MJ Milestone: 863rd CU Game

With his play-by-play call of the CU vs. Oregon State game, Voice of the Buffs Mark Johnson will take the all-time lead for most games broadcast as the play-by-play announcer for the Colorado Buffaloes, surpassing the legendary Larry Zimmer. This will be Mark's 238th football game to go along with 617 men's basketball games and eight women's basketball games, giving him 863 games. Zimmer was the play-by-play announcer for 862 games, including 337 football and 525 men's basketball.

Shedeur Sanders Clutch

Shedeur Sanders is putting together one of the more clutch seasons in CU history, if not college football history. He has three fourth quarter comebacks and he leads the nation in third-and-long passing and fourth quarter passing. With eight TDs and no interceptions in the fourth quarter, he's the only player in the nation with more than five touchdowns with no interceptions. A brief look (more on pages 14-15).

Deion "Coach Prime" Sanders

Known as "Prime Time" during his Hall of Fame playing career, Deion Sanders and has since transitioned into "Coach Prime," and was named the 28th full-time head football coach at the University of Colorado, athletic director Rick George announced Saturday, Dec. 3.

Sanders joins the CU program from Jackson State University, where in three seasons the Tigers compiled a 27-6 record and won back-to-back Southwestern Athletic Conference championships and Celebration Bowl appearances competing on the FCS level; that mark included a 12-1 record this season. This year, Jackson State defeated Southern, 43-24, in the SWAC title game but fell in overtime to N.C. Central, 41-34, in the Celebration Bowl.

At Jackson State, Sanders achieved tremendous success on and off the field as a fierce advocate for additional exposure and a level playing field for all Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Sanders brought national attention to HBCUs, pushing for opportunities to highlight its talent and the culture. In March 2022, Sanders held a Pro Day featuring athletes from four other schools in the state of Mississippi to provide a platform in front of 22 NFL teams and the Canadian Football League. In April 2022, Jackson State became the first HBCU to have its spring football game televised live nationally on ESPNU.

Sanders was named the 21st head coach in Jackson State history on Sept. 21, 2020, but had to wait to coach his first game until COVID-19 restrictions were lifted and several FCS schools opted to play a delayed schedule in the spring. Exactly six months to the day later (Feb. 21, 2021), he led the Tigers to a 53-0 win over Edward Waters (Fla.) to begin the "Coach Prime Era." It was considered the touch point of the elevation of JSU football and the University into becoming one of the most impactful and recognizable brands nationwide.

JSU was 4-3 in the pandemic-delayed 2020 season before rolling to an 11-2 record in 2021, winning the SWAC title with a 27-10 win over Prairie View A&M in the title game. The Tigers lost to South Carolina State in the Celebration Bowl; otherwise their only other losses over his last 26 games was a 12-7 setback at FBS Louisiana-Monroe in Sept. '21 and this year's bowl.

Seven of his players on the 2021 JSU roster earned a professional opportunity in the NFL, CFL or USFL, including James Houston IV, who was drafted in the sixth round by the Detroit Lions. He also signed cornerback Travis Hunter, considered the top high school prospect in the nation, to an NLI in December 2021, the highest ranked prospect to ever sign with an HBCU or an FCS program.

Sanders was voted the SWAC's Coach of the Year for a second straight season; 12 of his players earned some level of All-SWAC honors. For the 2021 campaign, he also garnered honors for the FCS Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year, BOXTOTOW National Coach of the Year and Black College Hall of Fame Coach of the Year.

Prior to joining the collegiate coaching ranks at Jackson State, Sanders had been involved in coaching for over a decade. He was the offensive coordinator at Trinity Christian School (Cedar Hill, Texas), leading the Tigers to three straight Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS) titles and a 42-3 record.

A two-time unanimous first-team All-American at Florida State, he won the third annual Jim Thorpe Award in 1988, presented to the nation's top defensive back. That same year, he finished eighth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his Seminole football career with 14 interceptions, three returned for touchdowns; those are still tied for third in the FSU record book. He owns the longest interception return in school history when he raced 100 yards for a TD against Tulsa as a freshman. Sanders also racked up a still-school record 1,429 punt return yards with three more scores. Playing for the late Hall of Fame coach Bobby Bowden, FSU was 36-9-1 in his four seasons as a Seminole, finishing as the nation's No. 2 team as a junior in 1987 and No. 3 his senior season in 1988.

