All-Time Letterwinners

Throughout the years, various standards have been used to determine who has been awarded letters at CU (as well as at every school in the nation, as all set their own criteria). From the 1930s until the late 1970s, letters were awarded based on a player seeing action in at least half of the quarters played by CU in a particular season. In recent times, criteria have ranged from a minimum of 100 plays in a season or possessing a special skill (the Bill McCartney Era) to playing at least one snap in at least one game (Rick Neuheisel Era). Under Gary Barnett, and the head coaches since, the Buffs returned to the criteria that McCartney first instituted. In addition, it has been a standing policy since 1982 to award letters to all seniors in the program, regardless of playing time.

Jersey numbers, heights and weights are generally those listed in CU publications (or other sources) in the player's final letter-winning year. Positions are listed in the terminology of the era in which the letterman played; if more than one position is listed, then that player saw substantial game time at those positions. Hometowns are usually the place from which the player came to CU, followed by the high school and any previous institution, be it a junior or senior college.

There are 2,221 known football lettermen at the University of Colorado through 2019, but information prior to 1940 is limited at best and thus some holes do exist. The list below was researched and expanded with the help of the late CU athletic historian Fred Casotti in 1999; if you have additional information on yourself or someone on this list, please call the Sports Information Office at 303/492-5626.

Past Buffalo Greats

BOBBY ANDERSON

#11

QB/RB, 6-0, 208, 3L, Boulder, Colo. (Boulder)

A consensus first-team All-American at tailback as a senior in 1969 (Associated Press, United Press International, NEA, Sporting News)... AP named him an honorable mention All-American his sophomore year when he played quarterback... He earned first-team All-Big Eight honors at both positions (QB in 1968, TB in 1969)... He moved to tailback for the third game of his senior year (versus Indiana), rushed for 161 yards and three touchdowns and remained there the rest of the season... One of three CU players to have his jersey number retired (#11)... He became the fourth Buffalo to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame (in 2006), joining his older brother, Dick, as the two were the seventh set of brothers in the Hall... WR, 6-0, 210, 2L, Beloit, Wis. (Beloit/Trinidad JC)

The first African-American varsity football player at Colorado (and the first to letter), joining the Buffaloes in September 1954 after attending Trinidad (Colo.) Junior College for two years where he had a brilliant career (he had to sit out the '54 season after transferring)... He was joined by John Wooten the following year, and what the pair often had to endure outside of Boulder before the civil rights movement was deplorable, but they had the full support of the university... He was so popular on campus that he was elected "King" of the annual CU Days festival... Also was one of the first blacks to play in the old Big 7 Conference... An honorable mention All-Big 7 performer as a junior, when he was second in the league in receiving... Colorado ran the single-wing during his career, so passing downfield was rare, but he led the team both years in receiving and averaged 26.6 yards for 20 catches in his career, seven of which went for touchdowns... He had one 100-yard receiving game, and it was a beauty, as he caught two passes for exactly 100, both for touchdowns, against Utah as a junior... Ended his career fifth at the time in receiving yards at Colorado... He also blocked two kicks in his career, of which he also handled most of the kickoff chores... He had one catch for 18 yards in CU's win over Clemson in the '57 Orange Bowl, and he played in the Copper Bowl All-Star game following his senior year... He was selected by Cleveland in the fifth round of the '56 NFL Draft (61st pick overall, he was eligible due to his age), and joined the Browns after his senior year at CU; he played three seasons in Cleveland and then eight (1960-67) with the Dallas Cowboys. He caught 291 passes for 5,426 yards and 50 touchdowns in 140 NFL games... His final game was in the '67 NFL Championship game against Green Bay and former teammate Boyd Dowler in what is known as the "Ice Bowl," won by the Packers, 21-17... He was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008... He passed away at the age of 84 on July 25, 2018.

