tion to 66.5 points per game. The Buffaloes are third in the Pac-12 Conference in 3-point defense (.298) and overall rebounding (41.2 rpg) while ranking fourth in overall field goal percentage defense (.384) and offensive rebounds (12.4 orgp).

Depth and balance have been a key for Colorado. Three Buffaloes are averaging double-digits in scoring while four more are averaging between six and nine an outing. Four players have at least four rebounds per game while six have at least nine assists.

Senior Derrick White is averaging 15.1 points, 3.9 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game while hitting a team-best 51.9 percent from the field. He was the Pac-12 Player of the Week after averaging 22.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.5 assists in games against Xavier and BYU. White shot 55.2 percent from the field overall (16-of-29) while hitting 6-of-12 from 3-point range.

He was named to the Legends Classic All-Tournament team averaging 18.0 points, 5.5 assists and 5.0 rebounds, shooting 54 percent against Notre Dame and Texas. He scored 20 points and dished out a team-season high nine assists against the Fighting Irish. The nine assists are the most by a Buffalo since Askia Booker had 12 against UCLA on Feb. 13, 2014. White had a team-high 16 points with 5 rebounds, 2 assists, 2 steals and 2 blocks against Texas.

White is 10th in assists, 11th in steals (1.2 spg), 13th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.2) and 15th in scoring and free throw percentage (.792) on the Pac-12 charts.

Xavier Johnson is second on the team in scoring at 15.0 points per game while ranking third in rebounds at 6.1 an outing. He had 15 points against Fort Hays State, scoring in double figures for the fourth-straight game, fifth in his last six and eighth overall. Johnson had 18 points and seven rebounds in the win over Xavier, hitting 7-of-11 from the field including 3-of-4 from 3-point range. His second 3-pointer against the Musketeers was the 100th of his career. Johnson has made 22 of his last 43 field goal attempts (.512).

He averaged 19 points over three-game span which included the Legends Classic and Wofford, putting in a pair of 20-point performances. Johnson matched a career high with a team season-best 27 points against Wofford. He also had a season-high 12 rebounds against the Terriers, logging his seventh career double-double. Johnson had a game-high 23 points in the Legends Classic semifinal against Notre Dame.

Johnson ranks 16th in scoring and 20th in rebounding on the Pac-12 leaderboard.

George King is third on the team in scoring at 11.1 points per game and second in rebounding at 7.4 per contest. King recorded his fourth double-double of the season and fifth of his career with 14 points and 12 rebounds at BYU. It was his second straight double-double after his 16-point, 10-rebound effort vs. Xavier. His four double-doubles this season have come in the last eight games.

King had a fantastic Legends Classic, recording back-to-back double-doubles and averaging 14.5 points and 13.0 rebounds over the two-day series. He tallied a personal-best 13 rebounds in both contests. King scored 17 points against Notre Dame while pitching in 12 in the win over Texas. He had 10 rebounds in the first half alone against Texas.

King is 11th in defensive rebounds (5.6 drpg) and 14th in overall rebounds on the Pac-12 leaderboard.

BOULDER — Tad Boyle's Colorado Buffaloes did exactly what good teams are supposed to do against an over-matched nonconference foe Wednesday night at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffs built a big lead in the first half, kept the pressure on in the second and won handily, collecting an 81-70 win over visiting Air Force.

It was the 4-1 Buffs' fourth straight win after a season-opening loss, and CU's sixth in a row over the Falcons.

Colorado dominated the game in virtually every facet. CU had three players in double-figure scoring, led by 21 from Josh Scott and 18 from Josh Fortune. George King, CU's leading scorer in each of the Buffs' first four games, added 14 as CU overcame a slow start to build a 16-point lead by intermission, an edge that grew to as much as 26 and never dipped below double digits for the entirety of the second half.

The Buffs also outrebounded the Falcons, 38-31, and shot 52 percent from the field, including a 13-for-25 night from 3-point range. Wesley Gordon led CU with eight rebounds, followed by Scott with seven and Fortune with six. The 13 treys were the most by CU since a January 2006 game against Missouri.

"Overall I'm pretty pleased with the way our guys played," Boyle said. "We could still be a more consistent team. One of the challenges we laid out was to play 40 minutes of Colorado basketball ... and I thought we played about 37 minutes. Consistency is something we're going to really try to talk about. This time of the season, our standards are set pretty high."

From the outset, the Falcons were obviously intent on taking away CU's inside game. AFA dropped into a tight zone defense in an attempt to force the Buffs to shoot from the outside — and CU was more than happy to oblige. The Buffs hit eight of their 14 3-point attempts in the first half, with Fortune (3-for-4) doing the bulk of the damage.