He also played one season of baseball for FSU (as a sophomore in 1987, batting .267 with three home runs, 21 runs batted in and 27 stolen bases) and ran sprints and relays in track (he was the 1988 Metro Conference outdoor champion in the 100- and 200-meter dashes). He was inducted into Florida State's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994 and into the College Football Hall of Fame in its 2011 class.

Sanders is the only athlete ever to play in both a Super Bowl (twice) and the World Series.

He appeared in 188 regular season games (157 starts) in the National Football League with five teams: Atlanta (1989-93; the Falcons selected him as the fifth overall pick in the first round in the '89 Draft), San Francisco (1994), Dallas (1995-99), Washington (2000) and Baltimore (2004-05). He was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year for 1994, was named to its 1990s All-Decade Team and to the NFL's All-Time Team in 2020, the latter as part of the league's 100th season celebration.

"Prime Time" made 53 interceptions over the course of his career, with 512 tackles, 19 forced fumbles and 13 recoveries. He amassed 7,838 all-purpose yards, primarily through returns (2,199 punt, 3,523 kickoff). He also caught 60 passes for 784 yards and three touchdowns as in 1996, he became just one of two, two-way starters in the NFL since the platoon days of the 1950s. He set an NFL record with 19 career touchdowns on returns, nine coming via interception returns with six on punts, three on kickoffs and one fumble run back.

In Major League Baseball, he was drafted out of high school in the sixth round of the 1985 draft by the Kansas City Royals and then selected in the '88 draft by the New York Yankees.

Sanders played a total of 11 seasons in professional baseball, nine in the major leagues with the New York Yankees (1989-90), Atlanta (1991-94), Cincinnati (1994-95, 1997, 2001) and San Francisco (1995). In 641 major league games, he owned a career batting average of .263 with 39 home runs, 168 runs batted in and 186 stolen bases.

BY THE NUMBERS

- 1 The number of CU points scored by PAT kick in the '88 game (one made, one snapped over holder's head, one pass failed, one no attempt).
- 5:32 (a.m.) The time the Buffs arrived back in Boulder after the 2015 Oregon State game, which kicked off at 8:37 p.m. MDT.
- 6 The number of touchdown passes thrown by Oregon State in the '13 game, topping the 5 it had in '63; in-between, OSU had five total;
- 10 The number of games between CU and OSU, tied for the second fewest among all Pac-12 rivalries, trailing Stanford-Utah (9);
- 11 The number of tackles for loss by Colorado in the 1983 game (for 55 yards, including five quarterback sacks);
- 13.9 The average per play by HB Bill Harris in the 1963 game (4-71 rushing; 3-26, 1 TD receiving);
- 21 The passing yards (on 2-of-4) by QB/DB Hale Irwin in the '64 game; his first swings as a CU golfer came the next semester;
- 25 The number of years the schools went without meeting on the football field (1988, 2013);
- 41 The margin of victory for CU over Oregon State (47-6) in 2016, CU's largest in a conference game since 1992 (a 54-7 win over Kansas State);
- 59.8 The average for five punts by the late Keith English in the '88 game, setting a CU record for the highest average with a minimum five punts;
- 99 The number of plays Oregon State ran in the 2018 in its comeback win from being down 31-3 (60 in the second half);
- 5,110 The difference, in feet, between the elevation of Folsom Field (5,345 feet) and the city of Corvallis (235 feet).

Colorado had won three straight in the series to knot it at five games apiece, but Oregon State rallied from 28 points down (31-3) to ruin homecoming and win in overtime in Boulder (41-34) to knot the series at 5-5. CU won the last matchup in Boulder in 20T, but lost in Corvallis in the 2022 season, OSU now leads 7-6 in the series.