Earned honorable mention All-America honors as a sophomore in 1971 (second-team All-Big 8); he would earn first-team all-conference honors as a junior in '72 ... Had an outstanding debut year, starting with a 174-yard, two-touchdown effort in CU's 31-21 win at No. 9 LSU ... Two weeks later, in the Buffs' 20-14 win at No. 6 Ohio State, he rushed for 135 yards; he was named the Big 8's player of the week on both occasions ... His 1,386 yards in '71 were the most in a single season by a Colorado player at the time, and still stands fifth in school annals ... Still holds some 48 years later the school mark for the most single game rushing yards, when he carried 34 times for 342 yards and a touchdown in a 40-6 rout over Oklahoma State ... The long run of his career of 67 yards against the Cowboys put him over 1,000 yards for the season ... Finished his career as CU's all-time leading rusher with 2,960 yards, a number that still stands sixth today ... He was drafted in the second round (48th overall) by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1974 National Football League draft ... He played three seasons in the NFL with Cincinnati (1974-75) and Tampa Bay (1976), rushing for 482 yards (1 TD) with 22 receptions for 203 yards ... Nagging injuries ended his career prematurely ... As a senior in 2001, he earned first-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, ABC Sports Online, CNN-SI.com, NEA and The Sporting News (the Football News tabbed him an honorable mention selection)... He was also on the watch lists for both the Outland and Lombardi awards, but did not advance to semifinalist status, which was done only eight games into the season; that was a shame as two of his most dominant performances, against Nebraska and Texas, were nationally televised games after the awards were pared down... He was a unanimous first-team All-Big 12 selection and one of the reasons Colorado averaged over 200 yards both rushing and passing for the season for only the third time in school history... He led the Buffs in domination blocks with 112, and also topped the team in touchdown blocks (21), great pass protection plays (14) and downfield blocks (48), while allowing but one-half a quarterback sack and one pressure on passing calls... He was presented with the Derek Singleton Award by the coaches for spirit, dedication and enthusiasm... A two-time first-team All-Big 12 performer as a junior and senior, and won the John Mack Award, as selected by the coaches for being CU's most outstanding offensive player his junior year... #14

QB, 6-1, 210, 3L, Arvada, Colo. (Pomona)

CU's starting quarterback for his sophomore through senior seasons, he set 44 school records in his tenure, the second most records ever set by one student-athlete at the school in any sport (Byron White set 51 between 1934 and 1937)... He earned honorable mention all-Big 12 honors as a sophomore and senior... He had 34 career starts (19-15 record), the second most CU by a signal-caller; that led to him to take over almost every major career passing record at the school: yards (7,375), touchdowns (44), completion percentage (60.8), attempts (1,095), completions (666) and interceptions (33); the only ones to escape him were total offense (second with 7,255) and passer rating, where he finished seventh (124.6)... He also set a school record with nine career fourth quarter comebacks to win or tie games, and had a host of single-game and single-season records along with all his career marks.... He had 15 career 200-yard passing games, five of which exceeded 300 yards (not including bowls)... For his career, he had a 24-to-2 ratio of touchdowns to interceptions in the red zone, taking just one sack as well... Selected as Colorado's most valuable player in a vote by his teammates... He also finished as the Big 12 Conference's fifth all-time leading passer (the league includes bowl yards, thus he had 7,708). Selected as the newcomer of the year in the state for 2003 by the Colorado Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame... He was named the 2005-06 winner of CU's Male Career Athletic Achievement Award (for all sports)... Has gone on to a career in local and national sports broadcasting on television and radio, including ROOT Sports and most recently, FOX Sports.

MARK MARISCAL

P, 6-2, 200, 3L, Tallahassee, Fla. (Lincoln)

He was a consensus first-team All-America as a senior in 2002, earning honors from the Associated Press, AFCA, Walter Camp, and The Sporting News, and was the unanimous All-Big 12 punter... He enjoyed quite a senior year, leading the nation in punting for the regular season with a 48.2 gross average and was second after the bowls (47.4); his 43.0 net average was also second nationally... Those two figures paved the way for him to win the third annual Ray Guy Award, presented to the nation's top punter... Received the team's Bill McCartney Award for outstanding special teams play as a senior... He led the NCAA in punting for three months, since the second week of the season, and averaged over 50 yards per kick well into October... Of his 61 punts overall, 16 were inside-the-20 (nine inside-the-10), with a school record 29 for 50-plus yards (10 carried 60 or more yards)... He averaged 51.5 yards per punt on CU's side of the 50, and on kicks inside the Buff 25, he averaged a gaudy 52.6 yards per punt... He set CU records for career gross (46.8) and net (41.9) average, as his season average of 48.21 bested a 52-year old school record for a single year, as he edged out Zack Jordan's 48.16 back in 1950... He earned only honorable mention all-Big 12 honors as a junior, despite the fact that he led the conference with a 44.5 average... Undrafted by the NFL (kickers rarely are in the modern 7-round draft), he signed as a free agent with New Orleans.

