by just under nine boards per game. Defensively, Colorado has held the opposition to 63.5 points per game. Opposing teams are hitting 26.3 percent from 3-point range and 37 percent overall. The Buffaloes lead the Pac-12 Conference in offensive rebounds (13.8 oppg) while ranking second in overall rebounds (43.7 rpg), 3-point percentage (.389) and 3-point defense.

Depth and balance have been a key for Colorado. Four Buffaloes are averaging double-digits in scoring while six more are averaging between four and seven an outing. Four players have at least five rebounds per game while five have at least six assists. In the season-opening win over Sacramento State, 10 of 12 players who suited up scored. All 10 players scored between six and 12 points and seven different Buffaloes hit a 3-pointer.

Senior Derrick White is averaging 13.7 points, 3.8 rebounds and 3.8 assists per game while hitting a team-best 56.9 percent from the field. White was named to the Legends Classic All-Tournament team averaging 18.0 points, 5.5 assists and 5.0 rebounds, shooting 54 percent against Notre Dame and Texas. He scored 20 points and dished out a team-season high nine assists against the Fighting Irish. The nine assists are the most by a Buffalo since Askia Booker had 12 against UCLA on Feb. 13, 2014. White had a team-high 16 points with 5 rebounds, 2 assists, 2 steals and 2 blocks against Texas.

White is seventh in field goal percentage, eighth in assists, ninth in steals and 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.5) on the Pac-12 charts.

Xavier Johnson has taken over the team scoring lead at 15.0 points per game while ranking third in rebounds at 6.3. He averaged 19 points over his three games last week, putting in a pair of 20-point performances. Johnson matched a career high with a team season-best 27 points against Wofford. He also had a season-high 12 rebounds against the Terriers, logging his seventh career double-double. Johnson had a game-high 23 points in the Legends Classic semifinal against Notre Dame.

On the Pac-12 leaderboard, Johnson ranks sixth in 3-point percentage (.462), 18th in scoring and 20th in rebounding. He has shot 54 percent (20-of-37) over the last three games including 5-of-9 (.556) from 3-point range.

George King is third on the team in scoring at 11.3 points per game and second in rebounding at 7.0 per contest. King had a fantastic Legends Classic, recording back-to-back double-doubles and averaging 14.5 points and 13.0 rebounds over the two-day series. The double-doubles are the second and third of his career. King had a personal-best 13 rebounds in both contests. He scored 17 points against Notre Dame while pitching in 12 in the win over Texas. King had 10 rebounds in the first half alone against Texas.

King is 10th in 3-point percentage (.450), 13th in defensive rebounds (5.2 drpg) and 15th in overall rebounds on the Pac-12 leaderboard. He hit all four of his field goal attempts against Wofford en route to 10 points, lifting his overall season field goal percentage to right at 50 percent (26-of-52).

Guard Josh Fortune is Colorado's fourth double digit scorer at 10.0 points per game while leading the Buffaloes in free throw percentage (.920), ranking second in steals (6) and assists (11). He's had a great start from the foul line hitting 23-of-25 attempts. Fortune was a perfect 10-of-10 from the line against ULM, the program's best performance without a miss since Askia Booker was 14-of-14 against DePaul on Dec. 22, 2014.

Fortune is third in the Pac-12 in free throw percentage and has made his last 17, the best stretch on the team this season.

FORT COLLINS — Two true road games, two double-digit deficits — and two victories.

It might not be a formula that's good for Colorado head coach Tad Boyle's heart, but it's one that's worked twice this year for his Buffaloes.

Sunday, the 7-1 Buffs stamped back from a 52-39 halftime deficit to claim an 88-77 win over rival Colorado State in front of a sold-out Moby Arena crowd, the largest crowd the Buffs have seen this season.

It was virtually a carbon copy of the Buffs' only other true road game this year, a 91-84 victory at Auburn. In that one, the Buffs withstood a withering 3-point barrage early and overcome a 44-29 deficit to record the win.

Sunday produced the same results. The Rams blistered the nets from 3-point range in the first half to take 13-point lead into the locker room before the Buffs clamped down in the second half, giving up just 25 points after yielding 52 before intermission.