- The series had been dormant for 25 years until the Buffs joined the Pac-12 in 2011. The first two games were in Portland, followed by three in Boulder (1964, 1983, 1988); the first-ever in Corvallis was in 2013. In that one, the Beavers used a late first half score and three quick ones in the third quarter to break open a 10-3 game en route to a 44-17 win in the rain.
- In 2014 in Boulder, the Beavers held off a CU rally for a 36-31 win, but the Buffs avenged that loss with a 17-13 verdict the next year in Corvallis. The Buffs then won big in Boulder, 47-6, in CU's 2016 Family Weekend game; it was the largest margin of victory in a conference game by CU since 1992 (a 54-7 romp over Kansas State).
- The 2017 game was a see-saw affair, as QB Steven Montez' 13-yard TD pass to WR Bryce Bobo with 1:34 remaining led CU to a 36-33 win in Corvallis.
- OSU has won its six games by a 234-104 margin, CU its six by a combined 203-121 score.

SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME

90th: On Sept. 26, 1931, Colorado, then referred to mainly as the Silver & Gold (three years away from adopting Buffaloes as the official nickname and mascot), traveled to Portland for the first game ever between the two schools. About 23,000 were in attendance for Oregon State's 16-0 win, which was also the first-ever night game in CU football history. It was CU's second west coast trip at the time to a current Pac-12 school, having previously played at Washington in 1915 (of course, CU and Utah were members of the same conference and had been playing since 1903). Oregon State scored first with a safety and led 9-0 at halftime, and scored a third quarter touchdown for the final points.

SERIES: DID YOU KNOW?

Colorado's has had just four of its 28 head coaches who have owned west coast collegiate roots; Dal Ward was the first, and he was an Oregon State graduate (1927). Ward, for which one of CU's athletic buildings is named, coached at CU from 1948-58, compiling a 63-41-6 record; his 110 games coached trail only Bill McCartney (153) and Eddie Crowder (118). The other three Buff pilots with west coast college degrees were Rick Neuheisel (UCLA '84), Dan Hawkins (UC-Davis '84) and Dorrell (UCLA '86).

COLORADO BUFFALOES: ON THIS DAY

Colorado is 10-6 all-time on November 4, which includes an 8-5 record at home and significant games in program history occurring in 1961 and 1989. Some highlighted games on the date: 1912-- The yearbook account of CU's 8-2 win over Colorado College: "While the spellbound army of watchers followed every move with tense breath and keen eyes, twenty-two sons of the Centennial State battled below in the lists for the glory of their future alma mater, forgetting personal desire for fame, and struggling with but one idea before them—victory." Come again? 1922—Art Quinlan and Riley Hopper combine to return the opening kickoff for a touchdown, the only points of the game in a 7-0 win over then-Colorado A&M. 1944—CU defeats New Mexico, 39-0, in the only game in program history played in Pueblo; the two meet about halfway apart as World War II have schools playing wartime schedules. 1961—Colorado and Missouri entered their annual contest with high stakes, as the winner would have the inside track to the Big Eight title and the Orange Bowl berth; the Buffaloes entered with a 5-0 record and ranked No. 8, the Tigers at 5-0-1 and No. 10. CU took a 7-0 lead with just 32 seconds left in the first half, as Gale Weidner hooked up with Bill Harris on a 21-yard touchdown pass. Those points held up, but not without some nervous moments for the CU faithful. Mizzou pulled to within 7-6 when halfback Mike Hunter took a pitch from quarterback Ron Taylor and found Don Wainwright on a 10-yard scoring toss with 6:14 left in the game. Instead of going for the tie, MU tried the exact same play to the other side without success. After forcing CU to punt, the Tigers drove from their 25 to the CU 27, where Bill Tobin's 44-yard field goal was both a bit short and a bit wide. 1978—Billy Sims' 59-yard touchdown run snaps a 7-7 halftime tie to lead No. 1 Oklahoma to a 28-7 win in Boulder, as the eventual Heisman winner ran for 221 yards. 1989—J.J. Flannigan rushed for 96 yards and two touchdowns with Darian Hagan adding 86 and a score as No. 2 Colorado defeated No. 3 Nebraska, 27-21, in a battle between 8-0 teams. The win gave CU sole possession of the Big Eight lead in November for the first time since 1961. After Nebraska took a 7-0 lead on the first play of the game, CU evened the game on a 70-yard run by Flannigan, as he took a pitch from Hagan some 40 yards downfield and raced into the end zone. Hagan added a 1-yard run the next time CU had the ball, and the Buffs would not trail the rest of the game. Ken Culbertson's 49-yard field goal prior to halftime gave CU the lead for good at 17-14, and Flannigan's second score made it 24-14 in the third. CU withstood a pair of Nebraska fourth quarter threats as the win propelled CU to an 11-0 regular season mark and No. 1 ranking. 1995—For the second time in the state of Oklahoma in just over a month, John Hessler threw five touchdown passes in a game to lead the Buffs to a 45-32 win over Oklahoma State. The game was tied with eight minutes left in the third quarter, but after CU took a 31-24 lead on a Hessler 5-yard TD pass to Phil Savoy, the defense held to set up the game breaking play: a 77-yard touchdown pass from Hessler to Rae Carruth broke the game open. 2000—Colorado records a school and conference record 14 quarterback sacks in a 28-18 win at Missouri; 10 different Buffs got to the Tiger quarterbacks. 2006—Bernard Jackson had one of his best days as CU's quarterback, rushing for 105 yards and two touchdowns while throwing for 145 and another, but the Buffs couldn't overcome Kansas State and its rapidly improving quarterback, Josh Freeman. KSU jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead, which CU cut to 20-14 early in the fourth quarter, but Freeman completed 22 of 26 passes for 251 yards and a score in leading the Wildcats to a 34-21 win in Boulder. 2011—In a rare Friday night game in Boulder, the Buffaloes fell to USC, 42-17. Matt Barkley threw six touchdown passes for the Trojans, three in the second quarter that broke open a 7-7 game.