He completed his Colorado career finishing first in receptions (215) and receiving touchdowns (22), while winding up third in all-time receiving yards (2,521; just 27 behind Michael Westbrook and 19 out of second). He had at least two receptions in his final 19 games, just three off the team record for that mark... The 22 TD passes he caught from Cody Hawkins was also a school record for the most for a quarterback-receiver duo... He is the first player to lead the team in receptions for four straight years, after being only the second to do it three consecutive seasons (joining Monte Huber, 1967-69)... He also finished 17th all-time in yards from scrimmage (2,525), tied for 13th in touchdowns (23), 21st in scoring (138 points) and 23rd in all-purpose yards (2,582)... OG, 6-8, 295, 5L, Littleton, Colo. (Columbine)

He set the school record for the most career games started with 47 (48 including the 2007 Independence Bowl), breaking the old marks of 45 overall (LB Jordon Dizon) and 44 by an offensive player (held by two players); he started the last 37 games of his career... He became just the ninth player out of almost 2,000 lettermen to earn five letters in a CU uniform, as he missed the last eight games of the 2008 season with a broken fibula, but still played in four contests and more than enough plays to letter; he was just the second to do so since 1908 (Bobby Purify was the other, 2000-04)... From his redshirt sophomore through his senior seasons, he played 2,548 snaps, all but two of the team's total... In 3,320 career plays, he allowed just five sacks, allowed only nine pressures and was called for 10 penalties, only four in his last three seasons... He battled through separations to both shoulders, along with other assorted maladies, to post the 13th 1,000-yard season in school history in 2004 as he finished the year as the conference's sixth-leading running back with 1,017 yards (43rd in the NCAA) in earning honorable mention All-Big 12 honors... He finally led the team in rushing (he entered his senior year tied for the second most career yards without doing so), and his 3,016 career total placed him third on CU's all-time list. He had 10 career 100-yard games, tying him for seventh most, and his 3,524 all-purpose yards were the fourth most ever at Colorado... With 508 receiving yards, he became the first player in school history to record 2,500 and 3,000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving, and was only the 11th to do the 3,000/500 double at a Big 12 school... All-time at Colorado, he tied for 30th in receptions (50), was 52nd in receiving yards (508) and tied for 26th in scoring (126 points) and 16th in rushing touchdowns (20)... He had five 100-yard games as a senior, including 189 in the opener against Colorado State; he had his career high of 191 against the Rams as a sophomore in 2001... Due to injuries, one of the few in school history to earn letters in five different seasons.

An Associated Press honorable mention All-American as a senior in 1986, when he was also a unanimous all-Big Eight performer... Colorado's all-time leading tackler with 493 total stops, including 245 solo stops... Second leading tackler in the conference behind Oklahoma's Brian Bosworth his senior season... One of his two career interceptions came late in CU's 20-10 upset of No. 3 Nebraska in '86, thwarting the last Cornhusker rally... Posted three straight 100-plus tackle seasons, the first player in CU history to do so... Had five games of 20 or more tackles, the most by any Buff in school history (his career high was 23 at Oklahoma State in 1984)... Overcame several injuries in his career, ranging from knee surgery as a sophomore (he received an extra year of eligibility as the injury was in the second game), a pinched nerve in his neck and stepping on a bottle that sprayed acid into an eye... Did not play professionally, and has been an executive with Clearchannel (KOA-Radio) in Denver for several years.