CU senior Josh Scott made his final appearance against the Rams one to remember. After totaling just 12 points — combined — in his first three games vs. CSU, Scott tallied a 21-point, 11-rebound double-double, with 13 points and seven of those rebounds coming after the half. His frontline mate, junior Wesley Gordon, contributed a 15-point, 12-rebound double-double — including his first two 3-pointers of the season — and Josh Fortune added 16 points, six assists and a pair of rebounds.

For 20 minutes, though, it appeared as if the Buffs' difficulties in Moby Arena — they'd lost two of the last three in Fort Collins — would continue, as the Rams controlled the tempo and the scoreboard. Led by 16 first-half points from John Gillon and 13 from Gian Clavell, CSU blistered the nets in the first half, hitting nearly 60 percent of its field goals (19-for-32) and 70 percent of its 3-pointers (7-for-10).

The Buffs, meanwhile, went cold after a hot start and connected on just 12 of their 29 field goal attempts to head into the locker room trailing by 13 at the half.

After combining for 34 points in the opening half, Gillon and Clavell scored just five after intermission, with Gillon going scoreless.

The Buffs, meanwhile, began working the ball inside more and the payoff was 13 points from Scott and 12 from Gordon in the final 20 minutes.

Not all of Gordon's points, however, came inside. CU's 6-9 junior opened the half by draining a 3-pointer, sparking a 15-1 CU run that erased CSU's lead and gave the Buffs their first edge, 54-53, since early in the first half. Gordon added a second 3-pointer in the run while Scott had a traditional 3-point play and George King added four points.

The Rams, meanwhile, went stone cold from the floor, missing seven field goal attempts in a row.

CU extended its lead to five midway through the second half before the Rams made one final push, getting a 3-pointer from J.D. Paige at the 9:17 mark to tie the game at 68-68.

But after a three-minute scoreless stretch by both teams, Scott started a 15-4 CU run with a layup inside as the Buffs took firm control. Scott had eight points in the run, Gordon added four and Fortune had a huge three-point play off an offensive rebound. A Dom Collier layup with 1:49 left put the Buffs 82-73 and sent the Moby Arena crowd to the exits.

After their 19-for-32 first half from the field, the Rams hit just seven of 32 field goal tries in the second, as CU's defense ramped up a notch. The Buffs, meanwhile, shot 19-for-37 after intermission.

Along with balanced scoring — the Buffs had five players in double figures — CU also held a 42-36 edge on the boards and finished with 18 assists and just seven turnovers. Collier led CU with seven assists and had just one turnover. Tre'Shaun Fletcher, meanwhile, finished with 11 points and King added 10.

Wesley Gordon tops Colorado and ranks fifth in the Pac-12 Conference in rebounding at 9.5 per game. Gordon is pitching in 6.7 points per game while leading the squad in blocks (7) and third in assists (11). After being held to three blocks in his first four games, he has four in the last two, allowing him to climb into sole possession of second place on CU's all-time list at 163.

He has corralled at least nine rebounds in 5-of-6 games with his averaging upping to 10.6 over those contests. Gordon recorded his 11th career double-double with 11 points and 14 rebounds against Seattle U. He hit double-figures in rebounding for the 22nd time in his career and this marked the seventh time he has recorded two or more straight games with double-digits (includes two stretches of three straight).

Sophomore Thomas Akyazili is second on the team in assists (2.8 apg) while scoring 4.3 points per contest. He scored six points in the win over Texas hitting 3-of-4 shots. Akyazili dished out a career-best six assists in the season-opener against Sacramento State.

Junior Tory Miller is third on the team in blocks (5) and fourth in rebounds (5.0 rpg) while pitching in 5.8 points an outing. He had a season-high 10 points against ULM, the ninth double-figure scoring game of his career. He also added his first career 3-pointer (in five attempts) against Sacramento State.

Dominique Collier has missed the last four games with a foot injury. He had a team-high 12 points in the opener against Sacramento State, hitting 4-of-6 from 3-point range. He saw limited minutes in the game against Seattle U due to that injury.

Freshmen Lucas Siewert and Deleon Brown had successful debuts against Sacramento State, both finishing with nine points. Siewert, a 6-10 forward, made all three of his shots from beyond the arc and had five rebounds. Brown, was 3-of-4 from the floor and dished out an assist. Bryce Peters, made is collegiate debut against ULM scoring his first career points on a dunk off a fast break. He finished with 9 points, 3 rebounds and a game-high 3 steals.