NOVEMBER 4 COLORADO MVP: QB John Hessler. In the '95 win over Oklahoma State, he completed 22-of-31 passes for 301 yards and the five touchdowns (with no interceptions).

Shedeur Sanders

Shedeur Sanders Clutch Stats Top The Nation

Shedeur Sanders is quickly putting together one of the best seasons in CU history, and when you look at clutch situations, his numbers are even better. Even after a sub-par performance at Oregon, he is still second in the nation in passing with 336.7 yards per game, completing 72.7 percent of his passes with 2,020 yards, 16 touchdowns and two interceptions.

He is one of the best in the nation in clutch situations. On third down, he is 38-of-58 for 445 yards with three touchdowns, two interceptions and 24 first downs, tied for third most in the nation. On third-and-long (10-plus) he leads the nation in passing, completing 16-of-20 (80.0) passes for 235 yards and has 10 first downs in those situations, most nationally. He is also 5-of-5 passing on fourth down with five first downs and two touchdowns.

In the fourth quarter, he is 44-of-58 (75.9) for 669 yards with seven touchdowns and no interceptions. His fourth quarter yardage leads the nation and his QB rating of 212.6 in the fourth quarter is the best nationally for quarterbacks with 30-plus attempts in the quarter.

He is also great when the Buffs are trailing by one score, hitting on 59-of-77 (.766) passes for 544 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions and a QB rating of 153.1. His completion percentage in those situations is second nationally and best for quarterbacks with more than 20 pass attempts in that situation.

Production Gained

Looking at the 2022 production for the Buffaloes, especially when looking at impact plays both on offense and defense, and it's clear the roster has been upgraded.

PASSING & RECEIVING

Last season, the Buffaloes completed 179 passes for 2,075 yards and 10 touchdowns. The receivers and running backs the Buffs brought in accounted for 210 receptions for 2,845 yards and 26 touchdowns last season, the most significant of those numbers the jump in touchdowns from 10 to 26.

Shedeur Sanders completed 344-of-488 passes for 3,752 yards and 40 touchdowns to just six interceptions. Compared to the Buffs 2022 numbers, that's almost doubling the number of completions for 1,673 more yards and 30 more touchdown passes with four fewer interceptions.

RUSHING

If you count Alton McCaskill's 2021 numbers since he didn't play in 2022, the rushing numbers the Buffs got out of the portal accounted for 242 more rushing yards on 42 fewer attempts and more than doubled the touchdown output with 24 compared to the 11 rushing touchdowns CU had as a team in 2022.

TOUCHDOWNS

Taking those numbers, CU accounted for 50 touchdowns rushing and receiving (not to mention Sanders' 40 passing touchdowns) compared to the 21 touchdowns the Buffs offense produced in 2022.