The Buffs were definitely open on the outside in the first half, as six different players hit at least one 3-pointer in the first 20 minutes.

After falling behind early, the Buffs took their first lead of the game at the 12:54 mark of the first half when King hit a driving layup and added a free throw for a 15-14 CU lead.

The Buffs never trailed again, quickly building the lead to eight, 25-17. The Falcons managed to stay close for the next several minutes, pulling to within 27-24 on a Dezmond James 3-pointer, but CU quickly reeled off a 12-3 run that bumped the margin to 39-27 with three minutes left in the half. Scott hit a jump hook to start the run, and the Buffs added a pair of 3-pointers in the burst, one each from Brett Brady and Fortune.

Fortune then added another 3-pointer a minute later and Scott scored CU's last four points of the half as the Buffs took a 46-30 lead into the break.

Scott was a perfect 3-for-3 from the field in the first half, and is now 24-for-31 from the field in CU's last four games.

The Buffs picked up in the second half where they left off in the first. Air Force loosened its zone and Scott immediately took advantage, scoring eight points in the first four minutes. CU opened the half with a 19-7 run to build a 26-point lead, 63-37, with 13 minutes still left in the game. The Falcons managed to reduce the margin back below 20, but never seriously threatened throughout the half.

Zach Moer led AFA with 13 points, Zach Kocur added 12 and Hayden Graham had 11.

Colorado also received some solid point guard play. Despite foul trouble for much of the game, starter Dominique Collier finished with seven points, two rebounds and a pair of assists. Freshman Thomas Akyazili saw the floor for 18 minutes and scored eight points on perfect 3-for-3 shooting, including 2-for-2 on 3-pointers, and added a team-high four assists. CU's point guards also had just two turnovers in the game.

Guard Josh Fortune is Colorado's fourth leading scorer at 9.1 points per game. He's coming off a season-high 15 points in the win over Fort Hays State. Fortune broke out of a prolonged shooting slump hitting 5-of-9 from the field including 3-of-6 from 3-point range. Prior to making his first 3-pointer against the Tigers, he had missed 16 straight shots including nine from beyond the 3-point arc.

Fortune leads the Pac-12 in free throw shooting at 89.2 percent, hitting on 33-of-37 attempts. He saw his consecutive free throws made streak end at 19 against Portland. That streak included a perfect 10-of-10 game against ULM, the program's best performance without a miss since Askia Booker was 14-of-14 against DePaul on Dec. 22, 2014.

Wesley Gordon tops Colorado in rebounding at 8.4 per game. Gordon is pitching in 6.5 points per game while leading the squad in blocks (16) and ranking third in assists (23). He's tallied 13 of his blocked shots in the last seven games and ranks second on CU's all-time list at 172.

Gordon recorded his 11th career double-double with 11 points and 14 rebounds against Seattle U. He hit double-figures in rebounding for the 23rd time in his career with 10 at Portland.

On the Pac-12 charts, Gordon is fourth in offensive rebounding (2.9 orpg), ninth in overall rebounding and blocked shots (1.5 bpg) and 12th in defensive boards (5.5 drpg).

Sophomore Thomas Akyazili is second on the team in assists (2.4 apg) while scoring 3.2 points per contest. He made his first 3-pointer of the year at BYU, snapping an 0-for-11 slump. He dished out four assists, recording his third game of the season with four or more. Akyazili dished out a career-best six assists in the season-opener against Sacramento State.

Junior Tory Miller is fourth on the team in blocks (5) and sixth in rebounds (3.3 rpg) while pitching in 5.8 points an outing. Miller had nine points with a season-high five free throws made against Fort Hays State. He had a season-high 10 points against ULM, the ninth double-figure scoring game of his career. He also added his first career 3-pointer (in five attempts) against Sacramento State.

Dominique Collier has missed the last nine games with a foot injury. He had a team-high 12 points in the opener against Sacramento State, hitting 4-of-6 from 3-point range. He saw limited minutes in the game against Seattle U due to that injury.

Colorado's freshman class, with a wealth of experience in front of them, have picked their spots to contribute. As a group they are averaging 10.2 points and 4.7 rebounds per game. Bryce Peters played a personal-best 21 minutes off the bench at BYU with three points, two rebounds, and assist and a steal. Deleon Brown is coming off a career-best 15 points against Fort Hays State. He has shot well on limited attempts, hitting 52 percent overall including 9-of-19 from downtown (.474). Lucas Siewert scored for the first time in five games with five points at BYU. He's averaging just over 2.0 rebounds per game.