OG/LB, 5-10, 199, 3L, Lakewood, Colo. (Lakewood)

The first two-time, first-team All-America in CU history, a consensus selection both times, as he made nine teams as a junior in 1960 and 11 as a senior in '61 (just missing unanimous honors by one team—the Associated Press squad; it pegged him honorable mention)... He finished sixth overall in the 1961 Heisman Trophy voting, when he was the UPI Lineman-of-the-Year... He had no peer in his day as a linebacker, as he ranged far and fiercely from his middle position behind a four-man front, consistently in on most of the stops before tackles were recorded as a statistic. On offense, he developed into a an excellent straight-ahead and pulling blocker. Three-time All-Big Eight team member (1959-60-61), as was CU's team captain as a senior... One of three Buffs to have his jersey number retired (#67)... Owned a grade point average in excess of 3.9 at Colorado, and earned the prestigious Rhodes scholarship (he posted straight A's his last six semesters)... RASHAAN SALAAM

#19

RB, 6-1, 215, 3L, San Diego, Calif. (La Jolla Country Day)

He won the first Heisman Trophy in Colorado history, claiming the 60th annual award as a junior in 1994, easily winning by some 248 votes and 842 points... The fifth unanimous All-American in Colorado history that season, as he became just the fourth player in college football history at the time to rush for over 2,000 yards in a single season... In setting the single-season CU rushing mark with 2,055 yards, he did not play in five fourth quarters and on two other occasions, he played only briefly in the third quarter; over half of the yards (1,040) came against ranked opponents... Set a school scoring mark that same year with 24 touchdowns for 144 total points... Reeled off nine consecutive 100-yard games in '94, including four 200-plus yard games (both school records)... Ended his career as only the second Buff to exceed 3,000 career rushing yards (3,057)... In CU's miraculous 27-26 win at Michigan in 1994 that became known as "The Catch," he accomplished two significant things: his 141 rushing yards were the most by an opponent player in the Big House in 21 seasons, and he helped Tony Berti keep a defender at bay with a key block, freeing Kordell Stewart to unload the game-winning 64-yard pass to Michael Westbrook as time expired... A week later, he rushed for 317 yards in extreme heat in a 34-31 win at Texas, the second highest single-game total in CU history (he set the mark for the most yards gained from scrimmage with 362 as he also had 45 receiving)... First-team all-Big Eight in both 1993 and 1994... Put 165 yards rushing on Nebraska as a sophomore after missing just one game with a painful orbital eye fracture... Rushed for 135 yards and three TDs in being named CU's MVP in the '93 Aloha Bowl... His father, Harold "Teddy" Washington, played freshman football for Colorado in 1963 before transferring closer to home to San Diego State... He opted to turn professional following his junior season (he made the announcement minutes after CU defeated Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl), he was a first round pick by Chicago in the 1995 NFL Draft (21st overall)... He played three seasons for the Bears (1995-97), winning the NFC Rookie-of-the-Year honor in 1995 when he rushed for 1,074 yards and 10 TDs... Had career numbers of 1,682 rushing yards, 120 receiving yards and 14 touchdowns for the Bears... He also played briefly with Cleveland and Green Bay in 1999... Knee and ankle injuries hampered his career (he underwent an ankle reconstruction), and made one final go of it with San Francisco in 2003... Inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012 and into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2022... He passed away on Dec. 5, 2016 at the age of 42.

OT, 6-9, 315, 4L, Buena Vista, Colo. (Buena Vista)

The first offensive tackle at Colorado to earn All-America honors since 1979 (Stan Brock), he became the first-ever to garner consensus All-America honors at the position for the Buffaloes, afforded the honor from four of the five the NCAA recognizes for that status: Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Walter Camp ... One of three finalists for the Outland Trophy as a senior in 2010, with his year starting off being named to the prestigious Playboy Preseason All-America team... A unanimous first-team All-Big 12 Conference performer as a junior and senior seasons, the league coaches selected him as the league's Offensive Lineman of the Year for the latter, when he was named the Male College Athlete of the Year by the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame... One of 16 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes for 2010 and the recipient of an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship, he was a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy (considered the "Academic" Heisman)... A four-time Academic All-Big 12 team member and two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree... He played 2,540 out of a possible 2,542 plays on offense his sophomore through senior seasons; of those, exactly 1,400 were called passing plays, and he allowed just five sacks those three years... He allowed 21 pressures overall (14 as a sophomore), so the man he was blocking influenced a pass play 26 times in those 1,400 plays, or just 1.8 percent of his career... A Colorado Chapter/NFF Scholar-Athlete as a senior in 2005 at Buena Vista High School, he was selected on the organization's Silver Anniversary Team in 2017 ... Drafted in the first round by the New England Patriots in the 2011 draft (the 17th overall pick) ... He won Super Bowl rings with the Patriots in 2014 and 2016 ... After seven years with New England, he signed the largest contract for an offensive lineman in NFL history by the New York Giants in 2018.

