Lived in Ecuador, China, Australia, Spain and the Netherlands. Has an International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma from the American School of the Hague in the Netherlands. Is fluent in three languages. Selected CU because "the location, campus and academic reputation of the school, together with the possibility to play basketball in a strong conference like the Pac-12 under a top coach like Tad Boyle, formed a combination that no other interested school could match." Says biggest moment in prep career was playing well as a European player at the Prep Showcase in New Haven, Conn. in front of so many college coaches. Will try to combine business and engineering in school and a future career.

EVAN BATTEY

F • 6-8 • 264 • Fr. • RS View Park, Calif. (Villa Park) 2[

2017-18 (Freshman): Sat out the season as an academic redshirt in the Colorado basketball program. The NCAA mandated the redshirt for Battey after he did not meet the initial eligibility requirement of graduating from high school within four years. Battey was a full participant in team activities, although he suffered a stroke in December which kept him from working out on the court during the second half of the season. He was the co-winner, along with George King, of the inaugural Tebo Family P.A.S.S. Award, recognizing the virtues of Perseverance, Attitude, Selflessness and Success. Cleared both athletically and academically, Battey played his first competitive basketball in more than two years in August 2018, traveling with the USA East Coast Team for a four-game tour of Italy.

High School: A 2017 graduate of Villa Park High School in the Los Angeles area. He was an All-Orange County and All-Crestview League selection as a junior in 2015-16, averaging 24 points a game for the Spartans including a 44-point effort, second-best in a single game in school history. ESPN had him rated as the No. 17 post player in the nation and 11th best player overall in the state of California. Rivals listed him as the 122nd best player in the nation while Scout had him at 132. Battey did not play basketball in 2016-17 as the California high school governing body determined he had exhausted his eight semesters of eligibility. Battey repeated the ninth grade and despite not playing in one of those years, the CIF had determined his eligibility clock had run out.

Battey stayed with Villa Park team for the 2016-17 season, serving as a player-coach for the team's big men and junior varsity. He was part of the Spartans' team that placed second at the CIF Division III state championships. This spring, Battey was recognized by the Orange County Athletic Directors Association with its Athlete of Character Award. He played his freshman and sophomore seasons at the Los Angeles Center for Enriched Studies, earning All-Western League honors both years. Battey averaged 11 points and 11 rebounds as a freshman and 20 points and 14 rebounds as a sophomore, helping the Unicorns to consecutive Division IV titles. Battey played AAU ball with the Dream Vision club program out of Los Angeles.

Academics: Battey is looking to study journalism at Colorado and also has an interest in political science and history. In April, he was recognized at Colorado's annual Student-Athlete Academic Recognition Banquet as one of two winners of the Clancy A. Herbst, Jr., Student-Athlete Achievement Award, given to those who overcome personal, academic and/or emotional challenges or difficulties to succeed both academically and athletically.

Personal: Evan Earl Battey is the son of Earl Jessey Battey III and Rosalind Lewis. He has one older sister, Taylor, who attends Oregon State. His grandfather, Earl Battey, was a four-time Major League Baseball All-Star and three-time Gold Glove winner at catcher for the Minnesota Twins during his 13-year career where he also played for the Chicago White Sox and Washington Senators. He is also related to Ed Sanders, heavyweight boxer who won a Gold Medal at the 1952 Helsinki Olympics. Battey selected Colorado because it was the best fit for him and he loved the coaches and team.

2017-18 (Freshman): Put together one of the greatest freshman seasons in program history, leading the Buffaloes at 14.2 points, 5.5 assists and 1.0 steal per game. He also topped the team in field goals made and attempted (166-368) while ranking third in rebounding (4.7 rpg) and fourth in blocks (14). Named to the 2017-18 Pac-12 Conference All-Freshman Team while earning honorable mention to both the main All-Pac-12 Team and All-Defensive Team. He set Colorado's freshman record for assists in a season with 175, breaking Chauncey Billups' mark of 143 set in 1995-96. His 175 assists are second all-time at Colorado in a season, regardless of class status. He scored 454 points, the fourth most by a freshman in CU history. His 14.2 points average ranks sixth among freshmen in one season. He became just the seventh freshman to lead the Buffaloes in scoring since 1972 and 14th to average at least 10 points in that same time frame. On the Pac-12 charts, he was third in assists, seventh in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.9) and sixth in scoring. Topped all Pac-12 freshmen in assists and assist-to-turnover ratio and was third in scoring. He was named Pac-12 Player of the Week and National Freshman of the Week (by the USBWA & CBS) after averaging 17.5 points and 7.5 assists in Colorado's back-to-back wins over No. 4/6 Arizona State (1/4) and No. 14/16 Arizona (1/6). Scored 19 points and dished out five assists against Arizona State and followed that up with 16 points and 10 assists against the Wildcats as the Buffaloes defeated AP Top 15 teams in back-to-back games for the first time in program history. He is just the second Colorado freshman to earn a conference Player of the Week Award, joining Billups who was honored by the Big Eight in December 1995. He had four double-doubles, three of the points-assists variety with the latter tying a school single-season record. Set career and team season-highs with 30 points and 11 assists in the doubleovertime win over South Dakota State (12/15). Just missed the program's fourth triple-double by pulling down nine rebounds against SDSU, ironically the only game that he came off the bench. Named MVP of the Paradise Jam - the first freshman to earn that honor - averaging 17.7 points, 6.0 assists and shooting 61 percent. Hit a game-winning 3-pointer at the buzzer during the first round win over