TICKETED FOR REDSHIRT: The Buffaloes are planning to redshirt two freshmen. Dallas Walton, a 7-0 forward and Alexander Stratting a 6-7 forward. Walton earned All-Jefferson County Conference first team honors for Arvada (Colo.) West High School in 2015-16. Stratting hails from the Netherlands and played for the Canarias Basketball Academy in Spain last year.

Namon Wright, a 6-5 guard, will sit out the 2016-17 season after transferring from Missouri and will have two years of eligibility remaining. He averaged 8.2 points and 3.8 rebounds and made 79 3-pointers in 61 games with the Tigers.

ABOUT THE FALCONS: Air Force is 6-5 overall but has lost two straight and 5-of-6 after starting the season 5-0. The Falcons are 6-1 at home, dropping their only game at Clune Arena in their last outing, a 77-65 setback to Denver on Dec. 10. Air Force is averaging 79.8 points on 47 percent shooting. The Falcons rank eighth in the nation and lead the Mountain West Conference in 3-point shooting at 42.4 percent. Defensively, Air Force allows 72.1 points while opponents shoot 45 percent. The Falcons have been excellent taking care of the ball, committing just 10.7 turnovers per game, ranking 16th in NCAA Division I.

Air Force features a balanced scoring attack with four players averaging double-digits. Senior forward Hayden Graham leads the Falcons at 13.3 points and 5.5 rebounds per game. Junior guard Jacob Van averages 12.5 points on 52 percent shooting while leading Air Force in assists at 3.4 per game. Senior guard Zach Kocur averages 11.9 points and 4.5 rebounds per game while shooting a team-best 58 percent from the field. Junior center Frank Toohey averages 11.3 points and 3.9 rebounds an outing.

Dave Pilipovich is in his fifth season as the head coach at Air Force with an overall record of 66-78.

THE SERIES: This will be the 26th meeting between Colorado and Air Force with the Buffaloes holding a 22-3 series lead. The Buffaloes have won six straight in the series, including an 81-70 decision at the Coors Events Center on Nov. 25, 2015. Colorado has won 10 of 12 all-time meetings at Air Force with the last an 81-57 Buffaloes win on Nov. 30, 2013. This will be the sixth-straight season Colorado has met Air Force on the hardwood.

Tad Boyle is 6-2 against Air Force as a head coach, 5-0 with Colorado and 1-2 while at Northern Colorado. Dave Pilipovich is 0-4 against Colorado as a head coach.

RIGHT AT HOME: Colorado has won 14 of its last 15 and 24 of 26 in the friendly confines of the Coors Events Center.

The Buffaloes had a streak of 14-straight home wins against non-league opponents snapped in the loss to Colorado State. When Pac-12 play begins, Colorado will bring an eight-game win streak against league opposition at home, tied for the 12th best run in team history.

In the Tad Boyle era, Colorado is a sparkling 94-16 at the Coors Events Center (.855). The Buffaloes are 407-167 (.709) all-time at the CEC, picking up win No. 400 in style as Colorado defeated No. 9/10 ranked Arizona 75-72 in front of the third-largest crowd in facility history (11,309) on Feb. 24, 2016.

GRAND ACHIEVEMENTS: Xavier Johnson became the 33rd player to score 1,000 points at Colorado on Nov. 14, but two other players are recording unique milestones of their own.

Senior Derrick White reached the 2,000-point mark for his collegiate career during the Colorado State game. White scored 1,912 points in three seasons at UCCS (2012-15). Senior Josh Fortune needs 68 points to reach 1,000 in his collegiate career. Fortune scored 481 points in two years at Providence College (2012-14) and has 451 in 45 games at Colorado.

4 OF A KIND: Colorado sports an unusual occurrence with four fifth-year seniors on its roster, each traveling a different path to get to this point.

Wesley Gordon has taken the most traditional five-year route. He took a redshirt season his true freshman year as Colorado was loaded in the front court led by Andre Roberson currently with Oklahoma City of the NBA. Gordon is among Colorado's all-time leaders in rebounds and blocked shots.

Xavier Johnson played his first three seasons (2012-15) before an Achilles injury derailed his 2015-16 season. Johnson has been a steady performer, averaging double-digits over his three years and joining the 1,000-point club on Nov. 14 against Seattle U.

Josh Fortune is the mid-career transfer. After two years at Providence College, helping the Friars to the 2014 Big East title, Fortune transferred to Colorado and sat out the 2014-15 season. He was a key contributor to Colorado's NCAA Tournament run as a junior ranking third on the team in scoring.