JOHN STEARNS

S/P, 5-11, 180, 3L, Denver, Colo. (Thomas Jefferson)

A first-team All-Big Eight performer as a senior in 1972, Stearns was the team's most valuable player that same season... Known as "Bad Dude," he was one of the fiercest hitters in the old Big Eight and made a name for himself as one of the more colorful players in CU history... He set the career record for interceptions at Colorado with 16, a number that still stood some 30 years later, with his 18 pass deflections good for third at the time of his graduation... Pulled off perhaps the "gutsiest" play in school history, when he ran for a 12-yard game out of the punt formation, from the Buff 10-yard line no less, on a 4th-and-9 play with CU nursing a 23-17 lead... In baseball at CU, he was the 1972 Big Eight batting champion (.492), the 1973 NCAA home run leader (15) and an All-American as a senior in '73... Career numbers: batting (.366), hits (169), runs scored (137), home runs (26), runs batted in (101), steals (48)... He was drafted in two sports: Buffalo snared him in the 17th round of 1973 NFL Draft, late on purpose because he was going to go the baseball route; two months later, Philadelphia selected him as the second overall pick, behind David Clyde, in the June baseball draft (catcher; Oakland had drafted him in the first round and ninth overall out of high school)... He spent less than two years in the minor leagues and ascended to the majors by the end of the '74 season, playing for the first time on Sept. 22, 1974... Traded to the New York Mets during the off-season, he would spend the next 10 seasons with the Mets in becoming one of their most popular players of all-time... In 810 career big league games, he batted .260 (696 of 2,681), with 46 home runs and 312 runs batted in... He had 91 career steals and a .984 fielding percentage... After he retired from baseball, he has spent most of his time as a coach and scout in the majors, working for the Mets, the Philadelphia Phillies, the Washington Nationals and the Seattle Mariners, managing several years on the AAA and AA levels for those organizations as well.

RODNEY STEWART

TB, 6-0, 215, 4L, Colorado Springs, Colo. (Palmer)

He finished his career with 3,598 rushing yards, good for second on CU's all-time list, likely winding up shy of the top spot due to missing the better part of four games with knee and ankle injuries that prevented him from catching Eric Bienenmy, his position coach as a senior... He still set nine season or career marks his senior year: most career rushing attempts (809), most career all-purpose plays (919), most career all-purpose yards (4,828—3,598 rushing, 969 receiving, 261 returns), most career yards gained from scrimmage, both overall and minimum of at least 500 yards rushing and receiving (4,567), most career receptions by a running back (93), including the mark for a single season (45), and the most season (571) and career (969) receiving yards by a running back... He also finished 10th in rushing touchdowns (25), 11th in total offense (3,635 yards) and tied for 18th in scoring (150 points)... He just missed out on becoming the 28th player in NCAA history to record 3,000 rushing and 1,000 receiving yards in a career, as he was approaching the mark before he went down with an ankle sprain early in the third quarter in the season finale at Utah... He became the first player to lead the Buffaloes in rushing for four seasons, and was just the ninth to have done it for three years in a row, one of five to have done that with at least 600 yards all three seasons... Both career passing attempts went for touchdowns (covering 37 yards, giving him a 584.5 passer rating)... He and Lamont Warren (1991-93) are the only two players to lead the team in rushing as a freshman, sophomore and junior (Warren left after the '93 season for the NFL)... His 16 career 100-yard rushing games (season best of six in 2010) were the second most in school history (Bienenmy had 22) and were among the top six by active players in the NCAA throughout his entire senior season... His 2,744 career yards were the second most to Rashaan Salaam (3,057) through a junior year at CU... He became the first player to start a game at running back in four different seasons since Bienenmy did so from 1987-90... He was selected by his teammates as the Zack Jordan Award winner as the team's most valuable player for 2011 when he became the first player in CU history to lead the team in rushing (854 yards) and receptions (45), while finishing second with 571 receiving yards... Early in his senior year, he became just the 12th player in school history to record at least 500 yards both rushing and receiving for a career, and in 2011, was the first player at Colorado who accomplished that feat in a single season (he was the first player in the NCAA to accumulate at least 500 of each in 2011; only three other players did so for the entire year)... He signed as a free agent with his home-state Cincinnati Bengals after his CU career.