DEFENSE

Looking at impact plays on defense, the Buffs certainly upgraded on that side of the ball, as well. Last season, CU accounted for 49 tackles for loss where the new players coming in accounted for 72.5 tackles for loss, an increase of 23.5. Sacks dramatically increased from nine CU had as a team to 39 among the new players. Interceptions more than doubled from six to 13 and pass breakups was relatively even but still increases from 32 to 35.

2023 Colorado Football Anniversaries

- 1898 Now in its ninth year of intercollegiate football, Colorado plays its first opponent from outside the state boundaries, as Nebraska visited Boulder on Nov. 17; the then Bugeaters left town with a 23-10 win over the Silver & Gold.
- 1908 Fred Folsom returns for his third of four stints as head coach, and leads CU to the Colorado Football Association title and a 5-2 record.
- 1923 Colorado completes the season with a 9-0-0 record, its best in 34 years of football, as CU outscores its opponents by 280-27 (no team scored more than seven). The popularity of the team is at an all-time high, and thus the school begins work on a new stadium on the northeast side of campus.
- 1928 (Oct. 13) Bill Smith records the first known 100-yard rushing game ever by a CU player, running for 132 yards and a TD in a 21-7 win at UNC.
- 1933 Sophomore William "Kayo" Lam bursts on the scene and leads CU to a 7-2 record. It's the last year the school is known as the Silver & Gold, as "Buffaloes" wins a contest the following year and the teams have been named such ever since.
- 1943 The full effect of World War II hits college football, CU being no exception. The Buffs played a limited conference schedule (two games), sweeping Utah home and away, lost twice to No. 18 Colorado College and defeated three military teams in going 5-2.
- 1958 Howard Cook ties Byron White's record by scoring 25 points against Arizona in Tucson, as he scored four touchdowns and kicked an extra point in CU's 65-12 rout of the Wildcats; the record would stand for 43 years. Cook also became the first Buff to lead the nation in punt returns.
- 1963 The season finale against Air Force on Nov. 23, is postponed for two weeks as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy.
- 1988 (Oct. 22) Oklahoma edges CU, 17-14, in the first night game ever at Folsom. A 7-2 start paves the way for the Buffs to crack the Top 20, as at No. 19 the Buffs are ranked for the first time since 1978; an 8-4 final record is the school's best since a similar mark in 1976.
- 1993 (Oct. 16) Colorado wins 27-10 at Oklahoma, the 78th victory by head coach Bill McCartney, as he becomes the all-time winningest coach in school history, passing Fred Folsom. In that game, Lamont Warren throws a 34-yard touchdown pass to Charles Johnson; Warren slipped on the slick Astroturf and Johnson was interfered with but still caught the ball while lying on the ground in a play that was selected as the national play of the year (the first of two in a row for CU). Johnson went on to be named the offensive player of the year in the Big 8, the first wide receiver to ever receive the award.
- 1998 Two milestones this season: CU's 37-8 win over Iowa State is the school's 600th all-time, and the 51-43 win over Oregon in the Aloha Bowl is the 1,000th game in school history.

Notes

Coach Prime Era Begins With 100th Season At Folsom Field

The 2023 season is the first under Deion "Coach Prime" Sanders and the 100th at CU's Folsom Field. CU was the first team in the nation to sell out of season tickets in April and is now completely sold out for the entire season, the first time in CU history the Buffs have sold out of all home games. CU has now played in front of a sellout crowd in each of its eight games this season, setting a new CU record for most games in a season and consecutive games playing in front of a sellout crowd.

CU Football Historical Snapshot

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes continue their 134th season of intercollegiate football in 2023. Through Week 7, CU has played in 1,299 games with an all-time record of 723-540-36.

In FBS, only 23 programs began earlier than the Buffs did in 1890 and only three schools west of Colorado are in that 23, all Pac-12 programs in California (1886), USC (1888) and Washington (1889). Only 13 programs have played more seasons than the Buffs with 133 entering 2023, no Pac-12 programs as CU and Washington are the only two programs in the west that will play in their respective 134th season of intercollegiate football.

Sellout Streak Extends To 10 Straight

Colorado has played in front of a sellout crowd for each of its first eight games and after UCLA announced a sellout in week eight, that means the Buffs will get to at least week 10 with consecutive sellouts. The longest previous streak of playing in front of a sold out crowd was five games to open the 1996 season. CU is one of just five teams nationally to play in front of a sellout every game this season, joining Georgia, Iowa, Notre Dame and Tennessee.