Derrick White will get his one-year shot in Boulder this year. White played his first three years at NCAA Division II UCCS, earning All-America honors. He practiced with the Buffaloes last year as a redshirt.

Additionally, the Buffaloes also have a fourth-year junior in George King, the reigning Pac-12 Most Improved Player of the Year.

BOYLE WINNING PERCENTAGE: Tad Boyle has hovered right around the school's all-time winning percentage lead since the early portion of the 2015-16 season (minimum two seasons), Boyle, who has won 62.4 percent of his games with Colorado (138-83), is just ahead of CU Athletic Hall of Fame coach Forrest "Frosty" Cox who was 147-89 (.623) in 13 seasons between 1936-50. Boyle is 194-149 in his 11th year as a collegiate head coach.

IN THE POLLS: Colorado received votes for the six straight week in the USA Today Coaches Top 25 Poll on Dec. 12. The Buffaloes received votes in the first four Associated Press polls.

Eight 2016-17 opponents have been or are currently ranked in one of the Top 25 polls including Oregon, UCLA, Arizona and Xavier who have each made a Top 10 appearance this year. Texas was ranked in both polls before dropping out Nov. 28. California had a one-week run at No. 25 in the AP poll. No. 21/21 Notre Dame debuted in the Dec. 5 edition of both polls. No. 24/25 USC earned its initial ranking this week.

AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: Colorado has won two straight and three of its last five against ranked opponents. This is the first season with two wins over ranked teams since 2013-14 (2-6 overall).

The Buffaloes have back-to-back wins against ranked opponents for the first time since winning three straight in February-March 2013: Feb. 7 at #19/19 Oregon (48-47), Feb. 14 vs. #9/9 Arizona (71-58), March 7 vs. #19/25 Oregon (76-53).

With its win over No. 13/14 Xavier, Colorado defeated its highest ranked nonconference opponent since its 75-72 win over No. 6/7 Kansas on Dec. 7, 2013. Colorado claimed a win in its first game against a ranked opponent this season with its 68-54 win over No. 22/21 Texas on Nov. 22. It was Colorado's first win over a ranked opponent away from Boulder since a 76-53 win over No. 19 Oregon on March 7, 2013.

Colorado's 14 wins over ranked opponents in Boyle's six-plus seasons is by far the best streak in team history. In fact Boyle coached teams, with a record of 14-24, have accounted for 24 percent of wins over ranked opponents (58) since 1949-50.

FOR OPENERS: Colorado improved to 90-24 all-time in home openers and has won its last nine, making Boyle a perfect 7-0 in home openers. The Buffaloes have won 14 of their last 15. Colorado is 79-35 (.693) in all-time season openers. The Buffaloes are 5-2 under Boyle. The Buffaloes are 32-5 in overall season openers since the 1980-81 season.

Colorado's 90 points against Sacramento State were its most in a season opener since defeating Cal Poly 97-69 to begin the 2002-03 season. The 37-point margin of victory in a season-opener tied for the largest in team history, matching only a 54-17 win at Denver on Jan. 29, 1903, the second season of the program.

LONG WAIT OVER: Two Colorado seniors made their long-awaited debuts at the Coors Events Center in the season opener.

Xavier Johnson had six points, seven rebounds and a pair of as-

Derrick White had nine points and four assists in is Colorado debut. He sat out last after transferring from UCCS. He was an NCAA Division II All-American for the Mountain Lions averaging 22.0 points, 5.9 rebounds, 3.9 assists and 1.6 steals over his three-year UCCS career.

HIGHLY RANKED TRIO HEADED TO BOULDER: What could be the best men's basketball signing class in the Tad Boyle era at the University of Colorado was made official on Nov. 9 as Evan Battey, Tyler Bey and D'Shawn Schwartz inked their National Letters of Intent to join the Buffaloes for the 2017-18 season.

Rivals.com rates Colorado's class the 16th best in the nation while Scout.com has the Buffaloes at 18th. Scout considers all three signees four-star recruits. Schwartz and Bey are also four-star players according to Rivals.

Highly regarded as the top player in Colorado, Schwartz is a 6-6, 210-pound wing from Colorado Springs. He averaged 19.9 points and 8.5 rebounds as a junior at Sand Creek High School, earning Class 4A All-State Second Team honors. Schwartz is a two-time All-Pikes Peak Athletic Conference First Team pick and back-to-back runner-up for that league's Player of the Year honor.