TICKETED FOR REDSHIRT: The Buffaloes are planning to redshirt two freshmen. Dallas Walton, a 7-0 forward and Alexander Strating a 6-7 forward. Walton earned All-Jefferson County Conference first team honors for Arvada (Colo.) West High School in 2015-16. Strating hails from the Netherlands and played for the Canarias Basketball Academy in Spain last year. Those plans could change early in the season if needed, but not later.

Namon Wright, a 6-5 guard, will sit out the 2016-17 season after transferring from Missouri and will have two years of eligibility remaining. He averaged 8.2 points and 3.8 rebounds and made 79 3-pointers in 61 games with the Tigers.

ABOUT THE RAMS: Colorado State is 5-1 overall and winners of its last three. This will be just the second road game of the season for the Rams, who fell 56-49 at Stanford in their lone contest away from Fort Collins to date. CSU averages 70 points per game while shooting 42 percent from the field. The Rams have enjoyed a plus-10 rebounding advantage over the opposition, pulling down 43 boards a contest. Defensively, Colorado State is giving up just 62 points per game while holding opponents to 36 percent from the floor.

Senior forward Emmanuel Omogbo leads Colorado State at 13.5 points and 12.3 rebounds per game. The reigning Mountain West Conference Player of the Week, Omogbo is shooting 45 percent from the field and is second on the team in assists at 2.0 per game. Sophomore guard J.D. Paige leads the Rams in assists at 4.2 per contest while ranking second in scoring at 11.0 an outing. Junior forward Che Bob leads CSU in steals (7) while pitching in 10.8 points and 7.2 rebounds per game.

Larry Eustachy is in his fifth season at Colorado State with a record of 92-49. He is 494-307 in 26 years as a collegiate head coach.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be the 127th meeting between Colorado and Colorado State with the Buffaloes holding a commanding 89-37 lead. Colorado's 89 wins over CSU are the most against any one team in program history. The Buffaloes are 53-9 all-time against Colorado State in Boulder. However, the Rams claimed the last meeting at the base of the Flatirons, a 62-60 squeaker on Dec. 10, 2014. Colorado extracted some revenge by defeating the Rams on their home floor, 88-77, on Dec. 6, 2015.

Tad Boyle is 6-4 against Colorado State as a head coach; 4-2 with Colorado and 2-2 while at Northern Colorado. Larry Eustachy is 7-8 all-time against Colorado; 1-3 with Colorado State and 6-5 while at Iowa State (1998-03).

RIGHT AT HOME: Colorado has won 12 straight in the friendly confines of the Coors Events Center and 22 of its last 23 overall.

The Buffaloes have won 14 straight at home against non-league opponents. When Pac-12 play begins, Colorado will bring an eight-game win streak against league opposition at home, tied for the 12th best run in team history.

In the Tad Boyle era, Colorado is a sparkling 92-15 at the Coors Events Center (.860). The Buffaloes are 405-166 (.709) all-time at the CEC, picking up win No. 400 in style as Colorado defeated No. 9/10 ranked Arizona 75-72 in front of the third-largest crowd in facility history (11,309) on Feb. 24, 2016.

GRAND ACHIEVEMENTS: Xavier Johnson became the 33rd player to score 1,000 points at Colorado on Nov. 14, but two other players are approaching unique milestones of their own.

Senior Derrick White is six points from reaching 2,000 for his collegiate career. White scored 1,912 points in three seasons at UCCS (2012-15). Senior Josh Fortune needs 108 points to reach 1,000 in his collegiate career. Fortune scored 481 points in two years at Providence College (2012-14) and has 411 in 40 games at Colorado.

4 OF A KIND: Colorado sports an unusual occurrence with four fifth-year seniors on its roster, each traveling a different path to get to this point.

Wesley Gordon has taken the most traditional five-year route. He took a redshirt season his true freshman year as Colorado was loaded in the front court led by Andre Roberson currently with Oklahoma City of the NBA. Gordon is among Colorado's all-time leaders in rebounds and blocked shots.

