right back with a 12-play drive that saw the Bruins convert a pair of fourth downs. Garbers gained three yards on 4th and 2 on the Bruins' 45, and Charbonnet took it into the end zone on 4th and 1 from the Utah 30 to trim the Utes' lead to 14-10.

Utah (5-3, 4-1 in the Pac-12) took over from there, however, scoring on a four-yard touchdown pass from Rising to Dalton Kincaid and then nabbing an interception two plays later at the UCLA 30 on a tipped pass by Garbers. The Utes quickly scored on a 10-yard rush by Thomas to go up 28-10 with 4:27 to play in the half.

The Bruins (5-4, 3-3) began a comeback late in the third quarter, with Garbers executing a six-play touchdown drive that culminated in a six-yard touchdown pass to Michael Ezeike. The score was Garbers' first career touchdown, and it cut Utah's lead to 28-17 with under five minutes to play in the third. But Utah answered back with a 12-yard rushing touchdown by Rising at the start of the fourth quarter to bring the lead back to 18.

A nine-yard touchdown reception by Greg Dulcich with 11:04 to play brought UCLA within 11 once again, and the defense produced a third down stop, with the Utes falling one yard short at the UCLA 49. On 4th and 1, Rising punted 43 yards to the UCLA six, and on the first play of the drive, Hauati Pututau sacked Garbers in the end zone for a safety. The Utes scored again on Thomas' fourth touchdown of the night, a 24-yard run with 4:40 to play.

The Bruins will have a bye next week before hosting Colorado at the Rose Bowl on Nov. 13.