Bey, a 6-7, 205-pound small forward, is a Las Vegas native attending Middlebrooks Academy in Los Angeles. He's rated as the 27th best small forward in the nation by Scout and third in the state of California. Rivals rates him in their Top 150 as the 114th best overall player.

Batthey, a 6-8, 275-pound forward, hails from the Los Angeles area and was an All-Orange County and All-Crestview League selection for Villa Park High School in 2015-16. He averaged 24 points a game for the Spartans and rated as the third best post player in the state of California. ESPN ranks him as California's ninth-best overall prospect.

BUFFS FIFTH IN PRESEASON POLL: Colorado was picked to repeat its 2015-16 Pac-12 Conference finish as the Buffaloes were selected fifth in the annual media preseason poll.

Colorado earned 199 points, 10 shy of fourth place California. The Buffaloes were 10-8 in the 2016 final league standings.

Defending champion Oregon was picked to repeat its title with 320 points and collecting 23 of 27 first place votes. Arizona received the other four first place votes and were second with 298 points followed by UCLA in third (259).

After Colorado, Washington was sixth (167) followed by USC (163), Utah (142), Oregon State (122), Stanford (119), Arizona State (78) and Washington State (30).

2017 PARADISE JAM: While the 2016-17 season is just underway, a piece to the 2017-18 season is already in place. Colorado will be one of eight teams participating in the Paradise Jam, Nov. 17-20, 2017, in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands. The Buffaloes will play three games in four days against a field that includes Drake, Drexel, Houston, Liberty, Mercer, Quinnipiac, and Wake Forest.

BOULDER - The Colorado Buffaloes shot down Sacramento State 90-53 on Friday night at the Coors Events Center, opening the 2016-17 men's basketball season with an impressive display of long-range shooting and overall balance.

CU, which shot 38.9 percent from 3-point range last season, hit 13 of its 21 3-point attempts (61.9 percent) and finished opening night at 53.3 percent overall from the field (32-of-60).

Dominique Collier (12 points), Josh Fortune (11) and George King (10) reached double figures on a night when 10 of Tad Boyle's 12 players who suited up scored.

Collier, coming off the bench, hit four of his six 3-point attempts while 6-10 freshman Lucas Siewert made all three of his shots from beyond the arc.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs rolled to a 23-point halftime lead (42-19), shooting 48.3 percent (14-of-29) from the field while holding the Hornets to 20.6 percent (7-of-34).

CU took a 3-0 lead on Derrick White's try - the first field goal attempt of his Buffs career - and steadily pulled away over the next 8 minutes. White, who sat out last season after transferring from UCCS, finished the half with a team-high seven points and nine for the night.

Boyle said White "was about 70 percent" after suffering a twisted ankle in a midweek practice and Collier also was recovering from a foot injury. Boyle used 10 players in the first half and nine of them scored. He cleared his bench in the final minutes.

The Buffs opened their first double-figure lead (16-6) on a 3-pointer by Fortune with just under 12:30 to play in the opening half. Fortune's try was one of seven in the first half by CU, as the Buffs shot 63.6 percent (7-of-11) from behind the arc.

From that point, CU increased its lead to 17 points on two occasions before a layup by White at the first-half buzzer produced the 23-point bulge at intermission.

The Buffs kept up the pressure in the second half, building a 73-36 advantage with 7:47 remaining and coasting to their final margin. The Hornets never led and managed just one early tie.

TURNING POINT: After a 6-6 tie, the Buffs went on an 18-1 run to go up 24-7. CU hit four of its seven first-half treys during that surge, with Collier, Fortune, Tony Miller and Delano Brown knocking down the four long-range shots.

CU STANDOUTS: Collier - 12 points (4-of-6 3-pointers); Fortune - 11 points (4-of-5 from the field, 2-of-2 3-pointers); Wes Gordon - 12 rebounds, 7 points; White - 9 points, 4 assists; George King - 10 points; Thomas Akyazili, 8 points, 6 assists.

KEY STATISTICS: The Buffs held the Hornets to seven first-half field goals in 34 attempts (20.6 percent) in building a 23-point halftime lead. Sac State's final shooting percentage was 29.4 percent (20-of-68) . . . CU finished with 20 assists on 32 made field goals and committed only 10 turnovers . . . The Buffs outrebounded the Hornets 47-40 but Boyle wasn't pleased with Sac State's 17 offensive rebounds.

WHAT IT MEANS: The best thing to be gleaned from most openers is a 'W' - and that's what the Buffs took from this one. But that was far from the lone takeaway; Boyle's seventh CU team offered plenty of opening-night upside. It demonstrated depth, athleticism and every bit of the offensive firepower that was expected. As always, though, Boyle's emphasis in the coming weeks will be on ratcheting up his defense and board work.