BYRON WHITE

#24

HB, 6-1, 185, 3L, Wellington, Colo. (Wellington)

Equally as known by his nickname ("Whizzer") and more so as Justice White... Colorado's first All-American in football, as he was a consensus selection in 1937, including from Associated Press, UPI, International News Service, NEA, LIB, Colliers Magazine (Grantland Rice) and The Sporting News... Led the nation in several categories in 1937: rushing (1,121 yards), total offense (1,596), all-purpose yards (1,970) and scoring (122 points)... Finished second in the 1937 Heisman Trophy voting... The 1,121 rushing yards and 122 points were also NCAA records, and were not broken until colleges went to a 10-game schedule in 1949... Rushed for over 100 yards seven times in that '37 season, almost unheard of in those days... As the record book evolved through the years, it is estimated that at one time, he held as many as 50 individual school marks; in fact, at the time of his death in 2002, he still held 15 records some 65 years after his graduation... One that has stood the test of time is the longest punt in Buff annals, as his 83-yard kick against Missouri on Oct. 2, 1937, often carried the footnote, "without roll"... He participated in six plays of 75 yards or longer (nine 63-plus) in his CU career (runs, returns and the mammoth punt)... The first and one of three Buffs to have his jersey number retired (#24)... He was also a .400 hitter on the baseball team, and a standout on CU's basketball squad that made the N.I.T. in 1938... The fourth overall pick in the first round by Pittsburgh in the 1938 NFL Draft, he was a two-time all-pro halfback with both the Steelers (1939) and Detroit (1940-41); in-between, he studied at Oxford... He led the NFL in rushing twice (567 yards in 1938, 514 in 1940), the first player ever to lead the NFL in rushing his first two seasons... The only player in NFL history to lead the league in rushing as a rookie (1938) for a last place team (Pittsburgh was 2-9)... Awarded the prestigious Rhodes scholarship (in 1938) after an academic career at CU where he had 180 hours of A and 6 hours of B... Hall of Fame Gold Medal Award winner in 1962... One of three inaugural members of the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame (1965 induction)... Presented the Theodore Roosevelt Award at the 1969 NCAA Honors luncheon... Named to CU's All-Century Team in 1989, as he received more votes than anyone else... GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame (inducted 1996)... The first inductee into the University of Colorado Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998... Awarded the Bronze Star for service in Europe during WWII... Named deputy U.S. Attorney General by President John Kennedy in 1960... Named to U.S Supreme Court by Kennedy in 1962 and served 31 years, stepping down in 1993... Died at the age of 84 on April 15, 2002.

JOHN WOOTEN

OG, 6-2, 230, 3L, Carlsbad, N.M. (Carlsbad)

One of the first two African-American football players at CU (with Frank Clarke)... He lettered three years at guards (1956-57-58), earning AFCA All-America honors as a senior in 1958 and was a first-team all-Big Seven performer as a junior the previous year... He was described as a quick, agile tackle who provided bone-crushing lead blocks in helping to make Colorado one of the top offensive teams of his day (and also played tackle on defense)... In 1989, he was selected as a first-team member of CU's All-Century Team... A fifth round draft pick by Cleveland in the 1959 NFL Draft, he had a stellar NFL career as he played nine seasons (136 games) with the Browns and one with Washington, attaining All-Pro status in his Cleveland days... He went on to have a long career in NFL administration with Dallas, Philadelphia and Baltimore; he was in player personnel from 1975 to 1989, and was named director of pro personnel in 1989, a position he held for three years... After one year in the NFL office, where he created player programs in continuing education and financial planning among several innovations, he returned to the front office with Philadelphia (1992-97) and the Baltimore (1998-2003) as a personnel executive; with the Eagles, he was one of the first to hold the title of Vice President of Player Personnel... He retired from the NFL in 2003, and is now president of Wooten Printing, Inc., as well as Chairman of the Fritz Pollard Alliance, which works with the NFL to increase job opportunities for minorities in the league... In 2012, he became the sixth Colorado Buffalo to be selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame... He was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004 and into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2017... He currently resides in Arlington, Texas.