Xavier Johnson played his first three seasons (2012-15) before an Achilles injury derailed his 2015-16 season. Johnson has been a steady performer, averaging double-digits over his three years and joining the 1,000-point club on Nov. 14 against Seattle U.

Josh Fortune is the mid-career transfer. After two years at Providence College, helping the Friars to the 2014 Big East title, Fortune transferred to Colorado and sat out the 2014-15 season. He was a key contributor to Colorado's NCAA Tournament run as a junior ranking third on the team in scoring.

Derrick White will get his one-year shot in Boulder this year. White played his first three years at NCAA Division II UCCS, earning All-America honors. He practiced with the Buffaloes last year as a redshirt.

Additionally, the Buffaloes also have a fourth-year junior in George King, the reigning Pac-12 Most Improved Player of the Year.

BOYLE MOVES INTO WINNING PERCENTAGE LEAD: Tad Boyle has hovered right around the school's all-time winning percentage lead since the early portion of the 2015-16 season (minimum two seasons), reclaimed that top spot with CU's 89-70 win over ULM on Nov. 17. Boyle, who has won 62.5 percent of his games with Colorado (135-81), is just ahead of CU Athletic Hall of Fame coach Forrest "Frosty" Cox who was 147-89 (.623) in 13 seasons between 1936-50. Boyle is 191-147 in his 11th year as a collegiate head coach.

IN THE POLLS: Colorado received votes for the fourth straight week by both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' Polls on Nov. 28. The Buffs have a little more with the coaches vote with 15 points compared to one in the AP Poll.

Six 2016-17 opponents have been or currently are ranked in one of the Top 25 polls including Oregon, UCLA, Arizona and Xavier who have each made a Top 10 appearance this year. Texas was ranked in both polls before dropping out Nov. 28. California had a one-week run at No. 25 in the AP poll.

AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: Colorado claimed a win in its first game against a ranked opponent this season with its 68-54 win over No. 22/21 Texas on Nov. 22. It was Colorado's first win over a ranked nonconference opponent since its 75-72 win over No. 6/7 Kansas on Dec. 7, 2013. It was Colorado's first win over a ranked opponent away from Boulder since a 76-53 win over No. 19 Oregon on March 7, 2013. Colorado was 1-5 against ranked teams in 2015-16.

Colorado's 13 wins over ranked opponents in Boyle's six-plus seasons is by far the best streak in team history. In fact Boyle coached teams, with a record of 13-24, have accounted for 23 percent of wins over ranked opponents (57) since 1949-50.

FOR OPENERS: Colorado improved to 90-24 all-time in home openers and has won its last nine, making Boyle a perfect 7-0 in home openers. The Buffaloes have won 14 of their last 15. Colorado is 79-35 (.693) in all-time season openers. The Buffaloes are 5-2 under Boyle. The Buffaloes are 32-5 in overall season openers since the 1980-81 season.

Colorado's 90 points against Sacramento State were its most in a season opener since defeating Cal Poly 97-69 to begin the 2002-03 season. The 37-point margin of victory in a season-opener tied for the largest in team history, matching only a 54-17 win at Denver on Jan. 29, 1903, the second season of the program.

LONG WAIT OVER: Two Colorado seniors made their long-awaited debuts at the Coors Events Center in the season opener.

BOULDER – The Colorado Buffaloes shot down Sacramento State 90-53 on Friday night at the Coors Events Center, opening the 2016-17 men's basketball season with an impressive display of long-range shooting and overall balance.

CU, which shot 38.9 percent from 3-point range last season, hit 13 of its 21 3-point attempts (61.9 percent) and finished opening night at 53.3 percent overall from the field (32-of-60).

Dominique Collier (12 points), Josh Fortune (11) and George King (10) reached double figures on a night when 10 of Tad Boyle's 12 players who suited up scored.

Collier, coming off the bench, hit four of his six 3-point attempts while 6-10 freshman Lucas Siewert made all three of his shots from beyond the arc.

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs rolled to a 23-point halftime lead (42-19), shooting 48.3 percent (14-of-29) from the field while holding the Hornets to 20.6 percent (7-of-34).