BOULDER — On a night when the Colorado Buffaloes' shooting deserted them, they were forced to fall back on the principles that head coach Tad Boyle holds sacred above all others: defense and rebounding.

Those came through, and they proved to be just enough to produce a 67-55 win Monday over visiting Seattle in the first round of the Legends Classic. Colorado improved to 2-0 with the win.

HOW IT HAPPENED: One game after shooting a blistering 13-for-21 from 3-point range in a 90-53 win over Sacramento State, CU hit just 19 of its 53 field goal tries, including a 3-for-18 night from 3-point range.

But while their shots weren't falling, the Buffs still commanded a 55-35 edge on the boards and their defense provided a 36-24 scoring edge in the second half. Wesley Gordon had a 14-rebound, 11-point double-double — the 11th of his career — and Derrick White scored a game-high 15 points to go with six rebounds. Xavier Johnson added 13 points and six rebounds for the Buffs and Josh Fortune finished with 12 points and seven rebounds.

"That was the definition of winning ugly," head coach Tad Boyle said. Indeed, the Buffs never seemed to find their offensive groove for any length of time. But after falling behind 33-31 early in the second half, Colorado put together a 16-2 run to take a lead the Buffs would never relinquish. George King started the surge with a 3-pointer — CU's first of the night after an 0-for-9 stretch — to give CU a 47-35 lead with 12:48 to go in the game. CU's defense also stepped up in that stretch, as the Buffs collected four blocked shots and four steals along with forcing eight straight missed shots by the Redhawks.

The Redhawks, though, wouldn't go away and slowly chipped away at the lead. A Brendan Westendorf 3-pointer and free throw with 5:40 to go cut CU's edge to 54-51, and it took a White free throw and back-to-back 3-pointers from Fortune to give the Buffs some breathing room down the stretch. Fortune's second 3-pointer gave the Buffs a 61-53 lead with just 2:50 to go and they held the Seahawks at bay in the final minutes.

While the Buffs were no doubt cold offensively, their defense produced the same effect on the Redhawks. Seattle hit just 19 of its 63 field goal attempts, including a 6-for-32 effort from 3-point range.

The scoring difference came at the free throw line. Colorado shot 41 free throws and needed every attempt, as the Buffs hit just 26 of those tries. White, a career 83 percent free throw shooter at UC-Colorado Springs, was an uncharacteristic 3-for-8 from the line.

Colorado's shooting wasn't the only sore spot for the Buffs. One game after committing just 10 turnovers against Sacramento State, the Buffs had 19 mis-cues, which the Redhawks converted into 13 points.

TURNING POINT: After the Redhawks opened the second half with a bucket to take a 33-31 lead, the Buffs went on a 16-2 run, started by a George King 3-pointer. CU never trailed again.

CU STANDOUTS: Gordon had his 11th career double-double, a 14-rebound, 11-point effort that included six offensive boards. . . . White had 15 points, six rebounds, two assists, a block and a steal. . . . Fortune had 12 points and seven rebounds. . . . onson had 13 points and six rebounds.

KEY STATISTICS: The Buffs had a dominating 55-35 edge on the boards, which included 19 offensive rebounds that produced 16 second-chance points. . . . Colorado also shot 41 free throws compared to Seattle's 14, and the Buffs hit 26 of those free throws.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Buffs improved to 2-0, but more importantly, learned that Boyle's insistence on rebounding and defense is something that will pay dividends when the shots aren't falling.

BOULDER - Tad Boyle's Colorado Buffaloes rediscovered their shooting touch and played defense with a purpose Thursday night, rolling to an 89-70 win over ULM in their second game of the Legends Classic.

The Buffs had five players in double figures, led by Josh Fortune and Xavier Johnson with 14 points each. Derrick White and George King each chipped in 12 and Wesley Gordon had nine rebounds, four assists and two points as Colorado improved to 3-0.

CU also got some good production off the bench, getting 10 points and eight points from junior Tony Miller, as well as nine points from true freshmen Bryce Peters and Deleon Brown.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs didn't let their ice-cold shooting effort from Monday's win over Seattle follow them into Thursday's game.

Instead, King opened the game with a 3-pointer, then hit another barely a minute later as the Buffs quickly opened up an 8-0 lead. White then scored eight unanswered points to give the Buffs a 16-3 lead and the Warhawks never seriously threatened to make it a game.