National Player of the Week Honors

Colorado's trio of Dylan Edwards, Shedeur Sanders and Travis Hunter each earned some type of national player of the week honors for the season opening performance at TCU, and Xavier Weaver added to it after the second week. Sanders was named the Walter Camp National Player of the Week, the Davey O'Brien National QB of the Week, and the CFP National Performer of the Week. Edwards was named the Doak Walker National RB of the week and the Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Week. Hunter was named the Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week and the Paul Hornung National Player of the Week.

Prior to the week, CU had a collective 29 national players of the week dating back 53 years to 1970. The 13 awards from those three players surpasses the most award from a single season in CU history.

Michael Harrison Among Most Productive Tight Ends

Michael Harrison is among the most productive tight ends in recent memory for the Buffs. With 26 receptions for 215 yards and four touchdowns, he is tied for fourth among tight ends nationally in receptions and receiving touchdowns. Two tight ends have five touchdown receptions and he's tied with three other players with four. His 26 receptions are already the most by a tight end at Colorado in 14 seasons, since Riar Geer had 36 receptions for 402 yards and 4 touchdowns in 2009. His four touchdowns are also tied for the most by a walk-on in a season in CU history alongside Scotty McKnight, who was considered a walk-on in his freshman season 2007 when he had 43 receptions for 488 yards and four touchdowns. He is already also nearing the top 20 for tight ends in a CU career for receptions, needing two more to move into 19th place.

Roster Turnover Numbers

Much has been document and opinionated about the roster turnover Coach Prime and staff undertook from last year's 1-11 team that was outscored by an average of 45-15. As defensive coordinator Charles Kelly said at Pac-12 media day, "We've taken criticism, and that's fine, but we've done within what the rules allow for us to create the best possible roster for the University of Colorado and we don't apologize for that." As it can be assumed, the Buffs lead the nation in most things related to roster turnover. A look:

Travis Hunter

Travis Hunter is revolutionizing the way college football is played, starting both ways each of the first three games at both cornerback and wide receiver and recording the top two scrimmage snap games in CU history in the first two before leaving the CSU game at halftime with an injury after a late hit. He missed three-and-a-half games and returned for the Stanford game, where he set a new high with 160 total snaps (168 counting penalty plays) and 149 snaps from scrimmage.

FOX Sports put together a list of the Top 10 two-way performers in the last 30 seasons.

In chronological order, they are Champ Bailey, Georgia, Charles Woodson, Michigan, Chris Gable, Ohio State, Owen Marecic, Stanford, Shaq Thompson, Washington, Nick Vigil, Utah State, Myles Jacks, UCLA, Jabrill Peppers, Michigan and Adoree' Jackson, USC.

Among those players, only Champ Bailey had more receptions in a season than Hunter with 47 for 744 yards and 5 TDs in 1998 through week eight.

Comebacks, Rivals & Turnarounds

Bufs One Of Four To Go 3-0 After 11 Losses

The 2023 Buffaloes are just the fourth team in FBS history to start a season 3-0 after losing 11 games the previous season, and the first team since Minnesota accomplished the feat in 2008 in the second season under coach Tim Brewster, who is currently the Buffs tight ends coach. The other two teams to accomplish the feat were the 1985 Indiana Hoosiers, led by Bill Mallory, who led the Buffaloes through a successful era in the 1970s, and the 2000 South Carolina Gamecocks, led by Lou Holtz. Each of those teams were in the second year of their respective tenures and those schools.

Beating CSU, Nebraska In Folsom A Rarity

With its thrilling 43-35 win over Colorado State a week after toppling Nebraska 36-14, the 2023 version of the Colorado Buffaloes became just the fourth team to beat the Huskers and Rams at Folsom Field, and first since 1989. The Buffs and Rams played at Invesco Field at Mile High for most of this century, and prior to that didn't play regularly every season. The 1952 Buffs tied Nebraska and beat Colorado State, as well.