Larry Zimmer

Larry Zimmer, the voice of University of Colorado football who spanned five decades with the program, retired following the 2015 season after calling CU sporting events for 42 seasons, all on KOA-Radio. His entire career spanned 50 years, including five at the University of Michigan and three at Colorado State.

His final home game came on November 13, 2015, which also was his 80th birthday; he was presented with a framed jersey and the crowd at Folsom Field was led in singing to him happy birthday by the co-founder of Boulder's own Firefall, Jock Bartley. His last game was CU's season finale at Utah two weeks later.

"The stars have sort of aligned," Zimmer said when announcing that 2015 would be his last season. "Fifty years... I'll be 80 years old, plus coming back from an illness. It sort of makes sense that this is the last year; it had been in the back of my mind that it would have been anyway. I am thrilled to be healthy enough to go back into the booth and do the thing that I love."

Over the course of his 42 years in the booth at Folsom Field and traveling with the team, he broadcasted some of the Buffaloes' greatest moments. He called 486 football games, including a string of 251 in a row until he fell ill in the middle of the 2014 season, along with 525 men's basketball contests.

"Zim" missed only 17 CU games overall: 11 due to illness (five in his final year as travel was still difficult at the time), three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts) and three regular season games due to travel conflicts; ironically, his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career.

CU athletic director Rick George called Zimmer, "A CU institution. His voice has been synonymous with our athletic program going back to the days of the Apollo space program. Whether it has been play-by-play or analyst duties on KOA or serving as a master of ceremonies for many of our functions, Larry Zimmer is CU. He is truly a part of our overall athletic history."

In 2009, he was the recipient of the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award, named in honor the long-time play-by-play man for ABC Sports; it recognizes a sports broadcaster who enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution.

At the time, Zimmer said of the Schenkel Award, "It is certainly the highlight of my career because it recognizes two of the things that I love the most, and that's broadcasting college football and my association with the University of Colorado through the years and all the people I've met."

In 1992, he was awarded the Honorary C" for his contribution to Colorado Athletics, and in 2005, he was the recipient of the Forever Buff Award from the Alumni C Club. He is a member of the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame, the CU Athletic Hall of Fame, the Broadcast Professionals of Colorado Hall of Fame and the Colorado Ski & Snowboard Museum Hall of Fame.

Zimmer got his start broadcasting high school football and basketball games in Columbia, Mo., and Lawton, Okla. (1957-58, 1960-66) while also serving as the play-by-play announcer for the Missouri Tigers baseball team. The following year, he moved to Michigan and began broadcasting for the Wolverine football and basketball teams.

In 1971, he was hired by KOA sports director Bob Martin, when the Denver station both broadcasted on radio (850 am) and television (Ch. 4), assigned to do the play-by-play for CU football and the color commentary for the Denver Broncos. He would spend the next 19 seasons doing the analysis for Bronco games, and then took over for the next seven as play-by-play man following Martin's death. He also had spent time as the voice of the Denver Rockets of the American Basketball Association and the Colorado Caribous of the North American Soccer League.

But he became best known as the "Voice of the Buffaloes," calling every game between 1971 and 1981. In 1982, CU strayed away from KOA and signed a three-year deal with a different network, but the Buffs returned to KOA in 1985 and Zimmer was back "home" after spending three years handling the play-by-play chores for CSU. After retiring as KOA's sports director in 2004, he shifted solely into the analyst role on football broadcasts.

When including the games he called for Michigan (50) and CSU (34), it raised his total to 570 college games overall.

Born Nov. 13, 1935 in New Orleans, La., Zimmer attended Louisiana State University before transferring to the University of Missouri, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in journalism in 1957. He then served two years on active duty in the United States Army, earning the rank of 1st Lieutenant and was awarded the Army Commendation Medal. He is married to the former Brigitte Bastian, is the father of two and grandfather of one.

Zimmer also taught a broadcast class in CU's School of Journalism for 11 years, and along with his wife has funded a scholarship at the college: the Larry & Brigitte Zimmer Sports Announcing Endowed Scholarship.