The Buffs stretched their lead to 38-19 late in the first half, then closed with a four-point flurry in the last four seconds of the half to take a 48-23 lead into the locker room at intermission. CU shot 15-for-34 in the first half, limited ULM to 7-for-28 shooting and had a 28-17 rebounding edge.

Colorado then kept the lead in the 20-point range for most of the game and Boyle pulled his starters for good with a few minutes to go.

King, who was just 6-for-17 from the field in CU's first two games, finished with a 4-for-6 night, including 2-for-3 from 3-point range. Fortune was just 2-for-8 from the field, but had a perfect 10-for-10 night at the free throw line.

White, meanwhile, continues to show why Boyle and his staff have been so excited to get the transfer from UC-Colorado Springs on the floor. The 6-foot-5 senior has been handling point guard duties, and had four assists, three rebounds and two steals to go with his 12 points. The majority of those assists and rebounds came at key moments when the Buffs were building their big first-half lead.

Peters made his first appearance as a Buff and dazzled the crowd with a steal and dunk for his first basket in a CU uniform and also hit a 3-pointer for part of his nine points. Brown had two 3-pointers and true freshman Lucas Siewert had two points and six rebounds. Peters and Lucas Siewert each had 17 minutes on the floor while Brown had 20 minutes.

The Buffs also had a solid rebounding edge for the third game in a row, out-rebounding the Warhawks 49-37. Along with Gordon's nine and Miller's eight, Fortune matched Siewert's total with six.

TURNING POINT: This one was never close. The Warhawks briefly closed an early double-digit deficit to eight, 20-12, but the Buffs answered with a 13-4 run that put the game away with three minutes still left in the first half.

CU STANDOUTS: Five players in double figures meant it was a balanced effort, but Derrick White's 12-point, four-assist, three-rebound, two-steal effort stands out because of it's versatility. . . . Wesley Gordon was his usual force on the boards, finishing with nine rebounds, and he also had four assists. . . . Tony Miller had eight rebounds, with five coming on the offensive boards. . . . Fortune's 10-for-10 night from the free throw line helped the Buffs go 28-for-35 from the line.

KEY STATISTICS: The Buffs had three consecutive defensive stops on seven different occasions in the first half, a statistic that Boyle loves to see. . . . The Buffs' emphasis on rebounding continues to pay dividends, and Thursday's 49-37 edge was no different, as it helped produce 19 second-chance points. . . . The Buffs also had more assists (14) than turnovers (12), a ratio that Boyle would no doubt like to see improve, but one that is still one the Buffs can live with.

BOULDER – A sub-par night offensively and from the free throw line, plus a stifling Colorado State defense, made Wednesday night a miserable one for the Colorado Buffaloes at the Coors Events Center.

The Rams rolled over the Buffs 72-58, handing CU its second loss of the season (5-2) and snapping a 12-game winning streak at the SEC.

CSU (6-1) made 17 of its first 18 free throw attempts, finishing 26-of-33, while CU was 17-of-31 from the foul line (54.8 percent) and only 19-of-59 (a season-low 32.2 percent) from the field.

Derrick White led the Buffs with 17 points and Wesley Gordon added 11 points, nine rebounds and three blocked shots. CSU had four players in double figures, topped by Emmanuel Omogbo's 15.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs led by as many as six points on two occasions in the first half, the last being 17-11 on a baseline drive and basket by Thomas Akayzili.

But the Rams didn't roll over. Instead, behind nine points by Omogbo, they reeled off an 11-2 run and finally overtook the Buffs 24-21 on Omogbo's only third trey of the season. CU would trail the rest of the night.

CSU's lead grew to 30-25 – its largest of the first half – on two free throws by 6-11 freshman Nico Carvalho with :58 seconds left before intermission.

Tory Miller brought the Buffs to within 30-27 with 17.9 seconds left in the half on a lay-in. But he missed a free throw that would have given him a 3-point and pulled CU to within a basket at the half.

Instead, the Buffs trailed 30-27, and they could point to 2-of-7 free throw shooting and disjointed offensive play (11-of-25 from the field, 44 percent) compounded by nine turnovers (14 for the night) as the main culprits.

Tad Boyle called his team's 14 missed free throws "a big factor tonight. It started in the first half and it bled over to the second half. That could have gotten us back into the game, maybe tied the score or got us a lead."

The Rams regained their five-point advantage (32-27) on a driving layup by Carvalho to open the second half. And Carvalho wasn't done. With the shot clock dwindling to 2 seconds, he drained a 3-pointer that preceded another trey by Omogbo and a layup by Prentiss Nixon.