CU took a 3-0 lead on Derrick White's trey – the first field goal attempt of his Buffs career – and steadily pulled away over the next 8 minutes. White, who sat out last season after transferring from UCCS, finished the half with a team-high seven points and nine for the night.

Boyle said White "was about 70 percent" after suffering a twisted ankle in a midweek practice and Collier also was recovering from a foot injury.

Boyle used 10 players in the first half and nine of them scored. He cleared his bench in the final minutes.

The Buffs opened their first double-figure lead (16-6) on a 3-pointer by Fortune with just under 12:30 to play in the opening half. Fortune's trey was one of seven in the first half by CU, as the Buffs shot 63.6 percent (7-of-11) from behind the arc.

From that point, CU increased its lead to 17 points on two occasions before a layup by White at the first-half buzzer produced the 23-point bulge at intermission.

The Buffs kept up the pressure in the second half, building a 73-36 advantage with 7:47 remaining and coasting to their final margin. The Hornets never led and managed just one early tie.

TURNING POINT: After a 6-6 tie, the Buffs went on an 18-1 run to go up 24-7. CU hit four of its seven first-half treys during that surge, with Collier, Fortune, Tony Miller and DeLeon Brown knocking down the four long-range shots.

CU STANDOUTS: Collier – 12 points (4-of-6 3-pointers); Fortune – 11 points (4-of-5 from the field, 2-of-2 3-pointers); Wes Gordon – 12 rebounds, 7 points; White – 9 points, 4 assists; George King – 10 points; Thomas Akyazili, 8 points, 6 assists.

KEY STATISTICS: The Buffs held the Hornets to seven first-half field goals in 34 attempts (20.6 percent) in building a 23-point halftime lead. Sac State's final shooting percentage was 29.4 percent (20-of-68) . . . CU finished with 20 assists on 32 made field goals and committed only 10 turnovers . . . The Buffs outrebounded the Hornets 47-40 but Boyle wasn't pleased with Sac State's 17 offensive rebounds.

WHAT IT MEANS: The best thing to be gleaned from most openers is a 'W' – and that's what the Buffs took from this one. But that was far from the lone takeaway; Boyle's seventh CU team offered plenty of opening-night upside. It demonstrated depth, athleticism and every bit of the offensive firepower that was expected. As always, though, Boyle's emphasis in the coming weeks will be on ratcheting up his defense and board work.

BOULDER — On a night when the Colorado Buffaloes' shooting deserted them, they were forced to fall back on the principles that head coach Tad Boyle holds sacred above all others: defense and rebounding.

Those came through, and they proved to be just enough to produce a 67-55 win Monday over visiting Seattle in the first round of the Legends Classic.

Colorado improved to 2-0 with the win.

HOW IT HAPPENED: One game after shooting a blistering 13-for-21 from 3-point range in a 90-53 win over Sacramento State, CU hit just 19 of its 53 field goal tries, including a 3-for-18 night from 3-point range.

But while their shots weren't falling, the Buffs still commanded a 55-35 edge on the boards and their defense provided a 36-24 scoring edge in the second half.

Wesley Gordon had a 14-rebound, 11-point double-double — the 11th of his career — and Derrick White scored a game-high 15 points to go with six rebounds. Xavier Johnson added 13 points and six rebounds for the Buffs and Josh Fortune finished with 12 points and seven rebounds.

"That was the definition of winning ugly," head coach Tad Boyle said.

Indeed, the Buffs never seemed to find their offensive groove for any length of time. But after falling behind 33-31 early in the second half, Colorado put together a 16-2 run to take a lead the Buffs would never relinquish.

George King started the surge with a 3-pointer — CU's first of the night after an 0-for-9 stretch — to give CU a 47-35 lead with 12:48 to go in the game.

CU's defense also stepped up in that stretch, as the Buffs collected four blocked shots and four steals along with forcing eight straight missed shots by the Redhawks.

The Redhawks, though, wouldn't go away and slowly chipped away at the lead. A Brendan Westendorf 3-pointer and free throw with 5:40 to go cut CU's edge to 54-51, and it took a White free throw and back-to-back 3-pointers from Fortune to give the Buffs some breathing room down the stretch.

Fortune's second 3-pointer gave the Buffs a 61-53 lead with just 2:50 to go and they held the Seahawks at bay in the final minutes.