CSU 98-Yard Drive One Of Best Game Winning/Tying In CU History

Shedeur Sanders orchestrated a game-tying 98-yard drive in the final 2:06 of the Colorado State game, one of the best game-tying or winning drives in CU history. On that final drive, he was 5-of-6 passing for 106 yards, hitting Jimmy Horn on a 45-yard strike with just 36 seconds left and then connecting with Michael Harrison on the two-point conversion to tie the game. Two other game-winning drives come to mind as some of the best in school history.

Fourth Quarter Comebacks

CU has orchestrated three fourth-quarter comebacks in the first six games of the season, first two separate four-point deficits at TCU to open the season followed by an 11-point deficit against Colorado State in Week 3 and a field goal deficit to start the fourth quarter at Arizona State. The first two are two of 14 fourth-quarter comebacks in the past 30 seasons of four or more points (needing more than a FG to tie/win). Of the below, the Colorado State comeback this season was just the third where the Buffs were down 10-plus points with under 10 minutes remaining, joining Washington State 2012 and Michigan 1994. Colorado also nearly pulled off the biggest comeback in its history against USC, down 34-7 (-27) before pulling within one score in the fourth quarter.

Bufs In The NFL

NFL Bufs

In 2023, the Bufs have 15 players in the NFL, on an active or practice squad roster at some point during the regular or postseason so far. Daniel Arias, Mekhi Blackmon, Christin Gonzalez and Brady Russell bring the total to 282 players that have made an NFL roster in CU history and those players have played a combined 1,358 seasons. CU has had 278 players drafted, including 25 in the first round, and 33 players in the first 32 picks (what today would be the first round). The Bufs had the most players in the NFL for the 1999 season with 39 and have twice had runs of 30-plus players in the league, first from 1977-81 and again from 1995-99, and have two other seasons in 2002 and '05 with 30-plus players on NFL rosters.

Super Bowl Bufs

A total of 66 former CU players have accumulated 96 Super Bowl appearances and 37 former players have a combined 55 Super Bowl rings. A total of 37 of the 57 Super Bowl games have featured at least one former Buff and the most Bufs in a single Super Bowl came in Super Bowl XXX when six Bufs played for the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2020, 247Sports put together a list of the 54 Super Bowls to date and compiled a list of the all-time college leaders. At that time, CU ranked tied for 10th with 93 players and tied for 21st in Super Bowl scoring among college teams with 37 points. Cliff Branch (18), Mason Crosby (7), Cullen Bryant (6), Boyd Dowler (6) have scored in Super Bowl games.

NFL Stadiums

CU has played 42 games in 14 different NFL stadiums, and 25 games in six current NFL venues. 1994 Bufs/1995 NFL Draft

All 11 offensive starters from the 1994 CU team played in the NFL, with 10 being drafted, and another six from defense played in the NFL, making 17 of the 22 starters from that team playing in the NFL. The 1995 NFL Draft was a special one for CU, when 10 Bufs were drafted. CU is one of just 14 schools who have had 10 players drafted in a single draft in the seven-round era (1994-present).

CFL, USFL & XFL Bufs

Three current Bufs played in the CFL in 2022, Tony Brown, Mustafa Johnson and Chris Mulumba. The resurrected USFL began play again in 2022 and four Bufs played in that first season, Delrick Abrams, Drew Lewis, Devin Ross and Evan Worthington. The XFL also made a comeback in 2023 playing from February into May. Also playing in the XFL was Lewis (Houston), and he was joined by Javier Edwards (San Antonio), Steven Montez (Seattle), Carson Wells (St. Louis).

Least, But Most Experienced

The transfer portal has brought CU both the least experienced team in terms of returning games played and started at CU in its history and at the same time the most experienced team when factoring in what all the transfers have done previously in their careers.

The Buffs had a combined 36 starts and 195 games played at Colorado on the roster entering the 2022 season, easily the lowest number both in CU history and in the nation for 2023. But when you factor in games played and started at other four-year institutions, the Buffs numbers of 1,245 games played and 461 games started gives the Buffs the most experienced roster in its history.

The highest number of games played on a roster at the beginning of the season was 1,080 in 2005, 165 fewer than the 2023 total. And CU's 461 games started would surpass the 2016 total of 413, the only time CU has been over the 400 games played mark.

The fewest games played entering a season at Colorado was 674 in 2012, 479 more than the 2022 number of 195, and the previous low for starts returning was 179, or 146 more than this season's total of 36.