Suddenly, CSU was up 40-31 with 15:57 remaining. And CU had one second-half field goal – a stuff by Xavier Johnson – and a pair of free throws. The Rams were on a 10-4 run and weren't slowing down – or at that point being slowed down.

Over the next 5:30 CU outscored the visitors 9-2 and crept to within 42-40 on a conventional 3-point play by Akayzili, who was fouled on a layup.

But by the half's halfway point, the Rams maintained a 46-40 lead and the Buffs were still struggling at the free throw line.

There was time enough for CU to pull it together, but a spark was needed. Gordon tried to provide it with a put-back (48-44) but he missed a free throw and yet another 3-point play opportunity slipped away.

The Rams increased their lead to seven points – 56-49 – on a pair of free throws by junior college transfer Che Bob with 4:35 remaining. White connected on a pair of foul shots 15 seconds later, reducing the Buffs' deficit to 56-51.

But Bob hit one of two free throws – his miss was CSU's first of the night after hitting 18 in a row – for another six-point Rams lead (57-51). The Buffs had 3:53 to make their comeback and avoid their first homecourt loss of the season.

A 3-pointer from the left wing by Wesley Paige with just over 3 minutes to play, one of two free throws by Bob and a layup by Devocio Butler pushed CSU's lead to 12 points – 63-51.

The Rams would push their lead to 16 with 1:08 remaining, and the night was all but over for the Buffs.

PORTLAND – The Colorado Buffaloes rediscovered their offensive abilities and ratcheted up their defense in the second half here Saturday night and downed Portland 76-63 at the Chiles Center.

Shaking off the ill effects of a 72-58 home loss to rival Colorado State on Wednesday night, the Buffs (6-2) rallied from a 30-28 halftime deficit by outscoring the Pilots (4-3) 48-33 in the second half.

Four CU players scored in double figures, including Xavier Johnson (19), Josh Fortune (14), Derrick White (13) and George King (12).

Portland was led by Jazz Johnson (18) and Alec Wintering (17). After hitting only 32 percent from the field against CSU, the Buffs shot just 37 percent in the first half Saturday night and missed all seven of their treys. From 3-point range against the Rams, the Buffs hit only 16 percent.

A shooting about face was needed – and CU got it in Saturday night's second half. The Buffs shot 50 percent from the field (14-of-28) and hit five of their dozen 3-point attempts (42 percent).

HOW IT HAPPENED: CU opened by hitting just three of its first dozen shots, including 0-of-3 from long range – a continuation of the offensive problems the Buffs suffered in their home loss four nights earlier to CSU.

And their accuracy didn't get much better; they finished the first 0-of-7 from beyond the arc and hitting just 37 percent (11-of-30) from the field.

Still, they trailed only 30-28 at intermission but closing to that margin required a 7-0 run that helped bring them back from a 20-13 deficit and pulled them to within two.

That run was fueled by three free throws by Johnson and baskets by Fortune and King. A Tory Miller put-back in the final minute produced CU's two-point deficit at the break.

Jazz Johnson opened the second-half scoring with a trey, increasing the Pilots' lead to 33-28. But the Buffs were finally about to regain their shooting touches.

Two-point baskets by King and White, followed by an "XJ" trey gave CU a 34-33 lead – its first since 10-8 – and the Buffs wouldn't relinquish it.

Of their next four field goals, two were treys – Bryce Peters, Fortune – that pushed the Buffs ahead 43-37. The Pilots stayed within four to six points until a Fortune 3-pointer capped a 15-4 run and opened CU's largest lead of the night at 14 points (66-52). The Pilots got no closer than nine points the rest of the way.

Wesley Gordon grabbed 10 rebounds but was only 2-of-5 from the field. He didn't score his first points until 10:26 remained, but his conventional three-point play – he was fouled on a put-back – gave CU a 50-45 advantage at a critical second-half juncture.

TURNING POINT: Trailing 30-28 at the half, the Buffs put together a 15-4 second-half run and pulled away. CU hit five 3-pointers in the second half after going 0-for-7 from beyond the arc in the first half.

KEY STATISTICS: The Buffs shot only 43 percent from the field for the game, but hit half of their second-half field goal attempts (14-of-28) . . . They outrebounced the Pilots 38-28 and held them to 38 percent shooting in the second half (40 percent for the game).

WHAT IT MEANS: A bounce-back game was needed after the disappointing home loss to the Rams, and the Buffs managed to get it in their first true road game of the season. It should give them momentum and a shot of confidence as they head into the final two games of a crucial non-conference stretch.