While the Buffs were no doubt cold offensively, their defense produced the same effect on the Redhawks. Seattle hit just 19 of its 63 field goal attempts, including a 6-for-32 effort from 3-point range.

The scoring difference came at the free throw line. Colorado shot 41 free throws and needed every attempt, as the Buffs hit just 26 of those tries. White, a career 83 percent free throw shooter at UC-Colorado Springs, was an uncharacteristic 3-for-8 from the line.

Colorado's shooting wasn't the only sore spot for the Buffs. One game after committing just 10 turnovers against Sacramento State, the Buffs had 19 miscues, which the Redhawks converted into 13 points.

TURNING POINT: After the Redhawks opened the second half with a bucket to take a 33-31 lead, the Buffs went on a 16-2 run, started by a George King 3-pointer. CU never trailed again.

CU STANDOUTS: Gordon had his 11th career double-double, a 14-rebound, 11-point effort that included six offensive boards. . . . White had 15 points, six rebounds, two assists, a block and a steal. . . . Fortune had 12 points and seven rebounds. . . . Johnson had 13 points and six rebounds.

KEY STATISTICS: The Buffs had a dominating 55-35 edge on the boards, which included 19 offensive rebounds that produced 16 second-chance points. . . . Colorado also shot 41 free throws compared to Seattle's 14, and the Buffs hit 26 of those free throws.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Buffs improved to 2-0, but more importantly, learned that Boyle's insistence on rebounding and defense is something that will pay dividends when the shots aren't falling.

BROOKLYN, N.Y. – Down by 15 points at halftime, the Colorado Buffaloes gamely battled back but couldn't overtake Notre Dame, losing 89-83 on Monday night in the semifinals of the Legends Classic at the Barclays Center.

CU, losing for the first time this season (3-1), closed to within four points twice in the final minute. Notre Dame (4-0) held off the Buffs by making 12 consecutive free throws in the final 1:33 and finished 27-of-29 for the game.

Xavier Johnson led the Buffs with 23 points, with Derrick White adding 20. The Irish had four players in double figures, headed by Bonzie Colson's 22 and Matt Farrell's 20.

HOW IT HAPPENED: CU didn't have an early defensive answer for Notre Dame's high-powered offense, and losing Wesley Gordon to a pair of quick fouls only exacerbated the Buffs' problems.

En route to hitting half of their 12 3-point attempts and shooting 54.5 percent from the field overall in the first half, the Fighting Irish opened their first double-digit lead (24-13) on a 3-pointer by V.J. Beachem. It was part of a 9-0 run that earned Notre Dame a 28-14 advantage.

The Buffs pulled to within 10 (38-28) on a 3-point play by White and two free throws by Deleon Brown with 4:02 left before the break. But the rest of the half belonged to the Irish. A 10-2 run opened their largest lead (48-30) of the game and by intermission they were still up 50-35.

Johnson and White had 9 first-half points each for the Buffs, who made only two of their eight 3-point attempts and shot 37.1 percent overall from the floor. CU finished at 42 percent from the field and 31.8 percent from beyond the arc.

The Buffs needed an explosive second-half start and at least got a glimmer of one. Finally back on the floor after only 3 first-half minutes, Gordon scored the first points of the final, and White followed with a trey. The Buffs were back to within 10 (50-40), but they needed to match that start on the defensive end.

Easier said than done. . . . A 6-0 run pushed Notre Dame's lead to 56-40 and CU's goal of at least reducing its deficit to single digits halfway through the half was looking grim. But the Buffs weren't done.

At the 10-minute mark Steve Vasturia used a head fake at the free throw line to blow by his defender and score a layup that gave the Irish a 66-51 lead.

The Buffs answered quickly, getting back-to-back 3-pointers from freshman Bryce Peters and Johnson to creep to within 9 points (66-57) – their first single-digit deficit since 21-14.

The Irish responded with 5 quick points, the last 3 on a conventional three-point play by Beachem, who dunked on a baseline drive and was fouled. Notre Dame led 71-57 – and CU returned to catch-up mode.

This time the Buffs appeared serious about it. An 8-0 spurt – a field goal and two free throws by Johnson, a jumper from the left wing and two foul shots by Peters – pulled them to within 71-65 with 4:19 remaining.

CU finally got the deficit to 4 (81-77) on a 3-pointer from the left corner by George King with 45.5 seconds left and closed to 4 (85-81) once more on another basket by King. But the Irish stayed steady at the free throw line and closed it out.

TURNING POINT: After battling back from a 15-point halftime deficit to pull to within 4 points in the final minute the Buffs couldn't get over the hump, held off by 12 consecutive free throws by the Irish in the final 1:33.

KEY STATISTIC: The Irish shot 50 percent from beyond the arc and 54.5 percent from the field overall in the first half, digging a 15-point halftime hole for the Buffs.

WHAT IT MEANS: CU discovered what it takes to compete with and defeat a tested, talented team like Notre Dame. That would be 40 minutes – not 20 – of focus and intensity.

BROOKLYN, N.Y. – Tad Boyle's Colorado Buffaloes bounced back from their first loss of the season in fine fashion.

One day after falling to Notre Dame, 89-83, in the Legends Classic semifinals at the Barclays Center, the Buffs rebounded Tuesday to knock off No. 22 Texas, 68-54, to improve to 4-1.

Once again, the Buffs received excellent performances from junior George King and senior Derrick White. King turned in his second-straight double-double with 12 points and 13 rebounds, coming on the heels of his 17-point, 13-rebound effort against the Irish. White followed up a 20-point, nine-assist, five-rebound effort Monday to log 16 points, five rebounds, two blocks, two assists and two steals in Tuesday's win.

The Buffs held the Longhorns to 36.8 percent shooting (21-for-57) while carving out a 43-32 rebounding edge. The Buffs also shot 44 percent from the floor (29-for-66) a had 13 turnovers.

HOW IT HAPPENED: After leading by as much as 11 in the first half and by 12 with just under eight minutes to play, Colorado withstood a late Texas surge to come away with the win.

The Buffs led by nine at the half, 33-24, and pushed the cushion to 12 on a King 3-pointer with 7:53 to go, 52-40.

Texas, though, wouldn't go away. The Longhorns employed a full-court press and slowly chipped away at the CU lead, putting together and 11-2 run to cut CU's lead to 54-51 with 5:12 still to go on a pair of Jarret Allen free throws.

Colorado never allowed Texas to completely close the gap. Buckets from Josh Fortune and Wesley Gordon bumped CU's lead back up to seven, then after a Texas basket, Colorado put together a 7-0 run to ice the game. Fortune hit two free throws and a White 3-pointer with 2:39 remaining pushed CU's lead back to double-digits, 63-53, and the Longhorns never took it back to single digits again.

The Buffs took a 33-24 lead into the locker room at intermission after King had a seven-point, 10-rebound first half.

Following a Fortune 3-pointer at the 16:30 mark of the first half that gave the Buffs a 7-4 lead, CU extended the margin to 12-7 before the Longhorns battled back to tie the game at 12-12.

CU, however, responded with an 8-0 run and never relinquished the lead. White started the drive with a baseline drive before Xavier Johnson grabbed a loose ball under the basket and scored. Thomas Akyazili then had a pair of coast-to-coast layups, giving CU a 20-12 lead and forcing Texas to call time out.

Colorado extended the margin to as much as 11, going up 31-20 on a King three-point play and again at 33-22 on a King bucket before the Longhorns closed the gap with a basket at the buzzer to make the halftime count 33-24.

TURNING POINT: Just after Texas had closed CU's lead to 54-51 with an 11-2 run, the Buffs got back-to-back buckets from Fortune and Wesley Gordon to create a 7-point cushion with 3:29 to go.

CU STANDOUTS: Derrick White had a solid all-around game on both ends of the floor, finishing with 16 points, five rebounds, two blocks, two assists and two steals. . . . King's second straight double-double was the third of his career, as he finished the Legends Classic with 29 points and 26 rebounds in two games. . . . Fortune had 11 points, three rebounds and an assist.

KEY STATISTICS: For the fourth time in five games this season, the Buffs had a commanding rebounding edge, 43-32.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Buffs return home after a 1-1 performance in the Legends Classic with a much better idea of how they stack up against NCAA Tournament-caliber teams and what they need to improve on.
